

The ability to rent out property enables us to afford our retirement housing and also draws tourism to our very small community. Restricting our ability to invite guests from outside of our community to visit our town only inhibits prosperity for us and our community. Please don't interfere with our ability to promote business in our small town.

Sincerely,

Kimberly Weeks