

Hi, having an Airbnb has helped my family a ton. I experienced a job loss in 2022 and the only thing that produced income for my family was my short term rental. My wife was in grad school and I was jobless. Please reconsider the short term ban and think about the families. Short term rentals also allow visitors to explore our beautiful state.

Sincerely,
Derik Jones