

To oppose the inevitable use of renewables is short sighted and will cripple Ohio in both the immediate and long-term future. I strongly oppose this bill