the operation of the opioid treatment program component of the 160515 provider's operations; and comply with federal laws and 160516 of common pleas for an order compelling compliance. 160564

(K) The department may refuse to issue, or may withdraw or 160565 revoke, a license to operate an opioid treatment program. A 160566 license may be refused if a community addiction services provider 160567 does not meet the requirements of division (C) of this section. A 160568 license may be withdrawn at any time the department determines 160569 that the provider no longer meets the requirements for receiving 160570 the license. A license may be revoked in accordance with division 160571
(L) of this section. 160572

Once a license is issued under this section, the department 160573 shall not consider the requirement of division (C)(4) of this 160574 section in determining whether to renew, withdraw, or revoke the 160575

in ownership. 160577

(L) If the department finds reasonable cause to believe that 160578 a community addiction services provider licensed under this 160579 any interested party. In conducting hearings, the department has 160587 all the authority and power set forth in division (J) of this 160588 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 160591 the provider shall not be permitted to operate an opioid treatment 160592 program pending the hearing or pending any appeal from an 160593 adjudication made as a result of the hearing. Notwithstanding any 160594 provision of Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to the contrary, a 160595 court shall not stay or suspend any order of revocation issued by 160596 the department under this division pending judicial appeal. 160597

(M) The department shall not revoke a license to operate an 160598 opioid treatment program unless all clients receiving medication 160599 used in medication-assisted treatment from the community addiction 160600 services provider are provided adequate substitute medication or 160601 treatment. For purposes of this division, the department may 160602 transfer the clients to other providers licensed to operate opioid 160603 treatment programs or replace any or all of the administrators and 160604 staff of the provider with representatives of the department who 160605 shall continue on a provisional basis the opioid treatment 160606 component of the provider's operations. 160607

(N) Each time the department receives an application from a 160608 community addiction services provider for a license to operate an 160609 opioid treatment program, issues or refuses to issue a license, or 160610 withdraws or revokes a license, the department shall notify the 160611 board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services of 160612 each alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health service district 160613 in which the provider operates. 160614

(O) Whenever it appears to the department from files, upon 160615 prohibited by section 3719.61 of the Revised Code, or any other 160618 state or federal laws or regulations relating to drug abuse, or 160619 when the department believes it to be in the best interest of the 160620 public and necessary for the protection of the citizens of the 160621 state, the department may request criminal proceedings by laying 160622 before the prosecuting attorney of the proper county any evidence 160623 of criminality which may come to its knowledge. 160624

(P) The department shall maintain a current list of community 160625 addiction services providers licensed by the department under this 160626 section and shall provide a copy of the current list to a judge of 160627 a court of common pleas who requests a copy for the use of the 160628 judge under division (H) of section 2925.03 of the Revised Code. 160629
The list of licensed community addiction services providers shall 160630 department of mental health and addiction services shall determine 160637 whether the location of the proposed program complies with the 160638 requirements of division (C)(4) of section 5119.37 of the Revised 160639 Code by not being located on a parcel of real estate that is 160640 compliance with division (C)(4) of section 5119.37 of the Revised 160647 Code, the department shall issue a declaration stating that the 160648 location is in compliance. The declaration is valid for two years 160649 from the date of issuance. 160650

The department shall provide to the provider either a copy of 160651 the declaration or a notice that the department has determined 160652 that the location is not in compliance with division (C)(4) of 160653
section 5119.37 of the Revised Code. 160654

If, before expiration of the declaration, a community 160655 addiction services provider applies for a license to operate an 160656 opioid treatment program, the department shall not consider the 160657 requirement of division (C)(4) of section 5119.37 of the Revised 160658 Code in determining whether to issue the license. 160659

(B) A community addiction services provider seeking to 160660 relocate an opioid treatment program licensed under section 160661 5119.37 of the Revised Code may apply for and be granted a 160662 declaration under division (A) of this section. If, before 160663 expiration of the declaration, the provider applies for issuance 160664 of a license due to relocation, the department shall not consider 160665 the requirement of division (C)(4) of section 5119.37 of the 160666 Revised Code in determining whether to reissue the license due to 160667 relocation. 160668

construction of industrialized units, the installation of 161527 equipment, and the standards or requirements for materials used in 161528 connection with those buildings. The board shall incorporate those 161529 rules into separate residential and nonresidential building codes. 161530

The standards shall relate to the conservation of energy and the 161531 safety and sanitation of those buildings. 161532

(2) The rules governing nonresidential buildings are the 161533 lawful minimum requirements specified for those buildings and 161534 industrialized units, except that no rule other than as provided 161535 in division (C) of section 3781.108 of the Revised Code that 161536 specifies a higher requirement than is imposed by any section of 161537 the Revised Code is enforceable. The rules governing residential 161538 buildings are uniform requirements for residential buildings in 161539 any area with a building department certified to enforce the state 161540 residential building code. In no case shall any local code or 161541 regulation differ from the state residential building code unless 161542 that code or regulation addresses subject matter not addressed by 161543 the state residential building code or is adopted pursuant to 161544
section 3781.01 of the Revised Code. 161545

(3) The rules adopted pursuant to this section are complete, 161546 lawful alternatives to any requirements specified for buildings or 161547 industrialized units in any section of the Revised Code. Except as 161548 otherwise provided in division (I) of this section, the board 161549 shall, on its own motion or on application made under sections 161550 3781.12 and 3781.13 of the Revised Code, formulate, propose, 161551 adopt, modify, amend, or repeal the rules to the extent necessary 161552 or desirable to effectuate the purposes of sections 3781.06 to 161553
3781.18 of the Revised Code. 161554

(B) The board shall report to the general assembly proposals 161555 for amendments to existing statutes relating to the purposes 161556 declared in section 3781.06 of the Revised Code that public health 161557 and safety and the development of the arts require and shall 161558 recommend any additional legislation to assist in carrying out 161559 fully, in statutory form, the purposes declared in that section. 161560

The board shall prepare and submit to the general assembly a 161561 summary report of the number, nature, and disposition of the 161562 petitions filed under sections 3781.13 and 3781.14 of the Revised 161563
Code. 161564

(C) On its own motion or on application made under sections 161565 3781.12 and 3781.13 of the Revised Code, and after thorough 161566 testing and evaluation, the board shall determine by rule that any 161567 particular fixture, device, material, process of manufacture, 161568 manufactured unit or component, method of manufacture, system, or 161569 method of construction complies with performance standards adopted 161570 pursuant to section 3781.11 of the Revised Code. The board shall 161571 make its determination with regard to adaptability for safe and 161572 sanitary erection, use, or construction, to that described in any 161573 section of the Revised Code, wherever the use of a fixture, 161574 device, material, method of manufacture, system, or method of 161575 construction described in that section of the Revised Code is 161576 permitted by law. The board shall amend or annul any rule or issue 161577 an authorization for the use of a new material or manufactured 161578 unit on any like application. No department, officer, board, or 161579 commission of the state other than the board of building standards 161580 or the board of building appeals shall permit the use of any 161581 fixture, device, material, method of manufacture, newly designed 161582 product, system, or method of construction at variance with what 161583 is described in any rule the board of building standards adopts or 161584 issues or that is authorized by any section of the Revised Code. 161585 Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring approval, 161586 by rule, of plans for an industrialized unit that conforms with 161587 the rules the board of building standards adopts pursuant to 161588
section 3781.11 of the Revised Code. 161589

(D) The board shall recommend rules, codes, and standards to 161590 help carry out the purposes of section 3781.06 of the Revised Code 161591 and to help secure uniformity of state administrative rulings and 161592 local legislation and administrative action to the bureau of 161593 workers' compensation, the director of commerce, any other 161594 department, officer, board, or commission of the state, and to 161595 legislative authorities and building departments of counties, 161596 townships, and municipal corporations, and shall recommend that 161597 they audit those recommended rules, codes, and standards by any 161598 appropriate action that they are allowed pursuant to law or the 161599 constitution. 161600

(E)(1) The board shall certify municipal, township, and 161601 county building departments, the personnel of those building 161602 departments, persons described in division (E)(7) of this section, 161603 and employees of individuals, firms, the state, or corporations 161604 described in division (E)(7) of this section to exercise 161605 enforcement authority, to accept and approve plans and 161606 specifications, and to make inspections, pursuant to sections 161607 3781.03, 3791.04, and 4104.43 of the Revised Code. 161608

(2) The board shall certify departments, personnel, and 161609 persons to enforce the state residential building code, to enforce 161610 the nonresidential building code, or to enforce both the 161611 residential and the nonresidential building codes. Any department, 161612 personnel, or person may enforce only the type of building code 161613 for which certified. 161614

(3) The board shall not require a building department, its 161615 personnel, or any persons that it employs to be certified for 161616 residential building code enforcement if that building department 161617 does not enforce the state residential building code. The board 161618 shall specify, in rules adopted pursuant to Chapter 119. of the 161619 Revised Code, the requirements for certification for residential 161620 and nonresidential building code enforcement, which shall be 161621 consistent with this division. The requirements for residential 161622 and nonresidential certification may differ. Except as otherwise 161623 provided in this division, the requirements shall include, but are 161624 not limited to, the satisfactory completion of an initial 161625 examination and, to remain certified, the completion of a 161626 specified number of hours of continuing building code education 161627 within each three-year period following the date of certification 161628 which shall be not less than thirty hours. The rules shall provide 161629 that continuing education credits and certification issued by the 161630 council of American building officials, national model code 161631 organizations, and agencies or entities the board recognizes are 161632 acceptable for purposes of this division. The rules shall specify 161633 requirements that are consistent with the provisions of section 161634 5903.12 of the Revised Code relating to active duty military 161635 service and are compatible, to the extent possible, with 161636 requirements the council of American building officials and 161637 national model code organizations establish. 161638

(4) The board shall establish and collect a certification and 161639 renewal fee for building department personnel, and persons and 161640 employees of persons, firms, or corporations as described in this 161641 section, who are certified pursuant to this division. 161642

(5) Any individual certified pursuant to this division shall 161643 complete the number of hours of continuing building code education 161644 that the board requires or, for failure to do so, forfeit 161645 certification. 161646

(6) This division does not require or authorize the board to 161647 certify personnel of municipal, township, and county building 161648 departments, and persons and employees of persons, firms, or 161649 corporations as described in this section, whose responsibilities 161650 do not include the exercise of enforcement authority, the approval 161651 of plans and specifications, or making inspections under the state 161652 residential and nonresidential building codes. 161653

(7) Enforcement authority for approval of plans and 161654 specifications and enforcement authority for inspections may be 161655 exercised, and plans and specifications may be approved and 161656 inspections may be made on behalf of a municipal corporation, 161657 township, or county, by any of the following who the board of 161658 building standards certifies: 161659

(a) Officers or employees of the municipal corporation, 161660 township, or county; 161661

(b) Persons, or employees of persons, firms, or corporations, 161662 other services to the municipal corporation, township, or county; 161664

(c) Officers or employees of, and persons under contract 161665 with, a municipal corporation, township, county, health district, 161666 architectural, engineering, or other services; 161668

(d) Officers or employees of the division of industrial 161669 compliance in the department of commerce pursuant to a contract 161670 authorized by division (B) of section 121.083 of the Revised Code. 161671

(8) Municipal, township, and county building departments have 161672 jurisdiction within the meaning of sections 3781.03, 3791.04, and 161673 4104.43 of the Revised Code, only with respect to the types of 161674 buildings and subject matters for which they are certified under 161675
this section. 161676

(9) A certified municipal, township, or county building 161677 department may exercise enforcement authority, accept and approve 161678 plans and specifications, and make inspections pursuant to 161679 sections 3781.03, 3791.04, and 4104.43 of the Revised Code for a 161680 park district created pursuant to Chapter 1545. of the Revised 161681 Code upon the approval, by resolution, of the board of park 161682 commissioners of the park district requesting the department to 161683 exercise that authority and conduct those activities, as 161684
applicable. 161685

(10) Certification shall be granted upon application by the municipal corporation, the board of township trustees, or the board of county commissioners and approval of that application by the board of building standards. The application shall set forth:

(11) The board of building standards shall adopt rules governing all of the following:

161726
161727
161729

161731

The written notice may be by either facsimile transmission, electronic mail, or mail. A failure to comply with this requirement is a violation of section 2921.22 of the Revised Code.

(B) Upon the apprehension of the escaped person, the chief law enforcement officer shall give notice of the apprehension of the escaped person by telephone and in writing to the persons notified under division (A) of this section.

Sec. 1121.38. Within ninety days after the hearing, the superintendent of financial institutions shall render a decision, which shall include findings of fact upon which the decision is predicated, 161931 and shall issue and serve on the bank, trust company, or regulated 161932 person the decision and an order consistent with the decision. 161933 division (B) of this section. Unless a notice of appeal is filed 161935 in a court of common pleas within thirty days after service of the 161936 superintendent's order as provided in division (B) of this 161937 section, and until the record of the administrative hearing has 161938 been filed, the superintendent may, at anytime, upon the notice 161939 and in the manner the superintendent considers proper, modify, 161940 terminate, or set aside the superintendent's order. After filing 161941 the record, the superintendent may modify, terminate, or set aside 161942 the superintendent's order with permission of the court. 161943

(a) A hearing provided for in section 1121.32, 1121.35, or 161944 1121.41 of the Revised Code shall be confidential, unless the 161945 superintendent determines that holding an open hearing would be in 161946 the public interest. Within twenty days after service of the 161947 notice of a hearing, a respondent may file a written request for a 161948 public hearing with the superintendent. A respondent's failure to 161949 file such a request constitutes a waiver of any objections to a 161950 confidential hearing. 161951

(b) A hearing provided for in section 1121.33 of the Revised 161952
Code shall be an open hearing. Within twenty days after service of 161953 the notice of a hearing, a respondent may file a written request 161954 for a confidential hearing with the superintendent. If such a 161955 request is received by the superintendent, the hearing shall be 161956 confidential unless the superintendent determines that holding an 161957 open hearing would be in the public interest. 161958

(2) In the course of, or in connection with, an 161959 administrative hearing governed by this section, the 161960 superintendent, or a person designated by the superintendent to 161961 conduct the hearing, may administer oaths and affirmations, take 161962 or cause depositions to be taken, and issue, revoke, quash, or 161963 modify subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum. At any administrative 161964 hearing required by section 1121.32, 1121.33, 1121.35, or 1121.41 161965 of the Revised Code, the record of which may be the basis of an 161966 appeal to court, a stenographic record of the testimony and other 161967 evidence submitted shall be taken at the expense of the division 161968 of financial institutions. The record shall include all of the 161969 testimony and other evidence, and any rulings on the admissibility 161970 thereof, presented at the hearing. The superintendent may adopt 161971 rules regarding these hearings. The attendance of witnesses and 161972 the production of documents provided for in this section may be 161973 required from any place within or outside the state. A party to a 161974 hearing governed by this section may apply to the court of common 161975 pleas of Franklin county, or the court of common pleas of the 161976 county in which the hearing is being conducted or the witness 161977 resides or carries on business, for enforcement of a subpoena or 161978 subpoena duces tecum issued pursuant to this section, and the 161979 courts have jurisdiction and power to order and require compliance 161980 with the subpoena. Witnesses subpoenaed under this section shall 161981 be paid the fees and mileage provided for under section 119.094 of 161982

the Revised Code. 161983

As used in this division, "stenographic record" means a 161984 record provided by stenographic means or by the use of audio 161985 electronic recording devices, as the division of financial 161986 institutions determines. 161987

(B)(1) A bank, trust company, or regulated person against 161988 whom the superintendent issues an order upon the record of a 161989 hearing under the authority of section 1121.32, 1121.33, 1121.35, 161990 or 1121.41 of the Revised Code may obtain a review of the order by 161991 filing a notice of appeal in the court of common pleas in the 161992 county in which the principal place of business of the bank, trust 161993 company, or regulated person, or residence of the regulated 161994 person, is located, or in the court of common pleas of Franklin 161995 county, within thirty days after the date of service of the 161996 superintendent's order. The clerk of the court shall promptly 161997 transmit a copy of the notice of appeal to the superintendent. 161998 Within thirty days after receiving the notice of appeal, the 161999 superintendent shall file a certified copy of the record of the 162000 administrative hearing with the clerk of the court. In the event 162001 of a private hearing, the record of the administrative hearing 162002 shall be filed under seal with the clerk of the court. Upon the 162003 filing of the notice of appeal, the court has jurisdiction, which 162004 upon the filing of the record of the administrative hearing is 162005 exclusive, to affirm, modify, terminate, or set aside, in whole or 162006 in part, the superintendent's order. 162007

(2) The commencement of proceedings for judicial review 162008 pursuant to division (B) of this section does not, unless 162009 specifically ordered by the court, operate as a stay of any order 162010 issued by the superintendent. If it appears to the court an 162011 unusual hardship to the appellant bank, trust company, or 162012 regulated person will result from the execution of the 162013 superintendent's order pending determination of the appeal, and 162014 the interests of depositors and the public will not be threatened 162015 by a stay of the order, the court may grant a stay and fix its 162016 terms. 162017

(C) The superintendent may, in the sole discretion of the 162018 superintendent, apply to the court of common pleas of the county 162019 in which the principal place of business of the bank, trust 162020
person, is located, or the court of common pleas of Franklin 162022 county, for the enforcement of an effective and outstanding 162023 superintendent's order issued under section 1121.32, 1121.33, 162024 1121.34, 1121.35, or 1121.41 of the Revised Code, and the court 162025 has jurisdiction and power to order and require compliance with 162026 the superintendent's order. In an action by the superintendent 162027 pursuant to this division to enforce an order assessing a civil 162028 penalty issued under section 1121.35 of the Revised Code, the 162029 validity and appropriateness of the civil penalty is not subject 162030 to review. 162031

(D) No court has jurisdiction to affect, by injunction or 162032 otherwise, the issuance or enforcement of an order issued under 162033 section 1121.32, 1121.33, 1121.34, 1121.35, or 1121.41 of the 162034 Revised Code or to review, modify, suspend, terminate, or set 162035 aside an order issued under section 1121.32, 1121.33, 1121.34, 162036 1121.35, or 1121.41 of the Revised Code, except as provided in 162037 this section, in division (G) of section 1121.32 of the Revised 162038 Code for an order issued pursuant to division (C)(3) or (4) of 162039 section 1121.32 of the Revised Code, or in division (A)(3) of 162040 section 1121.34 of the Revised Code for an order issued pursuant 162041 to division (A)(1) of section 1121.34 of the Revised Code. 162042

(E) Nothing in this section or in any other section of the 162043 Revised Code or rules implementing this or any other section of 162044 the Revised Code shall prohibit or limit the superintendent from 162045 doing any of the following: 162046

(1) Issuing orders pursuant to section 1121.32, 1121.33, 162047 1121.34, 1121.35, or 1121.41 of the Revised Code; 162048 provided by law or rule with respect to a bank, trust company, or 162050 regulated person; 162051

(3) Taking any action provided by law or rule with respect to 162052 a bank, trust company, or regulated person, whether alone or in 162053 conjunction with another regulatory agency or authority. 162054

Sec. 1509.031. (A) Notwithstanding any other provision of law 162055 to the contrary and other than a statement of production, the 162056 chief of the division of oil and gas resources management may 162057 require the electronic submission of any application, report, test 162058 result, fee, or document that is required to be submitted under 162059 this chapter. The chief shall require the submission of statements 162060 of production to be made electronically regardless of well type 162061 and the number of wells owned. 162062

(B) For good cause, a person may request to be excluded from 162063 any requirement to make an electronic submission under division 162064
(A) of this section other than the requirement to submit a 162065 statement of production electronically. The chief shall establish 162066 the procedure and form by which a person may request such 162067 exclusion. 162068

in accordance with the guidelines established in "Best Management 162117

(C)(1) Except as provided in division (C)(2) of this section, 162212 the chief shall not issue a permit for at least ten days after the 162213 date of filing of the application for the permit unless, upon 162214 reasonable cause shown, the chief waives that period or a request 162215 for expedited review is filed under this section. However, the 162216 chief shall issue a permit within twenty-one days of the filing of 162217 the application unless the chief denies the application by order. 162218

(2) If the location of a well or proposed well will be or is 162219 within an urbanized area, the chief shall not issue a permit for 162220 at least eighteen days after the date of filing of the application 162221 for the permit unless, upon reasonable cause shown, the chief 162222 review of permit applications, the chief may refuse to accept 162249 requests for expedited review if, in the chief's judgment, the 162250 acceptance of the requests would prevent the issuance, within 162251 twenty-one days of their filing, of permits for which applications 162252 are pending. 162253

(E) A well shall be drilled and operated in accordance with 162254
the plans, sworn statements, and other information submitted in 162255 the approved application. 162256

chief finds that there is a substantial risk that the operation 162258 will result in violations of this chapter or rules adopted under 162259 it that will present an imminent danger to public health or safety 162260 or damage to the environment, provided that where the chief finds 162261 that terms or conditions to the permit can reasonably be expected 162262 to prevent such violations, the chief shall issue the permit 162263 subject to those terms or conditions, including, if applicable, 162264 terms and conditions regarding subjects identified in rules 162265 adopted under section 1509.03 of the Revised Code. The issuance of 162266 a permit shall not be considered an order of the chief. 162267

The chief shall post notice of each permit that has been 162268 approved under this section on the division's web site not later 162269 than two business days after the application for a permit has been 162270 approved. 162271

(G) Each application for a permit required by section 1509.05 162272 of the Revised Code, except an application for a well drilled or 162273

For purposes of calculating fee amounts, populations shall be determined using the most recent federal decennial census.	162287 162288
Each application for the revision or reissuance of a permit shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee of two hundred fifty dollars.	162289 162290 162291
(2) Prior to the issuance of a permit to drill a proposed well, the division shall conduct a review to identify and evaluate	162305 162306

any site-specific terms and conditions that may be attached to the permit if the proposed well will be located in a one-hundred-year floodplain or within the five-year time of travel associated with a public drinking water supply.

(I) A permit shall be issued by the chief in accordance with this chapter. A permit issued under this section for a well that is or is to be located in an urbanized area shall be valid for twelve months, and all other permits issued under this section shall be valid for twenty-four months.

(J) An applicant or a permittee, as applicable, shall submit to the chief an update of the information that is required under division (A)(8)(a) of this section if any of that information changes prior to commencement of production operations.

(K) A permittee or a permittee's authorized representative shall notify an inspector from the division at least twenty-four hours, or another time period agreed to by the chief's authorized representative, prior to the commencement of well pad construction and of drilling, reopening, converting, well stimulation, or plugback operations.

Sec. 1513.071. (A) Simultaneously with the filing of an application for a permit or significant revision of an existing permit under section 1513.07 of the Revised Code, the applicant shall submit to the chief of the division of mineral resources management a copy of the applicant's advertisement of the ownership, precise location, and boundaries of the land to be affected. At the time of submission, the advertisement shall be placed by the applicant in a newspaper of general circulation in the locality of the proposed coal mine at least once a week for four consecutive weeks. The chief shall notify, in each county or part of a county in which a proposed area to be permitted is located, the board of county commissioners, the board of township trustees, the legislative authorities of municipal corporations, 162338 private water companies, regional councils of governments, and the 162339 boards of directors of conservancy districts informing them of the 162340 operator's intention to conduct a coal mining operation on a 162341 particularly described tract of land and indicating the permit 162342 application number and where a copy of the proposed mining and 162343 reclamation plan may be inspected. The chief shall also notify the 162344 planning commissions with jurisdiction over all or part of the 162345 area to be permitted. These agencies, authorities, or companies 162346 may submit written comments on the application with respect to the 162347 effects of the proposed operation on the environment that are 162348 within their area of responsibility in quadruplicate to the chief 162349 within thirty days after notification by the chief of receipt of 162350 the application. The chief shall immediately transmit these 162351 comments to the applicant and make them available to the public at 162352 the same locations at which the mining application is available 162353 for inspection. 162354

(B) A person having an interest that is or may be adversely 162355 affected or the officer or head of any federal, state, or local 162356 governmental agency or authority may file written objections to 162357 the proposed initial or revised application for a coal mining and 162358 reclamation permit with the chief within thirty days after the 162359 last publication of the notice required by division (A) of this 162360 section. The objections shall immediately be transmitted to the 162361 applicant by the chief and shall be made available to the public. 162362
If written objections are filed and an informal conference 162363 requested, the chief or the chief's representative shall then hold 162364 an informal conference on the application for a permit within a 162365 reasonable time in the county where the largest area of the area 162366 to be permitted is located. The date, time, and location of the 162367 informal conference shall be advertised by the chief in a 162368 newspaper of general circulation in the locality at least two 162369 weeks prior to the scheduled conference date. The chief may 162370 arrange with the applicant, upon request by any objecting party, 162371 access to the proposed mining area for the purpose of gathering 162372 information relevant to the proceeding. An electronic ~~or~~ 162373 ~~stenographic~~ record shall be made of the conference proceeding 162374 unless waived by all parties. The record shall be maintained and 162375 shall be accessible to the parties until final release of the 162376 applicant's performance security. If all parties requesting the 162377 informal conference stipulate agreement prior to the requested 162378 informal conference and withdraw their request, the informal 162379

conference need not be held. 162380

Sec. 1513.08. (A) After a coal mining and reclamation permit 162381 application has been approved, the applicant shall file with the 162382 chief of the division of mineral resources management, on a form 162383 prescribed and furnished by the chief, the performance security 162384 required under this section that shall be payable to the state and 162385 conditioned on the faithful performance of all the requirements of 162386 this chapter and rules adopted under it and the terms and 162387 conditions of the permit. 162388

(B) Using the information contained in the permit 162389 application; the requirements contained in the approved permit and 162390 reclamation plan; and, after considering the topography, geology, 162391 hydrology, and revegetation potential of the area of the approved 162392 permit, the probable difficulty of reclamation; the chief shall 162393 determine the estimated cost of reclamation under the initial term 162394 of the permit if the reclamation has to be performed by the 162395 division of mineral resources management in the event of 162396 forfeiture of the performance security by the applicant. The chief 162397 shall send either written notice by certified mail or electronic 162398 notice with acknowledgment of receipt of the amount of the 162399 estimated cost of reclamation ~~by certified mail~~ to the applicant. 162400
The applicant shall send either written notice or electronic 162401 notice with acknowledgment of receipt to the chief indicating the 162402 method by which the applicant will provide the performance security pursuant to division (C) of this section.

(C) The applicant shall provide the performance security in an amount using one of the following:

If a permit is transferred, assigned, or sold, the transferee is not eligible to provide performance security under division (C)(2) of this section if the transferee has not held a permit issued under this chapter for any coal mining and reclamation operation for a period of not less than five years. This restriction applies even if the status or name of the permittee otherwise remains the same after the transfer, assignment, or sale.

In the event of forfeiture of performance security that was 162435 provided in accordance with division (C)(2) of this section, the 162436 difference between the amount of that performance security and the 162437 estimated cost of reclamation as determined by the chief under 162438 division (B) of this section shall be obtained from money in the 162439 reclamation forfeiture fund as needed to complete the reclamation. 162440

The performance security provided under division (C) of this 162441 section for the entire area to be mined under one permit issued 162442 under this chapter shall not be less than ten thousand dollars. 162443

The performance security shall cover areas of land affected 162444 by mining within or immediately adjacent to the permitted area, so 162445 long as the total number of acres does not exceed the number of 162446 acres for which the performance security is provided. However, the 162447 authority for the performance security to cover areas of land 162448 immediately adjacent to the permitted area does not authorize a 162449 permittee to mine areas outside an approved permit area. As 162450 succeeding increments of coal mining and reclamation operations 162451 are to be initiated and conducted within the permit area, the 162452 permittee shall file with the chief additional performance 162453 security to cover the increments in accordance with this section. 162454
If a permittee intends to mine areas outside the approved permit 162455 area, the permittee shall provide additional performance security 162456 in accordance with this section to cover the areas to be mined. 162457

If an applicant or permittee is not eligible to provide 162458 performance security in accordance with division (C)(2) of this 162459 section, the applicant or permittee shall provide performance 162460 security in accordance with division (C)(1) of this section in the 162461 full amount of the estimated cost of reclamation as determined by 162462 the chief for a permitted coal preparation plant or coal refuse 162463 disposal area that is not located within a permitted area of a 162464 mine. If an applicant for a permit for a coal preparation plant or 162465 coal refuse disposal area or a permittee of a permitted coal 162466 preparation plant or coal refuse disposal area that is not located 162467 within a permitted area of a mine has held a permit issued under 162468 this chapter for any coal mining and reclamation operation for a 162469 period of five years or more, the applicant or permittee may 162470 provide performance security for the coal preparation plant or 162471 coal refuse disposal area either in accordance with division 162472 (C)(1) of this section in the full amount of the estimated cost of 162473 reclamation as determined by the chief or in accordance with 162474 division (C)(2) of this section in an amount of twenty-five 162475 hundred dollars per acre of land with reliance on the reclamation 162476 forfeiture fund. If a permittee has previously provided 162477 performance security under division (C)(1) of this section for a 162478 coal preparation plant or coal refuse disposal area that is not 162479 located within a permitted area of a mine and elects to provide 162480

section, the permittee shall submit written notice to the chief 162482 indicating that the permittee elects to provide performance 162483 security in accordance with division (C)(2) of this section. Upon 162484 receipt of such a written notice, the chief shall release to the 162485 permittee the amount of the performance security previously 162486 provided under division (C)(1) of this section that exceeds the 162487 amount of performance security that is required to be provided 162488 under division (C)(2) of this section. 162489

(D) A permittee's liability under the performance security 162490 shall be limited to the obligations established under the permit, 162491 which include completion of the reclamation plan in order to make 162492 the land capable of supporting the postmining land use that was 162493 approved in the permit. The period of liability under the 162494 performance security shall be for the duration of the coal mining 162495 and reclamation operation and for a period coincident with the 162496 operator's responsibility for revegetation requirements under 162497

(E) The amount of the estimated cost of reclamation 162499 determined under division (B) of this section and the amount of a 162500 permittee's performance security provided in accordance with 162501 division (C)(1) of this section shall be adjusted by the chief as 162502 the land that is affected by mining increases or decreases or if 162503 the cost of reclamation increases or decreases. If the performance 162504 security was provided in accordance with division (C)(2) of this 162505 section and the chief has issued a cessation order under division 162506 (D)(2) of section 1513.02 of the Revised Code for failure to abate 162507 a violation of the contemporaneous reclamation requirement under 162508 division (A)(15) of section 1513.16 of the Revised Code, the chief 162509 may require the permittee to increase the amount of performance 162510 security from twenty-five hundred dollars per acre of land to five 162511 thousand dollars per acre of land. 162512

The chief shall notify the permittee, each surety, and any 162513 person who has a property interest in the performance security and 162514 who has requested to be notified of any proposed adjustment to the 162515 performance security. The permittee may request an informal 162516 conference with the chief concerning the proposed adjustment, and 162517 the chief shall provide such an informal conference. 162518

If the chief increases the amount of performance security 162519 under this division, the permittee shall provide additional 162520 performance security in an amount determined by the chief. If the 162521 chief decreases the amount of performance security under this 162522 division, the chief shall determine the amount of the reduction of 162523 the performance security and send either written notice or 162524 electronic notice with acknowledgment of receipt of the amount of 162525 reduction to the permittee. The permittee may reduce the amount of 162526
the performance security in the amount determined by the chief. 162527

(F) A permittee may request a reduction in the amount of the 162528 performance security by submitting to the chief documentation 162529 proving that the amount of the performance security provided by 162530 the permittee exceeds the estimated cost of reclamation if the 162531 reclamation would have to be performed by the division in the 162532 event of forfeiture of the performance security. The chief shall 162533 examine the documentation and determine whether the permittee's 162534 performance security exceeds the estimated cost of reclamation. If 162535 the chief determines that the performance security exceeds that 162536 estimated cost, the chief shall determine the amount of the 162537 reduction of the performance security and send either written 162538 notice or electronic notice with acknowledgment of receipt of the 162539 amount to the permittee. The permittee may reduce the amount of 162540

the performance security in the amount determined by the chief. 162541 Adjustments in the amount of performance security under this 162542 division shall not be considered release of performance security 162543 and are not subject to section 1513.16 of the Revised Code. 162544

(G) If the performance security is a bond, it shall be 162545 executed by the operator and a corporate surety licensed to do 162546 business in this state. If the performance security is a cash 162547 deposit or negotiable certificates of deposit of a bank or savings 162548 and loan association, the bank or savings and loan association 162549 shall be licensed and operating in this state. The cash deposit or 162550 market value of the securities shall be equal to or greater than 162551 the amount of the performance security required under this 162552 section. The chief shall review any documents pertaining to the 162553 performance security and approve or disapprove the documents. The 162554 chief shall notify the applicant of the chief's determination. 162555

(H) If the performance security is a bond, the chief may 162556 accept the bond of the applicant itself without separate surety 162557 when the applicant demonstrates to the satisfaction of the chief 162558 the existence of a suitable agent to receive service of process 162559 and a history of financial solvency and continuous operation 162560 sufficient for authorization to self-insure or bond the amount. 162561

(I) Performance security provided under this section may be 162562 held in trust, provided that the state is the primary beneficiary 162563 of the trust and the custodian of the performance security held in 162564 trust is a bank, trust company, or other financial institution 162565 that is licensed and operating in this state. The chief shall 162566 review the trust document and approve or disapprove the document. 162567

The chief shall notify the applicant of the chief's determination. 162568

(J) If a surety, bank, savings and loan association, trust 162569 company, or other financial institution that holds the performance 162570 security required under this section becomes insolvent, the 162571 permittee shall notify the chief of the insolvency, and the chief 162572 shall order the permittee to submit a plan for replacement 162573 performance security within thirty days after receipt of notice 162574 from the chief. If the permittee provided performance security in 162575 accordance with division (C)(1) of this section, the permittee 162576 shall provide the replacement performance security within ninety 162577 days after receipt of notice from the chief. If the permittee 162578 provided performance security in accordance with division (C)(2) 162579 of this section, the permittee shall provide the replacement 162580 performance security within one year after receipt of notice from 162581 the chief, and, for a period of one year after the permittee's 162582 receipt of notice from the chief or until the permittee provides 162583 the replacement performance security, whichever occurs first, 162584 money in the reclamation forfeiture fund shall be the permittee's 162585 replacement performance security in an amount not to exceed the 162586 estimated cost of reclamation as determined by the chief. 162587

(K) If a permittee provided performance security in 162588 accordance with division (C)(1) of this section, the permittee's 162589 responsibility for repairing material damage and replacement of 162590 water supply resulting from subsidence shall be satisfied by 162591 either of the following: 162592

(1) The purchase prior to mining of a noncancelable 162593 premium-prepaid liability insurance policy in lieu of the 162594 permittee's performance security for subsidence damage. The 162595 insurance policy shall contain terms and conditions that 162596 specifically provide coverage for repairing material damage and 162597 replacement of water supply resulting from subsidence. 162598

(2) The provision of additional performance security in the 162599 amount of the estimated cost to the division of mineral resources 162600 management to repair material damage and replace water supplies 162601 resulting from subsidence until the repair or replacement is 162602 completed. However, if such repair or replacement is completed, or 162603 compensation for structures that have been damaged by subsidence 162604 is provided, by the permittee within ninety days of the occurrence 162605 of the subsidence, additional performance security is not 162606 required. In addition, the chief may extend the ninety-day period 162607 for a period not to exceed one year if the chief determines that 162608 the permittee has demonstrated in writing that subsidence is not 162609 complete and that probable subsidence-related damage likely will 162610 occur and, as a result, the completion of repairs of 162611 subsidence-related material damage to lands or protected 162612 structures or the replacement of water supply within ninety days 162613 of the occurrence of the subsidence would be unreasonable. 162614

(L) If the performance security provided in accordance with 162615 this section exceeds the estimated cost of reclamation, the chief 162616 may authorize the amount of the performance security that exceeds 162617 the estimated cost of reclamation together with any interest or 162618 other earnings on the performance security to be paid to the 162619 permittee. 162620

(M) A permittee that held a valid coal mining and reclamation 162621 permit immediately prior to April 6, 2007, shall provide, not 162622 later than a date established by the chief, performance security 162623 in accordance with division (C)(1) or (2) of this section, rather 162624 than in accordance with the law as it existed prior to that date, 162625 by filing it with the chief on a form that the chief prescribes 162626 and furnishes. Accordingly, for purposes of this section, 162627

"applicant" is deemed to include such a permittee. 162628

(N) As used in this section: 162629

(1) "Affiliate of the applicant" means an entity that has a 162630 parent entity in common with the applicant. 162631

(2) "Owner and controller of the applicant" means a person 162632 that has any relationship with the applicant that gives the person 162633 authority to determine directly or indirectly the manner in which 162634 the applicant conducts coal mining operations. 162635

Sec. 1513.16. (A) Any permit issued under this chapter to 162636 conduct coal mining operations shall require that the operations 162637 meet all applicable performance standards of this chapter and such 162638 other requirements as the chief of the division of mineral 162639 resources management shall adopt by rule. General performance 162640 standards shall apply to all coal mining and reclamation 162641 operations and shall require the operator at a minimum to do all 162642 of the following: 162643

(1) Conduct coal mining operations so as to maximize the 162644 utilization and conservation of the solid fuel resource being 162645 recovered so that re-affecting the land in the future through coal 162646 mining can be minimized; 162647

(2) Restore the land affected to a condition capable of 162648 supporting the uses that it was capable of supporting prior to any 162649 mining, or higher or better uses of which there is reasonable 162650 likelihood, so long as the uses do not present any actual or 162651 probable hazard to public health or safety or pose any actual or 162652 probable threat of diminution or pollution of the waters of the 162653 state, and the permit applicants' declared proposed land uses 162654 following reclamation are not considered to be impractical or 162655 unreasonable, to be inconsistent with applicable land use policies 162656 and plans, to involve unreasonable delay in implementation, or to 162657 violate federal, state, or local law; 162658

(3) Except as provided in division (B) of this section, with 162659 respect to all coal mining operations, backfill, compact where 162660 advisable to ensure stability or to prevent leaching of toxic 162661 materials, and grade in order to restore the approximate original 162662 contour of the land with all highwalls, spoil piles, and 162663 depressions eliminated unless small depressions are needed in 162664 order to retain moisture to assist revegetation or as otherwise 162665 authorized pursuant to this chapter, provided that if the operator 162666 demonstrates that due to volumetric expansion the amount of 162667 overburden and the spoil and waste materials removed in the course 162668 of the mining operation are more than sufficient to restore the 162669 approximate original contour, the operator shall backfill, grade, 162670 and compact the excess overburden and other spoil and waste 162671 materials to attain the lowest grade, but not more than the angle 162672 of repose, and to cover all acid-forming and other toxic materials 162673 in order to achieve an ecologically sound land use compatible with 162674 the surrounding region in accordance with the approved mining 162675 plan. The overburden or spoil shall be shaped and graded in such a 162676 way as to prevent slides, erosion, and water pollution and shall 162677 be revegetated in accordance with this chapter. 162678

(4) Stabilize and protect all surface areas, including spoil 162679 piles affected by the coal mining and reclamation operation, to 162680 control erosion and attendant air and water pollution effectively; 162681

(5) Remove the topsoil from the land in a separate layer, 162682 replace it on the backfill area, or, if not utilized immediately, 162683 segregate it in a separate pile from the spoil, and when the 162684 topsoil is not replaced on a backfill area within a time short 162685 enough to avoid deterioration of the topsoil, maintain a 162686 successful cover by quick-growing plants or other means thereafter 162687 so that the topsoil is preserved from wind and water erosion, 162688 remains free of any contamination by acid or other toxic material, 162689 and is in a usable condition for sustaining vegetation when 162690 restored during reclamation. If the topsoil is of insufficient 162691 quantity or of poor quality for sustaining vegetation or if other 162692 strata can be shown to be more suitable for vegetation 162693 requirements, the operator shall remove, segregate, and preserve 162694 in a like manner such other strata as are best able to support 162695 vegetation. 162696

(6) Restore the topsoil or the best available subsoil that is 162697 best able to support vegetation; 162698

(7) For all prime farmlands as identified in division 162699
(B)(1)(p) of section 1513.07 of the Revised Code to be mined and 162700 reclaimed, perform soil removal, storage, replacement, and 162701 reconstruction in accordance with specifications established by 162702 the secretary of the United States department of agriculture under 162703 the "Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977," 91 Stat. 162704 445, 30 U.S.C.A. 1201. The operator, at a minimum, shall be 162705 required to do all of the following: 162706

(a) Segregate the A horizon of the natural soil, except where 162707 it can be shown that other available soil materials will create a 162708 final soil having a greater productive capacity, and, if not 162709 utilized immediately, stockpile this material separately from the 162710 spoil and provide needed protection from wind and water erosion or 162711 contamination by acid or other toxic material; 162712

(b) Segregate the B horizon of the natural soil, or 162713 underlying C horizons or other strata, or a combination of such 162714 horizons or other strata that are shown to be both texturally and 162715 chemically suitable for plant growth and that can be shown to be 162716 equally or more favorable for plant growth than the B horizon, in 162717 sufficient quantities to create in the regraded final soil a root 162718 zone of comparable depth and quality to that which existed in the 162719 natural soil, and, if not utilized immediately, stockpile this 162720 material separately from the spoil and provide needed protection 162721 from wind and water erosion or contamination by acid or other 162722 toxic material; 162723

(c) Replace and regrade the root zone material described in 162724 division (A)(7)(b) of this section with proper compaction and 162725 uniform depth over the regraded spoil material; 162726

(d) Redistribute and grade in a uniform manner the surface 162727 soil horizon described in division (A)(7)(a) of this section. 162728

(8) Create, if authorized in the approved mining and 162729 reclamation plan and permit, permanent impoundments of water on 162730 mining sites as part of reclamation activities only when it is 162731 adequately demonstrated by the operator that all of the following 162732 conditions will be met: 162733

(a) The size of the impoundment is adequate for its intended 162734 purposes. 162735

(b) The impoundment dam construction will be so designed as 162736 to achieve necessary stability with an adequate margin of safety 162737 compatible with that of structures constructed under the 162738
"Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act," 68 Stat. 666 162739
(1954), 16 U.S.C. 1001, as amended. 162740

(c) The quality of impounded water will be suitable on a 162741 permanent basis for its intended use and discharges from the 162742 impoundment will not degrade the water quality below water quality 162743 standards established pursuant to applicable federal and state law 162744 in the receiving stream. 162745

(d) The level of water will be reasonably stable. 162746

(e) Final grading will provide adequate safety and access for 162747 proposed water users. 162748

(f) The water impoundments will not result in the diminution 162749 of the quality or quantity of water utilized by adjacent or 162750 surrounding landowners for agricultural, industrial, recreational, 162751 or domestic uses. 162752

(9) Conduct any augering operation associated with strip 162753 mining in a manner to maximize recoverability of mineral reserves 162754 remaining after the operation and reclamation are complete and 162755 seal all auger holes with an impervious and noncombustible 162756 material in order to prevent drainage, except where the chief 162757 determines that the resulting impoundment of water in such auger 162758 holes may create a hazard to the environment or the public health 162759 or safety. The chief may prohibit augering if necessary to 162760 maximize the utilization, recoverability, or conservation of the 162761 solid fuel resources or to protect against adverse water quality 162762 impacts. 162763

(10) Minimize the disturbances to the prevailing hydrologic 162764 balance at the mine site and in associated offsite areas and to 162765 the quality and quantity of water in surface and ground water 162766 systems both during and after coal mining operations and during 162767 reclamation by doing all of the following: 162768

(a) Avoiding acid or other toxic mine drainage by such 162769 measures as, but not limited to: 162770

(i) Preventing or removing water from contact with toxic 162771 producing deposits; 162772

(ii) Treating drainage to reduce toxic content that adversely 162773 affects downstream water upon being released to water courses in 162774 accordance with rules adopted by the chief in accordance with 162775
section 1513.02 of the Revised Code; 162776

(iii) Casing, sealing, or otherwise managing boreholes, 162777 shafts, and wells, and keeping acid or other toxic drainage from 162778 entering ground and surface waters. 162779

(b)(i) Conducting coal mining operations so as to prevent, to 162780 the extent possible using the best technology currently available, 162781 additional contributions of suspended solids to streamflow or 162782 runoff outside the permit area, but in no event shall 162783 contributions be in excess of requirements set by applicable state 162784 or federal laws; 162785

(ii) Constructing any siltation structures pursuant to 162786 division (A)(10)(b)(i) of this section prior to commencement of 162787 coal mining operations. The structures shall be certified by 162788 persons approved by the chief to be constructed as designed and as 162789 approved in the reclamation plan. 162790

(c) Cleaning out and removing temporary or large settling 162791 ponds or other siltation structures from drainways after disturbed 162792 areas are revegetated and stabilized, and depositing the silt and 162793 debris at a site and in a manner approved by the chief; 162794

(d) Restoring recharge capacity of the mined area to 162795 approximate premining conditions; 162796

(e) Avoiding channel deepening or enlargement in operations 162797 requiring the discharge of water from mines; 162798

(f) Such other actions as the chief may prescribe. 162799

(11) With respect to surface disposal of mine wastes, 162800 tailings, coal processing wastes, and other wastes in areas other 162801 than the mine working areas or excavations, stabilize all waste 162802 piles in designated areas through construction in compacted 162803 layers, including the use of noncombustible and impervious 162804 materials if necessary, and ensure that the final contour of the 162805 waste pile will be compatible with natural surroundings and that 162806 the site can and will be stabilized and revegetated according to 162807
this chapter; 162808

(12) Refrain from coal mining within five hundred feet of 162809 active and abandoned underground mines in order to prevent 162810 breakthroughs and to protect the health or safety of miners. The 162811 chief shall permit an operator to mine near, through, or partially 162812 through an abandoned underground mine or closer than five hundred feet to an active underground mine if both of the following conditions are met:

(a) The nature, timing, and sequencing of the approximate coincidence of specific strip mine activities with specific underground mine activities are approved by the chief.

(b) The operations will result in improved resource recovery, abatement of water pollution, or elimination of hazards to the health and safety of the public.

(15) Ensure that all reclamation efforts proceed in an environmentally sound manner and as contemporaneously as practicable with the coal mining operations, except that where the applicant proposes to combine strip mining operations with underground mining operations to ensure maximum practical recovery of the mineral resources, the chief may grant a variance for specific areas within the reclamation plan from the requirement that reclamation efforts proceed as contemporaneously as practicable to permit underground mining operations prior to reclamation if:

(a) The chief finds in writing that: 162844

(i) The applicant has presented, as part of the permit 162845 application, specific, feasible plans for the proposed underground 162846 mining operations. 162847

(ii) The proposed underground mining operations are necessary 162848 or desirable to ensure maximum practical recovery of the mineral 162849 resource and will avoid multiple disturbance of the surface. 162850

(iii) The applicant has satisfactorily demonstrated that the 162851 plan for the underground mining operations conforms to 162852 requirements for underground mining in this state and that permits 162853 necessary for the underground mining operations have been issued 162854 by the appropriate authority. 162855

(iv) The areas proposed for the variance have been shown by 162856 the applicant to be necessary for the implementing of the proposed 162857 underground mining operations. 162858

(v) No substantial adverse environmental damage, either 162859 on-site or off-site, will result from the delay in completion of 162860 reclamation as required by this chapter. 162861

(vi) Provisions for the off-site storage of spoil will comply 162862 with division (A)(21) of this section. 162863

(b) The chief has adopted specific rules to govern the 162864 granting of such variances in accordance with this division and 162865 has imposed such additional requirements as the chief considers 162866
necessary. 162867

(c) Variances granted under this division shall be reviewed 162868 by the chief not more than three years from the date of issuance 162869 of the permit. 162870

(d) Liability under the performance security filed by the 162871 applicant with the chief pursuant to section 1513.08 of the 162872 Revised Code shall be for the duration of the underground mining 162873 operations and until the requirements of this section and section 162874 1513.08 of the Revised Code have been fully complied with. 162875

(16) Ensure that the construction, maintenance, and 162876 postmining conditions of access roads into and across the site of 162877 operations will control or prevent erosion and siltation, 162878 pollution of water, and damage to fish or wildlife or their 162879 habitat, or to public or private property; 162880

(17) Refrain from the construction of roads or other access 162881 ways up a stream bed or drainage channel or in such proximity to 162882 the channel as to seriously alter the normal flow of water; 162883

(18) Establish, on the regraded areas and all other lands 162884 affected, a diverse, effective, and permanent vegetative cover of 162885 the same seasonal variety native to the area of land to be 162886 affected and capable of self-regeneration and plant succession at 162887 least equal in extent of cover to the natural vegetation of the 162888 area, except that introduced species may be used in the 162889 revegetation process where desirable and necessary to achieve the 162890 approved postmining land use plan; 162891

(19)(a) Assume the responsibility for successful 162892 revegetation, as required by division (A)(18) of this section, for 162893 a period of five full years after the last year of augmented 162894 seeding, fertilizing, irrigation, or other work in order to ensure 162895 compliance with that division, except that when the chief approves 162896 a long-term intensive agricultural postmining land use, the 162897 applicable five-year period of responsibility for revegetation 162898 shall commence at the date of initial planting for that long-term 162899 intensive agricultural postmining land use, and except that when 162900 the chief issues a written finding approving a long-term intensive 162901 agricultural postmining land use as part of the mining and 162902 reclamation plan, the chief may grant an exception to division 162903
(A)(18) of this section; 162904

(b) On lands eligible for re-mining, assume the responsibility for successful revegetation, as required by division (A)(18) of this section, for a period of two full years after the last year of augmented seeding, fertilizing, irrigation, or other work in order to ensure compliance with that division.

(20) Protect off-site areas from slides or damage occurring during the coal mining and reclamation operations and not deposit spoil material or locate any part of the operations or waste accumulations outside the permit area;

(21) Place all excess spoil material resulting from coal mining and reclamation operations in such a manner that all of the following apply:

(a) Spoil is transported and placed in a controlled manner in position for concurrent compaction and in such a way as to ensure mass stability and to prevent mass movement.

(b) The areas of disposal are within the permit areas for which performance security has been provided. All organic matter shall be removed immediately prior to spoil placement except in the zoned concept method.

(c) Appropriate surface and internal drainage systems and diversion ditches are used so as to prevent spoil erosion and mass movement.

(d) The disposal area does not contain springs, natural watercourses, or wet weather seeps unless lateral drains are constructed from the wet areas to the main underdrains in such a manner that filtration of the water into the spoil pile will be prevented unless the zoned concept method is used.

(e) If placed on a slope, the spoil is placed upon the most moderate slope among those slopes upon which, in the judgment of the chief, the spoil could be placed in compliance with all the requirements of this chapter and is placed, where possible, upon, or above, a natural terrace, bench, or berm if that placement	162936 provides additional stability and prevents mass movement.	162937

(f) Where the toe of the spoil rests on a downslope, a rock	162938 toe buttress of sufficient size to prevent mass movement is	162939 constructed.	162940
(g) The final configuration is compatible with the natural	162941
drainage pattern and surroundings and suitable for intended uses.	162942
(h) Design of the spoil disposal area is certified by a	162943
qualified registered professional engineer in conformance with	162944 professional standards.	162945
(i) All other provisions of this chapter are met.	162946
(22) Meet such other criteria as are necessary to achieve	162947 reclamation in accordance with the purpose of this chapter, taking	162948 into consideration the physical, climatological, and other	162949 characteristics of the site;	162950
(23) To the extent possible, using the best technology	162951
currently available, minimize disturbances and adverse impacts of	162952
the operation on fish, wildlife, and related environmental values,	162953 and achieve enhancement of such resources where practicable;	162954
(24) Provide for an undisturbed natural barrier beginning at	162955
the elevation of the lowest coal seam to be mined and extending	162956 from the outslope for such distance as the chief shall determine	162957 to be retained in place as a barrier to slides and erosion;	162958
(25) Restore on the permit area streams and wetlands affected	162959
by mining operations unless the chief approves restoration off the	162960 permit area without a permit required by section 1513.07 or	162961
1513.074 of the Revised Code, instead of restoration on the permit	162962 area, of a stream or wetland or a portion of a stream or wetland,	162963 provided that the chief first makes all of the following written	162964
determinations:	162965

(a) A hydrologic and engineering assessment of the affected lands, submitted by the operator, demonstrates that restoration on the permit area is not possible.

(b) The proposed mitigation plan under which mitigation activities described in division (A)(25)(c) of this section will be conducted is limited to a stream or wetland, or a portion of a stream or wetland, for which restoration on the permit area is not possible.

(c) Mitigation activities off the permit area, including mitigation banking and payment of in-lieu mitigation fees, will be performed pursuant to a permit issued under sections 401 and 404 of the "Federal Water Pollution Control Act" as defined in section 6111.01 of the Revised Code or an isolated wetland permit issued under Chapter 6111. of the Revised Code or pursuant to a no-cost reclamation contract for the restoration of water resources affected by past mining activities pursuant to section 1513.37 of the Revised Code.

(d) The proposed mitigation plan and mitigation activities comply with the standards established in this section.

If the chief approves restoration off the permit area in accordance with this division, the operator shall complete all mitigation construction or other activities required by the mitigation plan.

Performance security for reclamation activities on the permit area shall be released pursuant to division (F) of this section, except that the release of the remaining portion of performance security under division (F)(3)(c) of this section shall not be approved prior to the construction of required mitigation activities off the permit area.

(B)(1) The chief may permit mining operations for the purposes set forth in division (B)(3) of this section.

(2) When an applicant meets the requirements of divisions 162997
(B)(3) and (4) of this section, a permit without regard to the 162998 requirement to restore to approximate original contour known as 162999 mountain top removal set forth in divisions (A)(3) or (C)(2) and 163000 (3) of this section may be granted for the mining of coal where 163001 the mining operation will remove an entire coal seam or seams 163002 running through the upper fraction of a mountain, ridge, or hill, 163003 except as provided in division (B)(4)(a) of this section, by 163004 removing all of the overburden and creating a level plateau or a 163005 gently rolling contour with no highwalls remaining, and capable of 163006 supporting postmining uses in accordance with this division. 163007

(3) In cases where an industrial, commercial, agricultural, 163008 residential, or public facility use, including recreational 163009 facilities, is proposed for the postmining use of the affected 163010 land, the chief may grant a permit for a mining operation of the 163011 nature described in division (B)(2) of this section when all of 163012
the following apply: 163013

(a) After consultation with the appropriate land use planning 163014 agencies, if any, the proposed postmining land use is considered 163015 to constitute an equal or better economic or public use of the 163016 affected land, as compared with premining use. 163017

(b) The applicant presents specific plans for the proposed 163018 postmining land use and appropriate assurances that the use will 163019 be all of the following: 163020

(i) Compatible with adjacent land uses; 163021

(ii) Obtainable according to data regarding expected need and 163022 market; 163023

(iii) Assured of investment in necessary public facilities; 163024

(iv) Supported by commitments from public agencies where 163025 appropriate; 163026

(v) Practicable with respect to private financial capability	163027
for completion of the proposed use;	163028
(vi) Planned pursuant to a schedule attached to the	163029 reclamation plan so as to integrate the mining operation and	163030 reclamation with the postmining land use;	163031
(vii) Designed by a registered engineer in conformity with	163032
professional standards established to ensure the stability,	163033
drainage, and configuration necessary for the intended use of the	163034
site.	163035
(c) The proposed use is consistent with adjacent land uses	163036
and existing state and local land use plans and programs.	163037
(d) The chief provides the governing body of the unit of	163038
general-purpose local government in which the land is located, and	163039 any state or federal agency that the chief, in the chief's	163040 discretion, determines to have an interest in the proposed use, an	163041 opportunity of not more than sixty days to review and comment on	163042
the proposed use.	163043
(e) All other requirements of this chapter will be met.	163044
(4) In granting a permit pursuant to this division, the chief	163045 shall require that each of the following is met:	163046
(a) The toe of the lowest coal seam and the overburden	163047 associated with it are retained in place as a barrier to slides	163048
and erosion.	163049
(b) The reclaimed area is stable.	163050
(c) The resulting plateau or rolling contour drains inward	163051
from the out slopes except at specified points.	163052
(d) No damage will be done to natural watercourses.	163053
(e) Spoil will be placed on the mountaintop bench as is	163054 necessary to achieve the planned postmining land use, except that	163055
all excess spoil material not retained on the mountaintop bench	163056 shall be placed in accordance with division (A)(21) of this section. 163057 163058

(f) Stability of the spoil retained on the mountaintop bench is ensured and the other requirements of this chapter are met. 163059
163060

(5) The chief shall adopt specific rules to govern the granting of permits in accordance with divisions (B)(1) to (4) of this section and may impose such additional requirements as the chief considers necessary. 163061
163064

163068
163070

(C) All of the following performance standards apply to steep-slope coal mining and are in addition to those general performance standards required by this section, except that this division does not apply to those situations in which an operator is mining on flat or gently rolling terrain on which an occasional steep slope is encountered through which the mining operation is to proceed, leaving a plain or predominantly flat area, or where an operator is in compliance with division (B) of this section: 163071
163078

(1) The operator shall ensure that when performing coal mining on steep slopes, no debris, abandoned or disabled equipment, spoil material, or waste mineral matter is placed on the downslope below the bench or mining cut. Spoil material in excess of that required for the reconstruction of the approximate original contour under division (A)(3) or (C)(2) of this section shall be permanently stored pursuant to division (A)(21) of this section. 163079
163084

(2) The operator shall complete backfilling with spoil 163087 material to cover completely the highwall and return the site to 163088 the approximate original contour, which material will maintain 163089 stability following mining and reclamation. 163090

(3) The operator shall not disturb land above the top of the 163091 highwall unless the chief finds that the disturbance will 163092 facilitate compliance with the environmental protection standards 163093 of this section, except that any such disturbance involving land 163094 above the highwall shall be limited to that amount of land 163095 necessary to facilitate compliance. 163096

(D)(1) The chief may permit variances for the purposes set 163097 forth in division (D)(3) of this section, provided that the 163098 watershed control of the area is improved and that complete 163099 backfilling with spoil material shall be required to cover 163100 completely the highwall, which material will maintain stability 163101 following mining and reclamation. 163102

(2) Where an applicant meets the requirements of divisions 163103
(D)(3) and (4) of this section, a variance from the requirement to 163104 restore to approximate original contour set forth in division 163105 (C)(2) of this section may be granted for the mining of coal when 163106 the owner of the surface knowingly requests in writing, as a part 163107 of the permit application, that such a variance be granted so as 163108 to render the land, after reclamation, suitable for an industrial, 163109 commercial, residential, or public use, including recreational 163110 facilities, in accordance with divisions (D)(3) and (4) of this 163111
section. 163112

(3) A variance pursuant to division (D)(2) of this section 163113 may be granted if: 163114

agencies, if any, the potential use of the affected land is 163116 considered to constitute an equal or better economic or public 163117
use. 163118

(b) The postmining land condition is designed and certified 163119 by a registered professional engineer in conformity with 163120

(c) After approval of the appropriate state environmental 163124 agencies, the watershed of the affected land is considered to be 163125 improved. 163126

(4) In granting a variance pursuant to division (D) of this 163127 section, the chief shall require that only such amount of spoil 163128 will be placed off the mine bench as is necessary to achieve the 163129 planned postmining land use, ensure stability of the spoil 163130 retained on the bench, and meet all other requirements of this 163131 chapter. All spoil placement off the mine bench shall comply with 163132 division (A)(21) of this section. 163133

(5) The chief shall adopt specific rules to govern the 163134 granting of variances under division (D) of this section and may 163135 impose such additional requirements as the chief considers 163136

(6) All variances granted under division (D) of this section 163138 shall be reviewed not more than three years from the date of 163139 issuance of the permit unless the permittee affirmatively 163140 demonstrates that the proposed development is proceeding in 163141 accordance with the terms of the reclamation plan. 163142

(E) The chief shall establish standards and criteria 163143 regulating the design, location, construction, operation, 163144 maintenance, enlargement, modification, removal, and abandonment 163145 of new and existing coal mine waste piles referred to in division 163146
(A)(13) of this section and division (A)(5) of section 1513.35 of 163147 the Revised Code. The standards and criteria shall conform to the 163148 standards and criteria used by the chief of the United States army 163149 corps of engineers to ensure that flood control structures are 163150 safe and effectively perform their intended function. In addition 163151 to engineering and other technical specifications, the standards 163152 and criteria developed pursuant to this division shall include 163153 provisions for review and approval of plans and specifications 163154 prior to construction, enlargement, modification, removal, or 163155 abandonment; performance of periodic inspections during 163156 construction; issuance of certificates of approval upon completion 163157 of construction; performance of periodic safety inspections; and 163158 issuance of notices for required remedial or maintenance work. 163159

(F)(1) The permittee may file a request with the chief for 163160 release of a part of a performance security under division (F)(3) 163161 of this section. Within thirty days after any request for 163162 performance security release under this section has been filed 163163 with the chief, the operator shall submit a copy of an 163164 advertisement placed at least once a week for four successive 163165 weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the locality of the 163166 coal mining operation. The advertisement shall be considered part 163167 of any performance security release application and shall contain 163168 a notification of the precise location of the land affected, the 163169 number of acres, the permit number and the date approved, the 163170 amount of the performance security filed and the portion sought to 163171 be released, the type and appropriate dates of reclamation work 163172 performed, and a description of the results achieved as they 163173 relate to the operator's approved reclamation plan and, if 163174 applicable, the operator's pollution abatement plan. In addition, 163175 as part of any performance security release application, the 163176 applicant shall submit copies of the letters sent to adjoining 163177 property owners, local governmental bodies, planning agencies, and 163178 sewage and water treatment authorities or water companies in the 163179 locality in which the coal mining and reclamation activities took 163180 place, notifying them of the applicant's intention to seek release 163181 from the performance security. 163182

(2) Upon receipt of a copy of the advertisement and request for release of a performance security under division (F)(3)(c) of this section, the chief, within thirty days, shall conduct an inspection and evaluation of the reclamation work involved. The evaluation shall consider, among other things, the degree of difficulty to complete any remaining reclamation, whether pollution of surface and subsurface water is occurring, the probability of continuation or future occurrence of the pollution, and the estimated cost of abating the pollution. The chief shall notify the permittee in writing of the decision to release or not to release all or part of the performance security within sixty days after the filing of the request if no public hearing is held pursuant to division (F)(6) of this section or, if there has been a public hearing held pursuant to division (F)(6) of this section, within thirty days thereafter.

(b) After resoiling and revegetation have been established on the regraded mined lands in accordance with the approved 163215 reclamation plan, the chief shall grant a release in an amount not 163216 exceeding thirty-five per cent of the original performance 163217 security for all or part of the affected area under the permit. 163218 When determining the amount of performance security to be released 163219 after successful revegetation has been established, the chief 163220 shall retain that amount of performance security for the 163221 revegetated area that would be sufficient for a third party to 163222 cover the cost of reestablishing revegetation for the period 163223 specified for operator responsibility in this section for 163224 reestablishing revegetation. No part of the performance security 163225 shall be released under this division so long as the lands to 163226 which the release would be applicable are contributing suspended 163227 solids to streamflow or runoff outside the permit area in excess 163228 of the requirements of this section or until soil productivity for 163229 prime farmlands has returned to equivalent levels of yield as 163230 nonmined land of the same soil type in the surrounding area under 163231 equivalent management practices as determined from the soil survey 163232 performed pursuant to section 1513.07 of the Revised Code. If the 163233 area covered by the performance security is one for which an 163234 authorization was made under division (E)(7) of section 1513.07 of 163235 the Revised Code, no part of the performance security shall be 163236 released under this division until the operator has complied with 163237 the approved pollution abatement plan and all additional 163238 requirements established by the chief in rules adopted under 163239 section 1513.02 of the Revised Code governing coal mining and 163240 reclamation operations on pollution abatement areas. Where a silt 163241 dam is to be retained as a permanent impoundment pursuant to 163242 division (A)(10) of this section, the portion of performance 163243 security may be released under this division so long as provisions 163244 for sound future maintenance by the operator or the landowner have 163245 been made with the chief. 163246

(c) When the operator has completed successfully all coal 163247 mining and reclamation activities, including, if applicable, all 163248 additional requirements established in the pollution abatement 163249 plan approved under division (E)(7) of section 1513.07 of the 163250 Revised Code and all additional requirements established by the 163251 chief in rules adopted under section 1513.02 of the Revised Code 163252 governing coal mining and reclamation operations on pollution 163253 abatement areas, the chief shall release all or any of the 163254 remaining portion of the performance security for all or part of 163255 the affected area under a permit, but not before the expiration of 163256 the period specified for operator responsibility in this section, 163257 except that the chief may adopt rules for a variance to the 163258 operator period of responsibility considering vegetation success 163259 and probability of continued growth and consent of the landowner, 163260 provided that no performance security shall be fully released 163261 until all reclamation requirements of this chapter are fully met. 163262

(4) If the chief disapproves the application for release of 163263 the performance security or portion thereof, the chief shall 163264 notify the permittee, in writing, stating the reasons for 163265 disapproval and recommending corrective actions necessary to 163266 secure the release, and allowing the opportunity for a public 163267 adjudicatory hearing. 163268

(5) When any application for total or partial performance 163269 security release is filed with the chief under this section, the 163270 chief shall notify the municipal corporation in which the coal 163271 mining operation is located by certified mail at least thirty days 163272 prior to the release of all or a portion of the performance 163273 security. 163274

(6) A person with a valid legal interest that might be 163275 adversely affected by release of a performance security under this 163276 section or the responsible officer or head of any federal, state, 163277 or local government agency that has jurisdiction by law or special 163278 expertise with respect to any environmental, social, or economic 163279 impact involved in the operation or is authorized to develop and 163280 enforce environmental standards with respect to such operations 163281 may file written objections to the proposed release from the 163282 performance security with the chief within thirty days after the 163283 last publication of the notice required by division (F)(1) of this 163284 section. If written objections are filed and an informal 163285 conference is requested, the chief shall inform all interested 163286 parties of the time and place of the conference. The date, time, 163287 and location of the informal conference shall be advertised by the 163288 chief in a newspaper of general circulation in the locality of the 163289 coal mining operation proposed for performance security release 163290 for at least once a week for two consecutive weeks. The informal 163291 conference shall be held in the locality of the coal mining 163292 operation proposed for performance security release or in Franklin 163293 county, at the option of the objector, within thirty days after 163294 the request for the conference. An electronic ~~or stenographic~~ 163295 record shall be made of the conference proceeding unless waived by 163296 all parties. The record shall be maintained and shall be 163297 accessible to the parties until final release of the performance 163298 security at issue. In the event all parties requesting the 163299 informal conference stipulate agreement prior to the requested 163300

informal conference and withdraw their request, the informal 163301
conference need not be held. 163302

(7) If an informal conference has been held pursuant to 163303 division (F)(6) of this section, the chief shall issue and furnish 163304 the applicant and persons who participated in the conference with 163305 the written decision regarding the release within sixty days after 163306 the conference. Within thirty days after notification of the final 163307 decision of the chief regarding the performance security release, 163308 the applicant or any person with an interest that is or may be 163309 adversely affected by the decision may appeal the decision to the 163310 reclamation commission pursuant to section 1513.13 of the Revised 163311

(8)(a) If the chief determines that a permittee is responsible for mine drainage that requires water treatment after reclamation is completed under the terms of the permit or that a permittee must provide an alternative water supply after reclamation is completed under the terms of the permit, the permittee shall provide alternative financial security in an amount determined by the chief prior to the release of the remaining portion of performance security under division (F)(3)(c) of this section. The alternative financial security shall be in an amount that is equal to or greater than the present value of the estimated cost over time to develop and implement mine drainage plans and provide water treatment or in an amount that is necessary to provide and maintain an alternative water supply, as applicable. The alternative financial security shall include a contract, trust, or other agreement or mechanism that is enforceable under law to provide long-term water treatment or a long-term alternative water supply, or both. The contract, trust, or other agreement or mechanism included with the alternative financial security may provide for the funding of the alternative financial security incrementally over a period of time, not to exceed five years, with reliance on guarantees or other collateral provided by the permittee and approved by the chief for the balance of the alternative financial security required until the alternative financial security has been fully funded by the permittee.

(b) The chief shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code that are necessary for the administration of division (F)(8)(a) of this section.

(c) If the chief determines that a permittee must provide alternative financial security under division (F)(8)(a) of this section and the performance security for the permit was provided under division (C)(2) of section 1513.08 of the Revised Code, the permittee may fund the alternative financial security 163345 incrementally over a period of time, not to exceed five years, 163346 with reliance on the reclamation forfeiture fund created in 163347 section 1513.18 of the Revised Code for the balance of the 163348 alternative financial security required until the alternative 163349 financial security has been fully funded by the permittee. The 163350 permittee semiannually shall pay to the division of mineral 163351 resources management a fee that is equal to seven and one-half per 163352 cent of the average balance of the alternative financial security 163353 that is being provided by reliance on the reclamation forfeiture 163354 fund over the previous six months. All money received from the fee 163355 shall be credited to the reclamation forfeiture fund. 163356

(9) Final release of the performance security in accordance 163357 with division (F)(3)(c) of this section terminates the 163358 jurisdiction of the chief under this chapter over the reclaimed 163359 site of a surface coal mining and reclamation operation or 163360 applicable portion of an operation. However, the chief shall 163361 reassert jurisdiction over such a site if the release was based on 163362 fraud, collusion, or misrepresentation of a material fact and the 163363 chief, in writing, demonstrates evidence of the fraud, collusion, 163364 or misrepresentation. Any person with an interest that is or may 163365 be adversely affected by the chief's determination may appeal the 163366 determination to the reclamation commission in accordance with 163367

(G) The chief shall adopt rules governing the criteria for 163369 forfeiture of performance security, the method of determining the 163370 forfeited amount, and the procedures to be followed in the event 163371 of forfeiture. Cash received as the result of such forfeiture is 163372 the property of the state. 163373

Sec. 1565.12. When a loss of life is occasioned by accident 163374 in any mine, the operator thereof shall forthwith give notice 163375 thereof to the chief of the division of mineral resources 163376 management, and to the deputy mine inspector in charge of the 163377 district. Such notice shall be given by telephone or ~~telegraph~~ 163378 electronic format. The operator of such mine shall, within 163379 twenty-four hours after such accident causing loss of life, send a 163380 written report of the accident to the chief. Such written report 163381 shall specify the character and cause of the accident, the names 163382 of the persons killed, and the nature of the injuries that caused 163383 death. In the case of injury thereafter resulting in death, the 163384 operator shall send a written notice thereof to the chief, and to 163385 the deputy mine inspector of such district, at such time as such 163386 death comes to the operator's knowledge. 163387

No operator of a mine shall refuse or neglect to comply with 163388
this section. 163389

Sec. 1571.05. (A) Whenever any part of a gas storage 163390 reservoir or any part of its protective area underlies any part of 163391 a coal mine, or is, or within nine months is expected or intended 163392 to be, within two thousand linear feet of the boundary of a coal 163393 mine that is operating in a coal seam any part of which extends 163394 over any part of the storage reservoir or its protective area, the 163395 operator of the reservoir, if the reservoir operator or some other 163396 reservoir operator has not theretofore done so, shall: 163397

(1) Use every known method that is reasonable under the 163398 circumstance for discovering and locating all wells drilled within 163399 the area of the reservoir or its protective area that underlie any 163400 part of the coal mine or its protective area; 163401

(2) Plug or recondition all known wells drilled within the 163402 area of the reservoir or its protective area that underlie any 163403 part of the coal mine. 163404

(B) Whenever an operator of a gas storage reservoir is 163405 notified by the operator of a coal mine, as provided in division 163406

(B) of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code, that the coal mine operator believes that part of the boundary of the mine is within two thousand linear feet of a well that is drilled through the horizon of the coal mine and into or through the storage stratum or strata of the reservoir within the boundary of the reservoir or within its protective area, the reservoir operator shall plug or recondition the well as in this section prescribed, unless it is agreed in a conference or is ordered by the chief of the division of oil and gas resources management after a hearing, as provided in section 1571.10 of the Revised Code, that the well referred to in the notice is not such a well as is described in division (B) of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code.

Whenever the operator of a coal mine considers that the use of a well such as in this section described, if used for injecting gas into, or storing gas in, or removing gas from, a gas storage reservoir, would be hazardous to the safety of persons or property on or in the vicinity of the premises of the coal mine or the reservoir or well, the coal mine operator may file with the division objections to the use of the well for such purposes, and a request that a conference be held as provided in section 1571.10 of the Revised Code, to discuss and endeavor to resolve by mutual agreement whether or not the well shall or shall not be used for such purposes, and whether or not the well shall be reconditioned, inactivated, or plugged. The request shall set forth the mine operator's reasons for such objections. If no approved agreement is reached in the conference, the gas storage well inspector shall within ten days after the termination of the conference, file with the chief a request that the chief hear and determine the matters considered at the conference as provided in section 1571.10 of the Revised Code. Upon conclusion of the hearing, the chief shall find and determine whether or not the safety of persons or of the property on or in the vicinity of the premises of the coal mine, or the reservoir, or the well requires that the well be reconditioned, inactivated, or plugged, and shall make an order consistent with that determination, provided that the chief shall not order a well plugged unless the chief first finds that there is underground leakage of gas therefrom.

