request shall be promptly prepared and made available for 178710 business hours. Subject to division (B)(8) of this section, upon 178712 request by any person, a public office or person responsible for 178713 public records shall make copies of the requested public record 178714 available to the requester at cost and within a reasonable period 178715 of time. If a public record contains information that is exempt 178716 from the duty to permit public inspection or to copy the public 178717 record, the public office or the person responsible for the public 178718 record shall make available all of the information within the 178719 public office or the person responsible for the public record 178722 shall notify the requester of any redaction or make the redaction 178723 plainly visible. A redaction shall be deemed a denial of a request 178724 to inspect or copy the redacted information, except if federal or 178725 state law authorizes or requires a public office to make the 178726 redaction. 178727

copy of its current records retention schedule at a location 178733 or overly broad request or has difficulty in making a request for 178735 copies or inspection of public records under this section such 178736 that the public office or the person responsible for the requested 178737 being requested, the public office or the person responsible for 178739 the requested public record may deny the request but shall provide 178740 the requester with an opportunity to revise the request by 178741 informing the requester of the manner in which records are 178742 including legal authority, setting forth why the request was 178748 denied. If the initial request was provided in writing, the 178749 explanation also shall be provided to the requester in writing. 178750

The explanation shall not preclude the public office or the person 178751 responsible for the requested public record from relying upon 178752 additional reasons or legal authority in defending an action 178753 commenced under division (C) of this section. 178754

(4) Unless specifically required or authorized by state or 178755

division, the public office or person responsible for the public 178788 record shall provide a copy of it in accordance with the choice 178789 made by the requester. Nothing in this section requires a public 178790 office or person responsible for the public record to allow the 178791 requester of a copy of the public record to make the copies of the 178792 public record. 178793

(7)(a) Upon a request made in accordance with division (B) of 178794 this section and subject to division (B)(6) of this section, a 178795 public office or person responsible for public records shall 178796 transmit a copy of a public record to any person by United States 178797 mail or by any other means of delivery or transmission within a 178798 reasonable period of time after receiving the request for the 178799 copy. The public office or person responsible for the public 178800 record may require the person making the request to pay in advance 178801 the cost of postage if the copy is transmitted by United States 178802 mail or the cost of delivery if the copy is transmitted other than 178803 by United States mail, and to pay in advance the costs incurred 178804 for other supplies used in the mailing, delivery, or transmission. 178805

(b) Any public office may adopt a policy and procedures that 178806 it will follow in transmitting, within a reasonable period of time 178807 after receiving a request, copies of public records by United 178808 States mail or by any other means of delivery or transmission 178809 pursuant to division (B)(7) of this section. A public office that 178810 adopts a policy and procedures under division (B)(7) of this 178811 section shall comply with them in performing its duties under that 178812
division. 178813

(c) In any policy and procedures adopted under division 178814
(B)(7) of this section: 178815

(i) A public office may limit the number of records requested 178816 by a person that the office will physically deliver by United 178817 States mail or by another delivery service to ten per month, 178818 unless the person certifies to the office in writing that the 178819 person does not intend to use or forward the requested records, or 178820 the information contained in them, for commercial purposes; 178821

(ii) A public office that chooses to provide some or all of 178822 its public records on a web site that is fully accessible to and 178823 searchable by members of the public at all times, other than 178824 during acts of God outside the public office's control or 178825 maintenance, and that charges no fee to search, access, download, 178826 or otherwise receive records provided on the web site, may limit 178827 to ten per month the number of records requested by a person that 178828 the office will deliver in a digital format, unless the requested 178829 records are not provided on the web site and unless the person 178830 certifies to the office in writing that the person does not intend 178831 to use or forward the requested records, or the information 178832 contained in them, for commercial purposes. 178833

(iii) For purposes of division (B)(7) of this section, 178834
"commercial" shall be narrowly construed and does not include 178835 reporting or gathering news, reporting or gathering information to 178836 assist citizen oversight or understanding of the operation or 178837
activities of government, or nonprofit educational research. 178838

(8) A public office or person responsible for public records 178839 is not required to permit a person who is incarcerated pursuant to 178840 a criminal conviction or a juvenile adjudication to inspect or to 178841 obtain a copy of any public record concerning a criminal 178842 investigation or prosecution or concerning what would be a 178843 criminal investigation or prosecution if the subject of the 178844 investigation or prosecution were an adult, unless the request to 178845 inspect or to obtain a copy of the record is for the purpose of 178846 acquiring information that is subject to release as a public 178847 record under this section and the judge who imposed the sentence 178848 or made the adjudication with respect to the person, or the 178849 judge's successor in office, finds that the information sought in 178850 the public record is necessary to support what appears to be a 178851 justiciable claim of the person. 178852

(9)(a) Upon written request made and signed by a journalist, 178853 a public office, or person responsible for public records, having 178854 custody of the records of the agency employing a specified 178855 designated public service worker shall disclose to the journalist 178856 the address of the actual personal residence of the designated 178857 public service worker and, if the designated public service 178858 worker's spouse, former spouse, or child is employed by a public 178859 office, the name and address of the employer of the designated 178860 public service worker's spouse, former spouse, or child. The 178861 request shall include the journalist's name and title and the name 178862 and address of the journalist's employer and shall state that 178863 disclosure of the information sought would be in the public 178864 interest. 178865

(b) Division (B)(9)(a) of this section also applies to 178866 journalist requests for: 178867

(i) Customer information maintained by a municipally owned or 178868 operated public utility, other than social security numbers and 178869 any private financial information such as credit reports, payment 178870 methods, credit card numbers, and bank account information; 178871

(ii) Information about minors involved in a school vehicle 178872 accident as provided in division (A)(1)(gg) of this section, other 178873 than personal information as defined in section 149.45 of the 178874
Revised Code. 178875

(c) As used in division (B)(9) of this section, "journalist" 178876 means a person engaged in, connected with, or employed by any news 178877 medium, including a newspaper, magazine, press association, news 178878 agency, or wire service, a radio or television station, or a 178879 similar medium, for the purpose of gathering, processing, 178880 transmitting, compiling, editing, or disseminating information for 178881 the general public. 178882

(10) Upon a request made by a victim, victim's attorney, or victim's representative, as that term is used in section 2930.02 of the Revised Code, a public office or person responsible for public records shall transmit a copy of a depiction of the victim as described in division (A)(1)(ii) of this section to the victim, victim's attorney, or victim's representative.

(C)(1) If a person allegedly is aggrieved by the failure of a public office or the person responsible for public records to promptly prepare a public record and to make it available to the person for inspection in accordance with division (B) of this section or by any other failure of a public office or the person responsible for public records to comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this section, the person allegedly aggrieved may do only one of the following, and not both:

(a) File a complaint with the clerk of the court of claims or the clerk of the court of common pleas under section 2743.75 of the Revised Code;

(b) Commence a mandamus action to obtain a judgment that orders the public office or the person responsible for the public record to comply with division (B) of this section, that awards court costs and reasonable attorney's fees to the person that instituted the mandamus action, and, if applicable, that includes an order fixing statutory damages under division (C)(2) of this section. The mandamus action may be commenced in the court of common pleas of the county in which division (B) of this section allegedly was not complied with, in the supreme court pursuant to its original jurisdiction under Section 2 of Article IV, Ohio Constitution, or in the court of appeals for the appellate district in which division (B) of this section allegedly was not complied with pursuant to its original jurisdiction under Section 3 of Article IV, Ohio Constitution.

(2) If a requester transmits a written request by hand delivery, electronic submission, or certified mail to inspect or 178915 receive copies of any public record in a manner that fairly 178916 describes the public record or class of public records to the 178917 public office or person responsible for the requested public 178918 records, except as otherwise provided in this section, the 178919 requester shall be entitled to recover the amount of statutory 178920 damages set forth in this division if a court determines that the 178921 public office or the person responsible for public records failed 178922 to comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of 178923

this section. 178924

The amount of statutory damages shall be fixed at one hundred 178925 dollars for each business day during which the public office or 178926 person responsible for the requested public records failed to 178927 comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this 178928 section, beginning with the day on which the requester files a 178929 mandamus action to recover statutory damages, up to a maximum of 178930 one thousand dollars. The award of statutory damages shall not be 178931 construed as a penalty, but as compensation for injury arising 178932 from lost use of the requested information. The existence of this 178933 injury shall be conclusively presumed. The award of statutory 178934
this section. 178936

The court may reduce an award of statutory damages or not 178937 award statutory damages if the court determines both of the 178938
following: 178939

(a) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory law 178940 and case law as it existed at the time of the conduct or 178941 threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible for 178942 the requested public records that allegedly constitutes a failure 178943
to comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of 178944
this section and that was the basis of the mandamus action, a 178945 well-informed public office or person responsible for the 178946 requested public records reasonably would believe that the conduct 178947 or threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible 178948 for the requested public records did not constitute a failure to 178949

section; 178951

(b) That a well-informed public office or person responsible 178952 for the requested public records reasonably would believe that the 178953 conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person 178954 responsible for the requested public records would serve the 178955 public policy that underlies the authority that is asserted as 178956 permitting that conduct or threatened conduct. 178957

(3) In a mandamus action filed under division (C)(1) of this 178958 section, the following apply: 178959

(a)(i) If the court orders the public office or the person 178960 responsible for the public record to comply with division (B) of 178961 this section, the court shall determine and award to the relator 178962 all court costs, which shall be construed as remedial and not 178963 punitive. 178964

(ii) If the court makes a determination described in division 178965
(C)(3)(b)(iii) of this section, the court shall determine and 178966 award to the relator all court costs, which shall be construed as 178967 remedial and not punitive. 178968

(b) If the court renders a judgment that orders the public 178969 office or the person responsible for the public record to comply 178970 with division (B) of this section or if the court determines any 178971 of the following, the court may award reasonable attorney's fees 178972 to the relator, subject to division (C)(4) of this section: 178973

(i) The public office or the person responsible for the 178974 public records failed to respond affirmatively or negatively to 178975 the public records request in accordance with the time allowed 178976 under division (B) of this section. 178977

(ii) The public office or the person responsible for the public records promised to permit the relator to inspect or receive copies of the public records requested within a specified period of time but failed to fulfill that promise within that specified period of time.

178991
178993
178994
178995
178997

(c) The court shall not award attorney's fees to the relator if the court determines both of the following:

179002
179003
179004
179005

comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this section; 179010 179011

179015
179017

(4) All of the following apply to any award of reasonable attorney's fees awarded under division (C)(3)(b) of this section: 179018

(a) The fees shall be construed as remedial and not punitive. 179020

(b) The fees awarded shall not exceed the total of the reasonable attorney's fees incurred before the public record was made available to the relator and the fees described in division (C)(4)(c) of this section. 179021
179024

(c) Reasonable attorney's fees shall include reasonable fees incurred to produce proof of the reasonableness and amount of the fees and to otherwise litigate entitlement to the fees. 179025

179031
179033

(5) If the court does not issue a writ of mandamus under division (C) of this section and the court determines at that time that the bringing of the mandamus action was frivolous conduct as defined in division (A) of section 2323.51 of the Revised Code, the court may award to the public office all court costs, expenses, and reasonable attorney's fees, as determined by the court. 179034

(D) Chapter 1347. of the Revised Code does not limit the 179041 provisions of this section. 179042

(E)(1) To ensure that all employees of public offices are 179043 appropriately educated about a public office's obligations under 179044 division (B) of this section, all elected officials or their 179045 appropriate designees shall attend training approved by the 179046 attorney general as provided in section 109.43 of the Revised 179047 Code. A future official may satisfy the requirements of this 179048 division by attending the training before taking office, provided 179049 that the future official may not send a designee in the future 179050 official's place. 179051

(2) All public offices shall adopt a public records policy in 179052 compliance with this section for responding to public records 179053 requests. In adopting a public records policy under this division, 179054 a public office may obtain guidance from the model public records 179055 policy developed and provided to the public office by the attorney 179056 general under section 109.43 of the Revised Code. Except as 179057 otherwise provided in this section, the policy may not limit the 179058 number of public records that the public office will make 179059 available to a single person, may not limit the number of public 179060 records that it will make available during a fixed period of time, 179061 and may not establish a fixed period of time before it will 179062 respond to a request for inspection or copying of public records, 179063 unless that period is less than eight hours. 179064

The public office shall distribute the public records policy 179065 adopted by the public office under this division to the employee 179066 of the public office who is the records custodian or records 179067 manager or otherwise has custody of the records of that office. 179068
The public office shall require that employee to acknowledge 179069 receipt of the copy of the public records policy. The public 179070 office shall create a poster that describes its public records 179071 policy and shall post the poster in a conspicuous place in the 179072 public office and in all locations where the public office has 179073 branch offices. The public office may post its public records 179074 policy on the internet web site of the public office if the public 179075 office maintains an internet web site. A public office that has 179076 established a manual or handbook of its general policies and 179077 procedures for all employees of the public office shall include 179078 the public records policy of the public office in the manual or 179079 handbook. 179080

(F)(1) The bureau of motor vehicles may adopt rules pursuant 179081 to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to reasonably limit the number 179082 of bulk commercial special extraction requests made by a person 179083 for the same records or for updated records during a calendar 179084 year. The rules may include provisions for charges to be made for 179085 bulk commercial special extraction requests for the actual cost of 179086 the bureau, plus special extraction costs, plus ten per cent. The 179087 bureau may charge for expenses for redacting information, the 179088 release of which is prohibited by law. 179089

(2) As used in division (F)(1) of this section: 179090

(a) "Actual cost" means the cost of depleted supplies, 179091 records storage media costs, actual mailing and alternative 179092 delivery costs, or other transmitting costs, and any direct 179093 equipment operating and maintenance costs, including actual costs 179094 paid to private contractors for copying services. 179095

(b) "Bulk commercial special extraction request" means a 179096 request for copies of a record for information in a format other 179097 than the format already available, or information that cannot be 179098 extracted without examination of all items in a records series, 179099 class of records, or database by a person who intends to use or 179100 forward the copies for surveys, marketing, solicitation, or resale 179101 for commercial purposes. "Bulk commercial special extraction 179102 request" does not include a request by a person who gives 179103 assurance to the bureau that the person making the request does 179104 not intend to use or forward the requested copies for surveys, 179105 marketing, solicitation, or resale for commercial purposes. 179106

(c) "Commercial" means profit-seeking production, buying, or 179107 selling of any good, service, or other product. 179108

(d) "Special extraction costs" means the cost of the time 179109 spent by the lowest paid employee competent to perform the task, 179110 the actual amount paid to outside private contractors employed by 179111 the bureau, or the actual cost incurred to create computer 179112 programs to make the special extraction. "Special extraction 179113 costs" include any charges paid to a public agency for computer or 179114 records services. 179115

(3) For purposes of divisions (F)(1) and (2) of this section, 179116
"surveys, marketing, solicitation, or resale for commercial 179117 purposes" shall be narrowly construed and does not include 179118

(G) A request by a defendant, counsel of a defendant, or any 179122 agent of a defendant in a criminal action that public records 179123 related to that action be made available under this section shall 179124 be considered a demand for discovery pursuant to the Criminal 179125 Rules, except to the extent that the Criminal Rules plainly 179126 indicate a contrary intent. The defendant, counsel of the 179127 defendant, or agent of the defendant making a request under this 179128 division shall serve a copy of the request on the prosecuting 179129 attorney, director of law, or other chief legal officer 179130 responsible for prosecuting the action. 179131

(H)(1) Any portion of a body-worn camera or dashboard camera 179132 recording described in divisions (A)(17)(b) to (h) of this section 179133 may be released by consent of the subject of the recording or a 179134 representative of that person, as specified in those divisions, 179135 only if either of the following applies: 179136

(a) The recording will not be used in connection with any 179137 probable or pending criminal proceedings; 179138

(b) The recording has been used in connection with a criminal 179139 proceeding that was dismissed or for which a judgment has been 179140 entered pursuant to Rule 32 of the Rules of Criminal Procedure, 179141 and will not be used again in connection with any probable or 179142 pending criminal proceedings. 179143

(2) If a public office denies a request to release a 179144 restricted portion of a body-worn camera or dashboard camera 179145 recording, as defined in division (A)(17) of this section, any 179146 person may file a mandamus action pursuant to this section or a 179147 complaint with the clerk of the court of claims pursuant to 179148 section 2743.75 of the Revised Code, requesting the court to order 179149 the release of all or portions of the recording. If the court 179150 considering the request determines that the filing articulates by 179151 clear and convincing evidence that the public interest in the 179152 that tax, fee, wireless 9-1-1 charge, next generation 9-1-1 access 179248 jurisdiction. If the amount to be recovered would exceed 179250 twenty-five per cent of the next distribution of that tax, fee, 179251 wireless 9-1-1 charge, next generation 9-1-1 access fee, or other 179252 amount, the commissioner may spread the recovery over more than 179253 one future distribution, taking into account the amount to be 179254 recovered and the amount of the anticipated future distributions. 179255

In no event may the commissioner spread the recovery over a period 179256 allowed a nonrefundable credit against the tax imposed by section 179277

sum of the credits allowed for prior tax years commencing with tax 179291

Thereafter, no credit shall be granted under this section, except 179298 for the remaining portions of any credits allowed under division 179299

30, 2004, and claim that amount as a credit against its 179306 corporation franchise tax liability under this section. Nothing in 179307 this section authorizes a telephone company to claim a credit 179308 under this section for any eligible nonrecurring 9-1-1 charges for 179309 which it has already claimed a credit under this section or 179310

Section 130.65. Section 149.43 of the Revised Code is 179798

H.B. 45, H.B. 99, H.B. 254, H.B. 343, H.B. 558, and S.B. 288, all 179800 of the 134th General Assembly. The General Assembly, applying the 179801 principle stated in division (B) of section 1.52 of the Revised 179802 Code that amendments are to be harmonized and reconciled if 179803 reasonably capable of simultaneous operation, finds that the 179804 composite is the resulting version of the section in effect prior 179805 to the effective date of the section as presented in this act. 179806

Section 130.70. That sections 2743.671, 2907.13, 2907.231, 179807
and 4731.862 of the Revised Code be amended to read as follows: 179810

the definition of the term set forth in section 2743.51 of the 179812 Revised Code, "funeral expenses" means the payment of cremation or 179813 burial services of the decedent. 179814

(B) Before acting on an application for an award of 179815 reparations that has been filed pursuant to section 2743.56 of the 179816 Revised Code, the attorney general may make an emergency award for 179817 funeral expenses if at the time the application for emergency 179818 funeral expenses is made the claimant is the party responsible for 179819 the victim's funeral expenses and the information that is then 179820 available to the attorney general supports a finding of reasonable 179821 belief that all of the following criteria are met: 179822

(1) That the requirements for a final award under division 179823
(C) of section 2743.59 of the Revised Code may be satisfied; 179824

(2) The decedent and the claimant are indigent; 179825

(3) The claimant will suffer undue hardship if immediate 179826 economic relief is not obtained. 179827

(C) An emergency award for funeral expenses under this 179828 section may only be made before cremation or burial of the 179829 decedent. Payment for funeral expenses under this section shall be 179830 victim. No additional payment for funeral expenses shall be made 179832 to the funeral home, to the claimant applicant, or to any other 179833 claimant. A determination under this section does not preclude the 179834 attorney general from determining eligibility and awarding 179835 reparations for any expenses other than those related to the 179836 funeral. 179837

(D) If, after a payment of emergency funeral expenses is 179838 awarded under this section, a final determination is made that no 179839 compensation on the application for an award of reparations will 179840 be made, the claimant or victim may be required to repay the 179841 entire emergency award. 179842

(i) The offense is a felony of the first or second degree 180687 that is an offense of violence and that is not described in 180688 division (A)(10)(a) or (b) of this section, an attempt to commit a 180689 felony of the first or second degree that is an offense of 180690 violence and that is not described in division (A)(10)(a) or (b) 180691 of this section if the attempt is a felony of the first or second 180692 degree, or an offense under an existing or former law of this 180693 state, another state, or the United States that is or was 180694 substantially equivalent to any other offense described in this 180695

(14) "Stated prison term of one year or more" means a 180702 definite prison term of one year or more imposed as a stated 180703 prison term, or a minimum prison term of one year or more imposed 180704 as part of a stated prison term that is a non-life felony 180705 indefinite prison term. 180706

(B) On the motion of an eligible offender, on the motion of a 180707 state of emergency-qualifying offender made during the declared 180708 state of emergency, or on its own motion with respect to an 180709 eligible offender or with respect to a state of 180710 emergency-qualifying offender during the declared state of 180711 emergency, the sentencing court may reduce the offender's 180712 aggregated nonmandatory prison term or terms through a judicial 180713 release under this section. 180714

(C)(1) Subject to division (C)(2) of this section, an 180715 eligible offender may file a motion for judicial release with the 180716 sentencing court, or a state of emergency-qualifying offender may 180717 file a motion for judicial release with the sentencing court 180718 during the declared state of emergency, within the following 180719 applicable periods: 180720

(a) If the aggregated nonmandatory prison term or terms is 180721 less than two years, the eligible offender or state of 180722 emergency-qualifying offender may file the motion at any time 180723 after the offender is delivered to a state correctional 180724 institution or, if the prison term includes a mandatory prison 180725 term or terms, at any time after the expiration of all mandatory 180726
prison terms. 180727

(b) If the aggregated nonmandatory prison term or terms is at 180728 least two years but less than five years, the eligible offender or 180729 state of emergency-qualifying offender may file the motion not 180730 earlier than one hundred eighty days after the offender is 180731 delivered to a state correctional institution or, if the prison 180732 term includes a mandatory prison term or terms, not earlier than 180733 one hundred eighty days after the expiration of all mandatory 180734

(c) If the aggregated nonmandatory prison term or terms is 180736 five years, the eligible offender or state of emergency-qualifying 180737 offender may file the motion not earlier than the date on which 180738 the offender has served four years of the offender's stated prison 180739 term or, if the prison term includes a mandatory prison term or 180740 terms, not earlier than four years after the expiration of all 180741 mandatory prison terms. 180742

(d) If the aggregated nonmandatory prison term or terms is 180743 more than five years but not more than ten years, the eligible 180744 offender or state of emergency-qualifying offender may file the 180745 motion not earlier than the date on which the offender has served 180746 five years of the offender's stated prison term or, if the prison 180747
five years after the expiration of all mandatory prison terms. 180749

(e) If the aggregated nonmandatory prison term or terms is 180750 more than ten years, the eligible offender or state of 180751 emergency-qualifying offender may file the motion not earlier than 180752 the later of the date on which the offender has served one-half of 180753 the offender's stated prison term or the date specified in 180754 division (C)(1)(d) of this section. 180755

(f) With respect to a state of emergency-qualifying offender, 180756 if the offender's prison term does not include a mandatory prison 180757 term or terms, or if the offender's prison term includes one or 180758 more mandatory prison terms and the offender has completed the 180759 mandatory prison term or terms, the state of emergency-qualifying 180760 offender may file the motion at any time during the offender's 180761 aggregated nonmandatory prison term or terms, provided that time 180762 also is during the declared state of emergency. 180763

(2) A During any single declared state of emergency, a state 180764 of emergency-qualifying offender may only file a motion for 180765 judicial release as a state of emergency-qualifying offender with 180766 the sentencing court during ~~the~~ that declared state of emergency 180767 once every six months. 180768

(D)(1)(a) Upon receipt of a timely motion for judicial 180769 release filed by an eligible offender or a state of 180770 emergency-qualifying offender under division (C) of this section, 180771 or upon the sentencing court's own motion made within the 180772 appropriate time specified in that division, the court may deny 180773 the motion without a hearing or schedule a hearing on the motion. 180774
The court may grant the motion without a hearing for an offender 180775 under consideration for judicial release as a state of 180776 emergency-qualifying offender, but the court shall not grant the 180777 motion without a hearing for an offender under consideration as an 180778 eligible offender. If a court denies a motion without a hearing, 180779 the court later may consider judicial release for that eligible 180780 offender or that state of emergency-qualifying offender on a 180781 subsequent motion. For an offender under consideration for 180782 judicial release as an eligible offender, but not for one under 180783 consideration as a state of emergency-qualifying offender, the 180784 court may deny the motion with prejudice. If a court denies a 180785 motion with prejudice, the court may later consider judicial 180786 release on its own motion. For an offender under consideration for 180787 judicial release as a state of emergency-qualifying offender, the 180788 court shall not deny a motion with prejudice. For an offender 180789 under consideration for judicial release as an eligible offender, 180790 but not for one under consideration as a state of 180791 emergency-qualifying offender, if a court denies a motion after a 180792 hearing, the court shall not consider a subsequent motion for that 180793 offender based on the offender's classification as an eligible 180794 offender. The court may hold multiple hearings for any offender 180795
emergency-qualifying offender, but shall hold only one hearing for 180797 any offender under consideration as an eligible offender. 180798

(b) If an offender is under consideration for judicial 180799 release as an eligible offender and the motion is denied, and if 180800 the offender at that time also is or subsequently becomes a state 180801 of emergency-qualifying offender, the denial does not limit or 180802 affect any right of the offender to file a motion under this 180803 section for consideration for judicial release as a state of 180804 emergency-qualifying offender or for the court on its own motion 180805 to consider the offender for judicial release as a state of 180806 emergency-qualifying offender. 180807

If an offender is under consideration for judicial release as 180808 a state of emergency-qualifying offender and the motion is denied, 180809 and if the offender at that time also is or subsequently becomes 180810 an eligible offender, the denial does not limit or affect any 180811 right of the offender to file a motion under this section for 180812 consideration for judicial release as an eligible offender or for 180813 the court on its own motion to consider the offender for judicial 180814 release as an eligible offender. 180815

(2)(a) With respect to a motion for judicial release filed by 180816 an offender as an eligible offender or made by the court on its 180817 own motion for an offender as an eligible offender, a hearing 180818 under this section shall be conducted in open court not less than 180819 thirty or more than sixty days after the motion is filed, provided 180820 that the court may delay the hearing for one hundred eighty 180821 additional days. If the court holds a hearing, the court shall 180822 enter a ruling on the motion within ten days after the hearing. If 180823 the court denies the motion without a hearing, the court shall 180824 enter its ruling on the motion within sixty days after the motion 180825 is filed. 180826

(b) With respect to a motion for judicial release filed by an 180827 offender as a state of emergency-qualifying offender or made by 180828 the court on its own motion for an offender as a state of 180829 emergency-qualifying offender, the court shall notify the 180830 prosecuting attorney of the county in which the offender was 180831 indicted and may order the prosecuting attorney to respond to the motion in writing within ten days. The prosecuting attorney shall notify the victim pursuant to the Ohio Constitution. The prosecuting attorney shall include in the response any statement that the victim wants to be represented to the court. The court shall consider any response from the prosecuting attorney and any statement from the victim in its ruling on the motion. After receiving the response from the prosecuting attorney, the court either shall order a hearing consistent with divisions (E) to (I) of this section as soon as possible, or shall enter its ruling on the motion for judicial release as soon as possible. If the court conducts a hearing, the hearing shall be conducted in open court or by a virtual, telephonic, or other form of remote hearing. If the court holds a hearing, the court shall enter a ruling on the motion within ten days after the hearing. If the court denies the motion without a hearing, the court shall enter its ruling on the motion within ten days after the motion is filed or after it receives the response from the prosecuting attorney.

indicted. Upon receipt of the notice from the court, the 180866 prosecuting attorney shall do whichever of the following is 180867 applicable: 180868

(1) Subject to division (E)(2) of this section, notify the 180869 victim of the offense and the victim's representative, if 180870 applicable, pursuant to the Ohio Constitution and division (B) of 180871 section 2930.16 of the Revised Code; 180872

(2) If the offense was an offense of violence that is a 180873 felony of the first, second, or third degree, except as otherwise 180874 provided in this division, pursuant to the Ohio Constitution, 180875 notify the victim and the victim's representative, if applicable, 180876 of the hearing regardless of whether the victim or victim's 180877 representative has requested the notification. Except when notice 180878 to the victim is required under the Ohio Constitution, the notice 180879 of the hearing shall not be given under this division to a victim 180880 or victim's representative if the victim or victim's 180881 representative has requested pursuant to division (B)(2) of 180882 section 2930.03 of the Revised Code that the victim or the 180883 victim's representative not be provided the notice. If notice is 180884 to be provided to a victim or victim's representative under this 180885 division, the prosecuting attorney may give the notice by any 180886
electronic mail, in accordance with division (D)(1) of section 180888
committed prior to March 22, 2013, the notice also shall include 180890
the opt-out information described in division (D)(1) of section 180891 2930.16 of the Revised Code. The prosecuting attorney, in 180892 accordance with division (D)(2) of section 2930.16 of the Revised 180893 Code, shall keep a record of all attempts to provide the notice, 180894 and of all notices provided, under this division. Division (E)(2) 180895 of this section, and the notice-related provisions of division (K) 180896 of this section, division (D)(1) of section 2930.16, division (H) 180897 of section 2967.12, division (E)(1)(b) of section 2967.19 as it 180898

2023, division (A)(3)(b) of section 2967.26, division (D)(1) of 180900 section 2967.28, and division (A)(2) of section 5149.101 of the 180901 Revised Code enacted in the act in which division (E)(2) of this 180902 section was enacted, shall be known as "Roberta's Law." 180903

(F) Upon an offender's successful completion of 180904 rehabilitative activities, the head of the state correctional 180905 institution may notify the sentencing court of the successful 180906 completion of the activities. 180907

(G) Prior to the date of the hearing on a motion for judicial 180908 release made by an eligible offender, by a state of 180909
emergency-qualifying offender, or by a court on its own under this 180910 section, the head of the state correctional institution in which 180911 the subject offender is confined shall send to the court an 180912 institutional summary report on the offender's conduct in the 180913 institution and in any institution from which the offender may 180914 have been transferred. Upon the request of the prosecuting 180915 attorney of the county in which the subject offender was indicted 180916 or of any law enforcement agency, the head of the state 180917 correctional institution, at the same time the person sends the 180918 institutional summary report to the court, also shall send a copy 180919 of the report to the requesting prosecuting attorney and law 180920 enforcement agencies. The institutional summary report shall cover 180921 the subject offender's participation in school, vocational 180922 training, work, treatment, and other rehabilitative activities and 180923 any disciplinary action taken against the subject offender. The 180924 report shall be made part of the record of the hearing. A 180925 presentence investigation report is not required for judicial 180926 release. 180927

(H) If the court grants a hearing on a motion for judicial 180928

section, the subject offender shall attend the hearing if ordered 180931 to do so by the court. Upon receipt of a copy of the journal entry 180932 containing the order, the head of the state correctional 180933 institution in which the subject offender is incarcerated shall 180934 deliver the subject offender to the sheriff of the county in which 180935 the hearing is to be held. The sheriff shall convey the subject 180936 offender to and from the hearing. 180937

(I) At the hearing on a motion for judicial release under 180938 this section made by an eligible offender, by a state of 180939 emergency-qualifying offender, or by a court on its own, the court 180940 shall afford the subject offender and the offender's attorney an 180941 opportunity to present written and, if present, oral information 180942 relevant to the motion. The court shall afford a similar 180943 opportunity to the prosecuting attorney, the victim, the victim's 180944 representative, the victim's attorney, if applicable, and any 180945
other person the court determines is likely to present additional 180946 relevant information. The court shall consider any oral or written 180947 statement of a victim, victim's representative, and victim's 180948 attorney, if applicable, made pursuant to section 2930.14 or 180949 any written statement of any person submitted to the court 180953 pursuant to division (L) of this section. 180954

If the motion alleges that the offender who is the subject of 180955 the motion is an eligible offender and the court makes an initial 180956 determination that the offender satisfies the criteria for being 180957 an eligible offender, or if the motion alleges that the offender 180958 who is the subject of the motion is a state of 180959 emergency-qualifying offender and the court makes an initial 180960 determination that the offender satisfies the criteria for being a state of emergency-qualifying offender, the court shall determine whether to grant the motion. After ruling on the motion, the court shall notify the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the eligible offender or state of emergency-qualifying offender was indicted of the ruling, and the prosecuting attorney shall notify the victim and the victim's representative of the ruling in accordance with sections 2930.03 and 2930.16 of the Revised Code or, if the court granted the motion, in accordance with division (K) of this section.

(a) That a sanction other than a prison term would adequately punish the offender and protect the public from future criminal violations by the offender because the applicable factors indicating a lesser likelihood of recidivism outweigh the applicable factors indicating a greater likelihood of recidivism;

(b) That a sanction other than a prison term would not demean the seriousness of the offense because factors indicating that the offender's conduct in committing the offense was less serious than conduct normally constituting the offense outweigh factors indicating that the eligible offender's conduct was more serious than conduct normally constituting the offense.

(2) A court that grants a judicial release under division (J)(1) of this section to an offender who is under consideration as an eligible offender shall specify on the record both findings 180993 required in that division and also shall list all the factors 180994 described in that division that were presented at the hearing. 180995

(3)(a) Subject to division (J)(3)(b) of this section, a court 180996 shall grant a judicial release under this section to an offender 180997 who is under consideration as a state of emergency-qualifying 180998 offender if the court determines that the risks posed by 180999 incarceration to the health and safety of the offender, because of 181000 the nature of the declared state of emergency, outweigh the risk 181001 to public safety if the offender were to be released from 181002 incarceration. 181003

(b) A court shall not grant a judicial release under this 181004 section to an offender who is imprisoned for a felony of the first 181005 or second degree and is under consideration for judicial release 181006 as a state of emergency-qualifying offender unless the court, with 181007 reference to the factors specified under section 2929.12 of the 181008 Revised Code, finds both of the criteria set forth in divisions 181009
(J)(1)(a) and (b) of this section. 181010

(K) If the court grants a motion for judicial release under 181011 this section, the court shall order the release of the eligible 181012 offender or state of emergency-qualifying offender, shall place 181013 the offender under an appropriate community control sanction, 181014 under appropriate conditions, and under the supervision of the 181015 department of probation serving the court and shall reserve the 181016 right to reimpose the sentence that it reduced if the offender 181017 violates the sanction. If the court reimposes the reduced 181018 sentence, it may do so either concurrently with, or consecutive 181019 to, any new sentence imposed on the eligible offender or state of 181020 emergency-qualifying offender as a result of the violation that is 181021 a new offense. Except as provided in division (N)(5)(b) of this 181022 section, the period of community control shall be no longer than 181023 five years. The court, in its discretion, may reduce the period of 181024 community control by the amount of time the offender spent in jail 181025 or prison for the offense and in prison. If the court made any 181026 findings pursuant to division (J)(1) of this section, the court 181027 shall serve a copy of the findings upon counsel for the parties 181028 within fifteen days after the date on which the court grants the 181029 motion for judicial release. 181030

If the court grants a motion for judicial release, the court 181031 shall notify the appropriate person at the department of 181032 rehabilitation and correction, and the department shall post 181033 notice of the release on the database it maintains pursuant to 181034 section 5120.66 of the Revised Code. The court also shall notify 181035 the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the eligible 181036 offender or state of emergency-qualifying offender was indicted 181037 that the motion has been granted. When notice to the victim is 181038 required under the Ohio Constitution, the prosecuting attorney 181039 shall notify the victim and the victim's representative, if 181040 applicable, of the judicial release. In all other cases, unless 181041 the victim or the victim's representative has requested pursuant 181042 to division (B)(2) of section 2930.03 of the Revised Code that the 181043 victim or victim's representative not be provided the notice, the 181044 prosecuting attorney shall notify the victim and the victim's 181045 representative, if applicable, of the judicial release in any 181046 manner, and in accordance with the same procedures, pursuant to 181047 which the prosecuting attorney is authorized to provide notice of 181048 the hearing pursuant to division (E)(2) of this section. If the 181049 notice is based on an offense committed prior to March 22, 2013, 181050 the notice to the victim or victim's representative also shall 181051 include the opt-out information described in division (D)(1) of 181052
section 2930.16 of the Revised Code. 181053

(L) In addition to and independent of the right of a victim 181054 to make a statement pursuant to section 2930.14, 2930.17, or 181055 2946.051 of the Revised Code and any right of a person to present 181056 written information or make a statement pursuant to division (I) 181057 of this section, any person may submit to the court, at any time 181058 prior to the hearing on the motion for judicial release of the 181059 eligible offender or state of emergency-qualifying offender, a 181060 written statement concerning the effects of the offender's 181061 criminal offense, the circumstances surrounding the criminal 181062 offense, the manner in which the criminal offense was perpetrated, 181063 and the person's opinion as to whether the offender should be 181064 released. 181065

(M)(1) The changes to this section that are made on September 181066
30, 2011, apply to any judicial release decision made on or after 181067
September 30, 2011, for any eligible offender, subject to division 181068
(M)(2) of this section. 181069

(2) The changes to this section that are made on ~~the~~ 181070 ~~effective date of this amendment~~ April 4, 2023, apply to any 181071 judicial release application, and any judicial release decision, 181072 made on or after ~~the effective date of this amendment~~ April 4, 181073 2023, for any eligible offender or state of emergency-qualifying 181074 offender. 181075

(N)(1) Notwithstanding the eligibility requirements specified 181076 in divisions (A)(1) and (2) of this section and the filing time 181077 frames specified in division (C) of this section and 181078 notwithstanding the findings required under division (J)(1) and 181079 the eligibility criteria specified in division (J)(3) of this 181080 section, the sentencing court, upon the court's own motion and 181081 after considering whether the release of the offender into society 181082 would create undue risk to public safety, may grant a judicial 181083 release to an offender who is not serving a life sentence at any 181084 time during the offender's imposed sentence when the director of 181085 rehabilitation and correction certifies to the sentencing court 181086 through the chief medical officer for the department of 181087 rehabilitation and correction that the offender is in imminent 181088 danger of death, is medically incapacitated, or has a terminal illness. 181089 181090

(2) The director of rehabilitation and correction shall not certify any offender under division (N)(1) of this section who is serving a death sentence. 181091

(3) A motion made by the court under division (N)(1) of this section is subject to the notice, hearing, and other procedural requirements specified in divisions (D), (E), (G), (H), (I), (K), and (L) of this section with respect to motions for a grant of judicial release to eligible offenders, including notice to the victim, except for the following: 181094
181099

(a) The court may waive the offender's appearance at any hearing scheduled by the court if the offender's condition makes it impossible for the offender to participate meaningfully in the proceeding. 181100
181103

181109

(4) The court may request health care records from the department of rehabilitation and correction to verify the certification made under division (N)(1) of this section. 181110

181114

(i) Order the release of the offender; 181115

(ii) Place the offender under an appropriate community control sanction, under appropriate conditions; 181116

(iii) Place the offender under the supervision of the 181118 department of probation serving the court or under the supervision 181119 of the adult parole authority. 181120

(b) The court, in its discretion, may revoke the judicial 181121 release if the offender violates the community control sanction 181122 described in division (N)(5)(a) of this section. The period of 181123 that community control is not subject to the five-year limitation 181124 described in division (K) of this section and shall not expire 181125 earlier than the date on which all of the offender's mandatory 181126 prison terms expire. 181127

(6) If the health of an offender who is released under 181128 division (N)(1) of this section improves so that the offender is 181129 no longer terminally ill, medically incapacitated, or in imminent 181130 danger of death, the court shall, upon the court's own motion, 181131 revoke the judicial release. The court shall not grant the motion 181132 without a hearing unless the offender waives a hearing. If a 181133 hearing is held, the court shall afford the offender and the 181134 offender's attorney an opportunity to present written and, if the 181135 offender or the offender's attorney is present, oral information 181136
relevant information. If a hearing is held, the prosecuting 181141 attorney shall notify the victim and the victim's representative, 181142 if applicable, pursuant to the Ohio Constitution. A court that 181143 grants a motion under this division shall specify its findings on 181144
the record. 181145

(O)(1) Separate from and independent of the provisions of 181146 divisions (A) to (N) of this section, the director of the 181147 department of rehabilitation and correction may recommend in 181148 writing to the sentencing court that the court consider releasing 181149 from prison, through a judicial release, any offender who is 181150 confined in a state correctional institution and who is an eighty 181151 per cent-qualifying offender. The director may file such a 181152 recommendation for judicial release by submitting to the 181153 sentencing court a notice, in writing, of the recommendation 181154 within the applicable period specified in division (A)(3) of this 181155 section for qualifying as an eighty per cent-qualifying offender. 181156

The director shall include with any notice submitted to the 181157 sentencing court under this division an institutional summary 181158 report that covers the offender's participation while confined in 181159 a state correctional institution in school, training, work, 181160 treatment, and other rehabilitative activities and any 181161 disciplinary action taken against the offender while so confined. 181162
The director shall include with the notice any other documentation 181163 requested by the court, if available. 181164

