the secretary ~~and supervising member~~ of the board. 128478

Before issuance of a subpoena for patient record information, 128479 the secretary ~~and supervising member~~ shall determine whether there 128480 is probable cause to believe that the complaint filed alleges a 128481 violation of this chapter or any rule adopted under it and that 128482 the records sought are relevant to the alleged violation and 128483 material to the investigation. The subpoena may apply only to 128484 records that cover a reasonable period of time surrounding the 128485 notifies the board that the attorney is representing the person. 128504

A sheriff's deputy who serves a subpoena shall receive the 128505 prosecuting, adjudicating, or investigating alleged violations of 128526 statutes or administrative rules. An agency or board that receives 128527 the information shall comply with the same requirements regarding 128528 confidentiality as those with which the state medical board must 128529 comply, notwithstanding any conflicting provision of the Revised 128530 Code or procedure of the agency or board that applies when it is 128531 dealing with other information in its possession. In a judicial 128532 proceeding, the information may be admitted into evidence only in 128533 that appropriate measures are taken to ensure that confidentiality 128535 medical board when the information was in the board's possession. 128539

(c) An annual plan that identifies the county's interagency 129322 efforts to increase child well-being in the county. 129323

On an annual basis, the county council shall submit a report 129324 on the status of efforts by the county to increase child 129325 well-being in the county to the county's board of county 129326 commissioners and the cabinet council. This report shall be made 129327 available to any other person on request. 129328

(4)(a) Except as provided in division (B)(4)(b) of this 129329 section, a county council shall comply with the policies, 129330 procedures, and activities prescribed by the rules or interagency 129331 agreements of a state department participating on the cabinet 129332 council whenever the county council performs a function subject to 129333 those rules or agreements. 129334

(b) On application of a county council, the cabinet council 129335 may grant an exemption from any rules or interagency agreements of 129336 a state department participating on the council if an exemption is 129337 necessary for the council to implement an alternative program or 129338 approach for service delivery to families and children. The 129339 application shall describe the proposed program or approach and 129340 specify the rules or interagency agreements from which an 129341 exemption is necessary. The cabinet council shall approve or 129342 disapprove the application in accordance with standards and 129343 procedures it shall adopt. If an application is approved, the 129344 exemption is effective only while the program or approach is being 129345 implemented, including a reasonable period during which the 129346 program or approach is being evaluated for effectiveness. 129347

(5)(a) Each county council shall designate an administrative 129348 agent for the council from among the following public entities: 129349 the board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services, 129350 including a board of alcohol and drug addiction or a community 129351 mental health board if the county is served by separate boards; 129352 the board of county commissioners; any board of health of the 129353 county's city and general health districts; the county department 129354 of job and family services; the county agency responsible for the 129355 administration of children services pursuant to section 5153.15 of 129356 the Revised Code; the county board of developmental disabilities; 129357 any of the county's boards of education or governing boards of 129358 educational service centers; or the county's juvenile court. Any 129359 of the foregoing public entities, other than the board of county 129360 commissioners, may decline to serve as the council's 129361 administrative agent. 129362

A county council's administrative agent shall serve as the 129363 council's appointing authority for any employees of the council. 129364
The council shall file an annual budget with its administrative 129365 agent, with copies filed with the county auditor and with the 129366 board of county commissioners, unless the board is serving as the 129367 council's administrative agent. The council's administrative agent 129368 shall ensure that all expenditures are handled in accordance with 129369 policies, procedures, and activities prescribed by state 129370 departments in rules or interagency agreements that are applicable 129371 to the council's functions. 129372

The administrative agent of a county council shall send 129373 notice of a member's absence if a member listed in division (B)(1) 129374 of this section has been absent from either three consecutive 129375 meetings of the county council or a county council subcommittee, 129376 or from one-quarter of such meetings in a calendar year, whichever 129377 is less. The notice shall be sent to the board of county 129378 commissioners that establishes the county council and, for the 129379 members listed in divisions (B)(1)(b), (c), (e), and (l) of this 129380 section, to the governing board overseeing the respective entity; 129381 for the member listed in division (B)(1)(f) of this section, to 129382 the county board of developmental disabilities that employs the 129383 superintendent; for a member listed in division (B)(1)(g) or (h) 129384 of this section, to the school board that employs the 129385 superintendent; for the member listed in division (B)(1)(i) of 129386 this section, to the mayor of the municipal corporation; for the 129387 member listed in division (B)(1)(k) of this section, to the 129388 director of youth services; and for the member listed in division 129389
(B)(1)(n) of this section, to that member's board of trustees. 129390

The administrative agent for a county council may do any of 129391
the following on behalf of the council: 129392

(i) Enter into agreements or administer contracts with public 129393 or private entities to fulfill specific council business. Such 129394 agreements and contracts are exempt from the competitive bidding 129395 requirements of section 307.86 of the Revised Code if they have 129396 been approved by the county council and they are for the purchase 129397 of family and child welfare or child protection services or other 129398 social or job and family services for families and children. The 129399 approval of the county council is not required to exempt 129400 agreements or contracts entered into under section 5139.34, 129401

5139.41, or 5139.43 of the Revised Code from the competitive 129402 bidding requirements of section 307.86 of the Revised Code. 129403

(ii) As determined by the council, provide financial 129404 stipends, reimbursements, or both, to family representatives for 129405 expenses related to council activity; 129406

(iii) Receive by gift, grant, devise, or bequest any moneys, 129407 lands, or other property for the purposes for which the council is 129408 established. The agent shall hold, apply, and dispose of the 129409 moneys, lands, or other property according to the terms of the 129410 gift, grant, devise, or bequest. Any interest or earnings shall be 129411 treated in the same manner and are subject to the same terms as 129412 the gift, grant, devise, or bequest from which it accrues. 129413

(b)(i) If the county council designates the board of county 129414 commissioners as its administrative agent, the board may, by 129415 resolution, delegate any of its powers and duties as 129416 administrative agent to an executive committee the board 129417 establishes from the membership of the county council. The board 129418 shall name to the executive committee at least the individuals 129419 described in divisions (B)(1)(b) to (h) of this section and may 129420 appoint the president of the board or another individual as the 129421 chair of the executive committee. The executive committee must 129422 include at least one family county council representative who does 129423 not have a family member employed by an agency represented on the 129424 council. 129425

(ii) The executive committee may, with the approval of the 129426 board, hire an executive director to assist the county council in 129427 administering its powers and duties. The executive director shall 129428 serve in the unclassified civil service at the pleasure of the 129429 executive committee. The executive director may, with the approval 129430 of the executive committee, hire other employees as necessary to 129431 properly conduct the county council's business. 129432

(6) Two or more county councils may enter into an agreement to administer their county councils jointly by creating a regional family and children first council. A regional council possesses the same duties and authority possessed by a county council, except that the duties and authority apply regionally rather than to individual counties. Prior to entering into an agreement to create a regional council, the members of each county council to be part of the regional council shall meet to determine whether all or part of the members of each county council will serve as members of the regional council.

(7) A board of county commissioners may approve a resolution by a majority vote of the board's members that requires the county council to submit a statement to the board each time the council proposes to enter into an agreement, adopt a plan, or make a decision, other than a decision pursuant to section 121.38 of the Revised Code, that requires the expenditure of funds for two or more families. The statement shall describe the proposed agreement, plan, or decision.

Not later than fifteen days after the board receives the statement, it shall, by resolution approved by a majority of its members, approve or disapprove the agreement, plan, or decision. Failure of the board to pass a resolution during that time period shall be considered approval of the agreement, plan, or decision.

(C) Each county shall develop a county service coordination

as the guiding document for coordination of services in the 129465 county. For children who also receive services under the help me 129466
consistent with rules adopted by the department of health under 129468 section 3701.61 of the Revised Code. All family service 129469 coordination plans shall be developed in accordance with the 129470 county service coordination mechanism. The mechanism shall be 129471 developed and approved with the participation of the county 129472 entities representing child welfare; developmental disabilities; 129473 alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services; health; 129474 juvenile judges; education; the county family and children first 129475 council; and the county early intervention collaborative 129476 established pursuant to the federal early intervention program 129477 operated under the "Individuals with Disabilities Education Act of 129478 2004." The county shall establish an implementation schedule for 129479 the mechanism. The cabinet council may monitor the implementation 129480 and administration of each county's service coordination 129481 mechanism. 129482

Each mechanism shall include all of the following: 129483

(1) A procedure for an agency, including a juvenile court, or 129484 a family voluntarily seeking service coordination, to refer the 129485 child and family to the county council for service coordination in 129486 accordance with the mechanism; 129487

(2) A procedure ensuring that a family and all appropriate 129488 staff from involved agencies, including a representative from the 129489 appropriate school district, are notified of and invited to 129490 participate in all family service coordination plan meetings; 129491

(3) A procedure that permits a family to initiate a meeting 129492 to develop or review the family's service coordination plan and 129493 allows the family to invite a family advocate, mentor, or support 129494 person of the family's choice to participate in any such meeting; 129495

(4) A procedure for ensuring that a family service 129496 coordination plan meeting is conducted for each child who receives 129497 service coordination under the mechanism and for whom an emergency 129498 out-of-home placement has been made or for whom a nonemergency 129499 out-of-home placement is being considered. The meeting shall be 129500 conducted within ten days of an emergency out-of-home placement. 129501
The meeting shall be conducted before a nonemergency out-of-home 129502 placement. The family service coordination plan shall outline how 129503 the county council members will jointly pay for services, where 129504 applicable, and provide services in the least restrictive 129505 environment. 129506

(5) A procedure for monitoring the progress and tracking the 129507 outcomes of each service coordination plan requested in the county 129508 including monitoring and tracking children in out-of-home 129509 placements to assure continued progress, appropriateness of 129510 placement, and continuity of care after discharge from placement 129511 with appropriate arrangements for housing, treatment, and 129512 education; 129513

(6) A procedure for protecting the confidentiality of all 129514 personal family information disclosed during service coordination 129515 meetings or contained in the comprehensive family service 129516 coordination plan; 129517

(7) A procedure for assessing the needs and strengths of any 129518 child or family that has been referred to the council for service 129519 coordination, including a child whose parent or custodian is 129520 voluntarily seeking services, and for ensuring that parents and 129521 custodians are afforded the opportunity to participate; 129522

(8) A procedure for development of a family service 129523 coordination plan described in division (D) of this section; 129524

(9) A local dispute resolution process to serve as the 129525 process that must be used first to resolve disputes among the 129526 agencies represented on the county council concerning the 129527 provision of services to children, including children who are 129528 abused, neglected, dependent, unruly, alleged unruly, or 129529 delinquent children and under the jurisdiction of the juvenile 129530 court and children whose parents or custodians are voluntarily 129531 seeking services. The local dispute resolution process shall 129532 comply with sections 121.38, 121.381, and 121.382 of the Revised 129533 Code. The local dispute resolution process shall be used to 129534 resolve disputes between a child's parents or custodians and the 129535 county council regarding service coordination. The county council 129536 shall inform the parents or custodians of their right to use the 129537 dispute resolution process. Parents or custodians shall use 129538 existing local agency grievance procedures to address disputes not 129539 involving service coordination. The dispute resolution process is 129540 in addition to and does not replace other rights or procedures 129541 that parents or custodians may have under other sections of the 129542

Revised Code. 129543

The cabinet council shall adopt rules in accordance with 129544
Chapter 119. of the Revised Code establishing an administrative 129545 review process to address problems that arise concerning the 129546 operation of a local dispute resolution process. 129547

Nothing in division (C)(4) of this section shall be 129548 interpreted as overriding or affecting decisions of a juvenile 129549 court regarding an out-of-home placement, long-term placement, or 129550 emergency out-of-home placement. 129551

(D) Each county shall develop a family service coordination 129552 family to offer information and suggestions and participate in 129567 decisions. Identified assistance and services shall be provided in 129568 the least restrictive environment possible. 129569

(4) Includes a process for dealing with a child who is 129570 alleged to be an unruly child. The process shall include methods 129571 decision, other than a decision pursuant to section 121.38 of the 130816 Revised Code, that requires the expenditure of funds for two or 130817 more families. The statement shall describe the proposed 130818 agreement, plan, or decision. 130819

Not later than fifteen days after the board receives the 130820 statement, it shall, by resolution approved by a majority of its 130821 members, approve or disapprove the agreement, plan, or decision. 130822 Failure of the board to pass a resolution during that time period 130823 shall be considered approval of the agreement, plan, or decision. 130824

An agreement, plan, or decision for which a statement is 130825 required to be submitted to the board shall be implemented only if 130826 it is approved by the board. 130827

county. For children who also receive services under the help me 130831

or harm as a result of the child abuse or child neglect that is 131697 known or reasonably suspected or believed to have occurred or 131698 suffers additional injury or harm after the failure to file the 131699 report. 131700

(C) In any proceeding concerning an alleged or adjudicated 131701 delinquent, unruly, abused, neglected, or dependent child in which 131702 the parent appears to be mentally incompetent or is under eighteen 131703 years of age, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to 131704 protect the interest of that parent. 131705

(D) The court shall require the guardian ad litem to 131706

(F) In any case in which a parent of a child alleged or 131718 adjudicated to be an abused, neglected, or dependent child is 131719 under eighteen years of age, the parents of that parent shall be 131720 summoned to appear at any hearing respecting the child, who is 131721 alleged or adjudicated to be an abused, neglected, or dependent 131722
child. 131723

(G) Except as provided in division (K) of this section, in 131724 any case in which a guardian ad litem is to be appointed for an 131725 alleged or adjudicated abused, neglected, or dependent child or in 131726 any case involving an agreement for the voluntary surrender of 131727 temporary or permanent custody of a child that is made in 131728 accordance with section 5103.15 of the Revised Code, the court 131729 shall appoint the guardian ad litem in each case as soon as 131730 possible after the complaint is filed, the request for an 131731 extension of the temporary custody agreement is filed with the 131732 agreement is filed. The guardian ad litem or the guardian ad 131734

following occur: 131736

(1) The complaint is dismissed or the request for an 131737 extension of a temporary custody agreement or for court approval 131738 of the permanent custody agreement is withdrawn or denied; 131739

(2) All dispositional orders relative to the child have 131740

If a guardian ad litem ceases to serve a child pursuant to 131753 division (G)(4) of this section and the petition for adoption with 131754 respect to the child is denied or withdrawn prior to the issuance 131755 of a final decree of adoption or prior to the date an 131756 interlocutory order of adoption becomes final, the juvenile court 131757 shall reappoint a guardian ad litem for that child. The public 131758 abused, neglected, or dependent child is an attorney admitted to 131763 either that person or the court finds that a conflict may exist 131769 between the person's roles as guardian ad litem and as counsel, 131770 the court shall relieve the person of duties as guardian ad litem 131771 and appoint someone else as guardian ad litem for the child. If 131772 the court appoints a person who is not an attorney admitted to the 131773 practice of law in this state to be a guardian ad litem, the court 131774 also may appoint an attorney admitted to the practice of law in 131775 this state to serve as counsel for the guardian ad litem. 131776

(I) The guardian ad litem for an alleged or adjudicated 131777 abused, neglected, or dependent child shall perform whatever 131778 functions are necessary to protect the best interest of the child, 131779 including, but not limited to, investigation, mediation, 131780

the child by the public children services agency or private child 131782 placing agency that has temporary or permanent custody of the 131783 administrative reviews, and other proceedings in the same manner 131788 as notice is given to parties to the action. 131789

(J)(1) When the court appoints a guardian ad litem pursuant 131790 to this section, it shall appoint a qualified volunteer or court 131791 appointed special advocate whenever one is available and the 131792 appointment is appropriate. 131793

(2) Upon request, the department of ~~job~~ children and ~~family~~ 131794 ~~services~~ youth shall provide for the training of volunteer 131795 private child placing agency is seeking permanent custody of the 131799 child or seeking approval of a voluntary permanent custody 131800 surrender agreement for the sole purpose of the adoption of the 131801

custody of a public children services agency or a planned 131807 permanent living arrangement or in the Title IV-E eligible care 131808 and placement responsibility of a juvenile court or other 131809 governmental agency that provides Title IV-E reimbursable 131810 placement services and who are subject to out-of-home care or 131811 placed with a kinship caregiver as defined in section 5101.85 of 131812
the Revised Code. 131813

(B) If the rights of an individual, as established under 131814 division (A) of this section, conflict with the rights of a 131815 resource family or resource caregiver, as established in section 131816 5103.163 of the Revised Code, the rights of the individual shall 131817 preempt the rights of the resource family or resource caregiver. 131818

A person identified in a complaint or motion filed by a party to the proceedings as a proposed legal custodian shall be awarded legal custody of the child only if the person identified signs a statement of understanding for legal custody that contains at least the following provisions:

(a) That it is the intent of the person to become the legal custodian of the child and the person is able to assume legal responsibility for the care and supervision of the child;

guardian ad litem, and the public children services agency or 131922

arrangement pursuant to division (A)(5)(b) or (c) of this section 131925 shall be placed in an independent living setting or in a family 131926 setting in which the caregiver has been provided by the agency 131927 that has custody of the child with a notice that addresses the 131928 following: 131929

(a) The caregiver understands that the planned permanent 131930 custody of a child to a caregiver under division (B)(2) of this 131943 needs of the agency. 131945

(C) No order for permanent custody or temporary custody of a 131946 child or the placement of a child in a planned permanent living 131947 arrangement shall be made pursuant to this section unless the 131948 placement of the child in a planned permanent living arrangement 131951 as desired, the summons served on the parents of the child 131952 contains as is appropriate a full explanation that the granting of 131953 an order for permanent custody permanently divests them of their 131954 parental rights, a full explanation that an adjudication that the 131955 child is an abused, neglected, or dependent child may result in an 131956 order of temporary custody that will cause the removal of the 131957 child from their legal custody until the court terminates the 131958 order of temporary custody or permanently divests the parents of 131959 their parental rights, or a full explanation that the granting of 131960

the removal of the child from their legal custody if any of the 131962 conditions listed in divisions (A)(5)(a) to (c) of this section 131963 are found to exist, and the summons served on the parents contains 131964 to have counsel appointed pursuant to Chapter 120. of the Revised 131966 Code if they are indigent. 131967 any reasonable restrictions upon the child, the child's parents, 131975 guardian, or custodian, or any other person, including, but not 131976 limited to, any of the following: 131977

interest of the child. 131986

(E) As part of its dispositional order, the court shall 131987 journalize a case plan for the child. The journalized case plan 131988 shall not be changed except as provided in section 2151.412 of the 131989

