discretion to determine the most effective way to comply with 12 the purposes and principles of sentencing set forth in section 13 2929.11 of the Revised Code. In exercising that discretion, the 14 court shall consider the factors set forth in divisions (B) and 15 other factors that are relevant to achieving those purposes and 23 principles of sentencing. 24

(B) The sentencing court shall consider all of the 25 victim, and any other relevant factors, as indicating that the 27 offender's conduct is more serious than conduct normally 28 constituting the offense: 29 of the offense due to the conduct of the offender was 31 exacerbated because of the physical or mental condition or age 32 of the victim. 33

(2) The victim of the offense suffered serious physical, 34 psychological, or economic harm as a result of the offense. 35

(3) The offender held a public office or position of trust 36 in the community, and the offense related to that office or 37 elected office, or profession was used to facilitate the offense 43 or is likely to influence the future conduct of others. 44

(6) The offender's relationship with the victim 45 facilitated the offense. 46

(7) The offender committed the offense for hire or as a part of an organized criminal activity. 47
48

(8) In committing the offense, the offender was motivated by prejudice based on race, ethnic background, gender, sexual orientation, or religion. 49

54
55
56

59

(C) The sentencing court shall consider all of the following that apply regarding the offender, the offense, or the victim, and any other relevant factors, as indicating that the offender's conduct is less serious than conduct normally constituting the offense: 60

62
64

(1) The victim induced or facilitated the offense. 65

(2) In committing the offense, the offender acted under strong provocation. 66
67

(3) In committing the offense, the offender did not cause or expect to cause physical harm to any person or property. 68
69

(4) There are substantial grounds to mitigate the offender's conduct, although the grounds are not enough to constitute a defense. 70
71
72

(D) The sentencing court shall consider all of the following that apply regarding the offender, and any other 73
74 relevant factors, as factors indicating that the offender is 75 likely to commit future crimes: 76

(1) At the time of committing the offense, the offender 77 was under release from confinement before trial or sentencing; 78 was under a sanction imposed pursuant to section 2929.16, 79 2929.17, or 2929.18 of the Revised Code; was under post-release 80 control pursuant to section 2967.28 or any other provision of 81 the Revised Code for an earlier offense or had been unfavorably 82 terminated from post-release control for a prior offense 83 pursuant to division (B) of section 2967.16 or section 2929.141 84 of the Revised Code; was under transitional control in 85 connection with a prior offense; or had absconded from the 86 section 2967.26 of the Revised Code. 89

(2) The offender previously was adjudicated a delinquent 90 child pursuant to Chapter 2151. of the Revised Code prior to 91
January 1, 2002, or pursuant to Chapter 2152. of the Revised 92
Code, or the offender has a history of criminal convictions. 93

(3) The offender has not been rehabilitated to a 94 satisfactory degree after previously being adjudicated a 95 delinquent child pursuant to Chapter 2151. of the Revised Code 96 prior to January 1, 2002, or pursuant to Chapter 2152. of the 97 Revised Code, or the offender has not responded favorably to 98 sanctions previously imposed for criminal convictions. 99

(4) The offender has demonstrated a pattern of drug or 100 alcohol abuse that is related to the offense, and the offender 101 refuses to acknowledge that the offender has demonstrated that 102 pattern, or the offender refuses treatment for the drug or 103 alcohol abuse. 104

(5) The offender shows no genuine remorse for the offense.	105
(E) The sentencing court shall consider all of the following that apply regarding the offender, and any other relevant factors, as factors indicating that the offender is not likely to commit future crimes:	106
(1) Prior to committing the offense, the offender had not been adjudicated a delinquent child.	107
(2) Prior to committing the offense, the offender had not been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a criminal offense.	108
(3) Prior to committing the offense, the offender had led a law-abiding life for a significant number of years.	109
(4) The offense was committed under circumstances not likely to recur.	110
(5) The Except as provided in division (G)(1) of this section, the offender shows genuine remorse for the offense.	111
(F) The sentencing court shall consider the offender's military service record and whether the offender has an emotional, mental, or physical condition that is traceable to the offender's service in the armed forces of the United States and that was a contributing factor in the offender's commission of the offense or offenses.	112
(G) (1) If the offender enters an Alford plea, the sentencing court shall not consider that the offender entered an Alford plea when determining whether an offender shows genuine remorse for the offense.	113
(2) The general assembly, in amending division (G) of this section pursuant to this act, hereby declares the purpose of the amendment is to address that Alford pleas are generally	114

disfavored by courts of this state because Alford pleas do not 133 determine the guilt or innocence of the offender. 134