If the director submits a notice under this division 181165 recommending judicial release, the department promptly shall 181166 provide to the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the 181167 offender was indicted a copy of the written notice and 181168 recommendation, a copy of the institutional summary report, and 181169 any other information provided to the court, and shall provide a 181170 copy of the institutional summary report to any law enforcement 181171 agency that requests the report. The department also shall provide 181172 written notice of the submission of the director's notice to any 181173 victim of the offender or victim's representative, if applicable, 181174 in the same manner as is specified in divisions (E)(1) and (2) of 181175 this section with respect to notices of hearings. 181176

(2) A recommendation for judicial release in a notice 181177 submitted by the director under division (O)(1) of this section is 181178 subject to the notice, hearing, and other procedural requirements 181179 specified in divisions (E), (H), (I), and (L) of this section, 181180 including notice to the victim pursuant to the Ohio Constitution, 181181 except as otherwise specified in divisions (O)(3) to (5) of this 181182 section, provided that references in divisions (E), (H), (I), (K), 181183 and (L) of this section to "the motion" shall be construed for 181184 purposes of division (O) of this section as being references to 181185 the notice and recommendation specified in division (O)(1) of this 181186

section. 181187

(3) The director's submission of a notice under division 181188
(O)(1) of this section constitutes a recommendation by the 181189 director that the court strongly consider a judicial release of 181190 the offender consistent with the purposes and principles of 181191 sentencing set forth in sections 2929.11 and 2929.13 of the 181192 Revised Code and establishes a rebuttable presumption that the 181193 offender shall be released through a judicial release in 181194 accordance with the recommendation. The presumption of release may 181195 be rebutted only as described in division (O)(6) of this section. 181196 Only an offender recommended by the director under division (O)(1) 181197 of this section may be considered for a judicial release under 181198 division (O) of this section. 181199

(4) Upon receipt of a notice recommending judicial release 181200 submitted by the director under division (O)(1) of this section, 181201 the court shall schedule a hearing to consider the recommendation 181202 for the judicial release of the offender who is the subject of the 181203 notice. The hearing shall be conducted in open court not less than 181204 thirty or more than sixty days after the notice is submitted. The 181205 court shall inform the department and the prosecuting attorney of 181206 the county in which the offender who is the subject of the notice 181207 was indicted of the date, time, and location of the hearing. Upon 181208 receipt of the notice from the court, the prosecuting attorney 181209 shall comply with division (E) of this section, including 181210 providing notice to the victim and the victim's representative, if 181211 applicable, pursuant to the Ohio Constitution, and the department 181212 shall post the information specified in that division. 181213

(5) When a court schedules a hearing under division (O)(4) of 181214

this section, at the hearing, the court shall consider all of the 181215 following in determining whether to grant the offender judicial 181216 release under division (O) of this section: 181217

(a) The institutional summary report submitted under division 181218
(O)(1) of this section; 181219

(b) The inmate's academic, vocational education programs, or 181220 alcohol or drug treatment programs; or involvement in meaningful 181221 activity; 181222

(c) The inmate's assignments and whether the inmate 181223 consistently performed each work assignment to the satisfaction of 181224 the department staff responsible for supervising the inmate's 181225 work; 181226

(d) The inmate transferred to and actively participated in 181227 core curriculum programming at a reintegration center prison; 181228

(e) The inmate's disciplinary history; 181229

(f) The inmate's security level; 181230

(g) All other information, statements, reports, and 181231 documentation described in division (I) of this section. 181232

(6) If the court that receives a notice recommending judicial 181233 release submitted by the director under division (O)(1) of this 181234 section makes an initial determination that the offender satisfies 181235 the criteria for being an eighty per cent-qualifying offender, the 181236 court then shall determine whether to grant the offender judicial 181237 release. In making the second determination, the court shall grant 181238 the offender judicial release unless the prosecuting attorney 181239 proves to the court, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the 181240 legitimate interests of the government in maintaining the 181241 offender's confinement outweigh the interests of the offender in 181242 being released from that confinement. If the court grants a 181243 judicial release under this division, division (K) of this section 181244 applies regarding the judicial release, including notice to the 181245 victim and the victim's representative, if applicable, pursuant to 181246 the Ohio Constitution, provided that references in division (K) of 181247 this section to "the motion" shall be construed for purposes of 181248 the judicial release granted under this division as being 181249 references to the notice and recommendation specified in division 181250

The court shall enter its ruling on the notice recommending 181252 judicial release submitted by the director under division (O)(1) 181253 of this section within ten days after the hearing is conducted. 181254
After ruling on whether to grant the offender judicial release 181255 under division (O) of this section, the court shall notify the 181256 offender, the prosecuting attorney, and the department of 181257 rehabilitation and correction of its decision, and shall notify 181258 the victim of its decision in accordance with the Ohio 181259 Constitution and sections 2930.03 and 2930.16 of the Revised Code. 181260
If the court does not enter a ruling on the notice within ten days 181261 after the hearing is conducted as required under this division, 181262 the division of parole and community services of the department of 181263 rehabilitation and correction may release the offender. 181264

(P) All notices to a victim of an offense provided under 181265 division (D), (E), (K), (N), or (O) of this section shall be 181266 provided in accordance with the Ohio Constitution. 181267

Sec. 2930.06. (A)(1) The prosecutor in a case or the 181268 prosecutor's designee, to the extent practicable, shall, on the 181269 victim's request, confer with the victim and the victim's 181270 representative, if applicable, at each of the following stages: 181271

(a) Before pretrial diversion is granted to the defendant or 181272 alleged juvenile offender in the case; 181273

(b) Before amending or dismissing an indictment, information, 181274 or complaint against that defendant or alleged juvenile offender, 181275 unless the amendment to the indictment, information, or complaint 181276 is a correction of a procedural defect that is not substantive in 181277 nature; 181278

(c) Before agreeing to a negotiated plea for that defendant 181279 or alleged juvenile offender; 181280

(d) Before a trial of that defendant by judge or jury; 181281

(e) Before the juvenile court conducts an adjudicatory 181282 hearing for that alleged juvenile offender. 181283

(2) If the juvenile court disposes of a case prior to the 181284 prosecutor's involvement in the case, the court or a court 181285 employee shall notify the victim and the victim's representative 181286 in the case, if applicable, that the alleged juvenile offender 181287 will be granted pretrial diversion, the complaint against that 181288 alleged juvenile offender will be amended or dismissed, or the 181289 court will conduct an adjudicatory hearing for that alleged 181290 juvenile offender. 181291

(3) At a hearing at any of the stages listed in division 181292
(A)(1) of this section, the court shall inquire as to whether the 181293 victim or victim's representative, if applicable, requested to 181294 confer with the prosecutor, and whether or not the prosecutor 181295 conferred with the victim and the victim's representative, if 181296 applicable. If the prosecutor fails to confer with the victim and 181297 the victim's representative, if applicable, at any of those times, 181298 the court shall note on the record the failure and the 181299 prosecutor's reasons for the failure. Except as provided in 181300 division (A)(5) of this section, if the court determines that 181301 reasonable efforts were not made to confer with the victim and 181302 victim's representative, if applicable, or reasonable efforts were 181303 not made to provide reasonable and timely notice of the time, 181304 place, and nature of the court proceeding to the victim and 181305 victim's representative, if applicable, as required by this 181306 section or by Ohio Constitution, Article I, Section 10a, the court shall not rule on any substantive issue that implicates a victim's right, accept a plea, or impose a sentence, and shall continue the court proceeding for the time necessary to provide the required notice to the victim and victim's representative, if applicable. A prosecutor's failure to confer with a victim as required by this division and a court's failure to provide the notice as required by this division do not affect the validity of an agreement between the prosecutor and the defendant or alleged juvenile offender in the case, a pretrial diversion of the defendant or alleged juvenile offender, an amendment or dismissal of an indictment, information, or complaint filed against the defendant or alleged juvenile offender, a plea entered by the defendant or alleged juvenile defender, an admission entered by the defendant or alleged juvenile offender, or any other disposition in the case.

(4) A court shall not dismiss a criminal complaint, charge, information, or indictment or a delinquent child complaint solely at the request of the victim or victim's representative and over the objection of the prosecuting attorney, village solicitor, city director of law, or other chief legal officer responsible for the prosecution of the case.

(5) Nothing in this section prohibits a court from taking any action necessary to ensure that a person charged with an offense is brought to trial within the time required by sections 2945.71 and ~~2945.72~~ 2953.73 of the Revised Code and a defendant's constitutional right to a speedy trial.

(B) On request of the victim or the victim's representative, the prosecutor shall keep the victim and the victim's representative, if applicable, apprised of requests and communications from the defendant, alleged juvenile offender, the attorney for the defendant or alleged juvenile offender, or the agent of the defendant or alleged juvenile offender that could 181339 affect the victim's privacy rights or safety concerns. 181340

(C) Within fourteen days after a prosecution in a case has 181341 been commenced, the prosecutor or a designee of the prosecutor 181342 other than a court or court employee promptly shall give the 181343 victim and the victim's representative, if applicable, all of the 181344 following information, except that, if the juvenile court disposes 181345 of a case prior to the prosecutor's involvement in the case, the 181346 court or a court employee promptly shall give the victim and the 181347 victim's representative all of the following information: 181348

(1) The name of the criminal offense or delinquent act with 181349

a sealed record of prior conviction or bail forfeiture may be 181912 considered by the court in determining the sentence or other 181913 appropriate disposition, including the relief provided for in 181914 this section. Upon the filing of an application under this 181918 section, the applicant, unless the applicant presents a poverty 181919 affidavit showing that the applicant is indigent, shall pay a fee 181920 of not more than fifty dollars, including local court fees, 181921 regardless of the number of records the application requests to 181922 sealing or expungement does not constitute a reversible error. 181956

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code 181957 to the contrary, when the bureau of criminal identification and 181958 investigation receives notice from a court that the record of a 181959 are not outweighed by any legitimate governmental needs to 182074 maintain such records, or if division (E)(2)(b) of section 4301.69 182075 of the Revised Code applies, in addition to the order required 182076 under division (B)(3) of this section, the court shall issue an 182077 order directing that all official records pertaining to the case 182078 assessed against a person as a result of the sealed record.

(H)(1) The court shall send notice of any order to seal or section or upon otherwise becoming aware of an applicable order to 182277 of a person of a low-level controlled substance offense. 182570

(2) "Low-level controlled substance offense" means a 182571 that is a misdemeanor of the fourth degree or a minor misdemeanor 182573 of a low-level controlled substance offense, the person who was 182583 convicted of the low-level controlled substance offense for which 182584

(2) An application under division (B)(1) of this section may request an order to seal or expunge the record of conviction for more than one low-level controlled substance offense, but if it does, the court shall consider the request for each offense separately as if a separate application had been made for each offense and all references in divisions (B) to (F) of this section to "the offense" or "that offense" mean each of those offenses that are the subject of the application.

section of the record of the case that pertains to the conviction 182630

(B)(1) of this section, the court shall set a date for a hearing 182633 and shall notify the applicant prosecutor of the date, time, and 182634 location of the hearing not later than sixty days prior to the 182635 hearing. Upon receipt of the notice, the prosecutor shall do both 182636 of the following: 182637

notice shall be provided at the offender's last known address or 182641 representative, and victim's attorney, if applicable, may be 182648 present and heard orally, in writing, or both at any hearing under 182649 this section. The notice shall be provided by any reasonable means 182650 reasonably calculated to provide prompt actual notice, including 182651 regular mail, telephone, and electronic mail. If the prosecutor 182652 attempts to provide notice to a victim under this division but the 182653 attempt is unsuccessful because the prosecutor is unable to locate 182654 the victim, is unable to provide the notice by the chosen method 182655 because the mailing address, telephone number, or electronic mail 182656 address at which to provide the notice cannot be determined, or 182657 the notice is sent by mail and it is returned, the prosecutor 182658 shall make another attempt to provide the notice to the victim. If 182659 the second attempt is unsuccessful, the prosecutor shall make at 182660 least one more attempt to provide the notice. 182661

(2) The court shall hold the hearing set under division 182662
(D)(1) of this section not less than forty-five days and not more 182663 than ninety days from the date of the filing of the application. 182664

The subject offender may object to the granting of the 182665 application by filing an objection with the court prior to the 182666 date set for the hearing. The victim of the offense may object to 182667 the granting of the application by filing an objection with the 182668 court prior to the date set for the hearing. The subject offender 182669 or victim shall specify in the objection the reasons for believing 182670 that the application should be denied. 182671

(E)(1) At the hearing held under division (D) of this 182672 section, the court shall determine whether the offense that is the 182673 subject of the application is a low-level controlled substance 182674 offense and whether the amount of time specified in division 182675 (B)(1) of this section for the filing of the application has 182676 expired. 182677

(2) If the court at the hearing held under division (D) of 182678 this section determines that the offense that is the subject of 182679

(f) Consider the oral or written statement of the victim, victim's representative, and victim's attorney, if applicable.

(F)(1) If the court determines, after complying with divisions (E)(1) and (2) of this section, that no criminal proceeding is pending against the subject offender, that the interests of the offender in having the records pertaining to the offender's conviction sealed or expunged are not outweighed by any legitimate governmental needs to maintain those records, and that the rehabilitation of the offender has been attained to the satisfaction of the court, all of the following apply:

(a) The court shall issue orders of the type specified in division (D)(2) of section 2953.32 of the Revised Code, subject to the exceptions specified in that division.

eighty days of their confinement and under the terms and 182879 conditions established by the department, shall provide for the 182880 confinement as provided in this division of each eligible prisoner 182881 so transferred, and shall supervise each eligible prisoner so 182882 transferred in one or more community control sanctions. Each 182883 eligible prisoner who is transferred to transitional control 182884 status under the program shall be confined in a suitable facility 182885 that is licensed pursuant to division (C) of section 2967.14 of 182886 the Revised Code, or shall be confined in a residence the 182887 department has approved for this purpose and be monitored pursuant 182888 to an electronic monitoring device, as defined in section 2929.01 182889 of the Revised Code. If the department establishes a transitional 182890 control program under this division, the rules establishing the 182891 program shall include criteria that define which prisoners are 182892 eligible for the program, criteria that must be satisfied to be 182893 approved as a residence that may be used for confinement under the 182894 program of a prisoner that is transferred to it and procedures for 182895 the department to approve residences that satisfy those criteria, 182896 and provisions of the type described in division (C) of this 182897 section. At a minimum, the criteria that define which prisoners 182898 are eligible for the program shall provide all of the following: 182899

(a) That a prisoner is eligible for the program if the 182900 prisoner is serving a prison term or term of imprisonment for an 182901 offense committed prior to March 17, 1998, and if, at the time at 182902 which eligibility is being determined, the prisoner would have 182903 been eligible for a furlough under this section as it existed 182904 immediately prior to March 17, 1998, or would have been eligible 182905 for conditional release under former section 2967.23 of the 182906 Revised Code as that section existed immediately prior to March 182907

17, 1998; 182908

(b) That no prisoner who is serving a mandatory prison term 182909 is eligible for the program until after expiration of the 182910 mandatory term; 182911

(c) That no prisoner who is serving a prison term or term of 182912 life imprisonment without parole imposed pursuant to section 182913 2971.03 of the Revised Code is eligible for the program. 182914

(2) At least sixty days prior to transferring to transitional 182915 control under this section a prisoner who is serving a definite 182916 term of imprisonment or definite prison term of less than one year 182917 for an offense committed on or after July 1, 1996, or who is 182918 serving a minimum term of less than one year under a non-life 182919 felony indefinite prison term, the division of parole and 182920 community services of the department of rehabilitation and 182921 correction shall give notice of the pendency of the transfer to 182922 transitional control to the court of common pleas of the county in 182923 which the indictment against the prisoner was found and of the 182924 fact that the court may disapprove the transfer of the prisoner to 182925 transitional control and shall include the institutional summary 182926 report prepared by the head of the state correctional institution 182927 in which the prisoner is confined. The head of the state 182928 correctional institution in which the prisoner is confined, upon 182929 the request of the division of parole and community services, 182930 shall provide to the division for inclusion in the notice sent to 182931 the court under this division an institutional summary report on 182932 the prisoner's conduct in the institution and in any institution 182933 from which the prisoner may have been transferred. The 182934 institutional summary report shall cover the prisoner's 182935 participation in school, vocational training, work, treatment, and 182936 other rehabilitative activities and any disciplinary action taken 182937 against the prisoner. If the court disapproves of the transfer of 182938 the prisoner to transitional control, the court shall notify the 182939 division of the disapproval within thirty days after receipt of 182940 the notice. If the court timely disapproves the transfer of the 182941 prisoner to transitional control, the division shall not proceed 182942 with the transfer. If the court does not timely disapprove the 182943 transfer of the prisoner to transitional control, the division may 182944 transfer the prisoner to transitional control. 182945

(3)(a) If the victim of an offense for which a prisoner was 182946 sentenced to a prison term or term of imprisonment has requested 182947 notification under section 2930.16 of the Revised Code and has 182948 provided the department of rehabilitation and correction with the 182949 victim's name and address or if division (A)(3)(b) of this section 182950 applies, the division of parole and community services, at least 182951 sixty days prior to transferring the prisoner to transitional 182952 control pursuant to this section, shall notify the victim and the 182953 victim's representative, if applicable, of the pendency of the 182954 transfer and of the victim's and victim's representative's right 182955 to submit a statement to the division regarding the impact of the 182956 transfer of the prisoner to transitional control. If the victim or 182957 victim's representative's subsequently submits a statement of that 182958 nature to the division, the division shall consider the statement 182959 in deciding whether to transfer the prisoner to transitional 182960
control. 182961

(b) If a prisoner is incarcerated for the commission of 182962 aggravated murder, murder, or an offense of violence that is a 182963 felony of the first, second, or third degree or under a sentence 182964 of life imprisonment, except as otherwise provided in this 182965 division, the notice described in division (A)(3)(a) of this 182966 section shall be given regardless of whether the victim has 182967 requested the notification. The notice described in division 182968 (A)(3)(a) of this section shall not be given under this division 182969 to a victim if the victim has requested pursuant to division 182970 (B)(2) of section 2930.03 of the Revised Code that the victim not 182971 be provided the notice. If notice is to be provided to a victim 182972 under this division, the authority may give the notice by any 182973

electronic mail, in accordance with division (D)(1) of section 182975
committed prior to March 22, 2013, the notice also shall include 182977
the opt-out information described in division (D)(1) of section 182978 2930.16 of the Revised Code. The authority, in accordance with 182979 division (D)(2) of section 2930.16 of the Revised Code, shall keep 182980 a record of all attempts to provide the notice, and of all notices 182981 provided, under this division. 182982

Division (A)(3)(b) of this section, and the notice-related 182983 provisions of divisions (E)(2) and (K) of section 2929.20, 182984 division (D)(1) of section 2930.16, division (H) of section 182985 to ~~the effective date of this amendment~~ April 4, 2023, division 182987 (D)(1) of section 2967.28, and division (A)(2) of section 5149.101 182988 of the Revised Code enacted in the act in which division (A)(3)(b) 182989 of this section was enacted, shall be known as "Roberta's Law." 182990

(4) The department of rehabilitation and correction, at least 182991 sixty days prior to transferring a prisoner to transitional 182992 control pursuant to this section, shall post on the database it 182993 maintains pursuant to section 5120.66 of the Revised Code the 182994 prisoner's name and all of the information specified in division 182995 (A)(1)(c)(iv) of that section. In addition to and independent of 182996 the right of a victim to submit a statement as described in 182997 division (A)(3) of this section or to otherwise make a statement 182998 and in addition to and independent of any other right or duty of a 182999 person to present information or make a statement, any person may 183000 send to the division of parole and community services at any time 183001 prior to the division's transfer of the prisoner to transitional 183002 control a written statement regarding the transfer of the prisoner 183003 to transitional control. In addition to the information, reports, 183004 and statements it considers under divisions (A)(2) and (3) of this 183005 section or that it otherwise considers, the division shall 183006 consider each statement submitted in accordance with this division 183007

control. 183009

(B) Each prisoner transferred to transitional control under 183010 this section shall be confined in the manner described in division 183011 (A) of this section during any period of time that the prisoner is 183012 not actually working at the prisoner's approved employment, 183013 engaged in a vocational training or another educational program, 183014 engaged in another program designated by the director, or engaged 183015 in other activities approved by the department. 183016

(C) The department of rehabilitation and correction shall 183017 adopt rules for transferring eligible prisoners to transitional 183018 control, supervising and confining prisoners so transferred, 183019 administering the transitional control program in accordance with 183020 this section, and using the moneys deposited into the transitional 183021 control fund established under division (E) of this section. 183022

(D) The department of rehabilitation and correction may adopt 183023 rules for the issuance of passes for the limited purposes 183024 described in this division to prisoners who are transferred to 183025 transitional control under this section. If the department adopts 183026 rules of that nature, the rules shall govern the granting of the 183027 passes and shall provide for the supervision of prisoners who are 183028 temporarily released pursuant to one of those passes. Upon the adoption of rules under this division, the department may issue passes to prisoners who are transferred to transitional control status under this section in accordance with the rules and the provisions of this division. Inability to pay those reasonable expenses shall not be grounds for refusing to transfer an otherwise eligible prisoner to transitional control. Amounts received by the division of parole and community services under this division shall be deposited into the transitional control fund, which is hereby created in the state treasury and which hereby replaces and succeeds the furlough services fund that formerly existed in the state treasury. All moneys that remain in the furlough services fund on March 17, 1998, shall be transferred on that date to the transitional control fund. The transitional control fund shall be used solely to pay costs related to the operation of the transitional control program established under this section. The director of rehabilitation and correction shall adopt rules in accordance with section 111.15 of the Revised Code for the use of the fund.

(C) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions 183498
(A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an 183499
adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 183500
in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent 183501 agreement with a physician assistant or applicant to resolve an 183502 allegation of a violation of this chapter or any rule adopted 183503
under it. A consent agreement, when ratified by an affirmative 183504 vote of not fewer than six members of the board, shall constitute 183505
the findings and order of the board with respect to the matter 183506 addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to ratify a 183507 consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained in the 183508
consent agreement shall be of no force or effect. 183509

(D) For purposes of divisions (B)(12), (15), and (16) of this 183510
section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 183511
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 183512
the Revised Code, that the applicant or license holder committed 183513
the act in question. The board shall have no jurisdiction under 183514

these divisions in cases where the trial court renders a final judgment in the license holder's favor and that judgment is based upon an adjudication on the merits. The board shall have jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court issues an order of dismissal upon technical or procedural grounds.

(E) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any court shall have no effect upon a prior board order entered under the provisions of this section or upon the board's jurisdiction to take action under the provisions of this section if, based upon a plea of guilty, a judicial finding of guilt, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction, the board issued a notice of opportunity for a hearing prior to the court's order to seal or expunge the records. The board shall not be required to seal, destroy, redact, or otherwise modify its records to reflect the court's sealing or expungement of conviction records.

Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination or consent 183549
to an HIV test ordered by the board constitutes an admission of 183550
the allegations against the individual unless the failure is due 183551
to circumstances beyond the individual's control, and a default 183552
and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or 183553 presentation of evidence. If the board finds a physician assistant 183554 unable to practice because of the reasons set forth in division 183555 (B)(4) of this section, the board shall require the physician 183556 assistant to submit to care, counseling, or treatment by 183557 physicians approved or designated by the board, as a condition for 183558 an initial, continued, reinstated, or renewed license. An 183559 individual affected under this division shall be afforded an 183560 opportunity to demonstrate to the board the ability to resume 183561 practicing in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards 183562
of care. 183563

(2) For purposes of division (B)(5) of this section, if the 183564
board has reason to believe that any individual who holds a 183565 license issued under this chapter or any applicant for a license 183566 suffers such impairment, the board shall refer the individual to 183567
the monitoring organization that conducts the confidential 183568
monitoring program established under section 4731.25 of the 183569
Revised Code. The board also may compel the individual to submit 183570 to a mental or physical examination, or both. The expense of the 183571 examination is the responsibility of the individual compelled to 183572
be examined. Any mental or physical examination required under 183573 this division shall be undertaken by a treatment provider or 183574 physician qualified to conduct such examination and ~~chosen by the~~ 183575 ~~board~~ approved under section 4731.251 of the Revised Code. 183576

Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination ordered 183577
by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 183578

the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 183580
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 183581
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 183582
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 183583 license or deny the individual's application and shall require the 183584 individual, as a condition for initial, continued, reinstated, or 183585 renewed licensure, to submit to treatment. 183586

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license 183587 suspended under this division, the physician assistant shall 183588 demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice or 183589 prescribing in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards 183590
of care. The demonstration shall include the following: 183591

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 183592
section ~~4731.25~~ 4731.251 of the Revised Code that the individual 183593

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 183595
contract or consent agreement; 183596

(c) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 183597
ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 183598
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 183599
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 183600
individuals or providers approved by the board for making such 183601
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 183602

The board may reinstate a license suspended under this 183603
division after such demonstration and after the individual has 183604
entered into a written consent agreement. 183605

When the impaired physician assistant resumes practice or 183606
prescribing, the board shall require continued monitoring of the 183607 physician assistant. The monitoring shall include compliance with 183608
the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or 183609

with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, upon 183610
termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for 183611
at least two years of annual written progress reports made under 183612 penalty of falsification stating whether the physician assistant 183613 has maintained sobriety. 183614

there is clear and convincing evidence that a physician assistant 183616 has violated division (B) of this section and that the 183617 individual's continued practice or prescribing presents a danger 183618
of immediate and serious harm to the public, they may recommend 183619 that the board suspend the individual's license without a prior 183620 hearing. Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration 183621
by the board. 183622

The board, upon review of those allegations and by an 183623 affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding 183624
the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license 183625 without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call may be 183626 utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote on the 183627
summary suspension. 183628

The board shall issue a written order of suspension by 183629
certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 183630
the Revised Code. The order shall not be subject to suspension by 183631
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 183632
of the Revised Code. If the physician assistant requests an 183633 adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date set for the hearing 183634
shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier than seven days, 183635
after the physician assistant requests the hearing, unless 183636
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the license holder. 183637

A summary suspension imposed under this division shall remain 183638
in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final adjudicative 183639
order issued by the board pursuant to this section and Chapter 183640
119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board shall issue 183641

its final adjudicative order within sixty days after completion of 183642
its hearing. Failure to issue the order within sixty days shall 183643 result in dissolution of the summary suspension order, but shall 183644
not invalidate any subsequent, final adjudicative order. 183645

(H) If the board takes action under division (B)(11), (13), 183646
or (14) of this section, and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 183647
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 183648
of conviction is overturned on appeal, upon exhaustion of the 183649
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 183650
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. 183651
Upon receipt of a petition and supporting court documents, the 183652 board shall reinstate the individual's license. The board may then 183653 hold an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to 183654 determine whether the individual committed the act in question. 183655
Notice of opportunity for hearing shall be given in accordance 183656 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. If the board finds, 183657 pursuant to an adjudication held under this division, that the 183658 individual committed the act, or if no hearing is requested, it 183659
may order any of the sanctions identified under division (B) of 183660
this section. 183661

(I) The license to practice issued to a physician assistant 183662
and the physician assistant's practice in this state are 183663 automatically suspended as of the date the physician assistant 183664
pleads guilty to, is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or 183665 is subject to a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention 183666
in lieu of conviction in this state or treatment or intervention 183667 in lieu of conviction in another state for any of the following 183668
criminal offenses in this state or a substantially equivalent 183669
criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated murder, 183670
murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, kidnapping, 183671
rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, aggravated arson, 183672
aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. Continued practice 183673

The board shall notify the individual subject to the suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code. If an individual whose license is suspended under this division fails to make a timely request for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the board shall enter a final order permanently revoking the individual's license to practice. 183676
183679
183680
183682

183686
183687
183688
183689
183691

(K) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this section resulting in a suspension shall be accompanied by a written statement of the conditions under which the physician assistant's license may be reinstated. The board shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing conditions to be imposed for reinstatement. Reinstatement of a license suspended pursuant to division (B) of this section requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board. 183692
183695
183696
183697
183698
183700

(L) When the board refuses to grant or issue to an applicant a license to practice as a physician assistant, revokes an individual's license, refuses to renew an individual's license, or refuses to reinstate an individual's license, the board may specify that its action is permanent. An individual subject to a 183701
183702

permanent action taken by the board is forever thereafter 183706
ineligible to hold the license and the board shall not accept an 183707
new license. 183709

(M) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, 183710
all of the following apply: 183711

(1) The surrender of a license issued under this chapter is 183712 not effective unless or until accepted by the board. Reinstatement 183713 of a license surrendered to the board requires an affirmative vote 183714
of not fewer than six members of the board. 183715

(2) An application made under this chapter for a license may 183716
not be withdrawn without approval of the board. 183717

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license in accordance 183718
with section 4730.14 of the Revised Code shall not remove or limit 183719
the board's jurisdiction to take disciplinary action under this 183720
section against the individual. 183721

(N) The board shall not refuse to issue a license to an 183722 applicant because of a conviction, plea of guilty, judicial 183723 finding of guilt, judicial finding of eligibility for intervention 183724 in lieu of conviction, or the commission of an act that 183725 constitutes a criminal offense, unless the refusal is in 183726
accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 183727

Sec. 4730.32. (A) Within sixty days after the imposition of 183728 any formal disciplinary action taken by a health care facility 183729 against any individual holding a valid license to practice as a 183730 physician assistant issued under this chapter, the chief 183731 administrator or executive officer of the facility shall report to 183732
the state medical board the name of the individual, the action 183733
taken by the facility, and a summary of the underlying facts 183734 leading to the action taken. Upon request, the board shall be 183735 provided certified copies of the patient records that were the 183736 basis for the facility's action. Prior to release to the board, 183737

the summary shall be approved by the peer review committee that 183738 reviewed the case or by the governing board of the facility. 183739

The filing of a report with the board or decision not to file 183740
a report, investigation by the board, or any disciplinary action 183741 taken by the board, does not preclude a health care facility from 183742 taking disciplinary action against a physician assistant. 183743

In the absence of fraud or bad faith, no individual or entity 183744
that provides patient records to the board shall be liable in 183745
damages to any person as a result of providing the records. 183746

a physician assistant, professional association or society of 183748 physician assistants, physician, or professional association or 183749 society of physicians that believes a violation of any provision 183750
of this chapter, Chapter 4731. of the Revised Code, or rule of the 183751 board has occurred shall report to the board the information upon 183752 which the belief is based. 183753

(2) A physician assistant, professional association or 183754 society of physician assistants, physician, or professional 183755 association or society of physicians that believes that a 183756 violation of division ~~(B)(5)~~ (B)(4) or (5) of section 4730.25 of 183757 the Revised Code has occurred shall report the information upon 183758 which the belief is based to the monitoring organization 183759 conducting the confidential monitoring program established ~~by the~~ 183760 ~~board~~ under section ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of the Revised Code. If any 183761 such report is made to the board, it shall be referred to the 183762 monitoring organization unless the board is aware that the 183763
individual who is the subject of the report does not meet the 183764 program eligibility requirements of section 4731.252 of the 183765

(C) Any professional association or society composed primarily of physician assistants that suspends or revokes an individual's membership for violations of professional ethics, or for reasons of professional incompetence or professional malpractice, within sixty days after a final decision, shall report to the board, on forms prescribed and provided by the board, the name of the individual, the action taken by the professional organization, and a summary of the underlying facts leading to the action taken.

The filing or nonfiling of a report with the board, investigation by the board, or any disciplinary action taken by the board, shall not preclude a professional organization from taking disciplinary action against a physician assistant.

(D) Any insurer providing professional liability insurance to any person holding a valid license to practice as a physician assistant issued under this chapter or any other entity that seeks to indemnify the professional liability of a physician assistant shall notify the board within thirty days after the final disposition of any written claim for damages where such disposition results in a payment exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars. The notice shall contain the following information:

(1) The name and address of the person submitting the notification;

(2) The name and address of the insured who is the subject of the claim;

(3) The name of the person filing the written claim;

(4) The date of final disposition;

(5) If applicable, the identity of the court in which the final disposition of the claim took place.

(E) The board may investigate possible violations of this

attention as a result of the reporting requirements of this 183798
section, except that the board shall conduct an investigation if a 183799 possible violation involves repeated malpractice. As used in this 183800 division, "repeated malpractice" means three or more claims for 183801
malpractice within the previous five-year period, each resulting 183802
in a judgment or settlement in excess of twenty-five thousand 183803 dollars in favor of the claimant, and each involving negligent 183804 conduct by the physician assistant. 183805

(F) All summaries, reports, and records received and 183806
maintained by the board pursuant to this section shall be held in 183807 confidence and shall not be subject to discovery or introduction 183808
in evidence in any federal or state civil action involving a 183809 physician assistant, supervising physician, or health care 183810 facility arising out of matters that are the subject of the 183811 reporting required by this section. The board may use the 183812 information obtained only as the basis for an investigation, as 183813 evidence in a disciplinary hearing against a physician assistant 183814 or supervising physician, or in any subsequent trial or appeal of 183815 a board action or order. 183816

The board may disclose the summaries and reports it receives 183817
under this section only to health care facility committees within 183818
or outside this state that are involved in credentialing or 183819 recredentialing a physician assistant or supervising physician or 183820 reviewing their privilege to practice within a particular 183821 facility. The board shall indicate whether or not the information 183822 has been verified. Information transmitted by the board shall be 183823 subject to the same confidentiality provisions as when maintained 183824
by the board. 183825

(G) Except for reports filed by an individual pursuant to 183826 division (B) of this section, the board shall send a copy of any 183827 reports or summaries it receives pursuant to this section to the 183828

physician assistant. The physician assistant shall have the right 183829 to file a statement with the board concerning the correctness or 183830 relevance of the information. The statement shall at all times 183831 accompany that part of the record in contention. 183832

(H) An individual or entity that reports to the board, 183833
reports to the monitoring organization described in section 183834 ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of the Revised Code, or refers an impaired 183835 physician assistant to a treatment provider approved ~~by the board~~ 183836 under section ~~4731.25~~ 4731.251 of the Revised Code shall not be 183837 subject to suit for civil damages as a result of the report, 183838 referral, or provision of the information. 183839

(I) In the absence of fraud or bad faith, a professional 183840 association or society of physician assistants that sponsors a 183841 committee or program to provide peer assistance to a physician 183842 assistant with substance abuse problems, a representative or agent 183843
of such a committee or program, a representative or agent of the 183844
monitoring organization described in section ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of 183845
the Revised Code, and a member of the state medical board shall 183846 not be held liable in damages to any person by reason of actions 183847 taken to refer a physician assistant to a treatment provider 183848 approved under section ~~4731.25~~ 4731.251 of the Revised Code for 183849
examination or treatment. 183850

Sec. 4731.22. (A) The state medical board, by an affirmative 183851 renew a license or certificate, refuse to reinstate a license or 183855 certificate, or reprimand or place on probation the holder of a 183856 license or certificate if the individual applying for or holding 183857 the license or certificate is found by the board to have committed 183858 fraud during the administration of the examination for a license 183859 or certificate to practice or to have committed fraud, 183860 therapeutic purposes or a plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of 183883 guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 183884 lieu of conviction of, a violation of any federal or state law 183885 regulating the possession, distribution, or use of any drug; 183886

(4) Willfully betraying a professional confidence. 183887

For purposes of this division, "willfully betraying a 183888

For purposes of this division, a "provision of a code of 183977 ethics of a national professional organization" does not include 183978 any provision that would preclude the making of a report by a 183979
physician of an employee's use of a drug of abuse, or of a 183980 condition of an employee other than one involving the use of a 183981
drug of abuse, to the employer of the employee as described in 183982

division (B) of section 2305.33 of the Revised Code. Nothing in 183983
this division affects the immunity from civil liability conferred 183984
in accordance with division (B) of that section. As used in this 183986 division, "employee," "employer," and "physician" have the same 183987 meanings as in section 2305.33 of the Revised Code. 183988

(19) Inability to practice according to acceptable and 183989
prevailing standards of care by reason of mental illness or 183990 physical illness, including, but not limited to, physical 183991
perceptive skills. 183993

In enforcing this division, the board, upon a showing of a 183994 possible violation, shall refer any individual who is authorized 183995 to practice by this chapter or who has submitted an application 183996 pursuant to this chapter to the monitoring organization that 183997 conducts the confidential monitoring program established under 183998 section 4731.25 of the Revised Code. The board also may compel any 183999 the individual authorized to practice by this chapter or who has 184000 submitted an application pursuant to this chapter to submit to a 184001 mental examination, physical examination, including an HIV test, 184002 or both a mental and a physical examination. The expense of the 184003
be examined. Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination 184005 or consent to an HIV test ordered by the board constitutes an 184006
admission of the allegations against the individual unless the 184007
failure is due to circumstances beyond the individual's control, 184008
and a default and final order may be entered without the taking of 184009 testimony or presentation of evidence. If the board finds an 184010 individual unable to practice because of the reasons set forth in 184011 this division, the board shall require the individual to submit to 184012 care, counseling, or treatment by physicians approved or 184013 designated by the board, as a condition for initial, continued, 184014 reinstated, or renewed authority to practice. An individual 184015 affected under this division shall be afforded an opportunity to 184016

compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards under the 184018 provisions of the individual's license or certificate. For the 184019 purpose of this division, any individual who applies for or 184020 receives a license or certificate to practice under this chapter 184021 accepts the privilege of practicing in this state and, by so 184022 doing, shall be deemed to have given consent to submit to a mental 184023
or physical examination when directed to do so in writing by the 184024
board, and to have waived all objections to the admissibility of 184025
communication. 184027

(20) Except as provided in division (F)(1)(b) of section 184028
4731.282 of the Revised Code or when civil penalties are imposed 184029
under section 4731.225 of the Revised Code, and subject to section 184030 4731.226 of the Revised Code, violating or attempting to violate, 184031 directly or indirectly, or assisting in or abetting the violation 184032
of, or conspiring to violate, any provisions of this chapter or 184033
any rule promulgated by the board. 184034

This division does not apply to a violation or attempted 184035
violation of, assisting in or abetting the violation of, or a 184036 conspiracy to violate, any provision of this chapter or any rule 184037 adopted by the board that would preclude the making of a report by 184038
a physician of an employee's use of a drug of abuse, or of a 184039
division (B) of section 2305.33 of the Revised Code. Nothing in 184042
this division affects the immunity from civil liability conferred 184043
in accordance with division (B) of that section. As used in this 184045
division, "employee," "employer," and "physician" have the same 184046

(21) The violation of section 3701.79 of the Revised Code or 184048
of any abortion rule adopted by the director of health pursuant to 184049
section 3701.341 of the Revised Code; 184050

(22) Any of the following actions taken by an agency 184051 responsible for authorizing, certifying, or regulating an 184052
individual to practice a health care occupation or provide health 184053 care services in this state or another jurisdiction, for any 184054
reason other than the nonpayment of fees: the limitation, 184055
revocation, or suspension of an individual's license to practice; 184056
acceptance of an individual's license surrender; denial of a 184057 license; refusal to renew or reinstate a license; imposition of 184058 probation; or issuance of an order of censure or other reprimand; 184059

(23) The violation of section 2919.12 of the Revised Code or 184060
the performance or inducement of an abortion upon a pregnant woman 184061 with actual knowledge that the conditions specified in division 184062
(B) of section 2317.56 of the Revised Code have not been satisfied 184063 or with a heedless indifference as to whether those conditions 184064 have been satisfied, unless an affirmative defense as specified in 184065 division (H)(2) of that section would apply in a civil action 184066 authorized by division (H)(1) of that section; 184067

(24) The revocation, suspension, restriction, reduction, or 184068
termination of clinical privileges by the United States department 184069
of defense or department of veterans affairs or the termination or 184070
suspension of a certificate of registration to prescribe drugs by 184071
department of justice; 184073

(25) Termination or suspension from participation in the 184074
medicare or medicaid programs by the department of health and 184075 human services or other responsible agency; 184076

(26) Impairment of ability to practice according to 184077

substance use disorder or excessive use or abuse of drugs, 184079
alcohol, or other substances that may impair ability to practice. 184080

For the purposes of this division, any individual authorized 184081
to practice by this chapter accepts the privilege of practicing in 184082
this state subject to supervision by the board. By filing an 184083 application for or holding a license or certificate to practice 184084 under this chapter, an individual shall be deemed to have given 184085 consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when ordered 184086 to do so by the board in writing, and to have waived all 184087
objections to the admissibility of testimony or examination 184088
reports that constitute privileged communications. 184089

If it has reason to believe that any individual authorized to 184090 practice by this chapter or any applicant for licensure or 184091 certification to practice suffers such impairment, the board shall 184092 refer the individual to the monitoring organization that conducts 184093
the confidential monitoring program established under section 184094 4731.25 of the Revised Code. The board also may compel the 184095 individual to submit to a mental or physical examination, or both. 184096
The expense of the examination is the responsibility of the 184097 individual compelled to be examined. Any mental or physical 184098 examination required under this division shall be undertaken by a 184099 treatment provider or physician who is qualified to conduct the 184100 examination and who is ~~chosen by the board~~ approved under section 184101
4731.251 of the Revised Code. 184102

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 184104
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 184107
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 184108
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 184109

license or certificate or deny the individual's application and 184110 shall require the individual, as a condition for initial, 184111
continued, reinstated, or renewed licensure or certification to 184112 practice, to submit to treatment. 184113

or certificate suspended under this division, the impaired 184115 practitioner shall demonstrate to the board the ability to resume 184116
practice in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of 184117 care under the provisions of the practitioner's license or 184118
certificate. The demonstration shall include, but shall not be 184119 limited to, the following: 184120

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 184121

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 184124
contract or consent agreement; 184125

ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 184127
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 184128
individuals or providers approved by the board for making the 184130

The board may reinstate a license or certificate suspended 184132 under this division after that demonstration and after the 184133
individual has entered into a written consent agreement. 184134

When the impaired practitioner resumes practice, the board 184135
shall require continued monitoring of the individual. The 184136
monitoring shall include, but not be limited to, compliance with 184137
the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or 184138
with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, upon 184139

at least two years of annual written progress reports made under 184141 penalty of perjury stating whether the individual has maintained 184142
sobriety. 184143

copayment that a patient, pursuant to a health insurance or health 184148 care policy, contract, or plan that covers the individual's 184149 services, otherwise would be required to pay if the waiver is used 184150 as an enticement to a patient or group of patients to receive 184151 health care services from that individual; 184152

(b) Advertising that the individual will waive the payment of 184153
all or any part of a deductible or copayment that a patient, 184154

required to pay. 184157

services, or failure to maintain that notice in the patient's 184164 medical record; 184165

(31) Failure of a physician supervising a physician assistant 184166

answer truthfully a question presented by the board in an 184183
investigative interview, an investigative office conference, at a 184184

cooperate with an investigation shall not constitute grounds for 184186

individual to withhold the testimony or evidence in issue; 184189

action shall consist of a suspension of the individual's license 184285 or certificate to practice for a period of at least one year or, 184286

to, or judicial finding of guilt of, a violation of that section 184291
shall provide for a suspension of the individual's license or 184292 certificate to practice for a period of at least one year or, if 184293 determined appropriate by the board, a more serious sanction 184294

involving the individual's license or certificate to practice. 184295

by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 184298
the Revised Code, that the individual committed the act. The board 184299 does not have jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial 184300
court renders a final judgment in the individual's favor and that 184301 judgment is based upon an adjudication on the merits. The board 184302 has jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial court issues 184303
an order of dismissal upon technical or procedural grounds. 184304

(E) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 184305
court shall have no effect upon a prior board order entered under 184306
this section or upon the board's jurisdiction to take action under 184307
this section if, based upon a plea of guilty, a judicial finding 184308
of guilt, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 184309
lieu of conviction, the board issued a notice of opportunity for a 184310 hearing prior to the court's order to seal or expunge the records. 184311
The board shall not be required to seal, expunge, destroy, redact, 184312 or otherwise modify its records to reflect the court's sealing of 184313 conviction records. 184314

(F)(1) The board shall investigate evidence that appears to 184315
show that a person has violated any provision of this chapter or 184316 any rule adopted under it. Any person may report to the board in a 184317 signed writing any information that the person may have that 184318 appears to show a violation of any provision of this chapter or 184319 any rule adopted under it. In the absence of bad faith, any person 184320 who reports information of that nature or who testifies before the 184321
board in any adjudication conducted under Chapter 119. of the 184322 Revised Code shall not be liable in damages in a civil action as a 184323 result of the report or testimony. Each complaint or allegation of 184324
and shall be recorded by the board. 184326

(2) Investigations of alleged violations of this chapter or any rule adopted under it shall be supervised by the supervising member elected by the board in accordance with section 4731.02 of the Revised Code and by the secretary as provided in section 4731.39 of the Revised Code. The president may designate another member of the board to supervise the investigation in place of the supervising member. No member of the board who supervises the investigation of a case shall participate in further adjudication of the case.

