(12) Develop software to be used by sheriffs in establishing 99434 on the internet a sex offender and child-victim offender database 99435 for the public dissemination of some or all of the information and 99436 materials described in division (A) of section 2950.081 of the 99437 public dissemination of information the sheriff receives pursuant 99443 to section 2950.14 of the Revised Code and, upon the request of 99444 any sheriff, provide technical guidance to the requesting sheriff 99445 in establishing on the internet such a database; 99446

(13) Through the bureau of criminal identification and 99447

child who is included in the registry, including, but not limited 99457 to the offender's or delinquent child's name, aliases, residence 99458 address, name and address of any place of employment, school, 99459 appropriate. The database is not a public record open for 99468 inspection under section 149.43 of the Revised Code and shall be 99469 available only to law enforcement representatives as described in 99470 this division. Information obtained by local law enforcement 99471 representatives through use of this database is not open to 99472 inspection by the public or by any person other than a person 99473 identified in division (A) of section 2950.08 of the Revised Code. 99474

investigation, maintain a list of requests for notice about a 99476 of the Revised Code and, when an offender or delinquent child 99479 changes residence to another county, forward any requests for 99480 information about that specific offender or delinquent child to 99481 the appropriate sheriff; 99482

(15) Through the bureau of criminal identification and 99483
investigation, establish and operate a system for the immediate 99484 other states specified in this division each time an offender or 99486 delinquent child registers a residence, school, institution of 99487 higher education, or place of employment address under section 99488 2950.04 or 2950.041 of the Revised Code or provides a notice of a 99489 change of address or registers a new address under division (A) or 99490 (B) of section 2950.05 of the Revised Code. The immediate 99491 notification by electronic means shall be provided to the 99492 appropriate officials in each state in which the offender or 99493 delinquent child is required to register a residence, school, 99494 institution of higher education, or place of employment address. 99495

The notification shall contain the offender's or delinquent 99496 child's name and all of the information the bureau receives from 99497 the sheriff with whom the offender or delinquent child registered 99498 the address or provided the notice of change of address or 99499 registered the new address. 99500

(B) The attorney general in consultation with local law 99501 enforcement representatives, may adopt rules that establish one or 99502 more categories of neighbors of an offender or delinquent child 99503 who, in addition to the occupants of residential premises and 99504 other persons specified in division (A)(1) of section 2950.11 of 99505 the Revised Code, must be given the notice described in division 99506
(B) of that section. 99507

(C) No person, other than a local law enforcement 99508 representative, shall knowingly do any of the following: 99509 established and operated by the attorney general, through the 99511 bureau of criminal identification and investigation, pursuant to 99512 division (A)(13) of this section. 99513

(2) Permit any person to inspect any information obtained 99514 through use of the database described in division (C)(1) of this 99515 section, other than as permitted under that division. 99516

(D) As used in this section, "local law enforcement 99517 representatives" means representatives of the sheriffs of this 99518 state, representatives of the municipal chiefs of police and 99519 marshals of this state, and representatives of the township 99520 constables and chiefs of police of the township police departments 99521 or police district police forces of this state. 99522

Sec. 3109.051. (A) If a divorce, dissolution, legal 99523 separation, or annulment proceeding involves a child and if the 99524 court has not issued a shared parenting decree, the court shall 99525 consider any mediation report filed pursuant to section 3109.052 99526 of the Revised Code and, in accordance with division (C) of this 99527 section, shall make a just and reasonable order or decree 99528 permitting each parent who is not the residential parent to have 99529 parenting time with the child at the time and under the conditions 99530 that the court directs, unless the court determines that it would 99531 not be in the best interest of the child to permit that parent to 99532 have parenting time with the child and includes in the journal its 99533 findings of fact and conclusions of law. Whenever possible, the 99534 order or decree permitting the parenting time shall ensure the 99535 opportunity for both parents to have frequent and continuing 99536 contact with the child, unless frequent and continuing contact by 99537 either parent with the child would not be in the best interest of 99538 the child. The court shall include in its final decree a specific 99539 schedule of parenting time for that parent. Except as provided in 99540 division (E)(6) of section 3113.31 of the Revised Code, if the 99541 court, pursuant to this section, grants parenting time to a parent 99542 or companionship or visitation rights to any other person with 99543 respect to any child, it shall not require the public children 99544 services agency to provide supervision of or other services 99545 related to that parent's exercise of parenting time or that 99546 person's exercise of companionship or visitation rights with 99547 respect to the child. This section does not limit the power of a 99548 juvenile court pursuant to Chapter 2151. of the Revised Code to 99549 issue orders with respect to children who are alleged to be 99550 abused, neglected, or dependent children or to make dispositions 99551 of children who are adjudicated abused, neglected, or dependent 99552 children or of a common pleas court to issue orders pursuant to 99553

section 3113.31 of the Revised Code. 99554

(B)(1) In a divorce, dissolution of marriage, legal 99555 separation, annulment, or child support proceeding that involves a 99556 child, the court may grant reasonable companionship or visitation 99557 rights to any grandparent, any person related to the child by 99558 consanguinity or affinity, or any other person other than a parent, if all of the following apply:

(a) The grandparent, relative, or other person files a motion with the court seeking companionship or visitation rights.

(b) The court determines that the grandparent, relative, or other person has an interest in the welfare of the child.

(c) The court determines that the granting of the companionship or visitation rights is in the best interest of the child.

(2) A motion may be filed under division (B)(1) of this section during the pendency of the divorce, dissolution of marriage, legal separation, annulment, or child support proceeding or, if a motion was not filed at that time or was filed at that time and the circumstances in the case have changed, at any time after a decree or final order is issued in the case.

visitation matters under this section or under section 3109.11 or 99592 3109.12 of the Revised Code, and resolving any issues related to 99593
visitation rights or the establishment of any specific parenting 99595 time or visitation schedule, the court, in its discretion, may 99596 interview in chambers any or all involved children regarding their 99597 wishes and concerns. If the court interviews any child concerning 99598 the child's wishes and concerns regarding those parenting time or 99599 visitation matters, the interview shall be conducted in chambers, 99600 and no person other than the child, the child's attorney, the 99601 judge, any necessary court personnel, and, in the judge's 99602 discretion, the attorney of each parent shall be permitted to be 99603 present in the chambers during the interview. No person shall 99604 obtain or attempt to obtain from a child a written or recorded 99605 statement or affidavit setting forth the wishes and concerns of 99606 the child regarding those parenting time or visitation matters. A 99607 court, in considering the factors listed in division (D) of this 99608 section for purposes of determining whether to grant any parenting 99609 time or visitation rights, establishing a parenting time or 99610
3109.12 of the Revised Code, or resolving any issues related to 99614
time or visitation schedule, shall not accept or consider a 99617 written or recorded statement or affidavit that purports to set 99618 forth the child's wishes or concerns regarding those parenting 99619 time or visitation matters. 99620

(D) In determining whether to grant parenting time to a 99621 parent pursuant to this section or section 3109.12 of the Revised 99622

Code or companionship or visitation rights to a grandparent, 99623 relative, or other person pursuant to this section or section 99624 3109.11 or 3109.12 of the Revised Code, in establishing a specific 99625 parenting time or visitation schedule, and in determining other 99626 parenting time matters under this section or section 3109.12 of 99627 the Revised Code or visitation matters under this section or 99628 section 3109.11 or 3109.12 of the Revised Code, the court shall 99629 consider all of the following factors: 99630

(1) The prior interaction and interrelationships of the child 99631 with the child's parents, siblings, and other persons related by 99632 consanguinity or affinity, and with the person who requested 99633 companionship or visitation if that person is not a parent, 99634 sibling, or relative of the child; 99635

(2) The geographical location of the residence of each parent 99636 and the distance between those residences, and if the person is 99637 not a parent, the geographical location of that person's residence 99638 and the distance between that person's residence and the child's 99639 residence; 99640

(3) The child's and parents' available time, including, but 99641 not limited to, each parent's employment schedule, the child's 99642 school schedule, and the child's and the parents' holiday and 99643 vacation schedule; 99644

(4) The age of the child; 99645

(5) The child's adjustment to home, school, and community; 99646

(6) If the court has interviewed the child in chambers, 99647 pursuant to division (C) of this section, regarding the wishes and 99648 concerns of the child as to parenting time by the parent who is 99649 not the residential parent or companionship or visitation by the 99650 willfully denied the other parent's right to parenting time in 99696 accordance with an order of the court; 99697

(E) The remarriage of a residential parent of a child does 99704 not affect the authority of a court under this section to grant 99705 parenting time rights with respect to the child to the parent who 99706 is not the residential parent or to grant reasonable companionship 99707 or visitation rights with respect to the child to any grandparent, 99708 any person related by consanguinity or affinity, or any other 99709 person. 99710

(F)(1) If the court, pursuant to division (A) of this 99711 section, denies parenting time to a parent who is not the 99712 residential parent or denies a motion for reasonable companionship 99713 or visitation rights filed under division (B) of this section and 99714 the parent or movant files a written request for findings of fact 99715 and conclusions of law, the court shall state in writing its findings of fact and conclusions of law in accordance with Civil Rule 52.

(2) On or before July 1, 1991, each court of common pleas, by rule, shall adopt standard parenting time guidelines. A court shall have discretion to deviate from its standard parenting time guidelines based upon factors set forth in division (D) of this section.

(2) When a court grants parenting time rights to a parent who is not the residential parent, the court shall determine whether that parent has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a violation of section 2919.25 of the Revised Code involving a victim who at the time of the commission of the offense was a member of the family or household that is the subject of the proceeding, has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to any other offense involving a victim who at the time of the commission of the offense was a member of the family or household that is the subject of the proceeding and caused physical harm to the victim in the commission of the offense, or has been determined to be the perpetrator of the abusive act that is the basis of an adjudication that a child is an abused child. If the court

been determined to be the perpetrator of an abusive act that is 99749 the basis of a child abuse adjudication, the court shall issue an 99750 order stating that a copy of any notice of relocation that is 99751 filed with the court pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section 99752 will be sent to the parent who is given the parenting time rights 99753 in accordance with division (G)(1) of this section. 99754

If the court determines that the parent who is granted the 99755
violation of section 2919.25 of the Revised Code involving a 99757 victim who at the time of the commission of the offense was a 99758 member of the family or household that is the subject of the 99759
offense involving a victim who at the time of the commission of 99761
the offense was a member of the family or household that is the 99762 subject of the proceeding and caused physical harm to the victim 99763
in the commission of the offense, or has been determined to be the 99764
perpetrator of the abusive act that is the basis of an 99765
adjudication that a child is an abused child, it shall issue an 99766 order stating that that parent will not be given a copy of any 99767 notice of relocation that is filed with the court pursuant to 99768 division (G)(1) of this section unless the court determines that 99769
it is in the best interest of the children to give that parent a 99770
copy of the notice of relocation, issues an order stating that 99771 that parent will be given a copy of any notice of relocation filed 99772 pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section, and issues specific 99773 written findings of fact in support of its determination. 99774

(3) If a court, prior to April 11, 1991, issued an order 99775 granting parenting time rights to a parent who is not the 99776 residential parent and did not require the residential parent in 99777 that order to give the parent who is granted the parenting time 99778 rights notice of any change of address and if the residential 99779 parent files a notice of relocation pursuant to division (G)(1) of 99780 this section, the court shall determine if the parent who is 99781 granted the parenting time rights has been convicted of or pleaded 99782 guilty to a violation of section 2919.25 of the Revised Code 99783 involving a victim who at the time of the commission of the 99784 offense was a member of the family or household that is the 99785 subject of the proceeding, has been convicted of or pleaded guilty 99786 to any other offense involving a victim who at the time of the 99787 commission of the offense was a member of the family or household 99788 that is the subject of the proceeding and caused physical harm to 99789 the victim in the commission of the offense, or has been 99790 determined to be the perpetrator of the abusive act that is the 99791 basis of an adjudication that a child is an abused child. If the 99792 court determines that the parent who is granted the parenting time 99793 rights has not been so convicted and has not been determined to be 99794 the perpetrator of an abusive act that is the basis of a child 99795 abuse adjudication, the court shall issue an order stating that a 99796 copy of any notice of relocation that is filed with the court 99797 pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section will be sent to the 99798 parent who is granted parenting time rights in accordance with 99799 division (G)(1) of this section. 99800

If the court determines that the parent who is granted the 99801
violation of section 2919.25 of the Revised Code involving a 99803
victim who at the time of the commission of the offense was a 99804
member of the family or household that is the subject of the 99805
offense involving a victim who at the time of the commission of 99807
subject of the proceeding and caused physical harm to the victim 99809
in the commission of the offense, or has been determined to be the 99810

notice of the date, time, and location of the hearing. If the 99846
rights has been so convicted or has been determined to be the 99848 perpetrator of an abusive act that is the basis of a child abuse 99849 adjudication, the court shall issue an order stating that the 99850 parent who is granted the parenting time rights will not be given 99851 a copy of any notice of relocation that is filed with the court 99852 pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section or that the 99853 residential parent is no longer required to give that parent a 99854 copy of any notice of relocation unless the court determines that 99855
that parent will be given a copy of any notice of relocation filed 99858
written findings of fact in support of its determination. If it 99860 does not so find, it shall dismiss the motion. 99861

(H)(1) Subject to section 3125.16 and division (F) of section 99862 3319.321 of the Revised Code, a parent of a child who is not the 99863 residential parent of the child is entitled to access, under the 99864 same terms and conditions under which access is provided to the 99865 residential parent, to any record that is related to the child and 99866 to which the residential parent of the child legally is provided 99867 access, unless the court determines that it would not be in the 99868 best interest of the child for the parent who is not the 99869 residential parent to have access to the records under those same 99870 terms and conditions. If the court determines that the parent of a 99871 child who is not the residential parent should not have access to 99872 records related to the child under the same terms and conditions 99873 as provided for the residential parent, the court shall specify 99874
the terms and conditions under which the parent who is not the 99875 residential parent is to have access to those records, shall enter 99876 its written findings of facts and opinion in the journal, and 99877 shall issue an order containing the terms and conditions to both 99878

the residential parent and the parent of the child who is not the residential parent. The court shall include in every order issued pursuant to this division notice that any keeper of a record who knowingly fails to comply with the order or division (H) of this section is in contempt of court.

(2) Subject to section 3125.16 and division (F) of section 3319.321 of the Revised Code, subsequent to the issuance of an order under division (H)(1) of this section, the keeper of any record that is related to a particular child and to which the residential parent legally is provided access shall permit the parent of the child who is not the residential parent to have access to the record under the same terms and conditions under which access is provided to the residential parent, unless the residential parent has presented the keeper of the record with a copy of an order issued under division (H)(1) of this section that limits the terms and conditions under which the parent who is not the residential parent is to have access to records pertaining to the child and the order pertains to the record in question. If the residential parent presents the keeper of the record with a copy of that type of order, the keeper of the record shall permit the parent who is not the residential parent to have access to the record only in accordance with the most recent order that has been issued pursuant to division (H)(1) of this section and presented to the keeper by the residential parent or the parent who is not the residential parent. Any keeper of any record who knowingly fails to comply with division (H) of this section or with any order issued pursuant to division (H)(1) of this section is in contempt of court.

confidential law enforcement investigatory record. The court shall 99911 schedule a hearing on the motion and give notice of the date, 99912 time, and location of the hearing to all parties. 99913

(I) A court that issues a parenting time order or decree 99914 pursuant to this section or section 3109.12 of the Revised Code 99915 shall determine whether the parent granted the right of parenting 99916 time is to be permitted access, in accordance with section 99917 5104.039 of the Revised Code, to any child ~~day-care~~ care center 99918 that is, or that in the future may be, attended by the children 99919 with whom the right of parenting time is granted. Unless the court 99920 determines that the parent who is not the residential parent 99921 should not have access to the center to the same extent that the 99922 residential parent is granted access to the center, the parent who 99923 is not the residential parent and who is granted parenting time 99924 rights is entitled to access to the center to the same extent that 99925 the residential parent is granted access to the center. If the 99926 court determines that the parent who is not the residential parent 99927 should not have access to the center to the same extent that the 99928 residential parent is granted such access under section 5104.039 99929 of the Revised Code, the court shall specify the terms and 99930 conditions under which the parent who is not the residential 99931 parent is to have access to the center, provided that the access 99932 shall not be greater than the access that is provided to the 99933 residential parent under section 5104.039 of the Revised Code, the 99934 court shall enter its written findings of fact and opinions in the 99935 journal, and the court shall include the terms and conditions of 99936 access in the parenting time order or decree. 99937

(J)(1) Subject to division (F) of section 3319.321 of the 99938 Revised Code, when a court issues an order or decree allocating 99939 parental rights and responsibilities for the care of a child, the 99940 parent of the child who is not the residential parent of the child 99941 is entitled to access, under the same terms and conditions under 99942 which access is provided to the residential parent, to any student 99943 activity that is related to the child and to which the residential 99944 parent of the child legally is provided access, unless the court 99945 determines that it would not be in the best interest of the child 99946 to grant the parent who is not the residential parent access to 99947 the student activities under those same terms and conditions. If 99948 the court determines that the parent of the child who is not the 99949 residential parent should not have access to any student activity 99950 that is related to the child under the same terms and conditions 99951

residential parent is to have access to those student activities, 99954 shall enter its written findings of facts and opinion in the 99955 journal, and shall issue an order containing the terms and 99956 conditions to both the residential parent and the parent of the 99957 child who is not the residential parent. The court shall include 99958 in every order issued pursuant to this division notice that any 99959 school official or employee who knowingly fails to comply with the 99960 order or division (J) of this section is in contempt of court. 99961

(2) Subject to division (F) of section 3319.321 of the 99962 Revised Code, subsequent to the issuance of an order under 99963 division (J)(1) of this section, all school officials and 99964 employees shall permit the parent of the child who is not the 99965 residential parent to have access to any student activity under 99966 the same terms and conditions under which access is provided to 99967 the residential parent of the child, unless the residential parent 99968 has presented the school official or employee, the board of 99969 education of the school, or the governing body of the chartered 99970 nonpublic school with a copy of an order issued under division 99971 (J)(1) of this section that limits the terms and conditions under 99972 which the parent who is not the residential parent is to have 99973 access to student activities related to the child and the order 99974 pertains to the student activity in question. If the residential 99975 parent presents the school official or employee, the board of 99976

nonpublic school with a copy of that type of order, the school 99978 official or employee shall permit the parent who is not the 99979 residential parent to have access to the student activity only in 99980 accordance with the most recent order that has been issued 99981 pursuant to division (J)(1) of this section and presented to the 99982 school official or employee, the board of education of the school, 99983 or the governing body of the chartered nonpublic school by the 99984 residential parent or the parent who is not the residential 99985 parent. Any school official or employee who knowingly fails to 99986 comply with division (J) of this section or with any order issued 99987 pursuant to division (J)(1) of this section is in contempt of 99988 court. 99989

(K) If any person is found in contempt of court for failing 99990 to comply with or interfering with any order or decree granting 99991 parenting time rights issued pursuant to this section or section 99992 3109.12 of the Revised Code or companionship or visitation rights 99993 issued pursuant to this section, section 3109.11 or 3109.12 of the 99994 Revised Code, or any other provision of the Revised Code, the 99995 court that makes the finding, in addition to any other penalty or 99996 remedy imposed, shall assess all court costs arising out of the 99997 contempt proceeding against the person and require the person to 99998 pay any reasonable attorney's fees of any adverse party, as 99999 determined by the court, that arose in relation to the act of 100000 contempt, and may award reasonable compensatory parenting time or 100001 visitation to the person whose right of parenting time or 100002 visitation was affected by the failure or interference if such 100003 compensatory parenting time or visitation is in the best interest 100004 of the child. Any compensatory parenting time or visitation 100005 awarded under this division shall be included in an order issued 100006 by the court and, to the extent possible, shall be governed by the 100007 same terms and conditions as was the parenting time or visitation 100008 that was affected by the failure or interference. 100009

(L) Any parent who requests reasonable parenting time rights 100010 with respect to a child under this section or section 3109.12 of 100011 the Revised Code or any person who requests reasonable 100012 companionship or visitation rights with respect to a child under 100013 this section, section 3109.11 or 3109.12 of the Revised Code, or 100014 any other provision of the Revised Code may file a motion with the 100015 court requesting that it waive all or any part of the costs that 100016 may accrue in the proceedings. If the court determines that the 100017 movant is indigent and that the waiver is in the best interest of 100018 the child, the court, in its discretion, may waive payment of all 100019 or any part of the costs of those proceedings. 100020

(M)(1) A parent who receives an order for active military 100021 service in the uniformed services and who is subject to a 100022 parenting time order may apply to the court for any of the 100023 following temporary orders for the period extending from the date 100024 of the parent's departure to the date of return: 100025

(a) An order delegating all or part of the parent's parenting 100026 time with the child to a relative or to another person who has a 100027 close and substantial relationship with the child if the 100028 delegation is in the child's best interest; 100029

(b) An order that the other parent make the child reasonably 100030 available for parenting time with the parent when the parent is on 100031 leave from active military service; 100032

(c) An order that the other parent facilitate contact, 100033 including telephone and electronic contact, between the parent and 100034 child while the parent is on active military service. 100035

(2)(a) Upon receipt of an order for active military service, 100036 a parent who is subject to a parenting time order and seeks an 100037 order under division (M)(1) of this section shall notify the other 100038 parent who is subject to the parenting time order and apply to the 100039 court as soon as reasonably possible after receipt of the order 100040 for active military service. The application shall include the 100041 date on which the active military service begins. 100042

(b) The court shall schedule a hearing upon receipt of an 100043 application under division (M) of this section and hold the 100044 hearing not later than thirty days after its receipt, except that 100045 the court shall give the case calendar priority and handle the 100046 case expeditiously if exigent circumstances exist in the case. No 100047 hearing shall be required if both parents agree to the terms of 100048 the requested temporary order and the court determines that the 100049 order is in the child's best interest. 100050

(c) In determining whether a delegation under division 100051
(M)(1)(a) of this section is in the child's best interest, the 100052 court shall consider all relevant factors, including the factors 100053 set forth in division (D) of this section. 100054

(d) An order delegating all or part of the parent's parenting 100055 time pursuant to division (M)(1)(a) of this section does not 100056 create standing on behalf of the person to whom parenting time is 100057 delegated to assert visitation or companionship rights independent 100058 of the order. 100059

(3) At the request of a parent who is ordered for active 100060 military service in the uniformed services and who is a subject of 100061 a proceeding pertaining to a parenting time order or pertaining to 100062 a request for companionship rights or visitation with a child, the 100063 court shall permit the parent to participate in the proceeding and 100064 present evidence by electronic means, including communication by 100065 telephone, video, or internet to the extent permitted by rules of 100066 the supreme court of Ohio. 100067

(N) The juvenile court has exclusive jurisdiction to enter 100068 the orders in any case certified to it from another court. 100069 fees of any receiver appointed pursuant to divisions (C)(2) and 101328

(3) of this section. 101329

(b) Prior to commencing a civil action for abatement when the 101330 property alleged to be a public nuisance is subsidized housing, 101331 the municipal corporation, township, neighbor, tenant, or 101332 nonprofit corporation commencing the action shall provide the 101333 landlord of that property with written notice that specifies one 101334 or more defective conditions that constitute a public nuisance as 101335 that term applies to subsidized housing and states that if the 101336 landlord fails to remedy the condition within sixty days of the 101337 service of the notice, a claim pursuant to this section may be 101338 brought on the basis that the property constitutes a public 101339 nuisance in subsidized housing. Any party authorized to bring an 101340 action against the landlord shall make reasonable attempts to 101341 serve the notice in the manner prescribed in the Rules of Civil 101342 Procedure to the landlord or the landlord's agent for the property 101343 at the property's management office, or at the place where the 101344 tenants normally pay or send rent. If the landlord is not the 101345 owner of record, the party bringing the action shall make a 101346 reasonable attempt to serve the owner. If the owner does not 101347 receive service the person bringing the action shall certify the 101348 attempts to serve the owner. 101349

(2)(a) In a civil action described in division (B)(1) of this 101350 section, a copy of the complaint and a notice of the date and time 101351 of a hearing on the complaint shall be served upon the owner of 101352 the building and all other interested parties in accordance with 101353 the Rules of Civil Procedure. If certified mail service, personal 101354 service, or residence service of the complaint and notice is 101355 refused or certified mail service of the complaint and notice is 101356 not claimed, and if the municipal corporation, township, neighbor, 101357 tenant, or nonprofit corporation commencing the action makes a 101358 written request for ordinary mail service of the complaint and 101359 notice, or uses publication service, in accordance with the Rules 101360 of Civil Procedure, then a copy of the complaint and notice shall 101361 be posted in a conspicuous place on the building. 101362

(b) The judge in a civil action described in division (B)(1) 101363 of this section shall conduct a hearing at least twenty-eight days 101364 after the owner of the building and the other interested parties 101365 have been served with a copy of the complaint and the notice of 101366 the date and time of the hearing in accordance with division 101367
(B)(2)(a) of this section. 101368

(c) In considering whether subsidized housing is a public 101369 nuisance, the judge shall construe the standards set forth in 101370 division (A)(2)(b) of this section in a manner consistent with 101371 department of housing and urban development and judicial 101372 interpretations of those standards. The judge shall deem that the 101373 property is not a public nuisance if during the twelve months 101374 prior to the service of the notice that division (B)(1)(b) of this 101375 section requires, the department of housing and urban 101376 development's real estate assessment center issued a score of 101377 seventy-five or higher out of a possible one hundred points 101378 pursuant to its regulations governing the physical condition of 101379 multifamily properties pursuant to 24 C.F.R. part 200, subpart P, 101380 and since the most recent inspection, there has been no 101381 significant change in the property's conditions that would create 101382 a serious threat to the health, safety, or welfare of the 101383 property's tenants. 101384

(C)(1) If the judge in a civil action described in division 101385
(B)(1) of this section finds at the hearing required by division 101386
(B)(2) of this section that the building involved is a public 101387 nuisance, if the judge additionally determines that the owner of 101388 the building previously has not been afforded a reasonable 101389 opportunity to abate the public nuisance or has been afforded such 101390 an opportunity and has not refused or failed to abate the public 101391 nuisance, and if the complaint of the municipal corporation, 101392 township, neighbor, tenant, or nonprofit corporation commencing 101393 the action requested the issuance of an injunction as described in 101394 this division, then the judge may issue an injunction requiring 101395 the owner of the building to abate the public nuisance or issue 101396 any other order that the judge considers necessary or appropriate 101397 to cause the abatement of the public nuisance. If an injunction is 101398 issued pursuant to this division, the owner of the building 101399 involved shall be given no more than thirty days from the date of 101400 the entry of the judge's order to comply with the injunction, 101401 unless the judge, for good cause shown, extends the time for 101402 compliance. 101403

(2) If the judge in a civil action described in division 101404
(B)(1) of this section finds at the hearing required by division 101405
nuisance, if the judge additionally determines that the owner of 101407
the building previously has been afforded a reasonable opportunity 101408 to abate the public nuisance and has refused or failed to do so, 101409 and if the complaint of the municipal corporation, township, 101410 neighbor, tenant, or nonprofit corporation commencing the action 101411 requested relief as described in this division, then the judge 101412 shall offer any mortgagee, lienholder, or other interested party 101413 associated with the property on which the building is located, in 101414 the order of the priority of interest in title, the opportunity to 101415 undertake the work and to furnish the materials necessary to abate 101416 the public nuisance. Prior to selecting any interested party, the 101417 judge shall require the interested party to demonstrate the 101418 ability to promptly undertake the work and furnish the materials 101419 required, to provide the judge with a viable financial and 101420 construction plan for the rehabilitation of the building as 101421 described in division (D) of this section, and to post security 101422 for the performance of the work and the furnishing of the 101423 materials. 101424

If the judge determines, at the hearing, that no interested 101425 party is willing or able to undertake the work and to furnish the 101426 materials necessary to abate the public nuisance, or if the judge 101427 determines, at any time after the hearing, that any party who is 101428 undertaking corrective work pursuant to this division cannot or 101429 will not proceed, or has not proceeded with due diligence, the 101430 judge may appoint a receiver pursuant to division (C)(3) of this 101431 section to take possession and control of the building. 101432

(3)(a) The judge in a civil action described in division 101433
(B)(1) of this section shall not appoint any person as a receiver 101434 unless the person first has provided the judge with a viable 101435 financial and construction plan for the rehabilitation of the 101436 building involved as described in division (D) of this section and 101437 has demonstrated the capacity and expertise to perform the 101438 required work and to furnish the required materials in a 101439 satisfactory manner. An appointed receiver may be a financial 101440 institution that possesses an interest of record in the building 101441 or the property on which it is located, a nonprofit corporation as 101442 described in divisions (B)(1) and (C)(3)(b) of this section, 101443 including, but not limited to, a nonprofit corporation that 101444 commenced the action described in division (B)(1) of this section, 101445 or any other qualified property manager. 101446

(b) To be eligible for appointment as a receiver, no part of 101447 the net earnings of a nonprofit corporation shall inure to the 101448 benefit of any private shareholder or individual. Membership on 101449 the board of trustees of a nonprofit corporation appointed as a 101450 receiver does not constitute the holding of a public office or 101451 employment within the meaning of sections 731.02 and 731.12 or any 101452 other section of the Revised Code and does not constitute a direct 101453 or indirect interest in a contract or expenditure of money by any 101454 municipal corporation. A member of a board of trustees of a 101455 nonprofit corporation appointed as a receiver shall not be 101456 disqualified from holding any public office or employment, and 101457 shall not forfeit any public office or employment, by reason of 101458 membership on the board of trustees, notwithstanding any law to 101459
the contrary. 101460

(D) Prior to ordering any work to be undertaken, or the 101461 furnishing of any materials, to abate a public nuisance under this 101462 section, the judge in a civil action described in division (B)(1) 101463 of this section shall review the submitted financial and 101464 construction plan for the rehabilitation of the building involved 101465 and, if it specifies all of the following, shall approve that 101466 plan: 101467

(1) The estimated cost of the labor, materials, and any other 101468 development costs that are required to abate the public nuisance; 101469

(2) The estimated income and expenses of the building and the 101470 property on which it is located after the furnishing of the 101471 materials and the completion of the repairs and improvements; 101472

(3) The terms, conditions, and availability of any financing 101473 that is necessary to perform the work and to furnish the materials; 101474 101475

(4) If repair and rehabilitation of the building are found not to be feasible, the cost of demolition of the building or of the portions of the building that constitute the public nuisance. 101476

(E) Upon the written request of any of the interested parties to have a building, or portions of a building, that constitute a public nuisance demolished because repair and rehabilitation of the building are found not to be feasible, the judge may order the demolition. However, the demolition shall not be ordered unless the requesting interested parties have paid the costs of demolition and, if any, of the receivership, and, if any, all notes, certificates, mortgages, and fees of the receivership. 101479
101484
101486

(F) Before proceeding with the duties of receiver, any receiver appointed by the judge in a civil action described in division (B)(1) of this section may be required by the judge to post a bond in an amount fixed by the judge, but not exceeding the value of the building involved as determined by the judge. 101487
101491

The judge may empower the receiver to do any or all of the following: 101492

101497

(2) Pay all expenses of operating and conserving the building and the property, including, but not limited to, the cost of electricity, gas, water, sewerage, heating fuel, repairs and supplies, custodian services, taxes and assessments, and insurance premiums, and hire and pay reasonable compensation to a managing agent; 101498
101503

(3) Pay pre-receivership mortgages or installments of them 101504 and other liens; 101505

(4) Perform or enter into contracts for the performance of 101506 all work and the furnishing of materials necessary to abate, and 101507 obtain financing for the abatement of, the public nuisance; 101508

(5) Pursuant to court order, remove and dispose of any 101509 personal property abandoned, stored, or otherwise located in or on 101510 the building and the property that creates a dangerous or unsafe 101511 condition or that constitutes a violation of any local building, 101512 housing, air pollution, sanitation, health, fire, zoning, or 101513 safety code, ordinance, or regulation; 101514

(6) Obtain mortgage insurance for any receiver's mortgage 101515 from any agency of the federal government; 101516

(7) Enter into any agreement and do those things necessary to 101517 maintain and preserve the building and the property and comply 101518 with all local building, housing, air pollution, sanitation, 101519 health, fire, zoning, or safety codes, ordinances, resolutions, 101520 and regulations; 101521

(8) Give the custody of the building and the property, and 101522 the opportunity to abate the nuisance and operate the property, to 101523 its owner or any mortgagee or lienholder of record; 101524

(9) Issue notes and secure them by a mortgage bearing 101525 interest, and upon terms and conditions, that the judge approves. 101526
When sold or transferred by the receiver in return for valuable 101527 consideration in money, material, labor, or services, the notes or 101528 certificates shall be freely transferable. Any mortgages granted 101529 by the receiver shall be superior to any claims of the receiver. 101530 Priority among the receiver's mortgages shall be determined by the 101531 order in which they are recorded. 101532

(G) A receiver appointed pursuant to this section is not 101533 personally liable except for misfeasance, malfeasance, or 101534 nonfeasance in the performance of the functions of the office of 101535 receiver. 101536

(H)(1) The judge in a civil action described in division 101537
(B)(1) of this section may assess as court costs, the expenses 101538 described in division (F)(2) of this section, and may approve 101539 receiver's fees to the extent that they are not covered by the 101540 income from the property. Subject to that limitation, a receiver 101541 appointed pursuant to divisions (C)(2) and (3) of this section is 101542 entitled to receive fees in the same manner and to the same extent 101543 as receivers appointed in actions to foreclose mortgages. 101544

(2)(a) Pursuant to the police powers vested in the state, all 101545 expenditures of a mortgagee, lienholder, or other interested party 101546 that has been selected pursuant to division (C)(2) of this section 101547 to undertake the work and to furnish the materials necessary to 101548 abate a public nuisance, and any expenditures in connection with 101549 the foreclosure of the lien created by this division, is a first 101550 lien upon the building involved and the property on which it is 101551 located and is superior to all prior and subsequent liens or other 101552 encumbrances associated with the building or the property, 101553 including, but not limited to, those for taxes and assessments, 101554 upon the occurrence of both of the following: 101555

(i) The prior approval of the expenditures by, and the entry 101556 of a judgment to that effect by, the judge in the civil action 101557 described in division (B)(1) of this section; 101558

(ii) The recordation of a certified copy of the judgment 101559 entry and a sufficient description of the property on which the 101560 building is located with the county recorder in the county in 101561 which the property is located within sixty days after the date of 101562 the entry of the judgment. 101563

(b) Pursuant to the police powers vested in the state, all 101564 expenses and other amounts paid in accordance with division (F) of 101565 this section by a receiver appointed pursuant to divisions (C)(2) 101566 and (3) of this section, the amounts of any notes issued by the receiver in accordance with division (F) of this section, all mortgages granted by the receiver in accordance with that division, the fees of the receiver approved pursuant to division (H)(1) of this section, and any amounts expended in connection with the foreclosure of a mortgage granted by the receiver in accordance with division (F) of this section or with the foreclosure of the lien created by this division, are a first lien upon the building involved and the property on which it is located and are superior to all prior and subsequent liens or other encumbrances associated with the building or the property, including, but not limited to, those for taxes and assessments, upon the occurrence of both of the following:

(i) The approval of the expenses, amounts, or fees by, and the entry of a judgment to that effect by, the judge in the civil action described in division (B)(1) of this section; or the approval of the mortgages in accordance with division (F)(9) of this section by, and the entry of a judgment to that effect by, that judge;

(ii) The recordation of a certified copy of the judgment entry and a sufficient description of the property on which the building is located, or, in the case of a mortgage, the recordation of the mortgage, a certified copy of the judgment entry, and such a description, with the county recorder of the county in which the property is located within sixty days after the date of the entry of the judgment.

(c) Priority among the liens described in divisions (H)(2)(a) and (b) of this section shall be determined as described in division (I) of this section. Additionally, the creation pursuant to this section of a mortgage lien that is prior to or superior to any mortgage of record at the time the mortgage lien is so created, does not disqualify the mortgage of record as a legal

(I)(1) If a receiver appointed pursuant to divisions (C)(2) 101601 and (3) of this section files with the judge in the civil action 101602 described in division (B)(1) of this section a report indicating 101603 that the public nuisance has been abated, if the judge confirms 101604 that the receiver has abated the public nuisance, and if the 101605 receiver or any interested party requests the judge to enter an 101606 order directing the receiver to sell the building and the property 101607 on which it is located, the judge may enter that order after 101608 holding a hearing as described in division (I)(2) of this section 101609 and otherwise complying with that division. 101610

(2)(a) The receiver or interested party requesting an order 101611
as described in division (I)(1) of this section shall cause a 101612 notice of the date and time of a hearing on the request to be 101613 served on the owner of the building involved and all other 101614 interested parties in accordance with division (B)(2)(a) of this 101615 section. The judge in the civil action described in division 101616 (B)(1) of this section shall conduct the scheduled hearing. At the 101617 hearing, if the owner or any interested party objects to the sale 101618 of the building and the property, the burden of proof shall be 101619 upon the objecting person to establish, by a preponderance of the 101620 evidence, that the benefits of not selling the building and the 101621 property outweigh the benefits of selling them. If the judge 101622 determines that there is no objecting person, or if the judge 101623 determines that there is one or more objecting persons but no 101624 objecting person has sustained the burden of proof specified in 101625 this division, the judge may enter an order directing the receiver 101626 to offer the building and the property for sale upon terms and 101627 conditions that the judge shall specify. 101628

(b) In any sale of subsidized housing that is ordered 101629 pursuant to this section, the judge shall specify that the 101630 subsidized housing not be conveyed unless that conveyance complies 101631 with applicable federal law and applicable program contracts for 101632 that housing. Any such conveyance shall be subject to the 101633 condition that the purchaser enter into a contract with the 101634 department of housing and urban development or the rural housing 101635 service of the federal department of agriculture under which the 101636 property continues to be subsidized housing and the owner 101637 continues to operate that property as subsidized housing unless 101638 the secretary of housing and urban development or the 101639 administrator of the rural housing service terminates that 101640 property's contract prior to or upon the conveyance of the 101641

property. 101642

(3) If a sale of a building and the property on which it is 101643 located is ordered pursuant to divisions (I)(1) and (2) of this 101644 section and if the sale occurs in accordance with the terms and 101645 conditions specified by the judge in the judge's order of sale, 101646 then the receiver shall distribute the proceeds of the sale and 101647 the balance of any funds that the receiver may possess, after the 101648 payment of the costs of the sale, in the following order of 101649 priority and in the described manner: 101650

(a) First, in satisfaction of any notes issued by the 101651 receiver pursuant to division (F) of this section, in their order 101652 of priority; 101653

(b) Second, any unreimbursed expenses and other amounts paid 101654 in accordance with division (F) of this section by the receiver, 101655 and the fees of the receiver approved pursuant to division (H)(1) 101656

(c) Third, all expenditures of a mortgagee, lienholder, or 101658 other interested party that has been selected pursuant to division 101659 (C)(2) of this section to undertake the work and to furnish the 101660 materials necessary to abate a public nuisance, provided that the 101661 expenditures were approved as described in division (H)(2)(a) of 101662 this section and provided that, if any such interested party 101663 subsequently became the receiver, its expenditures shall be paid 101664 prior to the expenditures of any of the other interested parties 101665 so selected; 101666

(d) Fourth, the amount due for delinquent taxes, assessments, 101667 charges, penalties, and interest owed to this state or a political 101668 subdivision of this state, provided that, if the amount available 101669 for distribution pursuant to division (I)(3)(d) of this section is 101670 insufficient to pay the entire amount of those taxes, assessments, 101671 charges, penalties, and interest, the proceeds and remaining funds 101672 shall be paid to each claimant in proportion to the amount of 101673 those taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, and interest that 101674 each is due. 101675

(e) The amount of any pre-receivership mortgages, liens, or 101676 other encumbrances, in their order of priority. 101677

(4) Following a distribution in accordance with division 101678
(I)(3) of this section, the receiver shall request the judge in 101679 the civil action described in division (B)(1) of this section to 101680 enter an order terminating the receivership. If the judge 101681 determines that the sale of the building and the property on which 101682 it is located occurred in accordance with the terms and conditions 101683 specified by the judge in the judge's order of sale under division 101684 (I)(2) of this section and that the receiver distributed the 101685 proceeds of the sale and the balance of any funds that the 101686 receiver possessed, after the payment of the costs of the sale, in 101687 accordance with division (I)(3) of this section, and if the judge 101688 approves any final accounting required of the receiver, the judge 101689 may terminate the receivership. 101690

(J)(1) A receiver appointed pursuant to divisions (C)(2) and 101691
(3) of this section may be discharged at any time in the 101692 discretion of the judge in the civil action described in division 101693 (B)(1) of this section. The receiver shall be discharged by the 101694 judge as provided in division (I)(4) of this section, or when all 101695 of the following have occurred: 101696

(a) The public nuisance has been abated; 101697

(b) All costs, expenses, and approved fees of the 101698 receivership have been paid; 101699

(c) Either all receiver's notes issued and mortgages granted 101700 pursuant to this section have been paid, or all the holders of the 101701 notes and mortgages request that the receiver be discharged. 101702

(2) If a judge in a civil action described in division (B)(1) 101703 of this section determines that, and enters of record a 101704 declaration that, a public nuisance has been abated by a receiver, 101705 and if, within three days after the entry of the declaration, all 101706 costs, expenses, and approved fees of the receivership have not 101707 been paid in full, then, in addition to the circumstances 101708 specified in division (I) of this section for the entry of such an 101709 order, the judge may enter an order directing the receiver to sell 101710 the building involved and the property on which it is located. Any 101711 such order shall be entered, and the sale shall occur, only in 101712 compliance with division (I) of this section. 101713

(K) The title in any building, and in the property on which 101714 it is located, that is sold at a sale ordered under division (I) 101715 or (J)(2) of this section shall be incontestable in the purchaser 101716 and shall be free and clear of all liens for delinquent taxes, 101717 assessments, charges, penalties, and interest owed to this state 101718 or any political subdivision of this state, that could not be 101719 satisfied from the proceeds of the sale and the remaining funds in 101720 the receiver's possession pursuant to the distribution under 101721 division (I)(3) of this section. All other liens and encumbrances 101722 with respect to the building and the property shall survive the 101723 sale, including, but not limited to, a federal tax lien notice 101724 properly filed in accordance with section 317.09 of the Revised 101725

Code prior to the time of the sale, and the easements and 101726 covenants of record running with the property that were created 101727 prior to the time of the sale. 101728

limitation upon the powers granted to a court of common pleas, a 101730 municipal court or a housing or environmental division of a 101731 municipal court under Chapter 1901. of the Revised Code, or a 101732 an authorization for the use of a new material or manufactured 101949 unit on any like application. No department, officer, board, or 101950 commission of the state other than the board of building standards 101951 or the board of building appeals shall permit the use of any 101952 fixture, device, material, method of manufacture, newly designed 101953 product, system, or method of construction at variance with what 101954 is described in any rule the board of building standards adopts or 101955 issues or that is authorized by any section of the Revised Code. 101956 certify personnel of municipal, township, and county building 102019 departments, and persons and employees of persons, firms, or 102020 corporations as described in this section, whose responsibilities 102021 provided under this section shall be claimed in the order required 106670 under section 5733.98 or 5747.98 of the Revised Code. The credits, 106671 for the taxable year after allowance for any other credits that 106673 precede the credits under this section in that order, shall be 106674 carried forward to the next succeeding taxable year or years until 106675 sections 5733.06, 5733.065, and 5733.066 of the Revised Code for a 106680 taxpayer that enters into an agreement with a child ~~day-care~~ care 106681 center pursuant to this section. Under the terms of the agreement, 106682 the taxpayer must make one or more support payments to the 106683 ~~day-care~~ center on a periodic basis, and the center must agree to 106684 serve a child of an employee of the taxpayer for the period 106685 covered by each support payment. The center must be licensed under 106686 section 5104.03 of the Revised Code. The amount of the support 106687 payment must be set forth in the agreement, and cannot exceed a 106688 reasonable charge for a child to attend a ~~day-care~~ center in the 106689 vicinity of the taxpayer's worksite. The agreement must specify 106690 that an employee has the option of refusing to place the 106691 employee's child in a ~~day-care~~ center that receives support 106692 payments from the taxpayer. 106693

The amount of the credit equals fifty per cent of the total 106694 amount of support payments made by the taxpayer during the taxable 106695 year. The taxpayer shall not count toward the credit any amount it 106696 paid directly or indirectly in connection with a plan or program 106697 described in section 125 of the Internal Revenue Code or under 106698 section 5733.38 of the Revised Code. The taxpayer shall claim the 106699 credit in the order required under section 5733.98 of the Revised 106700 or fifty per cent of the amount incurred by a taxpayer for 106705 equipment, supplies, labor, and real property, including 106706 renovation of real property, used exclusively to establish a child 106707 ~~day-care~~ care center. The credit is allowed only for the tax year 106708 immediately following the taxable year in which the ~~child day-care~~ 106709 center begins operations. The credit may be claimed only for tax 106710

have been met. 107160

Sec. 753.19. (A) If a person who was convicted of or pleaded 107161 after the escape shall report the escape, by telephone and in 107167 writing, to all local law enforcement agencies with jurisdiction 107168

and in the manner the superintendent considers proper, modify, 107201 terminate, or set aside the superintendent's order. After filing 107202 the record, the superintendent may modify, terminate, or set aside 107203 the superintendent's order with permission of the court. 107204

(a) A hearing provided for in section 1121.32, 1121.35, or 107205 1121.41 of the Revised Code shall be confidential, unless the 107206 superintendent determines that holding an open hearing would be in 107207 the public interest. Within twenty days after service of the 107208 notice of a hearing, a respondent may file a written request for a 107209 public hearing with the superintendent. A respondent's failure to 107210 file such a request constitutes a waiver of any objections to a 107211 confidential hearing. 107212

(b) A hearing provided for in section 1121.33 of the Revised 107213 Code shall be an open hearing. Within twenty days after service of 107214 the notice of a hearing, a respondent may file a written request 107215 for a confidential hearing with the superintendent. If such a 107216 request is received by the superintendent, the hearing shall be 107217 confidential unless the superintendent determines that holding an 107218 open hearing would be in the public interest. 107219

(2) In the course of, or in connection with, an 107220 administrative hearing governed by this section, the 107221 superintendent, or a person designated by the superintendent to 107222 conduct the hearing, may administer oaths and affirmations, take 107223 or cause depositions to be taken, and issue, revoke, quash, or 107224 modify subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum. At any administrative 107225 hearing required by section 1121.32, 1121.33, 1121.35, or 1121.41 107226 of the Revised Code, the record of which may be the basis of an 107227 appeal to court, a stenographic record of the testimony and other 107228 evidence submitted shall be taken at the expense of the division 107229 of financial institutions. The record shall include all of the 107230 testimony and other evidence, and any rulings on the admissibility 107231 thereof, presented at the hearing. The superintendent may adopt 107232 rules regarding these hearings. The attendance of witnesses and 107233 the production of documents provided for in this section may be 107234 required from any place within or outside the state. A party to a 107235 hearing governed by this section may apply to the court of common 107236 pleas of Franklin county, or the court of common pleas of the 107237 county in which the hearing is being conducted or the witness 107238 resides or carries on business, for enforcement of a subpoena or 107239 subpoena duces tecum issued pursuant to this section, and the 107240 courts have jurisdiction and power to order and require compliance 107241 with the subpoena. Witnesses subpoenaed under this section shall 107242

the Revised Code. 107244

As used in this division, "stenographic record" means a 107245 record provided by stenographic means or by the use of audio 107246 institutions determines. 107248

(B)(1) A bank, trust company, or regulated person against 107249 whom the superintendent issues an order upon the record of a 107250 hearing under the authority of section 1121.32, 1121.33, 1121.35, 107251 or 1121.41 of the Revised Code may obtain a review of the order by 107252 filing a notice of appeal in the court of common pleas in the 107253 county in which the principal place of business of the bank, trust 107254 company, or regulated person, or residence of the regulated 107255 person, is located, or in the court of common pleas of Franklin 107256 county, within thirty days after the date of service of the 107257 superintendent's order. The clerk of the court shall promptly 107258 transmit a copy of the notice of appeal to the superintendent. 107259 Within thirty days after receiving the notice of appeal, the 107260 superintendent shall file a certified copy of the record of the 107261 administrative hearing with the clerk of the court. In the event 107262 of a private hearing, the record of the administrative hearing 107263 shall be filed under seal with the clerk of the court. Upon the 107264 filing of the notice of appeal, the court has jurisdiction, which 107265 upon the filing of the record of the administrative hearing is 107266 exclusive, to affirm, modify, terminate, or set aside, in whole or 107267 in part, the superintendent's order. 107268

(2) The commencement of proceedings for judicial review 107269 pursuant to division (B) of this section does not, unless 107270 specifically ordered by the court, operate as a stay of any order 107271 issued by the superintendent. If it appears to the court an 107272 unusual hardship to the appellant bank, trust company, or 107273 regulated person will result from the execution of the 107274 superintendent's order pending determination of the appeal, and 107275 the interests of depositors and the public will not be threatened 107276 by a stay of the order, the court may grant a stay and fix its 107277 terms. 107278

(C) The superintendent may, in the sole discretion of the 107279 superintendent, apply to the court of common pleas of the county 107280 in which the principal place of business of the bank, trust 107281
person, is located, or the court of common pleas of Franklin 107283 county, for the enforcement of an effective and outstanding 107284 superintendent's order issued under section 1121.32, 1121.33, 107285 1121.34, 1121.35, or 1121.41 of the Revised Code, and the court 107286 has jurisdiction and power to order and require compliance with 107287 the superintendent's order. In an action by the superintendent 107288 pursuant to this division to enforce an order assessing a civil 107289 penalty issued under section 1121.35 of the Revised Code, the 107290 validity and appropriateness of the civil penalty is not subject 107291 to review. 107292

(D) No court has jurisdiction to affect, by injunction or 107293 otherwise, the issuance or enforcement of an order issued under 107294 section 1121.32, 1121.33, 1121.34, 1121.35, or 1121.41 of the 107295 Revised Code or to review, modify, suspend, terminate, or set 107296 aside an order issued under section 1121.32, 1121.33, 1121.34, 107297 1121.35, or 1121.41 of the Revised Code, except as provided in 107298 this section, in division (G) of section 1121.32 of the Revised 107299 Code for an order issued pursuant to division (C)(3) or (4) of 107300 section 1121.32 of the Revised Code, or in division (A)(3) of 107301 section 1121.34 of the Revised Code for an order issued pursuant 107302 to division (A)(1) of section 1121.34 of the Revised Code. 107303

(E) Nothing in this section or in any other section of the 107304 Revised Code or rules implementing this or any other section of 107305 the Revised Code shall prohibit or limit the superintendent from 107306 doing any of the following: 107307 provided by law or rule with respect to a bank, trust company, or 107311 regulated person; 107312

(3) Taking any action provided by law or rule with respect to 107313 a bank, trust company, or regulated person, whether alone or in 107314 conjunction with another regulatory agency or authority. 107315

Sec. 1509.031. (A) Notwithstanding any other provision of law 107316 to the contrary and other than a statement of production, the 107317 chief of the division of oil and gas resources management may 107318 require the electronic submission of any application, report, test 107319 result, fee, or document that is required to be submitted under 107320 this chapter. The chief shall require the submission of statements 107321 of production to be made electronically regardless of well type 107322 and the number of wells owned. 107323

(B) For good cause, a person may request to be excluded from 107324 any requirement to make an electronic submission under division 107325 (A) of this section other than the requirement to submit a 107326 statement of production electronically. The chief shall establish 107327 the procedure and form by which a person may request such 107328 exclusion. 107329

In addition, the owner shall provide, to the best of the owner's knowledge, the proposed estimated rate and volume of the water withdrawal for the production operations. If recycled water will be used in the production operations, the owner shall provide the estimated volume of recycled water to be used. the owner access to sample the water well. The sampling shall be 107392 conducted in accordance with the guidelines established in "Best 107393 Management Practices For Pre-drilling Water Sampling" in effect at 107394 the time that the application is submitted. The division shall 107395 furnish those guidelines upon request and shall make them 107396 available on the division's web site. If the chief determines that 107397 conditions at the proposed well site warrant a revision, the chief 107398 may revise the distance established in this division for purposes 107399 of pre-drilling water sampling. 107400

(9) For an application for a permit to drill a new well 107401 within an urbanized area, a sworn statement that the applicant has 107402 provided notice by regular mail of the application to the owner of 107403 each parcel of real property that is located within five hundred 107404 feet of the surface location of the well and to the executive 107405 authority of the municipal corporation or the board of township 107406 trustees of the township, as applicable, in which the well is to 107407 be located. In addition, the notice shall contain a statement that 107408 informs an owner of real property who is required to receive the 107409 notice under division (A)(9) of this section that within five days 107410 of receipt of the notice, the owner is required to provide notice 107411 under section 1509.60 of the Revised Code to each residence in an 107412 occupied dwelling that is located on the owner's parcel of real 107413 property. The notice shall contain a statement that an application 107414 has been filed with the division of oil and gas resources 107415 management, identify the name of the applicant and the proposed 107416 well location, include the name and address of the division, and 107417 contain a statement that comments regarding the application may be 107418 sent to the division. The notice may be provided by hand delivery 107419 or regular mail. The identity of the owners of parcels of real 107420 property shall be determined using the tax records of the 107421 municipal corporation or county in which a parcel of real property 107422 is located as of the date of the notice. 107423

(10) A plan for restoration of the land surface disturbed by 107424 drilling operations. The plan shall provide for compliance with 107425 the restoration requirements of division (A) of section 1509.072 107426 of the Revised Code and any rules adopted by the chief pertaining 107427 to that restoration. 107428

(11)(a) A description by name or number of the county, 107429 township, and municipal corporation roads, streets, and highways 107430 that the applicant anticipates will be used for access to and 107431 egress from the well site; 107432

(b) For an application for a permit for a horizontal well, a 107433 copy of an agreement concerning maintenance and safe use of the 107434 roads, streets, and highways described in division (A)(11)(a) of 107435 this section entered into on reasonable terms with the public 107436 official that has the legal authority to enter into such 107437 maintenance and use agreements for each county, township, and 107438 municipal corporation, as applicable, in which any such road, 107439 street, or highway is located or an affidavit on a form prescribed 107440 by the chief attesting that the owner attempted in good faith to 107441 enter into an agreement under division (A)(11)(b) of this section 107442 with the applicable public official of each such county, township, 107443 or municipal corporation, but that no agreement was executed. 107444

(12) Such other relevant information as the chief prescribes 107445
by rule. 107446

Each application shall be accompanied by a map, on a scale 107447 not smaller than four hundred feet to the inch, prepared by an 107448 Ohio registered surveyor, showing the location of the well and 107449 containing such other data as may be prescribed by the chief. If 107450 the well is or is to be located within the excavations and 107451 workings of a mine, the map also shall include the location of the mine, the name of the mine, and the name of the person operating the mine.

