

After education, my wife and I feel the most significant value of the Education Choice Scholarship program is allowing parents to live in an affordable house. Rather than stretching their finances to buy a house in a well-performing school district, parents can buy a home in a more affordable area and send their kids to private school.