Supporting the DD Workforce

My name is Amberly and I'm a DSP, I absolutely love my job I love who I take care of and the relationships I have built with everyone, doing this job I've had to sacrifice not being able to be with my family and just have time to myself, working in this field you have to live at work to be able to afford to live, I'm home maybe 16 hours a week, with the prices of everything in the world, (gas,rent,grocery's, etc....) you have to work almost everyday and most nights to even be able to pay those things and be able to even go shopping for yourself or for your family for birthdays holidays and what not, I do believe we all deserve to get paid more for what we do. Thank you for taking your time and reading what I had to say.