(B) The chief shall cause a copy of the weekly circular prepared by the division to be provided to the county engineer of each county that contains active or proposed drilling activity. The weekly circular shall contain, in the manner prescribed by the chief, the names of all applicants for permits, the location of each well or proposed well, the information required by division (A)(11) of this section, and any additional information the chief prescribes. In addition, the chief promptly shall transfer an electronic copy ~~or facsimile~~, or if ~~those methods are~~ that method is not available to a municipal corporation or township, a copy via regular mail, of a drilling permit application to the clerk of the legislative authority of the municipal corporation or to the clerk of the township in which the well or proposed well is or is to be located if the legislative authority of the municipal corporation or the board of township trustees has asked to receive copies of such applications and the appropriate clerk has provided the chief an accurate, current electronic mailing address ~~or facsimile number, as applicable.~~

(C)(1) Except as provided in division (C)(2) of this section, the chief shall not issue a permit for at least ten days after the date of filing of the application for the permit unless, upon reasonable cause shown, the chief waives that period or a request for expedited review is filed under this section. However, the chief shall issue a permit within twenty-one days of the filing of the application unless the chief denies the application by order.

(2) If the location of a well or proposed well will be or is within an urbanized area, the chief shall not issue a permit for at least eighteen days after the date of filing of the application for the permit unless, upon reasonable cause shown, the chief waives that period or the chief at the chief's discretion grants a 107484 request for an expedited review. However, the chief shall issue a 107485 permit for a well or proposed well within an urbanized area within 107486 thirty days of the filing of the application unless the chief 107487 denies the application by order. 107488

(D) An applicant may file a request with the chief for 107489 expedited review of a permit application if the well is not or is 107490 not to be located in a gas storage reservoir or reservoir 107491 protective area, as "reservoir protective area" is defined in 107492 section 1571.01 of the Revised Code. If the well is or is to be 107493 located in a coal bearing township, the application shall be 107494 accompanied by the affidavit of the landowner prescribed in 107495
section 1509.08 of the Revised Code. 107496

In addition to a complete application for a permit that meets 107497 the requirements of this section and the permit fee prescribed by 107498 this section, a request for expedited review shall be accompanied 107499 by a separate nonrefundable filing fee of two hundred fifty 107500 dollars. Upon the filing of a request for expedited review, the 107501 chief shall cause the county engineer of the county in which the 107502 well is or is to be located to be notified of the filing of the 107503 permit application and the request for expedited review by 107504 telephone or other means that in the judgment of the chief will 107505 provide timely notice of the application and request. The chief 107506 shall issue a permit within seven days of the filing of the 107507 request unless the chief denies the application by order. 107508 Notwithstanding the provisions of this section governing expedited 107509 review of permit applications, the chief may refuse to accept 107510 requests for expedited review if, in the chief's judgment, the 107511 acceptance of the requests would prevent the issuance, within 107512 twenty-one days of their filing, of permits for which applications 107513 are pending. 107514

(E) A well shall be drilled and operated in accordance with 107515

the plans, sworn statements, and other information submitted in 107516
the approved application. 107517

(F) The chief shall issue an order denying a permit if the 107518 chief finds that there is a substantial risk that the operation 107519 will result in violations of this chapter or rules adopted under 107520 it that will present an imminent danger to public health or safety 107521 or damage to the environment, provided that where the chief finds 107522 that terms or conditions to the permit can reasonably be expected 107523 to prevent such violations, the chief shall issue the permit 107524 subject to those terms or conditions, including, if applicable, 107525 terms and conditions regarding subjects identified in rules 107526 adopted under section 1509.03 of the Revised Code. The issuance of 107527 a permit shall not be considered an order of the chief. 107528

The chief shall post notice of each permit that has been 107529 approved under this section on the division's web site not later 107530 than two business days after the application for a permit has been 107531 approved. 107532

(G) Each application for a permit required by section 1509.05 107533 of the Revised Code, except an application for a well drilled or 107534 reopened for purposes of section 1509.22 of the Revised Code, also 107535 shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee as follows: 107536

(1) Five hundred dollars for a permit to conduct activities 107537 in a township with a population of fewer than ten thousand; 107538

(2) Seven hundred fifty dollars for a permit to conduct 107539 activities in a township with a population of ten thousand or 107540 more, but fewer than fifteen thousand; 107541

(3) One thousand dollars for a permit to conduct activities 107542 in either of the following: 107543

(a) A township with a population of fifteen thousand or more; 107544

(b) A municipal corporation regardless of population. 107545

(4) If the application is for a permit that requires 107546 mandatory pooling, an additional five thousand dollars. 107547

For purposes of calculating fee amounts, populations shall be 107548 determined using the most recent federal decennial census. 107549

Each application for the revision or reissuance of a permit 107550 shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee of two hundred fifty 107551 dollars. 107552

(H)(1) Prior to the commencement of well pad construction and 107553 prior to the issuance of a permit to drill a proposed horizontal 107554 well or a proposed well that is to be located in an urbanized 107555 area, the division shall conduct a site review to identify and 107556 evaluate any site-specific terms and conditions that may be 107557 attached to the permit. At the site review, a representative of 107558 the division shall consider fencing, screening, and landscaping 107559 requirements, if any, for similar structures in the community in 107560 which the well is proposed to be located. The terms and conditions 107561 that are attached to the permit shall include the establishment of 107562 fencing, screening, and landscaping requirements for the surface 107563 facilities of the proposed well, including a tank battery of the 107564 well. 107565

(2) Prior to the issuance of a permit to drill a proposed 107566 well, the division shall conduct a review to identify and evaluate 107567 any site-specific terms and conditions that may be attached to the 107568 permit if the proposed well will be located in a one-hundred-year 107569 floodplain or within the five-year time of travel associated with 107570 a public drinking water supply. 107571

(I) A permit shall be issued by the chief in accordance with 107572 this chapter. A permit issued under this section for a well that 107573 is or is to be located in an urbanized area shall be valid for 107574 twelve months, and all other permits issued under this section 107575 shall be valid for twenty-four months. 107576

(J) An applicant or a permittee, as applicable, shall submit 107577 to the chief an update of the information that is required under 107578 division (A)(8)(a) of this section if any of that information 107579 changes prior to commencement of production operations. 107580

(K) A permittee or a permittee's authorized representative 107581 shall notify an inspector from the division at least twenty-four 107582 hours, or another time period agreed to by the chief's authorized 107583 representative, prior to the commencement of well pad construction 107584 and of drilling, reopening, converting, well stimulation, or 107585 plugback operations. 107586

Sec. 1513.071. (A) Simultaneously with the filing of an 107587 application for a permit or significant revision of an existing 107588 permit under section 1513.07 of the Revised Code, the applicant 107589 shall submit to the chief of the division of mineral resources 107590 management a copy of the applicant's advertisement of the 107591 ownership, precise location, and boundaries of the land to be 107592 affected. At the time of submission, the advertisement shall be 107593 placed by the applicant in a newspaper of general circulation in 107594 the locality of the proposed coal mine at least once a week for 107595 four consecutive weeks. The chief shall notify, in each county or 107596 part of a county in which a proposed area to be permitted is 107597 located, the board of county commissioners, the board of township 107598 trustees, the legislative authorities of municipal corporations, 107599 private water companies, regional councils of governments, and the 107600 boards of directors of conservancy districts informing them of the 107601 operator's intention to conduct a coal mining operation on a 107602 particularly described tract of land and indicating the permit 107603 application number and where a copy of the proposed mining and 107604 reclamation plan may be inspected. The chief shall also notify the 107605 planning commissions with jurisdiction over all or part of the 107606 area to be permitted. These agencies, authorities, or companies 107607 may submit written comments on the application with respect to the 107608 effects of the proposed operation on the environment that are 107609 within their area of responsibility in quadruplicate to the chief 107610 within thirty days after notification by the chief of receipt of 107611 the application. The chief shall immediately transmit these 107612 comments to the applicant and make them available to the public at 107613 the same locations at which the mining application is available 107614 for inspection. 107615

(B) A person having an interest that is or may be adversely 107616 affected or the officer or head of any federal, state, or local 107617 governmental agency or authority may file written objections to 107618 the proposed initial or revised application for a coal mining and 107619 reclamation permit with the chief within thirty days after the 107620 last publication of the notice required by division (A) of this 107621 section. The objections shall immediately be transmitted to the 107622 applicant by the chief and shall be made available to the public. 107623
If written objections are filed and an informal conference 107624 requested, the chief or the chief's representative shall then hold 107625 an informal conference on the application for a permit within a 107626 reasonable time in the county where the largest area of the area 107627 to be permitted is located. The date, time, and location of the 107628 informal conference shall be advertised by the chief in a 107629 newspaper of general circulation in the locality at least two 107630 weeks prior to the scheduled conference date. The chief may 107631 arrange with the applicant, upon request by any objecting party, 107632 access to the proposed mining area for the purpose of gathering 107633 information relevant to the proceeding. An electronic ~~ex~~ 107634 ~~stenographic~~ record shall be made of the conference proceeding 107635 unless waived by all parties. The record shall be maintained and 107636 shall be accessible to the parties until final release of the 107637 applicant's performance security. If all parties requesting the 107638 informal conference stipulate agreement prior to the requested 107639 informal conference and withdraw their request, the informal 107640
conference need not be held. 107641

Sec. 1513.08. (A) After a coal mining and reclamation permit application has been approved, the applicant shall file with the chief of the division of mineral resources management, on a form prescribed and furnished by the chief, the performance security required under this section that shall be payable to the state and conditioned on the faithful performance of all the requirements of this chapter and rules adopted under it and the terms and conditions of the permit.

(B) Using the information contained in the permit application; the requirements contained in the approved permit and reclamation plan; and, after considering the topography, geology, hydrology, and revegetation potential of the area of the approved permit, the probable difficulty of reclamation; the chief shall determine the estimated cost of reclamation under the initial term of the permit if the reclamation has to be performed by the division of mineral resources management in the event of forfeiture of the performance security by the applicant. The chief shall send either written notice by certified mail or electronic notice with acknowledgment of receipt of the amount of the estimated cost of reclamation ~~by certified mail~~ to the applicant. The applicant shall send either written notice or electronic notice with acknowledgment of receipt to the chief indicating the method by which the applicant will provide the performance security pursuant to division (C) of this section.

(C) The applicant shall provide the performance security in an amount using one of the following:

will conduct a coal mining and reclamation operation under the 107673 initial term of the permit as indicated in the application; 107674

(2) If the applicant elects to provide performance security 107675 together with reliance on the reclamation forfeiture fund through 107676 payment of the additional tax on the severance of coal that is 107677 levied under division (A)(8) of section 5749.02 of the Revised 107678 Code, an amount of twenty-five hundred dollars per acre of land on 107679 which the operator will conduct coal mining and reclamation under 107680 the initial term of the permit as indicated in the application. In 107681 order for an applicant to be eligible to provide performance 107682 security in accordance with division (C)(2) of this section, the 107683 applicant, an owner and controller of the applicant, or an 107684 affiliate of the applicant shall have held a permit issued under 107685 this chapter for any coal mining and reclamation operation for a 107686 period of not less than five years. 107687

If a permit is transferred, assigned, or sold, the transferee 107688 is not eligible to provide performance security under division 107689 (C)(2) of this section if the transferee has not held a permit 107690 issued under this chapter for any coal mining and reclamation 107691 operation for a period of not less than five years. This 107692 restriction applies even if the status or name of the permittee 107693 otherwise remains the same after the transfer, assignment, or 107694 sale. 107695

In the event of forfeiture of performance security that was 107696 provided in accordance with division (C)(2) of this section, the 107697 difference between the amount of that performance security and the 107698 estimated cost of reclamation as determined by the chief under 107699 division (B) of this section shall be obtained from money in the 107700 reclamation forfeiture fund as needed to complete the reclamation. 107701

The performance security provided under division (C) of this 107702 section for the entire area to be mined under one permit issued 107703 under this chapter shall not be less than ten thousand dollars. 107704

The performance security shall cover areas of land affected 107705 by mining within or immediately adjacent to the permitted area, so 107706 long as the total number of acres does not exceed the number of 107707 acres for which the performance security is provided. However, the 107708 authority for the performance security to cover areas of land 107709 immediately adjacent to the permitted area does not authorize a 107710 permittee to mine areas outside an approved permit area. As 107711 succeeding increments of coal mining and reclamation operations 107712 are to be initiated and conducted within the permit area, the 107713 permittee shall file with the chief additional performance 107714 security to cover the increments in accordance with this section. 107715
If a permittee intends to mine areas outside the approved permit 107716 area, the permittee shall provide additional performance security 107717 in accordance with this section to cover the areas to be mined. 107718

If an applicant or permittee is not eligible to provide 107719 performance security in accordance with division (C)(2) of this 107720 section, the applicant or permittee shall provide performance 107721 security in accordance with division (C)(1) of this section in the 107722 full amount of the estimated cost of reclamation as determined by 107723 the chief for a permitted coal preparation plant or coal refuse 107724 disposal area that is not located within a permitted area of a 107725 mine. If an applicant for a permit for a coal preparation plant or 107726 coal refuse disposal area or a permittee of a permitted coal 107727 preparation plant or coal refuse disposal area that is not located 107728 within a permitted area of a mine has held a permit issued under 107729
this chapter for any coal mining and reclamation operation for a 107730 period of five years or more, the applicant or permittee may 107731 provide performance security for the coal preparation plant or 107732 coal refuse disposal area either in accordance with division 107733 (C)(1) of this section in the full amount of the estimated cost of 107734 reclamation as determined by the chief or in accordance with 107735 division (C)(2) of this section in an amount of twenty-five 107736 hundred dollars per acre of land with reliance on the reclamation 107737 forfeiture fund. If a permittee has previously provided 107738 performance security under division (C)(1) of this section for a 107739 coal preparation plant or coal refuse disposal area that is not 107740 located within a permitted area of a mine and elects to provide 107741

section, the permittee shall submit written notice to the chief 107743 indicating that the permittee elects to provide performance 107744 security in accordance with division (C)(2) of this section. Upon 107745 receipt of such a written notice, the chief shall release to the 107746 permittee the amount of the performance security previously 107747 provided under division (C)(1) of this section that exceeds the 107748 amount of performance security that is required to be provided 107749 under division (C)(2) of this section. 107750

(D) A permittee's liability under the performance security 107751 shall be limited to the obligations established under the permit, 107752 which include completion of the reclamation plan in order to make 107753 the land capable of supporting the postmining land use that was 107754 approved in the permit. The period of liability under the 107755 performance security shall be for the duration of the coal mining 107756 and reclamation operation and for a period coincident with the 107757 operator's responsibility for revegetation requirements under 107758
section 1513.16 of the Revised Code. 107759

(E) The amount of the estimated cost of reclamation 107760 determined under division (B) of this section and the amount of a 107761 permittee's performance security provided in accordance with 107762 division (C)(1) of this section shall be adjusted by the chief as 107763 the land that is affected by mining increases or decreases or if 107764 the cost of reclamation increases or decreases. If the performance 107765 security was provided in accordance with division (C)(2) of this 107766 section and the chief has issued a cessation order under division 107767 (D)(2) of section 1513.02 of the Revised Code for failure to abate 107768 a violation of the contemporaneous reclamation requirement under 107769 division (A)(15) of section 1513.16 of the Revised Code, the chief 107770 may require the permittee to increase the amount of performance 107771 security from twenty-five hundred dollars per acre of land to five 107772 thousand dollars per acre of land. 107773

The chief shall notify the permittee, each surety, and any 107774 person who has a property interest in the performance security and 107775 who has requested to be notified of any proposed adjustment to the 107776 performance security. The permittee may request an informal 107777 conference with the chief concerning the proposed adjustment, and 107778 the chief shall provide such an informal conference. 107779

If the chief increases the amount of performance security 107780 under this division, the permittee shall provide additional 107781 performance security in an amount determined by the chief. If the 107782 chief decreases the amount of performance security under this 107783 division, the chief shall determine the amount of the reduction of 107784 the performance security and send either written notice or 107785 electronic notice with acknowledgment of receipt of the amount of 107786 reduction to the permittee. The permittee may reduce the amount of 107787
the performance security in the amount determined by the chief. 107788

(F) A permittee may request a reduction in the amount of the 107789 performance security by submitting to the chief documentation 107790 proving that the amount of the performance security provided by 107791 the permittee exceeds the estimated cost of reclamation if the 107792 reclamation would have to be performed by the division in the 107793 event of forfeiture of the performance security. The chief shall 107794 examine the documentation and determine whether the permittee's 107795 performance security exceeds the estimated cost of reclamation. If 107796 the chief determines that the performance security exceeds that 107797 estimated cost, the chief shall determine the amount of the 107798 reduction of the performance security and send either written 107799 notice or electronic notice with acknowledgment of receipt of the 107800 amount to the permittee. The permittee may reduce the amount of 107801

Adjustments in the amount of performance security under this 107803 division shall not be considered release of performance security 107804 and are not subject to section 1513.16 of the Revised Code. 107805

(G) If the performance security is a bond, it shall be 107806 executed by the operator and a corporate surety licensed to do 107807 business in this state. If the performance security is a cash 107808 deposit or negotiable certificates of deposit of a bank or savings 107809 and loan association, the bank or savings and loan association 107810 shall be licensed and operating in this state. The cash deposit or 107811 market value of the securities shall be equal to or greater than 107812 the amount of the performance security required under this 107813 section. The chief shall review any documents pertaining to the 107814 performance security and approve or disapprove the documents. The 107815 chief shall notify the applicant of the chief's determination. 107816

(H) If the performance security is a bond, the chief may 107817 accept the bond of the applicant itself without separate surety 107818 when the applicant demonstrates to the satisfaction of the chief 107819 the existence of a suitable agent to receive service of process 107820 and a history of financial solvency and continuous operation 107821 sufficient for authorization to self-insure or bond the amount. 107822

(I) Performance security provided under this section may be 107823 held in trust, provided that the state is the primary beneficiary 107824 of the trust and the custodian of the performance security held in 107825 trust is a bank, trust company, or other financial institution 107826 that is licensed and operating in this state. The chief shall 107827 review the trust document and approve or disapprove the document. 107828
The chief shall notify the applicant of the chief's determination. 107829

(J) If a surety, bank, savings and loan association, trust 107830 company, or other financial institution that holds the performance 107831 security required under this section becomes insolvent, the 107832 permittee shall notify the chief of the insolvency, and the chief 107833 shall order the permittee to submit a plan for replacement 107834 performance security within thirty days after receipt of notice 107835 from the chief. If the permittee provided performance security in 107836 accordance with division (C)(1) of this section, the permittee 107837 shall provide the replacement performance security within ninety 107838 days after receipt of notice from the chief. If the permittee 107839 provided performance security in accordance with division (C)(2) 107840 of this section, the permittee shall provide the replacement 107841 performance security within one year after receipt of notice from 107842 the chief, and, for a period of one year after the permittee's 107843 receipt of notice from the chief or until the permittee provides 107844 the replacement performance security, whichever occurs first, 107845 money in the reclamation forfeiture fund shall be the permittee's 107846 replacement performance security in an amount not to exceed the 107847 estimated cost of reclamation as determined by the chief. 107848

(K) If a permittee provided performance security in 107849 accordance with division (C)(1) of this section, the permittee's 107850 responsibility for repairing material damage and replacement of 107851 water supply resulting from subsidence shall be satisfied by 107852 either of the following: 107853

(1) The purchase prior to mining of a noncancelable 107854 premium-prepaid liability insurance policy in lieu of the 107855 permittee's performance security for subsidence damage. The 107856 insurance policy shall contain terms and conditions that 107857 specifically provide coverage for repairing material damage and 107858 replacement of water supply resulting from subsidence. 107859

(2) The provision of additional performance security in the 107860 amount of the estimated cost to the division of mineral resources 107861 management to repair material damage and replace water supplies 107862 resulting from subsidence until the repair or replacement is 107863 completed. However, if such repair or replacement is completed, or 107864 compensation for structures that have been damaged by subsidence 107865 is provided, by the permittee within ninety days of the occurrence 107866 of the subsidence, additional performance security is not 107867 required. In addition, the chief may extend the ninety-day period 107868 for a period not to exceed one year if the chief determines that 107869 the permittee has demonstrated in writing that subsidence is not 107870 complete and that probable subsidence-related damage likely will 107871 occur and, as a result, the completion of repairs of 107872 subsidence-related material damage to lands or protected 107873 structures or the replacement of water supply within ninety days 107874 of the occurrence of the subsidence would be unreasonable. 107875

(L) If the performance security provided in accordance with 107876 this section exceeds the estimated cost of reclamation, the chief 107877 may authorize the amount of the performance security that exceeds 107878 the estimated cost of reclamation together with any interest or 107879 other earnings on the performance security to be paid to the 107880
permittee. 107881

(M) A permittee that held a valid coal mining and reclamation 107882 permit immediately prior to April 6, 2007, shall provide, not 107883 later than a date established by the chief, performance security 107884 in accordance with division (C)(1) or (2) of this section, rather 107885 than in accordance with the law as it existed prior to that date, 107886 by filing it with the chief on a form that the chief prescribes 107887 and furnishes. Accordingly, for purposes of this section, 107888
"applicant" is deemed to include such a permittee. 107889

(N) As used in this section: 107890

(1) "Affiliate of the applicant" means an entity that has a 107891 parent entity in common with the applicant. 107892

(2) "Owner and controller of the applicant" means a person 107893 that has any relationship with the applicant that gives the person 107894 authority to determine directly or indirectly the manner in which 107895 the applicant conducts coal mining operations. 107896

Sec. 1513.16. (A) Any permit issued under this chapter to 107897 conduct coal mining operations shall require that the operations 107898 meet all applicable performance standards of this chapter and such 107899 other requirements as the chief of the division of mineral 107900 resources management shall adopt by rule. General performance 107901 standards shall apply to all coal mining and reclamation 107902 operations and shall require the operator at a minimum to do all 107903 of the following: 107904

(1) Conduct coal mining operations so as to maximize the 107905 utilization and conservation of the solid fuel resource being 107906 recovered so that re-affecting the land in the future through coal 107907 mining can be minimized; 107908

(2) Restore the land affected to a condition capable of 107909 supporting the uses that it was capable of supporting prior to any 107910 mining, or higher or better uses of which there is reasonable 107911 likelihood, so long as the uses do not present any actual or 107912 probable hazard to public health or safety or pose any actual or 107913 probable threat of diminution or pollution of the waters of the 107914 state, and the permit applicants' declared proposed land uses 107915 following reclamation are not considered to be impractical or 107916 unreasonable, to be inconsistent with applicable land use policies 107917 and plans, to involve unreasonable delay in implementation, or to 107918 violate federal, state, or local law; 107919

(3) Except as provided in division (B) of this section, with 107920 respect to all coal mining operations, backfill, compact where 107921 advisable to ensure stability or to prevent leaching of toxic 107922 materials, and grade in order to restore the approximate original 107923 contour of the land with all highwalls, spoil piles, and 107924 depressions eliminated unless small depressions are needed in 107925 order to retain moisture to assist revegetation or as otherwise 107926 authorized pursuant to this chapter, provided that if the operator 107927 demonstrates that due to volumetric expansion the amount of 107928 overburden and the spoil and waste materials removed in the course 107929 of the mining operation are more than sufficient to restore the 107930 approximate original contour, the operator shall backfill, grade, 107931 and compact the excess overburden and other spoil and waste 107932 materials to attain the lowest grade, but not more than the angle 107933 of repose, and to cover all acid-forming and other toxic materials 107934 in order to achieve an ecologically sound land use compatible with 107935 the surrounding region in accordance with the approved mining 107936 plan. The overburden or spoil shall be shaped and graded in such a 107937 way as to prevent slides, erosion, and water pollution and shall 107938 be revegetated in accordance with this chapter. 107939

(4) Stabilize and protect all surface areas, including spoil 107940 piles affected by the coal mining and reclamation operation, to 107941 control erosion and attendant air and water pollution effectively; 107942

(5) Remove the topsoil from the land in a separate layer, 107943 replace it on the backfill area, or, if not utilized immediately, 107944 segregate it in a separate pile from the spoil, and when the 107945 topsoil is not replaced on a backfill area within a time short 107946 enough to avoid deterioration of the topsoil, maintain a 107947 successful cover by quick-growing plants or other means thereafter 107948 so that the topsoil is preserved from wind and water erosion, 107949 remains free of any contamination by acid or other toxic material, 107950 and is in a usable condition for sustaining vegetation when 107951 restored during reclamation. If the topsoil is of insufficient 107952 quantity or of poor quality for sustaining vegetation or if other 107953 strata can be shown to be more suitable for vegetation 107954 requirements, the operator shall remove, segregate, and preserve 107955 in a like manner such other strata as are best able to support 107956 vegetation. 107957

(6) Restore the topsoil or the best available subsoil that is 107958 best able to support vegetation; 107959

(7) For all prime farmlands as identified in division 107960
(B)(1)(p) of section 1513.07 of the Revised Code to be mined and 107961 reclaimed, perform soil removal, storage, replacement, and 107962 reconstruction in accordance with specifications established by 107963 the secretary of the United States department of agriculture under 107964 the "Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977," 91 Stat. 107965 445, 30 U.S.C.A. 1201. The operator, at a minimum, shall be 107966 required to do all of the following: 107967

(a) Segregate the A horizon of the natural soil, except where 107968 it can be shown that other available soil materials will create a 107969 final soil having a greater productive capacity, and, if not 107970 utilized immediately, stockpile this material separately from the 107971 spoil and provide needed protection from wind and water erosion or 107972 contamination by acid or other toxic material; 107973

(b) Segregate the B horizon of the natural soil, or 107974 underlying C horizons or other strata, or a combination of such 107975 horizons or other strata that are shown to be both texturally and 107976 chemically suitable for plant growth and that can be shown to be 107977 equally or more favorable for plant growth than the B horizon, in 107978 sufficient quantities to create in the regraded final soil a root 107979 zone of comparable depth and quality to that which existed in the 107980 natural soil, and, if not utilized immediately, stockpile this 107981 material separately from the spoil and provide needed protection 107982 from wind and water erosion or contamination by acid or other 107983 toxic material; 107984

(c) Replace and regrade the root zone material described in 107985 division (A)(7)(b) of this section with proper compaction and 107986 uniform depth over the regraded spoil material; 107987

(d) Redistribute and grade in a uniform manner the surface 107988 soil horizon described in division (A)(7)(a) of this section. 107989

(8) Create, if authorized in the approved mining and 107990 reclamation plan and permit, permanent impoundments of water on 107991 mining sites as part of reclamation activities only when it is 107992 adequately demonstrated by the operator that all of the following 107993 conditions will be met: 107994

(a) The size of the impoundment is adequate for its intended 107995 purposes. 107996

(b) The impoundment dam construction will be so designed as 107997 to achieve necessary stability with an adequate margin of safety 107998 compatible with that of structures constructed under the 107999
"Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act," 68 Stat. 666 108000 (1954), 16 U.S.C. 1001, as amended. 108001

(c) The quality of impounded water will be suitable on a 108002 permanent basis for its intended use and discharges from the 108003 impoundment will not degrade the water quality below water quality 108004 standards established pursuant to applicable federal and state law 108005 in the receiving stream. 108006

(d) The level of water will be reasonably stable. 108007

(e) Final grading will provide adequate safety and access for 108008 proposed water users. 108009

(f) The water impoundments will not result in the diminution 108010 of the quality or quantity of water utilized by adjacent or 108011 surrounding landowners for agricultural, industrial, recreational, 108012 or domestic uses. 108013

(9) Conduct any augering operation associated with strip 108014 mining in a manner to maximize recoverability of mineral reserves 108015 remaining after the operation and reclamation are complete and 108016 seal all auger holes with an impervious and noncombustible 108017 material in order to prevent drainage, except where the chief 108018 determines that the resulting impoundment of water in such auger 108019 holes may create a hazard to the environment or the public health 108020 or safety. The chief may prohibit augering if necessary to 108021 maximize the utilization, recoverability, or conservation of the 108022 solid fuel resources or to protect against adverse water quality 108023 impacts. 108024

(10) Minimize the disturbances to the prevailing hydrologic 108025 balance at the mine site and in associated offsite areas and to 108026 the quality and quantity of water in surface and ground water 108027 systems both during and after coal mining operations and during 108028 reclamation by doing all of the following: 108029

(a) Avoiding acid or other toxic mine drainage by such 108030 measures as, but not limited to: 108031

(i) Preventing or removing water from contact with toxic 108032 producing deposits; 108033

(ii) Treating drainage to reduce toxic content that adversely 108034 affects downstream water upon being released to water courses in 108035 accordance with rules adopted by the chief in accordance with 108036
section 1513.02 of the Revised Code; 108037

(iii) Casing, sealing, or otherwise managing boreholes, 108038 shafts, and wells, and keeping acid or other toxic drainage from 108039 entering ground and surface waters. 108040

(b)(i) Conducting coal mining operations so as to prevent, to 108041 the extent possible using the best technology currently available, 108042 additional contributions of suspended solids to streamflow or 108043 runoff outside the permit area, but in no event shall 108044 contributions be in excess of requirements set by applicable state 108045 or federal laws; 108046

(ii) Constructing any siltation structures pursuant to 108047 division (A)(10)(b)(i) of this section prior to commencement of 108048 coal mining operations. The structures shall be certified by 108049 persons approved by the chief to be constructed as designed and as 108050 approved in the reclamation plan. 108051

(c) Cleaning out and removing temporary or large settling ponds or other siltation structures from drainways after disturbed areas are revegetated and stabilized, and depositing the silt and debris at a site and in a manner approved by the chief; 108052
108055

(d) Restoring recharge capacity of the mined area to approximate premining conditions; 108056
108057

(e) Avoiding channel deepening or enlargement in operations requiring the discharge of water from mines; 108058

(f) Such other actions as the chief may prescribe. 108060

108064
108065
108066
108067
108069

108073
108074
108076

(a) The nature, timing, and sequencing of the approximate coincidence of specific strip mine activities with specific underground mine activities are approved by the chief. 108077

(b) The operations will result in improved resource recovery, abatement of water pollution, or elimination of hazards to the health and safety of the public. 108080

(13) Design, locate, construct, operate, maintain, enlarge, 108083 modify, and remove or abandon, in accordance with the standards 108084 and criteria developed pursuant to rules adopted by the chief, all 108085 existing and new coal mine waste piles consisting of mine wastes, 108086 tailings, coal processing wastes, or other liquid and solid 108087 wastes, and used either temporarily or permanently as dams or 108088 embankments; 108089

(14) Ensure that all debris, acid-forming materials, toxic 108090 materials, or materials constituting a fire hazard are treated or 108091 buried and compacted or otherwise disposed of in a manner designed 108092 to prevent contamination of ground or surface waters and that 108093 contingency plans are developed to prevent sustained combustion; 108094

(15) Ensure that all reclamation efforts proceed in an 108095 environmentally sound manner and as contemporaneously as 108096 practicable with the coal mining operations, except that where the 108097 applicant proposes to combine strip mining operations with 108098 underground mining operations to ensure maximum practical recovery 108099 of the mineral resources, the chief may grant a variance for 108100 specific areas within the reclamation plan from the requirement 108101 that reclamation efforts proceed as contemporaneously as 108102 practicable to permit underground mining operations prior to 108103 reclamation if: 108104

(a) The chief finds in writing that: 108105

(i) The applicant has presented, as part of the permit 108106 application, specific, feasible plans for the proposed underground 108107 mining operations. 108108

(ii) The proposed underground mining operations are necessary 108109 or desirable to ensure maximum practical recovery of the mineral 108110 resource and will avoid multiple disturbance of the surface. 108111

(iii) The applicant has satisfactorily demonstrated that the 108112 plan for the underground mining operations conforms to 108113 requirements for underground mining in this state and that permits 108114 necessary for the underground mining operations have been issued 108115 by the appropriate authority. 108116

(iv) The areas proposed for the variance have been shown by 108117 the applicant to be necessary for the implementing of the proposed 108118 underground mining operations. 108119

(v) No substantial adverse environmental damage, either 108120 on-site or off-site, will result from the delay in completion of 108121 reclamation as required by this chapter. 108122

(vi) Provisions for the off-site storage of spoil will comply 108123 with division (A)(21) of this section. 108124

(b) The chief has adopted specific rules to govern the 108125 granting of such variances in accordance with this division and 108126 has imposed such additional requirements as the chief considers 108127 necessary. 108128

(c) Variances granted under this division shall be reviewed 108129 by the chief not more than three years from the date of issuance 108130 of the permit. 108131

(d) Liability under the performance security filed by the 108132 applicant with the chief pursuant to section 1513.08 of the 108133 Revised Code shall be for the duration of the underground mining 108134 operations and until the requirements of this section and section 108135 1513.08 of the Revised Code have been fully complied with. 108136

(16) Ensure that the construction, maintenance, and 108137 postmining conditions of access roads into and across the site of 108138 operations will control or prevent erosion and siltation, 108139 pollution of water, and damage to fish or wildlife or their 108140 habitat, or to public or private property; 108141

(17) Refrain from the construction of roads or other access 108142 ways up a stream bed or drainage channel or in such proximity to 108143

the channel as to seriously alter the normal flow of water; 108144

(18) Establish, on the regraded areas and all other lands 108145 affected, a diverse, effective, and permanent vegetative cover of 108146 the same seasonal variety native to the area of land to be 108147 affected and capable of self-regeneration and plant succession at 108148 least equal in extent of cover to the natural vegetation of the 108149 area, except that introduced species may be used in the 108150 revegetation process where desirable and necessary to achieve the 108151 approved postmining land use plan; 108152

(19)(a) Assume the responsibility for successful 108153 revegetation, as required by division (A)(18) of this section, for 108154 a period of five full years after the last year of augmented 108155 seeding, fertilizing, irrigation, or other work in order to ensure 108156 compliance with that division, except that when the chief approves 108157 a long-term intensive agricultural postmining land use, the 108158 applicable five-year period of responsibility for revegetation 108159 shall commence at the date of initial planting for that long-term 108160 intensive agricultural postmining land use, and except that when 108161 the chief issues a written finding approving a long-term intensive 108162 agricultural postmining land use as part of the mining and 108163 reclamation plan, the chief may grant an exception to division 108164
(A)(18) of this section; 108165

(b) On lands eligible for remining, assume the responsibility 108166 for successful revegetation, as required by division (A)(18) of 108167 this section, for a period of two full years after the last year 108168 of augmented seeding, fertilizing, irrigation, or other work in 108169 order to ensure compliance with that division. 108170

(20) Protect off-site areas from slides or damage occurring 108171 during the coal mining and reclamation operations and not deposit 108172 spoil material or locate any part of the operations or waste 108173 accumulations outside the permit area; 108174

(21) Place all excess spoil material resulting from coal mining and reclamation operations in such a manner that all of the following apply:

(a) Spoil is transported and placed in a controlled manner in position for concurrent compaction and in such a way as to ensure mass stability and to prevent mass movement.

(b) The areas of disposal are within the permit areas for which performance security has been provided. All organic matter shall be removed immediately prior to spoil placement except in the zoned concept method.

(c) Appropriate surface and internal drainage systems and diversion ditches are used so as to prevent spoil erosion and mass movement.

(d) The disposal area does not contain springs, natural watercourses, or wet weather seeps unless lateral drains are constructed from the wet areas to the main underdrains in such a manner that filtration of the water into the spoil pile will be prevented unless the zoned concept method is used.

(e) If placed on a slope, the spoil is placed upon the most moderate slope among those slopes upon which, in the judgment of the chief, the spoil could be placed in compliance with all the requirements of this chapter and is placed, where possible, upon, or above, a natural terrace, bench, or berm if that placement provides additional stability and prevents mass movement.

(f) Where the toe of the spoil rests on a downslope, a rock toe buttress of sufficient size to prevent mass movement is constructed.

(g) The final configuration is compatible with the natural drainage pattern and surroundings and suitable for intended uses.

(h) Design of the spoil disposal area is certified by a qualified registered professional engineer in conformance with professional standards. 108205

(i) All other provisions of this chapter are met. 108207

(22) Meet such other criteria as are necessary to achieve reclamation in accordance with the purpose of this chapter, taking into consideration the physical, climatological, and other characteristics of the site; 108208
108211

(23) To the extent possible, using the best technology currently available, minimize disturbances and adverse impacts of the operation on fish, wildlife, and related environmental values, and achieve enhancement of such resources where practicable; 108212
108213
108215

(24) Provide for an undisturbed natural barrier beginning at the elevation of the lowest coal seam to be mined and extending from the outslope for such distance as the chief shall determine to be retained in place as a barrier to slides and erosion; 108216
108217
108219

(25) Restore on the permit area streams and wetlands affected by mining operations unless the chief approves restoration off the permit area without a permit required by section 1513.07 or 1513.074 of the Revised Code, instead of restoration on the permit area, of a stream or wetland or a portion of a stream or wetland, provided that the chief first makes all of the following written determinations: 108220
108223
108224
108226

(a) A hydrologic and engineering assessment of the affected lands, submitted by the operator, demonstrates that restoration on the permit area is not possible. 108227

108231
108234

(c) Mitigation activities off the permit area, including 108235 mitigation banking and payment of in-lieu mitigation fees, will be 108236 performed pursuant to a permit issued under sections 401 and 404 108237 of the "Federal Water Pollution Control Act" as defined in section 108238 6111.01 of the Revised Code or an isolated wetland permit issued 108239 under Chapter 6111. of the Revised Code or pursuant to a no-cost 108240 reclamation contract for the restoration of water resources 108241 affected by past mining activities pursuant to section 1513.37 of 108242
the Revised Code. 108243

(d) The proposed mitigation plan and mitigation activities 108244 comply with the standards established in this section. 108245

If the chief approves restoration off the permit area in 108246 accordance with this division, the operator shall complete all 108247 mitigation construction or other activities required by the 108248 mitigation plan. 108249

Performance security for reclamation activities on the permit 108250 area shall be released pursuant to division (F) of this section, 108251 except that the release of the remaining portion of performance 108252 security under division (F)(3)(c) of this section shall not be 108253 approved prior to the construction of required mitigation 108254 activities off the permit area. 108255

(B)(1) The chief may permit mining operations for the 108256 purposes set forth in division (B)(3) of this section. 108257

(2) When an applicant meets the requirements of divisions 108258
(B)(3) and (4) of this section, a permit without regard to the 108259 requirement to restore to approximate original contour known as 108260 mountain top removal set forth in divisions (A)(3) or (C)(2) and 108261 (3) of this section may be granted for the mining of coal where 108262 the mining operation will remove an entire coal seam or seams 108263 running through the upper fraction of a mountain, ridge, or hill, 108264 except as provided in division (B)(4)(a) of this section, by 108265 removing all of the overburden and creating a level plateau or a gently rolling contour with no highwalls remaining, and capable of supporting postmining uses in accordance with this division.

(3) In cases where an industrial, commercial, agricultural, residential, or public facility use, including recreational facilities, is proposed for the postmining use of the affected land, the chief may grant a permit for a mining operation of the nature described in division (B)(2) of this section when all of the following apply:

(a) After consultation with the appropriate land use planning agencies, if any, the proposed postmining land use is considered to constitute an equal or better economic or public use of the affected land, as compared with premining use.

(b) The applicant presents specific plans for the proposed postmining land use and appropriate assurances that the use will be all of the following:

(i) Compatible with adjacent land uses;

(ii) Obtainable according to data regarding expected need and market;

(iii) Assured of investment in necessary public facilities;

(iv) Supported by commitments from public agencies where appropriate;

(v) Practicable with respect to private financial capability for completion of the proposed use;

(vi) Planned pursuant to a schedule attached to the reclamation plan so as to integrate the mining operation and reclamation with the postmining land use;

(vii) Designed by a registered engineer in conformity with professional standards established to ensure the stability, drainage, and configuration necessary for the intended use of the site. 108296

(c) The proposed use is consistent with adjacent land uses 108297 and existing state and local land use plans and programs. 108298

(d) The chief provides the governing body of the unit of 108299 general-purpose local government in which the land is located, and 108300 any state or federal agency that the chief, in the chief's 108301 discretion, determines to have an interest in the proposed use, an 108302 opportunity of not more than sixty days to review and comment on 108303 the proposed use. 108304

(e) All other requirements of this chapter will be met. 108305

(4) In granting a permit pursuant to this division, the chief 108306 shall require that each of the following is met: 108307

(a) The toe of the lowest coal seam and the overburden 108308 associated with it are retained in place as a barrier to slides 108309 and erosion. 108310

(b) The reclaimed area is stable. 108311

(c) The resulting plateau or rolling contour drains inward 108312 from the out slopes except at specified points. 108313

(d) No damage will be done to natural watercourses. 108314

(e) Spoil will be placed on the mountaintop bench as is 108315 necessary to achieve the planned postmining land use, except that 108316 all excess spoil material not retained on the mountaintop bench 108317 shall be placed in accordance with division (A)(21) of this 108318
section. 108319

(f) Stability of the spoil retained on the mountaintop bench 108320 is ensured and the other requirements of this chapter are met. 108321

(5) The chief shall adopt specific rules to govern the 108322 granting of permits in accordance with divisions (B)(1) to (4) of 108323 this section and may impose such additional requirements as the 108324 chief considers necessary. 108325

(6) All permits granted under divisions (B)(1) to (4) of this section shall be reviewed not more than three years from the date of issuance of the permit unless the applicant affirmatively demonstrates that the proposed development is proceeding in accordance with the terms of the approved schedule and reclamation plan.

(C) All of the following performance standards apply to steep-slope coal mining and are in addition to those general performance standards required by this section, except that this division does not apply to those situations in which an operator is mining on flat or gently rolling terrain on which an occasional steep slope is encountered through which the mining operation is to proceed, leaving a plain or predominantly flat area, or where an operator is in compliance with division (B) of this section:

(1) The operator shall ensure that when performing coal mining on steep slopes, no debris, abandoned or disabled equipment, spoil material, or waste mineral matter is placed on the downslope below the bench or mining cut. Spoil material in excess of that required for the reconstruction of the approximate original contour under division (A)(3) or (C)(2) of this section shall be permanently stored pursuant to division (A)(21) of this section.

(2) The operator shall complete backfilling with spoil material to cover completely the highwall and return the site to the approximate original contour, which material will maintain stability following mining and reclamation.

(3) The operator shall not disturb land above the top of the highwall unless the chief finds that the disturbance will facilitate compliance with the environmental protection standards of this section, except that any such disturbance involving land above the highwall shall be limited to that amount of land necessary to facilitate compliance.

(D)(1) The chief may permit variances for the purposes set forth in division (D)(3) of this section, provided that the watershed control of the area is improved and that complete backfilling with spoil material shall be required to cover completely the highwall, which material will maintain stability following mining and reclamation.

(2) Where an applicant meets the requirements of divisions (D)(3) and (4) of this section, a variance from the requirement to restore to approximate original contour set forth in division (C)(2) of this section may be granted for the mining of coal when the owner of the surface knowingly requests in writing, as a part of the permit application, that such a variance be granted so as to render the land, after reclamation, suitable for an industrial, commercial, residential, or public use, including recreational facilities, in accordance with divisions (D)(3) and (4) of this section.

(3) A variance pursuant to division (D)(2) of this section may be granted if:

(a) After consultation with the appropriate land use planning agencies, if any, the potential use of the affected land is considered to constitute an equal or better economic or public use.

(b) The postmining land condition is designed and certified by a registered professional engineer in conformity with professional standards established to ensure the stability, drainage, and configuration necessary for the intended use of the site.

(c) After approval of the appropriate state environmental agencies, the watershed of the affected land is considered to be improved.

