DANIEL J. MASSEY BIO

Dan Massey has both a BA and JD from Capital University.

Dan began his legal career with the Ohio Attorney General's Office. Following his work with the AG, he moved on to the firm of Porter Wright Morris & Arthur LLP. He has represented clients for over 30 years before both State Legislatures and the Congress. His areas of focus include insurance, financial, retirement and pension issues.

He has represented such clients as American Express, AIG, The Ohio Recordors Association and Huntington Bank, just to name a few. His broad experience both inside and outside the government make him a strong asset to his clients.

In 2013, Dan joined the firm of Murray Murphy Moul + Basil LLP where he currently practices in the area of government affairs.
