Bio for Linda Stickney 2021

My husband, Michael, and I have lived in the Upper Arlington community for over 25 years. We currently have two dogs, Cramer and Clark and two cats, Carson and Cody. I have been an animal advocate for over 30 years.

I was born in Pittsburgh, PA. and attended Xavier University in Cincinnati where I received my B.S. in Sociology with a double minor in Psychology and Philosophy. I came to Columbus for my first professional job as a Social Worker in the medical field. After that, I have held various working positions which included Human Resource Manager for Hyatt Hotels, Bank One, Headhunter and proprietor of a Bed and Breakfast in my home. My time is now spent doing volunteer work with several non-profit organizations within the Columbus area.

In 2015, I was appointed by then Governor Kasich to serve on the Commercial Dog Breeding Advisory Board to represent the citizens of Ohio regarding high volume dog breeders. I have since been re-appointed two more times, most recently by Governor DeWine, to sit on this board. Some of the other organizations that I am affiliated with include Columbus Humane, Ohio Wildlife Center and I am currently President of the Board for Faithful Forgotten Best Friends.
