

I am against people performing lashing & hair services without education or a license. Services gone wrong can lead to permanent conditions and disabilities such as hair loss and blindness. In the worst-case scenario, the person at fault has to be held accountable.

-Megan Cook