

As an Ohio resident and parent, I strongly oppose SB293 and believe that all decisions about release time for religious instruction should remain a local decision made by the school boards within each school district.

Thank you.

Lindsay Lewandowski