Supporting the DD Workforce

Hey, my name is Jailah Iverson. I'm a Dsp. I been working in this field for about 3 years. By far this has been my favorite field. I believe we should get paid more because the work we do. It's not like a daycare or a nursing home. It's more than too that it's about teaching and caring for other physically emotionally and mentally. Most people a give up. Every client has their own personality. Imagine working in a house with 6 people with 6 different personalities and they know their wants and what they love.