(4) In granting a variance pursuant to division (D) of this section, the chief shall require that only such amount of spoil 108389 will be placed off the mine bench as is necessary to achieve the 108390 planned postmining land use, ensure stability of the spoil 108391 retained on the bench, and meet all other requirements of this 108392 chapter. All spoil placement off the mine bench shall comply with 108393

granting of variances under division (D) of this section and may 108396 impose such additional requirements as the chief considers 108397
necessary. 108398

(6) All variances granted under division (D) of this section 108399 shall be reviewed not more than three years from the date of 108400 issuance of the permit unless the permittee affirmatively 108401 demonstrates that the proposed development is proceeding in 108402 accordance with the terms of the reclamation plan. 108403

(E) The chief shall establish standards and criteria 108404 regulating the design, location, construction, operation, 108405 maintenance, enlargement, modification, removal, and abandonment 108406 of new and existing coal mine waste piles referred to in division 108407 (A)(13) of this section and division (A)(5) of section 1513.35 of 108408 the Revised Code. The standards and criteria shall conform to the 108409 standards and criteria used by the chief of the United States army 108410 corps of engineers to ensure that flood control structures are 108411 safe and effectively perform their intended function. In addition 108412 to engineering and other technical specifications, the standards 108413 and criteria developed pursuant to this division shall include 108414 provisions for review and approval of plans and specifications 108415 prior to construction, enlargement, modification, removal, or 108416 abandonment; performance of periodic inspections during 108417 construction; issuance of certificates of approval upon completion 108418 of construction; performance of periodic safety inspections; and 108419 issuance of notices for required remedial or maintenance work. 108420

(F)(1) The permittee may file a request with the chief for 108421 release of a part of a performance security under division (F)(3) 108422 of this section. Within thirty days after any request for 108423 performance security release under this section has been filed 108424 with the chief, the operator shall submit a copy of an 108425 advertisement placed at least once a week for four successive 108426 weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the locality of the 108427 coal mining operation. The advertisement shall be considered part 108428 of any performance security release application and shall contain 108429 a notification of the precise location of the land affected, the 108430 number of acres, the permit number and the date approved, the 108431 amount of the performance security filed and the portion sought to 108432 be released, the type and appropriate dates of reclamation work 108433 performed, and a description of the results achieved as they 108434 relate to the operator's approved reclamation plan and, if 108435 applicable, the operator's pollution abatement plan. In addition, 108436 as part of any performance security release application, the 108437 applicant shall submit copies of the letters sent to adjoining 108438 property owners, local governmental bodies, planning agencies, and 108439 sewage and water treatment authorities or water companies in the 108440 locality in which the coal mining and reclamation activities took 108441 place, notifying them of the applicant's intention to seek release 108442 from the performance security. 108443

(2) Upon receipt of a copy of the advertisement and request 108444 for release of a performance security under division (F)(3)(c) of 108445 this section, the chief, within thirty days, shall conduct an 108446 inspection and evaluation of the reclamation work involved. The 108447 evaluation shall consider, among other things, the degree of 108448 difficulty to complete any remaining reclamation, whether 108449 pollution of surface and subsurface water is occurring, the 108450 probability of continuation or future occurrence of the pollution, 108451 and the estimated cost of abating the pollution. The chief shall 108452 notify the permittee in writing of the decision to release or not 108453 to release all or part of the performance security within sixty 108454 days after the filing of the request if no public hearing is held 108455 pursuant to division (F)(6) of this section or, if there has been 108456 a public hearing held pursuant to division (F)(6) of this section, 108457 within thirty days thereafter. 108458

(3) The chief may release the performance security if the 108459 reclamation covered by the performance security or portion thereof 108460 has been accomplished as required by this chapter and rules 108461 adopted under it according to the following schedule: 108462

(a) When the operator completes the backfilling, regrading, 108463 and drainage control of an area for which performance security has 108464 been provided in accordance with the approved reclamation plan, 108465 and, if the area covered by the performance security is one for 108466 which an authorization was made under division (E)(7) of section 108467 1513.07 of the Revised Code, the operator has complied with the 108468 approved pollution abatement plan and all additional requirements 108469 established by the chief in rules adopted under section 1513.02 of 108470 the Revised Code governing coal mining and reclamation operations 108471 on pollution abatement areas, the chief shall grant a release of 108472 fifty per cent of the performance security for the applicable 108473 permit area. 108474

(b) After resoiling and revegetation have been established on 108475 the regraded mined lands in accordance with the approved 108476 reclamation plan, the chief shall grant a release in an amount not 108477 exceeding thirty-five per cent of the original performance 108478 security for all or part of the affected area under the permit. 108479
When determining the amount of performance security to be released 108480 after successful revegetation has been established, the chief 108481 shall retain that amount of performance security for the 108482 revegetated area that would be sufficient for a third party to 108483 cover the cost of reestablishing revegetation for the period 108484 specified for operator responsibility in this section for 108485 reestablishing revegetation. No part of the performance security 108486 shall be released under this division so long as the lands to 108487 which the release would be applicable are contributing suspended 108488 solids to streamflow or runoff outside the permit area in excess 108489 of the requirements of this section or until soil productivity for 108490 prime farmlands has returned to equivalent levels of yield as 108491 nonmined land of the same soil type in the surrounding area under 108492 equivalent management practices as determined from the soil survey 108493 performed pursuant to section 1513.07 of the Revised Code. If the 108494 area covered by the performance security is one for which an 108495 authorization was made under division (E)(7) of section 1513.07 of 108496 the Revised Code, no part of the performance security shall be 108497 released under this division until the operator has complied with 108498 the approved pollution abatement plan and all additional 108499 requirements established by the chief in rules adopted under 108500 section 1513.02 of the Revised Code governing coal mining and 108501 reclamation operations on pollution abatement areas. Where a silt 108502 dam is to be retained as a permanent impoundment pursuant to 108503 division (A)(10) of this section, the portion of performance 108504 security may be released under this division so long as provisions 108505 for sound future maintenance by the operator or the landowner have 108506 been made with the chief. 108507

(c) When the operator has completed successfully all coal 108508 mining and reclamation activities, including, if applicable, all 108509 additional requirements established in the pollution abatement 108510 plan approved under division (E)(7) of section 1513.07 of the 108511 Revised Code and all additional requirements established by the 108512 chief in rules adopted under section 1513.02 of the Revised Code 108513 governing coal mining and reclamation operations on pollution 108514 abatement areas, the chief shall release all or any of the 108515 remaining portion of the performance security for all or part of 108516 the affected area under a permit, but not before the expiration of 108517 the period specified for operator responsibility in this section, 108518 except that the chief may adopt rules for a variance to the 108519 operator period of responsibility considering vegetation success 108520 and probability of continued growth and consent of the landowner, 108521 provided that no performance security shall be fully released 108522 until all reclamation requirements of this chapter are fully met. 108523

(4) If the chief disapproves the application for release of 108524 the performance security or portion thereof, the chief shall 108525 notify the permittee, in writing, stating the reasons for 108526 disapproval and recommending corrective actions necessary to 108527 secure the release, and allowing the opportunity for a public 108528 adjudicatory hearing. 108529

(5) When any application for total or partial performance 108530 security release is filed with the chief under this section, the 108531 chief shall notify the municipal corporation in which the coal 108532 mining operation is located by certified mail at least thirty days 108533 prior to the release of all or a portion of the performance 108534 security. 108535

(6) A person with a valid legal interest that might be 108536 adversely affected by release of a performance security under this 108537 section or the responsible officer or head of any federal, state, 108538 or local government agency that has jurisdiction by law or special 108539 expertise with respect to any environmental, social, or economic 108540 impact involved in the operation or is authorized to develop and 108541 enforce environmental standards with respect to such operations 108542 may file written objections to the proposed release from the 108543 performance security with the chief within thirty days after the 108544 last publication of the notice required by division (F)(1) of this 108545 section. If written objections are filed and an informal 108546 conference is requested, the chief shall inform all interested 108547 parties of the time and place of the conference. The date, time, 108548 and location of the informal conference shall be advertised by the 108549 chief in a newspaper of general circulation in the locality of the 108550 coal mining operation proposed for performance security release 108551 for at least once a week for two consecutive weeks. The informal 108552 conference shall be held in the locality of the coal mining 108553 operation proposed for performance security release or in Franklin 108554 county, at the option of the objector, within thirty days after 108555 the request for the conference. An electronic ~~or stenographic~~ 108556 record shall be made of the conference proceeding unless waived by 108557 all parties. The record shall be maintained and shall be 108558 accessible to the parties until final release of the performance 108559 security at issue. In the event all parties requesting the 108560 informal conference stipulate agreement prior to the requested 108561

informal conference and withdraw their request, the informal 108562
conference need not be held. 108563

(7) If an informal conference has been held pursuant to 108564 division (F)(6) of this section, the chief shall issue and furnish 108565 the applicant and persons who participated in the conference with 108566 the written decision regarding the release within sixty days after 108567 the conference. Within thirty days after notification of the final 108568 decision of the chief regarding the performance security release, 108569 the applicant or any person with an interest that is or may be 108570 adversely affected by the decision may appeal the decision to the 108571 reclamation commission pursuant to section 1513.13 of the Revised 108572
Code. 108573

(8)(a) If the chief determines that a permittee is 108574 responsible for mine drainage that requires water treatment after 108575 reclamation is completed under the terms of the permit or that a 108576 permittee must provide an alternative water supply after 108577 reclamation is completed under the terms of the permit, the 108578 permittee shall provide alternative financial security in an 108579 amount determined by the chief prior to the release of the 108580 remaining portion of performance security under division (F)(3)(c) 108581 of this section. The alternative financial security shall be in an 108582 amount that is equal to or greater than the present value of the 108583 estimated cost over time to develop and implement mine drainage 108584 plans and provide water treatment or in an amount that is 108585 necessary to provide and maintain an alternative water supply, as 108586 applicable. The alternative financial security shall include a 108587 contract, trust, or other agreement or mechanism that is 108588 enforceable under law to provide long-term water treatment or a 108589 long-term alternative water supply, or both. The contract, trust, 108590 or other agreement or mechanism included with the alternative 108591 financial security may provide for the funding of the alternative 108592 financial security incrementally over a period of time, not to 108593 exceed five years, with reliance on guarantees or other collateral 108594 provided by the permittee and approved by the chief for the 108595 balance of the alternative financial security required until the 108596 alternative financial security has been fully funded by the 108597

permittee. 108598

(b) The chief shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 108599
119. of the Revised Code that are necessary for the administration 108600 of division (F)(8)(a) of this section. 108601

(c) If the chief determines that a permittee must provide 108602 alternative financial security under division (F)(8)(a) of this 108603 section and the performance security for the permit was provided 108604 under division (C)(2) of section 1513.08 of the Revised Code, the 108605 permittee may fund the alternative financial security 108606 incrementally over a period of time, not to exceed five years, 108607 with reliance on the reclamation forfeiture fund created in 108608 section 1513.18 of the Revised Code for the balance of the 108609 alternative financial security required until the alternative 108610 financial security has been fully funded by the permittee. The 108611 permittee semiannually shall pay to the division of mineral 108612 resources management a fee that is equal to seven and one-half per 108613 cent of the average balance of the alternative financial security 108614 that is being provided by reliance on the reclamation forfeiture fund over the previous six months. All money received from the fee shall be credited to the reclamation forfeiture fund.

(9) Final release of the performance security in accordance with division (F)(3)(c) of this section terminates the jurisdiction of the chief under this chapter over the reclaimed site of a surface coal mining and reclamation operation or applicable portion of an operation. However, the chief shall reassert jurisdiction over such a site if the release was based on fraud, collusion, or misrepresentation of a material fact and the chief, in writing, demonstrates evidence of the fraud, collusion, or misrepresentation. Any person with an interest that is or may be adversely affected by the chief's determination may appeal the determination to the reclamation commission in accordance with section 1513.13 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 1565.12. When a loss of life is occasioned by accident in any mine, the operator thereof shall forthwith give notice thereof to the chief of the division of mineral resources management, and to the deputy mine inspector in charge of the district. Such notice shall be given by telephone or ~~telegraph~~ electronic format. The operator of such mine shall, within twenty-four hours after such accident causing loss of life, send a written report of the accident to the chief. Such written report shall specify the character and cause of the accident, the names of the persons killed, and the nature of the injuries that caused death. In the case of injury thereafter resulting in death, the operator shall send a written notice thereof to the chief, and to 108646 the deputy mine inspector of such district, at such time as such 108647 death comes to the operator's knowledge. 108648

No operator of a mine shall refuse or neglect to comply with 108649
this section. 108650

Sec. 1571.05. (A) Whenever any part of a gas storage 108651 reservoir or any part of its protective area underlies any part of 108652 a coal mine, or is, or within nine months is expected or intended 108653 to be, within two thousand linear feet of the boundary of a coal 108654 mine that is operating in a coal seam any part of which extends 108655 over any part of the storage reservoir or its protective area, the 108656 operator of the reservoir, if the reservoir operator or some other 108657 reservoir operator has not theretofore done so, shall: 108658

(1) Use every known method that is reasonable under the 108659 circumstance for discovering and locating all wells drilled within 108660 the area of the reservoir or its protective area that underlie any 108661 part of the coal mine or its protective area; 108662

(2) Plug or recondition all known wells drilled within the 108663 area of the reservoir or its protective area that underlie any 108664 part of the coal mine. 108665

(B) Whenever an operator of a gas storage reservoir is 108666 notified by the operator of a coal mine, as provided in division 108667 (B) of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code, that the coal mine 108668 operator believes that part of the boundary of the mine is within 108669 two thousand linear feet of a well that is drilled through the 108670 horizon of the coal mine and into or through the storage stratum 108671 or strata of the reservoir within the boundary of the reservoir or 108672 within its protective area, the reservoir operator shall plug or 108673 recondition the well as in this section prescribed, unless it is 108674 agreed in a conference or is ordered by the chief of the division 108675 of oil and gas resources management after a hearing, as provided 108676 in section 1571.10 of the Revised Code, that the well referred to 108677 in the notice is not such a well as is described in division (B) 108678

of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code. 108679

Whenever an operator of a gas storage reservoir is notified 108680 by the operator of a coal mine as provided in division (C) or (D) 108681 of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code, that part of the boundary 108682 of the mine is, or within nine months is intended or expected to 108683 be, within two thousand linear feet of a well that is drilled 108684 through the horizon of the mine and into or through the storage 108685 stratum or strata of the reservoir within the boundary of the 108686 reservoir or within its protective area, the reservoir operator 108687 shall plug or recondition the well as in this section prescribed. 108688

Whenever the operator of a coal mine considers that the use 108689 of a well such as in this section described, if used for injecting 108690 gas into, or storing gas in, or removing gas from, a gas storage 108691 reservoir, would be hazardous to the safety of persons or property 108692 on or in the vicinity of the premises of the coal mine or the 108693 reservoir or well, the coal mine operator may file with the 108694 division objections to the use of the well for such purposes, and 108695 a request that a conference be held as provided in section 1571.10 108696 of the Revised Code, to discuss and endeavor to resolve by mutual 108697 agreement whether or not the well shall or shall not be used for 108698 such purposes, and whether or not the well shall be reconditioned, 108699 inactivated, or plugged. The request shall set forth the mine 108700 operator's reasons for such objections. If no approved agreement 108701 is reached in the conference, the gas storage well inspector shall 108702 within ten days after the termination of the conference, file with 108703 the chief a request that the chief hear and determine the matters 108704 considered at the conference as provided in section 1571.10 of the 108705 Revised Code. Upon conclusion of the hearing, the chief shall find 108706 and determine whether or not the safety of persons or of the 108707 property on or in the vicinity of the premises of the coal mine, 108708 or the reservoir, or the well requires that the well be 108709 reconditioned, inactivated, or plugged, and shall make an order 108710 consistent with that determination, provided that the chief shall 108711 not order a well plugged unless the chief first finds that there 108712 is underground leakage of gas therefrom. 108713

The plugging or reconditioning of each well described in a 108714 notice from a coal mine operator to a reservoir operator as 108715 provided in division (B) of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code, 108716 which must be plugged or reconditioned, shall be completed within 108717 such time as the gas storage well inspector may fix in the case of 108718 each such well. The plugging or reconditioning of each well 108719 described in a notice from a coal mine operator to a reservoir 108720 operator as provided in division (C) of section 1571.03 of the 108721 Revised Code, which must be plugged or reconditioned, shall be 108722 completed by the time the well, by reason of the extension of the 108723 boundary of the coal mine, is within two thousand linear feet of 108724 any part of the boundary of the mine. The plugging or 108725 reconditioning of each well described in a notice from a coal mine 108726 operator to a reservoir operator, as provided in division (D) of 108727 section 1571.03 of the Revised Code, which must be plugged or 108728 reconditioned, shall be completed by the time the well, by reason 108729 of the opening of the new mine, is within two thousand linear feet 108730 of any part of the boundary of the new mine. A reservoir operator 108731 who is required to complete the plugging or reconditioning of a 108732 well within a period of time fixed as in this division prescribed, 108733 may prior to the end of that period of time, notify the division 108734 and the mine operator from whom the reservoir operator received a 108735 notice as provided in division (B), (C), or (D) of section 1571.03 108736 of the Revised Code, in writing by ~~registered~~ certified mail or 108737 electronic format, that the completion of the plugging or 108738 reconditioning of the well referred to in the notice will be 108739 delayed beyond the end of the period of time fixed therefor as in 108740 this section provided, and that the reservoir operator requests 108741 that a conference be held for the purpose of endeavoring to reach 108742 an agreement establishing a date subsequent to the end of that 108743 period of time, on or before which the reservoir operator may 108744 complete the plugging or reconditioning without incurring any 108745 penalties for failure to do so as provided in this chapter. If 108746 such a reservoir operator sends to such a mine operator and to the 108747 division a notice and request for a conference as in this division 108748 provided, the reservoir operator shall not incur any penalties for 108749 failure to complete the plugging or reconditioning of the well 108750 within the period of time fixed as in this division prescribed, 108751 unless the reservoir operator fails to complete the plugging or 108752 reconditioning of the well within the period of time fixed by an 108753 approved agreement reached in the conference, or fixed by an order 108754 by the chief upon a hearing held in the matter in the event of 108755 failure to reach an approved agreement in the conference. 108756

Whenever, in compliance with this division, a well is to be 108757 plugged by a reservoir operator, the operator shall give to the 108758 division notice thereof, as many days in advance as will be 108759 necessary for the gas storage well inspector or a deputy mine 108760 inspector to be present at the plugging. The notification shall be 108761 made on blanks furnished by the division and shall show the 108762 following information: 108763

(1) Name and address of the applicant; 108764

(2) The location of the well identified by section or lot 108765 number, city or village, and township and county; 108766

(3) The well name and number of each well to be plugged. 108767

(C) The operator shall give written notice at the same time 108768 to the owner of the land upon which the well is located, the 108769 owners or agents of the adjoining land, and adjoining well owners 108770 or agents of the operator's intention to abandon the well, and of 108771 the time when the operator will be prepared to commence plugging 108772 and filling the same. In addition to giving such notices, the 108773 reservoir operator shall also at the same time send a copy of the 108774 notice by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic format to the 108775 coal mine operator, if any, who sent to the reservoir operator the 108776

of the Revised Code, in order that the coal mine operator or the 108778 coal mine operator's designated representative may attend and 108779 observe the manner in which the plugging of the well is done. 108780

If the reservoir operator plugs the well without the gas 108781 storage well inspector or a deputy mine inspector being present to 108782 supervise the plugging, the reservoir operator shall send to the 108783 division and to the coal mine operator a copy of the report of the 108784 plugging of the well, including in the report: 108785

(1) The date of abandonment; 108786

(2) The name of the owner or operator of the well at the time 108787 of abandonment and the well owner's or operator's post office 108788 address; 108789

(3) The location of the well as to township and county and 108790 the name of the owner of the surface upon which the well is 108791 drilled, with the address thereof; 108792

(4) The date of the permit to drill; 108793

(5) The date when drilled; 108794

(6) Whether the well has been mapped; 108795

(7) The depth of the well; 108796

(8) The depth of the top of the sand to which the well was 108797 drilled; 108798

(9) The depth of each seam of coal drilled through; 108799

(10) A detailed report as to how the well was plugged, giving 108800 in particular the manner in which the coal and various sands were 108801 plugged, and the date of the plugging of the well, including 108802 therein the names of those who witnessed the plugging of the well. 108803

The report shall be signed by the operator or the operator's 108804 agent who plugged the well and verified by the oath of the party 108805 so signing. For the purposes of this section, a deputy mine 108806 inspector may take acknowledgements and administer oaths to the 108807 parties signing the report. 108808

reconditioned by a reservoir operator, the operator shall give to 108810 the division notice thereof as many days before the reconditioning 108811 is begun as will be necessary for the gas storage well inspector, 108812 or a deputy mine inspector, to be present at the reconditioning. 108813
No well shall be reconditioned if an inspector of the division is 108814 not present unless permission to do so has been granted by the 108815 chief. The reservoir operator, at the time of giving notice to the 108816 division as in this section required, also shall send a copy of 108817 the notice by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic format to 108818 the coal mine operator, if any, who sent to the reservoir operator 108819 the notice as provided in division (B), (C), or (D) of section 108820 1571.03 of the Revised Code, in order that the coal mine operator 108821 or the coal mine operator's designated representative may attend 108822 and observe the manner in which the reconditioning of the well is 108823 done. 108824

If the reservoir operator reconditions the well when the gas 108825 storage well inspector or a deputy mine inspector is not present 108826 to supervise the reconditioning, the reservoir operator shall make 108827 written report to the division describing the manner in which the 108828 reconditioning was done, and shall send to the coal mine operator 108829 a copy of the report by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic 108830 format. 108831

(D) Wells that are required by this section to be plugged 108832 shall be plugged in the manner specified in sections 1509.13 to 108833 1509.17 of the Revised Code, and the operator shall give the 108834 notifications and reports required by divisions (B) and (C) of 108835 this section. No such well shall be plugged or abandoned without 108836 the written approval of the division, and no such well shall be 108837 mudded, plugged, or abandoned without the gas storage well 108838 inspector or a deputy mine inspector present unless written 108839 permission has been granted by the chief or the gas storage well 108840 inspector. For purposes of this section, the chief of the division 108841 of mineral resources management has the authority given the chief 108842 of the division of oil and gas resources management in sections 108843 1509.15 and 1509.17 of the Revised Code. If such a well has been 108844 plugged prior to the time plugging thereof is required by this 108845 section, and, on the basis of the data, information, and other 108846 evidence available it is determined that the plugging was done in 108847 the manner required by this section, or was done in accordance 108848 with statutes prescribing the manner of plugging wells in effect 108849 at the time the plugging was done, and that there is no evidence 108850 of leakage of gas from the well either at or below the surface, 108851 and that the plugging is sufficiently effective to prevent the 108852 leakage of gas from the well, the obligations imposed upon the 108853 reservoir operator by this section as to plugging the well shall 108854 be considered fully satisfied. The operator of a coal mine any 108855 part of the boundary of which is, or within nine months is 108856 expected or intended to be, within two thousand linear feet of the 108857 well may at any time raise a question as to whether the plugging 108858 of the well is sufficiently effective to prevent the leakage of 108859 gas therefrom, and the issue so made shall be determined by a 108860 conference or hearing as provided in section 1571.10 of the 108861

Revised Code. 108862

(E) Wells that are to be reconditioned as required by this 108863 section shall be, or shall be made to be: 108864

(1) Cased in accordance with the statutes of this state in 108865 effect at the time the wells were drilled, with the casing being, 108866 or made to be, sufficiently effective in that there is no evidence 108867 of any leakage of gas therefrom; 108868

(2) Equipped with a producing string and well head composed 108869 of new pipe, or pipe as good as new, and fittings designed to 108870 operate with safety and to contain the stored gas at maximum 108871 pressures contemplated. 108872

When a well that is to be reconditioned as required by this 108873 section has been reconditioned for use in the operation of the 108874 reservoir prior to the time prescribed in this section, and on the 108875 basis of the data, information, and other evidence available it is 108876 determined that at the time the well was so reconditioned the 108877 requirements prescribed in this division were met, and that there 108878 is no evidence of underground leakage of gas from the well, and 108879 that the reconditioning is sufficiently effective to prevent 108880 underground leakage from the well, the obligations imposed upon 108881 the reservoir operator by this section as to reconditioning the 108882 well shall be considered fully satisfied. Any operator of a coal 108883 mine any part of the boundary of which is, or within nine months 108884 is expected or intended to be, within two thousand linear feet of 108885 the well may at any time raise a question as to whether the 108886 reconditioning of the well is sufficiently effective to prevent 108887 underground leakage of gas therefrom, and the issue so made shall 108888 be determined by a conference or hearing as provided in section 108889
1571.10 of the Revised Code. 108890

If the gas storage well inspector at any time finds that a 108891 well that is drilled through the horizon of a coal mine and into 108892 or through the storage stratum or strata of a reservoir within the 108893 boundary of the reservoir or within its protective area is located 108894 within the boundary of the coal mine or within two thousand linear 108895 feet of the mine boundary, and was drilled prior to the time the 108896 statutes of this state required that wells be cased, and that the 108897 well fails to meet the casing and equipping requirements 108898 prescribed in this division, the gas storage well inspector shall 108899 promptly notify the operator of the reservoir thereof in writing, 108900 and the reservoir operator upon receipt of the notice shall 108901 promptly recondition the well in the manner prescribed in this 108902 division for reconditioning wells, unless, in a conference or 108903 hearing as provided in section 1571.10 of the Revised Code, a 108904 different course of action is agreed upon or ordered. 108905

(F)(1) When a well within the boundary of a gas storage 108906 reservoir or within the reservoir's protective area penetrates the 108907 storage stratum or strata of the reservoir, but does not penetrate 108908 the coal seam within the boundary of a coal mine, the gas storage 108909 well inspector may, upon application of the operator of the 108910 storage reservoir, exempt the well from the requirements of this 108911 section. Either party affected by the action of the gas storage 108912 well inspector may request a conference and hearing with respect 108913 to the exemption. 108914

(2) When a well located within the boundary of a storage 108915 reservoir or a reservoir's protective area is a producing well in 108916 a stratum above or below the storage stratum, the obligations 108917 imposed by this section shall not begin until the well ceases to 108918 be a producing well. 108919

(G) When retreat mining reaches a point in a coal mine when 108920 the operator of the mine expects that within ninety days retreat 108921 work will be at the location of a pillar surrounding an active 108922 storage reservoir well, the operator of the mine shall promptly 108923 send by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic format notice to 108924 that effect to the operator of the reservoir. Thereupon the 108925 operators may by agreement determine whether it is necessary or 108926 advisable to temporarily inactivate the well. If inactivated, the 108927 well shall not be reactivated until a reasonable period of time 108928 has elapsed, such period of time to be determined by agreement by 108929 the operators. In the event that the parties cannot agree upon 108930 either of the foregoing matters, the question shall be submitted 108931 to the gas storage well inspector for a conference in accordance 108932 with section 1571.10 of the Revised Code. 108933

(H)(1) The provisions of this section that require the 108934 plugging or reconditioning of wells shall not apply to such wells 108935 as are used to inject gas into, store gas in, or remove gas from a 108936 gas storage reservoir when the sole purpose of the injection, 108937 storage, or removal is testing. The operator of a gas storage 108938 reservoir who injects gas into, stores gas in, or removes gas from 108939 a reservoir for the sole purpose of testing shall be subject to 108940 all other provisions of this chapter that are applicable to 108941 operators of reservoirs. 108942

(2) If the injection of gas into, or storage of gas in, a gas 108943 storage reservoir any part of which, or of the protective area of 108944 which, is within the boundary of a coal mine is begun after 108945 September 9, 1957, and if the injection or storage of gas is for 108946 the sole purpose of testing, the operator of the reservoir shall 108947 send by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic format to the 108948 operator of the coal mine, the division of oil and gas resources 108949 management, and the division of mineral resources management at 108950 least sixty days' notice of the date upon which the testing will 108951 be begun. 108952

If at any time within the period of time during which testing 108953 of a reservoir is in progress, any part of the reservoir or of its 108954 protective area comes within any part of the boundary of a coal 108955 mine, the operator of the reservoir shall promptly send notice to 108956 that effect by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic format to 108957 the operator of the mine, the division of oil and gas resources 108958 management, and the division of mineral resources management. 108959

(3) Any coal mine operator who receives a notice as provided 108960 for in division (H)(2) of this section may within thirty days of 108961 the receipt thereof file with the division objections to the 108962 testing. The gas storage well inspector also may, within the time 108963 within which a coal mine operator may file an objection, place in 108964 the files of the division objections to the testing. The reservoir 108965 operator shall comply throughout the period of the testing 108966 operations with all conditions and requirements agreed upon and 108967 approved in the conference on such objections conducted as 108968 provided in section 1571.10 of the Revised Code, or in an order 108969 made by the chief following a hearing in the matter as provided in 108970 section 1571.10 of the Revised Code. If in complying with the 108971 agreement or order either the reservoir operator or the coal mine 108972 operator encounters or discovers conditions that were not known to 108973 exist at the time of the conference or hearing and that materially 108974 affect the agreement or order, or the ability of the reservoir 108975 operator to comply therewith, either operator may apply for a 108976 rehearing or modification of the order. 108977

(I) In addition to complying with all other provisions of 108978 this chapter and any lawful orders issued thereunder, the operator 108979 of each gas storage reservoir shall keep all wells drilled into or 108980 through the storage stratum or strata within the boundary of the 108981 operator's reservoir or within the reservoir's protective area in 108982 such condition, and operate the same in such manner, as to prevent 108983 the escape of gas therefrom into any coal mine, and shall operate 108984 and maintain the storage reservoir and its facilities in such 108985 manner and at such pressures as will prevent gas from escaping 108986 from the reservoir or its facilities into any coal mine. 108987

Sec. 1571.08. (A) Whenever in this chapter, the method or 108988 material to be used in discharging any obligations imposed by this 108989 chapter is specified, an alternative method or material may be 108990 used if approved by the gas storage well inspector or the chief of 108991 the division of oil and gas resources management. A person 108992 desiring to use such alternative method or material shall file 108993 with the division of oil and gas resources management an 108994 application for permission to do so. Such application shall 108995 describe such alternative method or material in reasonable detail. 108996

The gas storage well inspector shall promptly send by ~~registered~~ 108997 certified mail or electronic format notice of the filing of such 108998 application to any coal mine operator or reservoir operator whose 108999 mine or reservoir may be directly affected thereby. Any such coal 109000 mine operator or reservoir operator may within ten days following 109001 receipt of such notice, file with the division objections to such 109002 application. The gas storage well inspector may also file with the 109003 division an objection to such application at any time during which 109004 coal mine operators or reservoir operators are permitted to file 109005 objections. If no objections are filed within the ten-day period 109006 of time, the gas storage well inspector shall thereupon issue a 109007 permit approving the use of such alternative method or material. 109008
If any such objections are filed by any coal mine operator or 109009 reservoir operator, or by the gas storage well inspector, the 109010 question as to whether or not the use of such alternative method 109011 or material, or a modification thereof is approved, shall be 109012 determined by a conference or hearing as provided in section 109013
1571.10 of the Revised Code. 109014

(B) Whenever in this chapter, provision is made for the 109015 filing of objections with the division, such objections shall be 109016 in writing and shall state as definitely as is reasonably possible 109017 the reasons for such objections. Upon the filing of any such 109018 objection the gas storage well inspector shall promptly fix the 109019 time and place for holding a conference for the purpose of 109020 discussing and endeavoring to resolve by mutual agreement the 109021 issue raised by such objection. The gas storage well inspector 109022 shall send written notice thereof by ~~registered~~ certified mail or 109023 electronic format to each person having a direct interest therein. 109024 Thereupon the issue made by such objection shall be determined by 109025 a conference or hearing in accordance with the procedures for 109026 conferences and hearings as provided in section 1571.10 of the 109027

Sec. 1571.10. (A) The gas storage well inspector or any 109029 person having a direct interest in the administration of this 109030 chapter may at any time file with the division of oil and gas 109031 resources management a written request that a conference be held 109032 for the purpose of discussing and endeavoring to resolve by mutual 109033 agreement any question or issue relating to the administration of 109034 this chapter, or to compliance with its provisions, or to any 109035 violation thereof. Such request shall describe the matter 109036 concerning which the conference is requested. Thereupon the gas 109037 storage well inspector shall promptly fix the time and place for 109038 the holding of such conference and shall send written notice 109039 thereof to each person having a direct interest therein. At such 109040 conference the gas storage well inspector or a representative of 109041 the division designated by the gas storage well inspector shall be 109042 in attendance, and shall preside at the conference, and the gas 109043 storage well inspector or designated representative may make such 109044 recommendations as the gas storage well inspector or designated 109045 representative deems proper. Any agreement reached at such 109046 conference shall be consistent with the requirements of this 109047 chapter and, if approved by the gas storage well inspector, it 109048 shall be reduced to writing and shall be effective. Any such 109049 agreement approved by the gas storage well inspector shall be kept 109050 on file in the division and a copy thereof shall be furnished to 109051 each of the persons having a direct interest therein. The 109052 conference shall be deemed terminated as of the date an approved 109053 agreement is reached or when any person having a direct interest 109054 therein refuses to confer thereafter. Such a conference shall be 109055 held in all cases prior to the holding of a hearing as provided in 109056
this section. 109057

(B) Within ten days after the termination of a conference at 109058 which no approved agreement is reached, any person who 109059 participated in such conference and who has a direct interest in 109060 the subject matter thereof, or the gas storage well inspector, may 109061 file with the chief of the division of oil and gas resources 109062 management a request that the chief hear and determine the matter 109063 or matters, or any part thereof considered at the conference. 109064 Thereupon the chief shall promptly fix the time and place for the 109065 holding of such hearing and shall send written notice thereof to 109066 each person having a direct interest therein. The form of the 109067 request for such hearing and the conduct of the hearing shall be 109068 in accordance with rules that the chief adopts under section 109069 1571.11 of the Revised Code. Consistent with the requirement for 109070 reasonable notice each such hearing shall be held promptly after 109071 the filing of the request therefor. Any person having a direct 109072 interest in the matter to be heard shall be entitled to appear and 109073 be heard in person or by attorney. The division may present at 109074 such hearing any evidence that is material to the matter being 109075 heard and that has come to the division's attention in any 109076 manner as subpoenas in criminal cases are served and returned. The 109086 fees of sheriffs shall be the same as those allowed by the court 109087 of common pleas in criminal cases. Witnesses shall be paid the 109088 fees and mileage provided for under section 119.094 of the Revised 109089 the persons at whose request they are incurred, and the remainder 109091 of such expenses shall be paid out of funds appropriated for the 109092 expenses of the division. 109093

In case of disobedience or neglect of any subpoena served on 109094
any person, or the refusal of any witness to testify to any matter 109095 regarding which the witness may be lawfully interrogated, the 109096
court of common pleas of the county in which such disobedience, 109097
neglect, or refusal occurs, or any judge thereof, on application 109098 of the chief, shall compel obedience by attachment proceedings for 109099 contempt as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of a 109100 subpoena issued from such court or a refusal to testify therein. 109101 may administer oaths or affirmations to persons who so testify. 109103 any hearing before the chief at any time after hearing has been 109106 formally commenced. The chief may, of the chief's own motion, 109107 order testimony to be taken by deposition at any stage in any 109108 hearing, proceeding, or investigation pending before the chief. 109109 Such deposition shall be taken in the manner prescribed by the 109110 laws of this state for taking depositions in civil cases in courts 109111 of record. 109112

(E) After the conclusion of a hearing the chief shall make a 109113 determination and finding of facts. Every adjudication, 109114 determination, or finding by the chief shall be made by written 109115 order and shall contain a written finding by the chief of the 109116 facts upon which the adjudication, determination, or finding is 109117 based. Notice of the making of such order shall be given to the 109118 persons whose rights, duties, or privileges are affected thereby, 109119 by sending a certified copy thereof by ~~registered~~ certified mail 109120 or electronic format to each of such persons. 109121

Adjudications, determinations, findings, and orders made by 109122 the chief shall not be governed by, or be subject to, Chapter 119. 109123

Sec. 1571.14. Any person claiming to be aggrieved or 109125 adversely affected by an order of the chief of the division of oil 109126 and gas resources management made as provided in section 1571.10 109127 or 1571.16 of the Revised Code may appeal to the director of 109128 natural resources for an order vacating or modifying such order. 109129 Upon receipt of the appeal, the director shall appoint an 109130 individual who has knowledge of the laws and rules regarding the 109131 underground storage of gas and who shall act as a hearing officer 109132 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code in hearing the 109133 appeal. 109134

The person appealing to the director shall be known as 109135 appellant and the chief shall be known as appellee. The appellant 109136 and the appellee shall be deemed parties to the appeal. 109137

The appeal shall be in writing and shall set forth the order 109138 complained of and the grounds upon which the appeal is based. The 109139 appeal shall be filed with the director within thirty days after 109140 the date upon which appellant received notice by ~~registered~~ 109141 certified mail or electronic format of the making of the order 109142 complained of, as required by section 1571.10 of the Revised Code. 109143 Notice of the filing of such appeal shall be delivered by 109144 appellant to the chief within three days after the appeal is filed 109145 with the director. 109146

Within seven days after receipt of the notice of appeal the 109147 chief shall prepare and certify to the director at the expense of 109148 appellant a complete transcript of the proceedings out of which 109149 the appeal arises, including a transcript of the testimony 109150 submitted to the chief. 109151

Upon the filing of the appeal the director shall fix the time 109152 and place at which the hearing on the appeal will be held, and 109153 shall give appellant and the chief at least ten days' written 109154 notice thereof by mail. The director may postpone or continue any 109155 hearing upon the director's own motion or upon application of 109156 appellant or of the chief. 109157

The filing of an appeal provided for in this section does not 109158 automatically suspend or stay execution of the order appealed 109159 from, but upon application by the appellant the director may 109160 suspend or stay such execution pending determination of the appeal 109161 upon such terms as the director deems proper. 109162

The hearing officer appointed by the director shall hear the 109163 appeal de novo, and either party to the appeal may submit such 109164 evidence as the hearing officer deems admissible. 109165

For the purpose of conducting a hearing on an appeal, the 109166 hearing officer may require the attendance of witnesses and the 109167 production of books, records, and papers, and may, and at the 109168 request of any party shall, issue subpoenas for witnesses or 109169 subpoenas duces tecum to compel the production of any books, 109170 records, or papers, directed to the sheriffs of the counties where 109171 such witnesses are found, which subpoenas shall be served and 109172 returned in the same manner as subpoenas in criminal cases are 109173 served and returned. The fees of sheriffs shall be the same as 109174 those allowed by the court of common pleas in criminal cases. 109175 Witnesses shall be paid the fees and mileage provided for under 109176 section 119.094 of the Revised Code. Such fee and mileage expenses 109177 incurred at the request of appellant shall be paid in advance by 109178 appellant, and the remainder of such expenses shall be paid out of 109179 funds appropriated for the expenses of the division of oil and gas 109180 resources management. 109181

any person, or the refusal of any witness to testify to any matter 109183
of the director, shall compel obedience by attachment proceedings 109187 for contempt as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of 109188 a subpoena issued from such court or a refusal to testify therein. 109189 Witnesses at such hearings shall testify under oath, and the 109190 hearing officer may administer oaths or affirmations to persons 109191 who so testify. 109192

At the request of any party to the appeal, a record of the 109193 testimony and other evidence submitted shall be taken by an 109194 official court reporter at the expense of the party making the 109195 request for the record. The record shall include all of the 109196 testimony and other evidence and the rulings on the admissibility 109197 thereof presented at the hearing. The hearing officer shall pass 109198 upon the admissibility of evidence, but any party may at the time 109199 object to the admission of any evidence and except to the ruling 109200 of the hearing officer thereon, and if the hearing officer refuses 109201 to admit evidence, the party offering same may make a proffer 109202 thereof, and such proffer shall be made a part of the record of 109203 such hearing. 109204

If upon completion of the hearing the hearing officer finds 109205 that the order appealed from was lawful and reasonable, the 109206 hearing officer shall make a written order affirming the order 109207 appealed from. If the hearing officer finds that such order was 109208 unreasonable or unlawful, the hearing officer shall make a written 109209 order vacating the order appealed from and making the order that 109210 it finds the chief should have made. Every order made by the 109211 hearing officer shall contain a written finding by the hearing 109212 officer of the facts upon which the order is based. Notice of the 109213 making of such order shall be given forthwith to each party to the 109214 appeal by mailing a certified copy thereof to each such party by 109215 ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic format. 109216

Sec. 1571.15. Any party adversely affected by an order of the 109217 hearing officer under section 1571.14 of the Revised Code may 109218 appeal to the court of common pleas of any county in which the 109219 well, or part of the gas storage reservoir, or part of the coal 109220 mine, involved in the order of the hearing officer which is being 109221 appealed, is located. Any party desiring to so appeal shall file 109222 with the director of natural resources a notice of appeal 109223 designating the order appealed from and stating whether the appeal 109224 is taken on questions of law or questions of law and fact. A copy 109225 of such notice shall also be filed by appellant with the court and 109226 shall be mailed or otherwise delivered to appellee. The notice 109227 shall be filed and mailed or otherwise delivered within thirty 109228 days after the date upon which appellant received notice from the 109229 hearing officer by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic format 109230 of the making of the order appealed from. No appeal bond shall be 109231 required to make either an appeal on questions of law or an appeal 109232 on questions of law and fact effective. 109233

The filing of a notice of appeal shall not automatically 109234 operate as a suspension of the order of the hearing officer. If it 109235 appears to the court that an unjust hardship to the appellant will 109236 result from the execution of the hearing officer's order pending 109237 determination of the appeal, the court may grant a suspension of 109238 such order and fix its terms. 109239

Within fifteen days after receipt of the notice of appeal the 109240 hearing officer shall prepare and file in the court the complete 109241 record of proceedings out of which the appeal arises, including a 109242 transcript of the testimony and other evidence which has been 109243 submitted before ~~him~~ the hearing officer. The expense of preparing 109244 and transcribing such record shall be taxed as a part of the costs 109245 of the appeal. Appellant shall provide security for costs 109246 satisfactory to the court. Upon demand by a party the director 109247 shall furnish at the cost of the party requesting the same a copy 109248 of such record. In the event such complete record is not filed in 109249 the court within the time provided for in this section either 109250 party may apply to the court to have the case docketed, and the 109251 court shall order such record filed. 109252

Appeals taken on questions of law shall be heard upon 109253 assignments of error filed in the cause or set out in the briefs 109254 of the appellant before the hearing. Errors not argued by brief 109255 may be disregarded, but the court may consider and decide errors 109256 which are not assigned or argued. Failure to file such briefs and 109257 assignments of error within the time prescribed by the court's 109258 rules shall be a cause for dismissal of such appeal. 109259

In appeals taken on questions of law and fact, the hearing in 109260 the court shall be a hearing de novo of the appeal heard by the 109261 hearing officer in which the order appealed from was made. In such 109262 hearings any party may offer as evidence any part of the record of 109263 the proceedings out of which the appeal arises, certified to the 109264 court as provided for in this section, and any other evidence 109265 which the court deems admissible. 109266

If the court finds that the order of the hearing officer 109267 appealed from was lawful and reasonable, it shall affirm such 109268 order. If the court finds that such order was unreasonable or 109269 unlawful, it shall vacate such order and make the order which it 109270 finds the hearing officer should have made. The judgment of the 109271 court is final unless reversed, vacated, or modified on appeal as 109272 in civil actions. 109273

Sec. 1571.16. (A) The gas storage well inspector or any 109274 person having a direct interest in the subject matter of this 109275 chapter may file with the division of oil and gas resources 109276 management a complaint in writing stating that a person is 109277 violating, or is about to violate, a provision or provisions of 109278 this chapter, or has done, or is about to do, an act, matter, or 109279 thing therein prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or has 109280 failed, omitted, neglected, or refused, or is about to fail, omit, 109281 neglect, or refuse, to perform a duty enjoined upon the person by 109282 this chapter. Upon the filing of such a complaint, the chief of 109283 the division of oil and gas resources management shall promptly 109284 fix the time for the holding of a hearing on such complaint and 109285 shall send by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic format to 109286 the person so complained of, a copy of such complaint together 109287 with at least five days' notice of the time and place at which 109288 such hearing will be held. Such notice of such hearing shall also 109289 be given to all persons having a direct interest in the matters 109290 complained of in such complaint. Such hearing shall be conducted 109291 in the same manner, and the chief and persons having a direct 109292 interest in the matter being heard, shall have the same powers, 109293 rights, and duties as provided in divisions (B), (C), (D), and (E) 109294 of section 1571.10 of the Revised Code, in connection with 109295 hearings by the chief, provided that if after conclusion of the 109296 hearing the chief finds that the charges against the person 109297 complained of, as stated in such complaint, have not been 109298 sustained by a preponderance of evidence, the chief shall make an 109299 order dismissing the complaint, and if the chief finds that the 109300 charges have been so sustained, the chief shall by appropriate 109301 order require compliance with those provisions. 109302

(B) Whenever the chief is of the opinion that any person is 109303 violating, or is about to violate, any provision of this chapter, 109304 or has done, or is about to do, any act, matter, or thing therein 109305 prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or has failed, omitted, 109306 neglected, or refused, or is about to fail, omit, neglect, or 109307 refuse, to perform any duty enjoined upon the person by this 109308 chapter, or has failed, omitted, neglected, or refused, or is 109309 about to fail, omit, neglect, or refuse, to obey any lawful 109310 requirement or order made by the chief, or any final judgment, 109311 order, or decree made by any court pursuant to this chapter, then 109312 and in every such case, the chief may institute in a court of 109313 competent jurisdiction of the county or counties wherein the 109314 operation is situated, an action to enjoin or restrain such 109315 violations or to enforce obedience with law or the orders of the 109316 chief. No injunction bond shall be required to be filed in any 109317 such proceeding. Such persons or corporations as the court may 109318 deem necessary or proper to be joined as parties in order to make 109319 its judgment, order, or writ effective may be joined as parties. 109320

An appeal may be taken as in other civil actions. 109321

(C) In addition to the other remedies as provided in 109322 divisions (A) and (B) of this section, any reservoir operator or 109323 coal mine operator affected by this chapter may proceed by 109324 injunction or other appropriate remedy to restrain violations or 109325 threatened violations of this chapter or of orders of the chief, 109326 or of the hearing officer appointed under section 1571.14 of the 109327 Revised Code, or the judgments, orders, or decrees of any court or 109328 to enforce obedience therewith. 109329

(D) Each remedy prescribed in divisions (A), (B), and (C) of 109330 this section is deemed concurrent or contemporaneous with each 109331 other remedy prescribed therein, and the existence or exercise of 109332 any one such remedy shall not prevent the exercise of any other 109333 such remedy. 109334

(E) The provisions of this chapter providing for conferences, 109335 hearings by the chief, appeals to the hearing officer from orders 109336 of the chief, and appeals to the court of common pleas from orders 109337 of the hearing officer, and the remedies prescribed in divisions 109338 (A), (B), (C), and (D) of this section, do not constitute the 109339 exclusive procedure that a person, who deems the person's rights 109340 to be unlawfully affected by any official action taken thereunder, 109341 must pursue in order to protect and preserve such rights, nor does 109342 this chapter constitute a procedure that such a person must pursue 109343 before the person may lawfully proceed by other actions, legal or 109344 equitable, to protect and preserve such rights. 109345

Sec. 1707.02. (A) "Exempt," as used in this section, means 109346 or any foreign government with which the United States is, at the 109365 time of sale, maintaining diplomatic relations. 109366

(2) If a security described in division (B)(1) of this 109367 section is not payable out of the proceeds of a general tax, the 109368 security is exempt only if, at the time of its first sale in this 109369 state, there is no default in the payment of any of the interest 109370 exempt, if it is under the supervision of or subject to regulation 109377 by the government or state under whose laws it was organized. 109378

(D) Any interim certificate is exempt, if the securities to 109379

(b) The security is listed, or authorized for listing, on a 109390

the Securities Act of 1933. 109394

(c) The security is listed, or authorized for listing, on a 109395 national securities exchange or system, or on a tier or segment of 109396 division (E)(1)(a) of this section. 109401

(d) The security is a security of the same issuer that is 109402

(2) Application for approval of a stock exchange or system 109405 not approved in this section may be made by any organized stock 109406 exchange or system, or by any dealer who is a member of such 109407 exchange, in such manner and upon such forms as are prescribed by 109408 the division, accompanied by payment of an approval fee of two 109409 hundred dollars, and the division shall make such investigation 109410 and may hold such hearings as it deems necessary to determine the 109411 propriety of giving approval. The cost of such investigation shall 109412 be borne by the applicant. The division may enter an order of 109413 a hearing, and a finding that the practices or requirements of 109421 effect a suspension by giving notice, by ~~certified~~ electronic 109434 mail, to that effect to the exchange or system upon which such 109435 security is listed or designated and to the issuer of such 109436 security. After notice and hearing, the division may revoke such 109437 exemption if it appears to it that sales of such security have 109438 been fraudulent or that future sales of it would be fraudulent. 109439

The division shall set such hearing not later than ten days from 109440 the date of the order of suspension, but may for good cause 109441 continue such hearing upon application of the exchange or system 109442 upon which such security is listed or designated or upon 109443 application of the issuer of such security. 109444

(F) Any security, issued or guaranteed as to principal, 109445 interest, or dividend or distribution by a corporation owning or 109446 of securities, under the supervision of or regulated by a public 109449 commission, board, or officer of the United States, or of Canada, 109450 or of any state, province, or municipal corporation in either of 109451 such countries. Equipment-trust securities based on chattel 109452 mortgages, leases, or agreements for conditional sale, of cars, 109453 of, a public utility, are exempt; and so are equipment securities 109456 where the ownership or title of such equipment is pledged or 109457 retained, in accordance with the laws of the United States or of 109458 any state, or of Canada or any province thereof, to secure the 109459 payment of such securities. 109460

(G) Commercial paper and promissory notes are exempt when 109461 whether all of the conditions have been satisfied or whether the 109673 division then contemplates the institution of a proceeding under 109674 section 1707.13 or 1707.23 of the Revised Code, but such advice 109675 does not preclude the institution of such a proceeding at any 109676 time. 109677

that the board, by resolution, finds is not needed for school 110288 district use, is obsolete, or is unfit for the use for which it 110289 was acquired, the board may donate that property in accordance 110290 with this division if the fair market value of the property is, in 110291 the opinion of the board, two thousand five hundred dollars or 110292 less. 110293

The property may be donated to an eligible nonprofit 110294 organization that is located in this state and is exempt from 110295 federal income taxation pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 501(a) and (c)(3). 110296 Before donating any property under this division, the board shall 110297 adopt a resolution expressing its intent to make unneeded, 110298 obsolete, or unfit-for-use school district property available to 110299 these organizations. The resolution shall include guidelines and 110300 procedures the board considers to be necessary to implement the 110301 donation program and shall indicate whether the school district 110302 will conduct the donation program or the board will contract with 110303 a representative to conduct it. If a representative is known when 110304 the resolution is adopted, the resolution shall provide contact 110305 information such as the representative's name, address, and 110306 telephone number. 110307

The resolution shall include within its procedures a 110308 requirement that any nonprofit organization desiring to obtain 110309 donated property under this division shall submit a written notice 110310 to the board or its representative. The written notice shall 110311 include evidence that the organization is a nonprofit organization 110312 that is located in this state and is exempt from federal income 110313 taxation pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 501(a) and (c)(3); a description of 110314 the organization's primary purpose; a description of the type or 110315 types of property the organization needs; and the name, address, 110316 and telephone number of a person designated by the organization's 110317 governing board to receive donated property and to serve as its 110318 agent. The written notice may be submitted electronically to the 110319 board or its representative. 110320

After adoption of the resolution, the board shall ~~publish, in~~ 110321
~~a newspaper of general circulation in the school district or as~~ 110322 ~~provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, notice of its intent~~ 110323
~~to donate unneeded, obsolete, or unfit for use school district~~ 110324 ~~property to eligible nonprofit organizations. The notice shall~~ 110325 ~~include a summary of the information provided in the resolution~~ 110326
~~and shall be published twice. The second notice shall be published~~ 110327
~~not less than ten nor more than twenty days after the previous~~ 110328 ~~notice. A similar notice also shall be posted continually post in~~ 110329 the board's office notice of its intent to donate school district 110330 property that is unneeded, obsolete, or unfit for use to eligible 110331 nonprofit organizations. If the school district maintains a web 110332 site on the internet, the notice shall be posted continually at 110333 that web site. 110334

The board or its representatives shall maintain a list of all 110335 nonprofit organizations that notify the board or its 110336 representative of their desire to obtain donated property under 110337 this division and that the board or its representative determines 110338 to be eligible, in accordance with the requirements set forth in 110339 this section and in the donation program's guidelines and 110340 procedures, to receive donated property. 110341

The board or its representative also shall maintain a list of 110342 all school district property the board finds to be unneeded, 110343 obsolete, or unfit for use and to be available for donation under 110344 this division. The list shall be posted continually in a 110345 conspicuous location in the board's office, and, if the school 110346 district maintains a web site on the internet, the list shall be 110347 posted continually at that web site. An item of property on the 110348 list shall be donated to the eligible nonprofit organization that 110349 first declares to the board or its representative its desire to 110350 obtain the item unless the board previously has established, by 110351 resolution, a list of eligible nonprofit organizations that shall 110352 be given priority with respect to the item's donation. Priority 110353 may be given on the basis that the purposes of a nonprofit 110354 organization have a direct relationship to specific school 110355 district purposes of programs provided or administered by the 110356 board. A resolution giving priority to certain nonprofit 110357 organizations with respect to the donation of an item of property 110358 shall specify the reasons why the organizations are given that 110359 priority. 110360

Members of the board shall consult with the Ohio ethics 110361 commission, and comply with Chapters 102. and 2921. of the Revised 110362 Code, with respect to any donation under this division to a 110363 nonprofit organization of which a board member, any member of a 110364 board member's family, or any business associate of a board member 110365 is a trustee, officer, board member, or employee. 110366

Sec. 3313.818. (A)(1) The department of education shall 110367 establish a program under which public schools that meet the 110368 following shall apply: 110371

(a) In the ~~first~~ 2020-2021 school year ~~after the effective~~ 110372 ~~date of this section~~, the program shall apply to any public school 110373 in which seventy per cent or more of the students enrolled in the 110374 school during the previous school year were eligible under federal 110375 requirements for free or reduced-price breakfasts or lunches. 110376

requirements for free or reduced-price breakfasts or lunches. 110381

(c) In the ~~third~~ 2022-2023 school year ~~after the enactment~~ 110382 reduced-price breakfasts or lunches. 110387

(2) The district superintendent or building principal, in 110388 consultation with the building staff, shall determine the model 110389 for serving breakfast under the program. Each breakfast served 110390 under the program shall comply with federal meal patterns and 110391 nutritional standards and with section 3313.814 of the Revised 110392 Code. A school district board of education may make a charge in 110393 accordance with federal requirements for each meal to cover all or 110394 part of the costs incurred in operating the program. 110395

(B) The department shall publish a list of public schools that meet the conditions of division (A) of this section. The department shall offer technical assistance to school districts and schools regarding the implementation of a school breakfast program that complies with this section and the submission of claims for reimbursement under the federal school breakfast program.

