

I'm Anne Anderson

As a parent of a trans kid that lives in Ohio I am terrified for her.

Everyday there is a new committee waiting to outlaw everything and anything that has to do with trans people in general.

My daughter losing her healthcare would be beyond devastating, she is a wonderful child who is a member of the national junior honor society and deserves the same rights as every other child.

I have rights as a parent and having to get permission from your local government officials on what I should do with my daughter regarding her medical decisions is an extreme over reach.

She struggled when she was little because I didn't understand what it meant to be transgender and I was scared for her but I told her that standing in your truth is never wrong. I have heard people argue that they aren't happy after they transitioned and I'm sorry to hear that but my daughter knows who she is and has never wavered has been insistent, consistent and persistent since the age of 3.

Her truth is she is transgender and it's not something to be ashamed of so. Please stop making these kids feel like they don't know who they are, they know exactly who they are.

The question is are you listening?
