

I have invested hundreds of thousands of dollars in short term rentals in Ohio. It is something my family depends on to survive and I ask you to please not do anything to jeopardize this. My houses are all properties that are the nicest house on the block. They all drive the values up in the neighborhood. Please do not change do anything to change this.

Respectfully yours,

Sincerely,

michael clifford