(F)(1) The court shall retain jurisdiction over any child for 131991 whom the court issues an order of disposition pursuant to division 131992 (A) of this section or pursuant to section 2151.414 or 2151.415 of 131993 the Revised Code until the child attains the age of eighteen years 131994 if the child does not have a developmental disability or physical 131995 impairment, the child attains the age of twenty-one years if the 131996 child has a developmental disability or physical impairment, or 131997 the child is adopted and a final decree of adoption is issued, 131998 except that the court may retain jurisdiction over the child and 131999 continue any order of disposition under division (A) of this 132000 section or under section 2151.414 or 2151.415 of the Revised Code 132001 for a specified period of time to enable the child to graduate 132002 from high school or vocational school. The court shall make an 132003 entry continuing its jurisdiction under this division in the 132004 motion with the court, may at any time request the court to modify 132011 or terminate any order of disposition issued pursuant to division 132012

(A) of this section or section 2151.414 or 2151.415 of the Revised 132013
Code. The court shall hold a hearing upon the motion as if the 132014 hearing were the original dispositional hearing and shall give all 132015 parties to the action and the guardian ad litem notice of the 132016 hearing pursuant to the Juvenile Rules. If applicable, the court 132017 shall comply with section 2151.42 of the Revised Code. 132018

(G) Any temporary custody order issued pursuant to division 132019
(A) of this section shall terminate one year after the earlier of 132020 the date on which the complaint in the case was filed or the child 132021 was first placed into shelter care, except that, upon the filing 132022 of a motion pursuant to section 2151.415 of the Revised Code, the 132023 temporary custody order shall continue and not terminate until the 132024 court issues a dispositional order under that section. In 132025 resolving the motion, the court shall not order an existing 132026 temporary custody order to continue beyond two years after the 132027 date on which the complaint was filed or the child was first 132028 placed into shelter care, whichever date is earlier, regardless of 132029 whether any extensions have been previously ordered pursuant to 132030 division (D) of section 2151.415 of the Revised Code. 132031

(H)(1) No later than one year after the earlier of the date 132032 the complaint in the case was filed or the child was first placed 132033

a written request for the extension or termination with the court 132037 and give notice of the proposed extension or termination in 132038 writing before the end of the day after the day of filing it to 132039 children services agency or private child placing agency requests 132041 termination of the order, the agency shall file a written status 132042 report setting out the facts supporting termination of the order 132043 at the time it files the request with the court. If no party 132044 requests extension or termination of the order, the court shall 132045 notify the parties that the court will extend the order for six 132046 months or terminate it and that it may do so without a hearing 132047 unless one of the parties requests a hearing. All parties and the 132048 guardian ad litem shall have seven days from the date a notice is 132049 sent pursuant to this division to object to and request a hearing 132050 on the proposed extension or termination. 132051

(a) If it receives a timely request for a hearing, the court 132052 shall schedule a hearing to be held no later than thirty days 132053 after the request is received by the court. The court shall give 132054
parties and the guardian ad litem. At the hearing, the court shall 132056 determine whether extension or termination of the order is in the 132057 child's best interest. If termination is in the child's best 132058 interest, the court shall terminate the order. If extension is in 132059 the child's best interest, the court shall extend the order for 132060 six months. 132061

(b) If it does not receive a timely request for a hearing, 132062 the court may extend the order for six months or terminate it 132063 without a hearing and shall journalize the order of extension or 132064 termination not later than fourteen days after receiving the 132065 request for extension or termination or after the date the court 132066 notifies the parties that it will extend or terminate the order. 132067
If the court does not extend or terminate the order, it shall 132068 schedule a hearing to be held no later than thirty days after the 132069 expiration of the applicable fourteen-day time period and give 132070

parties and the child's guardian ad litem. At the hearing, the 132072 court shall determine whether extension or termination of the 132073 order is in the child's best interest. If termination is in the 132074 child's best interest, the court shall terminate the order. If 132075 extension is in the child's best interest, the court shall issue 132076 an order extending the order for protective supervision six 132077 months. 132078

(2) If the court grants an extension of the order for 132079 protective supervision pursuant to division (H)(1) of this 132080 section, a party may, prior to termination of the extension, file 132081 with the court a request for an additional extension of six months 132082 or for termination of the order. The court and the parties shall 132083 comply with division (H)(1) of this section with respect to 132084 extending or terminating the order. 132085

(3) If a court grants an extension pursuant to division 132086
(H)(2) of this section, the court shall terminate the order for 132087 protective supervision at the end of the extension. 132088

(I) The court shall not issue a dispositional order pursuant 132089 to division (A) of this section that removes a child from the 132090 child's home unless the court complies with section 2151.419 of 132091 the Revised Code and includes in the dispositional order the 132092 findings of fact required by that section. 132093

(J) If a motion or application for an order described in 132094 division (A)(6) of this section is made, the court shall not issue 132095 the order unless, prior to the issuance of the order, it provides 132096

(4) An opportunity to be represented by counsel at the hearing. 132102
132103

(K) The jurisdiction of the court shall terminate one year after the date of the award or, if the court takes any further action in the matter subsequent to the award, the date of the latest further action subsequent to the award, if the court awards legal custody of a child to either of the following: 132104

(B) Accept and take emergency temporary custody of the child; 132128

(C) Provide temporary emergency care for the child, without 132129 agreement or commitment; 132130

(D) Make an investigation concerning the child; 132131

(E) File a motion with the juvenile court of the county in 132132 which the agency is located requesting that the court grant 132133 temporary custody of the child to the agency or to a private child 132134 placing agency; 132135

(F) Provide any care for the child that the public children 132136 including placing the child in shelter care; 132138

(G) Provide any care and perform any duties that are required 132139 of public children services agencies under section 5153.16 of the 132140

(H) Prepare and keep written records of the investigation of 132142 the child, of the care and treatment afforded the child, and any 132143 other records required by the department of ~~job~~ children and 132144

Sec. 2151.3534. (A) The director of ~~job~~ children and ~~family~~ 132146 ~~services~~ youth shall promulgate forms designed to gather pertinent 132147 medical information concerning a deserted child and the child's 132148 parents. The forms shall clearly and unambiguously state on each 132149 page that the information requested is to facilitate medical care 132150 for the child, that the forms may be fully or partially completed 132151 or left blank, that completing the forms or parts of the forms is 132152 completely voluntary, and that no adverse legal consequence will 132153 result from failure to complete any part of the forms. 132154

(B) The director shall promulgate written materials to be 132155 made available to the parents of a child delivered pursuant to 132156 section 2151.3516 of the Revised Code. The materials shall 132157 the person delivered under section 2151.3516 of the Revised Code, 132162 including notice that the person will be required to submit to a 132163 DNA test, at that person's expense, to prove that the person is 132164 the parent of the child. 132165

(C) If the department of job and family services determines 132166 that money in the putative father registry fund created under 132167 section 2101.16 of the Revised Code is more than is needed for its 132168 duties related to the putative father registry, the department may 132169 use surplus moneys in the fund for costs related to the 132170 development and publication of forms and materials promulgated 132171 pursuant to divisions (A) and (B) of this section. 132172

Sec. 2151.36. Except as provided in section 2151.361 of the 132173 Revised Code, when a child has been committed as provided by this 132174 chapter or Chapter 2152. of the Revised Code, the juvenile court 132175 shall issue an order pursuant to Chapters 3119., 3121., 3123., and 132176 3125. of the Revised Code requiring that the parent, guardian, or 132177 person charged with the child's support pay for the care, support, 132178 maintenance, and education of the child. The juvenile court shall 132179 order that the parents, guardian, or person pay for the expenses 132180 involved in providing orthopedic, medical, or surgical treatment 132181 for, or for special care of, the child, enter a judgment for the 132182 amount due, and enforce the judgment by execution as in the court 132183 of common pleas. 132184

Any expenses incurred for the care, support, maintenance, 132185 education, orthopedic, medical, or surgical treatment, and special 132186 care of a child who has a legal settlement in another county shall 132187 be at the expense of the county of legal settlement if the consent 132188 of the juvenile judge of the county of legal settlement is first 132189 obtained. When the consent is obtained, the board of county 132190 commissioners of the county in which the child has a legal 132191 settlement shall reimburse the committing court for the expenses 132192 out of its general fund. If the department of ~~job~~ children and 132193 ~~family services~~ youth considers it to be in the best interest of 132194 any delinquent, dependent, unruly, abused, or neglected child who 132195 has a legal settlement in a foreign state or country that the 132196 child be returned to the state or country of legal settlement, the 132197 juvenile court may commit the child to the department for the 132198 child's return to that state or country. 132199

Any expenses ordered by the court for the care, support, 132200 maintenance, education, orthopedic, medical, or surgical 132201 treatment, or special care of a dependent, neglected, abused, 132202 unruly, or delinquent child or of a juvenile traffic offender 132203 under this chapter or Chapter 2152. of the Revised Code, except 132204 the part of the expense that may be paid by the state or federal 132205 government or paid by the parents, guardians, or person charged 132206 with the child's support pursuant to this section, shall be paid 132207 from the county treasury upon specifically itemized vouchers, 132208 certified to by the judge. The court shall not be responsible for 132209 any expenses resulting from the commitment of children to any 132210 home, public children services agency, private child placing 132211 agency, or other institution, association, or agency, unless the 132212 court authorized the expenses at the time of commitment. 132213

Sec. 2151.39. No person, association or agency, public or 132214 private, of another state, incorporated or otherwise, shall place 132215 a child in a family home or with an agency or institution within 132216 the boundaries of this state, either for temporary or permanent 132217 care or custody or for adoption, unless such person or association 132218 has furnished the department of ~~job~~ children and ~~family services~~ 132219 youth with a medical and social history of the child, pertinent 132220 information about the family, agency, association, or institution 132221 in this state with whom the sending party desires to place the 132222 child, and any other information or financial guaranty required by 132223 the department to determine whether the proposed placement will 132224 meet the needs of the child. The department may require the party 132225 desiring the placement to agree to promptly receive and remove 132226 from the state a child brought into the state whose placement has 132227 not proven satisfactorily responsive to the needs of the child at 132228 any time until the child is adopted, reaches majority, becomes 132229 self-supporting or is discharged with the concurrence of the 132230 department. All placements proposed to be made in this state by a 132231 party located in a state which is a party to the interstate 132232 compact for the placement of children shall be made according to 132233 the provisions of sections 5103.20 to 5103.22 of the Revised Code, 132234 or, if the interstate compact on the placement of children is in 132235 effect in this state, all placements proposed to be made in this 132236 state by a party located in a state that is a party to that 132237 compact shall be made according to the provisions of sections 132238

5103.23 to 5103.237 of the Revised Code. 132239

Sec. 2151.412. (A) Each public children services agency and 132240 private child placing agency shall prepare and maintain a case 132241 plan for any child to whom the agency is providing services and to 132242 whom any of the following applies: 132243

(1) The agency filed a complaint pursuant to section 2151.27 132244 of the Revised Code alleging that the child is an abused, 132245 neglected, or dependent child; 132246

(2) The agency has temporary or permanent custody of the 132247
child; 132248

(3) The child is living at home subject to an order for 132249 protective supervision; 132250

(4) The child is in a planned permanent living arrangement. 132251

Except as provided by division (A)(2) of section 5103.153 of 132252

the Revised Code, a private child placing agency providing 132253 services to a child who is the subject of a voluntary permanent 132254 custody surrender agreement entered into under division (B)(2) of 132255 section 5103.15 of the Revised Code is not required to prepare and 132256 maintain a case plan for that child. 132257

(B) Each public children services agency shall prepare and 132258 maintain a case plan for any child for whom the agency is 132259 providing in-home services pursuant to an alternative response. 132260

(C)(1) The director of ~~job~~ children and ~~family services~~ youth 132261 shall adopt rules pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code 132262 setting forth the content and format of case plans required by 132263 division (A) of this section and establishing procedures for 132264 developing, implementing, and changing the case plans. The rules 132265 shall at a minimum comply with the requirements of Title IV-E of 132266 the "Social Security Act," 42 U.S.C. 670, et seq. (1980). 132267

(2) The director of ~~job~~ children and ~~family services~~ youth 132268
requiring public children services agencies and private child 132270 placing agencies to maintain case plans for children and their 132271 families who are receiving services in their homes from the 132272 agencies and for whom case plans are not required by division (A) 132273 of this section. The rules for public children services agencies 132274 shall include the requirements for case plans maintained for 132275 children and their families who are receiving services in their 132276 homes from public children services agencies pursuant to an 132277 alternative response. The agencies shall maintain case plans as 132278 required by those rules; however, the case plans shall not be 132279 subject to any other provision of this section except as 132280 specifically required by the rules. 132281

(D) Each public children services agency and private child 132282 placing agency that is required by division (A) of this section to 132283 maintain a case plan shall file the case plan with the court prior 132284 to the child's adjudicatory hearing but no later than thirty days 132285 after the earlier of the date on which the complaint in the case 132286 was filed or the child was first placed into shelter care. If the 132287 agency does not have sufficient information prior to the 132288 adjudicatory hearing to complete any part of the case plan, the 132289 agency shall specify in the case plan the additional information 132290 necessary to complete each part of the case plan and the steps 132291 that will be taken to obtain that information. All parts of the 132292 case plan shall be completed by the earlier of thirty days after 132293 the adjudicatory hearing or the date of the dispositional hearing 132294 for the child. 132295

(E) Any agency that is required by division (A) of this 132296 section to prepare a case plan shall attempt to obtain an 132297 agreement among all parties, including, but not limited to, the 132298 parents, guardian, or custodian of the child and the guardian ad 132299 litem of the child regarding the content of the case plan. If all 132300 parties agree to the content of the case plan and the court 132301 approves it, the court shall journalize it as part of its 132302 dispositional order. If the agency cannot obtain an agreement upon 132303 the contents of the case plan or the court does not approve it, 132304 the parties shall present evidence on the contents of the case 132305 plan at the dispositional hearing. The court, based upon the 132306 evidence presented at the dispositional hearing and the best 132307 interest of the child, shall determine the contents of the case 132308 plan and journalize it as part of the dispositional order for the 132309

(F)(1) All parties, including the parents, guardian, or 132311 custodian of the child, are bound by the terms of the journalized 132312 case plan. A party that fails to comply with the terms of the 132313 journalized case plan may be held in contempt of court. 132314

(2) Any party may propose a change to a substantive part of 132315 the case plan, including, but not limited to, the child's 132316 placement and the visitation rights of any party. A party 132317 proposing a change to the case plan shall file the proposed change 132318 with the court and give notice of the proposed change in writing 132319 before the end of the day after the day of filing it to all 132320 parties and the child's guardian ad litem. All parties and the 132321 guardian ad litem shall have seven days from the date the notice 132322 is sent to object to and request a hearing on the proposed change. 132323

(a) If it receives a timely request for a hearing, the court 132324
shall schedule a hearing pursuant to section 2151.417 of the 132325
request is received by the court. The court shall give notice of 132327
the date, time, and location of the hearing to all parties and the 132328 guardian ad litem. The agency may implement the proposed change 132329 after the hearing, if the court approves it. The agency shall not 132330 implement the proposed change unless it is approved by the court. 132331

(b) If it does not receive a timely request for a hearing, 132332 the court may approve the proposed change without a hearing. If 132333 the court approves the proposed change without a hearing, it shall 132334 journalize the case plan with the change not later than fourteen 132335 days after the change is filed with the court. If the court does 132336 not approve the proposed change to the case plan, it shall 132337 schedule a hearing to be held pursuant to section 2151.417 of the 132338 Revised Code no later than thirty days after the expiration of the 132339 fourteen-day time period and give notice of the date, time, and 132340 location of the hearing to all parties and the guardian ad litem 132341 of the child. If, despite the requirements of division (F)(2) of 132342 this section, the court neither approves and journalizes the 132343 proposed change nor conducts a hearing, the agency may implement 132344 the proposed change not earlier than fifteen days after it is 132345 submitted to the court. 132346

(3) If an agency has reasonable cause to believe that a child 132347 is suffering from illness or injury and is not receiving proper 132348 care and that an appropriate change in the child's case plan is 132349 necessary to prevent immediate or threatened physical or emotional 132350 harm, to believe that a child is in immediate danger from the 132351 child's surroundings and that an immediate change in the child's 132352 case plan is necessary to prevent immediate or threatened physical 132353 or emotional harm to the child, or to believe that a parent, 132354 guardian, custodian, or other member of the child's household has 132355 abused or neglected the child and that the child is in danger of 132356 immediate or threatened physical or emotional harm from that 132357 person unless the agency makes an appropriate change in the 132358 child's case plan, it may implement the change without prior 132359 agreement or a court hearing and, before the end of the next day 132360 after the change is made, give all parties, the guardian ad litem 132361 of the child, and the court notice of the change. Before the end 132362 of the third day after implementing the change in the case plan, 132363 the agency shall file a statement of the change with the court and 132364 give notice of the filing accompanied by a copy of the statement 132365 to all parties and the guardian ad litem. All parties and the 132366 guardian ad litem shall have ten days from the date the notice is 132367 sent to object to and request a hearing on the change. 132368

(a) If it receives a timely request for a hearing, the court 132369
shall schedule a hearing pursuant to section 2151.417 of the 132370
request is received by the court. The court shall give notice of 132372
the date, time, and location of the hearing to all parties and the 132373 guardian ad litem. The agency shall continue to administer the 132374 case plan with the change after the hearing, if the court approves 132375 the change. If the court does not approve the change, the court 132376 shall make appropriate changes to the case plan and shall 132377 journalize the case plan. 132378

(b) If it does not receive a timely request for a hearing, 132379 the court may approve the change without a hearing. If the court 132380 approves the change without a hearing, it shall journalize the 132381 case plan with the change within fourteen days after receipt of 132382 the change. If the court does not approve the change to the case 132383 plan, it shall schedule a hearing under section 2151.417 of the 132384

expiration of the fourteen-day time period and give notice of the 132386 date, time, and location of the hearing to all parties and the 132387 guardian ad litem of the child. 132388

