Opponent Testimony for House Bill 322

Judith B. Hofmann

State and Local Government Committee

September 20, 2021

Chairman Wiggam, Vice Chairwoman John, Ranking Member Representative Kelly, and Members of the State and Local Government Committee,

Thank you for allowing me to testify today. My name is Judith Hofmann. I am a mother, grandmother and great-grandmother and a concerned citizen. I strongly oppose HB 322.

As a person of faith and a citizen concerned about the future of education in Ohio, I oppose this bill for the following reasons:

As a member of a generation who was not exposed to true and accurate U.S. history while going through the education system, I find it shameful that sponsors and supporters of this bill endeavor to by-pass providing education that is grounded in honesty and facts. I resent the false stories and important omissions that were part of my educational curriculum years ago. As the truth continues to unfold, this movement to prohibit honesty in education in Ohio is extremely sad and a detriment to all of us. Do the proponents of this bill think American history is so shameful we have to hide it, rather than learn from it? Avoiding or hiding the truth is detrimental in the long-run whereas honesty in education provides the opportunity to develop lifelong learners and engaged citizens who are willing to address complex issues, seek collaborative solutions, and to foster a society that seeks the common good of all.

The dishonesty associated with this proposed bill reflects distrust of students to manage difficult and complex truths, distrust of families who want to heal, be included, and reconcile the realities of our nation, and distrust of educators who want to teach complete accounts of history and modern events. Furthermore, it creates distrust and disharmony among families, students, educators and communities.

As one who has suffered the effects of years of dishonest history education, I ask you to strongly consider my testimony opposing HB 322 and vote NO on this bill.

Thank you, again, for the opportunity to testify.

Respectfully submitted,

Judith B. Hofmann