(C)(1) The department shall monitor each school participating in the program and ensure that each participating school complies with the requirements of this section.

(D) Not later than the thirty-first day of December of each school year, the department shall provide statistical reports on its web site that specify the number and percentage of students participating in school breakfast programs disaggregated by school district and individual schools, including community schools, established under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code, and STEM schools, established under Chapter 3326. of the Revised Code.

participating in the breakfast program; 110430

(3) The number of students and participation rates in free or 110431 reduced-price lunch for each school building. 110432

Sec. 3314.21. (A) As used in this section: 110433

(1) "Harmful to juveniles" has the same meaning as in section 110434
2907.01 of the Revised Code. 110435

(2) "Obscene" has the same meaning as in division (F) of 110436 section 2907.01 of the Revised Code as that division has been 110437 construed by the supreme court of this state. 110438

(3) "Teacher of record" means a teacher who is responsible 110439 for the overall academic development and achievement of a student 110440 and not merely the student's instruction in any single subject. 110441

(B)(1) It is the intent of the general assembly that teachers 110442 visits with their students ~~in person~~ throughout the school year. 110444

The school shall provide such device or software at no cost to any student who works primarily from the student's residence on a computer obtained from a source other than the school.

(2) A plan for fulfilling the intent of the general assembly specified in division (B)(1) of this section. The plan shall indicate the number of times teachers will visit each student throughout the school year and the manner in which those visits will be conducted. The visits may be conducted electronically.

(D)(1) Annually, each internet- or computer-based community school shall prepare and submit to the department of education, in a time and manner prescribed by the department, a report that contains information about all of the following:

received under division (D)(1) of this section. 110486

Sec. 3319.081. Except as otherwise provided in division (G) 110487 of this section, in all school districts wherein the provisions of 110488 Chapter 124. of the Revised Code do not apply, the following 110489

(A) Newly hired regular nonteaching school employees, 110492 including regular hourly rate and per diem employees, shall enter 110493 into written contracts for their employment which shall be for a 110494 period of not more than one year. If such employees are rehired, 110495 their three subsequent contracts shall be for a period of two 110496 years each. 110497

(B) After the termination of the third two-year contract 110498 provided in division (A) of this section, if the contract of a 110499 nonteaching employee is renewed, the employee shall be continued 110500 in employment, and the salary provided in the contract may be 110501 increased but not reduced unless such reduction is a part of a 110502 uniform plan affecting the nonteaching employees of the entire 110503 district. 110504

(C) The contracts as provided for in this section may be 110505 terminated by a majority vote of the board of education. Except as 110506 provided in sections 3319.0810 and 3319.172 of the Revised Code, 110507 the contracts may be terminated only for violation of written 110508 terminate the contract of an employee, the board may suspend an 110514 employee for a definite period of time or demote the employee for 110515 the reasons set forth in this division. The action of the board of 110516 education terminating the contract of an employee or suspending or 110517 demoting the employee shall be served upon the employee by 110518 certified mail, regular mail with a certificate of mailing, or 110519 other form of delivery with proof of delivery, including 110520 electronic delivery with electronic proof of delivery. Within ten 110521 days following the receipt of such notice by the employee, the 110522 employee may file an appeal, in writing, with the court of common 110523 pleas of the county in which such school board is situated. After 110524 hearing the appeal the common pleas court may affirm, disaffirm, 110525 or modify the action of the school board. 110526

A violation of division (A)(7) of section 2907.03 of the 110527 Revised Code is grounds for termination of employment of a 110528 nonteaching employee under this division. 110529

(D) All employees who have been employed by a school district 110530 where the provisions of Chapter 124. of the Revised Code do not 110531 apply, for a period of at least three years on November 24, 1967, 110532 shall hold continuing contracts of employment pursuant to this 110533
section. 110534

(E) Any nonteaching school employee may terminate the 110535 nonteaching school employee's contract of employment thirty days 110536 subsequent to the filing of a written notice of such termination 110537 with the treasurer of the board. 110538

(F) A person hired exclusively for the purpose of replacing a 110539 nonteaching school employee while such employee is on leave of 110540 absence granted under section 3319.13 of the Revised Code is not a 110541 regular nonteaching school employee under this section. 110542

(G) All nonteaching employees employed pursuant to this 110543 section and Chapter 124. of the Revised Code shall be paid for all 110544 time lost when the schools in which they are employed are closed 110545 owing to an epidemic or other public calamity. Nothing in this 110546 division shall be construed as requiring payment in excess of an 110547 employee's regular wage rate or salary for any time worked while 110548 the school in which the employee is employed is officially closed 110549 for the reasons set forth in this division. 110550

Sec. 3319.11. (A) As used in this section: 110551

(1) "Evaluation procedures" means the procedures required by 110552 the policy adopted pursuant to division (A) of section 3319.111 of 110553
the Revised Code. 110554

(2) "Limited contract" means a limited contract, as described 110555 in section 3319.08 of the Revised Code, that a school district 110556 board of education or governing board of an educational service 110557 center enters into with a teacher who is not eligible for 110558 continuing service status. 110559

(3) "Extended limited contract" means a limited contract, as 110560 described in section 3319.08 of the Revised Code, that a board of 110561 education or governing board enters into with a teacher who is 110562 eligible for continuing service status. 110563

(B) Teachers eligible for continuing service status in any 110564 city, exempted village, local, or joint vocational school district 110565 or educational service center shall be those teachers qualified as 110566 described in division (D) of section 3319.08 of the Revised Code, 110567 who within the last five years have taught for at least three 110568 years in the district or center, and those teachers who, having 110569 attained continuing contract status elsewhere, have served two 110570 years in the district or center, but the board, upon the 110571 recommendation of the superintendent, may at the time of 110572 employment or at any time within such two-year period, declare any 110573 of the latter teachers eligible. 110574

(1) Upon the recommendation of the superintendent that a 110575 teacher eligible for continuing service status be reemployed, a 110576 continuing contract shall be entered into between the board and 110577

the teacher unless the board by a three-fourths vote of its full membership rejects the recommendation of the superintendent. If the board rejects by a three-fourths vote of its full membership the recommendation of the superintendent that a teacher eligible for continuing service status be reemployed and the superintendent makes no recommendation to the board pursuant to division (C) of this section, the board may declare its intention not to reemploy the teacher by giving the teacher written notice on or before the first day of June of its intention not to reemploy the teacher. If evaluation procedures have not been complied with pursuant to section 3319.111 of the Revised Code or the board does not give the teacher written notice on or before the first day of June of its intention not to reemploy the teacher, the teacher is deemed reemployed under an extended limited contract for a term not to exceed one year at the same salary plus any increment provided by the salary schedule. The teacher is presumed to have accepted employment under the extended limited contract for a term not to exceed one year unless such teacher notifies the board in writing to the contrary on or before the fifteenth day of June, and an extended limited contract for a term not to exceed one year shall be executed accordingly. Upon any subsequent reemployment of the teacher only a continuing contract may be entered into.

The teacher is presumed to have accepted employment under the 110611 extended limited contract for a term not to exceed one year unless 110612 such teacher notifies the board in writing to the contrary on or 110613 before the fifteenth day of June, and an extended limited contract 110614 for a term not to exceed one year shall be executed accordingly. 110615 Upon any subsequent reemployment of a teacher only a continuing 110616 contract may be entered into. 110617

(3) Any teacher receiving written notice of the intention of 110618 a board not to reemploy such teacher pursuant to this division is 110619 entitled to the hearing provisions of division (G) of this 110620
section. 110621

(C)(1) If a board rejects the recommendation of the 110622 superintendent for reemployment of a teacher pursuant to division 110623 (B)(1) of this section, the superintendent may recommend 110624 reemployment of the teacher, if continuing service status has not 110625 previously been attained elsewhere, under an extended limited 110626 contract for a term not to exceed two years, provided that written 110627 notice of the superintendent's intention to make such 110628 recommendation has been given to the teacher with reasons directed 110629 at the professional improvement of the teacher on or before the 110630 first day of June. Upon subsequent reemployment of the teacher 110631 only a continuing contract may be entered into. 110632

(2) If a board of education takes affirmative action on a 110633 superintendent's recommendation, made pursuant to division (C)(1) 110634 of this section, of an extended limited contract for a term not to 110635 exceed two years but the board does not give the teacher written 110636 notice of its affirmative action on the superintendent's 110637 recommendation of an extended limited contract on or before the 110638 first day of June, the teacher is deemed reemployed under a 110639 continuing contract at the same salary plus any increment provided 110640 by the salary schedule. The teacher is presumed to have accepted 110641 employment under such continuing contract unless such teacher 110642 notifies the board in writing to the contrary on or before the 110643 fifteenth day of June, and a continuing contract shall be executed 110644 accordingly. 110645

(3) A board shall not reject a superintendent's 110646 recommendation, made pursuant to division (C)(1) of this section, 110647 of an extended limited contract for a term not to exceed two years 110648 except by a three-fourths vote of its full membership. If a board 110649 rejects by a three-fourths vote of its full membership the 110650 recommendation of the superintendent of an extended limited 110651 contract for a term not to exceed two years, the board may declare 110652 its intention not to reemploy the teacher by giving the teacher 110653 written notice on or before the first day of June of its intention 110654 not to reemploy the teacher. If evaluation procedures have not 110655 been complied with pursuant to section 3319.111 of the Revised 110656 Code or if the board does not give the teacher written notice on 110657 or before the first day of June of its intention not to reemploy 110658 the teacher, the teacher is deemed reemployed under an extended 110659 limited contract for a term not to exceed one year at the same 110660 salary plus any increment provided by the salary schedule. The 110661 teacher is presumed to have accepted employment under the extended 110662 limited contract for a term not to exceed one year unless such 110663 teacher notifies the board in writing to the contrary on or before 110664 the fifteenth day of June, and an extended limited contract for a 110665 term not to exceed one year shall be executed accordingly. Upon 110666 any subsequent reemployment of the teacher only a continuing 110667

Any teacher receiving written notice of the intention of a 110669 board not to reemploy such teacher pursuant to this division is 110670
section. 110672

(D) A teacher eligible for continuing contract status 110673 employed under an extended limited contract pursuant to division 110674

(B) or (C) of this section, is, at the expiration of such extended 110675 limited contract, deemed reemployed under a continuing contract at 110676 the same salary plus any increment granted by the salary schedule, 110677 unless evaluation procedures have been complied with pursuant to 110678 section 3319.111 of the Revised Code and the employing board, 110679 acting on the superintendent's recommendation that the teacher not 110680 be reemployed, gives the teacher written notice on or before the 110681 first day of June of its intention not to reemploy such teacher. A 110682 teacher who does not have evaluation procedures applied in 110683
compliance with section 3319.111 of the Revised Code or who does 110684 not receive notice on or before the first day of June of the 110685 intention of the board not to reemploy such teacher is presumed to 110686 have accepted employment under a continuing contract unless such 110687 teacher notifies the board in writing to the contrary on or before 110688 the fifteenth day of June, and a continuing contract shall be 110689 executed accordingly. 110690

Any teacher receiving a written notice of the intention of a 110691
board not to reemploy such teacher pursuant to this division is 110692
section. 110694

(E) The board shall enter into a limited contract with each 110695 teacher employed by the board who is not eligible to be considered 110696 for a continuing contract. 110697

Any teacher employed under a limited contract, and not 110698 eligible to be considered for a continuing contract, is, at the 110699 expiration of such limited contract, considered reemployed under 110700 the provisions of this division at the same salary plus any 110701 increment provided by the salary schedule unless evaluation 110702 procedures have been complied with pursuant to section 3319.111 of 110703 the Revised Code and the employing board, acting upon the 110704 superintendent's written recommendation that the teacher not be 110705 reemployed, gives such teacher written notice of its intention not 110706 to reemploy such teacher on or before the first day of June. A 110707

compliance with section 3319.111 of the Revised Code or who does 110709 not receive notice of the intention of the board not to reemploy 110710 such teacher on or before the first day of June is presumed to 110711 have accepted such employment unless such teacher notifies the 110712 board in writing to the contrary on or before the fifteenth day of 110713 June, and a written contract for the succeeding school year shall 110714 be executed accordingly. 110715

entitled to the hearing provisions of division (G) of this 110718
section. 110719

(F) The failure of a superintendent to make a recommendation 110720 to the board under any of the conditions set forth in divisions 110721 (B) to (E) of this section, or the failure of the board to give 110722 such teacher a written notice pursuant to divisions (C) to (E) of 110723 this section shall not prejudice or prevent a teacher from being 110724 deemed reemployed under either a limited or continuing contract as 110725 the case may be under the provisions of this section. A failure of 110726 the parties to execute a written contract shall not void any 110727 automatic reemployment provisions of this section. 110728

(G)(1) Any teacher receiving written notice of the intention 110729 of a board of education not to reemploy such teacher pursuant to 110730 division (B), (C)(3), (D), or (E) of this section may, within ten 110731 days of the date of receipt of the notice, file with the treasurer 110732 of the board a written demand for a written statement describing 110733 the circumstances that led to the board's intention not to 110734 reemploy the teacher. 110735

(2) The treasurer of a board, on behalf of the board, shall, 110736
within ten days of the date of receipt of a written demand for a 110737 written statement pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section, 110738 provide to the teacher a written statement describing the 110739 circumstances that led to the board's intention not to reemploy 110740

the teacher. 110741

(3) Any teacher receiving a written statement describing the 110742 circumstances that led to the board's intention not to reemploy 110743
the teacher pursuant to division (G)(2) of this section may, 110744 within five days of the date of receipt of the statement, file 110745 with the treasurer of the board a written demand for a hearing 110746 before the board pursuant to divisions (G)(4) to (6) of this 110747
section. 110748

(4) The treasurer of a board, on behalf of the board, shall, 110749
hearing pursuant to division (G)(3) of this section, provide to 110751 the teacher a written notice setting forth the time, date, and 110752 place of the hearing. The board shall schedule and conclude the 110753 hearing within forty days of the date on which the treasurer of 110754 the board receives a written demand for a hearing pursuant to 110755
division (G)(3) of this section. 110756

(5) Any hearing conducted pursuant to this division shall be 110757 conducted by a majority of the members of the board. The hearing 110758 shall be held in executive session of the board unless the board 110759 and the teacher agree to hold the hearing in public. The 110760 superintendent, assistant superintendent, the teacher, and any 110761 person designated by either party to take a record of the hearing 110762 may be present at the hearing. The board may be represented by 110763 counsel and the teacher may be represented by counsel or a 110764 designee. A record of the hearing may be taken by either party at 110765 the expense of the party taking the record. 110766

(6) Within ten days of the conclusion of a hearing conducted 110767 pursuant to this division, the board shall issue to the teacher a 110768 written decision containing an order affirming the intention of 110769 the board not to reemploy the teacher reported in the notice given 110770 to the teacher pursuant to division (B), (C)(3), (D), or (E) of 110771 this section or an order vacating the intention not to reemploy 110772 and expunging any record of the intention, notice of the 110773 intention, and the hearing conducted pursuant to this division. 110774

(7) A teacher may appeal an order affirming the intention of 110775 the board not to reemploy the teacher to the court of common pleas 110776 of the county in which the largest portion of the territory of the 110777 school district or service center is located, within thirty days 110778 of the date on which the teacher receives the written decision, on 110779 the grounds that the board has not complied with this section or 110780
section 3319.111 of the Revised Code. 110781

Notwithstanding section 2506.04 of the Revised Code, the 110782 court in an appeal under this division is limited to the 110783 determination of procedural errors and to ordering the correction 110784 of procedural errors and shall have no jurisdiction to order a 110785 board to reemploy a teacher, except that the court may order a 110786 board to reemploy a teacher in compliance with the requirements of 110787 division (B), (C)(3), (D), or (E) of this section when the court 110788 determines that evaluation procedures have not been complied with 110789 pursuant to section 3319.111 of the Revised Code or the board has 110790 not given the teacher written notice on or before the first day of 110791 June of its intention not to reemploy the teacher pursuant to 110792 division (B), (C)(3), (D), or (E) of this section. Otherwise, the 110793 determination whether to reemploy or not reemploy a teacher is 110794 solely a board's determination and not a proper subject of 110795 judicial review and, except as provided in this division, no 110796 decision of a board whether to reemploy or not reemploy a teacher 110797 shall be invalidated by the court on any basis, including that the 110798 decision was not warranted by the results of any evaluation or was 110799 not warranted by any statement given pursuant to division (G)(2) 110800
of this section. 110801

No appeal of an order of a board may be made except as 110802 specified in this division. 110803

(H)(1) In giving a teacher any notice required by division 110804
(B), (C), (D), or (E) of this section, the board or the 110805 superintendent shall do either of the following: 110806

(a) Deliver the notice by personal service upon the teacher; 110807

(b) Deliver the notice by certified mail, return receipt 110808 requested, regular mail with a certificate of mailing, or other 110809 form of delivery with proof of delivery, addressed to the teacher 110810 at the teacher's place of employment and deliver a copy of the 110811 notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, regular mail 110812 with a certificate of mailing, or other form of delivery with 110813 proof of delivery, addressed to the teacher at the teacher's place 110814 of residence. Delivery of the notice required under division 110815 (H)(1)(b) of this section may be satisfied by electronic delivery 110816 with electronic proof of delivery. 110817

(2) In giving a board any notice required by division (B), 110818
(C), (D), or (E) of this section, the teacher shall do either of 110819
the following: 110820

(a) Deliver the notice by personal delivery to the office of 110821 the superintendent during regular business hours; 110822

(b) Deliver the notice by certified mail, return receipt 110823
form of delivery with proof of delivery, addressed to the office 110825 of the superintendent and deliver a copy of the notice by 110826 certified mail, return receipt requested, regular mail with a 110827 certificate of mailing, or other form of delivery with proof of 110828 delivery, addressed to the president of the board at the 110829 president's place of residence. Delivery of the notice required 110830 under division (H)(2)(b) of this section may be satisfied by 110831 electronic delivery with electronic proof of delivery. 110832

(3) When any notice and copy of the notice are mailed 110833 pursuant to division (H)(1)(b) or (2)(b) of this section, the 110834 notice or copy of the notice with the earlier date of receipt 110835 shall constitute the notice for the purposes of division (B), (C), 110836 (D), or (E) of this section. 110837

(I) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any 110838 supplemental written contracts entered into pursuant to section 110839
3319.08 of the Revised Code. 110840

(J) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in Chapter 110841 4117. of the Revised Code, the dates set forth in this section as 110842
"on or before the first day of June" or "on or before the 110843 fifteenth day of June" prevail over any conflicting provisions of 110844 a collective bargaining agreement entered into on or after ~~the~~ 110845 ~~effective date of this amendment~~ March 22, 2013. 110846

Sec. 3319.16. The contract of any teacher employed by the 110847 board of education of any city, exempted village, local, county, 110848 or joint vocational school district may not be terminated except 110849 for good and just cause. Notwithstanding any provision to the 110850 contrary in Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code, the provisions of 110851 this section relating to the grounds for termination of the 110852 contract of a teacher prevail over any conflicting provisions of a 110853 collective bargaining agreement entered into after ~~the effective~~ 110854 ~~date of this amendment~~ October 16, 2009. 110855

Before terminating any contract, the employing board shall 110856 furnish the teacher a written notice signed by its treasurer of 110857 its intention to consider the termination of the teacher's 110858 contract with full specification of the grounds for such 110859 consideration. The board shall not proceed with formal action to 110860 terminate the contract until after the tenth day after receipt of 110861 the notice by the teacher. Within ten days after receipt of the 110862 notice from the treasurer of the board, the teacher may file with 110863 the treasurer a written demand for a hearing before the board or 110864 before a referee, and the board shall set a time for the hearing 110865 which shall be within thirty days from the date of receipt of the 110866 written demand, and the treasurer shall give the teacher at least 110867 twenty days' notice in writing of the time and place of the 110868 hearing. If a referee is demanded by either the teacher or board, 110869 the treasurer also shall give twenty days' notice to the 110870 superintendent of public instruction. No hearing shall be held 110871 during the summer vacation without the teacher's consent. The 110872 hearing shall be private unless the teacher requests a public 110873 hearing. The hearing shall be conducted by a referee appointed 110874 pursuant to section 3319.161 of the Revised Code, if demanded; 110875 otherwise, it shall be conducted by a majority of the members of 110876 the board and shall be confined to the grounds given for the 110877 termination. The board shall provide for a complete ~~stenographic~~ 110878 record of the proceedings, a copy of the record to be furnished to 110879 the teacher. The board may suspend a teacher pending final action 110880 to terminate the teacher's contract if, in its judgment, the 110881 character of the charges warrants such action. 110882

Both parties may be present at such hearing, be represented 110883 by counsel, require witnesses to be under oath, cross-examine 110884 witnesses, take a record of the proceedings, and require the 110885 presence of witnesses in their behalf upon subpoena to be issued 110886 by the treasurer of the board. In case of the failure of any 110887 person to comply with a subpoena, a judge of the court of common 110888 pleas of the county in which the person resides, upon application 110889 of any interested party, shall compel attendance of the person by 110890 attachment proceedings as for contempt. Any member of the board or 110891 the referee may administer oaths to witnesses. After a hearing by 110892 a referee, the referee shall file a report within ten days after 110893 the termination of the hearing. After consideration of the 110894 referee's report, the board, by a majority vote, may accept or 110895 reject the referee's recommendation on the termination of the 110896 teacher's contract. After a hearing by the board, the board, by 110897 majority vote, may enter its determination upon its minutes. Any 110898 order of termination of a contract shall state the grounds for 110899 termination. If the decision, after hearing, is against 110900 termination of the contract, the charges and the record of the 110901 hearing shall be physically expunged from the minutes, and, if the 110902 teacher has suffered any loss of salary by reason of being 110903 suspended, the teacher shall be paid the teacher's full salary for 110904 the period of such suspension. 110905

Any teacher affected by an order of termination of contract 110906 may appeal to the court of common pleas of the county in which the 110907 school is located within thirty days after receipt of notice of 110908 the entry of such order. The appeal shall be an original action in 110909 the court and shall be commenced by the filing of a complaint 110910 against the board, in which complaint the facts shall be alleged 110911 upon which the teacher relies for a reversal or modification of 110912 such order of termination of contract. Upon service or waiver of 110913 summons in that appeal, the board immediately shall transmit to 110914 the clerk of the court for filing a transcript of the original 110915 papers filed with the board, a certified copy of the minutes of 110916 the board into which the termination finding was entered, and a 110917 certified transcript of all evidence adduced at the hearing or 110918 hearings before the board or a certified transcript of all 110919 evidence adduced at the hearing or hearings before the referee, 110920 whereupon the cause shall be at issue without further pleading and 110921 shall be advanced and heard without delay. The court shall examine 110922 the transcript and record of the hearing and shall hold such 110923 additional hearings as it considers advisable, at which it may 110924 consider other evidence in addition to the transcript and record. 110925

Upon final hearing, the court shall grant or deny the relief 110926 prayed for in the complaint as may be proper in accordance with 110927 the evidence adduced in the hearing. Such an action is a special 110928 proceeding, and either the teacher or the board may appeal from 110929

the decision of the court of common pleas pursuant to the Rules of Appellate Procedure and, to the extent not in conflict with those rules, Chapter 2505. of the Revised Code.

In any court action, the board may utilize the services of the prosecuting attorney, village solicitor, city director of law, or other chief legal officer of a municipal corporation as authorized by section 3313.35 of the Revised Code, or may employ other legal counsel.

A violation of division (A)(7) of section 2907.03 of the Revised Code is grounds for termination of a teacher contract under this section.

Sec. 3319.291. (A) The state board of education shall require each of the following persons, at the times prescribed by division (A) of this section, to undergo a criminal records check, unless the person has undergone a records check under this section or a former version of this section less than five years prior to that time.

(1) Any person initially applying for any certificate, license, or permit described in this chapter or in division (B) of section 3301.071 or in section 3301.074 of the Revised Code at the time that application is made;

(2) Any person applying for renewal of any certificate, license, or permit described in division (A)(1) of this section at the time that application is made;

(3) Any person who is teaching under a professional teaching certificate issued under former section 3319.222 of the Revised Code upon a date prescribed by the state board;

(4) Any person who is teaching under a permanent teaching certificate issued under former section 3319.22 as it existed prior to October 29, 1996, or under former section 3319.222 of the Revised Code upon a date prescribed by the state board and every 110960 five years thereafter. 110961

(B)(1) Except as otherwise provided in division (B)(2) of 110962 this section, the state board shall require each person subject to 110963 a criminal records check under this section to submit two complete 110964 sets of fingerprints and written permission that authorizes the 110965 superintendent of public instruction to forward the fingerprints 110966 to the bureau of criminal identification and investigation 110967 pursuant to division (F) of section 109.57 of the Revised Code and 110968 that authorizes that bureau to forward the fingerprints to the 110969 federal bureau of investigation for purposes of obtaining any 110970 criminal records that the federal bureau maintains on the person. 110971

(2) If both of the following conditions apply to a person 110972 subject to a criminal records check under this section, the state 110973 board shall require the person to submit one complete set of 110974 fingerprints and written permission that authorizes the 110975 superintendent of public instruction to forward the fingerprints 110976 to the bureau of criminal identification and investigation so that 110977 bureau may forward the fingerprints to the federal bureau of 110978 investigation for purposes of obtaining any criminal records that 110979 the federal bureau maintains on the person: 110980

(a) Under this section or any former version of this section, 110981 the state board or the superintendent of public instruction 110982 previously requested the superintendent of the bureau of criminal 110983 identification and investigation to determine whether the bureau 110984 has any information, gathered pursuant to division (A) of section 110985 109.57 of the Revised Code, on the person. 110986

(b) The person presents proof that the person has been a 110987 resident of this state for the five-year period immediately prior 110988 to the date upon which the person becomes subject to a criminal 110989 records check under this section. 110990

(C) Except as provided in division (D) of this section, prior to issuing or renewing any certificate, license, or permit for a person described in division (A)(1) or (2) of this section who is subject to a criminal records check and in the case of a person described in division (A)(3) or (4) of this section who is subject to a criminal records check, the state board or the superintendent of public instruction shall do one of the following:

(1) If the person is required to submit fingerprints and written permission under division (B)(1) of this section, request the superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and investigation to determine whether the bureau has any information, gathered pursuant to division (A) of section 109.57 of the Revised Code, pertaining to the person and to obtain any criminal records that the federal bureau of investigation has on the person.

If the person fails to submit the fingerprints and written permission within fifteen days after the date the notice was mailed, the superintendent of public instruction, on behalf of the state board, shall issue a written order rejecting the application or inactivating the person's professional or permanent teaching certificate or license. The rejection or inactivation shall remain in effect until the person submits the fingerprints and written permission. The superintendent shall send the order by regular mail or electronic mail to the person's last known residence address, last known electronic mail address, or last known place of employment, as indicated in the department's records, ~~or both~~. The order shall state the reason for the rejection or inactivation and shall explain that the rejection or inactivation remains in effect until the person submits the fingerprints and written 111056 permission. 111057

The rejection or inactivation of a professional or permanent 111058 teaching certificate or license under division (E)(1) of this 111059 section does not constitute a suspension or revocation of the 111060 certificate or license by the state board under section 3319.31 of 111061 the Revised Code and the state board and the superintendent of 111062 public instruction need not provide the person with an opportunity 111063 for a hearing with respect to the rejection or inactivation. 111064

(2) If a person whose professional or permanent teaching 111065 certificate or license has been rejected or inactivated under 111066 division (E)(1) of this section submits fingerprints and written 111067 permission as required by division (B) or (G) of this section, the 111068 superintendent of public instruction, on behalf of the state 111069 board, shall issue a written order issuing or reactivating the 111070 certificate or license. The superintendent shall send the order to 111071 the person by regular mail or electronic mail. 111072

(F) Notwithstanding divisions (A) to (C) of this section, if 111073 a person holds more than one certificate, license, or permit 111074 described in division (A)(1) of this section, the following shall 111075 apply: 111076

(1) If the certificates, licenses, or permits are of 111077 different durations, the person shall be subject to divisions (A) 111078 to (C) of this section only when applying for renewal of the 111079 certificate, license, or permit that is of the longest duration. 111080 Prior to renewing any certificate, license, or permit with a 111081 shorter duration, the state board or the superintendent of public 111082 instruction shall determine whether the department of education 111083 has received any information about the person pursuant to section 111084 109.5721 of the Revised Code, but the person shall not be subject 111085 to divisions (A) to (C) of this section as long as the person's 111086 certificate, license, or permit with the longest duration is 111087 valid. 111088

(2) If the certificates, licenses, or permits are of the same 111089 duration but do not expire in the same year, the person shall 111090 designate one of the certificates, licenses, or permits as the 111091 person's primary certificate, license, or permit and shall notify 111092 the department of that designation. The person shall be subject to 111093 divisions (A) to (C) of this section only when applying for 111094 renewal of the person's primary certificate, license, or permit. 111095 Prior to renewing any certificate, license, or permit that is not 111096 the person's primary certificate, license, or permit, the state 111097 board or the superintendent of public instruction shall determine 111098 whether the department has received any information about the 111099 person pursuant to section 109.5721 of the Revised Code, but the 111100 person shall not be subject to divisions (A) to (C) of this 111101 section as long as the person's primary certificate, license, or 111102 permit is valid. 111103

(3) If the certificates, licenses, or permits are of the same 111104 duration and expire in the same year and the person applies for 111105 renewal of the certificates, licenses, or permits at the same 111106 time, the state board or the superintendent of public instruction 111107 shall request only one criminal records check of the person under 111108 division (C) of this section. 111109

(G) If the department is unable to enroll a person who has 111110 submitted an application for licensure, or to whom the state board 111111 has issued a license, in the retained applicant fingerprint 111112 database established under section 109.5721 of the Revised Code 111113 because the person has not satisfied the requirements for 111114 enrollment, the department shall require the person to satisfy the 111115 requirements for enrollment, including requiring the person to 111116 submit, by a date prescribed by the department, one complete set 111117 of fingerprints and written permission that authorizes the 111118
superintendent of public instruction to forward the fingerprints 111119

to the bureau of criminal identification and investigation for the 111120 purpose of enrolling the person in the database. If the person 111121 fails to comply by the prescribed date, the department shall 111122 reject the application or shall take action to inactivate the 111123 person's license in accordance with division (E) of this section. 111124

Sec. 3319.311. (A)(1) The state board of education, or the 111125 superintendent of public instruction on behalf of the board, may 111126 investigate any information received about a person that 111127 reasonably appears to be a basis for action under section 3319.31 111128 of the Revised Code, including information received pursuant to 111129
section 3314.40, 3319.291, 3319.313, 3326.24, 3328.19, 5126.253, 111130
or 5153.176 of the Revised Code. Except as provided in division 111131 (A)(2) of this section, the board shall contract with the office 111132 of the Ohio attorney general to conduct any investigation of that 111133 nature. The board shall pay for the costs of the contract only 111134 from moneys in the state board of education licensure fund 111135 established under section 3319.51 of the Revised Code. Except as 111136 provided in division (A)(2) of this section, all information 111137 received pursuant to section 3314.40, 3319.291, 3319.313, 3326.24, 111138 3328.19, 5126.253, or 5153.176 of the Revised Code, and all 111139 information obtained during an investigation is confidential and 111140 is not a public record under section 149.43 of the Revised Code. 111141
If an investigation is conducted under this division regarding 111142 information received about a person and no action is taken against 111143 the person under this section or section 3319.31 of the Revised 111144 Code within two years of the completion of the investigation, all 111145 records of the investigation shall be expunged. 111146

3319.31 of the Revised Code, or substantially comparable conduct 111150 occurring in a jurisdiction outside this state, the board or the 111151 superintendent of public instruction need not conduct any further 111152 investigation and shall take the action required by division (C) 111153 or (F) of that section. Except as provided in division (G) of this 111154 section, all information obtained by the board or the 111155

(B) The superintendent of public instruction shall review the 111158 results of each investigation of a person conducted under division 111159 (A)(1) of this section and shall determine, on behalf of the state 111160 division (B) of section 3319.31 of the Revised Code. The 111162 superintendent shall advise the board of such determination at a 111163 meeting of the board. Within fourteen days of the next meeting of 111164 the board, any member of the board may ask that the question of 111165 initiating action under section 3319.31 of the Revised Code be 111166 placed on the board's agenda for that next meeting. Prior to 111167 initiating that action against any person, the person's name and 111168 any other personally identifiable information shall remain 111169 confidential. 111170

(C) The board shall take no action against a person under 111171 division (B) of section 3319.31 of the Revised Code without 111172 providing the person with written notice of the charges and with 111173 an opportunity for a hearing in accordance with Chapter 119. of 111174
the Revised Code. 111175

(D) For purposes of an investigation under division (A)(1) of 111176 this section or a hearing under division (C) of this section or 111177 under division (E)(2) of section 3319.31 of the Revised Code, the 111178 board, or the superintendent on behalf of the board, may 111179 electronic delivery with electronic proof of delivery, or personal 111186 delivery to the person. 111187

(E) The superintendent, on behalf of the board, may enter 111188 into a consent agreement with a person against whom action is 111189 being taken under division (B) of section 3319.31 of the Revised 111190 Code. The board may adopt rules governing the superintendent's 111191 action under this division. 111192

(F) No surrender of a license shall be effective until the 111193 board takes action to accept the surrender unless the surrender is 111194 pursuant to a consent agreement entered into under division (E) of 111195
this section. 111196

(G) The name of any person who is not required to report 111197 information under section 3314.40, 3319.313, 3326.24, 3328.19, 111198 5126.253, or 5153.176 of the Revised Code, but who in good faith 111199 public instruction about alleged misconduct committed by a person 111201 who holds a license or has applied for issuance or renewal of a 111202 license, shall be confidential and shall not be released. Any such 111203 person shall be immune from any civil liability that otherwise 111204 might be incurred or imposed for injury, death, or loss to person 111205 or property as a result of the provision of that information. 111206

(H)(1) No person shall knowingly make a false report to the 111207 superintendent of public instruction or the state board of 111208 chartered nonpublic school or an employee of the operator of a 111210 community school established under Chapter 3314. or a 111211 college-preparatory boarding school established under Chapter 111212

3328. of the Revised Code. 111213

(2)(a) In any civil action brought against a person in which 111214 it is alleged and proved that the person violated division (H)(1) 111215 of this section, the court shall award the prevailing party 111216 reasonable attorney's fees and costs that the prevailing party 111217 incurred in the civil action or as a result of the false report 111218 that was the basis of the violation. 111219

(b) If a person is convicted of or pleads guilty to a 111220 violation of division (H)(1) of this section, if the subject of 111221 the false report that was the basis of the violation was charged 111222 with any violation of a law or ordinance as a result of the false 111223 report, and if the subject of the false report is found not to be 111224 guilty of the charges brought against the subject as a result of 111225 the false report or those charges are dismissed, the court that 111226 sentences the person for the violation of division (H)(1) of this 111227 section, as part of the sentence, shall order the person to pay 111228 restitution to the subject of the false report, in an amount equal 111229 to reasonable attorney's fees and costs that the subject of the 111230 false report incurred as a result of or in relation to the 111231 charges. 111232

the reason for withdrawal. The fact of the withdrawal and the 111235 reason for it shall be immediately transmitted by the teacher to 111236 the superintendent of the city, local, or exempted village school 111237 district. If the child who has withdrawn from school has done so 111238 because of change of residence, the next residence shall be 111239 ascertained and shall be included in the notice thus transmitted. 111240
The superintendent shall thereupon forward a card showing the 111241 essential facts regarding the child and stating the place of the 111242 child's new residence to the superintendent of schools of the 111243 district to which the child has moved. 111244

The superintendent of public instruction may prescribe the 111245 forms to be used in the operation of this division. 111246

(B)(1) Upon receipt of information that a child of compulsory 111247 school age has withdrawn from school for a reason other than 111248 because of change of residence and is not enrolled in and 111249 attending in accordance with school policy an approved program to 111250 obtain a diploma or its equivalent, the superintendent shall 111251 notify the registrar of motor vehicles and the juvenile judge of 111252
the county in which the district is located of the withdrawal and 111253 failure to enroll in and attend an approved program to obtain a 111254 diploma or its equivalent. A notification to the registrar 111255 required by this division shall be given in the manner the 111256 registrar by rule requires and a notification to the juvenile 111257 judge required by this division shall be given in writing. Each 111258 notification shall be given within two weeks after the withdrawal 111259 and failure to enroll in and attend an approved program or its 111260 equivalent. 111261

(2) The board of education of a school district may adopt a 111262 resolution providing that the provisions of division (B)(2) of 111263 this section apply within the district. The provisions of division 111264 (B)(2) of this section do not apply within any school district, 111265 and no superintendent of a school district shall send a 111266 notification of the type described in division (B)(2) of this 111267 section to the registrar of motor vehicles or the juvenile judge 111268 of the county in which the district is located, unless the board 111269 of education of the district has adopted such a resolution. If the 111270 board of education of a school district adopts a resolution 111271 providing that the provisions of division (B)(2) of this section 111272 apply within the district, and if the superintendent of schools of 111273 that district receives information that, during any semester or 111274 term, a child of compulsory school age has been absent without 111275 legitimate excuse from the school the child is supposed to attend 111276 for more than sixty consecutive hours in a single month or for at 111277 least ninety hours in a school year, the superintendent shall 111278 notify the child and the child's parent, guardian, or custodian, 111279 in writing, that the information has been provided to the 111280 superintendent, that as a result of that information the child's 111281 temporary instruction permit or driver's license will be suspended 111282 or the opportunity to obtain such a permit or license will be 111283 denied, and that the child and the child's parent, guardian, or 111284 custodian may ~~appear in person~~ participate in a hearing at a 111285 scheduled date, time, and place ~~before~~ conducted by the 111286 superintendent or a designee to challenge the information provided 111287 to the superintendent. The hearing may be conducted by electronic 111288 means. 111289

The notification to the child and the child's parent, 111290 guardian, or custodian required by division (B)(2) of this section 111291 shall set forth the information received by the superintendent and 111292 shall inform the child and the child's parent, guardian, or 111293 custodian of the scheduled date, time, and ~~place~~ participation 111294 method of the ~~appearance that they may have~~ hearing before the 111295 superintendent or a designee. The date scheduled for the 111296 ~~appearance~~ hearing shall be no earlier than three and no later 111297 than five days after the notification is given, provided that an 111298 extension may be granted upon request of the child or the child's 111299 parent, guardian, or custodian. If an extension is granted, the 111300 superintendent shall schedule a new date, time, and ~~place~~ method 111301 for the ~~appearance~~ hearing and shall inform the child and the 111302 child's parent, guardian, or custodian of the new date, time, and 111303 ~~place~~ method. 111304

If the child and the child's parent, guardian, or custodian 111305 do not appear before the superintendent or a designee on the 111306 scheduled date and ~~at~~ for the scheduled ~~time and place~~ hearing, or 111307 if the child and the child's parent, guardian, or custodian appear 111308 before the superintendent or a designee on the scheduled date and 111309 at the scheduled time ~~and place~~ but the superintendent or a 111310 designee determines that the information the superintendent 111311 received indicating that, during the semester or term, the child 111312 had been absent without legitimate excuse from the school the 111313 child was supposed to attend for more than sixty consecutive hours 111314 or for at least ninety total hours, the superintendent shall 111315 notify the registrar of motor vehicles and the juvenile judge of 111316

the county in which the district is located that the child has 111317 been absent for that period of time and that the child does not 111318 have any legitimate excuse for the habitual absence. A 111319 notification to the registrar required by this division shall be 111320 given in the manner the registrar by rule requires and a 111321 notification to the juvenile judge required by this division shall 111322 be given in writing. Each notification shall be given within two 111323 weeks after the receipt of the information of the habitual absence 111324 from school without legitimate excuse, or, if the child and the 111325 child's parent, guardian, or custodian appear before the 111326 superintendent or a designee to challenge the information, within 111327 two weeks after the ~~appearance~~ hearing. 111328

For purposes of division (B)(2) of this section, a legitimate 111329 excuse for absence from school includes, but is not limited to, 111330 the fact that the child in question has enrolled in another school 111331 or school district in this or another state, the fact that the 111332 child in question was excused from attendance for any of the 111333 reasons specified in section 3321.04 of the Revised Code, or the 111334 fact that the child in question has received an age and schooling 111335 certificate in accordance with section 3331.01 of the Revised 111336
Code. 111337

(3) Whenever a pupil is suspended or expelled from school 111338 pursuant to section 3313.66 of the Revised Code and the reason for 111339 the suspension or expulsion is the use or possession of alcohol, a 111340 drug of abuse, or alcohol and a drug of abuse, the superintendent 111341 of schools of that district may notify the registrar and the 111342 juvenile judge of the county in which the district is located of 111343 such suspension or expulsion. Any such notification of suspension 111344 or expulsion shall be given to the registrar, in the manner the 111345 registrar by rule requires and shall be given to the juvenile 111346 judge in writing. The notifications shall be given within two 111347 weeks after the suspension or expulsion. 111348

(4) Whenever a pupil is suspended, expelled, removed, or 111349 permanently excluded from a school for misconduct included in a 111350 policy that the board of education of a city, exempted village, or 111351 local school district has adopted under division (A) of section 111352 3313.661 of the Revised Code, and the misconduct involves a 111353 firearm or a knife or other weapon as defined in that policy, the 111354 superintendent of schools of that district shall notify the 111355 registrar and the juvenile judge of the county in which the 111356 district is located of the suspension, expulsion, removal, or 111357 permanent exclusion. The notification shall be given to the 111358 registrar in the manner the registrar, by rule, requires and shall 111359 be given to the juvenile judge in writing. The notifications shall 111360 be given within two weeks after the suspension, expulsion, 111361 removal, or permanent exclusion. 111362

(C) A notification of withdrawal, habitual absence without 111363 legitimate excuse, suspension, or expulsion given to the registrar 111364 or a juvenile judge under division (B)(1), (2), (3), or (4) of 111365 this section shall contain the name, address, date of birth, 111366 school, and school district of the child. If the superintendent 111367 finds, after giving a notification of withdrawal, habitual absence 111368 without legitimate excuse, suspension, or expulsion to the 111369 registrar and the juvenile judge under division (B)(1), (2), (3), 111370 or (4) of this section, that the notification was given in error, 111371 the superintendent immediately shall notify the registrar and the 111372 juvenile judge of that fact. 111373

Sec. 3321.21. A notice under section 3321.19 or 3321.20 of 111374 the Revised Code, sent by registered mail, regular mail with a 111375 certificate of mailing, or other form of delivery with proof of 111376 delivery, including electronic delivery and electronic proof of 111377 delivery, is a legal notice. 111378

Sec. 3704.03. The director of environmental protection may do 111379 any of the following: 111380

(A) Develop programs for the prevention, control, and 111381 abatement of air pollution; 111382

(B) Advise, consult, contract, and cooperate with any 111383 governmental or private agency in the furtherance of the purposes 111384 of this chapter; 111385

(C) Encourage, participate in, or conduct studies, 111386 investigations, and research relating to air pollution, collect 111387 and disseminate information, and conduct education and training 111388 programs relating to the causes, prevention, control, and 111389
abatement of air pollution; 111390

(D) Adopt, modify, and rescind rules prescribing ambient air 111391 quality standards for the state as a whole or for various areas of 111392 the state that are consistent with and no more stringent than the 111393 national ambient air quality standards in effect under the federal 111394 Clean Air Act; 111395

(E) Adopt, modify, suspend, and rescind rules for the 111396 prevention, control, and abatement of air pollution, including 111397 rules prescribing for the state as a whole or for various areas of 111398 the state emission standards for air contaminants, and other 111399 necessary rules for the purpose of achieving and maintaining 111400 compliance with ambient air quality standards in all areas within 111401 the state as expeditiously as practicable, but not later than any 111402 deadlines applicable under the federal Clean Air Act; rules for 111403 the prevention or control of the emission of hazardous or toxic 111404 air contaminants; rules prescribing fugitive dust limitations and 111405 standards that are related, on an areawide basis, to attainment 111406 and maintenance of ambient air quality standards; rules 111407 prescribing shade, density, or opacity limitations and standards 111408 for emissions, provided that with regard to air contaminant 111409 sources for which there are particulate matter emission standards 111410 in addition to a shade, density, or opacity rule, upon 111411 demonstration by such a source of compliance with those other 111412 standards, the shade, density, or opacity rule shall provide for 111413 establishment of a shade, density, or opacity limitation for that 111414 source that does not require the source to reduce emissions below 111415 the level specified by those other standards; rules for the 111416 prevention or control of odors and air pollution nuisances; rules 111417 that prevent significant deterioration of air quality to the 111418 extent required by the federal Clean Air Act; rules for the 111419 protection of visibility as required by the federal Clean Air Act; 111420 and rules prescribing open burning limitations and standards. In 111421 adopting, modifying, suspending, or rescinding any such rules, the 111422 director, to the extent consistent with the federal Clean Air Act, 111423 shall hear and give consideration to evidence relating to all of 111424

the following: 111425

(1) Conditions calculated to result from compliance with the 111426 rules, the overall cost within this state of compliance with the 111427 rules, and their relation to benefits to the people of the state 111428 to be derived from that compliance; 111429

(2) The quantity and characteristics of air contaminants, the 111430 frequency and duration of their presence in the ambient air, and 111431 the dispersion and dilution of those contaminants; 111432

(3) Topography, prevailing wind directions and velocities, 111433 physical conditions, and other factors that may or may combine to 111434 affect air pollution. 111435

Consistent with division (K) of section 3704.036 of the Revised Code, the director shall consider alternative emission limits proposed by the owner or operator of an air contaminant source that is subject to an emission limit established in rules adopted under this division and shall accept those alternative emission limits that the director determines to be equivalent to emission limits established in rules adopted under this division.