(G)(1) All case plans for children in temporary custody shall 132389 have the following general goals: 132390

(a) Consistent with the best interest and special needs of 132391 the child, to achieve a safe out-of-home placement in the least 132392 restrictive, most family-like setting available and in close 132393 proximity to the home from which the child was removed or the home 132394 in which the child will be permanently placed; 132395

(b) To eliminate with all due speed the need for the 132396 out-of-home placement so that the child can safely return home. 132397

setting forth the general goals of case plans for children subject 132400 to dispositional orders for protective supervision, a planned 132401 permanent living arrangement, or permanent custody. 132402

(H) In the agency's development of a case plan and the 132403 court's review of the case plan, the child's health and safety 132404 shall be the paramount concern. The agency and the court shall be 132405 guided by the following general priorities: 132406

(1) A child who is residing with or can be placed with the 132407 child's parents within a reasonable time should remain in their 132408 legal custody even if an order of protective supervision is 132409 required for a reasonable period of time; 132410

(2) If both parents of the child have abandoned the child, 132411 have relinquished custody of the child, have become incapable of 132412 supporting or caring for the child even with reasonable 132413 assistance, or have a detrimental effect on the health, safety, 132414 and best interest of the child, the child should be placed in the 132415 legal custody of a suitable member of the child's extended family; 132416

(3) If a child described in division (H)(2) of this section 132417 has no suitable member of the child's extended family to accept 132418 legal custody, the child should be placed in the legal custody of 132419 a suitable nonrelative who shall be made a party to the 132420 proceedings after being given legal custody of the child; 132421

(4) If the child has no suitable member of the child's 132422 extended family to accept legal custody of the child and no 132423 suitable nonrelative is available to accept legal custody of the 132424 child and, if the child temporarily cannot or should not be placed 132425 with the child's parents, guardian, or custodian, the child should 132426 be placed in the temporary custody of a public children services 132427 agency or a private child placing agency; 132428

(5) If the child cannot be placed with either of the child's 132429 parents within a reasonable period of time or should not be placed 132430 with either, if no suitable member of the child's extended family 132431 or suitable nonrelative is available to accept legal custody of 132432 the child, and if the agency has a reasonable expectation of 132433 placing the child for adoption, the child should be committed to 132434 the permanent custody of the public children services agency or 132435
private child placing agency; 132436

(6) If the child is to be placed for adoption or foster care, 132437 the placement shall not be delayed or denied on the basis of the 132438 child's or adoptive or foster family's race, color, or national 132439 origin. 132440

(I) The case plan for a child in temporary custody shall 132441 include at a minimum the following requirements if the child is or 132442 has been the victim of abuse or neglect or if the child witnessed 132443 the commission in the child's household of abuse or neglect 132444 against a sibling of the child, a parent of the child, or any 132445 other person in the child's household: 132446

(1) A requirement that the child's parents, guardian, or 132447 custodian participate in mandatory counseling; 132448

custodian participate in any supportive services that are required 132450 by or provided pursuant to the child's case plan. 132451

(J) (1) Prior to January 1, 2023, a case plan for a child in 132452 temporary custody may include, as a supplement, a plan for 132453 locating a permanent family placement. The supplement shall not be 132454 considered part of the case plan for purposes of division (E) of 132455 this section. 132456

(2) On and after January 1, 2023, a case plan for a child in 132457 temporary custody shall include a permanency plan for the child 132458 unless it is documented that such a plan would not be in the best 132459 interest of the child. The permanency plan shall describe the 132460 services the agency shall provide to achieve permanency for the 132461 child if reasonable efforts to return the child to the child's 132462 home, or eliminate the continued removal from that home, are 132463 unsuccessful. Those services shall be provided concurrently with 132464 reasonable efforts to return the child home or eliminate the 132465 child's continued removal from home. 132466

(3) The director of ~~job children~~ and ~~family services youth~~, 132467 pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt rules 132468 necessary to carry out the purposes of division (J) of this 132469 section. 132470

(K)(1) A public children services agency may request that the 132471 superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and 132472 investigation conduct a criminal records check with respect to a 132473 parent, guardian, custodian, prospective custodian, or prospective placement whose actions result in a finding after the filing of a complaint as described in division (A)(1) of this section that a child is an abused, neglected, or dependent child. The public children services agency shall request that the superintendent obtain information from the federal bureau of investigation as part of the criminal records check.

(3) A public children services agency, prosecuting attorney, or assistant prosecuting attorney that requests a criminal records check under division (K)(1) or (2) of this section shall do both of the following:

(a) Provide to each parent, guardian, custodian, prospective custodian, or prospective placement for whom a criminal records check is requested a copy of the form prescribed pursuant to division (C)(1) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code and a standard fingerprint impression sheet prescribed pursuant to division (C)(2) of that section and obtain the completed form and custodian, or prospective placement; 132506

(b) Forward the completed form and impression sheet to the 132508
superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and 132509
investigation. 132510

(4) A parent, guardian, custodian, prospective custodian, or 132511 prospective placement who is given a form and fingerprint 132512 impression sheet under division (K)(3)(a) of this section and who 132513 fails to complete the form or provide fingerprint impressions may 132514 be held in contempt of court. 132515

(4) A sheriff required by division (A) or (C) of this 134189 section, or authorized by division (D)(2) of this section, to 134190

~~job children~~ and ~~family services youth~~, department of education, 134193 or ~~Ohio board~~ department of ~~regents~~ higher education, by 134194 telephone, in person, or by mail, to provide the sheriff or 134195 designee with the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of the 134196 divisions (A)(2) to (7) of this section are to be provided. Upon 134198

(H)(1) Upon the motion of the offender or the prosecuting 134203 notification under this section, or upon the motion of the 134207 sentencing judge or that judge's successor in office, the judge 134208 may schedule a hearing to determine whether the interests of 134209 justice would be served by suspending the community notification 134210 requirement under this section in relation to the offender. The 134211 judge may dismiss the motion without a hearing but may not issue 134212 an order suspending the community notification requirement without 134213 a hearing. At the hearing, all parties are entitled to be heard, 134214 and the judge shall consider all of the factors set forth in 134215 division (K) of this section. If, at the conclusion of the 134216 hearing, the judge finds that the offender has proven by clear and 134217 convincing evidence that the offender is unlikely to commit in the 134218 future a sexually oriented offense or a child-victim oriented 134219 offense and if the judge finds that suspending the community notification requirement is in the interests of justice, the judge may suspend the application of this section in relation to the offender. The order shall contain both of these findings.

The judge promptly shall serve a copy of the order upon the sheriff with whom the offender most recently registered under section 2950.04, 2950.041, or 2950.05 of the Revised Code and upon the bureau of criminal identification and investigation.

An order suspending the community notification requirement does not suspend or otherwise alter an offender's duties to comply with sections 2950.04, 2950.041, 2950.05, and 2950.06 of the Revised Code and does not suspend the victim notification requirement under section 2950.10 of the Revised Code.

(D) A biological parent, or another person who provided 135371 information in the preparation of the social and medical histories 135372 of the biological parents of a minor, may cause the histories to 135373 be corrected or expanded to include different or additional types 135374 of information. The biological parent or other person may cause 135375 the histories to be corrected or expanded at any time prior or 135376 subsequent to the adoption of the minor, including any time after 135377 the minor becomes an adult. A biological parent may cause the 135378 histories to be corrected or expanded even if the biological 135379 parent did not provide any information to the assessor at the time 135380 the histories were prepared. 135381

To cause the histories to be corrected or expanded, a 135382 biological parent or other person who provided information shall 135383 provide the information to be included or specify the information 135384 to be corrected to whichever of the following is appropriate under 135385

the circumstances: 135386

(1) Subject to divisions (D)(2) and (3) of this section, to 135387 the assessor who prepared the histories if the biological parent 135388 or other person knows the assessor; 135389

(2) Subject to division (D)(3) of this section, to the court 135390 involved in the adoption or, if that court is not known, to the 135391 department of health, if the biological parent or person does not 135392 know the assessor or finds that the assessor has ceased to perform 135393 assessments; 135394

(3) To the department of health, if the histories were 135395 originally completed by the biological parent pursuant to section 135396 3107.393 of the Revised Code or, regardless of whether the 135397 histories were originally completed pursuant to this section or 135398 section 3107.091 or 3107.393 of the Revised Code, the biological 135399 parent seeks to correct or expand the histories at the same time 135400 the biological parent completes a contact preference form pursuant 135401 to section 3107.39 of the Revised Code or a biological parent's 135402 name redaction request form pursuant to section 3107.391 of the 135403

An assessor who receives information from a biological parent 135405 or other person pursuant to division (D)(1) of this section shall 135406 determine whether the information is of a type that divisions (B) 135407 and (C) of this section permit to be included in the histories. If 135408 the assessor determines the information is of a permissible type, 135409 the assessor shall cause the histories to be corrected or expanded 135410 to reflect the information. If, at the time the information is 135411 received, the histories have been filed with the court as required 135412 by division (E) of this section, the court shall cooperate with 135413 the assessor in correcting or expanding the histories. 135414

If the department of health or a court receives information 135415 from a biological parent or other person pursuant to division 135416 (D)(2) of this section or the department receives information from 135417 a biological parent pursuant to division (D)(3) of this section, 135418 it shall determine whether the information is of a type that 135419 divisions (B) and (C) of this section permit to be included in the 135420 histories. If a court determines the information is of a 135421 permissible type, the court shall cause the histories to be 135422 corrected or expanded to reflect the information. If the 135423 department of health so determines, the court involved shall 135424 cooperate with the department in the correcting or expanding of 135425

the histories. 135426

An assessor or the department of health shall notify a 135427 biological parent or other person in writing if the assessor or 135428 department determines that information the biological parent or 135429 other person provided or specified for inclusion in a history is 135430 not of a type that may be included in a history. On receipt of the 135431 notice, the biological parent or other person may petition the 135432 court involved in the adoption to make a finding as to whether the 135433 information is of a type that may be included in a history. On 135434 receipt of the petition, the court shall issue its finding without 135435 holding a hearing. If the court finds that the information is of a 135436 type that may be included in a history, it shall cause the history 135437 to be corrected or expanded to reflect the information. 135438

(E) An assessor shall file the social and medical histories 135439 of the biological parents prepared pursuant to divisions (B) and 135440
(C) of this section with the court with which a petition to adopt 135441 the biological parents' child is filed. The court promptly shall 135442 provide a copy of the social and medical histories filed with it 135443 to the petitioner. In a case involving the adoption of a minor by 135444 any person other than the minor's stepparent or grandparent, a 135445 court may refuse to issue an interlocutory order or final decree 135446 of adoption if the histories of the biological parents have not 135447 been so filed, unless the assessor certifies to the court that 135448 information needed to prepare the histories is unavailable for 135449 reasons beyond the assessor's control. 135450

Sec. 3107.091. (A) As used in this section, "biological 135451 parent" means a biological parent whose offspring, as a minor, was 135452 adopted and with respect to whom a medical and social history was 135453 not prepared prior or subsequent to the adoption. 135454

(B) A biological parent may request the department of ~~job~~ 135455 children and family services youth to provide the biological 135456 parent with a copy of the social and medical history forms 135457 prescribed by the department pursuant to section 3107.09 of the 135458 Revised Code. The department, upon receipt of such a request, 135459 shall provide the forms to the biological parent, if the 135460 biological parent indicates that the forms are being requested so 135461 that the adoption records of the biological parent's offspring 135462 will include a social and medical history of the biological 135463 parent. 135464

In completing the forms, the biological parent may include 135465 information described in division (C) of section 3107.09 of the 135466 Revised Code, but shall not include identifying information. When 135467 the biological parent has completed the forms to the extent the 135468 biological parent wishes to provide information, the biological 135469 parent shall return them to the department. The department shall 135470 review the completed forms, and shall determine whether the 135471 information included by the biological parent is of a type 135472 permissible under divisions (B) and (C) of section 3107.09 of the 135473 Revised Code and, to the best of its ability, whether the 135474 information is accurate. If it determines that the forms contain 135475 accurate, permissible information, the department, after excluding 135476 from the forms any information the department deems impermissible, 135477 shall file them with the court that entered the interlocutory 135478 order or final decree of adoption in the adoption case. If the 135479 department needs assistance in determining that court, the 135480 department of health, upon request, shall assist it. 135481

The department of ~~job children~~ and ~~family services~~ youth 135482 shall notify the biological parent in writing if it excludes from 135483 the biological parent's social and medical history forms 135484 information deemed impermissible. On receipt of the notice, the 135485 biological parent may petition the court with which the forms were 135486 filed to make a finding as to whether the information is 135487 permissible. On receipt of the petition, the court shall issue its 135488 finding without holding a hearing. If the court finds the 135489 information is permissible, it shall cause the information to be 135490 included on the forms. 135491

Upon receiving social and medical history forms pursuant to 135492 this section, a court shall cause them to be filed in the records 135493 pertaining to the adoption case. 135494

Social and medical history forms completed by a biological 135495 parent pursuant to this section may be corrected or expanded by 135496 the biological parent in accordance with division (D) of section 135497
3107.09 of the Revised Code. 135498

Access to the histories shall be granted in accordance with 135499
division (D) of section 3107.17 of the Revised Code. 135500

(C) This section does not preclude a biological parent from 135501 completing a social and medical history in accordance with section 135502 3107.393 of the Revised Code instead of this section. 135503

Sec. 3107.10. (A)(1) A public children services agency 135504 arranging an adoption in a county other than the county where that 135505 public children services agency is located, private child placing 135506 agency, or private noncustodial agency, or an attorney arranging 135507 an adoption, shall notify the public children services agency in 135508 the county in which the prospective adoptive parent resides within 135509 ten days after initiation of a home study required under section 135510

(2) After a public children services agency has received 135512 notification pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section, both the 135513 public children services agency arranging an adoption in a county 135514 other than the county where that public children services agency 135515 is located, private child placing agency, private noncustodial 135516 agency, or attorney arranging an adoption, and the public children 135517 services agency shall share relevant information regarding the 135518 prospective adoptive parent as soon as possible after initiation 135519 of the home study. 135520

(B) A public children services agency arranging an adoption 135521 in a county other than the county where that public children 135522 services agency is located, private child placing agency, or 135523 private noncustodial agency, or an attorney arranging an adoption, 135524 shall notify the public children services agency in the county in 135525 which the prospective adoptive parent resides of an impending 135526 adoptive placement not later than ten days prior to that 135527 placement. Notification shall include a description of the special 135528 needs and the age of the prospective adoptive child and the name 135529 of the prospective adoptive parent and number of children that 135530 will be residing in the prospective adoptive home when the 135531 prospective adoptive child is placed in the prospective adoptive 135532 home. 135533

(C) An agency or attorney sharing relevant information 135534 pursuant to this section is immune from liability in a civil 135535 action to recover damages for injury, death, or loss to person or 135536 property allegedly caused by any act or omission in connection 135537 with sharing relevant information unless the acts or omissions are 135538 with malicious purpose, in bad faith, or in a wanton or reckless 135539

manner. 135540

(D) The director of ~~job~~ children and ~~family services~~ youth 135541 shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised 135542 section, including, but not limited to, a definition of "relevant 135544 information" for the purposes of division (A) of this section. 135545

(E) This section does not apply to an adoption by a 135546 stepparent whose spouse is a biological or adoptive parent of the 135547

be adopted is placed in a prospective adoptive home pursuant to 135550 section 5103.16 of the Revised Code, the assessor providing 135551 placement or post placement services in the prospective adoptive 135552 home shall begin monthly prospective adoptive home visits in that 135553 home, until the court issues a final decree of adoption. During 135554 the prospective adoptive home visits, the assessor shall evaluate 135555 the progression of the placement in the prospective adoptive home. 135556
The assessor shall include the evaluation in the prefinalization 135557 with the prospective adoptive parent and the minor to be adopted. 135561

Sec. 3107.12. (A) Except as provided in division (B) of this 135572 section, an assessor shall conduct a prefinalization assessment of 135573

Sec. 3109.401. (A) The general assembly finds the following: 135958

(1) That the parent and child relationship is of fundamental 135959 importance to the welfare of a child, and that the relationship 135960 between a child and each parent should be fostered unless 135961 inconsistent with the child's best interests; 135962

(2) That parents have the responsibility to make decisions 135963 and perform other parenting functions necessary for the care and 135964 growth of their children; 135965

(3) That the courts, when allocating parenting functions and 135966 responsibilities with respect to the child in a divorce, 135967 dissolution of marriage, legal separation, annulment, or any other 135968 proceeding addressing the allocation of parental rights and 135969 responsibilities, must determine the child's best interests; 135970

(4) That the courts and parents must take into consideration 135971 the following general principles when allocating parental rights 135972 and responsibilities and developing appropriate terms for 135973 parenting plans: 135974

(a) Children are served by a parenting arrangement that best 135975 provides for a child's safety, emotional growth, health, 135976 stability, and physical care. 135977

(b) Exposure of the child to harmful parental conflict should 135978 be minimized as much as possible. 135979

(c) Whenever appropriate, parents should be encouraged to 135980 meet their responsibilities to their children through agreements 135981 rather than by relying on judicial intervention. 135982

(d) When a parenting plan provides for mutual decision-making 135983 responsibility by the parents but they are unable to make 135984 decisions mutually, they should make a good faith effort to 135985 utilize the mediation process as required by the parenting plan. 135986

(e) In apportioning between the parents the daily physical 135987 living arrangements of the child and the child's location during 135988 legal and school holidays, vacations, and days of special 135989 importance, a court should not impose any type of standard 135990 schedule unless a standard schedule meets the needs of the child 135991 better than any proposed alternative parenting plan. 135992

