preceding appointment, engaged in the practice of law in this 42
state or a judge of a court of record in any jurisdiction in the 43
United States or be a retired judge of a court of record. The 44 appointee shall be styled "acting judge" and shall temporarily 45 serve on the court during the temporary absence of the incumbent 46
judge. 47

(b) Request the chief justice of the supreme court to 48 assign a sitting judge of another court of record or a retired 49
judge of a court of record to temporarily serve on the court in 50
accordance with rules adopted by the supreme court pursuant to 51
division (A) (1) of Section 5 of Article IV, Ohio Constitution. 52
The assignee shall be styled "assigned judge" and shall serve 53
for any period of time the chief justice may prescribe. 54

(B) If a vacancy occurs in the office of a judge of a 55 municipal court that consists of two judges or if a judge of a 56 municipal court of that nature is incapacitated, unavailable, or 57 temporarily absent, the presiding judge may do either of the 58
following: 59

(1) Appoint a substitute who is a resident of the 60 territory of the court or, ~~if the territory of the court has a~~ 61 ~~population of less than twenty five thousand according to the~~ 62
~~latest federal decennial census and the judge is unable to~~ 63
~~appoint a substitute who is a resident of the territory of the~~ 64
~~court,~~ appoint a substitute who is a resident of the territory 65 of a municipal or county court that is contiguous to the court. 66
The appointee shall either be admitted to the practice of law in 67
this state and have been, for a total of at least six years 68
preceding appointment, engaged in the practice of law in this 69
state or a judge of a court of record in any jurisdiction in the 70
United States or be a retired judge of a court of record. The 71
appointee shall be styled "acting judge" and shall temporarily 72
serve on the court during the vacancy or the incapacity, 73
unavailability, or temporary absence of the incumbent judge. 74

(2) Request the chief justice of the supreme court to 75
assign a sitting judge of another court of record or a retired 76
judge of a court of record to temporarily serve on the court in 77

accordance with rules adopted by the supreme court pursuant to 78
division (A) (1) of Section 5 of Article IV, Ohio Constitution. 79
The assignee shall be styled "assigned judge" and shall serve 80
for any period of time the chief justice may prescribe. 81

(C) If a vacancy occurs in the office of a judge of a 82 municipal court that consists of three or more judges or if a 83 judge of a municipal court of that nature is incapacitated, 84 unavailable, or temporarily absent, the presiding judge may do 85 either of the following: 86

(1) If no other judge of the court is available to perform 87
the duties of the judge, appoint a substitute who is a resident 88 of the territory of the court. The appointee shall either be 89 admitted to the practice of law in this state and have been, for 90
a total of at least six years preceding appointment, engaged in 91
the practice of law in this state or a judge of a court of 92 record in any jurisdiction in the United States or be a retired 93
judge of a court of record. The appointee shall be styled 94
"acting judge" and shall temporarily serve on the court during 95
the vacancy or the incapacity, unavailability, or temporary 96
absence of the incumbent judge. 97

(2) Request the chief justice of the supreme court to 98
assign a sitting judge of another court of record or a retired 99
judge of a court of record to temporarily serve on the court in 100
accordance with rules adopted by the supreme court pursuant to 101
division (A) (1) of Section 5 of Article IV, Ohio Constitution. 102
The assignee shall be styled "assigned judge" and shall serve 103
for any period of time the chief justice may prescribe. 104

(D) When the volume of cases pending in any municipal 105 court necessitates an additional judge, the judge, if the court 106 consists of a single judge, or the presiding judge, if the court 107 consists of two or more judges, may request the chief justice of 108 the supreme court to assign a sitting judge of another court of 109 record or a retired judge of a court of record to temporarily 110 serve on the court in accordance with rules adopted by the 111 supreme court pursuant to division (A) (1) of Section 5 of 112 Article IV, Ohio Constitution. The appointee shall be styled 113 "assigned judge" and shall serve for any period of time the 114 chief justice may prescribe. 115

(E) An acting judge appointed pursuant to division (A) (2) 116
(a), (B) (1), or (C) (1) of this section and an assigned judge 117 assigned pursuant to division (A) (1), (A) (2) (b), (B) (2), (C) (2), 118 or (D) of this section shall have the jurisdiction and 119 adjudicatory powers conferred upon the judge of the municipal 120 court. During the time of service, the acting judge or assigned 121 judge shall sign all process and records and shall perform all 122 acts pertaining to the office, except that of removal and 123 appointment of officers of the municipal court. All courts shall 124 take judicial notice of the selection and powers of the acting 125 judge or assigned judge. 126

Sec. 1907.141. (A) (1) If a vacancy occurs in the office of 127 a judge of a county court that consists of only one judge or if 128 the judge of a county court of that nature is incapacitated or 129 unavailable due to disqualification, suspension, or recusal, the 130 chief justice of the supreme court may assign a sitting judge of 131 another court of record or a retired judge of a court of record 132 to temporarily serve on the court in accordance with rules 133 adopted by the supreme court pursuant to division (A) (1) of 134 Section 5 of Article IV, Ohio Constitution. The assignee shall 135 be styled "assigned judge" and shall serve for any period of 136 time the chief justice may prescribe. 137

(2) If a judge of a county court that consists of only one 138 judge is temporarily absent for a reason other than as specified 139 in division (A) (1) of this section, the judge may do either of 140
the following: 141

(a) Appoint a substitute who is a resident of the 142 territory of the court or, ~~if the territory of the court has a~~ 143
~~population of less than twenty five thousand according to the~~ 144
~~latest federal decennial census and the judge is unable to~~ 145
~~appoint a substitute who is a resident of the territory of the~~ 146
~~court,~~ appoint a substitute who is a resident of the territory 147
of a municipal or county court that is contiguous to the court. 148
The appointee shall either be admitted to the practice of law in 149
this state and have been, for a total of at least six years 150
preceding appointment, engaged in the practice of law in this 151
state or a judge of a court of record in any jurisdiction in the 152
United States or be a retired judge of a court of record. The 153
appointee shall be styled "acting judge" and shall temporarily 154
serve on the court during the temporary absence of the incumbent 155
judge. 156

(b) Request the chief justice of the supreme court to 157
assign a sitting judge of another court of record or a retired 158
judge of a court of record to temporarily serve on the court in 159
accordance with rules adopted by the supreme court pursuant to 160
division (A) (1) of Section 5 of Article IV, Ohio Constitution. 161
The assignee shall be styled "assigned judge" and shall serve 162
for any period of time the chief justice may prescribe. 163