The plugging or reconditioning of each well described in a notice from a coal mine operator to a reservoir operator as provided in division (B) of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code, which must be plugged or reconditioned, shall be completed within such time as the gas storage well inspector may fix in the case of each such well. The plugging or reconditioning of each well described in a notice from a coal mine operator to a reservoir operator as provided in division (C) of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code, which must be plugged or reconditioned, shall be completed by the time the well, by reason of the extension of the boundary of the coal mine, is within two thousand linear feet of any part of the boundary of the mine. The plugging or reconditioning of each well described in a notice from a coal mine operator to a reservoir operator, as provided in division (D) of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code, which must be plugged or reconditioned, shall be completed by the time the well, by reason of the opening of the new mine, is within two thousand linear feet of any part of the boundary of the new mine. A reservoir operator who is required to complete the plugging or reconditioning of a well within a period of time fixed as in this division prescribed, 163472 may prior to the end of that period of time, notify the division 163473 and the mine operator from whom the reservoir operator received a 163474 notice as provided in division (B), (C), or (D) of section 1571.03 163475 of the Revised Code, in writing by ~~registered~~ certified mail or 163476 electronic format, that the completion of the plugging or 163477 reconditioning of the well referred to in the notice will be 163478 delayed beyond the end of the period of time fixed therefor as in 163479 this section provided, and that the reservoir operator requests 163480 that a conference be held for the purpose of endeavoring to reach 163481 an agreement establishing a date subsequent to the end of that 163482 period of time, on or before which the reservoir operator may 163483 complete the plugging or reconditioning without incurring any 163484 penalties for failure to do so as provided in this chapter. If 163485 such a reservoir operator sends to such a mine operator and to the 163486 division a notice and request for a conference as in this division 163487 provided, the reservoir operator shall not incur any penalties for 163488 failure to complete the plugging or reconditioning of the well 163489 within the period of time fixed as in this division prescribed, 163490 unless the reservoir operator fails to complete the plugging or 163491 reconditioning of the well within the period of time fixed by an 163492 approved agreement reached in the conference, or fixed by an order 163493 by the chief upon a hearing held in the matter in the event of 163494 failure to reach an approved agreement in the conference. 163495

Whenever, in compliance with this division, a well is to be 163496 plugged by a reservoir operator, the operator shall give to the 163497 division notice thereof, as many days in advance as will be 163498 necessary for the gas storage well inspector or a deputy mine 163499 inspector to be present at the plugging. The notification shall be 163500 made on blanks furnished by the division and shall show the 163501 following information: 163502

(1) Name and address of the applicant; 163503

(2) The location of the well identified by section or lot number, city or village, and township and county; 163504

(3) The well name and number of each well to be plugged. 163506

163510
163511
163513
163514
163515
163516
163517
163519

If the reservoir operator plugs the well without the gas storage well inspector or a deputy mine inspector being present to supervise the plugging, the reservoir operator shall send to the division and to the coal mine operator a copy of the report of the plugging of the well, including in the report: 163520

(1) The date of abandonment; 163525

(2) The name of the owner or operator of the well at the time of abandonment and the well owner's or operator's post office address; 163526
163528

(3) The location of the well as to township and county and the name of the owner of the surface upon which the well is drilled, with the address thereof; 163529

(4) The date of the permit to drill; 163532

(5) The date when drilled; 163533

(6) Whether the well has been mapped;	163534
(7) The depth of the well;	163535
(8) The depth of the top of the sand to which the well was drilled;	163536 163537
(9) The depth of each seam of coal drilled through;	163538
(10) A detailed report as to how the well was plugged, giving in particular the manner in which the coal and various sands were plugged, and the date of the plugging of the well, including therein the names of those who witnessed the plugging of the well.	163539 163540 163541 163542
The report shall be signed by the operator or the operator's agent who plugged the well and verified by the oath of the party so signing. For the purposes of this section, a deputy mine inspector may take acknowledgements and administer oaths to the parties signing the report.	163543 163544 163545 163546 163547
Whenever, in compliance with this division, a well is to be reconditioned by a reservoir operator, the operator shall give to the division notice thereof as many days before the reconditioning is begun as will be necessary for the gas storage well inspector, or a deputy mine inspector, to be present at the reconditioning. No well shall be reconditioned if an inspector of the division is not present unless permission to do so has been granted by the chief. The reservoir operator, at the time of giving notice to the division as in this section required, also shall send a copy of the notice by registered certified mail or electronic format to the coal mine operator, if any, who sent to the reservoir operator the notice as provided in division (B), (C), or (D) of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code, in order that the coal mine operator or the coal mine operator's designated representative may attend and observe the manner in which the reconditioning of the well is done.	163548 163549 163550 163551 163552 163553 163554 163555 163556 163557 163558 163559 163560 163561 163562 163563
If the reservoir operator reconditions the well when the gas	163564 storage well inspector or a deputy mine inspector is not present 163565 to supervise the reconditioning, the reservoir operator shall make 163566 written report to the division describing the manner in which the 163567 reconditioning was done, and shall send to the coal mine operator 163568 a copy of the report by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic 163569 format. 163570

(D) Wells that are required by this section to be plugged 163571 shall be plugged in the manner specified in sections 1509.13 to 163572 1509.17 of the Revised Code, and the operator shall give the 163573 notifications and reports required by divisions (B) and (C) of 163574 this section. No such well shall be plugged or abandoned without 163575 the written approval of the division, and no such well shall be 163576 mudded, plugged, or abandoned without the gas storage well 163577 inspector or a deputy mine inspector present unless written 163578 permission has been granted by the chief or the gas storage well 163579 inspector. For purposes of this section, the chief of the division 163580 of mineral resources management has the authority given the chief 163581 of the division of oil and gas resources management in sections 163582 1509.15 and 1509.17 of the Revised Code. If such a well has been 163583 plugged prior to the time plugging thereof is required by this 163584 section, and, on the basis of the data, information, and other 163585 evidence available it is determined that the plugging was done in 163586 the manner required by this section, or was done in accordance 163587 with statutes prescribing the manner of plugging wells in effect 163588 at the time the plugging was done, and that there is no evidence 163589 of leakage of gas from the well either at or below the surface, 163590 and that the plugging is sufficiently effective to prevent the 163591 leakage of gas from the well, the obligations imposed upon the 163592 reservoir operator by this section as to plugging the well shall 163593 be considered fully satisfied. The operator of a coal mine any 163594 part of the boundary of which is, or within nine months is 163595 expected or intended to be, within two thousand linear feet of the 163596 well may at any time raise a question as to whether the plugging 163597 of the well is sufficiently effective to prevent the leakage of 163598 gas therefrom, and the issue so made shall be determined by a 163599 conference or hearing as provided in section 1571.10 of the 163600

Revised Code. 163601

(E) Wells that are to be reconditioned as required by this 163602 section shall be, or shall be made to be: 163603

(1) Cased in accordance with the statutes of this state in 163604 effect at the time the wells were drilled, with the casing being, 163605 or made to be, sufficiently effective in that there is no evidence 163606 of any leakage of gas therefrom; 163607

(2) Equipped with a producing string and well head composed 163608 of new pipe, or pipe as good as new, and fittings designed to 163609 operate with safety and to contain the stored gas at maximum 163610 pressures contemplated. 163611

When a well that is to be reconditioned as required by this 163612 section has been reconditioned for use in the operation of the 163613 reservoir prior to the time prescribed in this section, and on the 163614 basis of the data, information, and other evidence available it is 163615 determined that at the time the well was so reconditioned the 163616 requirements prescribed in this division were met, and that there 163617 is no evidence of underground leakage of gas from the well, and 163618 that the reconditioning is sufficiently effective to prevent 163619 underground leakage from the well, the obligations imposed upon 163620 the reservoir operator by this section as to reconditioning the 163621 well shall be considered fully satisfied. Any operator of a coal 163622 mine any part of the boundary of which is, or within nine months 163623 is expected or intended to be, within two thousand linear feet of 163624 the well may at any time raise a question as to whether the 163625 reconditioning of the well is sufficiently effective to prevent 163626 underground leakage of gas therefrom, and the issue so made shall 163627 be determined by a conference or hearing as provided in section 163628

If the gas storage well inspector at any time finds that a well that is drilled through the horizon of a coal mine and into or through the storage stratum or strata of a reservoir within the boundary of the reservoir or within its protective area is located within the boundary of the coal mine or within two thousand linear feet of the mine boundary, and was drilled prior to the time the statutes of this state required that wells be cased, and that the well fails to meet the casing and equipping requirements prescribed in this division, the gas storage well inspector shall promptly notify the operator of the reservoir thereof in writing, and the reservoir operator upon receipt of the notice shall promptly recondition the well in the manner prescribed in this division for reconditioning wells, unless, in a conference or hearing as provided in section 1571.10 of the Revised Code, a different course of action is agreed upon or ordered.

(F)(1) When a well within the boundary of a gas storage reservoir or within the reservoir's protective area penetrates the storage stratum or strata of the reservoir, but does not penetrate the coal seam within the boundary of a coal mine, the gas storage well inspector may, upon application of the operator of the storage reservoir, exempt the well from the requirements of this section. Either party affected by the action of the gas storage well inspector may request a conference and hearing with respect to the exemption.

(2) When a well located within the boundary of a storage reservoir or a reservoir's protective area is a producing well in a stratum above or below the storage stratum, the obligations imposed by this section shall not begin until the well ceases to be a producing well.

(G) When retreat mining reaches a point in a coal mine when the operator of the mine expects that within ninety days retreat work will be at the location of a pillar surrounding an active storage reservoir well, the operator of the mine shall promptly 163662 send by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic format notice to 163663 that effect to the operator of the reservoir. Thereupon the 163664 operators may by agreement determine whether it is necessary or 163665 advisable to temporarily inactivate the well. If inactivated, the 163666 well shall not be reactivated until a reasonable period of time 163667 has elapsed, such period of time to be determined by agreement by 163668 the operators. In the event that the parties cannot agree upon 163669 either of the foregoing matters, the question shall be submitted 163670 to the gas storage well inspector for a conference in accordance 163671 with section 1571.10 of the Revised Code. 163672

(H)(1) The provisions of this section that require the 163673 plugging or reconditioning of wells shall not apply to such wells 163674 as are used to inject gas into, store gas in, or remove gas from a 163675 gas storage reservoir when the sole purpose of the injection, 163676 storage, or removal is testing. The operator of a gas storage 163677 reservoir who injects gas into, stores gas in, or removes gas from 163678 a reservoir for the sole purpose of testing shall be subject to 163679 all other provisions of this chapter that are applicable to 163680 operators of reservoirs. 163681

(2) If the injection of gas into, or storage of gas in, a gas 163682 storage reservoir any part of which, or of the protective area of 163683 which, is within the boundary of a coal mine is begun after 163684 September 9, 1957, and if the injection or storage of gas is for 163685 the sole purpose of testing, the operator of the reservoir shall 163686 send by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic format to the 163687 operator of the coal mine, the division of oil and gas resources 163688 management, and the division of mineral resources management at 163689 least sixty days' notice of the date upon which the testing will 163690 be begun. 163691

If at any time within the period of time during which testing 163692 of a reservoir is in progress, any part of the reservoir or of its 163693 protective area comes within any part of the boundary of a coal mine, the operator of the reservoir shall promptly send notice to that effect by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic format to the operator of the mine, the division of oil and gas resources management, and the division of mineral resources management.

from the reservoir or its facilities into any coal mine. 163726

Sec. 1571.08. (A) Whenever in this chapter, the method or 163727 material to be used in discharging any obligations imposed by this 163728 chapter is specified, an alternative method or material may be 163729 used if approved by the gas storage well inspector or the chief of 163730 the division of oil and gas resources management. A person 163731 desiring to use such alternative method or material shall file 163732 with the division of oil and gas resources management an 163733 application for permission to do so. Such application shall 163734 describe such alternative method or material in reasonable detail. 163735
The gas storage well inspector shall promptly send by ~~registered~~ 163736 certified mail or electronic format notice of the filing of such 163737 application to any coal mine operator or reservoir operator whose 163738 mine or reservoir may be directly affected thereby. Any such coal 163739 mine operator or reservoir operator may within ten days following 163740 receipt of such notice, file with the division objections to such 163741 application. The gas storage well inspector may also file with the 163742 division an objection to such application at any time during which 163743 coal mine operators or reservoir operators are permitted to file 163744 objections. If no objections are filed within the ten-day period 163745 of time, the gas storage well inspector shall thereupon issue a 163746 permit approving the use of such alternative method or material. 163747
If any such objections are filed by any coal mine operator or 163748 reservoir operator, or by the gas storage well inspector, the 163749 question as to whether or not the use of such alternative method 163750 or material, or a modification thereof is approved, shall be 163751 determined by a conference or hearing as provided in section 163752
1571.10 of the Revised Code. 163753

(B) Whenever in this chapter, provision is made for the 163754 filing of objections with the division, such objections shall be 163755 in writing and shall state as definitely as is reasonably possible 163756 the reasons for such objections. Upon the filing of any such 163757 objection the gas storage well inspector shall promptly fix the 163758 time and place for holding a conference for the purpose of 163759 discussing and endeavoring to resolve by mutual agreement the 163760 issue raised by such objection. The gas storage well inspector 163761 shall send written notice thereof by ~~registered~~ certified mail or 163762 electronic format to each person having a direct interest therein. 163763 Thereupon the issue made by such objection shall be determined by 163764 a conference or hearing in accordance with the procedures for 163765 conferences and hearings as provided in section 1571.10 of the 163766

Revised Code. 163767

Sec. 1571.10. (A) The gas storage well inspector or any 163768 person having a direct interest in the administration of this 163769 chapter may at any time file with the division of oil and gas 163770 resources management a written request that a conference be held 163771 for the purpose of discussing and endeavoring to resolve by mutual 163772 agreement any question or issue relating to the administration of 163773 this chapter, or to compliance with its provisions, or to any 163774 violation thereof. Such request shall describe the matter 163775 concerning which the conference is requested. Thereupon the gas 163776 storage well inspector shall promptly fix the time and place for 163777 the holding of such conference and shall send written notice 163778 thereof to each person having a direct interest therein. At such 163779 conference the gas storage well inspector or a representative of 163780 the division designated by the gas storage well inspector shall be 163781 in attendance, and shall preside at the conference, and the gas 163782 storage well inspector or designated representative may make such 163783 recommendations as the gas storage well inspector or designated 163784 representative deems proper. Any agreement reached at such 163785 conference shall be consistent with the requirements of this 163786 chapter and, if approved by the gas storage well inspector, it 163787 shall be reduced to writing and shall be effective. Any such 163788 agreement approved by the gas storage well inspector shall be kept 163789 on file in the division and a copy thereof shall be furnished to 163790 each of the persons having a direct interest therein. The 163791 conference shall be deemed terminated as of the date an approved 163792 agreement is reached or when any person having a direct interest 163793 therein refuses to confer thereafter. Such a conference shall be 163794 held in all cases prior to the holding of a hearing as provided in 163795

this section. 163796

(B) Within ten days after the termination of a conference at 163797 which no approved agreement is reached, any person who 163798 participated in such conference and who has a direct interest in 163799 the subject matter thereof, or the gas storage well inspector, may 163800 file with the chief of the division of oil and gas resources 163801 management a request that the chief hear and determine the matter 163802 or matters, or any part thereof considered at the conference. 163803 Thereupon the chief shall promptly fix the time and place for the 163804 holding of such hearing and shall send written notice thereof to 163805 each person having a direct interest therein. The form of the 163806 request for such hearing and the conduct of the hearing shall be 163807 in accordance with rules that the chief adopts under section 163808 1571.11 of the Revised Code. Consistent with the requirement for 163809 reasonable notice each such hearing shall be held promptly after 163810 the filing of the request therefor. Any person having a direct 163811 interest in the matter to be heard shall be entitled to appear and 163812 be heard in person or by attorney. The division may present at 163813 such hearing any evidence that is material to the matter being 163814 heard and that has come to the division's attention in any 163815 investigation or inspection made pursuant to this chapter. 163816

(C) For the purpose of conducting such a hearing the chief 163817 may require the attendance of witnesses and the production of 163818 books, records, and papers, and the chief may, and at the request 163819 of any person having a direct interest in the matter being heard, 163820 the chief shall, issue subpoenas for witnesses or subpoenas duces 163821 tecum to compel the production of any books, records, or papers, 163822 directed to the sheriffs of the counties where such witnesses are 163823 found, which subpoenas shall be served and returned in the same 163824 manner as subpoenas in criminal cases are served and returned. The 163825 fees of sheriffs shall be the same as those allowed by the court 163826 of common pleas in criminal cases. Witnesses shall be paid the 163827 fees and mileage provided for under section 119.094 of the Revised 163828 Code. Such fee and mileage expenses shall be paid in advance by 163829 the persons at whose request they are incurred, and the remainder 163830 of such expenses shall be paid out of funds appropriated for the 163831 expenses of the division. 163832

In case of disobedience or neglect of any subpoena served on 163833
any person, or the refusal of any witness to testify to any matter 163834 regarding which the witness may be lawfully interrogated, the 163835
court of common pleas of the county in which such disobedience, 163836 neglect, or refusal occurs, or any judge thereof, on application 163837 of the chief, shall compel obedience by attachment proceedings for 163838 contempt as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of a 163839 subpoena issued from such court or a refusal to testify therein. 163840 Witnesses at such hearings shall testify under oath, and the chief 163841 may administer oaths or affirmations to persons who so testify. 163842

(D) With the consent of the chief, the testimony of any 163843 witness may be taken by deposition at the instance of a party to 163844 any hearing before the chief at any time after hearing has been 163845 formally commenced. The chief may, of the chief's own motion, 163846 order testimony to be taken by deposition at any stage in any 163847 hearing, proceeding, or investigation pending before the chief. 163848 Such deposition shall be taken in the manner prescribed by the 163849 laws of this state for taking depositions in civil cases in courts 163850 of record. 163851

(E) After the conclusion of a hearing the chief shall make a 163852 determination and finding of facts. Every adjudication, 163853 determination, or finding by the chief shall be made by written 163854 order and shall contain a written finding by the chief of the 163855 facts upon which the adjudication, determination, or finding is 163856 based. Notice of the making of such order shall be given to the 163857 persons whose rights, duties, or privileges are affected thereby, 163858 by sending a certified copy thereof by ~~registered~~ certified mail 163859 or electronic format to each of such persons. 163860

Adjudications, determinations, findings, and orders made by 163861 the chief shall not be governed by, or be subject to, Chapter 119. 163862

Sec. 1571.14. Any person claiming to be aggrieved or 163864 adversely affected by an order of the chief of the division of oil 163865 and gas resources management made as provided in section 1571.10 163866 or 1571.16 of the Revised Code may appeal to the director of 163867 natural resources for an order vacating or modifying such order. 163868 Upon receipt of the appeal, the director shall appoint an 163869 individual who has knowledge of the laws and rules regarding the 163870 underground storage of gas and who shall act as a hearing officer 163871 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code in hearing the 163872 appeal. 163873

The person appealing to the director shall be known as 163874 appellant and the chief shall be known as appellee. The appellant 163875 and the appellee shall be deemed parties to the appeal. 163876

The appeal shall be in writing and shall set forth the order 163877 complained of and the grounds upon which the appeal is based. The 163878 appeal shall be filed with the director within thirty days after 163879 the date upon which appellant received notice by ~~registered~~ 163880 certified mail or electronic format of the making of the order 163881 complained of, as required by section 1571.10 of the Revised Code. 163882 Notice of the filing of such appeal shall be delivered by 163883 appellant to the chief within three days after the appeal is filed 163884 with the director. 163885

Within seven days after receipt of the notice of appeal the 163886 chief shall prepare and certify to the director at the expense of 163887 appellant a complete transcript of the proceedings out of which 163888 the appeal arises, including a transcript of the testimony 163889 submitted to the chief. 163890

Upon the filing of the appeal the director shall fix the time 163891 and place at which the hearing on the appeal will be held, and 163892 shall give appellant and the chief at least ten days' written 163893 notice thereof by mail. The director may postpone or continue any 163894 hearing upon the director's own motion or upon application of 163895 appellant or of the chief. 163896

The filing of an appeal provided for in this section does not 163897 automatically suspend or stay execution of the order appealed 163898 from, but upon application by the appellant the director may 163899 suspend or stay such execution pending determination of the appeal 163900 upon such terms as the director deems proper. 163901

The hearing officer appointed by the director shall hear the 163902 appeal de novo, and either party to the appeal may submit such 163903 evidence as the hearing officer deems admissible. 163904

For the purpose of conducting a hearing on an appeal, the 163905 hearing officer may require the attendance of witnesses and the 163906 production of books, records, and papers, and may, and at the 163907 request of any party shall, issue subpoenas for witnesses or 163908 subpoenas duces tecum to compel the production of any books, 163909 records, or papers, directed to the sheriffs of the counties where 163910 such witnesses are found, which subpoenas shall be served and 163911 returned in the same manner as subpoenas in criminal cases are 163912 served and returned. The fees of sheriffs shall be the same as 163913 those allowed by the court of common pleas in criminal cases. 163914 Witnesses shall be paid the fees and mileage provided for under 163915 section 119.094 of the Revised Code. Such fee and mileage expenses 163916 incurred at the request of appellant shall be paid in advance by 163917 appellant, and the remainder of such expenses shall be paid out of 163918 funds appropriated for the expenses of the division of oil and gas 163919 resources management. 163920

any person, or the refusal of any witness to testify to any matter 163922
court of common pleas of the county in which such disobedience, 163924
neglect, or refusal occurs, or any judge thereof, on application 163925 of the director, shall compel obedience by attachment proceedings 163926 for contempt as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of 163927 a subpoena issued from such court or a refusal to testify therein. 163928 Witnesses at such hearings shall testify under oath, and the 163929 hearing officer may administer oaths or affirmations to persons 163930 who so testify. 163931

At the request of any party to the appeal, a record of the 163932 testimony and other evidence submitted shall be taken by an 163933 official court reporter at the expense of the party making the 163934 request for the record. The record shall include all of the 163935 testimony and other evidence and the rulings on the admissibility 163936 thereof presented at the hearing. The hearing officer shall pass 163937 upon the admissibility of evidence, but any party may at the time 163938 object to the admission of any evidence and except to the ruling 163939 of the hearing officer thereon, and if the hearing officer refuses 163940 to admit evidence, the party offering same may make a proffer 163941 thereof, and such proffer shall be made a part of the record of 163942 such hearing. 163943

If upon completion of the hearing the hearing officer finds 163944 that the order appealed from was lawful and reasonable, the 163945 hearing officer shall make a written order affirming the order 163946 appealed from. If the hearing officer finds that such order was 163947 unreasonable or unlawful, the hearing officer shall make a written order vacating the order appealed from and making the order that it finds the chief should have made. Every order made by the hearing officer shall contain a written finding by the hearing officer of the facts upon which the order is based. Notice of the making of such order shall be given forthwith to each party to the appeal by mailing a certified copy thereof to each such party by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic format.

Sec. 1571.15. Any party adversely affected by an order of the hearing officer under section 1571.14 of the Revised Code may appeal to the court of common pleas of any county in which the well, or part of the gas storage reservoir, or part of the coal mine, involved in the order of the hearing officer which is being appealed, is located. Any party desiring to so appeal shall file with the director of natural resources a notice of appeal designating the order appealed from and stating whether the appeal is taken on questions of law or questions of law and fact. A copy of such notice shall also be filed by appellant with the court and shall be mailed or otherwise delivered to appellee. The notice shall be filed and mailed or otherwise delivered within thirty days after the date upon which appellant received notice from the hearing officer by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic format of the making of the order appealed from. No appeal bond shall be required to make either an appeal on questions of law or an appeal on questions of law and fact effective.

The filing of a notice of appeal shall not automatically operate as a suspension of the order of the hearing officer. If it appears to the court that an unjust hardship to the appellant will result from the execution of the hearing officer's order pending determination of the appeal, the court may grant a suspension of such order and fix its terms.

Within fifteen days after receipt of the notice of appeal the hearing officer shall prepare and file in the court the complete record of proceedings out of which the appeal arises, including a transcript of the testimony and other evidence which has been submitted before ~~him~~ the hearing officer. The expense of preparing and transcribing such record shall be taxed as a part of the costs of the appeal. Appellant shall provide security for costs satisfactory to the court. Upon demand by a party the director shall furnish at the cost of the party requesting the same a copy of such record. In the event such complete record is not filed in the court within the time provided for in this section either party may apply to the court to have the case docketed, and the court shall order such record filed.

Appeals taken on questions of law shall be heard upon assignments of error filed in the cause or set out in the briefs of the appellant before the hearing. Errors not argued by brief may be disregarded, but the court may consider and decide errors which are not assigned or argued. Failure to file such briefs and assignments of error within the time prescribed by the court's rules shall be a cause for dismissal of such appeal.

In appeals taken on questions of law and fact, the hearing in the court shall be a hearing de novo of the appeal heard by the hearing officer in which the order appealed from was made. In such hearings any party may offer as evidence any part of the record of the proceedings out of which the appeal arises, certified to the court as provided for in this section, and any other evidence which the court deems admissible.

If the court finds that the order of the hearing officer appealed from was lawful and reasonable, it shall affirm such order. If the court finds that such order was unreasonable or unlawful, it shall vacate such order and make the order which it finds the hearing officer should have made. The judgment of the court is final unless reversed, vacated, or modified on appeal as 164011 in civil actions. 164012

Sec. 1571.16. (A) The gas storage well inspector or any 164013 person having a direct interest in the subject matter of this 164014 chapter may file with the division of oil and gas resources 164015 management a complaint in writing stating that a person is 164016 violating, or is about to violate, a provision or provisions of 164017 this chapter, or has done, or is about to do, an act, matter, or 164018 thing therein prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or has 164019 failed, omitted, neglected, or refused, or is about to fail, omit, 164020 neglect, or refuse, to perform a duty enjoined upon the person by 164021 this chapter. Upon the filing of such a complaint, the chief of 164022 the division of oil and gas resources management shall promptly 164023 fix the time for the holding of a hearing on such complaint and 164024 shall send by ~~registered~~ certified mail or electronic format to 164025 the person so complained of, a copy of such complaint together 164026 with at least five days' notice of the time and place at which 164027 such hearing will be held. Such notice of such hearing shall also 164028 be given to all persons having a direct interest in the matters 164029 complained of in such complaint. Such hearing shall be conducted 164030 in the same manner, and the chief and persons having a direct 164031 interest in the matter being heard, shall have the same powers, 164032 rights, and duties as provided in divisions (B), (C), (D), and (E) 164033 of section 1571.10 of the Revised Code, in connection with 164034 hearings by the chief, provided that if after conclusion of the 164035 hearing the chief finds that the charges against the person 164036 complained of, as stated in such complaint, have not been 164037 sustained by a preponderance of evidence, the chief shall make an 164038 order dismissing the complaint, and if the chief finds that the 164039 charges have been so sustained, the chief shall by appropriate 164040 order require compliance with those provisions. 164041

(B) Whenever the chief is of the opinion that any person is 164042 violating, or is about to violate, any provision of this chapter, 164043 or has done, or is about to do, any act, matter, or thing therein 164044 prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or has failed, omitted, 164045 neglected, or refused, or is about to fail, omit, neglect, or 164046 refuse, to perform any duty enjoined upon the person by this 164047 chapter, or has failed, omitted, neglected, or refused, or is 164048 about to fail, omit, neglect, or refuse, to obey any lawful 164049 requirement or order made by the chief, or any final judgment, 164050 order, or decree made by any court pursuant to this chapter, then 164051 and in every such case, the chief may institute in a court of 164052 competent jurisdiction of the county or counties wherein the 164053 operation is situated, an action to enjoin or restrain such 164054 violations or to enforce obedience with law or the orders of the 164055 chief. No injunction bond shall be required to be filed in any 164056 or of the hearing officer appointed under section 1571.14 of the 164066 Revised Code, or the judgments, orders, or decrees of any court or 164067

(D) Each remedy prescribed in divisions (A), (B), and (C) of 164069 this section is deemed concurrent or contemporaneous with each 164070 any one such remedy shall not prevent the exercise of any other 164072 such remedy. 164073

(E) The provisions of this chapter providing for conferences, 164074 hearings by the chief, appeals to the hearing officer from orders 164075 of the chief, and appeals to the court of common pleas from orders 164076 of the hearing officer, and the remedies prescribed in divisions 164077 (A), (B), (C), and (D) of this section, do not constitute the 164078 exclusive procedure that a person, who deems the person's rights 164079 to be unlawfully affected by any official action taken thereunder, 164080 must pursue in order to protect and preserve such rights, nor does 164081 this chapter constitute a procedure that such a person must pursue 164082 before the person may lawfully proceed by other actions, legal or 164083 equitable, to protect and preserve such rights. 164084

Sec. 1707.02. (A) "Exempt," as used in this section, means 164085 or any foreign government with which the United States is, at the 164104 time of sale, maintaining diplomatic relations. 164105

(2) If a security described in division (B)(1) of this section is not payable out of the proceeds of a general tax, the security is exempt only if, at the time of its first sale in this state, there is no default in the payment of any of the interest or principal of the security, and there are no adjudications or pending suits adversely affecting its validity.

(C) Any security issued or guaranteed by a state or nationally chartered bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, or credit union, or a governmental corporation or agency created by or under the laws of the United States or of Canada is exempt, if it is under the supervision of or subject to regulation by the government or state under whose laws it was organized.

(D) Any interim certificate is exempt, if the securities to be delivered therefor are themselves exempt, are the subject matter of an exempt transaction, have been registered by description or registered by qualification, or are the subject matter of a transaction which has been registered by description.

(E)(1) A security is exempt if it meets any of the following requirements:

(a) The security is listed, or authorized for listing, on the New York stock exchange, the American stock exchange, or the national market system of the NASDAQ stock market, or any successor to such entities.

(b) The security is listed, or authorized for listing, on a national securities exchange or system, or on a tier or segment of such exchange or system, designated by the securities and exchange commission in rule 146(b) promulgated under section 18(b)(1) of the Securities Act of 1933.

division (E)(1)(a) of this section. 164140

(d) The security is a security of the same issuer that is 164141

(2) Application for approval of a stock exchange or system 164144 not approved in this section may be made by any organized stock 164145 a hearing, and a finding that the practices or requirements of 164160 such exchange or system have been so changed or modified, or are, 164161

whether all of the conditions have been satisfied or whether the 164412 division then contemplates the institution of a proceeding under 164413 section 1707.13 or 1707.23 of the Revised Code, but such advice 164414

to the trade. 165012

(E) The president and the treasurer of the board of education 165013 acquire that property by exchanging real property that the board 165019 owns in its corporate capacity for the identified real property or 165020 by using real property that the board owns in its corporate 165021 capacity as part or an entire consideration for the purchase price 165022 of the identified real property. Any exchange or acquisition made 165023 pursuant to this division shall be made by a conveyance executed 165024 by the president and the treasurer of the board. 165025

(G) When a school district board of education has property 165026 that the board, by resolution, finds is not needed for school 165027 district use, is obsolete, or is unfit for the use for which it 165028 was acquired, the board may donate that property in accordance 165029 with this division if the fair market value of the property is, in 165030 the opinion of the board, two thousand five hundred dollars or 165031 less. 165032

The property may be donated to an eligible nonprofit 165033 organization that is located in this state and is exempt from 165034 federal income taxation pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 501(a) and (c)(3). 165035 Before donating any property under this division, the board shall 165036 adopt a resolution expressing its intent to make unneeded, 165037 obsolete, or unfit-for-use school district property available to 165038 these organizations. The resolution shall include guidelines and 165039 procedures the board considers to be necessary to implement the 165040 donation program and shall indicate whether the school district 165041 a representative to conduct it. If a representative is known when 165043 the resolution is adopted, the resolution shall provide contact 165044 information such as the representative's name, address, and 165045 telephone number. 165046

The resolution shall include within its procedures a 165047 requirement that any nonprofit organization desiring to obtain 165048 donated property under this division shall submit a written notice 165049 to the board or its representative. The written notice shall 165050 include evidence that the organization is a nonprofit organization 165051 that is located in this state and is exempt from federal income 165052 taxation pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 501(a) and (c)(3); a description of 165053 the organization's primary purpose; a description of the type or 165054 types of property the organization needs; and the name, address, 165055 and telephone number of a person designated by the organization's 165056 governing board to receive donated property and to serve as its 165057 agent. The written notice may be submitted electronically to the 165058 board or its representative. 165059

After adoption of the resolution, the board shall ~~publish, in~~ 165060
~~a newspaper of general circulation in the school district or as~~ 165061 ~~provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, notice of its intent~~ 165062
~~to donate unneeded, obsolete, or unfit for use school district~~ 165063
~~property to eligible nonprofit organizations. The notice shall~~ 165064 ~~include a summary of the information provided in the resolution~~ 165065
~~and shall be published twice. The second notice shall be published~~ 165066
~~not less than ten nor more than twenty days after the previous~~ 165067
~~notice. A similar notice also shall be posted continually post in~~ 165068

the board's office notice of its intent to donate school district property that is unneeded, obsolete, or unfit for use to eligible nonprofit organizations. If the school district maintains a web site on the internet, the notice shall be posted continually at that web site.

The board or its representatives shall maintain a list of all nonprofit organizations that notify the board or its representative of their desire to obtain donated property under this division and that the board or its representative determines to be eligible, in accordance with the requirements set forth in this section and in the donation program's guidelines and procedures, to receive donated property.

The board or its representative also shall maintain a list of all school district property the board finds to be unneeded, obsolete, or unfit for use and to be available for donation under this division. The list shall be posted continually in a conspicuous location in the board's office, and, if the school district maintains a web site on the internet, the list shall be posted continually at that web site. An item of property on the list shall be donated to the eligible nonprofit organization that first declares to the board or its representative its desire to obtain the item unless the board previously has established, by resolution, a list of eligible nonprofit organizations that shall be given priority with respect to the item's donation. Priority may be given on the basis that the purposes of a nonprofit organization have a direct relationship to specific school district purposes of programs provided or administered by the board. A resolution giving priority to certain nonprofit organizations with respect to the donation of an item of property shall specify the reasons why the organizations are given that priority.

Members of the board shall consult with the Ohio ethics commission, and comply with Chapters 102. and 2921. of the Revised Code, with respect to any donation under this division to a nonprofit organization of which a board member, any member of a board member's family, or any business associate of a board member is a trustee, officer, board member, or employee.

in the program and ensure that each participating school complies 165143 with the requirements of this section. 165144

(2) If the board of education of a school district determines 165145 that, for financial reasons, a school under the board's control 165146 cannot comply with the requirements of this section or the board 165147 already has a successful breakfast program or partnership in 165148 place, the district board may choose not to comply with those 165149 requirements. 165150

(D) Not later than the thirty-first day of December of each 165151 school year, the department shall provide statistical reports on 165152 its web site that specify the number and percentage of students 165153 participating in school breakfast programs disaggregated by school 165154 district and individual schools, including community schools, 165155 established under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code, and STEM 165156

(3) "Teacher of record" means a teacher who is responsible for the overall academic development and achievement of a student and not merely the student's instruction in any single subject.

(B)(1) It is the intent of the general assembly that teachers employed by internet- or computer-based community schools conduct visits with their students ~~in-person~~ throughout the school year.

(2) Each internet- or computer-based community school shall retain an affiliation with at least one full-time teacher of record licensed in accordance with division (A)(10) of section 3314.03 of the Revised Code.

will be conducted. The visits may be conducted electronically. 165209

(3) That the school will set up a central base of operation 165210 and the sponsor will maintain a representative within fifty miles 165211 of that base of operation to provide monitoring and assistance. 165212

(D)(1) Annually, each internet- or computer-based community 165213 school shall prepare and submit to the department of education, in 165214 a time and manner prescribed by the department, a report that 165215 nonteaching employee is renewed, the employee shall be continued 165239 in employment, and the salary provided in the contract may be 165240 increased but not reduced unless such reduction is a part of a 165241 uniform plan affecting the nonteaching employees of the entire 165242 district. 165243

(C) The contracts as provided for in this section may be 165244 terminate the contract of an employee, the board may suspend an 165253 employee for a definite period of time or demote the employee for 165254 the reasons set forth in this division. The action of the board of 165255 education terminating the contract of an employee or suspending or 165256 demoting the employee shall be served upon the employee by 165257 certified mail, regular mail with a certificate of mailing, or 165258 hearing the appeal the common pleas court may affirm, disaffirm, 165264 or modify the action of the school board. 165265

(D) All employees who have been employed by a school district 165269 where the provisions of Chapter 124. of the Revised Code do not 165270 section and Chapter 124. of the Revised Code shall be paid for all 165283 time lost when the schools in which they are employed are closed 165284 owing to an epidemic or other public calamity. Nothing in this 165285 division shall be construed as requiring payment in excess of an 165286 employee's regular wage rate or salary for any time worked while 165287 the school in which the employee is employed is officially closed 165288 for the reasons set forth in this division. 165289

Sec. 3319.11. (A) As used in this section: 165290

(1) "Evaluation procedures" means the procedures required by 165291 the policy adopted pursuant to division (A) of section 3319.111 of 165292

(2) "Limited contract" means a limited contract, as described 165294 in section 3319.08 of the Revised Code, that a school district 165295 board of education or governing board of an educational service 165296 center enters into with a teacher who is not eligible for 165297 continuing service status. 165298

(3) "Extended limited contract" means a limited contract, as 165299 described in section 3319.08 of the Revised Code, that a board of 165300 education or governing board enters into with a teacher who is 165301 eligible for continuing service status. 165302

(B) Teachers eligible for continuing service status in any 165303 city, exempted village, local, or joint vocational school district 165304 or educational service center shall be those teachers qualified as 165305 described in division (D) of section 3319.08 of the Revised Code, 165306 who within the last five years have taught for at least three 165307 years in the district or center, and those teachers who, having 165308 attained continuing contract status elsewhere, have served two 165309 years in the district or center, but the board, upon the 165310 recommendation of the superintendent, may at the time of 165311 employment or at any time within such two-year period, declare any 165312 of the latter teachers eligible. 165313

reemploy the teacher, the teacher is deemed reemployed under an 165347 extended limited contract for a term not to exceed one year at the 165348 same salary plus any increment provided by the salary schedule. 165349
The teacher is presumed to have accepted employment under the 165350 extended limited contract for a term not to exceed one year unless 165351 such teacher notifies the board in writing to the contrary on or 165352 before the fifteenth day of June, and an extended limited contract 165353 for a term not to exceed one year shall be executed accordingly. 165354 Upon any subsequent reemployment of a teacher only a continuing 165355 contract may be entered into. 165356

(3) Any teacher receiving written notice of the intention of 165357 a board not to reemploy such teacher pursuant to this division is 165358 entitled to the hearing provisions of division (G) of this 165359
section. 165360

(C)(1) If a board rejects the recommendation of the 165361 superintendent for reemployment of a teacher pursuant to division 165362 (B)(1) of this section, the superintendent may recommend 165363 reemployment of the teacher, if continuing service status has not 165364 previously been attained elsewhere, under an extended limited 165365 contract for a term not to exceed two years, provided that written 165366 notice of the superintendent's intention to make such 165367 recommendation has been given to the teacher with reasons directed 165368 at the professional improvement of the teacher on or before the 165369 first day of June. Upon subsequent reemployment of the teacher 165370 only a continuing contract may be entered into. 165371

(2) If a board of education takes affirmative action on a 165372 superintendent's recommendation, made pursuant to division (C)(1) 165373 of this section, of an extended limited contract for a term not to 165374 exceed two years but the board does not give the teacher written 165375 notice of its affirmative action on the superintendent's 165376 recommendation of an extended limited contract on or before the 165377 first day of June, the teacher is deemed reemployed under a 165378 continuing contract at the same salary plus any increment provided 165379 by the salary schedule. The teacher is presumed to have accepted 165380 employment under such continuing contract unless such teacher 165381 notifies the board in writing to the contrary on or before the 165382 fifteenth day of June, and a continuing contract shall be executed 165383 accordingly. 165384

(3) A board shall not reject a superintendent's 165385 recommendation, made pursuant to division (C)(1) of this section, 165386 of an extended limited contract for a term not to exceed two years 165387 except by a three-fourths vote of its full membership. If a board 165388 rejects by a three-fourths vote of its full membership the 165389 recommendation of the superintendent of an extended limited 165390 contract for a term not to exceed two years, the board may declare 165391 its intention not to reemploy the teacher by giving the teacher 165392 written notice on or before the first day of June of its intention 165393 not to reemploy the teacher. If evaluation procedures have not 165394 been complied with pursuant to section 3319.111 of the Revised 165395 Code or if the board does not give the teacher written notice on 165396 or before the first day of June of its intention not to reemploy 165397 the teacher, the teacher is deemed reemployed under an extended 165398 limited contract for a term not to exceed one year at the same 165399 salary plus any increment provided by the salary schedule. The 165400 teacher is presumed to have accepted employment under the extended 165401 limited contract for a term not to exceed one year unless such 165402 teacher notifies the board in writing to the contrary on or before 165403 the fifteenth day of June, and an extended limited contract for a 165404 term not to exceed one year shall be executed accordingly. Upon 165405 any subsequent reemployment of the teacher only a continuing 165406

Any teacher receiving written notice of the intention of a 165408 board not to reemploy such teacher pursuant to this division is 165409

section. 165411

(D) A teacher eligible for continuing contract status 165412 employed under an extended limited contract pursuant to division 165413 (B) or (C) of this section, is, at the expiration of such extended 165414 limited contract, deemed reemployed under a continuing contract at 165415 the same salary plus any increment granted by the salary schedule, 165416 unless evaluation procedures have been complied with pursuant to 165417 section 3319.111 of the Revised Code and the employing board, 165418 acting on the superintendent's recommendation that the teacher not 165419 be reemployed, gives the teacher written notice on or before the 165420 first day of June of its intention not to reemploy such teacher. A 165421 teacher who does not have evaluation procedures applied in 165422
compliance with section 3319.111 of the Revised Code or who does 165423 not receive notice on or before the first day of June of the 165424 intention of the board not to reemploy such teacher is presumed to 165425 have accepted employment under a continuing contract unless such 165426 teacher notifies the board in writing to the contrary on or before 165427
the fifteenth day of June, and a continuing contract shall be 165428 executed accordingly. 165429

Any teacher receiving a written notice of the intention of a 165430
section. 165433

(E) The board shall enter into a limited contract with each 165434 teacher employed by the board who is not eligible to be considered 165435 for a continuing contract. 165436

Any teacher employed under a limited contract, and not 165437 eligible to be considered for a continuing contract, is, at the 165438 expiration of such limited contract, considered reemployed under 165439 the provisions of this division at the same salary plus any 165440 increment provided by the salary schedule unless evaluation 165441 procedures have been complied with pursuant to section 3319.111 of 165442 the Revised Code and the employing board, acting upon the 165443 superintendent's written recommendation that the teacher not be 165444 reemployed, gives such teacher written notice of its intention not 165445 to reemploy such teacher on or before the first day of June. A 165446

not receive notice of the intention of the board not to reemploy 165449 such teacher on or before the first day of June is presumed to 165450 have accepted such employment unless such teacher notifies the 165451 board in writing to the contrary on or before the fifteenth day of 165452 June, and a written contract for the succeeding school year shall 165453 be executed accordingly. 165454

section. 165458

(F) The failure of a superintendent to make a recommendation 165459 to the board under any of the conditions set forth in divisions 165460 (B) to (E) of this section, or the failure of the board to give 165461 such teacher a written notice pursuant to divisions (C) to (E) of 165462 this section shall not prejudice or prevent a teacher from being 165463 deemed reemployed under either a limited or continuing contract as 165464 the case may be under the provisions of this section. A failure of 165465 the parties to execute a written contract shall not void any 165466 automatic reemployment provisions of this section. 165467

(G)(1) Any teacher receiving written notice of the intention 165468 of a board of education not to reemploy such teacher pursuant to 165469 division (B), (C)(3), (D), or (E) of this section may, within ten 165470 days of the date of receipt of the notice, file with the treasurer 165471 of the board a written demand for a written statement describing 165472 the circumstances that led to the board's intention not to 165473 reemploy the teacher. 165474

(2) The treasurer of a board, on behalf of the board, shall, 165475 within ten days of the date of receipt of a written demand for a 165476 written statement pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section, 165477 provide to the teacher a written statement describing the 165478
the teacher. 165480

(3) Any teacher receiving a written statement describing the 165481 circumstances that led to the board's intention not to reemploy 165482 the teacher pursuant to division (G)(2) of this section may, 165483 within five days of the date of receipt of the statement, file 165484 with the treasurer of the board a written demand for a hearing 165485 before the board pursuant to divisions (G)(4) to (6) of this 165486
section. 165487

(4) The treasurer of a board, on behalf of the board, shall, 165488
hearing pursuant to division (G)(3) of this section, provide to 165490 the teacher a written notice setting forth the time, date, and 165491 place of the hearing. The board shall schedule and conclude the 165492 hearing within forty days of the date on which the treasurer of 165493 the board receives a written demand for a hearing pursuant to 165494 division (G)(3) of this section. 165495

(5) Any hearing conducted pursuant to this division shall be 165496 conducted by a majority of the members of the board. The hearing 165497 shall be held in executive session of the board unless the board 165498 and the teacher agree to hold the hearing in public. The 165499 superintendent, assistant superintendent, the teacher, and any 165500 person designated by either party to take a record of the hearing 165501 may be present at the hearing. The board may be represented by 165502 counsel and the teacher may be represented by counsel or a 165503 designee. A record of the hearing may be taken by either party at 165504 the expense of the party taking the record. 165505

(6) Within ten days of the conclusion of a hearing conducted 165506

not warranted by any statement given pursuant to division (G)(2) 165539

No appeal of an order of a board may be made except as 165541 specified in this division. 165542

(H)(1) In giving a teacher any notice required by division 165543
(B), (C), (D), or (E) of this section, the board or the 165544 superintendent shall do either of the following: 165545

(a) Deliver the notice by personal service upon the teacher; 165546

(b) Deliver the notice by certified mail, return receipt 165547 requested, regular mail with a certificate of mailing, or other 165548 form of delivery with proof of delivery, addressed to the teacher 165549 at the teacher's place of employment and deliver a copy of the 165550 notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, regular mail 165551 with a certificate of mailing, or other form of delivery with 165552 proof of delivery, addressed to the teacher at the teacher's place 165553 of residence. Delivery of the notice required under division 165554 (H)(1)(b) of this section may be satisfied by electronic delivery 165555 with electronic proof of delivery. 165556

(2) In giving a board any notice required by division (B), 165557
(C), (D), or (E) of this section, the teacher shall do either of 165558
the following: 165559

(a) Deliver the notice by personal delivery to the office of 165560 the superintendent during regular business hours; 165561

(b) Deliver the notice by certified mail, return receipt 165562
requested, regular mail with a certificate of mailing, or other 165563 form of delivery with proof of delivery, addressed to the office 165564 of the superintendent and deliver a copy of the notice by 165565 certified mail, return receipt requested, regular mail with a 165566 certificate of mailing, or other form of delivery with proof of 165567 delivery, addressed to the president of the board at the 165568 president's place of residence. Delivery of the notice required 165569 under division (H)(2)(b) of this section may be satisfied by 165570 electronic delivery with electronic proof of delivery. 165571

(3) When any notice and copy of the notice are mailed 165572 pursuant to division (H)(1)(b) or (2)(b) of this section, the 165573 notice or copy of the notice with the earlier date of receipt 165574 shall constitute the notice for the purposes of division (B), (C), 165575
(D), or (E) of this section. 165576

(I) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any 165577 supplemental written contracts entered into pursuant to section 165578
3319.08 of the Revised Code. 165579

(J) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in Chapter 165580 4117. of the Revised Code, the dates set forth in this section as 165581
"on or before the first day of June" or "on or before the 165582 fifteenth day of June" prevail over any conflicting provisions of 165583 a collective bargaining agreement entered into on or after ~~the~~ 165584 ~~effective date of this amendment~~ March 22, 2013. 165585

Sec. 3319.16. The contract of any teacher employed by the 165586 board of education of any city, exempted village, local, county, 165587 or joint vocational school district may not be terminated except 165588 for good and just cause. Notwithstanding any provision to the 165589 contrary in Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code, the provisions of 165590 this section relating to the grounds for termination of the 165591 contract of a teacher prevail over any conflicting provisions of a 165592 collective bargaining agreement entered into after ~~the effective~~ 165593 ~~date of this amendment~~ October 16, 2009. 165594

Before terminating any contract, the employing board shall 165595 furnish the teacher a written notice signed by its treasurer of 165596 its intention to consider the termination of the teacher's 165597 contract with full specification of the grounds for such 165598 consideration. The board shall not proceed with formal action to 165599 terminate the contract until after the tenth day after receipt of 165600 the notice by the teacher. Within ten days after receipt of the 165601 notice from the treasurer of the board, the teacher may file with 165602 the treasurer a written demand for a hearing before the board or 165603 before a referee, and the board shall set a time for the hearing 165604 which shall be within thirty days from the date of receipt of the 165605 written demand, and the treasurer shall give the teacher at least 165606 twenty days' notice in writing of the time and place of the 165607 hearing. If a referee is demanded by either the teacher or board, 165608 the treasurer also shall give twenty days' notice to the 165609 superintendent of public instruction. No hearing shall be held 165610 during the summer vacation without the teacher's consent. The 165611 hearing shall be private unless the teacher requests a public 165612 hearing. The hearing shall be conducted by a referee appointed 165613 pursuant to section 3319.161 of the Revised Code, if demanded; 165614 otherwise, it shall be conducted by a majority of the members of 165615 the board and shall be confined to the grounds given for the 165616 termination. The board shall provide for a complete ~~stenographic~~ 165617 record of the proceedings, a copy of the record to be furnished to 165618 the teacher. The board may suspend a teacher pending final action 165619 to terminate the teacher's contract if, in its judgment, the 165620 character of the charges warrants such action. 165621

Both parties may be present at such hearing, be represented 165622 by counsel, require witnesses to be under oath, cross-examine 165623 witnesses, take a record of the proceedings, and require the 165624 presence of witnesses in their behalf upon subpoena to be issued 165625 by the treasurer of the board. In case of the failure of any 165626 person to comply with a subpoena, a judge of the court of common 165627 pleas of the county in which the person resides, upon application 165628 of any interested party, shall compel attendance of the person by 165629 attachment proceedings as for contempt. Any member of the board or 165630 the referee may administer oaths to witnesses. After a hearing by 165631 a referee, the referee shall file a report within ten days after 165632 the termination of the hearing. After consideration of the 165633 referee's report, the board, by a majority vote, may accept or 165634 reject the referee's recommendation on the termination of the 165635 teacher's contract. After a hearing by the board, the board, by 165636 majority vote, may enter its determination upon its minutes. Any 165637 order of termination of a contract shall state the grounds for 165638 termination. If the decision, after hearing, is against 165639 termination of the contract, the charges and the record of the 165640 hearing shall be physically expunged from the minutes, and, if the 165641 teacher has suffered any loss of salary by reason of being 165642 suspended, the teacher shall be paid the teacher's full salary for 165643 the period of such suspension. 165644

Any teacher affected by an order of termination of contract 165645 may appeal to the court of common pleas of the county in which the 165646 school is located within thirty days after receipt of notice of 165647 the entry of such order. The appeal shall be an original action in 165648 the court and shall be commenced by the filing of a complaint 165649 against the board, in which complaint the facts shall be alleged 165650 upon which the teacher relies for a reversal or modification of 165651 such order of termination of contract. Upon service or waiver of 165652 summons in that appeal, the board immediately shall transmit to 165653 the clerk of the court for filing a transcript of the original 165654 papers filed with the board, a certified copy of the minutes of 165655 the board into which the termination finding was entered, and a 165656 certified transcript of all evidence adduced at the hearing or 165657 hearings before the board or a certified transcript of all 165658 evidence adduced at the hearing or hearings before the referee, 165659 whereupon the cause shall be at issue without further pleading and 165660 shall be advanced and heard without delay. The court shall examine 165661 the transcript and record of the hearing and shall hold such 165662 additional hearings as it considers advisable, at which it may 165663 consider other evidence in addition to the transcript and record. 165664

Upon final hearing, the court shall grant or deny the relief 165665 prayed for in the complaint as may be proper in accordance with 165666 the evidence adduced in the hearing. Such an action is a special 165667 proceeding, and either the teacher or the board may appeal from 165668 the decision of the court of common pleas pursuant to the Rules of 165669 Appellate Procedure and, to the extent not in conflict with those 165670 rules, Chapter 2505. of the Revised Code. 165671

In any court action, the board may utilize the services of 165672 the prosecuting attorney, village solicitor, city director of law, 165673 or other chief legal officer of a municipal corporation as 165674 authorized by section 3313.35 of the Revised Code, or may employ 165675 other legal counsel. 165676

A violation of division (A)(7) of section 2907.03 of the 165677 Revised Code is grounds for termination of a teacher contract 165678
under this section. 165679

Sec. 3319.291. (A) The state board of education shall require 165680 each of the following persons, at the times prescribed by division 165681 (A) of this section, to undergo a criminal records check, unless 165682 the person has undergone a records check under this section or a 165683 former version of this section less than five years prior to that 165684 time. 165685

(1) Any person initially applying for any certificate, 165686 license, or permit described in this chapter or in division (B) of 165687 section 3301.071 or in section 3301.074 of the Revised Code at the 165688 time that application is made; 165689

(2) Any person applying for renewal of any certificate, 165690 license, or permit described in division (A)(1) of this section at 165691 the time that application is made; 165692

(3) Any person who is teaching under a professional teaching 165693 certificate issued under former section 3319.222 of the Revised 165694 the superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and 165746 investigation to obtain any criminal records that the federal 165747 bureau of investigation has on the person. 165748

(D) The state board or the superintendent of public 165749 instruction may choose not to request any information about a 165750 person required by division (C) of this section if the person 165751 provides proof that a criminal records check that satisfies the 165752 requirements of that division was conducted on the person as a 165753 condition of employment pursuant to section 3319.39 of the Revised 165754 Code within the immediately preceding year. The state board or the 165755 superintendent of public instruction may accept a certified copy 165756 of records that were issued by the bureau of criminal 165757 identification and investigation and that are presented by the 165758 person in lieu of requesting that information under division (C) 165759 of this section if the records were issued by the bureau within 165760 the immediately preceding year. 165761

(E)(1) If a person described in division (A)(3) or (4) of 165762 this section who is subject to a criminal records check fails to 165763 submit fingerprints and written permission by the date specified 165764 in the applicable division, and the state board or the 165765 superintendent of public instruction does not apply division (D) 165766 of this section to the person, or if a person who is subject to 165767 division (G) of this section fails to submit fingerprints and 165768 written permission by the date prescribed under that division, the 165769 superintendent shall prepare a written notice to be sent to the 165770 person by mail or electronically stating that if the person does 165771 not submit the fingerprints and written permission within fifteen 165772 days after the date the notice was mailed or sent electronically, 165773 the person's application will be rejected or the person's 165774 professional or permanent teaching certificate or license will be 165775 inactivated. The superintendent shall send the notification by 165776 regular mail to the person's last known residence address or last 165777 known place of employment, as indicated in the department of 165778 education's records, or both. If the notice is sent 165779 electronically, the notification shall be sent via electronic mail 165780 to the person's last known electronic mail address. 165781

If the person fails to submit the fingerprints and written 165782 permission within fifteen days after the date the notice was 165783 state board, shall issue a written order rejecting the application 165785 or inactivating the person's professional or permanent teaching 165786 certificate or license. The rejection or inactivation shall remain 165787 in effect until the person submits the fingerprints and written 165788 permission. The superintendent shall send the order by regular 165789 mail or electronic mail to the person's last known residence 165790 address, last known electronic mail address, or last known place 165791 of employment, as indicated in the department's records, ~~or both.~~ 165792

The order shall state the reason for the rejection or inactivation 165793 and shall explain that the rejection or inactivation remains in 165794 effect until the person submits the fingerprints and written 165795 permission. 165796

The rejection or inactivation of a professional or permanent 165797 teaching certificate or license under division (E)(1) of this 165798 section does not constitute a suspension or revocation of the 165799 certificate or license by the state board under section 3319.31 of 165800 the Revised Code and the state board and the superintendent of 165801 public instruction need not provide the person with an opportunity 165802 for a hearing with respect to the rejection or inactivation. 165803

(2) If a person whose professional or permanent teaching 165804 certificate or license has been rejected or inactivated under 165805 division (E)(1) of this section submits fingerprints and written 165806 permission as required by division (B) or (G) of this section, the 165807 superintendent of public instruction, on behalf of the state 165808 board, shall issue a written order issuing or reactivating the 165809 certificate or license. The superintendent shall send the order to 165810 the person by regular mail or electronic mail. 165811

(F) Notwithstanding divisions (A) to (C) of this section, if 165812 a person holds more than one certificate, license, or permit 165813 described in division (A)(1) of this section, the following shall 165814 apply: 165815

(1) If the certificates, licenses, or permits are of 165816 different durations, the person shall be subject to divisions (A) 165817 to (C) of this section only when applying for renewal of the 165818 certificate, license, or permit that is of the longest duration. 165819 Prior to renewing any certificate, license, or permit with a 165820 shorter duration, the state board or the superintendent of public 165821 instruction shall determine whether the department of education 165822 has received any information about the person pursuant to section 165823

109.5721 of the Revised Code, but the person shall not be subject 165824 to divisions (A) to (C) of this section as long as the person's 165825 certificate, license, or permit with the longest duration is 165826 valid. 165827

(2) If the certificates, licenses, or permits are of the same 165828 duration but do not expire in the same year, the person shall 165829 designate one of the certificates, licenses, or permits as the 165830 person's primary certificate, license, or permit and shall notify 165831 the department of that designation. The person shall be subject to 165832 divisions (A) to (C) of this section only when applying for 165833 renewal of the person's primary certificate, license, or permit. 165834 Prior to renewing any certificate, license, or permit that is not 165835 the person's primary certificate, license, or permit, the state 165836 board or the superintendent of public instruction shall determine 165837 whether the department has received any information about the 165838 person pursuant to section 109.5721 of the Revised Code, but the 165839 person shall not be subject to divisions (A) to (C) of this 165840 section as long as the person's primary certificate, license, or 165841 permit is valid. 165842

duration and expire in the same year and the person applies for 165844 renewal of the certificates, licenses, or permits at the same 165845 time, the state board or the superintendent of public instruction 165846 shall request only one criminal records check of the person under 165847 division (C) of this section. 165848

(G) If the department is unable to enroll a person who has 165849 submitted an application for licensure, or to whom the state board 165850 has issued a license, in the retained applicant fingerprint 165851 database established under section 109.5721 of the Revised Code 165852 because the person has not satisfied the requirements for 165853 enrollment, the department shall require the person to satisfy the 165854 requirements for enrollment, including requiring the person to 165855 submit, by a date prescribed by the department, one complete set 165856 of fingerprints and written permission that authorizes the 165857 superintendent of public instruction to forward the fingerprints 165858 to the bureau of criminal identification and investigation for the 165859 purpose of enrolling the person in the database. If the person 165860 fails to comply by the prescribed date, the department shall 165861 reject the application or shall take action to inactivate the 165862 person's license in accordance with division (E) of this section. 165863

Sec. 3319.311. (A)(1) The state board of education, or the 165864 superintendent of public instruction on behalf of the board, may 165865

the person under this section or section 3319.31 of the Revised 165883 Code within two years of the completion of the investigation, all 165884 records of the investigation shall be expunged. 165885 division (B) of section 3319.31 of the Revised Code. The 165901 superintendent shall advise the board of such determination at a 165902 meeting of the board. Within fourteen days of the next meeting of 165903 the board, any member of the board may ask that the question of 165904 initiating action under section 3319.31 of the Revised Code be 165905 placed on the board's agenda for that next meeting. Prior to 165906 initiating that action against any person, the person's name and 165907 any other personally identifiable information shall remain 165908 confidential. 165909

(C) The board shall take no action against a person under 165910 weeks after the suspension or expulsion. 166087

(4) Whenever a pupil is suspended, expelled, removed, or 166088 permanently excluded from a school for misconduct included in a 166089 policy that the board of education of a city, exempted village, or 166090 local school district has adopted under division (A) of section 166091 3313.661 of the Revised Code, and the misconduct involves a 166092 firearm or a knife or other weapon as defined in that policy, the 166093 superintendent of schools of that district shall notify the 166094 registrar and the juvenile judge of the county in which the 166095 district is located of the suspension, expulsion, removal, or 166096 permanent exclusion. The notification shall be given to the 166097 registrar in the manner the registrar, by rule, requires and shall 166098 be given to the juvenile judge in writing. The notifications shall 166099 be given within two weeks after the suspension, expulsion, 166100 removal, or permanent exclusion. 166101

(C) A notification of withdrawal, habitual absence without 166102 legitimate excuse, suspension, or expulsion given to the registrar 166103 or a juvenile judge under division (B)(1), (2), (3), or (4) of 166104 this section shall contain the name, address, date of birth, 166105 school, and school district of the child. If the superintendent 166106 finds, after giving a notification of withdrawal, habitual absence 166107 without legitimate excuse, suspension, or expulsion to the 166108 registrar and the juvenile judge under division (B)(1), (2), (3), 166109 or (4) of this section, that the notification was given in error, 166110 the superintendent immediately shall notify the registrar and the 166111 juvenile judge of that fact. 166112

Sec. 3321.21. A notice under section 3321.19 or 3321.20 of 166113 the Revised Code, sent by registered mail, regular mail with a 166114 certificate of mailing, or other form of delivery with proof of 166115 delivery, including electronic delivery and electronic proof of 166116 delivery, is a legal notice. 166117

Sec. 3704.03. The director of environmental protection may do 166118 any of the following: 166119

(A) Develop programs for the prevention, control, and 166120 abatement of air pollution; 166121

(B) Advise, consult, contract, and cooperate with any 166122 governmental or private agency in the furtherance of the purposes 166123 of this chapter; 166124

(C) Encourage, participate in, or conduct studies, 166125 investigations, and research relating to air pollution, collect 166126 and disseminate information, and conduct education and training 166127 programs relating to the causes, prevention, control, and 166128
abatement of air pollution; 166129

(D) Adopt, modify, and rescind rules prescribing ambient air 166130 quality standards for the state as a whole or for various areas of 166131 the state that are consistent with and no more stringent than the 166132 national ambient air quality standards in effect under the federal 166133 Clean Air Act; 166134

(E) Adopt, modify, suspend, and rescind rules for the 166135 prevention, control, and abatement of air pollution, including 166136 rules prescribing for the state as a whole or for various areas of 166137 the state emission standards for air contaminants, and other 166138 necessary rules for the purpose of achieving and maintaining 166139 compliance with ambient air quality standards in all areas within 166140 the state as expeditiously as practicable, but not later than any 166141 deadlines applicable under the federal Clean Air Act; rules for 166142 the prevention or control of the emission of hazardous or toxic 166143 air contaminants; rules prescribing fugitive dust limitations and 166144 standards that are related, on an areawide basis, to attainment 166145 and maintenance of ambient air quality standards; rules 166146 prescribing shade, density, or opacity limitations and standards 166147 for emissions, provided that with regard to air contaminant 166148 sources for which there are particulate matter emission standards 166149 in addition to a shade, density, or opacity rule, upon 166150 demonstration by such a source of compliance with those other 166151 standards, the shade, density, or opacity rule shall provide for 166152 establishment of a shade, density, or opacity limitation for that 166153 source that does not require the source to reduce emissions below 166154 the level specified by those other standards; rules for the 166155 prevention or control of odors and air pollution nuisances; rules 166156 that prevent significant deterioration of air quality to the 166157 extent required by the federal Clean Air Act; rules for the 166158 protection of visibility as required by the federal Clean Air Act; 166159 and rules prescribing open burning limitations and standards. In 166160 adopting, modifying, suspending, or rescinding any such rules, the 166161 director, to the extent consistent with the federal Clean Air Act, 166162 shall hear and give consideration to evidence relating to all of 166163

the following: 166164

(1) Conditions calculated to result from compliance with the 166165 rules, the overall cost within this state of compliance with the 166166 rules, and their relation to benefits to the people of the state 166167 to be derived from that compliance; 166168

(2) The quantity and characteristics of air contaminants, the 166169 frequency and duration of their presence in the ambient air, and 166170 the dispersion and dilution of those contaminants; 166171

(3) Topography, prevailing wind directions and velocities, 166172 physical conditions, and other factors that may or may combine to 166173 affect air pollution. 166174

Consistent with division (K) of section 3704.036 of the 166175 Revised Code, the director shall consider alternative emission 166176 limits proposed by the owner or operator of an air contaminant 166177 source that is subject to an emission limit established in rules 166178 adopted under this division and shall accept those alternative 166179 emission limits that the director determines to be equivalent to 166180 emission limits established in rules adopted under this division. 166181

(F)(1) Adopt, modify, suspend, and rescind rules consistent 166182 with the purposes of this chapter prohibiting the location, 166183 installation, construction, or modification of any air contaminant 166184 source or any machine, equipment, device, apparatus, or physical 166185 facility intended primarily to prevent or control the emission of 166186 air contaminants unless an installation permit therefor has been 166187 obtained from the director or the director's authorized 166188 representative. 166189

(2)(a) Applications for installation permits shall be 166190 accompanied by plans, specifications, construction schedules, and 166191 such other pertinent information and data, including data on 166192 ambient air quality impact and a demonstration of best available 166193 technology, as the director may require. Installation permits 166194 shall be issued for a period specified by the director and are 166195 transferable. The director shall specify in each permit the 166196 applicable emission standards and that the permit is conditioned 166197 upon payment of the applicable fees as required by section 3745.11 166198
of the Revised Code and upon the right of the director's 166199 authorized representatives to enter upon the premises of the 166200 person to whom the permit has been issued, at any reasonable time 166201
and subject to safety requirements of the person in control of the 166202 premises, for the purpose of determining compliance with such 166203 standards, this chapter, the rules adopted thereunder, and the 166204 conditions of any permit, variance, or order issued thereunder. 166205 Each proposed new or modified air contaminant source shall provide 166206 such notice of its proposed installation or modification to other 166207 states as is required under the federal Clean Air Act. 166208 Installation permits shall include the authorization to operate 166209 sources installed and operated in accordance with terms and 166210 conditions of the installation permits for a period not to exceed 166211 one year from commencement of operation, which authorization shall 166212 constitute an operating permit under division (G) of this section 166213 and rules adopted under it. 166214

No installation permit shall be required for activities that 166215 are subject to and in compliance with a plant-wide applicability 166216 limit issued by the director in accordance with rules adopted 166217
under this section. 166218

No installation permit shall be issued except in accordance 166219 with all requirements of this chapter and rules adopted 166220 thereunder. No application shall be denied or permit revoked or 166221 modified without a written order stating the findings upon which 166222 denial, revocation, or modification is based. A copy of the order 166223 shall be sent to the applicant or permit holder by certified mail. 166224

(b) An air contaminant source that is the subject of an 166225 installation permit shall be installed or modified in accordance 166226 with the permit not later than eighteen months after the permit's 166227 effective date at which point the permit shall terminate unless 166228 one of the following applies: 166229

(i) The owner or operator has undertaken a continuing program 166230 of installation or modification during the eighteen-month period. 166231

(ii) The owner or operator has entered into a binding 166232 contractual obligation to undertake and complete within a 166233 reasonable period of time a continuing program of installation or 166234 modification of the air contaminant source during the 166235 eighteen-month period. 166236

(iii) The director has extended the date by which the air 166237 contaminant source that is the subject of the installation permit 166238 must be installed or modified. 166239

(iv) The installation permit is the subject of an appeal by a 166240 party other than the owner or operator of the air contaminant 166241 source that is the subject of the installation permit, in which 166242 case the date of termination of the permit is not later than 166243 eighteen months after the effective date of the permit plus the 166244 number of days between the date in which the permit was appealed 166245 and the date on which all appeals concerning the permit have been 166246 resolved. 166247

(v) The installation permit has been superseded by a 166248 subsequent installation permit, in which case the original 166249 installation permit terminates on the effective date of the 166250 superseding installation permit. 166251

Division (F)(2)(b) of this section applies to an installation 166252 permit that has not terminated as of ~~the effective date of this~~ 166253 ~~amendment~~ October 16, 2009. 166254

The director may adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. 166255 of the Revised Code for the purpose of establishing additional 166256 requirements that are necessary for the implementation of division 166257
(F)(2)(b) of this section. 166258

(3) Not later than two years after August 3, 2006, the 166259 director shall adopt a rule in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 166260 Revised Code specifying that a permit to install is required only 166261 for new or modified air contaminant sources that emit any of the 166262 following air contaminants: 166263

(a) An air contaminant or precursor of an air contaminant for 166264 which a national ambient air quality standard has been adopted 166265 under the federal Clean Air Act; 166266

(b) An air contaminant for which the air contaminant source 166267 is regulated under the federal Clean Air Act; 166268

(c) An air contaminant that presents, or may present, through 166269 inhalation or other routes of exposure, a threat of adverse human 166270 health effects, including, but not limited to, substances that are 166271 known to be, or may reasonably be anticipated to be, carcinogenic, 166272 mutagenic, teratogenic, or neurotoxic, that cause reproductive 166273 dysfunction, or that are acutely or chronically toxic, or a threat 166274 of adverse environmental effects whether through ambient 166275 concentrations, bioaccumulation, deposition, or otherwise, and 166276 that is identified in the rule by chemical name and chemical 166277 abstract service number. 166278

The director may modify the rule adopted under division 166279 (F)(3)(c) of this section for the purpose of adding or deleting 166280 air contaminants. For each air contaminant that is contained in or 166281 deleted from the rule adopted under division (F)(3)(c) of this 166282 section, the director shall include in a notice accompanying any 166283 proposed or final rule an explanation of the director's 166284 determination that the air contaminant meets the criteria 166285 established in that division and should be added to, or no longer 166286 meets the criteria and should be deleted from, the list of air 166287 contaminants. The explanation shall include an identification of 166288 the scientific evidence on which the director relied in making the 166289 determination. Until adoption of the rule under division (F)(3)(c) 166290 of this section, nothing shall affect the director's authority to 166291 issue, deny, modify, or revoke permits to install under this 166292 chapter and rules adopted under it. 166293

(4)(a) Applications for permits to install new or modified 166294 air contaminant sources shall contain sufficient information 166295 regarding air contaminants for which the director may require a 166296 permit to install to determine conformity with the environmental 166297 protection agency's document entitled "Review of New Sources of Air Toxics Emissions, Option A," dated May 1986, which the director shall use to evaluate toxic emissions from new or modified air contaminant sources. The director shall make copies of the document available to the public upon request at no cost and post the document on the environmental protection agency's web site. Any inconsistency between the document and division (F)(4) of this section shall be resolved in favor of division (F)(4) of this section.

(b) The maximum acceptable ground level concentration of an air contaminant shall be calculated in accordance with the document entitled "Review of New Sources of Air Toxics Emissions, Option A." Modeling shall be conducted to determine the increase in the ground level concentration of an air contaminant beyond the facility's boundary caused by the emissions from a new or modified source that is the subject of an application for a permit to install. Modeling shall be based on the maximum hourly rate of emissions from the source using information including, but not limited to, any emission control devices or methods, operational restrictions, stack parameters, and emission dispersion devices or methods that may affect ground level concentrations, either individually or in combination. The director shall determine whether the activities for which a permit to install is sought will cause an increase in the ground level concentration of one or more relevant air contaminants beyond the facility's boundary by an amount in excess of the maximum acceptable ground level concentration. In making the determination as to whether the maximum acceptable ground level concentration will be exceeded, the director shall give consideration to the modeling conducted under division (F)(4)(b) of this section and other relevant information submitted by the applicant.