(d) A sheriff's deputy who serves a subpoena shall receive the same fees as a sheriff. Each witness who appears before the board in obedience to a subpoena shall receive the fees and mileage provided for under section 119.094 of the Revised Code.

(4) All hearings, investigations, and inspections of the board shall be considered civil actions for the purposes of section 2305.252 of the Revised Code.

(5) A report required to be submitted to the board under this chapter, a complaint, or information received by the board pursuant to an investigation or pursuant to an inspection under division (E) of section 4731.054 of the Revised Code is confidential and not subject to discovery in any civil action.

The board shall conduct all investigations or inspections and proceedings in a manner that protects the confidentiality of patients and persons who file complaints with the board. The board shall not make public the names or any other identifying information about patients or complainants unless proper consent

privilege exists under division (B) of section 2317.02 of the 184392 Revised Code, except that consent or a waiver of that nature is 184393
not required if the board possesses reliable and substantial 184394
evidence that no bona fide physician-patient relationship exists. 184395

The board may share any information it receives pursuant to 184396
an investigation or inspection, including patient records and 184397
patient record information, with law enforcement agencies, other 184398 licensing boards, and other governmental agencies that are 184399
prosecuting, adjudicating, or investigating alleged violations of 184400 statutes or administrative rules. An agency or board that receives 184401 the information shall comply with the same requirements regarding 184402 confidentiality as those with which the state medical board must 184403 comply, notwithstanding any conflicting provision of the Revised 184404
Code or procedure of the agency or board that applies when it is 184405 dealing with other information in its possession. In a judicial 184406 proceeding, the information may be admitted into evidence only in 184407 accordance with the Rules of Evidence, but the court shall require 184408 that appropriate measures are taken to ensure that confidentiality 184409
is maintained with respect to any part of the information that 184410 contains names or other identifying information about patients or 184411 complainants whose confidentiality was protected by the state 184412 medical board when the information was in the board's possession. 184413
Measures to ensure confidentiality that may be taken by the court 184414 include sealing its records or deleting specific information from 184415
its records. 184416

(6) On a quarterly basis, the board shall prepare a report 184417
that documents the disposition of all cases during the preceding 184418
three months. The report shall contain the following information 184419 for each case with which the board has completed its activities: 184420

(a) The case number assigned to the complaint or alleged 184421
violation; 184422

184424

(c) A description of the allegations contained in the complaint; 184425

(d) The disposition of the case. 184427

The report shall state how many cases are still pending and shall be prepared in a manner that protects the identity of each person involved in each case. The report shall be a public record under section 149.43 of the Revised Code. 184428
184431

(G) If the secretary and supervising member determine both of the following, they may recommend that the board suspend an individual's license or certificate to practice or certificate to recommend without a prior hearing: 184432
184433
184435

184437

(2) That the individual's continued practice presents a danger of immediate and serious harm to the public. 184438
184439

Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration by the board. The board, upon review of those allegations and by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license or certificate without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call may be utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote on the summary suspension. 184440
184444
184446

than seven days, after the individual requests the hearing, unless 184454
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the individual. 184455

Any summary suspension imposed under this division shall 184456
remain in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final 184457
adjudicative order issued by the board pursuant to this section 184458
and Chapter 119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board 184459 shall issue its final adjudicative order within seventy-five days 184460
after completion of its hearing. A failure to issue the order 184461
within seventy-five days shall result in dissolution of the 184462
summary suspension order but shall not invalidate any subsequent, 184463
final adjudicative order. 184464

(H) If the board takes action under division (B)(9), (11), or 184465
(13) of this section and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 184466
of conviction is overturned on appeal, upon exhaustion of the 184468
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. 184470 Upon receipt of a petition of that nature and supporting court 184471 documents, the board shall reinstate the individual's license or 184472 certificate to practice. The board may then hold an adjudication 184473 under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to determine whether the 184474 individual committed the act in question. Notice of an opportunity 184475 for a hearing shall be given in accordance with Chapter 119. of 184476
the Revised Code. If the board finds, pursuant to an adjudication 184477 held under this division, that the individual committed the act or 184478
if no hearing is requested, the board may order any of the 184479
sanctions identified under division (B) of this section. 184480

(I) The license or certificate to practice issued to an 184481
individual under this chapter and the individual's practice in 184482 this state are automatically suspended as of the date of the 184483 individual's second or subsequent plea of guilty to, or judicial 184484 finding of guilt of, a violation of section 2919.123 or 2919.124 184485 of the Revised Code. In addition, the license or certificate to 184486 practice or certificate to recommend issued to an individual under 184487

this chapter and the individual's practice in this state are 184488 automatically suspended as of the date the individual pleads 184489
guilty to, is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is 184490
subject to a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 184491 lieu of conviction in this state or treatment or intervention in 184492
lieu of conviction in another jurisdiction for any of the 184493
following criminal offenses in this state or a substantially 184494 equivalent criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated 184495
murder, murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, 184496
kidnapping, rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, 184497
aggravated arson, aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. 184498
Continued practice after suspension shall be considered practicing 184499
without a license or certificate. 184500

The board shall notify the individual subject to the 184501
suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 184502
section 119.07 of the Revised Code. If an individual whose license 184503 or certificate is automatically suspended under this division 184504 fails to make a timely request for an adjudication under Chapter 184505 119. of the Revised Code, the board shall do whichever of the 184506
following is applicable: 184507

(1) If the automatic suspension under this division is for a 184508
second or subsequent plea of guilty to, or judicial finding of 184509 guilt of, a violation of section 2919.123 or 2919.124 of the 184510 Revised Code, the board shall enter an order suspending the 184511 individual's license or certificate to practice for a period of at 184512 least one year or, if determined appropriate by the board, 184513
imposing a more serious sanction involving the individual's 184514
license or certificate to practice. 184515

(2) In all circumstances in which division (I)(1) of this 184516

section does not apply, enter a final order permanently revoking 184517
the individual's license or certificate to practice. 184518

(J) If the board is required by Chapter 119. of the Revised 184519
Code to give notice of an opportunity for a hearing and if the 184520 individual subject to the notice does not timely request a hearing 184521
in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the board 184522 is not required to hold a hearing, but may adopt, by an 184523
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 184524 order that contains the board's findings. In that final order, the 184525
board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) 184526
or (B) of this section. 184527

(K) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this 184528 section resulting in a suspension from practice shall be 184529 accompanied by a written statement of the conditions under which 184530
the individual's license or certificate to practice may be 184531 reinstated. The board shall adopt rules governing conditions to be 184532 imposed for reinstatement. Reinstatement of a license or 184533 certificate suspended pursuant to division (B) of this section 184534 requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the 184535
board. 184536

(L) When the board refuses to grant or issue a license or 184537 certificate to practice to an applicant, revokes an individual's 184538 license or certificate to practice, refuses to renew an 184539 individual's license or certificate to practice, or refuses to 184540 reinstate an individual's license or certificate to practice, the 184541 board may specify that its action is permanent. An individual 184542 subject to a permanent action taken by the board is forever 184543 thereafter ineligible to hold a license or certificate to practice 184544
and the board shall not accept an application for reinstatement of 184545
the license or certificate or for issuance of a new license or 184546 certificate. 184547

all of the following apply: 184549

(1) The surrender of a license or certificate issued under 184550 this chapter shall not be effective unless or until accepted by 184551 the board. A telephone conference call may be utilized for 184552 acceptance of the surrender of an individual's license or 184553 certificate to practice. The telephone conference call shall be 184554 considered a special meeting under division (F) of section 121.22 184555 of the Revised Code. Reinstatement of a license or certificate 184556 surrendered to the board requires an affirmative vote of not fewer 184557
than six members of the board. 184558

(2) An application for a license or certificate made under 184559 the provisions of this chapter may not be withdrawn without 184560 approval of the board. 184561

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license or 184562 certificate to practice in accordance with this chapter or a 184563 certificate to recommend in accordance with rules adopted under 184564 section 4731.301 of the Revised Code shall not remove or limit the 184565 board's jurisdiction to take any disciplinary action under this 184566
section against the individual. 184567

(4) At the request of the board, a license or certificate 184568 holder shall immediately surrender to the board a license or 184569 certificate that the board has suspended, revoked, or permanently 184570 revoked. 184571

(N) Sanctions shall not be imposed under division (B)(28) of 184572 this section against any person who waives deductibles and 184573 copayments as follows: 184574

(1) In compliance with the health benefit plan that expressly 184575 allows such a practice. Waiver of the deductibles or copayments 184576 shall be made only with the full knowledge and consent of the plan 184577 purchaser, payer, and third-party administrator. Documentation of 184578 the consent shall be made available to the board upon request. 184579

(2) For professional services rendered to any other person 184580 authorized to practice pursuant to this chapter, to the extent 184581 allowed by this chapter and rules adopted by the board. 184582

(0) Under the board's investigative duties described in this 184583 section and subject to division (F) of this section, the board 184584 shall develop and implement a quality intervention program 184585 designed to improve through remedial education the clinical and 184586 communication skills of individuals authorized under this chapter 184587 to practice medicine and surgery, osteopathic medicine and 184588 surgery, and podiatric medicine and surgery. In developing and 184589 implementing the quality intervention program, the board may do 184590 all of the following: 184591

(1) Offer in appropriate cases as determined by the board an 184592 educational and assessment program pursuant to an investigation 184593 the board conducts under this section; 184594

(2) Select providers of educational and assessment services, 184595 including a quality intervention program panel of case reviewers; 184596

(3) Make referrals to educational and assessment service 184597 providers and approve individual educational programs recommended 184598 by those providers. The board shall monitor the progress of each 184599 individual undertaking a recommended individual educational 184600 program. 184601

(4) Determine what constitutes successful completion of an 184602 individual educational program and require further monitoring of 184603 the individual who completed the program or other action that the 184604 board determines to be appropriate; 184605

(5) Adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 184606 Revised Code to further implement the quality intervention 184607
program. 184608

An individual who participates in an individual educational 184609 program pursuant to this division shall pay the financial 184610 obligations arising from that educational program. 184611

(P) The board shall not refuse to issue a license to an 184612
applicant because of a conviction, plea of guilty, judicial 184613
finding of guilt, judicial finding of eligibility for intervention 184614
in lieu of conviction, or the commission of an act that 184615
constitutes a criminal offense, unless the refusal is in 184616
accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 184617

any formal disciplinary action taken by any health care facility, 184619
including a hospital, health care facility operated by a health 184620
insuring corporation, ambulatory surgical center, or similar 184621 facility, against any individual holding a valid license or 184622 certificate to practice issued pursuant to this chapter, the chief 184623
the state medical board the name of the individual, the action 184625
taken by the facility, and a summary of the underlying facts 184626
leading to the action taken. Upon request, the board shall be 184627
the summary shall be approved by the peer review committee that 184630 reviewed the case or by the governing board of the facility. As 184631 used in this division, "formal disciplinary action" means any 184632 action resulting in the revocation, restriction, reduction, or 184633 termination of clinical privileges for violations of professional 184634 ethics, or for reasons of medical incompetence or medical 184635 malpractice. "Formal disciplinary action" includes a summary 184636 action, an action that takes effect notwithstanding any appeal 184637 rights that may exist, and an action that results in an individual 184638 surrendering clinical privileges while under investigation and 184639 during proceedings regarding the action being taken or in return 184640 for not being investigated or having proceedings held. "Formal 184641 disciplinary action" does not include any action taken for the 184642 sole reason of failure to maintain records on a timely basis or 184643 failure to attend staff or section meetings. 184644

The filing or nonfiling of a report with the board, 184645 investigation by the board, or any disciplinary action taken by 184646 the board, shall not preclude any action by a health care facility 184647 to suspend, restrict, or revoke the individual's clinical 184648 privileges. 184649

that provides patient records to the board shall be liable in 184651

if any individual authorized to practice under this chapter or any 184654 professional association or society of such individuals believes 184655 that a violation of any provision of this chapter, Chapter 4730., 184656 4759., 4760., 4761., 4762., 4774., or 4778. of the Revised Code, 184657 or any rule of the board has occurred, the individual, 184658 association, or society shall report to the board the information 184659 upon which the belief is based. 184660

(2) If any individual authorized to practice under this 184661 chapter or any professional association or society of such 184662 individuals believes that a violation of division ~~(B)(26)~~(B)(19) 184663 or (26) of section 4731.22 of the Revised Code has occurred, the 184664 individual, association, or society shall report the information 184665 upon which the belief is based to the monitoring organization 184666 conducting the confidential monitoring program established ~~by the~~ 184667
such report is made to the board, it shall be referred to the 184669
individual who is the subject of the report does not meet the 184671
program eligibility requirements of section 4731.252 of the 184672
Revised Code. 184673

(C) Any professional association or society composed 184674 primarily of doctors of medicine and surgery, doctors of 184675 osteopathic medicine and surgery, doctors of podiatric medicine 184676 and surgery, or practitioners of limited branches of medicine that 184677 suspends or revokes an individual's membership for violations of 184678 professional ethics, or for reasons of professional incompetence 184679 or professional malpractice, within sixty days after a final 184680 decision shall report to the board, on forms prescribed and 184681 provided by the board, the name of the individual, the action 184682 taken by the professional organization, and a summary of the 184683 underlying facts leading to the action taken. 184684

The filing of a report with the board or decision not to file 184685
taken by the board, does not preclude a professional organization 184687
from taking disciplinary action against an individual. 184688

(D) Any insurer providing professional liability insurance to 184689

Code, including failure to comply with a subpoena or order issued 185204
by the board or failure to answer truthfully a question presented 185205
by the board in an investigative interview, an investigative 185206
office conference, at a deposition, or in written interrogatories, 185207 except that failure to cooperate with an investigation shall not 185208 constitute grounds for discipline under this section if a court of 185209 competent jurisdiction has issued an order that either quashes a 185210 subpoena or permits the individual to withhold the testimony or 185211
evidence in issue; 185212

(20) Representing with the purpose of obtaining compensation 185213
or other advantage as personal gain or for any other person, that 185214
an incurable disease or injury, or other incurable condition, can 185215
be permanently cured. 185216

permit to an applicant because of a plea of guilty to, a judicial 185218
finding of guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for 185219 intervention in lieu of conviction for an offense unless the 185220

refusal is in accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 185221

section resulting in a suspension from practice shall be 185223
accompanied by a written statement of the conditions under which 185224
the individual's license or permit may be reinstated. The board 185225 shall adopt rules governing conditions to be imposed for 185226
reinstatement. Reinstatement of a license or permit suspended 185227 pursuant to division (A) of this section requires an affirmative 185228 vote of not fewer than six members of the board. 185229

(D) When the board refuses to grant or issue a license or 185230 permit to an applicant, revokes an individual's license or permit, 185231 refuses to renew an individual's license or permit, or refuses to 185232 reinstatement an individual's license or permit, the board may specify 185233 that its action is permanent. An individual subject to a permanent 185234 action taken by the board is forever thereafter ineligible to hold 185235
a license or permit and the board shall not accept an application 185236 for reinstatement of the license or permit or for issuance of a 185237
new license or permit. 185238

(E) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under division 185239
(A) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an adjudication 185240 under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that in lieu of an 185241 adjudication, the board may enter into a consent agreement with an 185242
individual to resolve an allegation of a violation of this chapter 185243 or any rule adopted under it. A consent agreement, when ratified 185244 by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board, 185245 shall constitute the findings and order of the board with respect 185246 to the matter addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to 185247 ratify a consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained 185248
in the consent agreement shall be of no force or effect. 185249

A telephone conference call may be utilized for ratification 185250
of a consent agreement that revokes or suspends an individual's 185251 license or permit. The telephone conference call shall be 185252 considered a special meeting under division (F) of section 121.22 185253

(F) In enforcing division (A)(14) of this section, the board, 185255 upon a showing of a possible violation, shall refer any individual 185256 authorized to practice by this chapter or who has submitted an 185257 application pursuant to this chapter to the monitoring 185258
organization that conducts the confidential monitoring program 185259 established under section 4731.25 of the Revised Code. The board 185260 also may compel ~~any the individual authorized to practice by this~~ 185261
~~chapter or who has submitted an application pursuant to this~~ 185262
~~chapter~~ to submit to a mental examination, physical examination, 185263 including an HIV test, or both a mental and a physical 185264 examination. The expense of the examination is the responsibility 185265 of the individual compelled to be examined. Failure to submit to a 185266 mental or physical examination or consent to an HIV test ordered 185267
by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 185268
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 185271
evidence. If the board finds an individual unable to practice 185272 because of the reasons set forth in division (A)(14) of this 185273 section, the board shall require the individual to submit to care, 185274
counseling, or treatment by physicians approved or designated by 185275
the board, as a condition for initial, continued, reinstated, or 185276 renewed authority to practice. An individual affected under this 185277 division shall be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate to the 185278
board the ability to resume practice in compliance with acceptable 185279
and prevailing standards under the provisions of the individual's 185280 license or permit. For the purpose of division (A)(14) of this 185281 section, any individual who applies for or receives a license or 185282 permit under this chapter accepts the privilege of practicing in 185283 this state and, by so doing, shall be deemed to have given consent 185284
to submit to a mental or physical examination when directed to do 185285

so in writing by the board, and to have waived all objections to 185286
constitute a privileged communication. 185288

(G) For the purposes of division (A)(18) of this section, any 185289
individual authorized to practice by this chapter accepts the 185290 privilege of practicing in this state subject to supervision by 185291 the board. By filing an application for or holding a license or 185292 permit under this chapter, an individual shall be deemed to have 185293
given consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when 185294 ordered to do so by the board in writing, and to have waived all 185295

If it has reason to believe that any individual authorized to 185298 practice by this chapter or any applicant for a license or permit 185299
monitoring program established under section 4731.25 of the 185302
Revised Code. The board also may compel the individual to submit 185303
to a mental or physical examination, or both. The expense of the 185304
examination is the responsibility of the individual compelled to 185305
be examined. Any mental or physical examination required under 185306
this division shall be undertaken by a treatment provider or 185307
~~chosen by the board~~ approved under section 4731.251 of the Revised 185309
Code. 185310

the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 185313
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 185315
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 185316
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 185317

license or permit or deny the individual's application and shall 185318 require the individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, 185319 reinstated, or renewed license or permit, to submit to treatment. 185320

or permit suspended under this division, the impaired practitioner 185322 shall demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice in 185323
compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care under 185324
the provisions of the practitioner's license or permit. The 185325 demonstration shall include, but shall not be limited to, the 185326
following: 185327

(1) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 185328

(2) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 185331
contract or consent agreement; 185332

(3) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 185333
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 185335
individuals or providers approved by the board for making the 185337
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 185338

The board may reinstate a license or permit suspended under 185339
this division after that demonstration and after the individual 185340

shall require continued monitoring of the individual. The 185343
the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or 185345
with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, upon 185346
termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for 185347
at least two years of annual written progress reports made under 185348

sobriety. 185350

(H) If the secretary and supervising member determine both of 185351
the following, they may recommend that the board suspend an 185352 individual's license or permit without a prior hearing: 185353

(1) That there is clear and convincing evidence that an 185354
individual has violated division (A) of this section; 185355

(2) That the individual's continued practice presents a 185356
danger of immediate and serious harm to the public. 185357

Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration by 185358
the board. The board, upon review of those allegations and by an 185359 affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding 185360
the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license or 185361 permit without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call may be 185362 utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote on the 185363
summary suspension. 185364

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 185366
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 185368
of the Revised Code. If the individual subject to the summary 185369 suspension requests an adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date 185370
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the individual. 185373

remain in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final 185375
adjudicative order issued by the board pursuant to this section 185376
and Chapter 119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board 185377
shall issue its final adjudicative order within seventy-five days 185378

final adjudicative order. 185382

(I) If the board is required by Chapter 119. of the Revised 185383
individual subject to the notice does not timely request a hearing 185385
in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the board 185386
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 185388
order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the 185389
board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) 185390
of this section. 185391

by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 185394
the Revised Code, that the individual committed the act. The board 185395
does not have jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial 185396
court renders a final judgment in the individual's favor and that 185397
judgment is based upon an adjudication on the merits. The board 185398
has jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial court issues 185399
an order of dismissal upon technical or procedural grounds. 185400

(K) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 185401
court shall have no effect upon a prior board order entered under 185402
lieu of conviction, the board issued a notice of opportunity for a 185406
hearing prior to the court's order to seal or expunge the records. 185407
The board shall not be required to seal, destroy, redact, or 185408
expungement of conviction records. 185410

(L) If the board takes action under division (A)(4), (6), or 185411

(8) of this section, and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 185412
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 185413
of conviction is overturned on appeal, upon exhaustion of the 185414
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. 185416 Upon receipt of a petition for reconsideration and supporting 185417 court documents, the board shall reinstate the individual's 185418 license or permit. The board may then hold an adjudication under 185419
Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to determine whether the 185420
individual committed the act in question. Notice of an opportunity 185421
for a hearing shall be given in accordance with Chapter 119. of 185422
the Revised Code. If the board finds, pursuant to an adjudication 185423
sanctions identified under division (A) of this section. 185426

(M) The license or permit issued to an individual under this 185427
chapter and the individual's practice in this state are 185428
guilty to, is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is 185430
following criminal offenses in this state or a substantially 185434
equivalent criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated 185435
murder, murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, 185436
kidnapping, rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, 185437
without a license or permit. 185440

The board shall notify the individual subject to the 185441
suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 185442

or permit is automatically suspended under this division fails to 185444
make a timely request for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 185445
the Revised Code, the board shall enter a final order permanently 185446 revoking the individual's license or permit. 185447

(N) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, 185448
all of the following apply: 185449

(1) The surrender of a license or permit issued under this 185450
chapter shall not be effective unless or until accepted by the 185451 board. A telephone conference call may be utilized for acceptance 185452 of the surrender of an individual's license or permit. The 185453 telephone conference call shall be considered a special meeting 185454
under division (F) of section 121.22 of the Revised Code. 185455
Reinstatement of a license or permit surrendered to the board 185456
requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the 185457
board. 185458

(2) An application for a license or permit made under the 185459 provisions of this chapter may not be withdrawn without approval 185460
of the board. 185461

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license or permit in 185462 accordance with this chapter shall not remove or limit the board's 185463 jurisdiction to take any disciplinary action under this section 185464
against the individual. 185465

(4) At the request of the board, a license or permit holder 185466 shall immediately surrender to the board a license or permit that 185467
the board has suspended, revoked, or permanently revoked. 185468

Sec. 4759.13. A dietitian, professional association or 185469 society of dietitians, physician, or professional association or 185470 society of physicians that believes a violation of division 185471 monitoring program established ~~by the state medical board~~ under 185475 is made to the state medical board, it shall be referred to the 185477 monitoring organization unless the board is aware that the 185478

individual who is the subject of the report does not meet the 185479
program eligibility requirements of section 4731.252 of the 185480
Revised Code. 185481

An individual or entity that reports to the board, reports to 185482 the monitoring organization described in section ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 185483 of the Revised Code, or refers an impaired dietitian to a 185484 treatment provider approved ~~by the board~~ under section ~~4731.25~~ 185485

the information. 185488

4731.251 of the Revised Code for examination or treatment. 185498

(19) Failure to use universal blood and body fluid 185582
precautions established by rules adopted under section 4731.051 of 185583
the Revised Code; 185584

(20) Failure to cooperate in an investigation conducted by 185585
the board under section 4760.14 of the Revised Code, including 185586 failure to comply with a subpoena or order issued by the board or 185587
failure to answer truthfully a question presented by the board at 185588
a deposition or in written interrogatories, except that failure to 185589
cooperate with an investigation shall not constitute grounds for 185590
discipline under this section if a court of competent jurisdiction 185591
has issued an order that either quashes a subpoena or permits the 185592
individual to withhold the testimony or evidence in issue; 185593

(21) Failure to comply with any code of ethics established by 185594
the national commission for the certification of anesthesiologist 185595

assistants; 185596

(22) Failure to notify the state medical board of the 185597 revocation or failure to maintain certification from the national 185598
commission for certification of anesthesiologist assistants. 185599

applicant because of a plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of 185601
lieu of conviction for an offense unless the refusal is in 185603
accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 185604

(D) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions 185605
(A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an 185606
adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 185607
in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent 185608 agreement with an anesthesiologist assistant or applicant to 185609 resolve an allegation of a violation of this chapter or any rule 185610 adopted under it. A consent agreement, when ratified by an 185611 affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board, shall 185612 constitute the findings and order of the board with respect to the 185613 matter addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to ratify 185614 a consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained in the 185615
consent agreement shall be of no force or effect. 185616

(E) For purposes of divisions (B)(11), (14), and (15) of this 185617
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 185619
the Revised Code, that the applicant or license holder committed 185620
the act in question. The board shall have no jurisdiction under 185621
these divisions in cases where the trial court renders a final 185622 judgment in the license holder's favor and that judgment is based 185623
upon an adjudication on the merits. The board shall have 185624 jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court 185625 issues an order of dismissal on technical or procedural grounds. 185626

testimony or presentation of evidence. If the board finds an 185661 anesthesiologist assistant unable to practice because of the 185662 reasons set forth in division (B)(5) of this section, the board 185663 shall require the anesthesiologist assistant to submit to care, 185664
the board, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, 185666 or renewed license to practice. An individual affected by this 185667
board the ability to resume practicing in compliance with 185669
acceptable and prevailing standards of care. 185670

board has reason to believe that any individual who holds a 185672 license to practice issued under this chapter or any applicant for 185673 a license to practice suffers such impairment, the board shall 185674 report the individual to the monitoring organization that conducts 185675
the confidential monitoring program established under section 185676 4731.25 of the Revised Code. The board also may compel the 185677
individual to submit to a mental or physical examination, or both. 185678
The expense of the examination is the responsibility of the 185679 individual compelled to be examined. Any mental or physical 185680 examination required under this division shall be undertaken by a 185681
treatment provider or physician qualified to conduct such 185682 examination and ~~chosen by the board~~ approved under section 185683
4731.251 of the Revised Code. 185684

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 185686
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 185690

individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, 185693 or renewed license to practice, to submit to treatment. 185694

suspended under this division, the anesthesiologist assistant 185696
compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care. The 185698 demonstration shall include the following: 185699

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 185700

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 185703
contract or consent agreement; 185704

ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 185706
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 185707
individuals or providers approved by the board for making such 185709
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 185710

The board may reinstate a license suspended under this 185711
division after such demonstration and after the individual has 185712
entered into a written consent agreement. 185713

When the impaired anesthesiologist assistant resumes 185714 practice, the board shall require continued monitoring of the 185715 anesthesiologist assistant. The monitoring shall include 185716 monitoring of compliance with the written consent agreement 185717 entered into before reinstatement or with conditions imposed by 185718 board order after a hearing, and, on termination of the consent 185719 agreement, submission to the board for at least two years of 185720 annual written progress reports made under penalty of 185721 falsification stating whether the anesthesiologist assistant has 185722 maintained sobriety. 185723

there is clear and convincing evidence that an anesthesiologist 185725 assistant has violated division (B) of this section and that the 185726 individual's continued practice presents a danger of immediate and 185727 serious harm to the public, they may recommend that the board 185728 suspend the individual's license without a prior hearing. Written 185729 allegations shall be prepared for consideration by the board. 185730

The board, on review of the allegations and by an affirmative 185731 vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding the secretary 185732
and supervising member, may suspend a license without a prior 185733 hearing. A telephone conference call may be utilized for reviewing 185734
the allegations and taking the vote on the summary suspension. 185735

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 185737
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 185739
of the Revised Code. If the anesthesiologist assistant requests an 185740
after the anesthesiologist assistant requests the hearing, unless 185743
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the license holder. 185744

A summary suspension imposed under this division shall remain 185745
in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final adjudicative 185746
order issued by the board pursuant to this section and Chapter 185747
119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board shall issue 185748
its final adjudicative order within sixty days after completion of 185749
its hearing. Failure to issue the order within sixty days shall 185750
not invalidate any subsequent, final adjudicative order. 185752

(I) If the board takes action under division (B)(11), (13), 185753
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 185755
of conviction is overturned on appeal, on exhaustion of the 185756
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. On 185758 receipt of a petition and supporting court documents, the board 185759 shall reinstate the license to practice. The board may then hold 185760 an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to 185761
determine whether the individual committed the act in question. 185762
with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. If the board finds, 185764
may order any of the sanctions specified in division (B) of this 185767
section. 185768

(J) The license to practice of an anesthesiologist assistant 185769
and the assistant's practice in this state are automatically 185770 suspended as of the date the anesthesiologist assistant pleads 185771 guilty to, is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is 185772
subject to a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 185773
lieu of conviction in this state or treatment of intervention in 185774
following criminal offenses in this state or a substantially 185776
equivalent criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated 185777
murder, murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, 185778
kidnapping, rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, 185779
Continued practice after the suspension shall be considered 185781
practicing without a license. 185782

suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 185784

is suspended under this division fails to make a timely request 185786
for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the 185787
board shall enter a final order permanently revoking the 185788 individual's license to practice. 185789

(K) In any instance in which the board is required by Chapter 185790
119. of the Revised Code to give notice of opportunity for hearing 185791
and the individual subject to the notice does not timely request a 185792
hearing in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the 185793
board is not required to hold a hearing, but may adopt, by an 185794
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 185795
order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the 185796

(L) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this 185799
section resulting in a suspension shall be accompanied by a 185800 written statement of the conditions under which the 185801 anesthesiologist assistant's license may be reinstated. The board 185802 shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised 185803
Code governing conditions to be imposed for reinstatement. 185804
Reinstatement of a license suspended pursuant to division (B) of 185805 this section requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six 185806
members of the board. 185807

(M) When the board refuses to grant or issue a license to 185808
practice as an anesthesiologist assistant to an applicant, revokes 185809
an individual's license, refuses to renew an individual's license, 185810 or refuses to reinstate an individual's license, the board may 185811 specify that its action is permanent. An individual subject to a 185812
permanent action taken by the board is forever thereafter 185813 ineligible to hold a license to practice as an anesthesiologist 185814 assistant and the board shall not accept an application for 185815
reinstatement of the license or for issuance of a new license. 185816

all of the following apply: 185818

(1) The surrender of a license to practice issued under this 185819 chapter is not effective unless or until accepted by the board. 185820 Reinstatement of a license surrendered to the board requires an 185821 affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board. 185822

(2) An application made under this chapter for a license to 185823 practice may not be withdrawn without approval of the board. 185824

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license to practice 185825
in accordance with section 4760.06 of the Revised Code shall not 185826 remove or limit the board's jurisdiction to take disciplinary 185827
action under this section against the individual. 185828

insuring corporation, ambulatory surgical facility, or similar 185832 facility, against any individual holding a valid license to 185833 practice as an anesthesiologist assistant, the chief administrator 185834 or executive officer of the facility shall report to the state 185835 medical board the name of the individual, the action taken by the 185836 facility, and a summary of the underlying facts leading to the 185837 action taken. On request, the board shall be provided certified 185838 copies of the patient records that were the basis for the 185839 facility's action. Prior to release to the board, the summary 185840 shall be approved by the peer review committee that reviewed the 185841 case or by the governing board of the facility. 185842

The filing of a report with the board or decision not to file 185843
taken by the board, does not preclude a health care facility from 185845 taking disciplinary action against an anesthesiologist assistant. 185846

that provides patient records to the board shall be liable in 185848

an anesthesiologist assistant, professional association or society 185851 of anesthesiologist assistants, physician, or professional 185852 association or society of physicians that believes a violation of 185853 any provision of this chapter, Chapter 4731. of the Revised Code, 185854 or rule of the board has occurred shall report to the board the 185855 information on which the belief is based. 185856

(2) An anesthesiologist assistant, professional association 185857 or society of anesthesiologist assistants, physician, or 185858 professional association or society of physicians that believes 185859 that a violation of division ~~(B)(6)~~ (B)(5) or (6) of section 185860 4760.13 of the Revised Code has occurred shall report the 185861 information upon which the belief is based to the monitoring 185862 organization conducting the confidential monitoring program 185863 established ~~by the board~~ under section ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of the 185864 Revised Code. If any such report is made to the board, it shall be 185865 referred to the monitoring organization unless the board is aware 185866 that the individual who is the subject of the report does not meet 185867 the program eligibility requirements of section 4731.252 of the 185868

primarily of anesthesiologist assistants that suspends or revokes 185871 an individual's membership for violations of professional ethics, 185872 or for reasons of professional incompetence or professional 185873 malpractice, within sixty days after a final decision, shall 185874 report to the board, on forms prescribed and provided by the 185875
board, the name of the individual, the action taken by the 185876 professional organization, and a summary of the underlying facts 185877 leading to the action taken. 185878

The filing of a report with the board or decision not to file a report, investigation by the board, or any disciplinary action taken by the board, does not preclude a professional organization from taking disciplinary action against an anesthesiologist assistant.

