Please provide a brief statement on your position:

The Republican-proposed congressional maps fail to uphold even the basics of a fair map:

- They crack apart communities of interest.
- They are not compact.
- They are not an accurate representation of the state as a whole.
- They dilute the political power of communities of color.
- Over the past decade, Ohio has voted an average of 55% Republican. A fair map will have no more than 55% Republican seats.

- Fair district maps should reflect how Ohioans actually vote. This allows us to elect leaders who represent our values.