(B) It is, therefore, the purpose of this chapter, when it is 135993 in the child's best interest, to foster the relationship between 135994 the child and each parent when a court allocates parental rights 135995 and responsibilities with respect to the child in a divorce, 135996 dissolution, legal separation, annulment, or any other proceeding 135997 addressing the allocation of parental rights and responsibilities. 135998

the district did not make a good faith effort to report data as 136751 required by this section, the district shall bear the full cost of 136752 conducting the hearing and of issuing any revised report card. 136753 reported under this section caused a school district to receive 136755 excess state funds in any fiscal year, the district shall 136756 reimburse the department an amount equal to the excess funds, in 136757 accordance with a payment schedule determined by the department. 136758

it shall not receive a tuition payment for that child under 137870 division (C)(4) of this section. 137871

If a child to whom division (C)(4) of this section applies is 137872 not a special education student, a district shall receive a 137873 tuition payment for that child under division (C)(4) of this 137874

In the case of a child to which division (C)(4) of this 137876 section applies, the total educational cost to be paid for the 137877 child shall be determined by a formula approved by the department 137878 of education, which formula shall be designed to calculate a per 137879 diem cost for the educational services provided to the child for 137880 each day the child is served and shall reflect the total actual 137881 cost incurred in providing those services. The department shall 137882 certify the total educational cost to be paid for the child to 137883 both the school district providing the educational services and, 137884 if different, the school district that is responsible to pay 137885 tuition for the child. The department shall deduct the certified 137886 amount from the state basic aid funds payable under Chapter 3317. 137887 of the Revised Code to the district responsible to pay tuition and 137888 shall pay that amount to the district providing the educational 137889 services to the child. 137890

(D) Tuition required to be paid under divisions (C)(2) and 137891
(3)(a) of this section shall be computed in accordance with 137892 section 3317.08 of the Revised Code. Tuition required to be paid 137893 under division (C)(3)(b) of this section shall be computed in 137894 accordance with section 3317.081 of the Revised Code. If a home 137895 fails to pay the tuition required by division (C)(3)(b) of this 137896 section, the board of education providing the education may 137897 recover in a civil action the tuition and the expenses incurred in 137898 prosecuting the action, including court costs and reasonable 137899 attorney's fees. If the prosecuting attorney or city director of 137900 law represents the board in such action, costs and reasonable 137901 attorney's fees awarded by the court, based upon the prosecuting 137902 attorney's, director's, or one of their designee's time spent 137903 preparing and presenting the case, shall be deposited in the 137904 county or city general fund. 137905

(E) A board of education may enroll a child free of any 137906 tuition obligation for a period not to exceed sixty days, on the 137907 sworn statement of an adult resident of the district that the 137908 resident has initiated legal proceedings for custody of the child. 137909

(F) In the case of any individual entitled to attend school 137910 under this division, no tuition shall be charged by the school 137911 district of attendance and no other school district shall be 137912 required to pay tuition for the individual's attendance. 137913 Notwithstanding division (B), (C), or (E) of this section: 137914

(1) All persons at least eighteen but under twenty-two years 137915 of age who live apart from their parents, support themselves by 137916 their own labor, and have not successfully completed the high 137917

3323.08 of the Revised Code, are entitled to attend school in the 137920

The parent of a child entitled to attend school under division 137927 (F)(3) of this section shall submit to the board of education of 137928 the district in which the parent is employed a statement from the 137929 child's physician certifying that the child's medical condition 137930 may require emergency medical attention. The statement shall be 137931 supported by such other evidence as the board may require. 137932

(4) Any child residing with a person other than the child's 137933 parent is entitled, for a period not to exceed twelve months, to 137934 attend school in the district in which that person resides if the 137935 child's parent files an affidavit with the superintendent of the 137936 district in which the person with whom the child is living resides 137937 stating all of the following: 137938

(a) That the parent is serving outside of the state in the 137939 armed services of the United States; 137940

(b) That the parent intends to reside in the district upon 137941 returning to this state; 137942

(c) The name and address of the person with whom the child is 137943 living while the parent is outside the state. 137944

(5) Any child under the age of twenty-two years who, after 137945 the death of a parent, resides in a school district other than the 137946 district in which the child attended school at the time of the 137947 parent's death is entitled to continue to attend school in the 137948 district in which the child attended school at the time of the 137949

parent's death for the remainder of the school year, subject to approval of that district board.

(6) A child under the age of twenty-two years who resides with a parent who is having a new house built in a school district outside the district where the parent is residing is entitled to attend school for a period of time in the district where the new house is being built. In order to be entitled to such attendance, the parent shall provide the district superintendent with the following:

not to exceed ninety days during which the child entitled to 137982 attend school under division (F)(6) or (7) of this section may 137983 attend without tuition obligation. A student attending a school 137984 under division (F)(6) or (7) of this section shall be eligible to 137985 participate in interscholastic athletics under the auspices of 137986 that school, provided the board of education of the school 137987 district where the student's parent resides, by a formal action, 137988 releases the student to participate in interscholastic athletics 137989 at the school where the student is attending, and provided the 137990 student receives any authorization required by a public agency or 137991 private organization of which the school district is a member 137992 exercising authority over interscholastic sports. 137993

(8) A child whose parent is a full-time employee of a city, 137994 local, or exempted village school district, or of an educational 137995 service center, may be admitted to the schools of the district 137996 where the child's parent is employed, or in the case of a child 137997 whose parent is employed by an educational service center, in the 137998 district that serves the location where the parent's job is 137999 primarily located, provided the district board of education 138000 establishes such an admission policy by resolution adopted by a 138001 majority of its members. Any such policy shall take effect on the 138002 first day of the school year and the effective date of any 138003 amendment or repeal may not be prior to the first day of the 138004 subsequent school year. The policy shall be uniformly applied to 138005 all such children and shall provide for the admission of any such 138006 child upon request of the parent. No child may be admitted under 138007 this policy after the first day of classes of any school year. 138008

(9) A child who is with the child's parent under the care of 138009 a shelter for victims of domestic violence, as defined in section 138010 3113.33 of the Revised Code, is entitled to attend school free in 138011
the district in which the child is with the child's parent, and no 138012 other school district shall be required to pay tuition for the 138013 child's attendance in that school district. 138014

The enrollment of a child in a school district under this 138015 division shall not be denied due to a delay in the school 138016 district's receipt of any records required under section 3313.672 138017 of the Revised Code or any other records required for enrollment. 138018 Any days of attendance and any credits earned by a child while 138019 enrolled in a school district under this division shall be 138020 transferred to and accepted by any school district in which the 138021 child subsequently enrolls. The state board of education shall 138022 adopt rules to ensure compliance with this division. 138023

(10) Any child under the age of twenty-two years whose parent 138024 has moved out of the school district after the commencement of 138025 classes in the child's senior year of high school is entitled, 138026 subject to the approval of that district board, to attend school 138027 in the district in which the child attended school at the time of 138028 the parental move for the remainder of the school year and for one 138029 additional semester or equivalent term. A district board may also 138030 adopt a policy specifying extenuating circumstances under which a 138031 student may continue to attend school under division (F)(10) of 138032 this section for an additional period of time in order to 138033 successfully complete the high school curriculum for the 138034 individualized education program developed for the student by the 138035 high school pursuant to section 3323.08 of the Revised Code. 138036

(11) As used in this division, "grandparent" means a parent 138037 of a parent of a child. A child under the age of twenty-two years 138038 who is in the custody of the child's parent, resides with a 138039 grandparent, and does not require special education is entitled to 138040 attend the schools of the district in which the child's 138041 grandparent resides, provided that, prior to such attendance in 138042 any school year, the board of education of the school district in 138043 which the child's grandparent resides and the board of education 138044 of the school district in which the child's parent resides enter 138045 into a written agreement specifying that good cause exists for 138046 such attendance, describing the nature of this good cause, and 138047 consenting to such attendance. 138048

In lieu of a consent form signed by a parent, a board of 138049 education may request the grandparent of a child attending school 138050 in the district in which the grandparent resides pursuant to 138051 division (F)(11) of this section to complete any consent form 138052 required by the district, including any authorization required by 138053 sections 3313.712, 3313.713, 3313.716, and 3313.718 of the Revised 138054 Code. Upon request, the grandparent shall complete any consent 138055 form required by the district. A school district shall not incur 138056 any liability solely because of its receipt of a consent form from 138057 a grandparent in lieu of a parent. 138058

Division (F)(11) of this section does not create, and shall 138059 not be construed as creating, a new cause of action or substantive 138060 legal right against a school district, a member of a board of 138061 education, or an employee of a school district. This section does 138062 not affect, and shall not be construed as affecting, any 138063 immunities from defenses to tort liability created or recognized 138064 by Chapter 2744. of the Revised Code for a school district, 138065 member, or employee. 138066

(12) A child under the age of twenty-two years is entitled to 138067 attend school in a school district other than the district in 138068 which the child is entitled to attend school under division (B), 138069 (C), or (E) of this section provided that, prior to such 138070 attendance in any school year, both of the following occur: 138071

(a) The superintendent of the district in which the child is 138072 entitled to attend school under division (B), (C), or (E) of this 138073 section contacts the superintendent of another district for 138074 purposes of this division; 138075

While an agreement is in effect under this division for a student who is not receiving special education under Chapter 3323. of the Revised Code and notwithstanding Chapter 3327. of the Revised Code, the board of education of neither school district involved in the agreement is required to provide transportation for the student to and from the school where the student attends.

A student attending a school of a district pursuant to this division shall be allowed to participate in all student activities, including interscholastic athletics, at the school where the student is attending on the same basis as any student who has always attended the schools of that district while of compulsory school age.

(13) All school districts shall comply with the "McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act," 42 U.S.C.A. 11431 et seq., for the education of homeless children. Each city, local, and exempted village school district shall comply with the requirements of that act governing the provision of a free, appropriate public education, including public preschool, to each homeless child.

When a child loses permanent housing and becomes a homeless person, as defined in 42 U.S.C.A. 11481(5), or when a child who is such a homeless person changes temporary living arrangements, the child's parent or guardian shall have the option of enrolling the child in either of the following:

(a) The child's school of origin, as defined in 42 U.S.C.A. 11432(g)(3)(C);

(b) The school that is operated by the school district in which the shelter where the child currently resides is located and that serves the geographic area in which the shelter is located.

138109

(14) A child under the age of twenty-two years who resides with a person other than the child's parent is entitled to attend school in the school district in which that person resides if both of the following apply:

138113

(a) That person has been appointed, through a military power of attorney executed under section 574(a) of the "National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1994," 107 Stat. 1674 (1993), 10 U.S.C. 1044b, or through a comparable document necessary to complete a family care plan, as the parent's agent for the care, custody, and control of the child while the parent is on active duty as a member of the national guard or a reserve unit of the armed forces of the United States or because the parent is a member of the armed forces of the United States and is on a duty assignment away from the parent's residence.

138116
138117
138118
138119
138120
138121
138123

(b) The military power of attorney or comparable document includes at least the authority to enroll the child in school.

The entitlement to attend school in the district in which the parent's agent under the military power of attorney or comparable document resides applies until the end of the school year in which the military power of attorney or comparable document expires.

138129

(G) A board of education, after approving admission, may waive tuition for students who will temporarily reside in the district and who are either of the following:

138130
138132

(1) Residents or domiciliaries of a foreign nation who request admission as foreign exchange students;

(2) Residents or domiciliaries of the United States but not of Ohio who request admission as participants in an exchange program operated by a student exchange organization.

138137

(H) Pursuant to sections 3311.211, 3313.90, 3319.01, 3323.04, 138138 3327.04, and 3327.06 of the Revised Code, a child may attend 138139 school or participate in a special education program in a school 138140 district other than in the district where the child is entitled to 138141 attend school under division (B) of this section. 138142

(I)(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this 138143 section or section 3313.65 of the Revised Code, a child under 138144 twenty-two years of age may attend school in the school district 138145 in which the child, at the end of the first full week of October 138146 of the school year, was entitled to attend school as otherwise 138147 provided under this section or section 3313.65 of the Revised 138148 Code, if at that time the child was enrolled in the schools of the 138149 district but since that time the child or the child's parent has 138150 relocated to a new address located outside of that school district 138151 and within the same county as the child's or parent's address 138152 immediately prior to the relocation. The child may continue to 138153 attend school in the district, and at the school to which the 138154 child was assigned at the end of the first full week of October of 138155 the current school year, for the balance of the school year. 138156 Division (I)(1) of this section applies only if both of the 138157 following conditions are satisfied: 138158

(a) The board of education of the school district in which 138159 the child was entitled to attend school at the end of the first 138160 full week in October and of the district to which the child or 138161 child's parent has relocated each has adopted a policy to enroll 138162 children described in division (I)(1) of this section. 138163

(b) The child's parent provides written notification of the 138164 relocation outside of the school district to the superintendent of 138165 each of the two school districts. 138166

(2) At the beginning of the school year following the school 138167 year in which the child or the child's parent relocated outside of 138168 the school district as described in division (I)(1) of this 138169 section, the child is not entitled to attend school in the school district under that division.

(3) Any person or entity owing tuition to the school district on behalf of the child at the end of the first full week in October, as provided in division (C) of this section, shall continue to owe such tuition to the district for the child's attendance under division (I)(1) of this section for the lesser of the balance of the school year or the balance of the time that the child attends school in the district under division (I)(1) of this section.

(J) This division does not apply to a child receiving special education.

A school district required to pay tuition pursuant to division (C)(2) or (3) of this section or section 3313.65 of the Revised Code shall have an amount deducted under division (C) of section 3317.023 of the Revised Code equal to its own tuition rate for the same period of attendance. A school district entitled to receive tuition pursuant to division (C)(2) or (3) of this section or section 3313.65 of the Revised Code shall have an amount credited under division (C) of section 3317.023 of the Revised

Code equal to its own tuition rate for the same period of 138202 attendance. If the tuition rate credited to the district of 138203 attendance exceeds the rate deducted from the district required to 138204 pay tuition, the department of education shall pay the district of 138205 attendance the difference from amounts deducted from all 138206 districts' payments under division (C) of section 3317.023 of the 138207 Revised Code but not credited to other school districts under such 138208 division and from appropriations made for such purpose. The 138209 treasurer of each school district shall, by the fifteenth day of 138210 January and July, furnish the superintendent of public instruction 138211 a report of the names of each child who attended the district's 138212 schools under divisions (C)(2) and (3) of this section or section 138213 3313.65 of the Revised Code during the preceding six calendar 138214 months, the duration of the attendance of those children, the 138215 school district responsible for tuition on behalf of the child, 138216 and any other information that the superintendent requires. 138217

Upon receipt of the report the superintendent, pursuant to 138218 division (C) of section 3317.023 of the Revised Code, shall deduct 138219 each district's tuition obligations under divisions (C)(2) and (3) 138220 of this section or section 3313.65 of the Revised Code and pay to 138221 the district of attendance that amount plus any amount required to 138222 be paid by the state. 138223

(K) In the event of a disagreement, the superintendent of 138224 public instruction shall determine the school district in which 138225 the parent resides. 138226

(L) Nothing in this section requires or authorizes, or shall 138227 be construed to require or authorize, the admission to a public 138228 school in this state of a pupil who has been permanently excluded 138229 from public school attendance by the superintendent of public 138230 instruction pursuant to sections 3301.121 and 3313.662 of the 138231

(M) In accordance with division (B)(1) of this section, a 138233 child whose parent is a member of the national guard or a reserve 138234 unit of the armed forces of the United States and is called to 138235 active duty, or a child whose parent is a member of the armed 138236 forces of the United States and is ordered to a temporary duty 138237 assignment outside of the district, may continue to attend school 138238 in the district in which the child's parent lived before being 138239 called to active duty or ordered to a temporary duty assignment 138240 outside of the district, as long as the child's parent continues 138241 to be a resident of that district, and regardless of where the 138242 child lives as a result of the parent's active duty status or 138243 temporary duty assignment. However, the district is not 138244 responsible for providing transportation for the child if the 138245 child lives outside of the district as a result of the parent's 138246 active duty status or temporary duty assignment. 138247

Sec. 3313.646. (A) The board of education of a school 138248 district, except a cooperative education district established 138249 pursuant to section 3311.521 of the Revised Code, may establish 138250 and operate a program to provide services to preschool-age 138251 children, provided the board has demonstrated a need for the 138252 program. A board may use school funds in support of preschool 138253 programs. The board shall maintain, operate, and admit children to 138254 any such program pursuant to rules adopted by such board and the 138255 ~~rules of the state board of education~~ adopted under sections 138256

A board of education may establish fees or tuition, which may 138258 be graduated in proportion to family income, for participation in 138259 a preschool program. In cases where payment of fees or tuition 138260 would create a hardship for the child's parent or guardian, the 138261 board may waive any such fees or tuition. 138262

(B) No board of education that is not receiving funds under 138263 the "Head Start Act," 95 Stat. 489 (1981), 42 U.S.C.A. 9831, on 138264

March 17, 1989, shall compete for funds under the "Head Start Act" 138265 with any grantee receiving funds under that act. 138266

(C) A board of education may contract with any of the 138267 following preschool providers to provide services to preschool-age 138268 children, other than those services for which the district is 138269 eligible to receive funding under section 3317.0213 of the Revised 138270
Code: 138271

(1) Any organization receiving funds under the "Head Start 138272 Act"; 138273

(2) Any nonsectarian eligible nonpublic school as defined in 138274 division (H) of section 3301.52 of the Revised Code; 138275

(3) Any child care provider licensed under Chapter 5104. of 138276

Boards may contract to provide services to preschool-age 138278 children only with such organizations whose staff meet the 138279 requirements of rules adopted under section 3301.53 of the Revised 138280 Code or those of the child development associate credential 138281 established by the national association for the education of young 138282 children. 138283

(D) A contract entered into under division (C) of this 138284 section may provide for the board of education to lease school 138285

(5) The department may waive the requirement in division 138858
(C)(3) of this section for any community school that exclusively 138859

(G)(1)(a) A community school may borrow money to pay any 138878 necessary and actual expenses of the school in anticipation of the 138879 receipt of any portion of the payments to be received by the 138880 school pursuant to section 3317.022 of the Revised Code. The 138881 school may issue notes to evidence such borrowing. The proceeds of 138882 the notes shall be used only for the purposes for which the 138883 anticipated receipts may be lawfully expended by the school. 138884

(b) A school may also borrow money for a term not to exceed 138885 fifteen years for the purpose of acquiring facilities. 138886

(2) Except for any amount guaranteed under section 3318.50 of 138887 the Revised Code, the state is not liable for debt incurred by the 138888 governing authority of a community school. 138889