(B) If a vacancy occurs in the office of a judge of a 164 county court that consists of two judges or if a judge of a 165 county court of that nature is incapacitated, unavailable, or 166 temporarily absent, the presiding judge may do either of the 167

following: 168

(1) Appoint a substitute who is a resident of the 169
territory of the court or, ~~if the territory of the court has a~~ 170
~~population of less than twenty-five thousand according to the~~ 171
~~latest federal decennial census and the judge is unable to~~ 172
~~appoint a substitute who is a resident of the territory of the~~ 173
~~court,~~ appoint a substitute who is a resident of the territory 174
of a municipal or county court that is contiguous to the court. 175
The appointee shall either be admitted to the practice of law in 176
this state and have been, for a total of at least six years 177
preceding appointment, engaged in the practice of law in this 178
state or a judge of a court of record in any jurisdiction in the 179
United States or be a retired judge of a court of record. The 180
appointee shall be styled "acting judge" and shall temporarily 181
serve on the court during the vacancy or the incapacity, 182
unavailability, or temporary absence of the incumbent judge. 183

(2) Request the chief justice of the supreme court to 184
assign a sitting judge of another court of record or a retired 185
judge of a court of record to temporarily serve on the court in 186
accordance with rules adopted by the supreme court pursuant to 187
division (A)(1) of Section 5 of Article IV, Ohio Constitution. 188
The assignee shall be styled "assigned judge" and shall serve 189
for any period of time the chief justice may prescribe. 190

(C) If a vacancy occurs in the office of a judge of a 191 county court that consists of three or more judges or if a judge 192 of a county court of that nature is incapacitated, unavailable, 193 or temporarily absent, the presiding judge may do either of the 194
following: 195

(1) If no other judge of the court is available to perform 196
the duties of the judge, appoint a substitute who is a resident 197

of the territory of the court. The appointee shall either be 198
admitted to the practice of law in this state and have been, for 199
a total of at least six years preceding appointment, engaged in 200
the practice of law in this state or a judge of a court of 201
record in any jurisdiction in the United States or be a retired 202
judge of a court of record. The appointee shall be styled 203
"acting judge" and shall temporarily serve on the court during 204
the vacancy or the incapacity, unavailability, or temporary 205
absence of the incumbent judge. 206

(2) Request the chief justice of the supreme court to 207
judge of a court of record to temporarily serve on the court in 209
accordance with rules adopted by the supreme court pursuant to 210
division (A)(1) of Section 5 of Article IV, Ohio Constitution. 211
The assignee shall be styled "assigned judge" and shall serve 212
for any period of time the chief justice may prescribe. 213

(D) An acting judge appointed pursuant to division (A)(2) 214
(a), (B)(1), or (C)(1) of this section and an assigned judge 215 assigned pursuant to division (A)(1), (A)(2)(b), (B)(2), or (C) 216 (2) of this section shall have the jurisdiction and adjudicatory 217 powers conferred upon the judge of the county court. During the 218 time of service, the acting judge or assigned judge shall sign 219 all process and records and shall perform all acts pertaining to 220 the office, except that of removal and appointment of officers 221 of the court. All courts shall take judicial notice of the 222 selection and powers of the acting judge or assigned judge. 223

Sec. 2106.22. Any antenuptial, postnuptial, or separation 224 agreement to which a decedent was a party is valid unless an 225 action to set it aside is commenced within four months after the 226 appointment of the executor or administrator of the estate of 227 the decedent, or unless, within the four-month period, the 228 validity of the agreement otherwise is attacked. 229

Sec. 3103.05. (A) A husband or wife may enter into any 230 engagement agreement or transaction with the either of the 231
following: 232

(1) The other spouse, or with any subject to the general 233 rules that control the actions of persons occupying the 234 confidential relations with each other; 235

(2) With any other person, which either might if 236 unmarried; subject, in transactions between themselves, to the 237 general rules which control the actions of persons occupying 238
confidential relations with each other. 239

(B) An agreement under division (A) (1) of this section 240 that alters the legal relations between the spouses shall comply 241 with section 3103.061 of the Revised Code. 242

Sec. 3103.06. (A) A husband and wife cannot may, by any 243 contract with each other, alter do any of the following: 244

(1) Enter into a postnuptial agreement that alters their 245 legal relations, except that they may agree with each other; 246

(2) Modify or terminate an antenuptial or postnuptial 247 agreement or any other agreement that alters their legal 248 relations with each other; 249

(3) Agree to an immediate separation and make provisions 250 for the division of property and support of either of them and 251 their children during the separation. 252

(B) An agreement under division (A) (1) or (2) of this 253 section shall comply with section 3103.061 of the Revised Code. 254

Sec. 3103.061. Any agreement altering legal relations 255 between spouses established under division (A) (1) of section 256 3103.05 or division (A) (1) or (2) of section 3103.06 of the 257
Revised Code shall be valid and enforceable, with or without 258 consideration, if all of the following apply: 259

(A) The agreement is in writing and signed by both 260
spouses; 261

(B) The agreement is entered into freely without fraud, 262 duress, coercion, or overreaching; 263

(C) There was full disclosure, or full knowledge, and 264 understanding of the nature, value, and extent of the property 265 of both spouses; 266

(D) The terms do not promote or encourage divorce or 267 profiteering by divorce. 268

Sec. 3105.17. (A) Either party to the marriage may file a 269 complaint for divorce or for legal separation, and when filed 270 the other may file a counterclaim for divorce or for legal 271 separation. The court of common pleas may grant divorces for the 272 causes set forth in section 3105.01 of the Revised Code. The 273 court of common pleas may grant legal separation on a complaint 274 or counterclaim, regardless of whether the parties are living 275 separately at the time the complaint or counterclaim is filed, 276 for the following causes: 277

(1) Either party had a husband or wife living at the time 278 of the marriage from which legal separation is sought; 279

