

I oppose SB 293 and believe all decisions regarding release time for religious instruction should remain a local decision with each school board.