(c) If the modeling conducted under division (F)(4)(b) of this section with respect to an application for a permit to 166330 install demonstrates that the maximum ground level concentration 166331 from a new or modified source will be greater than or equal to 166332 eighty per cent, but less than one hundred per cent of the maximum 166333 acceptable ground level concentration for an air contaminant, the 166334 director may establish terms and conditions in the permit to 166335 install for the air contaminant source that will require the owner 166336 or operator of the air contaminant source to maintain emissions of 166337 that air contaminant commensurate with the modeled level, which 166338 shall be expressed as allowable emissions per day. In order to 166339 calculate the allowable emissions per day, the director shall 166340 multiply the hourly emission rate modeled under division (F)(4)(b) 166341 of this section to determine the ground level concentration by the 166342 operating schedule that has been identified in the permit to 166343 install application. Terms and conditions imposed under division 166344 (F)(4)(c) of this section are not federally enforceable 166345 requirements and, if included in a Title V permit, shall be placed 166346 in the portion of the permit that is only enforceable by the 166347

state. 166348

(d) If the modeling conducted under division (F)(4)(b) of 166349
this section with respect to an application for a permit to 166350
install demonstrates that the maximum ground level concentration 166351 from a new or modified source will be less than eighty per cent of 166352 the maximum acceptable ground level concentration, the owner or 166353 operator of the source annually shall report to the director, on a 166354 form prescribed by the director, whether operations of the source 166355 are consistent with the information regarding the operations that 166356 was used to conduct the modeling with regard to the permit to 166357 install application. The annual report to the director shall be in 166358 lieu of an emission limit or other permit terms and conditions 166359 imposed pursuant to division (F)(4) of this section. The director 166360 may consider any significant departure from the operations of the 166361 source described in the permit to install application that results 166362 in greater emissions than the emissions rate modeled to determine 166363 the ground level concentration as a modification and require the 166364 owner or operator to submit a permit to install application for 166365 the increased emissions. The requirements established in division 166366 (F)(4)(d) of this section are not federally enforceable 166367

in the portion of the permit that is only enforceable by the 166369
state. 166370

(e) Division (F)(4) of this section and the document entitled 166371
"Review of New Sources of Air Toxics Emissions, Option A" shall 166372 not be included in the state implementation plan under section 110 166373 of the federal Clean Air Act and do not apply to an air 166374 contaminant source that is subject to a maximum achievable control 166375 technology standard or residual risk standard under section 112 of 166376 the federal Clean Air Act, to a particular air contaminant 166377 identified under 40 C.F.R. 51.166, division (b)(23), for which the 166378 director has determined that the owner or operator of the source 166379 is required to install best available control technology for that 166380 particular air contaminant, or to a particular air contaminant for 166381 which the director has determined that the source is required to 166382 meet the lowest achievable emission rate, as defined in 40 C.F.R. 166383 part 51, Appendix S, for that particular air contaminant. 166384

(f)(i) Division (F)(4) of this section and the document 166385 entitled "Review of New Sources of Air Toxics Emissions, Option A" 166386 do not apply to parking lots, storage piles, storage tanks, 166387 transfer operations, grain silos, grain dryers, emergency 166388 generators, gasoline dispensing operations, air contaminant 166389 sources that emit air contaminants solely from the combustion of 166390 fossil fuels, or the emission of wood dust, sand, glass dust, coal 166391 dust, silica, and grain dust. 166392

(ii) Notwithstanding division (F)(4)(f)(i) of this section, 166393 the director may require an individual air contaminant source that 166394 is within one of the source categories identified in division 166395 (F)(4)(f)(i) of this section to submit information in an 166396 application for a permit to install a new or modified source in 166397 order to determine the source's conformity to the document if the 166398 director has information to conclude that the particular new or 166399 modified source will potentially cause an increase in ground level 166400 concentration beyond the facility's boundary that exceeds the 166401 maximum acceptable ground level concentration as set forth in the 166402 document. 166403

(iii) The director may adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 166404
119. of the Revised Code that are consistent with the purposes of 166405 this chapter and that add to or delete from the source category 166406 exemptions established in division (F)(4)(f)(i) of this section. 166407

(5) Not later than one year after August 3, 2006, the 166408 director shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 166409 Revised Code specifying activities that do not, by themselves, 166410 constitute beginning actual construction activities related to the 166411 installation or modification of an air contaminant source for 166412 which a permit to install is required such as the grading and 166413 clearing of land, on-site storage of portable parts and equipment, 166414 and the construction of foundations or buildings that do not 166415 themselves emit air contaminants. The rules also shall allow 166416 specified initial activities that are part of the installation or 166417 modification of an air contaminant source, such as the 166418 installation of electrical and other utilities for the source, 166419 prior to issuance of a permit to install, provided that the owner 166420 or operator of the source has filed a complete application for a 166421 permit to install, the director or the director's designee has 166422 determined that the application is complete, and the owner or 166423 operator of the source has notified the director that this 166424 activity will be undertaken prior to the issuance of a permit to 166425 install. Any activity that is undertaken by the source under those 166426 rules shall be at the risk of the owner or operator. The rules 166427 shall not apply to activities that are precluded prior to permit 166428 issuance under section 111, section 112, Part C of Title I, and 166429 Part D of Title I of the federal Clean Air Act. 166430

(G) Adopt, modify, suspend, and rescind rules prohibiting the 166431 operation or other use of any new, modified, or existing air 166432 contaminant source unless an operating permit has been obtained 166433 from the director or the director's authorized representative, or 166434 the air contaminant source is being operated in compliance with 166435 the conditions of a variance issued pursuant to division (H) of 166436 this section. Applications for operating permits shall be 166437 accompanied by such plans, specifications, and other pertinent 166438 information as the director may require. Operating permits may be 166439 issued for a period determined by the director not to exceed ten 166440 years, are renewable, and are transferable. The director shall 166441 specify in each operating permit that the permit is conditioned 166442
upon payment of the applicable fees as required by section 3745.11 166443
of the Revised Code and upon the right of the director's 166444
premises, for the purpose of determining compliance with this 166448 chapter, the rules adopted thereunder, and the conditions of any 166449 permit, variance, or order issued thereunder. Operating permits 166450 may be denied or revoked for failure to comply with this chapter 166451 or the rules adopted thereunder. An operating permit shall be 166452 issued only upon a showing satisfactory to the director or the 166453 director's representative that the air contaminant source is being 166454 operated in compliance with applicable emission standards and 166455 other rules or upon submission of a schedule of compliance 166456 satisfactory to the director for a source that is not in 166457 compliance with all applicable requirements at the time of permit 166458 issuance, provided that the compliance schedule shall be 166459 consistent with and at least as stringent as that contained in any 166460 judicial consent decree or administrative order to which the air 166461 contaminant source is subject. The rules shall provide for the 166462 issuance of conditional operating permits for such reasonable 166463 periods as the director may determine to allow the holder of an 166464 installation permit, who has constructed, installed, located, or 166465 modified a new air contaminant source in accordance with the 166466 provisions of an installation permit, to make adjustments or 166467 modifications necessary to enable the new air contaminant source 166468 to comply with applicable emission standards and other rules. 166469 Terms and conditions of operating permits issued pursuant to this 166470 division shall be federally enforceable for the purpose of 166471 establishing the potential to emit of a stationary source and 166472 shall be expressly designated as federally enforceable. Any such 166473 federally enforceable restrictions on a source's potential to emit 166474 shall include both an annual limit and a short-term limit of not 166475 more than thirty days for each pollutant to be restricted together 166476 with adequate methods for establishing compliance with the 166477 restrictions. In other respects, operating permits issued pursuant 166478 to this division are enforceable as state law only. No application 166479 shall be denied or permit revoked or modified without a written 166480 order stating the findings upon which denial, revocation, or 166481 modification is based. A copy of the order shall be sent to the 166482 applicant or permit holder by certified mail. 166483

(H) Adopt, modify, and rescind rules governing the issuance, 166484 revocation, modification, or denial of variances that authorize 166485 emissions in excess of the applicable emission standards. 166486

No variance shall be issued except pursuant to those rules. 166487
The rules shall prescribe conditions and criteria in furtherance 166488 of the purposes of this chapter and consistent with the federal 166489 Clean Air Act governing eligibility for issuance of variances, 166490 which shall include all of the following: 166491

(1) Provisions requiring consistency of emissions authorized	166492
by a variance with timely attainment and maintenance of ambient	166493
air quality standards;	166494
(2) Provisions prescribing the classes and categories of air	166495 contaminants and air contaminant sources for which variances may	166496
be issued;	166497
(3) Provisions defining the circumstances under which an	166498
applicant shall demonstrate that compliance with applicable	166499 emission standards is technically infeasible, economically	166500 unreasonable, or impossible because of conditions beyond the	166501 control of the applicant;	166502
(4) Other provisions prescribed in furtherance of the goals	166503
The rules shall prohibit the issuance of variances from any	166505 emission limitation that was applicable to a source pursuant to an	166506 installation permit and shall prohibit issuance of variances that	166507 conflict with the federal Clean Air Act.	166508
Applications for variances shall be accompanied by such	166509 information as the director may require. In issuing variances, the	166510 director may order the person to whom a variance is issued to	166511 furnish plans and specifications and such other information and	166512 data, including interim reports, as the director may require and	166513 to proceed to take such action within such time as the director	166514 may determine to be appropriate and reasonable to prevent,	166515 control, or abate the person's existing emissions of air	166516 contaminants. The director shall specify in each variance that the	166517 variance is conditioned upon payment of the applicable fees as	166518 required by section 3745.11 of the Revised Code and upon the right	166519 of the director's authorized representatives to enter upon the	166520 premises of the person to whom the variance has been issued, at	166521 any reasonable time and subject to safety requirements of the	166522 person in control of the premises, for the purpose of determining 166523 compliance with this chapter, the rules adopted thereunder, and 166524 the conditions of any permit, variance, or order issued 166525 thereunder. 166526

The director may hold a public hearing on an application for 166527 a variance or renewal thereof at a location in the county where 166528 the variance is sought. The director shall give not less than 166529 twenty days' notice of the hearing to the applicant by certified 166530 mail or another type of mail accompanied by a receipt and. The 166531 director also shall cause at least one publication of notice in a 166532 newspaper with general circulation in the county where the 166533 variance is sought or may instead provide public notice by 166534 publication on the environmental protection agency's web site. The 166535 director shall keep available for public inspection at the 166536 principal office of the environmental protection agency a current 166537 schedule of pending applications for variances and a current 166538 schedule of pending variance hearings. The director shall make a 166539 complete stenographic record or electronic record of testimony and 166540 other evidence submitted at the hearing. The director shall make a 166541 written determination to issue, renew, or deny the variance and 166542 shall enter the determination and the basis therefor into the 166543 record of the hearing. The director shall issue, renew, or deny an 166544 application for a variance or renewal thereof, or issue a proposed 166545 action upon the application pursuant to section 3745.07 of the 166546 Revised Code, within six months of the date upon which the 166547 director receives a complete application with all pertinent 166548 information and data required by the director. 166549

Any variance granted pursuant to rules adopted under this 166550 division shall be for a period specified by the director, not to 166551 exceed three years, and may be renewed from time to time on such 166552 terms and for such periods, not to exceed three years each, as the 166553 director determines to be appropriate. A variance may be revoked, 166554 or renewal denied, for failure to comply with conditions specified 166555 in the variance. No variance shall be issued, denied, revoked, or 166556

the issuance, denial, revocation, or modification is based. A copy 166558 of the order shall be sent to the applicant or variance holder by 166559 certified mail. 166560

(I) Require the owner or operator of an air contaminant 166561 source to install, employ, maintain, and operate such emissions, 166562 ambient air quality, meteorological, or other monitoring devices 166563 or methods as the director shall prescribe; to sample those 166564 emissions at such locations, at such intervals, and in such manner 166565 as the director prescribes; to maintain records and file periodic 166566 reports with the director containing information as to location, 166567 size, and height of emission outlets, rate, duration, and 166568 composition of emissions, and any other pertinent information the 166569 director prescribes; and to provide such written notice to other 166570 states as the director shall prescribe. In requiring monitoring 166571 devices, records, and reports, the director, to the extent 166572 consistent with the federal Clean Air Act, shall give 166573 consideration to technical feasibility and economic reasonableness 166574 and allow reasonable time for compliance. For sources where a 166575 specific monitoring, record-keeping, or reporting requirement is 166576 specified for a particular air contaminant from a particular air 166577 contaminant source in an applicable regulation adopted by the 166578 United States environmental protection agency under the federal 166579 Clean Air Act or in an applicable rule adopted by the director, 166580 the director shall not impose an additional requirement in a 166581 permit that is a different monitoring, record-keeping, or 166582 reporting requirement other than the requirement specified in the 166583 applicable regulation or rule for that air contaminant except as 166584 otherwise agreed to by the owner or operator of the air 166585 contaminant source and the director. If two or more regulations or 166586 rules impose different monitoring, record-keeping, or reporting 166587 requirements for the same air contaminant from the same air 166588 contaminant source, the director may impose permit terms and 166589 conditions that consolidate or streamline the monitoring, 166590 record-keeping, or reporting requirements in a manner that 166591 conforms with each applicable requirement. To the extent 166592 consistent with the federal Clean Air Act and except as otherwise 166593 agreed to by the owner or operator of an air contaminant source 166594 and the director, the director shall not require an operating 166595 restriction that has the practical effect of increasing the 166596 stringency of an existing applicable emission limitation or 166597 standard. 166598

(J) Establish, operate, and maintain monitoring stations and 166599 other devices designed to measure air pollution and enter into 166600 contracts with any public or private agency for the establishment, 166601 operation, or maintenance of such stations and devices; 166602

(K) By rule adopt procedures for giving reasonable public 166603 notice and conducting public hearings on any plans for the 166604 prevention, control, and abatement of air pollution that the 166605 director is required to submit to the federal government; 166606

(L) Through any employee, agent, or authorized representative 166607 of the director or the environmental protection agency, enter upon 166608 private or public property, including improvements thereon, at any 166609 reasonable time, to make inspections, take samples, conduct tests, 166610 and examine records or reports pertaining to any emission of air 166611 contaminants and any monitoring equipment or methods and to 166612 determine if there are any actual or potential emissions from such 166613 premises and, if so, to determine the sources, amounts, contents, 166614 and extent of those emissions, or to ascertain whether there is 166615 compliance with this chapter, any orders issued or rules adopted 166616 thereunder, or any other determination of the director. The 166617 director, at reasonable times, may have access to and copy any 166618 such records. If entry or inspection authorized by this division 166619 is refused, hindered, or thwarted, the director or the director's 166620 authorized representative may by affidavit apply for, and any 166621 judge of a court of record may issue, an appropriate inspection 166622 warrant necessary to achieve the purposes of this chapter within 166623 the court's territorial jurisdiction. 166624

(M) Accept and administer gifts or grants from the federal 166625 government and from any other source, public or private, for 166626 carrying out any of the functions under this chapter; 166627

(N) Obtain necessary scientific, technical, and laboratory 166628 services; 166629

(O) Establish advisory boards in accordance with section 166630

(P) Delegate to any city or general health district or 166632 political subdivision of the state any of the director's 166633 enforcement and monitoring powers and duties, other than 166634 rule-making powers, as the director elects to delegate, and in 166635 addition employ, compensate, and prescribe the powers and duties 166636 of such officers, employees, and consultants as are necessary to 166637 enable the director to exercise the authority and perform duties 166638 imposed upon the director by law. Technical and other services 166639 shall be performed, insofar as practical, by personnel of the 166640 environmental protection agency. 166641

(Q) Certify to the government of the United States or any 166642 agency thereof that an industrial air pollution facility is in 166643 conformity with the state program or requirements for control of 166644 air pollution whenever such certificate is required for a taxpayer 166645 pursuant to any federal law or requirements; 166646

(R) Issue, modify, or revoke orders requiring abatement of or 166647 prohibiting emissions that violate applicable emission standards 166648 or other requirements of this chapter and rules adopted 166649 thereunder, or requiring emission control devices or measures in 166650 order to comply with applicable emission standards or other 166651 requirements of this chapter and rules adopted thereunder. Any 166652 such order shall require compliance with applicable emission 166653 standards by a specified date and shall not conflict with any 166654 requirement of the federal Clean Air Act. In the making of such 166655 orders, the director, to the extent consistent with the federal 166656 Clean Air Act, shall give consideration to, and base the 166657 determination on, evidence relating to the technical feasibility 166658 and economic reasonableness of compliance with such orders and 166659 their relation to benefits to the people of the state to be 166660 derived from such compliance. If, under the federal Clean Air Act, 166661 any such order shall provide for the posting of a bond or surety 166662 to secure compliance with the order as a condition of issuance of 166663 the order, the order shall so provide, but only to the extent 166664 required by the federal Clean Air Act. 166665

(S) To the extent provided by the federal Clean Air Act, 166666 adopt, modify, and rescind rules providing for the administrative 166667 assessment and collection of monetary penalties, not in excess of 166668 those required pursuant to the federal Clean Air Act, for failure 166669 to comply with any emission limitation or standard, compliance 166670 schedule, or other requirement of any rule, order, permit, or 166671 variance issued or adopted under this chapter or required under 166672 the applicable implementation plan whether or not the source is 166673 subject to a federal or state consent decree. The director may 166674 require the submission of compliance schedules, calculations of 166675 penalties for noncompliance, and related information. Any orders, 166676 payments, sanctions, or other requirements imposed pursuant to 166677 rules adopted under this division shall be in addition to any 166678 other permits, orders, payments, sanctions, or other requirements 166679 established under this chapter and shall not affect any civil or 166680 criminal enforcement proceedings brought under any provision of 166681 this chapter or any other provision of state or local law. This 166682 division does not apply to any requirement of this chapter 166683 regarding the prevention or abatement of odors. 166684

(T) Require new or modified air contaminant sources to 166685 install best available technology, but only in accordance with 166686 this division. With respect to permits issued pursuant to division 166687 (F) of this section beginning three years after August 3, 2006, 166688 best available technology for air contaminant sources and air 166689 contaminants emitted by those sources that are subject to 166690 standards adopted under section 112, Part C of Title I, and Part D 166691 of Title I of the federal Clean Air Act shall be equivalent to and 166692 no more stringent than those standards. For an air contaminant or 166693 precursor of an air contaminant for which a national ambient air 166694 quality standard has been adopted under the federal Clean Air Act, 166695 best available technology only shall be required to the extent 166696 required by rules adopted under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code 166697 for permit to install applications filed three or more years after 166698 August 3, 2006. 166699

Best available technology requirements established in rules 166700 adopted under this division shall be expressed only in one of the 166701 following ways that is most appropriate for the applicable source 166702 or source categories: 166703

(1) Work practices; 166704

(2) Source design characteristics or design efficiency of 166705 applicable air contaminant control devices; 166706

(3) Raw material specifications or throughput limitations 166707 averaged over a twelve-month rolling period; 166708

(4) Monthly allowable emissions averaged over a twelve-month 166709 rolling period. 166710

Best available technology requirements shall not apply to an 166711 air contaminant source that has the potential to emit, taking into 166712 account air pollution controls installed on the source, less than 166713 ten tons per year of emissions of an air contaminant or precursor 166714 of an air contaminant for which a national ambient air quality 166715 standard has been adopted under the federal Clean Air Act. In 166716 addition, best available technology requirements established in 166717 rules adopted under this division shall not apply to any existing, 166718 new, or modified air contaminant source that is subject to a 166719 plant-wide applicability limit that has been approved by the 166720 director. Further, best available technology requirements 166721 established in rules adopted under this division shall not apply 166722 to general permits issued prior to January 1, 2006, under rules 166723 adopted under this chapter. 166724

For permits to install issued three or more years after 166725
August 3, 2006, any new or modified air contaminant source that 166726 has the potential to emit, taking into account air pollution 166727 controls installed on the source, ten or more tons per year of 166728 volatile organic compounds or nitrogen oxides shall meet, at a 166729 minimum, the requirements of any applicable reasonably available 166730 control technology rule in effect as of January 1, 2006, 166731 regardless of the location of the source. 166732

(U) Consistent with section 507 of the federal Clean Air Act, 166733 adopt, modify, suspend, and rescind rules for the establishment of 166734 a small business stationary source technical and environmental 166735 compliance assistance program as provided in section 3704.18 of 166736
the Revised Code; 166737

(V) Provide for emissions trading, marketable permits, 166738 auctions of emission rights, and economic incentives that would 166739 reduce the cost or increase the efficiency of achieving a 166740 specified level of environmental protection; 166741

(W) Provide for the construction of an air contaminant source 166742 prior to obtaining a permit to install pursuant to division (F) of 166743 this section if the applicant demonstrates that the source will be 166744 installed to comply with all applicable emission limits and will 166745 not adversely affect public health or safety or the environment 166746 and if the director determines that such an action will avoid an 166747 unreasonable hardship on the owner or operator of the source. Any 166748 such determination shall be consistent with the federal Clean Air 166749 Act. 166750

(X) Exercise all incidental powers, including adoption of 166751 rules, required to carry out this chapter. 166752

The environmental protection agency shall develop a plan to 166753 control air pollution resulting from state-operated facilities and 166754 property. 166755

Sec. 3734.02. (A) The director of environmental protection, 166756 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt 166757 and may amend, suspend, or rescind rules having uniform 166758 application throughout the state governing solid waste facilities 166759 and the inspections of and issuance of permits and licenses for 166760 all solid waste facilities in order to ensure that the facilities 166761 will be located, maintained, and operated, and will undergo 166762 closure and post-closure care, in a sanitary manner so as not to 166763 create a nuisance, cause or contribute to water pollution, create 166764 a health hazard, or violate 40 C.F.R. 257.3-2 or 40 C.F.R. 166765 257.3-8, as amended. The rules may include, without limitation, 166766 financial assurance requirements for closure and post-closure care 166767 and corrective action and requirements for taking corrective 166768 action in the event of the surface or subsurface discharge or 166769 migration of explosive gases or leachate from a solid waste 166770 facility, or of ground water contamination resulting from the 166771 transfer or disposal of solid wastes at a facility, beyond the 166772 boundaries of any area within a facility that is operating or is 166773 undergoing closure or post-closure care where solid wastes were 166774 disposed of or are being disposed of. The rules shall not concern 166775 or relate to personnel policies, salaries, wages, fringe benefits, 166776 or other conditions of employment of employees of persons owning 166777 or operating solid waste facilities. The director, in accordance 166778 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt and may amend, 166779 suspend, or rescind rules governing the issuance, modification, 166780 revocation, suspension, or denial of variances from the director's 166781 solid waste rules, including, without limitation, rules adopted 166782 under this chapter governing the management of scrap tires. 166783

Variances shall be issued, modified, revoked, suspended, or 166784 rescinded in accordance with this division, rules adopted under 166785 it, and Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code. The director may order 166786 the person to whom a variance is issued to take such action within 166787 such time as the director may determine to be appropriate and 166788 reasonable to prevent the creation of a nuisance or a hazard to 166789 the public health or safety or the environment. Applications for 166790 variances shall contain such detail plans, specifications, and 166791 information regarding objectives, procedures, controls, and other 166792 pertinent data as the director may require. The director shall 166793 grant a variance only if the applicant demonstrates to the 166794 director's satisfaction that construction and operation of the 166795 solid waste facility in the manner allowed by the variance and any 166796 terms or conditions imposed as part of the variance will not 166797 create a nuisance or a hazard to the public health or safety or 166798 the environment. In granting any variance, the director shall 166799 state the specific provision or provisions whose terms are to be 166800 varied and also shall state specific terms or conditions imposed 166801 upon the applicant in place of the provision or provisions. 166802

a variance or renewal of a variance at a location in the county 166804 where the operations that are the subject of the application for 166805 the variance are conducted. The director shall give not less than 166806
mail or by another type of mail accompanied by a receipt ~~and~~. The 166808 director shall publish at least one notice of the hearing in a 166809 newspaper with general circulation in the county where the hearing 166810 is to be held or may instead provide public notice by publication 166811 on the environmental protection agency's web site. The director 166812 shall make available for public inspection at the principal office 166813 of the environmental protection agency a current list of pending 166814 applications for variances and a current schedule of pending 166815 variance hearings. The director shall make a complete stenographic 166816 record or electronic record of testimony and other evidence 166817 submitted at the hearing. 166818

Within ten days after the hearing, the director shall make a 166819
shall enter the determination and the basis for it into the record 166821 of the hearing. The director shall issue, renew, or deny an 166822 application for a variance or renewal of a variance within six 166823 months of the date upon which the director receives a complete 166824 application with all pertinent information and data required. No 166825 variance shall be issued, revoked, modified, or denied until the 166826 director has considered the relative interests of the applicant, 166827 other persons and property affected by the variance, and the 166828 general public. Any variance granted under this division shall be 166829 for a period specified by the director and may be renewed from 166830 time to time on such terms and for such periods as the director 166831 determines to be appropriate. No application shall be denied and 166832 no variance shall be revoked or modified without a written order 166833 stating the findings upon which the denial, revocation, or 166834 modification is based. A copy of the order shall be sent to the 166835 applicant or variance holder by certified mail or by another type 166836 of mail accompanied by a receipt. 166837

(B) The director shall prescribe and furnish the forms 166838 necessary to administer and enforce this chapter. The director may 166839 cooperate with and enter into agreements with other state, local, 166840 or federal agencies to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The 166841 director may exercise all incidental powers necessary to carry out 166842 the purposes of this chapter. 166843

(C) Except as provided in this division and divisions (N)(2) 166844 and (3) of this section, no person shall establish a new solid 166845 waste facility or infectious waste treatment facility, or modify 166846 an existing solid waste facility or infectious waste treatment 166847 facility, without submitting an application for a permit with 166848 accompanying detail plans, specifications, and information 166849 regarding the facility and method of operation and receiving a 166850 permit issued by the director, except that no permit shall be 166851 required under this division to install or operate a solid waste 166852 facility for sewage sludge treatment or disposal when the 166853 treatment or disposal is authorized by a current permit issued 166854 under Chapter 3704. or 6111. of the Revised Code. 166855

No person shall continue to operate a solid waste facility 166856 for which the director has disapproved plans and specifications 166857 required to be filed by an order issued under division (A)(3) of 166858 section 3734.05 of the Revised Code, after the date prescribed for 166859 commencement of closure of the facility in the order issued under 166860 division (A)(4) of that section denying the permit application or 166861 approval. 166862

On and after the effective date of the rules adopted under 166863 division (A) of this section and division (D) of section 3734.12 166864 of the Revised Code governing solid waste transfer facilities, no 166865 person shall establish a new, or modify an existing, solid waste 166866 transfer facility without first submitting an application for a 166867 permit with accompanying engineering detail plans, specifications, 166868 and information regarding the facility and its method of operation 166869 to the director and receiving a permit issued by the director. 166870

No person shall establish a new compost facility or continue 166871 to operate an existing compost facility that accepts exclusively 166872 source separated yard wastes without submitting a completed 166873 registration for the facility to the director in accordance with 166874 rules adopted under divisions (A) and (N)(3) of this section. 166875

This division does not apply to a generator of infectious 166876 wastes that does any of the following: 166877

(1) Treats, by methods, techniques, and practices established 166878 by rules adopted under division (B)(2)(a) of section 3734.021 of 166879 the Revised Code, any of the following: 166880

(a) Infectious wastes that are generated on any premises that 166881 are owned or operated by the generator; 166882

(b) Infectious wastes that are generated by a generator who 166883 has staff privileges at a hospital as defined in section 3727.01 166884

(c) Infectious wastes that are generated in providing care to 166886 a patient by an emergency medical services organization as defined 166887 in section 4765.01 of the Revised Code. 166888

(2) Holds a license or renewal of a license to operate a 166889 crematory facility issued under Chapter 4717. and a permit issued 166890 under Chapter 3704. of the Revised Code; 166891

(3) Treats or disposes of dead animals or parts thereof, or 166892 the blood of animals, and is subject to any of the following: 166893

(a) Inspection under the "Federal Meat Inspection Act," 81 166894
Stat. 584 (1967), 21 U.S.C.A. 603, as amended; 166895

(b) Chapter 918. of the Revised Code; 166896

(c) Chapter 953. of the Revised Code. 166897

(D) Neither this chapter nor any rules adopted under it apply 166898 to single-family residential premises; to infectious wastes 166899 generated by individuals for purposes of their own care or 166900 treatment; to the temporary storage of solid wastes, other than 166901 scrap tires, prior to their collection for disposal; to the 166902 storage of one hundred or fewer scrap tires unless they are stored 166903 in such a manner that, in the judgment of the director or the 166904 board of health of the health district in which the scrap tires 166905 are stored, the storage causes a nuisance, a hazard to public 166906 health or safety, or a fire hazard; or to the collection of solid 166907 wastes, other than scrap tires, by a political subdivision or a 166908 person holding a franchise or license from a political subdivision 166909 of the state; to composting, as defined in section 1511.01 of the 166910 Revised Code, conducted in accordance with section 1511.022 of the 166911 Revised Code; or to any person who is licensed to transport raw 166912 rendering material to a compost facility pursuant to section 166913

953.23 of the Revised Code. 166914

(E)(1) As used in this division: 166915

(a) "On-site facility" means a facility that stores, treats, 166916 or disposes of hazardous waste that is generated on the premises 166917 of the facility. 166918

(b) "Off-site facility" means a facility that stores, treats, 166919 or disposes of hazardous waste that is generated off the premises 166920 of the facility and includes such a facility that is also an 166921 on-site facility. 166922

(c) "Satellite facility" means any of the following: 166923

(i) An on-site facility that also receives hazardous waste 166924 from other premises owned by the same person who generates the 166925 waste on the facility premises; 166926

(ii) An off-site facility operated so that all of the 166927 hazardous waste it receives is generated on one or more premises 166928 owned by the person who owns the facility; 166929

(iii) An on-site facility that also receives hazardous waste 166930 that is transported uninterruptedly and directly to the facility 166931 through a pipeline from a generator who is not the owner of the 166932 facility. 166933

(2) Except as provided in division (E)(3) of this section, no person shall establish or operate a hazardous waste facility, or use a solid waste facility for the storage, treatment, or disposal of any hazardous waste, without a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit issued in accordance with section 3734.05 of the Revised Code and subject to the payment of an application fee not to exceed one thousand five hundred dollars, payable upon application for a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit and upon application for a renewal permit issued under division (H) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code, to be credited to the hazardous waste facility management fund created in section 3734.18 of the Revised Code. The term of a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit shall not exceed ten years.

A hazardous waste disposal facility that disposes of 166991 hazardous waste by deep well injection and that pays the annual 166992 permit fee established in section 6111.046 of the Revised Code is 166993 not subject to the permit fee established in this division for 166994 disposal facilities using deep well injection unless the director 166995 determines that the facility is not in compliance with applicable 166996 requirements established under this chapter and rules adopted 166997 under it. 166998

In determining the annual permit fee required by this section, the director shall not require additional payments for multiple units of the same method of storage, treatment, or disposal or for individual units that are used for both storage and treatment. A facility using more than one method of storage, treatment, or disposal shall pay the permit fee indicated by the schedule for each such method.

The director shall not require the payment of that portion of an annual permit fee of any permit holder that would apply to a hazardous waste management unit for which a permit has been issued, but for which construction has not yet commenced. Once construction has commenced, the director shall require the payment of a part of the appropriate fee indicated by the schedule that bears the same relationship to the total fee that the number of days remaining until the next anniversary date at which payment of the annual permit fee is due bears to three hundred sixty-five.

The director, by rules adopted in accordance with Chapters 119. and 3745. of the Revised Code, shall prescribe procedures for collecting the annual permit fee established by this division and may prescribe other requirements necessary to carry out this division.

(3) The prohibition against establishing or operating a hazardous waste facility without a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit does not apply to either of the following:

(a) A facility that is operating in accordance with a permit renewal issued under division (H) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code, a revision issued under division (I) of that section as it existed prior to August 20, 1996, or a modification issued by the director under division (I) of that section on and after August 20, 1996;

If a modification is requested or proposed for a facility described in division (E)(3)(a) or (b) of this section, division (I)(7) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code applies.

(F) No person shall store, treat, or dispose of hazardous waste identified or listed under this chapter and rules adopted under it, regardless of whether generated on or off the premises where the waste is stored, treated, or disposed of, or transport or cause to be transported any hazardous waste identified or listed under this chapter and rules adopted under it to any other premises, except at or to any of the following:

(1) A hazardous waste facility operating under a permit issued in accordance with this chapter;

(2) A facility in another state operating under a license or permit issued in accordance with the "Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976," 90 Stat. 2806, 42 U.S.C.A. 6921, as amended;

(3) A facility in another nation operating in accordance with the laws of that nation;

(4) A facility holding a permit issued pursuant to Title I of the "Marine Protection, Research, and Sanctuaries Act of 1972," 86

Stat. 1052, 33 U.S.C.A. 1401, as amended; 167061

(5) A hazardous waste facility as described in division 167062
(E)(3)(a) or (b) of this section. 167063

(G) The director, by order, may exempt any person generating, 167064 collecting, storing, treating, disposing of, or transporting solid 167065 wastes, infectious wastes, or hazardous waste, or processing solid 167066 wastes that consist of scrap tires, in such quantities or under 167067 such circumstances that, in the determination of the director, are 167068 unlikely to adversely affect the public health or safety or the 167069 environment from any requirement to obtain a registration 167070 certificate, permit, or license or comply with the manifest system 167071 or other requirements of this chapter. Such an exemption shall be 167072 consistent with and equivalent to any regulations adopted by the 167073 administrator of the United States environmental protection agency 167074 under the "Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976," 90 167075 Stat. 2806, 42 U.S.C.A. 6921, as amended, except as otherwise 167076 provided in this chapter. 167077

(H) No person shall engage in filling, grading, excavating, 167078 building, drilling, or mining on land where a hazardous waste 167079 facility, or a solid waste facility, was operated without prior 167080 authorization from the director, who shall establish the procedure 167081 for granting such authorization by rules adopted in accordance 167082 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 167083

A public utility that has main or distribution lines above or 167084 below the land surface located on an easement or right-of-way 167085 across land where a solid waste facility was operated may engage 167086 in any such activity within the easement or right-of-way without 167087 prior authorization from the director for purposes of performing 167088 emergency repair or emergency replacement of its lines; of the 167089 poles, towers, foundations, or other structures supporting or 167090 sustaining any such lines; or of the appurtenances to those 167091 structures, necessary to restore or maintain existing public 167092 utility service. A public utility may enter upon any such easement 167093 or right-of-way without prior authorization from the director for 167094 purposes of performing necessary or routine maintenance of those 167095 portions of its existing lines; of the existing poles, towers, 167096 foundations, or other structures sustaining or supporting its 167097 lines; or of the appurtenances to any such supporting or 167098 sustaining structure, located on or above the land surface on any 167099 such easement or right-of-way. Within twenty-four hours after 167100 commencing any such emergency repair, replacement, or maintenance 167101 work, the public utility shall notify the director or the 167102 director's authorized representative of those activities and shall 167103 provide such information regarding those activities as the 167104 director or the director's representative may request. Upon 167105 completion of the emergency repair, replacement, or maintenance 167106 activities, the public utility shall restore any land of the solid 167107 waste facility disturbed by those activities to the condition 167108 existing prior to the commencement of those activities. 167109

(I) No owner or operator of a hazardous waste facility, in 167110 the operation of the facility, shall cause, permit, or allow the 167111 emission therefrom of any particulate matter, dust, fumes, gas, 167112 mist, smoke, vapor, or odorous substance that, in the opinion of 167113 the director, unreasonably interferes with the comfortable 167114 enjoyment of life or property by persons living or working in the 167115 vicinity of the facility, or that is injurious to public health. 167116 Any such action is hereby declared to be a public nuisance. 167117

(J) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, in 167118 the event the director finds an imminent and substantial danger to 167119 public health or safety or the environment that creates an 167120 emergency situation requiring the immediate treatment, storage, or 167121 disposal of hazardous waste, the director may issue a temporary 167122 emergency permit to allow the treatment, storage, or disposal of 167123 the hazardous waste at a facility that is not otherwise authorized 167124 by a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit to 167125 treat, store, or dispose of the waste. The emergency permit shall 167126 not exceed ninety days in duration and shall not be renewed. The 167127 director shall adopt, and may amend, suspend, or rescind, rules in 167128 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing the 167129 issuance, modification, revocation, and denial of emergency 167130 permits. 167131

(K) Except for infectious wastes generated by a person who 167132 produces fewer than fifty pounds of infectious wastes at a 167133 premises during any one month, no owner or operator of a sanitary 167134 landfill shall knowingly accept for disposal, or dispose of, any 167135 infectious wastes that have not been treated to render them 167136 noninfectious. 167137

(L) The director, in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 167138 Revised Code, shall adopt, and may amend, suspend, or rescind, 167139 rules having uniform application throughout the state establishing 167140 a training and certification program that shall be required for 167141 employees of boards of health who are responsible for enforcing 167142 the solid waste and infectious waste provisions of this chapter 167143 and rules adopted under them and for persons who are responsible 167144 for the operation of solid waste facilities or infectious waste 167145 treatment facilities. The rules shall provide all of the 167146 following, without limitation: 167147

(1) The program shall be administered by the director and 167148 shall consist of a course on new solid waste and infectious waste 167149 technologies, enforcement procedures, and rules; 167150

(2) The course shall be offered on an annual basis; 167151

(3) Those persons who are required to take the course under 167152 division (L) of this section shall do so triennially; 167153

(4) Persons who successfully complete the course shall be 167154 certified by the director; 167155

(b) All employees of a board of health who, after the effective date of the rules adopted under division (L) of this section, become responsible for enforcing the solid waste or infectious waste provisions of this chapter and rules adopted under them and who do not hold a current and valid certification from the director at that time shall complete the course and be certified by the director within two years after becoming responsible for performing those activities.

No person shall fail to obtain the certification required under this division.

(M) The director shall not issue a permit under section 3734.05 of the Revised Code to establish a solid waste facility, or to modify a solid waste facility operating on December 21, 1988, in a manner that expands the disposal capacity or geographic area covered by the facility, that is or is to be located within the boundaries of a state park established or dedicated under Chapter 1546. of the Revised Code, a state park purchase area established under section 1546.06 of the Revised Code, any unit of the national park system, or any property that lies within the boundaries of a national park or recreation area, but that has not been acquired or is not administered by the secretary of the 167188 United States department of the interior, located in this state, 167189 or any candidate area located in this state and identified for 167190 potential inclusion in the national park system in the edition of 167191 the "national park system plan" submitted under paragraph (b) of 167192 section 8 of "The Act of August 18, 1970," 84 Stat. 825, 16 167193 U.S.C.A. 1a-5, as amended, current at the time of filing of the 167194 application for the permit, unless the facility or proposed 167195 facility is or is to be used exclusively for the disposal of solid 167196 wastes generated within the park or recreation area and the 167197 director determines that the facility or proposed facility will 167198 not degrade any of the natural or cultural resources of the park 167199 or recreation area. The director shall not issue a variance under 167200 division (A) of this section and rules adopted under it, or issue 167201 an exemption order under division (G) of this section, that would 167202 authorize any such establishment or expansion of a solid waste 167203 facility within the boundaries of any such park or recreation 167204 area, state park purchase area, or candidate area, other than a 167205 solid waste facility exclusively for the disposal of solid wastes 167206 generated within the park or recreation area when the director 167207 determines that the facility will not degrade any of the natural 167208 or cultural resources of the park or recreation area. 167209

(N)(1) The rules adopted under division (A) of this section, 167210 other than those governing variances, do not apply to scrap tire 167211 collection, storage, monocell, monofill, and recovery facilities. 167212
Those facilities are subject to and governed by rules adopted 167213 under sections 3734.70 to 3734.73 of the Revised Code, as 167214
applicable. 167215

(2) Division (C) of this section does not apply to scrap tire 167216 collection, storage, monocell, monofill, and recovery facilities. 167217
The establishment and modification of those facilities are subject 167218 to sections 3734.75 to 3734.78 and section 3734.81 of the Revised 167219

Code, as applicable. 167220

(3) The director may adopt, amend, suspend, or rescind rules 167221 under division (A) of this section creating an alternative system 167222 for authorizing the establishment, operation, or modification of a 167223 solid waste compost facility in lieu of the requirement that a 167224 person seeking to establish, operate, or modify a solid waste 167225 compost facility apply for and receive a permit under division (C) 167226 of this section and section 3734.05 of the Revised Code and a 167227 license under division (A)(1) of that section. The rules may 167228 include requirements governing, without limitation, the 167229 classification of solid waste compost facilities, the submittal of 167230 operating records for solid waste compost facilities, and the 167231 creation of a registration or notification system in lieu of the 167232 issuance of permits and licenses for solid waste compost 167233 facilities. The rules shall specify the applicability of divisions 167234 (A)(1) and (2)(a) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code to a 167235 solid waste compost facility. 167236

(O)(1) As used in this division, "secondary aluminum waste" 167237 means waste material or byproducts, when disposed of, containing 167238 aluminum generated from secondary aluminum smelting operations and 167239 consisting of dross, salt cake, baghouse dust associated with 167240 aluminum recycling furnace operations, or dry-milled wastes. 167241

(2) The owner or operator of a sanitary landfill shall not 167242 dispose of municipal solid waste that has been commingled with 167243 secondary aluminum waste. 167244

(3) The owner or operator of a sanitary landfill may dispose 167245 of secondary aluminum waste, but only in a monocell or monofill 167246 that has been permitted for that purpose in accordance with this 167247

(P)(1) As used in divisions (P) and (Q) of this section: 167249

(a) "Natural background" means two picocuries per gram or the 167250 actual number of picocuries per gram as measured at an individual 167251 solid waste facility, subject to verification by the director of 167252 health. 167253

(b) "Drilling operation" includes a production operation as 167254 defined in section 1509.01 of the Revised Code. 167255

(2) The owner or operator of a solid waste facility shall not 167256 accept for transfer or disposal technologically enhanced naturally 167257 occurring radioactive material if that material contains or is 167258 contaminated with radium-226, radium-228, or any combination of 167259 radium-226 and radium-228 at concentrations equal to or greater 167260 than five picocuries per gram above natural background. 167261

(3) The owner or operator of a solid waste facility may 167262 receive and process for purposes other than transfer or disposal 167263 technologically enhanced naturally occurring radioactive material 167264 that contains or is contaminated with radium-226, radium-228, or 167265 any combination of radium-226 and radium-228 at concentrations 167266 equal to or greater than five picocuries per gram above natural 167267 background, provided that the owner or operator has obtained and 167268 maintains all other necessary authorizations, including any 167269 authorization required by rules adopted by the director of health 167270
under section 3748.04 of the Revised Code. 167271

(4) The director of environmental protection may adopt rules 167272 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing the 167273 receipt, acceptance, processing, handling, management, and 167274 disposal by solid waste facilities of material that contains or is 167275 contaminated with radioactive material, including, without 167276 limitation, technologically enhanced naturally occurring 167277 radioactive material that contains or is contaminated with 167278 radium-226, radium-228, or any combination of radium-226 and 167279 radium-228 at concentrations less than five picocuries per gram 167280 above natural background. Rules adopted by the director may 167281 include at a minimum both of the following: 167282

(a) Requirements in accordance with which the owner or operator of a solid waste facility must monitor leachate and ground water for radium-226, radium-228, and other radionuclides;

167285

(b) Requirements in accordance with which the owner or operator of a solid waste facility must develop procedures to ensure that technologically enhanced naturally occurring radioactive material accepted at the facility neither contains nor is contaminated with radium-226, radium-228, or any combination of radium-226 and radium-228 at concentrations equal to or greater than five picocuries per gram above natural background.

167288
167289
167290
167292

(Q) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the owner or operator of a solid waste facility shall not receive, accept, process, handle, manage, or dispose of technologically enhanced naturally occurring radioactive material associated with drilling operations without first obtaining representative analytical results to determine compliance with divisions (P)(2) and (3) of this section and rules adopted under it.

167293
167295
167296
167297
167299

Sec. 3734.021. (A) Infectious wastes shall be segregated, managed, treated, and disposed of in accordance with rules adopted under this section.

167302

(B) The director of environmental protection, in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt rules necessary or appropriate to protect human health or safety or the environment that do both of the following:

167303
167304
167305
167306

(1) Establish standards for generators of infectious wastes that include, without limitation, the following requirements and authorizations that:

167307
167309

(a) All generators of infectious wastes:

167310

(i) Either treat all specimen cultures and cultures of viable infectious agents on the premises where they are generated to render them noninfectious by methods, techniques, or practices 167313 prescribed by rules adopted under division (B)(2)(a) of this 167314 section before they are transported off that premises for disposal 167315 or ensure that such wastes are treated to render them 167316 noninfectious at an infectious waste treatment facility off that 167317 premises prior to disposal of the wastes; 167318

167312

(ii) Transport and dispose of infectious wastes, if a 167319 generator produces fewer than fifty pounds of infectious wastes 167320 during any one month that are subject to and packaged and labeled 167321 in accordance with federal requirements, in the same manner as 167322 solid wastes. Such generators who treat specimen cultures and 167323 cultures of viable infectious agents on the premises where they 167324 are generated shall not be considered treatment facilities as 167325 "treatment" and "facility" are defined in section 3734.01 of the 167326
Revised Code. 167327

(iii) Dispose of infectious wastes subject to and treated in 167328 accordance with rules adopted under division (B)(1)(a)(i) of this 167329 section in the same manner as solid wastes; 167330

(iv) May take wastes generated in providing care to a patient 167331 by an emergency medical services organization, as defined in 167332 section 4765.01 of the Revised Code, to and leave them at a 167333 hospital, as defined in section 3727.01 of the Revised Code, for 167334 treatment at a treatment facility owned or operated by the 167335 hospital or, in conjunction with infectious wastes generated by 167336 the hospital, at another treatment facility regardless of whether 167337 the wastes were generated in providing care to the patient at the 167338 scene of an emergency or during the transportation of the patient 167339 to a hospital; 167340

(v) May take wastes generated by an individual for purposes 167341 of the individual's own care or treatment to and leave them at a 167342 hospital, as defined in section 3727.01 of the Revised Code, for 167343
treatment at a treatment facility owned or operated by the 167344

hospital or, in conjunction with infectious wastes generated by 167345

otherwise established at the property substantially exceed the 167610 or term or condition proposed by the applicant will not protect 167631 public health and safety and that the imposition of additional or 167632 alternative terms and conditions will not ensure that public 167633 health or safety will be protected, the director shall disapprove 167634 the application and shall include in the order of denial the 167635 specific findings on which the denial was based. 167636

the public meeting on an application for a variance, the director 167646 shall publish notice of the public meeting and that the director 167647 will receive written comments on the application for a period of 167648 the property is located in close proximity to the boundary of the 167659 county with an adjacent county, as determined by the director, 167660 shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the 167661 adjacent county. Concurrently with the publication of the notice 167662 of the public meeting, the director shall mail notice of the 167663 application, comment period, and public meeting to the owner of 167664 each parcel of land that is adjacent to the affected property and 167665 to the legislative authority of the municipal corporation or 167666 township, and county, in which the affected property is located. 167667 knowledgeable about the affected property and the application, 167673 shall present information regarding the application and the basis 167674 of the request for the variance and shall respond to questions 167675 from the public regarding the affected property and the 167676 application. A representative of the environmental protection 167677 agency who is familiar with the affected property and the 167678 application shall attend the public meeting to hear the public's 167679 comments and to respond to questions from the public regarding the 167680 affected property and the application. A stenographic record or 167681 electronic record of the proceedings at the public meeting shall 167682 be kept and shall be made a part of the administrative record 167683 regarding the application. 167684

(E) Within ninety days after conducting the public meeting on 167685 the director shall issue a proposed action to the applicant in 167687 accordance with section 3745.07 of the Revised Code that indicates 167688 the director's intent with regard to the issuance or denial of the 167689 application. When considering whether to issue or deny the 167690 application or whether to impose terms and conditions of the 167691 variance that are in addition or alternative to those proposed by 167692 the applicant, the director shall consider comments on the 167693 application made by the public at the public meeting and written 167694 comments on the application received from the public. 167695 division (B) of this section, and the undertaking of any other 167776 activities relating to protecting and securing the facility, do 167777 not cause the holder to be an owner, operator, or mortgagee in 167778 possession of the facility or subject the holder to this chapter 167779 or any other provision of state law imposing liability or 167780 responsibility for the cleanup, removal, or remediation of 167781 to the obligations of the holder of the first mortgage under 167795

Sec. 3772.031. (A)(1) The general assembly finds that the 167798 and from sports gaming is necessary to effectuate the intents and 167800 purposes of this chapter and Chapter 3775. of the Revised Code and 167801 to maintain strict and effective regulation of casino gaming and 167802 sports gaming. 167803

not grounds for placing a person on an exclusion list. 167887

(C) The commission shall notify a person of the commission's 167888 intent to include such person on one or both exclusion lists. The 167889 notice shall be provided by personal service, by certified mail to 167890 person receives the notice by personal service ~~or~~, certified mail, 167906 or commercial carrier, or not later than thirty days after the 167907 last newspaper publication of the notice. 167908 with division (D)(1) of this section, the commission may, but is 167910 not required to, conduct an adjudication hearing under Chapter 167911 119. of the Revised Code. The commission may reopen an 167912 adjudication under this section at any time. 167913

(3) If the adjudication hearing, order, or any appeal thereof 167914 under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code results in an order that 167915 the person should not be included on the exclusion list or lists, 167916 the commission shall publish a revised exclusion list that does 167917 not include the person. The commission also shall notify casino 167918 operators or sports gaming proprietors, as applicable, that the 167919 chapter or Chapter 3775. of the Revised Code. 167929

Sec. 3772.04. (A)(1) If the commission concludes that an 167930 applicant, licensee, or other person subject to the commission's 167931 jurisdiction under this chapter should be fined or penalized, or 167932 that a license required by this chapter or Chapter 3775. of the 167933 Revised Code should be limited, conditioned, restricted, 167934

(5) If the licensee or the licensee's employer had a 167986 reasonably constituted and functioning compliance program; 167987

license; 167992

(7) If the licensee realized a pecuniary gain from the 167993

(16) The proportionality of the penalty in relation to the misconduct;	168015 168016
(17) The extent to which the amount of any fine imposed would punish the licensee for the conduct and deter future violations;	168017 168018
(18) Any mitigating factors offered by the licensee; and	168019
(19) Any other factors the commission considers relevant.	168020

this chapter or Chapter 3775. of the Revised Code or a rule 168084 adopted thereunder. 168085

(2) An emergency order issued under division (G) of this 168086 deemed received as of the date of the last publication. 168125

(e) Refusal of delivery of the order sent by mail or 168126 personally delivered to the party is not failure of delivery and 168127 service is deemed to be complete. 168128

(4) The emergency order shall be effective immediately upon 168129 service of the order on the party. The emergency order shall 168130 remain effective until further order of the executive director or 168131

(3) Any utility notified of an emergency excavation may 168632 inspect all of its underground utility facilities located at the 168633 emergency excavation site and may take any otherwise lawful action 168634 it considers necessary to prevent disturbance to or interference 168635 with its facilities during excavation. 168636

(F) An excavator is not required to premark the approximate 168637 meeting-related documents to each committee member. 168659

(D) The minutes of each meeting shall specify who was 168660 attending by teleconference, who was attending by video 168661 recorded as a roll call vote. 168664

Sec. 3904.08. (A) If any individual, after proper 168665 identification, submits a written request to an insurance 168666 institution, agent, or insurance support organization for access 168667

Sec. 4123.512. (A) The claimant or the employer may appeal an 168741 order of the industrial commission made under division (E) of 168742 section 4123.511 of the Revised Code in any injury or occupational 168743 disease case, other than a decision as to the extent of disability 168744 to the court of common pleas of the county in which the injury was 168745 inflicted or in which the contract of employment was made if the 168746 injury occurred outside the state, or in which the contract of 168747 employment was made if the exposure occurred outside the state. If 168748 no common pleas court has jurisdiction for the purposes of an 168749 appeal by the use of the jurisdictional requirements described in 168750 this division, the appellant may use the venue provisions in the 168751 Rules of Civil Procedure to vest jurisdiction in a court. If the 168752 claim is for an occupational disease, the appeal shall be to the 168753 court of common pleas of the county in which the exposure which 168754 caused the disease occurred. Like appeal may be taken from an 168755 order of a staff hearing officer made under division (D) of 168756 section 4123.511 of the Revised Code from which the commission has 168757 refused to hear an appeal. Except as otherwise provided in this 168758 division, the appellant shall file the notice of appeal with a 168759 court of common pleas within sixty days after the date of the 168760 receipt of the order appealed from or the date of receipt of the 168761 order of the commission refusing to hear an appeal of a staff 168762 hearing officer's decision under division (D) of section 4123.511 168763 of the Revised Code. Either the claimant or the employer may file 168764 a notice of an intent to settle the claim within thirty days after 168765 the date of the receipt of the order appealed from or of the order 168766 of the commission refusing to hear an appeal of a staff hearing 168767 officer's decision. The claimant or employer shall file notice of 168768 intent to settle with the administrator of workers' compensation, 168769 and the notice shall be served on the opposing party and the 168770 party's representative. The filing of the notice of intent to 168771 settle extends the time to file an appeal to one hundred fifty 168772 days, unless the opposing party files an objection to the notice 168773 of intent to settle within fourteen days after the date of the 168774 receipt of the notice of intent to settle. The party shall file 168775 the objection with the administrator, and the objection shall be 168776 served on the party that filed the notice of intent to settle and 168777 the party's representative. The filing of the notice of the appeal 168778 with the court is the only act required to perfect the appeal. 168779

If an action has been commenced in a court of a county other 168780 than a court of a county having jurisdiction over the action, the 168781 court, upon notice by any party or upon its own motion, shall 168782 transfer the action to a court of a county having jurisdiction. 168783

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this section, if 168784 the commission determines under section 4123.522 of the Revised 168785 Code that an employee, employer, or their respective 168786 representatives have not received written notice of an order or 168787 decision which is appealable to a court under this section and 168788 which grants relief pursuant to section 4123.522 of the Revised 168789 Code, the party granted the relief has sixty days from receipt of 168790 the order under section 4123.522 of the Revised Code to file a 168791 notice of appeal under this section. 168792

The administrator, the claimant, and the employer shall be parties to the appeal and the court, upon the application of the commission, shall make the commission a party. The party filing the appeal shall serve a copy of the notice of appeal on the administrator at the central office of the bureau of workers' compensation in Columbus. The administrator shall notify the employer that if the employer fails to become an active party to the appeal, then the administrator may act on behalf of the employer and the results of the appeal could have an adverse effect upon the employer's premium rates or may result in a recovery from the employer if the employer is determined to be a noncomplying employer under section 4123.75 of the Revised Code.

(C) The attorney general or one or more of the attorney general's assistants or special counsel designated by the attorney general shall represent the administrator and the commission. In the event the attorney general or the attorney general's designated assistants or special counsel are absent, the administrator or the commission shall select one or more of the attorneys in the employ of the administrator or the commission as the administrator's attorney or the commission's attorney in the appeal. Any attorney so employed shall continue the representation during the entire period of the appeal and in all hearings thereof except where the continued representation becomes impractical.

(D) Upon receipt of notice of appeal, the clerk of courts shall provide notice to all parties who are appellees and to the commission.

The claimant shall, within thirty days after the filing of the notice of appeal, file a petition containing a statement of facts in ordinary and concise language showing a cause of action 168825 to participate or to continue to participate in the fund and 168826 setting forth the basis for the jurisdiction of the court over the 168827 action. Further pleadings shall be had in accordance with the 168828 Rules of Civil Procedure, provided that service of summons on such 168829 petition shall not be required and provided that the claimant may 168830 not dismiss the complaint without the employer's consent if the 168831 employer is the party that filed the notice of appeal to court 168832 pursuant to this section. The clerk of the court shall, upon 168833 receipt thereof, transmit by certified mail a copy thereof to each 168834 party named in the notice of appeal other than the claimant. Any 168835 party may file with the clerk prior to the trial of the action a 168836 deposition of any physician taken in accordance with the 168837 provisions of the Revised Code, which deposition may be read in 168838 the trial of the action even though the physician is a resident of 168839 or subject to service in the county in which the trial is had. The 168840 bureau of workers' compensation shall pay the cost of the 168841 ~~stenographic~~ deposition filed in court and of copies of the 168842 ~~stenographic~~ deposition for each party from the surplus fund and 168843 charge the costs thereof against the unsuccessful party if the 168844 claimant's right to participate or continue to participate is 168845 finally sustained or established in the appeal. In the event the 168846 deposition is taken and filed, the physician whose deposition is 168847 taken is not required to respond to any subpoena issued in the 168848 trial of the action. The court, or the jury under the instructions 168849 of the court, if a jury is demanded, shall determine the right of 168850 the claimant to participate or to continue to participate in the 168851 fund upon the evidence adduced at the hearing of the action. 168852

(E) The court shall certify its decision to the commission 168853 and the certificate shall be entered in the records of the court. 168854 Appeals from the judgment are governed by the law applicable to 168855 the appeal of civil actions. 168856

(F) The cost of any legal proceedings authorized by this section, including an attorney's fee to the claimant's attorney to be fixed by the trial judge, based upon the effort expended, in the event the claimant's right to participate or to continue to participate in the fund is established upon the final determination of an appeal, shall be taxed against the employer or the commission if the commission or the administrator rather than the employer contested the right of the claimant to participate in the fund. The attorney's fee shall not exceed five thousand dollars.

self-insuring employer reports to the administrator under division 168889 (L) of section 4123.35 of the Revised Code. If an employer is a 168890 state risk and has paid an assessment for a violation of a 168891 specific safety requirement, and, in a final administrative or 168892 judicial action, it is determined that the employer did not 168893 violate the specific safety requirement, the administrator shall 168894 reimburse the employer from the surplus fund account under 168895 division (B) of section 4123.34 of the Revised Code for the amount 168896 of the assessment the employer paid for the violation. 168897

(2)(a) Notwithstanding a final determination that payments of 168898 benefits made to or on behalf of a claimant should not have been 168899 made, the administrator or self-insuring employer shall award 168900 payment of medical or vocational rehabilitation services submitted 168901 for payment after the date of the final determination if all of 168902
the following apply: 168903

(i) The services were approved and were rendered by the 168904 provider in good faith prior to the date of the final 168905 determination. 168906

(ii) The services were payable under division (I) of section 168907 4123.511 of the Revised Code prior to the date of the final 168908
determination. 168909

(iii) The request for payment is submitted within the time 168910 limit set forth in section 4123.52 of the Revised Code. 168911

(b) Payments made under division (H)(1) of this section shall 168912 be charged to the surplus fund account under division (B) of 168913 section 4123.34 of the Revised Code. If the employer of the 168914 employee who is the subject of a claim described in division 168915 (H)(2)(a) of this section is a state fund employer, the payments 168916 made under that division shall not be charged to the employer's 168917 experience. If that employer is a self-insuring employer, the 168918 self-insuring employer shall deduct the amount from the paid 168919 compensation the self-insuring employer reports to the 168920 administrator under division (L) of section 4123.35 of the Revised 168921

Code. 168922

(c) Division (H)(2) of this section shall apply only to a 168923 claim under this chapter or Chapter 4121., 4127., or 4131. of the 168924 Revised Code arising on or after July 29, 2011. 168925

(3) A self-insuring employer may elect to pay compensation 168926 and benefits under this section directly to an employee or an 168927 employee's dependents by filing an application with the bureau of 168928 workers' compensation not more than one hundred eighty days and 168929 not less than ninety days before the first day of the employer's 168930 next six-month coverage period. If the self-insuring employer 168931 timely files the application, the application is effective on the 168932 first day of the employer's next six-month coverage period, 168933 provided that the administrator shall compute the employer's 168934 assessment for the surplus fund account due with respect to the 168935 period during which that application was filed without regard to 168936 the filing of the application. On and after the effective date of 168937 the employer's election, the self-insuring employer shall pay 168938 directly to an employee or to an employee's dependents 168939 compensation and benefits under this section regardless of the 168940 date of the injury or occupational disease, and the employer shall 168941 receive no money or credits from the surplus fund account on 168942 account of those payments and shall not be required to pay any 168943 amounts into the surplus fund account on account of this section. 168944
The election made under this division is irrevocable. 168945

(I) All actions and proceedings under this section which are 168946 the subject of an appeal to the court of common pleas or the court 168947 of appeals shall be preferred over all other civil actions except 168948 election causes, irrespective of position on the calendar. 168949

This section applies to all decisions of the commission or 168950 the administrator on November 2, 1959, and all claims filed 168951 thereafter are governed by sections 4123.511 and 4123.512 of the Revised Code.

Any action pending in common pleas court or any other court on January 1, 1986, under this section is governed by former sections 4123.514, 4123.515, 4123.516, and 4123.519 and section 4123.522 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 4123.52. (A) The jurisdiction of the industrial commission and the authority of the administrator of workers' compensation over each case is continuing, and the commission may make such modification or change with respect to former findings or orders with respect thereto, as, in its opinion is justified. No modification or change nor any finding or award in respect of any claim shall be made with respect to disability, compensation, dependency, or benefits, after five years from the date of injury in the absence of the payment of medical benefits under this chapter or in the absence of payment of compensation under section 4123.57, 4123.58, or division (A) or (B) of section 4123.56 of the Revised Code or wages in lieu of compensation in a manner so as to satisfy the requirements of section 4123.84 of the Revised Code, in which event the modification, change, finding, or award shall be made within five years from the date of the last payment of compensation or from the date of death, nor unless written notice of claim for the specific part or parts of the body injured or disabled has been given as provided in section 4123.84 or 4123.85 of the Revised Code. The commission shall not make any modification, change, finding, or award which shall award compensation for a back period in excess of two years prior to the date of filing application therefor.

(B) Notwithstanding division (A) of this section, and except as otherwise provided in a rule that shall be adopted by the administrator, with the advice and consent of the bureau of workers' compensation board of directors, neither the 168983 administrator nor the commission shall make any finding or award 168984 for payment of medical or vocational rehabilitation services 168985 submitted for payment more than one year after the date the 168986 services were rendered or more than one year after the date the 168987 services became payable under division (I) of section 4123.511 of 168988 the Revised Code, whichever is later. No medical or vocational 168989 rehabilitation provider shall bill a claimant for services 168990 rendered if the administrator or commission is prohibited from 168991 making that payment under this division. 168992

(C) Division (B) of this section does not apply to requests 168993 made by the centers for medicare and medicaid services in the 168994 United States department of health and human services for 168995 reimbursement of conditional payments made pursuant to section 168996 1395y(b)(2) of title 42, United States Code (commonly known as the 168997
"Medicare Secondary Payer Act"). 168998

(D) This section does not affect the right of a claimant to 168999 compensation accruing subsequent to the filing of any such 169000 application, provided the application is filed within the time 169001 limit provided in this section. 169002

(E) This section does not deprive the commission of its 169003 continuing jurisdiction to determine the questions raised by any 169004 application for modification of award which has been filed with 169005 the commission after June 1, 1932, and prior to the expiration of 169006 the applicable period but in respect to which no award has been 169007 granted or denied during the applicable period. 169008

(F) The commission may, by general rules, provide for the 169009 destruction of files of cases in which no further action may be 169010 taken. 169011

(G) The commission and administrator of workers' compensation 169012 each may, by general rules, provide for the retention and 169013 destruction of all other records in their possession or under 169014 their control pursuant to section 121.211 and sections 149.34 to 169015 149.36 of the Revised Code. The bureau of workers' compensation 169016 may purchase or rent required equipment for the document retention 169017 media, as determined necessary to preserve the records. 169018 Photographs, microphotographs, microfilm, films, or other direct 169019 or electronic document retention media, when properly identified, 169020 have the same effect as the original record and may be offered in 169021 like manner and may be received as evidence in proceedings before 169022 the industrial commission, staff hearing officers, and district 169023 hearing officers, and in any court where the original record could 169024 have been introduced. 169025

Sec. 4125.03. (A) The professional employer organization with 169026 whom a shared employee is coemployed shall do all of the 169027
following: 169028

the terms and conditions of compensation in the professional 169030 employer organization agreement between the professional employer 169031 organization and the client employer; 169032

(2) Pay all related payroll taxes associated with a shared 169033 except that when shared employees include family farm officers, 169041 ordained ministers, or corporate officers of the client employer, 169042 payroll reports shall include the entire amount of payroll 169043 to the contrary notwithstanding. The benefit account shall consist 169188 of all moneys requisitioned from this state's account in the 169189 unemployment trust fund. Federal funds may be deposited, at the 169190 director's discretion, into the benefit account. Any funds 169191 therein, as are deemed necessary for the payment of benefits for a 169204 reasonable future period. Upon receipt thereof, the treasurer of 169205 state shall deposit such moneys in the benefit account. 169206 Expenditures of such money in the benefit account and refunds from 169207 the clearing account shall not require specific appropriations or 169208 other formal release by state officers of money in their custody. 169209 Any balance of moneys requisitioned from the unemployment trust 169210 fund which remains unclaimed or unpaid in the benefit account 169211 after the expiration of the period for which such sums were 169212 requisitioned shall either be deducted from estimates for and may 169213 be utilized for the payment of benefits during succeeding periods, 169214 or, in the discretion of the director, shall be redeposited with 169215 the secretary of the treasury of the United States to the credit 169216 of this state's account in the unemployment trust fund, as 169217 provided in division (C) of this section. Unclaimed or unpaid 169218 federal funds redeposited with the secretary of the treasury of 169219 the United States shall be credited to the appropriate federal 169220 account. 169221

payment in lieu of contributions, interest, or forfeiture alleged 169223 to have been erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, or 169224 alleged to have been collected without authority, and no claim for 169225 an adjustment or a refund of any sum alleged to have been 169226 excessive or in any manner wrongfully collected shall be allowed 169227 unless an application, in writing, therefor is made within four 169228 years from the date on which such payment was made. If the 169229 director determines that such contribution, payment in lieu of 169230 contributions, interest, or forfeiture, or any portion thereof, 169231 was erroneously collected, the director shall allow such employer 169232 to make an adjustment thereof without interest in connection with 169233 subsequent contribution payments, or payments in lieu of 169234 contributions, by the employer, or the director may refund said 169235 amount, without interest, from the clearing account of the 169236 unemployment compensation fund, except as provided in division (B) 169237 of section 4141.11 of the Revised Code. For like cause and within 169238 the same period, adjustment or refund may be so made on the 169239 director's own initiative. An overpayment of contribution, payment 169240 in lieu of contributions, interest, or forfeiture for which an 169241 employer has not made application for refund prior to the date of 169242 sale of the employer's business shall accrue to the employer's 169243 successor in interest. 169244

An application for an adjustment or a refund, or any portion 169245 thereof, that is rejected is binding upon the employer unless, 169246 within thirty days after the mailing of a written notice of 169247 rejection to the employer's last known address, or, in the absence 169248 of mailing of such notice, within thirty days after the delivery 169249 of such notice, the employer files an application for a review and 169250 redetermination setting forth the reasons therefor. The director 169251 shall promptly examine the application for review and 169252 redetermination, and if a review is granted, the employer shall be 169253 promptly notified thereof, and shall be granted an opportunity for 169254 a prompt hearing. 169255

(F) If the director finds that contributions have been paid 169256 to the director in error, and that such contributions should have 169257 been paid to a department of another state or of the United States 169258 charged with the administration of an unemployment compensation 169259 law, the director may upon request by such department or upon the 169260 director's own initiative transfer to such department the amount 169261 of such contributions, less any benefits paid to claimants whose 169262 wages were the basis for such contributions. The director may 169263 request and receive from such department any contributions or 169264 adjusted contributions paid in error to such department which 169265 should have been paid to the director. 169266 any interest required to be paid on advances under Title XII of 169271 the Social Security Act shall be paid in a timely manner and shall 169272 not be paid, directly or indirectly, by an equivalent reduction in 169273 the Ohio unemployment taxes or otherwise, by the state from 169274 account, which is hereby created for the purpose of making 169291 payments specified under those acts. The treasurer of state, under 169292 the direction of the director, may transfer funds from the Trade 169293 Act training and administration account to the benefit account for 169294 the purpose of making any payments directly to claimants for 169295 benefits, job search, relocation, transportation, and subsistence 169296 allowances, as specified by those acts. 169297 program established pursuant to section 3317.06 of the Revised 169317 Code, and after the director has made reimbursement to school 169318 districts for all possible unemployment compensation claims of 169319 persons who were employed pursuant to section 3317.06 of the 169320 Revised Code, the director shall certify that fact to the 169321 treasurer of state, who shall then transfer all unexpended moneys 169322 in the auxiliary services personnel unemployment compensation fund 169323 to the general revenue fund. In the event the auxiliary services 169324 personnel unemployment compensation fund contains insufficient 169325 moneys to pay all valid claims by school districts for 169326 reimbursement pursuant to this section, the director shall 169327 estimate the total additional amount necessary to meet the 169328 liabilities of the fund and submit a request to the general 169329 assembly for an appropriation of that amount of money from the 169330 general revenue fund to the auxiliary services personnel 169331 danger exists, may request an inspection by giving written notice 169399 to the administrator or the administrator's designee of the 169400 probability that the condition or practice could result in death 169449 or serious physical harm, the administrator or the administrator's 169450 designee may use any of the enforcement mechanisms provided in 169451 this section to correct or remove the condition or practice. 169452

(4) If, during an inspection or investigation, the 169453 administrator or the administrator's designee finds any condition 169454 or practice in any place of employment that presents a substantial 169455 probability that the condition or practice could result in death 169456 or serious physical harm, after notifying the employer of the 169457 administrator's intent to issue an order, the administrator shall 169458 issue an order, or the administrator's designee shall issue an 169459 order after consultation ~~either by telephone or in person~~ with the 169460 administrator and upon the recommendation of the administrator, 169461 which prohibits the employment of any public employee or any 169462 continuing operation or process under such condition or practice 169463 until necessary steps are taken to correct or remove the condition 169464 or practice. The order shall not be effective for more than 169465 fifteen days, unless a court of competent jurisdiction otherwise 169466 orders as provided in section 4167.14 of the Revised Code. 169467

(C) In making any inspections or investigations under this 169468 chapter, the administrator or the administrator's designee may 169469 administer oaths and require, by subpoena, the attendance and 169470 testimony of witnesses and the production of evidence under oath. 169471 Witnesses shall receive the fees and mileage provided for under 169472 section 119.094 of the Revised Code. In the case of contumacy, 169473 failure, or refusal of any person to comply with an order or any 169474 subpoena lawfully issued, or upon the refusal of any witness to 169475 testify to any matter regarding which the witness may lawfully be 169476 interrogated, a judge of the court of common pleas of any county 169477 in this state, on the application of the administrator or the 169478 administrator's designee, shall issue an order requiring the 169479 person to appear and to produce evidence if, as, and when so 169480 ordered, and to give testimony relating to the matter under 169481 investigation or in question. The court may punish any failure to 169482 obey the order of the court as a contempt thereof. 169483

(D) If, upon inspection or investigation, the administrator 169484 or the administrator's designee believes that a public employer 169485 has violated any requirement of this chapter or any rule, Ohio 169486 employment risk reduction standard, or order adopted or issued 169487 pursuant thereto, the administrator or the administrator's 169488 designee shall, with reasonable promptness, issue a citation to 169489 the public employer. The citation shall be in writing and describe 169490 with particularity the nature of the alleged violation, including 169491 a reference to the provision of law, Ohio employment risk 169492 reduction standard, rule, or order alleged to have been violated. 169493

In addition, the citation shall fix a time for the abatement of 169494 the violation, as provided in division (H) of this section. The 169495 administrator may prescribe procedures for the issuance of a 169496 notice with respect to minor violations and for enforcement of 169497 minor violations that have no direct or immediate relationship to 169498 safety or health. 169499

(E) Upon receipt of any citation under this section, the 169500 public employer shall immediately post the citation, or a copy 169501 thereof, at or near each place an alleged violation referred to in 169502 the citation occurred. 169503

(F) The administrator may not issue a citation under this 169504 section after the expiration of six months following the final 169505 occurrence of any violation. 169506

(G) If the administrator issues a citation pursuant to this 169507 section, the administrator shall mail the citation to the public 169508 employer by certified mail, return receipt requested. The public 169509 employer has fourteen days after receipt of the citation within 169510 which to notify the administrator that the employer wishes to 169511 contest the citation. If the employer notifies the administrator 169512 within the fourteen days that the employer wishes to contest the 169513 citation, or if within fourteen days after the issuance of a 169514 citation a public employee or public employee representative files 169515 notice that the time period fixed in the citation for the 169516 abatement of the violation is unreasonable, the administrator 169517 shall hold an adjudication hearing in accordance with Chapter 119. 169518
of the Revised Code. 169519

(H) In establishing the time limits in which a public 169520 employer must abate a violation under this section, the 169521 administrator shall consider the costs to the public employer, the size and financial resources of the public employer, the severity of the violation, the technological feasibility of the public employer's ability to comply with requirements of the citation, the possible present and future detriment to the health and safety of any public employee for failure of the public employer to comply with requirements of the citation, and such other factors as the administrator determines appropriate. The administrator may, after considering the above factors, permit the public employer to comply with the citation over a period of up to two years and may extend that period an additional one year, as the administrator determines appropriate.

of spirituous liquor in a municipal corporation, in the 169554 unincorporated area of a township, or in an area designated and 169555 approved as a resort area under section 4303.262 of the Revised 169556 Code. The division shall fix the compensation for such an agent in 169557 the manner it considers best, but the compensation shall not 169558 exceed seven per cent of the gross sales made by the agent in any 169559 one year. 169560

(2) The division shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 169561
119. of the Revised Code governing the allocation and equitable 169562 distribution of agency store contracts. The division shall comply 169563 with the rules when awarding a contract under division (A)(1) of 169564
this section. 169565

(3) Pursuant to an agency store's contract, an agency store 169566 may be issued a D-1 permit to sell beer, a D-2 permit to sell wine 169567 and mixed beverages, and a D-5 permit to sell beer, wine, mixed 169568 beverages, and spirituous liquor. 169569

(4) Pursuant to an agency store's contract, an agency store 169570 may be issued a D-3 permit to sell spirituous liquor if the agency 169571 store contains at least ten thousand square feet of sales floor 169572 area. A D-3 permit issued to an agency store shall not be 169573 transferred to a new location. The division shall revoke any D-3 169574 permit issued to an agency store under division (A)(4) of this 169575 section if the agent no longer operates the agency store. The 169576 division shall not issue a D-3a permit to an agency store. 169577

(5) An agency store to which a D-8 permit has been issued may 169578 allow the sale of tasting samples of spirituous liquor in 169579 accordance with section 4301.171 of the Revised Code. 169580

(6) An agency store may sell beer, wine, mixed beverages, and 169581 spirituous liquor only between the hours of nine a.m. and eleven 169582 p.m. 169583

If the proposed agency store, the assignment of an agency contract, or the relocation of an agency store would be located within five hundred feet of a school, church, library, public playground, or township park, the division shall not enter into an agency contract until it has provided notice of the proposed contract to the authorities in control of the school, church, library, public playground, or township park and has provided those authorities with an opportunity for a complete hearing upon the advisability of entering into the contract. If an agency store so located is operating under an agency contract, the division may consent to relocation of the agency store or to the assignment of that contract to operate an agency store at the same location. The 169617 division may also consent to the assignment of an existing agency 169618 contract simultaneously with the relocation of the agency store. 169619

In any such assignment or relocation, the assignee and the 169620 location shall be subject to the same requirements that the 169621 existing location met at the time that the contract was first 169622 entered into as well as any additional requirements imposed by the 169623 division in rules adopted by the superintendent of liquor control. 169624
The division shall not consent to an assignment or relocation of 169625 an agency store until it has notified the authorities in control 169626 of the school, church, library, public playground, or township 169627 park and has provided those authorities with an opportunity for a 169628 complete hearing upon the advisability of consenting to the 169629 assignment or relocation. 169630

Any hearing provided for in this division shall be held in 169631 the central office of the division, except that upon written 169632 request of the legislative authority of the municipal corporation, 169633 the board of county commissioners, the board of township trustees, 169634 or the authorities in control of the school, church, library, 169635 public playground, or township park, the hearing shall be held in 169636 the county seat of the county where the proposed agency store is 169637 to be located. 169638