(H) The department of education shall adjust the amounts paid 138890 under section 3317.022 of the Revised Code to reflect any 138891 enrollment of students in community schools for less than the 138892 equivalent of a full school year. The state board of education 138893 within ninety days after April 8, 2003, shall adopt in accordance 138894 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code rules governing the payments 138895 to community schools under section 3317.022 of the Revised Code 138896 including initial payments in a school year and adjustments and 138897 reductions made in subsequent periodic payments to community 138898 schools as provided under section 3317.022 of the Revised Code. 138899
For purposes of this division: 138900

(1) A student shall be considered enrolled in the community 138901 school for any portion of the school year the student is 138902 participating at a college under Chapter 3365. of the Revised 138903
Code. 138904

(2) A student shall be considered to be enrolled in a 138905 community school for the period of time beginning on the later of 138906 the date on which the school both has received documentation of 138907 the student's enrollment from a parent and the student has 138908 commenced participation in learning opportunities as defined in 138909 the contract with the sponsor, or thirty days prior to the date on 138910 which the student is entered into the education management 138911 information system established under section 3301.0714 of the 138912 Revised Code. For purposes of applying this division and divisions 138913 (H)(3) and (4) of this section to a community school student, 138914

"learning opportunities" shall be defined in the contract, which 138915 shall describe both classroom-based and non-classroom-based 138916 learning opportunities and shall be in compliance with criteria 138917 and documentation requirements for student participation which 138918 shall be established by the department. Any student's instruction 138919 time in non-classroom-based learning opportunities shall be 138920 certified by an employee of the community school. A student's 138921 enrollment shall be considered to cease on the date on which any 138922 of the following occur: 138923

(a) The community school receives documentation from a parent 138924 terminating enrollment of the student. 138925

(b) The community school is provided documentation of a 138926 student's enrollment in another public or private school. 138927

(c) The community school ceases to offer learning 138928 opportunities to the student pursuant to the terms of the contract 138929 with the sponsor or the operation of any provision of this 138930 chapter. 138931

Except as otherwise specified in this paragraph, beginning in 138932 the 2011-2012 school year, any student who completed the prior 138933 school year in an internet- or computer-based community school 138934 shall be considered to be enrolled in the same school in the 138935 subsequent school year until the student's enrollment has ceased 138936 as specified in division (H)(2) of this section. The department 138937 shall continue paying amounts for the student under section 138938 3317.022 of the Revised Code without interruption at the start of 138939 the subsequent school year. However, if the student without a 138940 legitimate excuse fails to participate in the first seventy-two 138941 consecutive hours of learning opportunities offered to the student 138942 in that subsequent school year, the student shall be considered 138943 not to have re-enrolled in the school for that school year and the 138944 department shall recalculate the payments to the school for that 138945 school year to account for the fact that the student is not 138946 enrolled. 138947

(3) The department shall determine each community school 138948 student's percentage of full-time equivalency based on the 138949 percentage of learning opportunities offered by the community 138950 school to that student, reported either as number of hours or 138951 number of days, is of the total learning opportunities offered by 138952 the community school to a student who attends for the school's 138953 entire school year. However, no internet- or computer-based 138954 community school shall be credited for any time a student spends 138955 participating in learning opportunities beyond ten hours within 138956 any period of twenty-four consecutive hours. Whether it reports 138957 hours or days of learning opportunities, each community school 138958 shall offer not less than nine hundred twenty hours of learning 138959 opportunities during the school year. 138960

(4) With respect to the calculation of full-time equivalency 138961 under division (H)(3) of this section, the department shall waive 138962 the number of hours or days of learning opportunities not offered 138963 to a student because the community school was closed during the 138964 school year due to disease epidemic, hazardous weather conditions, 138965 law enforcement emergencies, inoperability of school buses or 138966 other equipment necessary to the school's operation, damage to a 138967 school building, or other temporary circumstances due to utility 138968 failure rendering the school building unfit for school use, so 138969 long as the school was actually open for instruction with students 138970 in attendance during that school year for not less than the 138971 minimum number of hours required by this chapter. The department 138972 shall treat the school as if it were open for instruction with 138973 students in attendance during the hours or days waived under this 138974 division. 138975

(I) The department of education shall reduce the amounts paid 138976 under section 3317.022 of the Revised Code to reflect payments 138977 made to colleges under section 3365.07 of the Revised Code. 138978

(J)(1) No student shall be considered enrolled in any 138979 internet- or computer-based community school or, if applicable to 138980 the student, in any community school that is required to provide 138981 the student with a computer pursuant to division (C) of section 138982 3314.22 of the Revised Code, unless both of the following 138983 conditions are satisfied: 138984

(a) The student possesses or has been provided with all 138985 required hardware and software materials and all such materials 138986 are operational so that the student is capable of fully 138987 participating in the learning opportunities specified in the 138988 contract between the school and the school's sponsor as required 138989 by division (A)(23) of section 3314.03 of the Revised Code; 138990

(b) The school is in compliance with division (A) of section 138991
3314.22 of the Revised Code, relative to such student. 138992

(2) In accordance with policies adopted by the superintendent 138993 of public instruction, in consultation with the auditor of state, 138994 the department shall reduce the amounts otherwise payable under 138995 section 3317.022 of the Revised Code to any community school that 138996 includes in its program the provision of computer hardware and 138997 software materials to any student, if such hardware and software 138998 materials have not been delivered, installed, and activated for 138999 each such student in a timely manner or other educational 139000 materials or services have not been provided according to the 139001 contract between the individual community school and its sponsor. 139002

The superintendent of public instruction and the auditor of 139003 state shall jointly establish a method for auditing any community school to which this division pertains to ensure compliance with this section.

The superintendent, auditor of state, and the governor shall jointly make recommendations to the general assembly for legislative changes that may be required to assure fiscal and academic accountability for such schools.

(K)(1) If the department determines that a review of a community school's enrollment is necessary, such review shall be completed and written notice of the findings shall be provided to the governing authority of the community school and its sponsor within ninety days of the end of the community school's fiscal year, unless extended for a period not to exceed thirty additional days for one of the following reasons:

(a) The department and the community school mutually agree to the extension.

(b) Delays in data submission caused by either a community school or its sponsor.

(2) If the review results in a finding that additional funding is owed to the school, such payment shall be made within thirty days of the written notice. If the review results in a finding that the community school owes moneys to the state, the following procedure shall apply:

(a) Within ten business days of the receipt of the notice of findings, the community school may appeal the department's determination to the state board of education or its designee.

(b) The board or its designee shall conduct an informal hearing on the matter within thirty days of receipt of such an appeal and shall issue a decision within fifteen days of the conclusion of the hearing.

(c) If the board has enlisted a designee to conduct the hearing, the designee shall certify its decision to the board. The board may accept the decision of the designee or may reject the decision of the designee and issue its own decision on the matter.

(d) Any decision made by the board under this division is final.

(3) If it is decided that the community school owes moneys to the state, the department shall deduct such amount from the school's future payments in accordance with guidelines issued by the superintendent of public instruction.

(L) The department shall not pay to a community school under section 3317.022 of the Revised Code any amount for any of the following:

(1) Any student who has graduated from the twelfth grade of a public or nonpublic high school;

(2) Any student who is not a resident of the state;

(4) Any student who has attained the age of twenty-two years, except for veterans of the armed services whose attendance was interrupted before completing the recognized twelve-year course of the public schools by reason of induction or enlistment in the armed forces and who apply for enrollment in a community school 139065 not later than four years after termination of war or their 139066 honorable discharge. If, however, any such veteran elects to 139067 enroll in special courses organized for veterans for whom tuition 139068 is paid under federal law, or otherwise, the department shall not 139069 pay to a community school under section 3317.022 of the Revised 139070

Code any amount for that veteran. 139071

Sec. 3323.022. The rules of the state board of education 139072 adopted in consultation with the department of children and youth 139073 for staffing ratios for programs with preschool children with 139074

(F) Whenever the department receives a complaint, is advised, 146427 or otherwise has any reason to believe that a center or type A 146428

The form shall be as brief and simple as practicable. 147479

(B) In administering the process of applying for publicly 147480 funded child care, the county department of job and family 147481 application process is as accessible to the public as possible. 147483

These policies shall include making the application forms 147484 available at appropriate locations selected by the county 147485 department and making arrangements that enable applicants to 147486 complete the application process at times outside their normal 147487 working hours, and at locations, convenient for them. The 147488 arrangements may include stationing certain of their employees at 147489 various sites in the county for the purpose of assisting 147490 applicants in completing the application process and of making 147491 eligibility determinations at those locations. The arrangements 147492 may also include providing training and technical assistance to 147493 appropriate entities that qualify them to provide assistance in 147494 completing the application process and, to the extent permitted by 147495 federal law, to make eligibility determinations. 147496

Each county department of job and family services shall 147497 submit to the department of ~~job~~ children and ~~family services~~ youth 147498 that the department determines are necessary for compliance with 147502 this division and with any state standards adopted for the 147503 administration of this division. 147504

Sec. 5104.34. (A)(1) Each county department of job and family 147505 services shall implement procedures for making determinations of 147506 eligibility for publicly funded child care. Under those 147507 procedures, the eligibility determination for each applicant shall 147508 be made no later than thirty calendar days from the date the 147509 county department receives a completed application for publicly 147510 funded child care. Each applicant shall be notified promptly of 147511 the results of the eligibility determination. An applicant 147512 section 5101.35 of the Revised Code. The due process rights of 147516 providers or child care resource and referral service 147524 organizations for the providers or resource and referral service 147525 county department in making determinations. If a county department 147527 contracts with a child care provider or a child care resource and 147528 referral service organization for eligibility determinations or 147529 for the collection of information, the contract shall require the 147530 provider or resource and referral service organization to make 147531 each eligibility determination no later than thirty calendar days 147532 from the date the provider or resource and referral organization 147533 receives a completed application that is the basis of the 147534 determination and to collect and transmit all necessary 147535 information to the county department within a period of time that 147536 enables the county department to make each eligibility 147537 determination no later than thirty days after the filing of the 147538 application that is the basis of the determination. 147539

The county department may station employees of the department 147540 in various locations throughout the county to collect information 147541 relevant to applications for publicly funded child care and to 147542 make eligibility determinations. The county department, child care 147543 provider, and child care resource and referral service 147544 publicly funded child care no later than thirty days after the 147546 filing of the application that is the basis of the determination, 147547 shall make each determination in accordance with any relevant 147548 rules adopted pursuant to section 5104.38 of the Revised Code, and 147549 shall notify promptly each applicant for publicly funded child 147550 care of the results of the determination of the applicant's 147551

The director of ~~job~~ children and ~~family services~~ youth shall 147553 adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code 147554 for monitoring the eligibility determination process. In 147555 accordance with those rules, the state department shall monitor 147556 eligibility determinations made by county departments of job and 147557 family services and shall direct any entity that is not in 147558 compliance with this division or any rule adopted under this 147559 division to implement corrective action specified by the 147560 department. 147561

(2)(a) All eligibility determinations for publicly funded 147562 child care shall be made in accordance with rules adopted pursuant 147563 to division (A) of section 5104.38 of the Revised Code. Except as 147564 otherwise provided in this section, all of the following apply: 147565

(i) Publicly funded child care may be provided only to 147566 eligible infants, toddlers, preschool-age children, school-age 147567 children under age thirteen, or children receiving special needs 147568 child care. 147569

(ii) For an applicant to be eligible for publicly funded 147570 child care, the caretaker parent must be employed or participating 147571 in a program of education or training for an amount of time 147572 reasonably related to the time that the parent's children are 147573 receiving publicly funded child care. This restriction does not 147574 apply to families whose children are eligible for protective child 147575 care. 147576

(iii) The eligibility period for publicly funded child care 147577 shall be at least twelve months. 147578

(b) In accordance with rules adopted under division (B) of 147579 section 5104.38 of the Revised Code, an applicant may receive 147580 publicly funded child care while the county department determines 147581 eligibility. An applicant may receive publicly funded child care 147582 while a county department determines eligibility only once during 147583 a twelve-month period. If the county department determines that an 147584 applicant is not eligible for publicly funded child care, the 147585 child care provider shall be paid for providing publicly funded 147586 child care for up to five days after that determination if the 147587 county department received a completed application with all 147588 required documentation. A program may appeal a denial of payment 147589 under this division. 147590

(c) If a caretaker parent who has been determined eligible to 147591 receive publicly funded child care no longer meets the 147592 requirements of division (A)(2)(a)(ii) of this section, the 147593 caretaker parent may continue to receive publicly funded child 147594 care for a period of at least three but not more than four months 147595 not to extend beyond the caretaker parent's eligibility period. 147596

(d) If a child turns thirteen, or if a child receiving 147597 special needs child care turns eighteen, during the eligibility 147598 period, the caretaker parent may continue to receive publicly 147599 funded child care until the end of that eligibility period. 147600

Subject to available funds, the department of ~~job~~ children 147601 and ~~family services~~ youth shall allow a family to receive publicly 147602 funded child care unless the family's income exceeds the maximum 147603 income eligibility limit. Initial and continued eligibility for 147604 publicly funded child care is subject to available funds unless 147605 the family is receiving child care pursuant to division (A)(1), 147606 (2), (3), or (4) of section 5104.30 of the Revised Code. If the 147607 department must limit eligibility due to lack of available funds, 147608 it shall give first priority for publicly funded child care to an 147609 assistance group whose income is not more than the maximum income 147610 eligibility limit that received transitional child care in the 147611 previous month but is no longer eligible because the eligibility 147612 period has expired. Such an assistance group shall continue to 147613 receive priority for publicly funded child care until its income 147614 exceeds the maximum income eligibility limit. 147615

(3) An assistance group that ceases to participate in the 147616
Ohio works first program established under Chapter 5107. of the 147617 Revised Code is eligible for transitional child care at any time 147618 during the immediately following twelve-month period that both of 147619
the following apply: 147620

(a) The assistance group requires child care due to 147621 employment; 147622

(b) The assistance group's income is not more than one 147623 hundred fifty per cent of the federal poverty line. 147624

An assistance group ineligible to participate in the Ohio 147625 works first program pursuant to section 5101.83 or section 5107.16 147626 of the Revised Code is not eligible for transitional child care. 147627

(B) To the extent permitted by federal law, the department of 147628 ~~job children~~ and ~~family services youth~~ may require a caretaker 147629 parent determined to be eligible for publicly funded child care to 147630 pay a fee according to the schedule of fees established in rules 147631 adopted under section 5104.38 of the Revised Code. The department 147632 shall make protective child care services and homeless child care 147633 services available to children without regard to the income or 147634 assets of the caretaker parent of the child. 147635

(C) A caretaker parent receiving publicly funded child care 147636 shall report to the entity that determined eligibility any changes 147637 in status with respect to employment or participation in a program 147638 of education or training not later than ten calendar days after 147639 the change occurs. 147640

(D) If the department of ~~job children~~ and ~~family services~~ youth determines that available resources are not sufficient to provide publicly funded child care to all eligible families who request it, the department may establish a waiting list. The department may establish separate waiting lists within the waiting list based on income.

(E) A caretaker parent shall not receive publicly funded child care from more than one child care provider per child during a week, unless a county department grants the family an exemption for one of the following reasons:

(1) The child needs additional care during non-traditional hours;

(2) The child needs to change providers in the middle of the week and the hours of care provided by the providers do not overlap;

(3) The child's provider is closed on scheduled school days off or on calamity days.

