RE: Bio to accompany application for reappointment submitted via email on 4-10-2024

Marcie Kress serves on the Board of the Ohio Organics Council (OHOC), formally the Organics Recycling Association of Ohio. In 2019, OHOC became the Ohio Chapter of the US Composting Council. Serving as a member of the Board since 2009, she held the officer position of Treasurer from 2014 to the end of 2023.

Being an OHOC Board member has provided Marcie the opportunity to better understand the challenges and opportunities for managing organic materials like yard waste and food waste for not only Ohio, but also nationally.

Starting out as an intern and eventually becoming Executive Director in 2016, Marcie has more than 25 years' experience at The Summit Akron Solid Waste Management Authority (dba ReWorks). Under the direction of the ReWorks Board of Trustees, she has been an integral part in developing and managing environmentally sound, cost-effective recycling and waste reduction services for Summit County residents and businesses, and municipalities. Recently, she is directing ReWorks on a project for the construction of a new collection center for materials recyclable beyond the home recycling cart.

Marcie has worked on various innovative waste diversion programs including Ohio's first permanent household hazardous waste recycling center as well as implementing three commercial-sector focused recycling and collection programs. Having a passion for this cause, Marcie continues to focus ReWorks' efforts on developing and leading in solutions for reducing food waste and keeping organic waste out of the landfill.
