

Gregory Sample

Greg currently serves as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Wright State University in Dayton, Ohio where he's held a variety of leadership roles since joining the university in 2014.

Prior to Wright State, Greg was involved in commercial real estate development where he led RG Properties, a full-service commercial development company, in the development of Austin Landing as well as providing consulting services in the specialized area of public-private development projects. Preceding this Greg served as President and CEO of the Greater Dayton Area Hospital Association (GDAHA) and its subsidiaries. GDAHA manages strategic initiatives and serves as the industry representative for healthcare systems located throughout the Dayton Region.

Prior to his leadership of GDAHA Greg was with AT&T, a Fortune 50 company, where he oversaw external affairs, government relations, economic development and philanthropic activities throughout the Western Ohio Region.

Greg holds a Masters Degree in Public Administration from the University of Dayton with over thirty years experience working in and with local and state government. He's been very active in the community serving on a variety of boards and committees. Greg currently serves as a gubernatorial appointee to the Ohio Broadband Authority and Board Member of the Dayton Area Chamber of Commerce, Wright Patterson Regional Council of Governments, Dayton/Montgomery County Foreign Trade Zone and Centerville Community Improvement Corporation. He also chairs the Warren County Port Authority. Greg has also served on the National Board of the Sudden Infant Death Syndrome "SIDS" Alliance.

A lifelong resident of the Dayton area, Greg enjoyed two terms as Mayor and member of the Franklin City Council. He also served as a Franklin Township Trustee. Greg and his wife Lisa currently reside in Centerville. They've been married 38 years and their two children, Ryan and Katelyn, are married and have brought them 4 absolutely awesome grandchildren.