(F) As used in this section, "maximum income eligibility limit" means the amount of income specified in rules adopted under division (A) of section 5104.38 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5153.20. (A)(1) Except as provided in division (B) of 148638 this section, the cost of care furnished by the public children 148639 services agency or the board of county commissioners to any child 148640 having a legal residence in another county shall be charged to the 148641 county of legal residence. No expense shall be incurred by the 148642 determination of legal residence of such child. Summons in such a 148649 proceeding shall be served, as in other civil actions, upon the 148650 board of county commissioners and the executive director of the 148651 agency of the county alleged to be the county of legal residence, 148652 but the answer day shall be the tenth day after the issuance of 148653 such summons. The return day shall be the fifth day after issuance 148654 of the summons. The cause shall be set for hearing not less than 148655 ten nor more than thirty days after the issuance of the summons. 148656

The finding and determination by the court upon such application, 148657 subject to the right of appeal, shall be final and conclusive as 148658 to the county chargeable under this section with the costs of the 148659 care of such child. The board of county commissioners out of its 148660 upon receipt of itemized statements. 148662

(2) Any moneys received by the agency furnishing such care 148663 from persons liable for the cost of any part of such care, by 148664

residence. 148666

(3) The agency may remove and deliver any child, having legal 148667 residence in another county in Ohio and deemed to be in need of 148668 public care, to the public children services agency of the county 148669 of legal residence. All cost incidental to the transportation of 148670 such child and of any escort required shall be paid by the public 148671 children services agency which delivers back the child. With the 148672 approval of the department of ~~job children~~ and ~~family services~~ 148673 youth, any child whose legal residence has been found to be in 148674 another state or country may be transferred to the department for 148675 return to the place of legal residence, or such child may be 148676 returned by the agency. All costs incidental to the transportation 148677 of such child and of any escort required shall be paid by the 148678 department of ~~job children~~ and ~~family services~~ youth if it returns 148679 the child, otherwise the cost shall be paid by the agency, subject 148680 in either case to such reimbursement as may be obtained from the 148681 responsible persons or authorities of the place of legal 148682 residence. The department of ~~job children~~ and ~~family services~~ 148683 youth may enter into agreements with the authorities of other 148684 states relative to the placement and return of children. 148685

(B)(1) If a court determines that reasonable efforts have 148686 been made to prevent removal of an adopted child from the child's 148687 home pursuant to section 2151.419 of the Revised Code and an 148688 adopted child is placed in the temporary or permanent custody of a 148689 public children services agency or a private child placing agency 148690 within thirty-six months of the date that the child's adoption was 148691 finalized, the agency that previously held permanent custody of 148692 the child when the child was placed with the adoptive parent shall 148693 be given opportunity to participate in planning for the child's 148694 care and treatment and shall assume fifty per cent of the 148695 financial responsibility for the care and treatment. Shared 148696 planning and financial responsibility shall cease on the first day 148697 of the thirty-seventh month after the date that the child's 148698 adoption was finalized and, on this date, the custodial agency 148699 shall then assume full planning and financial responsibility. The 148700 custodial agency and the agency that previously held permanent 148701 custody of the child may enter into a written agreement for shared 148702 financial responsibility that differs from the responsibilities 148703 allocated in this division. 148704

(2) Division (B)(1) of this section does not apply to any of the following: 148705

(3) Nothing in division (B) of this section shall prevent a court or a child support enforcement agency from issuing a child support order. 148713
148715

Sec. 5153.21. The board of county commissioners may establish a children's home upon the recommendation of the public children services agency and subject to certification by the department of ~~job children~~ and ~~family services youth~~ under section 5103.03 of the Revised Code and the requirements of sections 5103.05 and 5103.051 of the Revised Code. 148716
148717
148719
148721

148727
148728
148729
148730
148731

Sec. 5153.27. A public children services agency operating a children's home or other institution is subject to sections 148732
148733

5103.03 and 5103.04 of the Revised Code respecting certification 148734 by the department of ~~job~~ children and ~~family services~~ youth. 148735

Sec. 5153.29. The board of county commissioners of any county 148736 having a county children's home, may, upon the recommendation of 148737 the public children services agency and with the approval of the 148738 department of ~~job~~ children and ~~family services~~ youth, abandon the 148739 use of such home and proceed to sell or lease the site, building, 148740 furniture, and equipment of such home in the manner most 148741 advantageous to the county, or it may use the home for other 148742 necessary and proper purposes. The net proceeds of any such sale 148743 or lease shall be paid into the county treasury. 148744

Sec. 5153.30. The public children services agency may accept 148745 and receive bequests, donations, and gifts of funds or property, 148746 real or personal, for child care and services. The facilities or 148747 services to be established or maintained through any such gift 148748 shall be subject to the approval of the department of ~~job~~ children 148749 and ~~family services~~ youth. 148750

Sec. 5153.32. Any corporation, organized under the laws of 148751

acquired, transfer such funds or properties to the public children 148763 services agency, to be used for the purposes for which such funds 148764 or property were acquired. The transfer of such funds or 148765 properties to the agency shall be a full discharge of the 148766 obligation or liability of such corporation and its trustees with 148767 respect to the funds and properties so transferred. 148768

Sec. 5153.35. The boards of county commissioners shall levy 148769 taxes and make appropriations sufficient to enable the public 148770 children services agency to perform its functions and duties under 148771

In addition to making the usual appropriations, there may be 148781 allowed annually to the executive director an amount not to exceed 148782 one-half the executive director's official salary to provide for 148783 necessary expenses which are incurred by the executive director or 148784 official duties. Upon the order of the executive director, the 148786 county auditor shall draw a warrant on the county treasurer 148787 out of the general fund of the county. The bond of the executive 148791 director provided for by section 5153.13 of the Revised Code shall 148792 at all times be in sufficient amount to cover the additional 148793 appropriations provided for by this section. 148794

The executive director, annually, before the first Monday of 148795 recommendation of the public children services agencies of such 148804 counties, and subject to the approval of the department of ~~job~~ 148805 board, and proceed to organize a district for the establishment 148807 and support of a children's home, by using a site and buildings 148808 already established in one such county, or by providing for the 148809 purchase of a site and the erection of necessary buildings 148810 thereon. 148811

Sec. 5153.38. When any person donates or bequeaths the 148812 person's real or personal estate, or any part thereof, to the use 148813 and benefit of a district children's home, the board of trustees 148814 of the home may accept and use such donation or bequest as they 148815 with the conditions of such bequest. The facilities or services to 148817 be established or maintained through any such gift shall be 148818 subject to the approval of the department of ~~job~~ children and 148819

Sec. 5153.49. The board of county commissioners of any county 148821

withdraw from such district and dispose of its interest in such 148825 home by selling or leasing its right, title, and interest in the 148826 site, buildings, furniture, and equipment to any counties in the 148827 district, at such price and on such terms as are agreed upon among 148828 the boards of county commissioners of the counties concerned. 148829 Section 307.10 of the Revised Code does not apply to this section. 148830
The net proceeds of any such sale or lease shall be paid into the 148831 county treasury of the withdrawing county. 148832

Members of the board of trustees of a district children's 148833 home who are residents of a county withdrawing from such district 148834 are deemed to have resigned their positions upon completion of the 148835 withdrawal procedure provided by this section. Vacancies thus 148836 created shall be filled according to sections 5153.39 and 5153.45 148837

Sec. 5153.52. The board of county commissioners of any county 148839 which has no county children's home may aid an incorporated 148840 children's home or other unincorporated society, whose object is 148841 the care, aid, and education of neglected or destitute children, 148842 by contributing toward the purchase of land for such home or 148843 society, the erection of buildings by it, or of additions to 148844 existing buildings, or other improvements, to an amount not to 148845 exceed twenty-five hundred dollars in any one year. 148846

The board of any such county may submit to the people of such 148847 county, under section 133.18 of the Revised Code, the question of 148848 whether bonds of such county shall be issued for the purposes of 148849 this section. If the people of such county approve the issue of 148850 bonds, the board may issue the bonds under Chapter 133. of the 148851 Revised Code, as if they were being issued for the construction of 148852 a county children's home owned by the county, and may use the 148853 proceeds of such bond issue for the purposes of and without the 148854 restriction as to amount imposed by this section. 148855

The board may contribute an amount not to exceed five hundred 148856 dollars in any one year for the purpose of keeping such property 148857 in repair. If such children's home ceases to exist, so that the 148858 property so purchased ceases to be used for the purpose of a 148859 children's home by the corporation, such county shall have a lien 148860 upon the property for the amount of money contributed for its 148861 purchase, and if such corporation fails to maintain, manage, and 148862 control such home so as to subserve the purpose of a children's 148863 home for which it was incorporated, the board may enforce such 148864 lien or, if it prefers may, upon approval of the department of ~~job~~ 148865 children and family services, youth first being obtained, organize 148866 such home into a county children's home. The title to such 148867 property, where the county has contributed the whole amount of the 148868 purchase money, shall vest in and be the property of such county. 148869

Sec. 5162.11. (A) The department of medicaid shall enter into 148881 the child's release or discharge, the health care professional may 151633 obtain information, or consider information obtained, from other 151634 with requirements specified under division (B)(6) of section 151686 conducting the investigation of the report as determined pursuant 151702 to section 2151.422 of the Revised Code. 151703

(G)(1) Except as provided in section 2151.422 of the Revised 151704 Code or in an interagency agreement entered into under section 151705 report, the public children services agency shall investigate, 151707 within twenty-four hours, each report of child abuse or child 151708 neglect that is known or reasonably suspected or believed to have 151709 occurred and of a threat of child abuse or child neglect that is 151710 known or reasonably suspected or believed to exist that is 151711 surrounding the injuries, abuse, or neglect or the threat of 151713 injury, abuse, or neglect, the cause of the injuries, abuse, 151714 neglect, or threat, and the person or persons responsible. The 151715 shall be given in a manner that is consistent with division (I)(1) 151723 of this section and protects the rights of the person making the 151724 report under this section. 151725

A failure to make the investigation in accordance with the 151726 memorandum is not grounds for, and shall not result in, the 151727 dismissal of any charges or complaint arising from the report or 151728 the suppression of any evidence obtained as a result of the report 151729 and does not give, and shall not be construed as giving, any 151730 person. The public children services agency shall report each case 151732 to the uniform statewide automated child welfare information 151733 system that the department of job and family services shall 151734 maintain in accordance with section 5101.13 of the Revised Code. 151735

The public children services agency shall submit a report of its 151736 investigation, in writing, to the law enforcement agency. 151737

(2) The public children services agency shall make any 151738 director of law that it considers necessary to protect any 151740 children that are brought to its attention. 151741

(H)(1)(a) Except as provided in divisions (H)(1)(b) and 151742
(I)(3) of this section, any person, health care professional, 151743 hospital, institution, school, health department, or agency shall 151744 be immune from any civil or criminal liability for injury, death, 151745

(b) Immunity under division (H)(1)(a)(ii) of this section 151761 shall not apply when a health care provider has deviated from the 151762 standard of care applicable to the provider's profession. 151763

(c) Notwithstanding section 4731.22 of the Revised Code, the physician-patient privilege shall not be a ground for excluding evidence regarding a child's injuries, abuse, or neglect, or the cause of the injuries, abuse, or neglect in any judicial proceeding resulting from a report submitted pursuant to this section.

to discovery in accordance with the Rules of Criminal Procedure. 151796

(2)(a) Except as provided in division (I)(2)(b) of this 151797 section, no person shall permit or encourage the unauthorized 151798 dissemination of the contents of any report made under this 151799
section. 151800

(b) A health care professional that obtains the same 151801 information contained in a report made under this section from a 151802 source other than the report may disseminate the information, if 151803 its dissemination is otherwise permitted by law. 151804

(3) A person who knowingly makes or causes another person to 151805 make a false report under division (B) of this section that 151806 alleges that any person has committed an act or omission that 151807 resulted in a child being an abused child or a neglected child is 151808 guilty of a violation of section 2921.14 of the Revised Code. 151809

(4) If a report is made pursuant to division (A) or (B) of 151810 this section and the child who is the subject of the report dies 151811 for any reason at any time after the report is made, but before 151812 the child attains eighteen years of age, the public children 151813 services agency or peace officer to which the report was made or 151814 referred, on the request of the child fatality review board, the 151815 board, review committee, or director, the agency or peace officer 151822 may, at its discretion, make the report available to the review 151823 board, review committee, or director. If the county served by the 151824

the Revised Code relative to that advocacy center. 151832

(5) A public children services agency shall advise a person 151833 of a child referred to a children's advocacy center pursuant to an 151837 interagency agreement entered into under section 2151.428 of the 151838 Revised Code, in writing of the disposition of the investigation. 151839

The agency shall not provide to the person any information that 151840 identifies the person who made the report, statements of 151841

(A) of this section may make a reasonable number of requests of 151856 the public children services agency that receives or is referred 151857 division (K)(1) of this section only if, at the time the report is 151875 made, the person's name, address, and telephone number are 151876 provided to the person who receives the report. 151877

(b) When a peace officer or employee of a public children 151878 services agency receives a report pursuant to division (A) or (B) 151879 of this section the recipient of the report shall inform the 151880 person of the right to request the information described in 151881 division (K)(1) of this section. The recipient of the report shall 151882 include in the initial child abuse or child neglect report that 151883

(12) Develop software to be used by sheriffs in establishing 153733 on the internet a sex offender and child-victim offender database 153734 for the public dissemination of some or all of the information and 153735 materials described in division (A) of section 2950.081 of the 153736 Revised Code that are public records under that division, that are 153737 not prohibited from inclusion by division (B) of that section, and 153738 that pertain to offenders and public registry-qualified juvenile 153739 offender registrants who register in the sheriff's county pursuant 153740 to section 2950.04 or 2950.041 of the Revised Code and for the 153741 to section 2950.14 of the Revised Code and, upon the request of 153743 any sheriff, provide technical guidance to the requesting sheriff 153744 in establishing on the internet such a database; 153745

(13) Through the bureau of criminal identification and 153746 investigation, not later than January 1, 2004, establish and 153747 operate on the internet a database that enables local law 153748 enforcement representatives to remotely search by electronic means 153749 the state registry of sex offenders and child-victim offenders 153750 described in division (A)(1) of this section and any information 153751 database shall enable local law enforcement representatives to 153754 obtain detailed information regarding each offender and delinquent 153755 child who is included in the registry, including, but not limited 153756 to the offender's or delinquent child's name, aliases, residence 153757 address, name and address of any place of employment, school, 153758 institution of higher education, if applicable, license plate 153759 number of each vehicle identified in division (C)(5) of section 153760 2950.04 or 2950.041 of the Revised Code to the extent applicable, 153761 victim preference if available, date of most recent release from 153762 confinement if applicable, fingerprints, and palmprints, all of 153763 the information and material described in divisions (A)(1)(a) to 153764 (h) of this section regarding the offender or delinquent child, 153765 and other identification parameters the bureau considers 153766 appropriate. The database is not a public record open for 153767 inspection under section 149.43 of the Revised Code and shall be 153768 available only to law enforcement representatives as described in 153769 this division. Information obtained by local law enforcement 153770 representatives through use of this database is not open to 153771 inspection by the public or by any person other than a person 153772 identified in division (A) of section 2950.08 of the Revised Code. 153773

investigation, maintain a list of requests for notice about a 153775 specified offender or delinquent child or specified geographical 153776 notification area made pursuant to division (J) of section 2950.11 153777 of the Revised Code and, when an offender or delinquent child 153778 changes residence to another county, forward any requests for 153779 information about that specific offender or delinquent child to 153780 the appropriate sheriff; 153781

investigation, establish and operate a system for the immediate 153783 notification by electronic means of the appropriate officials in 153784 other states specified in this division each time an offender or 153785 delinquent child registers a residence, school, institution of 153786 higher education, or place of employment address under section 153787 2950.04 or 2950.041 of the Revised Code or provides a notice of a 153788 change of address or registers a new address under division (A) or 153789
(B) of section 2950.05 of the Revised Code. The immediate 153790 notification by electronic means shall be provided to the 153791 appropriate officials in each state in which the offender or 153792 delinquent child is required to register a residence, school, 153793 institution of higher education, or place of employment address. 153794
The notification shall contain the offender's or delinquent 153795 child's name and all of the information the bureau receives from 153796 the sheriff with whom the offender or delinquent child registered 153797 the address or provided the notice of change of address or 153798 registered the new address. 153799

(B) The attorney general in consultation with local law 153800 enforcement representatives, may adopt rules that establish one or 153801 more categories of neighbors of an offender or delinquent child 153802 who, in addition to the occupants of residential premises and 153803 other persons specified in division (A)(1) of section 2950.11 of 153804 the Revised Code, must be given the notice described in division 153805
(B) of that section. 153806

(C) No person, other than a local law enforcement 153807 representative, shall knowingly do any of the following: 153808

(1) Gain or attempt to gain access to the database 153809 established and operated by the attorney general, through the 153810 bureau of criminal identification and investigation, pursuant to 153811 division (A)(13) of this section. 153812

(2) Permit any person to inspect any information obtained 153813 through use of the database described in division (C)(1) of this 153814 section, other than as permitted under that division. 153815

(D) As used in this section, "local law enforcement 153816 representatives" means representatives of the sheriffs of this 153817 state, representatives of the municipal chiefs of police and 153818 marshals of this state, and representatives of the township 153819 constables and chiefs of police of the township police departments 153820 or police district police forces of this state. 153821

Sec. 3109.051. (A) If a divorce, dissolution, legal 153822 separation, or annulment proceeding involves a child and if the 153823 court has not issued a shared parenting decree, the court shall 153824 consider any mediation report filed pursuant to section 3109.052 153825 of the Revised Code and, in accordance with division (C) of this 153826 section, shall make a just and reasonable order or decree 153827 permitting each parent who is not the residential parent to have 153828 parenting time with the child at the time and under the conditions 153829 that the court directs, unless the court determines that it would 153830 not be in the best interest of the child to permit that parent to 153831 have parenting time with the child and includes in the journal its 153832 findings of fact and conclusions of law. Whenever possible, the 153833 order or decree permitting the parenting time shall ensure the 153834 opportunity for both parents to have frequent and continuing 153835 contact with the child, unless frequent and continuing contact by 153836 either parent with the child would not be in the best interest of 153837 the child. The court shall include in its final decree a specific 153838 schedule of parenting time for that parent. Except as provided in 153839 division (E)(6) of section 3113.31 of the Revised Code, if the 153840 court, pursuant to this section, grants parenting time to a parent 153841 or companionship or visitation rights to any other person with 153842 respect to any child, it shall not require the public children 153843 services agency to provide supervision of or other services 153844 related to that parent's exercise of parenting time or that 153845 person's exercise of companionship or visitation rights with 153846 respect to the child. This section does not limit the power of a 153847 juvenile court pursuant to Chapter 2151. of the Revised Code to 153848 issue orders with respect to children who are alleged to be 153849 abused, neglected, or dependent children or to make dispositions 153850 of children who are adjudicated abused, neglected, or dependent 153851 children or of a common pleas court to issue orders pursuant to 153852 section 3113.31 of the Revised Code. 153853

(B)(1) In a divorce, dissolution of marriage, legal 153854 separation, annulment, or child support proceeding that involves a 153855 child, the court may grant reasonable companionship or visitation 153856 rights to any grandparent, any person related to the child by 153857 consanguinity or affinity, or any other person other than a parent, if all of the following apply:

(a) The grandparent, relative, or other person files a motion with the court seeking companionship or visitation rights.

(b) The court determines that the grandparent, relative, or other person has an interest in the welfare of the child.

(c) The court determines that the granting of the companionship or visitation rights is in the best interest of the child.