(2) Willful absence of the adverse party for one year; 280

(3) Adultery; 281

(4) Extreme cruelty; 282

(5) Fraudulent contract;	283
(6) Any gross neglect of duty;	284
(7) Habitual drunkenness;	285
(8) Imprisonment of the adverse party in a state or federal correctional institution at the time of filing the complaint;	286 287 288
(9) On the application of either party, when husband and wife have, without interruption for one year, lived separate and apart without cohabitation;	289 290 291
(10) Incompatibility, unless denied by either party.	292
(B) The filing of a complaint or counterclaim for legal separation or the granting of a decree of legal separation under this section does not bar either party from filing a complaint or counterclaim for a divorce or annulment or obtaining a divorce or annulment.	293 294 295 296 297
(C) A decree of legal separation may be terminated by the court upon a motion signed by both spouses.	298 299
Sec. 3105.171. (A) As used in this section:	300
(1) "Distributive award" means any payment or payments, in real or personal property, that are payable in a lump sum or over time, in fixed amounts, that are made from separate property or income, and that are not made from marital property and do not constitute payments of spousal support, as defined in section 3105.18 of the Revised Code.	301 302 303 304 305 306
(2) "During the marriage" means whichever of the following is applicable:	307 308
(a) Except as provided in division (A) (2) (b) of this	309

section, the period of time from the date of the marriage 310 through the date of the final hearing in an action for divorce 311 or in an action for legal separation; 312

(b) If the court determines that the use of either or both 313 of the dates specified in division (A)(2)(a) of this section 314 would be inequitable, the court may select dates that it 315 considers equitable in determining marital property. If the 316 court selects dates that it considers equitable in determining 317 marital property, "during the marriage" means the period of time 318 between those dates selected and specified by the court. 319

(3)(a) "Marital property" means, subject to division (A) 320
(3)(b) of this section, all of the following: 321

(i) All real and personal property that currently is owned 322 by either or both of the spouses, including, but not limited to, 323 the retirement benefits of the spouses, and that was acquired by 324 either or both of the spouses during the marriage; 325

(ii) All interest that either or both of the spouses 326 currently has in any real or personal property, including, but 327 not limited to, the retirement benefits of the spouses, and that 328 was acquired by either or both of the spouses during the 329 marriage; 330

(iii) Except as otherwise provided in this section, all 331 income and appreciation on separate property, due to the labor, 332 monetary, or in-kind contribution of either or both of the 333 spouses that occurred during the marriage; 334

(iv) A participant account, as defined in section 148.01 335 of the Revised Code, of either of the spouses, to the extent of 336 the following: the moneys that have been deferred by a 337 continuing member or participating employee, as defined in that 338 section, and that have been transmitted to the Ohio public 339 employees deferred compensation board during the marriage and 340 any income that is derived from the investment of those moneys 341 during the marriage; the moneys that have been deferred by an 342 officer or employee of a municipal corporation and that have 343 been transmitted to the governing board, administrator, 344 depository, or trustee of the deferred compensation program of 345 the municipal corporation during the marriage and any income 346 that is derived from the investment of those moneys during the 347 marriage; or the moneys that have been deferred by an officer or 348 employee of a government unit, as defined in section 148.06 of 349 the Revised Code, and that have been transmitted to the 350 governing board, as defined in that section, during the marriage 351 and any income that is derived from the investment of those 352 moneys during the marriage. 353

(b) "Marital property" does not include any separate 354 property. 355

(4) "Passive income" means income acquired other than as a 356 result of the labor, monetary, or in-kind contribution of either 357 spouse. 358

(5) "Personal property" includes both tangible and 359 intangible personal property. 360

(6) (a) "Separate property" means all real and personal 361 property and any interest in real or personal property that is 362 found by the court to be any of the following: 363

(i) An inheritance by one spouse by bequest, devise, or 364 descent during the course of the marriage; 365

(ii) Any real or personal property or interest in real or 366 personal property that was acquired by one spouse prior to the 367

date of the marriage;	368
(iii) Passive income and appreciation acquired from separate property by one spouse during the marriage;	369 370
(iv) Any real or personal property or interest in real or personal property acquired by one spouse after a decree of legal separation issued under section 3105.17 of the Revised Code;	371 372 373
(v) Any real or personal property or interest in real or personal property that is excluded by a valid antenuptial or postnuptial agreement;	374 375 376
(vi) Compensation to a spouse for the spouse's personal injury, except for loss of marital earnings and compensation for expenses paid from marital assets;	377 378 379
(vii) Any gift of any real or personal property or of an interest in real or personal property that is made after the date of the marriage and that is proven by clear and convincing evidence to have been given to only one spouse.	380 381 382 383
(b) The commingling of separate property with other property of any type does not destroy the identity of the separate property as separate property, except when the separate property is not traceable.	384 385 386 387
(B) In divorce proceedings, the court shall, and in legal separation proceedings upon the request of either spouse, the court may, determine what constitutes marital property and what constitutes separate property. In either case, upon making such a determination, the court shall divide the marital and separate property equitably between the spouses, in accordance with this section. For purposes of this section, the court has jurisdiction over all property, excluding the social security benefits of a spouse other than as set forth in division (F) (9)	388 389 390 391 392 393 394 395 396 of this section, in which one or both spouses have an interest. 397

(C) (1) Except as provided in this division or division (E) 398 of this section, the division of marital property shall be 399 equal. If an equal division of marital property would be 400 inequitable, the court shall not divide the marital property 401 equally but instead shall divide it between the spouses in the 402 manner the court determines equitable. In making a division of 403 marital property, the court shall consider all relevant factors, 404 including those set forth in division (F) of this section. 405

(2) Each spouse shall be considered to have contributed 406 equally to the production and acquisition of marital property. 407

(3) The court shall provide for an equitable division of 408 marital property under this section prior to making any award of 409 spousal support to either spouse under section 3105.18 of the 410 Revised Code and without regard to any spousal support so 411 awarded. 412

(4) If the marital property includes a participant 413 account, as defined in section 148.01 of the Revised Code, the 414 court shall not order the division or disbursement of the moneys 415 and income described in division (A) (3) (a) (iv) of this section 416 to occur in a manner that is inconsistent with the law, rules, 417 or plan governing the deferred compensation program involved or 418 prior to the time that the spouse in whose name the participant 419 account is maintained commences receipt of the moneys and income 420 credited to the account in accordance with that law, rules, and 421 plan. 422

(D) Except as otherwise provided in division (E) of this 423 section or by another provision of this section, the court shall 424 disburse a spouse's separate property to that spouse. If a court 425 does not disburse a spouse's separate property to that spouse, 426 the court shall make written findings of fact that explain the 427 factors that it considered in making its determination that the 428 spouse's separate property should not be disbursed to that 429

spouse. 430

(E) (1) The court may make a distributive award to 431 facilitate, effectuate, or supplement a division of marital 432 property. The court may require any distributive award to be 433 secured by a lien on the payor's specific marital property or 434 separate property. 435

