SYNOPSIS 9

Offender's payment of child maintenance 10

R.C. 2929.18 11

Requires a court to consider an offender's ability to pay 12 restitution in the form of child maintenance when determining 13 the amount of such maintenance. 14

Regarding an offender who is incarcerated and unable to 15 pay the ordered child maintenance, requires, rather than 16 authorizes, the offender, upon release, to enter into a payment 17 plan with the court to address any arrearage. 18

Clarifies the language in the bill that requires the 19 amount of restitution in the form of child maintenance to be 20 reduced by the amount of any civil judgement ordered to be paid 21 by the offender to the victim. 22
