SYNOPSIS

	14
Input from the child support enforcement agency	15
R.C. 3123.58	16
Clarifies that the court with jurisdiction over a child support order is the court that may authorize limited driving privileges for a driver whose license has been suspended for failure to pay child support.	17 18 19 20
Restores current law that requires the court to seek and consider the opinion of the relevant child support enforcement agency regarding whether an individual should be granted limited driving privileges, rather than the bill's general authorization for the agency to submit its opinion.	21 22 23 24 25
Specifies that the driving abstract provided by the petitioner for limited driving privileges be current, rather than recent, as under current law.	26 27 28
Expands the types of proof of limited driving privileges documentation that a court can issue to a person by specifying that the proof can be any written document, rather than solely a permit card, as under current law.	29 30 31 32