(C) All agency contracts entered into by the division 169639 pursuant to this section shall be in writing and shall contain a 169640 clause providing for the termination of the contract at will by 169641 the division upon its giving ninety days' notice in writing to the 169642 agent of its intention to do so. Any agency contract may include a 169643 clause requiring the agent to report to the appropriate law 169644 enforcement agency the name and address of any individual under 169645 twenty-one years of age who attempts to make an illegal purchase. 169646

The division shall issue a C-1 and C-2 permit to each agent 169647 who prior to November 1, 1994, had not been issued both of these 169648 permits, notwithstanding the population quota restrictions 169649 contained in section 4303.29 of the Revised Code or in any rule of 169650 the liquor control commission and notwithstanding the requirements 169651 of section 4303.31 of the Revised Code. The location of a C-1 or 169652

C-2 permit issued to such an agent shall not be transferred. The 169653 division shall revoke any C-1 or C-2 permit issued to an agent 169654 under this paragraph if the agent no longer operates an agency 169655 store. 169656

The division may enter into agreements with the department of 169657 development to implement a minority loan program to provide 169658 low-interest loans to minority business enterprises, as defined in 169659 section 122.71 of the Revised Code, that are awarded liquor agency 169660 contracts or assignments. 169661

(D) If the division closes a state liquor store and replaces 169662 that store with an agency store, any employees of the division 169663 employed at that state liquor store who lose their jobs at that 169664 store as a result shall be given preference by the agent who 169665 operates the agency store in filling any vacancies that occur 169666 among the agent's employees, if that preference does not conflict 169667 with the agent's obligations pursuant to a collective bargaining 169668 agreement. 169669

If the division closes a state liquor store and replaces the 169670 store with an agency store, any employees of the division employed 169671 at the state liquor store who lose their jobs at that store as a 169672 result may displace other employees as provided in sections 169673 124.321 to 124.328 of the Revised Code. If an employee cannot 169674 displace other employees and is laid off, the employee shall be 169675 reinstated in another job as provided in sections 124.321 to 169676 124.328 of the Revised Code, except that the employee's rights of 169677 reinstatement in a job at a state liquor store shall continue for 169678 a period of two years after the date of the employee's layoff and 169679 shall apply to jobs at state liquor stores located in the 169680 employee's layoff jurisdiction and any layoff jurisdiction 169681 adjacent to the employee's layoff jurisdiction. 169682

(E) The division shall require every agent to give bond with 169683 surety to the satisfaction of the division, in the amount the 169684 division fixes, conditioned for the faithful performance of the 169685 agent's duties as prescribed by the division. 169686

Sec. 4301.30. (A) All fees collected by the division of 169687 liquor control shall be deposited in the state treasury to the 169688 credit of the undivided liquor permit fund, which is hereby 169689 created, at the time prescribed under section 4301.12 of the 169690 Revised Code. Each payment shall be accompanied by a statement 169691 showing separately the amount collected for each class of permits 169692 in each municipal corporation and in each township outside the 169693 limits of any municipal corporation in such township. 169694

(B)(1) An amount equal to forty-five per cent of the fund 169695 shall be paid from the fund into the state liquor regulatory fund, 169696 which is hereby created in the state treasury. The state liquor 169697 regulatory fund shall be used to pay the operating expenses of the 169698 division of liquor control in administering and enforcing Title 169699 XLIII of the Revised Code and the operating expenses of the liquor 169700 control commission. Investment earnings of the fund shall be 169701 credited to the fund. 169702

(2) Whenever, in the judgment of the director of budget and 169703 management, the amount of money that is in the state liquor 169704 regulatory fund is in excess of the amount that is needed to pay 169705 the operating expenses of the division in administering and 169706 enforcing Title XLIII of the Revised Code and the operating 169707 expenses of the commission, the director shall credit the excess 169708 amount to the general revenue fund. 169709

(C) Twenty per cent of the undivided liquor permit fund shall 169710 be paid into the statewide treatment and prevention fund, which is 169711 hereby created in the state treasury. This amount shall be 169712 appropriated by the general assembly, together with an amount 169713 equal to one and one-half per cent of the gross profit of the 169714 division of liquor control derived under division (B)(4) of 169715 section 4301.10 of the Revised Code, to the department of mental 169716 health and addiction services. In planning for the allocation of 169717 and in allocating these amounts for the purposes of Chapter 5119. 169718 of the Revised Code, the department shall comply with the 169719 nondiscrimination provisions of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act 169720 of 1964, and any rules adopted under that act. 169721

(D) Thirty-five per cent of the undivided liquor permit fund 169722 shall be distributed by the superintendent of liquor control at 169723 quarterly calendar periods as follows: 169724

(1) To each municipal corporation, the aggregate amount shown 169725 by the statements to have been collected from permits in the 169726 municipal corporation, for the use of the general fund of the 169727 municipal corporation; 169728

(2) To each township, the aggregate amount shown by the 169729 statements to have been collected from permits in its territory, 169730 outside the limits of any municipal corporation located in the 169731 township, for the use of the general fund of the township, or for 169732 fire protection purposes, including buildings and equipment in the 169733 township or in an established fire district within the township, 169734 to the extent that the funds are derived from liquor permits 169735 within the territory comprising such fire district. 169736

(E) For the purpose of the distribution required by this 169737 section, E, H, and D permits covering boats or vessels are deemed 169738 to have been issued in the municipal corporation or township 169739 wherein the owner or operator of the vehicle, boat, vessel, or 169740 dining car equipment to which the permit relates has the owner's 169741 or operator's principal office or place of business within the 169742
state. 169743

(F) If the ~~liquor control commission~~ division determines that 169744 the police or other officers of any municipal corporation or 169745 township entitled to share in distributions under this section are 169746 refusing or culpably neglecting to enforce this chapter and 169747 Chapter 4303. of the Revised Code, or the penal laws of this state 169748 relating to the manufacture, importation, transportation, 169749 distribution, and sale of beer and intoxicating liquors, or if the 169750 prosecuting officer of a municipal corporation or a municipal 169751 court fails to comply with the request of the ~~commission~~ division 169752 authorized by division (A)(4) of section 4301.10 of the Revised 169753 Code, the ~~commission~~ division, by certified mail or by electronic 169754 means as determined by the superintendent to provide proper notice 169755 under the laws of this state, may notify the chief executive 169756 officer of the municipal corporation or the board of township 169757 trustees of the township of the failure and require the immediate 169758 cooperation of the responsible officers of the municipal 169759 corporation or township with the division ~~of liquor control~~ in the 169760 enforcement of those chapters and penal laws. Within thirty days 169761 after the notice is served, the ~~commission~~ division shall 169762 determine whether the requirement has been complied with. If the 169763 ~~commission~~ division determines that the requirement has not been 169764 complied with, it may ~~issue an order to the superintendent to~~ 169765 withhold the distributive share of the municipal corporation or 169766 township ~~until further order of the commission~~. This action of the 169767 ~~commission~~ division is reviewable within thirty days thereafter in 169768 the court of common pleas of Franklin county. 169769

(G) All fees collected by the division of liquor control from 169770 the issuance or renewal of B-2a, S-1, and S-2 permits, and paid by 169771 B-2a, S-1, and S-2 permit holders who do not also hold A-1 or A-1c 169772 permits or A-2 or A-2f permits, shall be deposited in the state 169773 treasury to the credit of the state liquor regulatory fund. Once 169774 during each fiscal year, an amount equal to fifty per cent of the 169775 fees collected shall be paid from the state liquor regulatory fund 169776 into the general revenue fund. 169777

Sec. 4303.24. All application processing fees shall be 169778 remitted to the division of liquor control when applications are 169779 filed. The pendency, priority, or validity of an application for a 169780 permit or duplicate permit received by the division shall not be 169781 affected because the division did not issue the permit applied for 169782 or the applicant failed to appeal to the liquor control 169783 commission. 169784

The division, prior to the granting of a permit or duplicate 169785 permit applied for, shall notify, by certified mail, the applicant 169786 or the applicant's authorized agent. The applicant or the 169787 applicant's authorized agent, within thirty days after the mailing 169788 of that notice, shall pay to the division the entire amount of ~~the~~ 169789 any unpaid requisite permit fee required by sections 4303.02 to 169790 4303.231 or, in the case of a duplicate permit, section 4303.30 of 169791 the Revised Code, if the permit or duplicate permit is issued 169792 during the first six months of the year the permit or duplicate 169793 permit covers, or one-half of the amount of the requisite permit 169794 fee, if the permit or duplicate permit is issued during the last 169795 six months of the year the permit or duplicate permit covers. If 169796 the notice is returned because of failure or refusal of delivery, 169797 the division shall send another notice, by regular mail or by 169798 electronic means as determined by the division to provide proper 169799 notice under the laws of this state, to the applicant or the 169800 applicant's agent. If the applicant fails to pay the applicable 169801 amount of that requisite permit fee within ~~these~~ thirty days of 169802 the mailing of the last notice, the division shall cancel the 169803 applicant's application. 169804

All other fees shall be paid at the time and in the manner 169805 prescribed by the division. The liquor control commission may 169806 adopt rules requiring reports or returns for the purpose of 169807 determining the amounts of additional permit fees. 169808

Sec. 4507.081. (A) Upon the expiration of a restricted 169809 the registrar, ~~by certified mail and~~ no sooner than thirty days 169819 prior to the expiration date of the license or renewal thereof, a 169820 statement as provided in division (C) of this section. A renewal 169821 of a driver's license, unless the license is otherwise suspended 169822 or canceled, shall be effective for one year following the 169823 expiration date of the license or renewal thereof, ~~and shall be~~ 169824 ~~evidenced by a validation sticker. The renewal validation sticker~~ 169825 ~~shall be in a form prescribed by the registrar and shall be~~ 169826 ~~affixed to the license.~~ 169827

(C) No person may be issued a driver's license under this 169828 section, and no such driver's license may be renewed, unless the 169829 person presents a signed statement from a licensed physician that 169830 the person's condition either is dormant or is under effective 169831 medical control, that the control has been maintained continuously 169832 for at least one year prior to the date on which application for 169833 the license is made, and that, if continued medication is 169834 prescribed to control the condition, the person may be depended 169835 upon to take the medication. 169836

The statement shall be made on a form provided by the 169837 registrar, ~~shall be in not less than duplicate,~~ and shall contain 169838 any other information the registrar considers necessary. The 169839 ~~duplicate copy of the statement may be retained by the person~~ 169840 ~~requesting the license renewal and, when in the person's immediate~~ 169841 ~~possession and used in conjunction with the original license,~~ 169842 ~~shall entitle the person to operate a motor vehicle during a~~ 169843 ~~period of no more than thirty days following the date of~~ 169844 ~~submission of the statement to the registrar, except when the~~ 169845 ~~registrar denies the request for the license renewal and so~~ 169846 ~~notifies the person.~~ 169847

(D) Whenever the registrar receives a statement indicating 169848 that the condition of a person to whom a driver's license has been 169849 issued under this section no longer is dormant or under effective 169850 medical control, the registrar shall cancel the person's driver's 169851
license. 169852

(E) Nothing in this section shall require a person submitting 169853 a signed statement from a licensed physician to obtain a medical 169854 examination prior to the submission of the statement. 169855

(F) Any person whose driver's license has been canceled under 169856 this section may apply for a subsequent restricted license 169857 according to the provisions of section 4507.08 of the Revised 169858
Code. 169859

approve any such brochure, written material, or electronic medium 169878 that contains religious content for use in a driver education 169879 course conducted by a school district or educational service 169880 center. 169881

(C)(1) If any brochure or other written material approved by 169882 the committee under division (B) of this section is made available 169883

Nothing in this section shall prohibit an instructor from 169912 also organizing a classroom presentation and discussion regarding 169913 anatomical gifts and anatomical gift procedures in accordance with 169914 this division if the instructor shows an electronic medium to 169915 students pursuant to division (C)(2) of this section. 169916

(D) No student shall be required to participate in any 169917 instruction in anatomical gifts or anatomical gift procedures 169918 student's parent or guardian, or the student if the student is 169920 over eighteen years of age, that such instruction conflicts with 169921 the religious convictions of the student or the student's parent 169922 destroyed the suspended license under that section, unless the 170015 rights are not subject to suspension or revocation under any other 170016 law and unless the person, in addition to complying with all other 170017 conditions required by law for reinstatement of the operating 170018

Any person adversely affected by the order, within ten days after the issuance of the order, may request an administrative hearing before the registrar, who shall provide the person with an opportunity for a hearing in accordance with this paragraph. A request for a hearing does not operate as a suspension of the order. The scope of the hearing shall be limited to whether the person in fact demonstrated to the registrar proof of financial responsibility in accordance with this section. The registrar shall determine the date, time, and place of any hearing, provided that the hearing shall be held, and an order issued or findings made, within thirty days after the registrar 170090 receives a request for a hearing. If requested by the person in 170091 writing, the registrar may designate as the place of hearing the 170092 county seat of the county in which the person resides or a place 170093 within fifty miles of the person's residence. The person shall pay 170094 the cost of the hearing before the registrar, if the registrar's 170095 order of suspension or impoundment is upheld. 170096

(C) Any order of suspension or impoundment issued under this 170097 section or division (B) of section 4509.37 of the Revised Code may 170098 be terminated at any time if the registrar determines upon a 170099 owner of the motor vehicle was in compliance with division (A)(1) 170101 of this section at the time of the traffic offense, motor vehicle 170102 inspection, or accident that resulted in the order against the 170103 person. A determination may be made without a hearing. This 170104 division does not apply unless the person shows good cause for the 170105 person's failure to present satisfactory proof of financial 170106 responsibility to the registrar prior to the issuance of the 170107 order. 170108

(D)(1)(a) For the purpose of enforcing this section, every 170109

(b) Any peace officer who, in the performance of the peace 170111 officer's duties as authorized by law, becomes aware of a person 170112 whose license is under an order of suspension, or whose 170113 certificate of registration and license plates are under an order 170114 of impoundment, pursuant to this section, may confiscate the 170115 license, certificate of registration, and license plates, and 170116 return them to the registrar. 170117

(2) A peace officer shall request the owner or operator of a 170118 motor vehicle to produce proof of financial responsibility in a 170119 manner described in division (G) of this section at the time the 170120

(3) A peace officer shall indicate on every traffic ticket 170124 whether the person receiving the traffic ticket produced proof of 170125 the maintenance of financial responsibility in response to the 170126 officer's request under division (D)(2) of this section. The peace 170127 officer shall inform every person who receives a traffic ticket 170128 and who has failed to produce proof of the maintenance of 170129 financial responsibility that the person must submit proof to the 170130 traffic violations bureau with any payment of a fine and costs for 170131 the ticketed violation or, if the person is to appear in court for 170132 the violation, the person must submit proof to the court. 170133

(4)(a) If a person who has failed to produce proof of the 170134 maintenance of financial responsibility appears in court for a 170135 ticketed violation, the court may permit the defendant to present 170136 evidence of proof of financial responsibility to the court at such 170137 time and in such manner as the court determines to be necessary or 170138 appropriate. In a manner prescribed by the registrar, the clerk of 170139 courts shall provide the registrar with the identity of any person 170140 who fails to submit proof of the maintenance of financial 170141 responsibility pursuant to division (D)(3) of this section. 170142

(b) If a person who has failed to produce proof of the 170143 maintenance of financial responsibility also fails to submit that 170144 proof to the traffic violations bureau with payment of a fine and 170145 costs for the ticketed violation, the traffic violations bureau, 170146 in a manner prescribed by the registrar, shall notify the 170147 registrar of the identity of that person. 170148

(5)(a) Upon receiving notice from a clerk of courts or 170149 traffic violations bureau pursuant to division (D)(4) of this 170150 section, the registrar shall order the suspension of the license 170151 of the person required under division (A)(2)(a), (b), or (c) of 170152 this section and the impoundment of the person's certificate of 170153 registration and license plates required under division (A)(2)(d) 170154 of this section, effective thirty days after the date of the 170155 mailing of notification. The registrar also shall notify the 170156 person that the person must present the registrar with proof of 170157 financial responsibility in accordance with this section, 170158 surrender to the registrar the person's certificate of 170159 registration, license plates, and license, or submit a statement 170160 subject to section 2921.13 of the Revised Code that the person did 170161 not operate or permit the operation of the motor vehicle at the 170162 time of the offense. Notification shall be in writing and shall be 170163 sent to the person at the person's last known address as shown on 170164 the records of the bureau of motor vehicles. The person, within 170165 fifteen days after the date of the mailing of notification, shall 170166 present proof of financial responsibility, surrender the 170167 certificate of registration, license plates, and license to the 170168 registrar in a manner set forth in division (A)(4) of this 170169 section, or submit the statement required under this section 170170 together with other information the person considers appropriate. 170171

If the registrar does not receive proof or the person does 170172 not surrender the certificate of registration, license plates, and 170173 license, in accordance with this division, the registrar shall 170174 permit the order for the suspension of the license of the person 170175 and the impoundment of the person's certificate of registration 170176 and license plates to take effect. 170177

(b) In the case of a person who presents, within the 170178 fifteen-day period, proof of financial responsibility, the 170179 registrar shall terminate the order of suspension and the 170180 impoundment of the registration and license plates required under 170181 division (A)(2)(d) of this section and shall send written 170182 notification to the person, at the person's last known address as 170183 shown on the records of the bureau. 170184

(c) Any person adversely affected by the order of the 170185 registrar under division (D)(5)(a) or (b) of this section, within 170186 ten days after the issuance of the order, may request an 170187 administrative hearing before the registrar, who shall provide the 170188 person with an opportunity for a hearing in accordance with this 170189 paragraph. A request for a hearing does not operate as a 170190 suspension of the order. The scope of the hearing shall be limited 170191 to whether, at the time of the hearing, the person presents proof 170192 of financial responsibility covering the vehicle and whether the 170193 person is eligible for an exemption in accordance with this 170194 section or any rule adopted under it. The registrar shall 170195 determine the date, time, and place of any hearing; provided, that 170196 the hearing shall be held, and an order issued or findings made, 170197 within thirty days after the registrar receives a request for a 170198 hearing. If requested by the person, the hearing may be held 170199 remotely by electronic means. If requested by the person in 170200 writing, the registrar may designate as the place of hearing the 170201 county seat of the county in which the person resides or a place 170202 within fifty miles of the person's residence. Such person shall 170203 pay the cost of the hearing before the registrar, if the 170204 registrar's order of suspension or impoundment under division 170205 (D)(5)(a) or (b) of this section is upheld. 170206

(6) A peace officer may charge an owner or operator of a 170207 motor vehicle with a violation of section 4510.16 of the Revised 170208 Code when the owner or operator fails to show proof of the 170209 maintenance of financial responsibility pursuant to a peace 170210 officer's request under division (D)(2) of this section, if a 170211 check of the owner or operator's driving record indicates that the 170212 owner or operator, at the time of the operation of the motor 170213 vehicle, is required to file and maintain proof of financial 170214 responsibility under section 4509.45 of the Revised Code for a 170215 previous violation of this chapter. 170216

(7) Any forms used by law enforcement agencies in 170217 administering this section shall be prescribed, supplied, and paid 170218 for by the registrar. 170219

(8) No peace officer, law enforcement agency employing a 170220 peace officer, or political subdivision or governmental agency 170221 that employs a peace officer shall be liable in a civil action for 170222 damages or loss to persons arising out of the performance of any 170223 duty required or authorized by this section. 170224

(9) As used in this section, "peace officer" has the meaning 170225 set forth in section 2935.01 of the Revised Code. 170226 collected under this section shall be paid into the state treasury 170230 to the credit of the public safety - highway purposes fund 170231 established in section 4501.06 of the Revised Code and used to 170232 cover costs incurred by the bureau in the administration of this 170233 section and sections 4503.20, 4507.212, and 4509.81 of the Revised 170234 Code, and by any law enforcement agency employing any peace 170235 officer who returns any license, certificate of registration, and 170236 license plates to the registrar pursuant to division (C) of this 170237

section. 170238

Of each financial responsibility reinstatement fee the 170239 this section, the registrar shall deposit twenty-five dollars of 170242 court or the bureau, by reason of circumstances in a particular 170284 case, may consider appropriate. 170285

(3) A motor carrier certificated by the interstate commerce 170286 commission or by the public utilities commission may demonstrate 170287 proof of financial responsibility by providing a statement 170288 designating the motor carrier's operating authority and averring 170289 that the insurance coverage required by the certificating 170290 authority is in full force and effect. 170291

(4)(a) A finding by the registrar or court that a person is 170292 covered by proof of financial responsibility in the form of an 170293 insurance policy or surety bond is not binding upon the named 170294 insurer or surety or any of its officers, employees, agents, or 170295 representatives and has no legal effect except for the purpose of 170296 administering this section. 170297

(b) The preparation and delivery of a financial 170298 responsibility identification card or any other document 170299 authorized to be used as proof of financial responsibility and the 170300 generation and delivery of proof of financial responsibility to an 170301 electronic wireless communications device that is displayed on the 170302 device as text or images does not do any of the following: 170303

(i) Create any liability or estoppel against an insurer or 170304 surety, or any of its officers, employees, agents, or 170305 representatives; 170306

(ii) Constitute an admission of the existence of, or of any 170307 liability or coverage under, any policy or bond; 170308

(iii) Waive any defenses or counterclaims available to an 170309 insurer, surety, agent, employee, or representative in an action 170310 commenced by an insured or third-party claimant upon a cause of 170311 action alleged to have arisen under an insurance policy or surety 170312 bond or by reason of the preparation and delivery of a document 170313 for use as proof of financial responsibility or the generation and 170314 delivery of proof of financial responsibility to an electronic 170315 wireless communications device. 170316

(c) Whenever it is determined by a final judgment in a 170317 judicial proceeding that an insurer or surety, which has been 170318 named on a document or displayed on an electronic wireless 170319 communications device accepted by a court or the registrar as 170320 proof of financial responsibility covering the operation of a 170321 motor vehicle at the time of an accident or offense, is not liable 170322 to pay a judgment for injuries or damages resulting from such 170323 operation, the registrar, notwithstanding any previous contrary 170324 finding, shall forthwith suspend the operating privileges and 170325 registration rights of the person against whom the judgment was 170326 rendered as provided in division (A)(2) of this section. 170327

(H) In order for any document or display of text or images on 170328 an electronic wireless communications device described in division 170329 (G)(1) of this section to be used for the demonstration of proof 170330 of financial responsibility under this section, the document or 170331 words or images shall state the name of the insured or obligor, 170332 the name of the insurer or surety company, and the effective and 170333 expiration dates of the financial responsibility, and designate by 170334 explicit description or by appropriate reference all motor 170335 vehicles covered which may include a reference to fleet insurance 170336 coverage. 170337

(I) For purposes of this section, "owner" does not include a 170338 licensed motor vehicle leasing dealer as defined in section 170339 4517.01 of the Revised Code, but does include a motor vehicle 170340 renting dealer as defined in section 4549.65 of the Revised Code. 170341

Nothing in this section or in section 4509.51 of the Revised Code 170342 shall be construed to prohibit a motor vehicle renting dealer from 170343 entering into a contractual agreement with a person whereby the 170344 person renting the motor vehicle agrees to be solely responsible 170345 for maintaining proof of financial responsibility, in accordance 170346 with this section, with respect to the operation, maintenance, or 170347 use of the motor vehicle during the period of the motor vehicle's 170348 rental. 170349

(J) The purpose of this section is to require the maintenance 170350 of proof of financial responsibility with respect to the operation 170351 of motor vehicles on the highways of this state, so as to minimize 170352 those situations in which persons are not compensated for injuries 170353 and damages sustained in motor vehicle accidents. The general 170354 assembly finds that this section contains reasonable civil 170355 penalties and procedures for achieving this purpose. 170356

(K) Nothing in this section shall be construed to be subject 170357 to section 4509.78 of the Revised Code. 170358

(L)(1) The registrar may terminate any suspension imposed 170359 under this section and not require the owner to comply with 170360 divisions (A)(5)(a), (b), and (c) of this section if the registrar 170361 with or without a hearing determines that the owner of the vehicle 170362 has established by clear and convincing evidence that all of the 170363 following apply: 170364

(a) The owner customarily maintains proof of financial 170365 responsibility. 170366

(b) Proof of financial responsibility was not in effect for 170367 the vehicle on the date in question for one of the following 170368 reasons: 170369

(i) The vehicle was inoperable. 170370

(ii) The vehicle is operated only seasonally, and the date in 170371 question was outside the season of operation. 170372

(iii) A person other than the vehicle owner or driver was at fault for the lapse of proof of financial responsibility through no fault of the owner or driver.

(iv) The lapse of proof of financial responsibility was caused by excusable neglect under circumstances that are not likely to recur and do not suggest a purpose to evade the requirements of this chapter.

(2) The registrar may grant an owner or driver relief for a reason specified in division (L)(1)(b)(iii) or (iv) of this section only if the owner or driver has not previously been granted relief under division (L)(1)(b)(iii) or (iv) of this section.

(M) The registrar shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code that are necessary to administer and enforce this section. The rules shall include procedures for the surrender of license plates upon failure to maintain proof of financial responsibility and provisions relating to reinstatement of registration rights, acceptable forms of proof of financial responsibility, the use of an electronic wireless communications device to present proof of financial responsibility, and verification of the existence of financial responsibility during the period of registration.

(N)(1) When a person utilizes an electronic wireless communications device to present proof of financial responsibility, only the evidence of financial responsibility displayed on the device shall be viewed by the registrar, peace officer, employee or official of the traffic violations bureau, or the court. No other content of the device shall be viewed for purposes of obtaining proof of financial responsibility.

(2) When a person provides an electronic wireless communications device to the registrar, a peace officer, an employee or official of a traffic violations bureau, or the court, 170404 the person assumes the risk of any resulting damage to the device 170405 unless the registrar, peace officer, employee, or official, or 170406 court personnel purposely, knowingly, or recklessly commits an 170407 action that results in damage to the device. 170408

Sec. 4510.03. (A) Every county court judge, mayor of a 170409 mayor's court, and clerk of a court of record shall keep a full 170410 record of every case in which a person is charged with any 170411 violation of any provision of sections 4511.01 to 4511.771 or 170412 4513.01 to 4513.36 of the Revised Code or of any other law or 170413 ordinance regulating the operation of vehicles, streetcars, and 170414 trackless trolleys on highways or streets. 170415

(B) If a person is convicted of or forfeits bail in relation 170416 to a violation of any section listed in division (A) of this 170417 section or a violation of any other law or ordinance regulating 170418 the operation of vehicles, streetcars, and trackless trolleys on 170419 highways or streets, the county court judge, mayor of a mayor's 170420 court, or clerk, within seven days after the conviction or bail 170421 forfeiture, shall prepare and immediately forward to the bureau of 170422 motor vehicles, in a secure electronic format, an abstract, 170423 certified by the preparer to be true and correct, of the court 170424 record covering the case in which the person was convicted or 170425 forfeited bail. Every court of record also shall forward to the 170426 bureau of motor vehicles, in a secure electronic format, an 170427 abstract of the court record as described in division (C) of this 170428 section upon the conviction of any person of aggravated vehicular 170429 homicide or vehicular homicide or of a felony in the commission of 170430 which a vehicle was used. 170431

(C) Each abstract required by this section shall be made upon 170432 a form approved and furnished by the bureau and shall include the 170433 name and address of the person charged, the number of the person's 170434 driver's or commercial driver's license, probationary driver's 170435 license, or temporary instruction permit, the registration number 170436 of the vehicle involved, the nature of the offense, the date of 170437 the offense, the date of hearing, the plea, the judgment, or 170438 whether bail was forfeited, and the amount of the fine or 170439 forfeiture. 170440

Sec. 4510.41. (A) As used in this section: 170441

(1) "Arrested person" means a person who is arrested for a 170442 violation of section 4510.14 or 4511.203 of the Revised Code, or a 170443 municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to either of 170444 those sections, and whose arrest results in a vehicle being seized 170445 under division (B) of this section. 170446

(2) "Vehicle owner" means either of the following: 170447

(a) The person in whose name is registered, at the time of 170448 the seizure, a vehicle that is seized under division (B) of this 170449
section; 170450

(b) A person to whom the certificate of title to a vehicle 170451 that is seized under division (B) of this section has been 170452 assigned and who has not obtained a certificate of title to the 170453 vehicle in that person's name, but who is deemed by the court as 170454 being the owner of the vehicle at the time the vehicle was seized 170455
under division (B) of this section. 170456

(3) "Interested party" includes the owner of a vehicle seized 170457 under this section, all lienholders, the arrested person, the 170458 owner of the place of storage at which a vehicle seized under this 170459 section is stored, and the person or entity that caused the 170460 vehicle to be removed. 170461

(B)(1) If a person is arrested for a violation of section 170462 4510.14 or 4511.203 of the Revised Code or a municipal ordinance 170463 that is substantially equivalent to either of those sections, the 170464 arresting officer or another officer of the law enforcement agency 170465 that employs the arresting officer, in addition to any action that 170466 the arresting officer is required or authorized to take by any 170467 other provision of law, shall seize the vehicle that the person 170468 was operating at the time of, or that was involved in, the alleged 170469 offense if the vehicle is registered in the arrested person's name 170470 and its license plates. A law enforcement agency that employs a 170471 law enforcement officer who makes an arrest of a type that is 170472 described in this division and that involves a rented or leased 170473 vehicle that is being rented or leased for a period of thirty days 170474 or less shall notify, within twenty-four hours after the officer 170475 makes the arrest, the lessor or owner of the vehicle regarding the 170476 circumstances of the arrest and the location at which the vehicle 170477 may be picked up. At the time of the seizure of the vehicle, the 170478 law enforcement officer who made the arrest shall give the 170479 arrested person written notice that the vehicle and its license 170480 plates have been seized; that the vehicle either will be kept by 170481 the officer's law enforcement agency or will be immobilized at 170482 least until the person's initial appearance on the charge of the 170483 offense for which the arrest was made; that, at the initial 170484 appearance, the court in certain circumstances may order that the 170485 vehicle and license plates be released to the arrested person 170486 until the disposition of that charge; that, if the arrested person 170487 is convicted of that charge, the court generally must order the 170488 immobilization of the vehicle and the impoundment of its license 170489 plates or the forfeiture of the vehicle; and that the arrested 170490 person may be charged expenses or charges incurred under this 170491 section and section 4503.233 of the Revised Code for the removal 170492 and storage of the vehicle. 170493

(2) The arresting officer or a law enforcement officer of the 170494 agency that employs the arresting officer shall give written 170495 notice of the seizure under division (B)(1) of this section to the 170496 court that will conduct the initial appearance of the arrested 170497 person on the charges arising out of the arrest. Upon receipt of 170498 the notice, the court promptly shall determine whether the 170499 arrested person is the vehicle owner. If the court determines that 170500 the arrested person is not the vehicle owner, it promptly shall 170501 send by regular mail written notice of the seizure to the 170502 vehicle's registered owner. The written notice shall contain all 170503 of the information required by division (B)(1) of this section to 170504 be in a notice to be given to the arrested person and also shall 170505 specify the date, time, and place of the arrested person's initial 170506 appearance. The notice also shall inform the vehicle owner that if 170507 title to a motor vehicle that is subject to an order for criminal 170508 forfeiture under this section is assigned or transferred and 170509 division (B)(2) or (3) of section 4503.234 of the Revised Code 170510 applies, the court may fine the arrested person the value of the 170511 vehicle. The notice also shall state that if the vehicle is 170512 immobilized under division (A) of section 4503.233 of the Revised 170513 Code, seven days after the end of the period of immobilization a 170514 law enforcement agency will send the vehicle owner a notice, 170515 informing the owner that if the release of the vehicle is not 170516 obtained in accordance with division (D)(3) of section 4503.233 of 170517 the Revised Code, the vehicle shall be forfeited. The notice also 170518 shall inform the vehicle owner that the owner may be charged 170519 expenses or charges incurred under this section and section 170520 4503.233 of the Revised Code for the removal and storage of the 170521 vehicle. 170522

The written notice that is given to the arrested person also 170523 shall state that if the person is convicted of or pleads guilty to 170524 the offense and the court issues an immobilization and impoundment 170525 order relative to that vehicle, division (D)(4) of section 170526 4503.233 of the Revised Code prohibits the vehicle from being sold 170527 during the period of immobilization without the prior approval of 170528 the court. 170529

(3) At or before the initial appearance, the vehicle owner 170530 may file a motion requesting the court to order that the vehicle 170531 and its license plates be released to the vehicle owner. Except as 170532 provided in this division and subject to the payment of expenses 170533 or charges incurred in the removal and storage of the vehicle, the 170534 court, in its discretion, then may issue an order releasing the 170535 vehicle and its license plates to the vehicle owner. Such an order 170536 may be conditioned upon such terms as the court determines 170537 appropriate, including the posting of a bond in an amount 170538 determined by the court. If the arrested person is not the vehicle 170539 owner and if the vehicle owner is not present at the arrested 170540 person's initial appearance, and if the court believes that the 170541 vehicle owner was not provided with adequate notice of the initial 170542 appearance, the court, in its discretion, may allow the vehicle 170543 owner to file a motion within seven days of the initial 170544 appearance. If the court allows the vehicle owner to file such a 170545 motion after the initial appearance, the extension of time granted 170546 by the court does not extend the time within which the initial 170547 appearance is to be conducted. If the court issues an order for 170548 the release of the vehicle and its license plates, a copy of the 170549 order shall be made available to the vehicle owner. If the vehicle 170550 owner presents a copy of the order to the law enforcement agency 170551 that employs the law enforcement officer who arrested the arrested 170552 person, the law enforcement agency promptly shall release the 170553 vehicle and its license plates to the vehicle owner upon payment 170554 by the vehicle owner of any expenses or charges incurred in the 170555 removal or storage of the vehicle. 170556

(4) A vehicle seized under division (B)(1) of this section 170557 either shall be towed to a place specified by the law enforcement 170558 agency that employs the arresting officer to be safely kept by the 170559 agency at that place for the time and in the manner specified in 170560 this section or shall be otherwise immobilized for the time and in 170561 the manner specified in this section. ~~A law enforcement officer of~~ 170562

~~that agency shall remove the identification license plates of the~~ 170563 ~~vehicle, and they shall be safely kept by the agency for the time~~ 170564
~~and in the manner specified in this section. The license plates~~ 170565 ~~shall remain on the seized vehicle unless otherwise ordered by the~~ 170566 ~~court.~~ No vehicle that is seized and either towed or immobilized 170567 pursuant to this division shall be considered contraband for 170568 purposes of Chapter 2981. of the Revised Code. The vehicle shall 170569 not be immobilized at any place other than a commercially operated 170570 private storage lot, a place owned by a law enforcement or other 170571 government agency, or a place to which one of the following 170572 applies: 170573

(a) The place is leased by or otherwise under the control of 170574 a law enforcement or other government agency. 170575

(b) The place is owned by the arrested person, the arrested 170576 person's spouse, or a parent or child of the arrested person. 170577

(c) The place is owned by a private person or entity, and, 170578 prior to the immobilization, the private entity or person that 170579 owns the place, or the authorized agent of that private entity or 170580 person, has given express written consent for the immobilization 170581 to be carried out at that place. 170582

(d) The place is a public street or highway on which the 170583 vehicle is parked in accordance with the law. 170584

(C)(1) A vehicle seized under division (B)(1) of this section 170585 shall be safely kept at the place to which it is towed or 170586 otherwise moved by the law enforcement agency that employs the 170587 arresting officer until the initial appearance of the arrested 170588 person relative to the charge in question. The license plates ~~of~~ 170589 ~~shall remain on the seized vehicle that are removed pursuant to~~ 170590 ~~division (B)(1) of this section shall be safely kept by the law~~ 170591 ~~enforcement agency that employs the arresting officer until at~~ 170592 ~~least the initial appearance of the arrested person relative to~~ 170593

~~the charge in question unless otherwise ordered by the court.~~ 170594

(2)(a) At the initial appearance or not less than seven days 170595 prior to the date of final disposition, the court shall notify the 170596 arrested person that, if title to a motor vehicle that is subject 170597 to an order for criminal forfeiture under this section is assigned 170598 or transferred and division (B)(2) or (3) of section 4503.234 of 170599 the Revised Code applies, the court may fine the arrested person 170600 the value of the vehicle. If, at the initial appearance, the 170601 arrested person pleads guilty to the violation of section 4510.14 170602 or 4511.203 of the Revised Code, or a municipal ordinance that is 170603 substantially equivalent to either of those sections or pleads no 170604 contest to and is convicted of the violation, the following 170605 sentencing provisions apply: 170606

(i) If the person violated section 4510.14 of the Revised 170607
Code or a municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to 170608 that section, the court shall impose sentence upon the person as 170609 provided by law or ordinance; the court shall order the 170610 immobilization of the vehicle the arrested person was operating at 170611 the time of, or that was involved in, the offense if registered in 170612
the arrested person's name and the impoundment of its license 170613 plates under sections 4503.233 and 4510.14 of the Revised Code or 170614 the criminal forfeiture to the state of the vehicle if registered 170615 in the arrested person's name under sections 4503.234 and 4510.14 170616 of the Revised Code, whichever is applicable; and the vehicle and 170617 its license plates shall not be returned or released to the 170618 arrested person. 170619

(ii) If the person violated section 4511.203 of the Revised 170620
Code or a municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to 170621
that section, the court shall impose sentence upon the person as 170622 provided by law or ordinance; the court may order the 170623 immobilization of the vehicle the arrested person was operating at 170624
the time of, or that was involved in, the offense if registered in 170625

plates under section 4503.233 and section 4511.203 of the Revised 170627 Code or the criminal forfeiture to the state of the vehicle if 170628 registered in the arrested person's name under section 4503.234 170629 and section 4511.203 of the Revised Code, whichever is applicable; 170630 and the vehicle and its license plates shall not be returned or 170631 released to the arrested person. 170632

(b) If, at any time, the charge that the arrested person 170633 violated section 4510.14 or 4511.203 of the Revised Code, or a 170634
those sections is dismissed for any reason, the court shall order 170636 that the vehicle seized at the time of the arrest and its license 170637 plates immediately be released to the person. 170638

(D) If a vehicle and its license plates are seized under 170639 division (B)(1) of this section and are not returned or released 170640 to the arrested person pursuant to division (C) of this section, 170641 the vehicle and its license plates shall be retained until the 170642 final disposition of the charge in question. Upon the final 170643 disposition of that charge, the court shall do whichever of the 170644 following is applicable: 170645

(1) If the arrested person is convicted of or pleads guilty 170646 to the violation of section 4510.14 of the Revised Code or a 170647 municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to that 170648 section, the court shall impose sentence upon the person as 170649 provided by law or ordinance and shall order the immobilization of 170650 the vehicle the person was operating at the time of, or that was 170651 involved in, the offense if it is registered in the arrested 170652 person's name and the impoundment of its license plates under 170653 sections 4503.233 and 4510.14 of the Revised Code or the criminal 170654 forfeiture of the vehicle if it is registered in the arrested 170655 person's name under sections 4503.234 and 4510.14 of the Revised 170656
Code, whichever is applicable. 170657

(3) If the arrested person is found not guilty of the violation of section 4510.14 or 4511.203 of the Revised Code, or a municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to either of those sections, the court shall order that the vehicle and its license plates immediately be released to the arrested person.

(4) If the charge that the arrested person violated section 4510.14 or 4511.203 of the Revised Code, or a municipal ordinance that is substantially equivalent to either of those sections is dismissed for any reason, the court shall order that the vehicle and its license plates immediately be released to the arrested person.

(E) If a vehicle is seized under division (B)(2) of this section, the time between the seizure of the vehicle and either 170690 its release to the arrested person pursuant to division (C) of 170691 this section or the issuance of an order of immobilization of the 170692 vehicle under section 4503.233 of the Revised Code shall be 170693 credited against the period of immobilization ordered by the 170694 court. 170695

(F)(1) Except as provided in division (D)(4) of this section, 170696 the arrested person may be charged expenses or charges incurred in 170697 the removal and storage of the immobilized vehicle. The court with 170698 jurisdiction over the case, after notice to all interested 170699 parties, including lienholders, and after an opportunity for them 170700 to be heard, if the court finds that the arrested person does not 170701 intend to seek release of the vehicle at the end of the period of 170702 immobilization under section 4503.233 of the Revised Code or that 170703 the arrested person is not or will not be able to pay the expenses 170704 and charges incurred in its removal and storage, may order that 170705 title to the vehicle be transferred, in order of priority, first 170706 into the name of the person or entity that removed it, next into 170707 the name of a lienholder, or lastly into the name of the owner of 170708 the place of storage. 170709

Any lienholder that receives title under a court order shall 170710 do so on the condition that it pay any expenses or charges 170711 incurred in the vehicle's removal and storage. If the person or 170712 entity that receives title to the vehicle is the person or entity 170713 that removed it, the person or entity shall receive title on the 170714 condition that it pay any lien on the vehicle. The court shall not 170715 order that title be transferred to any person or entity other than 170716 the owner of the place of storage if the person or entity refuses 170717 to receive the title. Any person or entity that receives title 170718 either may keep title to the vehicle or may dispose of the vehicle 170719 in any legal manner that it considers appropriate, including 170720 assignment of the certificate of title to the motor vehicle to a 170721 salvage dealer or a scrap metal processing facility. The person or 170722 entity shall not transfer the vehicle to the person who is the 170723 vehicle's immediate previous owner. 170724

If the person or entity that receives title assigns the motor 170725 vehicle to a salvage dealer or scrap metal processing facility, 170726 the person or entity shall send the assigned certificate of title 170727 to the motor vehicle to the clerk of the court of common pleas of 170728 the county in which the salvage dealer or scrap metal processing 170729 facility is located. The person or entity shall mark the face of 170730 the certificate of title with the words "FOR DESTRUCTION" and 170731 shall deliver a photocopy of the certificate of title to the 170732 salvage dealer or scrap metal processing facility for its records. 170733

(2) Whenever a court issues an order under division (F)(1) of 170734 this section, the court also shall order removal of the license 170735 plates from the vehicle and cause them to be sent to the registrar 170736 if they have not already been sent to the registrar. Thereafter, 170737 no further proceedings shall take place under this section or 170738
under section 4503.233 of the Revised Code. 170739

(3) Prior to initiating a proceeding under division (F)(1) of 170740 this section, and upon payment of the fee under division (B) of 170741 section 4505.14, any interested party may cause a search to be 170742 made of the public records of the bureau of motor vehicles or the 170743 clerk of the court of common pleas, to ascertain the identity of 170744 any lienholder of the vehicle. The initiating party shall furnish 170745 this information to the clerk of the court with jurisdiction over 170746 the case, and the clerk shall provide notice to the arrested 170747 person, any lienholder, and any other interested parties listed by 170748 the initiating party, at the last known address supplied by the 170749 initiating party, by certified mail, or, at the option of the 170750 initiating party, by personal service or ordinary mail. 170751

Sec. 4735.13. (A) Every real estate broker licensed under 170752 this chapter shall have and maintain a definite place of business 170753 in this state. A post office box address is not a definite place 170754 of business for purposes of this section. The license of a real 170755 estate broker shall be prominently displayed in the office or 170756 place of business of the broker, and no license shall authorize 170757 the licensee to do business except from the location specified in 170758 it. If the broker maintains more than one place of business within 170759 the state, the broker shall apply for and procure a duplicate 170760 license for each branch office maintained by the broker. Each 170761 branch office shall be in the charge of a licensed broker or 170762 salesperson. The branch office license shall be prominently 170763 displayed at the branch office location. 170764

(B) The license of each real estate salesperson shall be 170765 electronically mailed to and remain in the possession of the 170766 licensed broker with whom the salesperson is or is to be 170767 associated until the licensee places the license on inactive or 170768 resigned status or until the salesperson leaves the brokerage or 170769 is terminated. The broker shall keep a copy of each salesperson's 170770 license in a way that it can, and shall on request, be made 170771 immediately available for public inspection at the office or place 170772 of business of the broker. Except as provided in divisions (G) and 170773 (H) of this section, immediately upon the salesperson's leaving 170774 the association or termination of the association of a real estate 170775 salesperson with the broker, the broker shall ~~return the~~ 170776 ~~salesperson's license to~~ notify the superintendent of real estate 170777 by electronic mail to the division of real estate's general 170778 electronic mail address. The broker shall keep a copy of the 170779 written notification for three years after it is sent. 170780

The failure of a broker to ~~return the license~~ notify the 170781 superintendent of real estate in writing of a real estate 170782 salesperson or broker who leaves or who is terminated, via 170783 ~~certified~~ electronic mail ~~return receipt requested~~, within three 170784 business days of the receipt of a written request from the 170785 superintendent for ~~the return of the license~~ such notification, is 170786 prima-facie evidence of misconduct under division (A)(6) of 170787

section 4735.18 of the Revised Code. 170788

(C) A licensee shall notify the superintendent in writing 170789 within fifteen days of any of the following occurrences: 170790

(1) The licensee is convicted of a felony. 170791

(2) The licensee is convicted of a crime involving moral 170792 turpitude. 170793

(3) The licensee is found to have violated any federal, 170794 state, or municipal civil rights law pertaining to discrimination 170795 in housing. 170796

(4) The licensee is found to have engaged in a discriminatory 170797 practice pertaining to housing accommodations described in 170798 division (H) of section 4112.02 of the Revised Code. 170799

(5) The licensee is the subject of an order by the department 170800 of commerce, the department of insurance, or the department of 170801 agriculture revoking or permanently surrendering any professional 170802 license, certificate, or registration. 170803

(6) The licensee is the subject of an order by any government 170804 agency concerning real estate, financial matters, or the 170805 performance of fiduciary duties with respect to any license, 170806 certificate, or registration. 170807

If a licensee fails to notify the superintendent within the 170808 required time, the superintendent immediately may suspend the 170809 license of the licensee. 170810

Any court that convicts a licensee of a violation of any 170811 municipal civil rights law pertaining to housing discrimination 170812 also shall notify the Ohio civil rights commission within fifteen 170813 days of the conviction. 170814

(D) In case of any change of business location, a broker shall give notice to the superintendent, on a form prescribed by the superintendent, within thirty days after the change of location, whereupon the superintendent shall issue new licenses for the unexpired period without charge. If a broker changes a business location without giving the required notice and without receiving new licenses that action is prima-facie evidence of misconduct under division (A)(6) of section 4735.18 of the Revised Code.

(E) If a real estate broker desires to associate with another real estate broker in the capacity of a real estate salesperson, the broker shall apply to the superintendent to deposit the broker's real estate broker's license with the superintendent and for the issuance of a real estate salesperson's license. The application shall be made on a form prescribed by the superintendent and shall be accompanied by the recommendation of the real estate broker with whom the applicant intends to become associated and a fee of thirty-four dollars for the real estate salesperson's license. One dollar of the fee shall be credited to the real estate education and research fund. If the superintendent is satisfied that the applicant is honest and truthful, has not been convicted of a disqualifying offense as determined in accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code, and has not been finally adjudged by a court to have violated any municipal, state, or federal civil rights laws relevant to the protection of purchasers or sellers of real estate, and that the association of the real estate broker and the applicant will be in the public interest, the superintendent shall grant the application and issue a real estate salesperson's license to the applicant. Any license so deposited with the superintendent shall be subject to this chapter. A broker who intends to deposit the broker's license with the superintendent, as provided in this section, shall give written notice of this fact in a format prescribed by the superintendent to all salespersons associated with the broker when 170848 applying to place the broker's license on deposit. 170849

(F) If a real estate broker desires to become a member or 170850 officer of a partnership, association, limited liability company, 170851 limited liability partnership, or corporation that is or intends 170852 to become a licensed real estate broker, the broker shall notify 170853 the superintendent of the broker's intentions. The notice of 170854 intention shall be on a form prescribed by the superintendent and 170855 shall be accompanied by a fee of thirty-four dollars. One dollar 170856 of the fee shall be credited to the real estate education and 170857 research fund. 170858

A licensed real estate broker who is a member or officer of a 170859 partnership, association, limited liability company, limited 170860 liability partnership, or corporation shall only act as a real 170861 estate broker for such partnership, association, limited liability 170862 company, limited liability partnership, or corporation. 170863

(G)(1) If a real estate broker or salesperson enters the 170864 armed forces, the broker or salesperson may place the broker's or 170865 salesperson's license on deposit with the Ohio real estate 170866 commission. The licensee shall not be required to renew the 170867 license until the renewal date that follows the date of discharge 170868 from the armed forces. Any license deposited with the commission 170869 shall be subject to this chapter. 170870

Any licensee whose license is on deposit under this division 170871 and who fails to meet the continuing education requirements of 170872 section 4735.141 of the Revised Code because the licensee is in 170873 the armed forces shall satisfy the commission that the licensee 170874 has complied with the continuing education requirements within 170875 twelve months of the licensee's first birthday after discharge or 170876 within the amount of time equal to the total number of months the 170877 licensee spent on active duty, whichever is greater. The licensee 170878 shall submit proper documentation of active duty service and the 170879 length of that active duty service to the superintendent. The 170880 extension shall not exceed the total number of months that the 170881 licensee served in active duty. The superintendent shall notify 170882 the licensee of the licensee's obligations under section 4735.141 170883 of the Revised Code at the time the licensee applies for 170884 reactivation of the licensee's license. 170885

(2) If a licensee is a spouse of a member of the armed forces 170886 and the spouse's service resulted in the licensee's absence from 170887 this state, both of the following apply: 170888

(a) The licensee shall not be required to renew the license 170889 until the renewal date that follows the date of the spouse's 170890 discharge from the armed forces. 170891

(b) If the licensee fails to meet the continuing education 170892 requirements of section 4735.141 of the Revised Code, the licensee 170893 shall satisfy the commission that the licensee has complied with 170894 the continuing education requirements within twelve months after 170895 the licensee's first birthday after the spouse's discharge or 170896 within the amount of time equal to the total number of months the 170897 licensee's spouse spent on active duty, whichever is greater. The 170898 licensee shall submit proper documentation of the spouse's active 170899 duty service and the length of that active duty service. This 170900 extension shall not exceed the total number of months that the 170901 licensee's spouse served in active duty. 170902

(3) In the case of a licensee as described in division (G)(2) 170903 of this section, who holds the license through a reciprocity 170904 agreement with another state, the spouse's service shall have 170905 resulted in the licensee's absence from the licensee's state of 170906 residence for the provisions of that division to apply. 170907

(4) As used in this division, "armed forces" means the armed 170908 forces of the United States or reserve component of the armed 170909 forces of the United States including the Ohio national guard or 170910

the national guard of any other state. 170911

(H) If a licensed real estate salesperson submits an 170912 application to the superintendent to leave the association of one 170913 broker to associate with a different broker, the broker possessing 170914 the licensee's license need not ~~return the salesperson's license~~ 170915 ~~to~~ notify the superintendent pursuant to division (B) of this 170916 section. The superintendent may process the application regardless 170917 of whether the licensee's license is returned to the 170918 superintendent or the superintendent is notified pursuant to 170919 division (B) of this section. 170920

Sec. 4735.14. (A) Each license issued under this chapter, 170921 shall be valid without further recommendation or examination until 170922 it is placed in an inactive or resigned status, is revoked or 170923 suspended, or such license expires by operation of law. 170924

(B) Except for a licensee who has placed the licensee's 170925 license in resigned status pursuant to section 4735.142 of the 170926 Revised Code, each licensed broker, brokerage, or salesperson 170927 shall file, on or before the date the Ohio real estate commission 170928 has adopted by rule for that licensee in accordance with division 170929 (A)(2)(f) of section 4735.10 of the Revised Code, a notice of 170930 renewal on a form prescribed by the superintendent of real estate. 170931
The notice of renewal shall be ~~mailed~~ sent by the superintendent 170932 two months prior to the filing deadline to the ~~personal residence~~ 170933 electronic mail address of each broker or salesperson that is on 170934 file with the division. If the licensee is a partnership, 170935 association, limited liability company, limited liability 170936 partnership, or corporation, the notice of renewal shall be ~~mailed~~ 170937 sent by the superintendent two months prior to the filing deadline 170938 to the brokerage's business electronic mail address on file with 170939 the division. A licensee shall not renew the licensee's license 170940 any earlier than two months prior to the filing deadline. 170941

(C) Except as otherwise provided in division (B) of this section, the license of any real estate broker, brokerage, or salesperson that fails to file a notice of renewal on or before the filing deadline of each ensuing year shall be suspended automatically without the taking of any action by the superintendent. A suspended license may be reactivated within twelve months of the date of suspension, provided that the renewal fee plus a penalty fee of fifty per cent of the renewal fee is paid to the superintendent. Failure to reactivate the license as provided in this division shall result in automatic revocation of the license without the taking of any action by the superintendent. No person, partnership, association, corporation, limited liability company, or limited partnership shall engage in any act or acts for which a real estate license is required while that entity's license is placed in an inactive or resigned status, or is suspended, or revoked. The commission shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to provide to licensees notice of suspension or revocation or both.

(D) Each licensee shall notify the superintendent of a change in personal residence address within thirty days after the change of location. A licensee's failure to notify the superintendent of a change in personal residence address does not negate the requirement to file the license renewal by the required deadline established by the commission by rule under division (A)(2)(f) of section 4735.10 of the Revised Code. Each licensee shall maintain a valid electronic mail address on file with the division and notify the superintendent of any change in electronic mail address within thirty days after the change.

(E) The superintendent shall not renew a license if the licensee fails to comply with section 4735.141 of the Revised Code or is otherwise not in compliance with this chapter.

(F) The superintendent shall make notice of successful renewal available electronically to licensees as soon as 170974 practicable, but not later than thirty days after receipt by the 170975 division of a complete application and renewal fee. This notice 170976 shall serve as a notice of renewal for purposes of section 4745.02 170977

Sec. 5107.161. Before a county department of job and family 170979 services sanctions an assistance group under section 5107.16 of 170980 the Revised Code, the state department of job and family services 170981 shall provide the assistance group written notice of the sanction 170982 in accordance with rules adopted under section 5107.05 of the 170983 Revised Code. The written notice shall include a provision printed 170984 in bold type face that informs the assistance group that, not 170985 later than fifteen calendar days after the state department mailed 170986 the written notice to the assistance group, the assistance group 170987 may request, for the purpose of explaining why the assistance 170988 group believes it should not be sanctioned, a state hearing under 170989 division (B) of section 5101.35 of the Revised Code which, at the 170990 assistance group's request, may be preceded by a ~~face-to-face~~ 170991 county conference with the county department. The written notice 170992 shall include either the telephone number of an Ohio works first 170993 ombudsperson provided for under section 329.07 of the Revised Code 170994 or the toll-free telephone number of the state department of job 170995 and family services that the assistance group may call to obtain 170996 the telephone number of an Ohio works first ombudsperson. 170997

Sec. 5120.14. (A) If a person who was convicted of or pleaded 170998 guilty to an offense escapes from a correctional institution in 170999 this state under the control of the department of rehabilitation 171000 and correction or otherwise escapes from the custody of the 171001 department, the department immediately after the escape shall 171002 report the escape, by telephone and in writing, to all local law 171003 enforcement agencies with jurisdiction in the county in which the 171004 institution from which the escape was made or to which the person 171005 was sentenced is located, to all local law enforcement agencies 171006 with jurisdiction in the county in which the person was convicted 171007 or pleaded guilty to the offense for which the escaped person was 171008 sentenced, to the state highway patrol, to the prosecuting 171009 attorney of the county in which the institution from which the 171010 escape was made or to which the person was sentenced is located, 171011 to the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the person was 171012 convicted or pleaded guilty to the offense for which the escaped 171013 person was sentenced, to a newspaper of general circulation in the 171014 county in which the institution from which the escape was made or 171015 to which the person was sentenced is located, and to a newspaper 171016 of general circulation in each county in which the escaped person 171017 was indicted for an offense for which, at the time of the escape, 171018 the escaped person had been sentenced to that institution. The 171019 written notice may be by ~~either~~ facsimile transmission, electronic 171020 mail, or mail. A failure to comply with this requirement is a 171021 violation of section 2921.22 of the Revised Code. 171022

171023
(B) Upon the apprehension of the escaped person, the 171024 department shall give notice of the apprehension by telephone and 171025 in writing to the persons who were given notice of the escape 171026 under division (A) of this section. 171027

Sec. 5165.193. (A) The department of medicaid may, pursuant 171028 to rules authorized by this section, conduct an exception review 171029 of resident assessment data submitted by a nursing facility 171030 provider under section 5165.191 of the Revised Code. The 171031 department may conduct an exception review based on the findings 171032 of a medicaid certification survey conducted by the department of 171033 health, a risk analysis, or prior performance of the provider. 171034

Exception reviews shall be conducted ~~at the nursing facility~~ 171035 by appropriate health professionals under contract with or 171036 employed by the department. The professionals may review resident 171037 assessment forms and supporting documentation, conduct interviews, 171038 and observe residents to identify any patterns or trends of 171039 inaccurate resident assessments and resulting inaccurate case-mix 171040 scores. 171041

(B) If an exception review is conducted before the effective 171042 date of a nursing facility's rate for direct care costs that is 171043 based on the resident assessment data being reviewed and the 171044 review results in findings that exceed tolerance levels specified 171045 in the rules authorized by this section, the department, in 171046 accordance with those rules, may use the findings to redetermine 171047 individual resident case-mix scores, the nursing facility's 171048 case-mix score for the quarter, and the nursing facility's annual 171049 average case-mix score. The department may use the nursing 171050 facility's redetermined quarterly and annual average case-mix 171051 scores to determine the nursing facility's rate for direct care 171052 costs for the appropriate calendar quarter or quarters. 171053

(C) The department shall prepare a written summary of any 171054 exception review finding that is made after the effective date of 171055 a nursing facility's rate for direct care costs that is based on 171056 the resident assessment data that was reviewed. Where the provider 171057 is pursuing judicial or administrative remedies in good faith 171058 regarding the finding, the department shall not withhold from the 171059 provider's current payments any amounts the department claims to 171060 be due from the provider pursuant to section 5165.41 of the 171061
Revised Code. 171062

(D)(1) The medicaid director shall adopt rules under section 171063 5165.02 of the Revised Code as necessary to implement this 171064 section. The rules shall establish an exception review program 171065 that does all of the following: 171066

(a) Requires each exception review to comply with Title XVIII 171067 and Title XIX; 171068

(b) Requires a written summary for each exception review that 171069 states whether resident assessment forms have been completed 171070 accurately; 171071

(c) Prohibits each health professional who conducts an 171072 exception review from doing either of the following: 171073

(i) During the period of the professional's contract or 171074 employment with the department, having or being committed to 171075 acquire any direct or indirect financial interest in the 171076 ownership, financing, or operation of nursing facilities in this 171077
state; 171078

(ii) Reviewing any provider that has been a client of the 171079 professional. 171080

(2) For the purposes of division (D)(1)(c)(i) of this 171081 section, employment of a member of a health professional's family 171082 by a nursing facility that the professional does not review does 171083 not constitute a direct or indirect financial interest in the 171084 ownership, financing, or operation of the nursing facility. 171085

Sec. 5165.86. The department of medicaid, the department of 171086 health, and any contracting agency shall deliver a written notice, 171087 statement, or order to a nursing facility under sections 5165.60 171088 to 5165.66 and 5165.69 to 5165.89 of the Revised Code by certified 171089 mail ~~or~~, hand delivery, or other means reasonably calculated to 171090 provide prompt actual notice. If the notice, statement, or order 171091 is mailed, it shall be addressed to the administrator of the 171092 facility as indicated in the department's or agency's records. If 171093 it is hand delivered, it shall be delivered to a person at the 171094 facility who would appear to the average prudent person to have 171095 authority to accept it. 171096

Delivery of written notice by a nursing facility to the 171097 department of health, the department of medicaid, or a contracting 1711098 agency under sections 5165.60 to 5165.89 of the Revised Code shall 1711099 be by certified mail ~~or~~, hand delivery, or other means reasonably 1711100 calculated to provide prompt actual notice to the appropriate 1711101 department or the agency. 1711102

Sec. 5166.303. A home care attendant shall do all of the 1711103
following: 1711104

(A) Maintain a clinical record for each consumer to whom the 1711105 attendant provides home care attendant services in a manner that 1711106 protects the consumer's privacy; 1711107

(B) Participate in a face-to-face visit every ninety days 1711108 division (B) of this section in the consumer's clinical record 1711118 with the assistance of the registered nurse. 1711119

(D) The face-to-face visit requirement in division (B) of 1711120 this section may be satisfied by telephone or electronically if 1711121

Sec. 5168.08. (A) Before or during each program year, the 1711124 department of medicaid shall ~~mail~~ issue to each hospital ~~by~~ 1711125 ~~certified mail, return receipt requested,~~ the preliminary 1711126 determination of the amount that the hospital is assessed under 171127 section 5168.06 of the Revised Code during the program year. The 171128 preliminary determination of a hospital's assessment shall be 171129 calculated for a cost-reporting period that is specified in rules 171130 adopted under section 5168.02 of the Revised Code. 171131

The department shall consult with hospitals each year when 171132 determining the date on which it will ~~mail~~ issue the preliminary 171133 determinations in order to minimize hospitals' cash flow 171134 difficulties. 171135

If no hospital submits a request for reconsideration under 171136 division (B) of this section, the preliminary determination 171137 constitutes the final reconciliation of each hospital's assessment 171138 under section 5168.06 of the Revised Code. The final 171139 reconciliation is subject to adjustments under division (D) of 171140
this section. 171141

(B) Not later than fourteen days after the preliminary 171142 determinations are ~~mailed~~ issued, any hospital may submit to the 171143 department a written request to reconsider the preliminary 171144 determinations. The request shall be accompanied by written 171145 materials setting forth the basis for the reconsideration. If one 171146 or more hospitals submit a request, the department shall hold a 171147 public hearing not later than thirty days after the preliminary 171148 determinations are ~~mailed~~ issued to reconsider the preliminary 171149 determinations. The department shall ~~mail~~ issue to each hospital a 171150 written notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing at 171151 least ten days prior to the hearing. On the basis of the evidence 171152 submitted to the department or presented at the public hearing, 171153 the department shall reconsider and may adjust the preliminary 171154 determinations. The result of the reconsideration is the final 171155 reconciliation of the hospital's assessment under section 5168.06 171156 of the Revised Code. The final reconciliation is subject to 171157 adjustments under division (D) of this section. 171158

(C) The department shall ~~mail~~ issue to each hospital a 171159 written notice of its assessment for the program year under the 171160 final reconciliation. A hospital may appeal the final 171161 reconciliation of its assessment to the court of common pleas of 171162 Franklin county. While a judicial appeal is pending, the hospital 171163 shall pay, in accordance with the schedules required by division 171164 (B) of section 5168.06 of the Revised Code, any amount of its 171165 assessment that is not in dispute into the hospital care assurance 171166 program fund created in section 5168.11 of the Revised Code. 171167

(D) In the course of any program year, the department may 171168 adjust the assessment rate or rates established in rules pursuant 171169 to section 5168.06 of the Revised Code or adjust the amounts of 171170 intergovernmental transfers required under section 5168.07 of the 171171 Revised Code and, as a result of the adjustment, adjust each 171172 hospital's assessment and intergovernmental transfer, to reflect 171173 refinements made by the United States centers for medicare and 171174 medicaid services during that program year to the limits it 171175 prescribed under the "Social Security Act," section 1923(f), 42 171176 U.S.C. 1396r-4(f). When adjusted, the assessment rate or rates 171177 must comply with division (A) of section 5168.06 of the Revised 171178 Code. An adjusted intergovernmental transfer must comply with 171179 division (A) of section 5168.07 of the Revised Code. The 171180 department shall notify hospitals of adjustments made under this 171181 division and adjust for the remainder of the program year the 171182 installments paid by hospitals under sections 5168.06 and 5168.07 171183 of the Revised Code in accordance with rules adopted under section 171184
5168.02 of the Revised Code. 171185

Sec. 5168.22. (A) Before or during each assessment program 171186 year, the department of medicaid shall ~~mail~~ issue to each hospital 171187 ~~by certified mail, return receipt requested,~~ the preliminary 171188
section 5168.21 of the Revised Code for the assessment program 171190 year. Except as provided in division (B) of this section, the preliminary determination becomes the final determination for the assessment program year fifteen days after the preliminary determination is ~~mailed~~ issued to the hospital.

(B) A hospital may request that the department reconsider the preliminary determination ~~mailed~~ issued to the hospital under division (A) of this section by submitting to the department a written request for a reconsideration not later than fourteen days after the hospital's preliminary determination is ~~mailed~~ issued to the hospital. The request must be accompanied by written materials setting forth the basis for the reconsideration. On receipt of the timely request, the department shall reconsider the preliminary determination and may adjust the preliminary determination on the basis of the written materials accompanying the request. The result of the reconsideration is the final determination of the hospital's assessment under section 5168.21 of the Revised Code for the assessment program year.

Sec. 5168.23. Each hospital shall pay the amount it is assessed under section 5168.21 of the Revised Code in accordance with a payment schedule the department of medicaid shall establish for each assessment program year. The department shall consult with the Ohio hospital association before establishing the payment schedule for any assessment program year. The department shall include the payment schedule in each preliminary determination notice the department ~~mail~~ issues to hospitals under division (A) 171222 of section 5168.22 of the Revised Code. 171223

Sec. 5525.01. Before entering into a contract, the director 171224 of transportation ~~shall~~ may advertise for bids for two consecutive 171225 weeks in one newspaper of general circulation published in the 171226 county in which the improvement or part thereof is located, but if 171227 there is no such newspaper then in one newspaper having general 171228 circulation in an adjacent county. In the alternative, the 171229 director may advertise for bids as provided in section 7.16 of the 171230 Revised Code. The director ~~may~~ shall advertise for bids in such 171231 other publications as the director considers advisable. Such 171232 notices shall state that plans and specifications for the 171233 improvement are on file in the office of the director and the 171234 district deputy director of the district in which the improvement 171235 or part thereof is located and the time within which bids therefor 171236 will be received. 171237

Each bidder shall be required to file with the bidder's bid a 171238 bid guaranty in the form of a certified check, a cashier's check, 171239 or an electronic funds transfer to the treasurer of state that is 171240 evidenced by a receipt or by a certification to the director of 171241 transportation in a form prescribed by the director that an 171242 electronic funds transfer has been made to the treasurer of state, 171243 for an amount equal to five per cent of the bidder's bid, but in 171244 no event more than fifty thousand dollars, or a bid bond for ten 171245 per cent of the bidder's bid, payable to the director, which 171246 check, transferred sum, or bond shall be forthwith returned to the 171247 bidder in case the contract is awarded to another bidder, or, in 171248 case of a successful bidder, when the bidder has entered into a 171249 contract and furnished the bonds required by section 5525.16 of 171250 the Revised Code. In the event the contract is awarded to a 171251 bidder, and the bidder fails or refuses to furnish the bonds as 171252 required by section 5525.16 of the Revised Code, the check, 171253 transferred sum, or bid bond filed with the bidder's bid shall be 171254 forfeited as liquidated damages. No bidder shall be required 171255 either to file a signed contract with the bidder's bid, to enter 171256 into a contract, or to furnish the contract performance bond and 171257 the payment bond required by that section until the bids have been 171258 opened and the bidder has been notified by the director that the 171259 bidder is awarded the contract. 171260

The director shall permit a bidder to withdraw the bidder's 171261 bid from consideration, without forfeiture of the check, 171262 transferred sum, or bid bond filed with the bid, providing a 171263 written request together with a sworn statement of the grounds for 171264 such withdrawal is delivered within forty-eight hours after the 171265 time established for the receipt of bids, and if the price bid was 171266 substantially lower than the other bids, providing the bid was 171267 submitted in good faith, and the reason for the price bid being 171268 substantially lower was a clerical mistake evident on the face of 171269 the bid, as opposed to a judgment mistake, and was actually due to 171270 an unintentional and substantial arithmetic error or an 171271 unintentional omission of a substantial quantity of work, labor, 171272 or material made directly in the compilation of the bid. In the 171273 event the director decides the conditions for withdrawal have not 171274 been met, the director may award the contract to such bidder. If 171275 such bidder does not then enter into a contract and furnish the 171276 contract bond as required by law, the director may declare 171277 forfeited the check, transferred sum, or bid bond as liquidated 171278 damages and award the contract to the next higher bidder or reject 171279 the remaining bids and readvertise the project for bids. Such 171280 bidder, within thirty days, may appeal the decision of the 171281 director to the court of common pleas of Franklin county and the 171282 court may affirm or reverse the decision of the director and may 171283 order the director to refund the amount of the forfeiture. At the 171284 hearing before the common pleas court evidence may be introduced 171285 for and against the decision of the director. The decision of the 171286 common pleas court may be appealed as in other cases. 171287

There is hereby created the ODOT letting fund, which shall be 171288 in the custody of the treasurer of state but shall not be part of 171289 the state treasury. All certified checks and cashiers' checks 171290 received with bidders' bids, and all sums transferred to the 171291 treasurer of state by electronic funds transfer in connection with 171292 bidders' bids, under this section shall be credited to the fund. 171293
All such bid guaranties shall be held in the fund until a 171294 determination is made as to the final disposition of the money. If 171295 the department determines that any such bid guaranty is no longer 171296 required to be held, the amount of the bid guaranty shall be 171297 returned to the appropriate bidder. If the department determines 171298 that a bid guaranty under this section shall be forfeited, the 171299 amount of the bid guaranty shall be transferred or, in the case of 171300 money paid on a forfeited bond, deposited into the state treasury, 171301 to the credit of the highway operating fund. Any investment 171302 earnings of the ODOT letting fund shall be distributed as the 171303 treasurer of state considers appropriate. 171304

The director shall require all bidders to furnish the 171305 director, upon such forms as the director may prescribe, detailed 171306 information with respect to all pending work of the bidder, 171307 whether with the department of transportation or otherwise, 171308 together with such other information as the director considers 171309
necessary. 171310

In the event a bidder fails to submit anything required to be 171311 submitted with the bid and then fails or refuses to so submit such 171312 at the request of the director, the failure or refusal constitutes 171313 grounds for the director, in the director's discretion, to declare 171314 as forfeited the bid guaranty submitted with the bid. 171315

The director may reject any or all bids. Except in regard to 171316 contracts for environmental remediation and specialty work for 171317 which there are no classes of work set out in the rules adopted by 171318 the director, if the director awards the contract, the director 171319 shall award it to the lowest competent and responsible bidder as 171320 defined by rules adopted by the director under section 5525.05 of 171321 the Revised Code, who is qualified to bid under sections 5525.02 171322 to 5525.09 of the Revised Code. In regard to contracts for 171323 environmental remediation and specialty work for which there are 171324 no classes of work set out in the rules adopted by the director, 171325 the director shall competitively bid the projects in accordance 171326 with this chapter and shall award the contracts to the lowest and 171327 best bidder. 171328

The award for all projects competitively let by the director 171329 under this section shall be made within ten days after the date on 171330 which the bids are opened, and the successful bidder shall enter 171331 into a contract and furnish a contract performance bond and a 171332 payment bond, as provided for in section 5525.16 of the Revised 171333 Code, within ten days after the bidder is notified that the bidder 171334 has been awarded the contract. 171335

The director may insert in any contract awarded under this 171336 chapter a clause providing for value engineering change proposals, 171337 under which a contractor who has been awarded a contract may 171338 propose a change in the plans and specifications of the project 171339 that saves the department time or money on the project without 171340 impairing any of the essential functions and characteristics of 171341 the project such as service life, reliability, economy of 171342 operation, ease of maintenance, safety, and necessary standardized 171343 features. If the director adopts the value engineering proposal, 171344 the savings from the proposal shall be divided between the 171345 department and the contractor according to guidelines established 171346 by the director, provided that the contractor shall receive at 171347 least fifty per cent of the savings from the proposal. The 171348 adoption of a value engineering proposal does not invalidate the 171349 award of the contract or require the director to rebid the 171350 project. 171351

Sec. 5709.83. (A) Except as otherwise provided in division 171352
(B) or (C) of this section, prior to taking formal action to adopt 171353 or enter into any instrument granting a tax exemption under 171354
section 725.02, 1728.06, 5709.40, 5709.41, 5709.45, 5709.62, 171355 5709.63, 5709.632, 5709.73, 5709.78, 5709.84, or 5709.88 of the 171356
Revised Code or formally approving an agreement under section 171357 3735.671 of the Revised Code, or prior to forwarding an 171358 application for a tax exemption for residential property under 171359 section 3735.67 of the Revised Code to the county auditor, the 171360 legislative authority of the political subdivision or housing 171361 officer shall notify the board of education of each city, local, 171362 exempted village, or joint vocational school district in which the 171363 proposed tax-exempted property is located. The notice shall 171364 include a copy of the instrument or application. The notice shall 171365 be delivered not later than fourteen days prior to the day the 171366 legislative authority takes formal action to adopt or enter into 171367 the instrument, or not later than fourteen days prior to the day 171368 the housing officer forwards the application to the county 171369 auditor. If the board of education comments on the instrument or 171370 application to the legislative authority or housing officer, the 171371 legislative authority or housing officer shall consider the 171372 comments. If the board of education of the city, local, exempted 171373 village, or joint vocational school district so requests, the 171374 legislative authority or the housing officer shall meet ~~in person~~ 171375 with a representative designated by the board of education to 171376 discuss the terms of the instrument or application. 171377

(B) The notice otherwise required to be provided to boards of 171378 education under division (A) of this section is not required if 171379 the board has adopted a resolution waiving its right to receive 171380 such notices, and that resolution remains in effect. If a board of 171381 education adopts such a resolution, the board shall cause a copy 171382 of the resolution to be certified to the legislative authority. If 171383 the board of education rescinds such a resolution, it shall 171384 certify notice of the rescission to the legislative authority. A 171385 board of education may adopt such a resolution with respect to any 171386 one or more counties, townships, or municipal corporations 171387 situated in whole or in part within the school district. 171388

(C) If a legislative authority is required to provide notice 171389 to a city, local, or exempted village school district of its 171390 intent to adopt or enter into any instrument granting a tax 171391 exemption as required by section 3735.671, 5709.40, 5709.41, 171392 5709.45, 5709.62, 5709.63, 5709.632, 5709.73, or 5709.78 of the 171393
Revised Code, the legislative authority, before adopting a 171394 resolution or ordinance or entering into an agreement under that 171395 section, shall notify the board of education of each joint 171396 vocational school district in which the property to be exempted is 171397 located using the same time requirements for the notice that 171398 applies to notices to city, local, and exempted village school 171399 districts. The content of the notice and procedures for responding 171400 to the notice are the same as required in division (A) of this 171401
section. 171402

Sec. 5736.041. The tax commissioner shall prepare and 171403 maintain a list of suppliers holding a license issued under 171404 section 5736.06 of the Revised Code that has not been revoked or 171405 canceled under section 5736.07 of the Revised Code. The list shall 171406 contain the names and addresses of all such suppliers and each 171407 supplier's account number for the tax imposed under section 171408 5736.02 of the Revised Code. ~~The list shall be open to public~~ 171409 ~~inspection in the office of the commissioner.~~ The commissioner ~~may~~ 171410 shall post the list on the department of taxation's web site. 171411

(3) "Qualified distribution center" means a warehouse, a 171434 facility similar to a warehouse, or a refining facility in this 171435 state that, for the qualifying year, is operated by a person that 171436 is not part of a combined taxpayer group and that has a qualifying 171437 located in the same or adjacent counties may be treated as one 171443 qualified distribution center. 171444

(4) "Qualifying year" means the calendar year to which the 171445 qualifying certificate applies. 171446

(7) "Ohio delivery percentage" means the proportion of the 171454 total property delivered to a destination inside Ohio from the 171455 it would be situated outside this state under the provisions of 171489 division (E) of section 5751.033 of the Revised Code. The 171490 certificate within sixty days after the receipt of the 171500 application. A denial is subject to appeal under section 5717.02 171501 of the Revised Code. If the operator files a timely appeal under 171502 section 5717.02 of the Revised Code, the operator shall be granted 171503 a qualifying certificate effective for the remainder of the 171504 qualifying year or until the appeal is finalized, whichever is 171505 earlier. If the operator does not prevail in the appeal, the 171506 operator shall pay the ineligible operator's supplier tax liability. 171507 171508

(2) If the distribution center is new and was not open for 171509 the entire qualifying period, the operator of the distribution 171510 center may request that the commissioner grant a qualifying 171511 certificate. If the certificate is granted and it is later 171512 determined that more than fifty per cent of the qualified property 171513 during that year was not shipped to a location such that it would 171514 be situated outside of this state under the provisions of division 171515 (E) of section 5751.033 of the Revised Code or if it is later 171516 determined that the person that operates the distribution center 171517 had average monthly costs from its suppliers of less than forty 171518 million dollars during that year, then the operator of the 171519 distribution center shall pay the ineligible operator's supplier 171520 tax liability. 171521

(3) The commissioner may grant a qualifying certificate to a 171522 distribution center that does not qualify as a qualified 171523 distribution center for an entire qualifying period if the 171524 operator of the distribution center demonstrates that the business 171525 operations of the distribution center have changed or will change 171526 such that the distribution center will qualify as a qualified 171527 distribution center within thirty-six months after the date the 171528 operator first applies for a certificate. If, at the end of that 171529 thirty-six-month period, the business operations of the 171530 distribution center have not changed such that the distribution 171531 center qualifies as a qualified distribution center, the operator 171532 of the distribution center shall pay the ineligible operator's 171533 supplier tax liability for each year that the distribution center 171534 received a certificate but did not qualify as a qualified 171535 distribution center. For each year the distribution center 171536 receives a certificate under division (B)(3) of this section, the 171537 distribution center shall pay all applicable fees required under 171538 this section and shall submit an updated business plan showing the progress the distribution center made toward qualifying as a qualified distribution center during the preceding year.