(2)(a) Applications for installation permits shall be accompanied by plans, specifications, construction schedules, and such other pertinent information and data, including data on ambient air quality impact and a demonstration of best available technology, as the director may require. Installation permits shall be issued for a period specified by the director and are transferable. The director shall specify in each permit the applicable emission standards and that the permit is conditioned upon payment of the applicable fees as required by section 3745.11 of the Revised Code and upon the right of the director's authorized representatives to enter upon the premises of the person to whom the permit has been issued, at any reasonable time and subject to safety requirements of the person in control of the premises, for the purpose of determining compliance with such standards, this chapter, the rules adopted thereunder, and the conditions of any permit, variance, or order issued thereunder. Each proposed new or modified air contaminant source shall provide such notice of its proposed installation or modification to other 111468 states as is required under the federal Clean Air Act. 111469 Installation permits shall include the authorization to operate 111470 sources installed and operated in accordance with terms and 111471 conditions of the installation permits for a period not to exceed 111472 one year from commencement of operation, which authorization shall 111473 constitute an operating permit under division (G) of this section 111474 and rules adopted under it. 111475

No installation permit shall be required for activities that 111476 are subject to and in compliance with a plant-wide applicability 111477 limit issued by the director in accordance with rules adopted 111478 under this section. 111479

No installation permit shall be issued except in accordance 111480 with all requirements of this chapter and rules adopted 111481 thereunder. No application shall be denied or permit revoked or 111482 modified without a written order stating the findings upon which 111483 denial, revocation, or modification is based. A copy of the order 111484 shall be sent to the applicant or permit holder by certified mail. 111485

(b) An air contaminant source that is the subject of an 111486 installation permit shall be installed or modified in accordance 111487 with the permit not later than eighteen months after the permit's 111488 effective date at which point the permit shall terminate unless 111489 one of the following applies: 111490

(i) The owner or operator has undertaken a continuing program 111491 of installation or modification during the eighteen-month period. 111492

(ii) The owner or operator has entered into a binding 111493 contractual obligation to undertake and complete within a 111494 reasonable period of time a continuing program of installation or 111495 modification of the air contaminant source during the 111496 eighteen-month period. 111497

(iii) The director has extended the date by which the air 111498 contaminant source that is the subject of the installation permit 111499 must be installed or modified. 111500

(iv) The installation permit is the subject of an appeal by a 111501 party other than the owner or operator of the air contaminant 111502 source that is the subject of the installation permit, in which 111503 case the date of termination of the permit is not later than 111504 eighteen months after the effective date of the permit plus the 111505 number of days between the date in which the permit was appealed 111506 and the date on which all appeals concerning the permit have been 111507 resolved. 111508

(v) The installation permit has been superseded by a 111509 subsequent installation permit, in which case the original 111510 installation permit terminates on the effective date of the 111511 superseding installation permit. 111512

Division (F)(2)(b) of this section applies to an installation 111513 permit that has not terminated as of ~~the effective date of this~~ 111514 ~~amendment~~ October 16, 2009. 111515

The director may adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. 111516 of the Revised Code for the purpose of establishing additional 111517 requirements that are necessary for the implementation of division 111518 (F)(2)(b) of this section. 111519

(3) Not later than two years after August 3, 2006, the 111520 director shall adopt a rule in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 111521 Revised Code specifying that a permit to install is required only 111522 for new or modified air contaminant sources that emit any of the 111523 following air contaminants: 111524

(a) An air contaminant or precursor of an air contaminant for 111525 which a national ambient air quality standard has been adopted 111526 under the federal Clean Air Act; 111527

(b) An air contaminant for which the air contaminant source 111528 is regulated under the federal Clean Air Act; 111529

(4)(a) Applications for permits to install new or modified air contaminant sources shall contain sufficient information regarding air contaminants for which the director may require a permit to install to determine conformity with the environmental protection agency's document entitled "Review of New Sources of Air Toxics Emissions, Option A," dated May 1986, which the director shall use to evaluate toxic emissions from new or modified air contaminant sources. The director shall make copies 111562 of the document available to the public upon request at no cost 111563 and post the document on the environmental protection agency's web 111564 site. Any inconsistency between the document and division (F)(4) 111565 of this section shall be resolved in favor of division (F)(4) of 111566

this section. 111567

(b) The maximum acceptable ground level concentration of an 111568 air contaminant shall be calculated in accordance with the 111569 document entitled "Review of New Sources of Air Toxics Emissions, 111570 Option A." Modeling shall be conducted to determine the increase 111571 in the ground level concentration of an air contaminant beyond the 111572 facility's boundary caused by the emissions from a new or modified 111573 source that is the subject of an application for a permit to 111574 install. Modeling shall be based on the maximum hourly rate of 111575 emissions from the source using information including, but not 111576 limited to, any emission control devices or methods, operational 111577 restrictions, stack parameters, and emission dispersion devices or 111578 methods that may affect ground level concentrations, either 111579 individually or in combination. The director shall determine 111580 whether the activities for which a permit to install is sought 111581 will cause an increase in the ground level concentration of one or 111582 more relevant air contaminants beyond the facility's boundary by 111583 an amount in excess of the maximum acceptable ground level 111584 concentration. In making the determination as to whether the 111585 maximum acceptable ground level concentration will be exceeded, 111586 the director shall give consideration to the modeling conducted 111587 under division (F)(4)(b) of this section and other relevant 111588 information submitted by the applicant. 111589

(c) If the modeling conducted under division (F)(4)(b) of 111590 this section with respect to an application for a permit to 111591 install demonstrates that the maximum ground level concentration 111592 from a new or modified source will be greater than or equal to 111593 eighty per cent, but less than one hundred per cent of the maximum acceptable ground level concentration for an air contaminant, the director may establish terms and conditions in the permit to install for the air contaminant source that will require the owner or operator of the air contaminant source to maintain emissions of that air contaminant commensurate with the modeled level, which shall be expressed as allowable emissions per day. In order to calculate the allowable emissions per day, the director shall multiply the hourly emission rate modeled under division (F)(4)(b) of this section to determine the ground level concentration by the operating schedule that has been identified in the permit to install application. Terms and conditions imposed under division (F)(4)(c) of this section are not federally enforceable requirements and, if included in a Title V permit, shall be placed in the portion of the permit that is only enforceable by the state.

(d) If the modeling conducted under division (F)(4)(b) of this section with respect to an application for a permit to install demonstrates that the maximum ground level concentration from a new or modified source will be less than eighty per cent of the maximum acceptable ground level concentration, the owner or operator of the source annually shall report to the director, on a form prescribed by the director, whether operations of the source are consistent with the information regarding the operations that was used to conduct the modeling with regard to the permit to install application. The annual report to the director shall be in lieu of an emission limit or other permit terms and conditions imposed pursuant to division (F)(4) of this section. The director may consider any significant departure from the operations of the source described in the permit to install application that results in greater emissions than the emissions rate modeled to determine the ground level concentration as a modification and require the owner or operator to submit a permit to install application for the increased emissions. The requirements established in division 111627 (F)(4)(d) of this section are not federally enforceable 111628 requirements and, if included in a Title V permit, shall be placed 111629 in the portion of the permit that is only enforceable by the 111630

state. 111631

(e) Division (F)(4) of this section and the document entitled 111632
"Review of New Sources of Air Toxics Emissions, Option A" shall 111633 not be included in the state implementation plan under section 110 111634 of the federal Clean Air Act and do not apply to an air 111635 contaminant source that is subject to a maximum achievable control 111636 technology standard or residual risk standard under section 112 of 111637 the federal Clean Air Act, to a particular air contaminant 111638 identified under 40 C.F.R. 51.166, division (b)(23), for which the 111639 director has determined that the owner or operator of the source 111640 is required to install best available control technology for that 111641 particular air contaminant, or to a particular air contaminant for 111642 which the director has determined that the source is required to 111643 meet the lowest achievable emission rate, as defined in 40 C.F.R. 111644 part 51, Appendix S, for that particular air contaminant. 111645

(f)(i) Division (F)(4) of this section and the document 111646 entitled "Review of New Sources of Air Toxics Emissions, Option A" 111647 do not apply to parking lots, storage piles, storage tanks, 111648 transfer operations, grain silos, grain dryers, emergency 111649 generators, gasoline dispensing operations, air contaminant 111650 sources that emit air contaminants solely from the combustion of 111651 fossil fuels, or the emission of wood dust, sand, glass dust, coal 111652 dust, silica, and grain dust. 111653

(ii) Notwithstanding division (F)(4)(f)(i) of this section, 111654 the director may require an individual air contaminant source that 111655 is within one of the source categories identified in division 111656 (F)(4)(f)(i) of this section to submit information in an 111657 application for a permit to install a new or modified source in 111658 order to determine the source's conformity to the document if the 111659 director has information to conclude that the particular new or 111660 modified source will potentially cause an increase in ground level 111661 concentration beyond the facility's boundary that exceeds the 111662 maximum acceptable ground level concentration as set forth in the 111663 document. 111664

(iii) The director may adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 111665
119. of the Revised Code that are consistent with the purposes of 111666 this chapter and that add to or delete from the source category 111667 exemptions established in division (F)(4)(f)(i) of this section. 111668

(5) Not later than one year after August 3, 2006, the 111669 director shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 111670 Revised Code specifying activities that do not, by themselves, 111671 constitute beginning actual construction activities related to the 111672 installation or modification of an air contaminant source for 111673 which a permit to install is required such as the grading and 111674 clearing of land, on-site storage of portable parts and equipment, 111675 and the construction of foundations or buildings that do not 111676 themselves emit air contaminants. The rules also shall allow 111677 specified initial activities that are part of the installation or 111678 modification of an air contaminant source, such as the 111679 installation of electrical and other utilities for the source, 111680 prior to issuance of a permit to install, provided that the owner 111681 or operator of the source has filed a complete application for a 111682 permit to install, the director or the director's designee has 111683 determined that the application is complete, and the owner or 111684 operator of the source has notified the director that this 111685 activity will be undertaken prior to the issuance of a permit to 111686 install. Any activity that is undertaken by the source under those 111687 rules shall be at the risk of the owner or operator. The rules 111688 shall not apply to activities that are precluded prior to permit 111689 issuance under section 111, section 112, Part C of Title I, and 111690

Part D of Title I of the federal Clean Air Act. 111691

(G) Adopt, modify, suspend, and rescind rules prohibiting the 111692 operation or other use of any new, modified, or existing air 111693 contaminant source unless an operating permit has been obtained 111694 from the director or the director's authorized representative, or 111695 the air contaminant source is being operated in compliance with 111696 the conditions of a variance issued pursuant to division (H) of 111697 this section. Applications for operating permits shall be 111698 accompanied by such plans, specifications, and other pertinent 111699 information as the director may require. Operating permits may be 111700 issued for a period determined by the director not to exceed ten 111701 years, are renewable, and are transferable. The director shall 111702 specify in each operating permit that the permit is conditioned 111703 upon payment of the applicable fees as required by section 3745.11 111704 of the Revised Code and upon the right of the director's 111705 authorized representatives to enter upon the premises of the 111706 person to whom the permit has been issued, at any reasonable time 111707 and subject to safety requirements of the person in control of the 111708 premises, for the purpose of determining compliance with this 111709 chapter, the rules adopted thereunder, and the conditions of any 111710 permit, variance, or order issued thereunder. Operating permits 111711 may be denied or revoked for failure to comply with this chapter 111712 or the rules adopted thereunder. An operating permit shall be 111713 issued only upon a showing satisfactory to the director or the 111714 director's representative that the air contaminant source is being 111715 operated in compliance with applicable emission standards and 111716 other rules or upon submission of a schedule of compliance 111717 satisfactory to the director for a source that is not in 111718 compliance with all applicable requirements at the time of permit 111719 issuance, provided that the compliance schedule shall be 111720 consistent with and at least as stringent as that contained in any 111721 judicial consent decree or administrative order to which the air 111722 contaminant source is subject. The rules shall provide for the 111723 issuance of conditional operating permits for such reasonable 111724 periods as the director may determine to allow the holder of an 111725 installation permit, who has constructed, installed, located, or 111726 modified a new air contaminant source in accordance with the 111727 provisions of an installation permit, to make adjustments or 111728 modifications necessary to enable the new air contaminant source 111729 to comply with applicable emission standards and other rules. 111730 Terms and conditions of operating permits issued pursuant to this 111731 division shall be federally enforceable for the purpose of 111732 establishing the potential to emit of a stationary source and 111733 shall be expressly designated as federally enforceable. Any such 111734 federally enforceable restrictions on a source's potential to emit 111735 shall include both an annual limit and a short-term limit of not 111736 more than thirty days for each pollutant to be restricted together 111737 with adequate methods for establishing compliance with the 111738 restrictions. In other respects, operating permits issued pursuant 111739 to this division are enforceable as state law only. No application 111740 shall be denied or permit revoked or modified without a written 111741 order stating the findings upon which denial, revocation, or 111742 modification is based. A copy of the order shall be sent to the 111743 applicant or permit holder by certified mail. 111744

(H) Adopt, modify, and rescind rules governing the issuance, 111745 revocation, modification, or denial of variances that authorize 111746 emissions in excess of the applicable emission standards. 111747

No variance shall be issued except pursuant to those rules. 111748
The rules shall prescribe conditions and criteria in furtherance 111749 of the purposes of this chapter and consistent with the federal 111750 Clean Air Act governing eligibility for issuance of variances, 111751 which shall include all of the following: 111752

(1) Provisions requiring consistency of emissions authorized 111753 by a variance with timely attainment and maintenance of ambient 111754 air quality standards; 111755

(2) Provisions prescribing the classes and categories of air 111756 contaminants and air contaminant sources for which variances may 111757 be issued; 111758

(3) Provisions defining the circumstances under which an 111759 applicant shall demonstrate that compliance with applicable 111760 emission standards is technically infeasible, economically 111761 unreasonable, or impossible because of conditions beyond the 111762 control of the applicant; 111763

(4) Other provisions prescribed in furtherance of the goals 111764
of this chapter. 111765

The rules shall prohibit the issuance of variances from any 111766 emission limitation that was applicable to a source pursuant to an 111767 installation permit and shall prohibit issuance of variances that 111768 conflict with the federal Clean Air Act. 111769

Applications for variances shall be accompanied by such 111770 information as the director may require. In issuing variances, the 111771 director may order the person to whom a variance is issued to 111772 furnish plans and specifications and such other information and 111773 data, including interim reports, as the director may require and 111774 to proceed to take such action within such time as the director 111775 may determine to be appropriate and reasonable to prevent, 111776 control, or abate the person's existing emissions of air 111777 contaminants. The director shall specify in each variance that the 111778 variance is conditioned upon payment of the applicable fees as 111779 required by section 3745.11 of the Revised Code and upon the right 111780 of the director's authorized representatives to enter upon the 111781 premises of the person to whom the variance has been issued, at 111782 any reasonable time and subject to safety requirements of the 111783 person in control of the premises, for the purpose of determining 111784 compliance with this chapter, the rules adopted thereunder, and 111785 the conditions of any permit, variance, or order issued 111786 thereunder. 111787

The director may hold a public hearing on an application for 111788 a variance or renewal thereof at a location in the county where 111789 the variance is sought. The director shall give not less than 111790 twenty days' notice of the hearing to the applicant by certified 111791 mail or another type of mail accompanied by a receipt and. The 111792 director also shall cause at least one publication of notice in a 111793 newspaper with general circulation in the county where the 111794 variance is sought or may instead provide public notice by 111795 publication on the environmental protection agency's web site. The 111796 director shall keep available for public inspection at the 111797 principal office of the environmental protection agency a current 111798 schedule of pending applications for variances and a current 111799 schedule of pending variance hearings. The director shall make a 111800 complete stenographic record or electronic record of testimony and 111801 other evidence submitted at the hearing. The director shall make a 111802 written determination to issue, renew, or deny the variance and 111803 shall enter the determination and the basis therefor into the 111804 record of the hearing. The director shall issue, renew, or deny an 111805 application for a variance or renewal thereof, or issue a proposed 111806 action upon the application pursuant to section 3745.07 of the 111807 Revised Code, within six months of the date upon which the 111808 director receives a complete application with all pertinent 111809 information and data required by the director. 111810

Any variance granted pursuant to rules adopted under this 111811 division shall be for a period specified by the director, not to 111812 exceed three years, and may be renewed from time to time on such 111813 terms and for such periods, not to exceed three years each, as the 111814 director determines to be appropriate. A variance may be revoked, 111815 or renewal denied, for failure to comply with conditions specified 111816 in the variance. No variance shall be issued, denied, revoked, or 111817 modified without a written order stating the findings upon which 111818
the issuance, denial, revocation, or modification is based. A copy 111819 of the order shall be sent to the applicant or variance holder by 111820

certified mail. 111821

(I) Require the owner or operator of an air contaminant 111822 source to install, employ, maintain, and operate such emissions, 111823 ambient air quality, meteorological, or other monitoring devices 111824 or methods as the director shall prescribe; to sample those 111825 emissions at such locations, at such intervals, and in such manner 111826 as the director prescribes; to maintain records and file periodic 111827 reports with the director containing information as to location, 111828 size, and height of emission outlets, rate, duration, and 111829 composition of emissions, and any other pertinent information the 111830 director prescribes; and to provide such written notice to other 111831 states as the director shall prescribe. In requiring monitoring 111832 devices, records, and reports, the director, to the extent 111833 consistent with the federal Clean Air Act, shall give 111834 consideration to technical feasibility and economic reasonableness 111835 and allow reasonable time for compliance. For sources where a 111836 specific monitoring, record-keeping, or reporting requirement is 111837 specified for a particular air contaminant from a particular air 111838 contaminant source in an applicable regulation adopted by the 111839 United States environmental protection agency under the federal 111840 Clean Air Act or in an applicable rule adopted by the director, 111841 the director shall not impose an additional requirement in a 111842 permit that is a different monitoring, record-keeping, or 111843 reporting requirement other than the requirement specified in the 111844 applicable regulation or rule for that air contaminant except as 111845 otherwise agreed to by the owner or operator of the air 111846 contaminant source and the director. If two or more regulations or 111847 rules impose different monitoring, record-keeping, or reporting 111848 requirements for the same air contaminant from the same air 111849 contaminant source, the director may impose permit terms and 111850 conditions that consolidate or streamline the monitoring, 111851 record-keeping, or reporting requirements in a manner that 111852 conforms with each applicable requirement. To the extent 111853 consistent with the federal Clean Air Act and except as otherwise 111854 agreed to by the owner or operator of an air contaminant source 111855 and the director, the director shall not require an operating 111856 restriction that has the practical effect of increasing the 111857 stringency of an existing applicable emission limitation or 111858 standard. 111859

(J) Establish, operate, and maintain monitoring stations and 111860 other devices designed to measure air pollution and enter into 111861 contracts with any public or private agency for the establishment, 111862 operation, or maintenance of such stations and devices; 111863

(K) By rule adopt procedures for giving reasonable public 111864 notice and conducting public hearings on any plans for the 111865 prevention, control, and abatement of air pollution that the 111866 director is required to submit to the federal government; 111867

(L) Through any employee, agent, or authorized representative 111868 of the director or the environmental protection agency, enter upon 111869 private or public property, including improvements thereon, at any 111870 reasonable time, to make inspections, take samples, conduct tests, 111871 and examine records or reports pertaining to any emission of air 111872 contaminants and any monitoring equipment or methods and to 111873 determine if there are any actual or potential emissions from such 111874 premises and, if so, to determine the sources, amounts, contents, 111875 and extent of those emissions, or to ascertain whether there is 111876 compliance with this chapter, any orders issued or rules adopted 111877 thereunder, or any other determination of the director. The 111878 director, at reasonable times, may have access to and copy any 111879 such records. If entry or inspection authorized by this division 111880 is refused, hindered, or thwarted, the director or the director's 111881 authorized representative may by affidavit apply for, and any 111882 judge of a court of record may issue, an appropriate inspection 111883 warrant necessary to achieve the purposes of this chapter within 111884 the court's territorial jurisdiction. 111885

(M) Accept and administer gifts or grants from the federal government and from any other source, public or private, for carrying out any of the functions under this chapter; 111886
111888

(N) Obtain necessary scientific, technical, and laboratory services; 111889 111890

(O) Establish advisory boards in accordance with section 121.13 of the Revised Code; 111891
111892

111896
111898
111899
111900
111902

(Q) Certify to the government of the United States or any agency thereof that an industrial air pollution facility is in conformity with the state program or requirements for control of air pollution whenever such certificate is required for a taxpayer pursuant to any federal law or requirements; 111903
111904
111905
111907

orders, the director, to the extent consistent with the federal 111917 Clean Air Act, shall give consideration to, and base the 111918 determination on, evidence relating to the technical feasibility 111919 and economic reasonableness of compliance with such orders and 111920 their relation to benefits to the people of the state to be 111921 derived from such compliance. If, under the federal Clean Air Act, 111922 any such order shall provide for the posting of a bond or surety 111923 to secure compliance with the order as a condition of issuance of 111924 the order, the order shall so provide, but only to the extent 111925 required by the federal Clean Air Act. 111926

(S) To the extent provided by the federal Clean Air Act, 111927 adopt, modify, and rescind rules providing for the administrative 111928 assessment and collection of monetary penalties, not in excess of 111929 those required pursuant to the federal Clean Air Act, for failure 111930 to comply with any emission limitation or standard, compliance 111931 schedule, or other requirement of any rule, order, permit, or 111932 variance issued or adopted under this chapter or required under 111933 the applicable implementation plan whether or not the source is 111934 subject to a federal or state consent decree. The director may 111935 require the submission of compliance schedules, calculations of 111936 penalties for noncompliance, and related information. Any orders, 111937 payments, sanctions, or other requirements imposed pursuant to 111938 rules adopted under this division shall be in addition to any 111939 other permits, orders, payments, sanctions, or other requirements 111940 established under this chapter and shall not affect any civil or 111941 criminal enforcement proceedings brought under any provision of 111942 this chapter or any other provision of state or local law. This 111943 division does not apply to any requirement of this chapter 111944 regarding the prevention or abatement of odors. 111945

(T) Require new or modified air contaminant sources to 111946 install best available technology, but only in accordance with 111947 this division. With respect to permits issued pursuant to division 111948

(F) of this section beginning three years after August 3, 2006, 111949 best available technology for air contaminant sources and air 111950 contaminants emitted by those sources that are subject to 111951 standards adopted under section 112, Part C of Title I, and Part D 111952 of Title I of the federal Clean Air Act shall be equivalent to and 111953 no more stringent than those standards. For an air contaminant or 111954 precursor of an air contaminant for which a national ambient air 111955 quality standard has been adopted under the federal Clean Air Act, 111956 best available technology only shall be required to the extent 111957 required by rules adopted under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code 111958 for permit to install applications filed three or more years after 111959
August 3, 2006. 111960

Best available technology requirements established in rules 111961 adopted under this division shall be expressed only in one of the 111962 following ways that is most appropriate for the applicable source 111963 or source categories: 111964

(1) Work practices; 111965

(2) Source design characteristics or design efficiency of 111966 applicable air contaminant control devices; 111967

(3) Raw material specifications or throughput limitations 111968 averaged over a twelve-month rolling period; 111969

(4) Monthly allowable emissions averaged over a twelve-month 111970 rolling period. 111971

Best available technology requirements shall not apply to an 111972 air contaminant source that has the potential to emit, taking into 111973 account air pollution controls installed on the source, less than 111974 ten tons per year of emissions of an air contaminant or precursor 111975 of an air contaminant for which a national ambient air quality 111976 standard has been adopted under the federal Clean Air Act. In 111977 addition, best available technology requirements established in 111978 rules adopted under this division shall not apply to any existing, 111979 new, or modified air contaminant source that is subject to a 111980 plant-wide applicability limit that has been approved by the 111981 director. Further, best available technology requirements 111982 established in rules adopted under this division shall not apply 111983 to general permits issued prior to January 1, 2006, under rules 111984 adopted under this chapter. 111985

For permits to install issued three or more years after 111986
August 3, 2006, any new or modified air contaminant source that 111987 has the potential to emit, taking into account air pollution 111988 controls installed on the source, ten or more tons per year of 111989 volatile organic compounds or nitrogen oxides shall meet, at a 111990 minimum, the requirements of any applicable reasonably available 111991 control technology rule in effect as of January 1, 2006, 111992 regardless of the location of the source. 111993

(U) Consistent with section 507 of the federal Clean Air Act, 111994 adopt, modify, suspend, and rescind rules for the establishment of 111995 a small business stationary source technical and environmental 111996 compliance assistance program as provided in section 3704.18 of 111997
the Revised Code; 111998

(V) Provide for emissions trading, marketable permits, 111999 auctions of emission rights, and economic incentives that would 112000 reduce the cost or increase the efficiency of achieving a 112001 specified level of environmental protection; 112002

(W) Provide for the construction of an air contaminant source 112003 prior to obtaining a permit to install pursuant to division (F) of 112004 this section if the applicant demonstrates that the source will be 112005 installed to comply with all applicable emission limits and will 112006 not adversely affect public health or safety or the environment 112007 and if the director determines that such an action will avoid an 112008 unreasonable hardship on the owner or operator of the source. Any 112009 such determination shall be consistent with the federal Clean Air 112010 Act. 112011

(X) Exercise all incidental powers, including adoption of 112012 rules, required to carry out this chapter. 112013

The environmental protection agency shall develop a plan to 112014 control air pollution resulting from state-operated facilities and 112015 property. 112016

Sec. 3734.02. (A) The director of environmental protection, 112017 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt 112018 and may amend, suspend, or rescind rules having uniform 112019 application throughout the state governing solid waste facilities 112020 and the inspections of and issuance of permits and licenses for 112021 all solid waste facilities in order to ensure that the facilities 112022 will be located, maintained, and operated, and will undergo 112023 closure and post-closure care, in a sanitary manner so as not to 112024 create a nuisance, cause or contribute to water pollution, create 112025 a health hazard, or violate 40 C.F.R. 257.3-2 or 40 C.F.R. 112026 257.3-8, as amended. The rules may include, without limitation, 112027 financial assurance requirements for closure and post-closure care 112028 and corrective action and requirements for taking corrective 112029 action in the event of the surface or subsurface discharge or 112030 migration of explosive gases or leachate from a solid waste 112031 facility, or of ground water contamination resulting from the 112032 transfer or disposal of solid wastes at a facility, beyond the 112033 boundaries of any area within a facility that is operating or is 112034 undergoing closure or post-closure care where solid wastes were 112035 disposed of or are being disposed of. The rules shall not concern 112036 or relate to personnel policies, salaries, wages, fringe benefits, 112037 or other conditions of employment of employees of persons owning 112038 or operating solid waste facilities. The director, in accordance 112039 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt and may amend, 112040 suspend, or rescind rules governing the issuance, modification, 112041 revocation, suspension, or denial of variances from the director's 112042 solid waste rules, including, without limitation, rules adopted 112043 under this chapter governing the management of scrap tires. 112044

Variances shall be issued, modified, revoked, suspended, or 112045 rescinded in accordance with this division, rules adopted under 112046 it, and Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code. The director may order 112047 the person to whom a variance is issued to take such action within 112048 such time as the director may determine to be appropriate and 112049 reasonable to prevent the creation of a nuisance or a hazard to 112050 the public health or safety or the environment. Applications for 112051 variances shall contain such detail plans, specifications, and 112052 information regarding objectives, procedures, controls, and other 112053 pertinent data as the director may require. The director shall 112054 grant a variance only if the applicant demonstrates to the 112055 director's satisfaction that construction and operation of the 112056 solid waste facility in the manner allowed by the variance and any 112057 terms or conditions imposed as part of the variance will not 112058 create a nuisance or a hazard to the public health or safety or 112059 the environment. In granting any variance, the director shall 112060 state the specific provision or provisions whose terms are to be 112061 varied and also shall state specific terms or conditions imposed 112062 upon the applicant in place of the provision or provisions. 112063

The director may hold a public hearing on an application for 112064
a variance or renewal of a variance at a location in the county 112065 where the operations that are the subject of the application for 112066 the variance are conducted. The director shall give not less than 112067 twenty days' notice of the hearing to the applicant by certified 112068 mail or by another type of mail accompanied by a receipt ~~and~~. The 112069 director shall publish at least one notice of the hearing in a 112070 newspaper with general circulation in the county where the hearing 112071 is to be held or may instead provide public notice by publication 112072 on the environmental protection agency's web site. The director 112073 shall make available for public inspection at the principal office 112074 of the environmental protection agency a current list of pending 112075 applications for variances and a current schedule of pending 112076 variance hearings. The director shall make a complete stenographic 112077 record or electronic record of testimony and other evidence 112078 submitted at the hearing. 112079

Within ten days after the hearing, the director shall make a 112080 written determination to issue, renew, or deny the variance and 112081 shall enter the determination and the basis for it into the record 112082 of the hearing. The director shall issue, renew, or deny an 112083 application for a variance or renewal of a variance within six 112084 months of the date upon which the director receives a complete 112085 application with all pertinent information and data required. No 112086 variance shall be issued, revoked, modified, or denied until the 112087 director has considered the relative interests of the applicant, 112088 other persons and property affected by the variance, and the 112089 general public. Any variance granted under this division shall be 112090 for a period specified by the director and may be renewed from 112091 time to time on such terms and for such periods as the director 112092 determines to be appropriate. No application shall be denied and 112093 no variance shall be revoked or modified without a written order 112094 stating the findings upon which the denial, revocation, or 112095 modification is based. A copy of the order shall be sent to the 112096 applicant or variance holder by certified mail or by another type 112097 of mail accompanied by a receipt. 112098

(B) The director shall prescribe and furnish the forms 112099 necessary to administer and enforce this chapter. The director may 112100 cooperate with and enter into agreements with other state, local, 112101 or federal agencies to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The 112102 director may exercise all incidental powers necessary to carry out 112103 the purposes of this chapter. 112104

(C) Except as provided in this division and divisions (N)(2) 112105 and (3) of this section, no person shall establish a new solid 112106 waste facility or infectious waste treatment facility, or modify 112107 an existing solid waste facility or infectious waste treatment 112108 facility, without submitting an application for a permit with 112109 accompanying detail plans, specifications, and information 112110 regarding the facility and method of operation and receiving a 112111 permit issued by the director, except that no permit shall be 112112 required under this division to install or operate a solid waste 112113 facility for sewage sludge treatment or disposal when the 112114 treatment or disposal is authorized by a current permit issued 112115 under Chapter 3704. or 6111. of the Revised Code. 112116

No person shall continue to operate a solid waste facility 112117 for which the director has disapproved plans and specifications 112118 required to be filed by an order issued under division (A)(3) of 112119 section 3734.05 of the Revised Code, after the date prescribed for 112120 commencement of closure of the facility in the order issued under 112121 division (A)(4) of that section denying the permit application or 112122 approval. 112123

On and after the effective date of the rules adopted under 112124 division (A) of this section and division (D) of section 3734.12 112125 of the Revised Code governing solid waste transfer facilities, no 112126 person shall establish a new, or modify an existing, solid waste 112127 transfer facility without first submitting an application for a 112128 permit with accompanying engineering detail plans, specifications, 112129 and information regarding the facility and its method of operation 112130 to the director and receiving a permit issued by the director. 112131

No person shall establish a new compost facility or continue 112132 to operate an existing compost facility that accepts exclusively 112133 source separated yard wastes without submitting a completed 112134 registration for the facility to the director in accordance with 112135 rules adopted under divisions (A) and (N)(3) of this section. 112136

This division does not apply to a generator of infectious 112137 wastes that does any of the following: 112138

(1) Treats, by methods, techniques, and practices established 112139 by rules adopted under division (B)(2)(a) of section 3734.021 of 112140 the Revised Code, any of the following: 112141

(a) Infectious wastes that are generated on any premises that 112142 are owned or operated by the generator; 112143

(b) Infectious wastes that are generated by a generator who 112144 has staff privileges at a hospital as defined in section 3727.01 112145

(c) Infectious wastes that are generated in providing care to 112147 a patient by an emergency medical services organization as defined 112148 in section 4765.01 of the Revised Code. 112149

(2) Holds a license or renewal of a license to operate a 112150 crematory facility issued under Chapter 4717. and a permit issued 112151 under Chapter 3704. of the Revised Code; 112152

(3) Treats or disposes of dead animals or parts thereof, or 112153 the blood of animals, and is subject to any of the following: 112154

(a) Inspection under the "Federal Meat Inspection Act," 81 112155
Stat. 584 (1967), 21 U.S.C.A. 603, as amended; 112156

(b) Chapter 918. of the Revised Code; 112157

(c) Chapter 953. of the Revised Code. 112158

(D) Neither this chapter nor any rules adopted under it apply 112159 to single-family residential premises; to infectious wastes 112160 generated by individuals for purposes of their own care or 112161 treatment; to the temporary storage of solid wastes, other than 112162 scrap tires, prior to their collection for disposal; to the 112163 storage of one hundred or fewer scrap tires unless they are stored 112164 in such a manner that, in the judgment of the director or the 112165 board of health of the health district in which the scrap tires 112166 are stored, the storage causes a nuisance, a hazard to public 112167 health or safety, or a fire hazard; or to the collection of solid 112168 wastes, other than scrap tires, by a political subdivision or a person holding a franchise or license from a political subdivision of the state; to composting, as defined in section 1511.01 of the Revised Code, conducted in accordance with section 1511.022 of the Revised Code; or to any person who is licensed to transport raw rendering material to a compost facility pursuant to section 953.23 of the Revised Code.

(E)(1) As used in this division:

(a) "On-site facility" means a facility that stores, treats, or disposes of hazardous waste that is generated on the premises of the facility.

(b) "Off-site facility" means a facility that stores, treats, or disposes of hazardous waste that is generated off the premises of the facility and includes such a facility that is also an on-site facility.

(c) "Satellite facility" means any of the following:

(i) An on-site facility that also receives hazardous waste from other premises owned by the same person who generates the waste on the facility premises;

(ii) An off-site facility operated so that all of the hazardous waste it receives is generated on one or more premises owned by the person who owns the facility;

(iii) An on-site facility that also receives hazardous waste that is transported uninterruptedly and directly to the facility through a pipeline from a generator who is not the owner of the facility.

(2) Except as provided in division (E)(3) of this section, no person shall establish or operate a hazardous waste facility, or use a solid waste facility for the storage, treatment, or disposal of any hazardous waste, without a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit issued in accordance with 112199 section 3734.05 of the Revised Code and subject to the payment of 112200 an application fee not to exceed one thousand five hundred 112201 dollars, payable upon application for a hazardous waste facility 112202 installation and operation permit and upon application for a 112203 renewal permit issued under division (H) of section 3734.05 of the 112204 Revised Code, to be credited to the hazardous waste facility 112205 management fund created in section 3734.18 of the Revised Code. 112206

 The term of a hazardous waste facility installation and operation 112207 permit shall not exceed ten years. 112208

In addition to the application fee, there is hereby levied an 112209 annual permit fee to be paid by the permit holder upon the 112210 anniversaries of the date of issuance of the hazardous waste 112211 facility installation and operation permit and of any subsequent 112212 renewal permits and to be credited to the hazardous waste facility 112213 management fund. Annual permit fees totaling forty thousand 112214 dollars or more for any one facility may be paid on a quarterly 112215 basis with the first quarterly payment each year being due on the 112216 anniversary of the date of issuance of the hazardous waste 112217 facility installation and operation permit and of any subsequent 112218 renewal permits. The annual permit fee shall be determined for 112219 each permit holder by the director in accordance with the 112220 following schedule: 112221

A hazardous waste disposal facility that disposes of hazardous waste by deep well injection and that pays the annual permit fee established in section 6111.046 of the Revised Code is not subject to the permit fee established in this division for disposal facilities using deep well injection unless the director determines that the facility is not in compliance with applicable requirements established under this chapter and rules adopted under it.

In determining the annual permit fee required by this section, the director shall not require additional payments for multiple units of the same method of storage, treatment, or disposal or for individual units that are used for both storage and treatment. A facility using more than one method of storage, 112264 treatment, or disposal shall pay the permit fee indicated by the 112265 schedule for each such method. 112266

The director shall not require the payment of that portion of 112267 an annual permit fee of any permit holder that would apply to a 112268 hazardous waste management unit for which a permit has been 112269 issued, but for which construction has not yet commenced. Once 112270 construction has commenced, the director shall require the payment 112271 of a part of the appropriate fee indicated by the schedule that 112272 bears the same relationship to the total fee that the number of 112273 days remaining until the next anniversary date at which payment of 112274 the annual permit fee is due bears to three hundred sixty-five. 112275

The director, by rules adopted in accordance with Chapters 112276
119. and 3745. of the Revised Code, shall prescribe procedures for 112277 collecting the annual permit fee established by this division and 112278 may prescribe other requirements necessary to carry out this 112279 division. 112280

(3) The prohibition against establishing or operating a 112281 hazardous waste facility without a hazardous waste facility 112282 installation and operation permit does not apply to either of the 112283
following: 112284

(a) A facility that is operating in accordance with a permit 112285 renewal issued under division (H) of section 3734.05 of the 112286 Revised Code, a revision issued under division (I) of that section 112287 as it existed prior to August 20, 1996, or a modification issued 112288 by the director under division (I) of that section on and after 112289
August 20, 1996; 112290

(b) Except as provided in division (J) of section 3734.05 of 112291 the Revised Code, a facility that will operate or is operating in 112292 accordance with a permit by rule, or that is not subject to permit 112293 requirements, under rules adopted by the director. In accordance 112294 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the director shall adopt, 112295 and subsequently may amend, suspend, or rescind, rules for the 112296 purposes of division (E)(3)(b) of this section. Any rules so 112297 adopted shall be consistent with and equivalent to regulations 112298 pertaining to interim status adopted under the "Resource 112299 Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976," 90 Stat. 2806, 42 U.S.C.A. 112300

6921, as amended, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. 112301

If a modification is requested or proposed for a facility 112302 described in division (E)(3)(a) or (b) of this section, division 112303
(I)(7) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code applies. 112304

(F) No person shall store, treat, or dispose of hazardous 112305 waste identified or listed under this chapter and rules adopted 112306 under it, regardless of whether generated on or off the premises 112307 where the waste is stored, treated, or disposed of, or transport 112308 or cause to be transported any hazardous waste identified or 112309 listed under this chapter and rules adopted under it to any other 112310 premises, except at or to any of the following: 112311

(1) A hazardous waste facility operating under a permit 112312 issued in accordance with this chapter; 112313

(2) A facility in another state operating under a license or 112314 permit issued in accordance with the "Resource Conservation and 112315 Recovery Act of 1976," 90 Stat. 2806, 42 U.S.C.A. 6921, as 112316 amended; 112317

(3) A facility in another nation operating in accordance with 112318 the laws of that nation; 112319

(4) A facility holding a permit issued pursuant to Title I of 112320 the "Marine Protection, Research, and Sanctuaries Act of 1972," 86 112321
Stat. 1052, 33 U.S.C.A. 1401, as amended; 112322

(5) A hazardous waste facility as described in division 112323
(E)(3)(a) or (b) of this section. 112324

(G) The director, by order, may exempt any person generating, 112325 collecting, storing, treating, disposing of, or transporting solid 112326 wastes, infectious wastes, or hazardous waste, or processing solid 112327 wastes that consist of scrap tires, in such quantities or under 112328 such circumstances that, in the determination of the director, are 112329 unlikely to adversely affect the public health or safety or the 112330 environment from any requirement to obtain a registration 112331 certificate, permit, or license or comply with the manifest system 112332 or other requirements of this chapter. Such an exemption shall be 112333 consistent with and equivalent to any regulations adopted by the 112334 administrator of the United States environmental protection agency 112335 under the "Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976," 90 112336 Stat. 2806, 42 U.S.C.A. 6921, as amended, except as otherwise 112337 provided in this chapter. 112338

(H) No person shall engage in filling, grading, excavating, 112339 building, drilling, or mining on land where a hazardous waste 112340 facility, or a solid waste facility, was operated without prior 112341 authorization from the director, who shall establish the procedure 112342 for granting such authorization by rules adopted in accordance 112343 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 112344

A public utility that has main or distribution lines above or 112345 below the land surface located on an easement or right-of-way 112346 across land where a solid waste facility was operated may engage 112347 in any such activity within the easement or right-of-way without 112348 prior authorization from the director for purposes of performing 112349 emergency repair or emergency replacement of its lines; of the 112350 poles, towers, foundations, or other structures supporting or 112351 sustaining any such lines; or of the appurtenances to those 112352 structures, necessary to restore or maintain existing public 112353 utility service. A public utility may enter upon any such easement 112354 or right-of-way without prior authorization from the director for 112355 purposes of performing necessary or routine maintenance of those 112356 portions of its existing lines; of the existing poles, towers, 112357 foundations, or other structures sustaining or supporting its 112358 lines; or of the appurtenances to any such supporting or 112359 sustaining structure, located on or above the land surface on any 112360 such easement or right-of-way. Within twenty-four hours after 112361 commencing any such emergency repair, replacement, or maintenance 112362 work, the public utility shall notify the director or the 112363 director's authorized representative of those activities and shall 112364 provide such information regarding those activities as the 112365 director or the director's representative may request. Upon 112366 completion of the emergency repair, replacement, or maintenance 112367 activities, the public utility shall restore any land of the solid 112368 waste facility disturbed by those activities to the condition 112369 existing prior to the commencement of those activities. 112370

(I) No owner or operator of a hazardous waste facility, in 112371 the operation of the facility, shall cause, permit, or allow the 112372 emission therefrom of any particulate matter, dust, fumes, gas, 112373 mist, smoke, vapor, or odorous substance that, in the opinion of 112374 the director, unreasonably interferes with the comfortable 112375 enjoyment of life or property by persons living or working in the 112376 vicinity of the facility, or that is injurious to public health. 112377
Any such action is hereby declared to be a public nuisance. 112378

(J) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, in 112379 the event the director finds an imminent and substantial danger to 112380 public health or safety or the environment that creates an 112381 emergency situation requiring the immediate treatment, storage, or 112382 disposal of hazardous waste, the director may issue a temporary 112383 emergency permit to allow the treatment, storage, or disposal of 112384 the hazardous waste at a facility that is not otherwise authorized 112385 by a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit to 112386 treat, store, or dispose of the waste. The emergency permit shall 112387 not exceed ninety days in duration and shall not be renewed. The 112388 director shall adopt, and may amend, suspend, or rescind, rules in 112389 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing the 112390

(L) The director, in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 112399 Revised Code, shall adopt, and may amend, suspend, or rescind, 112400 rules having uniform application throughout the state establishing 112401 a training and certification program that shall be required for 112402

(3) Those persons who are required to take the course under 112413 division (L) of this section shall do so triennially; 112414

(4) Persons who successfully complete the course shall be 112415 certified by the director; 112416

(5) Certification shall be required for all employees of 112417 boards of health who are responsible for enforcing the solid waste 112418 under them and for all persons who are responsible for the 112420 operation of solid waste facilities or infectious waste treatment 112421 facilities; 112422

(6)(a) All employees of a board of health who, on the 112423 effective date of the rules adopted under this division, are 112424 infectious waste provisions of this chapter and rules adopted 112432 under them and who do not hold a current and valid certification 112433

1988, in a manner that expands the disposal capacity or geographic 112442 area covered by the facility, that is or is to be located within 112443 the boundaries of a state park established or dedicated under 112444 Chapter 1546. of the Revised Code, a state park purchase area 112445 established under section 1546.06 of the Revised Code, any unit of 112446 the national park system, or any property that lies within the 112447 boundaries of a national park or recreation area, but that has not 112448 been acquired or is not administered by the secretary of the 112449 United States department of the interior, located in this state, 112450 or any candidate area located in this state and identified for 112451 potential inclusion in the national park system in the edition of 112452 the "national park system plan" submitted under paragraph (b) of 112453 section 8 of "The Act of August 18, 1970," 84 Stat. 825, 16 112454 U.S.C.A. 1a-5, as amended, current at the time of filing of the 112455 application for the permit, unless the facility or proposed 112456 facility is or is to be used exclusively for the disposal of solid 112457 wastes generated within the park or recreation area and the 112458 director determines that the facility or proposed facility will 112459 not degrade any of the natural or cultural resources of the park 112460 or recreation area. The director shall not issue a variance under 112461 division (A) of this section and rules adopted under it, or issue 112462 an exemption order under division (G) of this section, that would 112463 authorize any such establishment or expansion of a solid waste 112464 facility within the boundaries of any such park or recreation 112465 area, state park purchase area, or candidate area, other than a 112466 solid waste facility exclusively for the disposal of solid wastes 112467 generated within the park or recreation area when the director 112468 determines that the facility will not degrade any of the natural 112469 or cultural resources of the park or recreation area. 112470

(N)(1) The rules adopted under division (A) of this section, 112471 other than those governing variances, do not apply to scrap tire 112472 collection, storage, monocell, monofill, and recovery facilities. 112473
Those facilities are subject to and governed by rules adopted 112474 under sections 3734.70 to 3734.73 of the Revised Code, as 112475 applicable. 112476

(2) Division (C) of this section does not apply to scrap tire 112477 collection, storage, monocell, monofill, and recovery facilities. 112478
The establishment and modification of those facilities are subject 112479 to sections 3734.75 to 3734.78 and section 3734.81 of the Revised 112480
Code, as applicable. 112481

(3) The director may adopt, amend, suspend, or rescind rules 112482 under division (A) of this section creating an alternative system 112483 for authorizing the establishment, operation, or modification of a solid waste compost facility in lieu of the requirement that a person seeking to establish, operate, or modify a solid waste compost facility apply for and receive a permit under division (C) of this section and section 3734.05 of the Revised Code and a license under division (A)(1) of that section. The rules may include requirements governing, without limitation, the classification of solid waste compost facilities, the submittal of operating records for solid waste compost facilities, and the creation of a registration or notification system in lieu of the issuance of permits and licenses for solid waste compost facilities. The rules shall specify the applicability of divisions (A)(1) and (2)(a) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code to a solid waste compost facility.

(O)(1) As used in this division, "secondary aluminum waste" means waste material or byproducts, when disposed of, containing aluminum generated from secondary aluminum smelting operations and consisting of dross, salt cake, baghouse dust associated with aluminum recycling furnace operations, or dry-milled wastes.

(2) The owner or operator of a sanitary landfill shall not dispose of municipal solid waste that has been commingled with secondary aluminum waste.

(3) The owner or operator of a sanitary landfill may dispose of secondary aluminum waste, but only in a monocell or monofill that has been permitted for that purpose in accordance with this chapter and rules adopted under it.

(P)(1) As used in divisions (P) and (Q) of this section:

(a) "Natural background" means two picocuries per gram or the actual number of picocuries per gram as measured at an individual solid waste facility, subject to verification by the director of health.

(b) "Drilling operation" includes a production operation as defined in section 1509.01 of the Revised Code.

(2) The owner or operator of a solid waste facility shall not accept for transfer or disposal technologically enhanced naturally occurring radioactive material if that material contains or is contaminated with radium-226, radium-228, or any combination of radium-226 and radium-228 at concentrations equal to or greater than five picocuries per gram above natural background.

(3) The owner or operator of a solid waste facility may receive and process for purposes other than transfer or disposal technologically enhanced naturally occurring radioactive material that contains or is contaminated with radium-226, radium-228, or any combination of radium-226 and radium-228 at concentrations equal to or greater than five picocuries per gram above natural background, provided that the owner or operator has obtained and maintains all other necessary authorizations, including any authorization required by rules adopted by the director of health under section 3748.04 of the Revised Code.

(a) Requirements in accordance with which the owner or operator of a solid waste facility must monitor leachate and ground water for radium-226, radium-228, and other radionuclides;

(b) Requirements in accordance with which the owner or operator of a solid waste facility must develop procedures to ensure that technologically enhanced naturally occurring radioactive material accepted at the facility neither contains nor is contaminated with radium-226, radium-228, or any combination of radium-226 and radium-228 at concentrations equal to or greater than five picocuries per gram above natural background.

(Q) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the owner or operator of a solid waste facility shall not receive, accept, process, handle, manage, or dispose of technologically enhanced naturally occurring radioactive material associated with drilling operations without first obtaining representative analytical results to determine compliance with divisions (P)(2) and (3) of this section and rules adopted under it.

Sec. 3734.021. (A) Infectious wastes shall be segregated, managed, treated, and disposed of in accordance with rules adopted under this section.