(2) The court may make a distributive award in lieu of a 436 division of marital property in order to achieve equity between 437 the spouses, if the court determines that a division of the 438 marital property in kind or in money would be impractical or 439 burdensome. 440

(3) The court shall require each spouse to disclose in a 441 full and complete manner all marital property, separate 442 property, and other assets, debts, income, and expenses of the 443
spouse. 444

(4) If a spouse has engaged in financial misconduct, 445 including, but not limited to, the dissipation, destruction, 446 concealment, nondisclosure, or fraudulent disposition of assets, 447 the court may compensate the offended spouse with a distributive 448 award or with a greater award of marital property. 449

(5) If a spouse has substantially and willfully failed to 450 disclose marital property, separate property, or other assets, 451 debts, income, or expenses as required under division (E) (3) of 452 this section, the court may compensate the offended spouse with 453 a distributive award or with a greater award of marital property 454 not to exceed three times the value of the marital property, 455 separate property, or other assets, debts, income, or expenses 456 that are not disclosed by the other spouse. 457

(F) In making a division of marital property and in 458 determining whether to make and the amount of any distributive 459 award under this section, the court shall consider all of the 460 following factors: 461

(1) The duration of the marriage; 462

(2) The assets and liabilities of the spouses; 463

(3) The desirability of awarding the family home, or the 464 right to reside in the family home for reasonable periods of 465 time, to the spouse with custody of the children of the 466
marriage; 467

(4) The liquidity of the property to be distributed; 468

(5) The economic desirability of retaining intact an asset 469 or an interest in an asset; 470

(6) The tax consequences of the property division upon the 471 respective awards to be made to each spouse; 472

(7) The costs of sale, if it is necessary that an asset be 473 sold to effectuate an equitable distribution of property; 474

(8) Any division or disbursement of property made in a 475 separation agreement that was voluntarily entered into by the 476
spouses; 477

(9) Any retirement benefits of the spouses, excluding the 478 social security benefits of a spouse except as may be relevant 479 for purposes of dividing a public pension; 480

(10) Any other factor that the court expressly finds to be 481 relevant and equitable. 482

(G) In any order for the division or disbursement of 483 property or a distributive award made pursuant to this section, 484 the court shall make written findings of fact that support the 485 determination that the marital property has been equitably 486 divided and shall specify the dates it used in determining the 487 meaning of "during the marriage." 488

(H) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the 489 holding of title to property by one spouse individually or by 490 both spouses in a form of co-ownership does not determine 491 whether the property is marital property or separate property. 492

(I) A division or disbursement of property or a 493 distributive award made under this section is not subject to 494 future modification by the court except upon the express written 495 consent or agreement to the modification by both spouses. 496

(J) The court may issue any orders under this section that 497 it determines equitable, including, but not limited to, either 498 of the following types of orders: 499

(1) An order granting a spouse the right to use the 500 marital dwelling or any other marital property or separate 501 property for any reasonable period of time; 502

(2) An order requiring the sale or encumbering of any 503 real or personal property, with the proceeds from the sale and 504 the funds from any loan secured by the encumbrance to be applied 505 as determined by the court. 506

Sec. 3113.31. (A) As used in this section: 507

(1) "Domestic violence" means any of the following: 508

(a) The occurrence of one or more of the following acts 509 against a family or household member:	510

(i) Attempting to cause or recklessly causing bodily injury;	511 512
(ii) Placing another person by the threat of force in fear of imminent serious physical harm or committing a violation of section 2903.211 or 2911.211 of the Revised Code;	513 514 515
(iii) Committing any act with respect to a child that would result in the child being an abused child, as defined in section 2151.031 of the Revised Code;	516 517 518
(iv) Committing a sexually oriented offense.	519
(b) The occurrence of one or more of the acts identified in divisions (A) (1) (a) (i) to (iv) of this section against a person with whom the respondent is or was in a dating relationship.	520 521 522 523
(2) "Court" means the domestic relations division of the court of common pleas in counties that have a domestic relations division and the court of common pleas in counties that do not have a domestic relations division, or the juvenile division of the court of common pleas of the county in which the person to be protected by a protection order issued or a consent agreement approved under this section resides if the respondent is less than eighteen years of age.	524 525 526 527 528 529 530 531
(3) "Family or household member" means any of the following:	532 533
(a) Any of the following who is residing with or has resided with the respondent:	534 535
(i) A spouse, a person living as a spouse, or a former spouse of the respondent;	536 537

(ii) A parent, a foster parent, or a child of the respondent, or another person related by consanguinity or affinity to the respondent;

(iii) A parent or a child of a spouse, person living as a spouse, or former spouse of the respondent, or another person related by consanguinity or affinity to a spouse, person living as a spouse, or former spouse of the respondent.

(b) The natural parent of any child of whom the respondent is the other natural parent or is the putative other natural parent.

(4) "Person living as a spouse" means a person who is living or has lived with the respondent in a common law marital relationship, who otherwise is cohabiting with the respondent, or who otherwise has cohabited with the respondent within five years prior to the date of the alleged occurrence of the act in question.

(5) "Victim advocate" means a person who provides support and assistance for a person who files a petition under this section.

(6) "Sexually oriented offense" has the same meaning as in section 2950.01 of the Revised Code.

(7) "Companion animal" has the same meaning as in section 959.131 of the Revised Code.

(8) "Dating relationship" means a relationship between individuals who have, or have had, a relationship of a romantic or intimate nature. "Dating relationship" does not include a casual acquaintanceship or ordinary fraternization in a business or social context.

(9) "Person with whom the respondent is or was in a dating relationship" means an ~~adult~~ individual who, at the time of the conduct in question, is in a dating relationship with the respondent who ~~also~~ is an adult or who, within the twelve months preceding the conduct in question, has had a dating relationship with the respondent who ~~also~~ is an adult.

(B) The court has jurisdiction over all proceedings under this section. The petitioner's right to relief under this section is not affected by the petitioner's leaving the residence or household to avoid further domestic violence.