(4) An operator may appeal a determination under division (B)(2) or (3) of this section that the ineligible operator is liable for the operator's supplier tax liability as a result of not qualifying as a qualified distribution center, as provided in section 5717.02 of the Revised Code.

(C)(1) When filing an application for a qualifying certificate under division (B)(1) of this section, the operator of a qualified distribution center also shall provide documentation, as the commissioner requires, for the commissioner to ascertain the Ohio delivery percentage. The commissioner, upon issuing the qualifying certificate, also shall certify the Ohio delivery percentage. The operator of the qualified distribution center may appeal the commissioner's certification of the Ohio delivery percentage in the same manner as an appeal is taken from the denial of a qualifying certificate under division (B)(1) of this section.

(2) In the case where the distribution center is new and not open for the entire qualifying period, the operator shall make a good faith estimate of an Ohio delivery percentage for use by suppliers in their reports of taxable gross receipts for the remainder of the qualifying period. The operator of the facility shall disclose to the suppliers that such Ohio delivery percentage is an estimate and is subject to recalculation. By the due date of the next application for a qualifying certificate, the operator shall determine the actual Ohio delivery percentage for the estimated qualifying period and proceed as provided in division (C)(1) of this section with respect to the calculation and recalculation of the Ohio delivery percentage. The supplier is required to file, within sixty days after receiving notice from the operator of the qualified distribution center, amended reports 171571 for the impacted calendar quarter or quarters or calendar year, 171572 whichever the case may be. Any additional tax liability or tax 171573 overpayment shall be subject to interest but shall not be subject 171574 to the imposition of any penalty so long as the amended returns 171575 are timely filed. 171576

(3) The operator of a distribution center that receives a 171577 qualifying certificate under division (B)(3) of this section shall 171578 make a good faith estimate of the Ohio delivery percentage that 171579 the operator estimates will apply to the distribution center at 171580 the end of the thirty-six-month period after the operator first 171581 applied for a qualifying certificate under that division. The 171582 result of the estimate shall be multiplied by a factor of one and 171583 seventy-five one-hundredths. The product of that calculation shall 171584 be the Ohio delivery percentage used by suppliers in their reports 171585 of taxable gross receipts for each qualifying year that the 171586 distribution center receives a qualifying certificate under 171587 division (B)(3) of this section, except that, if the product is 171588 less than five per cent, the Ohio delivery percentage used shall 171589 be five per cent and that, if the product exceeds forty-nine per 171590 cent, the Ohio delivery percentage used shall be forty-nine per 171591 cent. 171592

(D) Qualifying certificates and Ohio delivery percentages 171593 issued by the commissioner shall be ~~open to public inspection and~~ 171594 ~~shall be~~ timely published by the commissioner on the department of 171595 taxation's web site and shall be accessible on that web site for 171596 at least four years after the date of issuance. A supplier relying 171597 in good faith on a certificate issued under this section shall not 171598 be subject to tax on the qualifying distribution center receipts 171599 under this section and division (F)(2)(z) of section 5751.01 of 171600 the Revised Code. An operator receiving a qualifying certificate 171601 is liable for the ineligible operator's supplier tax liability for 171602 each year the operator received a certificate but did not qualify 171603 as a qualified distribution center. 171604

(E) The tax commissioner shall determine an ineligible 171605 operator's supplier tax liability based on information that the 171606 commissioner may request from the operator of the distribution 171607 center. An operator shall provide a list of all suppliers of the 171608 distribution center and the corresponding costs of qualified 171609 property for the qualifying year at issue within sixty days of a 171610 request by the commissioner under this division. 171611

(F) The annual fee for a qualifying certificate shall be one 171612 hundred thousand dollars for each qualified distribution center. 171613
If a qualifying certificate is not issued, the annual fee is 171614 subject to refund after the exhaustion of all appeals provided for 171615 in division (B)(1) of this section. The first one hundred thousand 171616 dollars of the annual application fees collected each calendar 171617 year shall be credited to the revenue enhancement fund. The 171618 remainder of the annual application fees collected shall be 171619 distributed in the same manner required under section 5751.20 of 171620
the Revised Code. 171621

(G) The tax commissioner may require that adequate security 171622 be posted by the operator of the distribution center on appeal 171623 when the commissioner disagrees that the applicant has met the 171624 minimum thresholds for a qualified distribution center as set 171625 forth in this section. 171626 person, at least five business days prior to the first day of 171679 employment as a key employee, has filed a notification of 171680 application for a key employee license within the first thirty 171682 days of employment as a key employee. 171683

(C) Each applicant shall, before the issuance of any key 171684 employee license, produce information, documentation, and 171685 assurances as are required by this chapter and rules adopted 171686 thereunder. In addition, each applicant shall, in writing, 171687 authorize the examination of all bank accounts and records as may 171688 be deemed necessary by the commission. 171689

(D) To be eligible for a key employee license, the applicant 171690 management company, or holding company upon receiving notice under 171751 division (G)(1) of this section. That a contract or other 171752 the provision of any such service and the hospital shall be exempt 171874 from requirements of this section pertaining to psychologists. 171875 five years of the offender's stated prison term or, if the prison 172849 term includes a mandatory prison term or terms, not earlier than 172850 five years after the expiration of all mandatory prison terms. 172851

(e) If the aggregated nonmandatory prison term or terms is 172852 emergency-qualifying offender may file the motion not earlier than 172854 the later of the date on which the offender has served one-half of 172855 more mandatory prison terms and the offender has completed the 172861 mandatory prison term or terms, the state of emergency-qualifying 172862 offender may file the motion at any time during the offender's 172863 aggregated nonmandatory prison term or terms, provided that time 172864 also is during the declared state of emergency. 172865

(2) ~~A~~ During any single declared state of emergency, a state 172866 of emergency-qualifying offender may only file a motion for 172867 judicial release as a state of emergency-qualifying offender with 172868 the sentencing court during ~~the~~ that declared state of emergency 172869 once every six months. 172870

(D)(1)(a) Upon receipt of a timely motion for judicial 172871 release filed by an eligible offender or a state of 172872 emergency-qualifying offender under division (C) of this section, 172873 or upon the sentencing court's own motion made within the 172874 appropriate time specified in that division, the court may deny 172875 the motion without a hearing or schedule a hearing on the motion. 172876
The court may grant the motion without a hearing for an offender 172877 under consideration for judicial release as a state of 172878 emergency-qualifying offender, but the court shall not grant the 172879 motion without a hearing for an offender under consideration as an 172880 eligible offender. If a court denies a motion without a hearing, 172881 the court later may consider judicial release for that eligible 172882 offender or that state of emergency-qualifying offender on a 172883 subsequent motion. For an offender under consideration for 172884 judicial release as an eligible offender, but not for one under 172885 consideration as a state of emergency-qualifying offender, the 172886 court may deny the motion with prejudice. If a court denies a 172887 motion with prejudice, the court may later consider judicial 172888 release on its own motion. For an offender under consideration for 172889 judicial release as a state of emergency-qualifying offender, the 172890 court shall not deny a motion with prejudice. For an offender 172891 under consideration for judicial release as an eligible offender, 172892 but not for one under consideration as a state of 172893 emergency-qualifying offender, if a court denies a motion after a 172894 hearing, the court shall not consider a subsequent motion for that 172895 offender based on the offender's classification as an eligible 172896 offender. The court may hold multiple hearings for any offender 172897

under consideration for judicial release as a state of 172898 emergency-qualifying offender, but shall hold only one hearing for 172899 any offender under consideration as an eligible offender. 172900

(b) If an offender is under consideration for judicial 172901 release as an eligible offender and the motion is denied, and if 172902 the offender at that time also is or subsequently becomes a state 172903 of emergency-qualifying offender, the denial does not limit or 172904 affect any right of the offender to file a motion under this 172905 section for consideration for judicial release as a state of 172906 emergency-qualifying offender or for the court on its own motion 172907 to consider the offender for judicial release as a state of 172908 emergency-qualifying offender. 172909

If an offender is under consideration for judicial release as 172910 a state of emergency-qualifying offender and the motion is denied, 172911 and if the offender at that time also is or subsequently becomes 172912 an eligible offender, the denial does not limit or affect any 172913 right of the offender to file a motion under this section for 172914 consideration for judicial release as an eligible offender or for 172915 the court on its own motion to consider the offender for judicial 172916 release as an eligible offender. 172917

(2)(a) With respect to a motion for judicial release filed by 172918 an offender as an eligible offender or made by the court on its 172919 own motion for an offender as an eligible offender, a hearing 172920 under this section shall be conducted in open court not less than 172921 thirty or more than sixty days after the motion is filed, provided 172922 that the court may delay the hearing for one hundred eighty 172923 additional days. If the court holds a hearing, the court shall 172924 enter a ruling on the motion within ten days after the hearing. If 172925 the court denies the motion without a hearing, the court shall 172926 enter its ruling on the motion within sixty days after the motion 172927 is filed. 172928

(b) With respect to a motion for judicial release filed by an 172929 offender as a state of emergency-qualifying offender or made by 172930 the court on its own motion for an offender as a state of 172931 emergency-qualifying offender, the court shall notify the 172932 prosecuting attorney of the county in which the offender was 172933 indicted and may order the prosecuting attorney to respond to the 172934 motion in writing within ten days. The prosecuting attorney shall 172935 notify the victim pursuant to the Ohio Constitution. The 172936 prosecuting attorney shall include in the response any statement 172937 that the victim wants to be represented to the court. The court 172938 shall consider any response from the prosecuting attorney and any 172939 statement from the victim in its ruling on the motion. After 172940 receiving the response from the prosecuting attorney, the court 172941 either shall order a hearing consistent with divisions (E) to (I) 172942 of this section as soon as possible, or shall enter its ruling on 172943 the motion for judicial release as soon as possible. If the court 172944 conducts a hearing, the hearing shall be conducted in open court 172945 or by a virtual, telephonic, or other form of remote hearing. If 172946 the court holds a hearing, the court shall enter a ruling on the 172947 motion within ten days after the hearing. If the court denies the 172948 motion without a hearing, the court shall enter its ruling on the 172949 motion within ten days after the motion is filed or after it 172950 receives the response from the prosecuting attorney. 172951

(E) If a court schedules a hearing under divisions (D)(1) and 172952

(2)(a) of this section or under divisions (D)(1) and (2)(b) of 172953 this section, the court shall notify the subject eligible offender 172954 or state of emergency-qualifying offender and the head of the 172955 state correctional institution in which that subject offender is 172956 confined prior to the hearing. The head of the state correctional 172957 institution immediately shall notify the appropriate person at the 172958 department of rehabilitation and correction of the hearing, and 172959 the department within twenty-four hours after receipt of the 172960 notice, shall post on the database it maintains pursuant to 172961 section 5120.66 of the Revised Code the subject offender's name 172962 and all of the information specified in division (A)(1)(c)(i) of 172963 that section. If the court schedules a hearing for judicial 172964 release, the court promptly shall give notice of the hearing to 172965 the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the subject 172966 eligible offender or state of emergency-qualifying offender was 172967 indicted. Upon receipt of the notice from the court, the 172968 prosecuting attorney shall do whichever of the following is 172969
applicable: 172970

(1) Subject to division (E)(2) of this section, notify the 172971 victim of the offense and the victim's representative, if 172972

(2) If the offense was an offense of violence that is a 172975 felony of the first, second, or third degree, except as otherwise 172976 provided in this division, pursuant to the Ohio Constitution, 172977 notify the victim and the victim's representative, if applicable, 172978 of the hearing regardless of whether the victim or victim's 172979 representative has requested the notification. Except when notice 172980 to the victim is required under the Ohio Constitution, the notice 172981 of the hearing shall not be given under this division to a victim 172982 or victim's representative if the victim or victim's 172983 representative has requested pursuant to division (B)(2) of 172984 section 2930.03 of the Revised Code that the victim or the 172985 victim's representative not be provided the notice. If notice is 172986 to be provided to a victim or victim's representative under this 172987 division, the prosecuting attorney may give the notice by any 172988 reasonable means, including regular mail, telephone, and 172989 electronic mail, in accordance with division (D)(1) of section 172990 2930.16 of the Revised Code. If the notice is based on an offense 172991 committed prior to March 22, 2013, the notice also shall include 172992 the opt-out information described in division (D)(1) of section 172993 completion of the activities. 173009

(G) Prior to the date of the hearing on a motion for judicial 173010 release made by an eligible offender, by a state of 173011 emergency-qualifying offender, or by a court on its own under this 173012 section, the head of the state correctional institution in which 173013 the subject offender is confined shall send to the court an 173014 institutional summary report on the offender's conduct in the 173015 institution and in any institution from which the offender may 173016

If the motion alleges that the offender who is the subject of the motion is an eligible offender and the court makes an initial determination that the offender satisfies the criteria for being an eligible offender, or if the motion alleges that the offender who is the subject of the motion is a state of emergency-qualifying offender and the court makes an initial determination that the offender satisfies the criteria for being a state of emergency-qualifying offender, the court shall determine whether to grant the motion. After ruling on the motion, the court shall notify the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the eligible offender or state of emergency-qualifying offender was indicted of the ruling, and the prosecuting attorney shall notify the victim and the victim's representative of the ruling in accordance with sections 2930.03 and 2930.16 of the Revised Code or, if the court granted the motion, in accordance with division (K) of this section.

(J)(1) A court shall not grant a judicial release under this section to an offender who is imprisoned for a felony of the first or second degree and who is under consideration as an eligible offender, or to an offender who committed an offense under Chapter 2925. or 3719. of the Revised Code, who is under consideration as an eligible offender, and for whom there was a presumption under section 2929.13 of the Revised Code in favor of a prison term, unless the court, with reference to factors under section 2929.12 of the Revised Code, finds both of the following: 173081

(a) That a sanction other than a prison term would adequately 173082 punish the offender and protect the public from future criminal 173083 violations by the offender because the applicable factors 173084 indicating a lesser likelihood of recidivism outweigh the 173085 applicable factors indicating a greater likelihood of recidivism; 173086

(b) That a sanction other than a prison term would not demean 173087 the seriousness of the offense because factors indicating that the 173088 offender's conduct in committing the offense was less serious than 173089 conduct normally constituting the offense outweigh factors 173090 indicating that the eligible offender's conduct was more serious 173091 than conduct normally constituting the offense. 173092

(2) A court that grants a judicial release under division 173093
(J)(1) of this section to an offender who is under consideration 173094 as an eligible offender shall specify on the record both findings 173095 required in that division and also shall list all the factors 173096 described in that division that were presented at the hearing. 173097

(3)(a) Subject to division (J)(3)(b) of this section, a court 173098 shall grant a judicial release under this section to an offender 173099 who is under consideration as a state of emergency-qualifying 173100 offender if the court determines that the risks posed by 173101 incarceration to the health and safety of the offender, because of 173102 the nature of the declared state of emergency, outweigh the risk 173103 to public safety if the offender were to be released from 173104 incarceration. 173105

(b) A court shall not grant a judicial release under this 173106 section to an offender who is imprisoned for a felony of the first 173107 or second degree and is under consideration for judicial release 173108 as a state of emergency-qualifying offender unless the court, with 173109 reference to the factors specified under section 2929.12 of the 173110 Revised Code, finds both of the criteria set forth in divisions 173111

(J)(1)(a) and (b) of this section. 173112

(K) If the court grants a motion for judicial release under 173113 this section, the court shall order the release of the eligible 173114 offender or state of emergency-qualifying offender, shall place 173115 the offender under an appropriate community control sanction, 173116 under appropriate conditions, and under the supervision of the 173117 department of probation serving the court and shall reserve the 173118 right to reimpose the sentence that it reduced if the offender 173119 violates the sanction. If the court reimposes the reduced 173120 sentence, it may do so either concurrently with, or consecutive 173121 to, any new sentence imposed on the eligible offender or state of 173122 emergency-qualifying offender as a result of the violation that is 173123 a new offense. Except as provided in division (N)(5)(b) of this 173124 section, the period of community control shall be no longer than 173125 five years. The court, in its discretion, may reduce the period of 173126 community control by the amount of time the offender spent in jail 173127 or prison for the offense and in prison. If the court made any 173128 findings pursuant to division (J)(1) of this section, the court 173129 shall serve a copy of the findings upon counsel for the parties 173130 within fifteen days after the date on which the court grants the 173131 motion for judicial release. 173132

If the court grants a motion for judicial release, the court 173133 shall notify the appropriate person at the department of 173134 rehabilitation and correction, and the department shall post 173135 notice of the release on the database it maintains pursuant to 173136 section 5120.66 of the Revised Code. The court also shall notify 173137 the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the eligible 173138 offender or state of emergency-qualifying offender was indicted 173139 that the motion has been granted. When notice to the victim is 173140 required under the Ohio Constitution, the prosecuting attorney 173141 shall notify the victim and the victim's representative, if 173142 applicable, of the judicial release. In all other cases, unless 173143 the victim or the victim's representative has requested pursuant 173144 to division (B)(2) of section 2930.03 of the Revised Code that the 173145 victim or victim's representative not be provided the notice, the 173146 prosecuting attorney shall notify the victim and the victim's 173147 representative, if applicable, of the judicial release in any 173148 manner, and in accordance with the same procedures, pursuant to 173149 which the prosecuting attorney is authorized to provide notice of 173150 the hearing pursuant to division (E)(2) of this section. If the 173151 notice is based on an offense committed prior to March 22, 2013, 173152 the notice to the victim or victim's representative also shall 173153 include the opt-out information described in division (D)(1) of 173154

section 2930.16 of the Revised Code. 173155

(L) In addition to and independent of the right of a victim 173156 to make a statement pursuant to section 2930.14, 2930.17, or 173157 2946.051 of the Revised Code and any right of a person to present 173158 written information or make a statement pursuant to division (I) 173159 of this section, any person may submit to the court, at any time 173160 prior to the hearing on the motion for judicial release of the 173161 eligible offender or state of emergency-qualifying offender, a 173162 written statement concerning the effects of the offender's 173163 criminal offense, the circumstances surrounding the criminal 173164 offense, the manner in which the criminal offense was perpetrated, 173165 and the person's opinion as to whether the offender should be 173166 released. 173167

(M)(1) The changes to this section that are made on September 173168
30, 2011, apply to any judicial release decision made on or after 173169
September 30, 2011, for any eligible offender, subject to division 173170
(M)(2) of this section. 173171

(2) The changes to this section that are made on ~~the~~ 173172 ~~effective date of this amendment~~ April 4, 2023, apply to any 173173 judicial release application, and any judicial release decision, 173174 made on or after ~~the effective date of this amendment~~ April 4, 173175

2023, for any eligible offender or state of emergency-qualifying offender. 173176 173177

(N)(1) Notwithstanding the eligibility requirements specified 173178 in divisions (A)(1) and (2) of this section and the filing time 173179 frames specified in division (C) of this section and 173180 notwithstanding the findings required under division (J)(1) and 173181 the eligibility criteria specified in division (J)(3) of this 173182 section, the sentencing court, upon the court's own motion and 173183 after considering whether the release of the offender into society 173184 would create undue risk to public safety, may grant a judicial 173185 release to an offender who is not serving a life sentence at any 173186 time during the offender's imposed sentence when the director of 173187 rehabilitation and correction certifies to the sentencing court 173188 through the chief medical officer for the department of 173189 rehabilitation and correction that the offender is in imminent 173190 danger of death, is medically incapacitated, or has a terminal 173191 illness. 173192

(2) The director of rehabilitation and correction shall not 173193 certify any offender under division (N)(1) of this section who is 173194 serving a death sentence. 173195

(3) A motion made by the court under division (N)(1) of this 173196 section is subject to the notice, hearing, and other procedural 173197 requirements specified in divisions (D), (E), (G), (H), (I), (K), 173198 and (L) of this section with respect to motions for a grant of 173199 judicial release to eligible offenders, including notice to the 173200 victim, except for the following: 173201

(a) The court may waive the offender's appearance at any 173202 hearing scheduled by the court if the offender's condition makes 173203 it impossible for the offender to participate meaningfully in the 173204 proceeding. 173205

(b) The court may grant the motion without a hearing, 173206 provided that the prosecuting attorney, victim, and victim's representative, if applicable, to whom notice of the hearing was provided under division (E) of this section indicate that they do not wish to participate in the hearing or present information relevant to the motion.

(4) The court may request health care records from the department of rehabilitation and correction to verify the certification made under division (N)(1) of this section.

(5)(a) If the court grants judicial release under division (N)(1) of this section, the court shall do all of the following:

(i) Order the release of the offender;

(ii) Place the offender under an appropriate community control sanction, under appropriate conditions;

(iii) Place the offender under the supervision of the department of probation serving the court or under the supervision of the adult parole authority.

(b) The court, in its discretion, may revoke the judicial release if the offender violates the community control sanction described in division (N)(5)(a) of this section. The period of that community control is not subject to the five-year limitation described in division (K) of this section and shall not expire earlier than the date on which all of the offender's mandatory prison terms expire.

(6) If the health of an offender who is released under division (N)(1) of this section improves so that the offender is no longer terminally ill, medically incapacitated, or in imminent danger of death, the court shall, upon the court's own motion, revoke the judicial release. The court shall not grant the motion without a hearing unless the offender waives a hearing. If a hearing is held, the court shall afford the offender and the offender's attorney an opportunity to present written and, if the offender or the offender's attorney is present, oral information 173238 relevant to the motion. The court shall afford a similar 173239 opportunity to the prosecuting attorney, the victim, the victim's 173240 representative, the victim's attorney, if applicable, and any 173241 other person the court determines is likely to present additional 173242 relevant information. If a hearing is held, the prosecuting 173243 attorney shall notify the victim and the victim's representative, 173244 if applicable, pursuant to the Ohio Constitution. A court that 173245 grants a motion under this division shall specify its findings on 173246 the record. 173247

(O)(1) Separate from and independent of the provisions of 173248 divisions (A) to (N) of this section, the director of the 173249 department of rehabilitation and correction may recommend in 173250 writing to the sentencing court that the court consider releasing 173251 from prison, through a judicial release, any offender who is 173252 confined in a state correctional institution and who is an eighty 173253 per cent-qualifying offender. The director may file such a 173254 recommendation for judicial release by submitting to the 173255 sentencing court a notice, in writing, of the recommendation 173256 within the applicable period specified in division (A)(3) of this 173257 section for qualifying as an eighty per cent-qualifying offender. 173258

The director shall include with any notice submitted to the 173259 sentencing court under this division an institutional summary 173260 report that covers the offender's participation while confined in 173261 a state correctional institution in school, training, work, 173262 treatment, and other rehabilitative activities and any 173263 disciplinary action taken against the offender while so confined. 173264
The director shall include with the notice any other documentation 173265 requested by the court, if available. 173266

If the director submits a notice under this division 173267 recommending judicial release, the department promptly shall 173268 provide to the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the 173269 offender was indicted a copy of the written notice and 173270 recommendation, a copy of the institutional summary report, and 173271 any other information provided to the court, and shall provide a 173272 copy of the institutional summary report to any law enforcement 173273 agency that requests the report. The department also shall provide 173274 written notice of the submission of the director's notice to any 173275 victim of the offender or victim's representative, if applicable, 173276 in the same manner as is specified in divisions (E)(1) and (2) of 173277 this section with respect to notices of hearings. 173278

(2) A recommendation for judicial release in a notice 173279 submitted by the director under division (O)(1) of this section is 173280 subject to the notice, hearing, and other procedural requirements 173281 specified in divisions (E), (H), (I), and (L) of this section, 173282 including notice to the victim pursuant to the Ohio Constitution, 173283 except as otherwise specified in divisions (O)(3) to (5) of this 173284 section, provided that references in divisions (E), (H), (I), (K), 173285 and (L) of this section to "the motion" shall be construed for 173286 purposes of division (O) of this section as being references to 173287 the notice and recommendation specified in division (O)(1) of this 173288
section. 173289

(3) The director's submission of a notice under division 173290 (O)(1) of this section constitutes a recommendation by the 173291 director that the court strongly consider a judicial release of 173292 the offender consistent with the purposes and principles of 173293 sentencing set forth in sections 2929.11 and 2929.13 of the 173294 Revised Code and establishes a rebuttable presumption that the 173295 offender shall be released through a judicial release in 173296 accordance with the recommendation. The presumption of release may 173297 be rebutted only as described in division (O)(6) of this section. 173298 Only an offender recommended by the director under division (O)(1) 173299 of this section may be considered for a judicial release under 173300 division (O) of this section. 173301

(4) Upon receipt of a notice recommending judicial release 173302 submitted by the director under division (O)(1) of this section, 173303 the court shall schedule a hearing to consider the recommendation 173304 for the judicial release of the offender who is the subject of the 173305 notice. The hearing shall be conducted in open court not less than 173306 thirty or more than sixty days after the notice is submitted. The 173307 court shall inform the department and the prosecuting attorney of 173308 the county in which the offender who is the subject of the notice 173309 was indicted of the date, time, and location of the hearing. Upon 173310 receipt of the notice from the court, the prosecuting attorney 173311 shall comply with division (E) of this section, including 173312 providing notice to the victim and the victim's representative, if 173313 applicable, pursuant to the Ohio Constitution, and the department 173314 shall post the information specified in that division. 173315

(5) When a court schedules a hearing under division (O)(4) of 173316 this section, at the hearing, the court shall consider all of the 173317 following in determining whether to grant the offender judicial 173318 release under division (O) of this section: 173319

(a) The institutional summary report submitted under division 173320
(O)(1) of this section; 173321

(b) The inmate's academic, vocational education programs, or 173322 alcohol or drug treatment programs; or involvement in meaningful 173323 activity; 173324

(c) The inmate's assignments and whether the inmate 173325 consistently performed each work assignment to the satisfaction of 173326 the department staff responsible for supervising the inmate's 173327 work; 173328

(d) The inmate transferred to and actively participated in 173329 core curriculum programming at a reintegration center prison; 173330

(e) The inmate's disciplinary history; 173331

(f) The inmate's security level; 173332

(g) All other information, statements, reports, and 173333 documentation described in division (I) of this section. 173334

(6) If the court that receives a notice recommending judicial 173335 release submitted by the director under division (O)(1) of this 173336 section makes an initial determination that the offender satisfies 173337 the criteria for being an eighty per cent-qualifying offender, the 173338 court then shall determine whether to grant the offender judicial 173339 release. In making the second determination, the court shall grant 173340 the offender judicial release unless the prosecuting attorney 173341 proves to the court, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the 173342 legitimate interests of the government in maintaining the 173343 offender's confinement outweigh the interests of the offender in 173344 being released from that confinement. If the court grants a 173345 judicial release under this division, division (K) of this section 173346 applies regarding the judicial release, including notice to the 173347 victim and the victim's representative, if applicable, pursuant to 173348 the Ohio Constitution, provided that references in division (K) of 173349 this section to "the motion" shall be construed for purposes of 173350 the judicial release granted under this division as being 173351 references to the notice and recommendation specified in division 173352
(O)(1) of this section. 173353

The court shall enter its ruling on the notice recommending 173354 judicial release submitted by the director under division (O)(1) 173355 of this section within ten days after the hearing is conducted. 173356 After ruling on whether to grant the offender judicial release 173357 under division (O) of this section, the court shall notify the 173358 offender, the prosecuting attorney, and the department of 173359 rehabilitation and correction of its decision, and shall notify 173360 the victim of its decision in accordance with the Ohio 173361 Constitution and sections 2930.03 and 2930.16 of the Revised Code. 173362
If the court does not enter a ruling on the notice within ten days 173363 after the hearing is conducted as required under this division, 173364 the division of parole and community services of the department of 173365 rehabilitation and correction may release the offender. 173366

(P) All notices to a victim of an offense provided under 173367 division (D), (E), (K), (N), or (O) of this section shall be 173368 provided in accordance with the Ohio Constitution. 173369

Sec. 2930.06. (A)(1) The prosecutor in a case or the 173370 prosecutor's designee, to the extent practicable, shall, on the 173371 victim's request, confer with the victim and the victim's 173372 representative, if applicable, at each of the following stages: 173373

(a) Before pretrial diversion is granted to the defendant or 173374 alleged juvenile offender in the case; 173375

(b) Before amending or dismissing an indictment, information, 173376 or complaint against that defendant or alleged juvenile offender, 173377 unless the amendment to the indictment, information, or complaint 173378 is a correction of a procedural defect that is not substantive in 173379 nature; 173380

(c) Before agreeing to a negotiated plea for that defendant 173381 or alleged juvenile offender; 173382

(d) Before a trial of that defendant by judge or jury; 173383

(e) Before the juvenile court conducts an adjudicatory 173384 hearing for that alleged juvenile offender. 173385

(2) If the juvenile court disposes of a case prior to the 173386 prosecutor's involvement in the case, the court or a court 173387 employee shall notify the victim and the victim's representative 173388 in the case, if applicable, that the alleged juvenile offender 173389 will be granted pretrial diversion, the complaint against that 173390 alleged juvenile offender will be amended or dismissed, or the 173391 court will conduct an adjudicatory hearing for that alleged 173392 juvenile offender. 173393

(3) At a hearing at any of the stages listed in division 173394

(4) A court shall not dismiss a criminal complaint, charge, information, or indictment or a delinquent child complaint solely at the request of the victim or victim's representative and over the objection of the prosecuting attorney, village solicitor, city 173428 director of law, or other chief legal officer responsible for the 173429 prosecution of the case. 173430

(5) Nothing in this section prohibits a court from taking any 173431 action necessary to ensure that a person charged with an offense 173432 is brought to trial within the time required by sections 2945.71 173433 ~~and 2945.72~~ to 2953.73 of the Revised Code and a defendant's 173434 constitutional right to a speedy trial. 173435

(B) On request of the victim or the victim's representative, 173436 the prosecutor shall keep the victim and the victim's 173437 representative, if applicable, apprised of requests and 173438 communications from the defendant, alleged juvenile offender, the 173439 attorney for the defendant or alleged juvenile offender, or the 173440 agent of the defendant or alleged juvenile offender that could 173441 affect the victim's privacy rights or safety concerns. 173442

(C) Within fourteen days after a prosecution in a case has 173443 been commenced, the prosecutor or a designee of the prosecutor 173444 other than a court or court employee promptly shall give the 173445 victim and the victim's representative, if applicable, all of the 173446 following information, except that, if the juvenile court disposes 173447 of a case prior to the prosecutor's involvement in the case, the 173448 court or a court employee promptly shall give the victim and the 173449 victim's representative all of the following information: 173450

(1) The name of the criminal offense or delinquent act with 173451 which the defendant or alleged juvenile offender in the case has 173452 been charged and the name of the defendant or alleged juvenile 173453 offender; 173454

(2) The file number of the case; 173455

(3) A clear and concise statement regarding the procedural 173456 steps in a criminal prosecution or delinquency proceeding 173457 involving a criminal offense or delinquent act similar to the 173458 criminal offense or delinquent act with which the defendant or 173459 alleged juvenile offender has been charged and the right of the 173460 victim and victim's representative to be present during all 173461 proceedings held throughout the prosecution of the case; 173462

(4) A summary of the rights of a victim under this chapter 173463 and under Section 10a of Article I of the Ohio Constitution; 173464

(5) Procedures the victim, the victim's representative, or 173465 the prosecutor may follow if the victim becomes subject to threats 173466 of violence, harassment, or intimidation by the defendant, alleged 173467 juvenile offender, or any other person; 173468

(6) The name and business telephone number of the office to 173469 contact for further information with respect to the case; 173470

(7) The right of the victim to have a victim's representative 173471 exercise the victim's rights under this chapter in accordance with 173472 section 2930.02 of the Revised Code and the procedure by which a 173473 victim's representative may be designated; 173474

(8) The right of the victim and victim's representative, if 173475 applicable, to confer with the prosecutor on request and the 173476 procedures the victim or victim's representative shall follow to 173477 confer with the prosecutor; 173478

(9) The fact that the victim can seek the advice of an 173479 of not more than fifty dollars, including local court fees, 174023 regardless of the number of records the application requests to 174024 identification and investigation receives notice from a court that 174074 the record of a conviction or bail forfeiture has been expunged 174075 under this section, the entity shall destroy, delete, and erase 174076

(d) If the person was granted a pardon upon conditions 174135 precedent or subsequent for the offense for which the person was 174136

(3) If the court determines after complying with division 174143
(B)(2)(a) of this section that the person was found not guilty in 174144 the case, that the complaint, indictment, or information in the 174145 case was dismissed with prejudice, that the complaint, indictment, 174146 or information in the case was dismissed without prejudice and 174147 division (B)(2) of this section, that the person was found not 174163 against the person; and the interests of the person in having the 174172 records pertaining to the case sealed or expunged, as applicable, 174173 maintain such records, or if division (E)(2)(b) of section 4301.69 174175 of the Revised Code applies, in addition to the order required 174176 expunged if the person with respect to whom the order applies is 174184 taking action with regard to points assessed. 174246

When the nature and character of the offense with which a 174247 person is to be charged would be affected by the information, it 174248 may be used for the purpose of charging the person with an 174249 offense. 174250

(B) In any criminal proceeding, proof of any otherwise 174251 admissible prior conviction may be introduced and proved, 174252 notwithstanding the fact that for any such prior conviction an 174253 sections 2953.31 to 2953.34 of the Revised Code. 174255

(C) The person or governmental agency, office, or department 174256 that maintains sealed records pertaining to convictions or bail 174257 permanent exclusion, regardless of a court order to seal or 174275 expunge the record. An order issued under ~~this~~ section 2953.32 of 174276 the Revised Code to seal or expunge the record of a conviction 174277 does not revoke the adjudication order of the superintendent of 174278

(J) of this section. 174291

(E) Notwithstanding any provision of this section or section 174292 2953.32 of the Revised Code that requires otherwise, if the 174293 auditor of state or a prosecutor maintains records, reports, or 174294 or expunge those records. 174303

(F) For purposes of sections 2953.31 and 2953.34 of the 174304 or expunged unless the superintendent receives a certified copy of 174308 a final court order establishing that the offender's conviction 174309 has been overturned. For purposes of this section, a court order 174310 investigation and to any public office or agency that the court 174316 knows or has reason to believe may have any record of the case, 174317 whether or not it is an official record, that is the subject of 174318 the order. 174319

(2) The sealing of a record under ~~this~~ section 2953.32 of the 174320 Revised Code does not affect the assessment of points under 174321 section 4510.036 of the Revised Code and does not erase points 174322

(3) An order to seal or expunge official records issued pursuant to section 2953.33 of the Revised Code applies to every public office or agency that has a record of the case that is the subject of the order, regardless of whether it receives notice of the hearing on the application for the order to seal the official records or receives a copy of the order to seal or expunge the official records pursuant to division (H)(1) or (2) of this section.

any subsequent prosecution for the same offense. 174635

Sec. 2953.39. (A) As used in this section: 174636

(1) "Applicant prosecutor" means the prosecutor who applies 174637 under division (B)(1) of this section for the sealing or 174638 of a person of a low-level controlled substance offense. 174640

(2) "Low-level controlled substance offense" means a 174641 violation of any provision of Chapter 2925. of the Revised Code 174642 that is a misdemeanor of the fourth degree or a minor misdemeanor 174643 or a violation of an ordinance of a municipal corporation that is 174644 substantially equivalent to a violation of any provision of 174645

Chapter 2925. of the Revised Code and that, if the violation were 174646 to be charged under the provision of Chapter 2925. of the Revised 174647 subject of the application at any time after the expiration, with 174661 respect to that offense and the subject offender, of the 174662 corresponding period of time specified in division (B)(1) of 174663 more than one low-level controlled substance offense, but if it 174668 does, the court shall consider the request for each offense 174669 separately as if a separate application had been made for each 174670 offense and all references in divisions (B) to (F) of this section 174671 to "the offense" or "that offense" mean each of those offenses 174672 that are the subject of the application. 174673

(3) Upon the filing of an application under division (B)(1) 174674 of this section, except as otherwise provided in this division, 174675

(B)(1) of this section, the court shall set a date for a hearing 174703 and shall notify the applicant prosecutor of the date, time, and 174704 this section. The notice shall be provided by any reasonable means 174720 reasonably calculated to provide prompt actual notice, including 174721 regular mail, telephone, and electronic mail. If the prosecutor 174722 attempts to provide notice to a victim under this division but the 174723 attempt is unsuccessful because the prosecutor is unable to locate 174724 the victim, is unable to provide the notice by the chosen method 174725 because the mailing address, telephone number, or electronic mail 174726 address at which to provide the notice cannot be determined, or 174727 the notice is sent by mail and it is returned, the prosecutor 174728 shall make another attempt to provide the notice to the victim. If 174729 the second attempt is unsuccessful, the prosecutor shall make at 174730 least one more attempt to provide the notice. 174731 or victim shall specify in the objection the reasons for believing 174740 that the application should be denied. 174741

(E)(1) At the hearing held under division (D) of this 174742 section, the court shall determine whether the offense that is the 174743 subject of the application is a low-level controlled substance 174744 offense and whether the amount of time specified in division 174745 (B)(1) of this section for the filing of the application has 174746 expired. 174747

(2) If the court at the hearing held under division (D) of 174748 this section determines that the offense that is the subject of 174749 the application is a low-level controlled substance offense and 174750 that the amount of time specified in division (B)(1) of this 174751 section for the filing of the application has expired, the court 174752 maintain those records; 174767

(f) Consider the oral or written statement of the victim, 174768 victim's representative, and victim's attorney, if applicable. 174769

(F)(1) If the court determines, after complying with 174770 divisions (E)(1) and (2) of this section, that no criminal 174771 proceeding is pending against the subject offender, that the 174772 interests of the offender in having the records pertaining to the 174773 offender's conviction sealed or expunged are not outweighed by any 174774 legitimate governmental needs to maintain those records, and that 174775 the rehabilitation of the offender has been attained to the 174776 satisfaction of the court, all of the following apply: 174777

(a) The court shall issue orders of the type specified in 174778 which the order applies. 174791

(2) If the court orders the official records pertaining to 174792 the case sealed or expunged under division (F)(1) of this section, 174793 the court shall comply with division (D)(4)(a) or (b) of section 174794 2953.32 of the Revised Code, whichever is applicable. 174795 independent of, the provisions of sections 2953.35 and 2953.36 174810 and, except as otherwise specified in this section, the provisions 174811 of sections 2953.32 and 2953.34 of the Revised Code. 174812 program shall include criteria that define which prisoners are 174962 eligible for the program, criteria that must be satisfied to be 174963 program of a prisoner that is transferred to it and procedures for 174965 the department to approve residences that satisfy those criteria, 174966 and provisions of the type described in division (C) of this 174967

Revised Code as that section existed immediately prior to March 174977 17, 1998; 174978

correction shall give notice of the pendency of the transfer to 174992 transitional control to the court of common pleas of the county in 174993 which the indictment against the prisoner was found and of the 174994 fact that the court may disapprove the transfer of the prisoner to 174995 transitional control and shall include the institutional summary 174996 report prepared by the head of the state correctional institution 174997 correctional institution in which the prisoner is confined, upon 174999 the request of the division of parole and community services, 175000 shall provide to the division for inclusion in the notice sent to 175001 the court under this division an institutional summary report on 175002 the prisoner's conduct in the institution and in any institution 175003 from which the prisoner may have been transferred. The 175004 institutional summary report shall cover the prisoner's 175005 participation in school, vocational training, work, treatment, and 175006 other rehabilitative activities and any disciplinary action taken 175007 against the prisoner. If the court disapproves of the transfer of 175008 the prisoner to transitional control, the court shall notify the 175009 division of the disapproval within thirty days after receipt of 175010 the notice. If the court timely disapproves the transfer of the 175011 prisoner to transitional control, the division shall not proceed 175012 with the transfer. If the court does not timely disapprove the 175013 transfer of the prisoner to transitional control, the division may 175014 transfer the prisoner to transitional control. 175015

(3)(a) If the victim of an offense for which a prisoner was 175016 sentenced to a prison term or term of imprisonment has requested 175017 notification under section 2930.16 of the Revised Code and has 175018

vote of not fewer than six members of the board, shall constitute 175575
the findings and order of the board with respect to the matter 175576 addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to ratify a 175577 consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained in the 175578 consent agreement shall be of no force or effect. 175579

(D) For purposes of divisions (B)(12), (15), and (16) of this 175580
section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 175581
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 175582
the Revised Code, that the applicant or license holder committed 175583
the act in question. The board shall have no jurisdiction under 175584 these divisions in cases where the trial court renders a final 175585 judgment in the license holder's favor and that judgment is based 175586
upon an adjudication on the merits. The board shall have 175587 jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court 175588 issues an order of dismissal upon technical or procedural grounds. 175589

(E) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 175590
court shall have no effect upon a prior board order entered under 175591
the provisions of this section or upon the board's jurisdiction to 175592
take action under the provisions of this section if, based upon a 175593
plea of guilty, a judicial finding of guilt, or a judicial finding 175594
of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction, the board 175595
issued a notice of opportunity for a hearing prior to the court's 175596 order to seal or expunge the records. The board shall not be 175597 required to seal, destroy, redact, or otherwise modify its records 175598
to reflect the court's sealing or expungement of conviction 175599
records. 175600

(F) For purposes of this division, any individual who holds a 175601 license issued under this chapter, or applies for a license issued 175602 under this chapter, shall be deemed to have given consent to 175603
submit to a mental or physical examination when directed to do so 175604
in writing by the board and to have waived all objections to the 175605

admissibility of testimony or examination reports that constitute 175606
a privileged communication. 175607

(1) In enforcing division (B)(4) of this section, the board, 175608 upon a showing of a possible violation, shall refer any individual 175609 who holds, or has applied for, a license issued under this chapter 175610 to the monitoring organization that conducts the confidential 175611
monitoring program established under section 4731.25 of the 175612
Revised Code. The board also may compel any the individual who 175613 ~~holds a license issued under this chapter or who has applied for a~~ 175614 ~~license pursuant to this chapter~~ to submit to a mental 175615 examination, physical examination, including an HIV test, or both 175616 a mental and physical examination. The expense of the examination 175617 is the responsibility of the individual compelled to be examined. 175618
Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination or consent 175619 to an HIV test ordered by the board constitutes an admission of 175620
the allegations against the individual unless the failure is due 175621 to circumstances beyond the individual's control, and a default 175622
and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or 175623 presentation of evidence. If the board finds a physician assistant 175624 unable to practice because of the reasons set forth in division 175625
(B)(4) of this section, the board shall require the physician 175626 assistant to submit to care, counseling, or treatment by 175627 physicians approved or designated by the board, as a condition for 175628
an initial, continued, reinstated, or renewed license. An 175629 individual affected under this division shall be afforded an 175630 opportunity to demonstrate to the board the ability to resume 175631 practicing in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards 175632
of care. 175633

(2) For purposes of division (B)(5) of this section, if the 175634
board has reason to believe that any individual who holds a 175635 license issued under this chapter or any applicant for a license 175636 suffers such impairment, the board shall refer the individual to 175637

the monitoring organization that conducts the confidential 175638
monitoring program established under section 4731.25 of the 175639
Revised Code. The board also may compel the individual to submit 175640 to a mental or physical examination, or both. The expense of the 175641 examination is the responsibility of the individual compelled to 175642 be examined. Any mental or physical examination required under 175643 this division shall be undertaken by a treatment provider or 175644 physician qualified to conduct such examination and ~~chosen by the~~ 175645 ~~board~~ approved under section 4731.251 of the Revised Code. 175646

Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination ordered 175647
by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 175648
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 175649
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 175650
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 175651
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 175652
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 175653 license or deny the individual's application and shall require the 175654 individual, as a condition for initial, continued, reinstated, or 175655 renewed licensure, to submit to treatment. 175656

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license 175657 suspended under this division, the physician assistant shall 175658 demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice or 175659 prescribing in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards 175660 of care. The demonstration shall include the following: 175661

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 175662
section ~~4731.25~~ 4731.251 of the Revised Code that the individual 175663
has successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 175664

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 175665
contract or consent agreement; 175666

(c) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 175667
ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 175668

been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 175669
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 175670 individuals or providers approved by the board for making such 175671
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 175672

The board may reinstate a license suspended under this 175673
division after such demonstration and after the individual has 175674
entered into a written consent agreement. 175675

When the impaired physician assistant resumes practice or 175676 prescribing, the board shall require continued monitoring of the 175677 physician assistant. The monitoring shall include compliance with 175678
the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or 175679
with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, upon 175680 termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for 175681
at least two years of annual written progress reports made under 175682 penalty of falsification stating whether the physician assistant 175683 has maintained sobriety. 175684

(G) If the secretary and supervising member determine that 175685
there is clear and convincing evidence that a physician assistant 175686 has violated division (B) of this section and that the 175687 individual's continued practice or prescribing presents a danger 175688
of immediate and serious harm to the public, they may recommend 175689 that the board suspend the individual's license without a prior 175690 hearing. Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration 175691
by the board. 175692

The board, upon review of those allegations and by an 175693 affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding 175694
the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license 175695 without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call may be 175696 utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote on the 175697
summary suspension. 175698

The board shall issue a written order of suspension by 175699

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 175700
the Revised Code. The order shall not be subject to suspension by 175701
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 175702 of the Revised Code. If the physician assistant requests an 175703 adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date set for the hearing 175704
shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier than seven days, 175705 after the physician assistant requests the hearing, unless 175706
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the license holder. 175707

A summary suspension imposed under this division shall remain 175708 in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final adjudicative 175709
order issued by the board pursuant to this section and Chapter 175710
119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board shall issue 175711 its final adjudicative order within sixty days after completion of 175712
its hearing. Failure to issue the order within sixty days shall 175713 result in dissolution of the summary suspension order, but shall 175714
not invalidate any subsequent, final adjudicative order. 175715

(H) If the board takes action under division (B)(11), (13), 175716
or (14) of this section, and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 175717
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 175718
of conviction is overturned on appeal, upon exhaustion of the 175719
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 175720
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. 175721
Upon receipt of a petition and supporting court documents, the 175722 board shall reinstate the individual's license. The board may then 175723 hold an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to 175724 determine whether the individual committed the act in question. 175725
Notice of opportunity for hearing shall be given in accordance 175726 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. If the board finds, 175727 pursuant to an adjudication held under this division, that the 175728 individual committed the act, or if no hearing is requested, it 175729 may order any of the sanctions identified under division (B) of 175730
this section. 175731

(I) The license to practice issued to a physician assistant 175732 and the physician assistant's practice in this state are 175733 automatically suspended as of the date the physician assistant 175734 pleads guilty to, is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or 175735 is subject to a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention 175736 in lieu of conviction in this state or treatment or intervention 175737 in lieu of conviction in another state for any of the following 175738 criminal offenses in this state or a substantially equivalent 175739
criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated murder, 175740
murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, kidnapping, 175741
rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, aggravated arson, 175742 aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. Continued practice 175743 after the suspension shall be considered practicing without a 175744
license. 175745

The board shall notify the individual subject to the 175746
suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 175747
section 119.07 of the Revised Code. If an individual whose license 175748 is suspended under this division fails to make a timely request 175749
for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the 175750
board shall enter a final order permanently revoking the 175751 individual's license to practice. 175752

(J) In any instance in which the board is required by Chapter 175753
119. of the Revised Code to give notice of opportunity for hearing 175754
and the individual subject to the notice does not timely request a 175755
hearing in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the 175756
board is not required to hold a hearing, but may adopt, by an 175757 affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 175758 order that contains the board's findings. In that final order, the 175759 board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) 175760
or (B) of this section. 175761

(K) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this 175762 section resulting in a suspension shall be accompanied by a 175763

written statement of the conditions under which the physician 175764 assistant's license may be reinstated. The board shall adopt rules 175765 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing 175766 conditions to be imposed for reinstatement. Reinstatement of a 175767 license suspended pursuant to division (B) of this section 175768 requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the 175769
board. 175770

(L) When the board refuses to grant or issue to an applicant 175771
a license to practice as a physician assistant, revokes an 175772 individual's license, refuses to renew an individual's license, or 175773 refuses to reinstate an individual's license, the board may 175774 specify that its action is permanent. An individual subject to a 175775 permanent action taken by the board is forever thereafter 175776 ineligible to hold the license and the board shall not accept an 175777 application for reinstatement of the license or for issuance of a 175778 new license. 175779

(M) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, 175780
all of the following apply: 175781

(1) The surrender of a license issued under this chapter is 175782 not effective unless or until accepted by the board. Reinstatement 175783 of a license surrendered to the board requires an affirmative vote 175784 of not fewer than six members of the board. 175785

(2) An application made under this chapter for a license may 175786
not be withdrawn without approval of the board. 175787

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license in accordance 175788 with section 4730.14 of the Revised Code shall not remove or limit 175789
the board's jurisdiction to take disciplinary action under this 175790 section against the individual. 175791

(N) The board shall not refuse to issue a license to an 175792 applicant because of a conviction, plea of guilty, judicial 175793 finding of guilt, judicial finding of eligibility for intervention 175794

in lieu of conviction, or the commission of an act that 175795 constitutes a criminal offense, unless the refusal is in 175796
accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 175797

Sec. 4730.32. (A) Within sixty days after the imposition of 175798 any formal disciplinary action taken by a health care facility 175799 against any individual holding a valid license to practice as a 175800 physician assistant issued under this chapter, the chief 175801 administrator or executive officer of the facility shall report to 175802 the state medical board the name of the individual, the action 175803 taken by the facility, and a summary of the underlying facts 175804 leading to the action taken. Upon request, the board shall be 175805 provided certified copies of the patient records that were the 175806 basis for the facility's action. Prior to release to the board, 175807 the summary shall be approved by the peer review committee that 175808 reviewed the case or by the governing board of the facility. 175809

The filing of a report with the board or decision not to file 175810
a report, investigation by the board, or any disciplinary action 175811 taken by the board, does not preclude a health care facility from 175812 taking disciplinary action against a physician assistant. 175813

In the absence of fraud or bad faith, no individual or entity 175814
that provides patient records to the board shall be liable in 175815 damages to any person as a result of providing the records. 175816

(B)(1) Except as provided in division (B)(2) of this section, 175817
a physician assistant, professional association or society of 175818 physician assistants, physician, or professional association or 175819 society of physicians that believes a violation of any provision 175820 of this chapter, Chapter 4731. of the Revised Code, or rule of the 175821 board has occurred shall report to the board the information upon 175822 which the belief is based. 175823

(2) A physician assistant, professional association or 175824 society of physician assistants, physician, or professional 175825 association or society of physicians that believes that a 175826 violation of division ~~(B)(5)~~(B)(4) or (5) of section 4730.25 of 175827 the Revised Code has occurred shall report the information upon 175828 which the belief is based to the monitoring organization 175829 conducting the confidential monitoring program established ~~by the~~ 175830 ~~board~~ under section ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of the Revised Code. If any 175831 such report is made to the board, it shall be referred to the 175832 monitoring organization unless the board is aware that the 175833 individual who is the subject of the report does not meet the 175834 program eligibility requirements of section 4731.252 of the 175835

Revised Code. 175836

(C) Any professional association or society composed 175837 primarily of physician assistants that suspends or revokes an 175838 individual's membership for violations of professional ethics, or 175839
for reasons of professional incompetence or professional 175840 malpractice, within sixty days after a final decision, shall 175841 report to the board, on forms prescribed and provided by the 175842 board, the name of the individual, the action taken by the 175843 professional organization, and a summary of the underlying facts 175844 leading to the action taken. 175845

The filing or nonfiling of a report with the board, 175846 investigation by the board, or any disciplinary action taken by 175847 the board, shall not preclude a professional organization from 175848
taking disciplinary action against a physician assistant. 175849

(D) Any insurer providing professional liability insurance to 175850 any person holding a valid license to practice as a physician 175851 assistant issued under this chapter or any other entity that seeks 175852 to indemnify the professional liability of a physician assistant 175853 shall notify the board within thirty days after the final 175854 disposition of any written claim for damages where such 175855 disposition results in a payment exceeding twenty-five thousand 175856 dollars. The notice shall contain the following information: 175857

(1) The name and address of the person submitting the notification;	175858 175859
(2) The name and address of the insured who is the subject of the claim;	175860 175861

(4) The date of final disposition;	175863
(5) If applicable, the identity of the court in which the final disposition of the claim took place.	175864 175865
The board may disclose the summaries and reports it receives under this section only to health care facility committees within	175887 175888

or outside this state that are involved in credentialing or 175889 recredentialing a physician assistant or supervising physician or 175890 has been verified. Information transmitted by the board shall be 175893 subject to the same confidentiality provisions as when maintained 175894

by the board. 175895

(G) Except for reports filed by an individual pursuant to 175896 division (B) of this section, the board shall send a copy of any 175897 reports or summaries it receives pursuant to this section to the 175898 physician assistant. The physician assistant shall have the right 175899 to file a statement with the board concerning the correctness or 175900 relevance of the information. The statement shall at all times 175901 accompany that part of the record in contention. 175902

(H) An individual or entity that reports to the board, 175903
reports to the monitoring organization described in section 175904 ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of the Revised Code, or refers an impaired 175905 physician assistant to a treatment provider approved ~~by the board~~ 175906 under section ~~4731.25~~ 4731.251 of the Revised Code shall not be 175907 subject to suit for civil damages as a result of the report, 175908 referral, or provision of the information. 175909

(I) In the absence of fraud or bad faith, a professional 175910

assistant with substance abuse problems, a representative or agent 175913
of such a committee or program, a representative or agent of the 175914 monitoring organization described in section ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of 175915
the Revised Code, and a member of the state medical board shall 175916 not be held liable in damages to any person by reason of actions 175917 taken to refer a physician assistant to a treatment provider 175918 approved under section ~~4731.25~~ 4731.251 of the Revised Code for 175919 examination or treatment. 175920

Sec. 4731.22. (A) The state medical board, by an affirmative 175921 vote of not fewer than six of its members, may limit, revoke, or 175922 suspend a license or certificate to practice or certificate to 175923 recommend, refuse to grant a license or certificate, refuse to 175924 renew a license or certificate, refuse to reinstate a license or 175925 certificate, or reprimand or place on probation the holder of a 175926 license or certificate if the individual applying for or holding 175927 the license or certificate is found by the board to have committed 175928 fraud during the administration of the examination for a license 175929 or certificate to practice or to have committed fraud, 175930 misrepresentation, or deception in applying for, renewing, or 175931 securing any license or certificate to practice or certificate to 175932 recommend issued by the board. 175933

(B) Except as provided in division (P) of this section, the 175934 board, by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members, 175935 shall, to the extent permitted by law, limit, revoke, or suspend a 175936 license or certificate to practice or certificate to recommend, 175937 refuse to issue a license or certificate, refuse to renew a 175938 license or certificate, refuse to reinstate a license or 175939 certificate, or reprimand or place on probation the holder of a 175940 license or certificate for one or more of the following reasons: 175941

(1) Permitting one's name or one's license or certificate to 175942 practice to be used by a person, group, or corporation when the 175943 individual concerned is not actually directing the treatment 175944 given; 175945

(2) Failure to maintain minimal standards applicable to the 175946 acceptable scientific methods in the selection of drugs or other 175948 modalities for treatment of disease; 175949

(3) Except as provided in section 4731.97 of the Revised 175950
Code, selling, giving away, personally furnishing, prescribing, or 175951 administering drugs for other than legal and legitimate 175952 therapeutic purposes or a plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of 175953 guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 175954 lieu of conviction of, a violation of any federal or state law 175955 regulating the possession, distribution, or use of any drug; 175956

(4) Willfully betraying a professional confidence. 175957

For purposes of this division, "willfully betraying a 175958 professional confidence" does not include providing any 175959 information, documents, or reports under sections 307.621 to 175960 307.629 of the Revised Code to a child fatality review board; does 175961 not include providing any information, documents, or reports under 175962 sections 307.631 to 307.6410 of the Revised Code to a drug 175963 overdose fatality review committee, a suicide fatality review 175964 committee, or hybrid drug overdose fatality and suicide fatality 175965 not include providing any information, documents, or reports to 175969 the director of health pursuant to guidelines established under 175970 section 3701.70 of the Revised Code; does not include written 175971 notice to a mental health professional under section 4731.62 of 175972 the Revised Code; and does not include the making of a report of 175973 an employee's use of a drug of abuse, or a report of a condition 175974 of an employee other than one involving the use of a drug of 175975 abuse, to the employer of the employee as described in division 175976 (B) of section 2305.33 of the Revised Code. Nothing in this 175977 division affects the immunity from civil liability conferred by 175978 section 2305.33 or 4731.62 of the Revised Code upon a physician 175979 who makes a report in accordance with section 2305.33 or notifies 175980 a mental health professional in accordance with section 4731.62 of 175981 the Revised Code. As used in this division, "employee," 175982 "employer," and "physician" have the same meanings as in section 175983

(6) A departure from, or the failure to conform to, minimal standards of care of similar practitioners under the same or similar circumstances, whether or not actual injury to a patient is established;	175999 176000 176001 176002
(7) Representing, with the purpose of obtaining compensation or other advantage as personal gain or for any other person, that an incurable disease or injury, or other incurable condition, can be permanently cured;	176003 176004 176005 176006
(8) The obtaining of, or attempting to obtain, money or anything of value by fraudulent misrepresentations in the course of practice;	176007 176008 176009
(9) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction for, a felony;	176010 176011 176012
(10) Commission of an act that constitutes a felony in this state, regardless of the jurisdiction in which the act was	176013 176014

committed;	176015
(11) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or	176016
a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of	176017
conviction for, a misdemeanor committed in the course of practice;	176018
(12) Commission of an act in the course of practice that	176019
constitutes a misdemeanor in this state, regardless of the	176020
jurisdiction in which the act was committed;	176021
(13) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or	176022
a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of	176023
conviction for, a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude;	176024
(14) Commission of an act involving moral turpitude that	176025
constitutes a misdemeanor in this state, regardless of the	176026
jurisdiction in which the act was committed;	176027
(15) Violation of the conditions of limitation placed by the	176028
board upon a license or certificate to practice;	176029
(16) Failure to pay license renewal fees specified in this	176030
chapter;	176031
(17) Except as authorized in section 4731.31 of the Revised	176032
Code, engaging in the division of fees for referral of patients,	176033 or the receiving of a thing of value in return for a specific	176034 referral of a patient to utilize a particular service or business;	176035
(18) Subject to section 4731.226 of the Revised Code,	176036 violation of any provision of a code of ethics of the American	176037 medical association, the American osteopathic association, the	176038
American podiatric medical association, or any other national	176039 professional organizations that the board specifies by rule. The	176040 state medical board shall obtain and keep on file current copies	176041 of the codes of ethics of the various national professional	176042 organizations. The individual whose license or certificate is	176043 being suspended or revoked shall not be found to have violated any	176044 provision of a code of ethics of an organization not appropriate 176045 to the individual's profession. 176046

For purposes of this division, a "provision of a code of 176047 ethics of a national professional organization" does not include 176048 any provision that would preclude the making of a report by a 176049 physician of an employee's use of a drug of abuse, or of a 176050 condition of an employee other than one involving the use of a 176051 drug of abuse, to the employer of the employee as described in 176052 division (B) of section 2305.33 of the Revised Code. Nothing in 176053 this division affects the immunity from civil liability conferred 176054
by that section upon a physician who makes either type of report 176055
in accordance with division (B) of that section. As used in this 176056 division, "employee," "employer," and "physician" have the same 176057 meanings as in section 2305.33 of the Revised Code. 176058

(19) Inability to practice according to acceptable and 176059
prevailing standards of care by reason of mental illness or 176060 physical illness, including, but not limited to, physical 176061 deterioration that adversely affects cognitive, motor, or 176062
perceptive skills. 176063

In enforcing this division, the board, upon a showing of a 176064 possible violation, shall refer any individual who is authorized 176065 to practice by this chapter or who has submitted an application 176066 pursuant to this chapter to the monitoring organization that 176067 conducts the confidential monitoring program established under 176068 section 4731.25 of the Revised Code. The board also may compel any 176069 the individual authorized to practice by this chapter or who has 176070 submitted an application pursuant to this chapter to submit to a 176071 mental examination, physical examination, including an HIV test, 176072 or both a mental and a physical examination. The expense of the 176073 examination is the responsibility of the individual compelled to 176074
be examined. Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination 176075 or consent to an HIV test ordered by the board constitutes an 176076

admission of the allegations against the individual unless the 176077 failure is due to circumstances beyond the individual's control, 176078 and a default and final order may be entered without the taking of 176079 testimony or presentation of evidence. If the board finds an 176080 individual unable to practice because of the reasons set forth in 176081 this division, the board shall require the individual to submit to 176082 care, counseling, or treatment by physicians approved or 176083 designated by the board, as a condition for initial, continued, 176084 reinstated, or renewed authority to practice. An individual 176085 affected under this division shall be afforded an opportunity to 176086 demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice in 176087 compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards under the 176088 provisions of the individual's license or certificate. For the 176089 purpose of this division, any individual who applies for or 176090 receives a license or certificate to practice under this chapter 176091 accepts the privilege of practicing in this state and, by so 176092 doing, shall be deemed to have given consent to submit to a mental 176093 or physical examination when directed to do so in writing by the 176094 board, and to have waived all objections to the admissibility of 176095 testimony or examination reports that constitute a privileged 176096
communication. 176097

(20) Except as provided in division (F)(1)(b) of section 176098
4731.282 of the Revised Code or when civil penalties are imposed 176099
under section 4731.225 of the Revised Code, and subject to section 176100 4731.226 of the Revised Code, violating or attempting to violate, 176101 directly or indirectly, or assisting in or abetting the violation 176102 of, or conspiring to violate, any provisions of this chapter or 176103
any rule promulgated by the board. 176104

This division does not apply to a violation or attempted 176105 violation of, assisting in or abetting the violation of, or a 176106 conspiracy to violate, any provision of this chapter or any rule 176107 adopted by the board that would preclude the making of a report by 176108

a physician of an employee's use of a drug of abuse, or of a 176109 condition of an employee other than one involving the use of a 176110
drug of abuse, to the employer of the employee as described in 176111
division (B) of section 2305.33 of the Revised Code. Nothing in 176112
this division affects the immunity from civil liability conferred 176113
in accordance with division (B) of that section. As used in this 176115 division, "employee," "employer," and "physician" have the same 176116
meanings as in section 2305.33 of the Revised Code. 176117

(21) The violation of section 3701.79 of the Revised Code or 176118 of any abortion rule adopted by the director of health pursuant to 176119
section 3701.341 of the Revised Code; 176120

(22) Any of the following actions taken by an agency 176121 responsible for authorizing, certifying, or regulating an 176122 individual to practice a health care occupation or provide health 176123 care services in this state or another jurisdiction, for any 176124 reason other than the nonpayment of fees: the limitation, 176125 revocation, or suspension of an individual's license to practice; 176126 acceptance of an individual's license surrender; denial of a 176127 license; refusal to renew or reinstate a license; imposition of 176128 probation; or issuance of an order of censure or other reprimand; 176129

(23) The violation of section 2919.12 of the Revised Code or 176130
the performance or inducement of an abortion upon a pregnant woman 176131 with actual knowledge that the conditions specified in division 176132 (B) of section 2317.56 of the Revised Code have not been satisfied 176133 or with a heedless indifference as to whether those conditions 176134 have been satisfied, unless an affirmative defense as specified in 176135 division (H)(2) of that section would apply in a civil action 176136 authorized by division (H)(1) of that section; 176137

(24) The revocation, suspension, restriction, reduction, or 176138 termination of clinical privileges by the United States department 176139 of defense or department of veterans affairs or the termination or 176140 suspension of a certificate of registration to prescribe drugs by 176141 the drug enforcement administration of the United States 176142 department of justice; 176143

(25) Termination or suspension from participation in the 176144 medicare or medicaid programs by the department of health and 176145 human services or other responsible agency; 176146

(26) Impairment of ability to practice according to 176147 acceptable and prevailing standards of care because of ~~habitual~~ 176148 substance use disorder or excessive use or abuse of drugs, 176149 alcohol, or other substances that may impair ability to practice. 176150

For the purposes of this division, any individual authorized 176151 to practice by this chapter accepts the privilege of practicing in 176152 this state subject to supervision by the board. By filing an 176153 application for or holding a license or certificate to practice 176154 under this chapter, an individual shall be deemed to have given 176155 consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when ordered 176156 to do so by the board in writing, and to have waived all 176157
objections to the admissibility of testimony or examination 176158
reports that constitute privileged communications. 176159

If it has reason to believe that any individual authorized to 176160 practice by this chapter or any applicant for licensure or 176161 certification to practice suffers such impairment, the board shall 176162 refer the individual to the monitoring organization that conducts 176163
the confidential monitoring program established under section 176164 4731.25 of the Revised Code. The board also may compel the 176165 individual to submit to a mental or physical examination, or both. 176166
The expense of the examination is the responsibility of the 176167 individual compelled to be examined. Any mental or physical 176168 examination required under this division shall be undertaken by a 176169 treatment provider or physician who is qualified to conduct the 176170 examination and who is ~~chosen by the board~~ approved under section 176171
4731.251 of the Revised Code. 176172

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 176174
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 176175
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 176176
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 176177
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 176178
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 176179 license or certificate or deny the individual's application and 176180 shall require the individual, as a condition for initial, 176181 continued, reinstated, or renewed licensure or certification to 176182 practice, to submit to treatment. 176183

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license 176184
or certificate suspended under this division, the impaired 176185 practitioner shall demonstrate to the board the ability to resume 176186 practice in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of 176187 care under the provisions of the practitioner's license or 176188 certificate. The demonstration shall include, but shall not be 176189 limited to, the following: 176190

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 176191
section ~~4731.25~~ 4731.251 of the Revised Code that the individual 176192
has successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 176193

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 176194
contract or consent agreement; 176195

(c) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 176196
ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 176197
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 176198
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 176199
individuals or providers approved by the board for making the 176200

The board may reinstate a license or certificate suspended 176202 under this division after that demonstration and after the 176203 individual has entered into a written consent agreement. 176204

When the impaired practitioner resumes practice, the board 176205
shall require continued monitoring of the individual. The 176206 monitoring shall include, but not be limited to, compliance with 176207
the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or 176208
with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, upon 176209 termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for 176210

copayment that a patient, pursuant to a health insurance or health 176218 care policy, contract, or plan that covers the individual's 176219 services, otherwise would be required to pay if the waiver is used 176220 as an enticement to a patient or group of patients to receive 176221 health care services from that individual; 176222

(b) Advertising that the individual will waive the payment of 176223 all or any part of a deductible or copayment that a patient, 176224

classification;	176297
(46) Owning a facility that is subject to licensure as a	176298 management clinic classification unless the facility is licensed	176300 with the classification;	176301

(47) Failure to comply with any of the requirements regarding	176302 making or maintaining medical records or documents described in	176303

(49) Failure to comply with the requirements of section	176311
4731.30 of the Revised Code or rules adopted under section	176312
4731.301 of the Revised Code when recommending treatment with	176313

(50) Practicing at a facility, clinic, or other location that	176315
is subject to licensure as a category III terminal distributor of	176316

of the Revised Code following an abortion or attempted abortion in 176331 hospital when a child is born alive. 176333

(C) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions 176334
(A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an 176335
adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 176336
in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent 176337 agreement with an individual to resolve an allegation of a 176338 violation of this chapter or any rule adopted under it. A consent 176339 agreement, when ratified by an affirmative vote of not fewer than 176340 six members of the board, shall constitute the findings and order 176341
of the board with respect to the matter addressed in the 176342 agreement. If the board refuses to ratify a consent agreement, the 176343 admissions and findings contained in the consent agreement shall 176344 be of no force or effect. 176345

A telephone conference call may be utilized for ratification 176346
of a consent agreement that revokes or suspends an individual's 176347
license or certificate to practice or certificate to recommend. 176348
The telephone conference call shall be considered a special 176349 meeting under division (F) of section 121.22 of the Revised Code. 176350

If the board takes disciplinary action against an individual 176351 under division (B) of this section for a second or subsequent plea 176352 of guilty to, or judicial finding of guilt of, a violation of 176353 section 2919.123 or 2919.124 of the Revised Code, the disciplinary 176354 action shall consist of a suspension of the individual's license 176355 or certificate to practice for a period of at least one year or, 176356
if determined appropriate by the board, a more serious sanction 176357 involving the individual's license or certificate to practice. Any 176358 consent agreement entered into under this division with an 176359 individual that pertains to a second or subsequent plea of guilty 176360

to, or judicial finding of guilt of, a violation of that section 176361 shall provide for a suspension of the individual's license or 176362 certificate to practice for a period of at least one year or, if 176363 determined appropriate by the board, a more serious sanction 176364 involving the individual's license or certificate to practice. 176365

section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 176367
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 176368
the Revised Code, that the individual committed the act. The board 176369 does not have jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial 176370
court renders a final judgment in the individual's favor and that 176371 judgment is based upon an adjudication on the merits. The board 176372 has jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial court issues 176373
an order of dismissal upon technical or procedural grounds. 176374

(E) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 176375
court shall have no effect upon a prior board order entered under 176376
this section or upon the board's jurisdiction to take action under 176377
this section if, based upon a plea of guilty, a judicial finding 176378
of guilt, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 176379
lieu of conviction, the board issued a notice of opportunity for a 176380 hearing prior to the court's order to seal or expunge the records. 176381
The board shall not be required to seal, expunge, destroy, redact, 176382 or otherwise modify its records to reflect the court's sealing of 176383 conviction records. 176384

show that a person has violated any provision of this chapter or 176386 any rule adopted under it. Any person may report to the board in a 176387 signed writing any information that the person may have that 176388 appears to show a violation of any provision of this chapter or 176389 any rule adopted under it. In the absence of bad faith, any person 176390 who reports information of that nature or who testifies before the board in any adjudication conducted under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code shall not be liable in damages in a civil action as a result of the report or testimony. Each complaint or allegation of a violation received by the board shall be assigned a case number and shall be recorded by the board.