(D) Any insurer providing professional liability insurance to any person holding a valid license to practice as an anesthesiologist assistant or any other entity that seeks to indemnify the professional liability of an anesthesiologist assistant shall notify the board within thirty days after the final disposition of any written claim for damages where such disposition results in a payment exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars. The notice shall contain the following information:

(1) The name and address of the person submitting the notification;

(2) The name and address of the insured who is the subject of the claim;

(3) The name of the person filing the written claim;

(4) The date of final disposition;

(5) If applicable, the identity of the court in which the final disposition of the claim took place.

confidence and shall not be subject to discovery or introduction 185912
in evidence in any federal or state civil action involving an 185913 anesthesiologist assistant, supervising physician, or health care 185914
reporting required by this section. The board may use the 185916
evidence in a disciplinary hearing against an anesthesiologist 185918 assistant or supervising physician, or in any subsequent trial or 185919 appeal of a board action or order. 185920

under this section only to health care facility committees within 185922
or outside this state that are involved in credentialing or 185923 recredentialing an anesthesiologist assistant or supervising 185924 physician or reviewing their privilege to practice within a 185925 particular facility. The board shall indicate whether or not the 185926 information has been verified. Information transmitted by the 185927 board shall be subject to the same confidentiality provisions as 185928 when maintained by the board. 185929

division (B) of this section, the board shall send a copy of any 185931
anesthesiologist assistant. The anesthesiologist assistant shall 185933 have the right to file a statement with the board concerning the 185934 correctness or relevance of the information. The statement shall 185935 at all times accompany that part of the record in contention. 185936

(H) An individual or entity that reports to the board, 185937
~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of the Revised Code, or refers an impaired 185939
anesthesiologist assistant to a treatment provider approved ~~by the~~ 185940 ~~board~~ under section ~~4731.25~~ 4731.251 of the Revised Code shall not 185941

referral, or provision of the information. 185943

association or society of anesthesiologist assistants that 185945 sponsors a committee or program to provide peer assistance to an 185946 anesthesiologist assistant with substance abuse problems, a 185947 representative or agent of such a committee or program, a 185948 representative or agent of the monitoring organization described 185949 in section ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of the Revised Code, and a member of 185950 the state medical board shall not be held liable in damages to any 185951 person by reason of actions taken to refer an anesthesiologist 185952 assistant to a treatment provider approved under section ~~4731.25~~ 185953
4731.251 of the Revised Code for examination or treatment. 185954

vote of not fewer than six members, shall, except as provided in 185956 division (B) of this section, and to the extent permitted by law, 185957 limit, revoke, or suspend an individual's license or limited 185958 permit, refuse to issue a license or limited permit to an 185959 individual, refuse to renew a license or limited permit, refuse to 185960 reinstate a license or limited permit, or reprimand or place on 185961 probation the holder of a license or limited permit for one or 185962
more of the following reasons: 185963

judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 185965 conviction for, a felony; 185966

(2) Commission of an act that constitutes a felony in this 185967
state, regardless of the jurisdiction in which the act was 185968
committed; 185969

judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 185971
conviction for, a misdemeanor committed in the course of practice; 185972

(4) Commission of an act in the course of practice that 185973 constitutes a misdemeanor in this state, regardless of the 185974

alcohol, or other substances that may impair ability to practice; 186039

the board under division (E) of section 4761.03 of the Revised 186041
by the board or failure to answer truthfully a question presented 186043
by the board in an investigative interview, an investigative 186044
office conference, at a deposition, or in written interrogatories, 186045
except that failure to cooperate with an investigation shall not 186046
constitute grounds for discipline under this section if a court of 186047
competent jurisdiction has issued an order that either quashes a 186048
subpoena or permits the individual to withhold the testimony or 186049
evidence in issue; 186050

an incurable disease or injury, or other incurable condition, can 186064
be permanently cured. 186065

this section shall be taken pursuant to an adjudication under 186067
Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that in lieu of an 186068
individual to resolve an allegation of a violation of this chapter 186070
or any rule adopted under it. A consent agreement, when ratified 186071
by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board, 186072
to the matter addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to 186074 ratify a consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained 186075
in the consent agreement shall be of no effect. 186076

of a consent agreement that revokes or suspends an individual's 186078
license or permit. The telephone conference call shall be 186079
considered a special meeting under division (F) of section 121.22 186080
of the Revised Code. 186081

(B) The board shall not refuse to issue a license or limited 186082
finding of guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for 186084
refusal is in accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 186086

section resulting in a suspension from practice shall be 186088
accompanied by a written statement of the conditions under which 186089
the individual's license or permit may be reinstated. The board 186090 shall adopt rules governing conditions to be imposed for 186091
pursuant to division (A) of this section requires an affirmative 186093
vote of not fewer than six members of the board. 186094

(D) When the board refuses to grant or issue a license or 186095
permit to an applicant, revokes an individual's license or permit, 186096
refuses to renew an individual's license or permit, or refuses to 186097

reinstate an individual's license or permit, the board may specify 186098
action taken by the board is forever thereafter ineligible to hold 186100
a license or permit and the board shall not accept an application 186101
new license or permit. 186103

(E) If the board is required by Chapter 119. of the Revised 186104
individual subject to the notice does not timely request a hearing 186106
in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the board 186107
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 186109
order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the 186110
of this section. 186112

upon a showing of a possible violation, shall refer any individual 186114 authorized to practice by this chapter or who has submitted an 186115
organization that conducts the confidential monitoring program 186117
also may compel any the individual authorized to practice by this 186119
chapter or who has submitted an application pursuant to this 186120
chapter to submit to a mental examination, physical examination, 186121
including an HIV test, or both a mental and a physical 186122
examination. The expense of the examination is the responsibility 186123
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 186129

evidence. If the board finds an individual unable to practice 186130 because of the reasons set forth in division (A)(14) of this 186131
section, the board shall require the individual to submit to care, 186132
the board, as a condition for initial, continued, reinstated, or 186134
and prevailing standards under the provisions of the individual's 186138
section, any individual who applies for or receives a license or 186140 permit to practice under this chapter accepts the privilege of 186141 practicing in this state and, by so doing, shall be deemed to have 186142 given consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when 186143 directed to do so in writing by the board, and to have waived all 186144
reports that constitute a privileged communication. 186146

privilege of practicing in this state subject to supervision by 186149
the board. By filing an application for or holding a license or 186150
given consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when 186152
ordered to do so by the board in writing, and to have waived all 186153
reports that constitute privileged communications. 186155

If it has reason to believe that any individual authorized to 186156
practice by this chapter or any applicant for a license or permit 186157
suffers such impairment, the board shall refer the individual to 186158
the monitoring organization that conducts the confidential 186159
monitoring program established under section 4731.25 of the 186160
Revised Code. The board also may compel the individual to submit 186161

to a mental or physical examination, or both. The expense of the 186162
examination is the responsibility of the individual compelled to 186163
be examined. Any mental or physical examination required under 186164
this division shall be undertaken by a treatment provider or 186165
Code. 186168

evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 186174
license or permit or deny the individual's application and shall 186176 require the individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, 186177
reinstated, or renewed license or permit, to submit to treatment. 186178

or permit suspended under this division, the impaired practitioner 186180
compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care under 186182
following: 186185

(1) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 186186

contract or consent agreement; 186190

(3) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 186191

prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 186194
individuals or providers approved by the board for making the 186195

The board may reinstate a license or permit suspended under 186197

shall require continued monitoring of the individual. The 186201
monitoring shall include, but not be limited to, compliance with 186202
the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or 186203
with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, upon 186204
termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for 186205
at least two years of annual written progress reports made under 186206
sobriety. 186208

(H) If the secretary and supervising member determine both of 186209
the following, they may recommend that the board suspend an 186210
individual's license or permit without a prior hearing: 186211

individual has violated division (A) of this section; 186213

(2) That the individual's continued practice presents a 186214
danger of immediate and serious harm to the public. 186215

the board. The board, upon review of those allegations and by an 186217
the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license or 186219
permit without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call may be 186220
utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote on the 186221
summary suspension. 186222

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 186224
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 186226
of the Revised Code. If the individual subject to the summary 186227
set for the hearing shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier 186229
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the individual. 186231

remain in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final 186233
adjudicative order issued by the board pursuant to this section 186234
and Chapter 119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board 186235
shall issue its final adjudicative order within seventy-five days 186236
after completion of its hearing. A failure to issue the order 186237
final adjudicative order. 186240

(I) For purposes of divisions (A)(2), (4), and (6) of this 186241
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 186243
the Revised Code, that the individual committed the act. The board 186244
does not have jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial 186245
court renders a final judgment in the individual's favor and that 186246
judgment is based upon an adjudication on the merits. The board 186247
has jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial court issues 186248
an order of dismissal upon technical or procedural grounds. 186249

(J) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 186250
court shall have no effect upon a prior board order entered under 186251
this section or upon the board's jurisdiction to take action under 186252
this section if, based upon a plea of guilty, a judicial finding 186253
of guilt, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 186254
lieu of conviction, the board issued a notice of opportunity for a 186255

The board shall not be required to seal, destroy, redact, or 186257
expungement of conviction records. 186259

(K) If the board takes action under division (A)(1), (3), or 186260
(5) of this section, and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 186261
of conviction is overturned on appeal, upon exhaustion of the 186263
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. 186265
Upon receipt of a petition for reconsideration and supporting 186266
license or permit. The board may then hold an adjudication under 186268
individual committed the act in question. Notice of an opportunity 186270
for a hearing shall be given in accordance with Chapter 119. of 186271
the Revised Code. If the board finds, pursuant to an adjudication 186272 held under this division, that the individual committed the act or 186273
if no hearing is requested, the board may order any of the 186274
sanctions identified under division (A) of this section. 186275

(L) The license or permit issued to an individual under this 186276
guilty to, is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is 186279
subject to a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 186280
following criminal offenses in this state or a substantially 186283
equivalent criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated 186284
murder, murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, 186285
kidnapping, rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, 186286

suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 186291
or permit is automatically suspended under this division fails to 186293
make a timely request for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 186294
revoking the individual's license or permit. 186296

all of the following apply: 186298

chapter shall not be effective unless or until accepted by the 186300
telephone conference call shall be considered a special meeting 186303
under division (F) of section 121.22 of the Revised Code. 186304
requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the 186306
board. 186307

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license or permit in 186311
accordance with this chapter shall not remove or limit the board's 186312
jurisdiction to take any disciplinary action under this section 186313
against the individual. 186314

(4) At the request of the board, a license or permit holder 186315
shall immediately surrender to the board a license or permit that 186316

requirements of section 4731.252 of the Revised Code. 186330

failure to answer truthfully a question presented by the board at 186444
a deposition or in written interrogatories, except that failure to 186445
cooperate with an investigation shall not constitute grounds for 186446
discipline under this section if a court of competent jurisdiction 186447
has issued an order that either quashes a subpoena or permits the 186448
individual to withhold the testimony or evidence in issue; 186449

(22) Failure to comply with the standards of the national 186450 certification commission for acupuncture and oriental medicine 186451 regarding professional ethics, commitment to patients, commitment 186452 to the profession, and commitment to the public; 186453

(23) Failure to have adequate professional liability 186454 insurance coverage in accordance with section 4762.22 of the 186455

(24) Failure to maintain a current and active designation as 186457 a diplomate in oriental medicine, diplomate of acupuncture and 186458 Chinese herbology, or diplomate in acupuncture, as applicable, 186459 from the national certification commission for acupuncture and 186460 oriental medicine, including revocation by the commission of the 186461 individual's designation, failure by the individual to meet the 186462 commission's requirements for redesignation, or failure to notify 186463 the board that the appropriate designation has not been 186464 maintained. 186465

applicant because of a plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of 186467
lieu of conviction for an offense unless the refusal is in 186469

accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 186470

(D) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions 186471
(A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an 186472
adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 186473
in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent 186474 agreement with an oriental medicine practitioner or acupuncturist 186475 or applicant to resolve an allegation of a violation of this 186476 chapter or any rule adopted under it. A consent agreement, when 186477 ratified by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of 186478 the board, shall constitute the findings and order of the board 186479 with respect to the matter addressed in the agreement. If the 186480 board refuses to ratify a consent agreement, the admissions and 186481 findings contained in the consent agreement shall be of no force 186482 or effect. 186483

(E) For purposes of divisions (B)(12), (15), and (16) of this 186484
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 186486
the Revised Code, that the applicant or license holder committed 186487
the act in question. The board shall have no jurisdiction under 186488
these divisions in cases where the trial court renders a final 186489
upon an adjudication on the merits. The board shall have 186491
jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court 186492 issues an order of dismissal upon technical or procedural grounds. 186493

(F) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 186494
court shall have no effect upon a prior board order entered under 186495
the provisions of this section or upon the board's jurisdiction to 186496
take action under the provisions of this section if, based upon a 186497
plea of guilty, a judicial finding of guilt, or a judicial finding 186498
of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction, the board 186499 issued a notice of opportunity for a hearing or entered into a 186500 consent agreement prior to the court's order to seal or expunge 186501

the records. The board shall not be required to seal, destroy, 186502
redact, or otherwise modify its records to reflect the court's 186503
sealing or expungement of conviction records. 186504

(G) For purposes of this division, any individual who holds a 186505
license to practice issued under this chapter, or applies for a 186506 license to practice, shall be deemed to have given consent to 186507
submit to a mental or physical examination when directed to do so 186508
in writing by the board and to have waived all objections to the 186509
a privileged communication. 186511

(1) In enforcing division (B)(5) of this section, the board, 186512
upon a showing of a possible violation, shall refer any individual 186513 who holds, or has applied for, a license under this chapter to the 186514 monitoring organization that conducts the confidential monitoring 186515 program established under section 4731.25 of the Revised Code. The 186516 board also may compel any the individual who holds a license to 186517 practice issued under this chapter or who has applied for a 186518 license pursuant to this chapter to submit to a mental 186519 examination, physical examination, including an HIV test, or both 186520
a mental and physical examination. The expense of the examination 186521 is the responsibility of the individual compelled to be examined. 186522
Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination or consent 186523
the allegations against the individual unless the failure is due 186525
and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or 186527 presentation of evidence. If the board finds an oriental medicine 186528 practitioner or acupuncturist unable to practice because of the 186529 reasons set forth in division (B)(5) of this section, the board 186530 shall require the individual to submit to care, counseling, or 186531 treatment by physicians approved or designated by the board, as a 186532 condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, or renewed 186533 license to practice. An individual affected by this division shall 186534 be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate to the board the ability 186535

to resume practicing in compliance with acceptable and prevailing 186536
standards of care. 186537

board has reason to believe that any individual who holds a 186539
license to practice issued under this chapter or any applicant for 186540 a license suffers such impairment, the board shall refer the 186541 individual to the monitoring organization that conducts the 186542 confidential monitoring program established under section 4731.25 186543
of the Revised Code. The board also may compel the individual to 186544 submit to a mental or physical examination, or both. The expense 186545 of the examination is the responsibility of the individual 186546
compelled to be examined. Any mental or physical examination 186547 required under this division shall be undertaken by a treatment 186548 provider or physician qualified to conduct such examination and 186549
Code. 186551

evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 186557
individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, 186560
or renewed license, to submit to treatment. 186561

suspended under this division, the oriental medicine practitioner 186563 or acupuncturist shall demonstrate to the board the ability to 186564 resume practice in compliance with acceptable and prevailing 186565 standards of care. The demonstration shall include the following: 186566

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 186567

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 186570
contract or consent agreement; 186571

ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 186573
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 186574
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 186575
individuals or providers approved by the board for making such 186576

The board may reinstate a license suspended under this 186578
division after such demonstration and after the individual has 186579
entered into a written consent agreement. 186580

When the impaired individual resumes practice, the board 186581
shall require continued monitoring of the individual. The 186582 monitoring shall include monitoring of compliance with the written 186583 consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or with 186584 conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, upon 186585 termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for 186586
at least two years of annual written progress reports made under 186587 penalty of falsification stating whether the individual has 186588 maintained sobriety. 186589

the following, they may recommend that the board suspend an 186591
individual's license to practice without a prior hearing: 186592

(1) That there is clear and convincing evidence that an 186593
oriental medicine practitioner or acupuncturist has violated 186594 division (B) of this section; 186595

(2) That the individual's continued practice presents a 186596
danger of immediate and serious harm to the public. 186597

the board. The board, upon review of the allegations and by an 186599 affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding 186600
the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license 186601
summary suspension. 186604

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 186606
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 186608
of the Revised Code. If the oriental medicine practitioner or 186609
date set for the hearing shall be within fifteen days, but not 186611 earlier than seven days, after the hearing is requested, unless 186612
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the license holder. 186613

A summary suspension imposed under this division shall remain 186614
in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final adjudicative 186615
order issued by the board pursuant to this section and Chapter 186616
119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board shall issue 186617
its final adjudicative order within sixty days after completion of 186618
its hearing. Failure to issue the order within sixty days shall 186619
not invalidate any subsequent, final adjudicative order. 186621

(I) If the board takes action under division (B)(11), (13), 186622
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 186624
of conviction is overturned on appeal, upon exhaustion of the 186625
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. 186627

Upon receipt of a petition and supporting court documents, the 186628
board shall reinstate the license. The board may then hold an 186629 adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to determine 186630 whether the individual committed the act in question. Notice of 186631 opportunity for hearing shall be given in accordance with Chapter 186632 119. of the Revised Code. If the board finds, pursuant to an 186633 adjudication held under this division, that the individual 186634 committed the act, or if no hearing is requested, it may order any 186635 of the sanctions specified in division (B) of this section. 186636

(J) The license to practice of an oriental medicine 186637
practitioner or acupuncturist and the practitioner's or 186638 acupuncturist's practice in this state are automatically suspended 186639
as of the date the practitioner or acupuncturist pleads guilty to, 186640 is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is subject to a 186641
conviction in this state or treatment or intervention in lieu of 186643 conviction in another jurisdiction for any of the following 186644
criminal offenses in this state or a substantially equivalent 186645
criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated murder, 186646
murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, kidnapping, 186647
rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, aggravated arson, 186648
aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. Continued practice 186649 after the suspension shall be considered practicing without a 186650
license. 186651

The board shall notify the individual subject to the 186652
suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 186653
is suspended under this division fails to make a timely request 186655
for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the 186656
board shall enter a final order permanently revoking the 186657
individual's license. 186658

(K) In any instance in which the board is required by Chapter 186659

119. of the Revised Code to give notice of opportunity for hearing 186660
hearing in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the 186662
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 186664
order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the 186665
or (B) of this section. 186667

(L) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this 186668
section resulting in a suspension shall be accompanied by a 186669 written statement of the conditions under which the license may be 186670 reinstated. The board shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 186671 119. of the Revised Code governing conditions to be imposed for 186672 reinstatement. Reinstatement of a license suspended pursuant to 186673 division (B) of this section requires an affirmative vote of not 186674 fewer than six members of the board. 186675

(M) When the board refuses to grant or issue a license to an 186676
applicant, revokes an individual's license, refuses to renew an 186677 individual's license, or refuses to reinstate an individual's 186678 license, the board may specify that its action is permanent. An 186679 individual subject to a permanent action taken by the board is 186680 forever thereafter ineligible to hold a license to practice as an 186681 oriental medicine practitioner or license to practice as an 186682 acupuncturist and the board shall not accept an application for 186683

all of the following apply: 186686

(1) The surrender of a license to practice as an oriental 186687 medicine practitioner or license to practice as an acupuncturist 186688 issued under this chapter is not effective unless or until 186689 accepted by the board. Reinstatement of a license surrendered to 186690 the board requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six 186691

members of the board. 186692

(2) An application made under this chapter for a license may 186693
not be withdrawn without approval of the board. 186694

section against the individual. 186698

including a hospital, health care facility operated by a health 186701
insuring corporation, ambulatory surgical center, or similar 186702
facility, against any individual holding a valid license to 186703 practice as an oriental medicine practitioner or valid license to 186704 practice as an acupuncturist, the chief administrator or executive 186705 officer of the facility shall report to the state medical board 186706 the name of the individual, the action taken by the facility, and 186707 a summary of the underlying facts leading to the action taken. 186708 Upon request, the board shall be provided certified copies of the 186709 patient records that were the basis for the facility's action. 186710 Prior to release to the board, the summary shall be approved by 186711 the peer review committee that reviewed the case or by the 186712 governing board of the facility. 186713

The filing of a report with the board or decision not to file 186714
taken by the board, does not preclude a health care facility from 186716 taking disciplinary action against an oriental medicine 186717 practitioner or acupuncturist. 186718

that provides patient records to the board shall be liable in 186720

an oriental medicine practitioner or acupuncturist, professional 186723 association or society of oriental medicine practitioners or 186724 acupuncturists, physician, or professional association or society 186725 of physicians that believes a violation of any provision of this 186726 chapter, Chapter 4731. of the Revised Code, or rule of the board 186727 has occurred shall report to the board the information upon which 186728 the belief is based. 186729

(2) An oriental medicine practitioner or acupuncturist, 186730 professional association or society of oriental medicine 186731 practitioners or acupuncturists, physician, or professional 186732 association or society of physicians that believes a violation of 186733 division ~~(B)(6)~~(B)(5) or (6) of section 4762.13 of the Revised 186734
Code has occurred shall report the information upon which the 186735 belief is based to the monitoring organization conducting the 186736 confidential monitoring program established ~~by the board~~ under 186737
section ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of the Revised Code. If any such report 186738 is made to the board, it shall be referred to the monitoring 186739 organization unless the board is aware that the individual who is 186740
the subject of the report does not meet the program eligibility 186741
requirements of section 4731.252 of the Revised Code. 186742

primarily of oriental medicine practitioners or acupuncturists 186744 that suspends or revokes an individual's membership for violations 186745 of professional ethics, or for reasons of professional 186746 incompetence or professional malpractice, within sixty days after 186747 a final decision, shall report to the board, on forms prescribed 186748 and provided by the board, the name of the individual, the action 186749 taken by the professional organization, and a summary of the 186750
underlying facts leading to the action taken. 186751

The filing of a report with the board or decision not to file 186752

taken by the board, does not preclude a professional organization 186754
from taking disciplinary action against an individual. 186755

any person holding a valid license to practice as an oriental 186757 medicine practitioner or valid license to practice as an 186758 acupuncturist or any other entity that seeks to indemnify the 186759 professional liability of an oriental medicine practitioner or 186760 acupuncturist shall notify the board within thirty days after the 186761 final disposition of any written claim for damages where such 186762 disposition results in a payment exceeding twenty-five thousand 186763 dollars. The notice shall contain the following information: 186764

notification; 186766

(3) The name of the person filing the written claim; 186769

(4) The date of final disposition; 186770

(5) If applicable, the identity of the court in which the 186771

(E) The board may investigate possible violations of this 186773
chapter or the rules adopted under it that are brought to its 186774
possible violation involves repeated malpractice. As used in this 186777 division, "repeated malpractice" means three or more claims for 186778
malpractice within the previous five-year period, each resulting 186779
in a judgment or settlement in excess of twenty-five thousand 186780
dollars in favor of the claimant, and each involving negligent 186781 conduct by the oriental medicine practitioner or acupuncturist. 186782

(F) All summaries, reports, and records received and 186783

maintained by the board pursuant to this section shall be held in 186784
confidence and shall not be subject to discovery or introduction 186785
oriental medicine practitioner, acupuncturist, supervising 186787 physician, or health care facility arising out of matters that are 186788 the subject of the reporting required by this section. The board 186789 may use the information obtained only as the basis for an 186790 physician, or in any subsequent trial or appeal of a board action 186793 or order. 186794

or outside this state that are involved in credentialing or 186797 recredentialing an oriental medicine practitioner, acupuncturist, 186798 or supervising physician or reviewing their privilege to practice 186799 within a particular facility. The board shall indicate whether or 186800 not the information has been verified. Information transmitted by 186801 the board shall be subject to the same confidentiality provisions 186802 as when maintained by the board. 186803

(G) Except for reports filed by an individual pursuant to 186804
division (B) of this section, the board shall send a copy of any 186805
acupuncturist. The oriental medicine practitioner or acupuncturist 186807 shall have the right to file a statement with the board concerning 186808 the correctness or relevance of the information. The statement 186809 shall at all times accompany that part of the record in 186810 contention. 186811

the information. 186819

(23) Failure to comply with any of the rules of ethics 186936 included in the standards of ethics established by the American 186937 registry of radiologic technologists, as those rules apply to an 186938 individual who holds the registry's certification as a registered 186939 radiologist assistant. 186940

(C) The board shall not refuse to issue a license to an 186941
applicant because of a plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of 186942
lieu of conviction for an offense unless the refusal is in 186944
accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 186945

(D) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions 186946
(A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an 186947
adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 186948
in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent 186949
agreement with a radiologist assistant or applicant to resolve an 186950 allegation of a violation of this chapter or any rule adopted 186951
under it. A consent agreement, when ratified by an affirmative 186952 vote of not fewer than six members of the board, shall constitute 186953
the findings and order of the board with respect to the matter 186954
addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to ratify a 186955
consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained in the 186956 consent agreement shall be of no force or effect. 186957

section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 186959
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 186960
the Revised Code, that the applicant or license holder committed 186961
the act in question. The board shall have no jurisdiction under 186962
these divisions in cases where the trial court renders a final 186963
judgment in the license holder's favor and that judgment is based 186964
upon an adjudication on the merits. The board shall have 186965
jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court 186966
issues an order of dismissal on technical or procedural grounds. 186967

(F) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 186968
court shall have no effect on a prior board order entered under 186969

the provisions of this section or on the board's jurisdiction to 186970
take action under the provisions of this section if, based upon a 186971
plea of guilty, a judicial finding of guilt, or a judicial finding 186972
of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction, the board 186973
issued a notice of opportunity for a hearing prior to the court's 186974 order to seal or expunge the records. The board shall not be 186975 required to seal, destroy, redact, or otherwise modify its records 186976
to reflect the court's sealing or expungement of conviction 186977
records. 186978

(G) For purposes of this division, any individual who holds a 186979
license to practice as a radiologist assistant issued under this 186980 chapter, or applies for a license, shall be deemed to have given 186981 consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when 186982 directed to do so in writing by the board and to have waived all 186983
reports that constitute a privileged communication. 186985

on a showing of a possible violation, shall refer any individual 186987 who holds, or has applied for, a license to practice as a 186988 radiologist assistant issued under this chapter to the monitoring 186989 organization that conducts the confidential monitoring program 186990 established under section 4731.25 of the Revised Code. The board 186991 also may compel any the individual who holds a license to practice 186992 as a radiologist assistant issued under this chapter or who has 186993 applied for a license to submit to a mental or physical 186994 examination, or both. A physical examination may include an HIV 186995 test. The expense of the examination is the responsibility of the 186996 individual compelled to be examined. Failure to submit to a mental 186997 or physical examination or consent to an HIV test ordered by the 186998 board constitutes an admission of the allegations against the 186999 individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond the 187000 individual's control, and a default and final order may be entered 187001 without the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence. If 187002 the board finds a radiologist assistant unable to practice because 187003 of the reasons set forth in division (B)(5) of this section, the 187004 board shall require the radiologist assistant to submit to care, 187005 counseling, or treatment by physicians approved or designated by 187006

the board, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, 187007 or renewed license. An individual affected by this division shall 187008
standards of care. 187011

(2) For purposes of division (B)(6) of this section, if the 187012
board has reason to believe that any individual who holds a 187013 license to practice as a radiologist assistant issued under this 187014 chapter or any applicant for a license suffers such impairment, 187015 the board shall refer the individual to the monitoring 187016 organization that conducts the confidential monitoring program 187017
established under section 4731.25 of the Revised Code. The board 187018 also may compel the individual to submit to a mental or physical 187019 examination, or both. The expense of the examination is the 187020 responsibility of the individual compelled to be examined. Any 187021 mental or physical examination required under this division shall 187022 be undertaken by a treatment provider or physician qualified to 187023 conduct such examination and ~~chosen by the board~~ approved under 187024
section 4731.251 of the Revised Code. 187025

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 187027
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 187028
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 187030
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 187031
license or deny the individual's application and shall require the 187033

individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, 187034
or renewed license to practice, to submit to treatment. 187035

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license 187036
suspended under this division, the radiologist assistant shall 187037 demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice in 187038
compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care. The 187039
demonstration shall include the following: 187040

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 187041
has successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 187043

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 187044
contract or consent agreement; 187045

ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 187047
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 187048
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 187049
individuals or providers approved by the board for making such 187050
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 187051

The board may reinstate a license suspended under this 187052
division after such demonstration and after the individual has 187053
entered into a written consent agreement. 187054

When the impaired radiologist assistant resumes practice, the 187055 board shall require continued monitoring of the radiologist 187056 assistant. The monitoring shall include monitoring of compliance 187057 with the written consent agreement entered into before 187058 reinstatement or with conditions imposed by board order after a 187059 hearing, and, on termination of the consent agreement, submission 187060 to the board for at least two years of annual written progress 187061 reports made under penalty of falsification stating whether the 187062
radiologist assistant has maintained sobriety. 187063

(H) If the secretary and supervising member determine that 187064

there is clear and convincing evidence that a radiologist 187065
assistant has violated division (B) of this section and that the 187066
individual's continued practice presents a danger of immediate and 187067
serious harm to the public, they may recommend that the board 187068
suspend the individual's license to practice without a prior 187069 hearing. Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration 187070
by the board. 187071

The board, on review of the allegations and by an affirmative 187072 vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding the secretary 187073
and supervising member, may suspend a license without a prior 187074
hearing. A telephone conference call may be utilized for reviewing 187075

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 187078
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 187080 of the Revised Code. If the radiologist assistant requests an 187081
shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier than seven days, 187083
after the radiologist assistant requests the hearing, unless 187084
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the license holder. 187085

A summary suspension imposed under this division shall remain 187086
in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final adjudicative 187087
order issued by the board pursuant to this section and Chapter 187088
119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board shall issue 187089
its final adjudicative order within sixty days after completion of 187090
its hearing. Failure to issue the order within sixty days shall 187091
result in dissolution of the summary suspension order, but shall 187092
not invalidate any subsequent, final adjudicative order. 187093

(I) If the board takes action under division (B)(10), (12), 187094

of conviction is overturned on appeal, on exhaustion of the 187097
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. On 187099 receipt of a petition and supporting court documents, the board 187100
shall reinstate the license to practice as a radiologist 187101 assistant. The board may then hold an adjudication under Chapter 187102 119. of the Revised Code to determine whether the individual 187103 committed the act in question. Notice of opportunity for hearing 187104 shall be given in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised 187105 Code. If the board finds, pursuant to an adjudication held under 187106 this division, that the individual committed the act, or if no 187107 hearing is requested, it may order any of the sanctions specified 187108
in division (B) of this section. 187109

(J) The license to practice of a radiologist assistant and 187110
the assistant's practice in this state are automatically suspended 187111 as of the date the radiologist assistant pleads guilty to, is 187112 found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is subject to a 187113
judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 187114 conviction in this state or treatment of intervention in lieu of 187115 conviction in another jurisdiction for any of the following 187116
criminal offenses in this state or a substantially equivalent 187117
criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated murder, 187118
murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, kidnapping, 187119
rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, aggravated arson, 187120
aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. Continued practice 187121
after the suspension shall be considered practicing without a 187122
license. 187123

The board shall notify the individual subject to the 187124
suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 187125
for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the 187128

board shall enter a final order permanently revoking the 187129
individual's license. 187130

(K) In any instance in which the board is required by Chapter 187131
119. of the Revised Code to give notice of opportunity for hearing 187132
and the individual subject to the notice does not timely request a 187133
hearing in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the 187134
board is not required to hold a hearing, but may adopt, by an 187135
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 187136
order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the 187137
board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) 187138
or (B) of this section. 187139

(L) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this 187140
section resulting in a suspension shall be accompanied by a 187141 written statement of the conditions under which the radiologist 187142 assistant's license may be reinstated. The board shall adopt rules 187143 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing 187144 conditions to be imposed for reinstatement. Reinstatement of a 187145 license suspended pursuant to division (B) of this section 187146
requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the 187147
board. 187148

(M) When the board refuses to grant or issue a license to 187149 practice as a radiologist assistant to an applicant, revokes an 187150 individual's license, refuses to renew an individual's license, or 187151 refuses to reinstate an individual's license, the board may 187152
specify that its action is permanent. An individual subject to a 187153
permanent action taken by the board is forever thereafter 187154 ineligible to hold a license to practice as a radiologist 187155
assistant and the board shall not accept an application for 187156
reinstatement of the license or for issuance of a new license. 187157

all of the following apply: 187159

(1) The surrender of a license to practice as a radiologist 187160 assistant issued under this chapter is not effective unless or 187161 until accepted by the board. Reinstatement of a license 187162 surrendered to the board requires an affirmative vote of not fewer 187163

practice may not be withdrawn without approval of the board. 187166

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license to practice 187167
in accordance with section 4774.06 of the Revised Code shall not 187168
action under this section against the individual. 187170

Sec. 4774.16. (A) Within sixty days after the imposition of 187171
including a hospital, health care facility operated by a health 187173
facility, against any individual holding a valid license to 187175 practice as a radiologist assistant, the chief administrator or 187176 executive officer of the facility shall report to the state 187177 medical board the name of the individual, the action taken by the 187178
facility, and a summary of the underlying facts leading to the 187179 action taken. On request, the board shall be provided certified 187180
copies of the patient records that were the basis for the 187181
facility's action. Prior to release to the board, the summary 187182 shall be approved by the peer review committee that reviewed the 187183
case or by the governing board of the facility. 187184

The filing of a report with the board or decision not to file 187185
a report, investigation by the board, or any disciplinary action 187186
taken by the board, does not preclude a health care facility from 187187 taking disciplinary action against a radiologist assistant. 187188

that provides patient records to the board shall be liable in 187190

(B)(1) Except as provided in division (B)(2) of this section, 187192
a radiologist assistant, professional association or society of 187193 radiologist assistants, physician, or professional association or 187194
of this chapter, Chapter 4731. of the Revised Code, or rule of the 187196 board has occurred shall report to the board the information on 187197
which the belief is based. 187198

(2) A radiologist assistant, professional association or 187199 society of radiologist assistants, physician, or professional 187200 association or society of physicians that believes a violation of 187201
division ~~(B)(6)~~(B)(5) or (6) of section 4774.13 of the Revised 187202
Code has occurred shall report the information upon which the 187203
belief is based to the monitoring organization conducting the 187204
confidential monitoring program established ~~by the board~~ under 187205
section ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of the Revised Code. If any such report 187206 is made to the board, it shall be referred to the monitoring 187207 organization unless the board is aware that the individual who is 187208
requirements of section 4731.252 of the Revised Code. 187210

(C) Any professional association or society composed 187211 primarily of radiologist assistants that suspends or revokes an 187212 individual's membership for violations of professional ethics, or 187213 for reasons of professional incompetence or professional 187214 malpractice, within sixty days after a final decision, shall 187215
report to the board, on forms prescribed and provided by the 187216
board, the name of the individual, the action taken by the 187217
professional organization, and a summary of the underlying facts 187218
leading to the action taken. 187219

The filing of a report with the board or decision not to file 187220
a report, investigation by the board, or any disciplinary action 187221
taken by the board, does not preclude a professional organization 187222

from taking disciplinary action against a radiologist assistant. 187223

(D) Any insurer providing professional liability insurance to 187224 any person holding a valid license to practice as a radiologist 187225 assistant or any other entity that seeks to indemnify the 187226 professional liability of a radiologist assistant shall notify the 187227 board within thirty days after the final disposition of any 187228 written claim for damages where such disposition results in a 187229 payment exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars. The notice shall 187230 contain the following information: 187231

notification; 187233

(2) The name and address of the insured who is the subject of 187234
the claim; 187235

(3) The name of the person filing the written claim; 187236

(4) The date of final disposition; 187237

final disposition of the claim took place. 187239

(E) The board may investigate possible violations of this 187240
chapter or the rules adopted under it that are brought to its 187241
possible violation involves repeated malpractice. As used in this 187244 division, "repeated malpractice" means three or more claims for 187245
malpractice within the previous five-year period, each resulting 187246
conduct by the radiologist assistant. 187249

maintained by the board pursuant to this section shall be held in 187251
confidence and shall not be subject to discovery or introduction 187252

radiologist assistant, supervising physician, or health care 187254 facility arising out of matters that are the subject of the 187255
reporting required by this section. The board may use the 187256
evidence in a disciplinary hearing against a radiologist assistant 187258 or supervising radiologist, or in any subsequent trial or appeal 187259 of a board action or order. 187260

under this section only to health care facility committees within 187262
or outside this state that are involved in credentialing or 187263 recredentialing a radiologist assistant or supervising radiologist 187264 or reviewing their privilege to practice within a particular 187265 facility. The board shall indicate whether or not the information 187266 has been verified. Information transmitted by the board shall be 187267
subject to the same confidentiality provisions as when maintained 187268
by the board. 187269

(G) Except for reports filed by an individual pursuant to 187270
division (B) of this section, the board shall send a copy of any 187271
radiologist assistant. The radiologist assistant shall have the 187273 right to file a statement with the board concerning the 187274
at all times accompany that part of the record in contention. 187276

(H) An individual or entity that reports to the board, 187277
~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of the Revised Code, or refers an impaired 187279
radiologist assistant to a treatment provider approved ~~by the~~ 187280 ~~board~~ under section ~~4731.25~~ 4731.251 of the Revised Code shall not 187281
referral, or provision of the information. 187283

association or society of radiologist assistants that sponsors a 187285 committee or program to provide peer assistance to a radiologist 187286
assistant with substance abuse problems, a representative or agent 187287
of such a committee or program, a representative or agent of the 187288
monitoring organization described in section ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of 187289
the Revised Code, and a member of the state medical board shall 187290
not be held liable in damages to any person by reason of actions 187291 taken to refer a radiologist assistant to a treatment provider 187292 approved under section ~~4731.25~~ 4731.251 of the Revised Code for 187293

Sec. 4778.14. (A) The state medical board, by an affirmative 187295
vote of not fewer than six members, ~~may revoke or~~ may refuse to 187296 grant a license to practice as a genetic counselor to, or revoke 187297 the license held by, an individual found by the board to have 187298 committed fraud, misrepresentation, or deception in applying for 187299 or securing the license. 187300

(B) The board, by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six 187301

of a consent agreement that revokes or suspends an individual's 187410
license. The telephone conference call shall be considered a 187411 special meeting under division (F) of section 121.22 of the 187412
Revised Code. 187413

(E) For purposes of divisions (B)(11), (14), and (15) of this 187414
section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 187415
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 187416
the Revised Code, that the applicant or license holder committed 187417
the act in question. The board shall have no jurisdiction under 187418
these divisions in cases where the trial court renders a final 187419
judgment in the license holder's favor and that judgment is based 187420
upon an adjudication on the merits. The board shall have 187421
jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court 187422 issues an order of dismissal on technical or procedural grounds. 187423

(F) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 187424
court shall have no effect on a prior board order entered under 187425
the provisions of this section or on the board's jurisdiction to 187426
take action under the provisions of this section if, based upon a 187427
plea of guilty, a judicial finding of guilt, or a judicial finding 187428
of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction, the board 187429
issued a notice of opportunity for a hearing or took other formal 187430 action under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code prior to the court's 187431
order to seal or expunge the records. The board shall not be 187432
required to seal, destroy, redact, or otherwise modify its records 187433
records. 187435

(G) For purposes of this division, any individual who holds a 187436 license to practice as a genetic counselor, or applies for a 187437 license, shall be deemed to have given consent to submit to a 187438 mental or physical examination when directed to do so in writing 187439

by the board and to have waived all objections to the 187440
a privileged communication. 187442

(1) In enforcing division (B)(5) of this section, the board, 187443
on a showing of a possible violation, shall refer any individual 187444 who holds, or has applied for, a license to practice as a genetic 187445 counselor to the monitoring organization that conducts the 187446
confidential monitoring program established under section 4731.25 187447 of the Revised Code. The board also may compel any the individual 187448
~~who holds a license to practice as a genetic counselor or who has~~ 187449
~~applied for a license to practice as a genetic counselor~~ to submit 187450 to a mental or physical examination, or both. A physical 187451 examination may include an HIV test. The expense of the 187452
examination is the responsibility of the individual compelled to 187453
be examined. Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination 187454
or consent to an HIV test ordered by the board constitutes an 187455
admission of the allegations against the individual unless the 187456
failure is due to circumstances beyond the individual's control, 187457
and a default and final order may be entered without the taking of 187458
testimony or presentation of evidence. If the board finds a 187459 genetic counselor unable to practice because of the reasons set 187460 forth in division (B)(5) of this section, the board shall require 187461
the genetic counselor to submit to care, counseling, or treatment 187462 by physicians approved or designated by the board, as a condition 187463 for an initial, continued, reinstated, or renewed license to 187464 practice. An individual affected by this division shall be 187465 afforded an opportunity to demonstrate to the board the ability to 187466 resume practicing in compliance with acceptable and prevailing 187467

(2) For purposes of division (B)(6) of this section, if the 187469
board has reason to believe that any individual who holds a 187470 license to practice as a genetic counselor or any applicant for a 187471 license suffers such impairment, the board shall refer the 187472 individual to the monitoring organization that conducts the 187473

confidential monitoring program established under section 4731.25 187474
of the Revised Code. The board also may compel the individual to 187475 submit to a mental or physical examination, or both. The expense 187476
of the examination is the responsibility of the individual 187477
compelled to be examined. Any mental or physical examination 187478
required under this division shall be undertaken by a treatment 187479
provider or physician qualified to conduct such examination and 187480 ~~chosen by the board~~ approved under section 4731.251 of the Revised 187481
Code. 187482

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 187484
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 187485
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 187486
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 187487
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 187488
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 187489
license or deny the individual's application and shall require the 187490
individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, 187491 or renewed license, to submit to treatment. 187492

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license 187493
suspended under this division, the genetic counselor shall 187494 demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice in 187495
compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care. The 187496
demonstration shall include the following: 187497

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 187498
has successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 187500

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 187501
contract or consent agreement; 187502

The board may reinstate a license suspended under this division after such demonstration and after the individual has entered into a written consent agreement.

When the impaired genetic counselor resumes practice, the board shall require continued monitoring of the genetic counselor. The monitoring shall include monitoring of compliance with the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, on termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for at least two years of annual written progress reports made under penalty of falsification stating whether the genetic counselor has maintained sobriety.

(1) That there is clear and convincing evidence that a genetic counselor has violated division (B) of this section;

(2) That the individual's continued practice presents a danger of immediate and serious harm to the public.

Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration by the board. The board, on review of the allegations and by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call may be utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote on the

summary suspension. 187534

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 187536
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 187538 of the Revised Code. If the genetic counselor requests an 187539 adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date set for the hearing 187540
shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier than seven days, 187541
after the genetic counselor requests the hearing, unless otherwise 187542 agreed to by both the board and the genetic counselor. 187543

A summary suspension imposed under this division shall remain 187544
in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final adjudicative 187545
order issued by the board pursuant to this section and Chapter 187546
119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board shall issue 187547 its final adjudicative order within sixty days after completion of 187548
its hearing. Failure to issue the order within sixty days shall 187549
result in dissolution of the summary suspension order, but shall 187550
not invalidate any subsequent, final adjudicative order. 187551

(I) If the board takes action under division (B)(10), (12), 187552
or (13) of this section, and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 187553
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 187554
of conviction is overturned on appeal, on exhaustion of the 187555
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 187556
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. On 187557 receipt of a petition and supporting court documents, the board 187558
shall reinstate the license to practice as a genetic counselor. 187559
The board may then hold an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the 187560
Revised Code to determine whether the individual committed the act 187561 in question. Notice of opportunity for hearing shall be given in 187562 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. If the board 187563 finds, pursuant to an adjudication held under this division, that 187564
the individual committed the act, or if no hearing is requested, 187565

it may order any of the sanctions specified in division (B) of 187566
this section. 187567

(J) The license to practice as a genetic counselor and the 187568 counselor's practice in this state are automatically suspended as 187569 of the date the genetic counselor pleads guilty to, is found by a 187570 judge or jury to be guilty of, or is subject to a judicial finding 187571 of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction in this 187572 state or treatment of intervention in lieu of conviction in 187573 another jurisdiction for any of the following criminal offenses in 187574
this state or a substantially equivalent criminal offense in 187575 another jurisdiction: aggravated murder, murder, voluntary 187576 manslaughter, felonious assault, kidnapping, rape, sexual battery, 187577 gross sexual imposition, aggravated arson, aggravated robbery, or 187578 aggravated burglary. Continued practice after the suspension shall 187579 be considered practicing without a license. 187580

suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 187582
is suspended under this division fails to make a timely request 187584
for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the 187585
board shall enter a final order permanently revoking the 187586
individual's license to practice. 187587

(K) In any instance in which the board is required by Chapter 187588
119. of the Revised Code to give notice of opportunity for hearing 187589
and the individual subject to the notice does not timely request a 187590
hearing in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the 187591
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 187593
order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the 187594
board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) 187595
or (B) of this section. 187596

(L) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this 187597

section resulting in a suspension shall be accompanied by a 187598 written statement of the conditions under which the license of the 187599 genetic counselor may be reinstated. The board shall adopt rules 187600 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing 187601
conditions to be imposed for reinstatement. Reinstatement of a 187602
license suspended pursuant to division (B) of this section 187603
requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the 187604
board. 187605

(M) When the board refuses to grant or issue a license to 187606
practice as a genetic counselor to an applicant, revokes an 187607 individual's license, refuses to renew an individual's license, or 187608
refuses to reinstate an individual's license, the board may 187609
specify that its action is permanent. An individual subject to a 187610
permanent action taken by the board is forever thereafter 187611
ineligible to hold a license to practice as a genetic counselor 187612
and the board shall not accept an application for reinstatement of 187613
the license or for issuance of a new license. 187614

all of the following apply: 187616

(1) The surrender of a license to practice as a genetic 187617 counselor is not effective unless or until accepted by the board. 187618
A telephone conference call may be utilized for acceptance of the 187619 surrender of an individual's license. The telephone conference 187620 call shall be considered a special meeting under division (F) of 187621 section 121.22 of the Revised Code. Reinstatement of a license 187622 surrendered to the board requires an affirmative vote of not fewer 187623

practice may not be withdrawn without approval of the board. 187626

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license in accordance 187627
with section 4778.06 of the Revised Code shall not remove or limit 187628

the board's jurisdiction to take disciplinary action under this 187629
section against the individual. 187630

Sec. 4778.17. A genetic counselor, professional association 187631 or society of genetic counselors, physician, or professional 187632 association or society of physicians that believes a violation of 187633 program established ~~by the state medical board~~ under section 187637 ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of the Revised Code. If any such report is made 187638 to the state medical board, it shall be referred to the monitoring 187639 organization unless the board is aware that the individual who is 187640

the subject of the report does not meet the program eligibility 187641
requirements of section 4731.252 of the Revised Code. 187642

An individual or entity that reports to the board, reports to 187643
the monitoring organization described in section ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 187644 of the Revised Code, or refers an impaired genetic counselor to a 187645 treatment provider approved ~~by the board~~ under section ~~4731.25~~ 187646 4731.251 of the Revised Code shall not be subject to suit for 187647 civil damages as a result of the report, referral, or provision of 187648
the information. 187649

In the absence of fraud or bad faith, a professional 187650 association or society of genetic counselors that sponsors a 187651 committee or program to provide peer assistance to a genetic 187652 counselor with substance abuse problems, a representative or agent 187653
of such a committee or program, a representative or agent of the 187654
monitoring organization described in section ~~4731.251~~ 4731.25 of 187655
the Revised Code, and a member of the state medical board shall 187656
not be held liable in damages to any person by reason of actions 187657 taken to refer a genetic counselor to a treatment provider 187658 approved under section ~~4731.25~~ 4731.251 of the Revised Code for 187659

examination or treatment. 187660

hereby repealed. 187665

Section 130.82. That sections 4731.25 and 4731.251 of the 187666
Revised Code are hereby repealed. 187667

Section 130.83. Section 4731.22 of the Revised Code is 187668 presented in this act as a composite of the section as amended by 187669 both H.B. 254 and S.B. 288 of the 134th General Assembly. The 187670 General Assembly, applying the principle stated in division (B) of 187671 section 1.52 of the Revised Code that amendments are to be 187672 harmonized if reasonably capable of simultaneous operation, finds 187673 that the composite is the resulting version of the section in 187674 effect prior to the effective date of the section as presented in 187675 this act. 187676

constitutes grounds for refusing to issue a license to practice 187699 under section 4730.25 of the Revised Code to which the applicant 187700 has pleaded guilty, of which the applicant has been found guilty, 187701

187736

(E) A license to practice that is not renewed on or before its expiration date is automatically suspended on its expiration date. Continued practice after suspension of the license shall be considered as practicing in violation of division (A) of section 4730.02 of the Revised Code. 187737 with sections 4776.01 to 4776.04 of the Revised Code. The board 187753 shall not restore to an applicant a license to practice as a 187754 physician assistant unless the board, in its discretion, decides 187755 that the results of the criminal records check do not make the 187756 applicant ineligible for a license issued pursuant to section 187757

The penalty for reinstatement shall be fifty dollars and the 187759

failure to answer truthfully a question presented by the board at 187991
a deposition or in written interrogatories, except that failure to 187992
cooperate with an investigation shall not constitute grounds for 187993
discipline under this section if a court of competent jurisdiction 187994
has issued an order that either quashes a subpoena or permits the 187995
individual to withhold the testimony or evidence in issue; 187996

(23) Assisting suicide, as defined in section 3795.01 of the 187997
Revised Code; 187998

(24) Prescribing any drug or device to perform or induce an 187999 abortion, or otherwise performing or inducing an abortion; 188000

(25) Failure to comply with section 4730.53 of the Revised 188001
Code, unless the board no longer maintains a drug database 188002 pursuant to section 4729.75 of the Revised Code; 188003

(C) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions 188020

(A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an 188021
adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 188022
in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent 188023
agreement with a physician assistant or applicant to resolve an 188024 allegation of a violation of this chapter or any rule adopted 188025
under it. A consent agreement, when ratified by an affirmative 188026 vote of not fewer than six members of the board, shall constitute 188027
the findings and order of the board with respect to the matter 188028
addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to ratify a 188029
consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained in the 188030
consent agreement shall be of no force or effect. 188031

by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 188034
the Revised Code, that the applicant or license holder committed 188035
the act in question. The board shall have no jurisdiction under 188036 these divisions in cases where the trial court renders a final 188037
judgment in the license holder's favor and that judgment is based 188038
upon an adjudication on the merits. The board shall have 188039
jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court 188040 issues an order of dismissal upon technical or procedural grounds. 188041

(E) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 188042
court shall have no effect upon a prior board order entered under 188043
the provisions of this section or upon the board's jurisdiction to 188044
take action under the provisions of this section if, based upon a 188045
plea of guilty, a judicial finding of guilt, or a judicial finding 188046
of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction, the board 188047
issued a notice of opportunity for a hearing prior to the court's 188048
order to seal or expunge the records. The board shall not be 188049
required to seal, destroy, redact, or otherwise modify its records 188050
records. 188052

(F) For purposes of this division, any individual who holds a license issued under this chapter, or applies for a license issued under this chapter, shall be deemed to have given consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when directed to do so in writing by the board and to have waived all objections to the admissibility of testimony or examination reports that constitute a privileged communication.

suffers such impairment, the board may compel the individual to 188085
submit to a mental or physical examination, or both. The expense 188086
of the examination is the responsibility of the individual 188087
compelled to be examined. Any mental or physical examination 188088 required under this division shall be undertaken by a treatment 188089
provider or physician qualified to conduct such examination and 188090 chosen by the board. 188091

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 188093
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 188094
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 188096
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 188097
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 188098
license or deny the individual's application and shall require the 188099
individual, as a condition for initial, continued, reinstated, or 188100
renewed licensure, to submit to treatment. 188101

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license 188102
suspended under this division, the physician assistant shall 188103 demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice or 188104
prescribing in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards 188105
of care. The demonstration shall include the following: 188106

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 188107
section 4731.25 of the Revised Code that the individual has 188108
successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 188109

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 188110
contract or consent agreement; 188111

ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 188113
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 188114
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 188115

individuals or providers approved by the board for making such 188116
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 188117

The board may reinstate a license suspended under this 188118
division after such demonstration and after the individual has 188119
entered into a written consent agreement. 188120

prescribing, the board shall require continued monitoring of the 188122 physician assistant. The monitoring shall include compliance with 188123
the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or 188124
with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, upon 188125
termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for 188126
at least two years of annual written progress reports made under 188127 penalty of falsification stating whether the physician assistant 188128
has maintained sobriety. 188129

(G) If the secretary and supervising member determine that 188130
there is clear and convincing evidence that a physician assistant 188131 has violated division (B) of this section and that the 188132
individual's continued practice or prescribing presents a danger 188133
of immediate and serious harm to the public, they may recommend 188134
that the board suspend the individual's license without a prior 188135
by the board. 188137

The board, upon review of those allegations and by an 188138
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding 188139
the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license 188140
without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call may be 188141
utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote on the 188142
summary suspension. 188143

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 188145

the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 188147
of the Revised Code. If the physician assistant requests an 188148 adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date set for the hearing 188149
shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier than seven days, 188150
after the physician assistant requests the hearing, unless 188151
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the license holder. 188152

A summary suspension imposed under this division shall remain 188153
in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final adjudicative 188154
order issued by the board pursuant to this section and Chapter 188155
119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board shall issue 188156
its final adjudicative order within sixty days after completion of 188157
its hearing. Failure to issue the order within sixty days shall 188158
result in dissolution of the summary suspension order, but shall 188159
not invalidate any subsequent, final adjudicative order. 188160

(H) If the board takes action under division (B)(11), (13), 188161
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 188163
of conviction is overturned on appeal, upon exhaustion of the 188164
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 188165
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. 188166
Upon receipt of a petition and supporting court documents, the 188167 board shall reinstate the individual's license. The board may then 188168 hold an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to 188169 determine whether the individual committed the act in question. 188170
Notice of opportunity for hearing shall be given in accordance 188171
with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. If the board finds, 188172
pursuant to an adjudication held under this division, that the 188173
individual committed the act, or if no hearing is requested, it 188174
may order any of the sanctions identified under division (B) of 188175
this section. 188176

(I) The license to practice issued to a physician assistant 188177
and the physician assistant's practice in this state are 188178

pleads guilty to, is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or 188180
is subject to a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention 188181
in lieu of conviction in this state or treatment or intervention 188182
in lieu of conviction in another state for any of the following 188183
criminal offenses in this state or a substantially equivalent 188184
criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated murder, 188185
murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, kidnapping, 188186
rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, aggravated arson, 188187
aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. Continued practice 188188
license. 188190

suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 188192
is suspended under this division fails to make a timely request 188194
for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the 188195
board shall enter a final order permanently revoking the 188196
individual's license to practice. 188197

(J) In any instance in which the board is required by Chapter 188198
119. of the Revised Code to give notice of opportunity for hearing 188199
and the individual subject to the notice does not timely request a 188200
hearing in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the 188201
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 188203
order that contains the board's findings. In that final order, the 188204
board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) 188205
or (B) of this section. 188206

(K) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this 188207
section resulting in a suspension shall be accompanied by a 188208 written statement of the conditions under which the physician 188209 assistant's license may be reinstated. The board shall adopt rules 188210

in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing 188211
conditions to be imposed for reinstatement. Reinstatement of a 188212 license suspended pursuant to division (B) of this section 188213
requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the 188214
board. 188215

(L) When the board refuses to grant or issue to an applicant 188216 a license to practice as a physician assistant, revokes an 188217 individual's license, refuses to renew an individual's license, or 188218
refuses to reinstate an individual's license, the board may 188219
specify that its action is permanent. An individual subject to a 188220
permanent action taken by the board is forever thereafter 188221 ineligible to hold the license and the board shall not accept an 188222
new license. 188224

all of the following apply: 188226

(1) The surrender of a license issued under this chapter is 188227
not effective unless or until accepted by the board. Reinstatement 188228
of a license surrendered to the board requires an affirmative vote 188229
of not fewer than six members of the board. 188230

(2) An application made under this chapter for a license may 188231
not be withdrawn without approval of the board. 188232

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license in accordance 188233 with section 4730.14 of the Revised Code ~~shall~~ does not remove or 188234 limit the board's jurisdiction to take disciplinary action under 188235
this section against the individual. 188236

(4) The placement of an individual's license on retired 188237
status, as described in section 4730.141 of the Revised Code, does 188238
not remove or limit the board's jurisdiction to take any 188239
disciplinary action against the individual with regard to the 188240 license as it existed before being placed on retired status. 188241

(N) The board shall not refuse to issue a license to an applicant because of a conviction, plea of guilty, judicial finding of guilt, judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction, or the commission of an act that constitutes a criminal offense, unless the refusal is in accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 4730.28. (A) This section applies to ~~both~~ all of the following:

(1) An applicant seeking restoration of a license issued under this chapter that has been in a suspended or inactive state for any cause for more than two years;

(2) An applicant seeking issuance of a license pursuant to this chapter who for more than two years has not been practicing as a physician assistant as either of the following:

(a) An active practitioner;

(b) A student in a program as described in division (B) or (C) of section 4730.11 of the Revised Code.

(3) An applicant seeking to reactivate a license placed on retired status.

(B) Before issuing a license to an applicant subject to this section, or before restoring a license to good standing or reactivating a license placed on retired status for an applicant subject to this section, the state medical board may impose terms and conditions including any one or more of the following:

(1) Requiring the applicant to pass an oral or written examination, or both, to determine the applicant's present fitness to resume practice;

(2) Requiring the applicant to obtain additional training and to pass an examination upon completion of such training;

(3) Requiring an assessment of the applicant's physical skills for purposes of determining whether the applicant's coordination, fine motor skills, and dexterity are sufficient for performing evaluations and procedures in a manner that meets the minimal standards of care;

(4) Requiring an assessment of the applicant's skills in recognizing and understanding diseases and conditions;

(5) Requiring the applicant to undergo a comprehensive physical examination, which may include an assessment of physical abilities, evaluation of sensory capabilities, or screening for the presence of neurological disorders;

(6) Restricting or limiting the extent, scope, or type of practice of the applicant.

The board shall consider the moral background and the activities of the applicant during the period of suspension ~~or~~ inactivity, or retirement. The board shall not issue ~~or~~ restore or reactivate a license under this section unless the applicant complies with sections 4776.01 to 4776.04 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 4731.22. (A) The state medical board, by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, may limit, revoke, or suspend a license or certificate to practice or certificate to recommend, refuse to grant a license or certificate, refuse to renew a license or certificate, refuse to reinstate a license or certificate, or reprimand or place on probation the holder of a license or certificate if the individual applying for or holding the license or certificate is found by the board to have committed fraud during the administration of the examination for a license or certificate to practice or to have committed fraud, misrepresentation, or deception in applying for, renewing, or securing any license or certificate to practice or certificate to recommend issued by the board.

(B) Except as provided in division (P) of this section, the board, by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members, shall, to the extent permitted by law, limit, revoke, or suspend a license or certificate to practice or certificate to recommend, refuse to issue a license or certificate, refuse to renew a license or certificate, refuse to reinstate a license or certificate, or reprimand or place on probation the holder of a license or certificate for one or more of the following reasons:

(1) Permitting one's name or one's license or certificate to practice to be used by a person, group, or corporation when the individual concerned is not actually directing the treatment given;

(3) Except as provided in section 4731.97 of the Revised Code, selling, giving away, personally furnishing, prescribing, or administering drugs for other than legal and legitimate therapeutic purposes or a plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction of, a violation of any federal or state law regulating the possession, distribution, or use of any drug;

(4) Willfully betraying a professional confidence.

For purposes of this division, "willfully betraying a professional confidence" does not include providing any information, documents, or reports under sections 307.621 to 307.629 of the Revised Code to a child fatality review board; does not include providing any information, documents, or reports under sections 307.631 to 307.6410 of the Revised Code to a drug overdose fatality review committee, a suicide fatality review committee, or hybrid drug overdose fatality and suicide fatality 188333 review committee; does not include providing any information, 188334 documents, or reports under sections 307.651 to 307.659 of the 188335 Revised Code to a domestic violence fatality review board; does 188336 not include providing any information, documents, or reports to 188337 the director of health pursuant to guidelines established under 188338 section 3701.70 of the Revised Code; does not include written 188339 notice to a mental health professional under section 4731.62 of 188340 the Revised Code; and does not include the making of a report of 188341 an employee's use of a drug of abuse, or a report of a condition 188342 of an employee other than one involving the use of a drug of 188343 abuse, to the employer of the employee as described in division 188344 (B) of section 2305.33 of the Revised Code. Nothing in this 188345 division affects the immunity from civil liability conferred by 188346 section 2305.33 or 4731.62 of the Revised Code upon a physician 188347 who makes a report in accordance with section 2305.33 or notifies 188348 a mental health professional in accordance with section 4731.62 of 188349 the Revised Code. As used in this division, "employee," 188350 "employer," and "physician" have the same meanings as in section 188351

2305.33 of the Revised Code. 188352

(5) Making a false, fraudulent, deceptive, or misleading 188353 statement in the solicitation of or advertising for patients; in 188354 relation to the practice of medicine and surgery, osteopathic 188355 medicine and surgery, podiatric medicine and surgery, or a limited 188356 branch of medicine; or in securing or attempting to secure any 188357 license or certificate to practice issued by the board. 188358

As used in this division, "false, fraudulent, deceptive, or 188359 misleading statement" means a statement that includes a 188360 misrepresentation of fact, is likely to mislead or deceive because 188361 of a failure to disclose material facts, is intended or is likely 188362
to create false or unjustified expectations of favorable results, 188363 or includes representations or implications that in reasonable 188364 probability will cause an ordinarily prudent person to 188365

misunderstand or be deceived. 188366

(6) A departure from, or the failure to conform to, minimal 188367 standards of care of similar practitioners under the same or 188368 similar circumstances, whether or not actual injury to a patient 188369
is established; 188370

(7) Representing, with the purpose of obtaining compensation 188371
or other advantage as personal gain or for any other person, that 188372
an incurable disease or injury, or other incurable condition, can 188373
be permanently cured; 188374

(8) The obtaining of, or attempting to obtain, money or 188375 anything of value by fraudulent misrepresentations in the course 188376 of practice; 188377

(9) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or a 188378
judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 188379
conviction for, a felony; 188380

(10) Commission of an act that constitutes a felony in this 188381
state, regardless of the jurisdiction in which the act was 188382
committed; 188383

(11) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or 188384
a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 188385 conviction for, a misdemeanor committed in the course of practice; 188386

(12) Commission of an act in the course of practice that 188387
constitutes a misdemeanor in this state, regardless of the 188388
jurisdiction in which the act was committed; 188389

(13) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or 188390
a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 188391 conviction for, a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; 188392

(14) Commission of an act involving moral turpitude that 188393
constitutes a misdemeanor in this state, regardless of the 188394

jurisdiction in which the act was committed; 188395

(15) Violation of the conditions of limitation placed by the 188396 board upon a license or certificate to practice; 188397

(16) Failure to pay license renewal fees specified in this 188398 chapter; 188399

(17) Except as authorized in section 4731.31 of the Revised 188400
Code, engaging in the division of fees for referral of patients, 188401 or the receiving of a thing of value in return for a specific 188402 referral of a patient to utilize a particular service or business; 188403

(18) Subject to section 4731.226 of the Revised Code, 188404 violation of any provision of a code of ethics of the American 188405 medical association, the American osteopathic association, the 188406 American podiatric medical association, or any other national 188407 professional organizations that the board specifies by rule. The 188408 state medical board shall obtain and keep on file current copies 188409 of the codes of ethics of the various national professional 188410 organizations. The individual whose license or certificate is 188411 being suspended or revoked shall not be found to have violated any 188412 provision of a code of ethics of an organization not appropriate 188413 to the individual's profession. 188414

ethics of a national professional organization" does not include 188416
any provision that would preclude the making of a report by a 188417
physician of an employee's use of a drug of abuse, or of a 188418 condition of an employee other than one involving the use of a 188419
drug of abuse, to the employer of the employee as described in 188420
division (B) of section 2305.33 of the Revised Code. Nothing in 188421
this division affects the immunity from civil liability conferred 188422
by that section upon a physician who makes either type of report 188423
in accordance with division (B) of that section. As used in this 188424 division, "employee," "employer," and "physician" have the same 188425

meanings as in section 2305.33 of the Revised Code. 188426

(19) Inability to practice according to acceptable and 188427
prevailing standards of care by reason of mental illness or 188428 physical illness, including, but not limited to, physical 188429
perceptive skills. 188431

possible violation, may compel any individual authorized to 188433 practice by this chapter or who has submitted an application 188434 pursuant to this chapter to submit to a mental examination, 188435 physical examination, including an HIV test, or both a mental and 188436 a physical examination. The expense of the examination is the 188437 responsibility of the individual compelled to be examined. Failure 188438 to submit to a mental or physical examination or consent to an HIV 188439 test ordered by the board constitutes an admission of the 188440 allegations against the individual unless the failure is due to 188441 circumstances beyond the individual's control, and a default and 188442 final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or 188443 presentation of evidence. If the board finds an individual unable 188444 to practice because of the reasons set forth in this division, the 188445 board shall require the individual to submit to care, counseling, 188446 or treatment by physicians approved or designated by the board, as 188447 a condition for initial, continued, reinstated, or renewed 188448 authority to practice. An individual affected under this division 188449 shall be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate to the board the 188450 ability to resume practice in compliance with acceptable and 188451 prevailing standards under the provisions of the individual's 188452 license or certificate. For the purpose of this division, any 188453 individual who applies for or receives a license or certificate to 188454 practice under this chapter accepts the privilege of practicing in 188455
this state and, by so doing, shall be deemed to have given consent 188456
to submit to a mental or physical examination when directed to do 188457

so in writing by the board, and to have waived all objections to 188458
constitute a privileged communication. 188460

(20) Except as provided in division (F)(1)(b) of section 188461
under section 4731.225 of the Revised Code, and subject to section 188463 4731.226 of the Revised Code, violating or attempting to violate, 188464
directly or indirectly, or assisting in or abetting the violation 188465
of, or conspiring to violate, any provisions of this chapter or 188466
any rule promulgated by the board. 188467

violation of, assisting in or abetting the violation of, or a 188469
conspiracy to violate, any provision of this chapter or any rule 188470 adopted by the board that would preclude the making of a report by 188471
a physician of an employee's use of a drug of abuse, or of a 188472 condition of an employee other than one involving the use of a 188473
drug of abuse, to the employer of the employee as described in 188474
division (B) of section 2305.33 of the Revised Code. Nothing in 188475 this division affects the immunity from civil liability conferred 188476
by that section upon a physician who makes either type of report 188477
in accordance with division (B) of that section. As used in this 188478 division, "employee," "employer," and "physician" have the same 188479
meanings as in section 2305.33 of the Revised Code. 188480

(21) The violation of section 3701.79 of the Revised Code or 188481
of any abortion rule adopted by the director of health pursuant to 188482
section 3701.341 of the Revised Code; 188483

(22) Any of the following actions taken by an agency 188484
responsible for authorizing, certifying, or regulating an 188485
individual to practice a health care occupation or provide health 188486 care services in this state or another jurisdiction, for any 188487
reason other than the nonpayment of fees: the limitation, 188488
revocation, or suspension of an individual's license to practice; 188489

acceptance of an individual's license surrender; denial of a 188490
license; refusal to renew or reinstate a license; imposition of 188491
probation; or issuance of an order of censure or other reprimand; 188492

(23) The violation of section 2919.12 of the Revised Code or 188493
the performance or inducement of an abortion upon a pregnant woman 188494
with actual knowledge that the conditions specified in division 188495
(B) of section 2317.56 of the Revised Code have not been satisfied 188496
or with a heedless indifference as to whether those conditions 188497
have been satisfied, unless an affirmative defense as specified in 188498 division (H)(2) of that section would apply in a civil action 188499
authorized by division (H)(1) of that section; 188500

(24) The revocation, suspension, restriction, reduction, or 188501
termination of clinical privileges by the United States department 188502
of defense or department of veterans affairs or the termination or 188503 suspension of a certificate of registration to prescribe drugs by 188504
department of justice; 188506

(25) Termination or suspension from participation in the 188507
medicare or medicaid programs by the department of health and 188508
human services or other responsible agency; 188509

(26) Impairment of ability to practice according to 188510 acceptable and prevailing standards of care because of habitual or 188511 excessive use or abuse of drugs, alcohol, or other substances that 188512 impair ability to practice. 188513

to practice by this chapter accepts the privilege of practicing in 188515
this state subject to supervision by the board. By filing an 188516 application for or holding a license or certificate to practice 188517 under this chapter, an individual shall be deemed to have given 188518
consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when ordered 188519
to do so by the board in writing, and to have waived all 188520

reports that constitute privileged communications. 188522

If it has reason to believe that any individual authorized to 188523 practice by this chapter or any applicant for licensure or 188524 certification to practice suffers such impairment, the board may 188525 compel the individual to submit to a mental or physical 188526 examination, or both. The expense of the examination is the 188527 responsibility of the individual compelled to be examined. Any 188528
mental or physical examination required under this division shall 188529 be undertaken by a treatment provider or physician who is 188530 qualified to conduct the examination and who is chosen by the 188531
board. 188532

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 188534
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 188536
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 188537
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 188538
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 188539
license or certificate or deny the individual's application and 188540 shall require the individual, as a condition for initial, 188541
continued, reinstated, or renewed licensure or certification to 188542

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license 188544
or certificate suspended under this division, the impaired 188545
practitioner shall demonstrate to the board the ability to resume 188546
practice in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of 188547
care under the provisions of the practitioner's license or 188548
certificate. The demonstration shall include, but shall not be 188549
limited to, the following: 188550

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 188551
section 4731.25 of the Revised Code that the individual has 188552

successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 188553

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 188554
contract or consent agreement; 188555

(c) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 188556
ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 188557
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 188558
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 188559
individuals or providers approved by the board for making the 188560
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 188561

The board may reinstate a license or certificate suspended 188562
under this division after that demonstration and after the 188563
individual has entered into a written consent agreement. 188564

shall require continued monitoring of the individual. The 188566
monitoring shall include, but not be limited to, compliance with 188567
the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or 188568
with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, upon 188569
termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for 188570
at least two years of annual written progress reports made under 188571
penalty of perjury stating whether the individual has maintained 188572
sobriety. 188573

health care services from that individual; 188582

(b) Advertising that the individual will waive the payment of 188583
all or any part of a deductible or copayment that a patient, 188584 plan that covers the individual's services, otherwise would be 188586

required to pay. 188587

(29) Failure to use universal blood and body fluid 188588
precautions established by rules adopted under section 4731.051 of 188589
the Revised Code; 188590

of the notice from, a patient when required by section 4731.143 of 188592 the Revised Code prior to providing nonemergency professional 188593 the board under division (F) of this section, including failure to 188611

answer truthfully a question presented by the board in an 188613

investigative interview, an investigative office conference, at a 188614 deposition, or in written interrogatories, except that failure to 188615 cooperate with an investigation shall not constitute grounds for 188616
discipline under this section if a court of competent jurisdiction 188617
has issued an order that either quashes a subpoena or permits the 188618
individual to withhold the testimony or evidence in issue; 188619

(35) Failure to supervise an acupuncturist in accordance with 188620
Chapter 4762. of the Revised Code and the board's rules for 188621

| medical marijuana;                                                 | 188674 |

(50) Practicing at a facility, clinic, or other location that 188675 is subject to licensure as a category III terminal distributor of 188676 dangerous drugs with an office-based opioid treatment 188677

(54) Failure to take the steps specified in section 4731.911 188690 of the Revised Code following an abortion or attempted abortion in 188691 hospital when a child is born alive. 188693

(C) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions 188694
(A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an 188695
adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 188696
in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent 188697 agreement with an individual to resolve an allegation of a 188698 violation of this chapter or any rule adopted under it. A consent 188699 agreement, when ratified by an affirmative vote of not fewer than 188700 six members of the board, shall constitute the findings and order 188701 of the board with respect to the matter addressed in the 188702 agreement. If the board refuses to ratify a consent agreement, the 188703 admissions and findings contained in the consent agreement shall 188704 be of no force or effect. 188705

of a consent agreement that revokes or suspends an individual's 188707 license or certificate to practice or certificate to recommend. 188708
The telephone conference call shall be considered a special 188709 meeting under division (F) of section 121.22 of the Revised Code. 188710

If the board takes disciplinary action against an individual 188711 under division (B) of this section for a second or subsequent plea 188712 of guilty to, or judicial finding of guilt of, a violation of 188713 section 2919.123 or 2919.124 of the Revised Code, the disciplinary 188714 action shall consist of a suspension of the individual's license 188715
or certificate to practice for a period of at least one year or, 188716
if determined appropriate by the board, a more serious sanction 188717 involving the individual's license or certificate to practice. Any 188718 consent agreement entered into under this division with an 188719 individual that pertains to a second or subsequent plea of guilty 188720
to, or judicial finding of guilt of, a violation of that section 188721
shall provide for a suspension of the individual's license or 188722 certificate to practice for a period of at least one year or, if 188723
determined appropriate by the board, a more serious sanction 188724
involving the individual's license or certificate to practice. 188725

(D) For purposes of divisions (B)(10), (12), and (14) of this 188726
section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 188727
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 188728
the Revised Code, that the individual committed the act. The board 188729
does not have jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial 188730
court renders a final judgment in the individual's favor and that 188731
judgment is based upon an adjudication on the merits. The board 188732
has jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial court issues 188733
an order of dismissal upon technical or procedural grounds. 188734

(E) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 188735
court shall have no effect upon a prior board order entered under 188736
this section or upon the board's jurisdiction to take action under 188737

this section if, based upon a plea of guilty, a judicial finding 188738
of guilt, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 188739
lieu of conviction, the board issued a notice of opportunity for a 188740
hearing prior to the court's order to seal or expunge the records. 188741
The board shall not be required to seal, expunge, destroy, redact, 188742 or otherwise modify its records to reflect the court's sealing of 188743
conviction records. 188744

show that a person has violated any provision of this chapter or 188746 any rule adopted under it. Any person may report to the board in a 188747 signed writing any information that the person may have that 188748 appears to show a violation of any provision of this chapter or 188749 any rule adopted under it. In the absence of bad faith, any person 188750
who reports information of that nature or who testifies before the 188751
board in any adjudication conducted under Chapter 119. of the 188752 Revised Code shall not be liable in damages in a civil action as a 188753 result of the report or testimony. Each complaint or allegation of 188754
a violation received by the board shall be assigned a case number 188755
and shall be recorded by the board. 188756

(2) Investigations of alleged violations of this chapter or 188757 any rule adopted under it shall be supervised by the supervising 188758 member elected by the board in accordance with section 4731.02 of 188759 the Revised Code and by the secretary as provided in section 188760 4731.39 of the Revised Code. The president may designate another 188761 member of the board to supervise the investigation in place of the 188762 supervising member. No member of the board who supervises the 188763 investigation of a case shall participate in further adjudication 188764 of the case. 188765

(3) In investigating a possible violation of this chapter or 188766 any rule adopted under this chapter, or in conducting an 188767 inspection under division (E) of section 4731.054 of the Revised 188768 Code, the board may question witnesses, conduct interviews, 188769 administer oaths, order the taking of depositions, inspect and 188770 copy any books, accounts, papers, records, or documents, issue 188771 subpoenas, and compel the attendance of witnesses and production 188772 of books, accounts, papers, records, documents, and testimony, 188773 except that a subpoena for patient record information shall not be 188774 issued without consultation with the attorney general's office and 188775 approval of the secretary and supervising member of the board. 188776

(a) Before issuance of a subpoena for patient record 188777 information, the secretary and supervising member shall determine 188778 whether there is probable cause to believe that the complaint 188779 filed alleges a violation of this chapter or any rule adopted 188780 under it and that the records sought are relevant to the alleged 188781 violation and material to the investigation. The subpoena may 188782 apply only to records that cover a reasonable period of time 188783 surrounding the alleged violation. 188784

(b) On failure to comply with any subpoena issued by the 188785 board and after reasonable notice to the person being subpoenaed, 188786 the board may move for an order compelling the production of 188787 persons or records pursuant to the Rules of Civil Procedure. 188788

(c) A subpoena issued by the board may be served by a 188789 sheriff, the sheriff's deputy, or a board employee or agent 188790 designated by the board. Service of a subpoena issued by the board 188791 may be made by delivering a copy of the subpoena to the person 188792 named therein, reading it to the person, or leaving it at the 188793 person's usual place of residence, usual place of business, or 188794 address on file with the board. When serving a subpoena to an 188795 applicant for or the holder of a license or certificate issued 188796 under this chapter, service of the subpoena may be made by 188797 certified mail, return receipt requested, and the subpoena shall 188798 be deemed served on the date delivery is made or the date the 188799 person refuses to accept delivery. If the person being served 188800 refuses to accept the subpoena or is not located, service may be 188801 made to an attorney who notifies the board that the attorney is 188802 representing the person. 188803

(d) A sheriff's deputy who serves a subpoena shall receive 188804 the same fees as a sheriff. Each witness who appears before the 188805 board in obedience to a subpoena shall receive the fees and 188806 mileage provided for under section 119.094 of the Revised Code. 188807

(4) All hearings, investigations, and inspections of the 188808 board shall be considered civil actions for the purposes of 188809
section 2305.252 of the Revised Code. 188810

(5) A report required to be submitted to the board under this 188811 chapter, a complaint, or information received by the board 188812 pursuant to an investigation or pursuant to an inspection under 188813 division (E) of section 4731.054 of the Revised Code is 188814 confidential and not subject to discovery in any civil action. 188815

The board shall conduct all investigations or inspections and 188816 proceedings in a manner that protects the confidentiality of 188817 patients and persons who file complaints with the board. The board 188818 shall not make public the names or any other identifying 188819 information about patients or complainants unless proper consent 188820 is given or, in the case of a patient, a waiver of the patient 188821 privilege exists under division (B) of section 2317.02 of the 188822 Revised Code, except that consent or a waiver of that nature is 188823
not required if the board possesses reliable and substantial 188824
evidence that no bona fide physician-patient relationship exists. 188825

The board may share any information it receives pursuant to 188826
an investigation or inspection, including patient records and 188827
patient record information, with law enforcement agencies, other 188828 licensing boards, and other governmental agencies that are 188829
prosecuting, adjudicating, or investigating alleged violations of 188830 statutes or administrative rules. An agency or board that receives 188831
the information shall comply with the same requirements regarding 188832

confidentiality as those with which the state medical board must 188833
comply, notwithstanding any conflicting provision of the Revised 188834
Code or procedure of the agency or board that applies when it is 188835 dealing with other information in its possession. In a judicial 188836 proceeding, the information may be admitted into evidence only in 188837
accordance with the Rules of Evidence, but the court shall require 188838
that appropriate measures are taken to ensure that confidentiality 188839
is maintained with respect to any part of the information that 188840 contains names or other identifying information about patients or 188841 complainants whose confidentiality was protected by the state 188842
medical board when the information was in the board's possession. 188843
Measures to ensure confidentiality that may be taken by the court 188844
its records. 188846

(6) On a quarterly basis, the board shall prepare a report 188847
that documents the disposition of all cases during the preceding 188848
three months. The report shall contain the following information 188849
for each case with which the board has completed its activities: 188850

(a) The case number assigned to the complaint or alleged 188851
violation; 188852

(b) The type of license or certificate to practice, if any, 188853 held by the individual against whom the complaint is directed; 188854

(c) A description of the allegations contained in the 188855 complaint; 188856

(d) The disposition of the case. 188857

The report shall state how many cases are still pending and 188858 shall be prepared in a manner that protects the identity of each 188859 person involved in each case. The report shall be a public record 188860 under section 149.43 of the Revised Code. 188861

(G) If the secretary and supervising member determine both of 188862
the following, they may recommend that the board suspend an 188863

individual's license or certificate to practice or certificate to recommend without a prior hearing: 188864 188865

(1) That there is clear and convincing evidence that an 188866 individual has violated division (B) of this section; 188867

(2) That the individual's continued practice presents a 188868
danger of immediate and serious harm to the public. 188869

Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration by 188870
the board. The board, upon review of those allegations and by an 188871 affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding 188872
the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license or 188873 certificate without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call 188874 may be utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote 188875 on the summary suspension. 188876

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 188878
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 188880
of the Revised Code. If the individual subject to the summary 188881 suspension requests an adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date 188882
set for the hearing shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier 188883
than seven days, after the individual requests the hearing, unless 188884
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the individual. 188885

Any summary suspension imposed under this division shall 188886
remain in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final 188887
adjudicative order issued by the board pursuant to this section 188888
and Chapter 119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board 188889
shall issue its final adjudicative order within seventy-five days 188890
after completion of its hearing. A failure to issue the order 188891
summary suspension order but shall not invalidate any subsequent, 188893
final adjudicative order. 188894

(H) If the board takes action under division (B)(9), (11), or 188895

of conviction is overturned on appeal, upon exhaustion of the 188898
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 188899
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. 188900
Upon receipt of a petition of that nature and supporting court 188901
documents, the board shall reinstate the individual's license or 188902
certificate to practice. The board may then hold an adjudication 188903
under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to determine whether the 188904 individual committed the act in question. Notice of an opportunity 188905 for a hearing shall be given in accordance with Chapter 119. of 188906
the Revised Code. If the board finds, pursuant to an adjudication 188907 held under this division, that the individual committed the act or 188908
if no hearing is requested, the board may order any of the 188909
sanctions identified under division (B) of this section. 188910

(I) The license or certificate to practice issued to an 188911

finding of guilt of, a violation of section 2919.123 or 2919.124 188915
of the Revised Code. In addition, the license or certificate to 188916 practice or certificate to recommend issued to an individual under 188917
this chapter and the individual's practice in this state are 188918 automatically suspended as of the date the individual pleads 188919
guilty to, is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is 188920
subject to a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 188921 lieu of conviction in this state or treatment or intervention in 188922
lieu of conviction in another jurisdiction for any of the 188923
following criminal offenses in this state or a substantially 188924
equivalent criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated 188925
murder, murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, 188926

without a license or certificate. 188930

The board shall notify the individual subject to the 188931
suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 188932
section 119.07 of the Revised Code. If an individual whose license 188933
or certificate is automatically suspended under this division 188934
fails to make a timely request for an adjudication under Chapter 188935 119. of the Revised Code, the board shall do whichever of the 188936
following is applicable: 188937

(1) If the automatic suspension under this division is for a 188938
second or subsequent plea of guilty to, or judicial finding of 188939 guilt of, a violation of section 2919.123 or 2919.124 of the 188940
Revised Code, the board shall enter an order suspending the 188941
individual's license or certificate to practice for a period of at 188942
least one year or, if determined appropriate by the board, 188943
imposing a more serious sanction involving the individual's 188944
license or certificate to practice. 188945

(2) In all circumstances in which division (I)(1) of this 188946
section does not apply, enter a final order permanently revoking 188947
the individual's license or certificate to practice. 188948

(J) If the board is required by Chapter 119. of the Revised 188949
Code to give notice of an opportunity for a hearing and if the 188950
individual subject to the notice does not timely request a hearing 188951
in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the board 188952
is not required to hold a hearing, but may adopt, by an 188953
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 188954 order that contains the board's findings. In that final order, the 188955
board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) 188956
or (B) of this section. 188957