(C) A person may seek relief under this section on the person's own behalf, or any parent or adult household member may seek relief under this section on behalf of any other family or household member, by filing a petition with the court. The petition shall contain or state:

(1) An allegation that the respondent engaged in domestic violence against a family or household member of the respondent or against a person with whom the respondent is or was in a dating relationship, including a description of the nature and extent of the domestic violence;

(2) The relationship of the respondent to the petitioner, and to the victim if other than the petitioner;

(3) If the petition is for protection of a person with whom the respondent is or was in a dating relationship, the facts upon which the court may conclude that a dating relationship existed between the person to be protected and the respondent;

(4) A request for relief under this section.

(D) (1) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this section requests an ex parte order, the court shall hold an ex 595 parte hearing on the same day that the petition is filed. The 596 court, for good cause shown at the ex parte hearing, may enter 597 any temporary orders, with or without bond, including, but not 598 limited to, an order described in division (E)(1)(a), (b), or 599

(c) of this section, that the court finds necessary to protect 600 the family or household member or the person with whom the 601 respondent is or was in a dating relationship from domestic 602 violence. Immediate and present danger of domestic violence to 603 the family or household member or to the person with whom the 604 respondent is or was in a dating relationship constitutes good 605 cause for purposes of this section. Immediate and present danger 606 includes, but is not limited to, situations in which the 607 respondent has threatened the family or household member or 608 person with whom the respondent is or was in a dating 609 relationship with bodily harm, in which the respondent has 610 threatened the family or household member or person with whom 611 the respondent is or was in a dating relationship with a 612 sexually oriented offense, or in which the respondent previously 613 has been convicted of, pleaded guilty to, or been adjudicated a 614 delinquent child for an offense that constitutes domestic 615 violence against the family or household member or person with 616 whom the respondent is or was in a dating relationship. 617

(2) (a) If the court, after an ex parte hearing, issues an 618 order described in division (E)(1)(b) or (c) of this section, 619 the court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that is 620 within seven court days after the ex parte hearing. If any other 621 type of protection order that is authorized under division (E) 622 of this section is issued by the court after an ex parte 623 hearing, the court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that 624 is within ten court days after the ex parte hearing. The court 625 shall give the respondent notice of, and an opportunity to be 626 heard at, the full hearing. The court shall hold the full 627 hearing on the date scheduled under this division unless the 628 court grants a continuance of the hearing in accordance with 629 this division. Under any of the following circumstances or for 630 any of the following reasons, the court may grant a continuance 631 of the full hearing to a reasonable time determined by the 632 court: 633

(i) Prior to the date scheduled for the full hearing under 634 this division, the respondent has not been served with the 635 petition filed pursuant to this section and notice of the full 636 hearing. 637

(ii) The parties consent to the continuance. 638

(iii) The continuance is needed to allow a party to obtain 639 counsel. 640

(iv) The continuance is needed for other good cause. 641

(b) An ex parte order issued under this section does not 642 expire because of a failure to serve notice of the full hearing 643 upon the respondent before the date set for the full hearing 644 under division (D) (2) (a) of this section or because the court 645 grants a continuance under that division. 646

(3) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this 647 section does not request an ex parte order, or if a person 648 requests an ex parte order but the court does not issue an ex 649 parte order after an ex parte hearing, the court shall proceed 650 as in a normal civil action and grant a full hearing on the 651 matter. 652

(E) (1) After an ex parte or full hearing, the court may 653 grant any protection order, with or without bond, or approve any 654 consent agreement to bring about a cessation of domestic 655 violence against the family or household members or persons with 656 whom the respondent is or was in a dating relationship. The 657 order or agreement may: 658

(a) Direct the respondent to refrain from abusing or from 659 committing sexually oriented offenses against the family or 660 household members or persons with whom the respondent is or was 661 in a dating relationship; 662

(b) With respect to a petition involving family or 663 household members, grant possession of the residence or 664 household to the petitioner or other family or household member, 665 to the exclusion of the respondent, by evicting the respondent, 666 when the residence or household is owned or leased solely by the 667 petitioner or other family or household member, or by ordering 668 the respondent to vacate the premises, when the residence or 669 household is jointly owned or leased by the respondent, and the 670 petitioner or other family or household member; 671

(c) With respect to a petition involving family or 672 household members, when the respondent has a duty to support the 673 petitioner or other family or household member living in the 674 residence or household and the respondent is the sole owner or 675 lessee of the residence or household, grant possession of the 676 residence or household to the petitioner or other family or 677 household member, to the exclusion of the respondent, by 678 ordering the respondent to vacate the premises, or, in the case 679 of a consent agreement, allow the respondent to provide 680 suitable, alternative housing; 681

(d) With respect to a petition involving family or 682 household members, temporarily allocate parental rights and 683 responsibilities for the care of, or establish temporary 684 parenting time rights with regard to, minor children, if no 685 other court has determined, or is determining, the allocation of 686 parental rights and responsibilities for the minor children or 687 parenting time rights; 688

(e) With respect to a petition involving family or 689 household members, require the respondent to maintain support, 690 if the respondent customarily provides for or contributes to the 691 support of the family or household member, or if the respondent 692 has a duty to support the petitioner or family or household 693 member; 694

(f) Require the respondent, petitioner, victim of domestic 695 violence, or any combination of those persons, to seek 696 counseling; 697

(g) Require the respondent to refrain from entering the 698 residence, school, business, or place of employment of the 699 petitioner or, with respect to a petition involving family or 700 household members, a family or household member; 701

(h) Grant other relief that the court considers equitable 702 and fair, including, but not limited to, ordering the respondent 703 to permit the use of a motor vehicle by the petitioner or, with 704 respect to a petition involving family or household members, 705 other family or household members and the apportionment of 706 household and family personal property; 707

(i) Require that the respondent not remove, damage, hide, 708 harm, or dispose of any companion animal owned or possessed by 709 the petitioner; 710

(j) Authorize the petitioner to remove a companion animal 711 owned by the petitioner from the possession of the respondent; 712

(k) Require a wireless service transfer in accordance with 713 sections 3113.45 to 3113.459 of the Revised Code. 714

(2) If a protection order has been issued pursuant to this 715 section in a prior action involving the respondent and the 716 petitioner or, with respect to a petition involving family or 717 household members, one or more of the family or household 718 members or victims, the court may include in a protection order 719 that it issues a prohibition against the respondent returning to 720 the residence or household. If it includes a prohibition against 721 the respondent returning to the residence or household in the 722 order, it also shall include in the order provisions of the type 723 described in division (E) (7) of this section. This division does 724 not preclude the court from including in a protection order or 725 consent agreement, in circumstances other than those described 726 in this division, a requirement that the respondent be evicted 727 from or vacate the residence or household or refrain from 728 entering the residence, school, business, or place of employment 729 of the petitioner or, with respect to a petition involving 730 family or household members, a family or household member, and, 731 if the court includes any requirement of that type in an order 732 or agreement, the court also shall include in the order 733 provisions of the type described in division (E) (7) of this 734
section. 735