(2) Investigations of alleged violations of this chapter or any rule adopted under it shall be supervised by the supervising member elected by the board in accordance with section 4731.02 of the Revised Code and by the secretary as provided in section 4731.39 of the Revised Code. The president may designate another member of the board to supervise the investigation in place of the supervising member. No member of the board who supervises the investigation of a case shall participate in further adjudication of the case.

apply only to records that cover a reasonable period of time 176423 surrounding the alleged violation. 176424

(b) On failure to comply with any subpoena issued by the 176425 board and after reasonable notice to the person being subpoenaed, 176426 the board may move for an order compelling the production of 176427 persons or records pursuant to the Rules of Civil Procedure. 176428

(c) A subpoena issued by the board may be served by a 176429 sheriff, the sheriff's deputy, or a board employee or agent 176430 designated by the board. Service of a subpoena issued by the board 176431 may be made by delivering a copy of the subpoena to the person 176432 named therein, reading it to the person, or leaving it at the 176433 person's usual place of residence, usual place of business, or 176434 address on file with the board. When serving a subpoena to an 176435 applicant for or the holder of a license or certificate issued 176436 under this chapter, service of the subpoena may be made by 176437 certified mail, return receipt requested, and the subpoena shall 176438 be deemed served on the date delivery is made or the date the 176439 person refuses to accept delivery. If the person being served 176440 refuses to accept the subpoena or is not located, service may be 176441 made to an attorney who notifies the board that the attorney is 176442 representing the person. 176443

(d) A sheriff's deputy who serves a subpoena shall receive 176444
the same fees as a sheriff. Each witness who appears before the 176445 board in obedience to a subpoena shall receive the fees and 176446 mileage provided for under section 119.094 of the Revised Code. 176447

(4) All hearings, investigations, and inspections of the 176448
board shall be considered civil actions for the purposes of 176449
section 2305.252 of the Revised Code. 176450

(5) A report required to be submitted to the board under this 176451 chapter, a complaint, or information received by the board 176452 pursuant to an investigation or pursuant to an inspection under 176453

division (E) of section 4731.054 of the Revised Code is 176454 confidential and not subject to discovery in any civil action. 176455

The board shall conduct all investigations or inspections and 176456 proceedings in a manner that protects the confidentiality of 176457 patients and persons who file complaints with the board. The board 176458 shall not make public the names or any other identifying 176459 information about patients or complainants unless proper consent 176460 is given or, in the case of a patient, a waiver of the patient 176461 privilege exists under division (B) of section 2317.02 of the 176462 Revised Code, except that consent or a waiver of that nature is 176463 not required if the board possesses reliable and substantial 176464 evidence that no bona fide physician-patient relationship exists. 176465

The board may share any information it receives pursuant to 176466
an investigation or inspection, including patient records and 176467 patient record information, with law enforcement agencies, other 176468 licensing boards, and other governmental agencies that are 176469 prosecuting, adjudicating, or investigating alleged violations of 176470 statutes or administrative rules. An agency or board that receives 176471 the information shall comply with the same requirements regarding 176472 confidentiality as those with which the state medical board must 176473 comply, notwithstanding any conflicting provision of the Revised 176474
Code or procedure of the agency or board that applies when it is 176475 dealing with other information in its possession. In a judicial 176476 proceeding, the information may be admitted into evidence only in 176477 accordance with the Rules of Evidence, but the court shall require 176478 that appropriate measures are taken to ensure that confidentiality 176479 is maintained with respect to any part of the information that 176480 contains names or other identifying information about patients or 176481 complainants whose confidentiality was protected by the state 176482 medical board when the information was in the board's possession. 176483 Measures to ensure confidentiality that may be taken by the court 176484 include sealing its records or deleting specific information from 176485

its records. 176486

(6) On a quarterly basis, the board shall prepare a report 176487 that documents the disposition of all cases during the preceding 176488 three months. The report shall contain the following information 176489 for each case with which the board has completed its activities: 176490

(a) The case number assigned to the complaint or alleged 176491
violation; 176492

(b) The type of license or certificate to practice, if any, 176493 held by the individual against whom the complaint is directed; 176494

(c) A description of the allegations contained in the 176495
complaint; 176496

(d) The disposition of the case. 176497

The report shall state how many cases are still pending and 176498 shall be prepared in a manner that protects the identity of each 176499 person involved in each case. The report shall be a public record 176500
under section 149.43 of the Revised Code. 176501

(G) If the secretary and supervising member determine both of 176502
the following, they may recommend that the board suspend an 176503 individual's license or certificate to practice or certificate to 176504 recommend without a prior hearing: 176505

(1) That there is clear and convincing evidence that an 176506
individual has violated division (B) of this section; 176507

(2) That the individual's continued practice presents a 176508
danger of immediate and serious harm to the public. 176509

Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration by 176510
the board. The board, upon review of those allegations and by an 176511 affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding 176512
the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license or 176513 certificate without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call 176514 may be utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote 176515

on the summary suspension. 176516

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 176518
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 176520
of the Revised Code. If the individual subject to the summary 176521 suspension requests an adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date 176522
set for the hearing shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier 176523 than seven days, after the individual requests the hearing, unless 176524
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the individual. 176525

Any summary suspension imposed under this division shall 176526
remain in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final 176527 adjudicative order issued by the board pursuant to this section 176528
and Chapter 119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board 176529 shall issue its final adjudicative order within seventy-five days 176530
after completion of its hearing. A failure to issue the order 176531 within seventy-five days shall result in dissolution of the 176532
summary suspension order but shall not invalidate any subsequent, 176533
final adjudicative order. 176534

(H) If the board takes action under division (B)(9), (11), or 176535
(13) of this section and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 176536
of conviction is overturned on appeal, upon exhaustion of the 176538
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 176539
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. 176540
Upon receipt of a petition of that nature and supporting court 176541 documents, the board shall reinstate the individual's license or 176542 certificate to practice. The board may then hold an adjudication 176543 under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to determine whether the 176544 individual committed the act in question. Notice of an opportunity 176545 for a hearing shall be given in accordance with Chapter 119. of 176546
the Revised Code. If the board finds, pursuant to an adjudication 176547

held under this division, that the individual committed the act or 176548
if no hearing is requested, the board may order any of the 176549
sanctions identified under division (B) of this section. 176550

(I) The license or certificate to practice issued to an 176551 individual under this chapter and the individual's practice in 176552
this state are automatically suspended as of the date of the 176553 individual's second or subsequent plea of guilty to, or judicial 176554 finding of guilt of, a violation of section 2919.123 or 2919.124 176555 of the Revised Code. In addition, the license or certificate to 176556 practice or certificate to recommend issued to an individual under 176557
this chapter and the individual's practice in this state are 176558 automatically suspended as of the date the individual pleads 176559
guilty to, is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is 176560 subject to a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 176561 lieu of conviction in this state or treatment or intervention in 176562
lieu of conviction in another jurisdiction for any of the 176563
following criminal offenses in this state or a substantially 176564 equivalent criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated 176565
murder, murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, 176566
kidnapping, rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, 176567
aggravated arson, aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. 176568
Continued practice after suspension shall be considered practicing 176569
without a license or certificate. 176570

suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 176572
section 119.07 of the Revised Code. If an individual whose license 176573
or certificate is automatically suspended under this division 176574 fails to make a timely request for an adjudication under Chapter 176575 119. of the Revised Code, the board shall do whichever of the 176576
following is applicable: 176577

(1) If the automatic suspension under this division is for a 176578
second or subsequent plea of guilty to, or judicial finding of 176579 guilt of, a violation of section 2919.123 or 2919.124 of the Revised Code, the board shall enter an order suspending the individual's license or certificate to practice for a period of at least one year or, if determined appropriate by the board, imposing a more serious sanction involving the individual's license or certificate to practice.

(2) In all circumstances in which division (I)(1) of this section does not apply, enter a final order permanently revoking the individual's license or certificate to practice.

(J) If the board is required by Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to give notice of an opportunity for a hearing and if the individual subject to the notice does not timely request a hearing in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the board is not required to hold a hearing, but may adopt, by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final order that contains the board's findings. In that final order, the board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) or (B) of this section.

(K) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this section resulting in a suspension from practice shall be accompanied by a written statement of the conditions under which the individual's license or certificate to practice may be reinstated. The board shall adopt rules governing conditions to be imposed for reinstatement. Reinstatement of a license or certificate suspended pursuant to division (B) of this section requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board.

(L) When the board refuses to grant or issue a license or certificate to practice to an applicant, revokes an individual's license or certificate to practice, refuses to renew an individual's license or certificate to practice, or refuses to reinstate an individual's license or certificate to practice, the board may specify that its action is permanent. An individual 176612 subject to a permanent action taken by the board is forever 176613 thereafter ineligible to hold a license or certificate to practice 176614 and the board shall not accept an application for reinstatement of 176615 the license or certificate or for issuance of a new license or 176616 certificate. 176617

(M) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, 176618
all of the following apply: 176619

(1) The surrender of a license or certificate issued under 176620

(19) Failure to cooperate in an investigation conducted by 177272

Code, including failure to comply with a subpoena or order issued 177274 by the board or failure to answer truthfully a question presented 177275 by the board in an investigative interview, an investigative 177276 office conference, at a deposition, or in written interrogatories, 177277 except that failure to cooperate with an investigation shall not 177278 constitute grounds for discipline under this section if a court of 177279 competent jurisdiction has issued an order that either quashes a 177280 subpoena or permits the individual to withhold the testimony or 177281
evidence in issue; 177282

(20) Representing with the purpose of obtaining compensation 177283 or other advantage as personal gain or for any other person, that 177284 an incurable disease or injury, or other incurable condition, can 177285
be permanently cured. 177286

(B) The board shall not refuse to issue a license or limited 177287 permit to an applicant because of a plea of guilty to, a judicial 177288 finding of guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for 177289 intervention in lieu of conviction for an offense unless the 177290 refusal is in accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 177291

(C) Any action taken by the board under division (A) of this 177292
section resulting in a suspension from practice shall be 177293 accompanied by a written statement of the conditions under which 177294 the individual's license or permit may be reinstated. The board 177295 shall adopt rules governing conditions to be imposed for 177296 reinstatement. Reinstatement of a license or permit suspended 177297 pursuant to division (A) of this section requires an affirmative 177298 vote of not fewer than six members of the board. 177299

(D) When the board refuses to grant or issue a license or 177300 permit to an applicant, revokes an individual's license or permit, 177301 refuses to renew an individual's license or permit, or refuses to 177302 reinstate an individual's license or permit, the board may specify 177303 that its action is permanent. An individual subject to a permanent 177304 action taken by the board is forever thereafter ineligible to hold 177305 a license or permit and the board shall not accept an application 177306 for reinstatement of the license or permit or for issuance of a 177307
new license or permit. 177308

(E) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under division 177309
(A) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an adjudication 177310 under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that in lieu of an 177311 adjudication, the board may enter into a consent agreement with an 177312 individual to resolve an allegation of a violation of this chapter 177313 or any rule adopted under it. A consent agreement, when ratified 177314 by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board, 177315 shall constitute the findings and order of the board with respect 177316 to the matter addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to 177317 ratify a consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained 177318

in the consent agreement shall be of no force or effect. 177319

A telephone conference call may be utilized for ratification 177320
of a consent agreement that revokes or suspends an individual's 177321 license or permit. The telephone conference call shall be 177322 considered a special meeting under division (F) of section 121.22 177323

(F) In enforcing division (A)(14) of this section, the board, 177325 upon a showing of a possible violation, shall refer any individual 177326 authorized to practice by this chapter or who has submitted an 177327 application pursuant to this chapter to the monitoring 177328 organization that conducts the confidential monitoring program 177329 established under section 4731.25 of the Revised Code. The board 177330 also may compel ~~any~~ the individual ~~authorized to practice by this~~ 177331
~~chapter or who has submitted an application pursuant to this~~ 177332
~~chapter~~ to submit to a mental examination, physical examination, 177333 including an HIV test, or both a mental and a physical 177334 examination. The expense of the examination is the responsibility 177335 of the individual compelled to be examined. Failure to submit to a 177336 mental or physical examination or consent to an HIV test ordered 177337
by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 177338
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 177339
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 177340
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 177341
evidence. If the board finds an individual unable to practice 177342 because of the reasons set forth in division (A)(14) of this 177343 section, the board shall require the individual to submit to care, 177344 counseling, or treatment by physicians approved or designated by 177345
the board, as a condition for initial, continued, reinstated, or 177346 renewed authority to practice. An individual affected under this 177347 division shall be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate to the 177348 board the ability to resume practice in compliance with acceptable 177349 and prevailing standards under the provisions of the individual's 177350 license or permit. For the purpose of division (A)(14) of this 177351 section, any individual who applies for or receives a license or 177352 permit under this chapter accepts the privilege of practicing in 177353 this state and, by so doing, shall be deemed to have given consent 177354 to submit to a mental or physical examination when directed to do 177355 so in writing by the board, and to have waived all objections to 177356

the admissibility of testimony or examination reports that 177357
constitute a privileged communication. 177358

(G) For the purposes of division (A)(18) of this section, any 177359 individual authorized to practice by this chapter accepts the 177360 privilege of practicing in this state subject to supervision by 177361
the board. By filing an application for or holding a license or 177362 permit under this chapter, an individual shall be deemed to have 177363
given consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when 177364 ordered to do so by the board in writing, and to have waived all 177365
objections to the admissibility of testimony or examination 177366
reports that constitute privileged communications. 177367

If it has reason to believe that any individual authorized to 177368 practice by this chapter or any applicant for a license or permit 177369
suffers such impairment, the board shall refer the individual to 177370
the monitoring organization that conducts the confidential 177371
monitoring program established under section 4731.25 of the 177372
Revised Code. The board also may compel the individual to submit 177373 to a mental or physical examination, or both. The expense of the 177374 examination is the responsibility of the individual compelled to 177375
be examined. Any mental or physical examination required under 177376
this division shall be undertaken by a treatment provider or 177377
physician who is qualified to conduct the examination and who is 177378

~~chosen by the board~~ approved under section 4731.251 of the Revised 177379
Code. 177380

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 177382
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 177383
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 177384
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 177385
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 177386
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 177387
license or permit or deny the individual's application and shall 177388 require the individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, 177389 reinstated, or renewed license or permit, to submit to treatment. 177390

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license 177391
or permit suspended under this division, the impaired practitioner 177392 shall demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice in 177393 compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care under 177394
the provisions of the practitioner's license or permit. The 177395 demonstration shall include, but shall not be limited to, the 177396
following: 177397

(1) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 177398
has successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 177400

(2) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 177401
contract or consent agreement; 177402

(3) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 177403
ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 177404
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 177405
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 177406 individuals or providers approved by the board for making the 177407
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 177408

The board may reinstate a license or permit suspended under 177409

this division after that demonstration and after the individual 177410
has entered into a written consent agreement. 177411

shall require continued monitoring of the individual. The 177413 monitoring shall include, but not be limited to, compliance with 177414
the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or 177415
with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, upon 177416
termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for 177417
at least two years of annual written progress reports made under 177418 penalty of perjury stating whether the individual has maintained 177419
sobriety. 177420

(H) If the secretary and supervising member determine both of 177421
the following, they may recommend that the board suspend an 177422
individual's license or permit without a prior hearing: 177423

(1) That there is clear and convincing evidence that an 177424
individual has violated division (A) of this section; 177425

(2) That the individual's continued practice presents a 177426
danger of immediate and serious harm to the public. 177427

Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration by 177428
the board. The board, upon review of those allegations and by an 177429
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding 177430
the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license or 177431 permit without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call may be 177432
summary suspension. 177434

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 177436
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 177438
of the Revised Code. If the individual subject to the summary 177439
suspension requests an adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date 177440

set for the hearing shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier 177441
than seven days, after the individual requests the hearing, unless 177442
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the individual. 177443

remain in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final 177445
adjudicative order issued by the board pursuant to this section 177446
and Chapter 119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board 177447 shall issue its final adjudicative order within seventy-five days 177448
after completion of its hearing. A failure to issue the order 177449
summary suspension order but shall not invalidate any subsequent, 177451
final adjudicative order. 177452

(I) If the board is required by Chapter 119. of the Revised 177453
Code to give notice of an opportunity for a hearing and if the 177454 individual subject to the notice does not timely request a hearing 177455
in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the board 177456 is not required to hold a hearing, but may adopt, by an 177457
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 177458 order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the 177459 board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) 177460
of this section. 177461

(J) For purposes of divisions (A)(5), (7), and (9) of this 177462
section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 177463
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 177464
the Revised Code, that the individual committed the act. The board 177465
does not have jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial 177466
court renders a final judgment in the individual's favor and that 177467 judgment is based upon an adjudication on the merits. The board 177468
has jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial court issues 177469
an order of dismissal upon technical or procedural grounds. 177470

(K) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 177471
court shall have no effect upon a prior board order entered under 177472

this section or upon the board's jurisdiction to take action under 177473
this section if, based upon a plea of guilty, a judicial finding 177474
of guilt, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 177475
lieu of conviction, the board issued a notice of opportunity for a 177476
hearing prior to the court's order to seal or expunge the records. 177477
The board shall not be required to seal, destroy, redact, or 177478 otherwise modify its records to reflect the court's sealing or 177479
expungement of conviction records. 177480

(L) If the board takes action under division (A)(4), (6), or 177481
(8) of this section, and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 177482
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 177483
of conviction is overturned on appeal, upon exhaustion of the 177484
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. 177486
Upon receipt of a petition for reconsideration and supporting 177487 court documents, the board shall reinstate the individual's 177488 license or permit. The board may then hold an adjudication under 177489 Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to determine whether the 177490
individual committed the act in question. Notice of an opportunity 177491
for a hearing shall be given in accordance with Chapter 119. of 177492
the Revised Code. If the board finds, pursuant to an adjudication 177493 held under this division, that the individual committed the act or 177494
if no hearing is requested, the board may order any of the 177495
sanctions identified under division (A) of this section. 177496

(M) The license or permit issued to an individual under this 177497 chapter and the individual's practice in this state are 177498
automatically suspended as of the date the individual pleads 177499
guilty to, is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is 177500
subject to a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 177501
lieu of conviction in this state or treatment or intervention in 177502
lieu of conviction in another jurisdiction for any of the 177503
following criminal offenses in this state or a substantially 177504

equivalent criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated 177505
murder, murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, 177506
kidnapping, rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, 177507
aggravated arson, aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. 177508
Continued practice after suspension shall be considered practicing 177509
without a license or permit. 177510

The board shall notify the individual subject to the 177511
suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 177512
section 119.07 of the Revised Code. If an individual whose license 177513
or permit is automatically suspended under this division fails to 177514 make a timely request for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 177515
the Revised Code, the board shall enter a final order permanently 177516 revoking the individual's license or permit. 177517

(N) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, 177518
all of the following apply: 177519

(1) The surrender of a license or permit issued under this 177520 chapter shall not be effective unless or until accepted by the 177521 board. A telephone conference call may be utilized for acceptance 177522 of the surrender of an individual's license or permit. The 177523 telephone conference call shall be considered a special meeting 177524 under division (F) of section 121.22 of the Revised Code. 177525 Reinstatement of a license or permit surrendered to the board 177526
requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the 177527
board. 177528

(2) An application for a license or permit made under the 177529 provisions of this chapter may not be withdrawn without approval 177530
of the board. 177531

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license or permit in 177532 accordance with this chapter shall not remove or limit the board's 177533 jurisdiction to take any disciplinary action under this section 177534 against the individual. 177535

(4) At the request of the board, a license or permit holder 177536 shall immediately surrender to the board a license or permit that 177537
the board has suspended, revoked, or permanently revoked. 177538

Sec. 4759.13. A dietitian, professional association or 177539 society of dietitians, physician, or professional association or 177540 society of physicians that believes a violation of division 177541 ~~(A)(18)~~(A)(14) or (18) of section 4759.07 of the Revised Code has 177542 occurred shall report the information upon which the belief is 177543 based to the monitoring organization conducting the confidential 177544 monitoring program established ~~by the state medical board~~ under 177545 section ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of the Revised Code. If any such report 177546 is made to the state medical board, it shall be referred to the 177547 monitoring organization unless the board is aware that the 177548 individual who is the subject of the report does not meet the 177549 program eligibility requirements of section 4731.252 of the 177550
Revised Code. 177551

An individual or entity that reports to the board, reports to 177552
the monitoring organization described in section ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 177553 of the Revised Code, or refers an impaired dietitian to a 177554 treatment provider approved ~~by the board~~ under section ~~4731.25~~ 177555 4731.251 of the Revised Code shall not be subject to suit for 177556 civil damages as a result of the report, referral, or provision of 177557
the information. 177558

In the absence of fraud or bad faith, a professional 177559 association or society of dietitians that sponsors a committee or 177560 program to provide peer assistance to a dietitian with substance 177561 abuse problems, a representative or agent of such a committee or 177562 program, a representative or agent of the monitoring organization 177563 described in section ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of the Revised Code, and a 177564 member of the state medical board shall not be held liable in 177565 damages to any person by reason of actions taken to refer a 177566 dietitian to a treatment provider approved under section ~~4731.25~~ 177567

4731.251 of the Revised Code for examination or treatment. 177568

Sec. 4760.13. (A) The state medical board, by an affirmative 177569 vote of not fewer than six members, ~~may revoke or~~ may refuse to 177570 grant a license to practice as an anesthesiologist assistant to a 177571 ~~person~~ , or may revoke the license held by, an individual found by 177572
the board to have committed fraud, misrepresentation, or deception 177573
in applying for or securing the license. 177574

(B) The board, by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six 177575 members, shall, except as provided in division (C) of this 177576 section, and to the extent permitted by law, limit, revoke, or 177577 suspend an individual's license to practice as an anesthesiologist 177578 assistant, refuse to issue a license to an applicant, refuse to 177579 renew a license, refuse to reinstate a license, or reprimand or 177580 place on probation the holder of a license for any of the 177581
following reasons: 177582

(1) Permitting the holder's name or license to be used by 177583
another person; 177584

(4) A departure from, or failure to conform to, minimal 177592

(5) Inability to practice according to acceptable and 177596

prevailing standards of care by reason of mental illness or 177597 physical illness, including physical deterioration that adversely 177598 affects cognitive, motor, or perceptive skills; 177599

(6) Impairment of ability to practice according to acceptable 177600 and prevailing standards of care because of ~~habitual~~ substance use 177601

(7) Willfully betraying a professional confidence; 177604

(8) Making a false, fraudulent, deceptive, or misleading 177605
statement in securing or attempting to secure a license to 177606

As used in this division, "false, fraudulent, deceptive, or 177608 misleading statement" means a statement that includes a 177609 misrepresentation of fact, is likely to mislead or deceive because 177610 of a failure to disclose material facts, is intended or is likely 177611
to create false or unjustified expectations of favorable results, 177612

thing of value by fraudulent misrepresentations in the course of 177617

(15) Commission of an act involving moral turpitude that	177634
constitutes a misdemeanor in this state, regardless of the	177635
jurisdiction in which the act was committed;	177636
(16) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or	177637
a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of	177638
conviction for violating any state or federal law regulating the	177639
possession, distribution, or use of any drug, including	177640
trafficking in drugs;	177641
(17) Any of the following actions taken by the state agency	177642

failure to answer truthfully a question presented by the board at 177658
a deposition or in written interrogatories, except that failure to 177659
cooperate with an investigation shall not constitute grounds for 177660 discipline under this section if a court of competent jurisdiction 177661
has issued an order that either quashes a subpoena or permits the 177662
individual to withhold the testimony or evidence in issue; 177663

(21) Failure to comply with any code of ethics established by 177664

applicant because of a plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of 177671
guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 177672
lieu of conviction for an offense unless the refusal is in 177673
accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 177674

(D) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions 177675
(A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an 177676
adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 177677
in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent 177678
agreement with an anesthesiologist assistant or applicant to 177679 resolve an allegation of a violation of this chapter or any rule 177680 adopted under it. A consent agreement, when ratified by an 177681 affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board, shall 177682 constitute the findings and order of the board with respect to the 177683 matter addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to ratify 177684 a consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained in the 177685
consent agreement shall be of no force or effect. 177686

(E) For purposes of divisions (B)(11), (14), and (15) of this 177687

by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 177689
the Revised Code, that the applicant or license holder committed 177690
the act in question. The board shall have no jurisdiction under 177691
these divisions in cases where the trial court renders a final 177692
judgment in the license holder's favor and that judgment is based 177693
upon an adjudication on the merits. The board shall have 177694 jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court 177695
issues an order of dismissal on technical or procedural grounds. 177696

(F) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 177697
court shall have no effect on a prior board order entered under 177698
the provisions of this section or on the board's jurisdiction to 177699
take action under the provisions of this section if, based upon a 177700
plea of guilty, a judicial finding of guilt, or a judicial finding 177701
of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction, the board 177702
issued a notice of opportunity for a hearing prior to the court's 177703
order to seal or expunge the records. The board shall not be 177704
required to seal, destroy, redact, or otherwise modify its records 177705
to reflect the court's sealing or expungement of conviction 177706
records. 177707

(G) For purposes of this division, any individual who holds a 177708 license to practice issued under this chapter, or applies for a 177709 license to practice, shall be deemed to have given consent to 177710
submit to a mental or physical examination when directed to do so 177711
in writing by the board and to have waived all objections to the 177712
admissibility of testimony or examination reports that constitute 177713
a privileged communication. 177714

(1) In enforcing division (B)(5) of this section, the board, 177715
on a showing of a possible violation, shall refer any individual 177716
who holds, or has applied for, a license issued under this chapter 177717
to the monitoring organization that conducts the confidential 177718
monitoring program established under section 4731.25 of the 177719

~~Revised Code. The board also may compel any the individual who~~ 177720
~~holds a license to practice issued under this chapter or who has~~ 177721 ~~applied for a license to practice pursuant~~ to this chapter to 177722 submit to a mental or physical examination, or both. A physical 177723 examination may include an HIV test. The expense of the 177724
examination is the responsibility of the individual compelled to 177725
be examined. Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination 177726
or consent to an HIV test ordered by the board constitutes an 177727
admission of the allegations against the individual unless the 177728
failure is due to circumstances beyond the individual's control, 177729
and a default and final order may be entered without the taking of 177730
testimony or presentation of evidence. If the board finds an 177731 anesthesiologist assistant unable to practice because of the 177732 reasons set forth in division (B)(5) of this section, the board 177733 shall require the anesthesiologist assistant to submit to care, 177734 counseling, or treatment by physicians approved or designated by 177735
the board, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, 177736 or renewed license to practice. An individual affected by this 177737 division shall be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate to the 177738
board the ability to resume practicing in compliance with 177739 acceptable and prevailing standards of care. 177740

(2) For purposes of division (B)(6) of this section, if the 177741
board has reason to believe that any individual who holds a 177742 license to practice issued under this chapter or any applicant for 177743 a license to practice suffers such impairment, the board shall 177744 report the individual to the monitoring organization that conducts 177745
the confidential monitoring program established under section 177746 4731.25 of the Revised Code. The board also may compel the 177747 individual to submit to a mental or physical examination, or both. 177748
The expense of the examination is the responsibility of the 177749
individual compelled to be examined. Any mental or physical 177750
examination required under this division shall be undertaken by a 177751 treatment provider or physician qualified to conduct such 177752 examination and ~~chosen by the board~~ approved under section 177753

4731.251 of the Revised Code. 177754

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 177756
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 177757
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 177758
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 177759
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 177760
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 177761
license or deny the individual's application and shall require the 177762
individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, 177763 or renewed license to practice, to submit to treatment. 177764

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license 177765
suspended under this division, the anesthesiologist assistant 177766
shall demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice in 177767
compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care. The 177768 demonstration shall include the following: 177769

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 177770
section ~~4731.25~~ 4731.251 of the Revised Code that the individual 177771
has successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 177772

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 177773
contract or consent agreement; 177774

(c) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 177775
ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 177776
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 177777
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 177778
individuals or providers approved by the board for making such 177779
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 177780

The board may reinstate a license suspended under this 177781
division after such demonstration and after the individual has 177782
entered into a written consent agreement. 177783

When the impaired anesthesiologist assistant resumes 177784 practice, the board shall require continued monitoring of the 177785 anesthesiologist assistant. The monitoring shall include 177786 monitoring of compliance with the written consent agreement 177787 entered into before reinstatement or with conditions imposed by 177788 board order after a hearing, and, on termination of the consent 177789 agreement, submission to the board for at least two years of 177790 annual written progress reports made under penalty of 177791 falsification stating whether the anesthesiologist assistant has 177792
maintained sobriety. 177793

(H) If the secretary and supervising member determine that 177794
there is clear and convincing evidence that an anesthesiologist 177795 assistant has violated division (B) of this section and that the 177796 individual's continued practice presents a danger of immediate and 177797 serious harm to the public, they may recommend that the board 177798 suspend the individual's license without a prior hearing. Written 177799 allegations shall be prepared for consideration by the board. 177800

The board, on review of the allegations and by an affirmative 177801 vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding the secretary 177802
and supervising member, may suspend a license without a prior 177803 hearing. A telephone conference call may be utilized for reviewing 177804 the allegations and taking the vote on the summary suspension. 177805

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 177807
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 177809
of the Revised Code. If the anesthesiologist assistant requests an 177810 adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date set for the hearing 177811
shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier than seven days, 177812
after the anesthesiologist assistant requests the hearing, unless 177813
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the license holder. 177814

in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final adjudicative order issued by the board pursuant to this section and Chapter 119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board shall issue its final adjudicative order within sixty days after completion of its hearing. Failure to issue the order within sixty days shall result in dissolution of the summary suspension order, but shall not invalidate any subsequent, final adjudicative order.

kidnapping, rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, 177849
aggravated arson, aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. 177850 Continued practice after the suspension shall be considered 177851 practicing without a license. 177852

suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 177854
section 119.07 of the Revised Code. If an individual whose license 177855
is suspended under this division fails to make a timely request 177856
for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the 177857
board shall enter a final order permanently revoking the 177858
individual's license to practice. 177859

(K) In any instance in which the board is required by Chapter 177860
119. of the Revised Code to give notice of opportunity for hearing 177861
and the individual subject to the notice does not timely request a 177862
hearing in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the 177863
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 177865
order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the 177866
board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) 177867
or (B) of this section. 177868

(L) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this 177869 section resulting in a suspension shall be accompanied by a 177870 written statement of the conditions under which the 177871 anesthesiologist assistant's license may be reinstated. The board 177872 shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised 177873 Code governing conditions to be imposed for reinstatement. 177874 Reinstatement of a license suspended pursuant to division (B) of 177875 this section requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six 177876 members of the board. 177877

(M) When the board refuses to grant or issue a license to 177878 practice as an anesthesiologist assistant to an applicant, revokes 177879 an individual's license, refuses to renew an individual's license, 177880 or refuses to reinstate an individual's license, the board may 177881 specify that its action is permanent. An individual subject to a 177882

permanent action taken by the board is forever thereafter 177883 ineligible to hold a license to practice as an anesthesiologist 177884 assistant and the board shall not accept an application for 177885 reinstatement of the license or for issuance of a new license. 177886

(N) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, 177887
all of the following apply: 177888

(1) The surrender of a license to practice issued under this 177889 chapter is not effective unless or until accepted by the board. 177890 Reinstatement of a license surrendered to the board requires an 177891 affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board. 177892

(2) An application made under this chapter for a license to 177893 practice may not be withdrawn without approval of the board. 177894

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license to practice 177895 in accordance with section 4760.06 of the Revised Code shall not 177896 remove or limit the board's jurisdiction to take disciplinary 177897
action under this section against the individual. 177898

Sec. 4760.16. (A) Within sixty days after the imposition of 177899 any formal disciplinary action taken by any health care facility, 177900 including a hospital, health care facility operated by a health 177901 insuring corporation, ambulatory surgical facility, or similar 177902 facility, against any individual holding a valid license to 177903 practice as an anesthesiologist assistant, the chief administrator 177904 or executive officer of the facility shall report to the state 177905 medical board the name of the individual, the action taken by the 177906 facility, and a summary of the underlying facts leading to the 177907 action taken. On request, the board shall be provided certified 177908 copies of the patient records that were the basis for the 177909 facility's action. Prior to release to the board, the summary 177910 shall be approved by the peer review committee that reviewed the 177911 case or by the governing board of the facility. 177912

The filing of a report with the board or decision not to file 177913
a report, investigation by the board, or any disciplinary action 177914
taken by the board, does not preclude a health care facility from 177915 taking disciplinary action against an anesthesiologist assistant. 177916

that provides patient records to the board shall be liable in 177918

an anesthesiologist assistant, professional association or society 177921 of anesthesiologist assistants, physician, or professional 177922 association or society of physicians that believes a violation of 177923 any provision of this chapter, Chapter 4731. of the Revised Code, 177924 or rule of the board has occurred shall report to the board the 177925 information on which the belief is based. 177926

(2) An anesthesiologist assistant, professional association 177927 or society of anesthesiologist assistants, physician, or 177928 professional association or society of physicians that believes 177929 that a violation of division ~~(B)(6)~~(B)(5) or (6) of section 177930 4760.13 of the Revised Code has occurred shall report the 177931 information upon which the belief is based to the monitoring 177932 organization conducting the confidential monitoring program 177933 established ~~by the board~~ under section ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of the 177934 Revised Code. If any such report is made to the board, it shall be 177935 referred to the monitoring organization unless the board is aware 177936 that the individual who is the subject of the report does not meet 177937 the program eligibility requirements of section 4731.252 of the 177938
Revised Code. 177939

(C) Any professional association or society composed 177940 primarily of anesthesiologist assistants that suspends or revokes 177941 an individual's membership for violations of professional ethics, 177942 or for reasons of professional incompetence or professional 177943 malpractice, within sixty days after a final decision, shall 177944

board, the name of the individual, the action taken by the 177946
professional organization, and a summary of the underlying facts 177947
leading to the action taken. 177948

The filing of a report with the board or decision not to file 177949
a report, investigation by the board, or any disciplinary action 177950
taken by the board, does not preclude a professional organization 177951 from taking disciplinary action against an anesthesiologist 177952 assistant. 177953

(D) Any insurer providing professional liability insurance to 177954 any person holding a valid license to practice as an 177955 anesthesiologist assistant or any other entity that seeks to 177956 indemnify the professional liability of an anesthesiologist 177957 assistant shall notify the board within thirty days after the 177958 final disposition of any written claim for damages where such 177959 disposition results in a payment exceeding twenty-five thousand 177960
dollars. The notice shall contain the following information: 177961

(1) The name and address of the person submitting the 177962
notification; 177963

(2) The name and address of the insured who is the subject of 177964
the claim; 177965

(3) The name of the person filing the written claim; 177966

(4) The date of final disposition; 177967

(5) If applicable, the identity of the court in which the 177968
final disposition of the claim took place. 177969

(E) The board may investigate possible violations of this 177970
chapter or the rules adopted under it that are brought to its 177971

attention as a result of the reporting requirements of this 177972
section, except that the board shall conduct an investigation if a 177973 possible violation involves repeated malpractice. As used in this 177974 division, "repeated malpractice" means three or more claims for 177975 malpractice within the previous five-year period, each resulting 177976
in a judgment or settlement in excess of twenty-five thousand 177977 dollars in favor of the claimant, and each involving negligent 177978 conduct by the anesthesiologist assistant. 177979

(F) All summaries, reports, and records received and 177980 maintained by the board pursuant to this section shall be held in 177981 confidence and shall not be subject to discovery or introduction 177982 in evidence in any federal or state civil action involving an 177983 anesthesiologist assistant, supervising physician, or health care 177984 facility arising out of matters that are the subject of the 177985 reporting required by this section. The board may use the 177986 information obtained only as the basis for an investigation, as 177987 evidence in a disciplinary hearing against an anesthesiologist 177988 assistant or supervising physician, or in any subsequent trial or 177989 appeal of a board action or order. 177990

The board may disclose the summaries and reports it receives 177991
under this section only to health care facility committees within 177992
or outside this state that are involved in credentialing or 177993 recredentialing an anesthesiologist assistant or supervising 177994 physician or reviewing their privilege to practice within a 177995 particular facility. The board shall indicate whether or not the 177996 information has been verified. Information transmitted by the 177997 board shall be subject to the same confidentiality provisions as 177998 when maintained by the board. 177999

division (B) of this section, the board shall send a copy of any 178001
reports or summaries it receives pursuant to this section to the 178002 anesthesiologist assistant. The anesthesiologist assistant shall 178003 have the right to file a statement with the board concerning the 178004 correctness or relevance of the information. The statement shall 178005 at all times accompany that part of the record in contention. 178006

(H) An individual or entity that reports to the board, 178007
reports to the monitoring organization described in section 178008 ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of the Revised Code, or refers an impaired 178009 anesthesiologist assistant to a treatment provider approved ~~by the~~ 178010 ~~board~~ under section ~~4731.25~~ 4731.251 of the Revised Code shall not 178011
be subject to suit for civil damages as a result of the report, 178012
referral, or provision of the information. 178013

(I) In the absence of fraud or bad faith, a professional 178014 association or society of anesthesiologist assistants that 178015 sponsors a committee or program to provide peer assistance to an 178016 anesthesiologist assistant with substance abuse problems, a 178017 representative or agent of such a committee or program, a 178018 representative or agent of the monitoring organization described 178019 in section ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of the Revised Code, and a member of 178020 the state medical board shall not be held liable in damages to any 178021 person by reason of actions taken to refer an anesthesiologist 178022 assistant to a treatment provider approved under section ~~4731.25~~ 178023

limit, revoke, or suspend an individual's license or limited 178028 permit, refuse to issue a license or limited permit to an 178029 individual, refuse to renew a license or limited permit, refuse to 178030 state, regardless of the jurisdiction in which the act was 178038

committed; 178039

(3) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or a 178040

judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 178047
conviction for, a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; 178048

(6) Commission of an act involving moral turpitude that 178049
constitutes a misdemeanor in this state, regardless of the 178050
jurisdiction in which the act was committed; 178051

(7) Except when civil penalties are imposed under section 178052
4761.091 of the Revised Code, violating or attempting to violate, 178053
directly or indirectly, or assisting in or abetting the violation 178054
of, or conspiring to violate, any provision of this chapter or the 178055 rules adopted by the board; 178056

statement in the solicitation of or advertising for patients; in 178058 relation to the practice of respiratory care; or in securing or 178059

under this chapter. 178061

As used in division (A)(8) of this section, "false, 178062 fraudulent, deceptive, or misleading statement" means a statement 178063 that includes a misrepresentation of fact, is likely to mislead or 178064 deceive because of a failure to disclose material facts, is 178065 intended or is likely to create false or unjustified expectations 178066 of favorable results, or includes representations or implications 178067 that in reasonable probability will cause an ordinarily prudent 178068 person to misunderstand or be deceived. 178069

(9) Committing fraud during the administration of the 178070
examination for a license to practice or committing fraud, 178071

prevailing standards of care by reason of mental illness or 178086
physical illness, including physical deterioration that adversely 178087

(15) Any of the following actions taken by an agency 178089
responsible for authorizing, certifying, or regulating an 178090
individual to practice a health care occupation or provide health 178091
care services in this state or another jurisdiction, for any 178092
reason other than the nonpayment of fees: the limitation, 178093 revocation, or suspension of an individual's license; acceptance 178094 of an individual's license surrender; denial of a license; refusal 178095

by the board or failure to answer truthfully a question presented	178113
by the board in an investigative interview, an investigative	178114
office conference, at a deposition, or in written interrogatories,	178115
except that failure to cooperate with an investigation shall not	178116
constitute grounds for discipline under this section if a court of	178117

subpoena or permits the individual to withhold the testimony or	178119

178135

Disciplinary actions taken by the board under division (A) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent agreement with an individual to resolve an allegation of a violation of this chapter or any rule adopted under it. A consent agreement, when ratified by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board, shall constitute the findings and order of the board with respect to the matter addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to ratify a consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained in the consent agreement shall be of no effect. 178136
178137
178139
178140
178141
178142
178143
178144
178146

A telephone conference call may be utilized for ratification of a consent agreement that revokes or suspends an individual's license or permit. The telephone conference call shall be considered a special meeting under division (F) of section 121.22 of the Revised Code. 178147
178148
178151

(B) The board shall not refuse to issue a license or limited permit to an applicant because of a plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction for an offense unless the refusal is in accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 178152
178153
178155
178156

(C) Any action taken by the board under division (A) of this 178157

section resulting in a suspension from practice shall be 178158
accompanied by a written statement of the conditions under which 178159
the individual's license or permit may be reinstated. The board 178160 shall adopt rules governing conditions to be imposed for 178161
reinstatement. Reinstatement of a license or permit suspended 178162
pursuant to division (A) of this section requires an affirmative 178163
vote of not fewer than six members of the board. 178164

(D) When the board refuses to grant or issue a license or 178165
permit to an applicant, revokes an individual's license or permit, 178166 refuses to renew an individual's license or permit, or refuses to 178167
reinstatement an individual's license or permit, the board may specify 178168 that its action is permanent. An individual subject to a permanent 178169 action taken by the board is forever thereafter ineligible to hold 178170
a license or permit and the board shall not accept an application 178171
new license or permit. 178173

(E) If the board is required by Chapter 119. of the Revised 178174
Code to give notice of an opportunity for a hearing and if the 178175
individual subject to the notice does not timely request a hearing 178176
in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the board 178177
is not required to hold a hearing, but may adopt, by an 178178
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 178179
order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the 178180 board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) 178181

upon a showing of a possible violation, shall refer any individual 178184 authorized to practice by this chapter or who has submitted an 178185
application pursuant to this chapter to the monitoring 178186
organization that conducts the confidential monitoring program 178187
established under section 4731.25 of the Revised Code. The board 178188
also may compel any the individual authorized to practice by this 178189

~~chapter~~ or who has submitted an application pursuant to this 178190
~~chapter~~ to submit to a mental examination, physical examination, 178191 including an HIV test, or both a mental and a physical 178192
examination. The expense of the examination is the responsibility 178193 of the individual compelled to be examined. Failure to submit to a 178194
mental or physical examination or consent to an HIV test ordered 178195
by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 178196
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 178198
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 178199
evidence. If the board finds an individual unable to practice 178200 because of the reasons set forth in division (A)(14) of this 178201
section, the board shall require the individual to submit to care, 178202
counseling, or treatment by physicians approved or designated by 178203
the board, as a condition for initial, continued, reinstated, or 178204 renewed authority to practice. An individual affected under this 178205 division shall be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate to the 178206
board the ability to resume practice in compliance with acceptable 178207
and prevailing standards under the provisions of the individual's 178208 license or permit. For the purpose of division (A)(14) of this 178209
section, any individual who applies for or receives a license or 178210 permit to practice under this chapter accepts the privilege of 178211 practicing in this state and, by so doing, shall be deemed to have 178212 given consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when 178213 directed to do so in writing by the board, and to have waived all 178214
reports that constitute a privileged communication. 178216

(G) For the purposes of division (A)(18) of this section, any 178217
individual authorized to practice by this chapter accepts the 178218
privilege of practicing in this state subject to supervision by 178219
the board. By filing an application for or holding a license or 178220 permit under this chapter, an individual shall be deemed to have 178221
given consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when 178222

ordered to do so by the board in writing, and to have waived all 178223
reports that constitute privileged communications. 178225

If it has reason to believe that any individual authorized to 178226 practice by this chapter or any applicant for a license or permit 178227
suffers such impairment, the board shall refer the individual to 178228
the monitoring organization that conducts the confidential 178229
monitoring program established under section 4731.25 of the 178230
Revised Code. The board also may compel the individual to submit 178231 to a mental or physical examination, or both. The expense of the 178232
examination is the responsibility of the individual compelled to 178233
be examined. Any mental or physical examination required under 178234
this division shall be undertaken by a treatment provider or 178235
~~chosen by the board~~ approved under section 4731.251 of the Revised 178237
Code. 178238

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 178240
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 178241
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 178242
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 178243
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 178244
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 178245
license or permit or deny the individual's application and shall 178246
require the individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, 178247
reinstated, or renewed license or permit, to submit to treatment. 178248

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license 178249
or permit suspended under this division, the impaired practitioner 178250
shall demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice in 178251
compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care under 178252
the provisions of the practitioner's license or permit. The 178253

following:	178255
(1) Certification from a treatment provider approved under section 4731.25 4731.251 of the Revised Code that the individual has successfully completed any required inpatient treatment;	178256 178257 178258
(2) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare contract or consent agreement;	178259 178260
The board may reinstate a license or permit suspended under this division after that demonstration and after the individual has entered into a written consent agreement.	178267 178268 178269
When the impaired practitioner resumes practice, the board shall require continued monitoring of the individual. The monitoring shall include, but not be limited to, compliance with the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, upon termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for at least two years of annual written progress reports made under penalty of perjury stating whether the individual has maintained sobriety.	178270 178271 178272 178273 178274 178275 178276 178277 178278
(1) That there is clear and convincing evidence that an individual has violated division (A) of this section;	178282 178283
(2) That the individual's continued practice presents a	178284

Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration by 178286
the board. The board, upon review of those allegations and by an 178287
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding 178288
the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license or 178289 permit without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call may be 178290 utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote on the 178291
summary suspension. 178292

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 178294
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 178296
of the Revised Code. If the individual subject to the summary 178297
suspension requests an adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date 178298
set for the hearing shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier 178299
than seven days, after the individual requests the hearing, unless 178300
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the individual. 178301

remain in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final 178303
adjudicative order issued by the board pursuant to this section 178304
and Chapter 119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board 178305
shall issue its final adjudicative order within seventy-five days 178306
after completion of its hearing. A failure to issue the order 178307
summary suspension order but shall not invalidate any subsequent, 178309
final adjudicative order. 178310

(I) For purposes of divisions (A)(2), (4), and (6) of this 178311
section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 178312
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 178313
the Revised Code, that the individual committed the act. The board 178314
does not have jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial 178315
court renders a final judgment in the individual's favor and that 178316

judgment is based upon an adjudication on the merits. The board 178317
has jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial court issues 178318
an order of dismissal upon technical or procedural grounds. 178319

(J) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 178320
court shall have no effect upon a prior board order entered under 178321
this section or upon the board's jurisdiction to take action under 178322
this section if, based upon a plea of guilty, a judicial finding 178323
of guilt, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 178324
lieu of conviction, the board issued a notice of opportunity for a 178325
hearing prior to the court's order to seal or expunge the records. 178326
The board shall not be required to seal, destroy, redact, or 178327
expungement of conviction records. 178329

(K) If the board takes action under division (A)(1), (3), or 178330
(5) of this section, and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 178331
of conviction is overturned on appeal, upon exhaustion of the 178333
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 178334
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. 178335
Upon receipt of a petition for reconsideration and supporting 178336
court documents, the board shall reinstate the individual's 178337
license or permit. The board may then hold an adjudication under 178338
Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to determine whether the 178339
individual committed the act in question. Notice of an opportunity 178340
for a hearing shall be given in accordance with Chapter 119. of 178341
the Revised Code. If the board finds, pursuant to an adjudication 178342
held under this division, that the individual committed the act or 178343
if no hearing is requested, the board may order any of the 178344
sanctions identified under division (A) of this section. 178345

(L) The license or permit issued to an individual under this 178346
chapter and the individual's practice in this state are 178347

guilty to, is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is 178349
subject to a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 178350
lieu of conviction in this state or treatment or intervention in 178351
lieu of conviction in another jurisdiction for any of the 178352
following criminal offenses in this state or a substantially 178353
equivalent criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated 178354
murder, murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, 178355
kidnapping, rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, 178356
aggravated arson, aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. 178357
Continued practice after suspension shall be considered practicing 178358
without a license or permit. 178359

The board shall notify the individual subject to the 178360
suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 178361
section 119.07 of the Revised Code. If an individual whose license 178362
or permit is automatically suspended under this division fails to 178363
make a timely request for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 178364
the Revised Code, the board shall enter a final order permanently 178365
revoking the individual's license or permit. 178366

all of the following apply: 178368

(1) The surrender of a license or permit issued under this 178369
chapter shall not be effective unless or until accepted by the 178370
of the surrender of an individual's license or permit. The 178372
telephone conference call shall be considered a special meeting 178373
under division (F) of section 121.22 of the Revised Code. 178374 Reinstatement of a license or permit surrendered to the board 178375
requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the 178376
board. 178377

(2) An application for a license or permit made under the 178378
of the board. 178380

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license or permit in accordance with this chapter shall not remove or limit the board's jurisdiction to take any disciplinary action under this section against the individual.

person by reason of actions taken to refer a respiratory care 178416 professional to a treatment provider approved under section 178417 ~~4731.25~~ 4731.251 of the Revised Code for examination or treatment. 178418

Sec. 4762.13. (A) The state medical board, by an affirmative 178419
vote of not fewer than six members, ~~may revoke or~~ may refuse to 178420 grant a license to practice as an oriental medicine practitioner 178421 or license to practice as an acupuncturist to ~~a person~~, or may 178422 revoke the license held by, an individual found by the board to 178423 have committed fraud, misrepresentation, or deception in applying 178424
for or securing the license. 178425

members, shall, except as provided in division (C) of this 178427
section, and to the extent permitted by law, limit, revoke, or 178428 suspend an individual's license to practice, refuse to issue a 178429 license to an applicant, refuse to renew a license, refuse to 178430

another person; 178434

(4) A departure from, or failure to conform to, minimal standards of care of similar practitioners under the same or similar circumstances whether or not actual injury to the patient is established;

individual to withhold the testimony or evidence in issue;	178519
(22) Failure to comply with the standards of the national	178520

commission's requirements for redesignation, or failure to notify	178533

the board that the appropriate designation has not been 178534

(C) The board shall not refuse to issue a certificate to an 178536
applicant because of a plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of 178537
guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 178538
lieu of conviction for an offense unless the refusal is in 178539
accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 178540

(D) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions 178541
(A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an 178542
adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 178543
in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent 178544
agreement with an oriental medicine practitioner or acupuncturist 178545 or applicant to resolve an allegation of a violation of this 178546 chapter or any rule adopted under it. A consent agreement, when 178547 ratified by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of 178548 the board, shall constitute the findings and order of the board 178549 with respect to the matter addressed in the agreement. If the 178550 board refuses to ratify a consent agreement, the admissions and 178551 findings contained in the consent agreement shall be of no force 178552
or effect. 178553

(E) For purposes of divisions (B)(12), (15), and (16) of this 178554
section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 178555
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 178556
the Revised Code, that the applicant or license holder committed 178557
the act in question. The board shall have no jurisdiction under 178558
these divisions in cases where the trial court renders a final 178559
judgment in the license holder's favor and that judgment is based 178560
upon an adjudication on the merits. The board shall have 178561
jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court 178562 issues an order of dismissal upon technical or procedural grounds. 178563

(F) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 178564
court shall have no effect upon a prior board order entered under 178565

the provisions of this section or upon the board's jurisdiction to 178566
take action under the provisions of this section if, based upon a 178567
plea of guilty, a judicial finding of guilt, or a judicial finding 178568
of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction, the board 178569
issued a notice of opportunity for a hearing or entered into a 178570 consent agreement prior to the court's order to seal or expunge 178571
the records. The board shall not be required to seal, destroy, 178572 redact, or otherwise modify its records to reflect the court's 178573 sealing or expungement of conviction records. 178574

(G) For purposes of this division, any individual who holds a 178575 license to practice issued under this chapter, or applies for a 178576
license to practice, shall be deemed to have given consent to 178577
submit to a mental or physical examination when directed to do so 178578
in writing by the board and to have waived all objections to the 178579
a privileged communication. 178581

(1) In enforcing division (B)(5) of this section, the board, 178582
upon a showing of a possible violation, shall refer any individual 178583 who holds, or has applied for, a license under this chapter to the 178584 monitoring organization that conducts the confidential monitoring 178585 program established under section 4731.25 of the Revised Code. The 178586 board also may compel any the individual who holds a license to 178587 practice issued under this chapter or who has applied for a 178588 license pursuant to this chapter to submit to a mental 178589
examination, physical examination, including an HIV test, or both 178590
a mental and physical examination. The expense of the examination 178591 is the responsibility of the individual compelled to be examined. 178592
Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination or consent 178593
to an HIV test ordered by the board constitutes an admission of 178594
the allegations against the individual unless the failure is due 178595
to circumstances beyond the individual's control, and a default 178596
and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or 178597

presentation of evidence. If the board finds an oriental medicine 178598 practitioner or acupuncturist unable to practice because of the 178599 reasons set forth in division (B)(5) of this section, the board 178600 shall require the individual to submit to care, counseling, or 178601 treatment by physicians approved or designated by the board, as a 178602 condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, or renewed 178603 license to practice. An individual affected by this division shall 178604 be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate to the board the ability 178605 to resume practicing in compliance with acceptable and prevailing 178606
standards of care. 178607

(2) For purposes of division (B)(6) of this section, if the 178608
board has reason to believe that any individual who holds a 178609 license to practice issued under this chapter or any applicant for 178610
a license suffers such impairment, the board shall refer the 178611 individual to the monitoring organization that conducts the 178612 confidential monitoring program established under section 4731.25 178613 of the Revised Code. The board also may compel the individual to 178614 submit to a mental or physical examination, or both. The expense 178615 of the examination is the responsibility of the individual 178616
compelled to be examined. Any mental or physical examination 178617 required under this division shall be undertaken by a treatment 178618 provider or physician qualified to conduct such examination and 178619 chosen by the board approved under section 4731.251 of the Revised 178620
Code. 178621

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 178623
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 178624
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 178625
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 178626
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 178627
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 178628
license or deny the individual's application and shall require the 178629

individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, 178630
or renewed license, to submit to treatment. 178631

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license 178632 suspended under this division, the oriental medicine practitioner 178633 or acupuncturist shall demonstrate to the board the ability to 178634 resume practice in compliance with acceptable and prevailing 178635 standards of care. The demonstration shall include the following: 178636

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 178637
has successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 178639

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 178640
contract or consent agreement; 178641

(c) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 178642
ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 178643
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 178644
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 178645
individuals or providers approved by the board for making such 178646
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 178647

The board may reinstate a license suspended under this 178648
division after such demonstration and after the individual has 178649
entered into a written consent agreement. 178650

When the impaired individual resumes practice, the board 178651
shall require continued monitoring of the individual. The 178652 monitoring shall include monitoring of compliance with the written 178653 consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or with 178654 conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, upon 178655
termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for 178656
at least two years of annual written progress reports made under 178657 penalty of falsification stating whether the individual has 178658
maintained sobriety. 178659

(H) If the secretary and supervising member determine both of 178660

the following, they may recommend that the board suspend an individual's license to practice without a prior hearing:

(1) That there is clear and convincing evidence that an oriental medicine practitioner or acupuncturist has violated division (B) of this section;

(2) That the individual's continued practice presents a danger of immediate and serious harm to the public.

Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration by the board. The board, upon review of the allegations and by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call may be utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote on the summary suspension.

The board shall issue a written order of suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code. The order shall not be subject to suspension by the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 of the Revised Code. If the oriental medicine practitioner or acupuncturist requests an adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date set for the hearing shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier than seven days, after the hearing is requested, unless otherwise agreed to by both the board and the license holder.

A summary suspension imposed under this division shall remain in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final adjudicative order issued by the board pursuant to this section and Chapter 119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board shall issue its final adjudicative order within sixty days after completion of its hearing. Failure to issue the order within sixty days shall result in dissolution of the summary suspension order, but shall not invalidate any subsequent, final adjudicative order.

(I) If the board takes action under division (B)(11), (13), 178692
or (14) of this section, and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 178693
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 178694
of conviction is overturned on appeal, upon exhaustion of the 178695
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 178696
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. 178697
Upon receipt of a petition and supporting court documents, the 178698 board shall reinstate the license. The board may then hold an 178699 adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to determine 178700 whether the individual committed the act in question. Notice of 178701 opportunity for hearing shall be given in accordance with Chapter 178702 119. of the Revised Code. If the board finds, pursuant to an 178703 adjudication held under this division, that the individual 178704 committed the act, or if no hearing is requested, it may order any 178705
of the sanctions specified in division (B) of this section. 178706

(J) The license to practice of an oriental medicine 178707 practitioner or acupuncturist and the practitioner's or 178708 acupuncturist's practice in this state are automatically suspended 178709
as of the date the practitioner or acupuncturist pleads guilty to, 178710 is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is subject to a 178711
judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 178712 conviction in this state or treatment or intervention in lieu of 178713 conviction in another jurisdiction for any of the following 178714
criminal offenses in this state or a substantially equivalent 178715
criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated murder, 178716
murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, kidnapping, 178717
rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, aggravated arson, 178718
aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. Continued practice 178719
license. 178721

The board shall notify the individual subject to the 178722
suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 178723

is suspended under this division fails to make a timely request 178725
for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the 178726
board shall enter a final order permanently revoking the 178727 individual's license. 178728

(K) In any instance in which the board is required by Chapter 178729
119. of the Revised Code to give notice of opportunity for hearing 178730
and the individual subject to the notice does not timely request a 178731
hearing in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the 178732
board is not required to hold a hearing, but may adopt, by an 178733
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 178734
order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the 178735
board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) 178736
or (B) of this section. 178737

(L) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this 178738
section resulting in a suspension shall be accompanied by a 178739 written statement of the conditions under which the license may be 178740 reinstated. The board shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 178741 119. of the Revised Code governing conditions to be imposed for 178742 reinstatement. Reinstatement of a license suspended pursuant to 178743 division (B) of this section requires an affirmative vote of not 178744 fewer than six members of the board. 178745

(M) When the board refuses to grant or issue a license to an 178746 applicant, revokes an individual's license, refuses to renew an 178747 individual's license, or refuses to reinstate an individual's 178748 license, the board may specify that its action is permanent. An 178749 individual subject to a permanent action taken by the board is 178750 forever thereafter ineligible to hold a license to practice as an 178751 oriental medicine practitioner or license to practice as an 178752 acupuncturist and the board shall not accept an application for 178753 reinstatement of the license or for issuance of a new license. 178754

(N) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, 178755

all of the following apply: 178756

(1) The surrender of a license to practice as an oriental 178757 medicine practitioner or license to practice as an acupuncturist 178758 issued under this chapter is not effective unless or until 178759 accepted by the board. Reinstatement of a license surrendered to 178760 the board requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six 178761
members of the board. 178762

(2) An application made under this chapter for a license may 178763
not be withdrawn without approval of the board. 178764

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license in accordance 178765
with section 4762.06 of the Revised Code shall not remove or limit 178766
the board's jurisdiction to take disciplinary action under this 178767
section against the individual. 178768

Sec. 4762.16. (A) Within sixty days after the imposition of 178769
any formal disciplinary action taken by any health care facility, 178770
including a hospital, health care facility operated by a health 178771 insuring corporation, ambulatory surgical center, or similar 178772 facility, against any individual holding a valid license to 178773 practice as an oriental medicine practitioner or valid license to 178774 practice as an acupuncturist, the chief administrator or executive 178775 officer of the facility shall report to the state medical board 178776 the name of the individual, the action taken by the facility, and 178777 a summary of the underlying facts leading to the action taken. 178778 Upon request, the board shall be provided certified copies of the 178779 patient records that were the basis for the facility's action. 178780 Prior to release to the board, the summary shall be approved by 178781 the peer review committee that reviewed the case or by the 178782 governing board of the facility. 178783

The filing of a report with the board or decision not to file 178784
a report, investigation by the board, or any disciplinary action 178785
taken by the board, does not preclude a health care facility from 178786 taking disciplinary action against an oriental medicine practitioner or acupuncturist. 178787 178788

178791

178794
178795
178796
178797
178799

178810
178812

(C) Any professional association or society composed primarily of oriental medicine practitioners or acupuncturists that suspends or revokes an individual's membership for violations of professional ethics, or for reasons of professional incompetence or professional malpractice, within sixty days after a final decision, shall report to the board, on forms prescribed 178813
178814
178816
178817
178818

and provided by the board, the name of the individual, the action 178819 taken by the professional organization, and a summary of the 178820 underlying facts leading to the action taken. 178821

The filing of a report with the board or decision not to file 178822
a report, investigation by the board, or any disciplinary action 178823 taken by the board, does not preclude a professional organization 178824 from taking disciplinary action against an individual. 178825

(D) Any insurer providing professional liability insurance to 178826 any person holding a valid license to practice as an oriental 178827 medicine practitioner or valid license to practice as an 178828 acupuncturist or any other entity that seeks to indemnify the 178829 professional liability of an oriental medicine practitioner or 178830 acupuncturist shall notify the board within thirty days after the 178831
final disposition of any written claim for damages where such 178832
disposition results in a payment exceeding twenty-five thousand 178833
dollars. The notice shall contain the following information: 178834

(1) The name and address of the person submitting the 178835
notification; 178836

(2) The name and address of the insured who is the subject of 178837
the claim; 178838

(3) The name of the person filing the written claim; 178839

(4) The date of final disposition; 178840

(5) If applicable, the identity of the court in which the 178841
final disposition of the claim took place. 178842

chapter or the rules adopted under it that are brought to its 178844
attention as a result of the reporting requirements of this 178845
section, except that the board shall conduct an investigation if a 178846
possible violation involves repeated malpractice. As used in this 178847 division, "repeated malpractice" means three or more claims for 178848

malpractice within the previous five-year period, each resulting 178849
in a judgment or settlement in excess of twenty-five thousand 178850 dollars in favor of the claimant, and each involving negligent 178851 conduct by the oriental medicine practitioner or acupuncturist. 178852

(F) All summaries, reports, and records received and 178853
maintained by the board pursuant to this section shall be held in 178854 confidence and shall not be subject to discovery or introduction 178855
in evidence in any federal or state civil action involving an 178856 oriental medicine practitioner, acupuncturist, supervising 178857 physician, or health care facility arising out of matters that are 178858 the subject of the reporting required by this section. The board 178859 may use the information obtained only as the basis for an 178860 investigation, as evidence in a disciplinary hearing against an 178861 oriental medicine practitioner, acupuncturist, or supervising 178862 physician, or in any subsequent trial or appeal of a board action 178863 or order. 178864

The board may disclose the summaries and reports it receives 178865
under this section only to health care facility committees within 178866
or outside this state that are involved in credentialing or 178867 recredentialing an oriental medicine practitioner, acupuncturist, 178868 or supervising physician or reviewing their privilege to practice 178869 within a particular facility. The board shall indicate whether or 178870 not the information has been verified. Information transmitted by 178871 the board shall be subject to the same confidentiality provisions 178872 as when maintained by the board. 178873

(G) Except for reports filed by an individual pursuant to 178874
division (B) of this section, the board shall send a copy of any 178875
reports or summaries it receives pursuant to this section to the 178876 acupuncturist. The oriental medicine practitioner or acupuncturist 178877 shall have the right to file a statement with the board concerning 178878 the correctness or relevance of the information. The statement 178879 shall at all times accompany that part of the record in 178880 contention. 178881

(H) An individual or entity that reports to the board, 178882
reports to the monitoring organization described in section 178883 ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of the Revised Code, or refers an impaired 178884 oriental medicine practitioner or impaired acupuncturist to a 178885 treatment provider approved ~~by the board~~ under section ~~4731.25~~ 178886 4731.251 of the Revised Code shall not be subject to suit for 178887
the information. 178889

(I) In the absence of fraud or bad faith, a professional 178890 association or society of oriental medicine practitioners or 178891 acupuncturists that sponsors a committee or program to provide 178892 peer assistance to an oriental medicine practitioner or 178893 acupuncturist with substance abuse problems, a representative or 178894 agent of such a committee or program, a representative or agent of 178895
the monitoring organization described in section ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 178896 of the Revised Code, and a member of the state medical board shall 178897
not be held liable in damages to any person by reason of actions 178898 taken to refer an oriental medicine practitioner or acupuncturist 178899 to a treatment provider approved under section ~~4731.25~~ 4731.251 of 178900 the Revised Code for examination or treatment. 178901

Sec. 4774.13. (A) The state medical board, by an affirmative 178902
vote of not fewer than six members, ~~may revoke or~~ may refuse to 178903 grant a license to practice as a radiologist assistant to, or may 178904 revoke the license held by, an individual found by the board to 178905
have committed fraud, misrepresentation, or deception in applying 178906
for or securing the license. 178907

(B) The board, by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six 178908
members, shall, except as provided in division (C) of this 178909
section, and to the extent permitted by law, limit, revoke, or 178910 suspend an individual's license to practice as a radiologist 178911

assistant, refuse to issue a license to an applicant, refuse to renew a license, refuse to reinstate a license, or reprimand or

following reasons:

another person;

(2) Failure to comply with the requirements of this chapter, Chapter 4731. of the Revised Code, or any rules adopted by the
board;

(3) Violating or attempting to violate, directly or

4731. of the Revised Code, or the rules adopted by the board;

(4) A departure from, or failure to conform to, minimal standards of care of similar practitioners under the same or similar circumstances whether or not actual injury to the patient

(5) Inability to practice according to acceptable and disorder or excessive use or abuse of drugs, alcohol, or other substances that may impair ability to practice;

(7) Willfully betraying a professional confidence;

(8) Making a false, fraudulent, deceptive, or misleading statement in securing or attempting to secure a license to practice as a radiologist assistant.

As used in this division, "false, fraudulent, deceptive, or

misrepresentation of fact, is likely to mislead or deceive because 178943
of a failure to disclose material facts, is intended or is likely 178944
to create false or unjustified expectations of favorable results, 178945
or includes representations or implications that in reasonable 178946 probability will cause an ordinarily prudent person to 178947
misunderstand or be deceived. 178948

(9) The obtaining of, or attempting to obtain, money or a 178949
thing of value by fraudulent misrepresentations in the course of 178950
practice; 178951

(10) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or 178952
a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 178953
conviction for, a felony; 178954

state, regardless of the jurisdiction in which the act was 178956
committed; 178957

(12) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or 178958
a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 178959 conviction for, a misdemeanor committed in the course of practice; 178960

(13) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or 178961
a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 178962
conviction for, a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; 178963

(14) Commission of an act in the course of practice that 178964
constitutes a misdemeanor in this state, regardless of the 178965
jurisdiction in which the act was committed; 178966

(15) Commission of an act involving moral turpitude that 178967
constitutes a misdemeanor in this state, regardless of the 178968
jurisdiction in which the act was committed; 178969

(16) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or 178970
a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 178971

conviction for violating any state or federal law regulating the 178972
trafficking in drugs; 178974

(17) Any of the following actions taken by the state agency 178975 responsible for regulating the practice of radiologist assistants 178976 in another jurisdiction, for any reason other than the nonpayment 178977 of fees: the limitation, revocation, or suspension of an 178978 individual's license to practice; acceptance of an individual's 178979

failure to answer truthfully a question presented by the board at 178991
cooperate with an investigation shall not constitute grounds for 178993
discipline under this section if a court of competent jurisdiction 178994
has issued an order that either quashes a subpoena or permits the 178995
individual to withhold the testimony or evidence in issue; 178996

(21) Failure to maintain a license as a radiographer under 178997
Chapter 4773. of the Revised Code; 178998

(22) Failure to maintain certification as a registered 178999

registry of radiologic technologists, as those rules apply to an 179008 individual who holds the registry's certification as a registered 179009
radiologist assistant. 179010

(C) The board shall not refuse to issue a license to an 179011
applicant because of a plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of 179012
guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 179013
lieu of conviction for an offense unless the refusal is in 179014
accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 179015

(D) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions 179016
(A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an 179017
adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 179018
in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent 179019 agreement with a radiologist assistant or applicant to resolve an 179020 allegation of a violation of this chapter or any rule adopted 179021 under it. A consent agreement, when ratified by an affirmative 179022 vote of not fewer than six members of the board, shall constitute 179023
the findings and order of the board with respect to the matter 179024

(E) For purposes of divisions (B)(11), (14), and (15) of this 179028
section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 179029

the Revised Code, that the applicant or license holder committed 179031
the act in question. The board shall have no jurisdiction under 179032
these divisions in cases where the trial court renders a final 179033
judgment in the license holder's favor and that judgment is based 179034

upon an adjudication on the merits. The board shall have 179035
jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court 179036
issues an order of dismissal on technical or procedural grounds. 179037

(F) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 179038
court shall have no effect on a prior board order entered under 179039
the provisions of this section or on the board's jurisdiction to 179040
take action under the provisions of this section if, based upon a 179041
plea of guilty, a judicial finding of guilt, or a judicial finding 179042
of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction, the board 179043
issued a notice of opportunity for a hearing prior to the court's 179044
order to seal or expunge the records. The board shall not be 179045
required to seal, destroy, redact, or otherwise modify its records 179046
records. 179048

(G) For purposes of this division, any individual who holds a 179049 license to practice as a radiologist assistant issued under this 179050 chapter, or applies for a license, shall be deemed to have given 179051 consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when 179052 directed to do so in writing by the board and to have waived all 179053
objections to the admissibility of testimony or examination 179054
reports that constitute a privileged communication. 179055

(1) In enforcing division (B)(5) of this section, the board, 179056
on a showing of a possible violation, shall refer any individual 179057 who holds, or has applied for, a license to practice as a 179058 radiologist assistant issued under this chapter to the monitoring 179059 organization that conducts the confidential monitoring program 179060
established under section 4731.25 of the Revised Code. The board 179061 also may compel ~~any the individual who holds a license to practice~~ 179062 ~~as a radiologist assistant issued under this chapter or who has~~ 179063 ~~applied for a license~~ to submit to a mental or physical 179064 examination, or both. A physical examination may include an HIV 179065 test. The expense of the examination is the responsibility of the 179066 individual compelled to be examined. Failure to submit to a mental 179067 or physical examination or consent to an HIV test ordered by the 179068 board constitutes an admission of the allegations against the 179069 individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond the 179070 individual's control, and a default and final order may be entered 179071 without the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence. If 179072 the board finds a radiologist assistant unable to practice because 179073 of the reasons set forth in division (B)(5) of this section, the 179074 board shall require the radiologist assistant to submit to care, 179075 counseling, or treatment by physicians approved or designated by 179076

the board, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, 179077 or renewed license. An individual affected by this division shall 179078 be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate to the board the ability 179079
standards of care. 179081

(2) For purposes of division (B)(6) of this section, if the 179082
board has reason to believe that any individual who holds a 179083 license to practice as a radiologist assistant issued under this 179084 chapter or any applicant for a license suffers such impairment, 179085 the board shall refer the individual to the monitoring 179086 organization that conducts the confidential monitoring program 179087
established under section 4731.25 of the Revised Code. The board 179088 also may compel the individual to submit to a mental or physical 179089 examination, or both. The expense of the examination is the 179090 responsibility of the individual compelled to be examined. Any 179091 mental or physical examination required under this division shall 179092 be undertaken by a treatment provider or physician qualified to 179093 conduct such examination and ~~chosen by the board~~ approved under 179094
section 4731.251 of the Revised Code. 179095

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 179097

the individual's control, and a default and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's license or deny the individual's application and shall require the individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, or renewed license to practice, to submit to treatment.

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license suspended under this division, the radiologist assistant shall demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care. The demonstration shall include the following:

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under section ~~4731.25~~ 4731.251 of the Revised Code that the individual has successfully completed any required inpatient treatment;

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare contract or consent agreement;

The board may reinstate a license suspended under this division after such demonstration and after the individual has entered into a written consent agreement.

When the impaired radiologist assistant resumes practice, the board shall require continued monitoring of the radiologist assistant. The monitoring shall include monitoring of compliance with the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, on termination of the consent agreement, submission 179130 to the board for at least two years of annual written progress 179131 reports made under penalty of falsification stating whether the 179132 radiologist assistant has maintained sobriety. 179133

(H) If the secretary and supervising member determine that 179134
there is clear and convincing evidence that a radiologist 179135
assistant has violated division (B) of this section and that the 179136 individual's continued practice presents a danger of immediate and 179137 serious harm to the public, they may recommend that the board 179138 suspend the individual's license to practice without a prior 179139
by the board. 179141

The board, on review of the allegations and by an affirmative 179142 vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding the secretary 179143
and supervising member, may suspend a license without a prior 179144 hearing. A telephone conference call may be utilized for reviewing 179145
the allegations and taking the vote on the summary suspension. 179146

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 179148
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 179150
of the Revised Code. If the radiologist assistant requests an 179151 adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date set for the hearing 179152
shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier than seven days, 179153
after the radiologist assistant requests the hearing, unless 179154
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the license holder. 179155

A summary suspension imposed under this division shall remain 179156
in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final adjudicative 179157
order issued by the board pursuant to this section and Chapter 179158 119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board shall issue 179159
its final adjudicative order within sixty days after completion of 179160
its hearing. Failure to issue the order within sixty days shall 179161

result in dissolution of the summary suspension order, but shall 179162
not invalidate any subsequent, final adjudicative order. 179163

(I) If the board takes action under division (B)(10), (12), 179164
or (13) of this section, and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 179165
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 179166
of conviction is overturned on appeal, on exhaustion of the 179167
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 179168
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. On 179169 receipt of a petition and supporting court documents, the board 179170 shall reinstate the license to practice as a radiologist 179171 assistant. The board may then hold an adjudication under Chapter 179172 119. of the Revised Code to determine whether the individual 179173 committed the act in question. Notice of opportunity for hearing 179174 shall be given in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised 179175 Code. If the board finds, pursuant to an adjudication held under 179176 this division, that the individual committed the act, or if no 179177 hearing is requested, it may order any of the sanctions specified 179178
in division (B) of this section. 179179

(J) The license to practice of a radiologist assistant and 179180
the assistant's practice in this state are automatically suspended 179181 as of the date the radiologist assistant pleads guilty to, is 179182 found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is subject to a 179183
judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 179184 conviction in this state or treatment of intervention in lieu of 179185 conviction in another jurisdiction for any of the following 179186
criminal offenses in this state or a substantially equivalent 179187
criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated murder, 179188
murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, kidnapping, 179189 rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, aggravated arson, 179190
aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. Continued practice 179191
license. 179193

The board shall notify the individual subject to the suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code. If an individual whose license is suspended under this division fails to make a timely request for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the board shall enter a final order permanently revoking the individual's license.

