wound, injury, disability, or condition of a nature that 128080 reasonably indicates abuse or neglect of the client or patient. 128081

(c) The abuse or neglect does not arise out of the client's 128082 any physical or mental wound, injury, disability, or condition of 128095 a nature that reasonably indicates abuse or neglect of the child, 128096 section 5120.173 of the Revised Code, the person making the report 128107 shall make it to the public children services agency or a peace 128108 officer in the county in which the child resides or in which the 128109

the person making the report shall make it to the entity specified 128112 in that section. 128113

(b) Except as provided in division (A)(4)(c) of this section, 128114 a cleric is not required to make a report pursuant to division 128115 (A)(4)(a) of this section concerning any communication the cleric 128116 accordance with division (C) of section 2317.02 of the Revised 128118 communication in a civil or criminal proceeding. 128120

(c) The penitent in a cleric-penitent relationship described 128121 in division (A)(4)(b) of this section is deemed to have waived any 128122 testimonial privilege under division (C) of section 2317.02 of the 128123 child under eighteen years of age or is a person under twenty-one 128130 years of age with a developmental disability or physical 128131

(ii) The cleric knows, or has reasonable cause to believe 128133 based on facts that would cause a reasonable person in a similar 128134 suffered or faces a threat of suffering any physical or mental 128137 communication the cleric receives from the penitent is in 128148 violation of the sacred trust. 128149

(e) As used in divisions (A)(1) and (4) of this section, 128150
"cleric" and "sacred trust" have the same meanings as in section 128151

2317.02 of the Revised Code. 128152

(B) Anyone who knows, or has reasonable cause to suspect 128153 based on facts that would cause a reasonable person in similar 128154 circumstances to suspect, that a child under eighteen years of 128155 developmental disability or physical impairment, has suffered or 128157 faces a threat of suffering any physical or mental wound, injury, 128158 suspect to the entity or persons specified in this division. 128162 Except as provided in section 5120.173 of the Revised Code, a 128163 person making a report or causing a report to be made under this 128164 division shall make it or cause it to be made to the public 128165 children services agency or to a peace officer. In the 128166 circumstances described in section 5120.173 of the Revised Code, a 128167

division shall make it or cause it to be made to the entity 128169 specified in that section. 128170

(C) Any report made pursuant to division (A) or (B) of this 128171 section shall be made forthwith either by telephone or in person 128172 and shall be followed by a written report, if requested by the 128173 receiving agency or officer. The written report shall contain: 128174 parents or the person or persons having custody of the child, if 128176 known; 128177

(2) The child's age and the nature and extent of the child's 128178 injuries, abuse, or neglect that is known or reasonably suspected 128179 or believed, as applicable, to have occurred or of the threat of 128180 injury, abuse, or neglect that is known or reasonably suspected or 128181 believed, as applicable, to exist, including any evidence of 128182 previous injuries, abuse, or neglect; 128183

(3) Any other information, including, but not limited to, 128184 results and reports of any medical examinations, tests, or 128185 procedures performed under division (D) of this section, that 128186 might be helpful in establishing the cause of the injury, abuse, 128187 or neglect that is known or reasonably suspected or believed, as 128188 applicable, to have occurred or of the threat of injury, abuse, or 128189 neglect that is known or reasonably suspected or believed, as 128190 applicable, to exist. 128191

(D)(1) Any person, who is required by division (A) of this 128192 section to report child abuse or child neglect that is known or 128193 reasonably suspected or believed to have occurred, may take or 128194 cause to be taken color photographs of areas of trauma visible on 128195 a child and, if medically necessary for the purpose of diagnosing 128196 or treating injuries that are suspected to have occurred as a 128197 result of child abuse or child neglect, perform or cause to be 128198 performed radiological examinations and any other medical 128199 examinations of, and tests or procedures on, the child. 128200

(2) The results and any available reports of examinations, 128201 tests, or procedures made under division (D)(1) of this section 128202 this section. Any additional reports of examinations, tests, or 128204 procedures that become available shall be provided to the public 128205 children services agency, upon request. 128206

(3) If a health care professional provides health care 128207 services in a hospital, children's advocacy center, or emergency 128208 medical facility to a child about whom a report has been made 128209 under division (A) of this section, the health care professional 128210 may take any steps that are reasonably necessary for the release 128211 or discharge of the child to an appropriate environment. Before 128212 the child's release or discharge, the health care professional may 128213 obtain information, or consider information obtained, from other 128214 entities or individuals that have knowledge about the child. 128215

Nothing in division (D)(3) of this section shall be construed to 128216 alter the responsibilities of any person under sections 2151.27 128217 and 2151.31 of the Revised Code. 128218

(4) A health care professional may conduct medical 128219 examinations, tests, or procedures on the siblings of a child 128220 about whom a report has been made under division (A) of this 128221 section and on other children who reside in the same home as the 128222 child, if the professional determines that the examinations, 128223 tests, or procedures are medically necessary to diagnose or treat 128224 the siblings or other children in order to determine whether 128225 reports under division (A) of this section are warranted with 128226 respect to such siblings or other children. The results of the 128227 examinations, tests, or procedures on the siblings and other 128228 children may be included in a report made pursuant to division (A) 128229
of this section. 128230

(5) Medical examinations, tests, or procedures conducted 128231 under divisions (D)(1) and (4) of this section and decisions 128232 regarding the release or discharge of a child under division 128233 (D)(3) of this section do not constitute a law enforcement 128234 investigation or activity. 128235

(E)(1) When a peace officer receives a report made pursuant 128236 to division (A) or (B) of this section, upon receipt of the 128237 report, the peace officer who receives the report shall refer the 128238 report to the appropriate public children services agency, in 128239 accordance with requirements specified under division (B)(6) of 128240 section 2151.4211 of the Revised Code, unless an arrest is made at 128241 the time of the report that results in the appropriate public 128242 children services agency being contacted concerning the possible 128243 abuse or neglect of a child or the possible threat of abuse or 128244 neglect of a child. 128245

(2) When a public children services agency receives a report 128246 pursuant to this division or division (A) or (B) of this section, 128247 upon receipt of the report, the public children services agency 128248 shall do all of the following: 128249

(a) Comply with section 2151.422 of the Revised Code; 128250

(b) If the county served by the agency is also served by a 128251 children's advocacy center and the report alleges sexual abuse of 128252 a child or another type of abuse of a child that is specified in 128253 the memorandum of understanding that creates the center as being 128254 within the center's jurisdiction, comply regarding the report with 128255 the protocol and procedures for referrals and investigations, with 128256 the coordinating activities, and with the authority or 128257 responsibility for performing or providing functions, activities, 128258 and services stipulated in the interagency agreement entered into 128259 under section 2151.428 of the Revised Code relative to that 128260 center; 128261

(c) Unless an arrest is made at the time of the report that 128262 results in the appropriate law enforcement agency being contacted 128263 concerning the possible abuse or neglect of a child or the 128264 possible threat of abuse or neglect of a child, and in accordance 128265 with requirements specified under division (B)(6) of section 128266 2151.4211 of the Revised Code, notify the appropriate law 128267 enforcement agency of the report, if the public children services 128268 agency received either of the following: 128269

(i) A report of abuse of a child; 128270

(ii) A report of neglect of a child that alleges a type of 128271 neglect identified by the department of job and family services in 128272 rules adopted under division (L)(2) of this section. 128273

(F) No peace officer shall remove a child about whom a report 128274 is made pursuant to this section from the child's parents, 128275 stepparents, or guardian or any other persons having custody of 128276 the child without consultation with the public children services 128277 agency, unless, in the judgment of the officer, and, if the report 128278 was made by physician, the physician, immediate removal is 128279 considered essential to protect the child from further abuse or 128280 neglect. The agency that must be consulted shall be the agency 128281 conducting the investigation of the report as determined pursuant 128282

to section 2151.422 of the Revised Code. 128283

(G)(1) Except as provided in section 2151.422 of the Revised 128284
Code or in an interagency agreement entered into under section 128285 2151.428 of the Revised Code that applies to the particular 128286 report, the public children services agency shall investigate, 128287 within twenty-four hours, each report of child abuse or child 128288 neglect that is known or reasonably suspected or believed to have 128289 occurred and of a threat of child abuse or child neglect that is 128290 known or reasonably suspected or believed to exist that is 128291 referred to it under this section to determine the circumstances 128292 surrounding the injuries, abuse, or neglect or the threat of 128293 injury, abuse, or neglect, the cause of the injuries, abuse, 128294 neglect, or threat, and the person or persons responsible. The 128295 investigation shall be made in cooperation with the law 128296 enforcement agency and in accordance with the memorandum of 128297 understanding prepared under sections 2151.4210 to 2151.4224 of 128298 the Revised Code. A representative of the public children services 128299 agency shall, at the time of initial contact with the person 128300 subject to the investigation, inform the person of the specific 128301 complaints or allegations made against the person. The information 128302 shall be given in a manner that is consistent with division (I)(1) 128303 of this section and protects the rights of the person making the 128304 report under this section. 128305

A failure to make the investigation in accordance with the 128306 memorandum is not grounds for, and shall not result in, the 128307 dismissal of any charges or complaint arising from the report or 128308 the suppression of any evidence obtained as a result of the report 128309 and does not give, and shall not be construed as giving, any 128310 rights or any grounds for appeal or post-conviction relief to any 128311 person. The public children services agency shall report each case 128312 to the uniform statewide automated child welfare information 128313 system that the department of job and family services shall 128314 maintain in accordance with section 5101.13 of the Revised Code. 128315

The public children services agency shall submit a report of its 128316 investigation, in writing, to the law enforcement agency. 128317

(2) The public children services agency shall make any 128318 recommendations to the county prosecuting attorney or city 128319 director of law that it considers necessary to protect any 128320 children that are brought to its attention. 128321

(H)(1)(a) Except as provided in divisions (H)(1)(b) and 128322
(I)(3) of this section, any person, health care professional, 128323 hospital, institution, school, health department, or agency shall 128324 be immune from any civil or criminal liability for injury, death, 128325 or loss to person or property that otherwise might be incurred or 128326 imposed as a result of any of the following: 128327

(i) Participating in the making of reports pursuant to 128328 division (A) of this section or in the making of reports in good 128329 faith, pursuant to division (B) of this section; 128330

(ii) Participating in medical examinations, tests, or 128331 procedures under division (D) of this section; 128332

(iii) Providing information used in a report made pursuant to 128333 division (A) of this section or providing information in good 128334 faith used in a report made pursuant to division (B) of this 128335
section; 128336

(iv) Participating in a judicial proceeding resulting from a 128337 report made pursuant to division (A) of this section or 128338 participating in good faith in a proceeding resulting from a 128339 report made pursuant to division (B) of this section. 128340

(b) Immunity under division (H)(1)(a)(ii) of this section 128341 shall not apply when a health care provider has deviated from the 128342 standard of care applicable to the provider's profession. 128343

(c) Notwithstanding section 4731.22 of the Revised Code, the 128344 physician-patient privilege shall not be a ground for excluding 128345 evidence regarding a child's injuries, abuse, or neglect, or the 128346 cause of the injuries, abuse, or neglect in any judicial 128347 proceeding resulting from a report submitted pursuant to this 128348
section. 128349

(2) In any civil or criminal action or proceeding in which it 128350 is alleged and proved that participation in the making of a report 128351 under this section was not in good faith or participation in a 128352 judicial proceeding resulting from a report made under this 128353 section was not in good faith, the court shall award the 128354 prevailing party reasonable attorney's fees and costs and, if a 128355 civil action or proceeding is voluntarily dismissed, may award 128356 reasonable attorney's fees and costs to the party against whom the 128357 civil action or proceeding is brought. 128358

(I)(1) Except as provided in divisions (I)(4) and (N) of this 128359 section and sections 2151.423 and 2151.4210 of the Revised Code, a 128360 report made under this section is confidential. The information 128361 provided in a report made pursuant to this section and the name of 128362 the person who made the report shall not be released for use, and 128363 shall not be used, as evidence in any civil action or proceeding 128364 brought against the person who made the report. Nothing in this 128365 division shall preclude the use of reports of other incidents of 128366 known or suspected abuse or neglect in a civil action or 128367 proceeding brought pursuant to division (M) of this section 128368 against a person who is alleged to have violated division (A)(1) 128369 of this section, provided that any information in a report that 128370 would identify the child who is the subject of the report or the 128371 maker of the report, if the maker of the report is not the 128372 defendant or an agent or employee of the defendant, has been 128373 redacted. In a criminal proceeding, the report is admissible in 128374 evidence in accordance with the Rules of Evidence and is subject 128375 to discovery in accordance with the Rules of Criminal Procedure. 128376

(2)(a) Except as provided in division (I)(2)(b) of this 128377 section, no person shall permit or encourage the unauthorized 128378 dissemination of the contents of any report made under this 128379
section. 128380

(b) A health care professional that obtains the same 128381 information contained in a report made under this section from a 128382 source other than the report may disseminate the information, if 128383 its dissemination is otherwise permitted by law. 128384

(3) A person who knowingly makes or causes another person to 128385 make a false report under division (B) of this section that 128386 alleges that any person has committed an act or omission that 128387 resulted in a child being an abused child or a neglected child is 128388 guilty of a violation of section 2921.14 of the Revised Code. 128389

(4) If a report is made pursuant to division (A) or (B) of 128390 this section and the child who is the subject of the report dies 128391 for any reason at any time after the report is made, but before 128392 the child attains eighteen years of age, the public children 128393 services agency or peace officer to which the report was made or 128394 referred, on the request of the child fatality review board, the 128395 suicide fatality review committee, or the director of health 128396 pursuant to guidelines established under section 3701.70 of the 128397 Revised Code, shall submit a summary sheet of information 128398 providing a summary of the report to the review board or review 128399 committee of the county in which the deceased child resided at the 128400 time of death or to the director. On the request of the review 128401 board, review committee, or director, the agency or peace officer 128402 may, at its discretion, make the report available to the review 128403 board, review committee, or director. If the county served by the 128404 public children services agency is also served by a children's 128405 advocacy center and the report of alleged sexual abuse of a child 128406 or another type of abuse of a child is specified in the memorandum 128407 of understanding that creates the center as being within the 128408 center's jurisdiction, the agency or center shall perform the 128409 duties and functions specified in this division in accordance with 128410 the interagency agreement entered into under section 2151.428 of 128411 the Revised Code relative to that advocacy center. 128412

(5) A public children services agency shall advise a person 128413 alleged to have inflicted abuse or neglect on a child who is the 128414 subject of a report made pursuant to this section, including a 128415 report alleging sexual abuse of a child or another type of abuse 128416 of a child referred to a children's advocacy center pursuant to an 128417 interagency agreement entered into under section 2151.428 of the 128418 Revised Code, in writing of the disposition of the investigation. 128419
The agency shall not provide to the person any information that 128420 identifies the person who made the report, statements of 128421 witnesses, or police or other investigative reports. 128422

(J) Any report that is required by this section, other than a 128423 report that is made to the state highway patrol as described in 128424 section 5120.173 of the Revised Code, shall result in protective 128425 services and emergency supportive services being made available by 128426 the public children services agency on behalf of the children 128427 about whom the report is made, in an effort to prevent further 128428 neglect or abuse, to enhance their welfare, and, whenever 128429 possible, to preserve the family unit intact. The agency required 128430 to provide the services shall be the agency conducting the 128431 investigation of the report pursuant to section 2151.422 of the 128432
Revised Code. 128433

(K)(1) Except as provided in division (K)(4) or (5) of this 128434 section, a person who is required to make a report under division 128435 (A) of this section may make a reasonable number of requests of 128436 the public children services agency that receives or is referred 128437

the report, or of the children's advocacy center that is referred 128438 the report if the report is referred to a children's advocacy 128439 center pursuant to an interagency agreement entered into under 128440 section 2151.428 of the Revised Code, to be provided with the 128441
following information: 128442

(a) Whether the agency or center has initiated an 128443 investigation of the report; 128444

(b) Whether the agency or center is continuing to investigate 128445
the report; 128446

(c) Whether the agency or center is otherwise involved with 128447 the child who is the subject of the report; 128448

(d) The general status of the health and safety of the child 128449 who is the subject of the report; 128450

(e) Whether the report has resulted in the filing of a 128451 complaint in juvenile court or of criminal charges in another 128452
court. 128453

(2)(a) A person may request the information specified in 128454 division (K)(1) of this section only if, at the time the report is 128455 made, the person's name, address, and telephone number are 128456 provided to the person who receives the report. 128457

(b) When a peace officer or employee of a public children 128458 services agency receives a report pursuant to division (A) or (B) 128459

changes residence to another county, forward any requests for 130359 information about that specific offender or delinquent child to 130360
the appropriate sheriff; 130361

(15) Through the bureau of criminal identification and 130362

(B) of section 2950.05 of the Revised Code. The immediate 130370 notification by electronic means shall be provided to the 130371 appropriate officials in each state in which the offender or 130372 delinquent child is required to register a residence, school, 130373 institution of higher education, or place of employment address. 130374
The notification shall contain the offender's or delinquent 130375 child's name and all of the information the bureau receives from 130376 the sheriff with whom the offender or delinquent child registered 130377 the address or provided the notice of change of address or 130378 registered the new address. 130379

(B) The attorney general in consultation with local law 130380 enforcement representatives, may adopt rules that establish one or 130381 more categories of neighbors of an offender or delinquent child 130382 who, in addition to the occupants of residential premises and 130383 other persons specified in division (A)(1) of section 2950.11 of 130384 the Revised Code, must be given the notice described in division 130385
(B) of that section. 130386

(C) No person, other than a local law enforcement 130387 representative, shall knowingly do any of the following: 130388

(1) Gain or attempt to gain access to the database 130389 established and operated by the attorney general, through the 130390 bureau of criminal identification and investigation, pursuant to 130391 division (A)(13) of this section. 130392

(2) Permit any person to inspect any information obtained 130393 through use of the database described in division (C)(1) of this 130394 section, other than as permitted under that division. 130395

(D) As used in this section, "local law enforcement 130396 representatives" means representatives of the sheriffs of this 130397 state, representatives of the municipal chiefs of police and 130398

Sec. 3109.051. (A) If a divorce, dissolution, legal 130402 separation, or annulment proceeding involves a child and if the 130403 court has not issued a shared parenting decree, the court shall 130404 consider any mediation report filed pursuant to section 3109.052 130405 of the Revised Code and, in accordance with division (C) of this 130406 section, shall make a just and reasonable order or decree 130407 permitting each parent who is not the residential parent to have 130408 parenting time with the child at the time and under the conditions 130409 that the court directs, unless the court determines that it would 130410 not be in the best interest of the child to permit that parent to 130411 have parenting time with the child and includes in the journal its 130412 findings of fact and conclusions of law. Whenever possible, the 130413 order or decree permitting the parenting time shall ensure the 130414 opportunity for both parents to have frequent and continuing 130415 contact with the child, unless frequent and continuing contact by 130416 either parent with the child would not be in the best interest of 130417 the child. The court shall include in its final decree a specific 130418 schedule of parenting time for that parent. Except as provided in 130419 division (E)(6) of section 3113.31 of the Revised Code, if the 130420 court, pursuant to this section, grants parenting time to a parent 130421 or companionship or visitation rights to any other person with 130422 respect to any child, it shall not require the public children 130423 services agency to provide supervision of or other services 130424 related to that parent's exercise of parenting time or that 130425 person's exercise of companionship or visitation rights with 130426 respect to the child. This section does not limit the power of a 130427 juvenile court pursuant to Chapter 2151. of the Revised Code to 130428 issue orders with respect to children who are alleged to be 130429 abused, neglected, or dependent children or to make dispositions 130430 of children who are adjudicated abused, neglected, or dependent 130431 children or of a common pleas court to issue orders pursuant to 130432

section 3113.31 of the Revised Code. 130433

(B)(1) In a divorce, dissolution of marriage, legal 130434 separation, annulment, or child support proceeding that involves a 130435 child, the court may grant reasonable companionship or visitation 130436 rights to any grandparent, any person related to the child by 130437 consanguinity or affinity, or any other person other than a parent, if all of the following apply:

(a) The grandparent, relative, or other person files a motion with the court seeking companionship or visitation rights.

(b) The court determines that the grandparent, relative, or other person has an interest in the welfare of the child.

(c) The court determines that the granting of the companionship or visitation rights is in the best interest of the child.

(2) A motion may be filed under division (B)(1) of this section during the pendency of the divorce, dissolution of marriage, legal separation, annulment, or child support proceeding or, if a motion was not filed at that time or was filed at that time and the circumstances in the case have changed, at any time after a decree or final order is issued in the case.

visitation matters under this section or under section 3109.11 or 130471 3109.12 of the Revised Code, and resolving any issues related to 130472
the making of any determination with respect to parenting time or 130473
visitation rights or the establishment of any specific parenting 130474 time or visitation schedule, the court, in its discretion, may 130475 interview in chambers any or all involved children regarding their 130476 wishes and concerns. If the court interviews any child concerning 130477 the child's wishes and concerns regarding those parenting time or 130478 visitation matters, the interview shall be conducted in chambers, 130479 and no person other than the child, the child's attorney, the 130480 judge, any necessary court personnel, and, in the judge's 130481 discretion, the attorney of each parent shall be permitted to be 130482 present in the chambers during the interview. No person shall 130483 obtain or attempt to obtain from a child a written or recorded 130484 statement or affidavit setting forth the wishes and concerns of 130485 the child regarding those parenting time or visitation matters. A 130486 court, in considering the factors listed in division (D) of this 130487 section for purposes of determining whether to grant any parenting 130488 time or visitation rights, establishing a parenting time or 130489
3109.12 of the Revised Code, or resolving any issues related to 130493
visitation rights or the establishment of any specific parenting 130495 time or visitation schedule, shall not accept or consider a 130496 written or recorded statement or affidavit that purports to set 130497 forth the child's wishes or concerns regarding those parenting 130498 time or visitation matters. 130499

(D) In determining whether to grant parenting time to a 130500 parent pursuant to this section or section 3109.12 of the Revised 130501

Code or companionship or visitation rights to a grandparent, 130502 relative, or other person pursuant to this section or section 130503 3109.11 or 3109.12 of the Revised Code, in establishing a specific 130504 parenting time or visitation schedule, and in determining other 130505 parenting time matters under this section or section 3109.12 of 130506 the Revised Code or visitation matters under this section or 130507 consider all of the following factors: 130509

(1) The prior interaction and interrelationships of the child 130510 with the child's parents, siblings, and other persons related by 130511 sibling, or relative of the child; 130514

(2) The geographical location of the residence of each parent 130515 and the distance between those residences, and if the person is 130516 not a parent, the geographical location of that person's residence 130517 and the distance between that person's residence and the child's 130518 residence; 130519

(3) The child's and parents' available time, including, but 130520 not limited to, each parent's employment schedule, the child's 130521 vacation schedule; 130523

(4) The age of the child; 130524

(5) The child's adjustment to home, school, and community; 130525

(6) If the court has interviewed the child in chambers, 130526 pursuant to division (C) of this section, regarding the wishes and 130527 concerns of the child as to parenting time by the parent who is 130528 not the residential parent or companionship or visitation by the 130529 grandparent, relative, or other person who requested companionship 130530 or visitation, as to a specific parenting time or visitation 130531 schedule, or as to other parenting time or visitation matters, the 130532

(14) Whether either parent has established a residence or is 130577 planning to establish a residence outside this state; 130578

(15) In relation to requested companionship or visitation by 130579

(2) When a court grants parenting time rights to a parent who is not the residential parent, the court shall determine whether that parent has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a violation of section 2919.25 of the Revised Code involving a victim who at the time of the commission of the offense was a member of the family or household that is the subject of the proceeding, has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to any other offense involving a victim who at the time of the commission of the offense was a member of the family or household that is the subject of the proceeding and caused physical harm to the victim in the commission of the offense, or has been determined to be the perpetrator of the abusive act that is the basis of an adjudication that a child is an abused child. If the court

been determined to be the perpetrator of an abusive act that is the basis of a child abuse adjudication, the court shall issue an order stating that a copy of any notice of relocation that is filed with the court pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section will be sent to the parent who is given the parenting time rights in accordance with division (G)(1) of this section.

If the court determines that the parent who is granted the parenting time rights has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a violation of section 2919.25 of the Revised Code involving a victim who at the time of the commission of the offense was a member of the family or household that is the subject of the proceeding, has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to any other offense involving a victim who at the time of the commission of the offense was a member of the family or household that is the subject of the proceeding and caused physical harm to the victim in the commission of the offense, or has been determined to be the perpetrator of the abusive act that is the basis of an adjudication that a child is an abused child, it shall issue an order stating that that parent will not be given a copy of any notice of relocation that is filed with the court pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section unless the court determines that it is in the best interest of the children to give that parent a copy of the notice of relocation, issues an order stating that that parent will be given a copy of any notice of relocation filed pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section, and issues specific written findings of fact in support of its determination.

(3) If a court, prior to April 11, 1991, issued an order granting parenting time rights to a parent who is not the residential parent and did not require the residential parent in that order to give the parent who is granted the parenting time rights notice of any change of address and if the residential parent files a notice of relocation pursuant to division (G)(1) of 130659 this section, the court shall determine if the parent who is 130660 granted the parenting time rights has been convicted of or pleaded 130661 guilty to a violation of section 2919.25 of the Revised Code 130662 involving a victim who at the time of the commission of the 130663 offense was a member of the family or household that is the 130664 subject of the proceeding, has been convicted of or pleaded guilty 130665 to any other offense involving a victim who at the time of the 130666 commission of the offense was a member of the family or household 130667 that is the subject of the proceeding and caused physical harm to 130668 the victim in the commission of the offense, or has been 130669 determined to be the perpetrator of the abusive act that is the 130670 basis of an adjudication that a child is an abused child. If the 130671 court determines that the parent who is granted the parenting time 130672 rights has not been so convicted and has not been determined to be 130673 the perpetrator of an abusive act that is the basis of a child 130674 abuse adjudication, the court shall issue an order stating that a 130675 copy of any notice of relocation that is filed with the court 130676 pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section will be sent to the 130677 parent who is granted parenting time rights in accordance with 130678 division (G)(1) of this section. 130679

If the court determines that the parent who is granted the 130680
violation of section 2919.25 of the Revised Code involving a 130682
victim who at the time of the commission of the offense was a 130683
offense involving a victim who at the time of the commission of 130686
the offense was a member of the family or household that is the 130687
subject of the proceeding and caused physical harm to the victim 130688
in the commission of the offense, or has been determined to be the 130689
adjudication that a child is an abused child, it shall issue an 130691

notice of relocation that is filed with the court pursuant to 130693
it is in the best interest of the children to give that parent a 130695
that parent will be given a copy of any notice of relocation filed 130697
written findings of fact in support of its determination. 130699

(4) If a parent who is granted parenting time rights pursuant 130700 to this section or any other section of the Revised Code is 130701 authorized by an order issued pursuant to this section or any 130702 other court order to receive a copy of any notice of relocation 130703 that is filed pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section or 130704 pursuant to court order, if the residential parent intends to move 130705 to a residence other than the residence address specified in the 130706 parenting time order, and if the residential parent does not want 130707 the parent who is granted the parenting time rights to receive a 130708 copy of the relocation notice because the parent with parenting 130709 time rights has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a violation 130710 of section 2919.25 of the Revised Code involving a victim who at 130711 the time of the commission of the offense was a member of the 130712 family or household that is the subject of the proceeding, has 130713 been convicted of or pleaded guilty to any other offense involving 130714 a victim who at the time of the commission of the offense was a 130715
member of the family or household that is the subject of the 130716 proceeding and caused physical harm to the victim in the 130717 commission of the offense, or has been determined to be the 130718 perpetrator of the abusive act that is the basis of an 130719
adjudication that a child is an abused child, the residential 130720 parent may file a motion with the court requesting that the parent 130721 who is granted the parenting time rights not receive a copy of any 130722 notice of relocation. Upon the filing of the motion, the court 130723 shall schedule a hearing on the motion and give both parents 130724 notice of the date, time, and location of the hearing. If the 130725

rights has been so convicted or has been determined to be the 130727 perpetrator of an abusive act that is the basis of a child abuse 130728 adjudication, the court shall issue an order stating that the 130729 parent who is granted the parenting time rights will not be given 130730 a copy of any notice of relocation that is filed with the court 130731 pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section or that the 130732 residential parent is no longer required to give that parent a 130733 copy of any notice of relocation unless the court determines that 130734
it is in the best interest of the children to give that parent a 130735
that parent will be given a copy of any notice of relocation filed 130737
written findings of fact in support of its determination. If it 130739 does not so find, it shall dismiss the motion. 130740

(H)(1) Subject to section 3125.16 and division (F) of section 130741 3319.321 of the Revised Code, a parent of a child who is not the 130742 residential parent of the child is entitled to access, under the 130743 same terms and conditions under which access is provided to the 130744 residential parent, to any record that is related to the child and 130745 to which the residential parent of the child legally is provided 130746 access, unless the court determines that it would not be in the 130747 best interest of the child for the parent who is not the 130748 residential parent to have access to the records under those same 130749 terms and conditions. If the court determines that the parent of a 130750 child who is not the residential parent should not have access to 130751 records related to the child under the same terms and conditions 130752 as provided for the residential parent, the court shall specify 130753
the terms and conditions under which the parent who is not the 130754 residential parent is to have access to those records, shall enter 130755 its written findings of facts and opinion in the journal, and 130756 shall issue an order containing the terms and conditions to both 130757 the residential parent and the parent of the child who is not the residential parent. The court shall include in every order issued pursuant to this division notice that any keeper of a record who knowingly fails to comply with the order or division (H) of this section is in contempt of court.

(2) Subject to section 3125.16 and division (F) of section 3319.321 of the Revised Code, subsequent to the issuance of an order under division (H)(1) of this section, the keeper of any record that is related to a particular child and to which the residential parent legally is provided access shall permit the parent of the child who is not the residential parent to have access to the record under the same terms and conditions under which access is provided to the residential parent, unless the residential parent has presented the keeper of the record with a copy of an order issued under division (H)(1) of this section that limits the terms and conditions under which the parent who is not the residential parent is to have access to records pertaining to the child and the order pertains to the record in question. If the residential parent presents the keeper of the record with a copy of that type of order, the keeper of the record shall permit the parent who is not the residential parent to have access to the record only in accordance with the most recent order that has been issued pursuant to division (H)(1) of this section and presented to the keeper by the residential parent or the parent who is not the residential parent. Any keeper of any record who knowingly fails to comply with division (H) of this section or with any order issued pursuant to division (H)(1) of this section is in contempt of court.

confidential law enforcement investigatory record. The court shall 130790 schedule a hearing on the motion and give notice of the date, 130791 time, and location of the hearing to all parties. 130792

(I) A court that issues a parenting time order or decree 130793 pursuant to this section or section 3109.12 of the Revised Code 130794 shall determine whether the parent granted the right of parenting 130795 time is to be permitted access, in accordance with section 130796 5104.039 of the Revised Code, to any child ~~day-care~~ care center 130797 that is, or that in the future may be, attended by the children 130798 with whom the right of parenting time is granted. Unless the court 130799 determines that the parent who is not the residential parent 130800 should not have access to the center to the same extent that the 130801 residential parent is granted access to the center, the parent who 130802 is not the residential parent and who is granted parenting time 130803 rights is entitled to access to the center to the same extent that 130804 the residential parent is granted access to the center. If the 130805 court determines that the parent who is not the residential parent 130806 should not have access to the center to the same extent that the 130807 residential parent is granted such access under section 5104.039 130808 of the Revised Code, the court shall specify the terms and 130809 conditions under which the parent who is not the residential 130810 parent is to have access to the center, provided that the access 130811 shall not be greater than the access that is provided to the 130812 residential parent under section 5104.039 of the Revised Code, the 130813 court shall enter its written findings of fact and opinions in the 130814 journal, and the court shall include the terms and conditions of 130815 access in the parenting time order or decree. 130816

(J)(1) Subject to division (F) of section 3319.321 of the 130817 Revised Code, when a court issues an order or decree allocating 130818 parental rights and responsibilities for the care of a child, the 130819 parent of the child who is not the residential parent of the child 130820 is entitled to access, under the same terms and conditions under 130821 which access is provided to the residential parent, to any student 130822 activity that is related to the child and to which the residential 130823 parent of the child legally is provided access, unless the court 130824 determines that it would not be in the best interest of the child 130825 to grant the parent who is not the residential parent access to 130826 the student activities under those same terms and conditions. If 130827 the court determines that the parent of the child who is not the 130828 residential parent should not have access to any student activity 130829 that is related to the child under the same terms and conditions 130830

residential parent is to have access to those student activities, 130833 shall enter its written findings of facts and opinion in the 130834 journal, and shall issue an order containing the terms and 130835 conditions to both the residential parent and the parent of the 130836 child who is not the residential parent. The court shall include 130837 in every order issued pursuant to this division notice that any 130838 school official or employee who knowingly fails to comply with the 130839 order or division (J) of this section is in contempt of court. 130840

(2) Subject to division (F) of section 3319.321 of the 130841 Revised Code, subsequent to the issuance of an order under 130842 division (J)(1) of this section, all school officials and 130843 employees shall permit the parent of the child who is not the 130844 residential parent to have access to any student activity under 130845 the same terms and conditions under which access is provided to 130846 the residential parent of the child, unless the residential parent 130847 has presented the school official or employee, the board of 130848 education of the school, or the governing body of the chartered 130849 nonpublic school with a copy of an order issued under division 130850 (J)(1) of this section that limits the terms and conditions under 130851 which the parent who is not the residential parent is to have 130852 access to student activities related to the child and the order 130853 pertains to the student activity in question. If the residential 130854 parent presents the school official or employee, the board of 130855

nonpublic school with a copy of that type of order, the school 130857 official or employee shall permit the parent who is not the 130858 residential parent to have access to the student activity only in 130859 accordance with the most recent order that has been issued 130860 pursuant to division (J)(1) of this section and presented to the 130861 school official or employee, the board of education of the school, 130862 or the governing body of the chartered nonpublic school by the 130863 residential parent or the parent who is not the residential 130864 parent. Any school official or employee who knowingly fails to 130865 comply with division (J) of this section or with any order issued 130866 pursuant to division (J)(1) of this section is in contempt of 130867

(K) If any person is found in contempt of court for failing 130869 to comply with or interfering with any order or decree granting 130870 parenting time rights issued pursuant to this section or section 130871 3109.12 of the Revised Code or companionship or visitation rights 130872 issued pursuant to this section, section 3109.11 or 3109.12 of the 130873 Revised Code, or any other provision of the Revised Code, the 130874 court that makes the finding, in addition to any other penalty or 130875 remedy imposed, shall assess all court costs arising out of the 130876 contempt proceeding against the person and require the person to 130877 pay any reasonable attorney's fees of any adverse party, as 130878 determined by the court, that arose in relation to the act of 130879 contempt, and may award reasonable compensatory parenting time or 130880 visitation to the person whose right of parenting time or 130881 visitation was affected by the failure or interference if such 130882 compensatory parenting time or visitation is in the best interest 130883 of the child. Any compensatory parenting time or visitation 130884 awarded under this division shall be included in an order issued 130885 by the court and, to the extent possible, shall be governed by the 130886 same terms and conditions as was the parenting time or visitation 130887 that was affected by the failure or interference. 130888

(L) Any parent who requests reasonable parenting time rights 130889 with respect to a child under this section or section 3109.12 of 130890 the Revised Code or any person who requests reasonable 130891 companionship or visitation rights with respect to a child under 130892 this section, section 3109.11 or 3109.12 of the Revised Code, or 130893 any other provision of the Revised Code may file a motion with the 130894 court requesting that it waive all or any part of the costs that 130895 may accrue in the proceedings. If the court determines that the 130896 movant is indigent and that the waiver is in the best interest of 130897 the child, the court, in its discretion, may waive payment of all 130898 or any part of the costs of those proceedings. 130899

service in the uniformed services and who is subject to a 130901 parenting time order may apply to the court for any of the 130902 following temporary orders for the period extending from the date 130903 of the parent's departure to the date of return: 130904

(a) An order delegating all or part of the parent's parenting 130905 time with the child to a relative or to another person who has a 130906 close and substantial relationship with the child if the 130907 delegation is in the child's best interest; 130908

(b) An order that the other parent make the child reasonably 130909 available for parenting time with the parent when the parent is on 130910 leave from active military service; 130911

(c) An order that the other parent facilitate contact, 130912 including telephone and electronic contact, between the parent and 130913 child while the parent is on active military service. 130914

(2)(a) Upon receipt of an order for active military service, 130915 a parent who is subject to a parenting time order and seeks an 130916 order under division (M)(1) of this section shall notify the other 130917 parent who is subject to the parenting time order and apply to the 130918 court as soon as reasonably possible after receipt of the order 130919 for active military service. The application shall include the 130920 date on which the active military service begins. 130921

(b) The court shall schedule a hearing upon receipt of an 130922 application under division (M) of this section and hold the 130923 hearing not later than thirty days after its receipt, except that 130924 the court shall give the case calendar priority and handle the 130925 case expeditiously if exigent circumstances exist in the case. No 130926 hearing shall be required if both parents agree to the terms of 130927 the requested temporary order and the court determines that the 130928 order is in the child's best interest. 130929

(c) In determining whether a delegation under division 130930
(M)(1)(a) of this section is in the child's best interest, the 130931 court shall consider all relevant factors, including the factors 130932 set forth in division (D) of this section. 130933

(d) An order delegating all or part of the parent's parenting 130934 time pursuant to division (M)(1)(a) of this section does not 130935 create standing on behalf of the person to whom parenting time is 130936 delegated to assert visitation or companionship rights independent 130937 of the order. 130938

(3) At the request of a parent who is ordered for active 130939 military service in the uniformed services and who is a subject of 130940 a proceeding pertaining to a parenting time order or pertaining to 130941 a request for companionship rights or visitation with a child, the 130942 court shall permit the parent to participate in the proceeding and 130943 present evidence by electronic means, including communication by 130944 telephone, video, or internet to the extent permitted by rules of 130945 the supreme court of Ohio. 130946

(N) The juvenile court has exclusive jurisdiction to enter 130947 the orders in any case certified to it from another court. 130948

nuisance, if the judge additionally determines that the owner of 132267
the building previously has not been afforded a reasonable 132268 opportunity to abate the public nuisance or has been afforded such 132269 an opportunity and has not refused or failed to abate the public 132270 nuisance, and if the complaint of the municipal corporation, 132271 township, neighbor, tenant, or nonprofit corporation commencing 132272 the action requested the issuance of an injunction as described in 132273 this division, then the judge may issue an injunction requiring 132274 the owner of the building to abate the public nuisance or issue 132275 any other order that the judge considers necessary or appropriate 132276 to cause the abatement of the public nuisance. If an injunction is 132277 issued pursuant to this division, the owner of the building 132278 involved shall be given no more than thirty days from the date of 132279 the entry of the judge's order to comply with the injunction, 132280 unless the judge, for good cause shown, extends the time for 132281 compliance. 132282

(2) If the judge in a civil action described in division 132283
(B)(1) of this section finds at the hearing required by division 132284
nuisance, if the judge additionally determines that the owner of 132286
the building previously has been afforded a reasonable opportunity 132287 to abate the public nuisance and has refused or failed to do so, 132288 and if the complaint of the municipal corporation, township, 132289 neighbor, tenant, or nonprofit corporation commencing the action 132290 requested relief as described in this division, then the judge 132291 shall offer any mortgagee, lienholder, or other interested party 132292 associated with the property on which the building is located, in 132293 the order of the priority of interest in title, the opportunity to 132294 undertake the work and to furnish the materials necessary to abate 132295 the public nuisance. Prior to selecting any interested party, the 132296 judge shall require the interested party to demonstrate the 132297 ability to promptly undertake the work and furnish the materials 132298 required, to provide the judge with a viable financial and 132299 construction plan for the rehabilitation of the building as 132300 described in division (D) of this section, and to post security 132301 for the performance of the work and the furnishing of the 132302 materials. 132303

If the judge determines, at the hearing, that no interested 132304 party is willing or able to undertake the work and to furnish the 132305 materials necessary to abate the public nuisance, or if the judge 132306 determines, at any time after the hearing, that any party who is 132307 undertaking corrective work pursuant to this division cannot or 132308 will not proceed, or has not proceeded with due diligence, the 132309 judge may appoint a receiver pursuant to division (C)(3) of this 132310 section to take possession and control of the building. 132311

(3)(a) The judge in a civil action described in division 132312
(B)(1) of this section shall not appoint any person as a receiver 132313 unless the person first has provided the judge with a viable 132314 financial and construction plan for the rehabilitation of the 132315 building involved as described in division (D) of this section and 132316 has demonstrated the capacity and expertise to perform the 132317 required work and to furnish the required materials in a 132318 satisfactory manner. An appointed receiver may be a financial 132319 institution that possesses an interest of record in the building 132320 or the property on which it is located, a nonprofit corporation as 132321 described in divisions (B)(1) and (C)(3)(b) of this section, 132322 including, but not limited to, a nonprofit corporation that 132323 commenced the action described in division (B)(1) of this section, 132324 or any other qualified property manager. 132325

(b) To be eligible for appointment as a receiver, no part of 132326 the net earnings of a nonprofit corporation shall inure to the 132327 benefit of any private shareholder or individual. Membership on 132328 the board of trustees of a nonprofit corporation appointed as a 132329 receiver does not constitute the holding of a public office or 132330 employment within the meaning of sections 731.02 and 731.12 or any 132331 other section of the Revised Code and does not constitute a direct 132332 or indirect interest in a contract or expenditure of money by any 132333 municipal corporation. A member of a board of trustees of a 132334 nonprofit corporation appointed as a receiver shall not be 132335 disqualified from holding any public office or employment, and 132336 shall not forfeit any public office or employment, by reason of 132337 membership on the board of trustees, notwithstanding any law to 132338
the contrary. 132339

(D) Prior to ordering any work to be undertaken, or the 132340 furnishing of any materials, to abate a public nuisance under this 132341 section, the judge in a civil action described in division (B)(1) 132342 of this section shall review the submitted financial and 132343 construction plan for the rehabilitation of the building involved 132344 and, if it specifies all of the following, shall approve that 132345 plan: 132346

(1) The estimated cost of the labor, materials, and any other 132347 development costs that are required to abate the public nuisance; 132348

(2) The estimated income and expenses of the building and the 132349 property on which it is located after the furnishing of the 132350 materials and the completion of the repairs and improvements; 132351

(3) The terms, conditions, and availability of any financing 132352

132354

(4) If repair and rehabilitation of the building are found not to be feasible, the cost of demolition of the building or of the portions of the building that constitute the public nuisance. 132355

(E) Upon the written request of any of the interested parties to have a building, or portions of a building, that constitute a public nuisance demolished because repair and rehabilitation of the building are found not to be feasible, the judge may order the demolition. However, the demolition shall not be ordered unless the requesting interested parties have paid the costs of demolition and, if any, of the receivership, and, if any, all notes, certificates, mortgages, and fees of the receivership. 132358
132363
132365

(F) Before proceeding with the duties of receiver, any receiver appointed by the judge in a civil action described in division (B)(1) of this section may be required by the judge to post a bond in an amount fixed by the judge, but not exceeding the value of the building involved as determined by the judge. 132366
132367
132370

The judge may empower the receiver to do any or all of the following: 132371
132372

132376

(2) Pay all expenses of operating and conserving the building and the property, including, but not limited to, the cost of electricity, gas, water, sewerage, heating fuel, repairs and supplies, custodian services, taxes and assessments, and insurance premiums, and hire and pay reasonable compensation to a managing agent; 132377
132382

(3) Pay pre-receivership mortgages or installments of them 132383

and other liens;	132384
(4) Perform or enter into contracts for the performance of	132385
all work and the furnishing of materials necessary to abate, and	132386 obtain financing for the abatement of, the public nuisance;	132387
(5) Pursuant to court order, remove and dispose of any	132388 personal property abandoned, stored, or otherwise located in or on	132389
the building and the property that creates a dangerous or unsafe	132390 condition or that constitutes a violation of any local building,	132391 housing, air pollution, sanitation, health, fire, zoning, or	132392 safety code, ordinance, or regulation;	132393
(6) Obtain mortgage insurance for any receiver's mortgage	132394
from any agency of the federal government;	132395
(7) Enter into any agreement and do those things necessary to	132396 maintain and preserve the building and the property and comply	132397 with all local building, housing, air pollution, sanitation,	132398 health, fire, zoning, or safety codes, ordinances, resolutions,	132399
and regulations;	132400
(8) Give the custody of the building and the property, and	132401
the opportunity to abate the nuisance and operate the property, to	132402 its owner or any mortgagee or lienholder of record;	132403
(9) Issue notes and secure them by a mortgage bearing	132404 interest, and upon terms and conditions, that the judge approves.	132405
When sold or transferred by the receiver in return for valuable	132406 consideration in money, material, labor, or services, the notes or	132407 certificates shall be freely transferable. Any mortgages granted	132408 by the receiver shall be superior to any claims of the receiver.	132409
Priority among the receiver's mortgages shall be determined by the	132410 order in which they are recorded.	132411
(G) A receiver appointed pursuant to this section is not	132412
personally liable except for misfeasance, malfeasance, or	132413 nonfeasance in the performance of the functions of the office of	132414

receiver. 132415

(H)(1) The judge in a civil action described in division 132416
(B)(1) of this section may assess as court costs, the expenses 132417 described in division (F)(2) of this section, and may approve 132418 receiver's fees to the extent that they are not covered by the 132419 income from the property. Subject to that limitation, a receiver 132420 appointed pursuant to divisions (C)(2) and (3) of this section is 132421 entitled to receive fees in the same manner and to the same extent 132422 as receivers appointed in actions to foreclose mortgages. 132423

(2)(a) Pursuant to the police powers vested in the state, all 132424 expenditures of a mortgagee, lienholder, or other interested party 132425 that has been selected pursuant to division (C)(2) of this section 132426 to undertake the work and to furnish the materials necessary to 132427 abate a public nuisance, and any expenditures in connection with 132428 the foreclosure of the lien created by this division, is a first 132429 lien upon the building involved and the property on which it is 132430 located and is superior to all prior and subsequent liens or other 132431 encumbrances associated with the building or the property, 132432 including, but not limited to, those for taxes and assessments, 132433 upon the occurrence of both of the following: 132434

(i) The prior approval of the expenditures by, and the entry 132435 of a judgment to that effect by, the judge in the civil action 132436 described in division (B)(1) of this section; 132437

(ii) The recordation of a certified copy of the judgment 132438 entry and a sufficient description of the property on which the 132439 building is located with the county recorder in the county in 132440 which the property is located within sixty days after the date of 132441 the entry of the judgment. 132442

(b) Pursuant to the police powers vested in the state, all 132443 expenses and other amounts paid in accordance with division (F) of 132444 this section by a receiver appointed pursuant to divisions (C)(2) 132445 and (3) of this section, the amounts of any notes issued by the receiver in accordance with division (F) of this section, all mortgages granted by the receiver in accordance with that division, the fees of the receiver approved pursuant to division (H)(1) of this section, and any amounts expended in connection with the foreclosure of a mortgage granted by the receiver in accordance with division (F) of this section or with the foreclosure of the lien created by this division, are a first lien upon the building involved and the property on which it is located and are superior to all prior and subsequent liens or other encumbrances associated with the building or the property, including, but not limited to, those for taxes and assessments, upon the occurrence of both of the following:

(i) The approval of the expenses, amounts, or fees by, and the entry of a judgment to that effect by, the judge in the civil action described in division (B)(1) of this section; or the approval of the mortgages in accordance with division (F)(9) of this section by, and the entry of a judgment to that effect by, that judge;

(ii) The recordation of a certified copy of the judgment entry and a sufficient description of the property on which the building is located, or, in the case of a mortgage, the recordation of the mortgage, a certified copy of the judgment entry, and such a description, with the county recorder of the county in which the property is located within sixty days after the date of the entry of the judgment.

