

As a short term rental host, my home allows me to earn extra income and provides suitable accommodation's for families who travel with children. In cases like these, having some place that's safe and affordable is invaluable. My neighbors have all commented on how quiet and friendly my guests have been. Less legalization for short term rentals please.

Sincerely,
Chataun Denis