

As a registered nurse working in breast cancer screening for 25 years and now as a Survivorship Nurse Navigator, I strongly believe in the need for better screening/imaging for women with dense breast tissue. By voting yes on this bill you will be offering hundreds of women a better screening tool for early breast cancer diagnosis and ultimately saving lives.