(B) The director of environmental protection, in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt rules necessary or appropriate to protect human health or safety or the environment that do both of the following:

(1) Establish standards for generators of infectious wastes that include, without limitation, the following requirements and authorizations that:

(a) All generators of infectious wastes:

(i) Either treat all specimen cultures and cultures of viable infectious agents on the premises where they are generated to render them noninfectious by methods, techniques, or practices prescribed by rules adopted under division (B)(2)(a) of this section before they are transported off that premises for disposal or ensure that such wastes are treated to render them 112577 noninfectious at an infectious waste treatment facility off that 112578 premises prior to disposal of the wastes; 112579

(ii) Transport and dispose of infectious wastes, if a 112580 generator produces fewer than fifty pounds of infectious wastes 112581 during any one month that are subject to and packaged and labeled 112582 in accordance with federal requirements, in the same manner as 112583 solid wastes. Such generators who treat specimen cultures and 112584 cultures of viable infectious agents on the premises where they 112585 are generated shall not be considered treatment facilities as 112586 "treatment" and "facility" are defined in section 3734.01 of the 112587
Revised Code. 112588

accordance with rules adopted under division (B)(1)(a)(i) of this 112590 section in the same manner as solid wastes; 112591

(iv) May take wastes generated in providing care to a patient 112592 by an emergency medical services organization, as defined in 112593 section 4765.01 of the Revised Code, to and leave them at a 112594 hospital, as defined in section 3727.01 of the Revised Code, for 112595 treatment at a treatment facility owned or operated by the 112596 hospital or, in conjunction with infectious wastes generated by 112597 the hospital, at another treatment facility regardless of whether 112598 the wastes were generated in providing care to the patient at the 112599 scene of an emergency or during the transportation of the patient 112600 to a hospital; 112601

(v) May take wastes generated by an individual for purposes 112602 of the individual's own care or treatment to and leave them at a 112603 hospital, as defined in section 3727.01 of the Revised Code, for 112604 treatment at a treatment facility owned or operated by the 112605
hospital or, in conjunction with infectious wastes generated by 112606
the hospital, at another treatment facility. 112607

(b) Each generator of fifty pounds or more of infectious wastes during any one month: 112608
112609

(i) Register with the environmental protection agency as a generator of infectious wastes and obtain a registration certificate. The fee for issuance of a generator registration certificate is one hundred forty dollars payable at the time of application. The registration certificate applies to all the premises owned or operated by the generator in this state where infectious wastes are generated and shall list the address of each such premises. If a generator owns or operates facilities for the treatment of infectious wastes it generates, the certificate shall list the address and method of treatment used at each such facility. 112610
112611
112613
112614
112615
112616
112617
112618
112620

A generator registration certificate is valid for three years from the date of issuance and shall be renewed for a term of three years upon the generator's submission of an application for renewal and payment of a one hundred forty dollar renewal fee. 112621
112622
112624

The rules may establish a system of staggered renewal dates with approximately one-third of such certificates subject to renewal each year. The applicable renewal date shall be prescribed on each registration certificate. Registration fees shall be prorated according to the time remaining in the registration cycle to the nearest year. 112625
112626

112629
112630

The registration and renewal fees collected under division (B)(1)(b)(i) of this section shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the waste management fund created in section 3734.061 of the Revised Code. 112631
112632
112634

(ii) Segregate infectious wastes from other wastes at the point of generation. Nothing in this section and rules adopted under it prohibits a generator of infectious wastes from designating and managing any wastes, in addition to those defined 112635
112636
112638

as infectious wastes under section 3734.01 of the Revised Code, as 112639 infectious wastes. After designating any such other wastes as 112640 infectious, the generator shall manage those wastes in compliance 112641 with the requirements of this chapter and rules adopted under it 112642 applicable to the management of infectious wastes. 112643

(iii) Either treat the infectious wastes that it generates at 112644 a facility owned or operated by the generator by methods, 112645 techniques, or practices prescribed by rules adopted under 112646 division (B)(2)(a) of this section to render them noninfectious, 112647 or designate the wastes for treatment off that premises at an 112648 infectious waste treatment facility holding a license issued under 112649 division (B) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code, at an 112650 state that is in compliance with applicable state and federal 112652 laws, or at a treatment facility authorized by rules adopted under 112653 division (B)(2)(d) of this section, prior to disposal of the 112654 wastes. After being treated to render them noninfectious, the 112655 wastes shall be disposed of at a solid waste disposal facility 112656 holding a license issued under division (A) of section 3734.05 of 112657 the Revised Code or at a disposal facility in another state that 112658 wastes consisting of blood, blood products, body fluids, and 112664 excreta into a disposal system, as defined in section 6111.01 of 112665 the Revised Code, unless the discharge of those wastes into a 112666 disposal system is inconsistent with the terms and conditions of 112667 the permit for the system issued under Chapter 6111. of the 112668

Revised Code; 112669

(vi) May transport or cause to be transported infectious 112670 wastes that have been treated to render them noninfectious in the 112671 same manner as solid wastes are transported. 112672

(2) Establish standards for owners and operators of 112673 infectious waste treatment facilities that include, without 112674 limitation, the following requirements and authorizations that: 112675 of infectious waste treatment facilities. The rules adopted under 112680 division (B)(2)(b) of this section shall require that a new 112681 infectious waste incineration facility be located so that the 112682 incinerator unit and all areas where infectious wastes are handled 112683 on the premises where the facility is proposed to be located are 112684 at least three hundred feet inside the property line of the tract 112685 of land on which the facility is proposed to be located and are at 112686 under Chapter 3704., of the Revised Code to the extent that the 112697 treatment of those wastes is consistent with that permit and its 112698 terms and conditions. The rules adopted under divisions (B)(2)(b) 112699 and (c) of this section do not apply to a facility holding such a 112700 license and permit. 112701

In adopting the rules required by divisions (B)(2)(a) to (d) 112702 of this section, the director shall consider and, to the maximum 112703 feasible extent, utilize existing standards and guidelines 112704 otherwise established at the property substantially exceed the 112871 or term or condition proposed by the applicant will not protect 112892 public health and safety and that the imposition of additional or 112893 alternative terms and conditions will not ensure that public 112894 health or safety will be protected, the director shall disapprove 112895 the application and shall include in the order of denial the 112896 specific findings on which the denial was based. 112897 finally sustained or established in the appeal. In the event the 114107 deposition is taken and filed, the physician whose deposition is 114108 taken is not required to respond to any subpoena issued in the 114109 trial of the action. The court, or the jury under the instructions 114110 of the court, if a jury is demanded, shall determine the right of 114111 the claimant to participate or to continue to participate in the 114112 fund upon the evidence adduced at the hearing of the action. 114113

(E) The court shall certify its decision to the commission 114114 and the certificate shall be entered in the records of the court. 114115 Appeals from the judgment are governed by the law applicable to 114116 the appeal of civil actions. 114117

(F) The cost of any legal proceedings authorized by this section, including an attorney's fee to the claimant's attorney to be fixed by the trial judge, based upon the effort expended, in the event the claimant's right to participate or to continue to participate in the fund is established upon the final determination of an appeal, shall be taxed against the employer or the commission if the commission or the administrator rather than the employer contested the right of the claimant to participate in the fund. The attorney's fee shall not exceed five thousand dollars.

(G) If the finding of the court or the verdict of the jury is in favor of the claimant's right to participate in the fund, the commission and the administrator shall thereafter proceed in the matter of the claim as if the judgment were the decision of the commission, subject to the power of modification provided by section 4123.52 of the Revised Code.

self-insuring employer reports to the administrator under division 114150 (L) of section 4123.35 of the Revised Code. If an employer is a 114151 state risk and has paid an assessment for a violation of a 114152 specific safety requirement, and, in a final administrative or 114153 judicial action, it is determined that the employer did not 114154 violate the specific safety requirement, the administrator shall 114155 reimburse the employer from the surplus fund account under 114156 division (B) of section 4123.34 of the Revised Code for the amount 114157 of the assessment the employer paid for the violation. 114158

(2)(a) Notwithstanding a final determination that payments of 114159 benefits made to or on behalf of a claimant should not have been 114160 made, the administrator or self-insuring employer shall award 114161 payment of medical or vocational rehabilitation services submitted 114162 for payment after the date of the final determination if all of 114163 the following apply: 114164

(i) The services were approved and were rendered by the 114165 provider in good faith prior to the date of the final 114166 determination. 114167

(ii) The services were payable under division (I) of section 114168 4123.511 of the Revised Code prior to the date of the final 114169
determination. 114170

(iii) The request for payment is submitted within the time 114171 limit set forth in section 4123.52 of the Revised Code. 114172

(b) Payments made under division (H)(1) of this section shall 114173 be charged to the surplus fund account under division (B) of 114174 section 4123.34 of the Revised Code. If the employer of the 114175 employee who is the subject of a claim described in division 114176 (H)(2)(a) of this section is a state fund employer, the payments 114177 made under that division shall not be charged to the employer's 114178 experience. If that employer is a self-insuring employer, the 114179 self-insuring employer shall deduct the amount from the paid 114180 compensation the self-insuring employer reports to the 114181 administrator under division (L) of section 4123.35 of the Revised 114182 Code. 114183

(c) Division (H)(2) of this section shall apply only to a 114184 claim under this chapter or Chapter 4121., 4127., or 4131. of the 114185 Revised Code arising on or after July 29, 2011. 114186

(3) A self-insuring employer may elect to pay compensation 114187 and benefits under this section directly to an employee or an 114188 employee's dependents by filing an application with the bureau of 114189 workers' compensation not more than one hundred eighty days and 114190 not less than ninety days before the first day of the employer's 114191 next six-month coverage period. If the self-insuring employer 114192 timely files the application, the application is effective on the 114193 first day of the employer's next six-month coverage period, 114194 provided that the administrator shall compute the employer's 114195 assessment for the surplus fund account due with respect to the 114196 period during which that application was filed without regard to 114197 the filing of the application. On and after the effective date of 114198 the employer's election, the self-insuring employer shall pay 114199 directly to an employee or to an employee's dependents 114200 compensation and benefits under this section regardless of the 114201 date of the injury or occupational disease, and the employer shall 114202 receive no money or credits from the surplus fund account on 114203 account of those payments and shall not be required to pay any 114204 amounts into the surplus fund account on account of this section. 114205
The election made under this division is irrevocable. 114206

(I) All actions and proceedings under this section which are 114207 the subject of an appeal to the court of common pleas or the court 114208 of appeals shall be preferred over all other civil actions except 114209 election causes, irrespective of position on the calendar. 114210

This section applies to all decisions of the commission or 114211 the administrator on November 2, 1959, and all claims filed 114212 thereafter are governed by sections 4123.511 and 4123.512 of the Revised Code.

Any action pending in common pleas court or any other court on January 1, 1986, under this section is governed by former sections 4123.514, 4123.515, 4123.516, and 4123.519 and section 4123.522 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 4123.52. (A) The jurisdiction of the industrial commission and the authority of the administrator of workers' compensation over each case is continuing, and the commission may make such modification or change with respect to former findings or orders with respect thereto, as, in its opinion is justified. No modification or change nor any finding or award in respect of any claim shall be made with respect to disability, compensation, dependency, or benefits, after five years from the date of injury in the absence of the payment of medical benefits under this chapter or in the absence of payment of compensation under section 4123.57, 4123.58, or division (A) or (B) of section 4123.56 of the Revised Code or wages in lieu of compensation in a manner so as to satisfy the requirements of section 4123.84 of the Revised Code, in which event the modification, change, finding, or award shall be made within five years from the date of the last payment of compensation or from the date of death, nor unless written notice of claim for the specific part or parts of the body injured or disabled has been given as provided in section 4123.84 or 4123.85 of the Revised Code. The commission shall not make any modification, change, finding, or award which shall award compensation for a back period in excess of two years prior to the date of filing application therefor.

(B) Notwithstanding division (A) of this section, and except as otherwise provided in a rule that shall be adopted by the administrator, with the advice and consent of the bureau of workers' compensation board of directors, neither the 114244 administrator nor the commission shall make any finding or award 114245 for payment of medical or vocational rehabilitation services 114246 submitted for payment more than one year after the date the 114247 services were rendered or more than one year after the date the 114248 services became payable under division (I) of section 4123.511 of 114249 the Revised Code, whichever is later. No medical or vocational 114250 rehabilitation provider shall bill a claimant for services 114251 rendered if the administrator or commission is prohibited from 114252 making that payment under this division. 114253

(C) Division (B) of this section does not apply to requests 114254 made by the centers for medicare and medicaid services in the 114255 United States department of health and human services for 114256 reimbursement of conditional payments made pursuant to section 114257 1395y(b)(2) of title 42, United States Code (commonly known as the 114258
"Medicare Secondary Payer Act"). 114259

(D) This section does not affect the right of a claimant to 114260 compensation accruing subsequent to the filing of any such 114261 application, provided the application is filed within the time 114262 limit provided in this section. 114263

(E) This section does not deprive the commission of its 114264 continuing jurisdiction to determine the questions raised by any 114265 application for modification of award which has been filed with 114266 the commission after June 1, 1932, and prior to the expiration of 114267 the applicable period but in respect to which no award has been 114268 granted or denied during the applicable period. 114269

(F) The commission may, by general rules, provide for the 114270 destruction of files of cases in which no further action may be 114271 taken. 114272

(G) The commission and administrator of workers' compensation 114273 each may, by general rules, provide for the retention and 114274 destruction of all other records in their possession or under 114275 their control pursuant to section 121.211 and sections 149.34 to 114276 149.36 of the Revised Code. The bureau of workers' compensation 114277 may purchase or rent required equipment for the document retention 114278 media, as determined necessary to preserve the records. 114279 Photographs, microphotographs, microfilm, films, or other direct 114280 or electronic document retention media, when properly identified, 114281 have the same effect as the original record and may be offered in 114282 like manner and may be received as evidence in proceedings before 114283 the industrial commission, staff hearing officers, and district 114284 hearing officers, and in any court where the original record could 114285 have been introduced. 114286 in this state relating to the deposit, administration, release, or 114447 disbursement of moneys in the possession or custody of this state 114448 to the contrary notwithstanding. The benefit account shall consist 114449 of all moneys requisitioned from this state's account in the 114450 unemployment trust fund. Federal funds may be deposited, at the 114451 director's discretion, into the benefit account. Any funds 114452 state and for no other purpose. Moneys in the clearing and benefit 114455 accounts may be deposited by the treasurer of state, under the 114456 direction of the director, in any bank or public depository in 114457 amounts, not exceeding the amount standing to this state's account 114464 therein, as are deemed necessary for the payment of benefits for a 114465 reasonable future period. Upon receipt thereof, the treasurer of 114466 state shall deposit such moneys in the benefit account. 114467 Expenditures of such money in the benefit account and refunds from 114468 the clearing account shall not require specific appropriations or 114469 other formal release by state officers of money in their custody. 114470 Any balance of moneys requisitioned from the unemployment trust 114471 fund which remains unclaimed or unpaid in the benefit account 114472 after the expiration of the period for which such sums were 114473 requisitioned shall either be deducted from estimates for and may 114474 be utilized for the payment of benefits during succeeding periods, 114475 or, in the discretion of the director, shall be redeposited with 114476 the secretary of the treasury of the United States to the credit 114477 of this state's account in the unemployment trust fund, as 114478 provided in division (C) of this section. Unclaimed or unpaid 114479 federal funds redeposited with the secretary of the treasury of 114480 the United States shall be credited to the appropriate federal 114481 account. 114482

(E) No claim for an adjustment or a refund on contribution, 114483 payment in lieu of contributions, interest, or forfeiture alleged 114484 to have been erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, or 114485 alleged to have been collected without authority, and no claim for 114486 an adjustment or a refund of any sum alleged to have been 114487 excessive or in any manner wrongfully collected shall be allowed 114488 unless an application, in writing, therefor is made within four 114489 years from the date on which such payment was made. If the 114490 director determines that such contribution, payment in lieu of 114491 contributions, interest, or forfeiture, or any portion thereof, 114492 was erroneously collected, the director shall allow such employer 114493 to make an adjustment thereof without interest in connection with 114494 subsequent contribution payments, or payments in lieu of 114495 contributions, by the employer, or the director may refund said 114496 amount, without interest, from the clearing account of the 114497 unemployment compensation fund, except as provided in division (B) 114498 of section 4141.11 of the Revised Code. For like cause and within 114499 the same period, adjustment or refund may be so made on the 114500 director's own initiative. An overpayment of contribution, payment 114501 in lieu of contributions, interest, or forfeiture for which an 114502 employer has not made application for refund prior to the date of 114503 sale of the employer's business shall accrue to the employer's 114504 successor in interest. 114505

An application for an adjustment or a refund, or any portion 114506 thereof, that is rejected is binding upon the employer unless, 114507 within thirty days after the mailing of a written notice of 114508 rejection to the employer's last known address, or, in the absence 114509 of mailing of such notice, within thirty days after the delivery 114510 of such notice, the employer files an application for a review and 114511 redetermination setting forth the reasons therefor. The director 114512 shall promptly examine the application for review and 114513 redetermination, and if a review is granted, the employer shall be 114514 promptly notified thereof, and shall be granted an opportunity for 114515 a prompt hearing. 114516

(F) If the director finds that contributions have been paid 114517 to the director in error, and that such contributions should have 114518 been paid to a department of another state or of the United States 114519 charged with the administration of an unemployment compensation 114520 law, the director may upon request by such department or upon the 114521 director's own initiative transfer to such department the amount 114522 of such contributions, less any benefits paid to claimants whose 114523 wages were the basis for such contributions. The director may 114524 request and receive from such department any contributions or 114525 adjusted contributions paid in error to such department which 114526 should have been paid to the director. 114527

(G) In accordance with section 303(c)(3) of the Social 114528 Security Act, and section 3304(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code 114529 of 1954 for continuing certification of Ohio unemployment 114530 compensation laws for administrative grants and for tax credits, 114531 any interest required to be paid on advances under Title XII of 114532 the Social Security Act shall be paid in a timely manner and shall 114533 not be paid, directly or indirectly, by an equivalent reduction in 114534 the Ohio unemployment taxes or otherwise, by the state from 114535 amounts in the unemployment compensation fund. 114536

(H) The treasurer of state, under the direction of the 114537 estimate the total additional amount necessary to meet the 114589 liabilities of the fund and submit a request to the general 114590 under section 4167.11 of the Revised Code and other documents and 114642 enforcing this chapter. Except as provided in this section, the 114646 administrator or the administrator's designee shall conduct 114647 adopted under section 4167.02 of the Revised Code, a request to do 114649 so by a public employee or public employee representative, or the 114650 notification the administrator receives pursuant to division (B) 114651 of section 4167.06 of the Revised Code and only if the 114652 administrator or the administrator's designee complies with this 114653 section. The administrator or the administrator's designee shall 114654 conduct all requested or required inspections within a reasonable 114655 amount of time following receipt of the request or notification. 114656

(B)(1) Any public employee or public employee representative 114657 who believes that a violation of an Ohio employment risk reduction 114658 standard exists that threatens physical harm, or that an imminent 114659 danger exists, may request an inspection by giving written notice 114660 to the administrator or the administrator's designee of the 114661 violation or danger. The notice shall set forth with reasonable 114662 particularity the grounds for the notice, and shall be signed by 114663 the public employee or public employee representative. The names 114664 of individual public employees making the notice or referred to 114665 therein shall not appear in the copy provided to the public 114666 employer pursuant to division (B)(2) of this section and shall be 114667 kept confidential. 114668

(2) If, upon receipt of a notification pursuant to division 114669
(B)(1) of this section, the administrator determines that there 114670 are no reasonable grounds to believe that a violation or danger 114671 exists, the administrator shall inform the public employee or 114672 public employee representative in writing of the determination. 114673
If, upon receipt of a notification, the administrator determines 114674 that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a violation or 114675 danger exists, the administrator shall, within one week, excluding 114676 Saturdays, Sundays, and any legal holiday as defined in section 114677
1.14 of the Revised Code, after receipt of the notification, 114678 notify the public employer, by certified mail, return receipt 114679 requested, of the alleged violation or danger. The notice provided 114680 to the public employer or the public employer's agent shall inform 114681 the public employer of the alleged violation or danger and that 114682 the administrator or the administrator's designee will investigate 114683 and inspect the public employer's workplace as provided in this 114684 section. The public employer must respond to the administrator, in 114685 a method determined by the administrator, concerning the alleged 114686 violation or danger, within thirty days after receipt of the 114687 notice. If the public employer does not correct the violation or 114688 danger within the thirty-day period or if the public employer 114689 fails to respond within that time period, the administrator or the 114690 administrator's designee shall investigate and inspect the public 114691 employer's workplace as provided in this section. The 114692 administrator or the administrator's designee shall not conduct 114693 any inspection prior to the end of the thirty-day period unless 114694 requested or permitted by the public employer. The administrator 114695 may, at any time upon the request of the public employer, inspect 114696 and investigate any violation or danger alleged to exist at the 114697 public employer's place of employment. 114698

(3) The authority of the administrator or the administrator's 114699 designee to investigate and inspect a premises pursuant to a 114700 public employee or public employee representative notification is 114701 not limited to the alleged violation or danger contained in the 114702 notification. The administrator or the administrator's designee 114703 may investigate and inspect any other area of the premises where 114704 there is reason to believe that a violation or danger exists. In 114705 addition, if the administrator or the administrator's designee 114706 detects any obvious or apparent violation at any temporary place 114707 of employment while en route to the premises to be inspected or 114708 investigated, and that violation presents a substantial 114709 probability that the condition or practice could result in death 114710 or serious physical harm, the administrator or the administrator's 114711 designee may use any of the enforcement mechanisms provided in 114712 this section to correct or remove the condition or practice. 114713

(4) If, during an inspection or investigation, the 114714 administrator or the administrator's designee finds any condition 114715 or practice in any place of employment that presents a substantial 114716 probability that the condition or practice could result in death 114717 or serious physical harm, after notifying the employer of the 114718 administrator's intent to issue an order, the administrator shall 114719 issue an order, or the administrator's designee shall issue an 114720 order after consultation ~~either by telephone or in person~~ with the 114721 administrator and upon the recommendation of the administrator, 114722 which prohibits the employment of any public employee or any 114723 continuing operation or process under such condition or practice 114724 until necessary steps are taken to correct or remove the condition 114725 or practice. The order shall not be effective for more than 114726 fifteen days, unless a court of competent jurisdiction otherwise 114727 orders as provided in section 4167.14 of the Revised Code. 114728

(C) In making any inspections or investigations under this 114729 chapter, the administrator or the administrator's designee may 114730 administer oaths and require, by subpoena, the attendance and 114731 testimony of witnesses and the production of evidence under oath. 114732 Witnesses shall receive the fees and mileage provided for under 114733 section 119.094 of the Revised Code. In the case of contumacy, 114734 failure, or refusal of any person to comply with an order or any 114735 subpoena lawfully issued, or upon the refusal of any witness to 114736 testify to any matter regarding which the witness may lawfully be 114737 interrogated, a judge of the court of common pleas of any county 114738 in this state, on the application of the administrator or the 114739 administrator's designee, shall issue an order requiring the 114740 person to appear and to produce evidence if, as, and when so 114741 ordered, and to give testimony relating to the matter under 114742 investigation or in question. The court may punish any failure to 114743 obey the order of the court as a contempt thereof. 114744

(D) If, upon inspection or investigation, the administrator 114745 or the administrator's designee believes that a public employer 114746 has violated any requirement of this chapter or any rule, Ohio 114747 employment risk reduction standard, or order adopted or issued 114748 pursuant thereto, the administrator or the administrator's 114749 designee shall, with reasonable promptness, issue a citation to 114750 the public employer. The citation shall be in writing and describe 114751 with particularity the nature of the alleged violation, including 114752 a reference to the provision of law, Ohio employment risk 114753 reduction standard, rule, or order alleged to have been violated. 114754

In addition, the citation shall fix a time for the abatement of 114755 the violation, as provided in division (H) of this section. The 114756 administrator may prescribe procedures for the issuance of a 114757 notice with respect to minor violations and for enforcement of 114758 minor violations that have no direct or immediate relationship to 114759 safety or health. 114760

(E) Upon receipt of any citation under this section, the 114761 public employer shall immediately post the citation, or a copy 114762 thereof, at or near each place an alleged violation referred to in 114763 the citation occurred. 114764

(F) The administrator may not issue a citation under this 114765 section after the expiration of six months following the final 114766 occurrence of any violation. 114767

(G) If the administrator issues a citation pursuant to this 114768 section, the administrator shall mail the citation to the public 114769 employer by certified mail, return receipt requested. The public 114770 employer has fourteen days after receipt of the citation within 114771 which to notify the administrator that the employer wishes to 114772 contest the citation. If the employer notifies the administrator 114773 within the fourteen days that the employer wishes to contest the 114774 citation, or if within fourteen days after the issuance of a 114775 citation a public employee or public employee representative files 114776 notice that the time period fixed in the citation for the 114777 abatement of the violation is unreasonable, the administrator 114778 shall hold an adjudication hearing in accordance with Chapter 119. 114779
of the Revised Code. 114780

(H) In establishing the time limits in which a public 114781 employer must abate a violation under this section, the 114782 administrator shall consider the costs to the public employer, the 114783 size and financial resources of the public employer, the severity 114784 of the violation, the technological feasibility of the public 114785 employer's ability to comply with requirements of the citation, 114786 the possible present and future detriment to the health and safety 114787 of any public employee for failure of the public employer to 114788 comply with requirements of the citation, and such other factors 114789 as the administrator determines appropriate. The administrator 114790 may, after considering the above factors, permit the public 114791 employer to comply with the citation over a period of up to two 114792 years and may extend that period an additional one year, as the 114793 administrator determines appropriate. 114794

(I) Any public employer may request the administrator to 114795 conduct an employment risk reduction inspection of the public 114796 employer's place of employment. The administrator or the 114797 administrator's designee shall conduct the inspection within a 114798 reasonable amount of time following the request. Neither the 114799 administrator nor any other person may use any information 114800 obtained from the inspection for a period not to exceed three 114801 years in any proceeding for a violation of this chapter or any 114802 rule or order issued thereunder nor in any other action in any 114803 court in this state. 114804

Sec. 4301.17. (A)(1) Subject to local option as provided in 114805 sections 4301.32 to 4301.40 of the Revised Code, five state liquor 114806 stores or agencies may be established in each county. One 114807 additional store may be established in any county for each twenty 114808 thousand of population of that county or major fraction thereof in 114809 excess of the first forty thousand, according to the last 114810 preceding federal decennial census or according to the population 114811 estimates certified by the department of development between 114812 decennial censuses. A person engaged in a mercantile business may 114813 act as the agent for the division of liquor control for the sale 114814 of spirituous liquor in a municipal corporation, in the 114815 unincorporated area of a township, or in an area designated and 114816 approved as a resort area under section 4303.262 of the Revised 114817 Code. The division shall fix the compensation for such an agent in 114818 the manner it considers best, but the compensation shall not 114819 exceed seven per cent of the gross sales made by the agent in any 114820 one year. 114821

(2) The division shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 114822
119. of the Revised Code governing the allocation and equitable 114823 distribution of agency store contracts. The division shall comply 114824 with the rules when awarding a contract under division (A)(1) of 114825
this section. 114826

(3) Pursuant to an agency store's contract, an agency store 114827 may be issued a D-1 permit to sell beer, a D-2 permit to sell wine 114828 and mixed beverages, and a D-5 permit to sell beer, wine, mixed 114829 beverages, and spirituous liquor. 114830

(4) Pursuant to an agency store's contract, an agency store 114831 may be issued a D-3 permit to sell spirituous liquor if the agency 114832 store contains at least ten thousand square feet of sales floor 114833 area. A D-3 permit issued to an agency store shall not be 114834 transferred to a new location. The division shall revoke any D-3 114835 permit issued to an agency store under division (A)(4) of this 114836 section if the agent no longer operates the agency store. The 114837 division shall not issue a D-3a permit to an agency store. 114838

(5) An agency store to which a D-8 permit has been issued may 114839 allow the sale of tasting samples of spirituous liquor in 114840 accordance with section 4301.171 of the Revised Code. 114841

(6) An agency store may sell beer, wine, mixed beverages, and 114842 spirituous liquor only between the hours of nine a.m. and eleven 114843 p.m. 114844

If the proposed agency store, the assignment of an agency contract, or the relocation of an agency store would be located within five hundred feet of a school, church, library, public playground, or township park, the division shall not enter into an agency contract until it has provided notice of the proposed contract to the authorities in control of the school, church, library, public playground, or township park and has provided those authorities with an opportunity for a complete hearing upon the advisability of entering into the contract. If an agency store so located is operating under an agency contract, the division may consent to relocation of the agency store or to the assignment of that contract to operate an agency store at the same location. The 114878 division may also consent to the assignment of an existing agency 114879 contract simultaneously with the relocation of the agency store. 114880

In any such assignment or relocation, the assignee and the 114881 location shall be subject to the same requirements that the 114882 existing location met at the time that the contract was first 114883 entered into as well as any additional requirements imposed by the 114884 division in rules adopted by the superintendent of liquor control. 114885
The division shall not consent to an assignment or relocation of 114886 an agency store until it has notified the authorities in control 114887 of the school, church, library, public playground, or township 114888 park and has provided those authorities with an opportunity for a 114889 complete hearing upon the advisability of consenting to the 114890 assignment or relocation. 114891

Any hearing provided for in this division shall be held in 114892 the central office of the division, except that upon written 114893 request of the legislative authority of the municipal corporation, 114894 the board of county commissioners, the board of township trustees, 114895 or the authorities in control of the school, church, library, 114896 public playground, or township park, the hearing shall be held in 114897 the county seat of the county where the proposed agency store is 114898 to be located. 114899

(C) All agency contracts entered into by the division 114900 pursuant to this section shall be in writing and shall contain a 114901 clause providing for the termination of the contract at will by 114902 the division upon its giving ninety days' notice in writing to the 114903 agent of its intention to do so. Any agency contract may include a 114904 clause requiring the agent to report to the appropriate law 114905 enforcement agency the name and address of any individual under 114906 twenty-one years of age who attempts to make an illegal purchase. 114907

The division shall issue a C-1 and C-2 permit to each agent 114908 who prior to November 1, 1994, had not been issued both of these 114909 permits, notwithstanding the population quota restrictions 114910 contained in section 4303.29 of the Revised Code or in any rule of 114911 the liquor control commission and notwithstanding the requirements 114912 of section 4303.31 of the Revised Code. The location of a C-1 or 114913

C-2 permit issued to such an agent shall not be transferred. The 114914 division shall revoke any C-1 or C-2 permit issued to an agent 114915 under this paragraph if the agent no longer operates an agency 114916 store. 114917

The division may enter into agreements with the department of 114918 development to implement a minority loan program to provide 114919 low-interest loans to minority business enterprises, as defined in 114920 section 122.71 of the Revised Code, that are awarded liquor agency 114921 contracts or assignments. 114922

(D) If the division closes a state liquor store and replaces 114923 that store with an agency store, any employees of the division 114924 employed at that state liquor store who lose their jobs at that 114925 store as a result shall be given preference by the agent who 114926 operates the agency store in filling any vacancies that occur 114927 among the agent's employees, if that preference does not conflict 114928 with the agent's obligations pursuant to a collective bargaining 114929 agreement. 114930

If the division closes a state liquor store and replaces the 114931 store with an agency store, any employees of the division employed 114932 at the state liquor store who lose their jobs at that store as a 114933 result may displace other employees as provided in sections 114934 124.321 to 124.328 of the Revised Code. If an employee cannot 114935 displace other employees and is laid off, the employee shall be 114936 reinstated in another job as provided in sections 124.321 to 114937 124.328 of the Revised Code, except that the employee's rights of 114938 reinstatement in a job at a state liquor store shall continue for 114939 a period of two years after the date of the employee's layoff and 114940 shall apply to jobs at state liquor stores located in the 114941 employee's layoff jurisdiction and any layoff jurisdiction 114942 adjacent to the employee's layoff jurisdiction. 114943 the mailing of the last notice, the division shall cancel the 115064 applicant's application. 115065

All other fees shall be paid at the time and in the manner 115066

~~notifies the person.~~ 115108

(D) Whenever the registrar receives a statement indicating 115109 that the condition of a person to whom a driver's license has been 115110 request an administrative hearing before the registrar, who shall 115343 provide the person with an opportunity for a hearing in accordance 115344 with this paragraph. A request for a hearing does not operate as a 115345 suspension of the order. The scope of the hearing shall be limited 115346 to whether the person in fact demonstrated to the registrar proof 115347 of financial responsibility in accordance with this section. The 115348 registrar shall determine the date, time, and place of any 115349 hearing, provided that the hearing shall be held, and an order 115350 issued or findings made, within thirty days after the registrar 115351 receives a request for a hearing. If requested by the person in 115352 writing, the registrar may designate as the place of hearing the 115353 county seat of the county in which the person resides or a place 115354 within fifty miles of the person's residence. The person shall pay 115355 the cost of the hearing before the registrar, if the registrar's 115356 order of suspension or impoundment is upheld. 115357

(C) Any order of suspension or impoundment issued under this 115358 section or division (B) of section 4509.37 of the Revised Code may 115359 be terminated at any time if the registrar determines upon a 115360 showing of proof of financial responsibility that the operator or 115361 owner of the motor vehicle was in compliance with division (A)(1) 115362 of this section at the time of the traffic offense, motor vehicle 115363 inspection, or accident that resulted in the order against the 115364 person. A determination may be made without a hearing. This 115365 division does not apply unless the person shows good cause for the 115366 person's failure to present satisfactory proof of financial 115367 responsibility to the registrar prior to the issuance of the 115368
order. 115369

(D)(1)(a) For the purpose of enforcing this section, every 115370 peace officer is deemed an agent of the registrar. 115371

(b) Any peace officer who, in the performance of the peace 115372 officer's duties as authorized by law, becomes aware of a person 115373 whose license is under an order of suspension, or whose 115374 certificate of registration and license plates are under an order 115375 of impoundment, pursuant to this section, may confiscate the 115376 license, certificate of registration, and license plates, and 115377 return them to the registrar. 115378

(2) A peace officer shall request the owner or operator of a 115379 motor vehicle to produce proof of financial responsibility in a 115380 manner described in division (G) of this section at the time the 115381 peace officer acts to enforce the traffic laws of this state and 115382 during motor vehicle inspections conducted pursuant to section 115383

4513.02 of the Revised Code. 115384

(3) A peace officer shall indicate on every traffic ticket 115385 whether the person receiving the traffic ticket produced proof of 115386 the maintenance of financial responsibility in response to the 115387 officer's request under division (D)(2) of this section. The peace 115388 officer shall inform every person who receives a traffic ticket 115389 and who has failed to produce proof of the maintenance of 115390 financial responsibility that the person must submit proof to the 115391 traffic violations bureau with any payment of a fine and costs for 115392 the ticketed violation or, if the person is to appear in court for 115393 the violation, the person must submit proof to the court. 115394

(4)(a) If a person who has failed to produce proof of the 115395 maintenance of financial responsibility appears in court for a 115396 ticketed violation, the court may permit the defendant to present 115397 evidence of proof of financial responsibility to the court at such 115398 time and in such manner as the court determines to be necessary or 115399 appropriate. In a manner prescribed by the registrar, the clerk of 115400 courts shall provide the registrar with the identity of any person 115401 who fails to submit proof of the maintenance of financial 115402 responsibility pursuant to division (D)(3) of this section. 115403

(b) If a person who has failed to produce proof of the 115404 maintenance of financial responsibility also fails to submit that 115405 proof to the traffic violations bureau with payment of a fine and 115406 costs for the ticketed violation, the traffic violations bureau, 115407 in a manner prescribed by the registrar, shall notify the 115408 registrar of the identity of that person. 115409

(5)(a) Upon receiving notice from a clerk of courts or 115410 traffic violations bureau pursuant to division (D)(4) of this 115411 section, the registrar shall order the suspension of the license 115412 of the person required under division (A)(2)(a), (b), or (c) of 115413 this section and the impoundment of the person's certificate of 115414 registration and license plates required under division (A)(2)(d) 115415 of this section, effective thirty days after the date of the 115416 mailing of notification. The registrar also shall notify the 115417 person that the person must present the registrar with proof of 115418 financial responsibility in accordance with this section, 115419 surrender to the registrar the person's certificate of 115420 registration, license plates, and license, or submit a statement 115421 subject to section 2921.13 of the Revised Code that the person did 115422 not operate or permit the operation of the motor vehicle at the 115423 time of the offense. Notification shall be in writing and shall be 115424 sent to the person at the person's last known address as shown on 115425 the records of the bureau of motor vehicles. The person, within 115426 fifteen days after the date of the mailing of notification, shall 115427 present proof of financial responsibility, surrender the 115428 certificate of registration, license plates, and license to the 115429 registrar in a manner set forth in division (A)(4) of this 115430 section, or submit the statement required under this section 115431 together with other information the person considers appropriate. 115432

If the registrar does not receive proof or the person does 115433 not surrender the certificate of registration, license plates, and 115434 license, in accordance with this division, the registrar shall 115435 permit the order for the suspension of the license of the person 115436 and the impoundment of the person's certificate of registration 115437 and license plates to take effect. 115438

(b) In the case of a person who presents, within the 115439 fifteen-day period, proof of financial responsibility, the 115440 registrar shall terminate the order of suspension and the 115441 impoundment of the registration and license plates required under 115442 division (A)(2)(d) of this section and shall send written 115443 notification to the person, at the person's last known address as 115444 shown on the records of the bureau. 115445

(c) Any person adversely affected by the order of the 115446 registrar under division (D)(5)(a) or (b) of this section, within 115447 ten days after the issuance of the order, may request an 115448 administrative hearing before the registrar, who shall provide the 115449 person with an opportunity for a hearing in accordance with this 115450 paragraph. A request for a hearing does not operate as a 115451 suspension of the order. The scope of the hearing shall be limited 115452 to whether, at the time of the hearing, the person presents proof 115453 of financial responsibility covering the vehicle and whether the 115454 person is eligible for an exemption in accordance with this 115455 section or any rule adopted under it. The registrar shall 115456 determine the date, time, and place of any hearing; ~~provided, that~~ 115457

~~the hearing shall be held, and an order issued or findings made,~~ 115458 ~~within thirty days after the registrar receives a request for a~~ 115459 ~~hearing. The hearing may be held remotely by electronic means.~~ If 115460 requested by the person in writing, the registrar may designate as 115461 the place of hearing the county seat of the county in which the 115462 person resides or a place within fifty miles of the person's 115463 residence. Such person shall pay the cost of the hearing before 115464 the registrar, if the registrar's order of suspension or 115465 impoundment under division (D)(5)(a) or (b) of this section is 115466 upheld. 115467

(6) A peace officer may charge an owner or operator of a 115468 motor vehicle with a violation of section 4510.16 of the Revised 115469 Code when the owner or operator fails to show proof of the 115470 maintenance of financial responsibility pursuant to a peace 115471 officer's request under division (D)(2) of this section, if a 115472 check of the owner or operator's driving record indicates that the 115473 owner or operator, at the time of the operation of the motor 115474 vehicle, is required to file and maintain proof of financial 115475 responsibility under section 4509.45 of the Revised Code for a 115476 previous violation of this chapter. 115477

(7) Any forms used by law enforcement agencies in 115478 administering this section shall be prescribed, supplied, and paid 115479 for by the registrar. 115480

(8) No peace officer, law enforcement agency employing a 115481 peace officer, or political subdivision or governmental agency 115482 that employs a peace officer shall be liable in a civil action for 115483 damages or loss to persons arising out of the performance of any 115484 duty required or authorized by this section. 115485

(9) As used in this section, "peace officer" has the meaning 115486 set forth in section 2935.01 of the Revised Code. 115487 registrar, and those portions of the financial responsibility 115489 reinstatement fees as otherwise specified in this division, 115490 collected under this section shall be paid into the state treasury 115491 to the credit of the public safety - highway purposes fund 115492 established in section 4501.06 of the Revised Code and used to 115493 cover costs incurred by the bureau in the administration of this 115494 section and sections 4503.20, 4507.212, and 4509.81 of the Revised 115495 Code, and by any law enforcement agency employing any peace 115496 officer who returns any license, certificate of registration, and 115497 license plates to the registrar pursuant to division (C) of this 115498

section. 115499

Of each financial responsibility reinstatement fee the 115500 registrar collects pursuant to division (A)(5)(a) of this section 115501 or receives from a deputy registrar under division (A)(5)(d) of 115502 this section, the registrar shall deposit twenty-five dollars of 115503

section 120.08 of the Revised Code. 115508

clearly inconsistent with this section. 115511

(2) If a person fails to demonstrate proof of financial 115541 responsibility in a manner described in division (G)(1) of this 115542 section, the person may demonstrate proof of financial 115543 responsibility under this section by any other method that the 115544

(J) The purpose of this section is to require the maintenance 115611 of proof of financial responsibility with respect to the operation 115612 of motor vehicles on the highways of this state, so as to minimize 115613 those situations in which persons are not compensated for injuries 115614 and damages sustained in motor vehicle accidents. The general 115615

(L)(1) The registrar may terminate any suspension imposed 115620 under this section and not require the owner to comply with 115621 fault for the lapse of proof of financial responsibility through 115635 no fault of the owner or driver. 115636

(iv) The lapse of proof of financial responsibility was 115637 caused by excusable neglect under circumstances that are not 115638 likely to recur and do not suggest a purpose to evade the 115639 requirements of this chapter. 115640

(2) The registrar may grant an owner or driver relief for a 115641 reason specified in division (L)(1)(b)(iii) or (iv) of this 115642 section only if the owner or driver has not previously been 115643 granted relief under division (L)(1)(b)(iii) or (iv) of this 115644
section. 115645

(M) The registrar shall adopt rules in accordance with 115646
Chapter 119. of the Revised Code that are necessary to administer 115647 and enforce this section. The rules shall include procedures for 115648 the surrender of license plates upon failure to maintain proof of 115649 financial responsibility and provisions relating to reinstatement 115650 of registration rights, acceptable forms of proof of financial 115651 responsibility, the use of an electronic wireless communications 115652 device to present proof of financial responsibility, and 115653 verification of the existence of financial responsibility during 115654 the period of registration. 115655

(N)(1) When a person utilizes an electronic wireless 115656 communications device to present proof of financial 115657 responsibility, only the evidence of financial responsibility 115658 displayed on the device shall be viewed by the registrar, peace 115659 officer, employee or official of the traffic violations bureau, or 115660 the court. No other content of the device shall be viewed for 115661 purposes of obtaining proof of financial responsibility. 115662

(2) When a person provides an electronic wireless 115663 communications device to the registrar, a peace officer, an 115664 employee or official of a traffic violations bureau, or the court, 115665 the person assumes the risk of any resulting damage to the device 115666 unless the registrar, peace officer, employee, or official, or 115667 court personnel purposely, knowingly, or recklessly commits an 115668 action that results in damage to the device. 115669

Sec. 4510.03. (A) Every county court judge, mayor of a 115670 mayor's court, and clerk of a court of record shall keep a full 115671 record of every case in which a person is charged with any 115672 violation of any provision of sections 4511.01 to 4511.771 or 115673 4513.01 to 4513.36 of the Revised Code or of any other law or 115674 ordinance regulating the operation of vehicles, streetcars, and 115675 trackless trolleys on highways or streets. 115676

(B) If a person is convicted of or forfeits bail in relation 115677 to a violation of any section listed in division (A) of this 115678 section or a violation of any other law or ordinance regulating 115679 the operation of vehicles, streetcars, and trackless trolleys on 115680 highways or streets, the county court judge, mayor of a mayor's 115681 court, or clerk, within seven days after the conviction or bail 115682 forfeiture, shall prepare and immediately forward to the bureau of 115683 motor vehicles, in a secure electronic format, an abstract, 115684 certified by the preparer to be true and correct, of the court 115685 record covering the case in which the person was convicted or 115686 forfeited bail. Every court of record also shall forward to the 115687 bureau of motor vehicles, in a secure electronic format, an 115688 law enforcement officer who makes an arrest of a type that is 115733 described in this division and that involves a rented or leased 115734 vehicle that is being rented or leased for a period of thirty days 115735 or less shall notify, within twenty-four hours after the officer 115736 makes the arrest, the lessor or owner of the vehicle regarding the 115737 circumstances of the arrest and the location at which the vehicle 115738 may be picked up. At the time of the seizure of the vehicle, the 115739 law enforcement officer who made the arrest shall give the 115740 arrested person written notice that the vehicle and its license 115741 plates have been seized; that the vehicle either will be kept by 115742 the officer's law enforcement agency or will be immobilized at 115743 least until the person's initial appearance on the charge of the 115744 offense for which the arrest was made; that, at the initial 115745 appearance, the court in certain circumstances may order that the 115746 vehicle and license plates be released to the arrested person 115747 until the disposition of that charge; that, if the arrested person 115748 is convicted of that charge, the court generally must order the 115749 immobilization of the vehicle and the impoundment of its license 115750 plates or the forfeiture of the vehicle; and that the arrested 115751 person may be charged expenses or charges incurred under this 115752 section and section 4503.233 of the Revised Code for the removal 115753 and storage of the vehicle. 115754

(2) The arresting officer or a law enforcement officer of the 115755 agency that employs the arresting officer shall give written 115756 notice of the seizure under division (B)(1) of this section to the 115757 court that will conduct the initial appearance of the arrested 115758 person on the charges arising out of the arrest. Upon receipt of 115759 the notice, the court promptly shall determine whether the 115760 arrested person is the vehicle owner. If the court determines that 115761 the arrested person is not the vehicle owner, it promptly shall 115762 send by regular mail written notice of the seizure to the 115763 vehicle's registered owner. The written notice shall contain all 115764 of the information required by division (B)(1) of this section to 115765 be in a notice to be given to the arrested person and also shall 115766 specify the date, time, and place of the arrested person's initial 115767 appearance. The notice also shall inform the vehicle owner that if 115768 title to a motor vehicle that is subject to an order for criminal 115769 forfeiture under this section is assigned or transferred and 115770 division (B)(2) or (3) of section 4503.234 of the Revised Code 115771 applies, the court may fine the arrested person the value of the 115772 vehicle. The notice also shall state that if the vehicle is 115773 immobilized under division (A) of section 4503.233 of the Revised 115774 Code, seven days after the end of the period of immobilization a 115775 law enforcement agency will send the vehicle owner a notice, 115776 informing the owner that if the release of the vehicle is not 115777 obtained in accordance with division (D)(3) of section 4503.233 of 115778 the Revised Code, the vehicle shall be forfeited. The notice also 115779 shall inform the vehicle owner that the owner may be charged 115780 expenses or charges incurred under this section and section 115781 4503.233 of the Revised Code for the removal and storage of the 115782 vehicle. 115783

The written notice that is given to the arrested person also 115784 shall state that if the person is convicted of or pleads guilty to 115785 the offense and the court issues an immobilization and impoundment 115786 order relative to that vehicle, division (D)(4) of section 115787 4503.233 of the Revised Code prohibits the vehicle from being sold 115788 during the period of immobilization without the prior approval of 115789 the court. 115790

(3) At or before the initial appearance, the vehicle owner 115791 may file a motion requesting the court to order that the vehicle 115792 and its license plates be released to the vehicle owner. Except as 115793 provided in this division and subject to the payment of expenses 115794 or charges incurred in the removal and storage of the vehicle, the 115795 court, in its discretion, then may issue an order releasing the 115796 vehicle and its license plates to the vehicle owner. Such an order 115797 may be conditioned upon such terms as the court determines 115798 appropriate, including the posting of a bond in an amount 115799 determined by the court. If the arrested person is not the vehicle 115800 owner and if the vehicle owner is not present at the arrested 115801 person's initial appearance, and if the court believes that the 115802 vehicle owner was not provided with adequate notice of the initial 115803 appearance, the court, in its discretion, may allow the vehicle 115804 owner to file a motion within seven days of the initial 115805 appearance. If the court allows the vehicle owner to file such a 115806 motion after the initial appearance, the extension of time granted 115807 by the court does not extend the time within which the initial 115808 appearance is to be conducted. If the court issues an order for 115809 the release of the vehicle and its license plates, a copy of the 115810 order shall be made available to the vehicle owner. If the vehicle 115811 owner presents a copy of the order to the law enforcement agency 115812 that employs the law enforcement officer who arrested the arrested 115813 person, the law enforcement agency promptly shall release the 115814 vehicle and its license plates to the vehicle owner upon payment 115815 by the vehicle owner of any expenses or charges incurred in the 115816 removal or storage of the vehicle. 115817

(4) A vehicle seized under division (B)(1) of this section 115818 either shall be towed to a place specified by the law enforcement 115819 agency that employs the arresting officer to be safely kept by the 115820 agency at that place for the time and in the manner specified in 115821 this section or shall be otherwise immobilized for the time and in 115822 the manner specified in this section. ~~A law enforcement officer of~~ 115823

~~that agency shall remove the identification license plates of the~~ 115824 ~~vehicle, and they shall be safely kept by the agency for the time~~ 115825
~~and in the manner specified in this section. The license plates~~ 115826 ~~shall remain on the seized vehicle unless otherwise ordered by the~~ 115827 ~~court.~~ No vehicle that is seized and either towed or immobilized 115828 pursuant to this division shall be considered contraband for 115829 purposes of Chapter 2981. of the Revised Code. The vehicle shall 115830 not be immobilized at any place other than a commercially operated 115831 private storage lot, a place owned by a law enforcement or other 115832 government agency, or a place to which one of the following 115833 applies: 115834

(a) The place is leased by or otherwise under the control of 115835 a law enforcement or other government agency. 115836

(b) The place is owned by the arrested person, the arrested 115837 person's spouse, or a parent or child of the arrested person. 115838

(c) The place is owned by a private person or entity, and, 115839 prior to the immobilization, the private entity or person that 115840 owns the place, or the authorized agent of that private entity or 115841 person, has given express written consent for the immobilization 115842 to be carried out at that place. 115843

(d) The place is a public street or highway on which the 115844 vehicle is parked in accordance with the law. 115845

(C)(1) A vehicle seized under division (B)(1) of this section 115846 shall be safely kept at the place to which it is towed or 115847 otherwise moved by the law enforcement agency that employs the 115848 arresting officer until the initial appearance of the arrested 115849 person relative to the charge in question. The license plates ~~of~~ 115850 ~~shall remain on the seized vehicle that are removed pursuant to~~ 115851 ~~division (B)(1) of this section shall be safely kept by the law~~ 115852 ~~enforcement agency that employs the arresting officer until at~~ 115853 ~~least the initial appearance of the arrested person relative to~~ 115854

~~the charge in question unless otherwise ordered by the court.~~ 115855

(2)(a) At the initial appearance or not less than seven days 115856 prior to the date of final disposition, the court shall notify the 115857 arrested person that, if title to a motor vehicle that is subject 115858 to an order for criminal forfeiture under this section is assigned 115859 or transferred and division (B)(2) or (3) of section 4503.234 of 115860 the Revised Code applies, the court may fine the arrested person 115861 the value of the vehicle. If, at the initial appearance, the 115862 arrested person pleads guilty to the violation of section 4510.14 115863 or 4511.203 of the Revised Code, or a municipal ordinance that is 115864 substantially equivalent to either of those sections or pleads no 115865 contest to and is convicted of the violation, the following 115866 sentencing provisions apply: 115867

(i) If the person violated section 4510.14 of the Revised 115868
Code or a municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to 115869 that section, the court shall impose sentence upon the person as 115870 provided by law or ordinance; the court shall order the 115871 immobilization of the vehicle the arrested person was operating at 115872
the time of, or that was involved in, the offense if registered in 115873
the arrested person's name and the impoundment of its license 115874 plates under sections 4503.233 and 4510.14 of the Revised Code or 115875 the criminal forfeiture to the state of the vehicle if registered 115876 in the arrested person's name under sections 4503.234 and 4510.14 115877 of the Revised Code, whichever is applicable; and the vehicle and 115878 its license plates shall not be returned or released to the 115879 arrested person. 115880

(ii) If the person violated section 4511.203 of the Revised 115881
Code or a municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to 115882
that section, the court shall impose sentence upon the person as 115883 provided by law or ordinance; the court may order the 115884 immobilization of the vehicle the arrested person was operating at 115885
the time of, or that was involved in, the offense if registered in 115886

plates under section 4503.233 and section 4511.203 of the Revised 115888 Code or the criminal forfeiture to the state of the vehicle if 115889 registered in the arrested person's name under section 4503.234 115890 and section 4511.203 of the Revised Code, whichever is applicable; 115891 and the vehicle and its license plates shall not be returned or 115892 released to the arrested person. 115893

(b) If, at any time, the charge that the arrested person 115894 violated section 4510.14 or 4511.203 of the Revised Code, or a 115895 municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to either of 115896 those sections is dismissed for any reason, the court shall order 115897 that the vehicle seized at the time of the arrest and its license 115898 plates immediately be released to the person. 115899

(D) If a vehicle and its license plates are seized under 115900 division (B)(1) of this section and are not returned or released 115901 to the arrested person pursuant to division (C) of this section, 115902 the vehicle and its license plates shall be retained until the 115903 final disposition of the charge in question. Upon the final 115904 disposition of that charge, the court shall do whichever of the 115905 following is applicable: 115906

(1) If the arrested person is convicted of or pleads guilty 115907 to the violation of section 4510.14 of the Revised Code or a 115908 municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to that 115909 section, the court shall impose sentence upon the person as 115910 provided by law or ordinance and shall order the immobilization of 115911 the vehicle the person was operating at the time of, or that was 115912 involved in, the offense if it is registered in the arrested 115913 person's name and the impoundment of its license plates under 115914 sections 4503.233 and 4510.14 of the Revised Code or the criminal 115915 forfeiture of the vehicle if it is registered in the arrested 115916 person's name under sections 4503.234 and 4510.14 of the Revised 115917
Code, whichever is applicable. 115918

(3) If the arrested person is found not guilty of the violation of section 4510.14 or 4511.203 of the Revised Code, or a municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to either of those sections, the court shall order that the vehicle and its license plates immediately be released to the arrested person.