(3) (a) Any protection order issued or consent agreement 736 approved under this section shall be valid until a date certain, 737 but not later than five years from the date of its issuance or 738 approval, or not later than the date a respondent who is less 739 than eighteen years of age attains nineteen years of age, unless 740 modified or terminated as provided in division (E) (8) of this 741
section. 742

(b) With respect to an order involving family or household 743 members, subject to the limitation on the duration of an order 744 or agreement set forth in division (E) (3) (a) of this section, 745 any order under division (E) (1) (d) of this section shall 746 terminate on the date that a court in an action for divorce, 747 dissolution of marriage, or legal separation brought by the 748 petitioner or respondent issues an order allocating parental 749 rights and responsibilities for the care of children or on the 750 date that a juvenile court in an action brought by the 751 petitioner or respondent issues an order awarding legal custody 752 of minor children. Subject to the limitation on the duration of 753 an order or agreement set forth in division (E) (3) (a) of this 754 section, any order under division (E) (1) (e) of this section 755 shall terminate on the date that a court in an action for 756 divorce, dissolution of marriage, or legal separation brought by 757 the petitioner or respondent issues a support order or on the 758

date that a juvenile court in an action brought by the 759
petitioner or respondent issues a support order. 760

(c) Any protection order issued or consent agreement 761 approved pursuant to this section may be renewed in the same 762 manner as the original order or agreement was issued or 763 approved. 764

(4) A court may not issue a protection order that requires 765 a petitioner to do or to refrain from doing an act that the 766 court may require a respondent to do or to refrain from doing 767 under division (E) (1) (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (g), or (h) of 768 this section unless all of the following apply: 769

(a) The respondent files a separate petition for a 770 protection order in accordance with this section. 771

(b) The petitioner is served notice of the respondent's 772 petition at least forty-eight hours before the court holds a 773 hearing with respect to the respondent's petition, or the 774 petitioner waives the right to receive this notice. 775

(c) If the petitioner has requested an ex parte order 776 pursuant to division (D) of this section, the court does not 777 delay any hearing required by that division beyond the time 778 specified in that division in order to consolidate the hearing 779 with a hearing on the petition filed by the respondent. 780

(d) After a full hearing at which the respondent presents 781 evidence in support of the request for a protection order and 782 the petitioner is afforded an opportunity to defend against that 783 evidence, the court determines that the petitioner has committed 784 an act of domestic violence or has violated a temporary 785 protection order issued pursuant to section 2919.26 of the 786 Revised Code, that both the petitioner and the respondent acted 787 primarily as aggressors, and that neither the petitioner nor the 788 respondent acted primarily in self-defense. 789

(5) No protection order issued or consent agreement 790 approved under this section shall in any manner affect title to 791 any real property. 792

(6) (a) With respect to an order involving family or 793 household members, if a petitioner, or the child of a 794 petitioner, who obtains a protection order or consent agreement 795 pursuant to division (E) (1) of this section or a temporary 796 protection order pursuant to section 2919.26 of the Revised Code 797 and is the subject of a parenting time order issued pursuant to 798 section 3109.051 or 3109.12 of the Revised Code or a visitation 799 or companionship order issued pursuant to section 3109.051, 800 3109.11, or 3109.12 of the Revised Code or division (E) (1) (d) of 801 this section granting parenting time rights to the respondent, 802 the court may require the public children services agency of the 803 county in which the court is located to provide supervision of 804 the respondent's exercise of parenting time or visitation or 805 companionship rights with respect to the child for a period not 806 to exceed nine months, if the court makes the following findings 807 of fact: 808

(i) The child is in danger from the respondent; 809

(ii) No other person or agency is available to provide the 810 supervision. 811

(b) A court that requires an agency to provide supervision 812 pursuant to division (E) (6) (a) of this section shall order the 813 respondent to reimburse the agency for the cost of providing the 814 supervision, if it determines that the respondent has sufficient 815 income or resources to pay that cost. 816

(7) (a) If a protection order issued or consent agreement 817 approved under this section includes a requirement that the 818 respondent be evicted from or vacate the residence or household 819 or refrain from entering the residence, school, business, or 820 place of employment of the petitioner or, with respect to a 821 petition involving family or household members, a family or 822 household member, the order or agreement shall state clearly 823 that the order or agreement cannot be waived or nullified by an 824 invitation to the respondent from the petitioner or other family 825 or household member to enter the residence, school, business, or 826 place of employment or by the respondent's entry into one of 827 those places otherwise upon the consent of the petitioner or 828 other family or household member. 829

(b) Division (E) (7) (a) of this section does not limit any 830 discretion of a court to determine that a respondent charged 831 with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, with a 832 violation of a municipal ordinance substantially equivalent to 833 that section, or with contempt of court, which charge is based 834 on an alleged violation of a protection order issued or consent 835 agreement approved under this section, did not commit the 836 violation or was not in contempt of court. 837

(8) (a) The court may modify or terminate as provided in 838 division (E) (8) of this section a protection order or consent 839 agreement that was issued after a full hearing under this 840 section. The court that issued the protection order or approved 841 the consent agreement shall hear a motion for modification or 842 termination of the protection order or consent agreement 843 pursuant to division (E) (8) of this section. 844

(b) Either the petitioner or the respondent of the 845 original protection order or consent agreement may bring a 846 motion for modification or termination of a protection order or 847 consent agreement that was issued or approved after a full 848 hearing. The court shall require notice of the motion to be made 849 as provided by the Rules of Civil Procedure. If the petitioner 850 for the original protection order or consent agreement has 851 requested that the petitioner's address be kept confidential, 852 the court shall not disclose the address to the respondent of 853 the original protection order or consent agreement or any other 854 person, except as otherwise required by law. The moving party 855 has the burden of proof to show, by a preponderance of the 856 evidence, that modification or termination of the protection 857 order or consent agreement is appropriate because either the 858 protection order or consent agreement is no longer needed or 859 because the terms of the original protection order or consent 860 agreement are no longer appropriate. 861