(2) A motion may be filed under division (B)(1) of this section during the pendency of the divorce, dissolution of marriage, legal separation, annulment, or child support proceeding or, if a motion was not filed at that time or was filed at that time and the circumstances in the case have changed, at any time after a decree or final order is issued in the case.

visitation matters under this section or under section 3109.11 or 153891 3109.12 of the Revised Code, and resolving any issues related to 153892
the making of any determination with respect to parenting time or 153893
visitation rights or the establishment of any specific parenting 153894 time or visitation schedule, the court, in its discretion, may 153895 interview in chambers any or all involved children regarding their 153896 wishes and concerns. If the court interviews any child concerning 153897 the child's wishes and concerns regarding those parenting time or 153898 visitation matters, the interview shall be conducted in chambers, 153899 and no person other than the child, the child's attorney, the 153900 judge, any necessary court personnel, and, in the judge's 153901 discretion, the attorney of each parent shall be permitted to be 153902 present in the chambers during the interview. No person shall 153903 obtain or attempt to obtain from a child a written or recorded 153904 statement or affidavit setting forth the wishes and concerns of 153905 the child regarding those parenting time or visitation matters. A 153906 court, in considering the factors listed in division (D) of this 153907 section for purposes of determining whether to grant any parenting 153908 time or visitation rights, establishing a parenting time or 153909 visitation schedule, determining other parenting time matters 153910
visitation matters under this section or under section 3109.11 or 153912 3109.12 of the Revised Code, or resolving any issues related to 153913
visitation rights or the establishment of any specific parenting 153915 time or visitation schedule, shall not accept or consider a 153916 written or recorded statement or affidavit that purports to set 153917 forth the child's wishes or concerns regarding those parenting 153918 time or visitation matters. 153919

(D) In determining whether to grant parenting time to a 153920 parent pursuant to this section or section 3109.12 of the Revised 153921

Code or companionship or visitation rights to a grandparent, 153922 relative, or other person pursuant to this section or section 153923 3109.11 or 3109.12 of the Revised Code, in establishing a specific 153924 parenting time or visitation schedule, and in determining other 153925 parenting time matters under this section or section 3109.12 of 153926 the Revised Code or visitation matters under this section or 153927 section 3109.11 or 3109.12 of the Revised Code, the court shall 153928 consider all of the following factors: 153929

(1) The prior interaction and interrelationships of the child 153930 with the child's parents, siblings, and other persons related by 153931 consanguinity or affinity, and with the person who requested 153932 companionship or visitation if that person is not a parent, 153933 sibling, or relative of the child; 153934

(2) The geographical location of the residence of each parent 153935 and the distance between those residences, and if the person is 153936 not a parent, the geographical location of that person's residence 153937 and the distance between that person's residence and the child's 153938
residence; 153939

(3) The child's and parents' available time, including, but 153940 not limited to, each parent's employment schedule, the child's 153941 school schedule, and the child's and the parents' holiday and 153942 vacation schedule; 153943

(4) The age of the child; 153944

(5) The child's adjustment to home, school, and community; 153945

(6) If the court has interviewed the child in chambers, 153946 pursuant to division (C) of this section, regarding the wishes and 153947 concerns of the child as to parenting time by the parent who is 153948 not the residential parent or companionship or visitation by the 153949 grandparent, relative, or other person who requested companionship 153950 or visitation, as to a specific parenting time or visitation 153951 schedule, or as to other parenting time or visitation matters, the 153952 wishes and concerns of the child, as expressed to the court;	153953

(7) The health and safety of the child;	153954
(8) The amount of time that will be available for the child to spend with siblings;	153955 153956
(9) The mental and physical health of all parties;	153957
(10) Each parent's willingness to reschedule missed parenting time and to facilitate the other parent's parenting time rights, and with respect to a person who requested companionship or visitation, the willingness of that person to reschedule missed visitation;	153958 153959 153960 153961 153962
(11) In relation to parenting time, whether either parent previously has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to any criminal offense involving any act that resulted in a child being an abused child or a neglected child; whether either parent, in a case in which a child has been adjudicated an abused child or a neglected child, previously has been determined to be the perpetrator of the abusive or neglectful act that is the basis of the adjudication; and whether there is reason to believe that either parent has acted in a manner resulting in a child being an abused child or a neglected child;	153963 153964 153965 153966 153967 153968 153969 153970 153971 153972

subject of the current proceeding; whether either parent 153985 previously has been convicted of an offense involving a victim who 153986 at the time of the commission of the offense was a member of the 153987 family or household that is the subject of the current proceeding 153988 and caused physical harm to the victim in the commission of the 153989 offense; and whether there is reason to believe that the person 153990 has acted in a manner resulting in a child being an abused child 153991 or a neglected child; 153992

(13) Whether the residential parent or one of the parents 153993 subject to a shared parenting decree has continuously and 153994 willfully denied the other parent's right to parenting time in 153995 accordance with an order of the court; 153996

(14) Whether either parent has established a residence or is 153997 planning to establish a residence outside this state; 153998

(15) In relation to requested companionship or visitation by 153999 a person other than a parent, the wishes and concerns of the 154000 child's parents, as expressed by them to the court; 154001

(16) Any other factor in the best interest of the child. 154002

(E) The remarriage of a residential parent of a child does 154003 not affect the authority of a court under this section to grant 154004 parenting time rights with respect to the child to the parent who 154005 is not the residential parent or to grant reasonable companionship 154006 or visitation rights with respect to the child to any grandparent, 154007 any person related by consanguinity or affinity, or any other 154008 person. 154009

(F)(1) If the court, pursuant to division (A) of this 154010 section, denies parenting time to a parent who is not the 154011 residential parent or denies a motion for reasonable companionship 154012 or visitation rights filed under division (B) of this section and 154013 the parent or movant files a written request for findings of fact 154014 and conclusions of law, the court shall state in writing its findings of fact and conclusions of law in accordance with Civil Rule 52.

(2) On or before July 1, 1991, each court of common pleas, by rule, shall adopt standard parenting time guidelines. A court shall have discretion to deviate from its standard parenting time guidelines based upon factors set forth in division (D) of this section.

(2) When a court grants parenting time rights to a parent who is not the residential parent, the court shall determine whether that parent has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a violation of section 2919.25 of the Revised Code involving a victim who at the time of the commission of the offense was a member of the family or household that is the subject of the proceeding, has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to any other offense involving a victim who at the time of the commission of the offense was a member of the family or household that is the subject of the proceeding and caused physical harm to the victim in the commission of the offense, or has been determined to be the perpetrator of the abusive act that is the basis of an adjudication that a child is an abused child. If the court

been determined to be the perpetrator of an abusive act that is the basis of a child abuse adjudication, the court shall issue an order stating that a copy of any notice of relocation that is filed with the court pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section will be sent to the parent who is given the parenting time rights in accordance with division (G)(1) of this section.

If the court determines that the parent who is granted the parenting time rights has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a violation of section 2919.25 of the Revised Code involving a victim who at the time of the commission of the offense was a member of the family or household that is the subject of the proceeding, has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to any other offense involving a victim who at the time of the commission of the offense was a member of the family or household that is the subject of the proceeding and caused physical harm to the victim in the commission of the offense, or has been determined to be the perpetrator of the abusive act that is the basis of an adjudication that a child is an abused child, it shall issue an order stating that that parent will not be given a copy of any notice of relocation that is filed with the court pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section unless the court determines that it is in the best interest of the children to give that parent a copy of the notice of relocation, issues an order stating that that parent will be given a copy of any notice of relocation filed pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section, and issues specific written findings of fact in support of its determination.

(3) If a court, prior to April 11, 1991, issued an order granting parenting time rights to a parent who is not the residential parent and did not require the residential parent in that order to give the parent who is granted the parenting time rights notice of any change of address and if the residential parent files a notice of relocation pursuant to division (G)(1) of 154079 this section, the court shall determine if the parent who is 154080 granted the parenting time rights has been convicted of or pleaded 154081 guilty to a violation of section 2919.25 of the Revised Code 154082 involving a victim who at the time of the commission of the 154083

subject of the proceeding, has been convicted of or pleaded guilty 154085 to any other offense involving a victim who at the time of the 154086 commission of the offense was a member of the family or household 154087 that is the subject of the proceeding and caused physical harm to 154088 the victim in the commission of the offense, or has been 154089 determined to be the perpetrator of the abusive act that is the 154090 basis of an adjudication that a child is an abused child. If the 154091 court determines that the parent who is granted the parenting time 154092 rights has not been so convicted and has not been determined to be 154093 the perpetrator of an abusive act that is the basis of a child 154094 abuse adjudication, the court shall issue an order stating that a 154095 copy of any notice of relocation that is filed with the court 154096 pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section will be sent to the 154097 parent who is granted parenting time rights in accordance with 154098 division (G)(1) of this section. 154099

violation of section 2919.25 of the Revised Code involving a 154102
member of the family or household that is the subject of the 154104
offense involving a victim who at the time of the commission of 154106
the offense was a member of the family or household that is the 154107
subject of the proceeding and caused physical harm to the victim 154108
perpetrator of the abusive act that is the basis of an 154110 adjudication that a child is an abused child, it shall issue an 154111

division (G)(1) of this section unless the court determines that 154114
it is in the best interest of the children to give that parent a 154115
that parent will be given a copy of any notice of relocation filed 154117
written findings of fact in support of its determination. 154119

(4) If a parent who is granted parenting time rights pursuant 154120 to this section or any other section of the Revised Code is 154121 authorized by an order issued pursuant to this section or any 154122 other court order to receive a copy of any notice of relocation 154123 that is filed pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section or 154124 pursuant to court order, if the residential parent intends to move 154125 to a residence other than the residence address specified in the 154126 parenting time order, and if the residential parent does not want 154127 the parent who is granted the parenting time rights to receive a 154128 copy of the relocation notice because the parent with parenting 154129 time rights has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a violation 154130 of section 2919.25 of the Revised Code involving a victim who at 154131 the time of the commission of the offense was a member of the 154132 family or household that is the subject of the proceeding, has 154133 been convicted of or pleaded guilty to any other offense involving 154134 a victim who at the time of the commission of the offense was a 154135 member of the family or household that is the subject of the 154136 proceeding and caused physical harm to the victim in the 154137 commission of the offense, or has been determined to be the 154138 perpetrator of the abusive act that is the basis of an 154139
adjudication that a child is an abused child, the residential 154140 parent may file a motion with the court requesting that the parent 154141 who is granted the parenting time rights not receive a copy of any 154142 notice of relocation. Upon the filing of the motion, the court 154143 shall schedule a hearing on the motion and give both parents 154144 notice of the date, time, and location of the hearing. If the 154145

rights has been so convicted or has been determined to be the 154147 perpetrator of an abusive act that is the basis of a child abuse 154148 adjudication, the court shall issue an order stating that the 154149 parent who is granted the parenting time rights will not be given 154150 a copy of any notice of relocation that is filed with the court 154151 pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section or that the 154152 residential parent is no longer required to give that parent a 154153 copy of any notice of relocation unless the court determines that 154154
it is in the best interest of the children to give that parent a 154155
that parent will be given a copy of any notice of relocation filed 154157
pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section, and issues specific 154158
written findings of fact in support of its determination. If it 154159 does not so find, it shall dismiss the motion. 154160

(H)(1) Subject to section 3125.16 and division (F) of section 154161
3319.321 of the Revised Code, a parent of a child who is not the 154162 residential parent of the child is entitled to access, under the 154163 same terms and conditions under which access is provided to the 154164 residential parent, to any record that is related to the child and 154165 to which the residential parent of the child legally is provided 154166 access, unless the court determines that it would not be in the 154167 best interest of the child for the parent who is not the 154168 residential parent to have access to the records under those same 154169 terms and conditions. If the court determines that the parent of a 154170 child who is not the residential parent should not have access to 154171 records related to the child under the same terms and conditions 154172 as provided for the residential parent, the court shall specify 154173
the terms and conditions under which the parent who is not the 154174 residential parent is to have access to those records, shall enter 154175 its written findings of facts and opinion in the journal, and 154176 shall issue an order containing the terms and conditions to both 154177

the residential parent and the parent of the child who is not the residential parent. The court shall include in every order issued pursuant to this division notice that any keeper of a record who knowingly fails to comply with the order or division (H) of this section is in contempt of court.

(2) Subject to section 3125.16 and division (F) of section 3319.321 of the Revised Code, subsequent to the issuance of an order under division (H)(1) of this section, the keeper of any record that is related to a particular child and to which the residential parent legally is provided access shall permit the parent of the child who is not the residential parent to have access to the record under the same terms and conditions under which access is provided to the residential parent, unless the residential parent has presented the keeper of the record with a copy of an order issued under division (H)(1) of this section that limits the terms and conditions under which the parent who is not the residential parent is to have access to records pertaining to the child and the order pertains to the record in question. If the residential parent presents the keeper of the record with a copy of that type of order, the keeper of the record shall permit the parent who is not the residential parent to have access to the record only in accordance with the most recent order that has been issued pursuant to division (H)(1) of this section and presented to the keeper by the residential parent or the parent who is not the residential parent. Any keeper of any record who knowingly fails to comply with division (H) of this section or with any order issued pursuant to division (H)(1) of this section is in contempt of court.

confidential law enforcement investigatory record. The court shall 154210 schedule a hearing on the motion and give notice of the date, 154211 time, and location of the hearing to all parties. 154212

(I) A court that issues a parenting time order or decree 154213 pursuant to this section or section 3109.12 of the Revised Code 154214 shall determine whether the parent granted the right of parenting 154215 time is to be permitted access, in accordance with section 154216 5104.039 of the Revised Code, to any child ~~day-care~~ care center 154217 that is, or that in the future may be, attended by the children 154218 with whom the right of parenting time is granted. Unless the court 154219 determines that the parent who is not the residential parent 154220 should not have access to the center to the same extent that the 154221 residential parent is granted access to the center, the parent who 154222 is not the residential parent and who is granted parenting time 154223 rights is entitled to access to the center to the same extent that 154224 the residential parent is granted access to the center. If the 154225 court determines that the parent who is not the residential parent 154226 should not have access to the center to the same extent that the 154227 residential parent is granted such access under section 5104.039 154228 of the Revised Code, the court shall specify the terms and 154229 conditions under which the parent who is not the residential 154230 parent is to have access to the center, provided that the access 154231 shall not be greater than the access that is provided to the 154232 residential parent under section 5104.039 of the Revised Code, the 154233 court shall enter its written findings of fact and opinions in the 154234 journal, and the court shall include the terms and conditions of 154235 access in the parenting time order or decree. 154236

(J)(1) Subject to division (F) of section 3319.321 of the 154237 Revised Code, when a court issues an order or decree allocating 154238 parental rights and responsibilities for the care of a child, the 154239 parent of the child who is not the residential parent of the child 154240 is entitled to access, under the same terms and conditions under 154241 which access is provided to the residential parent, to any student 154242 activity that is related to the child and to which the residential 154243 parent of the child legally is provided access, unless the court 154244 determines that it would not be in the best interest of the child 154245 to grant the parent who is not the residential parent access to 154246 the student activities under those same terms and conditions. If 154247 the court determines that the parent of the child who is not the 154248 residential parent should not have access to any student activity 154249 that is related to the child under the same terms and conditions 154250

residential parent is to have access to those student activities, 154253 shall enter its written findings of facts and opinion in the 154254 journal, and shall issue an order containing the terms and 154255 conditions to both the residential parent and the parent of the 154256 child who is not the residential parent. The court shall include 154257 in every order issued pursuant to this division notice that any 154258 school official or employee who knowingly fails to comply with the 154259 order or division (J) of this section is in contempt of court. 154260

(2) Subject to division (F) of section 3319.321 of the 154261 Revised Code, subsequent to the issuance of an order under 154262 division (J)(1) of this section, all school officials and 154263 employees shall permit the parent of the child who is not the 154264 residential parent to have access to any student activity under 154265 the same terms and conditions under which access is provided to 154266 the residential parent of the child, unless the residential parent 154267 has presented the school official or employee, the board of 154268
nonpublic school with a copy of an order issued under division 154270 (J)(1) of this section that limits the terms and conditions under 154271 which the parent who is not the residential parent is to have 154272 access to student activities related to the child and the order 154273 pertains to the student activity in question. If the residential 154274 parent presents the school official or employee, the board of 154275

nonpublic school with a copy of that type of order, the school 154277 official or employee shall permit the parent who is not the 154278 residential parent to have access to the student activity only in 154279 accordance with the most recent order that has been issued 154280 pursuant to division (J)(1) of this section and presented to the 154281 school official or employee, the board of education of the school, 154282 or the governing body of the chartered nonpublic school by the 154283 residential parent or the parent who is not the residential 154284 parent. Any school official or employee who knowingly fails to 154285 comply with division (J) of this section or with any order issued 154286 pursuant to division (J)(1) of this section is in contempt of 154287 court. 154288

(K) If any person is found in contempt of court for failing 154289 to comply with or interfering with any order or decree granting 154290 parenting time rights issued pursuant to this section or section 154291 3109.12 of the Revised Code or companionship or visitation rights 154292 issued pursuant to this section, section 3109.11 or 3109.12 of the 154293 Revised Code, or any other provision of the Revised Code, the 154294 court that makes the finding, in addition to any other penalty or 154295 remedy imposed, shall assess all court costs arising out of the 154296 contempt proceeding against the person and require the person to 154297 pay any reasonable attorney's fees of any adverse party, as 154298 determined by the court, that arose in relation to the act of 154299 contempt, and may award reasonable compensatory parenting time or 154300 visitation to the person whose right of parenting time or 154301 visitation was affected by the failure or interference if such 154302 compensatory parenting time or visitation is in the best interest 154303 of the child. Any compensatory parenting time or visitation 154304 awarded under this division shall be included in an order issued 154305 by the court and, to the extent possible, shall be governed by the 154306 same terms and conditions as was the parenting time or visitation 154307 that was affected by the failure or interference. 154308

(L) Any parent who requests reasonable parenting time rights 154309 with respect to a child under this section or section 3109.12 of 154310 the Revised Code or any person who requests reasonable 154311 companionship or visitation rights with respect to a child under 154312 this section, section 3109.11 or 3109.12 of the Revised Code, or 154313 any other provision of the Revised Code may file a motion with the 154314 court requesting that it waive all or any part of the costs that 154315 may accrue in the proceedings. If the court determines that the 154316 movant is indigent and that the waiver is in the best interest of 154317 the child, the court, in its discretion, may waive payment of all 154318 or any part of the costs of those proceedings. 154319

service in the uniformed services and who is subject to a 154321 parenting time order may apply to the court for any of the 154322 following temporary orders for the period extending from the date 154323 of the parent's departure to the date of return: 154324

(a) An order delegating all or part of the parent's parenting 154325 time with the child to a relative or to another person who has a 154326 close and substantial relationship with the child if the 154327 delegation is in the child's best interest; 154328

(b) An order that the other parent make the child reasonably 154329 available for parenting time with the parent when the parent is on 154330 leave from active military service; 154331 including telephone and electronic contact, between the parent and 154333 child while the parent is on active military service. 154334

(2)(a) Upon receipt of an order for active military service, 154335 a parent who is subject to a parenting time order and seeks an 154336 order under division (M)(1) of this section shall notify the other 154337 parent who is subject to the parenting time order and apply to the 154338 court as soon as reasonably possible after receipt of the order 154339 for active military service. The application shall include the 154340 date on which the active military service begins. 154341