(M) When the board refuses to grant or issue a license to practice as a radiologist assistant to an applicant, revokes an individual's license, refuses to renew an individual's license, or refuses to reinstate an individual's license, the board may specify that its action is permanent. An individual subject to a permanent action taken by the board is forever thereafter ineligible to hold a license to practice as a radiologist

reinstatement of the license or for issuance of a new license. 179227

(N) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, 179228
all of the following apply: 179229

(1) The surrender of a license to practice as a radiologist 179230 assistant issued under this chapter is not effective unless or 179231 until accepted by the board. Reinstatement of a license 179232 surrendered to the board requires an affirmative vote of not fewer 179233 than six members of the board. 179234

(2) An application made under this chapter for a license to 179235
practice may not be withdrawn without approval of the board. 179236

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license to practice 179237
in accordance with section 4774.06 of the Revised Code shall not 179238
action under this section against the individual. 179240

Sec. 4774.16. (A) Within sixty days after the imposition of 179241
including a hospital, health care facility operated by a health 179243
insuring corporation, ambulatory surgical facility, or similar 179244
facility, against any individual holding a valid license to 179245 practice as a radiologist assistant, the chief administrator or 179246 executive officer of the facility shall report to the state 179247 medical board the name of the individual, the action taken by the 179248 facility, and a summary of the underlying facts leading to the 179249 action taken. On request, the board shall be provided certified 179250 copies of the patient records that were the basis for the 179251
facility's action. Prior to release to the board, the summary 179252 shall be approved by the peer review committee that reviewed the 179253
case or by the governing board of the facility. 179254

The filing of a report with the board or decision not to file 179255

a report, investigation by the board, or any disciplinary action 179256
taken by the board, does not preclude a health care facility from 179257 taking disciplinary action against a radiologist assistant. 179258

that provides patient records to the board shall be liable in 179260
damages to any person as a result of providing the records. 179261

a radiologist assistant, professional association or society of 179263 radiologist assistants, physician, or professional association or 179264 society of physicians that believes a violation of any provision 179265
of this chapter, Chapter 4731. of the Revised Code, or rule of the 179266 board has occurred shall report to the board the information on 179267
which the belief is based. 179268

(2) A radiologist assistant, professional association or 179269 society of radiologist assistants, physician, or professional 179270 association or society of physicians that believes a violation of 179271 division ~~(B)(6)~~(B)(5) or (6) of section 4774.13 of the Revised 179272 Code has occurred shall report the information upon which the 179273 belief is based to the monitoring organization conducting the 179274 confidential monitoring program established ~~by the board~~ under 179275 section ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of the Revised Code. If any such report 179276 is made to the board, it shall be referred to the monitoring 179277 organization unless the board is aware that the individual who is 179278 the subject of the report does not meet the program eligibility 179279 requirements of section 4731.252 of the Revised Code. 179280

primarily of radiologist assistants that suspends or revokes an 179282 individual's membership for violations of professional ethics, or 179283
for reasons of professional incompetence or professional 179284
malpractice, within sixty days after a final decision, shall 179285
board, the name of the individual, the action taken by the 179287

professional organization, and a summary of the underlying facts 179288
leading to the action taken. 179289

The filing of a report with the board or decision not to file 179290
a report, investigation by the board, or any disciplinary action 179291
taken by the board, does not preclude a professional organization 179292 from taking disciplinary action against a radiologist assistant. 179293

(D) Any insurer providing professional liability insurance to 179294 any person holding a valid license to practice as a radiologist 179295 assistant or any other entity that seeks to indemnify the 179296 professional liability of a radiologist assistant shall notify the 179297 board within thirty days after the final disposition of any 179298 written claim for damages where such disposition results in a 179299 payment exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars. The notice shall 179300 contain the following information: 179301

(1) The name and address of the person submitting the 179302
notification; 179303

(2) The name and address of the insured who is the subject of 179304
the claim; 179305

(3) The name of the person filing the written claim; 179306

(4) The date of final disposition; 179307

(5) If applicable, the identity of the court in which the 179308
final disposition of the claim took place. 179309

(E) The board may investigate possible violations of this 179310
chapter or the rules adopted under it that are brought to its 179311
attention as a result of the reporting requirements of this 179312
section, except that the board shall conduct an investigation if a 179313
possible violation involves repeated malpractice. As used in this 179314 division, "repeated malpractice" means three or more claims for 179315
malpractice within the previous five-year period, each resulting 179316
in a judgment or settlement in excess of twenty-five thousand 179317

conduct by the radiologist assistant. 179319

(F) All summaries, reports, and records received and 179320
maintained by the board pursuant to this section shall be held in 179321
confidence and shall not be subject to discovery or introduction 179322 in evidence in any federal or state civil action involving a 179323 radiologist assistant, supervising physician, or health care 179324 facility arising out of matters that are the subject of the 179325
reporting required by this section. The board may use the 179326
information obtained only as the basis for an investigation, as 179327 evidence in a disciplinary hearing against a radiologist assistant 179328 or supervising radiologist, or in any subsequent trial or appeal 179329 of a board action or order. 179330

The board may disclose the summaries and reports it receives 179331
under this section only to health care facility committees within 179332
or outside this state that are involved in credentialing or 179333 recredentialing a radiologist assistant or supervising radiologist 179334 or reviewing their privilege to practice within a particular 179335 facility. The board shall indicate whether or not the information 179336 has been verified. Information transmitted by the board shall be 179337 subject to the same confidentiality provisions as when maintained 179338
by the board. 179339

(G) Except for reports filed by an individual pursuant to 179340
division (B) of this section, the board shall send a copy of any 179341
reports or summaries it receives pursuant to this section to the 179342 radiologist assistant. The radiologist assistant shall have the 179343 right to file a statement with the board concerning the 179344
at all times accompany that part of the record in contention. 179346

(H) An individual or entity that reports to the board, 179347
reports to the monitoring organization described in section 179348 ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of the Revised Code, or refers an impaired 179349

radiologist assistant to a treatment provider approved ~~by the~~ 179350 ~~board~~ under section ~~4731.25~~ 4731.251 of the Revised Code shall not 179351
referral, or provision of the information. 179353

(I) In the absence of fraud or bad faith, a professional 179354 association or society of radiologist assistants that sponsors a 179355 committee or program to provide peer assistance to a radiologist 179356
assistant with substance abuse problems, a representative or agent 179357
of such a committee or program, a representative or agent of the 179358
monitoring organization described in section ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of 179359
the Revised Code, and a member of the state medical board shall 179360
not be held liable in damages to any person by reason of actions 179361 taken to refer a radiologist assistant to a treatment provider 179362 approved under section ~~4731.25~~ 4731.251 of the Revised Code for 179363

Sec. 4778.14. (A) The state medical board, by an affirmative 179365
vote of not fewer than six members, ~~may revoke or~~ may refuse to 179366 grant a license to practice as a genetic counselor to, or revoke 179367 the license held by, an individual found by the board to have 179368 committed fraud, misrepresentation, or deception in applying for 179369 or securing the license. 179370

members, shall, except as provided in division (C) of this 179372
section, and to the extent permitted by law, limit, revoke, or 179373 suspend an individual's license to practice as a genetic 179374 counselor, refuse to issue a license to an applicant, refuse to 179375 renew a license, refuse to reinstate a license, or reprimand or 179376
following reasons: 179378

another person; 179380

(2) Failure to comply with the requirements of this chapter,	179381
Chapter 4731. of the Revised Code, or any rules adopted by the	179382
board;	179383
(3) Violating or attempting to violate, directly or	179384
indirectly, or assisting in or abetting the violation of, or	179385
conspiring to violate, any provision of this chapter, Chapter	179386
4731. of the Revised Code, or the rules adopted by the board;	179387
(4) A departure from, or failure to conform to, minimal	179388
standards of care of similar practitioners under the same or	179389
similar circumstances whether or not actual injury to the patient	179390
is established;	179391
(5) Inability to practice according to acceptable and	179392
prevailing standards of care by reason of mental illness or	179393
physical illness, including physical deterioration that adversely	179394
affects cognitive, motor, or perceptive skills;	179395
(6) Impairment of ability to practice according to acceptable	179396
and prevailing standards of care because of habitual substance use	179397
disorder or excessive use or abuse of drugs, alcohol, or other	179398 substances that may impair ability to practice;	179399
(7) Willfully betraying a professional confidence;	179400
(8) Making a false, fraudulent, deceptive, or misleading	179401
statement in securing or attempting to secure a license to	179402
practice as a genetic counselor.	179403
As used in this division, "false, fraudulent, deceptive, or	179404
misleading statement" means a statement that includes a	179405
misrepresentation of fact, is likely to mislead or deceive because	179406
of a failure to disclose material facts, is intended or is likely	179407
to create false or unjustified expectations of favorable results,	179408
or includes representations or implications that in reasonable	179409
misunderstand or be deceived.	179411

(9) The obtaining of, or attempting to obtain, money or a thing of value by fraudulent misrepresentations in the course of practice;	179412 179413 179414
(10) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction for, a felony;	179415 179416 179417
(11) Commission of an act that constitutes a felony in this state, regardless of the jurisdiction in which the act was committed;	179418 179419 179420
(12) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction for, a misdemeanor committed in the course of practice;	179421 179422 179423
(13) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction for, a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude;	179424 179425 179426
(14) Commission of an act in the course of practice that constitutes a misdemeanor in this state, regardless of the jurisdiction in which the act was committed;	179427 179428 179429
(15) Commission of an act involving moral turpitude that constitutes a misdemeanor in this state, regardless of the jurisdiction in which the act was committed;	179430 179431 179432
(16) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction for violating any state or federal law regulating the possession, distribution, or use of any drug, including trafficking in drugs;	179433 179434 179435 179436 179437

revocation, or suspension of an individual's license to practice; 179443
acceptance of an individual's license surrender; denial of a 179444 license; refusal to renew or reinstate a license; imposition of 179445 probation; or issuance of an order of censure or other reprimand; 179446

(18) Violation of the conditions placed by the board on a 179447 license to practice as a genetic counselor; 179448

(19) Failure to cooperate in an investigation conducted by 179449
the board under section 4778.18 of the Revised Code, including 179450
failure to comply with a subpoena or order issued by the board or 179451
failure to answer truthfully a question presented by the board at 179452
a deposition or in written interrogatories, except that failure to 179453
cooperate with an investigation shall not constitute grounds for 179454
discipline under this section if a court of competent jurisdiction 179455
has issued an order that either quashes a subpoena or permits the 179456
individual to withhold the testimony or evidence in issue; 179457

(20) Failure to maintain the individual's status as a 179458
certified genetic counselor; 179459

(21) Failure to comply with the code of ethics established by 179460
the national society of genetic counselors. 179461

applicant because of a plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of 179463
guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 179464
lieu of conviction for an offense unless the refusal is in 179465
accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 179466

(D) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions 179467
(A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an 179468
adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 179469
in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent 179470 agreement with a genetic counselor or applicant to resolve an 179471

under it. A consent agreement, when ratified by an affirmative 179473
vote of not fewer than six members of the board, shall constitute 179474
the findings and order of the board with respect to the matter 179475 addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to ratify a 179476
consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained in the 179477
consent agreement shall be of no force or effect. 179478

A telephone conference call may be utilized for ratification 179479
of a consent agreement that revokes or suspends an individual's 179480 license. The telephone conference call shall be considered a 179481 special meeting under division (F) of section 121.22 of the 179482
Revised Code. 179483

(E) For purposes of divisions (B)(11), (14), and (15) of this 179484
section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 179485
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 179486
the Revised Code, that the applicant or license holder committed 179487
the act in question. The board shall have no jurisdiction under 179488
these divisions in cases where the trial court renders a final 179489
judgment in the license holder's favor and that judgment is based 179490
upon an adjudication on the merits. The board shall have 179491
jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court 179492 issues an order of dismissal on technical or procedural grounds. 179493

(F) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 179494
court shall have no effect on a prior board order entered under 179495
the provisions of this section or on the board's jurisdiction to 179496
take action under the provisions of this section if, based upon a 179497
plea of guilty, a judicial finding of guilt, or a judicial finding 179498
of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction, the board 179499
issued a notice of opportunity for a hearing or took other formal 179500 action under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code prior to the court's 179501
order to seal or expunge the records. The board shall not be 179502
required to seal, destroy, redact, or otherwise modify its records 179503

records. 179505

(G) For purposes of this division, any individual who holds a 179506 license to practice as a genetic counselor, or applies for a 179507 license, shall be deemed to have given consent to submit to a 179508 mental or physical examination when directed to do so in writing 179509 by the board and to have waived all objections to the 179510
admissibility of testimony or examination reports that constitute 179511
a privileged communication. 179512

(1) In enforcing division (B)(5) of this section, the board, 179513
on a showing of a possible violation, shall refer any individual 179514 who holds, or has applied for, a license to practice as a genetic 179515 counselor to the monitoring organization that conducts the 179516 confidential monitoring program established under section 4731.25 179517 of the Revised Code. The board also may compel ~~any~~ the individual 179518 who holds a license to practice as a genetic counselor or who has 179519 applied for a license to practice as a genetic counselor to submit 179520 to a mental or physical examination, or both. A physical 179521 examination may include an HIV test. The expense of the 179522
examination is the responsibility of the individual compelled to 179523
be examined. Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination 179524
or consent to an HIV test ordered by the board constitutes an 179525
admission of the allegations against the individual unless the 179526
failure is due to circumstances beyond the individual's control, 179527
and a default and final order may be entered without the taking of 179528 testimony or presentation of evidence. If the board finds a 179529 genetic counselor unable to practice because of the reasons set 179530 forth in division (B)(5) of this section, the board shall require 179531 the genetic counselor to submit to care, counseling, or treatment 179532
by physicians approved or designated by the board, as a condition 179533 for an initial, continued, reinstated, or renewed license to 179534 practice. An individual affected by this division shall be 179535 afforded an opportunity to demonstrate to the board the ability to 179536 resume practicing in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care. 179537 179538

179550
179552

179562

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license suspended under this division, the genetic counselor shall demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care. The demonstration shall include the following: 179563
179564
179565
179566
179567

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 179568

has successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 179570

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 179571
contract or consent agreement; 179572

(c) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 179573
ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 179574
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 179575
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 179576
individuals or providers approved by the board for making such 179577
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 179578

The board may reinstate a license suspended under this 179579
division after such demonstration and after the individual has 179580
entered into a written consent agreement. 179581

When the impaired genetic counselor resumes practice, the 179582 board shall require continued monitoring of the genetic counselor. 179583
The monitoring shall include monitoring of compliance with the 179584 written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or 179585 with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, on 179586
termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for 179587
at least two years of annual written progress reports made under 179588 penalty of falsification stating whether the genetic counselor has 179589
maintained sobriety. 179590

(H) If the secretary and supervising member determine both of 179591
the following, they may recommend that the board suspend an 179592
individual's license to practice without a prior hearing: 179593

(1) That there is clear and convincing evidence that a 179594 genetic counselor has violated division (B) of this section; 179595

(2) That the individual's continued practice presents a 179596

the board. The board, on review of the allegations and by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call may be utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote on the summary suspension.

The board shall issue a written order of suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code. The order shall not be subject to suspension by the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 of the Revised Code. If the genetic counselor requests an adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date set for the hearing shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier than seven days, after the genetic counselor requests the hearing, unless otherwise agreed to by both the board and the genetic counselor.

A summary suspension imposed under this division shall remain in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final adjudicative order issued by the board pursuant to this section and Chapter 119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board shall issue its final adjudicative order within sixty days after completion of its hearing. Failure to issue the order within sixty days shall result in dissolution of the summary suspension order, but shall not invalidate any subsequent, final adjudicative order.

Revised Code to determine whether the individual committed the act 179631
in question. Notice of opportunity for hearing shall be given in 179632 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. If the board 179633 finds, pursuant to an adjudication held under this division, that 179634
the individual committed the act, or if no hearing is requested, 179635
it may order any of the sanctions specified in division (B) of 179636
this section. 179637

(J) The license to practice as a genetic counselor and the 179638 counselor's practice in this state are automatically suspended as 179639 of the date the genetic counselor pleads guilty to, is found by a 179640 judge or jury to be guilty of, or is subject to a judicial finding 179641 of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction in this 179642 state or treatment of intervention in lieu of conviction in 179643 another jurisdiction for any of the following criminal offenses in 179644 this state or a substantially equivalent criminal offense in 179645 another jurisdiction: aggravated murder, murder, voluntary 179646 manslaughter, felonious assault, kidnapping, rape, sexual battery, 179647 gross sexual imposition, aggravated arson, aggravated robbery, or 179648 aggravated burglary. Continued practice after the suspension shall 179649 be considered practicing without a license. 179650

suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 179652
section 119.07 of the Revised Code. If an individual whose license 179653
is suspended under this division fails to make a timely request 179654
for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the 179655
board shall enter a final order permanently revoking the 179656
individual's license to practice. 179657

(K) In any instance in which the board is required by Chapter 179658
119. of the Revised Code to give notice of opportunity for hearing 179659
and the individual subject to the notice does not timely request a 179660
hearing in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the 179661

affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) or (B) of this section.

(L) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this section resulting in a suspension shall be accompanied by a written statement of the conditions under which the license of the genetic counselor may be reinstated. The board shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing conditions to be imposed for reinstatement. Reinstatement of a license suspended pursuant to division (B) of this section requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board.

(N) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, all of the following apply:

(1) The surrender of a license to practice as a genetic counselor is not effective unless or until accepted by the board. A telephone conference call may be utilized for acceptance of the surrender of an individual's license. The telephone conference call shall be considered a special meeting under division (F) of section 121.22 of the Revised Code. Reinstatement of a license surrendered to the board requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board.

(2) An application made under this chapter for a license to practice may not be withdrawn without approval of the board. 179695

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license in accordance with section 4778.06 of the Revised Code shall not remove or limit the board's jurisdiction to take disciplinary action under this section against the individual. 179697

Sec. 4730.14. (A) A license to practice as a physician 179754 assistant shall be valid for a two-year period unless revoked or 179755 suspended, shall expire on the date that is two years after the 179756 date of issuance, and may be renewed for additional two-year 179757 periods in accordance with this section. A person seeking to renew 179758 a license shall apply to the state medical board for renewal prior 179759 to the license's expiration date. The board shall provide renewal 179760 notices to license holders at least one month prior to the 179761 expiration date. 179762

Applications shall be submitted to the board in a manner 179763 prescribed by the board. Each application shall be accompanied by 179764 a biennial renewal fee of two hundred dollars. The board shall 179765 deposit the fees in accordance with section 4731.24 of the Revised 179766
Code. 179767

The applicant shall report any criminal offense that 179768 constitutes grounds for refusing to issue a license to practice 179769 under section 4730.25 of the Revised Code to which the applicant 179770 has pleaded guilty, of which the applicant has been found guilty, 179771 or for which the applicant has been found eligible for 179772 intervention in lieu of conviction, since last signing an 179773 application for a license to practice as a physician assistant. 179774

(B) To be eligible for renewal of a license, an applicant is 179775 subject to all of the following: 179776

(1) The applicant must certify to the board that the 179777 applicant has maintained certification by the national commission 179778 on certification of physician assistants or a successor 179779 organization that is recognized by the board by meeting the 179780 standards to hold current certification from the commission or its 179781 successor, including passing periodic recertification 179782 examinations; 179783

(2) Except as provided in section 5903.12 of the Revised 179784

Code, the applicant must certify to the board that the applicant 179785 is in compliance with the continuing medical education 179786 requirements necessary to hold current certification from the 179787

(C) If an applicant submits a complete renewal application 179792 and qualifies for renewal pursuant to division (B) of this 179793 section, the board shall issue to the applicant a renewed license 179794 to practice as a physician assistant. 179795

(D) The board may require a random sample of physician 179796 authority to conduct investigations pursuant to section 4730.25 of 179805

the Revised Code. 179806

(E) A license to practice that is not renewed on or before 179807 its expiration date is automatically suspended on its expiration 179808

(F) If a license has been suspended pursuant to division (E) 179812 of this section for two years or less, it may be reinstated. The 179813 board shall reinstate a license suspended for failure to renew 179814 restore a license suspended for failure to renew upon an 179820 applicant's submission of a restoration application, the biennial 179821 renewal fee, and any applicable monetary penalty and compliance 179822 with sections 4776.01 to 4776.04 of the Revised Code. The board 179823 shall not restore to an applicant a license to practice as a 179824 physician assistant unless the board, in its discretion, decides 179825 that the results of the criminal records check do not make the 179826 applicant ineligible for a license issued pursuant to section 179827

The penalty for reinstatement shall be fifty dollars and the 179829 penalty for restoration shall be one hundred dollars. The board 179830 shall deposit penalties in accordance with section 4731.24 of the 179831
Revised Code. 179832

(G)(1) If, through a random sample conducted under division 179833
(D) of this section or through any other means, the board finds 179834 that an individual who certified completion of the continuing 179835 medical education required to renew, reinstate, ~~or~~ restore, or 179836 reactivate a license to practice did not complete the requisite 179837 continuing medical education, the board may do either of the 179838
following: 179839

section 4730.25 of the Revised Code, impose a civil penalty, or 179841 an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code and by an 179847 affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members. 179848

(3) A civil penalty imposed under division (G)(1)(a) of this 179849

with section 4731.24 of the Revised Code. 179853

Sec. 4730.141. (A) An individual who holds a current, valid 179854 license issued under this chapter to practice as a physician 179855 assistant and who retires voluntarily from practice may request 179856 that the state medical board place the individual's license on 179857 retired status. 179858

with the federal drug enforcement administration; 179874

(d) That the applicant does not have any criminal charges 179875

state, another state, or the United States; 179879

(f) That the applicant does not have any complaints pending 179880 with the board; 179881

(g) That the applicant is not, at the time of application, 179882

(C) If the board determines that an applicant meets the 179893 requirements of division (B) of this section, the board shall 179894 place the applicant's license on retired status. The license 179895 remains on retired status for the life of the license holder, 179896 unless suspended, revoked, or reactivated, and does not require 179897 renewal. 179898

(D) During the period in which a license is on retired 179899

(1) The license holder is prohibited from practicing as a 179901 physician assistant under any circumstance. 179902

(2) The license holder is not required to complete the 179903

the Revised Code. 179905

(3) The license holder is prohibited from using the license to obtain a license to practice as a physician assistant in another state, whether by endorsement or reciprocity or through a licensure compact. 179906
179907
179909

(4) The license holder may use a title authorized for the holder's license, but only if "retired" also is included in the title. 179910
179912

(5) In the case of a license holder who was issued a prescriber number by the board as part of the holder's physician-delegated prescriptive authority, the number, like the license, is placed on retired status. 179913
179914
179916

179918
179920

(1) The individual seeking to reactivate the license applies to the board in the form and manner prescribed by the board. 179921
179922

179924
179926

(3) The applicant complies with sections 4776.01 to 4776.04 of the Revised Code. 179927
179928

(4) The applicant pays a reactivation fee in an amount equal to the sum of the biennial renewal fee and restoration penalty described in section 4730.14 of the Revised Code. 179929
179930
179931

The board shall not consider an application to reactivate a license complete until the board receives the fee described in this division. On receipt of a fee, the board shall deposit the fee in accordance with section 4731.24 of the Revised Code. 179932
179933
179935

(F) The board shall reactivate a license placed on retired status if the conditions of division (E) of this section have been satisfied and the board, in its discretion, determines that the results of the criminal records check conducted pursuant to sections 4776.01 to 4776.04 of the Revised Code do not make the applicant ineligible for active status. 179936
179937
179939
179941

179943
179946

The board also may take disciplinary action against the holder of a license placed on retired status if the holder practices under the license, uses the license to obtain licensure as a physician assistant in another state, or uses a title that does not reflect the holder's retired status. 179947
179948
179951

179953
179955

(H) The board may adopt rules to implement and enforce this section. The rules shall be adopted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 179956

(29) Failure to comply with terms of a consult agreement entered into with a pharmacist pursuant to section 4729.39 of the	180087 180088

(C) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions 180090
(A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an 180091
adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 180092
in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent 180093 agreement with a physician assistant or applicant to resolve an 180094 allegation of a violation of this chapter or any rule adopted 180095
under it. A consent agreement, when ratified by an affirmative 180096
vote of not fewer than six members of the board, shall constitute 180097
the findings and order of the board with respect to the matter 180098
addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to ratify a 180099 consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained in the 180100
consent agreement shall be of no force or effect. 180101

(D) For purposes of divisions (B)(12), (15), and (16) of this 180102
section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 180103
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 180104
the Revised Code, that the applicant or license holder committed 180105
the act in question. The board shall have no jurisdiction under 180106
these divisions in cases where the trial court renders a final 180107
judgment in the license holder's favor and that judgment is based 180108
upon an adjudication on the merits. The board shall have 180109
jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court 180110 issues an order of dismissal upon technical or procedural grounds. 180111

(E) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 180112
court shall have no effect upon a prior board order entered under 180113
the provisions of this section or upon the board's jurisdiction to 180114
take action under the provisions of this section if, based upon a 180115
plea of guilty, a judicial finding of guilt, or a judicial finding 180116
of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction, the board 180117
issued a notice of opportunity for a hearing prior to the court's 180118
order to seal or expunge the records. The board shall not be 180119
required to seal, destroy, redact, or otherwise modify its records 180120

to reflect the court's sealing or expungement of conviction 180121
records. 180122

(F) For purposes of this division, any individual who holds a 180123 license issued under this chapter, or applies for a license issued 180124
under this chapter, shall be deemed to have given consent to 180125
submit to a mental or physical examination when directed to do so 180126
in writing by the board and to have waived all objections to the 180127
a privileged communication. 180129

(1) In enforcing division (B)(4) of this section, the board, 180130 upon a showing of a possible violation, may compel any individual 180131 who holds a license issued under this chapter or who has applied 180132 for a license pursuant to this chapter to submit to a mental 180133 examination, physical examination, including an HIV test, or both 180134
a mental and physical examination. The expense of the examination 180135 is the responsibility of the individual compelled to be examined. 180136
Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination or consent 180137
to an HIV test ordered by the board constitutes an admission of 180138
the allegations against the individual unless the failure is due 180139
to circumstances beyond the individual's control, and a default 180140
and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or 180141
presentation of evidence. If the board finds a physician assistant 180142 unable to practice because of the reasons set forth in division 180143
(B)(4) of this section, the board shall require the physician 180144
assistant to submit to care, counseling, or treatment by 180145
physicians approved or designated by the board, as a condition for 180146
an initial, continued, reinstated, or renewed license. An 180147
individual affected under this division shall be afforded an 180148
opportunity to demonstrate to the board the ability to resume 180149 practicing in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards 180150
of care. 180151

(2) For purposes of division (B)(5) of this section, if the 180152

board has reason to believe that any individual who holds a 180153 license issued under this chapter or any applicant for a license 180154 suffers such impairment, the board may compel the individual to 180155 submit to a mental or physical examination, or both. The expense 180156 of the examination is the responsibility of the individual 180157
compelled to be examined. Any mental or physical examination 180158 required under this division shall be undertaken by a treatment 180159
chosen by the board. 180161

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 180163
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 180164
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 180165
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 180166
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 180167
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 180168
license or deny the individual's application and shall require the 180169
individual, as a condition for initial, continued, reinstated, or 180170
renewed licensure, to submit to treatment. 180171

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license 180172
suspended under this division, the physician assistant shall 180173 demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice or 180174
prescribing in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards 180175
of care. The demonstration shall include the following: 180176

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 180177
section 4731.25 of the Revised Code that the individual has 180178
successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 180179

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 180180
contract or consent agreement; 180181

(c) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 180182
ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 180183

been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 180184
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 180185
individuals or providers approved by the board for making such 180186
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 180187

The board may reinstate a license suspended under this 180188
division after such demonstration and after the individual has 180189
entered into a written consent agreement. 180190

prescribing, the board shall require continued monitoring of the 180192
physician assistant. The monitoring shall include compliance with 180193
the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or 180194
with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, upon 180195
termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for 180196
at least two years of annual written progress reports made under 180197 penalty of falsification stating whether the physician assistant 180198
has maintained sobriety. 180199

(G) If the secretary and supervising member determine that 180200
there is clear and convincing evidence that a physician assistant 180201
has violated division (B) of this section and that the 180202
individual's continued practice or prescribing presents a danger 180203
of immediate and serious harm to the public, they may recommend 180204
that the board suspend the individual's license without a prior 180205
by the board. 180207

The board, upon review of those allegations and by an 180208
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding 180209
the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license 180210
without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call may be 180211
utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote on the 180212
summary suspension. 180213

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 180215
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 180217
of the Revised Code. If the physician assistant requests an 180218 adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date set for the hearing 180219
shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier than seven days, 180220
after the physician assistant requests the hearing, unless 180221
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the license holder. 180222

A summary suspension imposed under this division shall remain 180223
in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final adjudicative 180224
order issued by the board pursuant to this section and Chapter 180225
119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board shall issue 180226
its final adjudicative order within sixty days after completion of 180227
its hearing. Failure to issue the order within sixty days shall 180228
result in dissolution of the summary suspension order, but shall 180229
not invalidate any subsequent, final adjudicative order. 180230

(H) If the board takes action under division (B)(11), (13), 180231
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 180233
of conviction is overturned on appeal, upon exhaustion of the 180234
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 180235
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. 180236
Upon receipt of a petition and supporting court documents, the 180237 board shall reinstate the individual's license. The board may then 180238 hold an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to 180239 determine whether the individual committed the act in question. 180240
Notice of opportunity for hearing shall be given in accordance 180241
with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. If the board finds, 180242 pursuant to an adjudication held under this division, that the 180243
individual committed the act, or if no hearing is requested, it 180244
may order any of the sanctions identified under division (B) of 180245
this section. 180246

(I) The license to practice issued to a physician assistant 180247
and the physician assistant's practice in this state are 180248 automatically suspended as of the date the physician assistant 180249
pleads guilty to, is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or 180250 is subject to a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention 180251
in lieu of conviction in this state or treatment or intervention 180252
in lieu of conviction in another state for any of the following 180253
criminal offenses in this state or a substantially equivalent 180254
criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated murder, 180255
murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, kidnapping, 180256
rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, aggravated arson, 180257
aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. Continued practice 180258
license. 180260

The board shall notify the individual subject to the 180261
suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 180262
section 119.07 of the Revised Code. If an individual whose license 180263
is suspended under this division fails to make a timely request 180264
for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the 180265
board shall enter a final order permanently revoking the 180266
individual's license to practice. 180267

(J) In any instance in which the board is required by Chapter 180268
119. of the Revised Code to give notice of opportunity for hearing 180269
and the individual subject to the notice does not timely request a 180270
hearing in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the 180271
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 180273 order that contains the board's findings. In that final order, the 180274 board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) 180275
or (B) of this section. 180276

(K) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this 180277 section resulting in a suspension shall be accompanied by a 180278

assistant's license may be reinstated. The board shall adopt rules 180280 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing 180281
license suspended pursuant to division (B) of this section 180283
requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the 180284
board. 180285

(L) When the board refuses to grant or issue to an applicant 180286
a license to practice as a physician assistant, revokes an 180287
individual's license, refuses to renew an individual's license, or 180288
refuses to reinstate an individual's license, the board may 180289 specify that its action is permanent. An individual subject to a 180290
permanent action taken by the board is forever thereafter 180291
ineligible to hold the license and the board shall not accept an 180292

division affects the immunity from civil liability conferred by 180416
section 2305.33 or 4731.62 of the Revised Code upon a physician 180417
who makes a report in accordance with section 2305.33 or notifies 180418

probability will cause an ordinarily prudent person to 180435
misunderstand or be deceived. 180436

(6) A departure from, or the failure to conform to, minimal 180437 standards of care of similar practitioners under the same or 180438
similar circumstances, whether or not actual injury to a patient 180439
is established; 180440

(7) Representing, with the purpose of obtaining compensation 180441
or other advantage as personal gain or for any other person, that 180442 anything of value by fraudulent misrepresentations in the course 180446

of practice; 180447

constitutes a misdemeanor in this state, regardless of the 180458
jurisdiction in which the act was committed; 180459

(13) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or 180460

a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction for, a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; 180461 180462

180475
180476
180477
180478
180479
180480
180481
180482
180484

For purposes of this division, a "provision of a code of ethics of a national professional organization" does not include any provision that would preclude the making of a report by a physician of an employee's use of a drug of abuse, or of a condition of an employee other than one involving the use of a drug of abuse, to the employer of the employee as described in division (B) of section 2305.33 of the Revised Code. Nothing in 180485
180486
180488
180489
180490
180491

this division affects the immunity from civil liability conferred 180492
by that section upon a physician who makes either type of report 180493
in accordance with division (B) of that section. As used in this 180494 division, "employee," "employer," and "physician" have the same 180495
meanings as in section 2305.33 of the Revised Code. 180496

(19) Inability to practice according to acceptable and 180497
prevailing standards of care by reason of mental illness or 180498
physical illness, including, but not limited to, physical 180499
perceptive skills. 180501

In enforcing this division, the board, upon a showing of a 180502 possible violation, may compel any individual authorized to 180503 practice by this chapter or who has submitted an application 180504 pursuant to this chapter to submit to a mental examination, 180505 physical examination, including an HIV test, or both a mental and 180506 a physical examination. The expense of the examination is the 180507 responsibility of the individual compelled to be examined. Failure 180508 to submit to a mental or physical examination or consent to an HIV 180509 test ordered by the board constitutes an admission of the 180510 allegations against the individual unless the failure is due to 180511 circumstances beyond the individual's control, and a default and 180512 final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or 180513 presentation of evidence. If the board finds an individual unable 180514 to practice because of the reasons set forth in this division, the 180515 board shall require the individual to submit to care, counseling, 180516 or treatment by physicians approved or designated by the board, as 180517 a condition for initial, continued, reinstated, or renewed 180518 authority to practice. An individual affected under this division 180519 shall be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate to the board the 180520 ability to resume practice in compliance with acceptable and 180521 prevailing standards under the provisions of the individual's 180522 license or certificate. For the purpose of this division, any 180523 individual who applies for or receives a license or certificate to 180524 practice under this chapter accepts the privilege of practicing in 180525

to submit to a mental or physical examination when directed to do 180527
so in writing by the board, and to have waived all objections to 180528
constitute a privileged communication. 180530

(20) Except as provided in division (F)(1)(b) of section 180531
under section 4731.225 of the Revised Code, and subject to section 180533 4731.226 of the Revised Code, violating or attempting to violate, 180534
directly or indirectly, or assisting in or abetting the violation 180535
of, or conspiring to violate, any provisions of this chapter or 180536
any rule promulgated by the board. 180537

violation of, assisting in or abetting the violation of, or a 180539
conspiracy to violate, any provision of this chapter or any rule 180540 adopted by the board that would preclude the making of a report by 180541
a physician of an employee's use of a drug of abuse, or of a 180542 condition of an employee other than one involving the use of a 180543 drug of abuse, to the employer of the employee as described in 180544
division (B) of section 2305.33 of the Revised Code. Nothing in 180545
this division affects the immunity from civil liability conferred 180546
in accordance with division (B) of that section. As used in this 180548 division, "employee," "employer," and "physician" have the same 180549
meanings as in section 2305.33 of the Revised Code. 180550

(21) The violation of section 3701.79 of the Revised Code or 180551
of any abortion rule adopted by the director of health pursuant to 180552
section 3701.341 of the Revised Code; 180553

(22) Any of the following actions taken by an agency 180554

individual to practice a health care occupation or provide health care services in this state or another jurisdiction, for any reason other than the nonpayment of fees: the limitation, revocation, or suspension of an individual's license to practice; acceptance of an individual's license surrender; denial of a license; refusal to renew or reinstate a license; imposition of probation; or issuance of an order of censure or other reprimand;

(23) The violation of section 2919.12 of the Revised Code or the performance or inducement of an abortion upon a pregnant woman with actual knowledge that the conditions specified in division (B) of section 2317.56 of the Revised Code have not been satisfied or with a heedless indifference as to whether those conditions have been satisfied, unless an affirmative defense as specified in division (H)(2) of that section would apply in a civil action authorized by division (H)(1) of that section;

(24) The revocation, suspension, restriction, reduction, or termination of clinical privileges by the United States department of defense or department of veterans affairs or the termination or suspension of a certificate of registration to prescribe drugs by the drug enforcement administration of the United States department of justice;

(25) Termination or suspension from participation in the medicare or medicaid programs by the department of health and human services or other responsible agency;

For the purposes of this division, any individual authorized to practice by this chapter accepts the privilege of practicing in this state subject to supervision by the board. By filing an application for or holding a license or certificate to practice 180587

under this chapter, an individual shall be deemed to have given 180588
consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when ordered 180589
to do so by the board in writing, and to have waived all 180590
reports that constitute privileged communications. 180592

If it has reason to believe that any individual authorized to 180593
practice by this chapter or any applicant for licensure or 180594 certification to practice suffers such impairment, the board may 180595 compel the individual to submit to a mental or physical 180596 examination, or both. The expense of the examination is the 180597 responsibility of the individual compelled to be examined. Any 180598
mental or physical examination required under this division shall 180599
be undertaken by a treatment provider or physician who is 180600 qualified to conduct the examination and who is chosen by the 180601
board. 180602

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 180604
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 180605
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 180606
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 180607
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 180608
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 180609
license or certificate or deny the individual's application and 180610 shall require the individual, as a condition for initial, 180611
continued, reinstated, or renewed licensure or certification to 180612
practice, to submit to treatment. 180613

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license 180614
or certificate suspended under this division, the impaired 180615 practitioner shall demonstrate to the board the ability to resume 180616
practice in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of 180617
care under the provisions of the practitioner's license or 180618 certificate. The demonstration shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under section 4731.25 of the Revised Code that the individual has successfully completed any required inpatient treatment;

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare contract or consent agreement;

The board may reinstate a license or certificate suspended under this division after that demonstration and after the individual has entered into a written consent agreement.

When the impaired practitioner resumes practice, the board shall require continued monitoring of the individual. The monitoring shall include, but not be limited to, compliance with the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, upon termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for at least two years of annual written progress reports made under penalty of perjury stating whether the individual has maintained sobriety.

(27) A second or subsequent violation of section 4731.66 or 4731.69 of the Revised Code;

(28) Except as provided in division (N) of this section:

(a) Waiving the payment of all or any part of a deductible or copayment that a patient, pursuant to a health insurance or health

services, otherwise would be required to pay if the waiver is used 180650
as an enticement to a patient or group of patients to receive 180651
health care services from that individual; 180652

(b) Advertising that the individual will waive the payment of 180653
all or any part of a deductible or copayment that a patient, 180654 pursuant to a health insurance or health care policy, contract, or 180655 plan that covers the individual's services, otherwise would be 180656 required to pay. 180657

the Revised Code; 180660

(30) Failure to provide notice to, and receive acknowledgment 180661 of the notice from, a patient when required by section 4731.143 of 180662 the Revised Code prior to providing nonemergency professional 180663 services, or failure to maintain that notice in the patient's 180664 medical record; 180665

(31) Failure of a physician supervising a physician assistant 180666

chapter; 180669

(32) Failure of a physician or podiatrist to enter into a 180670 standard care arrangement with a clinical nurse specialist, 180671 certified nurse-midwife, or certified nurse practitioner with whom 180672 the physician or podiatrist is in collaboration pursuant to 180673 section 4731.27 of the Revised Code or failure to fulfill the 180674 responsibilities of collaboration after entering into a standard 180675 care arrangement; 180676

(33) Failure to comply with the terms of a consult agreement 180677 the board under division (F) of this section, including failure to 180681 comply with a subpoena or order issued by the board or failure to 180682 answer truthfully a question presented by the board in an 180683 investigative interview, an investigative office conference, at a 180684 deposition, or in written interrogatories, except that failure to 180685

cooperate with an investigation shall not constitute grounds for 180686
discipline under this section if a court of competent jurisdiction 180687
has issued an order that either quashes a subpoena or permits the 180688
individual to withhold the testimony or evidence in issue; 180689

(35) Failure to supervise an acupuncturist in accordance with 180690
Chapter 4762. of the Revised Code and the board's rules for 180691

(50) Practicing at a facility, clinic, or other location that 180745
is subject to licensure as a category III terminal distributor of 180746

hospital when a child is born alive. 180763

(C) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions 180764
(A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an 180765
adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 180766
in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent 180767
agreement with an individual to resolve an allegation of a 180768 violation of this chapter or any rule adopted under it. A consent 180769 agreement, when ratified by an affirmative vote of not fewer than 180770
six members of the board, shall constitute the findings and order 180771

agreement. If the board refuses to ratify a consent agreement, the 180773 admissions and findings contained in the consent agreement shall 180774
be of no force or effect. 180775

A telephone conference call may be utilized for ratification 180776
of a consent agreement that revokes or suspends an individual's 180777
license or certificate to practice or certificate to recommend. 180778
The telephone conference call shall be considered a special 180779
meeting under division (F) of section 121.22 of the Revised Code. 180780

If the board takes disciplinary action against an individual 180781
under division (B) of this section for a second or subsequent plea 180782
of guilty to, or judicial finding of guilt of, a violation of 180783
section 2919.123 or 2919.124 of the Revised Code, the disciplinary 180784
action shall consist of a suspension of the individual's license 180785
or certificate to practice for a period of at least one year or, 180786
if determined appropriate by the board, a more serious sanction 180787
involving the individual's license or certificate to practice. Any 180788 consent agreement entered into under this division with an 180789 individual that pertains to a second or subsequent plea of guilty 180790
to, or judicial finding of guilt of, a violation of that section 180791
shall provide for a suspension of the individual's license or 180792
certificate to practice for a period of at least one year or, if 180793 determined appropriate by the board, a more serious sanction 180794
involving the individual's license or certificate to practice. 180795

(D) For purposes of divisions (B)(10), (12), and (14) of this 180796
section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 180797
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 180798
the Revised Code, that the individual committed the act. The board 180799
does not have jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial 180800
court renders a final judgment in the individual's favor and that 180801 judgment is based upon an adjudication on the merits. The board 180802
has jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial court issues 180803

an order of dismissal upon technical or procedural grounds. 180804

(E) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 180805
court shall have no effect upon a prior board order entered under 180806
this section or upon the board's jurisdiction to take action under 180807
this section if, based upon a plea of guilty, a judicial finding 180808
of guilt, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 180809
lieu of conviction, the board issued a notice of opportunity for a 180810
hearing prior to the court's order to seal or expunge the records. 180811
The board shall not be required to seal, expunge, destroy, redact, 180812 or otherwise modify its records to reflect the court's sealing of 180813
conviction records. 180814

(F)(1) The board shall investigate evidence that appears to 180815
show that a person has violated any provision of this chapter or 180816 any rule adopted under it. Any person may report to the board in a 180817 signed writing any information that the person may have that 180818 appears to show a violation of any provision of this chapter or 180819
any rule adopted under it. In the absence of bad faith, any person 180820 who reports information of that nature or who testifies before the 180821 board in any adjudication conducted under Chapter 119. of the 180822 Revised Code shall not be liable in damages in a civil action as a 180823 result of the report or testimony. Each complaint or allegation of 180824 a violation received by the board shall be assigned a case number 180825 and shall be recorded by the board. 180826

(2) Investigations of alleged violations of this chapter or 180827 any rule adopted under it shall be supervised by the supervising 180828 member elected by the board in accordance with section 4731.02 of 180829 the Revised Code and by the secretary as provided in section 180830 4731.39 of the Revised Code. The president may designate another 180831 member of the board to supervise the investigation in place of the 180832 supervising member. No member of the board who supervises the 180833 investigation of a case shall participate in further adjudication 180834 of the case. 180835

(3) In investigating a possible violation of this chapter or any rule adopted under this chapter, or in conducting an inspection under division (E) of section 4731.054 of the Revised Code, the board may question witnesses, conduct interviews, administer oaths, order the taking of depositions, inspect and copy any books, accounts, papers, records, or documents, issue subpoenas, and compel the attendance of witnesses and production of books, accounts, papers, records, documents, and testimony, except that a subpoena for patient record information shall not be issued without consultation with the attorney general's office and approval of the secretary and supervising member of the board.

(b) On failure to comply with any subpoena issued by the board and after reasonable notice to the person being subpoenaed, the board may move for an order compelling the production of persons or records pursuant to the Rules of Civil Procedure.

be deemed served on the date delivery is made or the date the 180869
refuses to accept the subpoena or is not located, service may be 180871
made to an attorney who notifies the board that the attorney is 180872
representing the person. 180873

(d) A sheriff's deputy who serves a subpoena shall receive 180874
the same fees as a sheriff. Each witness who appears before the 180875 board in obedience to a subpoena shall receive the fees and 180876
mileage provided for under section 119.094 of the Revised Code. 180877

(4) All hearings, investigations, and inspections of the 180878
board shall be considered civil actions for the purposes of 180879
section 2305.252 of the Revised Code. 180880

(5) A report required to be submitted to the board under this 180881
chapter, a complaint, or information received by the board 180882
pursuant to an investigation or pursuant to an inspection under 180883
division (E) of section 4731.054 of the Revised Code is 180884
confidential and not subject to discovery in any civil action. 180885

The board shall conduct all investigations or inspections and 180886
proceedings in a manner that protects the confidentiality of 180887 patients and persons who file complaints with the board. The board 180888
shall not make public the names or any other identifying 180889
information about patients or complainants unless proper consent 180890 is given or, in the case of a patient, a waiver of the patient 180891 privilege exists under division (B) of section 2317.02 of the 180892
not required if the board possesses reliable and substantial 180894
evidence that no bona fide physician-patient relationship exists. 180895

The board may share any information it receives pursuant to 180896
an investigation or inspection, including patient records and 180897
patient record information, with law enforcement agencies, other 180898

prosecuting, adjudicating, or investigating alleged violations of 180900 statutes or administrative rules. An agency or board that receives 180901
the information shall comply with the same requirements regarding 180902
confidentiality as those with which the state medical board must 180903
comply, notwithstanding any conflicting provision of the Revised 180904
Code or procedure of the agency or board that applies when it is 180905 dealing with other information in its possession. In a judicial 180906 proceeding, the information may be admitted into evidence only in 180907
accordance with the Rules of Evidence, but the court shall require 180908
that appropriate measures are taken to ensure that confidentiality 180909
is maintained with respect to any part of the information that 180910
contains names or other identifying information about patients or 180911 complainants whose confidentiality was protected by the state 180912
medical board when the information was in the board's possession. 180913 Measures to ensure confidentiality that may be taken by the court 180914 include sealing its records or deleting specific information from 180915
its records. 180916

(6) On a quarterly basis, the board shall prepare a report 180917
that documents the disposition of all cases during the preceding 180918
three months. The report shall contain the following information 180919
for each case with which the board has completed its activities: 180920

(a) The case number assigned to the complaint or alleged 180921
violation; 180922

(b) The type of license or certificate to practice, if any, 180923
held by the individual against whom the complaint is directed; 180924

(c) A description of the allegations contained in the 180925
complaint; 180926

(d) The disposition of the case. 180927

shall be prepared in a manner that protects the identity of each 180929 person involved in each case. The report shall be a public record 180930

under section 149.43 of the Revised Code. 180931

(G) If the secretary and supervising member determine both of 180932
the following, they may recommend that the board suspend an 180933
individual's license or certificate to practice or certificate to 180934
recommend without a prior hearing: 180935

(1) That there is clear and convincing evidence that an 180936
individual has violated division (B) of this section; 180937

(2) That the individual's continued practice presents a 180938
danger of immediate and serious harm to the public. 180939

Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration by 180940
the board. The board, upon review of those allegations and by an 180941
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding 180942
the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license or 180943
certificate without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call 180944
may be utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote 180945
on the summary suspension. 180946

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 180948
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 180950
of the Revised Code. If the individual subject to the summary 180951
suspension requests an adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date 180952
set for the hearing shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier 180953
than seven days, after the individual requests the hearing, unless 180954
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the individual. 180955

remain in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final 180957
adjudicative order issued by the board pursuant to this section 180958
and Chapter 119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board 180959 shall issue its final adjudicative order within seventy-five days 180960

after completion of its hearing. A failure to issue the order 180961
within seventy-five days shall result in dissolution of the 180962
summary suspension order but shall not invalidate any subsequent, 180963
final adjudicative order. 180964

(H) If the board takes action under division (B)(9), (11), or 180965
(13) of this section and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 180966
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 180967
of conviction is overturned on appeal, upon exhaustion of the 180968
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 180969
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. 180970
Upon receipt of a petition of that nature and supporting court 180971
documents, the board shall reinstate the individual's license or 180972
certificate to practice. The board may then hold an adjudication 180973
under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to determine whether the 180974
individual committed the act in question. Notice of an opportunity 180975 for a hearing shall be given in accordance with Chapter 119. of 180976
the Revised Code. If the board finds, pursuant to an adjudication 180977 held under this division, that the individual committed the act or 180978
if no hearing is requested, the board may order any of the 180979
sanctions identified under division (B) of this section. 180980

(I) The license or certificate to practice issued to an 180981
individual under this chapter and the individual's practice in 180982
this state are automatically suspended as of the date of the 180983 individual's second or subsequent plea of guilty to, or judicial 180984
finding of guilt of, a violation of section 2919.123 or 2919.124 180985
of the Revised Code. In addition, the license or certificate to 180986 practice or certificate to recommend issued to an individual under 180987
this chapter and the individual's practice in this state are 180988
automatically suspended as of the date the individual pleads 180989
guilty to, is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is 180990
subject to a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 180991
lieu of conviction in this state or treatment or intervention in 180992

lieu of conviction in another jurisdiction for any of the 180993
following criminal offenses in this state or a substantially 180994
equivalent criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated 180995
murder, murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, 180996
kidnapping, rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, 180997
aggravated arson, aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. 180998
Continued practice after suspension shall be considered practicing 180999
without a license or certificate. 181000

suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 181002
section 119.07 of the Revised Code. If an individual whose license 181003
or certificate is automatically suspended under this division 181004 fails to make a timely request for an adjudication under Chapter 181005 119. of the Revised Code, the board shall do whichever of the 181006
following is applicable: 181007

(1) If the automatic suspension under this division is for a 181008
second or subsequent plea of guilty to, or judicial finding of 181009 guilt of, a violation of section 2919.123 or 2919.124 of the 181010 Revised Code, the board shall enter an order suspending the 181011 individual's license or certificate to practice for a period of at 181012 least one year or, if determined appropriate by the board, 181013 imposing a more serious sanction involving the individual's 181014 license or certificate to practice. 181015

(2) In all circumstances in which division (I)(1) of this 181016 section does not apply, enter a final order permanently revoking 181017 the individual's license or certificate to practice. 181018

(J) If the board is required by Chapter 119. of the Revised 181019
Code to give notice of an opportunity for a hearing and if the 181020
individual subject to the notice does not timely request a hearing 181021
in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the board 181022
is not required to hold a hearing, but may adopt, by an 181023
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 181024

order that contains the board's findings. In that final order, the board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) or (B) of this section.

(K) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this section resulting in a suspension from practice shall be accompanied by a written statement of the conditions under which the individual's license or certificate to practice may be reinstated. The board shall adopt rules governing conditions to be imposed for reinstatement. Reinstatement of a license or certificate suspended pursuant to division (B) of this section requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board.

(M) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, all of the following apply:

(1) The surrender of a license or certificate issued under this chapter shall not be effective unless or until accepted by the board. A telephone conference call may be utilized for acceptance of the surrender of an individual's license or certificate to practice. The telephone conference call shall be considered a special meeting under division (F) of section 121.22 of the Revised Code. Reinstatement of a license or certificate surrendered to the board requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board. 181057 181058

(2) An application for a license or certificate made under the provisions of this chapter may not be withdrawn without approval of the board. 181059
181061

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license or certificate to practice in accordance with this chapter or a certificate to recommend in accordance with rules adopted under section 4731.301 of the Revised Code ~~shall~~ does not remove or limit the board's jurisdiction to take any disciplinary action under this section against the individual. 181062
181063
181065
181067

(4) The placement of an individual's license on retired status, as described in section 4731.283 of the Revised Code, does not remove or limit the board's jurisdiction to take any disciplinary action against the individual with regard to the license as it existed before being placed on retired status. 181068
181070
181071
181072

(5) At the request of the board, a license or certificate holder shall immediately surrender to the board a license or certificate that the board has suspended, revoked, or permanently revoked. 181073
181074
181076

(N) Sanctions shall not be imposed under division (B)(28) of this section against any person who waives deductibles and copayments as follows: 181077
181079

(1) In compliance with the health benefit plan that expressly allows such a practice. Waiver of the deductibles or copayments shall be made only with the full knowledge and consent of the plan purchaser, payer, and third-party administrator. Documentation of the consent shall be made available to the board upon request. 181080
181081
181083

(2) Select providers of educational and assessment services, including a quality intervention program panel of case reviewers;

(3) Make referrals to educational and assessment service providers and approve individual educational programs recommended by those providers. The board shall monitor the progress of each individual undertaking a recommended individual educational program.

(4) Determine what constitutes successful completion of an individual educational program and require further monitoring of the individual who completed the program or other action that the board determines to be appropriate;

(5) Adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to further implement the quality intervention program.

An individual who participates in an individual educational program pursuant to this division shall pay the financial obligations arising from that educational program.

(P) The board shall not refuse to issue a license to an applicant because of a conviction, plea of guilty, judicial

in lieu of conviction, or the commission of an act that 181120
constitutes a criminal offense, unless the refusal is in 181121
accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 181122

Sec. 4731.222. (A) This section applies to ~~both~~ all of the 181123

181570

accordance with section 4731.24 of the Revised Code. 181572

(C) If the board determines that an applicant meets the requirements of division (B) of this section, the board shall place the applicant's license on retired status. The license remains on retired status for the life of the license holder, unless suspended, revoked, or reactivated, and does not require renewal. 181573
181574
181575
181576
181577
181578

(D) During the period in which a license is on retired status, all of the following apply: 181579
181580

(1) The license holder is prohibited from practicing as a dietitian under any circumstance. 181581
181582

(2) The license holder is not required to complete the continuing education required by the board in rules adopted under section 4759.05 of the Revised Code. 181583
181585

181587
181589

(4) The license holder may use a title authorized for the holder's license as described in section 4759.02 of the Revised Code, but only if "retired" also is included in the title. 181590
181592

181594
181595
181596
181597

(1) The individual seeking to reactivate the license applies to the board in the form and manner prescribed by the board. 181598
181599

(2) The applicant certifies completion of, within the two-year period that ends on the date of the application's 181600
181601 submission, the continuing education requirements that must be met 181602 for renewal of a license. 181603

(3) The applicant complies with sections 4776.01 to 4776.04 181604
of the Revised Code. 181605

(4) The applicant pays a reactivation fee in an amount equal 181606 to the restoration fee described in section 4759.062 of the 181607
Revised Code. 181608

The board shall not consider an application to reactivate a 181609 license complete until the board receives the fee described in 181610 this division. On receipt of a fee, the board shall deposit the 181611 fee in accordance with section 4731.24 of the Revised Code. 181612

(F) The board shall reactivate a license placed on retired 181613 status if the conditions of division (E) of this section have been 181614 satisfied and the board, in its discretion, determines that the 181615 results of the criminal records check conducted pursuant to 181616 sections 4776.01 to 4776.04 of the Revised Code do not make the 181617 applicant ineligible for active status. 181618

(G) The board may take disciplinary action against an 181619 applicant who is seeking to place a license on retired status or 181620 to reactivate the license if the applicant commits fraud, 181621 misrepresentation, or deception in applying for or securing the 181622
retired status or reactivation. 181623

The board also may take disciplinary action against the 181624 holder of a license placed on retired status if the holder 181625 practices under the license, uses the license to obtain licensure 181626 as a dietitian in another state, or uses a title that does not 181627 reflect the holder's retired status. 181628

In taking disciplinary action under this section, the board 181629 may impose on the applicant or holder any sanction described in 181630 section 4759.07 of the Revised Code, but shall do so in accordance 181631
with the procedures described in that section. 181632

(H) The board may adopt rules to implement and enforce this section. The rules shall be adopted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code.

181644

(1) Except when civil penalties are imposed under section 4759.071 of the Revised Code, violating or attempting to violate, directly or indirectly, or assisting in or abetting the violation of, or conspiring to violate, any provision of this chapter or the rules adopted by the board;

181652
181654

As used in division (A)(2) of this section, "false, fraudulent, deceptive, or misleading statement" means a statement that includes a misrepresentation of fact, is likely to mislead or deceive because of a failure to disclose material facts, is intended or is likely to create false or unjustified expectations of favorable results, or includes representations or implications that in reasonable probability will cause an ordinarily prudent person to misunderstand or be deceived.

181660
181662

(3) Committing fraud during the administration of the 181663

securing any license or permit issued by the board;	181666
(4) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or a	181667
conviction for, a felony;	181669
(5) Commission of an act that constitutes a felony in this	181670
state, regardless of the jurisdiction in which the act was	181671
committed;	181672
(6) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or a	181673
judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of	181674
conviction for, a misdemeanor committed in the course of practice;	181675
(7) Commission of an act in the course of practice that	181676
constitutes a misdemeanor in this state, regardless of the	181677
jurisdiction in which the act was committed;	181678
(8) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or a	181679
judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of	181680
conviction for, a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude;	181681
(9) Commission of an act involving moral turpitude that	181682
constitutes a misdemeanor in this state, regardless of the	181683
jurisdiction in which the act was committed;	181684
(10) A record of engaging in incompetent or negligent conduct	181685
in the practice of dietetics;	181686
(11) A departure from, or failure to conform to, minimal	181687
standards of care of similar practitioners under the same or	181688
similar circumstances, whether or not actual injury to a patient	181689

(12) The obtaining of, or attempting to obtain, money or	181691

of practice;	181693

(13) Violation of the conditions of limitation placed by the board on a license or permit;	181694 181695
(14) Inability to practice according to acceptable and prevailing standards of care by reason of mental illness or physical illness, including, physical deterioration that adversely affects cognitive, motor, or perceptive skills;	181696 181697 181698 181699
(16) The revocation, suspension, restriction, reduction, or termination of practice privileges by the United States department of defense or department of veterans affairs;	181709 181710 181711
(19) Failure to cooperate in an investigation conducted by the board under division (B) of section 4759.05 of the Revised Code, including failure to comply with a subpoena or order issued by the board or failure to answer truthfully a question presented	181721 181722 181723 181724

office conference, at a deposition, or in written interrogatories, 181726 except that failure to cooperate with an investigation shall not 181727 constitute grounds for discipline under this section if a court of 181728
competent jurisdiction has issued an order that either quashes a 181729 subpoena or permits the individual to withhold the testimony or 181730
evidence in issue; 181731

(20) Representing with the purpose of obtaining compensation 181732
or other advantage as personal gain or for any other person, that 181733
an incurable disease or injury, or other incurable condition, can 181734
be permanently cured. 181735

(B) The board shall not refuse to issue a license or limited 181736 permit to an applicant because of a plea of guilty to, a judicial 181737
finding of guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for 181738
intervention in lieu of conviction for an offense unless the 181739
refusal is in accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 181740

(C) Any action taken by the board under division (A) of this 181741
section resulting in a suspension from practice shall be 181742
accompanied by a written statement of the conditions under which 181743
the individual's license or permit may be reinstated. The board 181744
shall adopt rules governing conditions to be imposed for 181745
reinstatement. Reinstatement of a license or permit suspended 181746 pursuant to division (A) of this section requires an affirmative 181747
vote of not fewer than six members of the board. 181748

(D) When the board refuses to grant or issue a license or 181749
permit to an applicant, revokes an individual's license or permit, 181750
refuses to renew an individual's license or permit, or refuses to 181751
reinstate an individual's license or permit, the board may specify 181752
that its action is permanent. An individual subject to a permanent 181753 action taken by the board is forever thereafter ineligible to hold 181754
a license or permit and the board shall not accept an application 181755

new license or permit. 181757

(E) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under division 181758
(A) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an adjudication 181759 under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that in lieu of an 181760
adjudication, the board may enter into a consent agreement with an 181761 individual to resolve an allegation of a violation of this chapter 181762 or any rule adopted under it. A consent agreement, when ratified 181763 by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board, 181764
shall constitute the findings and order of the board with respect 181765 to the matter addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to 181766 ratify a consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained 181767
in the consent agreement shall be of no force or effect. 181768

A telephone conference call may be utilized for ratification 181769
of a consent agreement that revokes or suspends an individual's 181770
license or permit. The telephone conference call shall be 181771 considered a special meeting under division (F) of section 121.22 181772
of the Revised Code. 181773

(F) In enforcing division (A)(14) of this section, the board, 181774
upon a showing of a possible violation, may compel any individual 181775
authorized to practice by this chapter or who has submitted an 181776 application pursuant to this chapter to submit to a mental 181777
examination, physical examination, including an HIV test, or both 181778
a mental and a physical examination. The expense of the 181779
examination is the responsibility of the individual compelled to 181780
be examined. Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination 181781
or consent to an HIV test ordered by the board constitutes an 181782
admission of the allegations against the individual unless the 181783
failure is due to circumstances beyond the individual's control, 181784
and a default and final order may be entered without the taking of 181785
testimony or presentation of evidence. If the board finds an 181786 individual unable to practice because of the reasons set forth in 181787
division (A)(14) of this section, the board shall require the 181788 individual to submit to care, counseling, or treatment by 181789

physicians approved or designated by the board, as a condition for 181790
initial, continued, reinstated, or renewed authority to practice. 181791
An individual affected under this division shall be afforded an 181792 opportunity to demonstrate to the board the ability to resume 181793 practice in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards 181794 under the provisions of the individual's license or permit. For 181795 the purpose of division (A)(14) of this section, any individual 181796 who applies for or receives a license or permit under this chapter 181797 accepts the privilege of practicing in this state and, by so 181798 doing, shall be deemed to have given consent to submit to a mental 181799
or physical examination when directed to do so in writing by the 181800
board, and to have waived all objections to the admissibility of 181801
communication. 181803

(G) For the purposes of division (A)(18) of this section, any 181804
individual authorized to practice by this chapter accepts the 181805
privilege of practicing in this state subject to supervision by 181806
the board. By filing an application for or holding a license or 181807 permit under this chapter, an individual shall be deemed to have 181808
given consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when 181809 ordered to do so by the board in writing, and to have waived all 181810
objections to the admissibility of testimony or examination 181811
reports that constitute privileged communications. 181812

If it has reason to believe that any individual authorized to 181813 practice by this chapter or any applicant for a license or permit 181814
suffers such impairment, the board may compel the individual to 181815 submit to a mental or physical examination, or both. The expense 181816
of the examination is the responsibility of the individual 181817
compelled to be examined. Any mental or physical examination 181818 required under this division shall be undertaken by a treatment 181819 provider or physician who is qualified to conduct the examination 181820

and who is chosen by the board. 181821

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 181823
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 181824
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 181825
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 181826
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 181827
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 181828
license or permit or deny the individual's application and shall 181829 require the individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, 181830
reinstated, or renewed license or permit, to submit to treatment. 181831

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license 181832
or permit suspended under this division, the impaired practitioner 181833
shall demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice in 181834
compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care under 181835
the provisions of the practitioner's license or permit. The 181836
following: 181838

(1) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 181839
section 4731.25 of the Revised Code that the individual has 181840
successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 181841

(2) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 181842
contract or consent agreement; 181843

(3) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 181844
ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 181845
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 181846
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 181847
individuals or providers approved by the board for making the 181848
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 181849

The board may reinstate a license or permit suspended under 181850
this division after that demonstration and after the individual 181851

shall require continued monitoring of the individual. The 181854 monitoring shall include, but not be limited to, compliance with 181855
the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or 181856
with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, upon 181857
termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for 181858
at least two years of annual written progress reports made under 181859 penalty of perjury stating whether the individual has maintained 181860
sobriety. 181861

(H) If the secretary and supervising member determine both of 181862
the following, they may recommend that the board suspend an 181863
individual's license or permit without a prior hearing: 181864

(1) That there is clear and convincing evidence that an 181865
individual has violated division (A) of this section; 181866

(2) That the individual's continued practice presents a 181867
danger of immediate and serious harm to the public. 181868

Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration by 181869
the board. The board, upon review of those allegations and by an 181870
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding 181871
the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license or 181872 permit without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call may be 181873
utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote on the 181874
summary suspension. 181875

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 181877
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 181879
of the Revised Code. If the individual subject to the summary 181880 suspension requests an adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date 181881
set for the hearing shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier 181882

than seven days, after the individual requests the hearing, unless 181883
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the individual. 181884

Any summary suspension imposed under this division shall 181885
remain in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final 181886
adjudicative order issued by the board pursuant to this section 181887
and Chapter 119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board 181888
shall issue its final adjudicative order within seventy-five days 181889
after completion of its hearing. A failure to issue the order 181890
within seventy-five days shall result in dissolution of the 181891
summary suspension order but shall not invalidate any subsequent, 181892
final adjudicative order. 181893

(I) If the board is required by Chapter 119. of the Revised 181894
Code to give notice of an opportunity for a hearing and if the 181895
individual subject to the notice does not timely request a hearing 181896
in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the board 181897
is not required to hold a hearing, but may adopt, by an 181898
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 181899
order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the 181900
board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) 181901
of this section. 181902

(J) For purposes of divisions (A)(5), (7), and (9) of this 181903
section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 181904
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 181905
the Revised Code, that the individual committed the act. The board 181906
does not have jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial 181907
court renders a final judgment in the individual's favor and that 181908
judgment is based upon an adjudication on the merits. The board 181909
has jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial court issues 181910
an order of dismissal upon technical or procedural grounds. 181911

(K) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 181912
court shall have no effect upon a prior board order entered under 181913
this section or upon the board's jurisdiction to take action under 181914

this section if, based upon a plea of guilty, a judicial finding 181915
of guilt, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 181916
lieu of conviction, the board issued a notice of opportunity for a 181917
hearing prior to the court's order to seal or expunge the records. 181918
The board shall not be required to seal, destroy, redact, or 181919
expungement of conviction records. 181921

(L) If the board takes action under division (A)(4), (6), or 181922
(8) of this section, and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 181923
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 181924
of conviction is overturned on appeal, upon exhaustion of the 181925
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 181926
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. 181927
Upon receipt of a petition for reconsideration and supporting 181928
court documents, the board shall reinstate the individual's 181929
license or permit. The board may then hold an adjudication under 181930
Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to determine whether the 181931
individual committed the act in question. Notice of an opportunity 181932
for a hearing shall be given in accordance with Chapter 119. of 181933
the Revised Code. If the board finds, pursuant to an adjudication 181934 held under this division, that the individual committed the act or 181935
if no hearing is requested, the board may order any of the 181936
sanctions identified under division (A) of this section. 181937

(M) The license or permit issued to an individual under this 181938
chapter and the individual's practice in this state are 181939
automatically suspended as of the date the individual pleads 181940
guilty to, is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is 181941
subject to a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 181942
lieu of conviction in this state or treatment or intervention in 181943
lieu of conviction in another jurisdiction for any of the 181944
following criminal offenses in this state or a substantially 181945
equivalent criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated 181946

murder, murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, 181947
kidnapping, rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, 181948
aggravated arson, aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. 181949
Continued practice after suspension shall be considered practicing 181950
without a license or permit. 181951

The board shall notify the individual subject to the 181952
suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 181953
section 119.07 of the Revised Code. If an individual whose license 181954
or permit is automatically suspended under this division fails to 181955
make a timely request for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 181956
the Revised Code, the board shall enter a final order permanently 181957
revoking the individual's license or permit. 181958

(N) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, 181959
all of the following apply: 181960

(1) The surrender of a license or permit issued under this 181961
chapter shall not be effective unless or until accepted by the 181962 board. A telephone conference call may be utilized for acceptance 181963
of the surrender of an individual's license or permit. The 181964
telephone conference call shall be considered a special meeting 181965
under division (F) of section 121.22 of the Revised Code. 181966
Reinstatement of a license or permit surrendered to the board 181967
requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the 181968
board. 181969

(2) An application for a license or permit made under the 181970

The board shall not consider an application to reactivate a license complete until the board receives the fee described in this division. On receipt of a fee, the board shall deposit the fee in accordance with section 4731.24 of the Revised Code. 182092
182093
182095

(F) The board shall reactivate a license placed on retired 182096

(G) The board may take disciplinary action against an 182102 applicant who is seeking to place a license on retired status or 182103

misrepresentation, or deception in applying for or securing the 182105
retired status or reactivation. 182106

The board also may take disciplinary action against the 182107
holder of a license placed on retired status if the holder 182108

that does not reflect the holder's retired status. 182111

In taking disciplinary action under this section, the board 182112
may impose on the applicant or holder any sanction described in 182113
section 4760.13 of the Revised Code, but shall do so in accordance 182114
with the procedures described in that section. 182115

(H) The board may adopt rules to implement and enforce this 182116 section. The rules shall be adopted in accordance with Chapter 182117
119. of the Revised Code. 182118

Sec. 4760.13. (A) The state medical board, by an affirmative 182119 vote of not fewer than six members, ~~may revoke or~~ may refuse to 182120
grant a license to practice as an anesthesiologist assistant to a 182121 ~~person,~~ or may revoke the license held by, an individual found by 182122
the board to have committed fraud, misrepresentation, or deception 182123
in applying for or securing the license. 182124

(B) The board, by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six 182125
members, shall, except as provided in division (C) of this 182126

section, and to the extent permitted by law, limit, revoke, or 182127
suspend an individual's license to practice as an anesthesiologist 182128
assistant, refuse to issue a license to an applicant, refuse to 182129
renew a license, refuse to reinstate a license, or reprimand or 182130
following reasons: 182132

(1) Permitting the holder's name or license to be used by 182133
another person; 182134

indirectly, or assisting in or abetting the violation of, or 182139
conspiring to violate, any provision of this chapter, Chapter 182140
4731. of the Revised Code, or the rules adopted by the board; 182141

(4) A departure from, or failure to conform to, minimal 182142
standards of care of similar practitioners under the same or 182143 similar circumstances whether or not actual injury to the patient 182144
is established; 182145

(5) Inability to practice according to acceptable and 182146
prevailing standards of care by reason of mental illness or 182147
physical illness, including physical deterioration that adversely 182148
affects cognitive, motor, or perceptive skills; 182149

and prevailing standards of care because of habitual or excessive 182151 use or abuse of drugs, alcohol, or other substances that impair 182152 ability to practice; 182153

(7) Willfully betraying a professional confidence; 182154

(8) Making a false, fraudulent, deceptive, or misleading 182155
statement in securing or attempting to secure a license to 182156 practice as an anesthesiologist assistant. 182157

As used in this division, "false, fraudulent, deceptive, or 182158
misleading statement" means a statement that includes a 182159
misrepresentation of fact, is likely to mislead or deceive because 182160
of a failure to disclose material facts, is intended or is likely 182161
to create false or unjustified expectations of favorable results, 182162
or includes representations or implications that in reasonable 182163
probability will cause an ordinarily prudent person to 182164
misunderstand or be deceived. 182165

(9) The obtaining of, or attempting to obtain, money or a 182166
thing of value by fraudulent misrepresentations in the course of 182167
practice; 182168

(10) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or 182169
a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 182170
conviction for, a felony; 182171

(11) Commission of an act that constitutes a felony in this 182172
state, regardless of the jurisdiction in which the act was 182173
committed; 182174

(12) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or 182175
a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 182176 conviction for, a misdemeanor committed in the course of practice; 182177

(13) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or 182178
a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 182179
conviction for, a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; 182180

(14) Commission of an act in the course of practice that 182181
constitutes a misdemeanor in this state, regardless of the 182182
jurisdiction in which the act was committed; 182183

(15) Commission of an act involving moral turpitude that 182184
constitutes a misdemeanor in this state, regardless of the 182185
jurisdiction in which the act was committed; 182186

(16) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or 182187
a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 182188
conviction for violating any state or federal law regulating the 182189
trafficking in drugs; 182191

(17) Any of the following actions taken by the state agency 182192 responsible for regulating the practice of anesthesiologist 182193 assistants in another jurisdiction, for any reason other than the 182194 nonpayment of fees: the limitation, revocation, or suspension of 182195 an individual's license to practice; acceptance of an individual's 182196 license surrender; denial of a license; refusal to renew or 182197 reinstate a license; imposition of probation; or issuance of an 182198 order of censure or other reprimand; 182199

(18) Violation of the conditions placed by the board on a 182200 license to practice; 182201

(19) Failure to use universal blood and body fluid 182202 precautions established by rules adopted under section 4731.051 of 182203
the Revised Code; 182204

