

Members of the Senate Transportation Committee,

It would be a blessing if you passed Bill 283. My mother Betty Emery, who has made this request lost her brother in WWII, while he was an engineer on building a bridge and my father lost his brother also over there. This Bill is a way to honor the men and women that served out great country.

Thank you,
Rachel Burch