(4) If the charge that the arrested person violated section 4510.14 or 4511.203 of the Revised Code, or a municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to either of those sections is dismissed for any reason, the court shall order that the vehicle and its license plates immediately be released to the arrested person.

(5) If the impoundment of the vehicle was not authorized under this section, the court shall order that the vehicle and its license plates be returned immediately to the arrested person or, if the arrested person is not the vehicle owner, to the vehicle owner and shall order that the state or political subdivision of the law enforcement agency served by the law enforcement officer who seized the vehicle pay all expenses and charges incurred in its removal and storage.

(E) If a vehicle is seized under division (B)(2) of this section, the time between the seizure of the vehicle and either 115951 its release to the arrested person pursuant to division (C) of 115952 this section or the issuance of an order of immobilization of the 115953 vehicle under section 4503.233 of the Revised Code shall be 115954 credited against the period of immobilization ordered by the 115955

court. 115956

(F)(1) Except as provided in division (D)(4) of this section, 115957 the arrested person may be charged expenses or charges incurred in 115958 the removal and storage of the immobilized vehicle. The court with 115959 jurisdiction over the case, after notice to all interested 115960 parties, including lienholders, and after an opportunity for them 115961 to be heard, if the court finds that the arrested person does not 115962 intend to seek release of the vehicle at the end of the period of 115963 immobilization under section 4503.233 of the Revised Code or that 115964 the arrested person is not or will not be able to pay the expenses 115965 and charges incurred in its removal and storage, may order that 115966 title to the vehicle be transferred, in order of priority, first 115967 into the name of the person or entity that removed it, next into 115968 the name of a lienholder, or lastly into the name of the owner of 115969 the place of storage. 115970

Any lienholder that receives title under a court order shall 115971 do so on the condition that it pay any expenses or charges 115972 incurred in the vehicle's removal and storage. If the person or 115973 entity that receives title to the vehicle is the person or entity 115974 that removed it, the person or entity shall receive title on the 115975 condition that it pay any lien on the vehicle. The court shall not 115976 order that title be transferred to any person or entity other than 115977 the owner of the place of storage if the person or entity refuses 115978 to receive the title. Any person or entity that receives title 115979 either may keep title to the vehicle or may dispose of the vehicle 115980 in any legal manner that it considers appropriate, including 115981 assignment of the certificate of title to the motor vehicle to a 115982 salvage dealer or a scrap metal processing facility. The person or 115983 entity shall not transfer the vehicle to the person who is the 115984 vehicle's immediate previous owner. 115985

If the person or entity that receives title assigns the motor 115986 vehicle to a salvage dealer or scrap metal processing facility, 115987 the person or entity shall send the assigned certificate of title 115988 to the motor vehicle to the clerk of the court of common pleas of 115989 the county in which the salvage dealer or scrap metal processing 115990 facility is located. The person or entity shall mark the face of 115991 the certificate of title with the words "FOR DESTRUCTION" and 115992 shall deliver a photocopy of the certificate of title to the 115993 salvage dealer or scrap metal processing facility for its records. 115994

(2) Whenever a court issues an order under division (F)(1) of 115995 this section, the court also shall order removal of the license 115996 plates from the vehicle and cause them to be sent to the registrar 115997 if they have not already been sent to the registrar. Thereafter, 115998 no further proceedings shall take place under this section or 115999 under section 4503.233 of the Revised Code. 116000

(3) Prior to initiating a proceeding under division (F)(1) of 116001 this section, and upon payment of the fee under division (B) of 116002 section 4505.14, any interested party may cause a search to be 116003 made of the public records of the bureau of motor vehicles or the 116004 clerk of the court of common pleas, to ascertain the identity of 116005 any lienholder of the vehicle. The initiating party shall furnish 116006 this information to the clerk of the court with jurisdiction over 116007 the case, and the clerk shall provide notice to the arrested 116008 person, any lienholder, and any other interested parties listed by 116009 the initiating party, at the last known address supplied by the 116010 initiating party, by certified mail, or, at the option of the 116011 initiating party, by personal service or ordinary mail. 116012

Sec. 4735.13. (A) Every real estate broker licensed under 116013 this chapter shall have and maintain a definite place of business 116014 in this state. A post office box address is not a definite place 116015 of business for purposes of this section. The license of a real 116016 estate broker shall be prominently displayed in the office or 116017 place of business of the broker, and no license shall authorize 116018 the licensee to do business except from the location specified in 116019 it. If the broker maintains more than one place of business within 116020 the state, the broker shall apply for and procure a duplicate 116021 license for each branch office maintained by the broker. Each 116022 branch office shall be in the charge of a licensed broker or 116023 salesperson. The branch office license shall be prominently 116024 displayed at the branch office location. 116025

(B) The license of each real estate salesperson shall be 116026 electronically mailed to and remain in the possession of the 116027 licensed broker with whom the salesperson is or is to be 116028 associated until the licensee places the license on inactive or 116029 resigned status or until the salesperson leaves the brokerage or 116030 is terminated. The broker shall keep a copy of each salesperson's 116031 license in a way that it can, and shall on request, be made 116032 immediately available for public inspection at the office or place 116033 of business of the broker. Except as provided in divisions (G) and 116034 (H) of this section, immediately upon the salesperson's leaving 116035 the association or termination of the association of a real estate 116036 salesperson with the broker, the broker shall ~~return the~~ 116037 ~~salesperson's license to~~ notify the superintendent of real estate 116038 by electronic mail to the division of real estate's general 116039 electronic mail address. The broker shall keep a copy of the 116040 written notification for three years after it is sent. 116041

The failure of a broker to ~~return the license~~ notify the 116042 superintendent of real estate in writing of a real estate 116043 salesperson or broker who leaves or who is terminated, via 116044 ~~certified~~ electronic mail ~~return receipt requested~~, within three 116045 business days of the receipt of a written request from the 116046 superintendent for ~~the return of the license~~ such notification, is 116047 prima-facie evidence of misconduct under division (A)(6) of 116048

section 4735.18 of the Revised Code. 116049

(C) A licensee shall notify the superintendent in writing 116050 within fifteen days of any of the following occurrences: 116051

(1) The licensee is convicted of a felony. 116052

(2) The licensee is convicted of a crime involving moral 116053 turpitude. 116054

(3) The licensee is found to have violated any federal, 116055 state, or municipal civil rights law pertaining to discrimination 116056 in housing. 116057

(4) The licensee is found to have engaged in a discriminatory 116058 practice pertaining to housing accommodations described in 116059 division (H) of section 4112.02 of the Revised Code. 116060

(5) The licensee is the subject of an order by the department 116061 of commerce, the department of insurance, or the department of 116062 agriculture revoking or permanently surrendering any professional 116063 license, certificate, or registration. 116064

(6) The licensee is the subject of an order by any government 116065 agency concerning real estate, financial matters, or the 116066 performance of fiduciary duties with respect to any license, 116067 certificate, or registration. 116068

If a licensee fails to notify the superintendent within the 116069 required time, the superintendent immediately may suspend the 116070 license of the licensee. 116071

Any court that convicts a licensee of a violation of any 116072 municipal civil rights law pertaining to housing discrimination 116073 also shall notify the Ohio civil rights commission within fifteen 116074 days of the conviction. 116075

(D) In case of any change of business location, a broker shall give notice to the superintendent, on a form prescribed by the superintendent, within thirty days after the change of location, whereupon the superintendent shall issue new licenses for the unexpired period without charge. If a broker changes a business location without giving the required notice and without receiving new licenses that action is prima-facie evidence of misconduct under division (A)(6) of section 4735.18 of the Revised Code.

(E) If a real estate broker desires to associate with another real estate broker in the capacity of a real estate salesperson, the broker shall apply to the superintendent to deposit the broker's real estate broker's license with the superintendent and for the issuance of a real estate salesperson's license. The application shall be made on a form prescribed by the superintendent and shall be accompanied by the recommendation of the real estate broker with whom the applicant intends to become associated and a fee of thirty-four dollars for the real estate salesperson's license. One dollar of the fee shall be credited to the real estate education and research fund. If the superintendent is satisfied that the applicant is honest and truthful, has not been convicted of a disqualifying offense as determined in accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code, and has not been finally adjudged by a court to have violated any municipal, state, or federal civil rights laws relevant to the protection of purchasers or sellers of real estate, and that the association of the real estate broker and the applicant will be in the public interest, the superintendent shall grant the application and issue a real estate salesperson's license to the applicant. Any license so deposited with the superintendent shall be subject to this chapter. A broker who intends to deposit the broker's license with the superintendent, as provided in this section, shall give written notice of this fact in a format prescribed by the superintendent to all salespersons associated with the broker when 116109 applying to place the broker's license on deposit. 116110

(F) If a real estate broker desires to become a member or 116111 officer of a partnership, association, limited liability company, 116112 limited liability partnership, or corporation that is or intends 116113 to become a licensed real estate broker, the broker shall notify 116114 the superintendent of the broker's intentions. The notice of 116115 intention shall be on a form prescribed by the superintendent and 116116 shall be accompanied by a fee of thirty-four dollars. One dollar 116117 of the fee shall be credited to the real estate education and 116118 research fund. 116119

A licensed real estate broker who is a member or officer of a 116120 partnership, association, limited liability company, limited 116121 liability partnership, or corporation shall only act as a real 116122 estate broker for such partnership, association, limited liability 116123 company, limited liability partnership, or corporation. 116124

(G)(1) If a real estate broker or salesperson enters the 116125 armed forces, the broker or salesperson may place the broker's or 116126 salesperson's license on deposit with the Ohio real estate 116127 commission. The licensee shall not be required to renew the 116128 license until the renewal date that follows the date of discharge 116129 from the armed forces. Any license deposited with the commission 116130 shall be subject to this chapter. 116131

Any licensee whose license is on deposit under this division 116132 and who fails to meet the continuing education requirements of 116133 section 4735.141 of the Revised Code because the licensee is in 116134 the armed forces shall satisfy the commission that the licensee 116135 has complied with the continuing education requirements within 116136 twelve months of the licensee's first birthday after discharge or 116137 within the amount of time equal to the total number of months the 116138 licensee spent on active duty, whichever is greater. The licensee 116139 shall submit proper documentation of active duty service and the 116140 length of that active duty service to the superintendent. The 116141 extension shall not exceed the total number of months that the 116142 licensee served in active duty. The superintendent shall notify 116143 the licensee of the licensee's obligations under section 4735.141 116144 of the Revised Code at the time the licensee applies for 116145 reactivation of the licensee's license. 116146

(2) If a licensee is a spouse of a member of the armed forces 116147 and the spouse's service resulted in the licensee's absence from 116148 this state, both of the following apply: 116149

(a) The licensee shall not be required to renew the license 116150 until the renewal date that follows the date of the spouse's 116151 discharge from the armed forces. 116152

(b) If the licensee fails to meet the continuing education 116153 requirements of section 4735.141 of the Revised Code, the licensee 116154 shall satisfy the commission that the licensee has complied with 116155 the continuing education requirements within twelve months after 116156 the licensee's first birthday after the spouse's discharge or 116157 within the amount of time equal to the total number of months the 116158 licensee's spouse spent on active duty, whichever is greater. The 116159 licensee shall submit proper documentation of the spouse's active 116160 duty service and the length of that active duty service. This 116161 extension shall not exceed the total number of months that the 116162 licensee's spouse served in active duty. 116163

(3) In the case of a licensee as described in division (G)(2) 116164 of this section, who holds the license through a reciprocity 116165 agreement with another state, the spouse's service shall have 116166 resulted in the licensee's absence from the licensee's state of 116167 residence for the provisions of that division to apply. 116168

(4) As used in this division, "armed forces" means the armed 116169 forces of the United States or reserve component of the armed 116170 forces of the United States including the Ohio national guard or 116171

the national guard of any other state. 116172

(H) If a licensed real estate salesperson submits an 116173 application to the superintendent to leave the association of one 116174 broker to associate with a different broker, the broker possessing 116175 the licensee's license need not ~~return the salesperson's license~~ 116176 ~~to~~ notify the superintendent pursuant to division (B) of this 116177 section. The superintendent may process the application regardless 116178 of whether the licensee's license is returned to the 116179 superintendent or the superintendent is notified pursuant to 116180 division (B) of this section. 116181

Sec. 4735.14. (A) Each license issued under this chapter, 116182 shall be valid without further recommendation or examination until 116183 it is placed in an inactive or resigned status, is revoked or 116184 suspended, or such license expires by operation of law. 116185

(B) Except for a licensee who has placed the licensee's 116186 license in resigned status pursuant to section 4735.142 of the 116187 Revised Code, each licensed broker, brokerage, or salesperson 116188 shall file, on or before the date the Ohio real estate commission 116189 has adopted by rule for that licensee in accordance with division 116190 (A)(2)(f) of section 4735.10 of the Revised Code, a notice of 116191 renewal on a form prescribed by the superintendent of real estate. 116192
The notice of renewal shall be ~~mailed~~ sent by the superintendent 116193 two months prior to the filing deadline to the ~~personal residence~~ 116194 electronic mail address of each broker or salesperson that is on 116195 file with the division. If the licensee is a partnership, 116196 association, limited liability company, limited liability 116197 partnership, or corporation, the notice of renewal shall be ~~mailed~~ 116198 sent by the superintendent two months prior to the filing deadline 116199 to the brokerage's business electronic mail address on file with 116200 the division. A licensee shall not renew the licensee's license 116201 any earlier than two months prior to the filing deadline. 116202

(C) Except as otherwise provided in division (B) of this section, the license of any real estate broker, brokerage, or salesperson that fails to file a notice of renewal on or before the filing deadline of each ensuing year shall be suspended automatically without the taking of any action by the superintendent. A suspended license may be reactivated within twelve months of the date of suspension, provided that the renewal fee plus a penalty fee of fifty per cent of the renewal fee is paid to the superintendent. Failure to reactivate the license as provided in this division shall result in automatic revocation of the license without the taking of any action by the superintendent. No person, partnership, association, corporation, limited liability company, or limited partnership shall engage in any act or acts for which a real estate license is required while that entity's license is placed in an inactive or resigned status, or is suspended, or revoked. The commission shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to provide to licensees notice of suspension or revocation or both.

(D) Each licensee shall notify the superintendent of a change in personal residence address within thirty days after the change of location. A licensee's failure to notify the superintendent of a change in personal residence address does not negate the requirement to file the license renewal by the required deadline established by the commission by rule under division (A)(2)(f) of section 4735.10 of the Revised Code. Each licensee shall maintain a valid electronic mail address on file with the division and notify the superintendent of any change in electronic mail address within thirty days after the change.

(E) The superintendent shall not renew a license if the licensee fails to comply with section 4735.141 of the Revised Code or is otherwise not in compliance with this chapter.

(F) The superintendent shall make notice of successful renewal available electronically to licensees as soon as 116235 practicable, but not later than thirty days after receipt by the 116236 division of a complete application and renewal fee. This notice 116237 shall serve as a notice of renewal for purposes of section 4745.02 116238

of the Revised Code. 116239

Sec. 5107.161. Before a county department of job and family 116240 services sanctions an assistance group under section 5107.16 of 116241 the Revised Code, the state department of job and family services 116242 shall provide the assistance group written notice of the sanction 116243 in accordance with rules adopted under section 5107.05 of the 116244 Revised Code. The written notice shall include a provision printed 116245 in bold type face that informs the assistance group that, not 116246 later than fifteen calendar days after the state department mailed 116247 the written notice to the assistance group, the assistance group 116248 may request, for the purpose of explaining why the assistance 116249 group believes it should not be sanctioned, a state hearing under 116250 division (B) of section 5101.35 of the Revised Code which, at the 116251 assistance group's request, may be preceded by a ~~face-to-face~~ 116252 county conference with the county department. The written notice 116253 shall include either the telephone number of an Ohio works first 116254 ombudsperson provided for under section 329.07 of the Revised Code 116255 or the toll-free telephone number of the state department of job 116256 and family services that the assistance group may call to obtain 116257 the telephone number of an Ohio works first ombudsperson. 116258

Sec. 5120.14. (A) If a person who was convicted of or pleaded 116259 guilty to an offense escapes from a correctional institution in 116260 this state under the control of the department of rehabilitation 116261 and correction or otherwise escapes from the custody of the 116262 department, the department immediately after the escape shall 116263 report the escape, by telephone and in writing, to all local law 116264 enforcement agencies with jurisdiction in the county in which the 116265 institution from which the escape was made or to which the person 116266 was sentenced is located, to all local law enforcement agencies 116267 with jurisdiction in the county in which the person was convicted 116268 or pleaded guilty to the offense for which the escaped person was 116269 sentenced, to the state highway patrol, to the prosecuting 116270 attorney of the county in which the institution from which the 116271 escape was made or to which the person was sentenced is located, 116272 to the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the person was 116273 convicted or pleaded guilty to the offense for which the escaped 116274 person was sentenced, to a newspaper of general circulation in the 116275 county in which the institution from which the escape was made or 116276 to which the person was sentenced is located, and to a newspaper 116277 of general circulation in each county in which the escaped person 116278 was indicted for an offense for which, at the time of the escape, 116279 the escaped person had been sentenced to that institution. The 116280 written notice may be by ~~either~~ facsimile transmission, electronic 116281 mail, or mail. A failure to comply with this requirement is a 116282 violation of section 2921.22 of the Revised Code. 116283

116284
(B) Upon the apprehension of the escaped person, the 116285 department shall give notice of the apprehension by telephone and 116286 in writing to the persons who were given notice of the escape 116287 under division (A) of this section. 116288

Sec. 5165.193. (A) The department of medicaid may, pursuant 116289 to rules authorized by this section, conduct an exception review 116290 of resident assessment data submitted by a nursing facility 116291 provider under section 5165.191 of the Revised Code. The 116292 department may conduct an exception review based on the findings 116293 of a medicaid certification survey conducted by the department of 116294 health, a risk analysis, or prior performance of the provider. 116295

Exception reviews shall be conducted ~~at the nursing facility~~ 116296 by appropriate health professionals under contract with or 116297 employed by the department. The professionals may review resident 116298 assessment forms and supporting documentation, conduct interviews, 116299 and observe residents to identify any patterns or trends of 116300 inaccurate resident assessments and resulting inaccurate case-mix 116301 scores. 116302

(B) If an exception review is conducted before the effective 116303 date of a nursing facility's rate for direct care costs that is 116304 based on the resident assessment data being reviewed and the 116305 review results in findings that exceed tolerance levels specified 116306 in the rules authorized by this section, the department, in 116307 accordance with those rules, may use the findings to redetermine 116308 individual resident case-mix scores, the nursing facility's 116309 case-mix score for the quarter, and the nursing facility's annual 116310 average case-mix score. The department may use the nursing 116311 facility's redetermined quarterly and annual average case-mix 116312 scores to determine the nursing facility's rate for direct care 116313 costs for the appropriate calendar quarter or quarters. 116314

(C) The department shall prepare a written summary of any 116315 exception review finding that is made after the effective date of 116316 a nursing facility's rate for direct care costs that is based on 116317 the resident assessment data that was reviewed. Where the provider 116318 is pursuing judicial or administrative remedies in good faith 116319 regarding the finding, the department shall not withhold from the 116320 provider's current payments any amounts the department claims to 116321 be due from the provider pursuant to section 5165.41 of the 116322
Revised Code. 116323

(D)(1) The medicaid director shall adopt rules under section 116324 5165.02 of the Revised Code as necessary to implement this 116325 section. The rules shall establish an exception review program 116326 that does all of the following: 116327

(a) Requires each exception review to comply with Title XVIII 116328

and Title XIX; 116329

(b) Requires a written summary for each exception review that 116330 states whether resident assessment forms have been completed 116331 accurately; 116332

(c) Prohibits each health professional who conducts an 116333 exception review from doing either of the following: 116334

(i) During the period of the professional's contract or 116335 employment with the department, having or being committed to 116336 acquire any direct or indirect financial interest in the 116337 ownership, financing, or operation of nursing facilities in this 116338
state; 116339

(ii) Reviewing any provider that has been a client of the 116340 professional. 116341

(2) For the purposes of division (D)(1)(c)(i) of this 116342 section, employment of a member of a health professional's family 116343 by a nursing facility that the professional does not review does 116344 not constitute a direct or indirect financial interest in the 116345 ownership, financing, or operation of the nursing facility. 116346

Sec. 5165.86. The department of medicaid, the department of 116347 health, and any contracting agency shall deliver a written notice, 116348 statement, or order to a nursing facility under sections 5165.60 116349 to 5165.66 and 5165.69 to 5165.89 of the Revised Code by certified 116350 mail ~~or~~, hand delivery, or other means reasonably calculated to 116351 provide prompt actual notice. If the notice, statement, or order 116352 is mailed, it shall be addressed to the administrator of the 116353 facility as indicated in the department's or agency's records. If 116354 it is hand delivered, it shall be delivered to a person at the 116355 facility who would appear to the average prudent person to have 116356 authority to accept it. 116357

Delivery of written notice by a nursing facility to the 116358 department of health, the department of medicaid, or a contracting 116359 agency under sections 5165.60 to 5165.89 of the Revised Code shall 116360 be by certified mail ~~or~~, hand delivery, or other means reasonably 116361 calculated to provide prompt actual notice to the appropriate 116362 department or the agency. 116363

Sec. 5166.303. A home care attendant shall do all of the 116364
following: 116365

(A) Maintain a clinical record for each consumer to whom the 116366 attendant provides home care attendant services in a manner that 116367 protects the consumer's privacy; 116368

(B) Participate in a face-to-face visit every ninety days 116369 with all of the following to monitor the health and welfare of 116370 each of the consumers to whom the attendant provides home care 116371 attendant services: 116372

(1) The consumer; 116373

(2) The consumer's authorized representative, if any; 116374

(3) A registered nurse who agrees to answer any questions 116375 that the attendant, consumer, or authorized representative has 116376 about consumer care needs, medications, and other issues. 116377

(C) Document the activities of each visit required by 116378 division (B) of this section in the consumer's clinical record 116379 with the assistance of the registered nurse. 116380

(D) The face-to-face visit requirement in division (B) of 116381 this section may be satisfied by telephone or electronically if 116382 permitted by rules adopted under section 5166.02 of the Revised 116383
Code. 116384

Sec. 5168.08. (A) Before or during each program year, the 116385 department of medicaid shall ~~mail~~ issue to each hospital ~~by~~ 116386 ~~certified mail, return receipt requested,~~ the preliminary 116387 determination of the amount that the hospital is assessed under 116388 section 5168.06 of the Revised Code during the program year. The 116389 preliminary determination of a hospital's assessment shall be 116390 calculated for a cost-reporting period that is specified in rules 116391 adopted under section 5168.02 of the Revised Code. 116392

The department shall consult with hospitals each year when 116393 determining the date on which it will ~~mail~~ issue the preliminary 116394 determinations in order to minimize hospitals' cash flow 116395 difficulties. 116396

If no hospital submits a request for reconsideration under 116397 division (B) of this section, the preliminary determination 116398 constitutes the final reconciliation of each hospital's assessment 116399 under section 5168.06 of the Revised Code. The final 116400 reconciliation is subject to adjustments under division (D) of 116401
this section. 116402

(B) Not later than fourteen days after the preliminary 116403 determinations are ~~mailed~~ issued, any hospital may submit to the 116404 department a written request to reconsider the preliminary 116405 determinations. The request shall be accompanied by written 116406 materials setting forth the basis for the reconsideration. If one 116407 or more hospitals submit a request, the department shall hold a 116408 public hearing not later than thirty days after the preliminary 116409 determinations are ~~mailed~~ issued to reconsider the preliminary 116410 determinations. The department shall ~~mail~~ issue to each hospital a 116411 written notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing at 116412 least ten days prior to the hearing. On the basis of the evidence 116413 submitted to the department or presented at the public hearing, 116414 the department shall reconsider and may adjust the preliminary 116415 determinations. The result of the reconsideration is the final 116416 reconciliation of the hospital's assessment under section 5168.06 116417 of the Revised Code. The final reconciliation is subject to 116418 adjustments under division (D) of this section. 116419

(C) The department shall ~~mail~~ issue to each hospital a written notice of its assessment for the program year under the final reconciliation. A hospital may appeal the final reconciliation of its assessment to the court of common pleas of Franklin county. While a judicial appeal is pending, the hospital shall pay, in accordance with the schedules required by division (B) of section 5168.06 of the Revised Code, any amount of its assessment that is not in dispute into the hospital care assurance program fund created in section 5168.11 of the Revised Code.

(D) In the course of any program year, the department may adjust the assessment rate or rates established in rules pursuant to section 5168.06 of the Revised Code or adjust the amounts of intergovernmental transfers required under section 5168.07 of the Revised Code and, as a result of the adjustment, adjust each hospital's assessment and intergovernmental transfer, to reflect refinements made by the United States centers for medicare and medicaid services during that program year to the limits it prescribed under the "Social Security Act," section 1923(f), 42 U.S.C. 1396r-4(f). When adjusted, the assessment rate or rates must comply with division (A) of section 5168.06 of the Revised Code. An adjusted intergovernmental transfer must comply with division (A) of section 5168.07 of the Revised Code. The department shall notify hospitals of adjustments made under this division and adjust for the remainder of the program year the installments paid by hospitals under sections 5168.06 and 5168.07 of the Revised Code in accordance with rules adopted under section 5168.02 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5168.22. (A) Before or during each assessment program year, the department of medicaid shall ~~mail~~ issue to each hospital ~~by certified mail, return receipt requested,~~ the preliminary determination of the amount that the hospital is assessed under section 5168.21 of the Revised Code for the assessment program year. Except as provided in division (B) of this section, the preliminary determination becomes the final determination for the assessment program year fifteen days after the preliminary determination is ~~mailed~~ issued to the hospital.

(B) A hospital may request that the department reconsider the preliminary determination ~~mailed~~ issued to the hospital under division (A) of this section by submitting to the department a written request for a reconsideration not later than fourteen days after the hospital's preliminary determination is ~~mailed~~ issued to the hospital. The request must be accompanied by written materials setting forth the basis for the reconsideration. On receipt of the timely request, the department shall reconsider the preliminary determination and may adjust the preliminary determination on the basis of the written materials accompanying the request. The result of the reconsideration is the final determination of the hospital's assessment under section 5168.21 of the Revised Code for the assessment program year.

(C) The department shall ~~mail~~ issue to each hospital a written notice of the final determination of its assessment for the assessment program year. A hospital may appeal the final determination to the court of common pleas of Franklin county. While a judicial appeal is pending, the hospital shall pay, in accordance with section 5168.23 of the Revised Code, any amount of its assessment that is not in dispute.

Sec. 5168.23. Each hospital shall pay the amount it is assessed under section 5168.21 of the Revised Code in accordance with a payment schedule the department of medicaid shall establish for each assessment program year. The department shall consult with the Ohio hospital association before establishing the payment schedule for any assessment program year. The department shall include the payment schedule in each preliminary determination notice the department ~~mail~~ issues to hospitals under division (A) 116483

of section 5168.22 of the Revised Code. 116484

Sec. 5525.01. Before entering into a contract, the director 116485 of transportation ~~shall~~ may advertise for bids for two consecutive 116486 weeks in one newspaper of general circulation published in the 116487 county in which the improvement or part thereof is located, but if 116488 there is no such newspaper then in one newspaper having general 116489 circulation in an adjacent county. In the alternative, the 116490 director may advertise for bids as provided in section 7.16 of the 116491 Revised Code. The director ~~may~~ shall advertise for bids in such 116492 other publications as the director considers advisable. Such 116493 notices shall state that plans and specifications for the 116494 improvement are on file in the office of the director and the 116495 district deputy director of the district in which the improvement 116496 or part thereof is located and the time within which bids therefor 116497 will be received. 116498

Each bidder shall be required to file with the bidder's bid a 116499 bid guaranty in the form of a certified check, a cashier's check, 116500 or an electronic funds transfer to the treasurer of state that is 116501 evidenced by a receipt or by a certification to the director of 116502 transportation in a form prescribed by the director that an 116503 electronic funds transfer has been made to the treasurer of state, 116504 for an amount equal to five per cent of the bidder's bid, but in 116505 no event more than fifty thousand dollars, or a bid bond for ten 116506 per cent of the bidder's bid, payable to the director, which 116507 check, transferred sum, or bond shall be forthwith returned to the 116508 bidder in case the contract is awarded to another bidder, or, in 116509 case of a successful bidder, when the bidder has entered into a 116510 contract and furnished the bonds required by section 5525.16 of 116511 the Revised Code. In the event the contract is awarded to a 116512 bidder, and the bidder fails or refuses to furnish the bonds as 116513 required by section 5525.16 of the Revised Code, the check, 116514 transferred sum, or bid bond filed with the bidder's bid shall be 116515 forfeited as liquidated damages. No bidder shall be required 116516 either to file a signed contract with the bidder's bid, to enter 116517 into a contract, or to furnish the contract performance bond and 116518 the payment bond required by that section until the bids have been 116519 opened and the bidder has been notified by the director that the 116520 bidder is awarded the contract. 116521

The director shall permit a bidder to withdraw the bidder's 116522 bid from consideration, without forfeiture of the check, 116523 transferred sum, or bid bond filed with the bid, providing a 116524 written request together with a sworn statement of the grounds for 116525 such withdrawal is delivered within forty-eight hours after the 116526 time established for the receipt of bids, and if the price bid was 116527 substantially lower than the other bids, providing the bid was 116528 submitted in good faith, and the reason for the price bid being 116529 substantially lower was a clerical mistake evident on the face of 116530 the bid, as opposed to a judgment mistake, and was actually due to 116531 an unintentional and substantial arithmetic error or an 116532 unintentional omission of a substantial quantity of work, labor, 116533 or material made directly in the compilation of the bid. In the 116534 event the director decides the conditions for withdrawal have not 116535 been met, the director may award the contract to such bidder. If 116536 such bidder does not then enter into a contract and furnish the 116537 contract bond as required by law, the director may declare 116538 forfeited the check, transferred sum, or bid bond as liquidated 116539 damages and award the contract to the next higher bidder or reject 116540 the remaining bids and readvertise the project for bids. Such 116541 bidder, within thirty days, may appeal the decision of the 116542 director to the court of common pleas of Franklin county and the 116543 court may affirm or reverse the decision of the director and may 116544 order the director to refund the amount of the forfeiture. At the 116545 hearing before the common pleas court evidence may be introduced 116546 for and against the decision of the director. The decision of the common pleas court may be appealed as in other cases.

There is hereby created the ODOT letting fund, which shall be in the custody of the treasurer of state but shall not be part of the state treasury. All certified checks and cashiers' checks received with bidders' bids, and all sums transferred to the treasurer of state by electronic funds transfer in connection with bidders' bids, under this section shall be credited to the fund. All such bid guaranties shall be held in the fund until a determination is made as to the final disposition of the money. If the department determines that any such bid guaranty is no longer required to be held, the amount of the bid guaranty shall be returned to the appropriate bidder. If the department determines that a bid guaranty under this section shall be forfeited, the amount of the bid guaranty shall be transferred or, in the case of money paid on a forfeited bond, deposited into the state treasury, to the credit of the highway operating fund. Any investment earnings of the ODOT letting fund shall be distributed as the treasurer of state considers appropriate.

The director shall require all bidders to furnish the director, upon such forms as the director may prescribe, detailed information with respect to all pending work of the bidder, whether with the department of transportation or otherwise, together with such other information as the director considers necessary.

In the event a bidder fails to submit anything required to be submitted with the bid and then fails or refuses to so submit such at the request of the director, the failure or refusal constitutes grounds for the director, in the director's discretion, to declare as forfeited the bid guaranty submitted with the bid.

The director may reject any or all bids. Except in regard to contracts for environmental remediation and specialty work for which there are no classes of work set out in the rules adopted by 116579 the director, if the director awards the contract, the director 116580 shall award it to the lowest competent and responsible bidder as 116581 defined by rules adopted by the director under section 5525.05 of 116582 the Revised Code, who is qualified to bid under sections 5525.02 116583 to 5525.09 of the Revised Code. In regard to contracts for 116584 environmental remediation and specialty work for which there are 116585 no classes of work set out in the rules adopted by the director, 116586 the director shall competitively bid the projects in accordance 116587 with this chapter and shall award the contracts to the lowest and 116588 best bidder. 116589

The award for all projects competitively let by the director 116590 under this section shall be made within ten days after the date on 116591 which the bids are opened, and the successful bidder shall enter 116592 into a contract and furnish a contract performance bond and a 116593 payment bond, as provided for in section 5525.16 of the Revised 116594 Code, within ten days after the bidder is notified that the bidder 116595 has been awarded the contract. 116596

The director may insert in any contract awarded under this 116597 chapter a clause providing for value engineering change proposals, 116598 under which a contractor who has been awarded a contract may 116599 propose a change in the plans and specifications of the project 116600 that saves the department time or money on the project without 116601 impairing any of the essential functions and characteristics of 116602 the project such as service life, reliability, economy of 116603 operation, ease of maintenance, safety, and necessary standardized 116604 features. If the director adopts the value engineering proposal, 116605 the savings from the proposal shall be divided between the 116606 department and the contractor according to guidelines established 116607 by the director, provided that the contractor shall receive at 116608 least fifty per cent of the savings from the proposal. The 116609 adoption of a value engineering proposal does not invalidate the 116610 award of the contract or require the director to rebid the 116611 project. 116612

Sec. 5703.37. (A)(1) Except as provided in division (B) of 116613 this section, whenever service of a notice or order is required in 116614 the manner provided in this section, a copy of the notice or order 116615 shall be served upon the person affected thereby either by 116616 personal service, by certified mail, or by a delivery service 116617 authorized under section 5703.056 of the Revised Code that 116618 notifies the tax commissioner of the date of delivery. 116619

(2) In lieu of serving a copy of a notice or order through 116620 one of the means provided in division (A)(1) of this section, the 116621 commissioner may serve a notice or order upon the person affected 116622 thereby through alternative means as provided in this section, 116623 including, but not limited to, delivery by secure electronic mail 116624 as provided in division (F) of this section. Delivery by such 116625 means satisfies the requirements for delivery under this section. 116626

(B)(1)(a) If certified mail is returned because of an 116627 undeliverable address, the commissioner shall first utilize 116628 reasonable means to ascertain a new last known address, including 116629 the use of a change of address service offered by the United 116630 States postal service or an authorized delivery service under 116631 section 5703.056 of the Revised Code. If, after using reasonable 116632 means, the commissioner is unable to ascertain a new last known 116633 address, the assessment is final for purposes of section 131.02 of 116634 the Revised Code sixty days after the notice or order sent by 116635 certified mail is first returned to the commissioner, and the 116636 commissioner shall certify the notice or order, if applicable, to 116637 the attorney general for collection under section 131.02 of the 116638
Revised Code. 116639

(b) Notwithstanding certification to the attorney general 116640 under division (B)(1)(a) of this section, once the commissioner or 116641 attorney general, or the designee of either, makes an initial 116642 contact with the person to whom the notice or order is directed, 116643 the person may protest an assessment by filing a petition for 116644 reassessment within sixty days after the initial contact. The 116645 certification of an assessment under division (B)(1)(a) of this 116646 section is prima-facie evidence that delivery is complete and that 116647 the notice or order is served. 116648

(2) If mailing of a notice or order by certified mail is 116649 returned for some cause other than an undeliverable address or if 116650 a person does not access an electronic notice or order within the 116651 time provided in division (F) of this section, the commissioner 116652 shall resend the notice or order by ordinary mail. The notice or 116653 order shall show the date the commissioner sends the notice or 116654 order and include the following statement: 116655

"This notice or order is deemed to be served on the addressee 116656 under applicable law ten days from the date this notice or order 116657 was mailed by the commissioner as shown on the notice or order, 116658 and all periods within which an appeal may be filed apply from and 116659 after that date." 116660

Unless the mailing is returned because of an undeliverable 116661 address, the mailing of that information is prima-facie evidence 116662 that delivery of the notice or order was completed ten days after 116663 the commissioner sent the notice or order by ordinary mail and 116664 that the notice or order was served. 116665

If the ordinary mail is subsequently returned because of an 116666 undeliverable address, the commissioner shall proceed under 116667 division (B)(1)(a) of this section. A person may challenge the 116668 presumption of delivery and service under this division in 116669 accordance with division (C) of this section. 116670

(C)(1) A person disputing the presumption of delivery and 116671 service under division (B) of this section bears the burden of 116672 proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the address to 116673 which the notice or order was sent was not an address with which 116674 the person was associated at the time the commissioner originally 116675 mailed the notice or order by certified mail. For the purposes of 116676 this section, a person is associated with an address at the time 116677 the commissioner originally mailed the notice or order if, at that 116678 time, the person was residing, receiving legal documents, or 116679 conducting business at the address; or if, before that time, the 116680 person had conducted business at the address and, when the notice 116681 or order was mailed, the person's agent or the person's affiliate 116682 was conducting business at the address. For the purposes of this 116683 section, a person's affiliate is any other person that, at the 116684 time the notice or order was mailed, owned or controlled at least 116685 twenty per cent, as determined by voting rights, of the 116686 addressee's business. 116687

(2) If the person elects to protest an assessment certified 116688 to the attorney general for collection, the person must do so 116689 within sixty days after the attorney general's initial contact 116690 with the person. The attorney general may enter into a compromise 116691 with the person under sections 131.02 and 5703.06 of the Revised 116692 Code if the person does not file a petition for reassessment with 116693
the commissioner. 116694

(D) Nothing in this section prohibits the commissioner or the 116695 commissioner's designee from delivering a notice or order by 116696 personal service. 116697

(E) Collection actions taken pursuant to section 131.02 of 116698 the Revised Code upon any assessment being challenged under 116699 division (B)(1)(b) of this section shall be stayed upon the 116700 pendency of an appeal under this section. If a petition for 116701 reassessment is filed pursuant to this section on a claim that has 116702 been certified to the attorney general for collection, the claim 116703 shall be uncertified. 116704

~~(F)~~(F)(1) The commissioner may serve a notice or order upon 116705 the person affected by the notice or order or that person's 116706 authorized representative through secure electronic means ~~only~~ 116707 ~~with the person's consent~~ associated with the person's or 116708 representative's last known address. The commissioner must inform 116709 the recipient, electronically or by mail, that a notice or order 116710 is available for electronic review and provide instructions to 116711 access and print the notice or order. The types of electronic 116712 notification the commissioner may use include electronic mail, 116713 text message, or any other form of electronic communication. The 116714 recipient's electronic access of the notice or order satisfies the 116715 requirements for delivery under this section. If the recipient 116716 fails to access the notice or order electronically within ten 116717 business days, then the commissioner shall inform the recipient a 116718 second time, electronically or by mail, that a notice or order is 116719 available for electronic review and provide instructions to access 116720 and print the notice or order. If the recipient fails to access 116721 the notice or order electronically within ten business days of the 116722 second notification, the notice or order shall be served upon the 116723 person through the means provided in division (B)(2) of this 116724
section. 116725

(2) The tax commissioner shall establish a system to issue 116726 notification of assessments to taxpayers through secure electronic 116727
means. 116728

(G) As used in this section: 116729

(1) "Last known address" means the address the department has 116730 at the time the document is originally sent by certified mail, or 116731 any address the department can ascertain using reasonable means 116732 such as the use of a change of address service offered by the 116733 United States postal service or an authorized delivery service 116734 under section 5703.056 of the Revised Code. For documents sent by 116735 secure electronic means, "last known address" means an electronic 116736 mode of communication that is identified on a form prescribed by 116737 the commissioner for such purpose or that is associated with the 116738 person or the authorized representative of the person on the Ohio 116739 business gateway, as defined in section 718.01 of the Revised 116740 Code, as of the date the notification was sent. 116741

(2) "Undeliverable address" means an address to which the 116742
United States postal service or an authorized delivery service 116743 under section 5703.056 of the Revised Code is not able to deliver 116744 a notice or order, except when the reason for nondelivery is 116745 because the addressee fails to acknowledge or accept the notice or 116746
order. 116747

Sec. 5709.83. (A) Except as otherwise provided in division 116748
(B) or (C) of this section, prior to taking formal action to adopt 116749 or enter into any instrument granting a tax exemption under 116750
section 725.02, 1728.06, 5709.40, 5709.41, 5709.45, 5709.62, 116751 5709.63, 5709.632, 5709.73, 5709.78, 5709.84, or 5709.88 of the 116752
Revised Code or formally approving an agreement under section 116753 3735.671 of the Revised Code, or prior to forwarding an 116754 application for a tax exemption for residential property under 116755 section 3735.67 of the Revised Code to the county auditor, the 116756 legislative authority of the political subdivision or housing 116757 officer shall notify the board of education of each city, local, 116758 exempted village, or joint vocational school district in which the 116759 proposed tax-exempted property is located. The notice shall 116760 include a copy of the instrument or application. The notice shall 116761 be delivered not later than fourteen days prior to the day the 116762 legislative authority takes formal action to adopt or enter into 116763 the instrument, or not later than fourteen days prior to the day 116764 the housing officer forwards the application to the county 116765 auditor. If the board of education comments on the instrument or 116766 application to the legislative authority or housing officer, the 116767 legislative authority or housing officer shall consider the 116768 comments. If the board of education of the city, local, exempted 116769 village, or joint vocational school district so requests, the 116770 legislative authority or the housing officer shall meet ~~in person~~ 116771 with a representative designated by the board of education to 116772 discuss the terms of the instrument or application. 116773

(B) The notice otherwise required to be provided to boards of 116774 education under division (A) of this section is not required if 116775 the board has adopted a resolution waiving its right to receive 116776 such notices, and that resolution remains in effect. If a board of 116777 education adopts such a resolution, the board shall cause a copy 116778 of the resolution to be certified to the legislative authority. If 116779 the board of education rescinds such a resolution, it shall 116780 certify notice of the rescission to the legislative authority. A 116781 board of education may adopt such a resolution with respect to any 116782 one or more counties, townships, or municipal corporations 116783 situated in whole or in part within the school district. 116784

(C) If a legislative authority is required to provide notice 116785 to a city, local, or exempted village school district of its 116786 intent to adopt or enter into any instrument granting a tax 116787 exemption as required by section 3735.671, 5709.40, 5709.41, 116788 5709.45, 5709.62, 5709.63, 5709.632, 5709.73, or 5709.78 of the 116789
Revised Code, the legislative authority, before adopting a 116790 resolution or ordinance or entering into an agreement under that 116791 section, shall notify the board of education of each joint 116792 vocational school district in which the property to be exempted is 116793 located using the same time requirements for the notice that 116794 applies to notices to city, local, and exempted village school 116795 districts. The content of the notice and procedures for responding 116796 to the notice are the same as required in division (A) of this 116797
section. 116798

Sec. 5736.041. The tax commissioner shall prepare and 116799 maintain a list of suppliers holding a license issued under 116800 section 5736.06 of the Revised Code that has not been revoked or 116801 canceled under section 5736.07 of the Revised Code. The list shall 116802 contain the names and addresses of all such suppliers and each 116803 supplier's account number for the tax imposed under section 116804 5736.02 of the Revised Code. ~~The list shall be open to public~~ 116805 ~~inspection in the office of the commissioner.~~ The commissioner ~~may~~ 116806 shall post the list on the department of taxation's web site. 116807

Sec. 5751.40. (A) As used in this section and division 116808
(F)(2)(z) of section 5751.01 of the Revised Code: 116809

(1) "Qualifying distribution center receipts" means receipts 116810 of a supplier from qualified property that is delivered to a 116811 qualified distribution center, multiplied by a quantity that 116812 equals one minus the Ohio delivery percentage. If the qualified 116813 distribution center is a refining facility, "supplier" includes 116814 all dealers, brokers, processors, sellers, vendors, cosigners, and 116815 distributors of qualified property. 116816

(2) "Qualified property" means tangible personal property 116817 delivered to a qualified distribution center that is shipped to 116818 that qualified distribution center solely for further shipping by 116819 the qualified distribution center to another location in this 116820 state or elsewhere or, in the case of gold, silver, platinum, or 116821 palladium delivered to a refining facility solely for refining to 116822 a grade and fineness acceptable for delivery to a registered 116823 commodities exchange. "Further shipping" includes storing and 116824 repackaging property into smaller or larger bundles, so long as 116825 the property is not subject to further manufacturing or 116826 processing. "Refining" is limited to extracting impurities from 116827 gold, silver, platinum, or palladium through smelting or some 116828 other process at a refining facility. 116829

(3) "Qualified distribution center" means a warehouse, a 116830 facility similar to a warehouse, or a refining facility in this 116831 state that, for the qualifying year, is operated by a person that 116832 is not part of a combined taxpayer group and that has a qualifying 116833 certificate. All warehouses or facilities similar to warehouses 116834 that are operated by persons in the same taxpayer group and that 116835 are located within one mile of each other shall be treated as one 116836 qualified distribution center. All refining facilities that are 116837 operated by persons in the same taxpayer group and that are 116838 located in the same or adjacent counties may be treated as one 116839 qualified distribution center. 116840

(4) "Qualifying year" means the calendar year to which the 116841 qualifying certificate applies. 116842

(5) "Qualifying period" means the period of the first day of 116843
July of the second year preceding the qualifying year through the 116844 thirtieth day of June of the year preceding the qualifying year. 116845

(6) "Qualifying certificate" means the certificate issued by 116846 the tax commissioner after the operator of a distribution center 116847 files an annual application with the commissioner under division 116848
(B) of this section. 116849

(7) "Ohio delivery percentage" means the proportion of the 116850 total property delivered to a destination inside Ohio from the 116851 qualified distribution center during the qualifying period 116852 compared with total deliveries from such distribution center 116853 everywhere during the qualifying period. 116854

(8) "Refining facility" means one or more buildings located 116855 in a county in the Appalachian region of this state as defined by 116856 section 107.21 of the Revised Code and utilized for refining or 116857 smelting gold, silver, platinum, or palladium to a grade and 116858 fineness acceptable for delivery to a registered commodities 116859 exchange. 116860

(9) "Registered commodities exchange" means a board of trade, 116861 such as New York mercantile exchange, inc. or commodity exchange, 116862 inc., designated as a contract market by the commodity futures 116863 trading commission under the "Commodity Exchange Act," 7 U.S.C. 1 116864 et seq., as amended. 116865