(20) Failure to cooperate in an investigation conducted by 182205
the board under section 4760.14 of the Revised Code, including 182206
failure to comply with a subpoena or order issued by the board or 182207
failure to answer truthfully a question presented by the board at 182208
a deposition or in written interrogatories, except that failure to 182209
cooperate with an investigation shall not constitute grounds for 182210
discipline under this section if a court of competent jurisdiction 182211
has issued an order that either quashes a subpoena or permits the 182212
individual to withhold the testimony or evidence in issue; 182213

(21) Failure to comply with any code of ethics established by 182214
the national commission for the certification of anesthesiologist 182215

(22) Failure to notify the state medical board of the 182217 revocation or failure to maintain certification from the national 182218 commission for certification of anesthesiologist assistants. 182219

(C) The board shall not refuse to issue a certificate to an 182220
applicant because of a plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of 182221
guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 182222
lieu of conviction for an offense unless the refusal is in 182223 accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 182224

(D) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions 182225
(A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an 182226
adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 182227
in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent 182228
agreement with an anesthesiologist assistant or applicant to 182229 resolve an allegation of a violation of this chapter or any rule 182230 adopted under it. A consent agreement, when ratified by an 182231 affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board, shall 182232 constitute the findings and order of the board with respect to the 182233
matter addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to ratify 182234 a consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained in the 182235
consent agreement shall be of no force or effect. 182236

(E) For purposes of divisions (B)(11), (14), and (15) of this 182237
section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 182238
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 182239
the Revised Code, that the applicant or license holder committed 182240
the act in question. The board shall have no jurisdiction under 182241
these divisions in cases where the trial court renders a final 182242
judgment in the license holder's favor and that judgment is based 182243
upon an adjudication on the merits. The board shall have 182244
jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court 182245
issues an order of dismissal on technical or procedural grounds. 182246

(F) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 182247
court shall have no effect on a prior board order entered under 182248
the provisions of this section or on the board's jurisdiction to 182249

take action under the provisions of this section if, based upon a 182250
plea of guilty, a judicial finding of guilt, or a judicial finding 182251
of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction, the board 182252
issued a notice of opportunity for a hearing prior to the court's 182253
order to seal or expunge the records. The board shall not be 182254
required to seal, destroy, redact, or otherwise modify its records 182255
records. 182257

(G) For purposes of this division, any individual who holds a 182258 license to practice issued under this chapter, or applies for a 182259
license to practice, shall be deemed to have given consent to 182260
submit to a mental or physical examination when directed to do so 182261
in writing by the board and to have waived all objections to the 182262
a privileged communication. 182264

(1) In enforcing division (B)(5) of this section, the board, 182265
on a showing of a possible violation, may compel any individual 182266 who holds a license to practice issued under this chapter or who 182267 has applied for a license to practice pursuant to this chapter to 182268 submit to a mental or physical examination, or both. A physical 182269 examination may include an HIV test. The expense of the 182270
examination is the responsibility of the individual compelled to 182271
be examined. Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination 182272
or consent to an HIV test ordered by the board constitutes an 182273
admission of the allegations against the individual unless the 182274
failure is due to circumstances beyond the individual's control, 182275
and a default and final order may be entered without the taking of 182276
testimony or presentation of evidence. If the board finds an 182277 anesthesiologist assistant unable to practice because of the 182278 reasons set forth in division (B)(5) of this section, the board 182279
shall require the anesthesiologist assistant to submit to care, 182280
counseling, or treatment by physicians approved or designated by 182281

the board, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, 182282
or renewed license to practice. An individual affected by this 182283 division shall be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate to the 182284
board the ability to resume practicing in compliance with 182285
acceptable and prevailing standards of care. 182286

(2) For purposes of division (B)(6) of this section, if the 182287
board has reason to believe that any individual who holds a 182288 license to practice issued under this chapter or any applicant for 182289
a license to practice suffers such impairment, the board may 182290 compel the individual to submit to a mental or physical 182291
examination, or both. The expense of the examination is the 182292 responsibility of the individual compelled to be examined. Any 182293 mental or physical examination required under this division shall 182294
be undertaken by a treatment provider or physician qualified to 182295 conduct such examination and chosen by the board. 182296

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 182298
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 182299
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 182300
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 182301
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 182302
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 182303
license or deny the individual's application and shall require the 182304
individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, 182305
or renewed license to practice, to submit to treatment. 182306

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license 182307
suspended under this division, the anesthesiologist assistant 182308
shall demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice in 182309
compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care. The 182310
demonstration shall include the following: 182311

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 182312
section 4731.25 of the Revised Code that the individual has 182313

successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 182314

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 182315
contract or consent agreement; 182316

(c) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 182317
ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 182318
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 182319
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 182320
individuals or providers approved by the board for making such 182321
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 182322

The board may reinstate a license suspended under this 182323
division after such demonstration and after the individual has 182324
entered into a written consent agreement. 182325

When the impaired anesthesiologist assistant resumes 182326
practice, the board shall require continued monitoring of the 182327 anesthesiologist assistant. The monitoring shall include 182328 monitoring of compliance with the written consent agreement 182329
entered into before reinstatement or with conditions imposed by 182330
board order after a hearing, and, on termination of the consent 182331 agreement, submission to the board for at least two years of 182332
annual written progress reports made under penalty of 182333
maintained sobriety. 182335

(H) If the secretary and supervising member determine that 182336
there is clear and convincing evidence that an anesthesiologist 182337
assistant has violated division (B) of this section and that the 182338
individual's continued practice presents a danger of immediate and 182339
serious harm to the public, they may recommend that the board 182340
suspend the individual's license without a prior hearing. Written 182341
allegations shall be prepared for consideration by the board. 182342

The board, on review of the allegations and by an affirmative 182343
vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding the secretary 182344

and supervising member, may suspend a license without a prior 182345
hearing. A telephone conference call may be utilized for reviewing 182346
the allegations and taking the vote on the summary suspension. 182347

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 182349
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 182351
of the Revised Code. If the anesthesiologist assistant requests an 182352
adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date set for the hearing 182353
shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier than seven days, 182354
after the anesthesiologist assistant requests the hearing, unless 182355
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the license holder. 182356

A summary suspension imposed under this division shall remain 182357
in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final adjudicative 182358
order issued by the board pursuant to this section and Chapter 182359
119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board shall issue 182360
its final adjudicative order within sixty days after completion of 182361
its hearing. Failure to issue the order within sixty days shall 182362
result in dissolution of the summary suspension order, but shall 182363
not invalidate any subsequent, final adjudicative order. 182364

(I) If the board takes action under division (B)(11), (13), 182365
or (14) of this section, and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 182366
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 182367
of conviction is overturned on appeal, on exhaustion of the 182368
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 182369
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. On 182370 authorized to practice respiratory care under this chapter in the 182789 performance of respiratory care procedures; 182790

(22) Misrepresenting educational attainments or authorized 182791 functions for the purpose of obtaining some benefit related to the 182792 practice of respiratory care; 182793

(23) Assisting suicide as defined in section 3795.01 of the 182794
Revised Code; 182795

(24) Representing, with the purpose of obtaining compensation 182796
or other advantage as personal gain or for any other person, that 182797
an incurable disease or injury, or other incurable condition, can 182798
be permanently cured. 182799

Disciplinary actions taken by the board under division (A) of 182800 this section shall be taken pursuant to an adjudication under 182801 Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that in lieu of an 182802 adjudication, the board may enter into a consent agreement with an 182803
individual to resolve an allegation of a violation of this chapter 182804 or any rule adopted under it. A consent agreement, when ratified 182805

by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board, 182806 shall constitute the findings and order of the board with respect 182807
to the matter addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to 182808 ratify a consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained 182809 in the consent agreement shall be of no effect. 182810

of a consent agreement that revokes or suspends an individual's 182812
license or permit. The telephone conference call shall be 182813 considered a special meeting under division (F) of section 121.22 182814
of the Revised Code. 182815

(B) The board shall not refuse to issue a license or limited 182816 permit to an applicant because of a plea of guilty to, a judicial 182817
finding of guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for 182818
intervention in lieu of conviction for an offense unless the 182819
refusal is in accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 182820

(C) Any action taken by the board under division (A) of this 182821
section resulting in a suspension from practice shall be 182822 accompanied by a written statement of the conditions under which 182823
the individual's license or permit may be reinstated. The board 182824 shall adopt rules governing conditions to be imposed for 182825
reinstatement. Reinstatement of a license or permit suspended 182826
pursuant to division (A) of this section requires an affirmative 182827
vote of not fewer than six members of the board. 182828

(D) When the board refuses to grant or issue a license or 182829
permit to an applicant, revokes an individual's license or permit, 182830 refuses to renew an individual's license or permit, or refuses to 182831 reinstatement an individual's license or permit, the board may specify 182832 that its action is permanent. An individual subject to a permanent 182833 action taken by the board is forever thereafter ineligible to hold 182834
a license or permit and the board shall not accept an application 182835

new license or permit. 182837

(E) If the board is required by Chapter 119. of the Revised 182838
Code to give notice of an opportunity for a hearing and if the 182839
individual subject to the notice does not timely request a hearing 182840
in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the board 182841
is not required to hold a hearing, but may adopt, by an 182842
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 182843
order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the 182844 board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) 182845
of this section. 182846

(F) In enforcing division (A)(14) of this section, the board, 182847
upon a showing of a possible violation, may compel any individual 182848 authorized to practice by this chapter or who has submitted an 182849 application pursuant to this chapter to submit to a mental 182850
examination, physical examination, including an HIV test, or both 182851
a mental and a physical examination. The expense of the 182852
examination is the responsibility of the individual compelled to 182853
be examined. Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination 182854
or consent to an HIV test ordered by the board constitutes an 182855
admission of the allegations against the individual unless the 182856
failure is due to circumstances beyond the individual's control, 182857
and a default and final order may be entered without the taking of 182858
testimony or presentation of evidence. If the board finds an 182859 individual unable to practice because of the reasons set forth in 182860
division (A)(14) of this section, the board shall require the 182861
individual to submit to care, counseling, or treatment by 182862
physicians approved or designated by the board, as a condition for 182863
initial, continued, reinstated, or renewed authority to practice. 182864
An individual affected under this division shall be afforded an 182865 opportunity to demonstrate to the board the ability to resume 182866
practice in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards 182867
under the provisions of the individual's license or permit. For 182868

the purpose of division (A)(14) of this section, any individual 182869 who applies for or receives a license or permit to practice under 182870 this chapter accepts the privilege of practicing in this state 182871 and, by so doing, shall be deemed to have given consent to submit 182872 to a mental or physical examination when directed to do so in 182873 writing by the board, and to have waived all objections to the 182874
admissibility of testimony or examination reports that constitute 182875
a privileged communication. 182876

(G) For the purposes of division (A)(18) of this section, any 182877
individual authorized to practice by this chapter accepts the 182878 privilege of practicing in this state subject to supervision by 182879
the board. By filing an application for or holding a license or 182880 permit under this chapter, an individual shall be deemed to have 182881
given consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when 182882 ordered to do so by the board in writing, and to have waived all 182883
reports that constitute privileged communications. 182885

If it has reason to believe that any individual authorized to 182886
practice by this chapter or any applicant for a license or permit 182887
suffers such impairment, the board may compel the individual to 182888
submit to a mental or physical examination, or both. The expense 182889
of the examination is the responsibility of the individual 182890
compelled to be examined. Any mental or physical examination 182891
required under this division shall be undertaken by a treatment 182892
provider or physician who is qualified to conduct the examination 182893
and who is chosen by the board. 182894

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 182896
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 182897
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 182898
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 182899
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 182900

practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 182901
license or permit or deny the individual's application and shall 182902 require the individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, 182903
reinstated, or renewed license or permit, to submit to treatment. 182904

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license 182905
or permit suspended under this division, the impaired practitioner 182906
shall demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice in 182907
compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care under 182908
the provisions of the practitioner's license or permit. The 182909
following: 182911

(1) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 182912
section 4731.25 of the Revised Code that the individual has 182913
successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 182914

(2) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 182915
contract or consent agreement; 182916

(3) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 182917
ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 182918
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 182919
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 182920
individuals or providers approved by the board for making the 182921
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 182922

The board may reinstate a license or permit suspended under 182923
this division after that demonstration and after the individual 182924
has entered into a written consent agreement. 182925

shall require continued monitoring of the individual. The 182927 monitoring shall include, but not be limited to, compliance with 182928
the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or 182929
with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, upon 182930
termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for 182931

at least two years of annual written progress reports made under 182932 penalty of perjury stating whether the individual has maintained 182933
sobriety. 182934

(H) If the secretary and supervising member determine both of 182935
the following, they may recommend that the board suspend an 182936
individual's license or permit without a prior hearing: 182937

(1) That there is clear and convincing evidence that an 182938
individual has violated division (A) of this section; 182939

(2) That the individual's continued practice presents a 182940
danger of immediate and serious harm to the public. 182941

Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration by 182942
the board. The board, upon review of those allegations and by an 182943 affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding 182944
the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license or 182945 permit without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call may be 182946 utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote on the 182947
summary suspension. 182948

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 182950
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 182952
of the Revised Code. If the individual subject to the summary 182953
suspension requests an adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date 182954
set for the hearing shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier 182955
than seven days, after the individual requests the hearing, unless 182956
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the individual. 182957

remain in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final 182959
adjudicative order issued by the board pursuant to this section 182960
and Chapter 119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board 182961
shall issue its final adjudicative order within seventy-five days 182962

after completion of its hearing. A failure to issue the order 182963
within seventy-five days shall result in dissolution of the 182964
summary suspension order but shall not invalidate any subsequent, 182965
final adjudicative order. 182966

(I) For purposes of divisions (A)(2), (4), and (6) of this 182967
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 182969
the Revised Code, that the individual committed the act. The board 182970
does not have jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial 182971
court renders a final judgment in the individual's favor and that 182972
judgment is based upon an adjudication on the merits. The board 182973
has jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial court issues 182974
an order of dismissal upon technical or procedural grounds. 182975

(J) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 182976
court shall have no effect upon a prior board order entered under 182977
this section or upon the board's jurisdiction to take action under 182978
this section if, based upon a plea of guilty, a judicial finding 182979
of guilt, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 182980
lieu of conviction, the board issued a notice of opportunity for a 182981
hearing prior to the court's order to seal or expunge the records. 182982
The board shall not be required to seal, destroy, redact, or 182983
otherwise modify its records to reflect the court's sealing or 182984
expungement of conviction records. 182985

(K) If the board takes action under division (A)(1), (3), or 182986
(5) of this section, and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 182987
of conviction is overturned on appeal, upon exhaustion of the 182989
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 182990
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. 182991
Upon receipt of a petition for reconsideration and supporting 182992
court documents, the board shall reinstate the individual's 182993
license or permit. The board may then hold an adjudication under 182994

Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to determine whether the 182995
individual committed the act in question. Notice of an opportunity 182996
for a hearing shall be given in accordance with Chapter 119. of 182997
the Revised Code. If the board finds, pursuant to an adjudication 182998
held under this division, that the individual committed the act or 182999
if no hearing is requested, the board may order any of the 183000
sanctions identified under division (A) of this section. 183001

(L) The license or permit issued to an individual under this 183002
chapter and the individual's practice in this state are 183003
automatically suspended as of the date the individual pleads 183004
guilty to, is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is 183005
subject to a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 183006
lieu of conviction in this state or treatment or intervention in 183007
lieu of conviction in another jurisdiction for any of the 183008
following criminal offenses in this state or a substantially 183009
equivalent criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated 183010
murder, murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, 183011
kidnapping, rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, 183012
aggravated arson, aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. 183013
without a license or permit. 183015

The board shall notify the individual subject to the 183016
suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 183017
section 119.07 of the Revised Code. If an individual whose license 183018
or permit is automatically suspended under this division fails to 183019
make a timely request for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 183020
the Revised Code, the board shall enter a final order permanently 183021
revoking the individual's license or permit. 183022

(M) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, 183023
all of the following apply: 183024

(1) The surrender of a license or permit issued under this 183025
chapter shall not be effective unless or until accepted by the 183026

board. A telephone conference call may be utilized for acceptance 183027
of the surrender of an individual's license or permit. The 183028
telephone conference call shall be considered a special meeting 183029
under division (F) of section 121.22 of the Revised Code. 183030 Reinstatement of a license or permit surrendered to the board 183031
requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the 183032
board. 183033

(2) An application for a license or permit made under the 183034 provisions of this chapter may not be withdrawn without approval 183035
of the board. 183036

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license or permit in 183037 accordance with this chapter ~~shall~~ does not remove or limit the 183038 board's jurisdiction to take any disciplinary action under this 183039
section against the individual. 183040

(4) The placement of an individual's license on retired 183041 status, as described in section 4761.062 of the Revised Code, does 183042 not remove or limit the board's jurisdiction to take any 183043 disciplinary action against the individual with regard to the 183044 license as it existed before being placed on retired status. 183045

(5) At the request of the board, a license or permit holder 183046 shall immediately surrender to the board a license or permit that 183047
the board has suspended, revoked, or permanently revoked. 183048

Sec. 4762.061. (A) This section applies to ~~both~~ all of the 183049
following: 183050

(2) Requiring the applicant to obtain additional training and to pass an examination upon completion of such training;	183071 183072
(3) Requiring an assessment of the applicant's physical skills for purposes of determining whether the applicant's coordination, fine motor skills, and dexterity are sufficient for performing evaluations and procedures in a manner that meets the minimal standards of care;	183073 183074 183075 183076 183077

183127

lieu of conviction for an offense unless the refusal is in 183304
accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 183305

(D) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions 183306
(A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an 183307
adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 183308
in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent 183309 agreement with an oriental medicine practitioner or acupuncturist 183310
or applicant to resolve an allegation of a violation of this 183311
chapter or any rule adopted under it. A consent agreement, when 183312 ratified by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of 183313
the board, shall constitute the findings and order of the board 183314
with respect to the matter addressed in the agreement. If the 183315
board refuses to ratify a consent agreement, the admissions and 183316 findings contained in the consent agreement shall be of no force 183317
or effect. 183318

(E) For purposes of divisions (B)(12), (15), and (16) of this 183319
section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 183320
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 183321
the Revised Code, that the applicant or license holder committed 183322
the act in question. The board shall have no jurisdiction under 183323
these divisions in cases where the trial court renders a final 183324
judgment in the license holder's favor and that judgment is based 183325
upon an adjudication on the merits. The board shall have 183326
jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court 183327 issues an order of dismissal upon technical or procedural grounds. 183328

(F) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 183329
court shall have no effect upon a prior board order entered under 183330

the provisions of this section or upon the board's jurisdiction to 183331
take action under the provisions of this section if, based upon a 183332
plea of guilty, a judicial finding of guilt, or a judicial finding 183333
of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction, the board 183334
issued a notice of opportunity for a hearing or entered into a 183335 consent agreement prior to the court's order to seal or expunge 183336
the records. The board shall not be required to seal, destroy, 183337
redact, or otherwise modify its records to reflect the court's 183338
sealing or expungement of conviction records. 183339

(G) For purposes of this division, any individual who holds a 183340 license to practice issued under this chapter, or applies for a 183341
license to practice, shall be deemed to have given consent to 183342
submit to a mental or physical examination when directed to do so 183343
in writing by the board and to have waived all objections to the 183344
a privileged communication. 183346

(1) In enforcing division (B)(5) of this section, the board, 183347
upon a showing of a possible violation, may compel any individual 183348
who holds a license to practice issued under this chapter or who 183349 has applied for a license pursuant to this chapter to submit to a 183350 mental examination, physical examination, including an HIV test, 183351 or both a mental and physical examination. The expense of the 183352 examination is the responsibility of the individual compelled to 183353
be examined. Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination 183354
or consent to an HIV test ordered by the board constitutes an 183355
admission of the allegations against the individual unless the 183356
failure is due to circumstances beyond the individual's control, 183357
and a default and final order may be entered without the taking of 183358
testimony or presentation of evidence. If the board finds an 183359 oriental medicine practitioner or acupuncturist unable to practice 183360 because of the reasons set forth in division (B)(5) of this 183361

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license suspended under this division, the oriental medicine practitioner or acupuncturist shall demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care. The demonstration shall include the following:

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under

section 4731.25 of the Revised Code that the individual has 183395
successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 183396

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 183397
contract or consent agreement; 183398

(c) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 183399
ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 183400
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 183401
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 183402
individuals or providers approved by the board for making such 183403 assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 183404

The board may reinstate a license suspended under this 183405
division after such demonstration and after the individual has 183406
entered into a written consent agreement. 183407

shall require continued monitoring of the individual. The 183409 monitoring shall include monitoring of compliance with the written 183410
consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or with 183411 conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, upon 183412
termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for 183413
at least two years of annual written progress reports made under 183414
penalty of falsification stating whether the individual has 183415
maintained sobriety. 183416

(H) If the secretary and supervising member determine both of 183417
the following, they may recommend that the board suspend an 183418
individual's license to practice without a prior hearing: 183419

(1) That there is clear and convincing evidence that an 183420 oriental medicine practitioner or acupuncturist has violated 183421
division (B) of this section; 183422

(2) That the individual's continued practice presents a 183423
danger of immediate and serious harm to the public. 183424

Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration by 183425 the board. The board, upon review of the allegations and by an 183426 affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding 183427
the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license 183428
without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call may be 183429
utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote on the 183430
summary suspension. 183431

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 183433
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 183435 of the Revised Code. If the oriental medicine practitioner or 183436 acupuncturist requests an adjudicatory hearing by the board, the 183437 date set for the hearing shall be within fifteen days, but not 183438 earlier than seven days, after the hearing is requested, unless 183439
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the license holder. 183440

A summary suspension imposed under this division shall remain 183441
in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final adjudicative 183442
order issued by the board pursuant to this section and Chapter 183443
119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board shall issue 183444
its final adjudicative order within sixty days after completion of 183445
its hearing. Failure to issue the order within sixty days shall 183446
result in dissolution of the summary suspension order, but shall 183447
not invalidate any subsequent, final adjudicative order. 183448

(I) If the board takes action under division (B)(11), (13), 183449
or (14) of this section, and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 183450
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 183451
of conviction is overturned on appeal, upon exhaustion of the 183452
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 183453
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. 183454
Upon receipt of a petition and supporting court documents, the 183455 board shall reinstate the license. The board may then hold an 183456

adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to determine 183457
whether the individual committed the act in question. Notice of 183458 opportunity for hearing shall be given in accordance with Chapter 183459 119. of the Revised Code. If the board finds, pursuant to an 183460 adjudication held under this division, that the individual 183461
committed the act, or if no hearing is requested, it may order any 183462
of the sanctions specified in division (B) of this section. 183463

(J) The license to practice of an oriental medicine 183464
practitioner or acupuncturist and the practitioner's or 183465
acupuncturist's practice in this state are automatically suspended 183466
is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is subject to a 183468
judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 183469
conviction in this state or treatment or intervention in lieu of 183470 conviction in another jurisdiction for any of the following 183471
criminal offenses in this state or a substantially equivalent 183472
criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated murder, 183473
murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, kidnapping, 183474
rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, aggravated arson, 183475
aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. Continued practice 183476
license. 183478

The board shall notify the individual subject to the 183479
suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 183480
section 119.07 of the Revised Code. If an individual whose license 183481
is suspended under this division fails to make a timely request 183482
for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the 183483
board shall enter a final order permanently revoking the 183484
individual's license. 183485

(K) In any instance in which the board is required by Chapter 183486
119. of the Revised Code to give notice of opportunity for hearing 183487
and the individual subject to the notice does not timely request a 183488 hearing in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the board is not required to hold a hearing, but may adopt, by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) or (B) of this section.

(L) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this section resulting in a suspension shall be accompanied by a written statement of the conditions under which the license may be reinstated. The board shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing conditions to be imposed for reinstatement. Reinstatement of a license suspended pursuant to division (B) of this section requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board.

(N) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, all of the following apply:

(1) The surrender of a license to practice as an oriental medicine practitioner or license to practice as an acupuncturist issued under this chapter is not effective unless or until accepted by the board. Reinstatement of a license surrendered to the board requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board.

(2) An application made under this chapter for a license may 183520
not be withdrawn without approval of the board. 183521

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license in accordance 183522 with section 4762.06 of the Revised Code ~~shall~~ does not remove or 183523 this section against the individual. 183525

(4) The placement of an individual's license on retired 183526
status, as described in section 4762.062 of the Revised Code, does 183527
not remove or limit the board's jurisdiction to take any 183528
disciplinary action against the individual with regard to the 183529
license as it existed before being placed on retired status. 183530

Sec. 4774.061. (A) This section applies to ~~both~~ all of the 183531
following: 183532

4774.03 of the Revised Code. 183541

(3) An applicant seeking to reactivate a license placed on 183542

(B) Before issuing a license to an applicant subject to this 183544 section, or before restoring a license to good standing or 183545

(5) Requiring the applicant to undergo a comprehensive physical examination, which may include an assessment of physical abilities, evaluation of sensory capabilities, or screening for the presence of neurological disorders;

183646
183648

(F) The board shall reactivate a license placed on retired status if the conditions of division (E) of this section have been satisfied and the board, in its discretion, determines that the results of the criminal records check conducted pursuant to sections 4776.01 to 4776.04 of the Revised Code do not make the applicant ineligible for active status. 183649
183650
183652
183654

183661
183663
183664

183666

the board under section 4774.14 of the Revised Code, including 183759
failure to comply with a subpoena or order issued by the board or 183760
failure to answer truthfully a question presented by the board at 183761
a deposition or in written interrogatories, except that failure to 183762
cooperate with an investigation shall not constitute grounds for 183763
discipline under this section if a court of competent jurisdiction 183764 has issued an order that either quashes a subpoena or permits the 183765
individual to withhold the testimony or evidence in issue; 183766

(21) Failure to maintain a license as a radiographer under 183767
Chapter 4773. of the Revised Code; 183768

(23) Failure to comply with any of the rules of ethics 183776 included in the standards of ethics established by the American 183777 registry of radiologic technologists, as those rules apply to an 183778
radiologist assistant. 183780

applicant because of a plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of 183782
guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 183783
lieu of conviction for an offense unless the refusal is in 183784
accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 183785

(D) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions 183786
(A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an 183787
adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 183788
in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent 183789

agreement with a radiologist assistant or applicant to resolve an 183790
allegation of a violation of this chapter or any rule adopted 183791 under it. A consent agreement, when ratified by an affirmative 183792
vote of not fewer than six members of the board, shall constitute 183793
the findings and order of the board with respect to the matter 183794
addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to ratify a 183795 consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained in the 183796
consent agreement shall be of no force or effect. 183797

(E) For purposes of divisions (B)(11), (14), and (15) of this 183798
section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 183799
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 183800
the Revised Code, that the applicant or license holder committed 183801
the act in question. The board shall have no jurisdiction under 183802
these divisions in cases where the trial court renders a final 183803
judgment in the license holder's favor and that judgment is based 183804
upon an adjudication on the merits. The board shall have 183805
jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court 183806
issues an order of dismissal on technical or procedural grounds. 183807

(F) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 183808
court shall have no effect on a prior board order entered under 183809
the provisions of this section or on the board's jurisdiction to 183810
take action under the provisions of this section if, based upon a 183811
plea of guilty, a judicial finding of guilt, or a judicial finding 183812
of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction, the board 183813
issued a notice of opportunity for a hearing prior to the court's 183814
order to seal or expunge the records. The board shall not be 183815
required to seal, destroy, redact, or otherwise modify its records 183816
to reflect the court's sealing or expungement of conviction 183817
records. 183818

(G) For purposes of this division, any individual who holds a 183819 license to practice as a radiologist assistant issued under this 183820
chapter, or applies for a license, shall be deemed to have given 183821 consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when 183822

directed to do so in writing by the board and to have waived all 183823
reports that constitute a privileged communication. 183825

(1) In enforcing division (B)(5) of this section, the board, 183826
on a showing of a possible violation, may compel any individual 183827 who holds a license to practice as a radiologist assistant issued 183828 under this chapter or who has applied for a license to submit to a 183829 mental or physical examination, or both. A physical examination 183830 may include an HIV test. The expense of the examination is the 183831 responsibility of the individual compelled to be examined. Failure 183832
to submit to a mental or physical examination or consent to an HIV 183833
test ordered by the board constitutes an admission of the 183834
allegations against the individual unless the failure is due to 183835
circumstances beyond the individual's control, and a default and 183836
final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or 183837 presentation of evidence. If the board finds a radiologist 183838 assistant unable to practice because of the reasons set forth in 183839 division (B)(5) of this section, the board shall require the 183840 radiologist assistant to submit to care, counseling, or treatment 183841
by physicians approved or designated by the board, as a condition 183842 for an initial, continued, reinstated, or renewed license. An 183843 individual affected by this division shall be afforded an 183844 opportunity to demonstrate to the board the ability to resume 183845 practicing in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards 183846
of care. 183847

(2) For purposes of division (B)(6) of this section, if the 183848
board has reason to believe that any individual who holds a 183849 license to practice as a radiologist assistant issued under this 183850
chapter or any applicant for a license suffers such impairment, 183851 the board may compel the individual to submit to a mental or 183852 physical examination, or both. The expense of the examination is 183853 the responsibility of the individual compelled to be examined. Any 183854 mental or physical examination required under this division shall 183855

be undertaken by a treatment provider or physician qualified to 183856

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 183859
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 183860
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 183861
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 183862
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 183863
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 183864
license or deny the individual's application and shall require the 183865
individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, 183866
or renewed license to practice, to submit to treatment. 183867

suspended under this division, the radiologist assistant shall 183869 demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice in 183870
compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care. The 183871
demonstration shall include the following: 183872

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 183873
section 4731.25 of the Revised Code that the individual has 183874
successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 183875

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 183876
contract or consent agreement; 183877

(c) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 183878
ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 183879
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 183880
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 183881
individuals or providers approved by the board for making such 183882
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 183883

The board may reinstate a license suspended under this 183884

division after such demonstration and after the individual has 183885
entered into a written consent agreement. 183886

When the impaired radiologist assistant resumes practice, the 183887 board shall require continued monitoring of the radiologist 183888 assistant. The monitoring shall include monitoring of compliance 183889 with the written consent agreement entered into before 183890 reinstatement or with conditions imposed by board order after a 183891 hearing, and, on termination of the consent agreement, submission 183892
to the board for at least two years of annual written progress 183893
reports made under penalty of falsification stating whether the 183894
radiologist assistant has maintained sobriety. 183895

(H) If the secretary and supervising member determine that 183896
there is clear and convincing evidence that a radiologist 183897
assistant has violated division (B) of this section and that the 183898 individual's continued practice presents a danger of immediate and 183899 serious harm to the public, they may recommend that the board 183900
suspend the individual's license to practice without a prior 183901
hearing. Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration 183902
by the board. 183903

The board, on review of the allegations and by an affirmative 183904 vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding the secretary 183905
and supervising member, may suspend a license without a prior 183906
hearing. A telephone conference call may be utilized for reviewing 183907
the allegations and taking the vote on the summary suspension. 183908

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 183910
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 183912
of the Revised Code. If the radiologist assistant requests an 183913 adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date set for the hearing 183914
shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier than seven days, 183915
after the radiologist assistant requests the hearing, unless 183916

otherwise agreed to by both the board and the license holder. 183917

A summary suspension imposed under this division shall remain 183918
in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final adjudicative 183919
order issued by the board pursuant to this section and Chapter 183920
119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board shall issue 183921
its final adjudicative order within sixty days after completion of 183922
its hearing. Failure to issue the order within sixty days shall 183923 result in dissolution of the summary suspension order, but shall 183924
not invalidate any subsequent, final adjudicative order. 183925

(I) If the board takes action under division (B)(10), (12), 183926
or (13) of this section, and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 183927
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 183928
of conviction is overturned on appeal, on exhaustion of the 183929
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 183930
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. On 183931
shall reinstate the license to practice as a radiologist 183933
assistant. The board may then hold an adjudication under Chapter 183934 119. of the Revised Code to determine whether the individual 183935 committed the act in question. Notice of opportunity for hearing 183936 shall be given in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised 183937 Code. If the board finds, pursuant to an adjudication held under 183938 this division, that the individual committed the act, or if no 183939
hearing is requested, it may order any of the sanctions specified 183940
in division (B) of this section. 183941

(J) The license to practice of a radiologist assistant and 183942
the assistant's practice in this state are automatically suspended 183943
as of the date the radiologist assistant pleads guilty to, is 183944
found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is subject to a 183945
judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 183946 conviction in this state or treatment of intervention in lieu of 183947 conviction in another jurisdiction for any of the following 183948

criminal offenses in this state or a substantially equivalent 183949
criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated murder, 183950
murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, kidnapping, 183951
rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, aggravated arson, 183952
aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. Continued practice 183953
after the suspension shall be considered practicing without a 183954
license. 183955

The board shall notify the individual subject to the 183956
suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 183957
section 119.07 of the Revised Code. If an individual whose license 183958
is suspended under this division fails to make a timely request 183959
for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the 183960
board shall enter a final order permanently revoking the 183961
individual's license. 183962

(K) In any instance in which the board is required by Chapter 183963
119. of the Revised Code to give notice of opportunity for hearing 183964
and the individual subject to the notice does not timely request a 183965
hearing in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the 183966
board is not required to hold a hearing, but may adopt, by an 183967
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 183968
order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the 183969
board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) 183970
or (B) of this section. 183971

(L) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this 183972 section resulting in a suspension shall be accompanied by a 183973 written statement of the conditions under which the radiologist 183974 assistant's license may be reinstated. The board shall adopt rules 183975 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing 183976
conditions to be imposed for reinstatement. Reinstatement of a 183977
license suspended pursuant to division (B) of this section 183978
requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the 183979

(N) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, all of the following apply:

(1) The surrender of a license to practice as a radiologist assistant issued under this chapter is not effective unless or until accepted by the board. Reinstatement of a license surrendered to the board requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board.

(2) An application made under this chapter for a license to practice may not be withdrawn without approval of the board.

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license to practice in accordance with section 4774.06 of the Revised Code ~~shall~~ does not remove or limit the board's jurisdiction to take disciplinary action under this section against the individual.

(4) The placement of an individual's license on retired status, as described in section 4774.062 of the Revised Code, does not remove or limit the board's jurisdiction to take any disciplinary action against the individual with regard to the license as it existed before being placed on retired status.

Sec. 4778.06. (A) An individual seeking to renew a license to practice as a genetic counselor shall, on or before the license's expiration date, apply to the state medical board for renewal. The board shall provide renewal notices to license holders at least 184011 one month prior to the expiration date. 184012

Renewal applications shall be submitted to the board in a 184013 manner prescribed by the board. Each application shall be 184014 accompanied by a biennial renewal fee of one hundred fifty 184015 dollars. 184016

The applicant shall report any criminal offense to which the 184017 applicant has pleaded guilty, of which the applicant has been 184018 found guilty, or for which the applicant has been found eligible 184019 for intervention in lieu of conviction, since last signing an 184020 application for a license to practice as a genetic counselor. 184021

(B) To be eligible for renewal, a genetic counselor shall 184022 certify to the board that the counselor has done both of the 184023
following: 184024

(1) Maintained the counselor's status as a certified genetic 184025 counselor; 184026

(2) Completed at least thirty hours of continuing education 184027 in genetic counseling that has been approved by the national 184028 society of genetic counselors or American board of genetic 184029 counseling. 184030

(C) If an applicant submits a renewal application that the 184031 board considers to be complete and qualifies for renewal pursuant 184032 to division (B) of this section, the board shall issue to the 184033 applicant a renewed license to practice as a genetic counselor. 184034

(D) The board may require a random sample of genetic 184035 counselors to submit materials documenting that their status as 184036 certified genetic counselors has been maintained and that the 184037 number of hours of continuing education required under division 184038 (B)(2) of this section has been completed. This division does not 184039 limit the board's authority to conduct investigations pursuant to 184040
section 4778.14 of the Revised Code. 184041

(E)(1) If, through a random sample conducted under division 184042
(D) of this section or through any other means, the board finds 184043 that an individual who certified completion of the number of hours 184044 and type of continuing education required to renew, reinstate, ~~or~~ 184045 restore, or reactivate a license to practice did not complete the 184046 requisite continuing education, the board may do either of the 184047
following: 184048

(a) Take disciplinary action against the individual under 184049 section 4778.14 of the Revised Code, impose a civil penalty, or 184050
both; 184051

(b) Permit the individual to agree in writing to complete the 184052 continuing education and pay a civil penalty. 184053

(2) The board's finding in any disciplinary action taken 184054

184162
184163

184182
184183
184184
184185
184186

184189
184191

(H) The board may adopt rules to implement and enforce this section. The rules shall be adopted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code.

(B) The board, by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members, shall, except as provided in division (C) of this section, and to the extent permitted by law, limit, revoke, or suspend an individual's license to practice as a genetic counselor, refuse to issue a license to an applicant, refuse to renew a license, refuse to reinstate a license, or reprimand or place on probation the holder of a license for any of the following reasons:

(7) Willfully betraying a professional confidence;	184239
(8) Making a false, fraudulent, deceptive, or misleading statement in securing or attempting to secure a license to practice as a genetic counselor.	184240 184241 184242

conviction for, a felony; 184256

(11) Commission of an act that constitutes a felony in this 184257
state, regardless of the jurisdiction in which the act was 184258

conviction for, a misdemeanor committed in the course of practice; 184262

(13) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or 184263
a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 184264
conviction for, a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; 184265

(14) Commission of an act in the course of practice that 184266
constitutes a misdemeanor in this state, regardless of the 184267
jurisdiction in which the act was committed; 184268

(15) Commission of an act involving moral turpitude that 184269
constitutes a misdemeanor in this state, regardless of the 184270
jurisdiction in which the act was committed; 184271

(16) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or 184272
a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 184273
conviction for violating any state or federal law regulating the 184274
trafficking in drugs; 184276

(17) Any of the following actions taken by an agency 184277
responsible for authorizing, certifying, or regulating an 184278
individual to practice a health care occupation or provide health 184279 care services in this state or in another jurisdiction, for any 184280 reason other than the nonpayment of fees: the limitation, 184281

acceptance of an individual's license surrender; denial of a 184283 license; refusal to renew or reinstate a license; imposition of 184284

failure to comply with a subpoena or order issued by the board or 184290
failure to answer truthfully a question presented by the board at 184291
a deposition or in written interrogatories, except that failure to 184292
cooperate with an investigation shall not constitute grounds for 184293
discipline under this section if a court of competent jurisdiction 184294
has issued an order that either quashes a subpoena or permits the 184295
individual to withhold the testimony or evidence in issue; 184296

(20) Failure to maintain the individual's status as a 184297
certified genetic counselor; 184298

(21) Failure to comply with the code of ethics established by 184299
the national society of genetic counselors. 184300

(C) The board shall not refuse to issue a license to an 184301
applicant because of a plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of 184302 guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 184303
lieu of conviction for an offense unless the refusal is in 184304
accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 184305

(D) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions 184306
(A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an 184307
adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 184308
in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent 184309
agreement with a genetic counselor or applicant to resolve an 184310
allegation of a violation of this chapter or any rule adopted 184311
under it. A consent agreement, when ratified by an affirmative 184312

vote of not fewer than six members of the board, shall constitute 184313
the findings and order of the board with respect to the matter 184314
addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to ratify a 184315
consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained in the 184316
consent agreement shall be of no force or effect. 184317

A telephone conference call may be utilized for ratification 184318
of a consent agreement that revokes or suspends an individual's 184319
license. The telephone conference call shall be considered a 184320
special meeting under division (F) of section 121.22 of the 184321
Revised Code. 184322

(E) For purposes of divisions (B)(11), (14), and (15) of this 184323
section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 184324
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 184325
the Revised Code, that the applicant or license holder committed 184326
the act in question. The board shall have no jurisdiction under 184327
these divisions in cases where the trial court renders a final 184328 judgment in the license holder's favor and that judgment is based 184329
upon an adjudication on the merits. The board shall have 184330 jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court 184331
issues an order of dismissal on technical or procedural grounds. 184332

(F) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 184333
court shall have no effect on a prior board order entered under 184334
the provisions of this section or on the board's jurisdiction to 184335
take action under the provisions of this section if, based upon a 184336
plea of guilty, a judicial finding of guilt, or a judicial finding 184337
of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction, the board 184338
issued a notice of opportunity for a hearing or took other formal 184339 action under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code prior to the court's 184340
order to seal or expunge the records. The board shall not be 184341
required to seal, destroy, redact, or otherwise modify its records 184342
records. 184344

(G) For purposes of this division, any individual who holds a license to practice as a genetic counselor, or applies for a license, shall be deemed to have given consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when directed to do so in writing by the board and to have waived all objections to the admissibility of testimony or examination reports that constitute a privileged communication.

license suffers such impairment, the board may compel the 184377 individual to submit to a mental or physical examination, or both. 184378
The expense of the examination is the responsibility of the 184379 individual compelled to be examined. Any mental or physical 184380 examination required under this division shall be undertaken by a 184381
examination and chosen by the board. 184383

Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination ordered 184384
by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 184385
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 184386
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 184387
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 184388
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 184389
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 184390
license or deny the individual's application and shall require the 184391
individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, 184392
or renewed license, to submit to treatment. 184393

suspended under this division, the genetic counselor shall 184395 demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice in 184396
compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care. The 184397
demonstration shall include the following: 184398

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 184399
section 4731.25 of the Revised Code that the individual has 184400
successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 184401

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 184402
contract or consent agreement; 184403

(c) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 184404
ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 184405
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 184406
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 184407

individuals or providers approved by the board for making such 184408
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 184409

The board may reinstate a license suspended under this 184410
division after such demonstration and after the individual has 184411
entered into a written consent agreement. 184412

When the impaired genetic counselor resumes practice, the 184413
board shall require continued monitoring of the genetic counselor. 184414
The monitoring shall include monitoring of compliance with the 184415
written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or 184416
with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, on 184417
termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for 184418
at least two years of annual written progress reports made under 184419
penalty of falsification stating whether the genetic counselor has 184420
maintained sobriety. 184421

(H) If the secretary and supervising member determine both of 184422
the following, they may recommend that the board suspend an 184423
individual's license to practice without a prior hearing: 184424

(1) That there is clear and convincing evidence that a 184425
genetic counselor has violated division (B) of this section; 184426

(2) That the individual's continued practice presents a 184427
danger of immediate and serious harm to the public. 184428

Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration by 184429 the board. The board, on review of the allegations and by an 184430 affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding 184431
the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license 184432
without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call may be 184433
utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote on the 184434
summary suspension. 184435

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 184437

the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 184439 of the Revised Code. If the genetic counselor requests an 184440 adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date set for the hearing 184441
shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier than seven days, 184442
after the genetic counselor requests the hearing, unless otherwise 184443 agreed to by both the board and the genetic counselor. 184444

A summary suspension imposed under this division shall remain 184445
in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final adjudicative 184446
order issued by the board pursuant to this section and Chapter 184447
119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board shall issue 184448
its final adjudicative order within sixty days after completion of 184449
its hearing. Failure to issue the order within sixty days shall 184450 result in dissolution of the summary suspension order, but shall 184451
not invalidate any subsequent, final adjudicative order. 184452

(I) If the board takes action under division (B)(10), (12), 184453
or (13) of this section, and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 184454
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 184455
of conviction is overturned on appeal, on exhaustion of the 184456
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 184457
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. On 184458 receipt of a petition and supporting court documents, the board 184459 shall reinstate the license to practice as a genetic counselor. 184460
The board may then hold an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the 184461
Revised Code to determine whether the individual committed the act 184462
in question. Notice of opportunity for hearing shall be given in 184463 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. If the board 184464
the individual committed the act, or if no hearing is requested, 184466
this section. 184468

(J) The license to practice as a genetic counselor and the 184469

of the date the genetic counselor pleads guilty to, is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is subject to a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction in this state or treatment of intervention in lieu of conviction in another jurisdiction for any of the following criminal offenses in this state or a substantially equivalent criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated murder, murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, kidnapping, rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, aggravated arson, aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. Continued practice after the suspension shall be considered practicing without a license.

not remove or limit the board's jurisdiction to take any 184534
disciplinary action against the individual with regard to the 184535 license as it existed before being placed on retired status. 184536 shall ensure that all expenditures are handled in accordance with 187264 policies, procedures, and activities prescribed by state 187265 departments in rules or interagency agreements that are applicable 187266 to the council's functions. 187267

The administrative agent of a county council shall send 187268 this section, to the mayor of the municipal corporation; for the 187282 member listed in division (B)(1)(k) of this section, to the 187283 director of youth services; and for the member listed in division 187284 (B)(1)(n) of this section, to that member's board of trustees. 187285

The administrative agent for a county council may do any of 187286 the following on behalf of the council: 187287

(i) Enter into agreements or administer contracts with public 187288 or private entities to fulfill specific council business. Such 187289 agreements and contracts are exempt from the competitive bidding 187290 requirements of section 307.86 of the Revised Code if they have 187291 been approved by the county council and they are for the purchase 187292 of family and child welfare or child protection services or other 187293 social or job and family services for families and children. The 187294 approval of the county council is not required to exempt 187295 agreements or contracts entered into under section 5139.34, 187296 5139.41, or 5139.43 of the Revised Code from the competitive 187297 moneys, lands, or other property according to the terms of the 187305 gift, grant, devise, or bequest. Any interest or earnings shall be 187306 treated in the same manner and are subject to the same terms as 187307 the gift, grant, devise, or bequest from which it accrues. 187308

(ii) The executive committee may, with the approval of the board, hire an executive director to assist the county council in administering its powers and duties. The executive director shall serve in the unclassified civil service at the pleasure of the executive committee. The executive director may, with the approval of the executive committee, hire other employees as necessary to properly conduct the county council's business.

(iii) The board may require the executive committee to submit an annual budget to the board for approval and may amend or repeal the resolution that delegated to the executive committee its authority as the county council's administrative agent.

(6) Two or more county councils may enter into an agreement to administer their county councils jointly by creating a regional family and children first council. A regional council possesses the same duties and authority possessed by a county council, except that the duties and authority apply regionally rather than to individual counties. Prior to entering into an agreement to create a regional council, the members of each county council to be part of the regional council shall meet to determine whether all or part of the members of each county council will serve as members of the regional council. 187341

(7) A board of county commissioners may approve a resolution 187342 by a majority vote of the board's members that requires the county 187343 council to submit a statement to the board each time the council 187344 proposes to enter into an agreement, adopt a plan, or make a 187345 decision, other than a decision pursuant to section 121.38 of the 187346 Revised Code, that requires the expenditure of funds for two or 187347 more families. The statement shall describe the proposed 187348 agreement, plan, or decision. 187349

Not later than fifteen days after the board receives the 187350 statement, it shall, by resolution approved by a majority of its 187351 members, approve or disapprove the agreement, plan, or decision. 187352 Failure of the board to pass a resolution during that time period 187353 shall be considered approval of the agreement, plan, or decision. 187354

An agreement, plan, or decision for which a statement is 187355 required to be submitted to the board shall be implemented only if 187356 it is approved by the board. 187357

(C) Each county shall develop a county service coordination 187358 mechanism. The county service coordination mechanism shall serve 187359 as the guiding document for coordination of services in the 187360 county. For children who also receive services under the help me 187361 grow program, the service coordination mechanism shall be 187362 consistent with rules adopted by the department of health under 187363 section 3701.61 of the Revised Code. All family service 187364 coordination plans shall be developed in accordance with the 187365 county service coordination mechanism. The mechanism shall be 187366 developed and approved with the participation of the county 187367 entities representing child welfare; developmental disabilities; 187368 alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services; health; 187369 juvenile judges; education; the county family and children first 187370 council; and the county early intervention collaborative 187371 operated under the "Individuals with Disabilities Education Act of 187373 2004." The county shall establish an implementation schedule for 187374 the mechanism. The cabinet council may monitor the implementation 187375 and administration of each county's service coordination 187376 mechanism. 187377

Each mechanism shall include all of the following: 187378 child and family to the county council for service coordination in 187381 accordance with the mechanism; 187382

(2) A procedure ensuring that a family and all appropriate 187383 staff from involved agencies, including a representative from the 187384 appropriate school district, are notified of and invited to 187385 participate in all family service coordination plan meetings; 187386

(3) A procedure that permits a family to initiate a meeting 187387 to develop or review the family's service coordination plan and 187388 allows the family to invite a family advocate, mentor, or support 187389 person of the family's choice to participate in any such meeting; 187390

(4) A procedure for ensuring that a family service 187391 coordination plan meeting is conducted for each child who receives 187392 service coordination under the mechanism and for whom an emergency 187393 out-of-home placement has been made or for whom a nonemergency 187394 out-of-home placement is being considered. The meeting shall be 187395 conducted within ten days of an emergency out-of-home placement. 187396
The meeting shall be conducted before a nonemergency out-of-home 187397 placement. The family service coordination plan shall outline how 187398 the county council members will jointly pay for services, where 187399 applicable, and provide services in the least restrictive 187400 environment. 187401

(5) A procedure for monitoring the progress and tracking the 187402 outcomes of each service coordination plan requested in the county 187403 including monitoring and tracking children in out-of-home 187404 placements to assure continued progress, appropriateness of 187405 placement, and continuity of care after discharge from placement 187406 with appropriate arrangements for housing, treatment, and 187407 education; 187408

(6) A procedure for protecting the confidentiality of all 187409 personal family information disclosed during service coordination 187410 meetings or contained in the comprehensive family service 187411 coordination plan; 187412

(7) A procedure for assessing the needs and strengths of any 187413 child or family that has been referred to the council for service 187414 coordination, including a child whose parent or custodian is 187415 voluntarily seeking services, and for ensuring that parents and 187416 agencies represented on the county council concerning the 187422 provision of services to children, including children who are 187423 abused, neglected, dependent, unruly, alleged unruly, or 187424 delinquent children and under the jurisdiction of the juvenile 187425 court and children whose parents or custodians are voluntarily 187426 seeking services. The local dispute resolution process shall 187427 comply with sections 121.38, 121.381, and 121.382 of the Revised 187428 Code. The local dispute resolution process shall be used to 187429 county council regarding service coordination. The county council 187431 shall inform the parents or custodians of their right to use the 187432 dispute resolution process. Parents or custodians shall use 187433 existing local agency grievance procedures to address disputes not 187434 involving service coordination. The dispute resolution process is 187435 in addition to and does not replace other rights or procedures 187436 that parents or custodians may have under other sections of the 187437

Revised Code. 187438

The cabinet council shall adopt rules in accordance with 187439
Chapter 119. of the Revised Code establishing an administrative 187440 review process to address problems that arise concerning the 187441 operation of a local dispute resolution process. 187442

Nothing in division (C)(4) of this section shall be 187443 interpreted as overriding or affecting decisions of a juvenile 187444 court regarding an out-of-home placement, long-term placement, or 187445 emergency out-of-home placement. 187446

(D) Each county shall develop a family service coordination 187447 salary, contained in such a collective bargaining agreement even 187878 if it is similar to a payment or benefit already provided by law 187879 to some or all of these employees. Any payment or benefit so 187880 provided shall not exceed the highest level for that payment or 187881 benefit specified in such a collective bargaining agreement. The 187882 director of administrative services shall not provide, and the 187883 director of budget and management shall not approve, any payment 187884 or benefit to such an employee under this division unless the 187885 payment or benefit is provided pursuant to a collective bargaining 187886 agreement to a state employee who is in a position with similar 187887 duties as, is supervised by, or is employed by the same appointing 187888 authority as, the employee to whom the benefit or payment is to be 187889 provided. 187890

As used in this division, "payment or benefit already 187891 provided by law" includes, but is not limited to, bereavement, 187892 personal, vacation, administrative, and sick leave, disability 187893 benefits, holiday pay, and pay supplements provided under the 187894 Revised Code, but does not include wages or salary. 187895

(E) New employees paid in accordance with schedule B of 187896 division (A) of this section or schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of 187897 the Revised Code shall be employed at the minimum rate established 187898 for the range unless otherwise provided. Employees with 187899 qualifications that are beyond the minimum normally required for 187900 the position and that are determined by the director to be 187901 exceptional may be employed in, or may be transferred or promoted 187902 to, a position at an advanced step of the range. Further, in time 187903 of a serious labor market condition when it is relatively 187904 impossible to recruit employees at the minimum rate for a 187905 particular classification, the entrance rate may be set at an 187906 advanced step in the range by the director of administrative 187907 services. This rate may be limited to geographical regions of the 187908 state. Appointments made to an advanced step under the provision 187909 regarding exceptional qualifications shall not affect the step 187910 assignment of employees already serving. However, anytime the 187911 hiring rate of an entire classification is advanced to a higher 187912 step, all incumbents of that classification being paid at a step 187913 lower than that being used for hiring, shall be advanced beginning 187914 at the start of the first pay period thereafter to the new hiring 187915 rate, and any time accrued at the lower step will be used to 187916 calculate advancement to a succeeding step. If the hiring rate of 187917 a classification is increased for only a geographical region of 187918 the state, only incumbents who work in that geographical region 187919 shall be advanced to a higher step. When an employee in the 187920 unclassified service changes from one state position to another or 187921 is appointed to a position in the classified service, or if an 187922 employee in the classified service is appointed to a position in 187923 the unclassified service, the employee's salary or wage in the new 187924 position shall be determined in the same manner as if the employee 187925 were an employee in the classified service. When an employee in 187926 the unclassified service who is not eligible for step increases is 187927 appointed to a classification in the classified service under 187928 which step increases are provided, future step increases shall be 187929 based on the date on which the employee last received a pay 187930 increase. If the employee has not received an increase during the 187931 previous year, the date of the appointment to the classified 187932 service shall be used to determine the employee's annual step 187933 advancement eligibility date. In reassigning any employee to a 187934 classification resulting in a pay range increase or to a new pay 187935 range as a result of a promotion, an increase pay range 187936 adjustment, or other classification change resulting in a pay 187937 range increase, the director shall assign such employee to the 187938 step in the new pay range that will provide an increase of 187939 approximately four per cent if the new pay range can accommodate 187940 the increase. When an employee is being assigned to a 187941 classification or new pay range as the result of a class plan 187942 change, if the employee has completed a probationary period, the 187943 employee shall be placed in a step no lower than step two of the 187944 new pay range. If the employee has not completed a probationary 187945 period, the employee may be placed in step one of the new pay 187946 range. Such new salary or wage shall become effective on such date 187947 as the director determines. 187948

(F) If employment conditions and the urgency of the work 187949 require such action, the director of administrative services may, 187950 upon the application of a department head, authorize payment at 187951 any rate established within the range for the class of work, for 187952 work of a casual or intermittent nature or on a project basis. 187953 Payment at such rates shall not be made to the same individual for 187954 more than three calendar months in any one calendar year. Any such 187955 action shall be subject to the approval of the director of budget 187956 and management as to the availability of funds. This section and 187957 sections 124.14 and 124.152 of the Revised Code do not repeal any 187958 authority of any department or public official to contract with or 187959 fix the compensation of professional persons who may be employed 187960 temporarily for work of a casual nature or for work on a project 187961 basis. 187962

(G)(1) Except as provided in divisions (G)(2) and (3) of this 187963 section, each state employee paid in accordance with schedule B of 187964 this section or schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of the Revised 187965 Code shall be eligible for advancement to succeeding steps in the 187966 range for the employee's class or grade according to the schedule 187967 established in this division. Beginning on the first day of the 187968 pay period within which the employee completes the prescribed 187969 probationary period in the employee's classification with the 187970 state, each employee shall receive an automatic salary adjustment 187971 equivalent to the next higher step within the pay range for the 187972 employee's class or grade. 187973

Except as provided in divisions (G)(2) and (3) of this 187974 section, each employee paid in accordance with schedule E-1 of 187975 section 124.152 of the Revised Code shall be eligible to advance 187976 to the next higher step until the employee reaches the top step in 187977 the range for the employee's class or grade, if the employee has 187978 maintained satisfactory performance in accordance with criteria 187979 established by the employee's appointing authority. Those step 187980 advancements shall not occur more frequently than once in any 187981 twelve-month period. 187982

When an employee is promoted, the step entry date shall be 187983 set to account for a probationary period. When an employee is 187984 reassigned to a higher pay range, the step entry date shall be set 187985 to allow an employee who is not at the highest step of the range 187986 to receive a step advancement one year from the reassignment date. 187987 Step advancement shall not be affected by demotion. A promoted 187988 employee shall advance to the next higher step of the pay range on 187989 the first day of the pay period in which the required probationary 187990 period is completed. Step advancement shall become effective at 187991 the beginning of the pay period within which the employee attains 187992 the necessary length of service. Time spent on authorized leave of 187993 absence shall be counted for this purpose. 187994

If determined to be in the best interest of the state 187995 service, the director of administrative services may, either 187996 statewide or in selected agencies, adjust the dates on which 187997 annual step advancements are received by employees paid in 187998 accordance with schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of the Revised 187999
Code. 188000

(2)(a) There shall be a moratorium on annual step 188001 advancements under division (G)(1) of this section beginning June 188002 21, 2009, through June 20, 2011. Step advancements shall resume 188003 with the pay period beginning June 21, 2011. Upon the resumption 188004 of step advancements, there shall be no retroactive step 188005 advancements for the period the moratorium was in effect. The 188006 moratorium shall not affect an employee's performance evaluation 188007 schedule. 188008

An employee who begins a probationary period before June 21, 188009 2009, shall advance to the next step in the employee's pay range 188010 at the end of probation, and then become subject to the 188011 moratorium. An employee who is hired, promoted, or reassigned to a 188012 higher pay range between June 21, 2009, through June 20, 2011, 188013 shall not advance to the next step in the employee's pay range 188014 until the next anniversary of the employee's date of hire, 188015 promotion, or reassignment that occurs on or after June 21, 2011. 188016

(b) The moratorium under division (G)(2)(a) of this section 188017 shall apply to the employees of the secretary of state, the 188018 auditor of state, the treasurer of state, and the attorney 188019 general, who are subject to this section unless the secretary of 188020 state, the auditor of state, the treasurer of state, or the 188021 attorney general decides to exempt the office's employees from the 188022 moratorium and so notifies the director of administrative services 188023 in writing on or before July 1, 2009. 188024

(3) Employees in intermittent positions shall be employed at 188025 the minimum rate established for the pay range for their 188026 classification and are not eligible for step advancements. 188027

(H) Employees in appointive managerial or professional 188028 positions paid in accordance with schedule C of this section or 188029 schedule E-2 of section 124.152 of the Revised Code may be 188030 appointed at any rate within the appropriate pay range. This rate 188031 of pay may be adjusted higher or lower within the respective pay 188032 range at any time the appointing authority so desires as long as 188033 the adjustment is based on the employee's ability to successfully 188034 administer those duties assigned to the employee. Salary 188035 adjustments shall not be made more frequently than once in any 188036 six-month period under this provision to incumbents holding the 188037 same position and classification. 188038

(I) When an employee is assigned to duty outside this state, 188039 the employee may be compensated, upon request of the department 188040 head and with the approval of the director of administrative 188041 services, at a rate not to exceed fifty per cent in excess of the 188042 employee's current base rate for the period of time spent on that 188043 duty. 188044

(J) Unless compensation for members of a board or commission 188045 is otherwise specifically provided by law, the director of 188046 administrative services shall establish the rate and method of 188047 payment for members of boards and commissions pursuant to the pay 188048 schedules listed in section 124.152 of the Revised Code. 188049

(K) Regular full-time employees in positions assigned to 188050 classes within the instruction and education administration series 188051 under the job classification plans of the director of 188052 administrative services, except certificated employees on the 188053 instructional staff of the state school for the blind or the state 188054 school for the deaf, whose positions are scheduled to work on the 188055 basis of an academic year rather than a full calendar year, shall 188056 be paid according to the pay range assigned by the applicable job 188057 classification plan, but only during those pay periods included in 188058 the academic year of the school where the employee is located. 188059

(1) Part-time or substitute teachers or those whose period of 188060 employment is other than the full academic year shall be 188061 compensated for the actual time worked at the rate established by 188062
this section. 188063

(2) Employees governed by this division are exempt from sections 124.13 and 124.19 of the Revised Code.

(3) Length of service for the purpose of determining eligibility for step advancements as provided by division (G) of this section and for the purpose of determining eligibility for longevity pay supplements as provided by division (E) of section 124.181 of the Revised Code shall be computed on the basis of one full year of service for the completion of each academic year.

(L) The superintendent of the state school for the deaf and the superintendent of the state school for the blind shall, subject to the approval of the ~~superintendent of public instruction~~ director of education and workforce, carry out both of the following:

(1) Annually, between the first day of April and the last day of June, establish for the ensuing fiscal year a schedule of hourly rates for the compensation of each certificated employee on the instructional staff of that superintendent's respective school constructed as follows:

(a) Determine for each level of training, experience, and other professional qualification for which an hourly rate is set forth in the current schedule, the per cent that rate is of the rate set forth in such schedule for a teacher with a bachelor's degree and no experience. If there is more than one such rate for such a teacher, the lowest rate shall be used to make the computation.

(b) Determine which six city, local, and exempted village school districts with territory in Franklin county have in effect on, or have adopted by, the first day of April for the school year that begins on the ensuing first day of July, teacher salary schedules with the highest minimum salaries for a teacher with a bachelor's degree and no experience;

(c) Divide the sum of such six highest minimum salaries by 188095 ten thousand five hundred sixty; 188096

(d) Multiply each per cent determined in division (L)(1)(a) 188097 of this section by the quotient obtained in division (L)(1)(c) of 188098
this section; 188099

(e) One hundred five per cent of each product thus obtained 188100 shall be the hourly rate for the corresponding level of training, 188101 experience, or other professional qualification in the schedule 188102 for the ensuing fiscal year. 188103

(2) Annually, assign each certificated employee on the 188104 instructional staff of the superintendent's respective school to 188105 an hourly rate on the schedule that is commensurate with the 188106 employee's training, experience, and other professional 188107 qualifications. 188108

If an employee is employed on the basis of an academic year, 188109 the employee's annual salary shall be calculated by multiplying 188110 the employee's assigned hourly rate times one thousand seven 188111 hundred sixty. If an employee is not employed on the basis of an 188112 academic year, the employee's annual salary shall be calculated in 188113 accordance with the following formula: 188114

(a) Multiply the number of days the employee is required to 188115 work pursuant to the employee's contract by eight; 188116

(b) Multiply the product of division (L)(2)(a) of this 188117 section by the employee's assigned hourly rate. 188118

Each employee shall be paid an annual salary in biweekly 188119 installments. The amount of each installment shall be calculated 188120 by dividing the employee's annual salary by the number of biweekly 188121 installments to be paid during the year. 188122

Sections 124.13 and 124.19 of the Revised Code do not apply 188123 to an employee who is paid under this division. 188124

As used in this division, "academic year" means the number of 188125 days in each school year that the schools are required to be open 188126 for instruction with pupils in attendance. Upon completing an 188127 academic year, an employee paid under this division shall be 188128 deemed to have completed one year of service. An employee paid 188129 under this division is eligible to receive a pay supplement under 188130 division (L)(1), (2), or (3) of section 124.181 of the Revised 188131 Code for which the employee qualifies, but is not eligible to 188132 receive a pay supplement under division (L)(4) or (5) of that 188133 section. An employee paid under this division is eligible to 188134 receive a pay supplement under division (L)(6) of section 124.181 188135 of the Revised Code for which the employee qualifies, except that 188136 the supplement is not limited to a maximum of five per cent of the 188137 employee's regular base salary in a calendar year. 188138

(M) Division (A) of this section does not apply to "exempt 188139 employees," as defined in section 124.152 of the Revised Code, who 188140 are paid under that section. 188141

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, when an 188142 employee transfers between bargaining units or transfers out of or 188143 into a bargaining unit, the director of administrative services 188144 shall establish the employee's compensation and adjust the maximum 188145 leave accrual schedule as the director deems equitable. 188146 employee is eligible to receive pay, and includes, but is not 188153 limited to, vacation leave, sick leave, personal leave, 188154 bereavement leave, and administrative leave. 188155

(3) "No pay status" means the conditions under which an employee is ineligible to receive pay and includes, but is not limited to, leave without pay, leave of absence, and disability leave.	188156 188157 188158 188159 administrative services determines. The appointing authority of 188200 each employing unit may require an employee to furnish a 188201 satisfactory, signed statement to justify the use of sick leave. 188202

If, after having utilized the credit provided by this 188203 prior to November 15, 1981, compensation for such sick leave used 188205 shall be at a rate as the director determines. 188206

(E)(1) The previously accumulated sick leave balance of an 188207 reemployment takes place within ten years of the date on which the 188212 employee was last terminated from public service. 188213

(2) The previously accumulated sick leave balance of an 188214

188231
188232

(H) As used in this division, "active payroll" means conditions under which an employee is in active pay status or eligible to receive pay for an approved leave of absence, including, but not limited to, occupational injury leave, disability leave, or workers' compensation. 188233

Part-time employees shall receive a one-time credit of sixteen hours of additional sick leave. 188238 director of administrative services on or before June 1, 2011, of 188261 credit. Written notice under this division shall be signed by the 188263 appointing authority for employees of the supreme court, general 188264 assembly, or legislative service commission, as the case may be. 188265

Sec. 124.384. (A) Except as otherwise provided in this 188266 section, employees whose salaries or wages are paid by warrant of 188267 the director of budget and management and who have accumulated 188268 shall be paid for a percentage of their accumulated balances, upon 188270 separation for any reason, including death but excluding 188271 energy consumption and resultant operational and maintenance 188621 costs, as defined by the commission, would be reduced. 188622

If the board finds after receiving the report that the amount 188623 of money the district would spend on such installations, 188624 modifications, or remodeling is not likely to exceed the amount of 188625 money it would save in energy and resultant operational and 188626 maintenance costs over the ensuing fifteen years, the board may 188627 submit to the commission a copy of its findings and a request for 188628 approval to incur indebtedness to finance the making or 188629

No district board of education of a school district that is 188638 in a state of fiscal emergency pursuant to division (B) of section 188639 3316.03 of the Revised Code shall submit a request without 188640

receiving approval to incur indebtedness from the district's 188648 academic distress commission established under that section, for 188649

so long as such commission continues to be required for the 188650

(2) The board of education may contract with a person 188652 experienced in the implementation of student transportation to 188653 produce a report that includes an analysis of and recommendations 188654 for the use of alternative fuel vehicles by school districts. The 188655 report shall include cost estimates detailing the return on 188656 investment over the life of the alternative fuel vehicles and 188657 environmental impact of alternative fuel vehicles. The report also 188658 shall include estimates of all costs associated with alternative 188659 fuel transportation, including facility modifications and vehicle 188660 purchase costs or conversion costs. 188661

If the board finds after receiving the report that the amount 188662 of money the district would spend on purchasing alternative fuel 188663 vehicles or vehicle conversion is not likely to exceed the amount 188664 of money it would save in fuel and resultant operational and 188665 maintenance costs over the ensuing five years, the board may 188666 submit to the commission a copy of its findings and a request for 188667 approval to incur indebtedness to finance the purchase of new 188668 alternative fuel vehicles or vehicle conversions for the purpose 188669 of reducing fuel costs. 188670

The facilities construction commission, in consultation with 188671 the auditor of state, may deny a request under division (G)(2) of 188672 this section by the board of education of any school district that 188673 is in a state of fiscal watch pursuant to division (A) of section 188674 3316.03 of the Revised Code, if it determines that the expenditure 188675 of funds is not in the best interest of the school district. 188676

No district board of education of a school district that is 188677
in a state of fiscal emergency pursuant to division (B) of section 188678 3316.03 of the Revised Code shall submit a request without 188679 planning and supervision commission established under section 188682

3316.05 of the Revised Code. 188683

No board of education of a school district for which an 188684 academic distress commission has been established under section 188685 3302.10 of the Revised Code shall submit a request without first 188686 receiving approval to incur indebtedness from the district's 188687 academic distress commission established under that section, for 188688
so long as such commission continues to be required for the 188689
district. 188690

(3) The facilities construction commission shall approve the 188691 board's request provided that the following conditions are 188692 satisfied: 188693

this division. 189097

(2) Certify each percentage determined in division (D)(1) of 189098 this section, as adjusted under division (E) of this section, and 189099 the class of property to which that percentage applies to the 189100 auditor of each county in which the district has territory. The 189101 auditor, after complying with section 319.30 of the Revised Code, 189102 shall reduce the sum to be levied by such tax against each parcel 189103 of real property in the district by the percentage so certified 189104 for its class. Certification shall be made by the first day of 189105 September except in the case of a tax levied for the first time, 189106 in which case certification shall be made within fifteen days of 189107 the date the county auditor submits the information necessary to 189108 make the required determination. 189109

(E)(1) As used in division (E)(2) of this section, "pre-1982 189110 joint vocational taxes" means, with respect to a class of 189111 property, the difference between the following amounts: 189112

(a) The taxes charged and payable in tax year 1981 against 189113

the property in that class for the current expenses of the joint vocational school district of which the school district is a part after making all reductions under this section;

(b) Two-tenths of one per cent of the taxable value of all real property in that class.

If the amount in division (E)(1)(b) of this section exceeds the amount in division (E)(1)(a) of this section, the pre-1982 joint vocational taxes shall be zero.

As used in divisions (E)(2) and (3) of this section, "taxes charged and payable" has the same meaning as in division (B)(4) of this section and excludes any tax charged and payable in 1985 or thereafter under sections 5705.194 to 5705.197 or section 5705.199, 5705.213, 5705.219, or 5748.09 of the Revised Code.

(2) If in the case of a school district other than a joint vocational or cooperative education school district any percentage required to be used in division (D)(2) of this section for either class of property could cause the total taxes charged and payable for current expenses to be less than two per cent of the taxable value of all real property in that class that is subject to taxation by the district, the commissioner shall determine what percentages would cause the district's total taxes charged and payable for current expenses against that class, after all reductions that would otherwise be made under this section, to equal, when combined with the pre-1982 joint vocational taxes against that class, the lesser of the following:

(a) The sum of the rates at which those taxes are authorized to be levied;

(b) Two per cent of the taxable value of the property in that class. The auditor shall use such percentages in making the reduction required by this section for that class.

(3) If in the case of a joint vocational school district any percentage required to be used in division (D)(2) of this section 189145 for either class of property could cause the total taxes charged 189146 and payable for current expenses for that class to be less than 189147 two-tenths of one per cent of the taxable value of that class, the 189148 commissioner shall determine what percentages would cause the 189149 district's total taxes charged and payable for current expenses 189150 for that class, after all reductions that would otherwise be made 189151 under this section, to equal that amount. The auditor shall use 189152 such percentages in making the reductions required by this section 189153 for that class. 189154

(F) No reduction shall be made under this section in the rate 189155 at which any tax is levied. 189156

(G) The commissioner may order a county auditor to furnish 189157 any information the commissioner needs to make the determinations 189158 required under division (D) or (E) of this section, and the 189159 auditor shall supply the information in the form and by the date 189160 specified in the order. If the auditor fails to comply with an 189161 order issued under this division, except for good cause as 189162 determined by the commissioner, the commissioner shall withhold 189163 from such county or taxing district therein fifty per cent of 189164 state revenues to local governments pursuant to section 5747.50 of 189165 the Revised Code or shall direct the department of education and 189166 workforce to withhold therefrom fifty per cent of state revenues 189167 to school districts pursuant to Chapter 3317. of the Revised Code. 189168
The commissioner shall withhold the distribution of such revenues 189169 until the county auditor has complied with this division, and the 189170 department shall withhold the distribution of such revenues until 189171 the commissioner has notified the department that the county 189172 auditor has complied with this division. 189173

(H) If the commissioner is unable to certify a tax reduction 189174 factor for either class of property in a taxing district located 189175 in more than one county by the last day of November because 189176 information required under division (G) of this section is 189177 unavailable, the commissioner may compute and certify an estimated 189178 tax reduction factor for that district for that class. The 189179 estimated factor shall be based upon an estimate of the 189180 unavailable information. Upon receipt of the actual information 189181 for a taxing district that received an estimated tax reduction 189182 factor, the commissioner shall compute the actual tax reduction 189183 factor and use that factor to compute the taxes that should have 189184 been charged and payable against each parcel of property for the 189185 year for which the estimated reduction factor was used. The amount 189186 by which the estimated factor resulted in an overpayment or 189187 underpayment in taxes on any parcel shall be added to or 189188 subtracted from the amount due on that parcel in the ensuing tax 189189 year. 189190

A percentage or a tax reduction factor determined or computed 189191 by the commissioner under this section shall be used solely for 189192 the purpose of reducing the sums to be levied by the tax to which 189193 it applies for the year for which it was determined or computed. 189194
It shall not be used in making any tax computations for any 189195 ensuing tax year. 189196

(I) In making the determinations under division (D)(1) of 189197 this section, the tax commissioner shall take account of changes 189198 in the taxable value of carryover property resulting from 189199 complaints filed under section 5715.19 of the Revised Code for 189200 determinations made for the tax year in which such changes are 189201 reported to the commissioner. Such changes shall be reported to 189202 the commissioner on the first abstract of real property filed with 189203 the commissioner under section 5715.23 of the Revised Code 189204 following the date on which the complaint is finally determined by 189205 the board of revision or by a court or other authority with 189206 jurisdiction on appeal. The tax commissioner shall account for 189207 such changes in making the determinations only for the tax year in 189208 which the change in valuation is reported. Such a valuation change 189209 shall not be used to recompute the percentages determined under 189210 division (D)(1) of this section for any prior tax year. 189211