(K) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this 188958

section resulting in a suspension from practice shall be 188959
accompanied by a written statement of the conditions under which 188960
the individual's license or certificate to practice may be 188961 reinstated. The board shall adopt rules governing conditions to be 188962 imposed for reinstatement. Reinstatement of a license or 188963
certificate suspended pursuant to division (B) of this section 188964
requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the 188965
board. 188966

certificate to practice to an applicant, revokes an individual's 188968
license or certificate to practice, refuses to renew an 188969
individual's license or certificate to practice, or refuses to 188970
reinstate an individual's license or certificate to practice, the 188971
board may specify that its action is permanent. An individual 188972 subject to a permanent action taken by the board is forever 188973
thereafter ineligible to hold a license or certificate to practice 188974
and the board shall not accept an application for reinstatement of 188975
the license or certificate or for issuance of a new license or 188976

(4) The placement of an individual's license on retired 188998
status, as described in section 4731.283 of the Revised Code, does 188999
not remove or limit the board's jurisdiction to take any 189000
disciplinary action against the individual with regard to the 189001
license as it existed before being placed on retired status. 189002

reinstate an individual's license or permit, the board may specify 189682
that its action is permanent. An individual subject to a permanent 189683
action taken by the board is forever thereafter ineligible to hold 189684
a license or permit and the board shall not accept an application 189685
new license or permit. 189687

(E) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under division 189688

(A) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an adjudication 189689
under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that in lieu of an 189690
adjudication, the board may enter into a consent agreement with an 189691
individual to resolve an allegation of a violation of this chapter 189692
or any rule adopted under it. A consent agreement, when ratified 189693
by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board, 189694 shall constitute the findings and order of the board with respect 189695
to the matter addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to 189696 ratify a consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained 189697
in the consent agreement shall be of no force or effect. 189698

A telephone conference call may be utilized for ratification 189699
of a consent agreement that revokes or suspends an individual's 189700
license or permit. The telephone conference call shall be 189701 considered a special meeting under division (F) of section 121.22 189702

(F) In enforcing division (A)(14) of this section, the board, 189704
upon a showing of a possible violation, may compel any individual 189705 authorized to practice by this chapter or who has submitted an 189706 application pursuant to this chapter to submit to a mental 189707 examination, physical examination, including an HIV test, or both 189708 a mental and a physical examination. The expense of the 189709 examination is the responsibility of the individual compelled to 189710
be examined. Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination 189711
or consent to an HIV test ordered by the board constitutes an 189712
admission of the allegations against the individual unless the 189713
failure is due to circumstances beyond the individual's control, 189714
and a default and final order may be entered without the taking of 189715 testimony or presentation of evidence. If the board finds an 189716 individual unable to practice because of the reasons set forth in 189717 division (A)(14) of this section, the board shall require the 189718 individual to submit to care, counseling, or treatment by 189719 physicians approved or designated by the board, as a condition for 189720 initial, continued, reinstated, or renewed authority to practice. 189721

An individual affected under this division shall be afforded an 189722 opportunity to demonstrate to the board the ability to resume 189723 practice in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards 189724 under the provisions of the individual's license or permit. For 189725 the purpose of division (A)(14) of this section, any individual 189726 who applies for or receives a license or permit under this chapter 189727 accepts the privilege of practicing in this state and, by so 189728
doing, shall be deemed to have given consent to submit to a mental 189729
or physical examination when directed to do so in writing by the 189730 board, and to have waived all objections to the admissibility of 189731
communication. 189733

(G) For the purposes of division (A)(18) of this section, any 189734
individual authorized to practice by this chapter accepts the 189735
privilege of practicing in this state subject to supervision by 189736
the board. By filing an application for or holding a license or 189737 permit under this chapter, an individual shall be deemed to have 189738
given consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when 189739 ordered to do so by the board in writing, and to have waived all 189740
objections to the admissibility of testimony or examination 189741
reports that constitute privileged communications. 189742

If it has reason to believe that any individual authorized to 189743
practice by this chapter or any applicant for a license or permit 189744
suffers such impairment, the board may compel the individual to 189745
submit to a mental or physical examination, or both. The expense 189746
of the examination is the responsibility of the individual 189747
compelled to be examined. Any mental or physical examination 189748 required under this division shall be undertaken by a treatment 189749 provider or physician who is qualified to conduct the examination 189750
and who is chosen by the board. 189751

the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 189754
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 189755
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 189756
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 189757
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 189758
license or permit or deny the individual's application and shall 189759 require the individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, 189760
reinstated, or renewed license or permit, to submit to treatment. 189761

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license 189762
or permit suspended under this division, the impaired practitioner 189763
shall demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice in 189764
compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care under 189765
the provisions of the practitioner's license or permit. The 189766
following: 189768

(1) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 189769
section 4731.25 of the Revised Code that the individual has 189770
successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 189771

(2) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 189772
contract or consent agreement; 189773

(3) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 189774
ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 189775
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 189776
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 189777
individuals or providers approved by the board for making the 189778
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 189779

The board may reinstate a license or permit suspended under 189780
this division after that demonstration and after the individual 189781

shall require continued monitoring of the individual. The 189784
monitoring shall include, but not be limited to, compliance with 189785
the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or 189786
with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, upon 189787
termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for 189788
at least two years of annual written progress reports made under 189789
penalty of perjury stating whether the individual has maintained 189790
sobriety. 189791

(H) If the secretary and supervising member determine both of 189792
the following, they may recommend that the board suspend an 189793
individual's license or permit without a prior hearing: 189794

(1) That there is clear and convincing evidence that an 189795
individual has violated division (A) of this section; 189796

(2) That the individual's continued practice presents a 189797
danger of immediate and serious harm to the public. 189798

Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration by 189799
the board. The board, upon review of those allegations and by an 189800
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding 189801
the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license or 189802 permit without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call may be 189803
utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote on the 189804
summary suspension. 189805

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 189807
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 189809
of the Revised Code. If the individual subject to the summary 189810 suspension requests an adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date 189811
set for the hearing shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier 189812
than seven days, after the individual requests the hearing, unless 189813
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the individual. 189814

remain in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final 189816
adjudicative order issued by the board pursuant to this section 189817
and Chapter 119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board 189818 shall issue its final adjudicative order within seventy-five days 189819
after completion of its hearing. A failure to issue the order 189820
within seventy-five days shall result in dissolution of the 189821
summary suspension order but shall not invalidate any subsequent, 189822
final adjudicative order. 189823

(I) If the board is required by Chapter 119. of the Revised 189824
Code to give notice of an opportunity for a hearing and if the 189825
individual subject to the notice does not timely request a hearing 189826
in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the board 189827
is not required to hold a hearing, but may adopt, by an 189828
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 189829
order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the 189830
of this section. 189832

(J) For purposes of divisions (A)(5), (7), and (9) of this 189833
section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 189834
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 189835
the Revised Code, that the individual committed the act. The board 189836
does not have jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial 189837
court renders a final judgment in the individual's favor and that 189838
judgment is based upon an adjudication on the merits. The board 189839
has jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial court issues 189840
an order of dismissal upon technical or procedural grounds. 189841

(K) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 189842
court shall have no effect upon a prior board order entered under 189843
this section or upon the board's jurisdiction to take action under 189844

lieu of conviction, the board issued a notice of opportunity for a hearing prior to the court's order to seal or expunge the records. The board shall not be required to seal, destroy, redact, or otherwise modify its records to reflect the court's sealing or expungement of conviction records.

without a license or permit. 189881

The board shall notify the individual subject to the 189882
suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 189883
or permit is automatically suspended under this division fails to 189885
make a timely request for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 189886
the Revised Code, the board shall enter a final order permanently 189887
revoking the individual's license or permit. 189888

(N) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, 189889
all of the following apply: 189890

(1) The surrender of a license or permit issued under this 189891
chapter shall not be effective unless or until accepted by the 189892
board. A telephone conference call may be utilized for acceptance 189893
of the surrender of an individual's license or permit. The 189894
telephone conference call shall be considered a special meeting 189895
under division (F) of section 121.22 of the Revised Code. 189896
Reinstatement of a license or permit surrendered to the board 189897
requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the 189898
board. 189899

(2) An application for a license or permit made under the 189900
of the board. 189902

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license or permit in 189903 accordance with this chapter ~~shall~~ does not remove or limit the 189904 board's jurisdiction to take any disciplinary action under this 189905
section against the individual. 189906

(4) The placement of an individual's license on retired 189907
status, as described in section 4759.064 of the Revised Code, does 189908
not remove or limit the board's jurisdiction to take any 189909

disciplinary action against the individual with regard to the 189910
license as it existed before being placed on retired status. 189911

(5) At the request of the board, a license or permit holder 189912
shall immediately surrender to the board a license or permit that 189913
the board has suspended, revoked, or permanently revoked. 189914

Sec. 4760.061. (A) This section applies to ~~both~~ all of the 189915
following: 189916

(1) An applicant seeking restoration of a license issued 189917 under this chapter that has been in a suspended or inactive state 189918 for any cause for more than two years; 189919

(2) An applicant seeking issuance of a license pursuant to 189920
this chapter who for more than two years has not been practicing 189921 as an anesthesiologist assistant as either of the following: 189922

(a) An active practitioner; 189923

(b) A participant in a training program as described in 189924
section 4760.031 of the Revised Code. 189925

(3) An applicant seeking to reactivate a license placed on 189926
retired status. 189927

(B) Before issuing a license to an applicant subject to this 189928 section, or before restoring a license to good standing or 189929 reactivating a license placed on retired status for an applicant 189930 subject to this section, the state medical board may impose terms 189931
and conditions including any one or more of the following: 189932

(1) Requiring the applicant to pass an oral or written 189933 examination, or both, to determine the applicant's present fitness 189934
to resume practice; 189935

(2) Requiring the applicant to obtain additional training and 189936
to pass an examination upon completion of such training; 189937

(3) Requiring an assessment of the applicant's physical 189938

skills for purposes of determining whether the applicant's 189939 coordination, fine motor skills, and dexterity are sufficient for 189940 performing evaluations and procedures in a manner that meets the 189941 minimal standards of care; 189942

(4) Requiring an assessment of the applicant's skills in 189943
recognizing and understanding diseases and conditions; 189944

(5) Requiring the applicant to undergo a comprehensive 189945
physical examination, which may include an assessment of physical 189946 abilities, evaluation of sensory capabilities, or screening for 189947
the presence of neurological disorders; 189948

(6) Restricting or limiting the extent, scope, or type of 189949
practice of the applicant. 189950

The board shall consider the moral background and the 189951 activities of the applicant during the period of suspension ~~or~~ 189952 inactivity, or retirement. The board shall not issue ~~or~~ restore, 189953 or reactivate a license under this section unless the applicant 189954 complies with sections 4776.01 to 4776.04 of the Revised Code. 189955

Sec. 4760.062. (A) An individual who holds a current, valid 189956 license issued under this chapter to practice as an 189957 anesthesiologist assistant and who retires voluntarily from 189958 practice may request that the state medical board place the 189959 individual's license on retired status. 189960

(B) An individual seeking to have the individual's license 189961 placed on retired status shall file with the board an application 189962 in the form and manner prescribed by the board. The application 189963 shall be submitted before the end of a biennial renewal period and 189964 include all of the following: 189965

(1) The applicant's full name, license number, mailing 189966 address, and electronic mail address; 189967

(2) An attestation that the information included in the 189968

the following qualifications: 189970

(a) That the applicant holds a current, valid license issued 189971
under this chapter; 189972

(b) That the applicant has retired voluntarily from practice 189973 as an anesthesiologist assistant; 189974

(c) That the applicant does not have any criminal charges 189975 pending against the applicant; 189976

(d) That the applicant is not the subject of discipline by, 189977 or an investigation pending with, a regulatory agency of this 189978 state, another state, or the United States; 189979

(e) That the applicant does not have any complaints pending 189980 with the board; 189981

(f) That the applicant is not, at the time of application, 189982 subject to the board's hearing, disciplinary, or compliance 189983 processes under the terms of a citation, notice of opportunity for 189984 hearing, board order, or consent agreement. 189985

(3) A fee in an amount equal to the sum of the biennial 189986 renewal fee and restoration penalty described in section 4760.06 189987

requirements of division (B) of this section, the board shall 189994 place the applicant's license on retired status. The license 189995 remains on retired status for the life of the license holder, 189996 unless suspended, revoked, or reactivated, and does not require 189997
renewal. 189998

possession, distribution, or use of any drug, including 190120 trafficking in drugs; 190121

(17) Any of the following actions taken by the state agency 190122 responsible for regulating the practice of anesthesiologist 190123 assistants in another jurisdiction, for any reason other than the 190124 nonpayment of fees: the limitation, revocation, or suspension of 190125 an individual's license to practice; acceptance of an individual's 190126 license surrender; denial of a license; refusal to renew or 190127 reinstate a license; imposition of probation; or issuance of an 190128 order of censure or other reprimand; 190129

(18) Violation of the conditions placed by the board on a 190130 license to practice; 190131

(19) Failure to use universal blood and body fluid 190132
precautions established by rules adopted under section 4731.051 of 190133
the Revised Code; 190134

(20) Failure to cooperate in an investigation conducted by 190135
the board under section 4760.14 of the Revised Code, including 190136
failure to comply with a subpoena or order issued by the board or 190137
failure to answer truthfully a question presented by the board at 190138
a deposition or in written interrogatories, except that failure to 190139 cooperate with an investigation shall not constitute grounds for 190140
discipline under this section if a court of competent jurisdiction 190141
has issued an order that either quashes a subpoena or permits the 190142
individual to withhold the testimony or evidence in issue; 190143

(21) Failure to comply with any code of ethics established by 190144
the national commission for the certification of anesthesiologist 190145 assistants; 190146

(22) Failure to notify the state medical board of the 190147
commission for certification of anesthesiologist assistants. 190149

(C) The board shall not refuse to issue a certificate to an applicant because of a plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction for an offense unless the refusal is in accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code.

(D) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions (A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent agreement with an anesthesiologist assistant or applicant to resolve an allegation of a violation of this chapter or any rule adopted under it. A consent agreement, when ratified by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board, shall constitute the findings and order of the board with respect to the matter addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to ratify a consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained in the consent agreement shall be of no force or effect.

(E) For purposes of divisions (B)(11), (14), and (15) of this section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, that the applicant or license holder committed the act in question. The board shall have no jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court renders a final judgment in the license holder's favor and that judgment is based upon an adjudication on the merits. The board shall have jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court issues an order of dismissal on technical or procedural grounds.

issued a notice of opportunity for a hearing prior to the court's 190183
order to seal or expunge the records. The board shall not be 190184
required to seal, destroy, redact, or otherwise modify its records 190185
records. 190187

(G) For purposes of this division, any individual who holds a 190188 license to practice issued under this chapter, or applies for a 190189 license to practice, shall be deemed to have given consent to 190190
submit to a mental or physical examination when directed to do so 190191
in writing by the board and to have waived all objections to the 190192
a privileged communication. 190194

(1) In enforcing division (B)(5) of this section, the board, 190195 on a showing of a possible violation, may compel any individual 190196 who holds a license to practice issued under this chapter or who 190197 has applied for a license to practice pursuant to this chapter to 190198 submit to a mental or physical examination, or both. A physical 190199 examination may include an HIV test. The expense of the 190200
examination is the responsibility of the individual compelled to 190201
be examined. Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination 190202
or consent to an HIV test ordered by the board constitutes an 190203
admission of the allegations against the individual unless the 190204
failure is due to circumstances beyond the individual's control, 190205
and a default and final order may be entered without the taking of 190206 testimony or presentation of evidence. If the board finds an 190207 anesthesiologist assistant unable to practice because of the 190208 reasons set forth in division (B)(5) of this section, the board 190209
shall require the anesthesiologist assistant to submit to care, 190210
counseling, or treatment by physicians approved or designated by 190211
the board, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, 190212
or renewed license to practice. An individual affected by this 190213 division shall be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practicing in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care.

Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination ordered by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond the individual's control, and a default and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's license or deny the individual's application and shall require the individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, or renewed license to practice, to submit to treatment.

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license suspended under this division, the anesthesiologist assistant shall demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice in compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care. The demonstration shall include the following:

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under section 4731.25 of the Revised Code that the individual has successfully completed any required inpatient treatment;

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare contract or consent agreement; 190245
190246

190248
190250
190251
190252

The board may reinstate a license suspended under this division after such demonstration and after the individual has entered into a written consent agreement. 190253
190255

When the impaired anesthesiologist assistant resumes practice, the board shall require continued monitoring of the anesthesiologist assistant. The monitoring shall include monitoring of compliance with the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, on termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for at least two years of annual written progress reports made under penalty of falsification stating whether the anesthesiologist assistant has maintained sobriety. 190256
190257
190259
190260
190261
190262
190263
190265

(H) If the secretary and supervising member determine that there is clear and convincing evidence that an anesthesiologist assistant has violated division (B) of this section and that the individual's continued practice presents a danger of immediate and serious harm to the public, they may recommend that the board suspend the individual's license without a prior hearing. Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration by the board. 190266
190267
190268
190269
190270
190271
190272

The board, on review of the allegations and by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license without a prior 190273
190274
190275

hearing. A telephone conference call may be utilized for reviewing 190276
the allegations and taking the vote on the summary suspension. 190277

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 190279
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 190281
of the Revised Code. If the anesthesiologist assistant requests an 190282 adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date set for the hearing 190283
shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier than seven days, 190284
after the anesthesiologist assistant requests the hearing, unless 190285
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the license holder. 190286

A summary suspension imposed under this division shall remain 190287
in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final adjudicative 190288
order issued by the board pursuant to this section and Chapter 190289
119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board shall issue 190290
its final adjudicative order within sixty days after completion of 190291
its hearing. Failure to issue the order within sixty days shall 190292
result in dissolution of the summary suspension order, but shall 190293
not invalidate any subsequent, final adjudicative order. 190294

(I) If the board takes action under division (B)(11), (13), 190295
or (14) of this section, and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 190296
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 190297
of conviction is overturned on appeal, on exhaustion of the 190298
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 190299
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. On 190300
receipt of a petition and supporting court documents, the board 190301 shall reinstate the license to practice. The board may then hold 190302 an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to 190303
determine whether the individual committed the act in question. 190304
Notice of opportunity for hearing shall be given in accordance 190305
with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. If the board finds, 190306
pursuant to an adjudication held under this division, that the 190307

individual committed the act, or if no hearing is requested, it 190308
may order any of the sanctions specified in division (B) of this 190309
section. 190310

(J) The license to practice of an anesthesiologist assistant 190311
and the assistant's practice in this state are automatically 190312 suspended as of the date the anesthesiologist assistant pleads 190313
guilty to, is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is 190314
subject to a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 190315
lieu of conviction in this state or treatment of intervention in 190316
lieu of conviction in another jurisdiction for any of the 190317
following criminal offenses in this state or a substantially 190318 equivalent criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated 190319
murder, murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, 190320
kidnapping, rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, 190321
aggravated arson, aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. 190322
Continued practice after the suspension shall be considered 190323
practicing without a license. 190324

suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 190326
section 119.07 of the Revised Code. If an individual whose license 190327
is suspended under this division fails to make a timely request 190328
for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the 190329
board shall enter a final order permanently revoking the 190330
individual's license to practice. 190331

(K) In any instance in which the board is required by Chapter 190332
119. of the Revised Code to give notice of opportunity for hearing 190333
and the individual subject to the notice does not timely request a 190334
hearing in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the 190335
board is not required to hold a hearing, but may adopt, by an 190336
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 190337
order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the 190338
board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) 190339

or (B) of this section. 190340

(L) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this 190341
section resulting in a suspension shall be accompanied by a 190342
written statement of the conditions under which the 190343
anesthesiologist assistant's license may be reinstated. The board 190344
shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised 190345
Code governing conditions to be imposed for reinstatement. 190346
Reinstatement of a license suspended pursuant to division (B) of 190347
this section requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six 190348
members of the board. 190349

(M) When the board refuses to grant or issue a license to 190350
practice as an anesthesiologist assistant to an applicant, revokes 190351
an individual's license, refuses to renew an individual's license, 190352
or refuses to reinstate an individual's license, the board may 190353
specify that its action is permanent. An individual subject to a 190354
permanent action taken by the board is forever thereafter 190355 ineligible to hold a license to practice as an anesthesiologist 190356
assistant and the board shall not accept an application for 190357
reinstatement of the license or for issuance of a new license. 190358

(N) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, 190359
all of the following apply: 190360

(1) The surrender of a license to practice issued under this 190361
chapter is not effective unless or until accepted by the board. 190362 Reinstatement of a license surrendered to the board requires an 190363
affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board. 190364

(2) An application made under this chapter for a license to 190365
practice may not be withdrawn without approval of the board. 190366

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license to practice 190367
in accordance with section 4760.06 of the Revised Code ~~shall~~ does 190368

action under this section against the individual. 190370

(4) The placement of an individual's license on retired status, as described in section 4760.062 of the Revised Code, does not remove or limit the board's jurisdiction to take any disciplinary action against the individual with regard to the license as it existed before being placed on retired status.

for a license issued pursuant to division (A) of this section. 190442

(D)(1) The board may require a random sample of limited 190443

190611

section 4761.09 of the Revised Code, but shall do so in accordance 190614
with the procedures described in that section. 190615

(H) The board may adopt rules to implement and enforce this 190616 section. The rules shall be adopted in accordance with Chapter 190617
119. of the Revised Code. 190618

Sec. 4761.09. (A) The state medical board, by an affirmative 190619
vote of not fewer than six members, shall, except as provided in 190620 division (B) of this section, and to the extent permitted by law, 190621 limit, revoke, or suspend an individual's license or limited 190622
permit, refuse to issue a license or limited permit to an 190623 individual, refuse to renew a license or limited permit, refuse to 190624
reinstate a license or limited permit, or reprimand or place on 190625 probation the holder of a license or limited permit for one or 190626
more of the following reasons: 190627

(1) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or a 190628
judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 190629
conviction for, a felony; 190630

(2) Commission of an act that constitutes a felony in this 190631
state, regardless of the jurisdiction in which the act was 190632
committed; 190633

(3) A plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or a 190634
judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 190635
conviction for, a misdemeanor committed in the course of practice; 190636

(4) Commission of an act in the course of practice that 190637
constitutes a misdemeanor in this state, regardless of the 190638

conviction for, a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; 190642

(6) Commission of an act involving moral turpitude that 190643

constitutes a misdemeanor in this state, regardless of the 190644
jurisdiction in which the act was committed; 190645

(7) Except when civil penalties are imposed under section 190646

relation to the practice of respiratory care; or in securing or 190653 attempting to secure any license or permit issued by the board 190654
under this chapter. 190655

As used in division (A)(8) of this section, "false, 190656 fraudulent, deceptive, or misleading statement" means a statement 190657 that includes a misrepresentation of fact, is likely to mislead or 190658 deceive because of a failure to disclose material facts, is 190659 intended or is likely to create false or unjustified expectations 190660 that in reasonable probability will cause an ordinarily prudent 190662 person to misunderstand or be deceived. 190663

(9) Committing fraud during the administration of the 190664 examination for a license to practice or committing fraud, 190665

is established; 190671

(11) Violating the standards of ethical conduct adopted by 190672 the board, in the practice of respiratory care; 190673

(12) The obtaining of, or attempting to obtain, money or 190674

Code, including failure to comply with a subpoena or order issued 190706
by the board or failure to answer truthfully a question presented 190707
by the board in an investigative interview, an investigative 190708
office conference, at a deposition, or in written interrogatories, 190709
except that failure to cooperate with an investigation shall not 190710 constitute grounds for discipline under this section if a court of 190711
competent jurisdiction has issued an order that either quashes a 190712 subpoena or permits the individual to withhold the testimony or 190713
evidence in issue; 190714

(20) Practicing in an area of respiratory care for which the 190715 person is clearly untrained or incompetent or practicing in a 190716 manner that conflicts with section 4761.17 of the Revised Code; 190717

(21) Employing, directing, or supervising a person who is not 190718 authorized to practice respiratory care under this chapter in the 190719 performance of respiratory care procedures; 190720

(22) Misrepresenting educational attainments or authorized 190721 functions for the purpose of obtaining some benefit related to the 190722 practice of respiratory care; 190723

(23) Assisting suicide as defined in section 3795.01 of the 190724
Revised Code; 190725

(24) Representing, with the purpose of obtaining compensation 190726
or other advantage as personal gain or for any other person, that 190727
an incurable disease or injury, or other incurable condition, can 190728
be permanently cured. 190729

this section shall be taken pursuant to an adjudication under 190731
Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that in lieu of an 190732
adjudication, the board may enter into a consent agreement with an 190733
individual to resolve an allegation of a violation of this chapter 190734
or any rule adopted under it. A consent agreement, when ratified 190735
by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board, 190736

shall constitute the findings and order of the board with respect 190737
to the matter addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to 190738 ratify a consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained 190739
in the consent agreement shall be of no effect. 190740

A telephone conference call may be utilized for ratification 190741
of a consent agreement that revokes or suspends an individual's 190742 license or permit. The telephone conference call shall be 190743 considered a special meeting under division (F) of section 121.22 190744
of the Revised Code. 190745

(B) The board shall not refuse to issue a license or limited 190746
permit to an applicant because of a plea of guilty to, a judicial 190747
finding of guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for 190748
intervention in lieu of conviction for an offense unless the 190749
refusal is in accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 190750

(C) Any action taken by the board under division (A) of this 190751
section resulting in a suspension from practice shall be 190752
accompanied by a written statement of the conditions under which 190753
the individual's license or permit may be reinstated. The board 190754 shall adopt rules governing conditions to be imposed for 190755
reinstatement. Reinstatement of a license or permit suspended 190756
pursuant to division (A) of this section requires an affirmative 190757
vote of not fewer than six members of the board. 190758

(D) When the board refuses to grant or issue a license or 190759
permit to an applicant, revokes an individual's license or permit, 190760
refuses to renew an individual's license or permit, or refuses to 190761
reinstate an individual's license or permit, the board may specify 190762
that its action is permanent. An individual subject to a permanent 190763 action taken by the board is forever thereafter ineligible to hold 190764
a license or permit and the board shall not accept an application 190765
new license or permit. 190767

(E) If the board is required by Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to give notice of an opportunity for a hearing and if the individual subject to the notice does not timely request a hearing in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the board is not required to hold a hearing, but may adopt, by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) of this section.

this chapter accepts the privilege of practicing in this state 190801 and, by so doing, shall be deemed to have given consent to submit 190802 to a mental or physical examination when directed to do so in 190803 writing by the board, and to have waived all objections to the 190804
a privileged communication. 190806

(G) For the purposes of division (A)(18) of this section, any 190807
individual authorized to practice by this chapter accepts the 190808 privilege of practicing in this state subject to supervision by 190809
the board. By filing an application for or holding a license or 190810 permit under this chapter, an individual shall be deemed to have 190811
given consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when 190812 ordered to do so by the board in writing, and to have waived all 190813
reports that constitute privileged communications. 190815

If it has reason to believe that any individual authorized to 190816
practice by this chapter or any applicant for a license or permit 190817
suffers such impairment, the board may compel the individual to 190818
submit to a mental or physical examination, or both. The expense 190819
of the examination is the responsibility of the individual 190820
compelled to be examined. Any mental or physical examination 190821 required under this division shall be undertaken by a treatment 190822 provider or physician who is qualified to conduct the examination 190823
and who is chosen by the board. 190824

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 190826
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 190827
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 190828
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 190829
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 190830
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 190831
license or permit or deny the individual's application and shall 190832

require the individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, 190833
reinstated, or renewed license or permit, to submit to treatment. 190834

or permit suspended under this division, the impaired practitioner 190836 shall demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice in 190837
compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care under 190838
the provisions of the practitioner's license or permit. The 190839
following: 190841

(1) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 190842
section 4731.25 of the Revised Code that the individual has 190843
successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 190844

contract or consent agreement; 190846

(3) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 190847
ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 190848
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 190849
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 190850
individuals or providers approved by the board for making the 190851
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 190852

The board may reinstate a license or permit suspended under 190853
this division after that demonstration and after the individual 190854
has entered into a written consent agreement. 190855

shall require continued monitoring of the individual. The 190857
monitoring shall include, but not be limited to, compliance with 190858
the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or 190859
with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, upon 190860
termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for 190861
at least two years of annual written progress reports made under 190862

sobriety. 190864

(H) If the secretary and supervising member determine both of 190865
the following, they may recommend that the board suspend an 190866
individual's license or permit without a prior hearing: 190867

(1) That there is clear and convincing evidence that an 190868
individual has violated division (A) of this section; 190869

(2) That the individual's continued practice presents a 190870
danger of immediate and serious harm to the public. 190871

Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration by 190872
the board. The board, upon review of those allegations and by an 190873 affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding 190874
the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license or 190875 permit without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call may be 190876
utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote on the 190877
summary suspension. 190878

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 190880
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 190882
of the Revised Code. If the individual subject to the summary 190883 suspension requests an adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date 190884
set for the hearing shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier 190885
than seven days, after the individual requests the hearing, unless 190886
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the individual. 190887

remain in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final 190889
adjudicative order issued by the board pursuant to this section 190890
and Chapter 119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board 190891 shall issue its final adjudicative order within seventy-five days 190892
after completion of its hearing. A failure to issue the order 190893

final adjudicative order. 190896

(I) For purposes of divisions (A)(2), (4), and (6) of this 190897
section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 190898
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 190899
the Revised Code, that the individual committed the act. The board 190900
does not have jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial 190901
court renders a final judgment in the individual's favor and that 190902
judgment is based upon an adjudication on the merits. The board 190903
has jurisdiction under those divisions if the trial court issues 190904
an order of dismissal upon technical or procedural grounds. 190905

(J) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 190906
court shall have no effect upon a prior board order entered under 190907
this section or upon the board's jurisdiction to take action under 190908
this section if, based upon a plea of guilty, a judicial finding 190909
of guilt, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 190910
lieu of conviction, the board issued a notice of opportunity for a 190911 hearing prior to the court's order to seal or expunge the records. 190912
The board shall not be required to seal, destroy, redact, or 190913
otherwise modify its records to reflect the court's sealing or 190914
expungement of conviction records. 190915

(K) If the board takes action under division (A)(1), (3), or 190916
(5) of this section, and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 190917
of conviction is overturned on appeal, upon exhaustion of the 190919
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 190920
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. 190921
Upon receipt of a petition for reconsideration and supporting 190922
court documents, the board shall reinstate the individual's 190923
license or permit. The board may then hold an adjudication under 190924
Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to determine whether the 190925
individual committed the act in question. Notice of an opportunity 190926

for a hearing shall be given in accordance with Chapter 119. of 190927
the Revised Code. If the board finds, pursuant to an adjudication 190928 held under this division, that the individual committed the act or 190929
if no hearing is requested, the board may order any of the 190930
sanctions identified under division (A) of this section. 190931

(L) The license or permit issued to an individual under this 190932
chapter and the individual's practice in this state are 190933
automatically suspended as of the date the individual pleads 190934
guilty to, is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is 190935
subject to a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 190936
lieu of conviction in this state or treatment or intervention in 190937
lieu of conviction in another jurisdiction for any of the 190938
following criminal offenses in this state or a substantially 190939
equivalent criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated 190940
murder, murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, 190941
kidnapping, rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, 190942
aggravated arson, aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. 190943
Continued practice after suspension shall be considered practicing 190944
without a license or permit. 190945

The board shall notify the individual subject to the 190946
suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 190947
section 119.07 of the Revised Code. If an individual whose license 190948
or permit is automatically suspended under this division fails to 190949
make a timely request for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 190950
the Revised Code, the board shall enter a final order permanently 190951
revoking the individual's license or permit. 190952

(M) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, 190953
all of the following apply: 190954

(1) The surrender of a license or permit issued under this 190955
chapter shall not be effective unless or until accepted by the 190956 board. A telephone conference call may be utilized for acceptance 190957
of the surrender of an individual's license or permit. The 190958

telephone conference call shall be considered a special meeting 190959
under division (F) of section 121.22 of the Revised Code. 190960

requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the 190962
board. 190963

(2) An application for a license or permit made under the 190964
of the board. 190966

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license or permit in 190967 accordance with this chapter ~~shall~~ does not remove or limit the 190968 board's jurisdiction to take any disciplinary action under this 190969
section against the individual. 190970

(4) The placement of an individual's license on retired 190971
status, as described in section 4761.062 of the Revised Code, does 190972
not remove or limit the board's jurisdiction to take any 190973
disciplinary action against the individual with regard to the 190974
license as it existed before being placed on retired status. 190975

(5) At the request of the board, a license or permit holder 190976 shall immediately surrender to the board a license or permit that 190977
the board has suspended, revoked, or permanently revoked. 190978

(C) The board shall not refuse to issue a certificate to an applicant because of a plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction for an offense unless the refusal is in accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code.

(D) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions (A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent agreement with an oriental medicine practitioner or acupuncturist or applicant to resolve an allegation of a violation of this chapter or any rule adopted under it. A consent agreement, when ratified by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the board, shall constitute the findings and order of the board with respect to the matter addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to ratify a consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained in the consent agreement shall be of no force or effect.

(E) For purposes of divisions (B)(12), (15), and (16) of this section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, that the applicant or license holder committed the act in question. The board shall have no jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court renders a final judgment in the license holder's favor and that judgment is based upon an adjudication on the merits. The board shall have jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court issues an order of dismissal upon technical or procedural grounds.

(F) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any court shall have no effect upon a prior board order entered under the provisions of this section or upon the board's jurisdiction to take action under the provisions of this section if, based upon a

of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction, the board 191264
issued a notice of opportunity for a hearing or entered into a 191265 consent agreement prior to the court's order to seal or expunge 191266
the records. The board shall not be required to seal, destroy, 191267
sealing or expungement of conviction records. 191269

(G) For purposes of this division, any individual who holds a 191270
license to practice issued under this chapter, or applies for a 191271 license to practice, shall be deemed to have given consent to 191272
submit to a mental or physical examination when directed to do so 191273
in writing by the board and to have waived all objections to the 191274
a privileged communication. 191276

(1) In enforcing division (B)(5) of this section, the board, 191277
upon a showing of a possible violation, may compel any individual 191278
who holds a license to practice issued under this chapter or who 191279 has applied for a license pursuant to this chapter to submit to a 191280 mental examination, physical examination, including an HIV test, 191281 or both a mental and physical examination. The expense of the 191282 examination is the responsibility of the individual compelled to 191283
be examined. Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination 191284
or consent to an HIV test ordered by the board constitutes an 191285
admission of the allegations against the individual unless the 191286
failure is due to circumstances beyond the individual's control, 191287
and a default and final order may be entered without the taking of 191288 testimony or presentation of evidence. If the board finds an 191289 oriental medicine practitioner or acupuncturist unable to practice 191290 because of the reasons set forth in division (B)(5) of this 191291 section, the board shall require the individual to submit to care, 191292
counseling, or treatment by physicians approved or designated by 191293
the board, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, 191294

or renewed license to practice. An individual affected by this 191295
division shall be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate to the 191296
board the ability to resume practicing in compliance with 191297
acceptable and prevailing standards of care. 191298

(2) For purposes of division (B)(6) of this section, if the 191299
board has reason to believe that any individual who holds a 191300 license to practice issued under this chapter or any applicant for 191301 a license suffers such impairment, the board may compel the 191302 individual to submit to a mental or physical examination, or both. 191303
The expense of the examination is the responsibility of the 191304 individual compelled to be examined. Any mental or physical 191305 examination required under this division shall be undertaken by a 191306
treatment provider or physician qualified to conduct such 191307
examination and chosen by the board. 191308

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 191310
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 191311
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 191312
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 191313
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 191314
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 191315
license or deny the individual's application and shall require the 191316
individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, 191317
or renewed license, to submit to treatment. 191318

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license 191319
suspended under this division, the oriental medicine practitioner 191320 or acupuncturist shall demonstrate to the board the ability to 191321
resume practice in compliance with acceptable and prevailing 191322
standards of care. The demonstration shall include the following: 191323

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 191324
section 4731.25 of the Revised Code that the individual has 191325
successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 191326

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare contract or consent agreement; 191327
191328

191330
191331
191332
191333
191334

The board may reinstate a license suspended under this division after such demonstration and after the individual has entered into a written consent agreement. 191335
191337

When the impaired individual resumes practice, the board shall require continued monitoring of the individual. The monitoring shall include monitoring of compliance with the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, upon termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for at least two years of annual written progress reports made under penalty of falsification stating whether the individual has maintained sobriety. 191338
191339
191340
191341
191342
191343
191344
191345
191346

(H) If the secretary and supervising member determine both of the following, they may recommend that the board suspend an individual's license to practice without a prior hearing: 191347
191349

191351
191352

(2) That the individual's continued practice presents a danger of immediate and serious harm to the public. 191353
191354

Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration by the board. The board, upon review of the allegations and by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding 191355
191357

the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license 191358
without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call may be 191359
utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote on the 191360
summary suspension. 191361

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 191363
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 191365
of the Revised Code. If the oriental medicine practitioner or 191366
acupuncturist requests an adjudicatory hearing by the board, the 191367
date set for the hearing shall be within fifteen days, but not 191368
earlier than seven days, after the hearing is requested, unless 191369
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the license holder. 191370

A summary suspension imposed under this division shall remain 191371
in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final adjudicative 191372
order issued by the board pursuant to this section and Chapter 191373
119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board shall issue 191374
its final adjudicative order within sixty days after completion of 191375
its hearing. Failure to issue the order within sixty days shall 191376
result in dissolution of the summary suspension order, but shall 191377
not invalidate any subsequent, final adjudicative order. 191378

(I) If the board takes action under division (B)(11), (13), 191379
or (14) of this section, and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 191380
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 191381
of conviction is overturned on appeal, upon exhaustion of the 191382
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 191383
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. 191384
Upon receipt of a petition and supporting court documents, the 191385 board shall reinstate the license. The board may then hold an 191386 adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to determine 191387
whether the individual committed the act in question. Notice of 191388 opportunity for hearing shall be given in accordance with Chapter 191389

119. of the Revised Code. If the board finds, pursuant to an 191390
adjudication held under this division, that the individual 191391
committed the act, or if no hearing is requested, it may order any 191392
of the sanctions specified in division (B) of this section. 191393

(J) The license to practice of an oriental medicine 191394
practitioner or acupuncturist and the practitioner's or 191395 acupuncturist's practice in this state are automatically suspended 191396
is found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is subject to a 191398
judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 191399
conviction in this state or treatment or intervention in lieu of 191400 conviction in another jurisdiction for any of the following 191401
criminal offenses in this state or a substantially equivalent 191402
criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated murder, 191403
murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, kidnapping, 191404
rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, aggravated arson, 191405
aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. Continued practice 191406
license. 191408

The board shall notify the individual subject to the 191409
suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 191410
section 119.07 of the Revised Code. If an individual whose license 191411
is suspended under this division fails to make a timely request 191412
for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the 191413
board shall enter a final order permanently revoking the 191414
individual's license. 191415

(K) In any instance in which the board is required by Chapter 191416
119. of the Revised Code to give notice of opportunity for hearing 191417
and the individual subject to the notice does not timely request a 191418
hearing in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the 191419
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 191421

order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the 191422
board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) 191423
or (B) of this section. 191424

(L) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this 191425
section resulting in a suspension shall be accompanied by a 191426 written statement of the conditions under which the license may be 191427 reinstated. The board shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 191428 119. of the Revised Code governing conditions to be imposed for 191429
reinstatement. Reinstatement of a license suspended pursuant to 191430
division (B) of this section requires an affirmative vote of not 191431
fewer than six members of the board. 191432

(M) When the board refuses to grant or issue a license to an 191433
applicant, revokes an individual's license, refuses to renew an 191434 individual's license, or refuses to reinstate an individual's 191435 license, the board may specify that its action is permanent. An 191436 individual subject to a permanent action taken by the board is 191437
forever thereafter ineligible to hold a license to practice as an 191438
oriental medicine practitioner or license to practice as an 191439
acupuncturist and the board shall not accept an application for 191440
reinstatement of the license or for issuance of a new license. 191441

(N) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, 191442
all of the following apply: 191443

(1) The surrender of a license to practice as an oriental 191444
medicine practitioner or license to practice as an acupuncturist 191445 issued under this chapter is not effective unless or until 191446 accepted by the board. Reinstatement of a license surrendered to 191447
members of the board. 191449