(10) "Ineligible operator's supplier tax liability" means an 116866 amount equal to the tax liability of all suppliers of a 116867 distribution center had the distribution center not been issued a 116868 qualifying certificate for the qualifying year. Ineligible 116869 operator's supplier tax liability shall not include interest or 116870 penalties. 116871

(B) For purposes of division (B) of this section, "supplier" 116872 excludes any person that is part of the consolidated elected 116873 taxpayer group, if applicable, of the operator of the qualified 116874 distribution center. 116875

(1) An application for a qualifying certificate to be a 116876 qualified distribution center shall be filed, and an annual fee 116877 paid, for each qualified distribution center on or before the 116878 first day of September before the qualifying year or within 116879 forty-five days after the distribution center opens, whichever is 116880 later. The applicant must substantiate to the commissioner's 116881 satisfaction that, for the qualifying period, all persons 116882 operating the distribution center have more than fifty per cent of 116883 the cost of the qualified property shipped to a location such that 116884 it would be situated outside this state under the provisions of 116885 division (E) of section 5751.033 of the Revised Code. The 116886 applicant must also substantiate that the distribution center 116887 cumulatively had costs from its suppliers equal to or exceeding 116888 five hundred million dollars during the qualifying period. 116889

The commissioner may require an applicant to have an 116890 independent certified public accountant certify that the 116891 calculation of the minimum thresholds required for a qualified 116892 distribution center by the operator of a distribution center has 116893 been made in accordance with generally accepted accounting 116894 principles. The commissioner shall issue or deny the issuance of a 116895 certificate within sixty days after the receipt of the 116896 application. A denial is subject to appeal under section 5717.02 116897 of the Revised Code. If the operator files a timely appeal under 116898 section 5717.02 of the Revised Code, the operator shall be granted 116899 a qualifying certificate effective for the remainder of the 116900 qualifying year or until the appeal is finalized, whichever is 116901 earlier. If the operator does not prevail in the appeal, the 116902 operator shall pay the ineligible operator's supplier tax 116903 liability. 116904

(2) If the distribution center is new and was not open for 116905 the entire qualifying period, the operator of the distribution 116906 center may request that the commissioner grant a qualifying 116907 certificate. If the certificate is granted and it is later 116908 determined that more than fifty per cent of the qualified property 116909 during that year was not shipped to a location such that it would 116910 be situated outside of this state under the provisions of division 116911 (E) of section 5751.033 of the Revised Code or if it is later 116912 determined that the person that operates the distribution center 116913 had average monthly costs from its suppliers of less than forty 116914 million dollars during that year, then the operator of the 116915 distribution center shall pay the ineligible operator's supplier 116916 tax liability. 116917

(3) The commissioner may grant a qualifying certificate to a 116918 distribution center that does not qualify as a qualified 116919 distribution center for an entire qualifying period if the 116920 operator of the distribution center demonstrates that the business 116921 operations of the distribution center have changed or will change 116922 such that the distribution center will qualify as a qualified 116923 distribution center within thirty-six months after the date the 116924 operator first applies for a certificate. If, at the end of that 116925 thirty-six-month period, the business operations of the 116926 distribution center have not changed such that the distribution 116927 center qualifies as a qualified distribution center, the operator 116928 of the distribution center shall pay the ineligible operator's 116929 supplier tax liability for each year that the distribution center 116930 received a certificate but did not qualify as a qualified 116931 distribution center. For each year the distribution center 116932 receives a certificate under division (B)(3) of this section, the 116933 distribution center shall pay all applicable fees required under 116934 this section and shall submit an updated business plan showing the 116935 progress the distribution center made toward qualifying as a 116936 qualified distribution center during the preceding year. 116937

(4) An operator may appeal a determination under division 116938
(B)(2) or (3) of this section that the ineligible operator is 116939 liable for the operator's supplier tax liability as a result of 116940 not qualifying as a qualified distribution center, as provided in 116941
section 5717.02 of the Revised Code. 116942

(C)(1) When filing an application for a qualifying 116943 certificate under division (B)(1) of this section, the operator of 116944 a qualified distribution center also shall provide documentation, 116945 as the commissioner requires, for the commissioner to ascertain 116946 the Ohio delivery percentage. The commissioner, upon issuing the 116947 qualifying certificate, also shall certify the Ohio delivery 116948 percentage. The operator of the qualified distribution center may 116949 appeal the commissioner's certification of the Ohio delivery 116950 percentage in the same manner as an appeal is taken from the 116951 denial of a qualifying certificate under division (B)(1) of this 116952
section. 116953

(2) In the case where the distribution center is new and not 116954 open for the entire qualifying period, the operator shall make a 116955 good faith estimate of an Ohio delivery percentage for use by 116956 suppliers in their reports of taxable gross receipts for the 116957 remainder of the qualifying period. The operator of the facility 116958 shall disclose to the suppliers that such Ohio delivery percentage 116959 is an estimate and is subject to recalculation. By the due date of 116960 the next application for a qualifying certificate, the operator 116961 shall determine the actual Ohio delivery percentage for the 116962 estimated qualifying period and proceed as provided in division 116963 (C)(1) of this section with respect to the calculation and 116964 recalculation of the Ohio delivery percentage. The supplier is 116965 required to file, within sixty days after receiving notice from 116966 the operator of the qualified distribution center, amended reports 116967 certificate of registration in accordance with Chapter 4796. of 118505 the Revised Code to a person if either of the following applies: 118506 certification, or a private certification as described in that 118511 chapter as an environmental health specialist or environmental 118512 not issue that certificate of registration. 118514

Section 130.46. That the existing version of section 4736.14 118515 of the Revised Code that is scheduled to take effect on December 118516 29, 2023, is hereby repealed. 118517

Revised Code that is scheduled to take effect on December 29, 118519 prescribed by Section 1 of S.B. 131 of the 134th General Assembly. 118523

September 30, 2024. 118527

Section 130.49. Section 4736.08 of the Revised Code is 118528 presented in this act as a composite of the section as amended by 118529 both H.B. 442 and H.B. 263 of the 133rd General Assembly. The 118530 General Assembly, applying the principle stated in division (B) of 118531 section 1.52 of the Revised Code that amendments are to be 118532 harmonized if reasonably capable of simultaneous operation, finds 118533 that the composite is the resulting version of the section in 118534 effect prior to the effective date of the section as presented in 118535 this act. 118536

Section 130.50. That the version of section 3701.351 of the 118537 Revised Code that is scheduled to take effect September 30, 2024, 118538 be amended to read as follows: 118539

Sec. 3701.351. (A) The governing body of every hospital shall 118540 set standards and procedures to be applied by the hospital and its 118541 medical staff in considering and acting upon applications for 118542 staff membership or professional privileges. These standards and 118543 procedures shall be available for public inspection. 118544

(B) The governing body of any hospital, in considering and 118545 acting upon applications for staff membership or professional 118546 privileges within the scope of the applicants' respective 118547 licensure, shall not discriminate against a qualified person 118548 solely on the basis of whether that person is licensed to practice 118549 medicine, osteopathic medicine, or podiatry, is licensed to 118550 practice dentistry or psychology, or is licensed to practice 118551 nursing as an advanced practice registered nurse. Staff membership 118552 or professional privileges shall be considered and acted on in 118553 accordance with standards and procedures established under 118554 division (A) of this section. This section does not permit a 118555 psychologist to admit a patient to a hospital in violation of 118556
section 3727.06 of the Revised Code. 118557

(C) The governing body of any hospital that provides 118558 maternity services, in considering and acting upon applications 118559 for clinical privileges, shall not discriminate against a 118560 qualified person solely on the basis that the person is authorized 118561 to practice nurse-midwifery. An application from a certified 118562 nurse-midwife who is not employed by the hospital shall contain 118563 the name of a physician member of the hospital's medical staff who 118564 holds clinical privileges in obstetrics at that hospital and who 118565 has agreed to be the collaborating physician for the applicant in 118566 accordance with section 4723.43 of the Revised Code. 118567

(D) Any person may apply to the court of common pleas for 118568 temporary or permanent injunctions restraining a violation of 118569 division (A), (B), or (C) of this section. This action is an 118570 additional remedy not dependent on the adequacy of the remedy at 118571
law. 118572

(E)(1) If a hospital does not provide or permit the provision 118573 of any diagnostic or treatment service for mental or emotional 118574 disorders or any other service that may be legally performed by a 118575 psychologist licensed under Chapter 4732. of the Revised Code, 118576 this section does not require the hospital to provide or permit 118577 the provision of any such service and the hospital shall be exempt 118578 from requirements of this section pertaining to psychologists. 118579

(2) This section does not impair the right of a hospital to 118580 enter into an employment, personal service, or any other kind of 118581 contract with a licensed psychologist, upon any such terms as the 118582 parties may mutually agree, for the provision of any service that 118583 may be legally performed by a licensed psychologist. 118584

REAL ESTATE SALESPERSON LICENSE GRANTS 119969

Notwithstanding section 4735.06 of the Revised Code, or any 119970 other law to the contrary, the Superintendent of the Division of 119971 Real Estate and Professional Licensing may provide grants, not 119972 exceeding $2,000, to applicants for salesperson licenses to defray 119973 the costs of satisfying the educational requirements of division 119974 (F) of section 4735.09 of the Revised Code. No more than $25,000 119975 shall be granted from the Division of Real Estate Operating Fund 119976 (Fund 5490) in any one fiscal year. 119977

FIRE DEPARTMENT GRANTS 119978

(A) The foregoing appropriation item 800639, Fire Department 119979 Grants, shall be used to make annual grants to the following 119980 eligible recipients: volunteer fire departments, fire departments 119981 that serve one or more small municipalities or small townships, 119982 joint fire districts comprised of fire departments that primarily 119983 serve small municipalities or small townships, local units of 119984 government responsible for such fire departments, and local units 119985 of government responsible for the provision of fire protection 119986 services for small municipalities or small townships. For the 119987 purposes of these grants, a private fire company, as that phrase 119988 is defined in section 9.60 of the Revised Code, that is providing 119989 fire protection services under a contract to a political 119990 subdivision of the state, is an additional eligible recipient for 119991 a training grant. 119992

Eligible recipients that consist of small municipalities or 119993 small townships that all intend to contract with the same fire 119994 department or private fire company for fire protection services 119995 may jointly apply and be considered for a grant. If a joint 119996 applicant is awarded a grant, the State Fire Marshal shall, if 119997 feasible, proportionately award the grant and any equipment 119998 purchased with grant funds to each of the joint applicants based 119999 upon each applicant's contribution to and demonstrated need for 120000 fire protection services. For the purpose of this grant program, 120001 an eligible recipient or any firefighting entity that is 120002 contracted to serve an eligible recipient may only file, be listed 120003 as joint applicant, or be designated as a service provider on one 120004 grant application per fiscal year. 120005

If the grant awarded to joint applicants is an equipment 120006 grant and the equipment to be purchased cannot be readily 120007 distributed or possessed by multiple recipients, each of the joint 120008 applicants shall be awarded by the State Fire Marshal an ownership 120009 interest in the equipment so purchased in proportion to each 120010 applicant's contribution to and demonstrated need for fire 120011 protection services. The joint applicants shall then mutually 120012 agree on how the equipment is to be maintained, operated, stored, 120013 or disposed of. If, for any reason, the joint applicants cannot 120014 agree as to how jointly owned equipment is to be maintained, 120015 operated, stored, or disposed of or any of the joint applicants no 120016 longer maintain a contract with the same fire protection service 120017 provider as the other applicants, then the joint applicants shall, 120018 with the assistance of the State Fire Marshal, mutually agree as 120019 to how the jointly owned equipment is to be maintained, operated, 120020 stored, disposed of, or owned. If the joint applicants cannot 120021 agree how the grant equipment is to be maintained, operated, 120022 stored, disposed of, or owned, the State Fire Marshal may, in its 120023 discretion, require all of the equipment acquired by the joint 120024 applicants with grant funds to be returned to the State Fire 120025 Marshal. The State Fire Marshal may then award the returned 120026 equipment to any eligible recipients. For this paragraph only, an 120027

"equipment grant" also includes a MARCS Grant. 120028

(B) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the grants 120029 shall be used by recipients to purchase firefighting or rescue 120030 equipment or gear or similar items, to provide full or partial 120031 reimbursement for the documented costs of firefighter training, 120032 or, at the discretion of the State Fire Marshal, to cover fire 120033 department costs for providing fire protection services in that 120034 grant recipient's jurisdiction. 120035

(1) Of the foregoing appropriation item 800639, Fire 120036
Department Grants, up to $1,300,000 per fiscal year may be used to 120037 pay for the State Fire Marshal's costs of providing firefighter I 120038 certification classes or other firefighter classes approved by the 120039 State Fire Marshal at no cost to selected students attending the 120040
Ohio Fire Academy or other class providers approved by the State 120041

Fire Marshal. The State Fire Marshal may establish the 120042 qualifications and selection processes for students to attend such 120043 classes by written policy, and such students shall be considered 120044 eligible recipients of fire department grants for the purposes of 120045 this portion of the grant program. 120046

(2) Of the foregoing appropriation item 800639, Fire 120047
Department Grants, up to $4,000,000 in each fiscal year may be 120048 used for MARCS Grants. MARCS Grants may be used for the payment of 120049 user access fees by the eligible recipient to cover costs for 120050 accessing MARCS. 120051

For purposes of this section, a MARCS Grant is a grant for 120052 systems, equipment, or services that are a part of, integrated 120053 into, or otherwise interoperable with the Multi-Agency Radio 120054 Communication System (MARCS) operated by the state. 120055

MARCS Grant awards may be up to $50,000 in each fiscal year 120056 per eligible recipient. Each eligible recipient may apply, as a 120057 separate entity or as a part of a joint application, for only one 120058 MARCS Grant per fiscal year. The State Fire Marshal may give a 120059 preference to MARCS Grants that will enhance the overall 120060 interoperability and effectiveness of emergency communication 120061 networks in the geographic region that includes and that is 120062 adjacent to the applicant. 120063

Eligible recipients that are or were awarded fire department 120064 grants that are not MARCS Grants may also apply for and receive 120065 MARCS Grants in accordance with criteria for the awarding of grant 120066 funds established by the State Fire Marshal. 120067

(3) Grant awards for firefighting or rescue equipment or gear 120068 or for fire department costs of providing fire protection services 120069 shall be up to $15,000 per fiscal year, or up to $25,000 per 120070 fiscal year if an eligible entity serves a jurisdiction in which 120071 the Governor declared a natural disaster during the preceding or 120072 current fiscal year in which the grant was awarded. In addition to 120073 any grant funds awarded for rescue equipment or gear, or for fire 120074 department costs associated with the provision of fire protection 120075 services, an eligible entity may receive a grant for up to $15,000 120076 per fiscal year for full or partial reimbursement of the 120077 documented costs of firefighter training. For each fiscal year, 120078 the State Fire Marshal shall determine the total amounts to be 120079 allocated for each eligible purpose. 120080

(C) The grants shall be administered by the State Fire 120081 Marshal in accordance with rules the State Fire Marshal adopts as 120082 part of the state fire code adopted pursuant to section 3737.82 of 120083 the Revised Code that are necessary for the administration and 120084 operation of the grant program. The rules may further define the 120085 entities eligible to receive grants and establish criteria for the 120086 awarding and expenditure of grant funds, including methods the 120087 State Fire Marshal may use to verify the proper use of grant funds 120088 or to obtain reimbursement for or the return of equipment for 120089 improperly used grant funds. To the extent consistent with this 120090 section and until the rules are updated, the existing rules in the 120091 state fire code adopted pursuant to section 3737.82 of the Revised 120092 Code for fire department grants under this section apply to MARCS 120093 Grants. Any amounts in appropriation item 800639, Fire Department 120094 Grants, in excess of the amount allocated for these grants may be 120095 used for the administration of the grant program. 120096

DIVISION OF MARIJUANA CONTROL 120097

The foregoing appropriation item 800650, Medical Marijuana 120098 Control Program, shall be used by the Department of Commerce to 120099 marijuana control program into the Department. If additional 120102 amounts are available in the Medical Marijuana Control Fund (Fund 120103 5SY0), and additional amounts are necessary to transfer the 120104 program, the Director of Commerce may certify to the Director of 120105 the Office of Budget and Management the amount of additional 120106 appropriation necessary for this purpose. Upon approval by the 120107

(4) "School district responsible for tuition" means a city, exempted village, or local school district that, if tuition payment for a child by a school district is required under law that existed in fiscal year 1998, is the school district required to pay that tuition.

(5) "Residential child" means a child who resides in a participating residential treatment center and who is receiving an educational program under division (B) of this section.

(C) Any school district responsible for tuition for a residential child shall, notwithstanding any conflicting provision of the Revised Code regarding tuition payment, pay tuition for the child for fiscal year 2024 and fiscal year 2025 to the education program provider and in the amount specified in this division. If there is no school district responsible for tuition for a residential child and if the participating residential treatment center to which the child is assigned is located in the city, exempted village, or local school district that, if the child were not a resident of that treatment center, would be the school district where the child is entitled to attend school under sections 3313.64 and 3313.65 of the Revised Code, that school district, notwithstanding any conflicting provision of the Revised Code, shall pay tuition for the child for fiscal year 2024 and fiscal year 2025 under this division unless that school district is providing the educational program to the child under division (B) of this section.

A tuition payment under this division shall be made to the school district, educational service center, or residential treatment facility providing the educational program to the child.

The amount of tuition paid shall be:

(1) The amount of tuition determined for the district under division (A) of section 3317.08 of the Revised Code;

(2) In addition, for any student receiving special education pursuant to an individualized education program as defined in section 3323.01 of the Revised Code, a payment for excess costs. This payment shall equal the actual cost to the school district, educational service center, or residential treatment facility of providing special education and related services to the student pursuant to the student's individualized education program, minus the tuition paid for the child under division (C)(1) of this section.

A school district paying tuition under this division shall not include the child for whom tuition is paid in the district's average daily membership certified under division (A) of section 3317.03 of the Revised Code.

(D) In each of fiscal years 2024 and 2025, the Department of Education shall reimburse, from appropriations made for the purpose, a school district, educational service center, or residential treatment facility, whichever is providing the service, that has demonstrated that it is in compliance with the funding criteria for each served child for whom a school district must pay tuition under division (C) of this section. The amount of the reimbursement shall be the amount appropriated for this 122928 purpose divided by the full-time equivalent number of children for 122929 whom reimbursement is to be made. 122930

(E) Funds provided to a school district, educational service 122931 center, or residential treatment facility under this section shall 122932 be used to supplement, not supplant, funds from other public 122933 sources for which the school district, service center, or 122934 residential treatment facility is entitled or eligible. 122935

(F) The Department of Education shall track the utilization 122936 of funds provided to school districts, educational service 122937 centers, and residential treatment facilities under this section 122938 and monitor the effect of the funding on the educational programs 122939

The Department shall monitor the programs for educational 122941 accountability. 122942

Section 265.540. (A) Notwithstanding anything in the Revised 122943 Code to the contrary, the Superintendent of Public Instruction 122944 shall not establish any new academic distress commissions for the 122945 caused by the declaration of the federal Public Health Emergency 125229 on January 31, 2020, by the U.S. Department of Health and Human 125230 Services, and due to the projected increases in Medicaid per 125231 member costs associated with the federal requirements for 125232 restoring normal operations associated with the Medicaid 125233 continuous coverage provision and a reduction in federal financial 125234 participation outlined in the federal "Consolidated Appropriations 125235 Act, 2023," Pub. L. No. 117-328, and due to historical Joint 125236

Medicaid Oversight Committee (JMOC) exclusions, provider rate 125237

Department of Developmental Disabilities has included funding in 125247 may establish an assisted living memory care service payment rate 125268 for residential care facilities participating in the 125269 Medicaid-funded component of the assisted living program. This 125270 payment rate is based on additional costs that a provider may 125271 incur resulting from serving individuals with dementia and any 125272 other additional factors determined by the Department of Medicaid 125273 and the Department of Aging. The Department of Medicaid and the 125274 Department of Aging may adopt rules to incorporate workforce, 125275 performance, training, and other quality indicators. The per diem 125276 for assisted living memory care service will only be available to 125277 assisted living providers with a direct care staff to resident 125278 programs will expand their ability to serve more drug court 125706 participants as a result of increased access to commercial or 125707 publicly funded health insurance. In order to ensure that funds 125708 appropriated to support the Department's program are used in the 125709 most efficient manner with a goal of enrolling the maximum number 125710 of participants, the Medicaid Director, in collaboration with 125711 major Ohio health care plans, shall develop plans consistent with 125712 this division. There shall be no prior authorizations or step 125713 therapy for program participants to have access to any drug 125714 therapy included in the substance use disorder treatment provided 125715

(2) A rapid conversion to reimbursement for all health care services by the participant's health care plan following approval for coverage of health care benefits;

(D) CALCULATION OF STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FORMULA			127789
ENTITLEMENTS AND ADJUSTMENTS FOR UNIVERSITIES			127790
(1) Of the foregoing appropriation item 235501, State Share			127791
of Instruction, 50 per cent of the appropriation for universities,			127792
as established in division (A)(2) of the section of this act			127793 entitled "STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FOR FISCAL YEARS 2024 AND			127794
2025," in each fiscal year shall be reserved for support of			127795 associate, baccalaureate, master's, and professional level degree			127796 attainment.			127797
The degree attainment funding shall be allocated to			127798 universities in proportion to each campus's share of the total			127799 statewide degrees granted, weighted by the cost of the degree			127800 programs. The degree cost calculations shall include the model			127801 cost weights for the science, technology, engineering,			127802 mathematics, and medicine models as established in division (C) of			127803
this section.			127804
For degrees including credits earned at multiple			127805 institutions, degree attainment funding shall be allocated to			127806 universities in proportion to each campus's share of the			127807 student-specific cost of earned credits for the degree. Each			127808 institution shall receive its prorated share of degree funding for			127809 credits earned at that institution. Cost of credits not earned at			127810
a university main or regional campus shall be credited to the			127811 degree-granting institution for the first degree earned by a			127812 student at each degree level. The cost credited to the			127813 degree-granting institution shall not be eligible for at-risk			127814 weights and shall be limited to 12.5 per cent of the			127815 student-specific degree costs. However, the 12.5 per cent			127816 limitation shall not apply if the student transferred 12 or fewer 127817 credits into the degree granting institution. 127818

In calculating the subsidy entitlements for degree attainment 127819 for universities, the Chancellor shall use the following count of 127820 degrees and degree costs: 127821

(a) The subsidy eligible undergraduate degrees shall be 127822 defined as follows: 127823

(i) The subsidy eligible degrees conferred to students 127824 identified as residents of the state of Ohio in any term of their 127825 studies, as reported through the Higher Education Information 127826 (HEI) system student enrollment file, shall be weighted by a 127827 factor of 1. 127828

(ii) The subsidy eligible degrees conferred to students 127829 identified as out-of-state residents during all terms of their 127830 studies, as reported through the Higher Education Information 127831 (HEI) system student enrollment file, who remain in the state of 127832 Ohio at least one year after graduation, as calculated based on 127833 the three-year average in-state residency rate using the 127834 Unemployment Wage data for out-of-state graduates at each 127835 institution, shall be weighted by a factor of 50 per cent. 127836

(iii) Subsidy eligible associate degrees are defined as those 127837 earned by students attending any state-supported university main 127838 or regional campus. 127839

(b) In calculating each campus's count of degrees, the 127840
Chancellor shall use the three-year average associate, 127841 baccalaureate, master's, and professional degrees awarded for the 127842 most recent completed three-year period that is practicable as 127843 agreed to by the Inter-University Council and the Chancellor. 127844

(i) If a student is awarded an associate degree and, 127845 subsequently, is awarded a baccalaureate degree, the amount funded 127846 for the baccalaureate degree shall be limited to either the 127847 difference in cost between the cost of the baccalaureate degree 127848 and the cost of the associate degree paid previously, or if the 127849 associate degree has a higher cost than the baccalaureate degree, 127850 the cost of the credits earned by the student after the associate 127851 degree was awarded. 127852

(ii) If a student earns an associate degree then, 127853 subsequently, earns a baccalaureate degree, the associate degree 127854 granting institution shall only receive the prorated share of the 127855 baccalaureate degree funding for the credits earned at that 127856 institution after the associate degree is awarded. 127857

(iii) If a student earns more than one degree at the same 127858 institution at the same degree level in the same fiscal year, the 127859 funding for the highest cost degree shall be prorated among 127860 institutions based on where the credits were earned and additional 127861 degrees shall be funded at 25 per cent of the cost of the degrees. 127862

(c) Associate degrees and baccalaureate degrees earned by a 127863 student defined as at-risk based on academic under-preparation, 127864 age, minority status, financial status, or first generation 127865 post-secondary status based on neither parent completing any 127866 education beyond high school, shall be defined as degrees earned 127867 by an at-risk student and shall be weighted by the following: 127868

A student-specific degree completion weight, where the weight 127869 is calculated based on the at-risk factors of the individual 127870 student, determined by calculating the difference between the 127871 percentage of students with each risk factor who earned a degree 127872 and the percentage of non-at-risk students who earned a degree. 127873

(2) Of the foregoing appropriation item 235501, State Share 127874 of Instruction, up to 11.78 per cent of the appropriation for 127875 universities, as established in division (A)(2) of the section of 127876
this act entitled "STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FOR FISCAL YEARS 127877 2024 AND 2025," in each fiscal year shall be reserved for support 127878 of doctoral programs to implement the funding recommendations made 127879 by representatives of the universities. The amount so reserved 127880 shall be referred to as the doctoral set-aside. 127881

In each fiscal year, the doctoral set-aside funding 127882 allocation shall be allocated to universities as follows: 127883

(a) 25 per cent of the doctoral set-aside shall be allocated 127884 to universities in proportion to their share of the statewide 127885 total earnings of each state institution's three-year average 127886 course completions. The subsidy eligible enrollments by model 127887 shall equal only those FTE students who successfully complete the 127888 course as defined and reported through the Higher Education 127889 Information (HEI) system course enrollment file. Course completion 127890 earnings shall be determined by multiplying the amounts listed 127891 above in divisions (B) and (C) of this section by the 127892 subsidy-eligible FTEs for the most recent completed three-year 127893 period that is practicable as agreed to by the Inter-University 127894 Council and the Chancellor for all doctoral enrollments in 127895 graduate-level models. 127896

(b) 50 per cent of the doctoral set-aside shall be allocated 127897 to universities in proportion to each campus's share of the total 127898 statewide doctoral degrees, weighted by the cost of the doctoral 127899 discipline. In calculating each campus's doctoral degrees the 127900 Chancellor shall use the three-year average doctoral degrees 127901 awarded for the most recent completed three-year period that is 127902 practicable as agreed to by the Inter-University Council and the 127903 Chancellor. 127904

(c) 25 per cent of the doctoral set-aside shall be allocated 127905 to universities in proportion to their share of research grant 127906 activity. Funding for this component shall be allocated to 127907 eligible universities in proportion to their share of research 127908 grant activity published by the National Science Foundation. Grant 127909 awards from the Department of Health and Human Services shall be 127910 weighted at 50 per cent. 127911

(3) Of the foregoing appropriation item 235501, State Share 127912 of Instruction, 6.41 per cent of the appropriation for 127913
universities, as established in division (A)(2) of the section of 127914
this act entitled "STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FOR FISCAL YEARS 127915 2024 AND 2025," in each fiscal year shall be reserved for support 127916 of Medical II FTEs. The amount so reserved shall be referred to as 127917 the medical II set-aside. 127918

The medical II set-aside shall be allocated to universities 127919 in proportion to their share of the statewide total of each state 127920 institution's three-year average Medical II FTEs as calculated in 127921 division (A) of this section. 127922

In calculating the core subsidy entitlements for Medical II 127923 models only, students repeating terms may be no more than five per 127924 cent of current year enrollment. 127925

(4) Of the foregoing appropriation item 235501, State Share 127926
of Instruction, 1.48 per cent of the appropriation for 127927 universities, as established in division (A)(2) of the section of 127928
this act entitled "STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FOR FISCAL YEARS 127929 2024 AND 2025," in each fiscal year shall be reserved for support 127930
of Medical I FTEs. The amount so reserved shall be referred to as 127931 the medical I set-aside. 127932

The medical I set-aside shall be allocated to universities in 127933 proportion to their share of the statewide total of each state 127934 institution's three-year average Medical I FTEs as calculated in 127935 division (A) of this section. 127936

(5) In calculating the course completion funding for 127937 universities, the Chancellor shall use the following count of FTE 127938 students: 127939

(a) The subsidy eligible enrollments by model shall equal 127940 only those FTE students who successfully complete the course as 127941 defined and reported through the Higher Education Information 127942 (HEI) system course enrollment file; 127943

(b) Those undergraduate FTE students with successful course 127944 completions, identified in division (D)(5)(a) of this section, 127945 that are defined as at-risk based on academic under-preparation or 127946 financial status shall have their eligible completions weighted by 127947
the following: 127948

(i) Institution-specific course completion indexes, where the 127949 indexes are calculated based upon the number of at-risk students 127950 enrolled during the prior three calendar years; and 127951

(ii) A statewide average at-risk course completion weight 127952 determined for each subsidy model. The statewide average at-risk 127953 course completion weight shall be determined by calculating the 127954 difference between the percentage of traditional students who 127955 complete a course and the percentage of at-risk students who 127956 complete the same course. 127957

(c) The course completion earnings shall be determined by 127958 multiplying the amounts listed above in divisions (B) and (C) of 127959 this section by the subsidy-eligible FTEs for the most recent 127960 completed three-year period that is practicable as agreed to by 127961 the Inter-University Council and the Chancellor for all models 127962 except Medical I and Medical II. 127963

(d) For universities, the Chancellor shall compute the course 127964 completion earnings by dividing the appropriation for 127965 universities, established in division (A)(2) of the section of 127966
this act entitled "STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FOR FISCAL YEARS 127967 2024 AND 2025," less the degree attainment funding as calculated 127968 in division (D)(1) of this section, less the doctoral set-aside, 127969 less the medical I set-aside, and less the medical II set-aside, 127970 by the sum of all campuses' instructional costs as calculated in 127971 division (D)(5) of this section. 127972

(E) CALCULATION OF STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FORMULA	127973
ENTITLEMENTS AND ADJUSTMENTS FOR COMMUNITY COLLEGES	127974
(1) Of the foregoing appropriation item 235501, State Share of Instruction, 50 per cent of the appropriation for state-supported community colleges, state community colleges, and technical colleges as established in division (A)(1) of the section of this act entitled "STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FOR FISCAL YEARS 2024 AND 2025," in each fiscal year shall be reserved for course completion FTEs as aggregated by the subsidy models defined in division (B) of this section.	127975 127976 127977 127978 127979 127980 127981 127982
The course completion funding shall be allocated to campuses in proportion to each campus's share of the total sector's course completions, weighted by the instructional cost of the subsidy models.	127983 127984 127985 127986
To calculate the subsidy entitlements for course completions at community colleges, state community colleges, and technical colleges, the Chancellor shall use the following calculations:	127987 127988 127989
(a) In calculating each campus's count of FTE course completions, the Chancellor shall use a three-year average for course completions for the three-year period ending in the prior year for students identified as residents of the state of Ohio in any term of their studies, as reported through the Higher Education Information (HEI) system student enrollment file.	127990 127991 127992 127993 127994 127995
(b) The subsidy eligible enrollments by model shall equal only those FTE students who successfully complete the course as defined and reported through the Higher Education Information (HEI) system course enrollment file.	127996 127997 127998 127999
(c) Those students with successful course completions, that are defined as access students based on financial status, minority status, age, or academic under-preparation shall have their eligible course completions weighted by a statewide access weight.	128000 128001 128002 128003

The weight given to any student that meets any access factor shall be 15 per cent for all course completions.

(d) The model costs as used in the calculation shall be augmented by the model weights for science, technology, engineering, mathematics, and medicine models as established in division (C) of this section.

(2) Of the foregoing appropriation item 235501, State Share of Instruction, 25 per cent of the appropriation for state-supported community colleges, state community colleges, and technical colleges as established in division (A)(1) of the section of this act entitled "STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FOR FISCAL YEARS 2024 AND 2025," in each fiscal year shall be reserved for colleges in proportion to their share of college student success factors.

Student success factors shall be awarded at the institutional level for each subsidy-eligible student that successfully:

(a) Completes a college-level math course within the first 30 hours of completed coursework.

(b) Completes a college-level English course within the first 30 hours of completed coursework.

(c) Completes 12 semester credit hours of college-level coursework.

(d) Completes 24 semester credit hours of college-level coursework.

(e) Completes 36 semester credit hours of college-level coursework.

(3) Of the foregoing appropriation item 235501, State Share of Instruction, 25 per cent of the appropriation for state-supported community colleges, state community colleges, and technical colleges as established in division (A)(1) of the section of this act entitled "STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FOR 128034 FISCAL YEARS 2024 AND 2025," in each fiscal year shall be reserved 128035 for completion milestones. 128036

Completion milestones shall include baccalaureate degrees, 128037 associate degrees, technical certificates over 30 credit hours as 128038 designated by the Department of Higher Education, and students 128039 transferring to any four-year institution with at least 12 credit 128040 hours of college-level coursework earned at that community 128041 college, state community college, or technical college. 128042

The completion milestone funding shall be allocated to 128043 colleges in proportion to each institution's share of the sector's 128044 total completion milestones, weighted by the instructional cost of 128045 the degree, certificate, or transfer models. Costs for technical 128046 certificates over 30 hours shall be weighted at one-half of the 128047 associate degree model costs and transfers with at least 12 credit 128048 hours of college-level coursework shall be weighted at one-fourth 128049 of the average cost for all associate degree model costs. 128050

(4) To calculate the subsidy entitlements for completions at 128051 community colleges, state community colleges, and technical 128052 colleges, the Chancellor shall use the following calculations: 128053

(a) In calculating each campus's count of completions, the 128054 Chancellor shall use a three-year average for completion 128055 milestones awarded to students identified as subsidy eligible in 128056 any term of their studies, as reported through the Higher 128057 Education Information (HEI) system student enrollment file. 128058

(b) The subsidy eligible completion milestones by model shall 128059 equal only those students who successfully complete a 128060 baccalaureate or an associate degree, or technical certificate 128061 over 30 credit hours, or transfer to any four-year institution 128062 with at least 12 credit hours of college-level coursework as 128063 defined and reported in the Higher Education Information (HEI) 128064 system. Student completions reported in HEI shall have an 128065 accompanying course enrollment record in order to be subsidy 128066 eligible. 128067

(c) Those students with successful completions for 128068 baccalaureate or associate degrees, technical certificates over 30 128069 credit hours, or transfer to any four-year institution with at 128070 least 12 credit hours of college-level coursework, identified in 128071 division (E)(3) of this section, that are defined as access 128072 students based on financial status, minority status, age, or 128073 academic under-preparation shall have their eligible completions 128074 weighted by a statewide access weight. The weight shall be 25 per 128075 cent for students with one access factor, 66 per cent for students 128076 with two access factors, 150 per cent for students with three 128077 access factors, and 200 per cent for students with four access 128078 factors. 128079

(d) For those students who complete more than one completion 128080 milestone, funding for each additional degree or technical 128081 certificate over 30 credit hours designated as such by the 128082 Department of Higher Education shall be funded at 50 per cent of 128083 the model costs as defined in division (E)(3) of this section. 128084

(5) For purposes of the calculations made in division (E) of 128085 this section, the Chancellor shall only include subsidy-eligible 128086 students identified as residents of the state of Ohio in any term 128087 of their studies, as reported through the Higher Education 128088 Information (HEI) system student enrollment file. The Chancellor 128089 shall be prohibited from including nonresident students as 128090 subsidy-eligible except for those students otherwise identified as 128091 subsidy-eligible in division (A)(2) of this section. 128092

(F) CAPITAL COMPONENT DEDUCTION 128093

After all other adjustments have been made, state share of 128094 instruction earnings shall be reduced for each campus by the 128095 amount, if any, by which debt service charged in H.B. 16 of the 128096 126th General Assembly, H.B. 699 of the 126th General Assembly, 128097

H.B. 496 of the 127th General Assembly, and H.B. 562 of the 127th 128098 General Assembly for that campus exceeds that campus's capital 128099 component earnings. The sum of the amounts deducted shall be 128100 transferred to appropriation item 235552, Capital Component, in 128101 each fiscal year. 128102

(G) EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES 128103

Adjustments may be made to the state share of instruction 128104 payments and other subsidies distributed by the Chancellor to 128105 state colleges and universities for exceptional circumstances. No 128106 adjustments for exceptional circumstances may be made without the 128107 recommendation of the Chancellor and the approval of the 128108 Controlling Board. 128109

(H) APPROPRIATION REDUCTIONS TO THE STATE SHARE OF 128110
INSTRUCTION 128111

The standard provisions of the state share of instruction 128112 calculation as described in the preceding sections of temporary 128113 law shall apply to any reductions made to appropriation item 128114 235501, State Share of Instruction, before the Chancellor has 128115 formally approved the final allocation of the state share of 128116 instruction funds for any fiscal year. 128117

Any reductions made to appropriation item 235501, State Share 128118 of Instruction, after the Chancellor has formally approved the 128119 final allocation of the state share of instruction funds for any 128120 fiscal year, shall be uniformly applied to each campus in 128121 proportion to its share of the final allocation. 128122

(I) DISTRIBUTION OF STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION 128123

The state share of instruction payments to the institutions 128124

Higher Education. 128213

(B) In providing instructional and other services to 128214 students, boards of trustees of state institutions of higher 128215 education shall supplement state subsidies with income from 128216 charges to students. Except as otherwise provided in this act, 128217 each board shall establish the fees to be charged to all students, 128218 including an instructional fee for educational and associated 128219 operational support of the institution and a general fee for 128220 noninstructional services, including locally financed student 128221 services facilities used for the benefit of enrolled students. The 128222 instructional fee and the general fee shall encompass all charges 128223 for services assessed uniformly to all enrolled students. Each 128224 board may also establish special purpose fees, service charges, 128225 and fines as required; such special purpose fees and service 128226 charges shall be for services or benefits furnished individual 128227 education shall not authorize a waiver or nonpayment of 128232 instructional fees or general fees for any particular student or 128233 any class of students other than waivers specifically authorized 128234 by law or approved by the Chancellor. This prohibition is not 128235 intended to limit the authority of boards of trustees to provide 128236 for payments to students for services rendered the institution, 128237 nor to prohibit the budgeting of income for staff benefits or for 128238 student assistance in the form of payment of such instructional 128239 and general fees. 128240

Each board may authorize a lower differential tuition rate of 128241

3365. of the Revised Code or equal to rates established pursuant 128244 to an agreement for an alternative payment structure pursuant to 128245 section 3365.07 of the Revised Code for nonpublic and home 128246 schooled students participating in that program that are not 128247 publicly funded. Each board may establish a lower differential 128248 tuition rate for in-state undergraduate instructional fees or 128249 general fees for students enrolled exclusively in online courses, 128250 as well as a lower differential tuition rate for the surcharge for 128251 nonresidents enrolled exclusively in online courses, provided a 128252 surcharge is still assessed. 128253

Each state institution of higher education in its statement 128254 of charges to students shall separately identify the instructional 128255 fee, the general fee, the tuition charge, and the tuition 128256 surcharge. Fee charges to students for instruction shall not be 128257 considered to be a price of service but shall be considered to be 128258 an integral part of the state government financing program in 128259 support of higher educational opportunity for students. 128260

(C) The boards of trustees of state institutions of higher 128261 education shall ensure that faculty members devote a proper and 128262 judicious part of their work week to the actual instruction of 128263 students. Total class credit hours of production per academic term 128264 per full-time faculty member is expected to meet the standards set 128265 forth in the budget data submitted by the Chancellor. 128266

(D) The authority of government vested by law in the boards 128267 of trustees of state institutions of higher education shall in 128268 fact be exercised by those boards. Boards of trustees may consult 128269 extensively with appropriate student and faculty groups. 128270 Administrative decisions about the utilization of available 128271 resources, about organizational structure, about disciplinary 128272 procedure, about the operation and staffing of all auxiliary 128273 facilities, and about administrative personnel shall be the 128274 exclusive prerogative of boards of trustees. Any delegation of 128275 authority by a board of trustees in other areas of responsibility 128276 shall be accompanied by appropriate standards of guidance 128277 concerning expected objectives in the exercise of such delegated 128278 authority and shall be accompanied by periodic review of the 128279 exercise of this delegated authority to the end that the public 128280 interest, in contrast to any institutional or special interest, 128281 shall be served. 128282 programs or to existing providers to serve more eligible children 129863 pursuant to division (E) of this section or for purposes of 129864 program expansion, improvement, or special projects to promote 129865 quality and innovation, including piloting all-day programming. 129866

After setting aside the amounts to make payments due from the 129867 previous fiscal year, in fiscal year 2025, the Department shall 129868 distribute funds first to providers of early childhood education 129869 programs under this section in the previous fiscal year and the 129870 balance to new eligible providers or to existing providers to 129871 serve more eligible children as outlined under division (E) of 129872 this section or for purposes of program expansion, improvement, or 129873 special projects to promote quality and innovation, including 129874 piloting all-day programming. 129875

(E)(1) The Department shall distribute any new or remaining 129876 funding to existing providers of early childhood education 129877 programs or any new eligible providers in an effort to invest in 129878 high quality early childhood programs where there is a need as 129879 determined by the Department. The Department shall distribute the 129880 new or remaining funds to existing providers of early childhood 129881 education programs or any new eligible providers to serve 129882 additional eligible children based on community economic 129883 disadvantage, limited access to high quality preschool or 129884 childcare services, and demonstration of high quality preschool 129885 services. 129886

(2) Awards under divisions (D) and (E) of this section shall 129887 be distributed on a per-pupil basis, and in accordance with 129888 division (I) of this section. The Department may adjust the 129889 per-pupil amount so that the per-pupil amount multiplied by the 129890 number of eligible children enrolled and receiving services on the 129891 first day of December or the business day closest to that date 129892 equals the amount allocated under this section. 129893

(F) Funds awarded under this section must be used to support 129894 expenses directly related to the operation of an early childhood 129895 education program. Costs for developing and administering an early 129896 childhood education program may not exceed fifteen per cent of the 129897 total approved costs of the program. 129898

All providers shall maintain such fiscal control and 129899 accounting procedures as may be necessary to ensure the 129900 disbursement of, and accounting for, these funds. The control of 129901 funds provided in this program, and title to property obtained, 129902 shall be under the authority of the approved provider for purposes 129903 provided in the program unless, as described in division (K) of 129904 this section, the program waives its right for funding or a 129905 program's funding is eliminated or reduced due to its inability to 129906 meet financial or early learning program standards. The approved 129907 provider shall administer and use such property and funds for the 129908 purposes specified. 129909

(G) The Department may examine a provider's financial and 129910 program records. If the financial practices of the program are not 129911 in accordance with standard accounting principles or do not meet 129912 financial standards outlined under division (F) of this section, 129913 or if the program fails to substantially meet the early learning 129914 program standards, meet a quality rating level in the Step Up to 129915 Quality program established pursuant to section 5104.29 of the 129916 Revised Code as prescribed by the Department, or exhibits below 129917 average performance as measured against the standards, the early 129918 childhood education program shall propose and implement a 129919 corrective action plan that has been approved by the Department. 129920
The approved corrective action plan shall be signed by the chief 129921 executive officer and the executive of the official governing body 129922 of the provider. The corrective action plan shall include a 129923 schedule for monitoring by the Department. Such monitoring may 129924 include monthly reports, inspections, a timeline for correction of 129925 deficiencies, and technical assistance to be provided by the 129926 Department or obtained by the early childhood education program. 129927

The Department may withhold funding pending corrective action. If 129928 an early childhood education program fails to satisfactorily 129929 complete a corrective action plan, the Department may deny 129930 expansion funding to the program or withdraw all or part of the 129931 funding to the program and establish a new eligible provider 129932 through a selection process established by the Department. 129933

(H)(1) If the early childhood education program is not highly 129934 rated, as determined by the Director of Children and Youth, under 129935 the Step Up to Quality program established pursuant to section 129936 5104.29 of the Revised Code, the program shall do all of the 129937
following: 129938

(a) Meet teacher qualification requirements prescribed by 129939
section 3301.311 of the Revised Code; 129940

(b) Align curriculum to the early learning content standards 129941 developed by the Department; 129942

(c) Meet any child or program assessment requirements 129943 prescribed by the Department; 129944

(d) Require teachers, except teachers enrolled and working to 129945 obtain a degree pursuant to section 3301.311 of the Revised Code, 129946 to attend a minimum of twenty hours every two years of 129947 professional development as prescribed by the Department; 129948

(e) Document and report child progress as prescribed by the 129949 Department; 129950

(f) Meet and report compliance with the early learning 129951 program standards as prescribed by the Department; 129952

(g) Participate in the Step Up to Quality program established 129953 pursuant to section 5104.29 of the Revised Code. 129954

(2) If the program is highly rated, as determined by the 129955

Director of Children and Youth, under the Step Up to Quality 129956 program established pursuant to section 5104.29 of the Revised 129957 Code, the program shall comply with the requirements of that 129958 program. 129959

(I) Per-pupil funding for programs subject to this section 129960 shall be sufficient to provide eligible children with services for 129961 a standard early childhood schedule which shall be defined in this 129962 section as a minimum of twelve and one-half hours per school week 129963 as defined in section 3313.62 of the Revised Code for the minimum 129964 school year as defined in sections 3313.48, 3313.481, and 3313.482 129965 of the Revised Code. Nothing in this section shall be construed to 129966 prohibit program providers from utilizing other funds to serve 129967 eligible children in programs that exceed the twelve and one-half 129968 hours per week or that exceed the minimum school year. For any 129969 provider for which a standard early childhood education schedule 129970 creates a hardship or for which the provider shows evidence that 129971 the provider is working in collaboration with a preschool special 129972 education program, the provider may submit a waiver to the 129973 Department requesting an alternate schedule. If the Department 129974 approves a waiver for an alternate schedule that provides services 129975 for less time than the standard early childhood education 129976 schedule, the Department may reduce the provider's annual 129977 allocation proportionately. Under no circumstances shall an annual 129978 allocation be increased because of the approval of an alternate 129979 schedule. 129980

(J) Each provider shall develop a sliding fee scale based on 129981 family incomes and shall charge families who earn more than two 129982 hundred per cent of the federal poverty guidelines, as defined in 129983 division (A)(3) of section 5101.46 of the Revised Code, for the 129984 early childhood education program. 129985

The Department shall conduct an annual survey of each 129986 provider to determine whether the provider charges families 129987 tuition or fees, the amount families are charged relative to 129988 family income levels, and the number of families and students 129989 charged tuition and fees for the early childhood program. 129990

(K) If an early childhood education program voluntarily 129991 waives its right for funding, or has its funding eliminated for 129992 not meeting financial standards or the early learning program 129993 standards, the provider shall transfer control of title to 129994 property, equipment, and remaining supplies obtained through the 129995 program to providers designated by the Department and return any 129996 unexpended funds to the Department along with any reports 129997 prescribed by the Department. The funding made available from a 129998 program that waives its right for funding or has its funding 129999 eliminated or reduced may be used by the Department for new grant 130000 awards or expansion grants. The Department may award new grants or 130001 expansion grants to eligible providers who apply. The eligible 130002 providers who apply must do so in accordance with the selection 130003 process established by the Department. 130004

(L) Eligible expenditures for the Early Childhood Education 130005 Program shall be claimed each fiscal year to help meet the state's 130006
TANF maintenance of effort requirement. The Superintendent of 130007 Public Instruction, Director of Children and Youth, and the 130008 Director of Job and Family Services shall enter into an 130009 interagency agreement to carry out the requirements under this 130010 division, which shall include developing reporting guidelines for 130011 these expenditures. 130012

(M)(1) The Department of Children and Youth and the 130013 Department of Job and Family Services shall continue to work 130014 toward establishing the following in common between early 130015 childhood education programs and publicly funded child care: 130016

(a) An application; 130017

(b) Program eligibility; 130018

(c) Funding;	130019

(e) An attendance tracking system.	130021
(2) In accordance with section 5104.34 of the Revised Code,	130022 eligible families may receive publicly funded child care beyond	130023
the standard early childhood schedule defined in division (I) of	130024
this section.	130025
(3) All providers, agencies, and school districts	130026 participating in the early childhood education program or	130027 providing care to eligible families beyond the standard early	130028 childhood schedule shall follow the common policies established	130029
under this section.	130030

appropriation in this act may be used for the purpose of 130338 satisfying judgments, settlements, or administrative awards 130339 ordered or approved by the Court of Claims or by any other court 130340 of competent jurisdiction in connection with civil actions against 130341 authorization includes appropriations from funds into which 130347 proceeds of direct obligations of the state are deposited only to 130348 to the state in any suit against it. 130356

Section 503.30. CAPITAL PROJECT SETTLEMENTS 130357

This section specifies an additional and supplemental 130358 rendered against the state or a state agency, including the 130364 settlement of a claim approved by a court, in an action upon and 130365 arising out of a contractual obligation for the construction or 130366 improvement of a capital facility if the costs under the contract 130367 were payable in whole or in part from a state capital projects 130368 appropriation. In such a case, the Director may either proceed 130369 pursuant to division (C)(4) of section 2743.19 of the Revised Code 130370 or apply to the Controlling Board to increase an appropriation or 130371 create an appropriation out of any unencumbered moneys in the 130372 increase in appropriation or new appropriation approved by the 130375 Controlling Board is hereby appropriated from the applicable 130376 capital projects fund and made available for the payment of the 130377 judgment or settlement. 130378