Sec. 2929.22. (A) Unless a mandatory jail term is required 135 to be imposed by division (G) of section 1547.99, division (B) 136 of section 4510.14, division (G) of section 4511.19 of the 137 Revised Code, or any other provision of the Revised Code a court 138 that imposes a sentence under this chapter upon an offender for 139 a misdemeanor or minor misdemeanor has discretion to determine 140 the most effective way to achieve the purposes and principles of 141 sentencing set forth in section 2929.21 of the Revised Code. 142

Unless a specific sanction is required to be imposed or is 143 precluded from being imposed by the section setting forth an 144 offense or the penalty for an offense or by any provision of 145 sections 2929.23 to 2929.28 of the Revised Code, a court that 146 imposes a sentence upon an offender for a misdemeanor may impose 147 on the offender any sanction or combination of sanctions under 148 sections 2929.24 to 2929.28 of the Revised Code. The court shall 149 not impose a sentence that imposes an unnecessary burden on 150 local government resources. 151

(B) (1) In determining the appropriate sentence for a 152 misdemeanor, the court shall consider all of the following 153 factors: 154

(a) The nature and circumstances of the offense or 155 offenses; 156

(b) Whether the circumstances regarding the offender and 157
the offense or offenses indicate that the offender has a history 158 of persistent criminal activity and that the offender's 159 character and condition reveal a substantial risk that the 160 offender will commit another offense; 161

(c) Whether the circumstances regarding the offender and the offense or offenses indicate that the offender's history, character, and condition reveal a substantial risk that the offender will be a danger to others and that the offender's conduct has been characterized by a pattern of repetitive, compulsive, or aggressive behavior with heedless indifference to the consequences;

(d) Whether the victim's youth, age, disability, or other factor made the victim particularly vulnerable to the offense or made the impact of the offense more serious;

(e) Whether the offender is likely to commit future crimes in general, in addition to the circumstances described in divisions (B) (1) (b) and (c) of this section;

(f) Whether the offender has an emotional, mental, or physical condition that is traceable to the offender's service in the armed forces of the United States and that was a contributing factor in the offender's commission of the offense or offenses;

(g) The offender's military service record.

~~(2)~~ (2) (a) In determining the appropriate sentence for a misdemeanor, if the offender enters an Alford plea, the sentencing court shall not consider that the offender entered an Alford plea as a basis for determining whether the offender shows genuine remorse for the offense.

(b) The general assembly, in amending division (B) (2) of this section pursuant to this act, hereby declares the purpose of the amendment is to address that Alford pleas are generally disfavored by courts of this state because Alford pleas do not determine the guilt or innocence of the offender.

(3) In determining the appropriate sentence for a 191 misdemeanor, in addition to complying with division (B) (1) of 192 this section, the court may consider any other factors that are 193 relevant to achieving the purposes and principles of sentencing 194 set forth in section 2929.21 of the Revised Code. 195

(C) Before imposing a jail term as a sentence for a 196 misdemeanor, a court shall consider the appropriateness of 197 imposing a community control sanction or a combination of 198 community control sanctions under sections 2929.25, 2929.26, 199 2929.27, and 2929.28 of the Revised Code. A court may impose the 200 longest jail term authorized under section 2929.24 of the 201 Revised Code only upon offenders who commit the worst forms of 202 the offense or upon offenders whose conduct and response to 203 prior sanctions for prior offenses demonstrate that the 204 imposition of the longest jail term is necessary to deter the 205 offender from committing a future criminal offense. 206

(D) (1) A sentencing court shall consider any relevant oral 207 and written statement made by the victim, the victim's 208 representative, the victim's attorney, if applicable, the 209 defendant, the defense attorney, and the prosecuting authority 210 regarding sentencing for a misdemeanor. This division does not 211 create any rights to notice other than those rights authorized 212 by Chapter 2930. of the Revised Code. 213

(2) At the time of sentencing for a misdemeanor or as soon 214 as possible after sentencing, the court shall notify the victim 215 of the offense of the victim's right to file an application for 216 an award of reparations pursuant to sections 2743.51 to 2743.72 217 of the Revised Code. 218

Section 2. That existing sections 2929.12 and 2929.22 of 219 the Revised Code are hereby repealed. 220
