

I am writing to oppose SB 83. If enacted, its provisions would greatly undermine our public higher education system and with it the numerous economic and social benefits that a robust higher education system provides both local communities and the state as a whole. The bill is disturbingly short sighted and epitomizes the adage: cutting off your nose to spite your face.