

Testimony on HB 322 and HB 327

My job as an educator is to tell OSU students the truth about American history and literature, even if it is "divisive." These bills will require that I lie to students, even by omission. Such censorship betrays our students and takes away their right to make informed decisions as citizens. It is un-American.