(c) Priority among the liens described in divisions (H)(2)(a) and (b) of this section shall be determined as described in division (I) of this section. Additionally, the creation pursuant to this section of a mortgage lien that is prior to or superior to any mortgage of record at the time the mortgage lien is so created, does not disqualify the mortgage of record as a legal investment under Chapter 1107. or any other chapter of the Revised Code. 132478

(I)(1) If a receiver appointed pursuant to divisions (C)(2) 132480 and (3) of this section files with the judge in the civil action 132481 described in division (B)(1) of this section a report indicating 132482 that the public nuisance has been abated, if the judge confirms 132483 that the receiver has abated the public nuisance, and if the 132484 receiver or any interested party requests the judge to enter an 132485 order directing the receiver to sell the building and the property 132486 on which it is located, the judge may enter that order after 132487 holding a hearing as described in division (I)(2) of this section 132488 and otherwise complying with that division. 132489

(2)(a) The receiver or interested party requesting an order 132490 as described in division (I)(1) of this section shall cause a 132491 notice of the date and time of a hearing on the request to be 132492 served on the owner of the building involved and all other 132493 interested parties in accordance with division (B)(2)(a) of this 132494 section. The judge in the civil action described in division 132495 (B)(1) of this section shall conduct the scheduled hearing. At the 132496 hearing, if the owner or any interested party objects to the sale 132497 of the building and the property, the burden of proof shall be 132498 upon the objecting person to establish, by a preponderance of the 132499 evidence, that the benefits of not selling the building and the 132500 property outweigh the benefits of selling them. If the judge 132501 determines that there is no objecting person, or if the judge 132502 determines that there is one or more objecting persons but no 132503 objecting person has sustained the burden of proof specified in 132504 this division, the judge may enter an order directing the receiver 132505 to offer the building and the property for sale upon terms and 132506 conditions that the judge shall specify. 132507

(b) In any sale of subsidized housing that is ordered 132508 pursuant to this section, the judge shall specify that the 132509 subsidized housing not be conveyed unless that conveyance complies 132510 with applicable federal law and applicable program contracts for 132511 that housing. Any such conveyance shall be subject to the 132512 condition that the purchaser enter into a contract with the 132513 department of housing and urban development or the rural housing 132514 service of the federal department of agriculture under which the 132515 property continues to be subsidized housing and the owner 132516 continues to operate that property as subsidized housing unless 132517 the secretary of housing and urban development or the 132518 administrator of the rural housing service terminates that 132519 property's contract prior to or upon the conveyance of the 132520

property. 132521

(3) If a sale of a building and the property on which it is 132522 located is ordered pursuant to divisions (I)(1) and (2) of this 132523 section and if the sale occurs in accordance with the terms and 132524 conditions specified by the judge in the judge's order of sale, 132525 then the receiver shall distribute the proceeds of the sale and 132526 the balance of any funds that the receiver may possess, after the 132527 payment of the costs of the sale, in the following order of 132528 priority and in the described manner: 132529

(a) First, in satisfaction of any notes issued by the 132530 receiver pursuant to division (F) of this section, in their order 132531 of priority; 132532

(b) Second, any unreimbursed expenses and other amounts paid 132533 in accordance with division (F) of this section by the receiver, 132534 and the fees of the receiver approved pursuant to division (H)(1) 132535

(c) Third, all expenditures of a mortgagee, lienholder, or 132537 other interested party that has been selected pursuant to division 132538
(C)(2) of this section to undertake the work and to furnish the 132539
materials necessary to abate a public nuisance, provided that the 132540 expenditures were approved as described in division (H)(2)(a) of 132541 this section and provided that, if any such interested party 132542 subsequently became the receiver, its expenditures shall be paid 132543 prior to the expenditures of any of the other interested parties 132544 so selected; 132545

(d) Fourth, the amount due for delinquent taxes, assessments, 132546 charges, penalties, and interest owed to this state or a political 132547 subdivision of this state, provided that, if the amount available 132548 for distribution pursuant to division (I)(3)(d) of this section is 132549 insufficient to pay the entire amount of those taxes, assessments, 132550 charges, penalties, and interest, the proceeds and remaining funds 132551 shall be paid to each claimant in proportion to the amount of 132552 those taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, and interest that 132553 each is due. 132554

(e) The amount of any pre-receivership mortgages, liens, or 132555 other encumbrances, in their order of priority. 132556

(4) Following a distribution in accordance with division 132557
(I)(3) of this section, the receiver shall request the judge in 132558 the civil action described in division (B)(1) of this section to 132559 enter an order terminating the receivership. If the judge 132560 determines that the sale of the building and the property on which 132561 it is located occurred in accordance with the terms and conditions 132562 specified by the judge in the judge's order of sale under division 132563 (I)(2) of this section and that the receiver distributed the 132564 proceeds of the sale and the balance of any funds that the 132565 receiver possessed, after the payment of the costs of the sale, in 132566 accordance with division (I)(3) of this section, and if the judge 132567 approves any final accounting required of the receiver, the judge 132568 may terminate the receivership. 132569

(J)(1) A receiver appointed pursuant to divisions (C)(2) and 132570
(3) of this section may be discharged at any time in the 132571 discretion of the judge in the civil action described in division 132572 (B)(1) of this section. The receiver shall be discharged by the 132573 judge as provided in division (I)(4) of this section, or when all 132574 of the following have occurred: 132575

(a) The public nuisance has been abated; 132576

(b) All costs, expenses, and approved fees of the 132577 receivership have been paid; 132578

(c) Either all receiver's notes issued and mortgages granted 132579 pursuant to this section have been paid, or all the holders of the 132580 notes and mortgages request that the receiver be discharged. 132581

(2) If a judge in a civil action described in division (B)(1) 132582 of this section determines that, and enters of record a 132583 declaration that, a public nuisance has been abated by a receiver, 132584 and if, within three days after the entry of the declaration, all 132585 costs, expenses, and approved fees of the receivership have not 132586 been paid in full, then, in addition to the circumstances 132587 specified in division (I) of this section for the entry of such an 132588 order, the judge may enter an order directing the receiver to sell 132589 the building involved and the property on which it is located. Any 132590 such order shall be entered, and the sale shall occur, only in 132591 compliance with division (I) of this section. 132592

(K) The title in any building, and in the property on which 132593 it is located, that is sold at a sale ordered under division (I) 132594 or (J)(2) of this section shall be incontestable in the purchaser 132595 and shall be free and clear of all liens for delinquent taxes, 132596 assessments, charges, penalties, and interest owed to this state 132597 or any political subdivision of this state, that could not be 132598 satisfied from the proceeds of the sale and the remaining funds in 132599 the receiver's possession pursuant to the distribution under 132600 division (I)(3) of this section. All other liens and encumbrances 132601 with respect to the building and the property shall survive the 132602 sale, including, but not limited to, a federal tax lien notice 132603 properly filed in accordance with section 317.09 of the Revised 132604

Code prior to the time of the sale, and the easements and 132605 covenants of record running with the property that were created 132606 prior to the time of the sale. 132607

limitation upon the powers granted to a court of common pleas, a 132609 municipal court or a housing or environmental division of a 132610 municipal court under Chapter 1901. of the Revised Code, or a 132611 county court under Chapter 1907. of the Revised Code. 132612

(2) The monetary and other limitations specified in Chapters 132613 1901. and 1907. of the Revised Code upon the jurisdiction of 132614 municipal and county courts, and of housing or environmental 132615 divisions of municipal courts, in civil actions do not operate as 132616 limitations upon any of the following: 132617

(a) Expenditures of a mortgagee, lienholder, or other 132618 interested party that has been selected pursuant to division 132619
(C)(2) of this section to undertake the work and to furnish the 132620
materials necessary to abate a public nuisance; 132621

(b) Any notes issued by a receiver pursuant to division (F) 132622

(c) Any mortgage granted by a receiver in accordance with 132624 division (F) of this section; 132625

(d) Expenditures in connection with the foreclosure of a 132626 mortgage granted by a receiver in accordance with division (F) of 132627
this section; 132628

(e) The enforcement of an order of a judge entered pursuant 132629 to this section; 132630

(f) The actions that may be taken pursuant to this section by 132631 a receiver or a mortgagee, lienholder, or other interested party 132632 that has been selected pursuant to division (C)(2) of this section 132633

abate a public nuisance. 132635

(3) A judge in a civil action described in division (B)(1) of 132636 this section, or the judge's successor in office, has continuing 132637 jurisdiction to review the condition of any building that was 132638 determined to be a public nuisance pursuant to this section. 132639

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or 132640 prohibit a municipal corporation or township that has filed with 132641 the superintendent of insurance a certified copy of an adopted 132642 resolution, ordinance, or regulation authorizing the procedures 132643 described in divisions (C) and (D) of section 3929.86 of the 132644 Revised Code from receiving insurance proceeds under section 132645

Sec. 3781.06. (A)(1) Any building that may be used as a place 132647 of resort, assembly, education, entertainment, lodging, dwelling, 132648 trade, manufacture, repair, storage, traffic, or occupancy by the 132649 public, any residential building, and all other buildings or parts 132650 and appurtenances of those buildings erected within this state, 132651 shall be so constructed, erected, equipped, and maintained that 132652 they shall be safe and sanitary for their intended use and 132653 occupancy. 132654

(2) Nothing in sections 3781.06 to 3781.18, 3781.40, and 132655 3791.04 of the Revised Code shall be construed to limit the power 132656 of the division of industrial compliance of the department of 132657 commerce to adopt rules of uniform application governing 132658 manufactured home parks pursuant to section 4781.26 of the Revised 132659
Code. 132660

(B) Sections 3781.06 to 3781.18, 3781.40, and 3791.04 of the 132661
Revised Code do not apply to any of the following: 132662

(1) Buildings or structures that are incident to the use for 132663 agricultural purposes of the land on which the buildings or 132664 structures are located, provided those buildings or structures are 132665 not used in the business of retail trade. For purposes of this 132666 division, a building or structure is not considered used in the 132667 business of retail trade if fifty per cent or more of the gross 132668 permitted by law. The board shall amend or annul any rule or issue 132827 an authorization for the use of a new material or manufactured 132828 unit on any like application. No department, officer, board, or 132829 commission of the state other than the board of building standards 132830 or the board of building appeals shall permit the use of any 132831 fixture, device, material, method of manufacture, newly designed 132832 product, system, or method of construction at variance with what 132833 is described in any rule the board of building standards adopts or 132834 issues or that is authorized by any section of the Revised Code. 132835

the rules the board of building standards adopts pursuant to 132838

for which certified. 132864

(3) The board shall not require a building department, its 132865 personnel, or any persons that it employs to be certified for 132866 residential building code enforcement if that building department 132867 does not enforce the state residential building code. The board 132868 shall specify, in rules adopted pursuant to Chapter 119. of the 132869 of common pleas for an order compelling compliance. 137144

(K) The department may refuse to issue, or may withdraw or 137145 revoke, a license to operate an opioid treatment program. A 137146 license may be refused if a community addiction services provider 137147 license may be withdrawn at any time the department determines 137149 that the provider no longer meets the requirements for receiving 137150 the license. A license may be revoked in accordance with division 137151

(L) of this section. 137152

Once a license is issued under this section, the department 137153 shall not consider the requirement of division (C)(4) of this 137154 section in determining whether to renew, withdraw, or revoke the 137155 license or whether to reissue the license as a result of a change 137156 in ownership. 137157

(L) If the department finds reasonable cause to believe that 137158 a community addiction services provider licensed under this 137159 section is in violation of any state or federal law or rule 137160 relating to drug abuse, the department may issue an order 137161 immediately revoking the license, subject to division (M) of this 137162 section. The department shall set a date not more than fifteen 137163 days later than the date of the order of revocation for a hearing 137164 on the continuation or cancellation of the revocation. For good 137165 cause, the department may continue the hearing on application of 137166 any interested party. In conducting hearings, the department has 137167 all the authority and power set forth in division (J) of this 137168 section. Following the hearing, the department shall either 137169 confirm or cancel the revocation. The hearing shall be conducted 137170 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 137171 the provider shall not be permitted to operate an opioid treatment 137172 program pending the hearing or pending any appeal from an 137173 adjudication made as a result of the hearing. Notwithstanding any 137174 provision of Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to the contrary, a 137175 court shall not stay or suspend any order of revocation issued by 137176 the department under this division pending judicial appeal. 137177

(M) The department shall not revoke a license to operate an 137178 opioid treatment program unless all clients receiving medication 137179 used in medication-assisted treatment from the community addiction 137180 services provider are provided adequate substitute medication or 137181 treatment. For purposes of this division, the department may 137182 transfer the clients to other providers licensed to operate opioid 137183 treatment programs or replace any or all of the administrators and 137184 staff of the provider with representatives of the department who 137185 shall continue on a provisional basis the opioid treatment 137186 component of the provider's operations. 137187

(N) Each time the department receives an application from a 137188 community addiction services provider for a license to operate an 137189 opioid treatment program, issues or refuses to issue a license, or 137190 withdraws or revokes a license, the department shall notify the 137191 board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services of 137192 each alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health service district 137193 in which the provider operates. 137194

(O) Whenever it appears to the department from files, upon 137195 complaint, or otherwise, that a community addiction services 137196 provider has engaged in any practice declared to be illegal or 137197 prohibited by section 3719.61 of the Revised Code, or any other 137198 state or federal laws or regulations relating to drug abuse, or 137199 when the department believes it to be in the best interest of the 137200 public and necessary for the protection of the citizens of the 137201 state, the department may request criminal proceedings by laying 137202 before the prosecuting attorney of the proper county any evidence 137203 of criminality which may come to its knowledge. 137204

(P) The department shall maintain a current list of community 137205 addiction services providers licensed by the department under this 137206 section and shall provide a copy of the current list to a judge of 137207 a court of common pleas who requests a copy for the use of the 137208 judge under division (H) of section 2925.03 of the Revised Code. 137209
The list of licensed community addiction services providers shall 137210 identify each licensed provider by its name, its address, and the 137211 county in which it is located. 137212

Sec. 5119.371. (A) On application by a community addiction 137213 services provider that has purchased or leased real property to be 137214 used as the location of an opioid treatment program subject to 137215 licensure under section 5119.37 of the Revised Code, the 137216 department of mental health and addiction services shall determine 137217 whether the location of the proposed program complies with the 137218 requirements of division (C)(4) of section 5119.37 of the Revised 137219 Code by not being located on a parcel of real estate that is 137220 within a radius of five hundred linear feet of the boundaries of a 137221 parcel of real estate having situated on it a public or private 137222 school, child ~~day-care~~ care center licensed under Chapter 5104. of 137223 the Revised Code, or child-serving agency regulated by the 137224 department under this chapter. 137225

If the department determines that the location is in 137226 compliance with division (C)(4) of section 5119.37 of the Revised 137227 Code, the department shall issue a declaration stating that the 137228 location is in compliance. The declaration is valid for two years 137229 from the date of issuance. 137230

The department shall provide to the provider either a copy of 137231 the declaration or a notice that the department has determined 137232 that the location is not in compliance with division (C)(4) of 137233

If, before expiration of the declaration, a community 137235 addiction services provider applies for a license to operate an 137236 opioid treatment program, the department shall not consider the 137237 requirement of division (C)(4) of section 5119.37 of the Revised 137238 Code in determining whether to issue the license. 137239

(B) A community addiction services provider seeking to 137240 relocate an opioid treatment program licensed under section 137241

(2) The applicant has satisfactory work experience, a 138072 government certification, or a private certification as described 138073 state that does not issue that certificate. 138076

Sec. 3781.10. (A)(1) The board of building standards shall formulate and adopt rules governing the erection, construction, repair, alteration, and maintenance of all buildings or classes of buildings specified in section 3781.06 of the Revised Code, including land area incidental to those buildings, the 138108 construction of industrialized units, the installation of 138109 equipment, and the standards or requirements for materials used in 138110 connection with those buildings. The board shall incorporate those 138111 rules into separate residential and nonresidential building codes. 138112

The standards shall relate to the conservation of energy and the 138113 safety and sanitation of those buildings. 138114

(2) The rules governing nonresidential buildings are the 138115 lawful minimum requirements specified for those buildings and 138116 industrialized units, except that no rule other than as provided 138117 in division (C) of section 3781.108 of the Revised Code that 138118 specifies a higher requirement than is imposed by any section of 138119 the Revised Code is enforceable. The rules governing residential 138120 buildings are uniform requirements for residential buildings in 138121 any area with a building department certified to enforce the state 138122 residential building code. In no case shall any local code or 138123 regulation differ from the state residential building code unless 138124 that code or regulation addresses subject matter not addressed by 138125 the state residential building code or is adopted pursuant to 138126
section 3781.01 of the Revised Code. 138127

(3) The rules adopted pursuant to this section are complete, 138128 lawful alternatives to any requirements specified for buildings or 138129 industrialized units in any section of the Revised Code. Except as 138130 otherwise provided in division (I) of this section, the board 138131 shall, on its own motion or on application made under sections 138132 3781.12 and 3781.13 of the Revised Code, formulate, propose, 138133 adopt, modify, amend, or repeal the rules to the extent necessary 138134 or desirable to effectuate the purposes of sections 3781.06 to 138135
3781.18 of the Revised Code. 138136

(B) The board shall report to the general assembly proposals 138137 for amendments to existing statutes relating to the purposes 138138 declared in section 3781.06 of the Revised Code that public health and safety and the development of the arts require and shall recommend any additional legislation to assist in carrying out fully, in statutory form, the purposes declared in that section. The board shall prepare and submit to the general assembly a summary report of the number, nature, and disposition of the petitions filed under sections 3781.13 and 3781.14 of the Revised Code.

(E)(1) The board shall certify municipal, township, and county building departments, the personnel of those building departments, persons described in division (E)(7) of this section, and employees of individuals, firms, the state, or corporations described in division (E)(7) of this section to exercise enforcement authority, to accept and approve plans and specifications, and to make inspections, pursuant to sections 3781.03, 3791.04, and 4104.43 of the Revised Code.

consistent with this division. The requirements for residential 138204 and nonresidential certification may differ. Except as otherwise 138205 provided in this division, the requirements shall include, but are 138206 not limited to, the satisfactory completion of an initial 138207 examination and, to remain certified, the completion of a 138208 specified number of hours of continuing building code education 138209 within each three-year period following the date of certification 138210 which shall be not less than thirty hours. The rules shall provide 138211 that continuing education credits and certification issued by the 138212 council of American building officials, national model code 138213 organizations, and agencies or entities the board recognizes are 138214 acceptable for purposes of this division. The rules shall specify 138215 requirements that are consistent with the provisions of section 138216 5903.12 of the Revised Code relating to active duty military 138217 service and are compatible, to the extent possible, with 138218 requirements the council of American building officials and 138219 national model code organizations establish. 138220

(4) The board shall establish and collect a certification and 138221 renewal fee for building department personnel, and persons and 138222 employees of persons, firms, or corporations as described in this 138223 section, who are certified pursuant to this division. 138224

(5) Any individual certified pursuant to this division shall 138225 complete the number of hours of continuing building code education 138226 that the board requires or, for failure to do so, forfeit 138227 certification. 138228

(6) This division does not require or authorize the board to 138229 certify personnel of municipal, township, and county building 138230 departments, and persons and employees of persons, firms, or 138231 corporations as described in this section, whose responsibilities 138232 do not include the exercise of enforcement authority, the approval 138233 of plans and specifications, or making inspections under the state 138234 residential and nonresidential building codes. 138235

(c) Officers or employees of, and persons under contract with, a municipal corporation, township, county, health district, or other political subdivision, pursuant to a contract to furnish architectural, engineering, or other services;

(d) Officers or employees of the division of industrial compliance in the department of commerce pursuant to a contract authorized by division (B) of section 121.083 of the Revised Code.

(8) Municipal, township, and county building departments have jurisdiction within the meaning of sections 3781.03, 3791.04, and 4104.43 of the Revised Code, only with respect to the types of buildings and subject matters for which they are certified under this section.

applicable. 138267

(10) Certification shall be granted upon application by the 138268 municipal corporation, the board of township trustees, or the 138269 board of county commissioners and approval of that application by 138270 the board of building standards. The application shall set forth: 138271 nonresidential buildings, or both; 138273

(b) The number and qualifications of the staff composing the 138274 building department; 138275

(e) The proposed budget for the operation of the building 138283
department. 138284

(11) The board of building standards shall adopt rules 138285 governing all of the following: 138286

(a) The certification of building department personnel and 138287 persons and employees of persons, firms, or corporations 138288 exercising authority pursuant to division (E)(7) of this section. 138289
The rules shall disqualify any employee of the department or 138290 person who contracts for services with the department from 138291 performing services for the department when that employee or 138292 person would have to pass upon, inspect, or otherwise exercise 138293 authority over any labor, material, or equipment the employee or 138294 person furnishes for the construction, alteration, or maintenance 138295 of a building or the preparation of working drawings or 138296 specifications for work within the jurisdictional area of the 138297 department. The department shall provide other similarly qualified 138298 personnel to enforce the residential and nonresidential building 138299 codes as they pertain to that work. 138300

(b) The minimum services to be provided by a certified 138301
building department. 138302

(12) The board of building standards may revoke or suspend 138303 certification to enforce the residential and nonresidential 138304 building codes, on petition to the board by any person affected by 138305 that enforcement or approval of plans, or by the board on its own 138306 motion. Hearings shall be held and appeals permitted on any 138307 of the Revised Code for other proceedings of the board of building 138310 standards. 138311

(13) Upon certification, and until that authority is revoked, 138312 any county or township building department shall enforce the 138313 residential and nonresidential building codes for which it is 138314 certified without regard to limitation upon the authority of 138315 boards of county commissioners under Chapter 307. of the Revised 138316 Code or boards of township trustees under Chapter 505. of the 138317
Revised Code. 138318

(14) The board shall certify a person to exercise enforcement 138319 authority, to accept and approve plans and specifications, or to 138320 make inspections in this state in accordance with Chapter 4796. of 138321 the Revised Code if either of the following applies: 138322

(a) The person holds a license or certificate in another 138323
state. 138324

(b) The person has satisfactory work experience, a government 138325 certification, or a private certification as described in that 138326 for which the certificate is required in this state in a state 138329 that does not issue that license or certificate. 138330

3791.04, and 4104.43 of the Revised Code. 138338

(G) The board shall adopt rules and establish reasonable fees 138339 for the review of all applications submitted where the applicant 138340 applies for authority to use a new material, assembly, or product 138341 of a manufacturing process. The fee shall bear some reasonable 138342 relationship to the cost of the review or testing of the 138343 materials, assembly, or products and for the notification of 138344 approval or disapproval as provided in section 3781.12 of the 138345

residential building code. 138353

(I)(1) The committee may provide the board with proposed 138354 rules to update or amend the state residential building code that 138355 the state residential building code as provided in division (I)(1) 138359 of this section, the board either may accept or reject the 138360 proposed rule for incorporation into the residential building 138361 code. If the board does not act to either accept or reject the 138362 proposed rule within ninety days after receiving the proposed rule 138363 from the committee as described in division (I)(1) of this 138364 section, the proposed rule shall become part of the residential 138365 building code. 138366

the public interest. Within twenty days after service of the 138530 notice of a hearing, a respondent may file a written request for a 138531 public hearing with the superintendent. A respondent's failure to 138532 in part, the superintendent's order. 138590

(2) The commencement of proceedings for judicial review 138591 pursuant to division (B) of this section does not, unless 138592 regulated person will result from the execution of the 138596 superintendent's order pending determination of the appeal, and 138597 the interests of depositors and the public will not be threatened 138598 by a stay of the order, the court may grant a stay and fix its 138599 terms. 138600

(C) The superintendent may, in the sole discretion of the 138601 superintendent, apply to the court of common pleas of the county 138602 to review. 138614

(D) No court has jurisdiction to affect, by injunction or 138615 otherwise, the issuance or enforcement of an order issued under 138616 section 1121.32, 1121.33, 1121.34, 1121.35, or 1121.41 of the 138617 Revised Code or to review, modify, suspend, terminate, or set 138618 aside an order issued under section 1121.32, 1121.33, 1121.34, 138619 1121.35, or 1121.41 of the Revised Code, except as provided in 138620 this section, in division (G) of section 1121.32 of the Revised 138621 Code for an order issued pursuant to division (C)(3) or (4) of 138622 section 1121.32 of the Revised Code, or in division (A)(3) of 138623 section 1121.34 of the Revised Code for an order issued pursuant 138624 to division (A)(1) of section 1121.34 of the Revised Code. 138625 chief shall issue a permit within twenty-one days of the filing of 138800 will result in violations of this chapter or rules adopted under 138842 it that will present an imminent danger to public health or safety 138843 or damage to the environment, provided that where the chief finds 138844 that terms or conditions to the permit can reasonably be expected 138845 subject to those terms or conditions, including, if applicable, 138847 terms and conditions regarding subjects identified in rules 138848 adopted under section 1509.03 of the Revised Code. The issuance of 138849 a permit shall not be considered an order of the chief. 138850

The chief shall post notice of each permit that has been 138851 approved under this section on the division's web site not later 138852 than two business days after the application for a permit has been 138853 approved. 138854

(G) Each application for a permit required by section 1509.05 138855 of the Revised Code, except an application for a well drilled or 138856 reopened for purposes of section 1509.22 of the Revised Code, also 138857 shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee as follows: 138858

(1) Five hundred dollars for a permit to conduct activities	138859
in a township with a population of fewer than ten thousand;	138860
(2) Seven hundred fifty dollars for a permit to conduct	138861 activities in a township with a population of ten thousand or	138862 more, but fewer than fifteen thousand;	138863
(3) One thousand dollars for a permit to conduct activities	138864
in either of the following:	138865
(a) A township with a population of fifteen thousand or more;	138866
(b) A municipal corporation regardless of population.	138867
(4) If the application is for a permit that requires	138868 mandatory pooling, an additional five thousand dollars.	138869
For purposes of calculating fee amounts, populations shall be	138870 determined using the most recent federal decennial census.	138871
Each application for the revision or reissuance of a permit	138872 shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee of two hundred fifty	138873 dollars.	138874
(H)(1) Prior to the commencement of well pad construction and	138875
prior to the issuance of a permit to drill a proposed horizontal	138876 well or a proposed well that is to be located in an urbanized	138877 area, the division shall conduct a site review to identify and	138878 evaluate any site-specific terms and conditions that may be	138879 attached to the permit. At the site review, a representative of	138880 the division shall consider fencing, screening, and landscaping	138881 requirements, if any, for similar structures in the community in	138882 which the well is proposed to be located. The terms and conditions	138883 that are attached to the permit shall include the establishment of	138884 fencing, screening, and landscaping requirements for the surface	138885 facilities of the proposed well, including a tank battery of the	138886
well.	138887
(2) Prior to the issuance of a permit to drill a proposed	138888 well, the division shall conduct a review to identify and evaluate 138889 any site-specific terms and conditions that may be attached to the 138890 permit if the proposed well will be located in a one-hundred-year 138891 floodplain or within the five-year time of travel associated with 138892 a public drinking water supply. 138893

(I) A permit shall be issued by the chief in accordance with 138894 this chapter. A permit issued under this section for a well that 138895 is or is to be located in an urbanized area shall be valid for 138896 twelve months, and all other permits issued under this section 138897 shall be valid for twenty-four months. 138898

(J) An applicant or a permittee, as applicable, shall submit 138899 to the chief an update of the information that is required under 138900 division (A)(8)(a) of this section if any of that information 138901 changes prior to commencement of production operations. 138902

(K) A permittee or a permittee's authorized representative 138903 shall notify an inspector from the division at least twenty-four 138904 hours, or another time period agreed to by the chief's authorized 138905 representative, prior to the commencement of well pad construction 138906 and of drilling, reopening, converting, well stimulation, or 138907 plugback operations. 138908

Sec. 1513.071. (A) Simultaneously with the filing of an 138909 application for a permit or significant revision of an existing 138910 permit under section 1513.07 of the Revised Code, the applicant 138911 shall submit to the chief of the division of mineral resources 138912 management a copy of the applicant's advertisement of the 138913 ownership, precise location, and boundaries of the land to be 138914 affected. At the time of submission, the advertisement shall be 138915 placed by the applicant in a newspaper of general circulation in 138916 the locality of the proposed coal mine at least once a week for 138917 four consecutive weeks. The chief shall notify, in each county or 138918 part of a county in which a proposed area to be permitted is 138919 located, the board of county commissioners, the board of township trustees, the legislative authorities of municipal corporations, private water companies, regional councils of governments, and the boards of directors of conservancy districts informing them of the operator's intention to conduct a coal mining operation on a particularly described tract of land and indicating the permit application number and where a copy of the proposed mining and reclamation plan may be inspected. The chief shall also notify the planning commissions with jurisdiction over all or part of the area to be permitted. These agencies, authorities, or companies may submit written comments on the application with respect to the effects of the proposed operation on the environment that are within their area of responsibility in quadruplicate to the chief within thirty days after notification by the chief of receipt of the application. The chief shall immediately transmit these comments to the applicant and make them available to the public at the same locations at which the mining application is available for inspection.

weeks prior to the scheduled conference date. The chief may 138953 arrange with the applicant, upon request by any objecting party, 138954 access to the proposed mining area for the purpose of gathering 138955 information relevant to the proceeding. An electronic ~~or~~ 138956 ~~stenographic~~ record shall be made of the conference proceeding 138957 unless waived by all parties. The record shall be maintained and 138958 shall be accessible to the parties until final release of the 138959 applicant's performance security. If all parties requesting the 138960 informal conference stipulate agreement prior to the requested 138961 informal conference and withdraw their request, the informal 138962
conference need not be held. 138963

Sec. 1513.08. (A) After a coal mining and reclamation permit 138964 application has been approved, the applicant shall file with the 138965 chief of the division of mineral resources management, on a form 138966 prescribed and furnished by the chief, the performance security 138967 required under this section that shall be payable to the state and 138968 conditioned on the faithful performance of all the requirements of 138969 this chapter and rules adopted under it and the terms and 138970 conditions of the permit. 138971

(B) Using the information contained in the permit 138972 application; the requirements contained in the approved permit and 138973 reclamation plan; and, after considering the topography, geology, 138974 hydrology, and revegetation potential of the area of the approved 138975 permit, the probable difficulty of reclamation; the chief shall 138976 determine the estimated cost of reclamation under the initial term 138977 of the permit if the reclamation has to be performed by the 138978 division of mineral resources management in the event of 138979 forfeiture of the performance security by the applicant. The chief 138980 shall send either written notice by certified mail or electronic 138981 notice with acknowledgment of receipt of the amount of the 138982 estimated cost of reclamation ~~by certified mail~~ to the applicant. 138983
The applicant shall send either written notice or electronic 138984 notice with acknowledgment of receipt to the chief indicating the 138985 method by which the applicant will provide the performance 138986 security pursuant to division (C) of this section. 138987

(C) The applicant shall provide the performance security in 138988 an amount using one of the following: 138989

(1) If the applicant elects to provide performance security 138990 without reliance on the reclamation forfeiture fund created in 138991 section 1513.18 of the Revised Code, the amount of the estimated 138992 cost of reclamation as determined by the chief under division (B) 138993 of this section for the increments of land on which the operator 138994 will conduct a coal mining and reclamation operation under the 138995 initial term of the permit as indicated in the application; 138996

(2) If the applicant elects to provide performance security 138997 together with reliance on the reclamation forfeiture fund through 138998 payment of the additional tax on the severance of coal that is 138999 levied under division (A)(8) of section 5749.02 of the Revised 139000 Code, an amount of twenty-five hundred dollars per acre of land on 139001 which the operator will conduct coal mining and reclamation under 139002 the initial term of the permit as indicated in the application. In 139003 order for an applicant to be eligible to provide performance 139004 security in accordance with division (C)(2) of this section, the 139005 applicant, an owner and controller of the applicant, or an 139006 affiliate of the applicant shall have held a permit issued under 139007 this chapter for any coal mining and reclamation operation for a 139008 period of not less than five years. 139009

If a permit is transferred, assigned, or sold, the transferee 139010 is not eligible to provide performance security under division 139011 (C)(2) of this section if the transferee has not held a permit 139012 issued under this chapter for any coal mining and reclamation 139013 operation for a period of not less than five years. This 139014 restriction applies even if the status or name of the permittee 139015 otherwise remains the same after the transfer, assignment, or 139016 sale. 139017

In the event of forfeiture of performance security that was 139018 provided in accordance with division (C)(2) of this section, the 139019 difference between the amount of that performance security and the 139020 estimated cost of reclamation as determined by the chief under 139021 division (B) of this section shall be obtained from money in the 139022 reclamation forfeiture fund as needed to complete the reclamation. 139023

The performance security provided under division (C) of this 139024 section for the entire area to be mined under one permit issued 139025 under this chapter shall not be less than ten thousand dollars. 139026

The performance security shall cover areas of land affected 139027 by mining within or immediately adjacent to the permitted area, so 139028 long as the total number of acres does not exceed the number of 139029 acres for which the performance security is provided. However, the 139030 authority for the performance security to cover areas of land 139031 immediately adjacent to the permitted area does not authorize a 139032 permittee to mine areas outside an approved permit area. As 139033 succeeding increments of coal mining and reclamation operations 139034 are to be initiated and conducted within the permit area, the 139035 permittee shall file with the chief additional performance 139036 security to cover the increments in accordance with this section. 139037
If a permittee intends to mine areas outside the approved permit 139038 area, the permittee shall provide additional performance security 139039 in accordance with this section to cover the areas to be mined. 139040

If an applicant or permittee is not eligible to provide 139041 performance security in accordance with division (C)(2) of this 139042 section, the applicant or permittee shall provide performance 139043 security in accordance with division (C)(1) of this section in the 139044 full amount of the estimated cost of reclamation as determined by 139045 the chief for a permitted coal preparation plant or coal refuse 139046 disposal area that is not located within a permitted area of a 139047 mine. If an applicant for a permit for a coal preparation plant or 139048 coal refuse disposal area or a permittee of a permitted coal 139049 preparation plant or coal refuse disposal area that is not located 139050 within a permitted area of a mine has held a permit issued under 139051

this chapter for any coal mining and reclamation operation for a 139052 period of five years or more, the applicant or permittee may 139053 provide performance security for the coal preparation plant or 139054 coal refuse disposal area either in accordance with division 139055 (C)(1) of this section in the full amount of the estimated cost of 139056 reclamation as determined by the chief or in accordance with 139057 division (C)(2) of this section in an amount of twenty-five 139058 hundred dollars per acre of land with reliance on the reclamation 139059 forfeiture fund. If a permittee has previously provided 139060 performance security under division (C)(1) of this section for a 139061 coal preparation plant or coal refuse disposal area that is not 139062 located within a permitted area of a mine and elects to provide 139063
section, the permittee shall submit written notice to the chief 139065 indicating that the permittee elects to provide performance 139066 security in accordance with division (C)(2) of this section. Upon 139067 receipt of such a written notice, the chief shall release to the 139068 permittee the amount of the performance security previously 139069 provided under division (C)(1) of this section that exceeds the 139070 amount of performance security that is required to be provided 139071 under division (C)(2) of this section. 139072

(D) A permittee's liability under the performance security 139073 shall be limited to the obligations established under the permit, 139074 which include completion of the reclamation plan in order to make 139075 the land capable of supporting the postmining land use that was 139076 approved in the permit. The period of liability under the 139077 performance security shall be for the duration of the coal mining 139078 and reclamation operation and for a period coincident with the 139079 operator's responsibility for revegetation requirements under 139080
section 1513.16 of the Revised Code. 139081

(E) The amount of the estimated cost of reclamation 139082 determined under division (B) of this section and the amount of a 139083 permittee's performance security provided in accordance with 139084 division (C)(1) of this section shall be adjusted by the chief as 139085 the land that is affected by mining increases or decreases or if 139086 the cost of reclamation increases or decreases. If the performance 139087 security was provided in accordance with division (C)(2) of this 139088 section and the chief has issued a cessation order under division 139089 (D)(2) of section 1513.02 of the Revised Code for failure to abate 139090 a violation of the contemporaneous reclamation requirement under 139091 division (A)(15) of section 1513.16 of the Revised Code, the chief 139092 may require the permittee to increase the amount of performance 139093 security from twenty-five hundred dollars per acre of land to five 139094 thousand dollars per acre of land. 139095

The chief shall notify the permittee, each surety, and any 139096 person who has a property interest in the performance security and 139097 who has requested to be notified of any proposed adjustment to the 139098 performance security. The permittee may request an informal 139099 conference with the chief concerning the proposed adjustment, and 139100 the chief shall provide such an informal conference. 139101

If the chief increases the amount of performance security 139102 under this division, the permittee shall provide additional 139103 performance security in an amount determined by the chief. If the 139104 chief decreases the amount of performance security under this 139105 division, the chief shall determine the amount of the reduction of 139106 the performance security and send either written notice or 139107 electronic notice with acknowledgment of receipt of the amount of 139108 reduction to the permittee. The permittee may reduce the amount of 139109
the performance security in the amount determined by the chief. 139110

(F) A permittee may request a reduction in the amount of the 139111 performance security by submitting to the chief documentation 139112 proving that the amount of the performance security provided by 139113 the permittee exceeds the estimated cost of reclamation if the 139114 reclamation would have to be performed by the division in the 139115 event of forfeiture of the performance security. The chief shall 139116 examine the documentation and determine whether the permittee's 139117 performance security exceeds the estimated cost of reclamation. If 139118 the chief determines that the performance security exceeds that 139119 estimated cost, the chief shall determine the amount of the 139120 reduction of the performance security and send either written 139121 notice or electronic notice with acknowledgment of receipt of the 139122 amount to the permittee. The permittee may reduce the amount of 139123

the performance security in the amount determined by the chief. 139124 Adjustments in the amount of performance security under this 139125 division shall not be considered release of performance security 139126 and are not subject to section 1513.16 of the Revised Code. 139127

(G) If the performance security is a bond, it shall be 139128 executed by the operator and a corporate surety licensed to do 139129 business in this state. If the performance security is a cash 139130 deposit or negotiable certificates of deposit of a bank or savings 139131 and loan association, the bank or savings and loan association 139132 shall be licensed and operating in this state. The cash deposit or 139133 market value of the securities shall be equal to or greater than 139134 the amount of the performance security required under this 139135 section. The chief shall review any documents pertaining to the 139136 performance security and approve or disapprove the documents. The 139137 chief shall notify the applicant of the chief's determination. 139138

(H) If the performance security is a bond, the chief may 139139 accept the bond of the applicant itself without separate surety 139140 when the applicant demonstrates to the satisfaction of the chief 139141 the existence of a suitable agent to receive service of process 139142 and a history of financial solvency and continuous operation 139143 sufficient for authorization to self-insure or bond the amount. 139144

(I) Performance security provided under this section may be 139145 held in trust, provided that the state is the primary beneficiary 139146 of the trust and the custodian of the performance security held in 139147 trust is a bank, trust company, or other financial institution 139148 that is licensed and operating in this state. The chief shall 139149 review the trust document and approve or disapprove the document. 139150

The chief shall notify the applicant of the chief's determination. 139151

(J) If a surety, bank, savings and loan association, trust 139152 company, or other financial institution that holds the performance 139153 security required under this section becomes insolvent, the 139154 permittee shall notify the chief of the insolvency, and the chief 139155 shall order the permittee to submit a plan for replacement 139156 performance security within thirty days after receipt of notice 139157 from the chief. If the permittee provided performance security in 139158 accordance with division (C)(1) of this section, the permittee 139159 shall provide the replacement performance security within ninety 139160 days after receipt of notice from the chief. If the permittee 139161 provided performance security in accordance with division (C)(2) 139162 of this section, the permittee shall provide the replacement 139163 performance security within one year after receipt of notice from 139164 the chief, and, for a period of one year after the permittee's 139165 receipt of notice from the chief or until the permittee provides 139166 the replacement performance security, whichever occurs first, 139167 money in the reclamation forfeiture fund shall be the permittee's 139168 replacement performance security in an amount not to exceed the 139169 estimated cost of reclamation as determined by the chief. 139170

(K) If a permittee provided performance security in 139171 accordance with division (C)(1) of this section, the permittee's 139172 responsibility for repairing material damage and replacement of 139173 water supply resulting from subsidence shall be satisfied by 139174 either of the following: 139175

(1) The purchase prior to mining of a noncancelable 139176 premium-prepaid liability insurance policy in lieu of the 139177 permittee's performance security for subsidence damage. The 139178 insurance policy shall contain terms and conditions that 139179 specifically provide coverage for repairing material damage and 139180 replacement of water supply resulting from subsidence. 139181

(2) The provision of additional performance security in the 139182 amount of the estimated cost to the division of mineral resources 139183 management to repair material damage and replace water supplies 139184 resulting from subsidence until the repair or replacement is 139185 completed. However, if such repair or replacement is completed, or 139186 compensation for structures that have been damaged by subsidence 139187 is provided, by the permittee within ninety days of the occurrence 139188 of the subsidence, additional performance security is not 139189 required. In addition, the chief may extend the ninety-day period 139190 for a period not to exceed one year if the chief determines that 139191 the permittee has demonstrated in writing that subsidence is not 139192 complete and that probable subsidence-related damage likely will 139193 occur and, as a result, the completion of repairs of 139194 subsidence-related material damage to lands or protected 139195 structures or the replacement of water supply within ninety days 139196 of the occurrence of the subsidence would be unreasonable. 139197

(L) If the performance security provided in accordance with 139198 this section exceeds the estimated cost of reclamation, the chief 139199 may authorize the amount of the performance security that exceeds 139200 the estimated cost of reclamation together with any interest or 139201 other earnings on the performance security to be paid to the 139202 permittee. 139203

(M) A permittee that held a valid coal mining and reclamation 139204 permit immediately prior to April 6, 2007, shall provide, not 139205 later than a date established by the chief, performance security 139206 in accordance with division (C)(1) or (2) of this section, rather 139207 than in accordance with the law as it existed prior to that date, 139208 by filing it with the chief on a form that the chief prescribes 139209 and furnishes. Accordingly, for purposes of this section, 139210

"applicant" is deemed to include such a permittee. 139211

(N) As used in this section: 139212

(1) "Affiliate of the applicant" means an entity that has a 139213 parent entity in common with the applicant. 139214

(2) "Owner and controller of the applicant" means a person 139215 that has any relationship with the applicant that gives the person 139216 authority to determine directly or indirectly the manner in which 139217 the applicant conducts coal mining operations. 139218

Sec. 1513.16. (A) Any permit issued under this chapter to 139219 conduct coal mining operations shall require that the operations 139220 meet all applicable performance standards of this chapter and such 139221 other requirements as the chief of the division of mineral 139222 resources management shall adopt by rule. General performance 139223 standards shall apply to all coal mining and reclamation 139224 operations and shall require the operator at a minimum to do all 139225 of the following: 139226

(1) Conduct coal mining operations so as to maximize the 139227 utilization and conservation of the solid fuel resource being 139228 recovered so that re-affecting the land in the future through coal 139229 mining can be minimized; 139230

(2) Restore the land affected to a condition capable of 139231 supporting the uses that it was capable of supporting prior to any 139232 mining, or higher or better uses of which there is reasonable 139233 likelihood, so long as the uses do not present any actual or 139234 probable hazard to public health or safety or pose any actual or 139235 probable threat of diminution or pollution of the waters of the 139236 state, and the permit applicants' declared proposed land uses 139237 following reclamation are not considered to be impractical or 139238 unreasonable, to be inconsistent with applicable land use policies 139239 and plans, to involve unreasonable delay in implementation, or to 139240 violate federal, state, or local law; 139241

(3) Except as provided in division (B) of this section, with 139242 respect to all coal mining operations, backfill, compact where 139243 advisable to ensure stability or to prevent leaching of toxic 139244 materials, and grade in order to restore the approximate original 139245 contour of the land with all highwalls, spoil piles, and 139246 depressions eliminated unless small depressions are needed in 139247 order to retain moisture to assist revegetation or as otherwise 139248 authorized pursuant to this chapter, provided that if the operator 139249 demonstrates that due to volumetric expansion the amount of 139250 overburden and the spoil and waste materials removed in the course 139251 of the mining operation are more than sufficient to restore the 139252 approximate original contour, the operator shall backfill, grade, 139253 and compact the excess overburden and other spoil and waste 139254 materials to attain the lowest grade, but not more than the angle 139255 of repose, and to cover all acid-forming and other toxic materials 139256 in order to achieve an ecologically sound land use compatible with 139257 the surrounding region in accordance with the approved mining 139258 plan. The overburden or spoil shall be shaped and graded in such a 139259 way as to prevent slides, erosion, and water pollution and shall 139260 be revegetated in accordance with this chapter. 139261

(4) Stabilize and protect all surface areas, including spoil 139262 piles affected by the coal mining and reclamation operation, to 139263 control erosion and attendant air and water pollution effectively; 139264

(5) Remove the topsoil from the land in a separate layer, 139265 replace it on the backfill area, or, if not utilized immediately, 139266 segregate it in a separate pile from the spoil, and when the 139267 topsoil is not replaced on a backfill area within a time short 139268 enough to avoid deterioration of the topsoil, maintain a 139269 successful cover by quick-growing plants or other means thereafter 139270 so that the topsoil is preserved from wind and water erosion, 139271 remains free of any contamination by acid or other toxic material, 139272 and is in a usable condition for sustaining vegetation when 139273 restored during reclamation. If the topsoil is of insufficient 139274 quantity or of poor quality for sustaining vegetation or if other 139275 strata can be shown to be more suitable for vegetation 139276 requirements, the operator shall remove, segregate, and preserve 139277 in a like manner such other strata as are best able to support 139278 vegetation. 139279

(6) Restore the topsoil or the best available subsoil that is 139280 best able to support vegetation; 139281

(7) For all prime farmlands as identified in division 139282
(B)(1)(p) of section 1513.07 of the Revised Code to be mined and 139283 reclaimed, perform soil removal, storage, replacement, and 139284 reconstruction in accordance with specifications established by 139285 the secretary of the United States department of agriculture under 139286 the "Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977," 91 Stat. 139287 445, 30 U.S.C.A. 1201. The operator, at a minimum, shall be 139288 required to do all of the following: 139289

(a) Segregate the A horizon of the natural soil, except where 139290 it can be shown that other available soil materials will create a 139291 final soil having a greater productive capacity, and, if not 139292 utilized immediately, stockpile this material separately from the 139293 spoil and provide needed protection from wind and water erosion or 139294 contamination by acid or other toxic material; 139295

(b) Segregate the B horizon of the natural soil, or 139296 underlying C horizons or other strata, or a combination of such 139297 horizons or other strata that are shown to be both texturally and 139298 chemically suitable for plant growth and that can be shown to be 139299 equally or more favorable for plant growth than the B horizon, in 139300 sufficient quantities to create in the regraded final soil a root 139301 zone of comparable depth and quality to that which existed in the 139302 natural soil, and, if not utilized immediately, stockpile this 139303 material separately from the spoil and provide needed protection 139304 from wind and water erosion or contamination by acid or other 139305 toxic material; 139306

(c) Replace and regrade the root zone material described in 139307 division (A)(7)(b) of this section with proper compaction and 139308 uniform depth over the regraded spoil material; 139309

(d) Redistribute and grade in a uniform manner the surface 139310 soil horizon described in division (A)(7)(a) of this section. 139311

(8) Create, if authorized in the approved mining and 139312 reclamation plan and permit, permanent impoundments of water on 139313 mining sites as part of reclamation activities only when it is 139314 adequately demonstrated by the operator that all of the following 139315 conditions will be met: 139316

(a) The size of the impoundment is adequate for its intended 139317 purposes. 139318

(b) The impoundment dam construction will be so designed as 139319 to achieve necessary stability with an adequate margin of safety 139320 compatible with that of structures constructed under the 139321
"Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act," 68 Stat. 666 139322 (1954), 16 U.S.C. 1001, as amended. 139323

(c) The quality of impounded water will be suitable on a 139324 permanent basis for its intended use and discharges from the 139325 impoundment will not degrade the water quality below water quality 139326 standards established pursuant to applicable federal and state law 139327 in the receiving stream. 139328

(d) The level of water will be reasonably stable. 139329

(e) Final grading will provide adequate safety and access for 139330 proposed water users. 139331

(f) The water impoundments will not result in the diminution 139332 of the quality or quantity of water utilized by adjacent or 139333 surrounding landowners for agricultural, industrial, recreational, 139334 or domestic uses. 139335

(9) Conduct any augering operation associated with strip 139336 mining in a manner to maximize recoverability of mineral reserves 139337 remaining after the operation and reclamation are complete and 139338 seal all auger holes with an impervious and noncombustible 139339 material in order to prevent drainage, except where the chief 139340 determines that the resulting impoundment of water in such auger 139341 holes may create a hazard to the environment or the public health 139342 or safety. The chief may prohibit augering if necessary to 139343 maximize the utilization, recoverability, or conservation of the 139344 solid fuel resources or to protect against adverse water quality 139345 impacts. 139346

(10) Minimize the disturbances to the prevailing hydrologic 139347 balance at the mine site and in associated offsite areas and to 139348 the quality and quantity of water in surface and ground water 139349 systems both during and after coal mining operations and during 139350 reclamation by doing all of the following: 139351

(a) Avoiding acid or other toxic mine drainage by such 139352 measures as, but not limited to: 139353

(i) Preventing or removing water from contact with toxic 139354 producing deposits; 139355

(ii) Treating drainage to reduce toxic content that adversely 139356 affects downstream water upon being released to water courses in 139357 accordance with rules adopted by the chief in accordance with 139358
section 1513.02 of the Revised Code; 139359

(iii) Casing, sealing, or otherwise managing boreholes, 139360 shafts, and wells, and keeping acid or other toxic drainage from 139361 entering ground and surface waters. 139362

(b)(i) Conducting coal mining operations so as to prevent, to 139363 the extent possible using the best technology currently available, 139364 additional contributions of suspended solids to streamflow or 139365 runoff outside the permit area, but in no event shall 139366 contributions be in excess of requirements set by applicable state 139367 or federal laws; 139368

(ii) Constructing any siltation structures pursuant to 139369 division (A)(10)(b)(i) of this section prior to commencement of 139370 coal mining operations. The structures shall be certified by 139371 persons approved by the chief to be constructed as designed and as 139372 approved in the reclamation plan. 139373

(c) Cleaning out and removing temporary or large settling 139374 ponds or other siltation structures from drainways after disturbed 139375 areas are revegetated and stabilized, and depositing the silt and 139376 debris at a site and in a manner approved by the chief; 139377

(d) Restoring recharge capacity of the mined area to 139378 approximate premining conditions; 139379

(e) Avoiding channel deepening or enlargement in operations 139380 requiring the discharge of water from mines; 139381

(f) Such other actions as the chief may prescribe. 139382

(11) With respect to surface disposal of mine wastes, 139383 tailings, coal processing wastes, and other wastes in areas other 139384 than the mine working areas or excavations, stabilize all waste 139385 piles in designated areas through construction in compacted 139386 layers, including the use of noncombustible and impervious 139387 materials if necessary, and ensure that the final contour of the 139388 waste pile will be compatible with natural surroundings and that 139389 the site can and will be stabilized and revegetated according to 139390 this chapter; 139391

(12) Refrain from coal mining within five hundred feet of 139392 active and abandoned underground mines in order to prevent 139393 breakthroughs and to protect the health or safety of miners. The 139394 chief shall permit an operator to mine near, through, or partially 139395 through an abandoned underground mine or closer than five hundred feet to an active underground mine if both of the following conditions are met:

(a) The nature, timing, and sequencing of the approximate coincidence of specific strip mine activities with specific underground mine activities are approved by the chief.

(b) The operations will result in improved resource recovery, abatement of water pollution, or elimination of hazards to the health and safety of the public.

(15) Ensure that all reclamation efforts proceed in an environmentally sound manner and as contemporaneously as practicable with the coal mining operations, except that where the applicant proposes to combine strip mining operations with underground mining operations to ensure maximum practical recovery of the mineral resources, the chief may grant a variance for specific areas within the reclamation plan from the requirement that reclamation efforts proceed as contemporaneously as practicable to permit underground mining operations prior to reclamation if:

(a) The chief finds in writing that:	139427
(i) The applicant has presented, as part of the permit application, specific, feasible plans for the proposed underground mining operations.	139428 139429 139430
(ii) The proposed underground mining operations are necessary or desirable to ensure maximum practical recovery of the mineral resource and will avoid multiple disturbance of the surface.	139431 139432 139433
(iii) The applicant has satisfactorily demonstrated that the plan for the underground mining operations conforms to requirements for underground mining in this state and that permits necessary for the underground mining operations have been issued by the appropriate authority.	139434 139435 139436 139437 139438
(iv) The areas proposed for the variance have been shown by the applicant to be necessary for the implementing of the proposed underground mining operations.	139439 139440 139441
(v) No substantial adverse environmental damage, either on-site or off-site, will result from the delay in completion of reclamation as required by this chapter.	139442 139443 139444
(vi) Provisions for the off-site storage of spoil will comply with division (A)(21) of this section.	139445 139446
(b) The chief has adopted specific rules to govern the granting of such variances in accordance with this division and has imposed such additional requirements as the chief considers necessary.	139447 139448 139449 139450
(c) Variances granted under this division shall be reviewed by the chief not more than three years from the date of issuance of the permit.	139451 139452 139453
(d) Liability under the performance security filed by the applicant with the chief pursuant to section 1513.08 of the Revised Code shall be for the duration of the underground mining	139454 139455 139456

operations and until the requirements of this section and section 139457 1513.08 of the Revised Code have been fully complied with. 139458

(16) Ensure that the construction, maintenance, and 139459 postmining conditions of access roads into and across the site of 139460 operations will control or prevent erosion and siltation, 139461 pollution of water, and damage to fish or wildlife or their 139462 habitat, or to public or private property; 139463

(17) Refrain from the construction of roads or other access 139464 ways up a stream bed or drainage channel or in such proximity to 139465 the channel as to seriously alter the normal flow of water; 139466

(18) Establish, on the regraded areas and all other lands 139467 affected, a diverse, effective, and permanent vegetative cover of 139468 the same seasonal variety native to the area of land to be 139469 affected and capable of self-regeneration and plant succession at 139470 least equal in extent of cover to the natural vegetation of the 139471 area, except that introduced species may be used in the 139472 revegetation process where desirable and necessary to achieve the 139473 approved postmining land use plan; 139474

(19)(a) Assume the responsibility for successful 139475 revegetation, as required by division (A)(18) of this section, for 139476 a period of five full years after the last year of augmented 139477 seeding, fertilizing, irrigation, or other work in order to ensure 139478 compliance with that division, except that when the chief approves 139479 a long-term intensive agricultural postmining land use, the 139480 applicable five-year period of responsibility for revegetation 139481 shall commence at the date of initial planting for that long-term 139482 intensive agricultural postmining land use, and except that when 139483 the chief issues a written finding approving a long-term intensive 139484 agricultural postmining land use as part of the mining and 139485 reclamation plan, the chief may grant an exception to division 139486
(A)(18) of this section; 139487

(b) On lands eligible for re-mining, assume the responsibility for successful revegetation, as required by division (A)(18) of this section, for a period of two full years after the last year of augmented seeding, fertilizing, irrigation, or other work in order to ensure compliance with that division.