(b) The court shall schedule a hearing upon receipt of an 154342 application under division (M) of this section and hold the 154343 hearing not later than thirty days after its receipt, except that 154344 the court shall give the case calendar priority and handle the 154345 case expeditiously if exigent circumstances exist in the case. No 154346 hearing shall be required if both parents agree to the terms of 154347 the requested temporary order and the court determines that the 154348 order is in the child's best interest. 154349

(c) In determining whether a delegation under division 154350
(M)(1)(a) of this section is in the child's best interest, the 154351 court shall consider all relevant factors, including the factors 154352 set forth in division (D) of this section. 154353

(d) An order delegating all or part of the parent's parenting 154354 time pursuant to division (M)(1)(a) of this section does not 154355 create standing on behalf of the person to whom parenting time is 154356 delegated to assert visitation or companionship rights independent 154357 of the order. 154358

(3) At the request of a parent who is ordered for active 154359 military service in the uniformed services and who is a subject of 154360 a proceeding pertaining to a parenting time order or pertaining to 154361 a request for companionship rights or visitation with a child, the 154362 court shall permit the parent to participate in the proceeding and 154363 present evidence by electronic means, including communication by 154364 telephone, video, or internet to the extent permitted by rules of 154365 the supreme court of Ohio. 154366

the building previously has not been afforded a reasonable 155688 opportunity to abate the public nuisance or has been afforded such 155689 an opportunity and has not refused or failed to abate the public 155690 nuisance, and if the complaint of the municipal corporation, 155691 township, neighbor, tenant, or nonprofit corporation commencing 155692 the action requested the issuance of an injunction as described in 155693 the owner of the building to abate the public nuisance or issue 155695 any other order that the judge considers necessary or appropriate 155696 to cause the abatement of the public nuisance. If an injunction is 155697 issued pursuant to this division, the owner of the building 155698 involved shall be given no more than thirty days from the date of 155699 the entry of the judge's order to comply with the injunction, 155700 compliance. 155702

(2) If the judge in a civil action described in division 155703
(B)(1) of this section finds at the hearing required by division 155704 nuisance, if the judge additionally determines that the owner of 155706 the building previously has been afforded a reasonable opportunity 155707 to abate the public nuisance and has refused or failed to do so, 155708 and if the complaint of the municipal corporation, township, 155709 neighbor, tenant, or nonprofit corporation commencing the action 155710 requested relief as described in this division, then the judge 155711 shall offer any mortgagee, lienholder, or other interested party 155712 associated with the property on which the building is located, in 155713 the order of the priority of interest in title, the opportunity to 155714 undertake the work and to furnish the materials necessary to abate 155715 the public nuisance. Prior to selecting any interested party, the 155716 judge shall require the interested party to demonstrate the 155717 ability to promptly undertake the work and furnish the materials 155718 required, to provide the judge with a viable financial and 155719 construction plan for the rehabilitation of the building as 155720 described in division (D) of this section, and to post security 155721 for the performance of the work and the furnishing of the 155722 materials. 155723

If the judge determines, at the hearing, that no interested 155724 party is willing or able to undertake the work and to furnish the 155725 materials necessary to abate the public nuisance, or if the judge 155726 determines, at any time after the hearing, that any party who is 155727 undertaking corrective work pursuant to this division cannot or 155728 will not proceed, or has not proceeded with due diligence, the 155729 judge may appoint a receiver pursuant to division (C)(3) of this 155730

(3)(a) The judge in a civil action described in division 155732
(B)(1) of this section shall not appoint any person as a receiver 155733 unless the person first has provided the judge with a viable 155734 financial and construction plan for the rehabilitation of the 155735 building involved as described in division (D) of this section and 155736 has demonstrated the capacity and expertise to perform the 155737

(G) A receiver appointed pursuant to this section is not 155832 personally liable except for misfeasance, malfeasance, or 155833 nonfeasance in the performance of the functions of the office of 155834

(H)(1) The judge in a civil action described in division 155836
(B)(1) of this section may assess as court costs, the expenses 155837 described in division (F)(2) of this section, and may approve 155838 receiver's fees to the extent that they are not covered by the 155839 income from the property. Subject to that limitation, a receiver 155840 appointed pursuant to divisions (C)(2) and (3) of this section is 155841 entitled to receive fees in the same manner and to the same extent 155842 as receivers appointed in actions to foreclose mortgages. 155843

(2)(a) Pursuant to the police powers vested in the state, all 155844 expenditures of a mortgagee, lienholder, or other interested party 155845 that has been selected pursuant to division (C)(2) of this section 155846 to undertake the work and to furnish the materials necessary to 155847 abate a public nuisance, and any expenditures in connection with 155848 the foreclosure of the lien created by this division, is a first 155849 lien upon the building involved and the property on which it is 155850 located and is superior to all prior and subsequent liens or other 155851 encumbrances associated with the building or the property, 155852 including, but not limited to, those for taxes and assessments, 155853 upon the occurrence of both of the following: 155854

(i) The prior approval of the expenditures by, and the entry 155855 of a judgment to that effect by, the judge in the civil action 155856 described in division (B)(1) of this section; 155857

(ii) The recordation of a certified copy of the judgment 155858 which the property is located within sixty days after the date of 155861 the entry of the judgment. 155862

(b) Pursuant to the police powers vested in the state, all 155863 expenses and other amounts paid in accordance with division (F) of 155864 this section by a receiver appointed pursuant to divisions (C)(2) 155865 and (3) of this section, the amounts of any notes issued by the receiver in accordance with division (F) of this section, all mortgages granted by the receiver in accordance with that division, the fees of the receiver approved pursuant to division (H)(1) of this section, and any amounts expended in connection with the foreclosure of a mortgage granted by the receiver in accordance with division (F) of this section or with the foreclosure of the lien created by this division, are a first lien upon the building involved and the property on which it is located and are superior to all prior and subsequent liens or other encumbrances associated with the building or the property, including, but not limited to, those for taxes and assessments, upon the occurrence of both of the following:

(i) The approval of the expenses, amounts, or fees by, and the entry of a judgment to that effect by, the judge in the civil action described in division (B)(1) of this section; or the approval of the mortgages in accordance with division (F)(9) of this section by, and the entry of a judgment to that effect by, that judge;

(ii) The recordation of a certified copy of the judgment entry and a sufficient description of the property on which the building is located, or, in the case of a mortgage, the recordation of the mortgage, a certified copy of the judgment entry, and such a description, with the county recorder of the county in which the property is located within sixty days after the date of the entry of the judgment.

(c) Priority among the liens described in divisions (H)(2)(a) and (b) of this section shall be determined as described in division (I) of this section. Additionally, the creation pursuant to this section of a mortgage lien that is prior to or superior to any mortgage of record at the time the mortgage lien is so created, does not disqualify the mortgage of record as a legal

155899

(I)(1) If a receiver appointed pursuant to divisions (C)(2) 155900 and (3) of this section files with the judge in the civil action 155901 described in division (B)(1) of this section a report indicating 155902 that the public nuisance has been abated, if the judge confirms 155903 that the receiver has abated the public nuisance, and if the 155904 receiver or any interested party requests the judge to enter an 155905 order directing the receiver to sell the building and the property 155906 on which it is located, the judge may enter that order after 155907 holding a hearing as described in division (I)(2) of this section 155908 and otherwise complying with that division. 155909 as described in division (I)(1) of this section shall cause a 155911 notice of the date and time of a hearing on the request to be 155912 served on the owner of the building involved and all other 155913 interested parties in accordance with division (B)(2)(a) of this 155914 section. The judge in the civil action described in division 155915 (B)(1) of this section shall conduct the scheduled hearing. At the 155916 hearing, if the owner or any interested party objects to the sale 155917 of the building and the property, the burden of proof shall be 155918 upon the objecting person to establish, by a preponderance of the 155919 evidence, that the benefits of not selling the building and the 155920 property outweigh the benefits of selling them. If the judge 155921 determines that there is no objecting person, or if the judge 155922 determines that there is one or more objecting persons but no 155923 objecting person has sustained the burden of proof specified in 155924 this division, the judge may enter an order directing the receiver 155925 to offer the building and the property for sale upon terms and 155926 conditions that the judge shall specify. 155927

(b) In any sale of subsidized housing that is ordered 155928 pursuant to this section, the judge shall specify that the 155929 subsidized housing not be conveyed unless that conveyance complies 155930 with applicable federal law and applicable program contracts for 155931 that housing. Any such conveyance shall be subject to the 155932 condition that the purchaser enter into a contract with the 155933 department of housing and urban development or the rural housing 155934 service of the federal department of agriculture under which the 155935 property continues to be subsidized housing and the owner 155936 continues to operate that property as subsidized housing unless 155937 the secretary of housing and urban development or the 155938 administrator of the rural housing service terminates that 155939 property's contract prior to or upon the conveyance of the 155940 property. 155941

(3) If a sale of a building and the property on which it is 155942 located is ordered pursuant to divisions (I)(1) and (2) of this 155943 section and if the sale occurs in accordance with the terms and 155944 conditions specified by the judge in the judge's order of sale, 155945 then the receiver shall distribute the proceeds of the sale and 155946 the balance of any funds that the receiver may possess, after the 155947 payment of the costs of the sale, in the following order of 155948 priority and in the described manner: 155949

(a) First, in satisfaction of any notes issued by the 155950 receiver pursuant to division (F) of this section, in their order 155951 of priority; 155952

(b) Second, any unreimbursed expenses and other amounts paid 155953

of this section; 155956

(c) Third, all expenditures of a mortgagee, lienholder, or 155957 other interested party that has been selected pursuant to division 155958 (C)(2) of this section to undertake the work and to furnish the 155959 materials necessary to abate a public nuisance, provided that the 155960 expenditures were approved as described in division (H)(2)(a) of 155961 this section and provided that, if any such interested party 155962 subsequently became the receiver, its expenditures shall be paid 155963 prior to the expenditures of any of the other interested parties 155964 so selected; 155965

(d) Fourth, the amount due for delinquent taxes, assessments, 155966 charges, penalties, and interest owed to this state or a political 155967 subdivision of this state, provided that, if the amount available 155968 for distribution pursuant to division (I)(3)(d) of this section is 155969 insufficient to pay the entire amount of those taxes, assessments, 155970 charges, penalties, and interest, the proceeds and remaining funds 155971 shall be paid to each claimant in proportion to the amount of 155972 those taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, and interest that 155973 each is due. 155974

(e) The amount of any pre-receivership mortgages, liens, or 155975 other encumbrances, in their order of priority. 155976

(4) Following a distribution in accordance with division 155977
(I)(3) of this section, the receiver shall request the judge in 155978 the civil action described in division (B)(1) of this section to 155979 enter an order terminating the receivership. If the judge 155980 determines that the sale of the building and the property on which 155981 it is located occurred in accordance with the terms and conditions 155982 specified by the judge in the judge's order of sale under division 155983 (I)(2) of this section and that the receiver distributed the 155984 proceeds of the sale and the balance of any funds that the 155985 receiver possessed, after the payment of the costs of the sale, in 155986 accordance with division (I)(3) of this section, and if the judge 155987 approves any final accounting required of the receiver, the judge 155988 may terminate the receivership. 155989

(J)(1) A receiver appointed pursuant to divisions (C)(2) and 155990
(3) of this section may be discharged at any time in the 155991 discretion of the judge in the civil action described in division 155992 (B)(1) of this section. The receiver shall be discharged by the 155993 judge as provided in division (I)(4) of this section, or when all 155994 of this section determines that, and enters of record a 156003 and if, within three days after the entry of the declaration, all 156005 costs, expenses, and approved fees of the receivership have not 156006 order, the judge may enter an order directing the receiver to sell 156009 the building involved and the property on which it is located. Any 156010 such order shall be entered, and the sale shall occur, only in 156011 compliance with division (I) of this section. 156012

it is located, that is sold at a sale ordered under division (I) 156014 or (J)(2) of this section shall be incontestable in the purchaser 156015 and shall be free and clear of all liens for delinquent taxes, 156016 assessments, charges, penalties, and interest owed to this state 156017 or any political subdivision of this state, that could not be 156018 satisfied from the proceeds of the sale and the remaining funds in 156019 the receiver's possession pursuant to the distribution under 156020 division (I)(3) of this section. All other liens and encumbrances 156021

Sec. 3781.10. (A)(1) The board of building standards shall formulate and adopt rules governing the erection, construction, repair, alteration, and maintenance of all buildings or classes of buildings specified in section 3781.06 of the Revised Code, including land area incidental to those buildings, the construction of industrialized units, the installation of equipment, and the standards or requirements for materials used in connection with those buildings. The board shall incorporate those rules into separate residential and nonresidential building codes. The standards shall relate to the conservation of energy and the safety and sanitation of those buildings.

(2) The rules governing nonresidential buildings are the lawful minimum requirements specified for those buildings and industrialized units, except that no rule other than as provided in division (C) of section 3781.108 of the Revised Code that specifies a higher requirement than is imposed by any section of the Revised Code is enforceable. The rules governing residential 156208 buildings are uniform requirements for residential buildings in 156209 any area with a building department certified to enforce the state 156210 residential building code. In no case shall any local code or 156211 regulation differ from the state residential building code unless 156212 that code or regulation addresses subject matter not addressed by 156213 the state residential building code or is adopted pursuant to 156214

section 3781.01 of the Revised Code. 156215

(3) The rules adopted pursuant to this section are complete, 156216

3781.12 and 3781.13 of the Revised Code, formulate, propose, 156221 adopt, modify, amend, or repeal the rules to the extent necessary 156222 or desirable to effectuate the purposes of sections 3781.06 to 156223
3781.18 of the Revised Code. 156224

(B) The board shall report to the general assembly proposals 156225 for amendments to existing statutes relating to the purposes 156226 declared in section 3781.06 of the Revised Code that public health 156227 and safety and the development of the arts require and shall 156228 recommend any additional legislation to assist in carrying out 156229 fully, in statutory form, the purposes declared in that section. 156230
The board shall prepare and submit to the general assembly a 156231 summary report of the number, nature, and disposition of the 156232 petitions filed under sections 3781.13 and 3781.14 of the Revised 156233
Code. 156234

(C) On its own motion or on application made under sections 156235 3781.12 and 3781.13 of the Revised Code, and after thorough 156236 testing and evaluation, the board shall determine by rule that any 156237 particular fixture, device, material, process of manufacture, 156238 manufactured unit or component, method of manufacture, system, or 156239 method of construction complies with performance standards adopted 156240 pursuant to section 3781.11 of the Revised Code. The board shall 156241 make its determination with regard to adaptability for safe and 156242 sanitary erection, use, or construction, to that described in any 156243 section of the Revised Code, wherever the use of a fixture, 156244 device, material, method of manufacture, system, or method of 156245 construction described in that section of the Revised Code is 156246 permitted by law. The board shall amend or annul any rule or issue 156247 an authorization for the use of a new material or manufactured 156248 unit on any like application. No department, officer, board, or 156249 commission of the state other than the board of building standards 156250 or the board of building appeals shall permit the use of any 156251 fixture, device, material, method of manufacture, newly designed 156252 product, system, or method of construction at variance with what 156253 is described in any rule the board of building standards adopts or 156254 issues or that is authorized by any section of the Revised Code. 156255 Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring approval, 156256 by rule, of plans for an industrialized unit that conforms with 156257 the rules the board of building standards adopts pursuant to 156258

section 3781.11 of the Revised Code. 156259

(D) The board shall recommend rules, codes, and standards to 156260 help carry out the purposes of section 3781.06 of the Revised Code 156261 and to help secure uniformity of state administrative rulings and 156262 local legislation and administrative action to the bureau of 156263 workers' compensation, the director of commerce, any other 156264 department, officer, board, or commission of the state, and to 156265 legislative authorities and building departments of counties, 156266 townships, and municipal corporations, and shall recommend that 156267 they audit those recommended rules, codes, and standards by any 156268 appropriate action that they are allowed pursuant to law or the 156269 constitution. 156270

(E)(1) The board shall certify municipal, township, and 156271 county building departments, the personnel of those building 156272 departments, persons described in division (E)(7) of this section, 156273 and employees of individuals, firms, the state, or corporations 156274 described in division (E)(7) of this section to exercise 156275 enforcement authority, to accept and approve plans and 156276 specifications, and to make inspections, pursuant to sections 156277 3781.03, 3791.04, and 4104.43 of the Revised Code. 156278

(2) The board shall certify departments, personnel, and 156279 persons to enforce the state residential building code, to enforce 156280 personnel, or person may enforce only the type of building code 156283 for which certified. 156284

(3) The board shall not require a building department, its 156285 personnel, or any persons that it employs to be certified for 156286 residential building code enforcement if that building department 156287 does not enforce the state residential building code. The board 156288 shall specify, in rules adopted pursuant to Chapter 119. of the 156289 Revised Code, the requirements for certification for residential 156290 and nonresidential building code enforcement, which shall be 156291 consistent with this division. The requirements for residential 156292 and nonresidential certification may differ. Except as otherwise 156293 provided in this division, the requirements shall include, but are 156294 not limited to, the satisfactory completion of an initial 156295 examination and, to remain certified, the completion of a 156296 specified number of hours of continuing building code education 156297 within each three-year period following the date of certification 156298 which shall be not less than thirty hours. The rules shall provide 156299 that continuing education credits and certification issued by the 156300 council of American building officials, national model code 156301 organizations, and agencies or entities the board recognizes are 156302 acceptable for purposes of this division. The rules shall specify 156303 requirements that are consistent with the provisions of section 156304 5903.12 of the Revised Code relating to active duty military 156305 service and are compatible, to the extent possible, with 156306 requirements the council of American building officials and 156307 national model code organizations establish. 156308

(4) The board shall establish and collect a certification and 156309 renewal fee for building department personnel, and persons and 156310 employees of persons, firms, or corporations as described in this 156311 section, who are certified pursuant to this division. 156312

(5) Any individual certified pursuant to this division shall 156313 complete the number of hours of continuing building code education 156314 that the board requires or, for failure to do so, forfeit 156315 certification. 156316

(6) This division does not require or authorize the board to 156317 certify personnel of municipal, township, and county building 156318
