A BILL

To amend sections 128.32 and 128.99 and to enact 1 section 2307.68 of the Revised Code to permit 2 the subject of a false 9-1-1 report made by a 3 person for a discriminatory reason against the 4 subject of the report to bring a civil action 5 for damages against the person, and to name the 6 act Darren's Law. 7

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 128.32 and 128.99 be amended and 8 section 2307.68 of the Revised Code be enacted to read as 9 follows: 10

Sec. 128.32. (A) (1) The state, the state highway patrol, a 11 subdivision, or a regional council of governments participating 12 in a 9-1-1 system established under this chapter and any 13 officer, agent, employee, or independent contractor of the 14 state, the state highway patrol, or such a participating 15 subdivision or regional council of governments is not liable in 16 damages in a civil action for injuries, death, or loss to 17 persons or property arising from any act or omission, except 18 willful or wanton misconduct, in connection with developing, 19 adopting, or approving any final plan or any agreement made 20 under section 128.09 of the Revised Code or otherwise bringing 21 into operation the 9-1-1 system pursuant to this chapter. 22

(2) The steering committee and any member of the steering 23 committee are not liable in damages in a civil action for 24 injuries, death, or loss to persons or property arising from any 25 act or omission, except willful or wanton misconduct, in 26 connection with the development or operation of a 9-1-1 system 27 established under this chapter. 28

(B) Except as otherwise provided in this section, an 29 individual who gives emergency instructions through a 9-1-1 30 system established under this chapter, and the principals for 31 whom the person acts, including both employers and independent 32 contractors, public and private, and an individual who follows 33 emergency instructions and the principals for whom that person 34 acts, including both employers and independent contractors, 35 public and private, are not liable in damages in a civil action 36 for injuries, death, or loss to persons or property arising from 37 the issuance or following of emergency instructions, except 38 where the issuance or following of the instructions constitutes 39 willful or wanton misconduct. 40

(C) Except for willful or wanton misconduct, a telephone 41 company, and any other installer, maintainer, or provider, 42 through the sale or otherwise, of customer premises equipment, 43 or service used for or with a 9-1-1 system, and their respective 44 officers, directors, employees, agents, suppliers, corporate 45 parents, and affiliates are not liable in damages in a civil 46 action for injuries, death, or loss to persons or property 47 incurred by any person resulting from any of the following: 48

(1) Such an entity's or its officers', directors', employees', agents', or suppliers' participation in or acts or omissions in connection with participating in or developing, maintaining, or operating a 9-1-1 system;

(2) Such an entity's or its officers', directors', employees', agents', or suppliers' provision of assistance to a public utility, municipal utility, or state or local government as authorized by divisions (G) (4) and (5) of this section.

(D) Except for willful or wanton misconduct, a provider of and a seller of a prepaid wireless calling service and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, and suppliers are not liable in damages in a civil action for injuries, death, or loss to persons or property incurred by any person resulting from anything described in division (C) of this section.

(E) (1) No person shall knowingly use the telephone number of a 9-1-1 system established under this chapter to report an emergency if the person knows that no emergency exists.

(2) (a) If a person violates division (E) (1) of this section and the reason for the use of the telephone number is based on the race, color, religion, or national origin of another person who is the subject of the nonexistent emergency, the person who is the subject of the nonexistent emergency may bring a civil action for damages under section 2307.68 of the Revised Code against the person who used the telephone number under this division.

(b) Division (E) (2) (a) of this section applies to the use of the telephone number of a 9-1-1 system either by dialing that number or by texting that number.

(3) If a person knowingly uses a telephone number, other than a telephone number of a 9-1-1 system, to call for a police 78 dispatch to respond to an emergency, the person knows that no 79 emergency exists, and the reason for the call is based on the 80 race, color, religion, or national origin of another person who 81 is the subject of the nonexistent emergency, the person who is 82 the subject of the nonexistent emergency may bring a civil 83 action for damages under section 2307.68 of the Revised Code 84 against the person who used the telephone number for a call 85 under division (E) (3) of this section. 86

(F) No person shall knowingly use a 9-1-1 system for a 87 purpose other than obtaining emergency service. 88

(G) No person shall disclose or use any information 89 concerning telephone numbers, addresses, or names obtained from 90 the data base that serves the public safety answering point of a 91 9-1-1 system established under this chapter, except for any of 92 the following purposes or under any of the following 93 circumstances: 94