(20) Protect off-site areas from slides or damage occurring during the coal mining and reclamation operations and not deposit spoil material or locate any part of the operations or waste accumulations outside the permit area;

(21) Place all excess spoil material resulting from coal mining and reclamation operations in such a manner that all of the following apply:

(a) Spoil is transported and placed in a controlled manner in position for concurrent compaction and in such a way as to ensure mass stability and to prevent mass movement.

(b) The areas of disposal are within the permit areas for which performance security has been provided. All organic matter shall be removed immediately prior to spoil placement except in the zoned concept method.

(c) Appropriate surface and internal drainage systems and diversion ditches are used so as to prevent spoil erosion and mass movement.

(d) The disposal area does not contain springs, natural watercourses, or wet weather seeps unless lateral drains are constructed from the wet areas to the main underdrains in such a manner that filtration of the water into the spoil pile will be prevented unless the zoned concept method is used.

(e) If placed on a slope, the spoil is placed upon the most moderate slope among those slopes upon which, in the judgment of the chief, the spoil could be placed in compliance with all the requirements of this chapter and is placed, where possible, upon, or above, a natural terrace, bench, or berm if that placement provides additional stability and prevents mass movement. (f) Where the toe of the spoil rests on a downslope, a rock toe buttress of sufficient size to prevent mass movement is constructed. (g) The final configuration is compatible with the natural drainage pattern and surroundings and suitable for intended uses. (h) Design of the spoil disposal area is certified by a qualified registered professional engineer in conformance with professional standards. (i) All other provisions of this chapter are met. (22) Meet such other criteria as are necessary to achieve reclamation in accordance with the purpose of this chapter, taking into consideration the physical, climatological, and other characteristics of the site; (23) To the extent possible, using the best technology currently available, minimize disturbances and adverse impacts of the operation on fish, wildlife, and related environmental values, and achieve enhancement of such resources where practicable; (24) Provide for an undisturbed natural barrier beginning at the elevation of the lowest coal seam to be mined and extending from the outslope for such distance as the chief shall determine to be retained in place as a barrier to slides and erosion; (25) Restore on the permit area streams and wetlands affected by mining operations unless the chief approves restoration off the permit area without a permit required by section 1513.07 or 1513.074 of the Revised Code, instead of restoration on the permit area, of a stream or wetland or a portion of a stream or wetland, provided that the chief first makes all of the following written determinations:

(a) A hydrologic and engineering assessment of the affected lands, submitted by the operator, demonstrates that restoration on the permit area is not possible.

(b) The proposed mitigation plan under which mitigation activities described in division (A)(25)(c) of this section will be conducted is limited to a stream or wetland, or a portion of a stream or wetland, for which restoration on the permit area is not possible.

(c) Mitigation activities off the permit area, including mitigation banking and payment of in-lieu mitigation fees, will be performed pursuant to a permit issued under sections 401 and 404 of the "Federal Water Pollution Control Act" as defined in section 6111.01 of the Revised Code or an isolated wetland permit issued under Chapter 6111. of the Revised Code or pursuant to a no-cost reclamation contract for the restoration of water resources affected by past mining activities pursuant to section 1513.37 of the Revised Code.

(d) The proposed mitigation plan and mitigation activities comply with the standards established in this section.

If the chief approves restoration off the permit area in accordance with this division, the operator shall complete all mitigation construction or other activities required by the mitigation plan.

Performance security for reclamation activities on the permit area shall be released pursuant to division (F) of this section, except that the release of the remaining portion of performance security under division (F)(3)(c) of this section shall not be approved prior to the construction of required mitigation activities off the permit area.

(B)(1) The chief may permit mining operations for the purposes set forth in division (B)(3) of this section.

(2) When an applicant meets the requirements of divisions 139580
(B)(3) and (4) of this section, a permit without regard to the 139581 requirement to restore to approximate original contour known as 139582 mountain top removal set forth in divisions (A)(3) or (C)(2) and 139583 (3) of this section may be granted for the mining of coal where 139584 the mining operation will remove an entire coal seam or seams 139585 running through the upper fraction of a mountain, ridge, or hill, 139586 except as provided in division (B)(4)(a) of this section, by 139587 removing all of the overburden and creating a level plateau or a 139588 gently rolling contour with no highwalls remaining, and capable of 139589 supporting postmining uses in accordance with this division. 139590

(3) In cases where an industrial, commercial, agricultural, 139591 residential, or public facility use, including recreational 139592 facilities, is proposed for the postmining use of the affected 139593 land, the chief may grant a permit for a mining operation of the 139594 nature described in division (B)(2) of this section when all of 139595
the following apply: 139596

(a) After consultation with the appropriate land use planning 139597 agencies, if any, the proposed postmining land use is considered 139598 to constitute an equal or better economic or public use of the 139599 affected land, as compared with premining use. 139600

(b) The applicant presents specific plans for the proposed 139601 postmining land use and appropriate assurances that the use will 139602 be all of the following: 139603

(i) Compatible with adjacent land uses; 139604

(ii) Obtainable according to data regarding expected need and 139605 market; 139606

(iii) Assured of investment in necessary public facilities; 139607

(iv) Supported by commitments from public agencies where 139608 appropriate; 139609

(v) Practicable with respect to private financial capability	139610
for completion of the proposed use;	139611
(vi) Planned pursuant to a schedule attached to the	139612 reclamation plan so as to integrate the mining operation and	139613 reclamation with the postmining land use;	139614
(vii) Designed by a registered engineer in conformity with	139615
professional standards established to ensure the stability,	139616
drainage, and configuration necessary for the intended use of the	139617
site.	139618
(c) The proposed use is consistent with adjacent land uses	139619
and existing state and local land use plans and programs.	139620
(d) The chief provides the governing body of the unit of	139621
general-purpose local government in which the land is located, and	139622 any state or federal agency that the chief, in the chief's	139623 discretion, determines to have an interest in the proposed use, an	139624 opportunity of not more than sixty days to review and comment on	139625
the proposed use.	139626
(e) All other requirements of this chapter will be met.	139627
(4) In granting a permit pursuant to this division, the chief	139628 shall require that each of the following is met:	139629
(a) The toe of the lowest coal seam and the overburden	139630 associated with it are retained in place as a barrier to slides	139631
and erosion.	139632
(b) The reclaimed area is stable.	139633
(c) The resulting plateau or rolling contour drains inward	139634
from the out slopes except at specified points.	139635
(d) No damage will be done to natural watercourses.	139636
(e) Spoil will be placed on the mountaintop bench as is	139637 necessary to achieve the planned postmining land use, except that	139638
all excess spoil material not retained on the mountaintop bench	139639 shall be placed in accordance with division (A)(21) of this section. 139640 139641

(f) Stability of the spoil retained on the mountaintop bench is ensured and the other requirements of this chapter are met. 139642
139643

(5) The chief shall adopt specific rules to govern the granting of permits in accordance with divisions (B)(1) to (4) of this section and may impose such additional requirements as the chief considers necessary. 139644
139645
139647

139649
139651

139655
139657
139658
139661

(1) The operator shall ensure that when performing coal mining on steep slopes, no debris, abandoned or disabled equipment, spoil material, or waste mineral matter is placed on the downslope below the bench or mining cut. Spoil material in excess of that required for the reconstruction of the approximate original contour under division (A)(3) or (C)(2) of this section shall be permanently stored pursuant to division (A)(21) of this section. 139662
139663
139665
139667
139669

(2) The operator shall complete backfilling with spoil 139670 material to cover completely the highwall and return the site to 139671 the approximate original contour, which material will maintain 139672 stability following mining and reclamation. 139673

(3) The operator shall not disturb land above the top of the 139674 highwall unless the chief finds that the disturbance will 139675 facilitate compliance with the environmental protection standards 139676 of this section, except that any such disturbance involving land 139677 above the highwall shall be limited to that amount of land 139678 necessary to facilitate compliance. 139679

(D)(1) The chief may permit variances for the purposes set 139680 forth in division (D)(3) of this section, provided that the 139681 watershed control of the area is improved and that complete 139682 backfilling with spoil material shall be required to cover 139683 completely the highwall, which material will maintain stability 139684 following mining and reclamation. 139685

(2) Where an applicant meets the requirements of divisions 139686
(D)(3) and (4) of this section, a variance from the requirement to 139687 restore to approximate original contour set forth in division 139688 (C)(2) of this section may be granted for the mining of coal when 139689 the owner of the surface knowingly requests in writing, as a part 139690 of the permit application, that such a variance be granted so as 139691 to render the land, after reclamation, suitable for an industrial, 139692 commercial, residential, or public use, including recreational 139693 facilities, in accordance with divisions (D)(3) and (4) of this 139694
section. 139695

(3) A variance pursuant to division (D)(2) of this section 139696 may be granted if: 139697

agencies, if any, the potential use of the affected land is 139699 considered to constitute an equal or better economic or public 139700
use. 139701

(b) The postmining land condition is designed and certified 139702 by a registered professional engineer in conformity with 139703
site. 139706

(c) After approval of the appropriate state environmental 139707 agencies, the watershed of the affected land is considered to be 139708 improved. 139709

(4) In granting a variance pursuant to division (D) of this 139710 section, the chief shall require that only such amount of spoil 139711 will be placed off the mine bench as is necessary to achieve the 139712 planned postmining land use, ensure stability of the spoil 139713 retained on the bench, and meet all other requirements of this 139714 chapter. All spoil placement off the mine bench shall comply with 139715

(5) The chief shall adopt specific rules to govern the 139717 granting of variances under division (D) of this section and may 139718 impose such additional requirements as the chief considers 139719 necessary. 139720

(6) All variances granted under division (D) of this section 139721 shall be reviewed not more than three years from the date of 139722 issuance of the permit unless the permittee affirmatively 139723 demonstrates that the proposed development is proceeding in 139724 accordance with the terms of the reclamation plan. 139725

(E) The chief shall establish standards and criteria 139726 regulating the design, location, construction, operation, 139727 maintenance, enlargement, modification, removal, and abandonment 139728 of new and existing coal mine waste piles referred to in division 139729 (A)(13) of this section and division (A)(5) of section 1513.35 of 139730 the Revised Code. The standards and criteria shall conform to the 139731 standards and criteria used by the chief of the United States army 139732 corps of engineers to ensure that flood control structures are 139733 safe and effectively perform their intended function. In addition 139734 to engineering and other technical specifications, the standards 139735 and criteria developed pursuant to this division shall include 139736 provisions for review and approval of plans and specifications 139737 prior to construction, enlargement, modification, removal, or 139738 abandonment; performance of periodic inspections during 139739 construction; issuance of certificates of approval upon completion 139740 of construction; performance of periodic safety inspections; and 139741 issuance of notices for required remedial or maintenance work. 139742

(F)(1) The permittee may file a request with the chief for 139743 release of a part of a performance security under division (F)(3) 139744 of this section. Within thirty days after any request for 139745 performance security release under this section has been filed 139746 with the chief, the operator shall submit a copy of an 139747 advertisement placed at least once a week for four successive 139748 weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the locality of the 139749 coal mining operation. The advertisement shall be considered part 139750 of any performance security release application and shall contain 139751 a notification of the precise location of the land affected, the 139752 number of acres, the permit number and the date approved, the 139753 amount of the performance security filed and the portion sought to 139754 be released, the type and appropriate dates of reclamation work 139755 performed, and a description of the results achieved as they 139756 relate to the operator's approved reclamation plan and, if 139757 applicable, the operator's pollution abatement plan. In addition, 139758 as part of any performance security release application, the 139759 applicant shall submit copies of the letters sent to adjoining 139760 property owners, local governmental bodies, planning agencies, and 139761 sewage and water treatment authorities or water companies in the 139762 locality in which the coal mining and reclamation activities took 139763 place, notifying them of the applicant's intention to seek release 139764 from the performance security. 139765

(b) After resoiling and revegetation have been established on the regraded mined lands in accordance with the approved 139798 reclamation plan, the chief shall grant a release in an amount not 139799 exceeding thirty-five per cent of the original performance 139800 security for all or part of the affected area under the permit. 139801

When determining the amount of performance security to be released 139802 after successful revegetation has been established, the chief 139803 shall retain that amount of performance security for the 139804 revegetated area that would be sufficient for a third party to 139805 cover the cost of reestablishing revegetation for the period 139806 specified for operator responsibility in this section for 139807 reestablishing revegetation. No part of the performance security 139808 shall be released under this division so long as the lands to 139809 which the release would be applicable are contributing suspended 139810 solids to streamflow or runoff outside the permit area in excess 139811 of the requirements of this section or until soil productivity for 139812 prime farmlands has returned to equivalent levels of yield as 139813 nonmined land of the same soil type in the surrounding area under 139814 equivalent management practices as determined from the soil survey 139815 performed pursuant to section 1513.07 of the Revised Code. If the 139816 area covered by the performance security is one for which an 139817 authorization was made under division (E)(7) of section 1513.07 of 139818 the Revised Code, no part of the performance security shall be 139819 released under this division until the operator has complied with 139820 the approved pollution abatement plan and all additional 139821 requirements established by the chief in rules adopted under 139822 section 1513.02 of the Revised Code governing coal mining and 139823 reclamation operations on pollution abatement areas. Where a silt 139824 dam is to be retained as a permanent impoundment pursuant to 139825 division (A)(10) of this section, the portion of performance 139826 security may be released under this division so long as provisions 139827 for sound future maintenance by the operator or the landowner have 139828 been made with the chief. 139829

(c) When the operator has completed successfully all coal 139830 mining and reclamation activities, including, if applicable, all 139831 additional requirements established in the pollution abatement 139832 plan approved under division (E)(7) of section 1513.07 of the 139833 Revised Code and all additional requirements established by the 139834 chief in rules adopted under section 1513.02 of the Revised Code 139835 governing coal mining and reclamation operations on pollution 139836 abatement areas, the chief shall release all or any of the 139837 remaining portion of the performance security for all or part of 139838 the affected area under a permit, but not before the expiration of 139839 the period specified for operator responsibility in this section, 139840 except that the chief may adopt rules for a variance to the 139841 operator period of responsibility considering vegetation success 139842 and probability of continued growth and consent of the landowner, 139843 provided that no performance security shall be fully released 139844 until all reclamation requirements of this chapter are fully met. 139845

(4) If the chief disapproves the application for release of 139846 the performance security or portion thereof, the chief shall 139847 notify the permittee, in writing, stating the reasons for 139848 disapproval and recommending corrective actions necessary to 139849 secure the release, and allowing the opportunity for a public 139850 adjudicatory hearing. 139851

(5) When any application for total or partial performance 139852 security release is filed with the chief under this section, the 139853 chief shall notify the municipal corporation in which the coal 139854 mining operation is located by certified mail at least thirty days 139855 prior to the release of all or a portion of the performance 139856 security. 139857

(6) A person with a valid legal interest that might be 139858 adversely affected by release of a performance security under this 139859 section or the responsible officer or head of any federal, state, 139860 or local government agency that has jurisdiction by law or special 139861 expertise with respect to any environmental, social, or economic 139862 impact involved in the operation or is authorized to develop and 139863 enforce environmental standards with respect to such operations 139864 may file written objections to the proposed release from the 139865 performance security with the chief within thirty days after the 139866 last publication of the notice required by division (F)(1) of this 139867 section. If written objections are filed and an informal 139868 conference is requested, the chief shall inform all interested 139869 parties of the time and place of the conference. The date, time, 139870 and location of the informal conference shall be advertised by the 139871 chief in a newspaper of general circulation in the locality of the 139872 coal mining operation proposed for performance security release 139873 for at least once a week for two consecutive weeks. The informal 139874 conference shall be held in the locality of the coal mining 139875 operation proposed for performance security release or in Franklin 139876 county, at the option of the objector, within thirty days after 139877 the request for the conference. An electronic ~~or stenographic~~ 139878 record shall be made of the conference proceeding unless waived by 139879 all parties. The record shall be maintained and shall be 139880 accessible to the parties until final release of the performance 139881 security at issue. In the event all parties requesting the 139882 informal conference stipulate agreement prior to the requested 139883

informal conference and withdraw their request, the informal 139884
conference need not be held. 139885

(7) If an informal conference has been held pursuant to 139886 division (F)(6) of this section, the chief shall issue and furnish 139887 the applicant and persons who participated in the conference with 139888 the written decision regarding the release within sixty days after 139889 the conference. Within thirty days after notification of the final 139890 decision of the chief regarding the performance security release, 139891 the applicant or any person with an interest that is or may be 139892 adversely affected by the decision may appeal the decision to the 139893 reclamation commission pursuant to section 1513.13 of the Revised 139894

(8)(a) If the chief determines that a permittee is responsible for mine drainage that requires water treatment after reclamation is completed under the terms of the permit or that a permittee must provide an alternative water supply after reclamation is completed under the terms of the permit, the permittee shall provide alternative financial security in an amount determined by the chief prior to the release of the remaining portion of performance security under division (F)(3)(c) of this section. The alternative financial security shall be in an amount that is equal to or greater than the present value of the estimated cost over time to develop and implement mine drainage plans and provide water treatment or in an amount that is necessary to provide and maintain an alternative water supply, as applicable. The alternative financial security shall include a contract, trust, or other agreement or mechanism that is enforceable under law to provide long-term water treatment or a long-term alternative water supply, or both. The contract, trust, or other agreement or mechanism included with the alternative financial security may provide for the funding of the alternative financial security incrementally over a period of time, not to exceed five years, with reliance on guarantees or other collateral provided by the permittee and approved by the chief for the balance of the alternative financial security required until the alternative financial security has been fully funded by the permittee.

(b) The chief shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code that are necessary for the administration of division (F)(8)(a) of this section.

(c) If the chief determines that a permittee must provide alternative financial security under division (F)(8)(a) of this section and the performance security for the permit was provided under division (C)(2) of section 1513.08 of the Revised Code, the permittee may fund the alternative financial security 139928 incrementally over a period of time, not to exceed five years, 139929 with reliance on the reclamation forfeiture fund created in 139930 section 1513.18 of the Revised Code for the balance of the 139931 alternative financial security required until the alternative 139932 financial security has been fully funded by the permittee. The 139933 permittee semiannually shall pay to the division of mineral 139934 resources management a fee that is equal to seven and one-half per 139935 cent of the average balance of the alternative financial security 139936 that is being provided by reliance on the reclamation forfeiture 139937 fund over the previous six months. All money received from the fee 139938 shall be credited to the reclamation forfeiture fund. 139939

(9) Final release of the performance security in accordance 139940 with division (F)(3)(c) of this section terminates the 139941 jurisdiction of the chief under this chapter over the reclaimed 139942 site of a surface coal mining and reclamation operation or 139943 applicable portion of an operation. However, the chief shall 139944 reassert jurisdiction over such a site if the release was based on 139945 fraud, collusion, or misrepresentation of a material fact and the 139946 chief, in writing, demonstrates evidence of the fraud, collusion, 139947 or misrepresentation. Any person with an interest that is or may 139948 be adversely affected by the chief's determination may appeal the 139949 determination to the reclamation commission in accordance with 139950

(G) The chief shall adopt rules governing the criteria for 139952 forfeiture of performance security, the method of determining the 139953 forfeited amount, and the procedures to be followed in the event 139954 of forfeiture. Cash received as the result of such forfeiture is 139955 the property of the state. 139956

Sec. 1565.12. When a loss of life is occasioned by accident 139957 in any mine, the operator thereof shall forthwith give notice 139958 thereof to the chief of the division of mineral resources 139959 management, and to the deputy mine inspector in charge of the 139960 district. Such notice shall be given by telephone or ~~telegraph~~ 139961 electronic format. The operator of such mine shall, within 139962 twenty-four hours after such accident causing loss of life, send a 139963 written report of the accident to the chief. Such written report 139964 shall specify the character and cause of the accident, the names 139965 of the persons killed, and the nature of the injuries that caused 139966 death. In the case of injury thereafter resulting in death, the 139967 operator shall send a written notice thereof to the chief, and to 139968 the deputy mine inspector of such district, at such time as such 139969 death comes to the operator's knowledge. 139970

No operator of a mine shall refuse or neglect to comply with 139971
this section. 139972

Sec. 1571.05. (A) Whenever any part of a gas storage 139973 reservoir or any part of its protective area underlies any part of 139974 a coal mine, or is, or within nine months is expected or intended 139975 to be, within two thousand linear feet of the boundary of a coal 139976 mine that is operating in a coal seam any part of which extends 139977 over any part of the storage reservoir or its protective area, the 139978 operator of the reservoir, if the reservoir operator or some other 139979 reservoir operator has not theretofore done so, shall: 139980

(1) Use every known method that is reasonable under the 139981 circumstance for discovering and locating all wells drilled within 139982 the area of the reservoir or its protective area that underlie any 139983 part of the coal mine or its protective area; 139984

(2) Plug or recondition all known wells drilled within the 139985 area of the reservoir or its protective area that underlie any 139986 part of the coal mine. 139987

(B) Whenever an operator of a gas storage reservoir is 139988 notified by the operator of a coal mine, as provided in division 139989

(B) of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code, that the coal mine operator believes that part of the boundary of the mine is within two thousand linear feet of a well that is drilled through the horizon of the coal mine and into or through the storage stratum or strata of the reservoir within the boundary of the reservoir or within its protective area, the reservoir operator shall plug or recondition the well as in this section prescribed, unless it is agreed in a conference or is ordered by the chief of the division of oil and gas resources management after a hearing, as provided in section 1571.10 of the Revised Code, that the well referred to in the notice is not such a well as is described in division (B) of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code.

Whenever the operator of a coal mine considers that the use of a well such as in this section described, if used for injecting gas into, or storing gas in, or removing gas from, a gas storage reservoir, would be hazardous to the safety of persons or property on or in the vicinity of the premises of the coal mine or the reservoir or well, the coal mine operator may file with the division objections to the use of the well for such purposes, and a request that a conference be held as provided in section 1571.10 of the Revised Code, to discuss and endeavor to resolve by mutual agreement whether or not the well shall or shall not be used for such purposes, and whether or not the well shall be reconditioned, inactivated, or plugged. The request shall set forth the mine 140022 operator's reasons for such objections. If no approved agreement 140023 is reached in the conference, the gas storage well inspector shall 140024 within ten days after the termination of the conference, file with 140025 the chief a request that the chief hear and determine the matters 140026 considered at the conference as provided in section 1571.10 of the 140027 Revised Code. Upon conclusion of the hearing, the chief shall find 140028 and determine whether or not the safety of persons or of the 140029 property on or in the vicinity of the premises of the coal mine, 140030 or the reservoir, or the well requires that the well be 140031 reconditioned, inactivated, or plugged, and shall make an order 140032 consistent with that determination, provided that the chief shall 140033 not order a well plugged unless the chief first finds that there 140034 is underground leakage of gas therefrom. 140035

The plugging or reconditioning of each well described in a 140036 notice from a coal mine operator to a reservoir operator as 140037 provided in division (B) of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code, 140038 which must be plugged or reconditioned, shall be completed within 140039 such time as the gas storage well inspector may fix in the case of 140040 each such well. The plugging or reconditioning of each well 140041 described in a notice from a coal mine operator to a reservoir 140042 operator as provided in division (C) of section 1571.03 of the 140043 Revised Code, which must be plugged or reconditioned, shall be 140044 completed by the time the well, by reason of the extension of the 140045 boundary of the coal mine, is within two thousand linear feet of 140046 any part of the boundary of the mine. The plugging or 140047 reconditioning of each well described in a notice from a coal mine 140048 operator to a reservoir operator, as provided in division (D) of 140049 section 1571.03 of the Revised Code, which must be plugged or 140050 reconditioned, shall be completed by the time the well, by reason 140051 of the opening of the new mine, is within two thousand linear feet 140052 of any part of the boundary of the new mine. A reservoir operator 140053 who is required to complete the plugging or reconditioning of a 140054 well within a period of time fixed as in this division prescribed, 140055 may prior to the end of that period of time, notify the division 140056 and the mine operator from whom the reservoir operator received a 140057 notice as provided in division (B), (C), or (D) of section 1571.03 140058 of the Revised Code, in writing by ~~registered~~ certified mail or 140059 electronic format, that the completion of the plugging or 140060 reconditioning of the well referred to in the notice will be 140061 delayed beyond the end of the period of time fixed therefor as in 140062 this section provided, and that the reservoir operator requests 140063 that a conference be held for the purpose of endeavoring to reach 140064 an agreement establishing a date subsequent to the end of that 140065 period of time, on or before which the reservoir operator may 140066 complete the plugging or reconditioning without incurring any 140067 penalties for failure to do so as provided in this chapter. If 140068 such a reservoir operator sends to such a mine operator and to the 140069 division a notice and request for a conference as in this division 140070 provided, the reservoir operator shall not incur any penalties for 140071 failure to complete the plugging or reconditioning of the well 140072 within the period of time fixed as in this division prescribed, 140073 unless the reservoir operator fails to complete the plugging or 140074 reconditioning of the well within the period of time fixed by an 140075 approved agreement reached in the conference, or fixed by an order 140076 by the chief upon a hearing held in the matter in the event of 140077 failure to reach an approved agreement in the conference. 140078

Whenever, in compliance with this division, a well is to be 140079 plugged by a reservoir operator, the operator shall give to the 140080 division notice thereof, as many days in advance as will be 140081 necessary for the gas storage well inspector or a deputy mine 140082 inspector to be present at the plugging. The notification shall be 140083 made on blanks furnished by the division and shall show the 140084
following information: 140085

(1) Name and address of the applicant; 140086

(2) The location of the well identified by section or lot number, city or village, and township and county;	140087 140088
(3) The well name and number of each well to be plugged.	140089
If the reservoir operator plugs the well without the gas storage well inspector or a deputy mine inspector being present to supervise the plugging, the reservoir operator shall send to the division and to the coal mine operator a copy of the report of the plugging of the well, including in the report:	140103 140104 140105 140106 140107
(1) The date of abandonment;	140108
(2) The name of the owner or operator of the well at the time of abandonment and the well owner's or operator's post office address;	140109 140110 140111
(3) The location of the well as to township and county and the name of the owner of the surface upon which the well is drilled, with the address thereof;	140112 140113 140114
(4) The date of the permit to drill;	140115
(5) The date when drilled;	140116

(6) Whether the well has been mapped;	140117
(7) The depth of the well;	140118
(8) The depth of the top of the sand to which the well was drilled;	140119 140120
(9) The depth of each seam of coal drilled through;	140121
(10) A detailed report as to how the well was plugged, giving in particular the manner in which the coal and various sands were plugged, and the date of the plugging of the well, including therein the names of those who witnessed the plugging of the well.	140122 140123 140124 140125
The report shall be signed by the operator or the operator's agent who plugged the well and verified by the oath of the party so signing. For the purposes of this section, a deputy mine inspector may take acknowledgements and administer oaths to the parties signing the report.	140126 140127 140128 140129 140130
Whenever, in compliance with this division, a well is to be reconditioned by a reservoir operator, the operator shall give to the division notice thereof as many days before the reconditioning is begun as will be necessary for the gas storage well inspector, or a deputy mine inspector, to be present at the reconditioning. No well shall be reconditioned if an inspector of the division is not present unless permission to do so has been granted by the chief. The reservoir operator, at the time of giving notice to the division as in this section required, also shall send a copy of the notice by registered certified mail or electronic format to the coal mine operator, if any, who sent to the reservoir operator the notice as provided in division (B), (C), or (D) of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code, in order that the coal mine operator or the coal mine operator's designated representative may attend and observe the manner in which the reconditioning of the well is done.	140131 140132 140133 140134 140135 140136 140137 140138 140139 140140 140141 140142 140143 140144 140145 140146
If the reservoir operator reconditions the well when the gas	140147 storage well inspector or a deputy mine inspector is not present 140148 to supervise the reconditioning, the reservoir operator shall make 140149 written report to the division describing the manner in which the 140150 reconditioning was done, and shall send to the coal mine operator 140151 a copy of the report by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic 140152 format. 140153

(D) Wells that are required by this section to be plugged 140154 shall be plugged in the manner specified in sections 1509.13 to 140155 1509.17 of the Revised Code, and the operator shall give the 140156 notifications and reports required by divisions (B) and (C) of 140157 this section. No such well shall be plugged or abandoned without 140158 the written approval of the division, and no such well shall be 140159 mudded, plugged, or abandoned without the gas storage well 140160 inspector or a deputy mine inspector present unless written 140161 permission has been granted by the chief or the gas storage well 140162 inspector. For purposes of this section, the chief of the division 140163 of mineral resources management has the authority given the chief 140164 of the division of oil and gas resources management in sections 140165 1509.15 and 1509.17 of the Revised Code. If such a well has been 140166 plugged prior to the time plugging thereof is required by this 140167 section, and, on the basis of the data, information, and other 140168 evidence available it is determined that the plugging was done in 140169 the manner required by this section, or was done in accordance 140170 with statutes prescribing the manner of plugging wells in effect 140171 at the time the plugging was done, and that there is no evidence 140172 of leakage of gas from the well either at or below the surface, 140173 and that the plugging is sufficiently effective to prevent the 140174 leakage of gas from the well, the obligations imposed upon the 140175 reservoir operator by this section as to plugging the well shall 140176 be considered fully satisfied. The operator of a coal mine any 140177 part of the boundary of which is, or within nine months is 140178 expected or intended to be, within two thousand linear feet of the 140179 well may at any time raise a question as to whether the plugging 140180 of the well is sufficiently effective to prevent the leakage of 140181 gas therefrom, and the issue so made shall be determined by a 140182 conference or hearing as provided in section 1571.10 of the 140183

Revised Code. 140184

(E) Wells that are to be reconditioned as required by this 140185 section shall be, or shall be made to be: 140186

(1) Cased in accordance with the statutes of this state in 140187 effect at the time the wells were drilled, with the casing being, 140188 or made to be, sufficiently effective in that there is no evidence 140189 of any leakage of gas therefrom; 140190

(2) Equipped with a producing string and well head composed 140191 of new pipe, or pipe as good as new, and fittings designed to 140192 operate with safety and to contain the stored gas at maximum 140193 pressures contemplated. 140194

When a well that is to be reconditioned as required by this 140195 section has been reconditioned for use in the operation of the 140196 reservoir prior to the time prescribed in this section, and on the 140197 basis of the data, information, and other evidence available it is 140198 determined that at the time the well was so reconditioned the 140199 requirements prescribed in this division were met, and that there 140200 is no evidence of underground leakage of gas from the well, and 140201 that the reconditioning is sufficiently effective to prevent 140202 underground leakage from the well, the obligations imposed upon 140203 the reservoir operator by this section as to reconditioning the 140204 well shall be considered fully satisfied. Any operator of a coal 140205 mine any part of the boundary of which is, or within nine months 140206 is expected or intended to be, within two thousand linear feet of 140207 the well may at any time raise a question as to whether the 140208 reconditioning of the well is sufficiently effective to prevent 140209 underground leakage of gas therefrom, and the issue so made shall 140210 be determined by a conference or hearing as provided in section 140211

If the gas storage well inspector at any time finds that a well that is drilled through the horizon of a coal mine and into or through the storage stratum or strata of a reservoir within the boundary of the reservoir or within its protective area is located within the boundary of the coal mine or within two thousand linear feet of the mine boundary, and was drilled prior to the time the statutes of this state required that wells be cased, and that the well fails to meet the casing and equipping requirements prescribed in this division, the gas storage well inspector shall promptly notify the operator of the reservoir thereof in writing, and the reservoir operator upon receipt of the notice shall promptly recondition the well in the manner prescribed in this division for reconditioning wells, unless, in a conference or hearing as provided in section 1571.10 of the Revised Code, a different course of action is agreed upon or ordered.

(F)(1) When a well within the boundary of a gas storage reservoir or within the reservoir's protective area penetrates the storage stratum or strata of the reservoir, but does not penetrate the coal seam within the boundary of a coal mine, the gas storage well inspector may, upon application of the operator of the storage reservoir, exempt the well from the requirements of this section. Either party affected by the action of the gas storage well inspector may request a conference and hearing with respect to the exemption.

(2) When a well located within the boundary of a storage reservoir or a reservoir's protective area is a producing well in a stratum above or below the storage stratum, the obligations imposed by this section shall not begin until the well ceases to be a producing well.

(G) When retreat mining reaches a point in a coal mine when the operator of the mine expects that within ninety days retreat work will be at the location of a pillar surrounding an active storage reservoir well, the operator of the mine shall promptly 140245 send by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic format notice to 140246 that effect to the operator of the reservoir. Thereupon the 140247 operators may by agreement determine whether it is necessary or 140248 advisable to temporarily inactivate the well. If inactivated, the 140249 well shall not be reactivated until a reasonable period of time 140250 has elapsed, such period of time to be determined by agreement by 140251 the operators. In the event that the parties cannot agree upon 140252 either of the foregoing matters, the question shall be submitted 140253 to the gas storage well inspector for a conference in accordance 140254 with section 1571.10 of the Revised Code. 140255

(H)(1) The provisions of this section that require the 140256 plugging or reconditioning of wells shall not apply to such wells 140257 as are used to inject gas into, store gas in, or remove gas from a 140258 gas storage reservoir when the sole purpose of the injection, 140259 storage, or removal is testing. The operator of a gas storage 140260 reservoir who injects gas into, stores gas in, or removes gas from 140261 a reservoir for the sole purpose of testing shall be subject to 140262 all other provisions of this chapter that are applicable to 140263 operators of reservoirs. 140264

(2) If the injection of gas into, or storage of gas in, a gas 140265 storage reservoir any part of which, or of the protective area of 140266 which, is within the boundary of a coal mine is begun after 140267 September 9, 1957, and if the injection or storage of gas is for 140268 the sole purpose of testing, the operator of the reservoir shall 140269 send by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic format to the 140270 operator of the coal mine, the division of oil and gas resources 140271 management, and the division of mineral resources management at 140272 least sixty days' notice of the date upon which the testing will 140273 be begun. 140274

If at any time within the period of time during which testing 140275 of a reservoir is in progress, any part of the reservoir or of its 140276 protective area comes within any part of the boundary of a coal mine, the operator of the reservoir shall promptly send notice to that effect by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic format to the operator of the mine, the division of oil and gas resources management, and the division of mineral resources management.

from the reservoir or its facilities into any coal mine. 140309

Sec. 1571.08. (A) Whenever in this chapter, the method or 140310 material to be used in discharging any obligations imposed by this 140311 chapter is specified, an alternative method or material may be 140312 used if approved by the gas storage well inspector or the chief of 140313 the division of oil and gas resources management. A person 140314 desiring to use such alternative method or material shall file 140315 with the division of oil and gas resources management an 140316 application for permission to do so. Such application shall 140317 describe such alternative method or material in reasonable detail. 140318
The gas storage well inspector shall promptly send by ~~registered~~ 140319 certified mail or electronic format notice of the filing of such 140320 application to any coal mine operator or reservoir operator whose 140321 mine or reservoir may be directly affected thereby. Any such coal 140322 mine operator or reservoir operator may within ten days following 140323 receipt of such notice, file with the division objections to such 140324 application. The gas storage well inspector may also file with the 140325 division an objection to such application at any time during which 140326 coal mine operators or reservoir operators are permitted to file 140327 objections. If no objections are filed within the ten-day period 140328 of time, the gas storage well inspector shall thereupon issue a 140329 permit approving the use of such alternative method or material. 140330
If any such objections are filed by any coal mine operator or 140331 reservoir operator, or by the gas storage well inspector, the 140332 question as to whether or not the use of such alternative method 140333 or material, or a modification thereof is approved, shall be 140334 determined by a conference or hearing as provided in section 140335

(B) Whenever in this chapter, provision is made for the 140337 filing of objections with the division, such objections shall be 140338 in writing and shall state as definitely as is reasonably possible 140339 the reasons for such objections. Upon the filing of any such 140340 objection the gas storage well inspector shall promptly fix the 140341 time and place for holding a conference for the purpose of 140342 discussing and endeavoring to resolve by mutual agreement the 140343 issue raised by such objection. The gas storage well inspector 140344 shall send written notice thereof by ~~registered~~ certified mail or 140345 electronic format to each person having a direct interest therein. 140346 Thereupon the issue made by such objection shall be determined by 140347 a conference or hearing in accordance with the procedures for 140348 conferences and hearings as provided in section 1571.10 of the 140349

Revised Code. 140350

Sec. 1571.10. (A) The gas storage well inspector or any 140351 person having a direct interest in the administration of this 140352 chapter may at any time file with the division of oil and gas 140353 resources management a written request that a conference be held 140354 for the purpose of discussing and endeavoring to resolve by mutual 140355 agreement any question or issue relating to the administration of 140356 this chapter, or to compliance with its provisions, or to any 140357 violation thereof. Such request shall describe the matter 140358 concerning which the conference is requested. Thereupon the gas 140359 storage well inspector shall promptly fix the time and place for 140360 the holding of such conference and shall send written notice 140361 thereof to each person having a direct interest therein. At such 140362 conference the gas storage well inspector or a representative of 140363 the division designated by the gas storage well inspector shall be 140364 in attendance, and shall preside at the conference, and the gas 140365 storage well inspector or designated representative may make such 140366 recommendations as the gas storage well inspector or designated 140367 representative deems proper. Any agreement reached at such 140368 conference shall be consistent with the requirements of this 140369 chapter and, if approved by the gas storage well inspector, it 140370 shall be reduced to writing and shall be effective. Any such 140371 agreement approved by the gas storage well inspector shall be kept 140372 on file in the division and a copy thereof shall be furnished to 140373 each of the persons having a direct interest therein. The 140374 conference shall be deemed terminated as of the date an approved 140375 agreement is reached or when any person having a direct interest 140376 therein refuses to confer thereafter. Such a conference shall be 140377 held in all cases prior to the holding of a hearing as provided in 140378

this section. 140379

(B) Within ten days after the termination of a conference at 140380 which no approved agreement is reached, any person who 140381 participated in such conference and who has a direct interest in 140382 the subject matter thereof, or the gas storage well inspector, may 140383 file with the chief of the division of oil and gas resources 140384 management a request that the chief hear and determine the matter 140385 or matters, or any part thereof considered at the conference. 140386 Thereupon the chief shall promptly fix the time and place for the 140387 holding of such hearing and shall send written notice thereof to 140388 each person having a direct interest therein. The form of the 140389 request for such hearing and the conduct of the hearing shall be 140390 in accordance with rules that the chief adopts under section 140391 1571.11 of the Revised Code. Consistent with the requirement for 140392 reasonable notice each such hearing shall be held promptly after 140393 the filing of the request therefor. Any person having a direct 140394 interest in the matter to be heard shall be entitled to appear and 140395 be heard in person or by attorney. The division may present at 140396 such hearing any evidence that is material to the matter being 140397 heard and that has come to the division's attention in any 140398 investigation or inspection made pursuant to this chapter. 140399

(C) For the purpose of conducting such a hearing the chief 140400 may require the attendance of witnesses and the production of 140401 books, records, and papers, and the chief may, and at the request 140402 of any person having a direct interest in the matter being heard, 140403 the chief shall, issue subpoenas for witnesses or subpoenas duces 140404 tecum to compel the production of any books, records, or papers, 140405 directed to the sheriffs of the counties where such witnesses are 140406 found, which subpoenas shall be served and returned in the same 140407 manner as subpoenas in criminal cases are served and returned. The 140408 fees of sheriffs shall be the same as those allowed by the court 140409 of common pleas in criminal cases. Witnesses shall be paid the 140410 fees and mileage provided for under section 119.094 of the Revised 140411 Code. Such fee and mileage expenses shall be paid in advance by 140412 the persons at whose request they are incurred, and the remainder 140413 of such expenses shall be paid out of funds appropriated for the 140414 expenses of the division. 140415

In case of disobedience or neglect of any subpoena served on 140416
any person, or the refusal of any witness to testify to any matter 140417 regarding which the witness may be lawfully interrogated, the 140418
court of common pleas of the county in which such disobedience, 140419 neglect, or refusal occurs, or any judge thereof, on application 140420 of the chief, shall compel obedience by attachment proceedings for 140421 contempt as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of a 140422 subpoena issued from such court or a refusal to testify therein. 140423 Witnesses at such hearings shall testify under oath, and the chief 140424 may administer oaths or affirmations to persons who so testify. 140425

(D) With the consent of the chief, the testimony of any 140426 witness may be taken by deposition at the instance of a party to 140427 any hearing before the chief at any time after hearing has been 140428 formally commenced. The chief may, of the chief's own motion, 140429 order testimony to be taken by deposition at any stage in any 140430 hearing, proceeding, or investigation pending before the chief. 140431 Such deposition shall be taken in the manner prescribed by the 140432 laws of this state for taking depositions in civil cases in courts 140433 of record. 140434

(E) After the conclusion of a hearing the chief shall make a 140435 determination and finding of facts. Every adjudication, 140436 determination, or finding by the chief shall be made by written 140437 order and shall contain a written finding by the chief of the 140438 facts upon which the adjudication, determination, or finding is 140439 based. Notice of the making of such order shall be given to the 140440 persons whose rights, duties, or privileges are affected thereby, 140441 by sending a certified copy thereof by ~~registered~~ certified mail 140442 or electronic format to each of such persons. 140443

Adjudications, determinations, findings, and orders made by 140444 the chief shall not be governed by, or be subject to, Chapter 119. 140445

Sec. 1571.14. Any person claiming to be aggrieved or 140447 adversely affected by an order of the chief of the division of oil 140448 and gas resources management made as provided in section 1571.10 140449 or 1571.16 of the Revised Code may appeal to the director of 140450 natural resources for an order vacating or modifying such order. 140451 Upon receipt of the appeal, the director shall appoint an 140452 individual who has knowledge of the laws and rules regarding the 140453 underground storage of gas and who shall act as a hearing officer 140454 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code in hearing the 140455 appeal. 140456

The person appealing to the director shall be known as 140457 appellant and the chief shall be known as appellee. The appellant 140458 and the appellee shall be deemed parties to the appeal. 140459

The appeal shall be in writing and shall set forth the order 140460 complained of and the grounds upon which the appeal is based. The 140461 appeal shall be filed with the director within thirty days after 140462 the date upon which appellant received notice by ~~registered~~ 140463 certified mail or electronic format of the making of the order 140464 complained of, as required by section 1571.10 of the Revised Code. 140465 Notice of the filing of such appeal shall be delivered by 140466 appellant to the chief within three days after the appeal is filed 140467 with the director. 140468

Within seven days after receipt of the notice of appeal the 140469 chief shall prepare and certify to the director at the expense of 140470 appellant a complete transcript of the proceedings out of which 140471 the appeal arises, including a transcript of the testimony 140472 submitted to the chief. 140473

Upon the filing of the appeal the director shall fix the time 140474 and place at which the hearing on the appeal will be held, and 140475 shall give appellant and the chief at least ten days' written 140476 notice thereof by mail. The director may postpone or continue any 140477 hearing upon the director's own motion or upon application of 140478 appellant or of the chief. 140479

The filing of an appeal provided for in this section does not 140480 automatically suspend or stay execution of the order appealed 140481 from, but upon application by the appellant the director may 140482 suspend or stay such execution pending determination of the appeal 140483 upon such terms as the director deems proper. 140484

The hearing officer appointed by the director shall hear the 140485 appeal de novo, and either party to the appeal may submit such 140486 evidence as the hearing officer deems admissible. 140487

For the purpose of conducting a hearing on an appeal, the 140488 hearing officer may require the attendance of witnesses and the 140489 production of books, records, and papers, and may, and at the 140490 request of any party shall, issue subpoenas for witnesses or 140491 subpoenas duces tecum to compel the production of any books, 140492 records, or papers, directed to the sheriffs of the counties where 140493 such witnesses are found, which subpoenas shall be served and 140494 returned in the same manner as subpoenas in criminal cases are 140495 served and returned. The fees of sheriffs shall be the same as 140496 those allowed by the court of common pleas in criminal cases. 140497 Witnesses shall be paid the fees and mileage provided for under 140498 section 119.094 of the Revised Code. Such fee and mileage expenses 140499 incurred at the request of appellant shall be paid in advance by 140500 appellant, and the remainder of such expenses shall be paid out of 140501 funds appropriated for the expenses of the division of oil and gas 140502 resources management. 140503

any person, or the refusal of any witness to testify to any matter 140505
regarding which the witness may be lawfully interrogated, the 140506
court of common pleas of the county in which such disobedience, 140507
of the director, shall compel obedience by attachment proceedings 140509 for contempt as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of 140510 a subpoena issued from such court or a refusal to testify therein. 140511 Witnesses at such hearings shall testify under oath, and the 140512 hearing officer may administer oaths or affirmations to persons 140513 who so testify. 140514

At the request of any party to the appeal, a record of the 140515 testimony and other evidence submitted shall be taken by an 140516 official court reporter at the expense of the party making the 140517 request for the record. The record shall include all of the 140518 testimony and other evidence and the rulings on the admissibility 140519 thereof presented at the hearing. The hearing officer shall pass 140520 upon the admissibility of evidence, but any party may at the time 140521 object to the admission of any evidence and except to the ruling 140522 of the hearing officer thereon, and if the hearing officer refuses 140523 to admit evidence, the party offering same may make a proffer 140524 thereof, and such proffer shall be made a part of the record of 140525 such hearing. 140526

If upon completion of the hearing the hearing officer finds 140527 that the order appealed from was lawful and reasonable, the 140528 hearing officer shall make a written order affirming the order 140529 appealed from. If the hearing officer finds that such order was 140530 unreasonable or unlawful, the hearing officer shall make a written order vacating the order appealed from and making the order that it finds the chief should have made. Every order made by the hearing officer shall contain a written finding by the hearing officer of the facts upon which the order is based. Notice of the making of such order shall be given forthwith to each party to the appeal by mailing a certified copy thereof to each such party by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic format.

Sec. 1571.15. Any party adversely affected by an order of the hearing officer under section 1571.14 of the Revised Code may appeal to the court of common pleas of any county in which the well, or part of the gas storage reservoir, or part of the coal mine, involved in the order of the hearing officer which is being appealed, is located. Any party desiring to so appeal shall file with the director of natural resources a notice of appeal designating the order appealed from and stating whether the appeal is taken on questions of law or questions of law and fact. A copy of such notice shall also be filed by appellant with the court and shall be mailed or otherwise delivered to appellee. The notice shall be filed and mailed or otherwise delivered within thirty days after the date upon which appellant received notice from the hearing officer by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic format of the making of the order appealed from. No appeal bond shall be required to make either an appeal on questions of law or an appeal on questions of law and fact effective.

The filing of a notice of appeal shall not automatically operate as a suspension of the order of the hearing officer. If it appears to the court that an unjust hardship to the appellant will result from the execution of the hearing officer's order pending determination of the appeal, the court may grant a suspension of such order and fix its terms.

Within fifteen days after receipt of the notice of appeal the hearing officer shall prepare and file in the court the complete record of proceedings out of which the appeal arises, including a transcript of the testimony and other evidence which has been submitted before ~~him~~ the hearing officer. The expense of preparing and transcribing such record shall be taxed as a part of the costs of the appeal. Appellant shall provide security for costs satisfactory to the court. Upon demand by a party the director shall furnish at the cost of the party requesting the same a copy of such record. In the event such complete record is not filed in the court within the time provided for in this section either party may apply to the court to have the case docketed, and the court shall order such record filed.

Appeals taken on questions of law shall be heard upon assignments of error filed in the cause or set out in the briefs of the appellant before the hearing. Errors not argued by brief may be disregarded, but the court may consider and decide errors which are not assigned or argued. Failure to file such briefs and assignments of error within the time prescribed by the court's rules shall be a cause for dismissal of such appeal.

In appeals taken on questions of law and fact, the hearing in the court shall be a hearing de novo of the appeal heard by the hearing officer in which the order appealed from was made. In such hearings any party may offer as evidence any part of the record of the proceedings out of which the appeal arises, certified to the court as provided for in this section, and any other evidence which the court deems admissible.

If the court finds that the order of the hearing officer appealed from was lawful and reasonable, it shall affirm such order. If the court finds that such order was unreasonable or unlawful, it shall vacate such order and make the order which it finds the hearing officer should have made. The judgment of the court is final unless reversed, vacated, or modified on appeal as 140594 in civil actions. 140595

Sec. 1571.16. (A) The gas storage well inspector or any 140596 person having a direct interest in the subject matter of this 140597 chapter may file with the division of oil and gas resources 140598 management a complaint in writing stating that a person is 140599 violating, or is about to violate, a provision or provisions of 140600 this chapter, or has done, or is about to do, an act, matter, or 140601 thing therein prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or has 140602 failed, omitted, neglected, or refused, or is about to fail, omit, 140603 the division of oil and gas resources management shall promptly 140606 fix the time for the holding of a hearing on such complaint and 140607 shall send by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic format to 140608 the person so complained of, a copy of such complaint together 140609 complained of, as stated in such complaint, have not been 140620 sustained by a preponderance of evidence, the chief shall make an 140621 order dismissing the complaint, and if the chief finds that the 140622 charges have been so sustained, the chief shall by appropriate 140623 order require compliance with those provisions. 140624

(B) Whenever the chief is of the opinion that any person is 140625 violating, or is about to violate, any provision of this chapter, 140626 or has done, or is about to do, any act, matter, or thing therein 140627 prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or has failed, omitted, 140628 neglected, or refused, or is about to fail, omit, neglect, or 140629 chapter, or has failed, omitted, neglected, or refused, or is 140631 about to fail, omit, neglect, or refuse, to obey any lawful 140632 requirement or order made by the chief, or any final judgment, 140633 order, or decree made by any court pursuant to this chapter, then 140634 and in every such case, the chief may institute in a court of 140635 competent jurisdiction of the county or counties wherein the 140636 operation is situated, an action to enjoin or restrain such 140637 violations or to enforce obedience with law or the orders of the 140638 chief. No injunction bond shall be required to be filed in any 140639 such proceeding. Such persons or corporations as the court may 140640 deem necessary or proper to be joined as parties in order to make 140641 its judgment, order, or writ effective may be joined as parties. 140642

An appeal may be taken as in other civil actions. 140643

(C) In addition to the other remedies as provided in 140644 or of the hearing officer appointed under section 1571.14 of the 140649 Revised Code, or the judgments, orders, or decrees of any court or 140650 to enforce obedience therewith. 140651

(D) Each remedy prescribed in divisions (A), (B), and (C) of 140652 this section is deemed concurrent or contemporaneous with each 140653 other remedy prescribed therein, and the existence or exercise of 140654 any one such remedy shall not prevent the exercise of any other 140655 such remedy. 140656

(E) The provisions of this chapter providing for conferences, 140657 hearings by the chief, appeals to the hearing officer from orders 140658 of the chief, and appeals to the court of common pleas from orders 140659 of the hearing officer, and the remedies prescribed in divisions 140660 (A), (B), (C), and (D) of this section, do not constitute the 140661 exclusive procedure that a person, who deems the person's rights 140662 to be unlawfully affected by any official action taken thereunder, 140663 must pursue in order to protect and preserve such rights, nor does 140664 this chapter constitute a procedure that such a person must pursue 140665 before the person may lawfully proceed by other actions, legal or 140666 equitable, to protect and preserve such rights. 140667

Sec. 1707.02. (A) "Exempt," as used in this section, means 140668

States, any state, territory, or possession of the United States, 140686 or any foreign government with which the United States is, at the 140687 time of sale, maintaining diplomatic relations. 140688

(2) If a security described in division (B)(1) of this section is not payable out of the proceeds of a general tax, the security is exempt only if, at the time of its first sale in this state, there is no default in the payment of any of the interest or principal of the security, and there are no adjudications or pending suits adversely affecting its validity.

(C) Any security issued or guaranteed by a state or nationally chartered bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, or credit union, or a governmental corporation or agency created by or under the laws of the United States or of Canada is exempt, if it is under the supervision of or subject to regulation by the government or state under whose laws it was organized.