(c) In considering whether to modify or terminate a 862 protection order or consent agreement issued or approved under 863 this section, the court shall consider all relevant factors, 864 including, but not limited to, the following: 865

(i) Whether the petitioner consents to modification or 866 termination of the protection order or consent agreement; 867

(ii) Whether the petitioner fears the respondent; 868

(iii) The current nature of the relationship between the 869 petitioner and the respondent; 870

(iv) The circumstances of the petitioner and respondent, 871 including the relative proximity of the petitioner's and 872 respondent's workplaces and residences and whether the 873 petitioner and respondent have minor children together; 874

(v) Whether the respondent has complied with the terms and 875 conditions of the original protection order or consent 876 agreement; 877

(vi) Whether the respondent has a continuing involvement 878 with illegal drugs or alcohol; 879

(vii) Whether the respondent has been convicted of, 880 pleaded guilty to, or been adjudicated a delinquent child for an 881 offense of violence since the issuance of the protection order 882 or approval of the consent agreement; 883

(viii) Whether any other protection orders, consent 884 agreements, restraining orders, or no contact orders have been 885 issued against the respondent pursuant to this section, section 886 2919.26 of the Revised Code, any other provision of state law, 887 or the law of any other state; 888

(ix) Whether the respondent has participated in any 889 domestic violence treatment, intervention program, or other 890 counseling addressing domestic violence and whether the 891 respondent has completed the treatment, program, or counseling; 892

(x) The time that has elapsed since the protection order 893 was issued or since the consent agreement was approved; 894

(xi) The age and health of the respondent; 895

(xii) When the last incident of abuse, threat of harm, or 896 commission of a sexually oriented offense occurred or other 897 relevant information concerning the safety and protection of the 898 petitioner or other protected parties. 899

(d) If a protection order or consent agreement is modified 900 or terminated as provided in division (E)(8) of this section, 901 the court shall issue copies of the modified or terminated order 902 or agreement as provided in division (F) of this section. A 903 petitioner may also provide notice of the modification or 904 termination to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any 905 county other than the county in which the order or agreement is 906 modified or terminated as provided in division (N) of this 907
section. 908

(e) If the respondent moves for modification or 909 termination of a protection order or consent agreement pursuant 910 to this section and the court denies the motion, the court may 911 assess costs against the respondent for the filing of the 912 motion. 913

(9) Any protection order issued or any consent agreement 914 approved pursuant to this section shall include a provision that 915 the court will automatically seal all of the records of the 916 proceeding in which the order is issued or agreement approved on 917 the date the respondent attains the age of nineteen years unless 918 the petitioner provides the court with evidence that the 919 respondent has not complied with all of the terms of the 920 protection order or consent agreement. The protection order or 921 consent agreement shall specify the date when the respondent 922 attains the age of nineteen years. 923

(F) (1) A copy of any protection order, or consent 924 agreement, that is issued, approved, modified, or terminated 925 under this section shall be issued by the court to the 926 petitioner, to the respondent, and to all law enforcement 927 agencies that have jurisdiction to enforce the order or 928 agreement. The court shall direct that a copy of an order be 929 delivered to the respondent on the same day that the order is 930 entered. 931

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order or the 932 approval of a consent agreement under this section, the court 933 shall provide the parties to the order or agreement with the 934 following notice orally or by form: 935

"NOTICE 936

As a result of this order or consent agreement, it may be 937 unlawful for you to possess or purchase a firearm, including a 938 rifle, pistol, or revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal 939 law under 18 U.S.C. 922(g) (8) for the duration of this order or 940 consent agreement. If you have any questions whether this law 941 makes it illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm or 942 ammunition, you should consult an attorney." 943

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and 944 maintain an index for the protection orders and the approved 945 consent agreements delivered to the agencies pursuant to 946 division (F) (1) of this section. With respect to each order and 947 consent agreement delivered, each agency shall note on the index 948 the date and time that it received the order or consent 949

agreement. 950

(4) Regardless of whether the petitioner has registered 951 the order or agreement in the county in which the officer's 952 agency has jurisdiction pursuant to division (N) of this 953 section, any officer of a law enforcement agency shall enforce a 954 protection order issued or consent agreement approved by any 955 court in this state in accordance with the provisions of the 956 order or agreement, including removing the respondent from the 957 premises, if appropriate. 958

(G) (1) Any proceeding under this section shall be 959 conducted in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, 960 except that an order under this section may be obtained with or 961 without bond. An order issued under this section, other than an 962 ex parte order, that grants a protection order or approves a 963 consent agreement, that refuses to grant a protection order or 964 approve a consent agreement that modifies or terminates a 965 protection order or consent agreement, or that refuses to modify 966 or terminate a protection order or consent agreement, is a 967 final, appealable order. The remedies and procedures provided in 968 this section are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other 969 available civil or criminal remedies. 970

(2) If as provided in division (G) (1) of this section an 971 order issued under this section, other than an ex parte order, 972 refuses to grant a protection order, the court, on its own 973 motion, shall order that the ex parte order issued under this 974 section and all of the records pertaining to that ex parte order 975 be sealed after either of the following occurs: 976

(a) No party has exercised the right to appeal pursuant to 977
Rule 4 of the Rules of Appellate Procedure. 978

(b) All appellate rights have been exhausted.	979
(H) The filing of proceedings under this section does not excuse a person from filing any report or giving any notice required by section 2151.421 of the Revised Code or by any other law. When a petition under this section alleges domestic violence against minor children, the court shall report the fact, or cause reports to be made, to a county, township, or municipal peace officer under section 2151.421 of the Revised Code.	980 981 982 983 984 985 986 987
(I) Any law enforcement agency that investigates a domestic dispute shall provide information to the family or household members involved, or the persons in the dating relationship who are involved, whichever is applicable regarding the relief available under this section and, for family or household members, section 2919.26 of the Revised Code.	988 989 990 991 992 993
(J) (1) Subject to divisions (E) (8) (e) and (J) (2) of this section and regardless of whether a protection order is issued or a consent agreement is approved by a court of another county or a court of another state, no court or unit of state or local government shall charge the petitioner any fee, cost, deposit, or money in connection with the filing of a petition pursuant to this section or in connection with the filing, issuance, registration, modification, enforcement, dismissal, withdrawal, or service of a protection order, consent agreement, or witness subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy of a protection order or consent agreement.	994 995 996 997 998 999 1000 1001 1002 1003 1004
(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or a consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, the court may assess costs against the respondent in connection with the filing, issuance, registration, modification, enforcement,	1005 1006 1007 1008 dismissal, withdrawal, or service of a protection order, consent 1009 agreement, or witness subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy 1010 of a protection order or consent agreement. 1011

