WHEREAS, Kris Jordan left an indelible impression in all of his endeavors, and the State of Ohio benefited exponentially during his service as an Ohio legislator, a career which spanned five terms in office. In his most recent role as the representative for the 60th House District, he will be remembered for his civic engagement as the chair of the Financial Institutions Committee, as a member of the Insurance, Public Health Policy, and Ways and Means committees, and above all, as a champion for the common citizens of Delaware County; and

In addition, he was a longtime supporter of the Delaware County 4-H program and Delaware County Farm Bureau, and he was a member of the National Rifle Association and Delaware County Right to Life. Indeed, his meaningful efforts earned him the respect and esteem of many, and his absence will be keenly felt; and

RESOLVED, That we, the members of the House of Representatives of the 135th General Assembly of Ohio, in adopting this Resolution, express a profound sense of loss and sincere regret at the death of Representative Kristopher W.
