

The HB8 bill is harmful and dangerous to young students and would censor and take away rights of LGBTQ+ students and make it difficult for teachers to support these students and will cause a lot of harm and long term damage to students who need support and uplifting from their support systems. This censorship and restriction has no place in the school system.