

Hosting short term rentals has a great impact on our retirement income. We are able to supplement our otherwise fixed income with this income. We are also able to take better care of our property by having access in between stays to perform cleaning and maintenance. Our property is in a much better condition because we have short term rentals instead of long term rentals.

Sincerely,
Jennings Carpenter