(2) An application made under this chapter for a license may 191450
not be withdrawn without approval of the board. 191451

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license in accordance 191452

with section 4762.06 of the Revised Code ~~shall~~ does not remove or 191453
limit the board's jurisdiction to take disciplinary action under 191454
this section against the individual. 191455

(4) The placement of an individual's license on retired 191456
status, as described in section 4762.062 of the Revised Code, does 191457
not remove or limit the board's jurisdiction to take any 191458
disciplinary action against the individual with regard to the 191459
license as it existed before being placed on retired status. 191460

Sec. 4774.061. (A) This section applies to ~~both~~ all of the 191461
following: 191462

(1) An applicant seeking restoration of a license issued 191463
under this chapter that has been in a suspended or inactive state 191464
for any cause for more than two years; 191465

(2) An applicant seeking issuance of a license pursuant to 191466
this chapter who for more than two years has not been practicing 191467 as a radiologist assistant as either of the following: 191468

(b) A student in an academic program as described in section 191470
4774.03 of the Revised Code. 191471

(3) An applicant seeking to reactivate a license placed on 191472
retired status. 191473

(B) Before issuing a license to an applicant subject to this 191474 section, or before restoring a license to good standing or 191475
reactivating a license placed on retired status for an applicant 191476
subject to this section, the state medical board may impose terms 191477
and conditions including any one or more of the following: 191478

(1) Requiring the applicant to pass an oral or written 191479
examination, or both, to determine the applicant's present fitness 191480
to resume practice; 191481

(2) Requiring the applicant to obtain additional training and 191482
to pass an examination upon completion of such training; 191483

(3) Requiring an assessment of the applicant's physical 191484
skills for purposes of determining whether the applicant's 191485
coordination, fine motor skills, and dexterity are sufficient for 191486 performing evaluations and procedures in a manner that meets the 191487
minimal standards of care; 191488

(4) Requiring an assessment of the applicant's skills in 191489
recognizing and understanding diseases and conditions; 191490

(5) Requiring the applicant to undergo a comprehensive 191491
abilities, evaluation of sensory capabilities, or screening for 191493
the presence of neurological disorders; 191494

practice of the applicant. 191496

activities of the applicant during the period of suspension ~~or~~ 191498 inactivity, or retirement. The board shall not issue ~~or~~ restore, 191499 or reactivate a license under this section unless the applicant 191500
complies with sections 4776.01 to 4776.04 of the Revised Code. 191501

Sec. 4774.062. (A) An individual who holds a current, valid 191502 license issued under this chapter to practice as a radiologist 191503 assistant and who retires voluntarily from practice may request 191504 that the state medical board place the individual's license on 191505
retired status. 191506

(B) An individual seeking to have the individual's license 191507 placed on retired status shall file with the board an application 191508

191520

(c) That the applicant does not have any criminal charges pending against the applicant; 191521
191522

(d) That the applicant is not the subject of discipline by, or an investigation pending with, a regulatory agency of this state, another state, or the United States; 191523

191538

191540
191541

remains on retired status for the life of the license holder, 191542
unless suspended, revoked, or reactivated, and does not require 191543
renewal. 191544

(D) During the period in which a license is on retired 191545 status, all of the following apply: 191546

(1) The license holder is prohibited from practicing as a 191547

(3) The license holder is not required to complete the 191553 continuing education described in section 4774.06 of the Revised 191554
Code. 191555

(4) The license holder may use a title authorized for the 191556

Code, but only if "retired" also is included in the title. 191558

(E) If a license has been placed on retired status pursuant 191559 to this section, it may be reactivated. Subject to section 191560 4774.061 of the Revised Code, the board may reactivate a license 191561 placed on retired status if all of the following conditions are 191562
satisfied: 191563

(1) The individual seeking to reactivate the license applies 191564 to the board in the form and manner prescribed by the board. 191565

(2) The applicant certifies completion of, within the 191566

to the sum of the biennial renewal fee and restoration penalty 191573 described in section 4774.06 of the Revised Code. 191574

The board shall not consider an application to reactivate a 191575 license complete until the board receives the fee described in 191576 this division. On receipt of a fee, the board shall deposit the 191577 fee in accordance with section 4731.24 of the Revised Code. 191578

(F) The board shall reactivate a license placed on retired 191579 status if the conditions of division (E) of this section have been 191580 satisfied and the board, in its discretion, determines that the 191581 results of the criminal records check conducted pursuant to 191582 sections 4776.01 to 4776.04 of the Revised Code do not make the 191583 applicant ineligible for active status. 191584

(G) The board may take disciplinary action against an 191585 applicant who is seeking to place a license on retired status or 191586 to reactivate the license if the applicant commits fraud, 191587 misrepresentation, or deception in applying for or securing the 191588 retired status or reactivation. 191589

The board also may take disciplinary action against the 191590 holder of a license placed on retired status if the holder 191591

accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 191715

(D) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions 191716
(A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an 191717
adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 191718
in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent 191719
agreement with a radiologist assistant or applicant to resolve an 191720
allegation of a violation of this chapter or any rule adopted 191721
under it. A consent agreement, when ratified by an affirmative 191722 vote of not fewer than six members of the board, shall constitute 191723

the findings and order of the board with respect to the matter 191724
addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to ratify a 191725 consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained in the 191726
consent agreement shall be of no force or effect. 191727

(E) For purposes of divisions (B)(11), (14), and (15) of this 191728
section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 191729
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 191730
the Revised Code, that the applicant or license holder committed 191731
the act in question. The board shall have no jurisdiction under 191732 these divisions in cases where the trial court renders a final 191733 judgment in the license holder's favor and that judgment is based 191734
upon an adjudication on the merits. The board shall have 191735 jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court 191736 issues an order of dismissal on technical or procedural grounds. 191737

(F) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 191738
court shall have no effect on a prior board order entered under 191739
take action under the provisions of this section if, based upon a 191741
plea of guilty, a judicial finding of guilt, or a judicial finding 191742
of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction, the board 191743
issued a notice of opportunity for a hearing prior to the court's 191744
order to seal or expunge the records. The board shall not be 191745
required to seal, destroy, redact, or otherwise modify its records 191746
records. 191748

(G) For purposes of this division, any individual who holds a 191749
license to practice as a radiologist assistant issued under this 191750 chapter, or applies for a license, shall be deemed to have given 191751
consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when 191752 directed to do so in writing by the board and to have waived all 191753
objections to the admissibility of testimony or examination 191754
reports that constitute a privileged communication. 191755

(1) In enforcing division (B)(5) of this section, the board, 191756
on a showing of a possible violation, may compel any individual 191757 who holds a license to practice as a radiologist assistant issued 191758 under this chapter or who has applied for a license to submit to a 191759 mental or physical examination, or both. A physical examination 191760 may include an HIV test. The expense of the examination is the 191761 responsibility of the individual compelled to be examined. Failure 191762
to submit to a mental or physical examination or consent to an HIV 191763
test ordered by the board constitutes an admission of the 191764
allegations against the individual unless the failure is due to 191765 circumstances beyond the individual's control, and a default and 191766
final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or 191767 presentation of evidence. If the board finds a radiologist 191768 assistant unable to practice because of the reasons set forth in 191769 division (B)(5) of this section, the board shall require the 191770 radiologist assistant to submit to care, counseling, or treatment 191771
by physicians approved or designated by the board, as a condition 191772 for an initial, continued, reinstated, or renewed license. An 191773 individual affected by this division shall be afforded an 191774 opportunity to demonstrate to the board the ability to resume 191775
of care. 191777

(2) For purposes of division (B)(6) of this section, if the 191778
board has reason to believe that any individual who holds a 191779 license to practice as a radiologist assistant issued under this 191780
chapter or any applicant for a license suffers such impairment, 191781 the board may compel the individual to submit to a mental or 191782 physical examination, or both. The expense of the examination is 191783 the responsibility of the individual compelled to be examined. Any 191784 mental or physical examination required under this division shall 191785
be undertaken by a treatment provider or physician qualified to 191786 conduct such examination and chosen by the board. 191787

by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 191789
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 191790
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 191791
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 191792
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 191793
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 191794
license or deny the individual's application and shall require the 191795
individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, 191796
or renewed license to practice, to submit to treatment. 191797

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license 191798 suspended under this division, the radiologist assistant shall 191799 demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice in 191800
compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care. The 191801 demonstration shall include the following: 191802

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 191803
section 4731.25 of the Revised Code that the individual has 191804
successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 191805

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 191806
contract or consent agreement; 191807

(c) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 191808
ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 191809
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 191810
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 191811
individuals or providers approved by the board for making such 191812
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 191813

The board may reinstate a license suspended under this 191814
division after such demonstration and after the individual has 191815
entered into a written consent agreement. 191816

When the impaired radiologist assistant resumes practice, the 191817
board shall require continued monitoring of the radiologist 191818

assistant. The monitoring shall include monitoring of compliance 191819
with the written consent agreement entered into before 191820
reinstatement or with conditions imposed by board order after a 191821
hearing, and, on termination of the consent agreement, submission 191822 to the board for at least two years of annual written progress 191823
reports made under penalty of falsification stating whether the 191824
radiologist assistant has maintained sobriety. 191825

(H) If the secretary and supervising member determine that 191826
there is clear and convincing evidence that a radiologist 191827
assistant has violated division (B) of this section and that the 191828 individual's continued practice presents a danger of immediate and 191829 serious harm to the public, they may recommend that the board 191830
suspend the individual's license to practice without a prior 191831
by the board. 191833

The board, on review of the allegations and by an affirmative 191834 vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding the secretary 191835
and supervising member, may suspend a license without a prior 191836
hearing. A telephone conference call may be utilized for reviewing 191837
the allegations and taking the vote on the summary suspension. 191838

certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of 191840
the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 191842
of the Revised Code. If the radiologist assistant requests an 191843
adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date set for the hearing 191844
shall be within fifteen days, but not earlier than seven days, 191845
after the radiologist assistant requests the hearing, unless 191846
otherwise agreed to by both the board and the license holder. 191847

A summary suspension imposed under this division shall remain 191848
in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final adjudicative 191849
order issued by the board pursuant to this section and Chapter 191850

119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board shall issue 191851
its final adjudicative order within sixty days after completion of 191852
its hearing. Failure to issue the order within sixty days shall 191853
result in dissolution of the summary suspension order, but shall 191854
not invalidate any subsequent, final adjudicative order. 191855

(I) If the board takes action under division (B)(10), (12), 191856
or (13) of this section, and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 191857
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 191858
of conviction is overturned on appeal, on exhaustion of the 191859
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 191860
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. On 191861 receipt of a petition and supporting court documents, the board 191862
shall reinstate the license to practice as a radiologist 191863
assistant. The board may then hold an adjudication under Chapter 191864 119. of the Revised Code to determine whether the individual 191865 committed the act in question. Notice of opportunity for hearing 191866 shall be given in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised 191867
Code. If the board finds, pursuant to an adjudication held under 191868
this division, that the individual committed the act, or if no 191869 hearing is requested, it may order any of the sanctions specified 191870
in division (B) of this section. 191871

(J) The license to practice of a radiologist assistant and 191872
the assistant's practice in this state are automatically suspended 191873
as of the date the radiologist assistant pleads guilty to, is 191874
found by a judge or jury to be guilty of, or is subject to a 191875
judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu of 191876
conviction in this state or treatment of intervention in lieu of 191877 conviction in another jurisdiction for any of the following 191878
criminal offenses in this state or a substantially equivalent 191879
criminal offense in another jurisdiction: aggravated murder, 191880
murder, voluntary manslaughter, felonious assault, kidnapping, 191881
rape, sexual battery, gross sexual imposition, aggravated arson, 191882

aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary. Continued practice 191883
after the suspension shall be considered practicing without a 191884
license. 191885

The board shall notify the individual subject to the 191886
suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 191887
section 119.07 of the Revised Code. If an individual whose license 191888
is suspended under this division fails to make a timely request 191889
for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the 191890
board shall enter a final order permanently revoking the 191891
individual's license. 191892

(K) In any instance in which the board is required by Chapter 191893
119. of the Revised Code to give notice of opportunity for hearing 191894
and the individual subject to the notice does not timely request a 191895
hearing in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the 191896
board is not required to hold a hearing, but may adopt, by an 191897
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 191898
order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the 191899
board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) 191900
or (B) of this section. 191901

(L) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this 191902
section resulting in a suspension shall be accompanied by a 191903
written statement of the conditions under which the radiologist 191904
assistant's license may be reinstated. The board shall adopt rules 191905 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing 191906 conditions to be imposed for reinstatement. Reinstatement of a 191907
license suspended pursuant to division (B) of this section 191908
requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the 191909
board. 191910

(M) When the board refuses to grant or issue a license to 191911
practice as a radiologist assistant to an applicant, revokes an 191912
individual's license, refuses to renew an individual's license, or 191913
refuses to reinstate an individual's license, the board may 191914

specify that its action is permanent. An individual subject to a 191915
permanent action taken by the board is forever thereafter 191916
ineligible to hold a license to practice as a radiologist 191917
assistant and the board shall not accept an application for 191918
reinstatement of the license or for issuance of a new license. 191919

(N) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, 191920
all of the following apply: 191921

(1) The surrender of a license to practice as a radiologist 191922
assistant issued under this chapter is not effective unless or 191923
until accepted by the board. Reinstatement of a license 191924 surrendered to the board requires an affirmative vote of not fewer 191925 than six members of the board. 191926

(2) An application made under this chapter for a license to 191927
practice may not be withdrawn without approval of the board. 191928

(3) Failure by an individual to renew a license to practice 191929
in accordance with section 4774.06 of the Revised Code ~~shall~~ does 191930 not remove or limit the board's jurisdiction to take disciplinary 191931 action under this section against the individual. 191932

(4) The placement of an individual's license on retired 191933
status, as described in section 4774.062 of the Revised Code, does 191934
not remove or limit the board's jurisdiction to take any 191935
disciplinary action against the individual with regard to the 191936
license as it existed before being placed on retired status. 191937

Sec. 4778.06. (A) An individual seeking to renew a license to 191938 practice as a genetic counselor shall, on or before the license's 191939 expiration date, apply to the state medical board for renewal. The 191940 board shall provide renewal notices to license holders at least 191941 one month prior to the expiration date. 191942

Renewal applications shall be submitted to the board in a 191943 manner prescribed by the board. Each application shall be 191944 accompanied by a biennial renewal fee of one hundred fifty 191945 dollars. 191946

The applicant shall report any criminal offense to which the 191947 applicant has pleaded guilty, of which the applicant has been 191948 found guilty, or for which the applicant has been found eligible 191949 for intervention in lieu of conviction, since last signing an 191950 application for a license to practice as a genetic counselor. 191951

(B) To be eligible for renewal, a genetic counselor shall 191952 certify to the board that the counselor has done both of the 191953
following: 191954

(1) Maintained the counselor's status as a certified genetic 191955 counselor; 191956

(2) Completed at least thirty hours of continuing education 191957 in genetic counseling that has been approved by the national 191958 society of genetic counselors or American board of genetic 191959 counseling. 191960

(C) If an applicant submits a renewal application that the 191961 board considers to be complete and qualifies for renewal pursuant 191962 to division (B) of this section, the board shall issue to the 191963 applicant a renewed license to practice as a genetic counselor. 191964

(D) The board may require a random sample of genetic 191965 counselors to submit materials documenting that their status as 191966 certified genetic counselors has been maintained and that the 191967 number of hours of continuing education required under division 191968 (B)(2) of this section has been completed. This division does not 191969 limit the board's authority to conduct investigations pursuant to 191970
section 4778.14 of the Revised Code. 191971

(E)(1) If, through a random sample conducted under division 191972
(D) of this section or through any other means, the board finds 191973 that an individual who certified completion of the number of hours 191974 and type of continuing education required to renew, reinstate, ~~or~~ 191975 restore, or reactivate a license to practice did not complete the 191976 requisite continuing education, the board may do either of the 191977

following: 191978

(a) Take disciplinary action against the individual under 191979 section 4778.14 of the Revised Code, impose a civil penalty, or 191980 both; 191981

(b) Permit the individual to agree in writing to complete the 191982 continuing education and pay a civil penalty. 191983

(2) The board's finding in any disciplinary action taken 191984 under division (E)(1)(a) of this section shall be made pursuant to 191985 an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code and by an 191986 affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members. 191987

(3) A civil penalty imposed under division (E)(1)(a) of this 191988 section or paid under division (E)(1)(b) of this section shall be 191989 in an amount specified by the board of not more than five thousand 191990 dollars. The board shall deposit civil penalties in accordance 191991 with section 4731.24 of the Revised Code. 191992

placed on retired status if all of the following conditions are 192094
satisfied: 192095

(1) The individual seeking to reactivate the license applies 192096
to the board in the form and manner prescribed by the board. 192097

(2) The applicant certifies completion of, within the 192098
two-year period that ends on the date of the application's 192099 submission, the continuing education requirements for renewal of a 192100 license to practice. 192101

(3) The applicant complies with sections 4776.01 to 4776.04 192102
of the Revised Code. 192103

(4) The applicant pays a reactivation fee in an amount equal 192104 to the sum of the biennial renewal fee and restoration penalty 192105
described in section 4778.07 of the Revised Code. 192106

The board shall not consider an application to reactivate a 192107 license complete until the board receives the fee described in 192108
this division. On receipt of a fee, the board shall deposit the 192109
fee in accordance with section 4731.24 of the Revised Code. 192110

(F) The board shall reactivate a license placed on retired 192111
status if the conditions of division (E) of this section have been 192112 satisfied and the board, in its discretion, determines that the 192113
results of the criminal records check conducted pursuant to 192114 sections 4776.01 to 4776.04 of the Revised Code do not make the 192115
applicant ineligible for active status. 192116

(G) The board may take disciplinary action against an 192117
applicant who is seeking to place a license on retired status or 192118
to reactivate the license if the applicant commits fraud, 192119
misrepresentation, or deception in applying for or securing the 192120
retired status or reactivation. 192121

The board also may take disciplinary action against the 192122
holder of a license placed on retired status if the holder 192123 practices under the license, uses the license to obtain licensure 192124 as a genetic counselor in another state, or uses a title that does 192125 not reflect the holder's retired status. 192126

In taking disciplinary action under this section, the board 192127 may impose on the applicant or holder any sanction described in 192128 section 4778.14 of the Revised Code, but shall do so in accordance 192129
with the procedures described in that section. 192130

(H) The board may adopt rules to implement and enforce this 192131
section. The rules shall be adopted in accordance with Chapter 192132
119. of the Revised Code. 192133

Sec. 4778.14. (A) The state medical board, by an affirmative 192134
vote of not fewer than six members, ~~may revoke or~~ may refuse to 192135 grant a license to practice as a genetic counselor to, or may 192136 revoke the license held by, an individual found by the board to 192137 have committed fraud, misrepresentation, or deception in applying 192138 for or securing the license. 192139

(B) The board, by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six 192140 members, shall, except as provided in division (C) of this 192141 section, and to the extent permitted by law, limit, revoke, or 192142 suspend an individual's license to practice as a genetic 192143 counselor, refuse to issue a license to an applicant, refuse to 192144 renew a license, refuse to reinstate a license, or reprimand or 192145 place on probation the holder of a license for any of the 192146 following reasons: 192147

(1) Permitting the holder's name or license to be used by 192148 another person; 192149

(2) Failure to comply with the requirements of this chapter, 192150
Chapter 4731. of the Revised Code, or any rules adopted by the 192151
board; 192152

(3) Violating or attempting to violate, directly or 192153 indirectly, or assisting in or abetting the violation of, or 192154

4731. of the Revised Code, or the rules adopted by the board; 192156

(4) A departure from, or failure to conform to, minimal 192157 similar circumstances whether or not actual injury to the patient 192159

is established; 192160

(5) Inability to practice according to acceptable and 192161 prevailing standards of care by reason of mental illness or 192162 physical illness, including physical deterioration that adversely 192163 affects cognitive, motor, or perceptive skills; 192164

(6) Impairment of ability to practice according to acceptable 192165 and prevailing standards of care because of habitual or excessive 192166 use or abuse of drugs, alcohol, or other substances that impair 192167 ability to practice; 192168

(7) Willfully betraying a professional confidence; 192169

(8) Making a false, fraudulent, deceptive, or misleading 192170 statement in securing or attempting to secure a license to 192171 practice as a genetic counselor. 192172

As used in this division, "false, fraudulent, deceptive, or 192173
misleading statement" means a statement that includes a 192174
misrepresentation of fact, is likely to mislead or deceive because 192175
of a failure to disclose material facts, is intended or is likely 192176
to create false or unjustified expectations of favorable results, 192177

misunderstand or be deceived. 192180

(18) Violation of the conditions placed by the board on a 192216 license to practice as a genetic counselor; 192217

(19) Failure to cooperate in an investigation conducted by 192218
the board under section 4778.18 of the Revised Code, including 192219
failure to comply with a subpoena or order issued by the board or 192220
failure to answer truthfully a question presented by the board at 192221
a deposition or in written interrogatories, except that failure to 192222
cooperate with an investigation shall not constitute grounds for 192223
discipline under this section if a court of competent jurisdiction 192224 has issued an order that either quashes a subpoena or permits the 192225
individual to withhold the testimony or evidence in issue; 192226

(20) Failure to maintain the individual's status as a 192227 certified genetic counselor; 192228

(21) Failure to comply with the code of ethics established by 192229 the national society of genetic counselors. 192230

(C) The board shall not refuse to issue a license to an 192231
applicant because of a plea of guilty to, a judicial finding of 192232
guilt of, or a judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in 192233
lieu of conviction for an offense unless the refusal is in 192234
accordance with section 9.79 of the Revised Code. 192235

(D) Disciplinary actions taken by the board under divisions 192236
(A) and (B) of this section shall be taken pursuant to an 192237
adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, except that 192238
in lieu of an adjudication, the board may enter into a consent 192239 agreement with a genetic counselor or applicant to resolve an 192240 allegation of a violation of this chapter or any rule adopted 192241
under it. A consent agreement, when ratified by an affirmative 192242 vote of not fewer than six members of the board, shall constitute 192243
the findings and order of the board with respect to the matter 192244
addressed in the agreement. If the board refuses to ratify a 192245

consent agreement, the admissions and findings contained in the 192246
consent agreement shall be of no force or effect. 192247

of a consent agreement that revokes or suspends an individual's 192249
license. The telephone conference call shall be considered a 192250 special meeting under division (F) of section 121.22 of the 192251
Revised Code. 192252

(E) For purposes of divisions (B)(11), (14), and (15) of this 192253
section, the commission of the act may be established by a finding 192254
by the board, pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 192255
the Revised Code, that the applicant or license holder committed 192256
the act in question. The board shall have no jurisdiction under 192257
these divisions in cases where the trial court renders a final 192258
judgment in the license holder's favor and that judgment is based 192259
upon an adjudication on the merits. The board shall have 192260
jurisdiction under these divisions in cases where the trial court 192261 issues an order of dismissal on technical or procedural grounds. 192262

(F) The sealing or expungement of conviction records by any 192263
court shall have no effect on a prior board order entered under 192264
the provisions of this section or on the board's jurisdiction to 192265
take action under the provisions of this section if, based upon a 192266
plea of guilty, a judicial finding of guilt, or a judicial finding 192267
of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction, the board 192268
issued a notice of opportunity for a hearing or took other formal 192269 action under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code prior to the court's 192270
order to seal or expunge the records. The board shall not be 192271
required to seal, destroy, redact, or otherwise modify its records 192272
records. 192274

(G) For purposes of this division, any individual who holds a 192275 license to practice as a genetic counselor, or applies for a 192276
license, shall be deemed to have given consent to submit to a 192277

mental or physical examination when directed to do so in writing 192278
by the board and to have waived all objections to the 192279
a privileged communication. 192281

(1) In enforcing division (B)(5) of this section, the board, 192282
on a showing of a possible violation, may compel any individual 192283
who holds a license to practice as a genetic counselor or who has 192284
applied for a license to practice as a genetic counselor to submit 192285 to a mental or physical examination, or both. A physical 192286 examination may include an HIV test. The expense of the 192287
examination is the responsibility of the individual compelled to 192288
be examined. Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination 192289
or consent to an HIV test ordered by the board constitutes an 192290
admission of the allegations against the individual unless the 192291
failure is due to circumstances beyond the individual's control, 192292
and a default and final order may be entered without the taking of 192293
testimony or presentation of evidence. If the board finds a 192294 genetic counselor unable to practice because of the reasons set 192295
forth in division (B)(5) of this section, the board shall require 192296
the genetic counselor to submit to care, counseling, or treatment 192297
by physicians approved or designated by the board, as a condition 192298
for an initial, continued, reinstated, or renewed license to 192299
practice. An individual affected by this division shall be 192300 afforded an opportunity to demonstrate to the board the ability to 192301
resume practicing in compliance with acceptable and prevailing 192302
standards of care. 192303

(2) For purposes of division (B)(6) of this section, if the 192304
board has reason to believe that any individual who holds a 192305 license to practice as a genetic counselor or any applicant for a 192306 license suffers such impairment, the board may compel the 192307 individual to submit to a mental or physical examination, or both. 192308
The expense of the examination is the responsibility of the 192309

individual compelled to be examined. Any mental or physical 192310
examination required under this division shall be undertaken by a 192311
treatment provider or physician qualified to conduct such 192312
examination and chosen by the board. 192313

Failure to submit to a mental or physical examination ordered 192314
by the board constitutes an admission of the allegations against 192315
the individual unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond 192316
the individual's control, and a default and final order may be 192317
entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of 192318
evidence. If the board determines that the individual's ability to 192319
practice is impaired, the board shall suspend the individual's 192320
license or deny the individual's application and shall require the 192321
individual, as a condition for an initial, continued, reinstated, 192322
or renewed license, to submit to treatment. 192323

Before being eligible to apply for reinstatement of a license 192324
suspended under this division, the genetic counselor shall 192325
demonstrate to the board the ability to resume practice in 192326
compliance with acceptable and prevailing standards of care. The 192327 demonstration shall include the following: 192328

(a) Certification from a treatment provider approved under 192329
section 4731.25 of the Revised Code that the individual has 192330
successfully completed any required inpatient treatment; 192331

(b) Evidence of continuing full compliance with an aftercare 192332
contract or consent agreement; 192333

(c) Two written reports indicating that the individual's 192334
ability to practice has been assessed and that the individual has 192335
been found capable of practicing according to acceptable and 192336
prevailing standards of care. The reports shall be made by 192337
individuals or providers approved by the board for making such 192338
assessments and shall describe the basis for their determination. 192339

The board may reinstate a license suspended under this 192340

division after such demonstration and after the individual has entered into a written consent agreement.

When the impaired genetic counselor resumes practice, the board shall require continued monitoring of the genetic counselor. The monitoring shall include monitoring of compliance with the written consent agreement entered into before reinstatement or with conditions imposed by board order after a hearing, and, on termination of the consent agreement, submission to the board for at least two years of annual written progress reports made under penalty of falsification stating whether the genetic counselor has maintained sobriety.

(H) If the secretary and supervising member determine both of the following, they may recommend that the board suspend an individual's license to practice without a prior hearing:

(1) That there is clear and convincing evidence that a genetic counselor has violated division (B) of this section;

(2) That the individual's continued practice presents a danger of immediate and serious harm to the public.

Written allegations shall be prepared for consideration by the board. The board, on review of the allegations and by an affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, excluding the secretary and supervising member, may suspend a license without a prior hearing. A telephone conference call may be utilized for reviewing the allegations and taking the vote on the summary suspension.

The board shall issue a written order of suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code. The order shall not be subject to suspension by the court during pendency of any appeal filed under section 119.12 of the Revised Code. If the genetic counselor requests an adjudicatory hearing by the board, the date set for the hearing

after the genetic counselor requests the hearing, unless otherwise 192373
agreed to by both the board and the genetic counselor. 192374

A summary suspension imposed under this division shall remain 192375
in effect, unless reversed on appeal, until a final adjudicative 192376
order issued by the board pursuant to this section and Chapter 192377
119. of the Revised Code becomes effective. The board shall issue 192378
its final adjudicative order within sixty days after completion of 192379
its hearing. Failure to issue the order within sixty days shall 192380
result in dissolution of the summary suspension order, but shall 192381
not invalidate any subsequent, final adjudicative order. 192382

(I) If the board takes action under division (B)(10), (12), 192383
or (13) of this section, and the judicial finding of guilt, guilty 192384
plea, or judicial finding of eligibility for intervention in lieu 192385
of conviction is overturned on appeal, on exhaustion of the 192386
criminal appeal, a petition for reconsideration of the order may 192387
be filed with the board along with appropriate court documents. On 192388
receipt of a petition and supporting court documents, the board 192389 shall reinstate the license to practice as a genetic counselor. 192390
The board may then hold an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the 192391
Revised Code to determine whether the individual committed the act 192392
in question. Notice of opportunity for hearing shall be given in 192393 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. If the board 192394
finds, pursuant to an adjudication held under this division, that 192395
the individual committed the act, or if no hearing is requested, 192396
this section. 192398

(J) The license to practice as a genetic counselor and the 192399
counselor's practice in this state are automatically suspended as 192400
of the date the genetic counselor pleads guilty to, is found by a 192401
judge or jury to be guilty of, or is subject to a judicial finding 192402
of eligibility for intervention in lieu of conviction in this 192403

another jurisdiction for any of the following criminal offenses in 192405
another jurisdiction: aggravated murder, murder, voluntary 192407
manslaughter, felonious assault, kidnapping, rape, sexual battery, 192408
gross sexual imposition, aggravated arson, aggravated robbery, or 192409
aggravated burglary. Continued practice after the suspension shall 192410 be considered practicing without a license. 192411

suspension by certified mail or in person in accordance with 192413
is suspended under this division fails to make a timely request 192415
for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the 192416
board shall enter a final order permanently revoking the 192417
individual's license to practice. 192418

(K) In any instance in which the board is required by Chapter 192419
119. of the Revised Code to give notice of opportunity for hearing 192420
and the individual subject to the notice does not timely request a 192421
hearing in accordance with section 119.07 of the Revised Code, the 192422
board is not required to hold a hearing, but may adopt, by an 192423
affirmative vote of not fewer than six of its members, a final 192424
order that contains the board's findings. In the final order, the 192425
board may order any of the sanctions identified under division (A) 192426
or (B) of this section. 192427

(L) Any action taken by the board under division (B) of this 192428
section resulting in a suspension shall be accompanied by a 192429
written statement of the conditions under which the license of the 192430 genetic counselor may be reinstated. The board shall adopt rules 192431
in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing 192432 conditions to be imposed for reinstatement. Reinstatement of a 192433 license suspended pursuant to division (B) of this section 192434
requires an affirmative vote of not fewer than six members of the 192435

board. 192436

(M) When the board refuses to grant or issue a license to 192437
practice as a genetic counselor to an applicant, revokes an 192438 individual's license, refuses to renew an individual's license, or 192439
refuses to reinstate an individual's license, the board may 192440
specify that its action is permanent. An individual subject to a 192441
permanent action taken by the board is forever thereafter 192442
ineligible to hold a license to practice as a genetic counselor 192443
and the board shall not accept an application for reinstatement of 192444
the license or for issuance of a new license. 192445

(N) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, 192446
all of the following apply: 192447

(1) The surrender of a license to practice as a genetic 192448
counselor is not effective unless or until accepted by the board. 192449
A telephone conference call may be utilized for acceptance of the 192450 surrender of an individual's license. The telephone conference 192451
call shall be considered a special meeting under division (F) of 192452
section 121.22 of the Revised Code. Reinstatement of a license 192453 surrendered to the board requires an affirmative vote of not fewer 192454
than six members of the board. 192455

action against the holder exist under section 4759.07 of the 192585
Revised Code. 192586

Section 130.93. That the existing version of section 4759.06 192587

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the public members of a county council are not prohibited from serving on the council and making decisions regarding the duties of the council, including those involving the funding of joint projects and those outlined in the county's service coordination mechanism implemented pursuant to division (C) of this section.

The cabinet council shall establish a state appeals process to resolve disputes among the members of a county council concerning whether reasonable responsibilities as members are being shared. The appeals process may be accessed only by a majority vote of the council members who are required to serve on the council. Upon appeal, the cabinet council may order that state funds for services to children and families be redirected to a county's board of county commissioners.

The county's juvenile court judge senior in service or another judge of the juvenile court designated by the administrative judge or, where there is no administrative judge, by the judge senior in service shall serve as the judicial advisor to the county family and children first council. The judge may advise the county council on the court's utilization of resources, services, or programs provided by the entities represented by the members of the county council and how those resources, services, or programs assist the court in its administration of justice. Service of a judge as a judicial advisor pursuant to this section is a judicial function.

(2) The purpose of the county council is to streamline and coordinate existing government services for families seeking services for their children. In seeking to fulfill its purpose, a county council shall provide for the following:

(a) Referrals to the cabinet council of those children for whom the county council cannot provide adequate services;

(b) Development and implementation of a process that annually evaluates and prioritizes services, fills service gaps where possible, and invents new approaches to achieve better results for families and children;

(c) Participation in the development of a countywide, comprehensive, coordinated, multi-disciplinary, interagency system for infants and toddlers with developmental disabilities or delays and their families, as established pursuant to federal grants received and administered by the department of health for early intervention services under the "Individuals with Disabilities Education Act of 2004";

(d) Maintenance of an accountability system to monitor the county council's progress in achieving results for families and children;

(e) Establishment of a mechanism to ensure ongoing input from a broad representation of families who are receiving services within the county system.

(3) A county council shall develop and implement the following:

(a) An interagency process to establish local indicators and monitor the county's progress toward increasing child well-being in the county;

(b) An interagency process to identify local priorities to increase child well-being. The local priorities shall focus on expectant parents and newborns thriving; infants and toddlers thriving; children being ready for school; children and youth succeeding in school; youth choosing healthy behaviors; and youth successfully transitioning into adulthood and take into account the indicators established by the cabinet council under division (A)(4)(a) of this section.

(c) An annual plan that identifies the county's interagency efforts to increase child well-being in the county. 195148

On an annual basis, the county council shall submit a report 195149 on the status of efforts by the county to increase child 195150 well-being in the county to the county's board of county 195151 commissioners and the cabinet council. This report shall be made 195152 available to any other person on request. 195153

(4)(a) Except as provided in division (B)(4)(b) of this 195154 section, a county council shall comply with the policies, 195155 procedures, and activities prescribed by the rules or interagency 195156 agreements of a state department participating on the cabinet 195157 council whenever the county council performs a function subject to 195158 those rules or agreements. 195159

(b) On application of a county council, the cabinet council 195160 may grant an exemption from any rules or interagency agreements of 195161 a state department participating on the council if an exemption is 195162 necessary for the council to implement an alternative program or 195163 approach for service delivery to families and children. The 195164 application shall describe the proposed program or approach and 195165 specify the rules or interagency agreements from which an 195166 exemption is necessary. The cabinet council shall approve or 195167 disapprove the application in accordance with standards and 195168 procedures it shall adopt. If an application is approved, the 195169 exemption is effective only while the program or approach is being 195170 implemented, including a reasonable period during which the 195171 program or approach is being evaluated for effectiveness. 195172

(5)(a) Each county council shall designate an administrative 195173 agent for the council from among the following public entities: 195174 the board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services, 195175 including a board of alcohol and drug addiction or a community 195176 mental health board if the county is served by separate boards; 195177 the board of county commissioners; any board of health of the 195178 county's city and general health districts; the county department 195179 of job and family services; the county agency responsible for the 195180 administration of children services pursuant to section 5153.15 of 195181 the Revised Code; the county board of developmental disabilities; 195182 any of the county's boards of education or governing boards of 195183 educational service centers; or the county's juvenile court. Any 195184 of the foregoing public entities, other than the board of county 195185 commissioners, may decline to serve as the council's 195186 administrative agent. 195187

A county council's administrative agent shall serve as the 195188 council's appointing authority for any employees of the council. 195189
The council shall file an annual budget with its administrative 195190 agent, with copies filed with the county auditor and with the 195191 board of county commissioners, unless the board is serving as the 195192 council's administrative agent. The council's administrative agent 195193 shall ensure that all expenditures are handled in accordance with 195194 policies, procedures, and activities prescribed by state 195195 departments in rules or interagency agreements that are applicable 195196 to the council's functions. 195197

The administrative agent of a county council shall send 195198 notice of a member's absence if a member listed in division (B)(1) 195199 of this section has been absent from either three consecutive 195200 meetings of the county council or a county council subcommittee, 195201 or from one-quarter of such meetings in a calendar year, whichever 195202 is less. The notice shall be sent to the board of county 195203 commissioners that establishes the county council and, for the 195204 members listed in divisions (B)(1)(b), (c), (e), and (l) of this 195205 section, to the governing board overseeing the respective entity; 195206 for the member listed in division (B)(1)(f) of this section, to 195207 the county board of developmental disabilities that employs the 195208 superintendent; for a member listed in division (B)(1)(g) or (h) 195209 of this section, to the school board that employs the 195210 superintendent; for the member listed in division (B)(1)(i) of 195211 this section, to the mayor of the municipal corporation; for the 195212 member listed in division (B)(1)(k) of this section, to the 195213 director of youth services; and for the member listed in division 195214

(B)(1)(n) of this section, to that member's board of trustees. 195215

The administrative agent for a county council may do any of 195216 the following on behalf of the council: 195217

(i) Enter into agreements or administer contracts with public 195218 or private entities to fulfill specific council business. Such 195219 agreements and contracts are exempt from the competitive bidding 195220 requirements of section 307.86 of the Revised Code if they have 195221 been approved by the county council and they are for the purchase 195222 of family and child welfare or child protection services or other 195223 social or job and family services for families and children. The 195224 approval of the county council is not required to exempt 195225 agreements or contracts entered into under section 5139.34, 195226 5139.41, or 5139.43 of the Revised Code from the competitive 195227 bidding requirements of section 307.86 of the Revised Code. 195228

(ii) As determined by the council, provide financial 195229 stipends, reimbursements, or both, to family representatives for 195230 expenses related to council activity; 195231

(iii) Receive by gift, grant, devise, or bequest any moneys, 195232 lands, or other property for the purposes for which the council is 195233 established. The agent shall hold, apply, and dispose of the 195234 moneys, lands, or other property according to the terms of the 195235 gift, grant, devise, or bequest. Any interest or earnings shall be 195236 treated in the same manner and are subject to the same terms as 195237 the gift, grant, devise, or bequest from which it accrues. 195238

(b)(i) If the county council designates the board of county 195239 commissioners as its administrative agent, the board may, by 195240 resolution, delegate any of its powers and duties as 195241 administrative agent to an executive committee the board 195242 establishes from the membership of the county council. The board 195243 shall name to the executive committee at least the individuals 195244 described in divisions (B)(1)(b) to (h) of this section and may 195245 appoint the president of the board or another individual as the 195246 chair of the executive committee. The executive committee must 195247 include at least one family county council representative who does 195248 not have a family member employed by an agency represented on the 195249 council. 195250

(ii) The executive committee may, with the approval of the 195251 board, hire an executive director to assist the county council in 195252 administering its powers and duties. The executive director shall 195253 serve in the unclassified civil service at the pleasure of the 195254 executive committee. The executive director may, with the approval 195255 of the executive committee, hire other employees as necessary to 195256 properly conduct the county council's business. 195257

(iii) The board may require the executive committee to submit 195258 an annual budget to the board for approval and may amend or repeal 195259 the resolution that delegated to the executive committee its 195260 authority as the county council's administrative agent. 195261

(6) Two or more county councils may enter into an agreement 195262 to administer their county councils jointly by creating a regional 195263 family and children first council. A regional council possesses 195264 the same duties and authority possessed by a county council, 195265 except that the duties and authority apply regionally rather than 195266 to individual counties. Prior to entering into an agreement to 195267 create a regional council, the members of each county council to 195268 be part of the regional council shall meet to determine whether 195269 all or part of the members of each county council will serve as 195270 members of the regional council. 195271

(7) A board of county commissioners may approve a resolution 195272 by a majority vote of the board's members that requires the county 195273 council to submit a statement to the board each time the council 195274 proposes to enter into an agreement, adopt a plan, or make a 195275 decision, other than a decision pursuant to section 121.38 of the 195276 Revised Code, that requires the expenditure of funds for two or 195277 more families. The statement shall describe the proposed 195278 agreement, plan, or decision. 195279

