SYNOPSIS

13

Electric utility reliability performance standards

14

R.C. 4905.221

15

Changes from 12 to 24 months, the time period after the bill's effective date that the Public Utilities Commission (PUCO) must first set annual reliability performance standards for electric utilities.

16

17

18

19

Allows PUCO to issue an order to establish a staggered schedule for initial proceedings creating the reliability performance standards for each electric utility.

20

21

22

Specifies that an order for a staggered proceeding schedule must be issued not later than 90 days after the bill's effective date and that the schedule must be staggered over the 24-month period during which the commission is required to set the initial reliability performance standards under the bill.