(D) Any interim certificate is exempt, if the securities to be delivered therefor are themselves exempt, are the subject matter of an exempt transaction, have been registered by description or registered by qualification, or are the subject matter of a transaction which has been registered by description.

(E)(1) A security is exempt if it meets any of the following requirements:

(a) The security is listed, or authorized for listing, on the New York stock exchange, the American stock exchange, or the national market system of the NASDAQ stock market, or any successor to such entities.

(b) The security is listed, or authorized for listing, on a national securities exchange or system, or on a tier or segment of such exchange or system, designated by the securities and exchange commission in rule 146(b) promulgated under section 18(b)(1) of the Securities Act of 1933.

division of securities, on its own initiative or on the basis of 140720 an application, determines by rule are substantially similar to 140721 the listing standards applicable to securities described in 140722 division (E)(1)(a) of this section. 140723

(d) The security is a security of the same issuer that is 140724 described in division (E)(1)(a), (b), or (c) of this section. 140726

(2) Application for approval of a stock exchange or system 140727 not approved in this section may be made by any organized stock 140728 exchange, in such manner and upon such forms as are prescribed by 140730 the division, accompanied by payment of an approval fee of two 140731 a hearing, and a finding that the practices or requirements of 140743 such exchange or system have been so changed or modified, or are, 140744 in their actual operation, such that the contemplated protection 140745 is no longer afforded. The principles of res adjudicata ordinarily 140746 applicable in civil matters shall not be applicable to this 140747

representative by telephone ~~or telegram~~, at the issuer's expense, 140994 whether all of the conditions have been satisfied or whether the 140995 division then contemplates the institution of a proceeding under 140996 section 1707.13 or 1707.23 of the Revised Code, but such advice 140997 does not preclude the institution of such a proceeding at any 140998 time. 140999

property at public auction, after giving at least thirty days' 141555 notice of the auction by publication in a newspaper of general 141556 circulation in the school district, by publication as provided in 141557 section 7.16 of the Revised Code, or by posting notices in five of 141558 the most public places in the school district in which the 141559 property, if it is real property, is situated, or, if it is 141560 personal property, in the school district of the board of 141561 education that owns the property. The board may offer real 141562 property for sale as an entire tract or in parcels. 141563

(B) When the board of education has offered real or personal 141564 property for sale at public auction at least once pursuant to 141565 division (A) of this section, and the property has not been sold, 141566 the board may sell it at a private sale. Regardless of how it was 141567 offered at public auction, at a private sale, the board shall, as 141568 it considers best, sell real property as an entire tract or in 141569 parcels, and personal property in a single lot or in several lots. 141570

(C) If a board of education decides to dispose of real or 141571 personal property that it owns in its corporate capacity and that 141572 exceeds in value ten thousand dollars, it may sell the property to 141573 the adjutant general; to any subdivision or taxing authority as 141574 limited, in the case of real property, to a school district 141586 library within whose boundaries the real property is situated, or, 141587 in the case of personal property, to a school district library 141588 whose boundaries lie in whole or in part within the school 141589 district of the selling board of education. 141590

(D) When a board of education decides to trade as a part or 141591 an entire consideration, an item of personal property on the 141592 purchase price of an item of similar personal property, it may 141593 trade the same upon such terms as are agreed upon by the parties 141594 to the trade. 141595

(E) The president and the treasurer of the board of education 141596 shall execute and deliver deeds or other necessary instruments of 141597 conveyance to complete any sale or trade under this section. 141598

(F) When a board of education has identified a parcel of real 141599 property that it determines is needed for school purposes, the 141600 board may, upon a majority vote of the members of the board, 141601 acquire that property by exchanging real property that the board 141602 owns in its corporate capacity for the identified real property or 141603 by using real property that the board owns in its corporate 141604 capacity as part or an entire consideration for the purchase price 141605 of the identified real property. Any exchange or acquisition made 141606 pursuant to this division shall be made by a conveyance executed 141607 by the president and the treasurer of the board. 141608

(G) When a school district board of education has property 141609 that the board, by resolution, finds is not needed for school 141610 district use, is obsolete, or is unfit for the use for which it 141611 was acquired, the board may donate that property in accordance 141612 with this division if the fair market value of the property is, in 141613 the opinion of the board, two thousand five hundred dollars or 141614 less. 141615

The property may be donated to an eligible nonprofit 141616 organization that is located in this state and is exempt from 141617 federal income taxation pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 501(a) and (c)(3). 141618 Before donating any property under this division, the board shall 141619 adopt a resolution expressing its intent to make unneeded, 141620 obsolete, or unfit-for-use school district property available to 141621 these organizations. The resolution shall include guidelines and 141622 procedures the board considers to be necessary to implement the 141623 donation program and shall indicate whether the school district 141624 will conduct the donation program or the board will contract with 141625 a representative to conduct it. If a representative is known when 141626 the resolution is adopted, the resolution shall provide contact 141627 information such as the representative's name, address, and 141628 telephone number. 141629

The resolution shall include within its procedures a 141630 requirement that any nonprofit organization desiring to obtain 141631 donated property under this division shall submit a written notice 141632 to the board or its representative. The written notice shall 141633 include evidence that the organization is a nonprofit organization 141634 that is located in this state and is exempt from federal income 141635 taxation pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 501(a) and (c)(3); a description of 141636 the organization's primary purpose; a description of the type or 141637 types of property the organization needs; and the name, address, 141638 and telephone number of a person designated by the organization's 141639 governing board to receive donated property and to serve as its 141640 agent. The written notice may be submitted electronically to the 141641 board or its representative. 141642

After adoption of the resolution, the board shall ~~publish, in~~ 141643
~~a newspaper of general circulation in the school district or as~~ 141644 ~~provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, notice of its intent~~ 141645
~~to donate unneeded, obsolete, or unfit for use school district~~ 141646 ~~property to eligible nonprofit organizations. The notice shall~~ 141647 ~~include a summary of the information provided in the resolution~~ 141648
~~and shall be published twice. The second notice shall be published~~ 141649
~~not less than ten nor more than twenty days after the previous~~ 141650
~~notice. A similar notice also shall be posted continually post in~~ 141651

the board's office notice of its intent to donate school district property that is unneeded, obsolete, or unfit for use to eligible nonprofit organizations. If the school district maintains a web site on the internet, the notice shall be posted continually at that web site.

The board or its representatives shall maintain a list of all nonprofit organizations that notify the board or its representative of their desire to obtain donated property under this division and that the board or its representative determines to be eligible, in accordance with the requirements set forth in this section and in the donation program's guidelines and procedures, to receive donated property.

The board or its representative also shall maintain a list of all school district property the board finds to be unneeded, obsolete, or unfit for use and to be available for donation under this division. The list shall be posted continually in a conspicuous location in the board's office, and, if the school district maintains a web site on the internet, the list shall be posted continually at that web site. An item of property on the list shall be donated to the eligible nonprofit organization that first declares to the board or its representative its desire to obtain the item unless the board previously has established, by resolution, a list of eligible nonprofit organizations that shall be given priority with respect to the item's donation. Priority may be given on the basis that the purposes of a nonprofit organization have a direct relationship to specific school district purposes of programs provided or administered by the board. A resolution giving priority to certain nonprofit organizations with respect to the donation of an item of property shall specify the reasons why the organizations are given that priority.

Members of the board shall consult with the Ohio ethics commission, and comply with Chapters 102. and 2921. of the Revised Code, with respect to any donation under this division to a nonprofit organization of which a board member, any member of a board member's family, or any business associate of a board member is a trustee, officer, board member, or employee.

Sec. 3313.818. (A)(1) The department of education shall establish a program under which public schools that meet the conditions prescribed in this section shall offer breakfast to all students either before or during the school day. Each of the following shall apply:

(2) The district superintendent or building principal, in consultation with the building staff, shall determine the model for serving breakfast under the program. Each breakfast served under the program shall comply with federal meal patterns and nutritional standards and with section 3313.814 of the Revised accordance with federal requirements for each meal to cover all or 141716 part of the costs incurred in operating the program. 141717

(B) The department shall publish a list of public schools 141718 program that complies with this section and the submission of 141722 claims for reimbursement under the federal school breakfast 141723 program. 141724

(C)(1) The department shall monitor each school participating 141725 in the program and ensure that each participating school complies 141726 with the requirements of this section. 141727

(2) If the board of education of a school district determines 141728 that, for financial reasons, a school under the board's control 141729 cannot comply with the requirements of this section or the board 141730 already has a successful breakfast program or partnership in 141731 place, the district board may choose not to comply with those 141732 requirements. 141733

(D) Not later than the thirty-first day of December of each 141734 school year, the department shall provide statistical reports on 141735 its web site that specify the number and percentage of students 141736 participating in school breakfast programs disaggregated by school 141737 district and individual schools, including community schools, 141738 established under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code, and STEM 141739 schools, established under Chapter 3326. of the Revised Code. 141740

(E) Not later than the thirty-first day of December of each 141741 school year, the department shall prepare a report on the 141742 implementation and effectiveness of the program established under 141743 this section and submit the report to the general assembly, in 141744 accordance with section 101.68 of the Revised Code, and to the 141745 governor. The report may be submitted electronically. The report shall include:

(1) The number of students and participation rates in the free and reduced-price breakfast programs under this section for each school building;

(2) "Obscene" has the same meaning as in division (F) of section 2907.01 of the Revised Code as that division has been construed by the supreme court of this state.

(3) "Teacher of record" means a teacher who is responsible for the overall academic development and achievement of a student and not merely the student's instruction in any single subject.

(B)(1) It is the intent of the general assembly that teachers employed by internet- or computer-based community schools conduct visits with their students ~~in-person~~ throughout the school year.

(2) Each internet- or computer-based community school shall retain an affiliation with at least one full-time teacher of record licensed in accordance with division (A)(10) of section 3314.03 of the Revised Code.

(3) Each student enrolled in an internet- or computer-based community school shall be assigned to at least one teacher of record. No teacher of record shall be primarily responsible for the academic development and achievement of more than one hundred school described in section 3314.03 of the Revised Code shall 141779 specify each of the following: 141780 install filtering software that protects against internet access 141782 to materials that are obscene or harmful to juveniles on each 141783 computer provided to students for instructional use. The school 141784 shall provide such device or software at no cost to any student 141785 who works primarily from the student's residence on a computer 141786 obtained from a source other than the school. 141787

(2) A plan for fulfilling the intent of the general assembly 141788 specified in division (B)(1) of this section. The plan shall 141789 throughout the school year and the manner in which those visits 141791 will be conducted. The visits may be conducted electronically. 141792

(3) That the school will set up a central base of operation 141793 and the sponsor will maintain a representative within fifty miles 141794 of that base of operation to provide monitoring and assistance. 141795

(D)(1) Annually, each internet- or computer-based community 141796 school shall prepare and submit to the department of education, in 141797 a time and manner prescribed by the department, a report that 141798 contains information about all of the following: 141799

(a) Classroom size; 141800

(b) The ratio of teachers to students per classroom; 141801

(c) The number of student-teacher meetings conducted in 141802 contracts of employment are not otherwise provided by law: 141813

(A) Newly hired regular nonteaching school employees, 141814 including regular hourly rate and per diem employees, shall enter 141815 into written contracts for their employment which shall be for a 141816 period of not more than one year. If such employees are rehired, 141817 their three subsequent contracts shall be for a period of two 141818 years each. 141819

(B) After the termination of the third two-year contract 141820 provided in division (A) of this section, if the contract of a 141821 nonteaching employee is renewed, the employee shall be continued 141822 in employment, and the salary provided in the contract may be 141823 increased but not reduced unless such reduction is a part of a 141824 uniform plan affecting the nonteaching employees of the entire 141825 district. 141826

(C) The contracts as provided for in this section may be 141827 terminated by a majority vote of the board of education. Except as 141828 provided in sections 3319.0810 and 3319.172 of the Revised Code, 141829 the contracts may be terminated only for violation of written 141830 rules and regulations as set forth by the board of education or 141831 for incompetency, inefficiency, dishonesty, drunkenness, immoral 141832 conduct, insubordination, discourteous treatment of the public, 141833 neglect of duty, or any other acts of misfeasance, malfeasance, or 141834 nonfeasance. In addition to the right of the board of education to 141835 terminate the contract of an employee, the board may suspend an 141836 employee for a definite period of time or demote the employee for 141837 the reasons set forth in this division. The action of the board of 141838 education terminating the contract of an employee or suspending or 141839 demoting the employee shall be served upon the employee by 141840 certified mail, regular mail with a certificate of mailing, or 141841 other form of delivery with proof of delivery, including 141842 electronic delivery with electronic proof of delivery. Within ten 141843 days following the receipt of such notice by the employee, the 141844 employee may file an appeal, in writing, with the court of common 141845 pleas of the county in which such school board is situated. After 141846 hearing the appeal the common pleas court may affirm, disaffirm, 141847 or modify the action of the school board. 141848

A violation of division (A)(7) of section 2907.03 of the 141849 Revised Code is grounds for termination of employment of a 141850 nonteaching employee under this division. 141851

(D) All employees who have been employed by a school district 141852 where the provisions of Chapter 124. of the Revised Code do not 141853 apply, for a period of at least three years on November 24, 1967, 141854 shall hold continuing contracts of employment pursuant to this 141855
section. 141856

(E) Any nonteaching school employee may terminate the 141857 nonteaching school employee's contract of employment thirty days 141858 subsequent to the filing of a written notice of such termination 141859 with the treasurer of the board. 141860

(F) A person hired exclusively for the purpose of replacing a 141861 nonteaching school employee while such employee is on leave of 141862 absence granted under section 3319.13 of the Revised Code is not a 141863 regular nonteaching school employee under this section. 141864

(G) All nonteaching employees employed pursuant to this 141865 section and Chapter 124. of the Revised Code shall be paid for all 141866 time lost when the schools in which they are employed are closed 141867 owing to an epidemic or other public calamity. Nothing in this 141868 division shall be construed as requiring payment in excess of an 141869 employee's regular wage rate or salary for any time worked while 141870 the school in which the employee is employed is officially closed 141871 for the reasons set forth in this division. 141872

Sec. 3319.11. (A) As used in this section: 141873

(1) "Evaluation procedures" means the procedures required by 141874 the policy adopted pursuant to division (A) of section 3319.111 of 141875
the Revised Code. 141876

(2) "Limited contract" means a limited contract, as described 141877 in section 3319.08 of the Revised Code, that a school district 141878 board of education or governing board of an educational service 141879 center enters into with a teacher who is not eligible for 141880 continuing service status. 141881

(3) "Extended limited contract" means a limited contract, as 141882 described in section 3319.08 of the Revised Code, that a board of 141883 education or governing board enters into with a teacher who is 141884 eligible for continuing service status. 141885

(B) Teachers eligible for continuing service status in any 141886 city, exempted village, local, or joint vocational school district 141887 or educational service center shall be those teachers qualified as 141888 described in division (D) of section 3319.08 of the Revised Code, 141889 who within the last five years have taught for at least three 141890 years in the district or center, and those teachers who, having 141891 attained continuing contract status elsewhere, have served two 141892 years in the district or center, but the board, upon the 141893 recommendation of the superintendent, may at the time of 141894 employment or at any time within such two-year period, declare any 141895 of the latter teachers eligible. 141896

reemploy the teacher, the teacher is deemed reemployed under an 141930 extended limited contract for a term not to exceed one year at the 141931 same salary plus any increment provided by the salary schedule. 141932
The teacher is presumed to have accepted employment under the 141933 extended limited contract for a term not to exceed one year unless 141934 such teacher notifies the board in writing to the contrary on or 141935 before the fifteenth day of June, and an extended limited contract 141936 for a term not to exceed one year shall be executed accordingly. 141937 Upon any subsequent reemployment of a teacher only a continuing 141938 contract may be entered into. 141939

(3) Any teacher receiving written notice of the intention of 141940 a board not to reemploy such teacher pursuant to this division is 141941 entitled to the hearing provisions of division (G) of this 141942
section. 141943

(C)(1) If a board rejects the recommendation of the 141944 superintendent for reemployment of a teacher pursuant to division 141945 (B)(1) of this section, the superintendent may recommend 141946 reemployment of the teacher, if continuing service status has not 141947 previously been attained elsewhere, under an extended limited 141948 contract for a term not to exceed two years, provided that written 141949 notice of the superintendent's intention to make such 141950 recommendation has been given to the teacher with reasons directed 141951 at the professional improvement of the teacher on or before the 141952 first day of June. Upon subsequent reemployment of the teacher 141953 only a continuing contract may be entered into. 141954

(2) If a board of education takes affirmative action on a 141955 superintendent's recommendation, made pursuant to division (C)(1) 141956 of this section, of an extended limited contract for a term not to 141957 exceed two years but the board does not give the teacher written 141958 notice of its affirmative action on the superintendent's 141959 recommendation of an extended limited contract on or before the 141960 first day of June, the teacher is deemed reemployed under a 141961 continuing contract at the same salary plus any increment provided 141962 by the salary schedule. The teacher is presumed to have accepted 141963 employment under such continuing contract unless such teacher 141964 notifies the board in writing to the contrary on or before the 141965 fifteenth day of June, and a continuing contract shall be executed 141966 accordingly. 141967

(3) A board shall not reject a superintendent's 141968 recommendation, made pursuant to division (C)(1) of this section, 141969 of an extended limited contract for a term not to exceed two years 141970 except by a three-fourths vote of its full membership. If a board 141971 rejects by a three-fourths vote of its full membership the 141972 recommendation of the superintendent of an extended limited 141973 contract for a term not to exceed two years, the board may declare 141974 its intention not to reemploy the teacher by giving the teacher 141975 written notice on or before the first day of June of its intention 141976 not to reemploy the teacher. If evaluation procedures have not 141977 been complied with pursuant to section 3319.111 of the Revised 141978 Code or if the board does not give the teacher written notice on 141979 or before the first day of June of its intention not to reemploy 141980 the teacher, the teacher is deemed reemployed under an extended 141981 limited contract for a term not to exceed one year at the same 141982 salary plus any increment provided by the salary schedule. The 141983 teacher is presumed to have accepted employment under the extended 141984 limited contract for a term not to exceed one year unless such 141985 teacher notifies the board in writing to the contrary on or before 141986 the fifteenth day of June, and an extended limited contract for a 141987 term not to exceed one year shall be executed accordingly. Upon 141988 any subsequent reemployment of the teacher only a continuing 141989

Any teacher receiving written notice of the intention of a 141991 board not to reemploy such teacher pursuant to this division is 141992

section. 141994

(D) A teacher eligible for continuing contract status 141995 employed under an extended limited contract pursuant to division 141996 (B) or (C) of this section, is, at the expiration of such extended 141997 limited contract, deemed reemployed under a continuing contract at 141998 the same salary plus any increment granted by the salary schedule, 141999 unless evaluation procedures have been complied with pursuant to 142000 section 3319.111 of the Revised Code and the employing board, 142001 acting on the superintendent's recommendation that the teacher not 142002 be reemployed, gives the teacher written notice on or before the 142003 first day of June of its intention not to reemploy such teacher. A 142004 teacher who does not have evaluation procedures applied in 142005
compliance with section 3319.111 of the Revised Code or who does 142006 not receive notice on or before the first day of June of the 142007 intention of the board not to reemploy such teacher is presumed to 142008 have accepted employment under a continuing contract unless such 142009 teacher notifies the board in writing to the contrary on or before 142010 the fifteenth day of June, and a continuing contract shall be 142011 executed accordingly. 142012

Any teacher receiving a written notice of the intention of a 142013
board not to reemploy such teacher pursuant to this division is 142014
section. 142016

(E) The board shall enter into a limited contract with each 142017 teacher employed by the board who is not eligible to be considered 142018 for a continuing contract. 142019

Any teacher employed under a limited contract, and not 142020 eligible to be considered for a continuing contract, is, at the 142021 expiration of such limited contract, considered reemployed under 142022 the provisions of this division at the same salary plus any 142023 increment provided by the salary schedule unless evaluation 142024 procedures have been complied with pursuant to section 3319.111 of 142025 the Revised Code and the employing board, acting upon the 142026 superintendent's written recommendation that the teacher not be 142027 reemployed, gives such teacher written notice of its intention not 142028 to reemploy such teacher on or before the first day of June. A 142029

not receive notice of the intention of the board not to reemploy 142032 such teacher on or before the first day of June is presumed to 142033 have accepted such employment unless such teacher notifies the 142034 board in writing to the contrary on or before the fifteenth day of 142035 June, and a written contract for the succeeding school year shall 142036 be executed accordingly. 142037

section. 142041

(F) The failure of a superintendent to make a recommendation 142042 to the board under any of the conditions set forth in divisions 142043 (B) to (E) of this section, or the failure of the board to give 142044 such teacher a written notice pursuant to divisions (C) to (E) of 142045 this section shall not prejudice or prevent a teacher from being 142046 deemed reemployed under either a limited or continuing contract as 142047 the case may be under the provisions of this section. A failure of 142048 the parties to execute a written contract shall not void any 142049 automatic reemployment provisions of this section. 142050

(G)(1) Any teacher receiving written notice of the intention 142051 of a board of education not to reemploy such teacher pursuant to 142052 division (B), (C)(3), (D), or (E) of this section may, within ten 142053 days of the date of receipt of the notice, file with the treasurer 142054 of the board a written demand for a written statement describing 142055 the circumstances that led to the board's intention not to 142056 reemploy the teacher. 142057

(2) The treasurer of a board, on behalf of the board, shall, 142058 within ten days of the date of receipt of a written demand for a 142059 written statement pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section, 142060 provide to the teacher a written statement describing the 142061 circumstances that led to the board's intention not to reemploy 142062
the teacher. 142063

(3) Any teacher receiving a written statement describing the 142064
the teacher pursuant to division (G)(2) of this section may, 142066 within five days of the date of receipt of the statement, file 142067 with the treasurer of the board a written demand for a hearing 142068 before the board pursuant to divisions (G)(4) to (6) of this 142069
section. 142070

(4) The treasurer of a board, on behalf of the board, shall, 142071
hearing pursuant to division (G)(3) of this section, provide to 142073 the teacher a written notice setting forth the time, date, and 142074 place of the hearing. The board shall schedule and conclude the 142075 hearing within forty days of the date on which the treasurer of 142076 the board receives a written demand for a hearing pursuant to 142077 division (G)(3) of this section. 142078

(5) Any hearing conducted pursuant to this division shall be 142079 conducted by a majority of the members of the board. The hearing 142080 shall be held in executive session of the board unless the board 142081 and the teacher agree to hold the hearing in public. The 142082 superintendent, assistant superintendent, the teacher, and any 142083 person designated by either party to take a record of the hearing 142084 may be present at the hearing. The board may be represented by 142085 counsel and the teacher may be represented by counsel or a 142086 designee. A record of the hearing may be taken by either party at 142087 the expense of the party taking the record. 142088

(6) Within ten days of the conclusion of a hearing conducted 142089

not warranted by any statement given pursuant to division (G)(2) 142122

No appeal of an order of a board may be made except as 142124 specified in this division. 142125

(H)(1) In giving a teacher any notice required by division 142126
(B), (C), (D), or (E) of this section, the board or the 142127 superintendent shall do either of the following: 142128

(a) Deliver the notice by personal service upon the teacher; 142129

(b) Deliver the notice by certified mail, return receipt 142130 requested, regular mail with a certificate of mailing, or other 142131 form of delivery with proof of delivery, addressed to the teacher 142132 at the teacher's place of employment and deliver a copy of the 142133 notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, regular mail 142134 with a certificate of mailing, or other form of delivery with 142135 proof of delivery, addressed to the teacher at the teacher's place 142136 of residence. Delivery of the notice required under division 142137 (H)(1)(b) of this section may be satisfied by electronic delivery 142138 with electronic proof of delivery. 142139

(2) In giving a board any notice required by division (B), 142140
(C), (D), or (E) of this section, the teacher shall do either of 142141
the following: 142142

(a) Deliver the notice by personal delivery to the office of 142143 the superintendent during regular business hours; 142144

(b) Deliver the notice by certified mail, return receipt 142145
requested, regular mail with a certificate of mailing, or other 142146 form of delivery with proof of delivery, addressed to the office 142147 of the superintendent and deliver a copy of the notice by 142148 certified mail, return receipt requested, regular mail with a 142149 certificate of mailing, or other form of delivery with proof of 142150 delivery, addressed to the president of the board at the 142151 president's place of residence. Delivery of the notice required 142152 under division (H)(2)(b) of this section may be satisfied by 142153 electronic delivery with electronic proof of delivery. 142154

(3) When any notice and copy of the notice are mailed 142155 pursuant to division (H)(1)(b) or (2)(b) of this section, the 142156 notice or copy of the notice with the earlier date of receipt 142157 shall constitute the notice for the purposes of division (B), (C), 142158 (D), or (E) of this section. 142159

(I) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any 142160 supplemental written contracts entered into pursuant to section 142161
3319.08 of the Revised Code. 142162

(J) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in Chapter 142163 4117. of the Revised Code, the dates set forth in this section as 142164
"on or before the first day of June" or "on or before the 142165 fifteenth day of June" prevail over any conflicting provisions of 142166 a collective bargaining agreement entered into on or after ~~the~~ 142167 ~~effective date of this amendment~~ March 22, 2013. 142168

Sec. 3319.16. The contract of any teacher employed by the 142169 board of education of any city, exempted village, local, county, 142170 or joint vocational school district may not be terminated except 142171 for good and just cause. Notwithstanding any provision to the 142172 contrary in Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code, the provisions of 142173 this section relating to the grounds for termination of the 142174 contract of a teacher prevail over any conflicting provisions of a 142175 collective bargaining agreement entered into after ~~the effective~~ 142176 ~~date of this amendment~~ October 16, 2009. 142177

Before terminating any contract, the employing board shall 142178 furnish the teacher a written notice signed by its treasurer of 142179 its intention to consider the termination of the teacher's 142180 contract with full specification of the grounds for such 142181 consideration. The board shall not proceed with formal action to 142182 terminate the contract until after the tenth day after receipt of 142183 the notice by the teacher. Within ten days after receipt of the 142184 notice from the treasurer of the board, the teacher may file with 142185 the treasurer a written demand for a hearing before the board or 142186 before a referee, and the board shall set a time for the hearing 142187 which shall be within thirty days from the date of receipt of the 142188 written demand, and the treasurer shall give the teacher at least 142189 twenty days' notice in writing of the time and place of the 142190 hearing. If a referee is demanded by either the teacher or board, 142191 the treasurer also shall give twenty days' notice to the 142192 superintendent of public instruction. No hearing shall be held 142193 during the summer vacation without the teacher's consent. The 142194 hearing shall be private unless the teacher requests a public 142195 hearing. The hearing shall be conducted by a referee appointed 142196 pursuant to section 3319.161 of the Revised Code, if demanded; 142197 otherwise, it shall be conducted by a majority of the members of 142198 the board and shall be confined to the grounds given for the 142199 termination. The board shall provide for a complete ~~stenographic~~ 142200 record of the proceedings, a copy of the record to be furnished to 142201 the teacher. The board may suspend a teacher pending final action 142202 to terminate the teacher's contract if, in its judgment, the 142203 character of the charges warrants such action. 142204

Both parties may be present at such hearing, be represented 142205 by counsel, require witnesses to be under oath, cross-examine 142206 witnesses, take a record of the proceedings, and require the 142207 presence of witnesses in their behalf upon subpoena to be issued 142208 by the treasurer of the board. In case of the failure of any 142209 person to comply with a subpoena, a judge of the court of common 142210 pleas of the county in which the person resides, upon application 142211 of any interested party, shall compel attendance of the person by 142212 attachment proceedings as for contempt. Any member of the board or 142213 the referee may administer oaths to witnesses. After a hearing by 142214 a referee, the referee shall file a report within ten days after 142215 the termination of the hearing. After consideration of the 142216 referee's report, the board, by a majority vote, may accept or 142217 reject the referee's recommendation on the termination of the 142218 teacher's contract. After a hearing by the board, the board, by 142219 majority vote, may enter its determination upon its minutes. Any 142220 order of termination of a contract shall state the grounds for 142221 termination. If the decision, after hearing, is against 142222 termination of the contract, the charges and the record of the 142223 hearing shall be physically expunged from the minutes, and, if the 142224 teacher has suffered any loss of salary by reason of being 142225 suspended, the teacher shall be paid the teacher's full salary for 142226 the period of such suspension. 142227

Any teacher affected by an order of termination of contract 142228 may appeal to the court of common pleas of the county in which the 142229 school is located within thirty days after receipt of notice of 142230 the entry of such order. The appeal shall be an original action in 142231 the court and shall be commenced by the filing of a complaint 142232 against the board, in which complaint the facts shall be alleged 142233 upon which the teacher relies for a reversal or modification of 142234 such order of termination of contract. Upon service or waiver of 142235 summons in that appeal, the board immediately shall transmit to 142236 the clerk of the court for filing a transcript of the original 142237 papers filed with the board, a certified copy of the minutes of 142238 the board into which the termination finding was entered, and a 142239 certified transcript of all evidence adduced at the hearing or 142240 hearings before the board or a certified transcript of all 142241 evidence adduced at the hearing or hearings before the referee, 142242 whereupon the cause shall be at issue without further pleading and 142243 shall be advanced and heard without delay. The court shall examine 142244 the transcript and record of the hearing and shall hold such 142245 additional hearings as it considers advisable, at which it may 142246

(B)(1) Except as otherwise provided in division (B)(2) of this section, the state board shall require each person subject to a criminal records check under this section to submit two complete sets of fingerprints and written permission that authorizes the superintendent of public instruction to forward the fingerprints to the bureau of criminal identification and investigation pursuant to division (F) of section 109.57 of the Revised Code and that authorizes that bureau to forward the fingerprints to the federal bureau of investigation for purposes of obtaining any criminal records that the federal bureau maintains on the person.

(b) The person presents proof that the person has been a resident of this state for the five-year period immediately prior of public instruction shall do one of the following: 142319

(1) If the person is required to submit fingerprints and 142320 written permission under division (B)(1) of this section, request 142321
the superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and 142322 gathered pursuant to division (A) of section 109.57 of the Revised 142324 Code, pertaining to the person and to obtain any criminal records 142325 that the federal bureau of investigation has on the person. 142326

(2) If the person is required to submit fingerprints and 142327
written permission under division (B)(2) of this section, request 142328
the superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and 142329 investigation to obtain any criminal records that the federal 142330 bureau of investigation has on the person. 142331

(D) The state board or the superintendent of public 142332 instruction may choose not to request any information about a 142333 person required by division (C) of this section if the person 142334 provides proof that a criminal records check that satisfies the 142335 requirements of that division was conducted on the person as a 142336 condition of employment pursuant to section 3319.39 of the Revised 142337 Code within the immediately preceding year. The state board or the 142338 superintendent of public instruction may accept a certified copy 142339 of records that were issued by the bureau of criminal 142340 identification and investigation and that are presented by the 142341 person in lieu of requesting that information under division (C) 142342 of this section if the records were issued by the bureau within 142343 the immediately preceding year. 142344

(E)(1) If a person described in division (A)(3) or (4) of 142345 this section who is subject to a criminal records check fails to 142346 submit fingerprints and written permission by the date specified 142347 in the applicable division, and the state board or the 142348 superintendent of public instruction does not apply division (D) 142349 of this section to the person, or if a person who is subject to 142350 division (G) of this section fails to submit fingerprints and 142351 written permission by the date prescribed under that division, the 142352 superintendent shall prepare a written notice to be sent to the 142353 person by mail or electronically stating that if the person does 142354 not submit the fingerprints and written permission within fifteen 142355 days after the date the notice was mailed or sent electronically, 142356 the person's application will be rejected or the person's 142357 professional or permanent teaching certificate or license will be 142358 inactivated. The superintendent shall send the notification by 142359 regular mail to the person's last known residence address or last 142360 known place of employment, as indicated in the department of 142361 education's records, or both. If the notice is sent 142362 electronically, the notification shall be sent via electronic mail 142363 to the person's last known electronic mail address. 142364

If the person fails to submit the fingerprints and written 142365 permission within fifteen days after the date the notice was 142366 mailed, the superintendent of public instruction, on behalf of the 142367 state board, shall issue a written order rejecting the application 142368 or inactivating the person's professional or permanent teaching 142369 certificate or license. The rejection or inactivation shall remain 142370 in effect until the person submits the fingerprints and written 142371 permission. The superintendent shall send the order by regular 142372 mail or electronic mail to the person's last known residence 142373 address, last known electronic mail address, or last known place 142374 of employment, as indicated in the department's records, ~~or both.~~ 142375

The order shall state the reason for the rejection or inactivation 142376 and shall explain that the rejection or inactivation remains in 142377 effect until the person submits the fingerprints and written 142378 permission. 142379

The rejection or inactivation of a professional or permanent 142380 teaching certificate or license under division (E)(1) of this 142381 section does not constitute a suspension or revocation of the 142382 certificate or license by the state board under section 3319.31 of 142383 the Revised Code and the state board and the superintendent of 142384 public instruction need not provide the person with an opportunity 142385 for a hearing with respect to the rejection or inactivation. 142386

(2) If a person whose professional or permanent teaching 142387 certificate or license has been rejected or inactivated under 142388 division (E)(1) of this section submits fingerprints and written 142389 permission as required by division (B) or (G) of this section, the 142390 superintendent of public instruction, on behalf of the state 142391 board, shall issue a written order issuing or reactivating the 142392 certificate or license. The superintendent shall send the order to 142393 the person by regular mail or electronic mail. 142394

(F) Notwithstanding divisions (A) to (C) of this section, if 142395 a person holds more than one certificate, license, or permit 142396 described in division (A)(1) of this section, the following shall 142397 apply: 142398

(1) If the certificates, licenses, or permits are of 142399 different durations, the person shall be subject to divisions (A) 142400 to (C) of this section only when applying for renewal of the 142401 certificate, license, or permit that is of the longest duration. 142402 Prior to renewing any certificate, license, or permit with a 142403 shorter duration, the state board or the superintendent of public 142404 instruction shall determine whether the department of education 142405 has received any information about the person pursuant to section 142406

109.5721 of the Revised Code, but the person shall not be subject 142407 to divisions (A) to (C) of this section as long as the person's 142408 certificate, license, or permit with the longest duration is 142409 valid. 142410

(2) If the certificates, licenses, or permits are of the same 142411 duration but do not expire in the same year, the person shall 142412 designate one of the certificates, licenses, or permits as the 142413 person's primary certificate, license, or permit and shall notify 142414 the department of that designation. The person shall be subject to 142415 divisions (A) to (C) of this section only when applying for 142416 renewal of the person's primary certificate, license, or permit. 142417 Prior to renewing any certificate, license, or permit that is not 142418 the person's primary certificate, license, or permit, the state 142419 board or the superintendent of public instruction shall determine 142420 whether the department has received any information about the 142421 person pursuant to section 109.5721 of the Revised Code, but the 142422 person shall not be subject to divisions (A) to (C) of this 142423 section as long as the person's primary certificate, license, or 142424 permit is valid. 142425

duration and expire in the same year and the person applies for 142427 renewal of the certificates, licenses, or permits at the same 142428 time, the state board or the superintendent of public instruction 142429 shall request only one criminal records check of the person under 142430 division (C) of this section. 142431

(G) If the department is unable to enroll a person who has 142432 submitted an application for licensure, or to whom the state board 142433 has issued a license, in the retained applicant fingerprint 142434 database established under section 109.5721 of the Revised Code 142435 because the person has not satisfied the requirements for 142436 enrollment, the department shall require the person to satisfy the 142437 requirements for enrollment, including requiring the person to 142438 submit, by a date prescribed by the department, one complete set 142439 of fingerprints and written permission that authorizes the 142440 superintendent of public instruction to forward the fingerprints 142441 to the bureau of criminal identification and investigation for the 142442 purpose of enrolling the person in the database. If the person 142443 fails to comply by the prescribed date, the department shall 142444 reject the application or shall take action to inactivate the 142445 person's license in accordance with division (E) of this section. 142446

Sec. 3319.311. (A)(1) The state board of education, or the 142447 superintendent of public instruction on behalf of the board, may 142448 investigate any information received about a person that 142449 reasonably appears to be a basis for action under section 3319.31 142450 of the Revised Code, including information received pursuant to 142451
section 3314.40, 3319.291, 3319.313, 3326.24, 3328.19, 5126.253, 142452
or 5153.176 of the Revised Code. Except as provided in division 142453 (A)(2) of this section, the board shall contract with the office 142454 of the Ohio attorney general to conduct any investigation of that 142455 nature. The board shall pay for the costs of the contract only 142456 from moneys in the state board of education licensure fund 142457 established under section 3319.51 of the Revised Code. Except as 142458 provided in division (A)(2) of this section, all information 142459 received pursuant to section 3314.40, 3319.291, 3319.313, 3326.24, 142460 3328.19, 5126.253, or 5153.176 of the Revised Code, and all 142461 information obtained during an investigation is confidential and 142462 is not a public record under section 149.43 of the Revised Code. 142463
If an investigation is conducted under this division regarding 142464 information received about a person and no action is taken against 142465 the person under this section or section 3319.31 of the Revised 142466 Code within two years of the completion of the investigation, all 142467 records of the investigation shall be expunged. 142468

(2) In the case of a person about whom the board has learned 142469 of a plea of guilty to, finding of guilt by a jury or court of, or 142470 a conviction of an offense listed in division (C) of section 142471 3319.31 of the Revised Code, or substantially comparable conduct 142472 occurring in a jurisdiction outside this state, the board or the 142473 superintendent of public instruction need not conduct any further 142474 investigation and shall take the action required by division (C) 142475 or (F) of that section. Except as provided in division (G) of this 142476 section, all information obtained by the board or the 142477 superintendent of public instruction pertaining to the action is a 142478 public record under section 149.43 of the Revised Code. 142479

(B) The superintendent of public instruction shall review the 142480 results of each investigation of a person conducted under division 142481 (A)(1) of this section and shall determine, on behalf of the state 142482 board, whether the results warrant initiating action under 142483 division (B) of section 3319.31 of the Revised Code. The 142484 superintendent shall advise the board of such determination at a 142485 meeting of the board. Within fourteen days of the next meeting of 142486 the board, any member of the board may ask that the question of 142487 initiating action under section 3319.31 of the Revised Code be 142488 placed on the board's agenda for that next meeting. Prior to 142489 initiating that action against any person, the person's name and 142490 any other personally identifiable information shall remain 142491 confidential. 142492

(C) The board shall take no action against a person under 142493 division (B) of section 3319.31 of the Revised Code without 142494 providing the person with written notice of the charges and with 142495 an opportunity for a hearing in accordance with Chapter 119. of 142496
the Revised Code. 142497

(D) For purposes of an investigation under division (A)(1) of 142498 this section or a hearing under division (C) of this section or 142499

(E) The superintendent, on behalf of the board, may enter 142510 into a consent agreement with a person against whom action is 142511 being taken under division (B) of section 3319.31 of the Revised 142512 Code. The board may adopt rules governing the superintendent's 142513 action under this division. 142514

(F) No surrender of a license shall be effective until the 142515 board takes action to accept the surrender unless the surrender is 142516

this section. 142518

(G) The name of any person who is not required to report 142519

it is alleged and proved that the person violated division (H)(1) 142537 of this section, the court shall award the prevailing party 142538 reasonable attorney's fees and costs that the prevailing party 142539 incurred in the civil action or as a result of the false report 142540 that was the basis of the violation. 142541

(b) If a person is convicted of or pleads guilty to a 142542 violation of division (H)(1) of this section, if the subject of 142543 the false report that was the basis of the violation was charged 142544 with any violation of a law or ordinance as a result of the false 142545 section, as part of the sentence, shall order the person to pay 142550 restitution to the subject of the false report, in an amount equal 142551 to reasonable attorney's fees and costs that the subject of the 142552 the county in which the district is located that the child has 142639 been absent for that period of time and that the child does not 142640 have any legitimate excuse for the habitual absence. A 142641 notification to the registrar required by this division shall be 142642 given in the manner the registrar by rule requires and a 142643 notification to the juvenile judge required by this division shall 142644 be given in writing. Each notification shall be given within two 142645 weeks after the receipt of the information of the habitual absence 142646 from school without legitimate excuse, or, if the child and the 142647 child's parent, guardian, or custodian appear before the 142648 superintendent or a designee to challenge the information, within 142649 two weeks after the ~~appearance~~ hearing. 142650

For purposes of division (B)(2) of this section, a legitimate 142651 excuse for absence from school includes, but is not limited to, 142652 the fact that the child in question has enrolled in another school 142653 or school district in this or another state, the fact that the 142654 child in question was excused from attendance for any of the 142655 reasons specified in section 3321.04 of the Revised Code, or the 142656 fact that the child in question has received an age and schooling 142657 certificate in accordance with section 3331.01 of the Revised 142658
Code. 142659

(3) Whenever a pupil is suspended or expelled from school 142660 pursuant to section 3313.66 of the Revised Code and the reason for 142661 the suspension or expulsion is the use or possession of alcohol, a 142662 drug of abuse, or alcohol and a drug of abuse, the superintendent 142663 of schools of that district may notify the registrar and the 142664 juvenile judge of the county in which the district is located of 142665 such suspension or expulsion. Any such notification of suspension 142666 or expulsion shall be given to the registrar, in the manner the 142667 registrar by rule requires and shall be given to the juvenile 142668 judge in writing. The notifications shall be given within two 142669 weeks after the suspension or expulsion. 142670

(4) Whenever a pupil is suspended, expelled, removed, or 142671 permanently excluded from a school for misconduct included in a 142672 policy that the board of education of a city, exempted village, or 142673 local school district has adopted under division (A) of section 142674 3313.661 of the Revised Code, and the misconduct involves a 142675 firearm or a knife or other weapon as defined in that policy, the 142676 superintendent of schools of that district shall notify the 142677 registrar and the juvenile judge of the county in which the 142678 district is located of the suspension, expulsion, removal, or 142679 permanent exclusion. The notification shall be given to the 142680 registrar in the manner the registrar, by rule, requires and shall 142681 be given to the juvenile judge in writing. The notifications shall 142682 be given within two weeks after the suspension, expulsion, 142683 removal, or permanent exclusion. 142684

(C) A notification of withdrawal, habitual absence without 142685 legitimate excuse, suspension, or expulsion given to the registrar 142686 or a juvenile judge under division (B)(1), (2), (3), or (4) of 142687 this section shall contain the name, address, date of birth, 142688 school, and school district of the child. If the superintendent 142689 finds, after giving a notification of withdrawal, habitual absence 142690 without legitimate excuse, suspension, or expulsion to the 142691 registrar and the juvenile judge under division (B)(1), (2), (3), 142692 or (4) of this section, that the notification was given in error, 142693 the superintendent immediately shall notify the registrar and the 142694 juvenile judge of that fact. 142695

Sec. 3321.21. A notice under section 3321.19 or 3321.20 of 142696 the Revised Code, sent by registered mail, regular mail with a 142697 certificate of mailing, or other form of delivery with proof of 142698 delivery, including electronic delivery and electronic proof of 142699 delivery, is a legal notice. 142700

Sec. 3704.03. The director of environmental protection may do 142701 any of the following: 142702

(A) Develop programs for the prevention, control, and 142703 abatement of air pollution; 142704

(B) Advise, consult, contract, and cooperate with any 142705 governmental or private agency in the furtherance of the purposes 142706 of this chapter; 142707

(C) Encourage, participate in, or conduct studies, 142708 investigations, and research relating to air pollution, collect 142709 and disseminate information, and conduct education and training 142710 programs relating to the causes, prevention, control, and 142711
abatement of air pollution; 142712

(D) Adopt, modify, and rescind rules prescribing ambient air 142713 quality standards for the state as a whole or for various areas of 142714 the state that are consistent with and no more stringent than the 142715 national ambient air quality standards in effect under the federal 142716 Clean Air Act; 142717

(E) Adopt, modify, suspend, and rescind rules for the 142718 prevention, control, and abatement of air pollution, including 142719 rules prescribing for the state as a whole or for various areas of 142720 the state emission standards for air contaminants, and other 142721 necessary rules for the purpose of achieving and maintaining 142722 compliance with ambient air quality standards in all areas within 142723 the state as expeditiously as practicable, but not later than any 142724 deadlines applicable under the federal Clean Air Act; rules for 142725 the prevention or control of the emission of hazardous or toxic 142726 air contaminants; rules prescribing fugitive dust limitations and 142727 standards that are related, on an areawide basis, to attainment 142728 and maintenance of ambient air quality standards; rules 142729 prescribing shade, density, or opacity limitations and standards 142730 for emissions, provided that with regard to air contaminant 142731 sources for which there are particulate matter emission standards 142732 in addition to a shade, density, or opacity rule, upon 142733 demonstration by such a source of compliance with those other 142734 standards, the shade, density, or opacity rule shall provide for 142735 establishment of a shade, density, or opacity limitation for that 142736 source that does not require the source to reduce emissions below 142737 the level specified by those other standards; rules for the 142738 prevention or control of odors and air pollution nuisances; rules 142739 that prevent significant deterioration of air quality to the 142740 extent required by the federal Clean Air Act; rules for the 142741 protection of visibility as required by the federal Clean Air Act; 142742 and rules prescribing open burning limitations and standards. In 142743 adopting, modifying, suspending, or rescinding any such rules, the 142744 director, to the extent consistent with the federal Clean Air Act, 142745 shall hear and give consideration to evidence relating to all of 142746

the following: 142747

(1) Conditions calculated to result from compliance with the 142748 rules, the overall cost within this state of compliance with the 142749 rules, and their relation to benefits to the people of the state 142750 to be derived from that compliance; 142751

(2) The quantity and characteristics of air contaminants, the 142752 frequency and duration of their presence in the ambient air, and 142753 the dispersion and dilution of those contaminants; 142754

(3) Topography, prevailing wind directions and velocities, 142755 physical conditions, and other factors that may or may combine to 142756 affect air pollution. 142757

Consistent with division (K) of section 3704.036 of the 142758 Revised Code, the director shall consider alternative emission 142759 limits proposed by the owner or operator of an air contaminant 142760 source that is subject to an emission limit established in rules 142761 adopted under this division and shall accept those alternative 142762 emission limits that the director determines to be equivalent to 142763 emission limits established in rules adopted under this division. 142764

(F)(1) Adopt, modify, suspend, and rescind rules consistent 142765 with the purposes of this chapter prohibiting the location, 142766 installation, construction, or modification of any air contaminant 142767 source or any machine, equipment, device, apparatus, or physical 142768 facility intended primarily to prevent or control the emission of 142769 air contaminants unless an installation permit therefor has been 142770 obtained from the director or the director's authorized 142771 representative. 142772

(2)(a) Applications for installation permits shall be 142773 accompanied by plans, specifications, construction schedules, and 142774 such other pertinent information and data, including data on 142775 ambient air quality impact and a demonstration of best available 142776 technology, as the director may require. Installation permits 142777 shall be issued for a period specified by the director and are 142778 transferable. The director shall specify in each permit the 142779 applicable emission standards and that the permit is conditioned 142780 upon payment of the applicable fees as required by section 3745.11 142781
of the Revised Code and upon the right of the director's 142782 authorized representatives to enter upon the premises of the 142783 person to whom the permit has been issued, at any reasonable time 142784
and subject to safety requirements of the person in control of the 142785 premises, for the purpose of determining compliance with such 142786 standards, this chapter, the rules adopted thereunder, and the 142787 conditions of any permit, variance, or order issued thereunder. 142788 Each proposed new or modified air contaminant source shall provide 142789 such notice of its proposed installation or modification to other 142790 states as is required under the federal Clean Air Act. 142791 Installation permits shall include the authorization to operate 142792 sources installed and operated in accordance with terms and 142793 conditions of the installation permits for a period not to exceed 142794 one year from commencement of operation, which authorization shall 142795 constitute an operating permit under division (G) of this section 142796 and rules adopted under it. 142797

No installation permit shall be required for activities that 142798 are subject to and in compliance with a plant-wide applicability 142799 limit issued by the director in accordance with rules adopted 142800 under this section. 142801

No installation permit shall be issued except in accordance 142802 with all requirements of this chapter and rules adopted 142803 thereunder. No application shall be denied or permit revoked or 142804 modified without a written order stating the findings upon which 142805 denial, revocation, or modification is based. A copy of the order 142806 shall be sent to the applicant or permit holder by certified mail. 142807

(b) An air contaminant source that is the subject of an 142808 installation permit shall be installed or modified in accordance 142809 with the permit not later than eighteen months after the permit's 142810 effective date at which point the permit shall terminate unless 142811 one of the following applies: 142812

(i) The owner or operator has undertaken a continuing program 142813 of installation or modification during the eighteen-month period. 142814

(ii) The owner or operator has entered into a binding 142815 contractual obligation to undertake and complete within a 142816 reasonable period of time a continuing program of installation or 142817 modification of the air contaminant source during the 142818 eighteen-month period. 142819

(iii) The director has extended the date by which the air 142820 contaminant source that is the subject of the installation permit 142821 must be installed or modified. 142822

(iv) The installation permit is the subject of an appeal by a 142823 party other than the owner or operator of the air contaminant 142824 source that is the subject of the installation permit, in which 142825 case the date of termination of the permit is not later than 142826 eighteen months after the effective date of the permit plus the 142827 number of days between the date in which the permit was appealed 142828 and the date on which all appeals concerning the permit have been 142829 resolved. 142830

(v) The installation permit has been superseded by a 142831 subsequent installation permit, in which case the original 142832 installation permit terminates on the effective date of the 142833 superseding installation permit. 142834

Division (F)(2)(b) of this section applies to an installation 142835 permit that has not terminated as of ~~the effective date of this~~ 142836 ~~amendment~~ October 16, 2009. 142837

The director may adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. 142838 of the Revised Code for the purpose of establishing additional 142839 requirements that are necessary for the implementation of division 142840 (F)(2)(b) of this section. 142841

(3) Not later than two years after August 3, 2006, the 142842 director shall adopt a rule in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 142843 Revised Code specifying that a permit to install is required only 142844 for new or modified air contaminant sources that emit any of the 142845 following air contaminants: 142846

(a) An air contaminant or precursor of an air contaminant for 142847 which a national ambient air quality standard has been adopted 142848 under the federal Clean Air Act; 142849

(b) An air contaminant for which the air contaminant source 142850 is regulated under the federal Clean Air Act; 142851

(c) An air contaminant that presents, or may present, through 142852 inhalation or other routes of exposure, a threat of adverse human 142853 health effects, including, but not limited to, substances that are 142854 known to be, or may reasonably be anticipated to be, carcinogenic, 142855 mutagenic, teratogenic, or neurotoxic, that cause reproductive 142856 dysfunction, or that are acutely or chronically toxic, or a threat 142857 of adverse environmental effects whether through ambient 142858 concentrations, bioaccumulation, deposition, or otherwise, and 142859 that is identified in the rule by chemical name and chemical 142860 abstract service number. 142861

The director may modify the rule adopted under division 142862 (F)(3)(c) of this section for the purpose of adding or deleting 142863 air contaminants. For each air contaminant that is contained in or 142864 deleted from the rule adopted under division (F)(3)(c) of this 142865 section, the director shall include in a notice accompanying any 142866 proposed or final rule an explanation of the director's 142867 determination that the air contaminant meets the criteria 142868 established in that division and should be added to, or no longer 142869 meets the criteria and should be deleted from, the list of air 142870 contaminants. The explanation shall include an identification of 142871 the scientific evidence on which the director relied in making the 142872 determination. Until adoption of the rule under division (F)(3)(c) 142873 of this section, nothing shall affect the director's authority to 142874 issue, deny, modify, or revoke permits to install under this 142875 chapter and rules adopted under it. 142876

(4)(a) Applications for permits to install new or modified 142877 air contaminant sources shall contain sufficient information 142878 regarding air contaminants for which the director may require a 142879 permit to install to determine conformity with the environmental 142880 protection agency's document entitled "Review of New Sources of Air Toxics Emissions, Option A," dated May 1986, which the director shall use to evaluate toxic emissions from new or modified air contaminant sources. The director shall make copies of the document available to the public upon request at no cost and post the document on the environmental protection agency's web site. Any inconsistency between the document and division (F)(4) of this section shall be resolved in favor of division (F)(4) of this section.