(K) (1) The court shall comply with Chapters 3119., 3121., 1012 3123., and 3125. of the Revised Code when it makes or modifies 1013
an order for child support under this section. 1014

(2) If any person required to pay child support under an 1015 order made under this section on or after April 15, 1985, or 1016 modified under this section on or after December 31, 1986, is 1017 found in contempt of court for failure to make support payments 1018 under the order, the court that makes the finding, in addition 1019 to any other penalty or remedy imposed, shall assess all court 1020 costs arising out of the contempt proceeding against the person 1021 and require the person to pay any reasonable attorney's fees of 1022 any adverse party, as determined by the court, that arose in 1023 relation to the act of contempt. 1024

(L) (1) A person who violates a protection order issued or 1025 a consent agreement approved under this section is subject to 1026 the following sanctions: 1027

(a) Criminal prosecution or a delinquent child proceeding 1028 for a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, if the 1029 violation of the protection order or consent agreement 1030 constitutes a violation of that section; 1031

(b) Punishment for contempt of court. 1032

(2) The punishment of a person for contempt of court for 1033 violation of a protection order issued or a consent agreement 1034 approved under this section does not bar criminal prosecution of 1035 the person or a delinquent child proceeding concerning the 1036 person for a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code. 1037

However, a person punished for contempt of court is entitled to 1038 credit for the punishment imposed upon conviction of or 1039 adjudication as a delinquent child for a violation of that 1040 section, and a person convicted of or adjudicated a delinquent 1041 child for a violation of that section shall not subsequently be 1042 punished for contempt of court arising out of the same activity. 1043

(M) In all stages of a proceeding under this section, a 1044 petitioner may be accompanied by a victim advocate. 1045

(N) (1) A petitioner who obtains a protection order or 1046 consent agreement under this section or a temporary protection 1047 order under section 2919.26 of the Revised Code may provide 1048 notice of the issuance or approval of the order or agreement to 1049 the judicial and law enforcement officials in any county other 1050 than the county in which the order is issued or the agreement is 1051 approved by registering that order or agreement in the other 1052 county pursuant to division (N) (2) of this section and filing a 1053 copy of the registered order or registered agreement with a law 1054 enforcement agency in the other county in accordance with that 1055 division. A person who obtains a protection order issued by a 1056 court of another state may provide notice of the issuance of the 1057 order to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any 1058 county of this state by registering the order in that county 1059 pursuant to section 2919.272 of the Revised Code and filing a 1060 copy of the registered order with a law enforcement agency in 1061 that county. 1062

(2) A petitioner may register a temporary protection 1063 order, protection order, or consent agreement in a county other 1064 than the county in which the court that issued the order or 1065 approved the agreement is located in the following manner: 1066

(a) The petitioner shall obtain a certified copy of the 1067 order or agreement from the clerk of the court that issued the 1068 order or approved the agreement and present that certified copy 1069 to the clerk of the court of common pleas or the clerk of a 1070 municipal court or county court in the county in which the order 1071 or agreement is to be registered. 1072

(b) Upon accepting the certified copy of the order or 1073 agreement for registration, the clerk of the court of common 1074 pleas, municipal court, or county court shall place an 1075 endorsement of registration on the order or agreement and give 1076 the petitioner a copy of the order or agreement that bears that 1077 proof of registration. 1078

(3) The clerk of each court of common pleas, the clerk of 1079 each municipal court, and the clerk of each county court shall 1080 maintain a registry of certified copies of temporary protection 1081 orders, protection orders, or consent agreements that have been 1082 issued or approved by courts in other counties and that have 1083 been registered with the clerk. 1084

(O) Nothing in this section prohibits the domestic 1085 relations division of a court of common pleas in counties that 1086 have a domestic relations division or a court of common pleas in 1087 counties that do not have a domestic relations division from 1088 designating a minor child as a protected party on a protection 1089 order or consent agreement. 1090

Sec. 3113.33. As used in sections 3113.33 to 3113.40 of 1091 the Revised Code: 1092

(A) "Domestic violence" means any of the following: 1093 committing the domestic violence, or another person related by 1109 consanguinity or affinity to the person committing the domestic 1110 violence; 1111

(c) A parent or a child of a spouse, person living as a 1112 spouse, or former spouse of the person committing the domestic 1113 violence, or another person related by consanguinity or affinity 1114 to a spouse, person living as a spouse, or former spouse of the 1115 person committing the domestic violence; 1116

(d) The dependents of any person listed in division (B) (1) 1117
(a), (b), or (c) of this section. 1118

(2) The natural parent of any child of whom the person 1119 committing the domestic violence is the other natural parent or 1120 is the putative other natural parent. 1121

(C) "Shelter for victims of domestic violence" or 1122
"shelter" means a facility that provides temporary residential 1123 service or facilities to family or household members who are 1124 victims of domestic violence or to persons with whom the actor 1125 is or was in a dating relationship who are victims of domestic 1126

violence. 1127

(D) "Person living as a spouse" means a person who is 1128 living or has lived with the person committing the domestic 1129 violence in a common law marital relationship, who otherwise is 1130 cohabiting with the person committing the domestic violence, or 1131 who otherwise has cohabited with the person committing the 1132 domestic violence within five years prior to the date of the 1133 alleged occurrence of the act in question. 1134

(E) "Dating relationship" has the same meaning as in 1135 section 3113.31 of the Revised Code. 1136

(F) "Person with whom the actor is or was in a dating 1137 relationship" means an ~~adult~~ individual who, at the time of the 1138 conduct in question, is in a dating relationship with the actor 1139 who ~~also~~ is an adult or who, within the twelve months preceding 1140 the conduct in question, has had a dating relationship with the 1141 actor who ~~also~~ is an adult. 1142

(G) "Actor" means a person who attempts to cause or causes 1143 bodily injury to another, or places another by threat of force 1144 in fear of imminent physical harm. 1145

Section 2. That existing sections 1901.121, 1907.141, 1146
2106.22, 3103.05, 3103.06, 3105.17, 3105.171, 3113.31, and 1147
3113.33 of the Revised Code are hereby repealed. 1148

Section 3. That section 3105.72 of the Revised Code is 1149 hereby repealed. 1150
