

I am in favor of redefining hybrid vehicles to include plug-in hybrids.

Even though it is powered by electricity, it is not fully electric and owners of such vehicles still use gas. The amount of gas they use is on par with those who own traditional hybrid vehicles. This change better classifies vehicles by gas consumption.