A BILL

To amend section 3319.222 of the Revised Code to require the State Board of Education to issue temporary educator licenses to applicants with expired professional teacher's certificates and professional educator licenses.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That section 3319.222 of the Revised Code be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 3319.222. (A) Notwithstanding the amendments to and repeal of statutes by ~~the act that enacted this section~~ H.B. 1 of the 128th general assembly, the state board of education shall accept applications for new, and renewal and upgrade of, temporary, associate, provisional, and professional educator licenses, alternative educator licenses, one-year conditional teaching permits, and school nurse licenses through December 31, 2010, and issue them on the basis of the applications received by that date in accordance with the former statutes in effect immediately prior to amendment or repeal by ~~the act that enacted~~ 17

~~this section~~ H.B. 1 of the 128th general assembly. 18

(B) A permanent teacher's certificate issued under former 19 sections 3319.22 to 3319.31 of the Revised Code prior to October 20 29, 1996, or under former section 3319.222 of the Revised Code 21 as it existed prior to October 16, 2009, shall be valid for 22 teaching in the subject areas and grades for which the 23 certificate was issued, except as the certificate is limited, 24 suspended, or revoked under section 3319.31 of the Revised Code. 25

(C) The following certificates, permits, or licenses shall 26 be valid until the certificate, permit, or license expires for 27
teaching in the subject areas and grades for which the 28 certificate, permit, or license was issued, except as the 29 certificate, permit, or license is limited, suspended, or 30 revoked under section 3319.31 of the Revised Code: 31

(1) Any professional teacher's certificate issued under 32 former section 3319.222 of the Revised Code, as it existed prior 33 to October 16, 2009; 34

(2) Any temporary, associate, provisional, or professional 35 educator license issued under former section 3319.22 of the 36 Revised Code, as it existed prior to October 16, 2009, or under 37 division (A) of this section; 38

(3) Any alternative educator license issued under former 39 section 3319.26 of the Revised Code, as it existed prior to 40
October 16, 2009, or under division (A) of this section; 41

(4) Any one-year conditional teaching permit issued under 42 former section 3319.302 or 3319.304 of the Revised Code, as it 43 existed prior to October 16, 2009, or under division (A) of this 44 section. 45

(D) Any school nurse license issued under former section 3319.22 of the Revised Code, as it existed prior to October 16, 2009, or under division (A) of this section shall be valid until the license expires for employment as a school nurse, except as the license is limited, suspended, or revoked under section 3319.31 of the Revised Code.

(E) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a person from applying to the state board for an educator license issued under section 3319.22 of the Revised Code, a school nurse license or a school nurse wellness coordinator license issued under former section 3319.221 of the Revised Code, or an alternative resident educator license issued under section 3319.26 of the Revised Code, as the section exists on and after October 16, 2009.

(F) On and after October 16, 2009, any reference in the Revised Code to educator licensing is hereby deemed to refer also to certification or licensure under divisions (A) to (D) or (G) of this section.

(G) (1) On and after the effective date of this amendment, the state board shall accept an application from and issue a nonrenewable, two-year temporary educator license to an individual who has an expired professional teacher's certificate or professional educator license issued under any version of section 3319.22 or 3319.222 of the Revised Code and who, at the time of expiration of the license or certificate, had no disciplinary sanctions on the certificate or license. The temporary educator license shall be valid for teaching in the same subject areas and grades for which the expired certificate or license was issued including any endorsements attached to the expired certificate or license, except as the temporary license is subsequently limited, suspended, or revoked under section 76 3319.31 of the Revised Code. 77

(2) Prior to providing instruction at an employing school 78 district or school under a temporary educator license issued 79 under division (G)(1) of this section, an individual shall 80 complete any training required by the employing school district 81 or school. 82

(3) The state board shall issue a professional educator 83 license with any applicable license endorsements to an 84 individual who receives a temporary educator license issued 85 under division (G)(1) of this section and who, during the 86 duration of that license, completes either eighteen continuing 87 education units or six semester hours of coursework in the area 88 of licensure or in an area related to the teaching field. The 89 license and endorsements shall be valid for teaching in the same 90 subject areas and grades for which the individual's expired 91 certificate or license and endorsements were issued, except as 92 the professional educator license is subsequently limited, 93 suspended, or revoked under section 3319.31 of the Revised Code. 94

Section 2. That existing section 3319.222 of the Revised 95
Code is hereby repealed. 96