(b) The maximum acceptable ground level concentration of an air contaminant shall be calculated in accordance with the document entitled "Review of New Sources of Air Toxics Emissions, Option A." Modeling shall be conducted to determine the increase in the ground level concentration of an air contaminant beyond the facility's boundary caused by the emissions from a new or modified source that is the subject of an application for a permit to install. Modeling shall be based on the maximum hourly rate of emissions from the source using information including, but not limited to, any emission control devices or methods, operational restrictions, stack parameters, and emission dispersion devices or methods that may affect ground level concentrations, either individually or in combination. The director shall determine whether the activities for which a permit to install is sought will cause an increase in the ground level concentration of one or more relevant air contaminants beyond the facility's boundary by an amount in excess of the maximum acceptable ground level concentration. In making the determination as to whether the maximum acceptable ground level concentration will be exceeded, the director shall give consideration to the modeling conducted under division (F)(4)(b) of this section and other relevant information submitted by the applicant.

(c) If the modeling conducted under division (F)(4)(b) of this section with respect to an application for a permit to 142913 install demonstrates that the maximum ground level concentration 142914 from a new or modified source will be greater than or equal to 142915 eighty per cent, but less than one hundred per cent of the maximum 142916 acceptable ground level concentration for an air contaminant, the 142917 director may establish terms and conditions in the permit to 142918 install for the air contaminant source that will require the owner 142919 or operator of the air contaminant source to maintain emissions of 142920 that air contaminant commensurate with the modeled level, which 142921 shall be expressed as allowable emissions per day. In order to 142922 calculate the allowable emissions per day, the director shall 142923 multiply the hourly emission rate modeled under division (F)(4)(b) 142924 of this section to determine the ground level concentration by the 142925 operating schedule that has been identified in the permit to 142926 install application. Terms and conditions imposed under division 142927 (F)(4)(c) of this section are not federally enforceable 142928 requirements and, if included in a Title V permit, shall be placed 142929 in the portion of the permit that is only enforceable by the 142930

(d) If the modeling conducted under division (F)(4)(b) of 142932
this section with respect to an application for a permit to 142933
install demonstrates that the maximum ground level concentration 142934 from a new or modified source will be less than eighty per cent of 142935 the maximum acceptable ground level concentration, the owner or 142936 operator of the source annually shall report to the director, on a 142937 form prescribed by the director, whether operations of the source 142938 are consistent with the information regarding the operations that 142939 was used to conduct the modeling with regard to the permit to 142940 install application. The annual report to the director shall be in 142941 lieu of an emission limit or other permit terms and conditions 142942 imposed pursuant to division (F)(4) of this section. The director 142943 may consider any significant departure from the operations of the 142944 source described in the permit to install application that results 142945 in greater emissions than the emissions rate modeled to determine 142946 the ground level concentration as a modification and require the 142947 owner or operator to submit a permit to install application for 142948 the increased emissions. The requirements established in division 142949 (F)(4)(d) of this section are not federally enforceable 142950 requirements and, if included in a Title V permit, shall be placed 142951

in the portion of the permit that is only enforceable by the 142952
state. 142953

(e) Division (F)(4) of this section and the document entitled 142954
"Review of New Sources of Air Toxics Emissions, Option A" shall 142955 not be included in the state implementation plan under section 110 142956 of the federal Clean Air Act and do not apply to an air 142957 contaminant source that is subject to a maximum achievable control 142958 technology standard or residual risk standard under section 112 of 142959 the federal Clean Air Act, to a particular air contaminant 142960 identified under 40 C.F.R. 51.166, division (b)(23), for which the 142961 director has determined that the owner or operator of the source 142962 is required to install best available control technology for that 142963 particular air contaminant, or to a particular air contaminant for 142964 which the director has determined that the source is required to 142965 meet the lowest achievable emission rate, as defined in 40 C.F.R. 142966 part 51, Appendix S, for that particular air contaminant. 142967

(f)(i) Division (F)(4) of this section and the document 142968 entitled "Review of New Sources of Air Toxics Emissions, Option A" 142969 do not apply to parking lots, storage piles, storage tanks, 142970 transfer operations, grain silos, grain dryers, emergency 142971 generators, gasoline dispensing operations, air contaminant 142972 sources that emit air contaminants solely from the combustion of 142973 fossil fuels, or the emission of wood dust, sand, glass dust, coal 142974 dust, silica, and grain dust. 142975

(ii) Notwithstanding division (F)(4)(f)(i) of this section, 142976 the director may require an individual air contaminant source that 142977 is within one of the source categories identified in division 142978 (F)(4)(f)(i) of this section to submit information in an 142979 application for a permit to install a new or modified source in 142980 order to determine the source's conformity to the document if the 142981 director has information to conclude that the particular new or 142982 modified source will potentially cause an increase in ground level 142983 concentration beyond the facility's boundary that exceeds the 142984 maximum acceptable ground level concentration as set forth in the 142985 document. 142986

(iii) The director may adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 142987
119. of the Revised Code that are consistent with the purposes of 142988 this chapter and that add to or delete from the source category 142989 exemptions established in division (F)(4)(f)(i) of this section. 142990

(5) Not later than one year after August 3, 2006, the 142991 director shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 142992 Revised Code specifying activities that do not, by themselves, 142993 constitute beginning actual construction activities related to the 142994 installation or modification of an air contaminant source for 142995 which a permit to install is required such as the grading and 142996 clearing of land, on-site storage of portable parts and equipment, 142997 and the construction of foundations or buildings that do not 142998 themselves emit air contaminants. The rules also shall allow 142999 specified initial activities that are part of the installation or 143000 modification of an air contaminant source, such as the 143001 installation of electrical and other utilities for the source, 143002 prior to issuance of a permit to install, provided that the owner 143003 or operator of the source has filed a complete application for a 143004 permit to install, the director or the director's designee has 143005 determined that the application is complete, and the owner or 143006 operator of the source has notified the director that this 143007 activity will be undertaken prior to the issuance of a permit to 143008 install. Any activity that is undertaken by the source under those 143009 rules shall be at the risk of the owner or operator. The rules 143010 shall not apply to activities that are precluded prior to permit 143011 issuance under section 111, section 112, Part C of Title I, and 143012 Part D of Title I of the federal Clean Air Act. 143013

(G) Adopt, modify, suspend, and rescind rules prohibiting the 143014 operation or other use of any new, modified, or existing air 143015 contaminant source unless an operating permit has been obtained 143016 from the director or the director's authorized representative, or 143017 the air contaminant source is being operated in compliance with 143018 the conditions of a variance issued pursuant to division (H) of 143019 this section. Applications for operating permits shall be 143020 accompanied by such plans, specifications, and other pertinent 143021 information as the director may require. Operating permits may be 143022 issued for a period determined by the director not to exceed ten 143023 years, are renewable, and are transferable. The director shall 143024 specify in each operating permit that the permit is conditioned 143025 upon payment of the applicable fees as required by section 3745.11 143026
of the Revised Code and upon the right of the director's 143027
authorized representatives to enter upon the premises of the 143028
person to whom the permit has been issued, at any reasonable time 143029
and subject to safety requirements of the person in control of the 143030 premises, for the purpose of determining compliance with this 143031 chapter, the rules adopted thereunder, and the conditions of any 143032 permit, variance, or order issued thereunder. Operating permits 143033 may be denied or revoked for failure to comply with this chapter 143034 or the rules adopted thereunder. An operating permit shall be 143035 issued only upon a showing satisfactory to the director or the 143036 director's representative that the air contaminant source is being 143037 operated in compliance with applicable emission standards and 143038 other rules or upon submission of a schedule of compliance 143039 satisfactory to the director for a source that is not in 143040 compliance with all applicable requirements at the time of permit 143041 issuance, provided that the compliance schedule shall be 143042 consistent with and at least as stringent as that contained in any 143043 judicial consent decree or administrative order to which the air 143044 contaminant source is subject. The rules shall provide for the 143045 issuance of conditional operating permits for such reasonable 143046 periods as the director may determine to allow the holder of an 143047 installation permit, who has constructed, installed, located, or 143048 modified a new air contaminant source in accordance with the 143049 provisions of an installation permit, to make adjustments or 143050 modifications necessary to enable the new air contaminant source 143051 to comply with applicable emission standards and other rules. 143052 Terms and conditions of operating permits issued pursuant to this 143053 division shall be federally enforceable for the purpose of 143054 establishing the potential to emit of a stationary source and 143055 shall be expressly designated as federally enforceable. Any such 143056 federally enforceable restrictions on a source's potential to emit 143057 shall include both an annual limit and a short-term limit of not 143058 more than thirty days for each pollutant to be restricted together 143059 with adequate methods for establishing compliance with the 143060 restrictions. In other respects, operating permits issued pursuant 143061 to this division are enforceable as state law only. No application 143062 shall be denied or permit revoked or modified without a written 143063 order stating the findings upon which denial, revocation, or 143064 modification is based. A copy of the order shall be sent to the 143065 applicant or permit holder by certified mail. 143066

(H) Adopt, modify, and rescind rules governing the issuance, 143067 revocation, modification, or denial of variances that authorize 143068 emissions in excess of the applicable emission standards. 143069

No variance shall be issued except pursuant to those rules. 143070
The rules shall prescribe conditions and criteria in furtherance 143071 of the purposes of this chapter and consistent with the federal 143072 Clean Air Act governing eligibility for issuance of variances, 143073 which shall include all of the following: 143074

(1) Provisions requiring consistency of emissions authorized	143075
by a variance with timely attainment and maintenance of ambient	143076
air quality standards;	143077
(2) Provisions prescribing the classes and categories of air	143078 contaminants and air contaminant sources for which variances may	143079 be issued;	143080
(3) Provisions defining the circumstances under which an	143081 applicant shall demonstrate that compliance with applicable	143082 emission standards is technically infeasible, economically	143083 unreasonable, or impossible because of conditions beyond the	143084 control of the applicant;	143085
(4) Other provisions prescribed in furtherance of the goals	143086
of this chapter.	143087
The rules shall prohibit the issuance of variances from any	143088 emission limitation that was applicable to a source pursuant to an	143089 installation permit and shall prohibit issuance of variances that	143090 conflict with the federal Clean Air Act.	143091
Applications for variances shall be accompanied by such	143092 information as the director may require. In issuing variances, the	143093 director may order the person to whom a variance is issued to	143094 furnish plans and specifications and such other information and	143095 data, including interim reports, as the director may require and	143096 to proceed to take such action within such time as the director	143097 may determine to be appropriate and reasonable to prevent,	143098 control, or abate the person's existing emissions of air	143099 contaminants. The director shall specify in each variance that the	143100 variance is conditioned upon payment of the applicable fees as	143101 required by section 3745.11 of the Revised Code and upon the right	143102 of the director's authorized representatives to enter upon the	143103 premises of the person to whom the variance has been issued, at	143104 any reasonable time and subject to safety requirements of the	143105 person in control of the premises, for the purpose of determining 143106 compliance with this chapter, the rules adopted thereunder, and 143107 the conditions of any permit, variance, or order issued 143108 thereunder. 143109

The director may hold a public hearing on an application for 143110 a variance or renewal thereof at a location in the county where 143111 the variance is sought. The director shall give not less than 143112 twenty days' notice of the hearing to the applicant by certified 143113 mail or another type of mail accompanied by a receipt and. The 143114 director also shall cause at least one publication of notice in a 143115 newspaper with general circulation in the county where the 143116 variance is sought or may instead provide public notice by 143117 publication on the environmental protection agency's web site. The 143118 director shall keep available for public inspection at the 143119 principal office of the environmental protection agency a current 143120 schedule of pending applications for variances and a current 143121 schedule of pending variance hearings. The director shall make a 143122 complete stenographic record or electronic record of testimony and 143123 other evidence submitted at the hearing. The director shall make a 143124 written determination to issue, renew, or deny the variance and 143125 shall enter the determination and the basis therefor into the 143126 record of the hearing. The director shall issue, renew, or deny an 143127 application for a variance or renewal thereof, or issue a proposed 143128 action upon the application pursuant to section 3745.07 of the 143129 Revised Code, within six months of the date upon which the 143130 director receives a complete application with all pertinent 143131 information and data required by the director. 143132

Any variance granted pursuant to rules adopted under this 143133 division shall be for a period specified by the director, not to 143134 exceed three years, and may be renewed from time to time on such 143135 terms and for such periods, not to exceed three years each, as the 143136 director determines to be appropriate. A variance may be revoked, 143137 or renewal denied, for failure to comply with conditions specified 143138 in the variance. No variance shall be issued, denied, revoked, or 143139 modified without a written order stating the findings upon which 143140

the issuance, denial, revocation, or modification is based. A copy 143141 of the order shall be sent to the applicant or variance holder by 143142 certified mail. 143143

(I) Require the owner or operator of an air contaminant 143144 source to install, employ, maintain, and operate such emissions, 143145 ambient air quality, meteorological, or other monitoring devices 143146 or methods as the director shall prescribe; to sample those 143147 emissions at such locations, at such intervals, and in such manner 143148 as the director prescribes; to maintain records and file periodic 143149 reports with the director containing information as to location, 143150 size, and height of emission outlets, rate, duration, and 143151 composition of emissions, and any other pertinent information the 143152 director prescribes; and to provide such written notice to other 143153 states as the director shall prescribe. In requiring monitoring 143154 devices, records, and reports, the director, to the extent 143155 consistent with the federal Clean Air Act, shall give 143156 consideration to technical feasibility and economic reasonableness 143157 and allow reasonable time for compliance. For sources where a 143158 specific monitoring, record-keeping, or reporting requirement is 143159 specified for a particular air contaminant from a particular air 143160 contaminant source in an applicable regulation adopted by the 143161 United States environmental protection agency under the federal 143162 Clean Air Act or in an applicable rule adopted by the director, 143163 the director shall not impose an additional requirement in a 143164 permit that is a different monitoring, record-keeping, or 143165 reporting requirement other than the requirement specified in the 143166 applicable regulation or rule for that air contaminant except as 143167 otherwise agreed to by the owner or operator of the air 143168 contaminant source and the director. If two or more regulations or 143169 rules impose different monitoring, record-keeping, or reporting 143170 requirements for the same air contaminant from the same air 143171 contaminant source, the director may impose permit terms and 143172 conditions that consolidate or streamline the monitoring, 143173 record-keeping, or reporting requirements in a manner that 143174 conforms with each applicable requirement. To the extent 143175 consistent with the federal Clean Air Act and except as otherwise 143176 agreed to by the owner or operator of an air contaminant source 143177 and the director, the director shall not require an operating 143178 restriction that has the practical effect of increasing the 143179 stringency of an existing applicable emission limitation or 143180 standard. 143181

(J) Establish, operate, and maintain monitoring stations and 143182 other devices designed to measure air pollution and enter into 143183 contracts with any public or private agency for the establishment, 143184 operation, or maintenance of such stations and devices; 143185

(K) By rule adopt procedures for giving reasonable public 143186 notice and conducting public hearings on any plans for the 143187 prevention, control, and abatement of air pollution that the 143188 director is required to submit to the federal government; 143189

(L) Through any employee, agent, or authorized representative 143190 of the director or the environmental protection agency, enter upon 143191 private or public property, including improvements thereon, at any 143192 reasonable time, to make inspections, take samples, conduct tests, 143193 and examine records or reports pertaining to any emission of air 143194 contaminants and any monitoring equipment or methods and to 143195 determine if there are any actual or potential emissions from such 143196 premises and, if so, to determine the sources, amounts, contents, 143197 and extent of those emissions, or to ascertain whether there is 143198 compliance with this chapter, any orders issued or rules adopted 143199 thereunder, or any other determination of the director. The 143200 director, at reasonable times, may have access to and copy any 143201 such records. If entry or inspection authorized by this division 143202 is refused, hindered, or thwarted, the director or the director's 143203 authorized representative may by affidavit apply for, and any 143204 judge of a court of record may issue, an appropriate inspection 143205 warrant necessary to achieve the purposes of this chapter within 143206 the court's territorial jurisdiction. 143207

(M) Accept and administer gifts or grants from the federal 143208 government and from any other source, public or private, for 143209 carrying out any of the functions under this chapter; 143210

(N) Obtain necessary scientific, technical, and laboratory 143211 services; 143212

(O) Establish advisory boards in accordance with section 143213
121.13 of the Revised Code; 143214

(P) Delegate to any city or general health district or 143215 political subdivision of the state any of the director's 143216 enforcement and monitoring powers and duties, other than 143217 rule-making powers, as the director elects to delegate, and in 143218 addition employ, compensate, and prescribe the powers and duties 143219 of such officers, employees, and consultants as are necessary to 143220 enable the director to exercise the authority and perform duties 143221 imposed upon the director by law. Technical and other services 143222 shall be performed, insofar as practical, by personnel of the 143223 environmental protection agency. 143224

(Q) Certify to the government of the United States or any 143225 agency thereof that an industrial air pollution facility is in 143226 conformity with the state program or requirements for control of 143227 air pollution whenever such certificate is required for a taxpayer 143228 pursuant to any federal law or requirements; 143229

(R) Issue, modify, or revoke orders requiring abatement of or 143230 prohibiting emissions that violate applicable emission standards 143231 or other requirements of this chapter and rules adopted 143232 thereunder, or requiring emission control devices or measures in 143233 order to comply with applicable emission standards or other 143234 requirements of this chapter and rules adopted thereunder. Any 143235 such order shall require compliance with applicable emission 143236 standards by a specified date and shall not conflict with any 143237 requirement of the federal Clean Air Act. In the making of such 143238 orders, the director, to the extent consistent with the federal 143239 Clean Air Act, shall give consideration to, and base the 143240 determination on, evidence relating to the technical feasibility 143241 and economic reasonableness of compliance with such orders and 143242 their relation to benefits to the people of the state to be 143243 derived from such compliance. If, under the federal Clean Air Act, 143244 any such order shall provide for the posting of a bond or surety 143245 to secure compliance with the order as a condition of issuance of 143246 the order, the order shall so provide, but only to the extent 143247 required by the federal Clean Air Act. 143248

(S) To the extent provided by the federal Clean Air Act, 143249 adopt, modify, and rescind rules providing for the administrative 143250 assessment and collection of monetary penalties, not in excess of 143251 those required pursuant to the federal Clean Air Act, for failure 143252 to comply with any emission limitation or standard, compliance 143253 schedule, or other requirement of any rule, order, permit, or 143254 variance issued or adopted under this chapter or required under 143255 the applicable implementation plan whether or not the source is 143256 subject to a federal or state consent decree. The director may 143257 require the submission of compliance schedules, calculations of 143258 penalties for noncompliance, and related information. Any orders, 143259 payments, sanctions, or other requirements imposed pursuant to 143260 rules adopted under this division shall be in addition to any 143261 other permits, orders, payments, sanctions, or other requirements 143262 established under this chapter and shall not affect any civil or 143263 criminal enforcement proceedings brought under any provision of 143264 this chapter or any other provision of state or local law. This 143265 division does not apply to any requirement of this chapter 143266 regarding the prevention or abatement of odors. 143267

(T) Require new or modified air contaminant sources to 143268 install best available technology, but only in accordance with 143269 this division. With respect to permits issued pursuant to division 143270 (F) of this section beginning three years after August 3, 2006, 143271 best available technology for air contaminant sources and air 143272 contaminants emitted by those sources that are subject to 143273 standards adopted under section 112, Part C of Title I, and Part D 143274 of Title I of the federal Clean Air Act shall be equivalent to and 143275 no more stringent than those standards. For an air contaminant or 143276 precursor of an air contaminant for which a national ambient air 143277 quality standard has been adopted under the federal Clean Air Act, 143278 best available technology only shall be required to the extent 143279 required by rules adopted under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code 143280 for permit to install applications filed three or more years after 143281 August 3, 2006. 143282

Best available technology requirements established in rules 143283 adopted under this division shall be expressed only in one of the 143284 following ways that is most appropriate for the applicable source 143285 or source categories: 143286

(1) Work practices; 143287

(2) Source design characteristics or design efficiency of 143288 applicable air contaminant control devices; 143289

(3) Raw material specifications or throughput limitations 143290 averaged over a twelve-month rolling period; 143291

(4) Monthly allowable emissions averaged over a twelve-month 143292 rolling period. 143293

Best available technology requirements shall not apply to an 143294 air contaminant source that has the potential to emit, taking into 143295 account air pollution controls installed on the source, less than 143296 ten tons per year of emissions of an air contaminant or precursor 143297 of an air contaminant for which a national ambient air quality 143298 standard has been adopted under the federal Clean Air Act. In 143299 addition, best available technology requirements established in 143300 rules adopted under this division shall not apply to any existing, 143301 new, or modified air contaminant source that is subject to a 143302 plant-wide applicability limit that has been approved by the 143303 director. Further, best available technology requirements 143304 established in rules adopted under this division shall not apply 143305 to general permits issued prior to January 1, 2006, under rules 143306 adopted under this chapter. 143307

For permits to install issued three or more years after 143308 August 3, 2006, any new or modified air contaminant source that 143309 has the potential to emit, taking into account air pollution 143310 controls installed on the source, ten or more tons per year of 143311 volatile organic compounds or nitrogen oxides shall meet, at a 143312 minimum, the requirements of any applicable reasonably available 143313 control technology rule in effect as of January 1, 2006, 143314 regardless of the location of the source. 143315

(U) Consistent with section 507 of the federal Clean Air Act, 143316 adopt, modify, suspend, and rescind rules for the establishment of 143317 a small business stationary source technical and environmental 143318 compliance assistance program as provided in section 3704.18 of 143319
the Revised Code; 143320

(V) Provide for emissions trading, marketable permits, 143321 auctions of emission rights, and economic incentives that would 143322 reduce the cost or increase the efficiency of achieving a 143323 specified level of environmental protection; 143324

(W) Provide for the construction of an air contaminant source 143325 prior to obtaining a permit to install pursuant to division (F) of 143326 this section if the applicant demonstrates that the source will be 143327 installed to comply with all applicable emission limits and will 143328 not adversely affect public health or safety or the environment 143329 and if the director determines that such an action will avoid an 143330 unreasonable hardship on the owner or operator of the source. Any 143331 such determination shall be consistent with the federal Clean Air 143332 Act. 143333

(X) Exercise all incidental powers, including adoption of 143334 rules, required to carry out this chapter. 143335

The environmental protection agency shall develop a plan to 143336 control air pollution resulting from state-operated facilities and 143337
property. 143338

Sec. 3734.02. (A) The director of environmental protection, 143339 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt 143340 and may amend, suspend, or rescind rules having uniform 143341 application throughout the state governing solid waste facilities 143342 and the inspections of and issuance of permits and licenses for 143343 all solid waste facilities in order to ensure that the facilities 143344 will be located, maintained, and operated, and will undergo 143345 closure and post-closure care, in a sanitary manner so as not to 143346 create a nuisance, cause or contribute to water pollution, create 143347 a health hazard, or violate 40 C.F.R. 257.3-2 or 40 C.F.R. 143348 257.3-8, as amended. The rules may include, without limitation, 143349 financial assurance requirements for closure and post-closure care 143350 and corrective action and requirements for taking corrective 143351 action in the event of the surface or subsurface discharge or 143352 migration of explosive gases or leachate from a solid waste 143353 facility, or of ground water contamination resulting from the 143354 transfer or disposal of solid wastes at a facility, beyond the 143355 boundaries of any area within a facility that is operating or is 143356 undergoing closure or post-closure care where solid wastes were 143357 disposed of or are being disposed of. The rules shall not concern 143358 or relate to personnel policies, salaries, wages, fringe benefits, 143359 or other conditions of employment of employees of persons owning 143360 or operating solid waste facilities. The director, in accordance 143361 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt and may amend, 143362 suspend, or rescind rules governing the issuance, modification, 143363 revocation, suspension, or denial of variances from the director's 143364 solid waste rules, including, without limitation, rules adopted 143365 under this chapter governing the management of scrap tires. 143366

Variances shall be issued, modified, revoked, suspended, or 143367 rescinded in accordance with this division, rules adopted under 143368 it, and Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code. The director may order 143369 the person to whom a variance is issued to take such action within 143370 such time as the director may determine to be appropriate and 143371 reasonable to prevent the creation of a nuisance or a hazard to 143372 the public health or safety or the environment. Applications for 143373 variances shall contain such detail plans, specifications, and 143374 information regarding objectives, procedures, controls, and other 143375 pertinent data as the director may require. The director shall 143376 grant a variance only if the applicant demonstrates to the 143377 director's satisfaction that construction and operation of the 143378 solid waste facility in the manner allowed by the variance and any 143379 terms or conditions imposed as part of the variance will not 143380 create a nuisance or a hazard to the public health or safety or 143381 the environment. In granting any variance, the director shall 143382 state the specific provision or provisions whose terms are to be 143383 varied and also shall state specific terms or conditions imposed 143384 upon the applicant in place of the provision or provisions. 143385

The director may hold a public hearing on an application for 143386
a variance or renewal of a variance at a location in the county 143387 where the operations that are the subject of the application for 143388 the variance are conducted. The director shall give not less than 143389 twenty days' notice of the hearing to the applicant by certified 143390 mail or by another type of mail accompanied by a receipt ~~and~~. The 143391 director shall publish at least one notice of the hearing in a 143392 newspaper with general circulation in the county where the hearing 143393 is to be held or may instead provide public notice by publication 143394 on the environmental protection agency's web site. The director 143395 shall make available for public inspection at the principal office 143396 of the environmental protection agency a current list of pending 143397 applications for variances and a current schedule of pending 143398 variance hearings. The director shall make a complete stenographic 143399 record or electronic record of testimony and other evidence 143400 submitted at the hearing. 143401

Within ten days after the hearing, the director shall make a 143402 written determination to issue, renew, or deny the variance and 143403 shall enter the determination and the basis for it into the record 143404 of the hearing. The director shall issue, renew, or deny an 143405 application for a variance or renewal of a variance within six 143406 months of the date upon which the director receives a complete 143407 application with all pertinent information and data required. No 143408 variance shall be issued, revoked, modified, or denied until the 143409 director has considered the relative interests of the applicant, 143410 other persons and property affected by the variance, and the 143411 general public. Any variance granted under this division shall be 143412 for a period specified by the director and may be renewed from 143413 time to time on such terms and for such periods as the director 143414 determines to be appropriate. No application shall be denied and 143415 no variance shall be revoked or modified without a written order 143416 stating the findings upon which the denial, revocation, or 143417 modification is based. A copy of the order shall be sent to the 143418 applicant or variance holder by certified mail or by another type 143419 of mail accompanied by a receipt. 143420

(B) The director shall prescribe and furnish the forms 143421 necessary to administer and enforce this chapter. The director may 143422 cooperate with and enter into agreements with other state, local, 143423 or federal agencies to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The 143424 director may exercise all incidental powers necessary to carry out 143425 the purposes of this chapter. 143426

(C) Except as provided in this division and divisions (N)(2) 143427 and (3) of this section, no person shall establish a new solid 143428 waste facility or infectious waste treatment facility, or modify 143429 an existing solid waste facility or infectious waste treatment 143430 facility, without submitting an application for a permit with 143431 accompanying detail plans, specifications, and information 143432 regarding the facility and method of operation and receiving a 143433 permit issued by the director, except that no permit shall be 143434 required under this division to install or operate a solid waste 143435 facility for sewage sludge treatment or disposal when the 143436 treatment or disposal is authorized by a current permit issued 143437 under Chapter 3704. or 6111. of the Revised Code. 143438

No person shall continue to operate a solid waste facility 143439 for which the director has disapproved plans and specifications 143440 required to be filed by an order issued under division (A)(3) of 143441 section 3734.05 of the Revised Code, after the date prescribed for 143442 commencement of closure of the facility in the order issued under 143443 division (A)(4) of that section denying the permit application or 143444 approval. 143445

On and after the effective date of the rules adopted under 143446 division (A) of this section and division (D) of section 3734.12 143447 of the Revised Code governing solid waste transfer facilities, no 143448 person shall establish a new, or modify an existing, solid waste 143449 transfer facility without first submitting an application for a 143450 permit with accompanying engineering detail plans, specifications, 143451 and information regarding the facility and its method of operation 143452 to the director and receiving a permit issued by the director. 143453

No person shall establish a new compost facility or continue 143454 to operate an existing compost facility that accepts exclusively 143455 source separated yard wastes without submitting a completed 143456 registration for the facility to the director in accordance with 143457 rules adopted under divisions (A) and (N)(3) of this section. 143458

This division does not apply to a generator of infectious 143459 wastes that does any of the following: 143460

(1) Treats, by methods, techniques, and practices established 143461 in such a manner that, in the judgment of the director or the 143487 board of health of the health district in which the scrap tires 143488 are stored, the storage causes a nuisance, a hazard to public 143489 health or safety, or a fire hazard; or to the collection of solid 143490 wastes, other than scrap tires, by a political subdivision or a 143491 person holding a franchise or license from a political subdivision 143492

(E)(1) As used in this division: 143498

(a) "On-site facility" means a facility that stores, treats, 143499 or disposes of hazardous waste that is generated on the premises 143500 of the facility. 143501

(b) "Off-site facility" means a facility that stores, treats, 143502 or disposes of hazardous waste that is generated off the premises 143503 of the facility and includes such a facility that is also an 143504 on-site facility. 143505

(c) "Satellite facility" means any of the following: 143506 from other premises owned by the same person who generates the 143508 waste on the facility premises; 143509

(ii) An off-site facility operated so that all of the 143510 hazardous waste it receives is generated on one or more premises 143511 owned by the person who owns the facility; 143512

(iii) An on-site facility that also receives hazardous waste 143513 that is transported uninterruptedly and directly to the facility 143514 through a pipeline from a generator who is not the owner of the 143515 facility. 143516

(2) Except as provided in division (E)(3) of this section, no person shall establish or operate a hazardous waste facility, or use a solid waste facility for the storage, treatment, or disposal of any hazardous waste, without a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit issued in accordance with section 3734.05 of the Revised Code and subject to the payment of an application fee not to exceed one thousand five hundred dollars, payable upon application for a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit and upon application for a renewal permit issued under division (H) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code, to be credited to the hazardous waste facility management fund created in section 3734.18 of the Revised Code. The term of a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit shall not exceed ten years.

In addition to the application fee, there is hereby levied an annual permit fee to be paid by the permit holder upon the anniversaries of the date of issuance of the hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit and of any subsequent renewal permits and to be credited to the hazardous waste facility management fund. Annual permit fees totaling forty thousand dollars or more for any one facility may be paid on a quarterly basis with the first quarterly payment each year being due on the anniversary of the date of issuance of the hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit and of any subsequent renewal permits. The annual permit fee shall be determined for each permit holder by the director in accordance with the following schedule:

A hazardous waste disposal facility that disposes of 143574 hazardous waste by deep well injection and that pays the annual 143575 permit fee established in section 6111.046 of the Revised Code is 143576 not subject to the permit fee established in this division for 143577 disposal facilities using deep well injection unless the director 143578 determines that the facility is not in compliance with applicable 143579 requirements established under this chapter and rules adopted 143580 under it. 143581

In determining the annual permit fee required by this section, the director shall not require additional payments for multiple units of the same method of storage, treatment, or disposal or for individual units that are used for both storage and treatment. A facility using more than one method of storage, treatment, or disposal shall pay the permit fee indicated by the schedule for each such method.

The director shall not require the payment of that portion of an annual permit fee of any permit holder that would apply to a hazardous waste management unit for which a permit has been issued, but for which construction has not yet commenced. Once construction has commenced, the director shall require the payment of a part of the appropriate fee indicated by the schedule that bears the same relationship to the total fee that the number of days remaining until the next anniversary date at which payment of the annual permit fee is due bears to three hundred sixty-five.

The director, by rules adopted in accordance with Chapters 119. and 3745. of the Revised Code, shall prescribe procedures for collecting the annual permit fee established by this division and may prescribe other requirements necessary to carry out this division.

(3) The prohibition against establishing or operating a hazardous waste facility without a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit does not apply to either of the following:

(a) A facility that is operating in accordance with a permit renewal issued under division (H) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code, a revision issued under division (I) of that section as it existed prior to August 20, 1996, or a modification issued by the director under division (I) of that section on and after August 20, 1996;

If a modification is requested or proposed for a facility described in division (E)(3)(a) or (b) of this section, division (I)(7) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code applies.

(F) No person shall store, treat, or dispose of hazardous waste identified or listed under this chapter and rules adopted under it, regardless of whether generated on or off the premises where the waste is stored, treated, or disposed of, or transport or cause to be transported any hazardous waste identified or listed under this chapter and rules adopted under it to any other premises, except at or to any of the following:

(1) A hazardous waste facility operating under a permit issued in accordance with this chapter;

(2) A facility in another state operating under a license or permit issued in accordance with the "Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976," 90 Stat. 2806, 42 U.S.C.A. 6921, as amended;

(3) A facility in another nation operating in accordance with the laws of that nation;

(4) A facility holding a permit issued pursuant to Title I of the "Marine Protection, Research, and Sanctuaries Act of 1972," 86

Stat. 1052, 33 U.S.C.A. 1401, as amended; 143644

(5) A hazardous waste facility as described in division 143645
(E)(3)(a) or (b) of this section. 143646

(G) The director, by order, may exempt any person generating, 143647 collecting, storing, treating, disposing of, or transporting solid 143648 wastes, infectious wastes, or hazardous waste, or processing solid 143649 wastes that consist of scrap tires, in such quantities or under 143650 such circumstances that, in the determination of the director, are 143651 unlikely to adversely affect the public health or safety or the 143652 environment from any requirement to obtain a registration 143653 certificate, permit, or license or comply with the manifest system 143654 or other requirements of this chapter. Such an exemption shall be 143655 consistent with and equivalent to any regulations adopted by the 143656 administrator of the United States environmental protection agency 143657 under the "Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976," 90 143658 Stat. 2806, 42 U.S.C.A. 6921, as amended, except as otherwise 143659 provided in this chapter. 143660

(H) No person shall engage in filling, grading, excavating, 143661 building, drilling, or mining on land where a hazardous waste 143662 facility, or a solid waste facility, was operated without prior 143663 authorization from the director, who shall establish the procedure 143664 for granting such authorization by rules adopted in accordance 143665 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 143666

A public utility that has main or distribution lines above or 143667 below the land surface located on an easement or right-of-way 143668 across land where a solid waste facility was operated may engage 143669 in any such activity within the easement or right-of-way without 143670 prior authorization from the director for purposes of performing 143671 emergency repair or emergency replacement of its lines; of the 143672 poles, towers, foundations, or other structures supporting or 143673 sustaining any such lines; or of the appurtenances to those 143674 structures, necessary to restore or maintain existing public 143675 utility service. A public utility may enter upon any such easement 143676 or right-of-way without prior authorization from the director for 143677 purposes of performing necessary or routine maintenance of those 143678 portions of its existing lines; of the existing poles, towers, 143679 foundations, or other structures sustaining or supporting its 143680 lines; or of the appurtenances to any such supporting or 143681 sustaining structure, located on or above the land surface on any 143682 such easement or right-of-way. Within twenty-four hours after 143683 commencing any such emergency repair, replacement, or maintenance 143684 work, the public utility shall notify the director or the 143685 director's authorized representative of those activities and shall 143686 provide such information regarding those activities as the 143687 director or the director's representative may request. Upon 143688 completion of the emergency repair, replacement, or maintenance 143689 activities, the public utility shall restore any land of the solid 143690 waste facility disturbed by those activities to the condition 143691 existing prior to the commencement of those activities. 143692

(I) No owner or operator of a hazardous waste facility, in 143693 the operation of the facility, shall cause, permit, or allow the 143694 emission therefrom of any particulate matter, dust, fumes, gas, 143695 mist, smoke, vapor, or odorous substance that, in the opinion of 143696 the director, unreasonably interferes with the comfortable 143697 enjoyment of life or property by persons living or working in the 143698 vicinity of the facility, or that is injurious to public health. 143699
Any such action is hereby declared to be a public nuisance. 143700

(J) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, in 143701 the event the director finds an imminent and substantial danger to 143702 public health or safety or the environment that creates an 143703 emergency situation requiring the immediate treatment, storage, or 143704 disposal of hazardous waste, the director may issue a temporary 143705 emergency permit to allow the treatment, storage, or disposal of 143706 the hazardous waste at a facility that is not otherwise authorized 143707 by a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit to 143708 treat, store, or dispose of the waste. The emergency permit shall 143709 not exceed ninety days in duration and shall not be renewed. The 143710 director shall adopt, and may amend, suspend, or rescind, rules in 143711 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing the 143712 issuance, modification, revocation, and denial of emergency 143713 permits. 143714

(K) Except for infectious wastes generated by a person who 143715 produces fewer than fifty pounds of infectious wastes at a 143716 premises during any one month, no owner or operator of a sanitary 143717 landfill shall knowingly accept for disposal, or dispose of, any 143718 infectious wastes that have not been treated to render them 143719 noninfectious. 143720

(L) The director, in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 143721 Revised Code, shall adopt, and may amend, suspend, or rescind, 143722 rules having uniform application throughout the state establishing 143723 a training and certification program that shall be required for 143724 employees of boards of health who are responsible for enforcing 143725 the solid waste and infectious waste provisions of this chapter 143726 and rules adopted under them and for persons who are responsible 143727 for the operation of solid waste facilities or infectious waste 143728 treatment facilities. The rules shall provide all of the 143729 following, without limitation: 143730

(1) The program shall be administered by the director and 143731 shall consist of a course on new solid waste and infectious waste 143732 technologies, enforcement procedures, and rules; 143733

(2) The course shall be offered on an annual basis; 143734

(3) Those persons who are required to take the course under 143735 division (L) of this section shall do so triennially; 143736

(4) Persons who successfully complete the course shall be 143737 certified by the director; 143738

(6)(a) All employees of a board of health who, on the effective date of the rules adopted under this division, are responsible for enforcing the solid waste or infectious waste provisions of this chapter and the rules adopted under them shall complete the course and be certified by the director not later than January 1, 1995;

(b) All employees of a board of health who, after the effective date of the rules adopted under division (L) of this section, become responsible for enforcing the solid waste or infectious waste provisions of this chapter and rules adopted under them and who do not hold a current and valid certification from the director at that time shall complete the course and be certified by the director within two years after becoming responsible for performing those activities.

No person shall fail to obtain the certification required under this division.

(M) The director shall not issue a permit under section 3734.05 of the Revised Code to establish a solid waste facility, or to modify a solid waste facility operating on December 21, 1988, in a manner that expands the disposal capacity or geographic area covered by the facility, that is or is to be located within the boundaries of a state park established or dedicated under Chapter 1546. of the Revised Code, a state park purchase area established under section 1546.06 of the Revised Code, any unit of the national park system, or any property that lies within the boundaries of a national park or recreation area, but that has not been acquired or is not administered by the secretary of the 143771 United States department of the interior, located in this state, 143772 or any candidate area located in this state and identified for 143773 potential inclusion in the national park system in the edition of 143774 the "national park system plan" submitted under paragraph (b) of 143775 section 8 of "The Act of August 18, 1970," 84 Stat. 825, 16 143776 U.S.C.A. 1a-5, as amended, current at the time of filing of the 143777 application for the permit, unless the facility or proposed 143778 facility is or is to be used exclusively for the disposal of solid 143779 wastes generated within the park or recreation area and the 143780 director determines that the facility or proposed facility will 143781 not degrade any of the natural or cultural resources of the park 143782 or recreation area. The director shall not issue a variance under 143783 division (A) of this section and rules adopted under it, or issue 143784 an exemption order under division (G) of this section, that would 143785 authorize any such establishment or expansion of a solid waste 143786 facility within the boundaries of any such park or recreation 143787 area, state park purchase area, or candidate area, other than a 143788 solid waste facility exclusively for the disposal of solid wastes 143789 generated within the park or recreation area when the director 143790 determines that the facility will not degrade any of the natural 143791 or cultural resources of the park or recreation area. 143792

(N)(1) The rules adopted under division (A) of this section, 143793 other than those governing variances, do not apply to scrap tire 143794 collection, storage, monocell, monofill, and recovery facilities. 143795
Those facilities are subject to and governed by rules adopted 143796 under sections 3734.70 to 3734.73 of the Revised Code, as 143797
applicable. 143798

(2) Division (C) of this section does not apply to scrap tire 143799 collection, storage, monocell, monofill, and recovery facilities. 143800
The establishment and modification of those facilities are subject 143801 to sections 3734.75 to 3734.78 and section 3734.81 of the Revised 143802

Code, as applicable. 143803

(3) The director may adopt, amend, suspend, or rescind rules 143804 under division (A) of this section creating an alternative system 143805 for authorizing the establishment, operation, or modification of a 143806 solid waste compost facility in lieu of the requirement that a 143807 person seeking to establish, operate, or modify a solid waste 143808 compost facility apply for and receive a permit under division (C) 143809 of this section and section 3734.05 of the Revised Code and a 143810 license under division (A)(1) of that section. The rules may 143811 include requirements governing, without limitation, the 143812 classification of solid waste compost facilities, the submittal of 143813 operating records for solid waste compost facilities, and the 143814 creation of a registration or notification system in lieu of the 143815 issuance of permits and licenses for solid waste compost 143816 facilities. The rules shall specify the applicability of divisions 143817 (A)(1) and (2)(a) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code to a 143818 solid waste compost facility. 143819

(O)(1) As used in this division, "secondary aluminum waste" 143820 means waste material or byproducts, when disposed of, containing 143821 aluminum generated from secondary aluminum smelting operations and 143822 consisting of dross, salt cake, baghouse dust associated with 143823 aluminum recycling furnace operations, or dry-milled wastes. 143824

(2) The owner or operator of a sanitary landfill shall not 143825 dispose of municipal solid waste that has been commingled with 143826 secondary aluminum waste. 143827

(3) The owner or operator of a sanitary landfill may dispose 143828 of secondary aluminum waste, but only in a monocell or monofill 143829 that has been permitted for that purpose in accordance with this 143830
chapter and rules adopted under it. 143831

(P)(1) As used in divisions (P) and (Q) of this section: 143832

(a) "Natural background" means two picocuries per gram or the 143833 actual number of picocuries per gram as measured at an individual 143834 solid waste facility, subject to verification by the director of 143835 health. 143836

(b) "Drilling operation" includes a production operation as 143837 defined in section 1509.01 of the Revised Code. 143838

(2) The owner or operator of a solid waste facility shall not 143839 accept for transfer or disposal technologically enhanced naturally 143840 occurring radioactive material if that material contains or is 143841 contaminated with radium-226, radium-228, or any combination of 143842 radium-226 and radium-228 at concentrations equal to or greater 143843 than five picocuries per gram above natural background. 143844

(3) The owner or operator of a solid waste facility may 143845 receive and process for purposes other than transfer or disposal 143846 technologically enhanced naturally occurring radioactive material 143847 that contains or is contaminated with radium-226, radium-228, or 143848 any combination of radium-226 and radium-228 at concentrations 143849 equal to or greater than five picocuries per gram above natural 143850 background, provided that the owner or operator has obtained and 143851 maintains all other necessary authorizations, including any 143852 authorization required by rules adopted by the director of health 143853
under section 3748.04 of the Revised Code. 143854

(4) The director of environmental protection may adopt rules 143855 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing the 143856 receipt, acceptance, processing, handling, management, and 143857 disposal by solid waste facilities of material that contains or is 143858 contaminated with radioactive material, including, without 143859 limitation, technologically enhanced naturally occurring 143860 radioactive material that contains or is contaminated with 143861 radium-226, radium-228, or any combination of radium-226 and 143862 radium-228 at concentrations less than five picocuries per gram 143863 above natural background. Rules adopted by the director may 143864 include at a minimum both of the following: 143865

(a) Requirements in accordance with which the owner or operator of a solid waste facility must monitor leachate and ground water for radium-226, radium-228, and other radionuclides;

(b) Requirements in accordance with which the owner or operator of a solid waste facility must develop procedures to ensure that technologically enhanced naturally occurring radioactive material accepted at the facility neither contains nor is contaminated with radium-226, radium-228, or any combination of radium-226 and radium-228 at concentrations equal to or greater than five picocuries per gram above natural background.

(Q) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the owner or operator of a solid waste facility shall not receive, accept, process, handle, manage, or dispose of technologically enhanced naturally occurring radioactive material associated with drilling operations without first obtaining representative analytical results to determine compliance with divisions (P)(2) and (3) of this section and rules adopted under it.

Sec. 3734.021. (A) Infectious wastes shall be segregated, managed, treated, and disposed of in accordance with rules adopted under this section.

(B) The director of environmental protection, in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt rules necessary or appropriate to protect human health or safety or the environment that do both of the following:

(1) Establish standards for generators of infectious wastes that include, without limitation, the following requirements and authorizations that:

(a) All generators of infectious wastes:

(i) Either treat all specimen cultures and cultures of viable infectious agents on the premises where they are generated to render them noninfectious by methods, techniques, or practices 143896 prescribed by rules adopted under division (B)(2)(a) of this 143897 section before they are transported off that premises for disposal 143898 or ensure that such wastes are treated to render them 143899 noninfectious at an infectious waste treatment facility off that 143900 premises prior to disposal of the wastes; 143901

(ii) Transport and dispose of infectious wastes, if a 143902 generator produces fewer than fifty pounds of infectious wastes 143903 during any one month that are subject to and packaged and labeled 143904 in accordance with federal requirements, in the same manner as 143905 solid wastes. Such generators who treat specimen cultures and 143906 cultures of viable infectious agents on the premises where they 143907 are generated shall not be considered treatment facilities as 143908 "treatment" and "facility" are defined in section 3734.01 of the 143909
Revised Code. 143910

(iii) Dispose of infectious wastes subject to and treated in 143911 possession of the facility or subject the holder to this chapter 144362 or any other provision of state law imposing liability or 144363 responsibility for the cleanup, removal, or remediation of 144364 regulated substances, provided that all activities not specified 144365 to the obligations of the holder of the first mortgage under 144378 it considers necessary to prevent disturbance to or interference 145218 with its facilities during excavation. 145219

(F) An excavator is not required to premark the approximate 145220

Sec. 4123.512. (A) The claimant or the employer may appeal an 145324 order of the industrial commission made under division (E) of 145325 section 4123.511 of the Revised Code in any injury or occupational 145326 disease case, other than a decision as to the extent of disability 145327 to the court of common pleas of the county in which the injury was 145328 inflicted or in which the contract of employment was made if the 145329 injury occurred outside the state, or in which the contract of 145330 employment was made if the exposure occurred outside the state. If 145331 no common pleas court has jurisdiction for the purposes of an 145332 appeal by the use of the jurisdictional requirements described in 145333 this division, the appellant may use the venue provisions in the 145334 Rules of Civil Procedure to vest jurisdiction in a court. If the 145335 claim is for an occupational disease, the appeal shall be to the 145336 court of common pleas of the county in which the exposure which 145337 caused the disease occurred. Like appeal may be taken from an 145338 order of a staff hearing officer made under division (D) of 145339 section 4123.511 of the Revised Code from which the commission has 145340 refused to hear an appeal. Except as otherwise provided in this 145341 division, the appellant shall file the notice of appeal with a 145342 court of common pleas within sixty days after the date of the 145343 receipt of the order appealed from or the date of receipt of the 145344 order of the commission refusing to hear an appeal of a staff 145345 hearing officer's decision under division (D) of section 4123.511 145346 of the Revised Code. Either the claimant or the employer may file 145347 a notice of an intent to settle the claim within thirty days after 145348 the date of the receipt of the order appealed from or of the order 145349 of the commission refusing to hear an appeal of a staff hearing 145350 officer's decision. The claimant or employer shall file notice of 145351 intent to settle with the administrator of workers' compensation, 145352 and the notice shall be served on the opposing party and the 145353 party's representative. The filing of the notice of intent to 145354 settle extends the time to file an appeal to one hundred fifty 145355 days, unless the opposing party files an objection to the notice 145356 of intent to settle within fourteen days after the date of the 145357 receipt of the notice of intent to settle. The party shall file 145358 the objection with the administrator, and the objection shall be 145359 served on the party that filed the notice of intent to settle and 145360 the party's representative. The filing of the notice of the appeal 145361 with the court is the only act required to perfect the appeal. 145362

If an action has been commenced in a court of a county other 145363 than a court of a county having jurisdiction over the action, the 145364 court, upon notice by any party or upon its own motion, shall 145365 transfer the action to a court of a county having jurisdiction. 145366

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this section, if 145367 the commission determines under section 4123.522 of the Revised 145368 Code that an employee, employer, or their respective 145369 representatives have not received written notice of an order or 145370 decision which is appealable to a court under this section and 145371 which grants relief pursuant to section 4123.522 of the Revised 145372 Code, the party granted the relief has sixty days from receipt of 145373 the order under section 4123.522 of the Revised Code to file a 145374 notice of appeal under this section. 145375

(B) The notice of appeal shall state the names of the administrator of workers' compensation, the claimant, and the employer; the number of the claim; the date of the order appealed from; and the fact that the appellant appeals therefrom.

The administrator, the claimant, and the employer shall be parties to the appeal and the court, upon the application of the commission, shall make the commission a party. The party filing the appeal shall serve a copy of the notice of appeal on the administrator at the central office of the bureau of workers' compensation in Columbus. The administrator shall notify the employer that if the employer fails to become an active party to the appeal, then the administrator may act on behalf of the employer and the results of the appeal could have an adverse effect upon the employer's premium rates or may result in a recovery from the employer if the employer is determined to be a noncomplying employer under section 4123.75 of the Revised Code.

(C) The attorney general or one or more of the attorney general's assistants or special counsel designated by the attorney general shall represent the administrator and the commission. In the event the attorney general or the attorney general's designated assistants or special counsel are absent, the administrator or the commission shall select one or more of the attorneys in the employ of the administrator or the commission as the administrator's attorney or the commission's attorney in the appeal. Any attorney so employed shall continue the representation during the entire period of the appeal and in all hearings thereof except where the continued representation becomes impractical.

(D) Upon receipt of notice of appeal, the clerk of courts shall provide notice to all parties who are appellees and to the commission.

