

To me, the bill is an environmental travesty, clearly pitting small individuals like me against greedy corporations seeking to slough off any restraints on their natural gas product. I don't want my health (I'm wheelchair-bound, living near the OSU campus, right next to a natural gas reservoir in fact) to be jeopardized just so CEOs can get richer. We must keep our ability to limit!