Biography of Scott Pendleton

Fourth of six boys raised on a farm in Jefferson County. Attended The Ohio State University and received his DVM in 1989. After working for other for 3 years, bought a practice in Cadiz, Harrison County, Ohio in 1992. This solo practice was mixed animal with beef herds providing most of the farm work. Around 2000 the small animal eclipsed the large animal, a trend that continued until March 2019 when the large animal was given to Dr. Matt Friend and the practice became a small animal practice. Opened a new facility in October 2019 and added two veterinarians.