(1) For the purpose of the 9-1-1 system; 95

(2) For the purpose of responding to an emergency call to 96 an emergency service provider; 97

(3) In the circumstance of the inadvertent disclosure of 98 such information due solely to technology of the wireline 99 telephone network portion of the 9-1-1 system not allowing 100 access to the data base to be restricted to 9-1-1 specific 101 answering lines at a public safety answering point; 102

(4) In the circumstance of access to a data base being 103 given by a telephone company that is a wireline service provider 104 to a public utility or municipal utility in handling customer 105 calls in times of public emergency or service outages. The 106 charge, terms, and conditions for the disclosure or use of such 107 information for the purpose of such access to a data base shall 108 be subject to the jurisdiction of the steering committee. 109

(5) In the circumstance of access to a data base given by 110 a telephone company that is a wireline service provider to a 111 state and local government in warning of a public emergency, as 112 determined by the steering committee. The charge, terms, and 113 conditions for the disclosure or use of that information for the 114 purpose of access to a data base is subject to the jurisdiction 115 of the steering committee. 116

Sec. 128.99. (A) Whoever violates division (E) (1) of 117 section 128.32 of the Revised Code is guilty of a misdemeanor of 118 the fourth degree. 119

(B) Whoever violates division (F) or (G) of section 128.32 120 or division (B) (2) of section 128.60 of the Revised Code is 121 guilty of a misdemeanor of the fourth degree on a first offense 122 and a felony of the fifth degree on each subsequent offense. 123

(C) If a wireless service provider, reseller, or seller 124 violates division (B) (1) (a) of section 128.46 of the Revised 125 Code, and does not comply with any extensions granted under 126 division (B) (2) of that section, the tax commissioner may impose 127 a late-filing penalty of not more than the greater of fifty 128 dollars or five per cent of the amount required to be remitted 129 as described in division (B) (1) (b) of that section. 130

(D) If a wireless service provider, reseller, or seller 131 fails to comply with division (B) (1) (b) of section 128.46 of the 132 Revised Code, the tax commissioner may impose a late-payment 133 penalty of not more than the greater of fifty dollars or five 134 per cent of the wireless 9-1-1 charge required to be remitted 135 for the reporting period minus any partial remittance made on or 136 before the due date, including any extensions granted under 137 division (B) (2) of section 128.46 of the Revised Code. 138

(E) The tax commissioner may impose an assessment penalty 139 of not more than the greater of one hundred dollars or thirty- 140 five per cent of the wireless 9-1-1 charges due after the tax 141 commissioner notifies the person of an audit, an examination, a 142 delinquency, assessment, or other notice that additional 143 wireless 9-1-1 charges are due. 144

(F) If a wireless service provider, reseller, or seller 145 fails to comply with either electronic requirement of division 146
(B) (5) of section 128.46 of the Revised Code, the tax 147 commissioner may impose an electronic penalty, for either or 148 both failures to comply, of not more than the lesser of the 149 following: 150

(1) The greater of one hundred dollars or ten per cent of 151 the amount required to be, but not, remitted electronically; 152

(2) Five thousand dollars. 153

(G) Each penalty described in divisions (C) to (F) of this 154 section is in addition to any other penalty described in those 155 divisions. The tax commissioner may abate all or any portion of 156 any penalty described in those divisions. 157

Sec. 2307.68. (A) Any person who suffers injury or loss to 158 person or property as a result of an act described in division 159
(E) (2) or (3) of section 128.32 of the Revised Code may bring a 160 civil action against the person who engaged in that act. In such 161 an action, the person may recover all of the following: 162

(1) Full compensatory damages, including damages for 163 emotional distress; 164

(2) Punitive or exemplary damages;	165
(3) Court costs, reasonable attorneys' fees, and other	166
reasonable expenses incurred in maintaining that action.	167
(B) If the court finds in favor of the person who brought	168
the civil action under division (A) of this section, the court	169
shall order the person against whom the action was brought to	170
receive implicit bias training that is offered by the Kirwan	171
institute for the study of race and ethnicity at the Ohio state	172
university or by any local implicit bias training program as	173
determined by the court. The person shall receive the implicit	174
bias training at the earliest time that the training is offered	175
under this division. The person shall provide to the court	176
written proof that the training was completed.	177
Section 2. That existing sections 128.32 and 128.99 of the	178
Revised Code are hereby repealed.	179
Section 3. This act shall be named Darren's Law.	180