The claimant shall, within thirty days after the filing of the notice of appeal, file a petition containing a statement of facts in ordinary and concise language showing a cause of action 145408 to participate or to continue to participate in the fund and 145409 setting forth the basis for the jurisdiction of the court over the 145410 action. Further pleadings shall be had in accordance with the 145411 Rules of Civil Procedure, provided that service of summons on such 145412 petition shall not be required and provided that the claimant may 145413 not dismiss the complaint without the employer's consent if the 145414 employer is the party that filed the notice of appeal to court 145415 pursuant to this section. The clerk of the court shall, upon 145416 receipt thereof, transmit by certified mail a copy thereof to each 145417 party named in the notice of appeal other than the claimant. Any 145418 party may file with the clerk prior to the trial of the action a 145419 deposition of any physician taken in accordance with the 145420 provisions of the Revised Code, which deposition may be read in 145421 the trial of the action even though the physician is a resident of 145422 or subject to service in the county in which the trial is had. The 145423 bureau of workers' compensation shall pay the cost of the 145424 ~~stenographic~~ deposition filed in court and of copies of the 145425 ~~stenographic~~ deposition for each party from the surplus fund and 145426 charge the costs thereof against the unsuccessful party if the 145427 claimant's right to participate or continue to participate is 145428 finally sustained or established in the appeal. In the event the 145429 deposition is taken and filed, the physician whose deposition is 145430 taken is not required to respond to any subpoena issued in the 145431 trial of the action. The court, or the jury under the instructions 145432 of the court, if a jury is demanded, shall determine the right of 145433 the claimant to participate or to continue to participate in the 145434 fund upon the evidence adduced at the hearing of the action. 145435

(E) The court shall certify its decision to the commission 145436 and the certificate shall be entered in the records of the court. 145437 Appeals from the judgment are governed by the law applicable to 145438 the appeal of civil actions. 145439

(F) The cost of any legal proceedings authorized by this section, including an attorney's fee to the claimant's attorney to be fixed by the trial judge, based upon the effort expended, in the event the claimant's right to participate or to continue to participate in the fund is established upon the final determination of an appeal, shall be taxed against the employer or the commission if the commission or the administrator rather than the employer contested the right of the claimant to participate in the fund. The attorney's fee shall not exceed five thousand dollars.

(G) If the finding of the court or the verdict of the jury is in favor of the claimant's right to participate in the fund, the commission and the administrator shall thereafter proceed in the matter of the claim as if the judgment were the decision of the commission, subject to the power of modification provided by section 4123.52 of the Revised Code.

self-insuring employer reports to the administrator under division 145472 (L) of section 4123.35 of the Revised Code. If an employer is a 145473 state risk and has paid an assessment for a violation of a 145474 specific safety requirement, and, in a final administrative or 145475 judicial action, it is determined that the employer did not 145476 violate the specific safety requirement, the administrator shall 145477 reimburse the employer from the surplus fund account under 145478 division (B) of section 4123.34 of the Revised Code for the amount 145479 of the assessment the employer paid for the violation. 145480

(2)(a) Notwithstanding a final determination that payments of 145481 benefits made to or on behalf of a claimant should not have been 145482 made, the administrator or self-insuring employer shall award 145483 payment of medical or vocational rehabilitation services submitted 145484 for payment after the date of the final determination if all of 145485
the following apply: 145486

(i) The services were approved and were rendered by the 145487 provider in good faith prior to the date of the final 145488 determination. 145489

(ii) The services were payable under division (I) of section 145490 4123.511 of the Revised Code prior to the date of the final 145491
determination. 145492

(iii) The request for payment is submitted within the time 145493 limit set forth in section 4123.52 of the Revised Code. 145494

(b) Payments made under division (H)(1) of this section shall 145495 be charged to the surplus fund account under division (B) of 145496 section 4123.34 of the Revised Code. If the employer of the 145497 employee who is the subject of a claim described in division 145498 (H)(2)(a) of this section is a state fund employer, the payments 145499 made under that division shall not be charged to the employer's 145500 experience. If that employer is a self-insuring employer, the 145501 self-insuring employer shall deduct the amount from the paid 145502 compensation the self-insuring employer reports to the 145503 administrator under division (L) of section 4123.35 of the Revised 145504

Code. 145505

(c) Division (H)(2) of this section shall apply only to a 145506 claim under this chapter or Chapter 4121., 4127., or 4131. of the 145507 Revised Code arising on or after July 29, 2011. 145508

(3) A self-insuring employer may elect to pay compensation 145509 and benefits under this section directly to an employee or an 145510 employee's dependents by filing an application with the bureau of 145511 workers' compensation not more than one hundred eighty days and 145512 not less than ninety days before the first day of the employer's 145513 next six-month coverage period. If the self-insuring employer 145514 timely files the application, the application is effective on the 145515 first day of the employer's next six-month coverage period, 145516 provided that the administrator shall compute the employer's 145517 assessment for the surplus fund account due with respect to the 145518 period during which that application was filed without regard to 145519 the filing of the application. On and after the effective date of 145520 the employer's election, the self-insuring employer shall pay 145521 directly to an employee or to an employee's dependents 145522 compensation and benefits under this section regardless of the 145523 date of the injury or occupational disease, and the employer shall 145524 receive no money or credits from the surplus fund account on 145525 account of those payments and shall not be required to pay any 145526 amounts into the surplus fund account on account of this section. 145527
The election made under this division is irrevocable. 145528

(I) All actions and proceedings under this section which are 145529 the subject of an appeal to the court of common pleas or the court 145530 of appeals shall be preferred over all other civil actions except 145531 election causes, irrespective of position on the calendar. 145532

This section applies to all decisions of the commission or 145533 the administrator on November 2, 1959, and all claims filed 145534 thereafter are governed by sections 4123.511 and 4123.512 of the Revised Code.

Any action pending in common pleas court or any other court on January 1, 1986, under this section is governed by former sections 4123.514, 4123.515, 4123.516, and 4123.519 and section 4123.522 of the Revised Code.

(B) Notwithstanding division (A) of this section, and except as otherwise provided in a rule that shall be adopted by the administrator, with the advice and consent of the bureau of 145566 workers' compensation board of directors, neither the 145567 administrator nor the commission shall make any finding or award 145568 for payment of medical or vocational rehabilitation services 145569 submitted for payment more than one year after the date the 145570 services were rendered or more than one year after the date the 145571 services became payable under division (I) of section 4123.511 of 145572 the Revised Code, whichever is later. No medical or vocational 145573 rehabilitation provider shall bill a claimant for services 145574 rendered if the administrator or commission is prohibited from 145575 making that payment under this division. 145576

(C) Division (B) of this section does not apply to requests 145577 made by the centers for medicare and medicaid services in the 145578 United States department of health and human services for 145579 reimbursement of conditional payments made pursuant to section 145580 1395y(b)(2) of title 42, United States Code (commonly known as the 145581
"Medicare Secondary Payer Act"). 145582

(D) This section does not affect the right of a claimant to 145583 compensation accruing subsequent to the filing of any such 145584 application, provided the application is filed within the time 145585 limit provided in this section. 145586

(E) This section does not deprive the commission of its 145587 continuing jurisdiction to determine the questions raised by any 145588 application for modification of award which has been filed with 145589 the commission after June 1, 1932, and prior to the expiration of 145590 the applicable period but in respect to which no award has been 145591 granted or denied during the applicable period. 145592

(F) The commission may, by general rules, provide for the 145593 destruction of files of cases in which no further action may be 145594 taken. 145595

(G) The commission and administrator of workers' compensation 145596 each may, by general rules, provide for the retention and 145597 destruction of all other records in their possession or under 145598 their control pursuant to section 121.211 and sections 149.34 to 145599 149.36 of the Revised Code. The bureau of workers' compensation 145600 may purchase or rent required equipment for the document retention 145601 media, as determined necessary to preserve the records. 145602 Photographs, microphotographs, microfilm, films, or other direct 145603 or electronic document retention media, when properly identified, 145604 have the same effect as the original record and may be offered in 145605 like manner and may be received as evidence in proceedings before 145606 the industrial commission, staff hearing officers, and district 145607 hearing officers, and in any court where the original record could 145608 have been introduced. 145609

Sec. 4125.03. (A) The professional employer organization with 145610 whom a shared employee is coemployed shall do all of the 145611 administrator or the administrator's designee finds any condition 146038 or practice in any place of employment that presents a substantial 146039 probability that the condition or practice could result in death 146040 or serious physical harm, after notifying the employer of the 146041 administrator's intent to issue an order, the administrator shall 146042 issue an order, or the administrator's designee shall issue an 146043 order after consultation ~~either by telephone or in person~~ with the 146044 administrator and upon the recommendation of the administrator, 146045 which prohibits the employment of any public employee or any 146046 continuing operation or process under such condition or practice 146047 until necessary steps are taken to correct or remove the condition 146048 or practice. The order shall not be effective for more than 146049 fifteen days, unless a court of competent jurisdiction otherwise 146050 orders as provided in section 4167.14 of the Revised Code. 146051

(C) In making any inspections or investigations under this 146052 chapter, the administrator or the administrator's designee may 146053 administer oaths and require, by subpoena, the attendance and 146054 testimony of witnesses and the production of evidence under oath. 146055 Witnesses shall receive the fees and mileage provided for under 146056 section 119.094 of the Revised Code. In the case of contumacy, 146057 failure, or refusal of any person to comply with an order or any 146058 subpoena lawfully issued, or upon the refusal of any witness to 146059 testify to any matter regarding which the witness may lawfully be 146060 interrogated, a judge of the court of common pleas of any county 146061 in this state, on the application of the administrator or the 146062 administrator's designee, shall issue an order requiring the 146063 person to appear and to produce evidence if, as, and when so 146064 ordered, and to give testimony relating to the matter under 146065 investigation or in question. The court may punish any failure to 146066 obey the order of the court as a contempt thereof. 146067

(D) If, upon inspection or investigation, the administrator 146068 or the administrator's designee believes that a public employer 146069 has violated any requirement of this chapter or any rule, Ohio 146070 employment risk reduction standard, or order adopted or issued 146071 pursuant thereto, the administrator or the administrator's 146072 designee shall, with reasonable promptness, issue a citation to 146073 the public employer. The citation shall be in writing and describe 146074 with particularity the nature of the alleged violation, including 146075 a reference to the provision of law, Ohio employment risk 146076 reduction standard, rule, or order alleged to have been violated. 146077

In addition, the citation shall fix a time for the abatement of 146078 the violation, as provided in division (H) of this section. The 146079 administrator may prescribe procedures for the issuance of a 146080 notice with respect to minor violations and for enforcement of 146081 minor violations that have no direct or immediate relationship to 146082 safety or health. 146083

(E) Upon receipt of any citation under this section, the 146084 public employer shall immediately post the citation, or a copy 146085 thereof, at or near each place an alleged violation referred to in 146086 the citation occurred. 146087

(F) The administrator may not issue a citation under this 146088 section after the expiration of six months following the final 146089 occurrence of any violation. 146090

(G) If the administrator issues a citation pursuant to this 146091 section, the administrator shall mail the citation to the public 146092 employer by certified mail, return receipt requested. The public 146093 employer has fourteen days after receipt of the citation within 146094 which to notify the administrator that the employer wishes to 146095 contest the citation. If the employer notifies the administrator 146096 within the fourteen days that the employer wishes to contest the 146097 citation, or if within fourteen days after the issuance of a 146098 citation a public employee or public employee representative files 146099 notice that the time period fixed in the citation for the 146100 abatement of the violation is unreasonable, the administrator 146101 shall hold an adjudication hearing in accordance with Chapter 119. 146102
of the Revised Code. 146103

(H) In establishing the time limits in which a public 146104 employer must abate a violation under this section, the 146105 administrator shall consider the costs to the public employer, the 146106 size and financial resources of the public employer, the severity 146107 of the violation, the technological feasibility of the public 146108 employer's ability to comply with requirements of the citation, 146109 the possible present and future detriment to the health and safety 146110 of any public employee for failure of the public employer to 146111 comply with requirements of the citation, and such other factors 146112 as the administrator determines appropriate. The administrator 146113 may, after considering the above factors, permit the public 146114 employer to comply with the citation over a period of up to two 146115 years and may extend that period an additional one year, as the 146116 administrator determines appropriate. 146117

(I) Any public employer may request the administrator to 146118 conduct an employment risk reduction inspection of the public 146119 employer's place of employment. The administrator or the 146120 administrator's designee shall conduct the inspection within a 146121 reasonable amount of time following the request. Neither the 146122 administrator nor any other person may use any information 146123 obtained from the inspection for a period not to exceed three 146124 years in any proceeding for a violation of this chapter or any 146125 rule or order issued thereunder nor in any other action in any 146126 court in this state. 146127

Sec. 4301.17. (A)(1) Subject to local option as provided in 146128 sections 4301.32 to 4301.40 of the Revised Code, five state liquor 146129 stores or agencies may be established in each county. One 146130 additional store may be established in any county for each twenty 146131 thousand of population of that county or major fraction thereof in 146132 excess of the first forty thousand, according to the last 146133 preceding federal decennial census or according to the population 146134 estimates certified by the department of development between 146135 decennial censuses. A person engaged in a mercantile business may 146136 act as the agent for the division of liquor control for the sale 146137 of spirituous liquor in a municipal corporation, in the 146138 unincorporated area of a township, or in an area designated and 146139 approved as a resort area under section 4303.262 of the Revised 146140 Code. The division shall fix the compensation for such an agent in 146141 the manner it considers best, but the compensation shall not 146142 exceed seven per cent of the gross sales made by the agent in any 146143 one year. 146144

(2) The division shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 146145
119. of the Revised Code governing the allocation and equitable 146146 distribution of agency store contracts. The division shall comply 146147 with the rules when awarding a contract under division (A)(1) of 146148
this section. 146149

(3) Pursuant to an agency store's contract, an agency store 146150 may be issued a D-1 permit to sell beer, a D-2 permit to sell wine 146151 and mixed beverages, and a D-5 permit to sell beer, wine, mixed 146152 beverages, and spirituous liquor. 146153

(4) Pursuant to an agency store's contract, an agency store 146154 may be issued a D-3 permit to sell spirituous liquor if the agency 146155 store contains at least ten thousand square feet of sales floor 146156 area. A D-3 permit issued to an agency store shall not be 146157 transferred to a new location. The division shall revoke any D-3 146158 permit issued to an agency store under division (A)(4) of this 146159 section if the agent no longer operates the agency store. The 146160 division shall not issue a D-3a permit to an agency store. 146161

(5) An agency store to which a D-8 permit has been issued may 146162 allow the sale of tasting samples of spirituous liquor in 146163 accordance with section 4301.171 of the Revised Code. 146164

(6) An agency store may sell beer, wine, mixed beverages, and 146165 spirituous liquor only between the hours of nine a.m. and eleven 146166 p.m. 146167

If the proposed agency store, the assignment of an agency contract, or the relocation of an agency store would be located within five hundred feet of a school, church, library, public playground, or township park, the division shall not enter into an agency contract until it has provided notice of the proposed contract to the authorities in control of the school, church, library, public playground, or township park and has provided those authorities with an opportunity for a complete hearing upon the advisability of entering into the contract. If an agency store so located is operating under an agency contract, the division may consent to relocation of the agency store or to the assignment of that contract to operate an agency store at the same location. The 146201 division may also consent to the assignment of an existing agency 146202 contract simultaneously with the relocation of the agency store. 146203

In any such assignment or relocation, the assignee and the 146204 location shall be subject to the same requirements that the 146205 existing location met at the time that the contract was first 146206 entered into as well as any additional requirements imposed by the 146207 division in rules adopted by the superintendent of liquor control. 146208
The division shall not consent to an assignment or relocation of 146209 an agency store until it has notified the authorities in control 146210 of the school, church, library, public playground, or township 146211 park and has provided those authorities with an opportunity for a 146212 complete hearing upon the advisability of consenting to the 146213 assignment or relocation. 146214

Any hearing provided for in this division shall be held in 146215 the central office of the division, except that upon written 146216 request of the legislative authority of the municipal corporation, 146217 the board of county commissioners, the board of township trustees, 146218 or the authorities in control of the school, church, library, 146219 public playground, or township park, the hearing shall be held in 146220 the county seat of the county where the proposed agency store is 146221 to be located. 146222

(C) All agency contracts entered into by the division 146223 pursuant to this section shall be in writing and shall contain a 146224 clause providing for the termination of the contract at will by 146225 the division upon its giving ninety days' notice in writing to the 146226 agent of its intention to do so. Any agency contract may include a 146227 clause requiring the agent to report to the appropriate law 146228 enforcement agency the name and address of any individual under 146229 twenty-one years of age who attempts to make an illegal purchase. 146230

The division shall issue a C-1 and C-2 permit to each agent 146231 who prior to November 1, 1994, had not been issued both of these 146232 permits, notwithstanding the population quota restrictions 146233 contained in section 4303.29 of the Revised Code or in any rule of 146234 the liquor control commission and notwithstanding the requirements 146235 of section 4303.31 of the Revised Code. The location of a C-1 or 146236

C-2 permit issued to such an agent shall not be transferred. The 146237 division shall revoke any C-1 or C-2 permit issued to an agent 146238 under this paragraph if the agent no longer operates an agency 146239 store. 146240

The division may enter into agreements with the department of 146241 development to implement a minority loan program to provide 146242 low-interest loans to minority business enterprises, as defined in 146243 section 122.71 of the Revised Code, that are awarded liquor agency 146244 contracts or assignments. 146245

(D) If the division closes a state liquor store and replaces 146246 that store with an agency store, any employees of the division 146247 employed at that state liquor store who lose their jobs at that 146248 store as a result shall be given preference by the agent who 146249 operates the agency store in filling any vacancies that occur 146250 among the agent's employees, if that preference does not conflict 146251 with the agent's obligations pursuant to a collective bargaining 146252 agreement. 146253

If the division closes a state liquor store and replaces the 146254 store with an agency store, any employees of the division employed 146255 at the state liquor store who lose their jobs at that store as a 146256 result may displace other employees as provided in sections 146257 124.321 to 124.328 of the Revised Code. If an employee cannot 146258 displace other employees and is laid off, the employee shall be 146259 reinstated in another job as provided in sections 124.321 to 146260 124.328 of the Revised Code, except that the employee's rights of 146261 reinstatement in a job at a state liquor store shall continue for 146262 a period of two years after the date of the employee's layoff and 146263 shall apply to jobs at state liquor stores located in the 146264 employee's layoff jurisdiction and any layoff jurisdiction 146265 adjacent to the employee's layoff jurisdiction. 146266

(E) The division shall require every agent to give bond with 146267 surety to the satisfaction of the division, in the amount the 146268 division fixes, conditioned for the faithful performance of the 146269 agent's duties as prescribed by the division. 146270

Sec. 4301.30. (A) All fees collected by the division of 146271 liquor control shall be deposited in the state treasury to the 146272 credit of the undivided liquor permit fund, which is hereby 146273 created, at the time prescribed under section 4301.12 of the 146274 Revised Code. Each payment shall be accompanied by a statement 146275 showing separately the amount collected for each class of permits 146276 in each municipal corporation and in each township outside the 146277 limits of any municipal corporation in such township. 146278

(B)(1) An amount equal to forty-five per cent of the fund 146279 shall be paid from the fund into the state liquor regulatory fund, 146280 which is hereby created in the state treasury. The state liquor 146281 regulatory fund shall be used to pay the operating expenses of the 146282 division of liquor control in administering and enforcing Title 146283 XLIII of the Revised Code and the operating expenses of the liquor 146284 control commission. Investment earnings of the fund shall be 146285 credited to the fund. 146286

(2) Whenever, in the judgment of the director of budget and 146287 management, the amount of money that is in the state liquor 146288 regulatory fund is in excess of the amount that is needed to pay 146289 the operating expenses of the division in administering and 146290 enforcing Title XLIII of the Revised Code and the operating 146291 expenses of the commission, the director shall credit the excess 146292 amount to the general revenue fund. 146293

(C) Twenty per cent of the undivided liquor permit fund shall 146294 be paid into the statewide treatment and prevention fund, which is 146295 hereby created in the state treasury. This amount shall be 146296 appropriated by the general assembly, together with an amount 146297 equal to one and one-half per cent of the gross profit of the 146298 division of liquor control derived under division (B)(4) of 146299 section 4301.10 of the Revised Code, to the department of mental 146300 health and addiction services. In planning for the allocation of 146301 and in allocating these amounts for the purposes of Chapter 5119. 146302 of the Revised Code, the department shall comply with the 146303 nondiscrimination provisions of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act 146304 of 1964, and any rules adopted under that act. 146305

(D) Thirty-five per cent of the undivided liquor permit fund 146306 shall be distributed by the superintendent of liquor control at 146307 quarterly calendar periods as follows: 146308

(1) To each municipal corporation, the aggregate amount shown 146309 by the statements to have been collected from permits in the 146310 municipal corporation, for the use of the general fund of the 146311 municipal corporation; 146312

(2) To each township, the aggregate amount shown by the 146313 statements to have been collected from permits in its territory, 146314 outside the limits of any municipal corporation located in the 146315 township, for the use of the general fund of the township, or for 146316 fire protection purposes, including buildings and equipment in the 146317 township or in an established fire district within the township, 146318 to the extent that the funds are derived from liquor permits 146319 within the territory comprising such fire district. 146320

(E) For the purpose of the distribution required by this 146321 section, E, H, and D permits covering boats or vessels are deemed 146322 to have been issued in the municipal corporation or township 146323 wherein the owner or operator of the vehicle, boat, vessel, or 146324 dining car equipment to which the permit relates has the owner's 146325 or operator's principal office or place of business within the 146326
state. 146327

(F) If the ~~liquor control commission~~ division determines that 146328 the police or other officers of any municipal corporation or 146329 township entitled to share in distributions under this section are 146330 refusing or culpably neglecting to enforce this chapter and 146331 Chapter 4303. of the Revised Code, or the penal laws of this state 146332 relating to the manufacture, importation, transportation, 146333 distribution, and sale of beer and intoxicating liquors, or if the 146334 prosecuting officer of a municipal corporation or a municipal 146335 court fails to comply with the request of the ~~commission~~ division 146336 authorized by division (A)(4) of section 4301.10 of the Revised 146337 Code, the ~~commission~~ division, by certified mail or by electronic 146338 means as determined by the superintendent to provide proper notice 146339 under the laws of this state, may notify the chief executive 146340 officer of the municipal corporation or the board of township 146341 trustees of the township of the failure and require the immediate 146342 cooperation of the responsible officers of the municipal 146343 corporation or township with the division ~~of liquor control~~ in the 146344 enforcement of those chapters and penal laws. Within thirty days 146345 after the notice is served, the ~~commission~~ division shall 146346 determine whether the requirement has been complied with. If the 146347 ~~commission~~ division determines that the requirement has not been 146348 complied with, it may ~~issue an order to the superintendent to~~ 146349 withhold the distributive share of the municipal corporation or 146350 township ~~until further order of the commission~~. This action of the 146351 ~~commission~~ division is reviewable within thirty days thereafter in 146352 the court of common pleas of Franklin county. 146353

(G) All fees collected by the division of liquor control from 146354 the issuance or renewal of B-2a, S-1, and S-2 permits, and paid by 146355
B-2a, S-1, and S-2 permit holders who do not also hold A-1 or A-1c 146356 permits or A-2 or A-2f permits, shall be deposited in the state 146357 treasury to the credit of the state liquor regulatory fund. Once 146358 during each fiscal year, an amount equal to fifty per cent of the 146359 fees collected shall be paid from the state liquor regulatory fund 146360 into the general revenue fund. 146361

Sec. 4303.24. All application processing fees shall be 146362 remitted to the division of liquor control when applications are 146363 filed. The pendency, priority, or validity of an application for a 146364 permit or duplicate permit received by the division shall not be 146365 affected because the division did not issue the permit applied for 146366 or the applicant failed to appeal to the liquor control 146367 commission. 146368

The division, prior to the granting of a permit or duplicate 146369 permit applied for, shall notify, by certified mail, the applicant 146370 or the applicant's authorized agent. The applicant or the 146371 applicant's authorized agent, within thirty days after the mailing 146372 of that notice, shall pay to the division the entire amount of ~~the~~ 146373 any unpaid requisite permit fee required by sections 4303.02 to 146374 4303.231 or, in the case of a duplicate permit, section 4303.30 of 146375 the Revised Code, if the permit or duplicate permit is issued 146376 during the first six months of the year the permit or duplicate 146377 permit covers, or one-half of the amount of the requisite permit 146378 fee, if the permit or duplicate permit is issued during the last 146379 six months of the year the permit or duplicate permit covers. If 146380 the notice is returned because of failure or refusal of delivery, 146381 the division shall send another notice, by regular mail or by 146382 electronic means as determined by the division to provide proper 146383 notice under the laws of this state, to the applicant or the 146384 applicant's agent. If the applicant fails to pay the applicable 146385 amount of that requisite permit fee within ~~these~~ thirty days of 146386 the mailing of the last notice, the division shall cancel the 146387 applicant's application. 146388

All other fees shall be paid at the time and in the manner 146389 prescribed by the division. The liquor control commission may 146390 adopt rules requiring reports or returns for the purpose of 146391 determining the amounts of additional permit fees. 146392

Sec. 4507.081. (A) Upon the expiration of a restricted 146393 license issued under division (D)(3) of section 4507.08 of the 146394 Revised Code and submission of a statement as provided in division 146395
(C) of this section, the registrar of motor vehicles may issue a 146396 driver's license to the person to whom the restricted license was 146397 issued. A driver's license issued under this section, unless 146398 otherwise suspended or canceled, shall be effective for one year. 146399

(B) A driver's license issued under this section may be 146400 renewed annually, for no more than three consecutive years, 146401 whenever the person to whom the license has been issued submits to 146402 the registrar, ~~by certified mail and~~ no sooner than thirty days 146403 prior to the expiration date of the license or renewal thereof, a 146404 statement as provided in division (C) of this section. A renewal 146405 of a driver's license, unless the license is otherwise suspended 146406 or canceled, shall be effective for one year following the 146407 expiration date of the license or renewal thereof, ~~and shall be~~ 146408 ~~evidenced by a validation sticker. The renewal validation sticker~~ 146409 ~~shall be in a form prescribed by the registrar and shall be~~ 146410 ~~affixed to the license.~~ 146411

(C) No person may be issued a driver's license under this 146412 section, and no such driver's license may be renewed, unless the 146413 person presents a signed statement from a licensed physician that 146414 the person's condition either is dormant or is under effective 146415 medical control, that the control has been maintained continuously 146416 for at least one year prior to the date on which application for 146417 the license is made, and that, if continued medication is 146418 prescribed to control the condition, the person may be depended 146419 upon to take the medication. 146420

The statement shall be made on a form provided by the 146421 registrar, ~~shall be in not less than duplicate,~~ and shall contain 146422 any other information the registrar considers necessary. The 146423 ~~duplicate copy of the statement may be retained by the person~~ 146424 ~~requesting the license renewal and, when in the person's immediate~~ 146425 ~~possession and used in conjunction with the original license,~~ 146426 ~~shall entitle the person to operate a motor vehicle during a~~ 146427 ~~period of no more than thirty days following the date of~~ 146428 ~~submission of the statement to the registrar, except when the~~ 146429

~~registrar denies the request for the license renewal and so~~ 146430 ~~notifies the person.~~ 146431

(D) Whenever the registrar receives a statement indicating 146432 that the condition of a person to whom a driver's license has been 146433 issued under this section no longer is dormant or under effective 146434 medical control, the registrar shall cancel the person's driver's 146435 license. 146436

(E) Nothing in this section shall require a person submitting 146437 a signed statement from a licensed physician to obtain a medical 146438 examination prior to the submission of the statement. 146439

(F) Any person whose driver's license has been canceled under 146440 this section may apply for a subsequent restricted license 146441 according to the provisions of section 4507.08 of the Revised 146442
Code. 146443

division (A)(2)(a), (b), or (c) of this section, the suspension of 146552 the rights of the owner to register the motor vehicle and the 146553 impoundment of the owner's certificate of registration and license 146554

(d) Send written notification to every person to whom the 146655 order pertains, at the person's last known address as shown on the 146656 registrar, in a manner set forth in division (A)(4) of this 146659 section, any certificate of registration and registration plates 146660 under an order of impoundment, or any license under an order of 146661 suspension. 146662

(2) The registrar shall issue any order under division (B)(1) 146663 of this section without a hearing. Any person adversely affected 146664 by the order, within ten days after the issuance of the order, may 146665 request an administrative hearing before the registrar, who shall 146666 provide the person with an opportunity for a hearing in accordance 146667 with this paragraph. A request for a hearing does not operate as a 146668 suspension of the order. The scope of the hearing shall be limited 146669 to whether the person in fact demonstrated to the registrar proof 146670 of financial responsibility in accordance with this section. The 146671 registrar shall determine the date, time, and place of any 146672 hearing, provided that the hearing shall be held, and an order 146673 writing, the registrar may designate as the place of hearing the 146676 county seat of the county in which the person resides or a place 146677 within fifty miles of the person's residence. The person shall pay 146678 the cost of the hearing before the registrar, if the registrar's 146679 order of suspension or impoundment is upheld. 146680

(C) Any order of suspension or impoundment issued under this 146681 section or division (B) of section 4509.37 of the Revised Code may 146682 be terminated at any time if the registrar determines upon a 146683 showing of proof of financial responsibility that the operator or 146684 owner of the motor vehicle was in compliance with division (A)(1) 146685 of this section at the time of the traffic offense, motor vehicle 146686 inspection, or accident that resulted in the order against the 146687 person. A determination may be made without a hearing. This 146688 division does not apply unless the person shows good cause for the 146689 person's failure to present satisfactory proof of financial 146690 responsibility to the registrar prior to the issuance of the 146691 order. 146692

(D)(1)(a) For the purpose of enforcing this section, every 146693 peace officer is deemed an agent of the registrar. 146694

(b) Any peace officer who, in the performance of the peace 146695 officer's duties as authorized by law, becomes aware of a person 146696 whose license is under an order of suspension, or whose 146697 certificate of registration and license plates are under an order 146698 of impoundment, pursuant to this section, may confiscate the 146699 license, certificate of registration, and license plates, and 146700 return them to the registrar. 146701

(2) A peace officer shall request the owner or operator of a 146702 motor vehicle to produce proof of financial responsibility in a 146703 manner described in division (G) of this section at the time the 146704 whether the person receiving the traffic ticket produced proof of 146709 the maintenance of financial responsibility in response to the 146710 officer's request under division (D)(2) of this section. The peace 146711 officer shall inform every person who receives a traffic ticket 146712 and who has failed to produce proof of the maintenance of 146713 financial responsibility that the person must submit proof to the 146714 traffic violations bureau with any payment of a fine and costs for 146715 the ticketed violation or, if the person is to appear in court for 146716 the violation, the person must submit proof to the court. 146717

(4)(a) If a person who has failed to produce proof of the 146718 maintenance of financial responsibility appears in court for a 146719 ticketed violation, the court may permit the defendant to present 146720 evidence of proof of financial responsibility to the court at such 146721 time and in such manner as the court determines to be necessary or 146722 appropriate. In a manner prescribed by the registrar, the clerk of 146723 courts shall provide the registrar with the identity of any person 146724 who fails to submit proof of the maintenance of financial 146725 responsibility pursuant to division (D)(3) of this section. 146726

(b) If a person who has failed to produce proof of the 146727 maintenance of financial responsibility also fails to submit that 146728 proof to the traffic violations bureau with payment of a fine and 146729 costs for the ticketed violation, the traffic violations bureau, 146730 in a manner prescribed by the registrar, shall notify the 146731 registrar of the identity of that person. 146732

(5)(a) Upon receiving notice from a clerk of courts or 146733 traffic violations bureau pursuant to division (D)(4) of this 146734 section, the registrar shall order the suspension of the license 146735 of the person required under division (A)(2)(a), (b), or (c) of 146736 this section and the impoundment of the person's certificate of 146737 registration and license plates required under division (A)(2)(d) 146738 of this section, effective thirty days after the date of the 146739 mailing of notification. The registrar also shall notify the 146740 person that the person must present the registrar with proof of 146741 financial responsibility in accordance with this section, 146742 surrender to the registrar the person's certificate of 146743 registration, license plates, and license, or submit a statement 146744 subject to section 2921.13 of the Revised Code that the person did 146745 not operate or permit the operation of the motor vehicle at the 146746 time of the offense. Notification shall be in writing and shall be 146747 sent to the person at the person's last known address as shown on 146748 the records of the bureau of motor vehicles. The person, within 146749 fifteen days after the date of the mailing of notification, shall 146750 present proof of financial responsibility, surrender the 146751 certificate of registration, license plates, and license to the 146752 registrar in a manner set forth in division (A)(4) of this 146753 section, or submit the statement required under this section 146754 together with other information the person considers appropriate. 146755

If the registrar does not receive proof or the person does 146756 not surrender the certificate of registration, license plates, and 146757 license, in accordance with this division, the registrar shall 146758 permit the order for the suspension of the license of the person 146759 and the impoundment of the person's certificate of registration 146760 and license plates to take effect. 146761

(b) In the case of a person who presents, within the 146762 fifteen-day period, proof of financial responsibility, the 146763 registrar shall terminate the order of suspension and the 146764 impoundment of the registration and license plates required under 146765 division (A)(2)(d) of this section and shall send written 146766 notification to the person, at the person's last known address as 146767 shown on the records of the bureau. 146768

(c) Any person adversely affected by the order of the 146769 registrar under division (D)(5)(a) or (b) of this section, within 146770 ten days after the issuance of the order, may request an 146771 administrative hearing before the registrar, who shall provide the 146772 person with an opportunity for a hearing in accordance with this 146773 paragraph. A request for a hearing does not operate as a 146774 suspension of the order. The scope of the hearing shall be limited 146775 to whether, at the time of the hearing, the person presents proof 146776 of financial responsibility covering the vehicle and whether the 146777 person is eligible for an exemption in accordance with this 146778 section or any rule adopted under it. The registrar shall 146779 determine the date, time, and place of any hearing; ~~provided, that~~ 146780

~~the hearing shall be held, and an order issued or findings made,~~ 146781 ~~within thirty days after the registrar receives a request for a~~ 146782 ~~hearing. The hearing may be held remotely by electronic means.~~ 146783
If requested by the person in writing, the registrar may designate as 146784 the place of hearing the county seat of the county in which the 146785 person resides or a place within fifty miles of the person's 146786 residence. Such person shall pay the cost of the hearing before 146787 the registrar, if the registrar's order of suspension or 146788 impoundment under division (D)(5)(a) or (b) of this section is 146789 upheld. 146790

(6) A peace officer may charge an owner or operator of a 146791 motor vehicle with a violation of section 4510.16 of the Revised 146792 Code when the owner or operator fails to show proof of the 146793 maintenance of financial responsibility pursuant to a peace 146794 officer's request under division (D)(2) of this section, if a 146795 check of the owner or operator's driving record indicates that the 146796 owner or operator, at the time of the operation of the motor 146797 vehicle, is required to file and maintain proof of financial 146798 responsibility under section 4509.45 of the Revised Code for a 146799 previous violation of this chapter. 146800

(7) Any forms used by law enforcement agencies in 146801 administering this section shall be prescribed, supplied, and paid 146802 for by the registrar. 146803

(8) No peace officer, law enforcement agency employing a 146804 peace officer, or political subdivision or governmental agency 146805 that employs a peace officer shall be liable in a civil action for 146806 damages or loss to persons arising out of the performance of any 146807 duty required or authorized by this section. 146808 officer who returns any license, certificate of registration, and 146820 license plates to the registrar pursuant to division (C) of this 146821 this section, the registrar shall deposit twenty-five dollars of 146826

electronic wireless communications device as specified under 146862

section 4509.103 of the Revised Code. 146863

(2) If a person fails to demonstrate proof of financial 146864 responsibility in a manner described in division (G)(1) of this 146865 section, the person may demonstrate proof of financial 146866 responsibility under this section by any other method that the 146867 court or the bureau, by reason of circumstances in a particular 146868 case, may consider appropriate. 146869

(3) A motor carrier certificated by the interstate commerce 146870

(4)(a) A finding by the registrar or court that a person is 146876 administering this section. 146881

(b) The preparation and delivery of a financial 146882 responsibility identification card or any other document 146883 authorized to be used as proof of financial responsibility and the 146884 generation and delivery of proof of financial responsibility to an 146885 electronic wireless communications device that is displayed on the 146886 device as text or images does not do any of the following: 146887

(i) Create any liability or estoppel against an insurer or 146888 surety, or any of its officers, employees, agents, or 146889 representatives; 146890

(ii) Constitute an admission of the existence of, or of any 146891

(iii) Waive any defenses or counterclaims available to an 146893 insurer, surety, agent, employee, or representative in an action 146894 commenced by an insured or third-party claimant upon a cause of 146895 action alleged to have arisen under an insurance policy or surety 146896 bond or by reason of the preparation and delivery of a document 146897 for use as proof of financial responsibility or the generation and 146898 delivery of proof of financial responsibility to an electronic 146899 wireless communications device. 146900

(c) Whenever it is determined by a final judgment in a 146901 judicial proceeding that an insurer or surety, which has been 146902 named on a document or displayed on an electronic wireless 146903 communications device accepted by a court or the registrar as 146904 proof of financial responsibility covering the operation of a 146905 motor vehicle at the time of an accident or offense, is not liable 146906 to pay a judgment for injuries or damages resulting from such 146907 operation, the registrar, notwithstanding any previous contrary 146908 finding, shall forthwith suspend the operating privileges and 146909 registration rights of the person against whom the judgment was 146910 rendered as provided in division (A)(2) of this section. 146911

(H) In order for any document or display of text or images on 146912 an electronic wireless communications device described in division 146913 (G)(1) of this section to be used for the demonstration of proof 146914 of financial responsibility under this section, the document or 146915 words or images shall state the name of the insured or obligor, 146916 the name of the insurer or surety company, and the effective and 146917 expiration dates of the financial responsibility, and designate by 146918 explicit description or by appropriate reference all motor 146919 vehicles covered which may include a reference to fleet insurance 146920 coverage. 146921

(I) For purposes of this section, "owner" does not include a 146922 licensed motor vehicle leasing dealer as defined in section 146923 4517.01 of the Revised Code, but does include a motor vehicle 146924 renting dealer as defined in section 4549.65 of the Revised Code. 146925

Nothing in this section or in section 4509.51 of the Revised Code 146926 shall be construed to prohibit a motor vehicle renting dealer from 146927 entering into a contractual agreement with a person whereby the 146928 person renting the motor vehicle agrees to be solely responsible 146929 for maintaining proof of financial responsibility, in accordance 146930 with this section, with respect to the operation, maintenance, or 146931 use of the motor vehicle during the period of the motor vehicle's 146932 rental. 146933

(J) The purpose of this section is to require the maintenance 146934 of proof of financial responsibility with respect to the operation 146935 of motor vehicles on the highways of this state, so as to minimize 146936 those situations in which persons are not compensated for injuries 146937 and damages sustained in motor vehicle accidents. The general 146938 assembly finds that this section contains reasonable civil 146939 penalties and procedures for achieving this purpose. 146940

(K) Nothing in this section shall be construed to be subject 146941
to section 4509.78 of the Revised Code. 146942

(L)(1) The registrar may terminate any suspension imposed 146943 under this section and not require the owner to comply with 146944 divisions (A)(5)(a), (b), and (c) of this section if the registrar 146945 with or without a hearing determines that the owner of the vehicle 146946 has established by clear and convincing evidence that all of the 146947 following apply: 146948

(a) The owner customarily maintains proof of financial 146949 responsibility. 146950

(b) Proof of financial responsibility was not in effect for 146951 the vehicle on the date in question for one of the following 146952 reasons: 146953

(i) The vehicle was inoperable. 146954

(ii) The vehicle is operated only seasonally, and the date in 146955 question was outside the season of operation. 146956

(iii) A person other than the vehicle owner or driver was at fault for the lapse of proof of financial responsibility through no fault of the owner or driver.

(iv) The lapse of proof of financial responsibility was caused by excusable neglect under circumstances that are not likely to recur and do not suggest a purpose to evade the requirements of this chapter.

(2) The registrar may grant an owner or driver relief for a reason specified in division (L)(1)(b)(iii) or (iv) of this section only if the owner or driver has not previously been granted relief under division (L)(1)(b)(iii) or (iv) of this section.

(M) The registrar shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code that are necessary to administer and enforce this section. The rules shall include procedures for the surrender of license plates upon failure to maintain proof of financial responsibility and provisions relating to reinstatement of registration rights, acceptable forms of proof of financial responsibility, the use of an electronic wireless communications device to present proof of financial responsibility, and verification of the existence of financial responsibility during the period of registration.

(N)(1) When a person utilizes an electronic wireless communications device to present proof of financial responsibility, only the evidence of financial responsibility displayed on the device shall be viewed by the registrar, peace officer, employee or official of the traffic violations bureau, or the court. No other content of the device shall be viewed for purposes of obtaining proof of financial responsibility.

(2) When a person provides an electronic wireless communications device to the registrar, a peace officer, an employee or official of a traffic violations bureau, or the court, 146988 the person assumes the risk of any resulting damage to the device 146989 unless the registrar, peace officer, employee, or official, or 146990 court personnel purposely, knowingly, or recklessly commits an 146991 action that results in damage to the device. 146992

Sec. 4510.03. (A) Every county court judge, mayor of a 146993 mayor's court, and clerk of a court of record shall keep a full 146994 record of every case in which a person is charged with any 146995 violation of any provision of sections 4511.01 to 4511.771 or 146996 4513.01 to 4513.36 of the Revised Code or of any other law or 146997 ordinance regulating the operation of vehicles, streetcars, and 146998 trackless trolleys on highways or streets. 146999

(B) If a person is convicted of or forfeits bail in relation 147000 to a violation of any section listed in division (A) of this 147001 section or a violation of any other law or ordinance regulating 147002 the operation of vehicles, streetcars, and trackless trolleys on 147003 highways or streets, the county court judge, mayor of a mayor's 147004 court, or clerk, within seven days after the conviction or bail 147005 forfeiture, shall prepare and immediately forward to the bureau of 147006 motor vehicles, in a secure electronic format, an abstract, 147007 certified by the preparer to be true and correct, of the court 147008 record covering the case in which the person was convicted or 147009 forfeited bail. Every court of record also shall forward to the 147010 bureau of motor vehicles, in a secure electronic format, an 147011 abstract of the court record as described in division (C) of this 147012 section upon the conviction of any person of aggravated vehicular 147013 homicide or vehicular homicide or of a felony in the commission of 147014 which a vehicle was used. 147015

(C) Each abstract required by this section shall be made upon 147016 a form approved and furnished by the bureau and shall include the 147017 name and address of the person charged, the number of the person's 147018 driver's or commercial driver's license, probationary driver's 147019 license, or temporary instruction permit, the registration number 147020 of the vehicle involved, the nature of the offense, the date of 147021 the offense, the date of hearing, the plea, the judgment, or 147022 whether bail was forfeited, and the amount of the fine or 147023 forfeiture. 147024

Sec. 4510.41. (A) As used in this section: 147025

(1) "Arrested person" means a person who is arrested for a 147026 violation of section 4510.14 or 4511.203 of the Revised Code, or a 147027 municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to either of 147028 those sections, and whose arrest results in a vehicle being seized 147029 under division (B) of this section. 147030

(2) "Vehicle owner" means either of the following: 147031

(a) The person in whose name is registered, at the time of 147032 the seizure, a vehicle that is seized under division (B) of this 147033
section; 147034

(b) A person to whom the certificate of title to a vehicle 147035 that is seized under division (B) of this section has been 147036 assigned and who has not obtained a certificate of title to the 147037 vehicle in that person's name, but who is deemed by the court as 147038 being the owner of the vehicle at the time the vehicle was seized 147039 under division (B) of this section. 147040

(3) "Interested party" includes the owner of a vehicle seized 147041 under this section, all lienholders, the arrested person, the 147042 owner of the place of storage at which a vehicle seized under this 147043 section is stored, and the person or entity that caused the 147044 vehicle to be removed. 147045

(B)(1) If a person is arrested for a violation of section 147046 4510.14 or 4511.203 of the Revised Code or a municipal ordinance 147047 that is substantially equivalent to either of those sections, the 147048 arresting officer or another officer of the law enforcement agency 147049 that employs the arresting officer, in addition to any action that 147050 the arresting officer is required or authorized to take by any 147051 other provision of law, shall seize the vehicle that the person 147052 was operating at the time of, or that was involved in, the alleged 147053 offense if the vehicle is registered in the arrested person's name 147054 and its license plates. A law enforcement agency that employs a 147055 law enforcement officer who makes an arrest of a type that is 147056 described in this division and that involves a rented or leased 147057 vehicle that is being rented or leased for a period of thirty days 147058 or less shall notify, within twenty-four hours after the officer 147059 makes the arrest, the lessor or owner of the vehicle regarding the 147060 circumstances of the arrest and the location at which the vehicle 147061 may be picked up. At the time of the seizure of the vehicle, the 147062 law enforcement officer who made the arrest shall give the 147063 arrested person written notice that the vehicle and its license 147064 plates have been seized; that the vehicle either will be kept by 147065 the officer's law enforcement agency or will be immobilized at 147066 least until the person's initial appearance on the charge of the 147067 offense for which the arrest was made; that, at the initial 147068 appearance, the court in certain circumstances may order that the 147069 vehicle and license plates be released to the arrested person 147070 until the disposition of that charge; that, if the arrested person 147071 is convicted of that charge, the court generally must order the 147072 immobilization of the vehicle and the impoundment of its license 147073 plates or the forfeiture of the vehicle; and that the arrested 147074 person may be charged expenses or charges incurred under this 147075 section and section 4503.233 of the Revised Code for the removal 147076 and storage of the vehicle. 147077

(2) The arresting officer or a law enforcement officer of the 147078 agency that employs the arresting officer shall give written 147079 notice of the seizure under division (B)(1) of this section to the 147080 court that will conduct the initial appearance of the arrested 147081 person on the charges arising out of the arrest. Upon receipt of 147082 the notice, the court promptly shall determine whether the 147083 arrested person is the vehicle owner. If the court determines that 147084 the arrested person is not the vehicle owner, it promptly shall 147085 send by regular mail written notice of the seizure to the 147086 vehicle's registered owner. The written notice shall contain all 147087 of the information required by division (B)(1) of this section to 147088 be in a notice to be given to the arrested person and also shall 147089 specify the date, time, and place of the arrested person's initial 147090 appearance. The notice also shall inform the vehicle owner that if 147091 title to a motor vehicle that is subject to an order for criminal 147092 forfeiture under this section is assigned or transferred and 147093 division (B)(2) or (3) of section 4503.234 of the Revised Code 147094 applies, the court may fine the arrested person the value of the 147095 vehicle. The notice also shall state that if the vehicle is 147096 immobilized under division (A) of section 4503.233 of the Revised 147097 Code, seven days after the end of the period of immobilization a 147098 law enforcement agency will send the vehicle owner a notice, 147099 informing the owner that if the release of the vehicle is not 147100 obtained in accordance with division (D)(3) of section 4503.233 of 147101 the Revised Code, the vehicle shall be forfeited. The notice also 147102 shall inform the vehicle owner that the owner may be charged 147103 expenses or charges incurred under this section and section 147104 4503.233 of the Revised Code for the removal and storage of the 147105 vehicle. 147106

The written notice that is given to the arrested person also 147107 shall state that if the person is convicted of or pleads guilty to 147108 the offense and the court issues an immobilization and impoundment 147109 order relative to that vehicle, division (D)(4) of section 147110 4503.233 of the Revised Code prohibits the vehicle from being sold 147111 during the period of immobilization without the prior approval of 147112 the court. 147113

(3) At or before the initial appearance, the vehicle owner 147114 may file a motion requesting the court to order that the vehicle 147115 and its license plates be released to the vehicle owner. Except as 147116 provided in this division and subject to the payment of expenses 147117 or charges incurred in the removal and storage of the vehicle, the 147118 court, in its discretion, then may issue an order releasing the 147119 vehicle and its license plates to the vehicle owner. Such an order 147120 may be conditioned upon such terms as the court determines 147121 appropriate, including the posting of a bond in an amount 147122 determined by the court. If the arrested person is not the vehicle 147123 owner and if the vehicle owner is not present at the arrested 147124 person's initial appearance, and if the court believes that the 147125 vehicle owner was not provided with adequate notice of the initial 147126 appearance, the court, in its discretion, may allow the vehicle 147127 owner to file a motion within seven days of the initial 147128 appearance. If the court allows the vehicle owner to file such a 147129 motion after the initial appearance, the extension of time granted 147130 by the court does not extend the time within which the initial 147131 appearance is to be conducted. If the court issues an order for 147132 the release of the vehicle and its license plates, a copy of the 147133 order shall be made available to the vehicle owner. If the vehicle 147134 owner presents a copy of the order to the law enforcement agency 147135 that employs the law enforcement officer who arrested the arrested 147136 person, the law enforcement agency promptly shall release the 147137 vehicle and its license plates to the vehicle owner upon payment 147138 by the vehicle owner of any expenses or charges incurred in the 147139 removal or storage of the vehicle. 147140

(4) A vehicle seized under division (B)(1) of this section 147141 either shall be towed to a place specified by the law enforcement 147142 agency that employs the arresting officer to be safely kept by the 147143 agency at that place for the time and in the manner specified in 147144 this section or shall be otherwise immobilized for the time and in 147145 the manner specified in this section. ~~A law enforcement officer of~~ 147146

~~that agency shall remove the identification license plates of the~~ 147147 ~~vehicle, and they shall be safely kept by the agency for the time~~ 147148
~~and in the manner specified in this section. The license plates~~ 147149 ~~shall remain on the seized vehicle unless otherwise ordered by the~~ 147150 ~~court.~~ No vehicle that is seized and either towed or immobilized 147151 pursuant to this division shall be considered contraband for 147152 purposes of Chapter 2981. of the Revised Code. The vehicle shall 147153 not be immobilized at any place other than a commercially operated 147154 private storage lot, a place owned by a law enforcement or other 147155 government agency, or a place to which one of the following 147156 applies: 147157

(a) The place is leased by or otherwise under the control of 147158 a law enforcement or other government agency. 147159

(b) The place is owned by the arrested person, the arrested 147160 person's spouse, or a parent or child of the arrested person. 147161

(c) The place is owned by a private person or entity, and, 147162 prior to the immobilization, the private entity or person that 147163 owns the place, or the authorized agent of that private entity or 147164 person, has given express written consent for the immobilization 147165 to be carried out at that place. 147166

(d) The place is a public street or highway on which the 147167 vehicle is parked in accordance with the law. 147168

(C)(1) A vehicle seized under division (B)(1) of this section 147169 shall be safely kept at the place to which it is towed or 147170 otherwise moved by the law enforcement agency that employs the 147171 arresting officer until the initial appearance of the arrested 147172 person relative to the charge in question. The license plates ~~of~~ 147173 ~~shall remain on the seized vehicle that are removed pursuant to~~ 147174 ~~division (B)(1) of this section shall be safely kept by the law~~ 147175 ~~enforcement agency that employs the arresting officer until at~~ 147176 ~~least the initial appearance of the arrested person relative to~~ 147177

~~the charge in question unless otherwise ordered by the court.~~ 147178

(2)(a) At the initial appearance or not less than seven days 147179 prior to the date of final disposition, the court shall notify the 147180 arrested person that, if title to a motor vehicle that is subject 147181 to an order for criminal forfeiture under this section is assigned 147182 or transferred and division (B)(2) or (3) of section 4503.234 of 147183 the Revised Code applies, the court may fine the arrested person 147184 the value of the vehicle. If, at the initial appearance, the 147185 arrested person pleads guilty to the violation of section 4510.14 147186 or 4511.203 of the Revised Code, or a municipal ordinance that is 147187 substantially equivalent to either of those sections or pleads no 147188 contest to and is convicted of the violation, the following 147189 sentencing provisions apply: 147190

(i) If the person violated section 4510.14 of the Revised 147191
Code or a municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to 147192 that section, the court shall impose sentence upon the person as 147193 provided by law or ordinance; the court shall order the 147194 immobilization of the vehicle the arrested person was operating at 147195
the time of, or that was involved in, the offense if registered in 147196
the arrested person's name and the impoundment of its license 147197 plates under sections 4503.233 and 4510.14 of the Revised Code or 147198 the criminal forfeiture to the state of the vehicle if registered 147199 in the arrested person's name under sections 4503.234 and 4510.14 147200 of the Revised Code, whichever is applicable; and the vehicle and 147201 its license plates shall not be returned or released to the 147202 arrested person. 147203

(ii) If the person violated section 4511.203 of the Revised 147204
Code or a municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to 147205
that section, the court shall impose sentence upon the person as 147206 provided by law or ordinance; the court may order the 147207 immobilization of the vehicle the arrested person was operating at 147208
the time of, or that was involved in, the offense if registered in 147209

plates under section 4503.233 and section 4511.203 of the Revised 147211 Code or the criminal forfeiture to the state of the vehicle if 147212 registered in the arrested person's name under section 4503.234 147213 and section 4511.203 of the Revised Code, whichever is applicable; 147214 and the vehicle and its license plates shall not be returned or 147215 released to the arrested person. 147216

(b) If, at any time, the charge that the arrested person 147217 violated section 4510.14 or 4511.203 of the Revised Code, or a 147218
municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to either of 147219
those sections is dismissed for any reason, the court shall order 147220 that the vehicle seized at the time of the arrest and its license 147221 plates immediately be released to the person. 147222

(D) If a vehicle and its license plates are seized under 147223 division (B)(1) of this section and are not returned or released 147224 to the arrested person pursuant to division (C) of this section, 147225 the vehicle and its license plates shall be retained until the 147226 final disposition of the charge in question. Upon the final 147227 disposition of that charge, the court shall do whichever of the 147228 following is applicable: 147229

(1) If the arrested person is convicted of or pleads guilty 147230 to the violation of section 4510.14 of the Revised Code or a 147231 municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to that 147232 section, the court shall impose sentence upon the person as 147233 provided by law or ordinance and shall order the immobilization of 147234 the vehicle the person was operating at the time of, or that was 147235 involved in, the offense if it is registered in the arrested 147236 person's name and the impoundment of its license plates under 147237 sections 4503.233 and 4510.14 of the Revised Code or the criminal 147238 forfeiture of the vehicle if it is registered in the arrested 147239 person's name under sections 4503.234 and 4510.14 of the Revised 147240 Code, whichever is applicable. 147241

(3) If the arrested person is found not guilty of the violation of section 4510.14 or 4511.203 of the Revised Code, or a municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to either of those sections, the court shall order that the vehicle and its license plates immediately be released to the arrested person.

(4) If the charge that the arrested person violated section 4510.14 or 4511.203 of the Revised Code, or a municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to either of those sections is dismissed for any reason, the court shall order that the vehicle and its license plates immediately be released to the arrested person.

(5) If the impoundment of the vehicle was not authorized under this section, the court shall order that the vehicle and its license plates be returned immediately to the arrested person or, if the arrested person is not the vehicle owner, to the vehicle owner and shall order that the state or political subdivision of the law enforcement agency served by the law enforcement officer who seized the vehicle pay all expenses and charges incurred in its removal and storage.

(E) If a vehicle is seized under division (B)(2) of this section, the time between the seizure of the vehicle and either 147274 its release to the arrested person pursuant to division (C) of 147275 this section or the issuance of an order of immobilization of the 147276 vehicle under section 4503.233 of the Revised Code shall be 147277 credited against the period of immobilization ordered by the 147278

court. 147279

(F)(1) Except as provided in division (D)(4) of this section, 147280 the arrested person may be charged expenses or charges incurred in 147281 the removal and storage of the immobilized vehicle. The court with 147282 jurisdiction over the case, after notice to all interested 147283 parties, including lienholders, and after an opportunity for them 147284 to be heard, if the court finds that the arrested person does not 147285 intend to seek release of the vehicle at the end of the period of 147286 immobilization under section 4503.233 of the Revised Code or that 147287 the arrested person is not or will not be able to pay the expenses 147288 and charges incurred in its removal and storage, may order that 147289 title to the vehicle be transferred, in order of priority, first 147290 into the name of the person or entity that removed it, next into 147291 the name of a lienholder, or lastly into the name of the owner of 147292 the place of storage. 147293

Any lienholder that receives title under a court order shall 147294 do so on the condition that it pay any expenses or charges 147295 incurred in the vehicle's removal and storage. If the person or 147296 entity that receives title to the vehicle is the person or entity 147297 that removed it, the person or entity shall receive title on the 147298 condition that it pay any lien on the vehicle. The court shall not 147299 order that title be transferred to any person or entity other than 147300 the owner of the place of storage if the person or entity refuses 147301 to receive the title. Any person or entity that receives title 147302 either may keep title to the vehicle or may dispose of the vehicle 147303 in any legal manner that it considers appropriate, including 147304 assignment of the certificate of title to the motor vehicle to a 147305 salvage dealer or a scrap metal processing facility. The person or 147306 entity shall not transfer the vehicle to the person who is the 147307 vehicle's immediate previous owner. 147308

If the person or entity that receives title assigns the motor 147309 vehicle to a salvage dealer or scrap metal processing facility, 147310 the person or entity shall send the assigned certificate of title 147311 to the motor vehicle to the clerk of the court of common pleas of 147312 the county in which the salvage dealer or scrap metal processing 147313 facility is located. The person or entity shall mark the face of 147314 the certificate of title with the words "FOR DESTRUCTION" and 147315 shall deliver a photocopy of the certificate of title to the 147316 salvage dealer or scrap metal processing facility for its records. 147317

(2) Whenever a court issues an order under division (F)(1) of 147318 this section, the court also shall order removal of the license 147319 plates from the vehicle and cause them to be sent to the registrar 147320 if they have not already been sent to the registrar. Thereafter, 147321 no further proceedings shall take place under this section or 147322
under section 4503.233 of the Revised Code. 147323

(3) Prior to initiating a proceeding under division (F)(1) of 147324 this section, and upon payment of the fee under division (B) of 147325 section 4505.14, any interested party may cause a search to be 147326 made of the public records of the bureau of motor vehicles or the 147327 clerk of the court of common pleas, to ascertain the identity of 147328 any lienholder of the vehicle. The initiating party shall furnish 147329 this information to the clerk of the court with jurisdiction over 147330 the case, and the clerk shall provide notice to the arrested 147331 person, any lienholder, and any other interested parties listed by 147332 the initiating party, at the last known address supplied by the 147333 initiating party, by certified mail, or, at the option of the 147334 initiating party, by personal service or ordinary mail. 147335

Sec. 4735.13. (A) Every real estate broker licensed under 147336 this chapter shall have and maintain a definite place of business 147337 in this state. A post office box address is not a definite place 147338 of business for purposes of this section. The license of a real 147339 estate broker shall be prominently displayed in the office or 147340 place of business of the broker, and no license shall authorize 147341 the licensee to do business except from the location specified in 147342

it. If the broker maintains more than one place of business within 147343 the state, the broker shall apply for and procure a duplicate 147344 license for each branch office maintained by the broker. Each 147345 branch office shall be in the charge of a licensed broker or 147346 salesperson. The branch office license shall be prominently 147347 displayed at the branch office location. 147348

(B) The license of each real estate salesperson shall be 147349 electronically mailed to and remain in the possession of the 147350 licensed broker with whom the salesperson is or is to be 147351 associated until the licensee places the license on inactive or 147352 resigned status or until the salesperson leaves the brokerage or 147353 is terminated. The broker shall keep a copy of each salesperson's 147354 license in a way that it can, and shall on request, be made 147355 immediately available for public inspection at the office or place 147356 of business of the broker. Except as provided in divisions (G) and 147357 (H) of this section, immediately upon the salesperson's leaving 147358 the association or termination of the association of a real estate 147359 salesperson with the broker, the broker shall ~~return the~~ 147360 ~~salesperson's license to~~ notify the superintendent of real estate 147361 by electronic mail to the division of real estate's general 147362 electronic mail address. The broker shall keep a copy of the 147363 written notification for three years after it is sent. 147364

The failure of a broker to ~~return the license~~ notify the 147365 superintendent of real estate in writing of a real estate 147366 salesperson or broker who leaves or who is terminated, via 147367 ~~certified~~ electronic mail ~~return receipt requested~~, within three 147368 business days of the receipt of a written request from the 147369 superintendent for ~~the return of the license~~ such notification, is 147370 prima-facie evidence of misconduct under division (A)(6) of 147371

section 4735.18 of the Revised Code. 147372

(C) A licensee shall notify the superintendent in writing 147373 within fifteen days of any of the following occurrences: 147374

(1) The licensee is convicted of a felony. 147375

(2) The licensee is convicted of a crime involving moral 147376 turpitude. 147377

(3) The licensee is found to have violated any federal, 147378 state, or municipal civil rights law pertaining to discrimination 147379 in housing. 147380

(4) The licensee is found to have engaged in a discriminatory 147381 practice pertaining to housing accommodations described in 147382 division (H) of section 4112.02 of the Revised Code. 147383

(5) The licensee is the subject of an order by the department 147384 of commerce, the department of insurance, or the department of 147385 agriculture revoking or permanently surrendering any professional 147386 license, certificate, or registration. 147387

(6) The licensee is the subject of an order by any government 147388 agency concerning real estate, financial matters, or the 147389 performance of fiduciary duties with respect to any license, 147390 certificate, or registration. 147391

If a licensee fails to notify the superintendent within the 147392 required time, the superintendent immediately may suspend the 147393 license of the licensee. 147394

Any court that convicts a licensee of a violation of any 147395 municipal civil rights law pertaining to housing discrimination 147396 also shall notify the Ohio civil rights commission within fifteen 147397 days of the conviction. 147398

(D) In case of any change of business location, a broker shall give notice to the superintendent, on a form prescribed by the superintendent, within thirty days after the change of location, whereupon the superintendent shall issue new licenses for the unexpired period without charge. If a broker changes a business location without giving the required notice and without receiving new licenses that action is prima-facie evidence of misconduct under division (A)(6) of section 4735.18 of the Revised Code.

(E) If a real estate broker desires to associate with another real estate broker in the capacity of a real estate salesperson, the broker shall apply to the superintendent to deposit the broker's real estate broker's license with the superintendent and for the issuance of a real estate salesperson's license. The application shall be made on a form prescribed by the superintendent and shall be accompanied by the recommendation of the real estate broker with whom the applicant intends to become associated and a fee of thirty-four dollars for the real estate salesperson's license. One dollar of the fee shall be credited to the real estate education and research fund. If the superintendent is satisfied that the applicant is honest and truthful, has not been convicted of a disqualifying offense as determined in accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code, and has not been finally adjudged by a court to have violated any municipal, state, or federal civil rights laws relevant to the protection of purchasers or sellers of real estate, and that the association of the real estate broker and the applicant will be in the public interest, the superintendent shall grant the application and issue a real estate salesperson's license to the applicant. Any license so deposited with the superintendent shall be subject to this chapter. A broker who intends to deposit the broker's license with the superintendent, as provided in this section, shall give written notice of this fact in a format prescribed by the superintendent to all salespersons associated with the broker when 147432 applying to place the broker's license on deposit. 147433

(F) If a real estate broker desires to become a member or 147434 officer of a partnership, association, limited liability company, 147435 limited liability partnership, or corporation that is or intends 147436 to become a licensed real estate broker, the broker shall notify 147437 the superintendent of the broker's intentions. The notice of 147438 intention shall be on a form prescribed by the superintendent and 147439 shall be accompanied by a fee of thirty-four dollars. One dollar 147440 of the fee shall be credited to the real estate education and 147441 research fund. 147442

A licensed real estate broker who is a member or officer of a 147443 partnership, association, limited liability company, limited 147444 liability partnership, or corporation shall only act as a real 147445 estate broker for such partnership, association, limited liability 147446 company, limited liability partnership, or corporation. 147447

(G)(1) If a real estate broker or salesperson enters the 147448 armed forces, the broker or salesperson may place the broker's or 147449 salesperson's license on deposit with the Ohio real estate 147450 commission. The licensee shall not be required to renew the 147451 license until the renewal date that follows the date of discharge 147452 from the armed forces. Any license deposited with the commission 147453 shall be subject to this chapter. 147454

Any licensee whose license is on deposit under this division 147455 and who fails to meet the continuing education requirements of 147456 section 4735.141 of the Revised Code because the licensee is in 147457 the armed forces shall satisfy the commission that the licensee 147458 has complied with the continuing education requirements within 147459 twelve months of the licensee's first birthday after discharge or 147460 within the amount of time equal to the total number of months the 147461 licensee spent on active duty, whichever is greater. The licensee 147462 shall submit proper documentation of active duty service and the 147463 length of that active duty service to the superintendent. The 147464 extension shall not exceed the total number of months that the 147465 licensee served in active duty. The superintendent shall notify 147466 the licensee of the licensee's obligations under section 4735.141 147467 of the Revised Code at the time the licensee applies for 147468 reactivation of the licensee's license. 147469

(2) If a licensee is a spouse of a member of the armed forces 147470 and the spouse's service resulted in the licensee's absence from 147471 this state, both of the following apply: 147472

(a) The licensee shall not be required to renew the license 147473 until the renewal date that follows the date of the spouse's 147474 discharge from the armed forces. 147475

(b) If the licensee fails to meet the continuing education 147476 requirements of section 4735.141 of the Revised Code, the licensee 147477 shall satisfy the commission that the licensee has complied with 147478 the continuing education requirements within twelve months after 147479 the licensee's first birthday after the spouse's discharge or 147480 within the amount of time equal to the total number of months the 147481 licensee's spouse spent on active duty, whichever is greater. The 147482 licensee shall submit proper documentation of the spouse's active 147483 duty service and the length of that active duty service. This 147484 extension shall not exceed the total number of months that the 147485
licensee's spouse served in active duty. 147486

(3) In the case of a licensee as described in division (G)(2) 147487 of this section, who holds the license through a reciprocity 147488 agreement with another state, the spouse's service shall have 147489 resulted in the licensee's absence from the licensee's state of 147490 residence for the provisions of that division to apply. 147491

(4) As used in this division, "armed forces" means the armed 147492 forces of the United States or reserve component of the armed 147493 forces of the United States including the Ohio national guard or 147494

the national guard of any other state. 147495

(H) If a licensed real estate salesperson submits an 147496 application to the superintendent to leave the association of one 147497 broker to associate with a different broker, the broker possessing 147498 the licensee's license need not ~~return the salesperson's license~~ 147499 ~~to~~ notify the superintendent pursuant to division (B) of this 147500 section. The superintendent may process the application regardless 147501 of whether the licensee's license is returned to the 147502 superintendent or the superintendent is notified pursuant to 147503 division (B) of this section. 147504

Sec. 4735.14. (A) Each license issued under this chapter, 147505 shall be valid without further recommendation or examination until 147506 it is placed in an inactive or resigned status, is revoked or 147507 suspended, or such license expires by operation of law. 147508

(B) Except for a licensee who has placed the licensee's 147509 license in resigned status pursuant to section 4735.142 of the 147510 Revised Code, each licensed broker, brokerage, or salesperson 147511 shall file, on or before the date the Ohio real estate commission 147512 has adopted by rule for that licensee in accordance with division 147513 (A)(2)(f) of section 4735.10 of the Revised Code, a notice of 147514 renewal on a form prescribed by the superintendent of real estate. 147515
The notice of renewal shall be ~~mailed~~ sent by the superintendent 147516 two months prior to the filing deadline to the ~~personal residence~~ 147517 electronic mail address of each broker or salesperson that is on 147518 file with the division. If the licensee is a partnership, 147519 association, limited liability company, limited liability 147520 partnership, or corporation, the notice of renewal shall be ~~mailed~~ 147521 sent by the superintendent two months prior to the filing deadline 147522 to the brokerage's business electronic mail address on file with 147523 the division. A licensee shall not renew the licensee's license 147524 any earlier than two months prior to the filing deadline. 147525

(C) Except as otherwise provided in division (B) of this section, the license of any real estate broker, brokerage, or salesperson that fails to file a notice of renewal on or before the filing deadline of each ensuing year shall be suspended automatically without the taking of any action by the superintendent. A suspended license may be reactivated within twelve months of the date of suspension, provided that the renewal fee plus a penalty fee of fifty per cent of the renewal fee is paid to the superintendent. Failure to reactivate the license as provided in this division shall result in automatic revocation of the license without the taking of any action by the superintendent. No person, partnership, association, corporation, limited liability company, or limited partnership shall engage in any act or acts for which a real estate license is required while that entity's license is placed in an inactive or resigned status, or is suspended, or revoked. The commission shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to provide to licensees notice of suspension or revocation or both.

(D) Each licensee shall notify the superintendent of a change in personal residence address within thirty days after the change of location. A licensee's failure to notify the superintendent of a change in personal residence address does not negate the requirement to file the license renewal by the required deadline established by the commission by rule under division (A)(2)(f) of section 4735.10 of the Revised Code. Each licensee shall maintain a valid electronic mail address on file with the division and notify the superintendent of any change in electronic mail address within thirty days after the change.

(E) The superintendent shall not renew a license if the licensee fails to comply with section 4735.141 of the Revised Code or is otherwise not in compliance with this chapter.

(F) The superintendent shall make notice of successful renewal available electronically to licensees as soon as 147558 practicable, but not later than thirty days after receipt by the 147559 division of a complete application and renewal fee. This notice 147560 shall serve as a notice of renewal for purposes of section 4745.02 147561

of the Revised Code. 147562

Sec. 5107.161. Before a county department of job and family 147563 services sanctions an assistance group under section 5107.16 of 147564 the Revised Code, the state department of job and family services 147565 shall provide the assistance group written notice of the sanction 147566 in accordance with rules adopted under section 5107.05 of the 147567 Revised Code. The written notice shall include a provision printed 147568 in bold type face that informs the assistance group that, not 147569 later than fifteen calendar days after the state department mailed 147570 the written notice to the assistance group, the assistance group 147571 may request, for the purpose of explaining why the assistance 147572 group believes it should not be sanctioned, a state hearing under 147573 division (B) of section 5101.35 of the Revised Code which, at the 147574 assistance group's request, may be preceded by a ~~face-to-face~~ 147575 county conference with the county department. The written notice 147576 shall include either the telephone number of an Ohio works first 147577 ombudsperson provided for under section 329.07 of the Revised Code 147578 or the toll-free telephone number of the state department of job 147579 and family services that the assistance group may call to obtain 147580 the telephone number of an Ohio works first ombudsperson. 147581

Sec. 5120.14. (A) If a person who was convicted of or pleaded 147582 guilty to an offense escapes from a correctional institution in 147583 this state under the control of the department of rehabilitation 147584 and correction or otherwise escapes from the custody of the 147585 department, the department immediately after the escape shall 147586 report the escape, by telephone and in writing, to all local law 147587 enforcement agencies with jurisdiction in the county in which the 147588 institution from which the escape was made or to which the person 147589 was sentenced is located, to all local law enforcement agencies 147590 with jurisdiction in the county in which the person was convicted 147591 or pleaded guilty to the offense for which the escaped person was 147592 sentenced, to the state highway patrol, to the prosecuting 147593 attorney of the county in which the institution from which the 147594 escape was made or to which the person was sentenced is located, 147595 to the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the person was 147596 convicted or pleaded guilty to the offense for which the escaped 147597 person was sentenced, to a newspaper of general circulation in the 147598 county in which the institution from which the escape was made or 147599 to which the person was sentenced is located, and to a newspaper 147600 of general circulation in each county in which the escaped person 147601 was indicted for an offense for which, at the time of the escape, 147602 the escaped person had been sentenced to that institution. The 147603 written notice may be by ~~either~~ facsimile transmission, electronic 147604 mail, or mail. A failure to comply with this requirement is a 147605 violation of section 2921.22 of the Revised Code. 147606

147607
(B) Upon the apprehension of the escaped person, the 147608 department shall give notice of the apprehension by telephone and 147609 in writing to the persons who were given notice of the escape 147610 under division (A) of this section. 147611

Sec. 5165.193. (A) The department of medicaid may, pursuant 147612 to rules authorized by this section, conduct an exception review 147613 of resident assessment data submitted by a nursing facility 147614 provider under section 5165.191 of the Revised Code. The 147615 department may conduct an exception review based on the findings 147616 of a medicaid certification survey conducted by the department of 147617 health, a risk analysis, or prior performance of the provider. 147618

Exception reviews shall be conducted ~~at the nursing facility~~ 147619 by appropriate health professionals under contract with or 147620 employed by the department. The professionals may review resident 147621 assessment forms and supporting documentation, conduct interviews, 147622 and observe residents to identify any patterns or trends of 147623 inaccurate resident assessments and resulting inaccurate case-mix 147624 scores. 147625

(B) If an exception review is conducted before the effective 147626 date of a nursing facility's rate for direct care costs that is 147627 based on the resident assessment data being reviewed and the 147628 review results in findings that exceed tolerance levels specified 147629 in the rules authorized by this section, the department, in 147630 accordance with those rules, may use the findings to redetermine 147631 individual resident case-mix scores, the nursing facility's 147632 case-mix score for the quarter, and the nursing facility's annual 147633 average case-mix score. The department may use the nursing 147634 facility's redetermined quarterly and annual average case-mix 147635 scores to determine the nursing facility's rate for direct care 147636 costs for the appropriate calendar quarter or quarters. 147637

(C) The department shall prepare a written summary of any 147638 exception review finding that is made after the effective date of 147639 a nursing facility's rate for direct care costs that is based on 147640 the resident assessment data that was reviewed. Where the provider 147641 is pursuing judicial or administrative remedies in good faith 147642 regarding the finding, the department shall not withhold from the 147643 provider's current payments any amounts the department claims to 147644 be due from the provider pursuant to section 5165.41 of the 147645
Revised Code. 147646

(D)(1) The medicaid director shall adopt rules under section 147647 5165.02 of the Revised Code as necessary to implement this 147648 section. The rules shall establish an exception review program 147649 that does all of the following: 147650

(a) Requires each exception review to comply with Title XVIII 147651 and Title XIX; 147652

(b) Requires a written summary for each exception review that 147653 states whether resident assessment forms have been completed 147654 accurately; 147655

(c) Prohibits each health professional who conducts an 147656 exception review from doing either of the following: 147657

(i) During the period of the professional's contract or 147658 employment with the department, having or being committed to 147659 acquire any direct or indirect financial interest in the 147660 ownership, financing, or operation of nursing facilities in this 147661
state; 147662

(ii) Reviewing any provider that has been a client of the 147663 professional. 147664

(2) For the purposes of division (D)(1)(c)(i) of this 147665 section, employment of a member of a health professional's family 147666 by a nursing facility that the professional does not review does 147667 not constitute a direct or indirect financial interest in the 147668 ownership, financing, or operation of the nursing facility. 147669

Sec. 5165.86. The department of medicaid, the department of 147670 health, and any contracting agency shall deliver a written notice, 147671 statement, or order to a nursing facility under sections 5165.60 147672 to 5165.66 and 5165.69 to 5165.89 of the Revised Code by certified 147673 mail ~~or~~, hand delivery, or other means reasonably calculated to 147674 provide prompt actual notice. If the notice, statement, or order 147675 is mailed, it shall be addressed to the administrator of the 147676 facility as indicated in the department's or agency's records. If 147677 it is hand delivered, it shall be delivered to a person at the 147678 facility who would appear to the average prudent person to have 147679 authority to accept it. 147680

Delivery of written notice by a nursing facility to the 147681 department of health, the department of medicaid, or a contracting 147682 agency under sections 5165.60 to 5165.89 of the Revised Code shall 147683 be by certified mail ~~or~~, hand delivery, or other means reasonably 147684 calculated to provide prompt actual notice to the appropriate 147685 department or the agency. 147686

Sec. 5166.303. A home care attendant shall do all of the 147687
following: 147688

(A) Maintain a clinical record for each consumer to whom the 147689 attendant provides home care attendant services in a manner that 147690 protects the consumer's privacy; 147691

(B) Participate in a face-to-face visit every ninety days 147692 with all of the following to monitor the health and welfare of 147693 each of the consumers to whom the attendant provides home care 147694 attendant services: 147695

(1) The consumer; 147696

(2) The consumer's authorized representative, if any; 147697

(3) A registered nurse who agrees to answer any questions 147698 that the attendant, consumer, or authorized representative has 147699 about consumer care needs, medications, and other issues. 147700

(C) Document the activities of each visit required by 147701 division (B) of this section in the consumer's clinical record 147702 with the assistance of the registered nurse. 147703

(D) The face-to-face visit requirement in division (B) of 147704 this section may be satisfied by telephone or electronically if 147705 permitted by rules adopted under section 5166.02 of the Revised 147706
Code. 147707

Sec. 5168.08. (A) Before or during each program year, the 147708 department of medicaid shall ~~mail~~ issue to each hospital ~~by~~ 147709 ~~certified mail, return receipt requested,~~ the preliminary 147710 determination of the amount that the hospital is assessed under 147711 section 5168.06 of the Revised Code during the program year. The 147712 preliminary determination of a hospital's assessment shall be 147713 calculated for a cost-reporting period that is specified in rules 147714 adopted under section 5168.02 of the Revised Code. 147715

The department shall consult with hospitals each year when 147716 determining the date on which it will ~~mail~~ issue the preliminary 147717 determinations in order to minimize hospitals' cash flow 147718 difficulties. 147719

If no hospital submits a request for reconsideration under 147720 division (B) of this section, the preliminary determination 147721 constitutes the final reconciliation of each hospital's assessment 147722 under section 5168.06 of the Revised Code. The final 147723 reconciliation is subject to adjustments under division (D) of 147724
this section. 147725

(B) Not later than fourteen days after the preliminary 147726 determinations are ~~mailed~~ issued, any hospital may submit to the 147727 department a written request to reconsider the preliminary 147728 determinations. The request shall be accompanied by written 147729 materials setting forth the basis for the reconsideration. If one 147730 or more hospitals submit a request, the department shall hold a 147731 public hearing not later than thirty days after the preliminary 147732 determinations are ~~mailed~~ issued to reconsider the preliminary 147733 determinations. The department shall ~~mail~~ issue to each hospital a 147734 written notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing at 147735 least ten days prior to the hearing. On the basis of the evidence 147736 submitted to the department or presented at the public hearing, 147737 the department shall reconsider and may adjust the preliminary 147738 determinations. The result of the reconsideration is the final 147739 reconciliation of the hospital's assessment under section 5168.06 147740 of the Revised Code. The final reconciliation is subject to 147741 adjustments under division (D) of this section. 147742

(C) The department shall ~~mail~~ issue to each hospital a written notice of its assessment for the program year under the final reconciliation. A hospital may appeal the final reconciliation of its assessment to the court of common pleas of Franklin county. While a judicial appeal is pending, the hospital shall pay, in accordance with the schedules required by division (B) of section 5168.06 of the Revised Code, any amount of its assessment that is not in dispute into the hospital care assurance program fund created in section 5168.11 of the Revised Code.

(D) In the course of any program year, the department may adjust the assessment rate or rates established in rules pursuant to section 5168.06 of the Revised Code or adjust the amounts of intergovernmental transfers required under section 5168.07 of the Revised Code and, as a result of the adjustment, adjust each hospital's assessment and intergovernmental transfer, to reflect refinements made by the United States centers for medicare and medicaid services during that program year to the limits it prescribed under the "Social Security Act," section 1923(f), 42 U.S.C. 1396r-4(f). When adjusted, the assessment rate or rates must comply with division (A) of section 5168.06 of the Revised Code. An adjusted intergovernmental transfer must comply with division (A) of section 5168.07 of the Revised Code. The department shall notify hospitals of adjustments made under this division and adjust for the remainder of the program year the installments paid by hospitals under sections 5168.06 and 5168.07 of the Revised Code in accordance with rules adopted under section 5168.02 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5168.22. (A) Before or during each assessment program year, the department of medicaid shall ~~mail~~ issue to each hospital ~~by certified mail, return receipt requested,~~ the preliminary determination of the amount that the hospital is assessed under section 5168.21 of the Revised Code for the assessment program year. Except as provided in division (B) of this section, the preliminary determination becomes the final determination for the assessment program year fifteen days after the preliminary determination is ~~mailed~~ issued to the hospital.

(B) A hospital may request that the department reconsider the preliminary determination ~~mailed~~ issued to the hospital under division (A) of this section by submitting to the department a written request for a reconsideration not later than fourteen days after the hospital's preliminary determination is ~~mailed~~ issued to the hospital. The request must be accompanied by written materials setting forth the basis for the reconsideration. On receipt of the timely request, the department shall reconsider the preliminary determination and may adjust the preliminary determination on the basis of the written materials accompanying the request. The result of the reconsideration is the final determination of the hospital's assessment under section 5168.21 of the Revised Code for the assessment program year.

(C) The department shall ~~mail~~ issue to each hospital a written notice of the final determination of its assessment for the assessment program year. A hospital may appeal the final determination to the court of common pleas of Franklin county. While a judicial appeal is pending, the hospital shall pay, in accordance with section 5168.23 of the Revised Code, any amount of its assessment that is not in dispute.

Sec. 5168.23. Each hospital shall pay the amount it is assessed under section 5168.21 of the Revised Code in accordance with a payment schedule the department of medicaid shall establish for each assessment program year. The department shall consult with the Ohio hospital association before establishing the payment schedule for any assessment program year. The department shall include the payment schedule in each preliminary determination notice the department ~~mail~~ issues to hospitals under division (A) 147806 of section 5168.22 of the Revised Code. 147807

Sec. 5525.01. Before entering into a contract, the director 147808 of transportation ~~shall~~ may advertise for bids for two consecutive 147809 weeks in one newspaper of general circulation published in the 147810 county in which the improvement or part thereof is located, but if 147811 there is no such newspaper then in one newspaper having general 147812 circulation in an adjacent county. In the alternative, the 147813 director may advertise for bids as provided in section 7.16 of the 147814 Revised Code. The director ~~may~~ shall advertise for bids in such 147815 other publications as the director considers advisable. Such 147816 notices shall state that plans and specifications for the 147817 improvement are on file in the office of the director and the 147818 district deputy director of the district in which the improvement 147819 or part thereof is located and the time within which bids therefor 147820 will be received. 147821

Each bidder shall be required to file with the bidder's bid a 147822 bid guaranty in the form of a certified check, a cashier's check, 147823 or an electronic funds transfer to the treasurer of state that is 147824 evidenced by a receipt or by a certification to the director of 147825 transportation in a form prescribed by the director that an 147826 electronic funds transfer has been made to the treasurer of state, 147827 for an amount equal to five per cent of the bidder's bid, but in 147828 no event more than fifty thousand dollars, or a bid bond for ten 147829 per cent of the bidder's bid, payable to the director, which 147830 check, transferred sum, or bond shall be forthwith returned to the 147831 bidder in case the contract is awarded to another bidder, or, in 147832 case of a successful bidder, when the bidder has entered into a 147833 contract and furnished the bonds required by section 5525.16 of 147834 the Revised Code. In the event the contract is awarded to a 147835 bidder, and the bidder fails or refuses to furnish the bonds as 147836 required by section 5525.16 of the Revised Code, the check, 147837 transferred sum, or bid bond filed with the bidder's bid shall be 147838 forfeited as liquidated damages. No bidder shall be required 147839 either to file a signed contract with the bidder's bid, to enter 147840 into a contract, or to furnish the contract performance bond and 147841 the payment bond required by that section until the bids have been 147842 opened and the bidder has been notified by the director that the 147843 bidder is awarded the contract. 147844

The director shall permit a bidder to withdraw the bidder's 147845 bid from consideration, without forfeiture of the check, 147846 transferred sum, or bid bond filed with the bid, providing a 147847 written request together with a sworn statement of the grounds for 147848 such withdrawal is delivered within forty-eight hours after the 147849 time established for the receipt of bids, and if the price bid was 147850 substantially lower than the other bids, providing the bid was 147851 submitted in good faith, and the reason for the price bid being 147852 substantially lower was a clerical mistake evident on the face of 147853 the bid, as opposed to a judgment mistake, and was actually due to 147854 an unintentional and substantial arithmetic error or an 147855 unintentional omission of a substantial quantity of work, labor, 147856 or material made directly in the compilation of the bid. In the 147857 event the director decides the conditions for withdrawal have not 147858 been met, the director may award the contract to such bidder. If 147859 such bidder does not then enter into a contract and furnish the 147860 contract bond as required by law, the director may declare 147861 forfeited the check, transferred sum, or bid bond as liquidated 147862 damages and award the contract to the next higher bidder or reject 147863 the remaining bids and readvertise the project for bids. Such 147864 bidder, within thirty days, may appeal the decision of the 147865 director to the court of common pleas of Franklin county and the 147866 court may affirm or reverse the decision of the director and may 147867 order the director to refund the amount of the forfeiture. At the 147868 hearing before the common pleas court evidence may be introduced 147869 for and against the decision of the director. The decision of the 147870 common pleas court may be appealed as in other cases. 147871

There is hereby created the ODOT letting fund, which shall be 147872 in the custody of the treasurer of state but shall not be part of 147873 the state treasury. All certified checks and cashiers' checks 147874 received with bidders' bids, and all sums transferred to the 147875 treasurer of state by electronic funds transfer in connection with 147876 bidders' bids, under this section shall be credited to the fund. 147877
All such bid guaranties shall be held in the fund until a 147878 determination is made as to the final disposition of the money. If 147879 the department determines that any such bid guaranty is no longer 147880 required to be held, the amount of the bid guaranty shall be 147881 returned to the appropriate bidder. If the department determines 147882 that a bid guaranty under this section shall be forfeited, the 147883 amount of the bid guaranty shall be transferred or, in the case of 147884 money paid on a forfeited bond, deposited into the state treasury, 147885 to the credit of the highway operating fund. Any investment 147886 earnings of the ODOT letting fund shall be distributed as the 147887 treasurer of state considers appropriate. 147888

The director shall require all bidders to furnish the 147889 director, upon such forms as the director may prescribe, detailed 147890 information with respect to all pending work of the bidder, 147891 whether with the department of transportation or otherwise, 147892 together with such other information as the director considers 147893
necessary. 147894

In the event a bidder fails to submit anything required to be 147895 submitted with the bid and then fails or refuses to so submit such 147896 at the request of the director, the failure or refusal constitutes 147897 grounds for the director, in the director's discretion, to declare 147898 as forfeited the bid guaranty submitted with the bid. 147899

The director may reject any or all bids. Except in regard to 147900 contracts for environmental remediation and specialty work for 147901 which there are no classes of work set out in the rules adopted by 147902 the director, if the director awards the contract, the director 147903 shall award it to the lowest competent and responsible bidder as 147904 defined by rules adopted by the director under section 5525.05 of 147905 the Revised Code, who is qualified to bid under sections 5525.02 147906 to 5525.09 of the Revised Code. In regard to contracts for 147907 environmental remediation and specialty work for which there are 147908 no classes of work set out in the rules adopted by the director, 147909 the director shall competitively bid the projects in accordance 147910 with this chapter and shall award the contracts to the lowest and 147911 best bidder. 147912

The award for all projects competitively let by the director 147913 under this section shall be made within ten days after the date on 147914 which the bids are opened, and the successful bidder shall enter 147915 into a contract and furnish a contract performance bond and a 147916 payment bond, as provided for in section 5525.16 of the Revised 147917 Code, within ten days after the bidder is notified that the bidder 147918 has been awarded the contract. 147919

The director may insert in any contract awarded under this 147920 chapter a clause providing for value engineering change proposals, 147921 under which a contractor who has been awarded a contract may 147922 propose a change in the plans and specifications of the project 147923 that saves the department time or money on the project without 147924 impairing any of the essential functions and characteristics of 147925 the project such as service life, reliability, economy of 147926 operation, ease of maintenance, safety, and necessary standardized 147927 features. If the director adopts the value engineering proposal, 147928 the savings from the proposal shall be divided between the 147929 department and the contractor according to guidelines established 147930 by the director, provided that the contractor shall receive at 147931 least fifty per cent of the savings from the proposal. The 147932 adoption of a value engineering proposal does not invalidate the 147933 award of the contract or require the director to rebid the 147934 project. 147935

Sec. 5703.37. (A)(1) Except as provided in division (B) of 147936 this section, whenever service of a notice or order is required in 147937 the manner provided in this section, a copy of the notice or order 147938 shall be served upon the person affected thereby either by 147939 personal service, by certified mail, or by a delivery service 147940 authorized under section 5703.056 of the Revised Code that 147941 notifies the tax commissioner of the date of delivery. 147942

(2) In lieu of serving a copy of a notice or order through 147943 one of the means provided in division (A)(1) of this section, the 147944 commissioner may serve a notice or order upon the person affected 147945 thereby through alternative means as provided in this section, 147946 including, but not limited to, delivery by secure electronic mail 147947 as provided in division (F) of this section. Delivery by such 147948 means satisfies the requirements for delivery under this section. 147949

(B)(1)(a) If certified mail is returned because of an 147950 undeliverable address, the commissioner shall first utilize 147951 reasonable means to ascertain a new last known address, including 147952 the use of a change of address service offered by the United 147953 States postal service or an authorized delivery service under 147954 section 5703.056 of the Revised Code. If, after using reasonable 147955 means, the commissioner is unable to ascertain a new last known 147956 address, the assessment is final for purposes of section 131.02 of 147957 the Revised Code sixty days after the notice or order sent by 147958 certified mail is first returned to the commissioner, and the 147959 commissioner shall certify the notice or order, if applicable, to 147960 the attorney general for collection under section 131.02 of the 147961
Revised Code. 147962

(b) Notwithstanding certification to the attorney general 147963 under division (B)(1)(a) of this section, once the commissioner or 147964 attorney general, or the designee of either, makes an initial 147965 contact with the person to whom the notice or order is directed, 147966 the person may protest an assessment by filing a petition for 147967 reassessment within sixty days after the initial contact. The 147968 certification of an assessment under division (B)(1)(a) of this 147969 section is prima-facie evidence that delivery is complete and that 147970 the notice or order is served. 147971

(2) If mailing of a notice or order by certified mail is 147972 returned for some cause other than an undeliverable address or if 147973 a person does not access an electronic notice or order within the 147974 time provided in division (F) of this section, the commissioner 147975 shall resend the notice or order by ordinary mail. The notice or 147976 order shall show the date the commissioner sends the notice or 147977 order and include the following statement: 147978

"This notice or order is deemed to be served on the addressee 147979 under applicable law ten days from the date this notice or order 147980 was mailed by the commissioner as shown on the notice or order, 147981 and all periods within which an appeal may be filed apply from and 147982 after that date." 147983

Unless the mailing is returned because of an undeliverable 147984 address, the mailing of that information is prima-facie evidence 147985 that delivery of the notice or order was completed ten days after 147986 the commissioner sent the notice or order by ordinary mail and 147987 that the notice or order was served. 147988

If the ordinary mail is subsequently returned because of an 147989 undeliverable address, the commissioner shall proceed under 147990 division (B)(1)(a) of this section. A person may challenge the 147991 presumption of delivery and service under this division in 147992 accordance with division (C) of this section. 147993

(C)(1) A person disputing the presumption of delivery and 147994 service under division (B) of this section bears the burden of 147995 proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the address to 147996 which the notice or order was sent was not an address with which 147997 the person was associated at the time the commissioner originally 147998 mailed the notice or order by certified mail. For the purposes of 147999 this section, a person is associated with an address at the time 148000 the commissioner originally mailed the notice or order if, at that 148001 time, the person was residing, receiving legal documents, or 148002 conducting business at the address; or if, before that time, the 148003 person had conducted business at the address and, when the notice 148004 or order was mailed, the person's agent or the person's affiliate 148005 was conducting business at the address. For the purposes of this 148006 section, a person's affiliate is any other person that, at the 148007 time the notice or order was mailed, owned or controlled at least 148008 twenty per cent, as determined by voting rights, of the 148009 addressee's business. 148010

(2) If the person elects to protest an assessment certified 148011 to the attorney general for collection, the person must do so 148012 within sixty days after the attorney general's initial contact 148013 with the person. The attorney general may enter into a compromise 148014 with the person under sections 131.02 and 5703.06 of the Revised 148015 Code if the person does not file a petition for reassessment with 148016
the commissioner. 148017

(D) Nothing in this section prohibits the commissioner or the 148018 commissioner's designee from delivering a notice or order by 148019 personal service. 148020

(E) Collection actions taken pursuant to section 131.02 of 148021 the Revised Code upon any assessment being challenged under 148022 division (B)(1)(b) of this section shall be stayed upon the 148023 pendency of an appeal under this section. If a petition for 148024 reassessment is filed pursuant to this section on a claim that has 148025 been certified to the attorney general for collection, the claim 148026 shall be uncertified. 148027

~~(F)~~(F)(1) The commissioner may serve a notice or order upon 148028 the person affected by the notice or order or that person's 148029 authorized representative through secure electronic means ~~only~~ 148030 ~~with the person's consent~~ associated with the person's or 148031 representative's last known address. The commissioner must inform 148032 the recipient, electronically or by mail, that a notice or order 148033 is available for electronic review and provide instructions to 148034 access and print the notice or order. The types of electronic 148035 notification the commissioner may use include electronic mail, 148036 text message, or any other form of electronic communication. The 148037 recipient's electronic access of the notice or order satisfies the 148038 requirements for delivery under this section. If the recipient 148039 fails to access the notice or order electronically within ten 148040 business days, then the commissioner shall inform the recipient a 148041 second time, electronically or by mail, that a notice or order is 148042 available for electronic review and provide instructions to access 148043 and print the notice or order. If the recipient fails to access 148044 the notice or order electronically within ten business days of the 148045 second notification, the notice or order shall be served upon the 148046 person through the means provided in division (B)(2) of this 148047
section. 148048

(2) The tax commissioner shall establish a system to issue 148049 notification of assessments to taxpayers through secure electronic 148050 means. 148051

(G) As used in this section: 148052

(1) "Last known address" means the address the department has 148053 at the time the document is originally sent by certified mail, or 148054 any address the department can ascertain using reasonable means 148055 such as the use of a change of address service offered by the 148056 United States postal service or an authorized delivery service 148057 under section 5703.056 of the Revised Code. For documents sent by 148058 secure electronic means, "last known address" means an electronic 148059 mode of communication that is identified on a form prescribed by 148060 the commissioner for such purpose or that is associated with the 148061 person or the authorized representative of the person on the Ohio 148062 business gateway, as defined in section 718.01 of the Revised 148063 Code, as of the date the notification was sent. 148064

(2) "Undeliverable address" means an address to which the 148065
United States postal service or an authorized delivery service 148066 under section 5703.056 of the Revised Code is not able to deliver 148067 a notice or order, except when the reason for nondelivery is 148068 because the addressee fails to acknowledge or accept the notice or 148069
order. 148070

Sec. 5709.83. (A) Except as otherwise provided in division 148071
(B) or (C) of this section, prior to taking formal action to adopt 148072 or enter into any instrument granting a tax exemption under 148073
section 725.02, 1728.06, 5709.40, 5709.41, 5709.45, 5709.62, 148074 5709.63, 5709.632, 5709.73, 5709.78, 5709.84, or 5709.88 of the 148075
Revised Code or formally approving an agreement under section 148076 3735.671 of the Revised Code, or prior to forwarding an 148077 application for a tax exemption for residential property under 148078 section 3735.67 of the Revised Code to the county auditor, the 148079 legislative authority of the political subdivision or housing 148080 officer shall notify the board of education of each city, local, 148081 exempted village, or joint vocational school district in which the 148082 proposed tax-exempted property is located. The notice shall 148083 include a copy of the instrument or application. The notice shall 148084 be delivered not later than fourteen days prior to the day the 148085 legislative authority takes formal action to adopt or enter into 148086 the instrument, or not later than fourteen days prior to the day 148087 the housing officer forwards the application to the county 148088 auditor. If the board of education comments on the instrument or 148089 application to the legislative authority or housing officer, the 148090 legislative authority or housing officer shall consider the 148091 comments. If the board of education of the city, local, exempted 148092 village, or joint vocational school district so requests, the 148093 legislative authority or the housing officer shall meet ~~in person~~ 148094 with a representative designated by the board of education to 148095 discuss the terms of the instrument or application. 148096

(B) The notice otherwise required to be provided to boards of 148097 education under division (A) of this section is not required if 148098 the board has adopted a resolution waiving its right to receive 148099 such notices, and that resolution remains in effect. If a board of 148100 education adopts such a resolution, the board shall cause a copy 148101 of the resolution to be certified to the legislative authority. If 148102 the board of education rescinds such a resolution, it shall 148103 certify notice of the rescission to the legislative authority. A 148104 board of education may adopt such a resolution with respect to any 148105 one or more counties, townships, or municipal corporations 148106 situated in whole or in part within the school district. 148107

(C) If a legislative authority is required to provide notice 148108 to a city, local, or exempted village school district of its 148109 intent to adopt or enter into any instrument granting a tax 148110 exemption as required by section 3735.671, 5709.40, 5709.41, 148111 5709.45, 5709.62, 5709.63, 5709.632, 5709.73, or 5709.78 of the 148112
Revised Code, the legislative authority, before adopting a 148113 resolution or ordinance or entering into an agreement under that 148114 section, shall notify the board of education of each joint 148115 vocational school district in which the property to be exempted is 148116 located using the same time requirements for the notice that 148117 applies to notices to city, local, and exempted village school 148118 districts. The content of the notice and procedures for responding 148119 to the notice are the same as required in division (A) of this 148120
section. 148121

Sec. 5736.041. The tax commissioner shall prepare and 148122 maintain a list of suppliers holding a license issued under 148123 section 5736.06 of the Revised Code that has not been revoked or 148124 canceled under section 5736.07 of the Revised Code. The list shall 148125 contain the names and addresses of all such suppliers and each 148126 supplier's account number for the tax imposed under section 148127 5736.02 of the Revised Code. ~~The list shall be open to public~~ 148128 ~~inspection in the office of the commissioner.~~ The commissioner ~~may~~ 148129 shall post the list on the department of taxation's web site. 148130

Sec. 5751.40. (A) As used in this section and division 148131
(F)(2)(z) of section 5751.01 of the Revised Code: 148132

(1) "Qualifying distribution center receipts" means receipts 148133 of a supplier from qualified property that is delivered to a 148134 qualified distribution center, multiplied by a quantity that 148135 equals one minus the Ohio delivery percentage. If the qualified 148136 distribution center is a refining facility, "supplier" includes 148137 all dealers, brokers, processors, sellers, vendors, cosigners, and 148138 distributors of qualified property. 148139

(2) "Qualified property" means tangible personal property 148140 delivered to a qualified distribution center that is shipped to 148141 that qualified distribution center solely for further shipping by 148142 the qualified distribution center to another location in this 148143 state or elsewhere or, in the case of gold, silver, platinum, or 148144 palladium delivered to a refining facility solely for refining to 148145 a grade and fineness acceptable for delivery to a registered 148146 commodities exchange. "Further shipping" includes storing and 148147 repackaging property into smaller or larger bundles, so long as 148148 the property is not subject to further manufacturing or 148149 processing. "Refining" is limited to extracting impurities from 148150 gold, silver, platinum, or palladium through smelting or some 148151 other process at a refining facility. 148152

(3) "Qualified distribution center" means a warehouse, a 148153 facility similar to a warehouse, or a refining facility in this 148154 state that, for the qualifying year, is operated by a person that 148155 is not part of a combined taxpayer group and that has a qualifying 148156 certificate. All warehouses or facilities similar to warehouses 148157 that are operated by persons in the same taxpayer group and that 148158 are located within one mile of each other shall be treated as one 148159 qualified distribution center. All refining facilities that are 148160 operated by persons in the same taxpayer group and that are 148161 located in the same or adjacent counties may be treated as one 148162 qualified distribution center. 148163

(4) "Qualifying year" means the calendar year to which the 148164 qualifying certificate applies. 148165

(5) "Qualifying period" means the period of the first day of 148166
July of the second year preceding the qualifying year through the 148167 thirtieth day of June of the year preceding the qualifying year. 148168

(6) "Qualifying certificate" means the certificate issued by 148169 the tax commissioner after the operator of a distribution center 148170 files an annual application with the commissioner under division 148171
(B) of this section. 148172

(7) "Ohio delivery percentage" means the proportion of the 148173 total property delivered to a destination inside Ohio from the 148174 qualified distribution center during the qualifying period 148175 compared with total deliveries from such distribution center 148176 everywhere during the qualifying period. 148177

(8) "Refining facility" means one or more buildings located 148178 in a county in the Appalachian region of this state as defined by 148179 section 107.21 of the Revised Code and utilized for refining or 148180 smelting gold, silver, platinum, or palladium to a grade and 148181 fineness acceptable for delivery to a registered commodities 148182 exchange. 148183

(9) "Registered commodities exchange" means a board of trade, 148184 such as New York mercantile exchange, inc. or commodity exchange, 148185 inc., designated as a contract market by the commodity futures 148186 trading commission under the "Commodity Exchange Act," 7 U.S.C. 1 148187 et seq., as amended. 148188

(10) "Ineligible operator's supplier tax liability" means an 148189 amount equal to the tax liability of all suppliers of a 148190 distribution center had the distribution center not been issued a 148191 qualifying certificate for the qualifying year. Ineligible 148192 operator's supplier tax liability shall not include interest or 148193 penalties. 148194

(B) For purposes of division (B) of this section, "supplier" 148195 excludes any person that is part of the consolidated elected 148196 taxpayer group, if applicable, of the operator of the qualified 148197 distribution center. 148198

(1) An application for a qualifying certificate to be a 148199 qualified distribution center shall be filed, and an annual fee 148200 paid, for each qualified distribution center on or before the 148201 first day of September before the qualifying year or within 148202 forty-five days after the distribution center opens, whichever is 148203 later. The applicant must substantiate to the commissioner's 148204 satisfaction that, for the qualifying period, all persons 148205 operating the distribution center have more than fifty per cent of 148206 the cost of the qualified property shipped to a location such that 148207 it would be situated outside this state under the provisions of 148208 division (E) of section 5751.033 of the Revised Code. The 148209 applicant must also substantiate that the distribution center 148210 cumulatively had costs from its suppliers equal to or exceeding 148211 five hundred million dollars during the qualifying period. 148212

The commissioner may require an applicant to have an 148213 independent certified public accountant certify that the 148214 calculation of the minimum thresholds required for a qualified 148215 distribution center by the operator of a distribution center has 148216 been made in accordance with generally accepted accounting 148217 principles. The commissioner shall issue or deny the issuance of a 148218 certificate within sixty days after the receipt of the 148219 application. A denial is subject to appeal under section 5717.02 148220 of the Revised Code. If the operator files a timely appeal under 148221 section 5717.02 of the Revised Code, the operator shall be granted 148222 a qualifying certificate effective for the remainder of the 148223 qualifying year or until the appeal is finalized, whichever is 148224 earlier. If the operator does not prevail in the appeal, the 148225 operator shall pay the ineligible operator's supplier tax 148226 liability. 148227

(2) If the distribution center is new and was not open for 148228 the entire qualifying period, the operator of the distribution 148229 center may request that the commissioner grant a qualifying 148230 certificate. If the certificate is granted and it is later 148231 determined that more than fifty per cent of the qualified property 148232 during that year was not shipped to a location such that it would 148233 be sitused outside of this state under the provisions of division 148234 (E) of section 5751.033 of the Revised Code or if it is later 148235 determined that the person that operates the distribution center 148236 had average monthly costs from its suppliers of less than forty 148237 million dollars during that year, then the operator of the 148238 distribution center shall pay the ineligible operator's supplier 148239 tax liability. 148240

(3) The commissioner may grant a qualifying certificate to a 148241 distribution center that does not qualify as a qualified 148242 distribution center for an entire qualifying period if the 148243 operator of the distribution center demonstrates that the business 148244 operations of the distribution center have changed or will change 148245 such that the distribution center will qualify as a qualified 148246 distribution center within thirty-six months after the date the 148247 operator first applies for a certificate. If, at the end of that 148248 thirty-six-month period, the business operations of the 148249 distribution center have not changed such that the distribution 148250 center qualifies as a qualified distribution center, the operator 148251 of the distribution center shall pay the ineligible operator's 148252 supplier tax liability for each year that the distribution center 148253 received a certificate but did not qualify as a qualified 148254 distribution center. For each year the distribution center 148255 receives a certificate under division (B)(3) of this section, the 148256 distribution center shall pay all applicable fees required under 148257 this section and shall submit an updated business plan showing the 148258 progress the distribution center made toward qualifying as a 148259 qualified distribution center during the preceding year. 148260

(4) An operator may appeal a determination under division 148261
(B)(2) or (3) of this section that the ineligible operator is 148262 liable for the operator's supplier tax liability as a result of 148263 not qualifying as a qualified distribution center, as provided in 148264
section 5717.02 of the Revised Code. 148265

(C)(1) When filing an application for a qualifying 148266 certificate under division (B)(1) of this section, the operator of 148267 a qualified distribution center also shall provide documentation, 148268 as the commissioner requires, for the commissioner to ascertain 148269 the Ohio delivery percentage. The commissioner, upon issuing the 148270 qualifying certificate, also shall certify the Ohio delivery 148271 percentage. The operator of the qualified distribution center may 148272 appeal the commissioner's certification of the Ohio delivery 148273 percentage in the same manner as an appeal is taken from the 148274 denial of a qualifying certificate under division (B)(1) of this 148275
section. 148276

(2) In the case where the distribution center is new and not 148277 open for the entire qualifying period, the operator shall make a 148278 good faith estimate of an Ohio delivery percentage for use by 148279 suppliers in their reports of taxable gross receipts for the 148280 remainder of the qualifying period. The operator of the facility 148281 shall disclose to the suppliers that such Ohio delivery percentage 148282 is an estimate and is subject to recalculation. By the due date of 148283 the next application for a qualifying certificate, the operator 148284 shall determine the actual Ohio delivery percentage for the 148285 estimated qualifying period and proceed as provided in division 148286 (C)(1) of this section with respect to the calculation and 148287 recalculation of the Ohio delivery percentage. The supplier is 148288 required to file, within sixty days after receiving notice from 148289 the operator of the qualified distribution center, amended reports 148290 for the impacted calendar quarter or quarters or calendar year, 148291 whichever the case may be. Any additional tax liability or tax 148292 overpayment shall be subject to interest but shall not be subject 148293 to the imposition of any penalty so long as the amended returns 148294 are timely filed. 148295

(3) The operator of a distribution center that receives a 148296 qualifying certificate under division (B)(3) of this section shall 148297 make a good faith estimate of the Ohio delivery percentage that 148298 the operator estimates will apply to the distribution center at 148299 the end of the thirty-six-month period after the operator first 148300 applied for a qualifying certificate under that division. The 148301 result of the estimate shall be multiplied by a factor of one and 148302 seventy-five one-hundredths. The product of that calculation shall 148303 be the Ohio delivery percentage used by suppliers in their reports 148304 of taxable gross receipts for each qualifying year that the 148305 distribution center receives a qualifying certificate under 148306 division (B)(3) of this section, except that, if the product is 148307 less than five per cent, the Ohio delivery percentage used shall 148308 be five per cent and that, if the product exceeds forty-nine per 148309 cent, the Ohio delivery percentage used shall be forty-nine per 148310 cent. 148311

(D) Qualifying certificates and Ohio delivery percentages 148312 issued by the commissioner shall be ~~open to public inspection and~~ 148313 ~~shall be~~ timely published ~~by the commissioner~~ on the department of 148314 taxation's web site and shall be accessible on that web site for 148315 at least four years after the date of issuance. A supplier relying 148316 in good faith on a certificate issued under this section shall not 148317 be subject to tax on the qualifying distribution center receipts 148318 under this section and division (F)(2)(z) of section 5751.01 of 148319 the Revised Code. An operator receiving a qualifying certificate 148320 is liable for the ineligible operator's supplier tax liability for 148321 each year the operator received a certificate but did not qualify 148322 as a qualified distribution center. 148323

(E) The tax commissioner shall determine an ineligible 148324 operator's supplier tax liability based on information that the 148325 commissioner may request from the operator of the distribution 148326 center. An operator shall provide a list of all suppliers of the 148327 distribution center and the corresponding costs of qualified 148328 property for the qualifying year at issue within sixty days of a 148329 request by the commissioner under this division. 148330

(F) The annual fee for a qualifying certificate shall be one 148331 hundred thousand dollars for each qualified distribution center. 148332
If a qualifying certificate is not issued, the annual fee is 148333 subject to refund after the exhaustion of all appeals provided for 148334 in division (B)(1) of this section. The first one hundred thousand 148335 dollars of the annual application fees collected each calendar 148336 year shall be credited to the revenue enhancement fund. The 148337 remainder of the annual application fees collected shall be 148338 distributed in the same manner required under section 5751.20 of 148339
the Revised Code. 148340

(G) The tax commissioner may require that adequate security 148341 be posted by the operator of the distribution center on appeal 148342 when the commissioner disagrees that the applicant has met the 148343 minimum thresholds for a qualified distribution center as set 148344 forth in this section. 148345 record shall make available all of the information within the 152938 public record that is not exempt. When making that public record 152939 public office or the person responsible for the public record 152941 shall notify the requester of any redaction or make the redaction 152942 plainly visible. A redaction shall be deemed a denial of a request 152943 to inspect or copy the redacted information, except if federal or 152944 state law authorizes or requires a public office to make the 152945 redaction. 152946

(2) To facilitate broader access to public records, a public 152947 office or the person responsible for public records shall organize 152948 the requested public record may deny the request but shall provide 152959 the requester with an opportunity to revise the request by 152960 informing the requester of the manner in which records are 152961

The explanation shall not preclude the public office or the person 152970 responsible for the requested public record from relying upon 152971 additional reasons or legal authority in defending an action 152972 commenced under division (C) of this section. 152973

(5) A public office or person responsible for public records 152982 may ask a requester to make the request in writing, may ask for 152983 the requester's identity, and may inquire about the intended use 152984 of the information requested, but may do so only after disclosing 152985 to the requester that a written request is not mandatory, that the 152986 requester may decline to reveal the requester's identity or the 152987 intended use, and when a written request or disclosure of the 152988 identity or intended use would benefit the requester by enhancing 152989 the ability of the public office or person responsible for public 152990 records to identify, locate, or deliver the public records sought 152991 by the requester. 152992

(6) If any person requests a copy of a public record in 152993 under this division. The public office or the person responsible 152998 for the public record shall permit the requester to choose to have 152999 the public record duplicated upon paper, upon the same medium upon 153000 which the public office or person responsible for the public 153001 office or person responsible for the public record determines that 153003 it reasonably can be duplicated as an integral part of the normal 153004 operations of the public office or person responsible for the 153005 public record. When the requester makes a choice under this 153006 division, the public office or person responsible for the public 153007 record shall provide a copy of it in accordance with the choice 153008 made by the requester. Nothing in this section requires a public 153009 office or person responsible for the public record to allow the 153010 requester of a copy of the public record to make the copies of the 153011 public record. 153012 transmit a copy of a public record to any person by United States 153016 agency, or wire service, a radio or television station, or a 153098 similar medium, for the purpose of gathering, processing, 153099 transmitting, compiling, editing, or disseminating information for 153100 the general public. 153101

(10) Upon a request made by a victim, victim's attorney, or 153102 victim's representative, as that term is used in section 2930.02 153103 of the Revised Code, a public office or person responsible for 153104 public records shall transmit a copy of a depiction of the victim 153105 as described in division (A)(1)(ii) of this section to the victim, 153106 victim's attorney, or victim's representative. 153107

(C)(1) If a person allegedly is aggrieved by the failure of a 153108 public office or the person responsible for public records to 153109 promptly prepare a public record and to make it available to the 153110 person for inspection in accordance with division (B) of this 153111 section or by any other failure of a public office or the person 153112 responsible for public records to comply with an obligation in 153113 accordance with division (B) of this section, the person allegedly 153114 aggrieved may do only one of the following, and not both: 153115

(a) File a complaint with the clerk of the court of claims or 153116 the clerk of the court of common pleas under section 2743.75 of 153117
the Revised Code; 153118

(b) Commence a mandamus action to obtain a judgment that 153119 orders the public office or the person responsible for the public 153120 record to comply with division (B) of this section, that awards 153121 court costs and reasonable attorney's fees to the person that 153122 instituted the mandamus action, and, if applicable, that includes 153123 an order fixing statutory damages under division (C)(2) of this 153124 section. The mandamus action may be commenced in the court of 153125 common pleas of the county in which division (B) of this section 153126 allegedly was not complied with, in the supreme court pursuant to 153127 its original jurisdiction under Section 2 of Article IV, Ohio 153128

Constitution, or in the court of appeals for the appellate 153129 district in which division (B) of this section allegedly was not 153130 complied with pursuant to its original jurisdiction under Section 153131
3 of Article IV, Ohio Constitution. 153132

(2) If a requester transmits a written request by hand 153133 delivery, electronic submission, or certified mail to inspect or 153134 receive copies of any public record in a manner that fairly 153135 describes the public record or class of public records to the 153136 public office or person responsible for the requested public 153137 records, except as otherwise provided in this section, the 153138 requester shall be entitled to recover the amount of statutory 153139 damages set forth in this division if a court determines that the 153140 public office or the person responsible for public records failed 153141 to comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of 153142
this section. 153143

The amount of statutory damages shall be fixed at one hundred 153144 dollars for each business day during which the public office or 153145 person responsible for the requested public records failed to 153146 comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this 153147 section, beginning with the day on which the requester files a 153148 mandamus action to recover statutory damages, up to a maximum of 153149 one thousand dollars. The award of statutory damages shall not be 153150 construed as a penalty, but as compensation for injury arising 153151 from lost use of the requested information. The existence of this 153152 injury shall be conclusively presumed. The award of statutory 153153 damages shall be in addition to all other remedies authorized by 153154
this section. 153155

The court may reduce an award of statutory damages or not 153156 award statutory damages if the court determines both of the 153157
following: 153158

(a) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory law 153159 and case law as it existed at the time of the conduct or 153160 threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible for 153161

the requested public records that allegedly constitutes a failure 153162
to comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of 153163 this section and that was the basis of the mandamus action, a 153164
well-informed public office or person responsible for the 153165 requested public records reasonably would believe that the conduct 153166 or threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible 153167 for the requested public records did not constitute a failure to 153168 comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this 153169
section; 153170

(b) That a well-informed public office or person responsible 153171 for the requested public records reasonably would believe that the 153172 conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person 153173 responsible for the requested public records would serve the 153174 public policy that underlies the authority that is asserted as 153175 permitting that conduct or threatened conduct. 153176

(3) In a mandamus action filed under division (C)(1) of this 153177 section, the following apply: 153178

(a)(i) If the court orders the public office or the person 153179 responsible for the public record to comply with division (B) of 153180 this section, the court shall determine and award to the relator 153181 all court costs, which shall be construed as remedial and not 153182 punitive. 153183

(ii) If the court makes a determination described in division 153184
(C)(3)(b)(iii) of this section, the court shall determine and 153185 award to the relator all court costs, which shall be construed as 153186 remedial and not punitive. 153187

(b) If the court renders a judgment that orders the public 153188 office or the person responsible for the public record to comply 153189 with division (B) of this section or if the court determines any 153190 of the following, the court may award reasonable attorney's fees 153191 to the relator, subject to division (C)(4) of this section: 153192

(i) The public office or the person responsible for the 153193 public records failed to respond affirmatively or negatively to 153194 the public records request in accordance with the time allowed 153195
under division (B) of this section. 153196

(ii) The public office or the person responsible for the 153197 public records promised to permit the relator to inspect or 153198 receive copies of the public records requested within a specified 153199 period of time but failed to fulfill that promise within that 153200 specified period of time. 153201

(iii) The public office or the person responsible for the 153202 public records acted in bad faith when the office or person 153203 voluntarily made the public records available to the relator for 153204 the first time after the relator commenced the mandamus action, 153205 but before the court issued any order concluding whether or not 153206 the public office or person was required to comply with division 153207 (B) of this section. No discovery may be conducted on the issue of 153208 the alleged bad faith of the public office or person responsible 153209 for the public records. This division shall not be construed as 153210 creating a presumption that the public office or the person 153211 responsible for the public records acted in bad faith when the 153212 office or person voluntarily made the public records available to 153213 the relator for the first time after the relator commenced the 153214 mandamus action, but before the court issued any order described 153215 in this division. 153216

(c) The court shall not award attorney's fees to the relator 153217 if the court determines both of the following: 153218

(i) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory law 153219 and case law as it existed at the time of the conduct or 153220
threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible for 153221
the requested public records that allegedly constitutes a failure 153222

to comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of 153223
this section and that was the basis of the mandamus action, a 153224
well-informed public office or person responsible for the 153225
requested public records reasonably would believe that the conduct 153226
or threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible 153227
for the requested public records did not constitute a failure to 153228 comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this 153229
section; 153230

(ii) That a well-informed public office or person responsible 153231
for the requested public records reasonably would believe that the 153232 conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person 153233 responsible for the requested public records would serve the 153234
public policy that underlies the authority that is asserted as 153235
permitting that conduct or threatened conduct. 153236

(4) All of the following apply to any award of reasonable 153237 attorney's fees awarded under division (C)(3)(b) of this section: 153238

(a) The fees shall be construed as remedial and not punitive. 153239

(b) The fees awarded shall not exceed the total of the 153240 reasonable attorney's fees incurred before the public record was 153241 made available to the relator and the fees described in division 153242
(C)(4)(c) of this section. 153243

(c) Reasonable attorney's fees shall include reasonable fees 153244 incurred to produce proof of the reasonableness and amount of the 153245 fees and to otherwise litigate entitlement to the fees. 153246

(d) The court may reduce the amount of fees awarded if the 153247 court determines that, given the factual circumstances involved 153248 with the specific public records request, an alternative means 153249 should have been pursued to more effectively and efficiently 153250 resolve the dispute that was subject to the mandamus action filed 153251
under division (C)(1) of this section. 153252

(5) If the court does not issue a writ of mandamus under 153253 division (C) of this section and the court determines at that time 153254 that the bringing of the mandamus action was frivolous conduct as 153255 defined in division (A) of section 2323.51 of the Revised Code, 153256 the court may award to the public office all court costs, 153257 expenses, and reasonable attorney's fees, as determined by the 153258

court. 153259

(D) Chapter 1347. of the Revised Code does not limit the 153260 provisions of this section. 153261

(E)(1) To ensure that all employees of public offices are 153262 appropriately educated about a public office's obligations under 153263 division (B) of this section, all elected officials or their 153264 appropriate designees shall attend training approved by the 153265 attorney general as provided in section 109.43 of the Revised 153266 Code. A future official may satisfy the requirements of this 153267 division by attending the training before taking office, provided 153268 that the future official may not send a designee in the future 153269 official's place. 153270

(2) All public offices shall adopt a public records policy in 153271 compliance with this section for responding to public records 153272 requests. In adopting a public records policy under this division, 153273 a public office may obtain guidance from the model public records 153274 policy developed and provided to the public office by the attorney 153275 general under section 109.43 of the Revised Code. Except as 153276 otherwise provided in this section, the policy may not limit the 153277 number of public records that the public office will make 153278 available to a single person, may not limit the number of public 153279 records that it will make available during a fixed period of time, 153280 and may not establish a fixed period of time before it will 153281 respond to a request for inspection or copying of public records, 153282 unless that period is less than eight hours. 153283

The public office shall distribute the public records policy 153284 adopted by the public office under this division to the employee 153285 of the public office who is the records custodian or records manager or otherwise has custody of the records of that office. The public office shall require that employee to acknowledge receipt of the copy of the public records policy. The public office shall create a poster that describes its public records policy and shall post the poster in a conspicuous place in the public office and in all locations where the public office has branch offices. The public office may post its public records policy on the internet web site of the public office if the public office maintains an internet web site. A public office that has established a manual or handbook of its general policies and procedures for all employees of the public offices shall include the public records policy of the public office in the manual or handbook.

(F)(1) The bureau of motor vehicles may adopt rules pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to reasonably limit the number of bulk commercial special extraction requests made by a person for the same records or for updated records during a calendar year. The rules may include provisions for charges to be made for bulk commercial special extraction requests for the actual cost of the bureau, plus special extraction costs, plus ten per cent. The bureau may charge for expenses for redacting information, the release of which is prohibited by law.

(2) As used in division (F)(1) of this section:

class of records, or database by a person who intends to use or 153319 forward the copies for surveys, marketing, solicitation, or resale 153320 for commercial purposes. "Bulk commercial special extraction 153321 request" does not include a request by a person who gives 153322 assurance to the bureau that the person making the request does 153323 not intend to use or forward the requested copies for surveys, 153324 marketing, solicitation, or resale for commercial purposes. 153325

(c) "Commercial" means profit-seeking production, buying, or 153326 selling of any good, service, or other product. 153327

(d) "Special extraction costs" means the cost of the time 153328 spent by the lowest paid employee competent to perform the task, 153329 the actual amount paid to outside private contractors employed by 153330 the bureau, or the actual cost incurred to create computer 153331 programs to make the special extraction. "Special extraction 153332 costs" include any charges paid to a public agency for computer or 153333 records services. 153334

(3) For purposes of divisions (F)(1) and (2) of this section, 153335
"surveys, marketing, solicitation, or resale for commercial 153336 purposes" shall be narrowly construed and does not include 153337 reporting or gathering news, reporting or gathering information to 153338 assist citizen oversight or understanding of the operation or 153339 activities of government, or nonprofit educational research. 153340

(G) A request by a defendant, counsel of a defendant, or any 153341 agent of a defendant in a criminal action that public records 153342 related to that action be made available under this section shall 153343 be considered a demand for discovery pursuant to the Criminal 153344 Rules, except to the extent that the Criminal Rules plainly 153345 indicate a contrary intent. The defendant, counsel of the 153346 defendant, or agent of the defendant making a request under this 153347 division shall serve a copy of the request on the prosecuting 153348 attorney, director of law, or other chief legal officer 153349 responsible for prosecuting the action. 153350

(H)(1) Any portion of a body-worn camera or dashboard camera 153351 recording described in divisions (A)(17)(b) to (h) of this section 153352 may be released by consent of the subject of the recording or a 153353 representative of that person, as specified in those divisions, 153354 only if either of the following applies: 153355

(a) The recording will not be used in connection with any 153356 probable or pending criminal proceedings; 153357

(b) The recording has been used in connection with a criminal 153358 proceeding that was dismissed or for which a judgment has been 153359 entered pursuant to Rule 32 of the Rules of Criminal Procedure, 153360 and will not be used again in connection with any probable or 153361 pending criminal proceedings. 153362

(2) If a public office denies a request to release a 153363 restricted portion of a body-worn camera or dashboard camera 153364 recording, as defined in division (A)(17) of this section, any 153365 person may file a mandamus action pursuant to this section or a 153366 complaint with the clerk of the court of claims pursuant to 153367 section 2743.75 of the Revised Code, requesting the court to order 153368 the release of all or portions of the recording. If the court 153369 considering the request determines that the filing articulates by 153370 clear and convincing evidence that the public interest in the 153371 recording substantially outweighs privacy interests and other 153372 interests asserted to deny release, the court shall order the 153373 public office to release the recording. 153374

Any approved increases are hereby appropriated. 155656-155662

DIVISION OF REAL ESTATE AND PROFESSIONAL LICENSING 155663

The foregoing appropriation item 800631, Real Estate Appraisal Recovery, shall be used to pay settlements, judgments, and court orders under section 4763.16 of the Revised Code. If it is determined by the Director of Commerce that additional appropriation amounts are necessary to make such payments, the Director of Commerce may request that the Director of Budget and Management approve such increases. The foregoing appropriation item 800611, Real Estate Recovery, shall be used to pay settlements, judgments, and court 155672-155673 orders under section 4735.12 of the Revised Code. If it is 155674 determined by the Director of Commerce that additional 155675 appropriation amounts are necessary to make such payments, the 155676 Director of Commerce may request that the Director of Budget and 155677 Management approve such increases. Any approved increases are 155678 hereby appropriated. 155687

REAL ESTATE SALESPERSON LICENSE GRANTS 155688

Notwithstanding section 4735.06 of the Revised Code, or any 155689 other law to the contrary, the Superintendent of the Division of 155690 Real Estate and Professional Licensing may provide grants, not 155691 exceeding $2,000, to applicants for salesperson licenses to defray 155692 the costs of satisfying the educational requirements of division 155693 (F) of section 4735.09 of the Revised Code. No more than $25,000 155694 shall be granted from the Division of Real Estate Operating Fund 155695 (Fund 5490) in any one fiscal year. 155696

FIRE DEPARTMENT GRANTS 155697

(A) The foregoing appropriation item 800639, Fire Department 155698 Grants, shall be used to make annual grants to the following 155699 eligible recipients: volunteer fire departments, fire departments 155700 that serve one or more small municipalities or small townships, 155701 joint fire districts comprised of fire departments that primarily 155702 serve small municipalities or small townships, local units of 155703 government responsible for such fire departments, and local units 155704 of government responsible for the provision of fire protection 155705 services for small municipalities or small townships. For the 155706 purposes of these grants, a private fire company, as that phrase 155707 is defined in section 9.60 of the Revised Code, that is providing 155708 fire protection services under a contract to a political 155709 subdivision of the state, is an additional eligible recipient for 155710 a training grant. 155711

Eligible recipients that consist of small municipalities or 155712 small townships that all intend to contract with the same fire 155713 department or private fire company for fire protection services 155714 may jointly apply and be considered for a grant. If a joint 155715 applicant is awarded a grant, the State Fire Marshal shall, if 155716 feasible, proportionately award the grant and any equipment 155717 purchased with grant funds to each of the joint applicants based 155718 upon each applicant's contribution to and demonstrated need for 155719 fire protection services. For the purpose of this grant program, 155720 an eligible recipient or any firefighting entity that is 155721 contracted to serve an eligible recipient may only file, be listed 155722 as joint applicant, or be designated as a service provider on one 155723 grant application per fiscal year. 155724

If the grant awarded to joint applicants is an equipment 155725 grant and the equipment to be purchased cannot be readily 155726 distributed or possessed by multiple recipients, each of the joint 155727 applicants shall be awarded by the State Fire Marshal an ownership 155728 interest in the equipment so purchased in proportion to each 155729 applicant's contribution to and demonstrated need for fire 155730 protection services. The joint applicants shall then mutually 155731 agree on how the equipment is to be maintained, operated, stored, 155732 or disposed of. If, for any reason, the joint applicants cannot 155733 agree as to how jointly owned equipment is to be maintained, 155734 operated, stored, or disposed of or any of the joint applicants no 155735 longer maintain a contract with the same fire protection service 155736 provider as the other applicants, then the joint applicants shall, 155737 with the assistance of the State Fire Marshal, mutually agree as 155738 to how the jointly owned equipment is to be maintained, operated, 155739 stored, disposed of, or owned. If the joint applicants cannot 155740 agree how the grant equipment is to be maintained, operated, 155741 stored, disposed of, or owned, the State Fire Marshal may, in its 155742 discretion, require all of the equipment acquired by the joint 155743 applicants with grant funds to be returned to the State Fire 155744 Marshal. The State Fire Marshal may then award the returned 155745 equipment to any eligible recipients. For this paragraph only, an 155746

"equipment grant" also includes a MARCS Grant. 155747

(B) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the grants 155748 shall be used by recipients to purchase firefighting or rescue 155749 equipment or gear or similar items, to provide full or partial 155750 reimbursement for the documented costs of firefighter training, 155751 or, at the discretion of the State Fire Marshal, to cover fire 155752 department costs for providing fire protection services in that 155753 grant recipient's jurisdiction. 155754

(1) Of the foregoing appropriation item 800639, Fire 155755
Department Grants, up to $1,300,000 per fiscal year may be used to 155756 pay for the State Fire Marshal's costs of providing firefighter I 155757 certification classes or other firefighter classes approved by the 155758 State Fire Marshal at no cost to selected students attending the 155759
Ohio Fire Academy or other class providers approved by the State 155760 Fire Marshal. The State Fire Marshal may establish the 155761 qualifications and selection processes for students to attend such 155762 classes by written policy, and such students shall be considered 155763 eligible recipients of fire department grants for the purposes of 155764 this portion of the grant program. 155765

(2) Of the foregoing appropriation item 800639, Fire 155766
Department Grants, up to $4,000,000 in each fiscal year may be 155767 used for MARCS Grants. MARCS Grants may be used for the payment of 155768 user access fees by the eligible recipient to cover costs for 155769 accessing MARCS. 155770

For purposes of this section, a MARCS Grant is a grant for 155771 systems, equipment, or services that are a part of, integrated 155772 into, or otherwise interoperable with the Multi-Agency Radio 155773 Communication System (MARCS) operated by the state. 155774

MARCS Grant awards may be up to $50,000 in each fiscal year 155775 per eligible recipient. Each eligible recipient may apply, as a 155776 separate entity or as a part of a joint application, for only one 155777 MARCS Grant per fiscal year. The State Fire Marshal may give a 155778 preference to MARCS Grants that will enhance the overall 155779 interoperability and effectiveness of emergency communication 155780 networks in the geographic region that includes and that is 155781 adjacent to the applicant. 155782

Eligible recipients that are or were awarded fire department 155783 grants that are not MARCS Grants may also apply for and receive 155784 MARCS Grants in accordance with criteria for the awarding of grant 155785 funds established by the State Fire Marshal. 155786

(3) Grant awards for firefighting or rescue equipment or gear 155787 or for fire department costs of providing fire protection services 155788 shall be up to $15,000 per fiscal year, or up to $25,000 per 155789 fiscal year if an eligible entity serves a jurisdiction in which 155790 the Governor declared a natural disaster during the preceding or 155791 current fiscal year in which the grant was awarded. In addition to 155792 any grant funds awarded for rescue equipment or gear, or for fire 155793 department costs associated with the provision of fire protection 155794 services, an eligible entity may receive a grant for up to $15,000 155795 per fiscal year for full or partial reimbursement of the 155796 documented costs of firefighter training. For each fiscal year, 155797 the State Fire Marshal shall determine the total amounts to be 155798 allocated for each eligible purpose. 155799

(C) The grants shall be administered by the State Fire Marshal in accordance with rules the State Fire Marshal adopts as part of the state fire code adopted pursuant to section 3737.82 of the Revised Code that are necessary for the administration and operation of the grant program. The rules may further define the entities eligible to receive grants and establish criteria for the awarding and expenditure of grant funds, including methods the State Fire Marshal may use to verify the proper use of grant funds or to obtain reimbursement for or the return of equipment for improperly used grant funds. To the extent consistent with this section and until the rules are updated, the existing rules in the state fire code adopted pursuant to section 3737.82 of the Revised Code for fire department grants under this section apply to MARCS Grants. Any amounts in appropriation item 800639, Fire Department Grants, in excess of the amount allocated for these grants may be used for the administration of the grant program.

(D) Of the foregoing appropriation item 800639, Fire Department Grants, $15,000 in each fiscal year shall be allocated to the Northwestern Ohio Volunteer Firemen's Association fire school.

DIVISION OF MARIJUANA CONTROL

The foregoing appropriation item 800650, Medical Marijuana Control Program, shall be used by the Department of Commerce to support the operation of the Division of Marijuana Control, including expenditures related to the transfer of the medical marijuana control program into the Department. If additional amounts are available in the Medical Marijuana Control Fund (Fund 5SY0), and additional amounts are necessary to transfer the program, the Director of Commerce may certify to the Director of the Office of Budget and Management the amount of additional appropriation necessary for this purpose. Upon approval by the Director of the Office of Budget and Management, that amount is hereby appropriated. 155832

provider provides to a qualifying IO enrollee during the period 157082

(D) CALCULATION OF STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FORMULA	164784
ENTITLEMENTS AND ADJUSTMENTS FOR UNIVERSITIES	164785
(1) Of the foregoing appropriation item 235501, State Share	164786
of Instruction, 50 per cent of the appropriation for universities,	164787
as established in division (A)(2) of the section of this act	164788 entitled "STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FOR FISCAL YEARS 2024 AND	164789
2025," in each fiscal year shall be reserved for support of	164790 associate, baccalaureate, master's, and professional level degree	164791 attainment.	164792
The degree attainment funding shall be allocated to	164793 universities in proportion to each campus's share of the total	164794 statewide degrees granted, weighted by the cost of the degree	164795 programs. The degree cost calculations shall include the model	164796 cost weights for the science, technology, engineering,	164797 mathematics, and medicine models as established in division (C) of	164798
this section.	164799
For degrees including credits earned at multiple	164800 institutions, degree attainment funding shall be allocated to	164801 universities in proportion to each campus's share of the	164802 student-specific cost of earned credits for the degree. Each	164803 institution shall receive its prorated share of degree funding for	164804 credits earned at that institution. Cost of credits not earned at	164805
a university main or regional campus shall be credited to the	164806 degree-granting institution for the first degree earned by a	164807 student at each degree level. The cost credited to the	164808 degree-granting institution shall not be eligible for at-risk	164809 weights and shall be limited to 12.5 per cent of the	164810 student-specific degree costs. However, the 12.5 per cent	164811 limitation shall not apply if the student transferred 12 or fewer	164812 credits into the degree granting institution.	164813
In calculating the subsidy entitlements for degree attainment	164814 for universities, the Chancellor shall use the following count of 164815 degrees and degree costs: 164816

(a) The subsidy eligible undergraduate degrees shall be 164817 defined as follows: 164818

(i) The subsidy eligible degrees conferred to students 164819 identified as residents of the state of Ohio in any term of their 164820 studies, as reported through the Higher Education Information 164821 (HEI) system student enrollment file, shall be weighted by a 164822 factor of 1. 164823

(ii) The subsidy eligible degrees conferred to students 164824 identified as out-of-state residents during all terms of their 164825 studies, as reported through the Higher Education Information 164826 (HEI) system student enrollment file, who remain in the state of 164827 Ohio at least one year after graduation, as calculated based on 164828 the three-year average in-state residency rate using the 164829 Unemployment Wage data for out-of-state graduates at each 164830 institution, shall be weighted by a factor of 50 per cent. 164831

(iii) Subsidy eligible associate degrees are defined as those 164832 earned by students attending any state-supported university main 164833 or regional campus. 164834

(b) In calculating each campus's count of degrees, the 164835 Chancellor shall use the three-year average associate, 164836 baccalaureate, master's, and professional degrees awarded for the 164837 most recent completed three-year period that is practicable as 164838 agreed to by the Inter-University Council and the Chancellor. 164839

(i) If a student is awarded an associate degree and, 164840 subsequently, is awarded a baccalaureate degree, the amount funded 164841 for the baccalaureate degree shall be limited to either the 164842 difference in cost between the cost of the baccalaureate degree 164843 and the cost of the associate degree paid previously, or if the 164844 associate degree has a higher cost than the baccalaureate degree, 164845

the cost of the credits earned by the student after the associate degree was awarded. 164846 164847

(ii) If a student earns an associate degree then, 164848 subsequently, earns a baccalaureate degree, the associate degree 164849 granting institution shall only receive the prorated share of the 164850 baccalaureate degree funding for the credits earned at that 164851 institution after the associate degree is awarded. 164852

(iii) If a student earns more than one degree at the same 164853 institution at the same degree level in the same fiscal year, the 164854 funding for the highest cost degree shall be prorated among 164855 institutions based on where the credits were earned and additional 164856 degrees shall be funded at 25 per cent of the cost of the degrees. 164857

(c) Associate degrees and baccalaureate degrees earned by a 164858 student defined as at-risk based on academic under-preparation, 164859 age, minority status, financial status, or first generation 164860 post-secondary status based on neither parent completing any 164861 education beyond high school, shall be defined as degrees earned 164862 by an at-risk student and shall be weighted by the following: 164863

A student-specific degree completion weight, where the weight 164864 is calculated based on the at-risk factors of the individual 164865 student, determined by calculating the difference between the 164866 percentage of students with each risk factor who earned a degree 164867 and the percentage of non-at-risk students who earned a degree. 164868

(2) Of the foregoing appropriation item 235501, State Share 164869 of Instruction, up to 11.78 per cent of the appropriation for 164870 universities, as established in division (A)(2) of the section of 164871
this act entitled "STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FOR FISCAL YEARS 164872 2024 AND 2025," in each fiscal year shall be reserved for support 164873 of doctoral programs to implement the funding recommendations made 164874 by representatives of the universities. The amount so reserved 164875 shall be referred to as the doctoral set-aside. 164876

In each fiscal year, the doctoral set-aside funding 164877 allocation shall be allocated to universities as follows: 164878

(a) 25 per cent of the doctoral set-aside shall be allocated 164879 to universities in proportion to their share of the statewide 164880 total earnings of each state institution's three-year average 164881 course completions. The subsidy eligible enrollments by model 164882 shall equal only those FTE students who successfully complete the 164883 course as defined and reported through the Higher Education 164884 Information (HEI) system course enrollment file. Course completion 164885 earnings shall be determined by multiplying the amounts listed 164886 above in divisions (B) and (C) of this section by the 164887 subsidy-eligible FTEs for the most recent completed three-year 164888 period that is practicable as agreed to by the Inter-University 164889 Council and the Chancellor for all doctoral enrollments in 164890 graduate-level models. 164891

(b) 50 per cent of the doctoral set-aside shall be allocated 164892 to universities in proportion to each campus's share of the total 164893 statewide doctoral degrees, weighted by the cost of the doctoral 164894 discipline. In calculating each campus's doctoral degrees the 164895 Chancellor shall use the three-year average doctoral degrees 164896 awarded for the most recent completed three-year period that is 164897 practicable as agreed to by the Inter-University Council and the 164898 Chancellor. 164899

(c) 25 per cent of the doctoral set-aside shall be allocated 164900 to universities in proportion to their share of research grant 164901 activity. Funding for this component shall be allocated to 164902 eligible universities in proportion to their share of research 164903 grant activity published by the National Science Foundation. Grant 164904 awards from the Department of Health and Human Services shall be 164905 weighted at 50 per cent. 164906

(3) Of the foregoing appropriation item 235501, State Share 164907
of Instruction, 6.41 per cent of the appropriation for 164908

universities, as established in division (A)(2) of the section of 164909
this act entitled "STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FOR FISCAL YEARS 164910 2024 AND 2025," in each fiscal year shall be reserved for support 164911 of Medical II FTEs. The amount so reserved shall be referred to as 164912 the medical II set-aside. 164913

The medical II set-aside shall be allocated to universities 164914 in proportion to their share of the statewide total of each state 164915 institution's three-year average Medical II FTEs as calculated in 164916 division (A) of this section. 164917

In calculating the core subsidy entitlements for Medical II 164918 models only, students repeating terms may be no more than five per 164919 cent of current year enrollment. 164920

(4) Of the foregoing appropriation item 235501, State Share 164921
of Instruction, 1.48 per cent of the appropriation for 164922
universities, as established in division (A)(2) of the section of 164923
this act entitled "STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FOR FISCAL YEARS 164924 2024 AND 2025," in each fiscal year shall be reserved for support 164925 of Medical I FTEs. The amount so reserved shall be referred to as 164926 the medical I set-aside. 164927

The medical I set-aside shall be allocated to universities in 164928 proportion to their share of the statewide total of each state 164929 institution's three-year average Medical I FTEs as calculated in 164930 division (A) of this section. 164931

(5) In calculating the course completion funding for 164932 universities, the Chancellor shall use the following count of FTE 164933 students: 164934

(a) The subsidy eligible enrollments by model shall equal 164935 only those FTE students who successfully complete the course as 164936 defined and reported through the Higher Education Information 164937
(HEI) system course enrollment file; 164938

(b) Those undergraduate FTE students with successful course 164939 completions, identified in division (D)(5)(a) of this section, 164940 that are defined as at-risk based on academic under-preparation or 164941 financial status shall have their eligible completions weighted by 164942

the following: 164943

(i) Institution-specific course completion indexes, where the 164944 indexes are calculated based upon the number of at-risk students 164945 enrolled during the prior three calendar years; and 164946

(ii) A statewide average at-risk course completion weight 164947 determined for each subsidy model. The statewide average at-risk 164948 course completion weight shall be determined by calculating the 164949 difference between the percentage of traditional students who 164950 complete a course and the percentage of at-risk students who 164951 complete the same course. 164952

(c) The course completion earnings shall be determined by 164953 multiplying the amounts listed above in divisions (B) and (C) of 164954 this section by the subsidy-eligible FTEs for the most recent 164955 completed three-year period that is practicable as agreed to by 164956 the Inter-University Council and the Chancellor for all models 164957 except Medical I and Medical II. 164958

(d) For universities, the Chancellor shall compute the course 164959 completion earnings by dividing the appropriation for 164960 universities, established in division (A)(2) of the section of 164961
this act entitled "STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FOR FISCAL YEARS 164962 2024 AND 2025," less the degree attainment funding as calculated 164963 in division (D)(1) of this section, less the doctoral set-aside, 164964 less the medical I set-aside, and less the medical II set-aside, 164965 by the sum of all campuses' instructional costs as calculated in 164966 division (D)(5) of this section. 164967

(E) CALCULATION OF STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FORMULA 164968
ENTITLEMENTS AND ADJUSTMENTS FOR COMMUNITY COLLEGES 164969

(1) Of the foregoing appropriation item 235501, State Share 164970

of Instruction, 50 per cent of the appropriation for 164971
state-supported community colleges, state community colleges, and 164972 technical colleges as established in division (A)(1) of the 164973 section of this act entitled "STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FOR 164974 FISCAL YEARS 2024 AND 2025," in each fiscal year shall be reserved 164975 for course completion FTEs as aggregated by the subsidy models 164976 defined in division (B) of this section. 164977

The course completion funding shall be allocated to campuses 164978 in proportion to each campus's share of the total sector's course 164979 completions, weighted by the instructional cost of the subsidy 164980 models. 164981

To calculate the subsidy entitlements for course completions 164982 at community colleges, state community colleges, and technical 164983 colleges, the Chancellor shall use the following calculations: 164984

(a) In calculating each campus's count of FTE course 164985 completions, the Chancellor shall use a three-year average for 164986 course completions for the three-year period ending in the prior 164987 year for students identified as residents of the state of Ohio in 164988 any term of their studies, as reported through the Higher 164989
Education Information (HEI) system student enrollment file. 164990

(b) The subsidy eligible enrollments by model shall equal 164991
only those FTE students who successfully complete the course as 164992
defined and reported through the Higher Education Information 164993
(HEI) system course enrollment file. 164994

(c) Those students with successful course completions, that 164995 are defined as access students based on financial status, minority 164996 status, age, or academic under-preparation shall have their 164997 eligible course completions weighted by a statewide access weight. 164998
The weight given to any student that meets any access factor shall 164999 be 15 per cent for all course completions. 165000

(d) The model costs as used in the calculation shall be 165001 augmented by the model weights for science, technology, 165002 engineering, mathematics, and medicine models as established in 165003

division (C) of this section. 165004

(2) Of the foregoing appropriation item 235501, State Share 165005
of Instruction, 25 per cent of the appropriation for 165006
state-supported community colleges, state community colleges, and 165007
technical colleges as established in division (A)(1) of the 165008
section of this act entitled "STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FOR 165009 FISCAL YEARS 2024 AND 2025," in each fiscal year shall be reserved 165010 for colleges in proportion to their share of college student 165011 success factors. 165012

Student success factors shall be awarded at the institutional 165013 level for each subsidy-eligible student that successfully: 165014

(a) Completes a college-level math course within the first 30 165015 hours of completed coursework. 165016

(b) Completes a college-level English course within the first 165017
30 hours of completed coursework. 165018

(c) Completes 12 semester credit hours of college-level 165019 coursework. 165020

(d) Completes 24 semester credit hours of college-level 165021
coursework. 165022

(e) Completes 36 semester credit hours of college-level 165023
coursework. 165024

(3) Of the foregoing appropriation item 235501, State Share 165025
of Instruction, 25 per cent of the appropriation for 165026
state-supported community colleges, state community colleges, and 165027
technical colleges as established in division (A)(1) of the 165028
section of this act entitled "STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FOR 165029 FISCAL YEARS 2024 AND 2025," in each fiscal year shall be reserved 165030
for completion milestones. 165031

Completion milestones shall include baccalaureate degrees, 165032 associate degrees, technical certificates over 30 credit hours as 165033 designated by the Department of Higher Education, and students 165034 transferring to any four-year institution with at least 12 credit 165035 hours of college-level coursework earned at that community 165036 college, state community college, or technical college. 165037

The completion milestone funding shall be allocated to 165038 colleges in proportion to each institution's share of the sector's 165039 total completion milestones, weighted by the instructional cost of 165040 the degree, certificate, or transfer models. Costs for technical 165041 certificates over 30 hours shall be weighted at one-half of the 165042 associate degree model costs and transfers with at least 12 credit 165043 hours of college-level coursework shall be weighted at one-fourth 165044 of the average cost for all associate degree model costs. 165045

(4) To calculate the subsidy entitlements for completions at 165046 community colleges, state community colleges, and technical 165047 colleges, the Chancellor shall use the following calculations: 165048

(a) In calculating each campus's count of completions, the 165049
Chancellor shall use a three-year average for completion 165050 milestones awarded to students identified as subsidy eligible in 165051 any term of their studies, as reported through the Higher 165052
Education Information (HEI) system student enrollment file. 165053

(b) The subsidy eligible completion milestones by model shall 165054 equal only those students who successfully complete a 165055 baccalaureate or an associate degree, or technical certificate 165056 over 30 credit hours, or transfer to any four-year institution 165057 with at least 12 credit hours of college-level coursework as 165058 defined and reported in the Higher Education Information (HEI) 165059 system. Student completions reported in HEI shall have an 165060 accompanying course enrollment record in order to be subsidy 165061 eligible. 165062

(c) Those students with successful completions for 165063 baccalaureate or associate degrees, technical certificates over 30 165064 credit hours, or transfer to any four-year institution with at 165065 least 12 credit hours of college-level coursework, identified in 165066 division (E)(3) of this section, that are defined as access 165067 students based on financial status, minority status, age, or 165068 academic under-preparation shall have their eligible completions 165069 weighted by a statewide access weight. The weight shall be 25 per 165070 cent for students with one access factor, 66 per cent for students 165071 with two access factors, 150 per cent for students with three 165072 access factors, and 200 per cent for students with four access 165073 factors. 165074

(d) For those students who complete more than one completion 165075 milestone, funding for each additional degree or technical 165076 certificate over 30 credit hours designated as such by the 165077 Department of Higher Education shall be funded at 50 per cent of 165078 the model costs as defined in division (E)(3) of this section. 165079

(5) For purposes of the calculations made in division (E) of 165080 this section, the Chancellor shall only include subsidy-eligible 165081 students identified as residents of the state of Ohio in any term 165082 of their studies, as reported through the Higher Education 165083 Information (HEI) system student enrollment file. The Chancellor 165084 shall be prohibited from including nonresident students as 165085 subsidy-eligible except for those students otherwise identified as 165086 subsidy-eligible in division (A)(2) of this section. 165087

(F) CAPITAL COMPONENT DEDUCTION 165088

After all other adjustments have been made, state share of 165089 instruction earnings shall be reduced for each campus by the 165090 amount, if any, by which debt service charged in H.B. 16 of the 165091 126th General Assembly, H.B. 699 of the 126th General Assembly, 165092
H.B. 496 of the 127th General Assembly, and H.B. 562 of the 127th 165093 General Assembly for that campus exceeds that campus's capital 165094 component earnings. The sum of the amounts deducted shall be 165095 transferred to appropriation item 235552, Capital Component, in 165096 each fiscal year. 165097

(G) EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES 165098

Adjustments may be made to the state share of instruction 165099

Each state institution of higher education in its statement 165249 of charges to students shall separately identify the instructional 165250 fee, the general fee, the tuition charge, and the tuition 165251 support of higher educational opportunity for students. 165255

(C) The boards of trustees of state institutions of higher 165256 education shall ensure that faculty members devote a proper and 165257 exclusive prerogative of boards of trustees. Any delegation of 165270 authority by a board of trustees in other areas of responsibility 165271 shall be accompanied by appropriate standards of guidance 165272 concerning expected objectives in the exercise of such delegated 165273 authority and shall be accompanied by periodic review of the 165274 interest, in contrast to any institutional or special interest, 165276 equals the amount allocated under this section. 167105

(F) Funds awarded under this section must be used to support 167106 expenses directly related to the operation of an early childhood education program. Costs for developing and administering an early childhood education program may not exceed fifteen per cent of the total approved costs of the program.

All providers shall maintain such fiscal control and accounting procedures as may be necessary to ensure the disbursement of, and accounting for, these funds. The control of funds provided in this program, and title to property obtained, shall be under the authority of the approved provider for purposes provided in the program unless, as described in division (K) of this section, the program waives its right for funding or a program's funding is eliminated or reduced due to its inability to meet financial or early learning program standards. The approved provider shall administer and use such property and funds for the purposes specified.

Department or obtained by the early childhood education program. 167139
The Department may withhold funding pending corrective action. If 167140 an early childhood education program fails to satisfactorily 167141 complete a corrective action plan, the Department may deny 167142 expansion funding to the program or withdraw all or part of the 167143 funding to the program and establish a new eligible provider 167144 through a selection process established by the Department. 167145

(H)(1) If the early childhood education program is not highly 167146 rated, as determined by the Director of Children and Youth, under 167147 the Step Up to Quality program established pursuant to section 167148 5104.29 of the Revised Code, the program shall do all of the 167149
following: 167150

(a) Meet teacher qualification requirements prescribed by 167151
section 3301.311 of the Revised Code; 167152

(b) Align curriculum to the early learning content standards 167153

(c) Meet any child or program assessment requirements 167155 prescribed by the Department; 167156

(d) Require teachers, except teachers enrolled and working to 167157 obtain a degree pursuant to section 3301.311 of the Revised Code, 167158 to attend a minimum of twenty hours every two years of 167159 professional development as prescribed by the Department; 167160

(e) Document and report child progress as prescribed by the 167161
Department; 167162

(f) Meet and report compliance with the early learning 167163 program standards as prescribed by the Department; 167164

(g) Participate in the Step Up to Quality program established 167165 pursuant to section 5104.29 of the Revised Code. 167166

(2) If the program is highly rated, as determined by the 167167
Director of Children and Youth, under the Step Up to Quality 167168 program established pursuant to section 5104.29 of the Revised Code, the program shall comply with the requirements of that program.

(I) Per-pupil funding for programs subject to this section shall be sufficient to provide eligible children with services for a standard early childhood schedule which shall be defined in this section as a minimum of twelve and one-half hours per school week as defined in section 3313.62 of the Revised Code for the minimum school year as defined in sections 3313.48, 3313.481, and 3313.482 of the Revised Code. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit program providers from utilizing other funds to serve eligible children in programs that exceed the twelve and one-half hours per week or that exceed the minimum school year. For any provider for which a standard early childhood education schedule creates a hardship or for which the provider shows evidence that the provider is working in collaboration with a preschool special education program, the provider may submit a waiver to the Department requesting an alternate schedule. If the Department approves a waiver for an alternate schedule that provides services for less time than the standard early childhood education schedule, the Department may reduce the provider's annual allocation proportionately. Under no circumstances shall an annual allocation be increased because of the approval of an alternate schedule.

(J) Each provider shall develop a sliding fee scale based on family incomes and shall charge families who earn more than two hundred per cent of the federal poverty guidelines, as defined in division (A)(3) of section 5101.46 of the Revised Code, for the early childhood education program.

The Department shall conduct an annual survey of each provider to determine whether the provider charges families tuition or fees, the amount families are charged relative to family income levels, and the number of families and students 167201 charged tuition and fees for the early childhood program. 167202

(K) If an early childhood education program voluntarily 167203 waives its right for funding, or has its funding eliminated for 167204 not meeting financial standards or the early learning program 167205 standards, the provider shall transfer control of title to 167206 property, equipment, and remaining supplies obtained through the 167207 program to providers designated by the Department and return any 167208 unexpended funds to the Department along with any reports 167209 prescribed by the Department. The funding made available from a 167210 program that waives its right for funding or has its funding 167211 eliminated or reduced may be used by the Department for new grant 167212 awards or expansion grants. The Department may award new grants or 167213 expansion grants to eligible providers who apply. The eligible 167214 providers who apply must do so in accordance with the selection 167215 process established by the Department. 167216

(L) Eligible expenditures for the Early Childhood Education 167217 Program shall be claimed each fiscal year to help meet the state's 167218
TANF maintenance of effort requirement. The Superintendent of 167219 Public Instruction, Director of Children and Youth, and the 167220 Director of Job and Family Services shall enter into an 167221 interagency agreement to carry out the requirements under this 167222 division, which shall include developing reporting guidelines for 167223 these expenditures. 167224

(M)(1) The Department of Children and Youth and the 167225
Department of Job and Family Services shall continue to work 167226

(3) All providers, agencies, and school districts participating in the early childhood education program or providing care to eligible families beyond the standard early childhood schedule shall follow the common policies established under this section.	167238 167239 167240 167241 167242
Section 423.50. EARLY LEARNING STUDENT ASSESSMENT	167243 areas of the state that are not served by an existing program and 167262 to support existing programs. 167263

Section 423.70. FAMILY AND CHILDREN SERVICES AND ACTIVITIES 167264

Of the foregoing appropriation item 830506, Family and 167265 Children Services, up to $25,000,000 in each fiscal year shall be 167266 for youth currently in the custody of a public children services 167269 agency or to prevent children from entering into the custody of a 167270 this section are transferred to the Department of Children and 167523 Youth. 167524

(J) All rules, orders, and determinations made or undertaken 167525 related to children's services programs transferred to the 167526 Department of Children and Youth shall continue in effect as 167527 numbering of the Administrative Code, the Director of the 167531 Legislative Service Commission shall renumber the rules related to 167532 children's services programs transferred to the Department of 167533

AGAINST THE STATE 167574

Except as otherwise provided in this section, an 167575 appropriation in this act may be used for the purpose of 167576 satisfying judgments, settlements, or administrative awards 167577

Notwithstanding any other statute to the contrary, this 167584 authorization includes appropriations from funds into which 167585 proceeds of direct obligations of the state are deposited only to 167586 the extent that the judgment, settlement, or administrative award 167587 may otherwise be used and is consistent with the purpose for which 167589 any related obligations were issued or entered into. Nothing 167590 contained in this section is intended to subject the state to suit 167591 in any forum in which it is not otherwise subject to suit, and is 167592 not intended to waive or compromise any defense or right available 167593 to the state in any suit against it. 167594

Section 503.30. CAPITAL PROJECT SETTLEMENTS 167595

This section specifies an additional and supplemental 167596 rendered against the state or a state agency, including the 167602 settlement of a claim approved by a court, in an action upon and 167603 increase in appropriation or new appropriation approved by the 167613 Controlling Board is hereby appropriated from the applicable 167614 capital projects fund and made available for the payment of the 167615 judgment or settlement. 167616

If the Director does not make the application authorized by 167617 this section or the Controlling Board disapproves the application, 167618 and the Director does not make application under division (C)(4) 167619 of section 2743.19 of the Revised Code, the Director shall for the 167620

(3) For an encumbrance for reclamation of land or oil and gas 167651

FY 2025 biennium; 167654

(4) For an encumbrance for any other type of expense not 167655 period does not extend beyond the FY 2024 - FY 2025 biennium. 167658

(B) Any operating appropriations for which unexpended 167659 balances are reappropriated in fiscal year 2024 or fiscal year 167660 than the end of the weekend following the expiration of the 167671 reappropriation period. 167672

(D) If the Controlling Board approved a purchase, that 167673 approval remains in effect so long as the appropriation used to 167674