Not later than fifteen days after the board receives the 195280 statement, it shall, by resolution approved by a majority of its 195281 members, approve or disapprove the agreement, plan, or decision. 195282 Failure of the board to pass a resolution during that time period 195283 shall be considered approval of the agreement, plan, or decision. 195284

An agreement, plan, or decision for which a statement is 195285 required to be submitted to the board shall be implemented only if 195286 it is approved by the board. 195287

(C) Each county shall develop a county service coordination 195288 mechanism. The county service coordination mechanism shall serve 195289 as the guiding document for coordination of services in the 195290 county. For children who also receive services under the help me 195291 grow program, the service coordination mechanism shall be 195292 consistent with rules adopted by the department of health under 195293 section 3701.61 of the Revised Code. All family service 195294 coordination plans shall be developed in accordance with the 195295 county service coordination mechanism. The mechanism shall be 195296 developed and approved with the participation of the county 195297 entities representing child welfare; developmental disabilities; 195298 alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services; health; 195299 juvenile judges; education; the county family and children first 195300 council; and the county early intervention collaborative 195301 established pursuant to the federal early intervention program 195302 operated under the "Individuals with Disabilities Education Act of 195303 2004." The county shall establish an implementation schedule for 195304 the mechanism. The cabinet council may monitor the implementation 195305 and administration of each county's service coordination 195306 mechanism. 195307

Each mechanism shall include all of the following: 195308

(1) A procedure for an agency, including a juvenile court, or 195309 a family voluntarily seeking service coordination, to refer the 195310 child and family to the county council for service coordination in 195311 accordance with the mechanism; 195312

(2) A procedure ensuring that a family and all appropriate 195313 staff from involved agencies, including a representative from the 195314 appropriate school district, are notified of and invited to 195315 participate in all family service coordination plan meetings; 195316

(3) A procedure that permits a family to initiate a meeting 195317 to develop or review the family's service coordination plan and 195318 allows the family to invite a family advocate, mentor, or support 195319 person of the family's choice to participate in any such meeting; 195320

(4) A procedure for ensuring that a family service 195321 coordination plan meeting is conducted for each child who receives 195322 service coordination under the mechanism and for whom an emergency 195323 out-of-home placement has been made or for whom a nonemergency 195324 out-of-home placement is being considered. The meeting shall be 195325 conducted within ten days of an emergency out-of-home placement. 195326
The meeting shall be conducted before a nonemergency out-of-home 195327 placement. The family service coordination plan shall outline how 195328 the county council members will jointly pay for services, where 195329 applicable, and provide services in the least restrictive 195330 environment. 195331

(5) A procedure for monitoring the progress and tracking the 195332 outcomes of each service coordination plan requested in the county 195333 including monitoring and tracking children in out-of-home 195334 placements to assure continued progress, appropriateness of 195335 placement, and continuity of care after discharge from placement 195336 with appropriate arrangements for housing, treatment, and 195337 education; 195338

(6) A procedure for protecting the confidentiality of all 195339 personal family information disclosed during service coordination 195340 meetings or contained in the comprehensive family service 195341 coordination plan; 195342

(7) A procedure for assessing the needs and strengths of any 195343 child or family that has been referred to the council for service 195344 coordination, including a child whose parent or custodian is 195345 voluntarily seeking services, and for ensuring that parents and 195346 custodians are afforded the opportunity to participate; 195347

(8) A procedure for development of a family service 195348 coordination plan described in division (D) of this section; 195349

(9) A local dispute resolution process to serve as the 195350 process that must be used first to resolve disputes among the 195351 agencies represented on the county council concerning the 195352 provision of services to children, including children who are 195353 abused, neglected, dependent, unruly, alleged unruly, or 195354 delinquent children and under the jurisdiction of the juvenile 195355 court and children whose parents or custodians are voluntarily 195356 seeking services. The local dispute resolution process shall 195357 comply with sections 121.38, 121.381, and 121.382 of the Revised 195358 Code. The local dispute resolution process shall be used to 195359 resolve disputes between a child's parents or custodians and the 195360 county council regarding service coordination. The county council 195361 shall inform the parents or custodians of their right to use the 195362 dispute resolution process. Parents or custodians shall use 195363 existing local agency grievance procedures to address disputes not 195364 involving service coordination. The dispute resolution process is 195365 in addition to and does not replace other rights or procedures 195366 that parents or custodians may have under other sections of the 195367
Revised Code. 195368

The cabinet council shall adopt rules in accordance with 195369
Chapter 119. of the Revised Code establishing an administrative 195370 review process to address problems that arise concerning the 195371 operation of a local dispute resolution process. 195372

Nothing in division (C)(4) of this section shall be 195373 interpreted as overriding or affecting decisions of a juvenile 195374 court regarding an out-of-home placement, long-term placement, or 195375 emergency out-of-home placement. 195376

(D) Each county shall develop a family service coordination 195377 plan that does all of the following: 195378

(1) Designates service responsibilities among the various 195379 state and local agencies that provide services to children and 195380 their families, including children who are abused, neglected, 195381 dependent, unruly, or delinquent children and under the 195382 jurisdiction of the juvenile court and children whose parents or 195383 custodians are voluntarily seeking services; 195384

(2) Designates an individual, approved by the family, to 195385 track the progress of the family service coordination plan, 195386 schedule reviews as necessary, and facilitate the family service 195387 coordination plan meeting process; 195388

(3) Ensures that assistance and services to be provided are 195389 responsive to the strengths and needs of the family, as well as 195390 the family's culture, race, and ethnic group, by allowing the 195391 family to offer information and suggestions and participate in 195392 decisions. Identified assistance and services shall be provided in 195393 the least restrictive environment possible. 195394

(4) Includes a process for dealing with a child who is 195395 alleged to be an unruly child. The process shall include methods 195396 to divert the child from the juvenile court system; 195397

(5) Includes timelines for completion of goals specified in 195398 the plan with regular reviews scheduled to monitor progress toward 195399

those goals; 195400

(B) The pay schedule of all employees shall be on a biweekly basis, with amounts computed on an hourly basis. 195775

(D) The salary and wage rates in division (A) of this section or in section 124.152 of the Revised Code represent base rates of compensation and may be augmented by the provisions of section 124.181 of the Revised Code. In those cases where lodging, meals, laundry, or other personal services are furnished an employee in the service of the state, the actual costs or fair market value of the personal services shall be paid by the employee in such amounts and manner as determined by the director of administrative services and approved by the director of budget and management, and those personal services shall not be considered as a part of the employee's compensation. An appointing authority that appoints employees in the service of the state, with the approval of the director of administrative services and the director of budget and management, may establish payments to employees for uniforms, tools, equipment, and other requirements of the department and payments for the maintenance of them. 195780

approval of the director of budget and management, may provide to 195806 some or all of these employees any payment or benefit, except for 195807 salary, contained in such a collective bargaining agreement even 195808 if it is similar to a payment or benefit already provided by law 195809 to some or all of these employees. Any payment or benefit so 195810 provided shall not exceed the highest level for that payment or 195811 benefit specified in such a collective bargaining agreement. The 195812 director of administrative services shall not provide, and the 195813 director of budget and management shall not approve, any payment 195814 or benefit to such an employee under this division unless the 195815 payment or benefit is provided pursuant to a collective bargaining 195816 agreement to a state employee who is in a position with similar 195817 duties as, is supervised by, or is employed by the same appointing 195818 authority as, the employee to whom the benefit or payment is to be 195819 provided. 195820

As used in this division, "payment or benefit already 195821 provided by law" includes, but is not limited to, bereavement, 195822 personal, vacation, administrative, and sick leave, disability 195823 benefits, holiday pay, and pay supplements provided under the 195824 Revised Code, but does not include wages or salary. 195825

(E) New employees paid in accordance with schedule B of 195826 division (A) of this section or schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of 195827 the Revised Code shall be employed at the minimum rate established 195828 for the range unless otherwise provided. Employees with 195829 qualifications that are beyond the minimum normally required for 195830 the position and that are determined by the director to be 195831 exceptional may be employed in, or may be transferred or promoted 195832 to, a position at an advanced step of the range. Further, in time 195833 of a serious labor market condition when it is relatively 195834 impossible to recruit employees at the minimum rate for a 195835 particular classification, the entrance rate may be set at an 195836 advanced step in the range by the director of administrative 195837 services. This rate may be limited to geographical regions of the 195838 state. Appointments made to an advanced step under the provision 195839 regarding exceptional qualifications shall not affect the step 195840 assignment of employees already serving. However, anytime the 195841 hiring rate of an entire classification is advanced to a higher 195842 step, all incumbents of that classification being paid at a step 195843 lower than that being used for hiring, shall be advanced beginning 195844 at the start of the first pay period thereafter to the new hiring 195845 rate, and any time accrued at the lower step will be used to 195846 calculate advancement to a succeeding step. If the hiring rate of 195847 a classification is increased for only a geographical region of 195848 the state, only incumbents who work in that geographical region 195849 shall be advanced to a higher step. When an employee in the 195850 unclassified service changes from one state position to another or 195851 is appointed to a position in the classified service, or if an 195852 employee in the classified service is appointed to a position in 195853 the unclassified service, the employee's salary or wage in the new 195854 position shall be determined in the same manner as if the employee 195855 were an employee in the classified service. When an employee in 195856 the unclassified service who is not eligible for step increases is 195857 appointed to a classification in the classified service under 195858 which step increases are provided, future step increases shall be 195859 based on the date on which the employee last received a pay 195860 increase. If the employee has not received an increase during the 195861 previous year, the date of the appointment to the classified 195862 service shall be used to determine the employee's annual step 195863 advancement eligibility date. In reassigning any employee to a 195864 classification resulting in a pay range increase or to a new pay 195865 range as a result of a promotion, an increase pay range 195866 adjustment, or other classification change resulting in a pay 195867 range increase, the director shall assign such employee to the 195868 step in the new pay range that will provide an increase of 195869 approximately four per cent if the new pay range can accommodate 195870 the increase. When an employee is being assigned to a 195871 classification or new pay range as the result of a class plan 195872 change, if the employee has completed a probationary period, the 195873 employee shall be placed in a step no lower than step two of the 195874 new pay range. If the employee has not completed a probationary 195875 period, the employee may be placed in step one of the new pay 195876 range. Such new salary or wage shall become effective on such date 195877 as the director determines. 195878

(F) If employment conditions and the urgency of the work 195879 require such action, the director of administrative services may, 195880 upon the application of a department head, authorize payment at 195881 any rate established within the range for the class of work, for 195882 work of a casual or intermittent nature or on a project basis. 195883 Payment at such rates shall not be made to the same individual for 195884 more than three calendar months in any one calendar year. Any such 195885 action shall be subject to the approval of the director of budget 195886 and management as to the availability of funds. This section and 195887 sections 124.14 and 124.152 of the Revised Code do not repeal any 195888 authority of any department or public official to contract with or 195889 fix the compensation of professional persons who may be employed 195890 temporarily for work of a casual nature or for work on a project 195891 basis. 195892

(G)(1) Except as provided in divisions (G)(2) and (3) of this 195893 section, each state employee paid in accordance with schedule B of 195894 this section or schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of the Revised 195895 Code shall be eligible for advancement to succeeding steps in the 195896 range for the employee's class or grade according to the schedule 195897 established in this division. Beginning on the first day of the 195898 pay period within which the employee completes the prescribed 195899 probationary period in the employee's classification with the 195900 state, each employee shall receive an automatic salary adjustment 195901 equivalent to the next higher step within the pay range for the 195902 employee's class or grade. 195903

Except as provided in divisions (G)(2) and (3) of this 195904 section, each employee paid in accordance with schedule E-1 of 195905 section 124.152 of the Revised Code shall be eligible to advance 195906 to the next higher step until the employee reaches the top step in 195907 the range for the employee's class or grade, if the employee has 195908 maintained satisfactory performance in accordance with criteria 195909 established by the employee's appointing authority. Those step 195910 advancements shall not occur more frequently than once in any 195911 twelve-month period. 195912

When an employee is promoted, the step entry date shall be 195913 set to account for a probationary period. When an employee is 195914 reassigned to a higher pay range, the step entry date shall be set 195915 to allow an employee who is not at the highest step of the range 195916 to receive a step advancement one year from the reassignment date. 195917 Step advancement shall not be affected by demotion. A promoted 195918 employee shall advance to the next higher step of the pay range on 195919 the first day of the pay period in which the required probationary 195920 period is completed. Step advancement shall become effective at 195921 the beginning of the pay period within which the employee attains 195922 the necessary length of service. Time spent on authorized leave of 195923 absence shall be counted for this purpose. 195924

If determined to be in the best interest of the state 195925 service, the director of administrative services may, either 195926 statewide or in selected agencies, adjust the dates on which 195927 annual step advancements are received by employees paid in 195928 accordance with schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of the Revised 195929
Code. 195930

(2)(a) There shall be a moratorium on annual step 195931 advancements under division (G)(1) of this section beginning June 195932 21, 2009, through June 20, 2011. Step advancements shall resume 195933 with the pay period beginning June 21, 2011. Upon the resumption of step advancements, there shall be no retroactive step advancements for the period the moratorium was in effect. The moratorium shall not affect an employee's performance evaluation schedule.

An employee who begins a probationary period before June 21, 2009, shall advance to the next step in the employee's pay range at the end of probation, and then become subject to the moratorium. An employee who is hired, promoted, or reassigned to a higher pay range between June 21, 2009, through June 20, 2011, shall not advance to the next step in the employee's pay range until the next anniversary of the employee's date of hire, promotion, or reassignment that occurs on or after June 21, 2011.

(b) The moratorium under division (G)(2)(a) of this section shall apply to the employees of the secretary of state, the auditor of state, the treasurer of state, and the attorney general, who are subject to this section unless the secretary of state, the auditor of state, the treasurer of state, or the attorney general decides to exempt the office's employees from the moratorium and so notifies the director of administrative services in writing on or before July 1, 2009.

(3) Employees in intermittent positions shall be employed at the minimum rate established for the pay range for their classification and are not eligible for step advancements.

(H) Employees in appointive managerial or professional positions paid in accordance with schedule C of this section or schedule E-2 of section 124.152 of the Revised Code may be appointed at any rate within the appropriate pay range. This rate of pay may be adjusted higher or lower within the respective pay range at any time the appointing authority so desires as long as the adjustment is based on the employee's ability to successfully administer those duties assigned to the employee. Salary adjustments shall not be made more frequently than once in any 195966 six-month period under this provision to incumbents holding the 195967 same position and classification. 195968

(I) When an employee is assigned to duty outside this state, 195969 the employee may be compensated, upon request of the department 195970 head and with the approval of the director of administrative 195971 services, at a rate not to exceed fifty per cent in excess of the 195972 employee's current base rate for the period of time spent on that 195973 duty. 195974

(J) Unless compensation for members of a board or commission 195975 is otherwise specifically provided by law, the director of 195976 administrative services shall establish the rate and method of 195977 payment for members of boards and commissions pursuant to the pay 195978 preceding twelve months, and estimates of the amounts by which 196550 energy consumption and resultant operational and maintenance 196551 costs, as defined by the commission, would be reduced. 196552

If the board finds after receiving the report that the amount 196553 of money the district would spend on such installations, 196554 modifications, or remodeling is not likely to exceed the amount of 196555 money it would save in energy and resultant operational and 196556 maintenance costs over the ensuing fifteen years, the board may 196557 submit to the commission a copy of its findings and a request for 196558 approval to incur indebtedness to finance the making or 196559

No district board of education of a school district that is 196568 in a state of fiscal emergency pursuant to division (B) of section 196569 shall include estimates of all costs associated with alternative 196589 fuel transportation, including facility modifications and vehicle 196590 purchase costs or conversion costs. 196591

If the board finds after receiving the report that the amount 196592 of money the district would spend on purchasing alternative fuel 196593 vehicles or vehicle conversion is not likely to exceed the amount 196594 of money it would save in fuel and resultant operational and 196595 maintenance costs over the ensuing five years, the board may 196596 submit to the commission a copy of its findings and a request for 196597 approval to incur indebtedness to finance the purchase of new 196598 alternative fuel vehicles or vehicle conversions for the purpose 196599 of reducing fuel costs. 196600 is in a state of fiscal watch pursuant to division (A) of section 196604 submitting evidence that the purchase or conversion of alternative 196610 fuel vehicles has been approved by the district's financial 196611 planning and supervision commission established under section 196612

3316.05 of the Revised Code. 196613

No board of education of a school district for which an academic distress commission has been established under section 3302.10 of the Revised Code shall submit a request without first receiving approval to incur indebtedness from the district's academic distress commission established under that section, for so long as such commission continues to be required for the district.

board's request provided that the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) The commission determines that the board's findings are reasonable.

(b) The request for approval is complete.

(c) If the request was submitted under division (G)(1) of such installations, modifications, or remodeling. The resultant 196652 operational and maintenance cost savings shall be certified by the 196653 school district treasurer. The report shall be submitted annually 196654 to the commission. 196655

(b) If the facilities construction commission verifies that 196656

| (3) "Effective tax rate" means with respect to each class of property:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | 196991196992                                         |
| (a) The sum of the total taxes that would have been charged and payable for current expenses against real property in that class if each of the district's taxes were reduced for the current year under division (D)(1) of this section without regard to the application of division (E)(3) of this section divided by                                             | 196993196994196995196996196997           |
| (b) The taxable value of all real property in that class.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | 196998                                                   |
| (4) "Taxes charged and payable" means the taxes charged and payable prior to any reduction required by section 319.302 of the Revised Code.                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | 196999197000197001                               |
| (C) The tax commissioner shall make the determinations required by this section each year, without regard to whether a taxing district has territory in a county to which section 5715.24 of the Revised Code applies for that year. Separate determinations shall be made for each of the two classes established pursuant to section 5713.041 of the Revised Code. | 197002197003197004197005197006197007 |
| (D) With respect to each tax authorized to be levied by each taxing district, the tax commissioner, annually, shall do both of the following:                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | 197008197009197010                               |
| (1) Determine by what percentage, if any, the sums levied by such tax against the carryover property in each class would have                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | 197011197012                                         | to be reduced for the tax to levy the same number of dollars 197013 against such property in that class in the current year as were 197014 charged against such property by such tax in the preceding year 197015 subsequent to the reduction made under this section but before the 197016 reduction made under section 319.302 of the Revised Code. In the 197017 case of a tax levied for the first time that is not a renewal of 197018 an existing tax, the commissioner shall determine by what 197019 percentage the sums that would otherwise be levied by such tax 197020 against carryover property in each class would have to be reduced 197021 to equal the amount that would have been levied if the full rate 197022 thereof had been imposed against the total taxable value of such 197023 property in the preceding tax year. A tax or portion of a tax that 197024 is designated a replacement levy under section 5705.192 of the 197025 Revised Code is not a renewal of an existing tax for purposes of 197026 this division. 197027

(2) Certify each percentage determined in division (D)(1) of 197028 this section, as adjusted under division (E) of this section, and 197029 the class of property to which that percentage applies to the 197030 auditor of each county in which the district has territory. The 197031 auditor, after complying with section 319.30 of the Revised Code, 197032 shall reduce the sum to be levied by such tax against each parcel 197033 of real property in the district by the percentage so certified 197034 for its class. Certification shall be made by the first day of 197035 September except in the case of a tax levied for the first time, 197036 in which case certification shall be made within fifteen days of 197037 the date the county auditor submits the information necessary to 197038 make the required determination. 197039

(E)(1) As used in division (E)(2) of this section, "pre-1982 197040 joint vocational taxes" means, with respect to a class of 197041 property, the difference between the following amounts: 197042

(a) The taxes charged and payable in tax year 1981 against 197043 the property in that class for the current expenses of the joint 197044 vocational school district of which the school district is a part 197045 after making all reductions under this section; 197046

(b) Two-tenths of one per cent of the taxable value of all 197047 real property in that class. 197048

If the amount in division (E)(1)(b) of this section exceeds 197049 the amount in division (E)(1)(a) of this section, the pre-1982 197050 joint vocational taxes shall be zero. 197051

As used in divisions (E)(2) and (3) of this section, "taxes 197052 charged and payable" has the same meaning as in division (B)(4) of 197053 this section and excludes any tax charged and payable in 1985 or 197054 thereafter under sections 5705.194 to 5705.197 or section 197055
5705.199, 5705.213, 5705.219, or 5748.09 of the Revised Code. 197056

(2) If in the case of a school district other than a joint 197057 vocational or cooperative education school district any percentage 197058 required to be used in division (D)(2) of this section for either 197059 class of property could cause the total taxes charged and payable 197060 for current expenses to be less than two per cent of the taxable 197061 value of all real property in that class that is subject to 197062 taxation by the district, the commissioner shall determine what 197063 percentages would cause the district's total taxes charged and 197064 payable for current expenses against that class, after all 197065 reductions that would otherwise be made under this section, to 197066 equal, when combined with the pre-1982 joint vocational taxes 197067 against that class, the lesser of the following: 197068

(a) The sum of the rates at which those taxes are authorized 197069 to be levied; 197070

(b) Two per cent of the taxable value of the property in that 197071 class. The auditor shall use such percentages in making the 197072 reduction required by this section for that class. 197073

(3) If in the case of a joint vocational school district any 197074 percentage required to be used in division (D)(2) of this section 197075 for either class of property could cause the total taxes charged 197076 and payable for current expenses for that class to be less than 197077 two-tenths of one per cent of the taxable value of that class, the 197078 commissioner shall determine what percentages would cause the 197079 district's total taxes charged and payable for current expenses 197080 for that class, after all reductions that would otherwise be made 197081 under this section, to equal that amount. The auditor shall use 197082 such percentages in making the reductions required by this section 197083 for that class. 197084

(F) No reduction shall be made under this section in the rate 197085 at which any tax is levied. 197086

(G) The commissioner may order a county auditor to furnish 197087 any information the commissioner needs to make the determinations 197088 required under division (D) or (E) of this section, and the 197089 auditor shall supply the information in the form and by the date 197090 specified in the order. If the auditor fails to comply with an 197091 order issued under this division, except for good cause as 197092 determined by the commissioner, the commissioner shall withhold 197093 from such county or taxing district therein fifty per cent of 197094 state revenues to local governments pursuant to section 5747.50 of 197095 the Revised Code or shall direct the department of education and 197096 workforce to withhold therefrom fifty per cent of state revenues 197097 to school districts pursuant to Chapter 3317. of the Revised Code. 197098
The commissioner shall withhold the distribution of such revenues 197099 until the county auditor has complied with this division, and the 197100 department shall withhold the distribution of such revenues until 197101 the commissioner has notified the department that the county 197102 auditor has complied with this division. 197103

(H) If the commissioner is unable to certify a tax reduction 197104 factor for either class of property in a taxing district located 197105 in more than one county by the last day of November because 197106 information required under division (G) of this section is 197107 unavailable, the commissioner may compute and certify an estimated 197108 tax reduction factor for that district for that class. The 197109 estimated factor shall be based upon an estimate of the 197110 unavailable information. Upon receipt of the actual information 197111 for a taxing district that received an estimated tax reduction 197112 factor, the commissioner shall compute the actual tax reduction 197113 factor and use that factor to compute the taxes that should have 197114 been charged and payable against each parcel of property for the 197115 year for which the estimated reduction factor was used. The amount 197116 by which the estimated factor resulted in an overpayment or 197117 underpayment in taxes on any parcel shall be added to or 197118 subtracted from the amount due on that parcel in the ensuing tax 197119 year. 197120

A percentage or a tax reduction factor determined or computed 197121 by the commissioner under this section shall be used solely for 197122 the purpose of reducing the sums to be levied by the tax to which 197123 it applies for the year for which it was determined or computed. 197124
It shall not be used in making any tax computations for any 197125 ensuing tax year. 197126

(I) In making the determinations under division (D)(1) of 197127 this section, the tax commissioner shall take account of changes 197128 in the taxable value of carryover property resulting from 197129 complaints filed under section 5715.19 of the Revised Code for 197130 determinations made for the tax year in which such changes are 197131 reported to the commissioner. Such changes shall be reported to 197132 the commissioner on the first abstract of real property filed with 197133 the commissioner under section 5715.23 of the Revised Code 197134 following the date on which the complaint is finally determined by 197135 the board of revision or by a court or other authority with 197136 jurisdiction on appeal. The tax commissioner shall account for 197137 such changes in making the determinations only for the tax year in 197138 which the change in valuation is reported. Such a valuation change 197139 shall not be used to recompute the percentages determined under 197140 division (D)(1) of this section for any prior tax year. 197141

Sec. 901.71. (A) There is hereby created the advisory 197142 twenty-one members, as follows: 197144

(1) The director of agriculture, or the director's designee; 197145

(2) The state veterinarian, or the state veterinarian's 197146 designee; 197147

(3) A representative of the Ohio cattlemen's association, the 197148 council, the Ohio poultry association, the Ohio sheep improvement 197150 association, the Ohio fair managers association, the Ohio farm 197151 bureau federation, the Ohio farmers union, the Ohio department of 197152 ~~education's~~ education and workforce's agricultural education 197153 service, the Ohio state university extension, the national farmers 197154 organization, and the Ohio state grange, or their designees. Each 197155 of these members shall be chosen by the organization the member 197156 represents. 197157

(4) The chairperson of the Ohio expositions commission, or 197158 the chairperson's designee; 197159

(5) Three persons who shall be appointed by the director, 197160 each of whom shall serve as a member of a board of directors of a 197161 county or independent agricultural society organized under section 197162 1711.01 or 1711.02 of the Revised Code. Of the initial 197163 appointments made by the director, one shall be for a term ending 197164 on December 31, 1996; one shall be for a term ending on December 197165 31, 1997; and one shall be for a term ending on December 31, 1998. 197166

(6) Not more than three additional members appointed at the 197167 option of the director. If the director appoints one or more 197168 additional members, the first additional appointment shall be for 197169 a term ending on December 31, 1996, the second additional 197170 appointment shall be for a term ending on December 31, 1997, and 197171 the third additional appointment shall be for a term ending on 197172

December 31, 1998. 197173

Following the completion of the initial terms of the 197174 appointments made by the director, each term of office shall be 197175 three years, commencing on the first day of January and ending on 197176 the thirty-first day of December. A member appointed by the 197177 director shall hold office from the date of the member's 197178 appointment until the end of the term for which the member was 197179 appointed. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as the 197180 original appointment. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy 197181 occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which the 197182 member's predecessor was appointed shall hold office for the 197183 remainder of the unexpired term. Any member shall continue in 197184 office subsequent to the expiration date of the member's term 197185 until the member's successor takes office or until a period of 197186 ninety days has elapsed, whichever occurs first. 197187

Members may be removed from the committee only for 197188 misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance. A vacancy on the 197189 committee shall not impair the right of the other members to 197190 exercise all of the functions of the committee. A simple majority 197191 constitutes a quorum for the conduct of business of the committee. 197192 On request, each member shall be reimbursed for the actual and 197193 necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of the member's 197194 duties as a committee member. 197195

(B) The committee shall be considered a part of the 197196 department of agriculture for the administrative purposes required 197197 by this section, including the payment of expenses authorized to 197198 each member of the committee under this section. The director or 197199 the director's designee shall serve as chairperson of the 197200 committee. The director shall designate an employee or official of 197201 the department to act as the secretary of the committee. The 197202 secretary shall keep the minutes of the committee's meetings and a 197203 permanent journal of all meetings, proceedings, findings, 197204 determinations, and recommendations of the committee, including an 197205 itemized statement of the expenses allowed to each member of the 197206 committee under this section. The committee may request from the 197207 director, and the director shall provide, meeting space, 197208 assistance, services, and information to enable the committee to 197209 carry out its duties. 197210

(C) The committee shall meet at least once annually after the 197211 fifteenth day of October and before the first day of December. The 197212 committee may meet at other times as the chairperson or a majority 197213 of the committee members considers appropriate, provided the 197214 chairperson gives members written notice of any meeting at least 197215 seven days prior to the meeting. 197216

(D) The committee may propose rules and may advise and 197217 counsel the director on all matters relating to the administration 197218 of exhibitions and any other matters that the committee and the 197219 director consider appropriate in carrying out sections 901.71 to 197220
901.76 of the Revised Code. 197221

Sec. 921.06. (A)(1) No individual shall do any of the 197222 following without having a commercial applicator license issued by 197223 the director of agriculture: 197224

(a) Apply pesticides for a pesticide business without direct 197225 supervision; 197226

(b) Apply pesticides as part of the individual's duties while 197227 acting as an employee of the United States government, a state, 197228 county, township, or municipal corporation, or a park district, 197229 port authority, or sanitary district created under Chapter 1545., 197230 4582., or 6115. of the Revised Code, respectively; 197231

(c) Apply restricted use pesticides. Division (A)(1)(c) of this section does not apply to a private applicator or an immediate family member or a subordinate employee of a private applicator who is acting under the direct supervision of that private applicator.

(d) If the individual is the owner of a business other than a pesticide business or an employee of such an owner, apply pesticides at any of the following publicly accessible sites that are located on the property:

(i) Food service operations that are licensed under Chapter 3717. of the Revised Code;

(ii) Retail food establishments that are licensed under Chapter 3717. of the Revised Code;

(iii) Golf courses;

(iv) Rental properties of more than four apartment units at one location;

(v) Hospitals or medical facilities as defined in section 3701.01 of the Revised Code;

(vi) Child day-care centers or school child day-care centers as defined in section 5104.01 of the Revised Code;

(vii) Facilities owned or operated by a school district established under Chapter 3311. of the Revised Code, including an educational service center, a community school established under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code, or a chartered or nonchartered nonpublic school that meets minimum standards established by the ~~state board~~ director of education and workforce;

(viii) State institutions of higher education as defined in section 3345.011 of the Revised Code, nonprofit institutions holding a certificate of authorization pursuant to Chapter 1713. of the Revised Code, institutions holding a certificate of registration from the state board of career colleges and schools 197262 and program authorization for an associate or bachelor's degree 197263 program issued under section 3332.05 of the Revised Code, and 197264 private institutions exempt from regulation under Chapter 3332. of 197265 the Revised Code as prescribed in section 3333.046 of the Revised 197266

Code; 197267

(ix) Food processing establishments as defined in section 197268
3715.021 of the Revised Code; 197269

(x) Any other site designated by rule. 197270

(e) Conduct authorized diagnostic inspections. 197271

(2) Divisions (A)(1)(a) to (d) of this section do not apply 197272 to an individual who is acting as a trained serviceperson under 197273 the direct supervision of a commercial applicator. 197274

(3) Licenses shall be issued for a period of time established 197275 by rule and shall be renewed in accordance with deadlines 197276 established by rule. The fee for each such license shall be 197277 established by rule. If a license is not issued or renewed, the 197278 application fee shall be retained by the state as payment for the 197279 reasonable expense of processing the application. The director 197280 shall by rule classify by pesticide-use category licenses to be 197281 issued under this section. A single license may include more than 197282 one pesticide-use category. No individual shall be required to pay 197283 an additional license fee if the individual is licensed for more 197284 than one category. 197285

The fee for each license or renewal does not apply to an 197286 applicant who is an employee of the department of agriculture 197287 whose job duties require licensure as a commercial applicator as a 197288 condition of employment. 197289

(B) Application for a commercial applicator license shall be 197290 made on a form prescribed by the director. Each application for a 197291 license shall state the pesticide-use category or categories of 197292 license for which the applicant is applying and other information 197293 that the director determines essential to the administration of 197294 this chapter. 197295

(C) If the director finds that the applicant is competent to 197296 apply pesticides and conduct diagnostic inspections and that the 197297 applicant has passed both the general examination and each 197298 applicable pesticide-use category examination as required under 197299 division (A) of section 921.12 of the Revised Code, the director 197300 any high school, successful completion of an individualized 197707

2151.414 of the Revised Code that the child cannot be placed with 197729 one of the child's parents within a reasonable time or should not 197730 be placed with either parent and determines in accordance with 197731 division (D)(1) of section 2151.414 of the Revised Code that the 197732 permanent commitment is in the best interest of the child. If the 197733 court grants permanent custody under this division, the court, 197734 upon the request of any party, shall file a written opinion 197735 placing agency requests the court to place the child in a planned 197741 permanent living arrangement and if the court finds, by clear and 197742 convincing evidence, that a planned permanent living arrangement 197743 is in the best interest of the child, that the child is sixteen 197744 years of age or older, and that one of the following exists: 197745

(a) The child, because of physical, mental, or psychological 197746 hearing held pursuant to section 2151.35 of the Revised Code. 197750

(b) The parents of the child have significant physical, 197751 mental, or psychological problems and are unable to care for the 197752 interest of the child, as determined in accordance with division 197754 (D)(1) of section 2151.414 of the Revised Code, and the child 197755 retains a significant and positive relationship with a parent or 197756 relative. 197757

(c) The child has been counseled on the permanent placement 197758 division (A)(5)(b) or (c) of this section, the court shall 197771 consider all relevant information that has been presented to the 197772 court, including information gathered from the child, the child's 197773 guardian ad litem, and the public children services agency or 197774 private child placing agency. 197775

(2) A child who is placed in a planned permanent living 197776 arrangement pursuant to division (A)(5)(b) or (c) of this section 197777 shall be placed in an independent living setting or in a family 197778 setting in which the caregiver has been provided by the agency 197779 that has custody of the child with a notice that addresses the 197780

following: 197781

child from the custody of the agency, whichever occurs first. 197786 and court hearings as appropriate, complete training, as developed 197789 and implemented under section 5103.035 of the Revised Code, 197790 related to providing the child independent living services, and 197791

(3) The department of job and family services shall develop a 197793 model notice to be provided by an agency that has custody of a 197794 child to a caregiver under division (B)(2) of this section. The 197795 agency may modify the model notice to apply to the needs of the 197796 agency. 197797

(C) No order for permanent custody or temporary custody of a 197798 child or the placement of a child in a planned permanent living 197799 arrangement shall be made pursuant to this section unless the 197800 complaint alleging the abuse, neglect, or dependency contains a 197801 prayer requesting permanent custody, temporary custody, or the 197802 placement of the child in a planned permanent living arrangement 197803 as desired, the summons served on the parents of the child 197804 contains as is appropriate a full explanation that the granting of 197805 an order for permanent custody permanently divests them of their 197806 parental rights, a full explanation that an adjudication that the 197807 child is an abused, neglected, or dependent child may result in an 197808 order of temporary custody that will cause the removal of the 197809 child from their legal custody until the court terminates the 197810 order of temporary custody or permanently divests the parents of 197811 their parental rights, or a full explanation that the granting of 197812 an order for a planned permanent living arrangement will result in 197813 the removal of the child from their legal custody if any of the 197814 conditions listed in divisions (A)(5)(a) to (c) of this section 197815 are found to exist, and the summons served on the parents contains 197816 a full explanation of their right to be represented by counsel and 197817 to have counsel appointed pursuant to Chapter 120. of the Revised 197818 Code if they are indigent. 197819

If after making disposition as authorized by division (A)(2) 197820 of this section, a motion is filed that requests permanent custody 197821 of the child, the court may grant permanent custody of the child 197822 to the movant in accordance with section 2151.414 of the Revised 197823
Code. 197824

(D) If the court issues an order for protective supervision 197825 pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section, the court may place 197826 any reasonable restrictions upon the child, the child's parents, 197827 guardian, or custodian, or any other person, including, but not 197828 limited to, any of the following: 197829

(1) Order a party, within forty-eight hours after the 197830 custodian of the child to prevent any particular person from 197834 having contact with the child; 197835

(3) Issue an order restraining or otherwise controlling the 197836 conduct of any person which conduct would not be in the best 197837 interest of the child. 197838

(E) As part of its dispositional order, the court shall 197839 journalize a case plan for the child. The journalized case plan 197840 shall not be changed except as provided in section 2151.412 of the 197841
Revised Code. 197842

(F)(1) The court shall retain jurisdiction over any child for 197843 whom the court issues an order of disposition pursuant to division 197844 (A) of this section or pursuant to section 2151.414 or 2151.415 of 197845 the Revised Code until the child attains the age of eighteen years 197846 if the child does not have a developmental disability or physical 197847 impairment, the child attains the age of twenty-one years if the 197848 child has a developmental disability or physical impairment, or 197849 the child is adopted and a final decree of adoption is issued, 197850 except that the court may retain jurisdiction over the child and 197851 continue any order of disposition under division (A) of this 197852 section or under section 2151.414 or 2151.415 of the Revised Code 197853 for a specified period of time to enable the child to graduate 197854 from high school or vocational school. The court shall make an 197855 entry continuing its jurisdiction under this division in the 197856 journal. 197857

(2) Any public children services agency, any private child 197858 placing agency, the department of job and family services, or any 197859 party, other than any parent whose parental rights with respect to 197860 the child have been terminated pursuant to an order issued under 197861 division (A)(4) of this section, by filing a motion with the 197862 court, may at any time request the court to modify or terminate 197863 any order of disposition issued pursuant to division (A) of this 197864 section or section 2151.414 or 2151.415 of the Revised Code. The 197865 court shall hold a hearing upon the motion as if the hearing were 197866 the original dispositional hearing and shall give all parties to 197867 the action and the guardian ad litem notice of the hearing 197868 pursuant to the Juvenile Rules. If applicable, the court shall 197869 comply with section 2151.42 of the Revised Code. 197870

(G) Any temporary custody order issued pursuant to division 197871
(A) of this section shall terminate one year after the earlier of 197872 the date on which the complaint in the case was filed or the child 197873 was first placed into shelter care, except that, upon the filing 197874 of a motion pursuant to section 2151.415 of the Revised Code, the 197875 temporary custody order shall continue and not terminate until the 197876 court issues a dispositional order under that section. In 197877 resolving the motion, the court shall not order an existing 197878 temporary custody order to continue beyond two years after the 197879 date on which the complaint was filed or the child was first 197880 placed into shelter care, whichever date is earlier, regardless of 197881 whether any extensions have been previously ordered pursuant to 197882 division (D) of section 2151.415 of the Revised Code. 197883

(H)(1) No later than one year after the earlier of the date 197884 the complaint in the case was filed or the child was first placed 197885 in shelter care, a party may ask the court to extend an order for 197886 protective supervision for six months or to terminate the order. A 197887 party requesting extension or termination of the order shall file 197888 a written request for the extension or termination with the court 197889 and give notice of the proposed extension or termination in 197890 writing before the end of the day after the day of filing it to 197891 all parties and the child's guardian ad litem. If a public 197892 children services agency or private child placing agency requests 197893 termination of the order, the agency shall file a written status 197894 report setting out the facts supporting termination of the order 197895 at the time it files the request with the court. If no party 197896 requests extension or termination of the order, the court shall 197897 notify the parties that the court will extend the order for six 197898 months or terminate it and that it may do so without a hearing 197899 unless one of the parties requests a hearing. All parties and the 197900 guardian ad litem shall have seven days from the date a notice is 197901 sent pursuant to this division to object to and request a hearing 197902 on the proposed extension or termination. 197903

(a) If it receives a timely request for a hearing, the court 197904 shall schedule a hearing to be held no later than thirty days 197905 after the request is received by the court. The court shall give 197906 notice of the date, time, and location of the hearing to all 197907 parties and the guardian ad litem. At the hearing, the court shall 197908 determine whether extension or termination of the order is in the 197909 child's best interest. If termination is in the child's best 197910 interest, the court shall terminate the order. If extension is in 197911 the child's best interest, the court shall extend the order for 197912 six months. 197913

(b) If it does not receive a timely request for a hearing, 197914 the court may extend the order for six months or terminate it 197915 without a hearing and shall journalize the order of extension or 197916 termination not later than fourteen days after receiving the 197917 request for extension or termination or after the date the court 197918 notifies the parties that it will extend or terminate the order. 197919
If the court does not extend or terminate the order, it shall 197920 schedule a hearing to be held no later than thirty days after the 197921 expiration of the applicable fourteen-day time period and give 197922 notice of the date, time, and location of the hearing to all 197923 parties and the child's guardian ad litem. At the hearing, the 197924 court shall determine whether extension or termination of the 197925 order is in the child's best interest. If termination is in the 197926 child's best interest, the court shall terminate the order. If 197927 extension is in the child's best interest, the court shall issue 197928 an order extending the order for protective supervision six 197929 months. 197930

(2) If the court grants an extension of the order for 197931 protective supervision pursuant to division (H)(1) of this 197932 section, a party may, prior to termination of the extension, file 197933 with the court a request for an additional extension of six months 197934 or for termination of the order. The court and the parties shall 197935 comply with division (H)(1) of this section with respect to 197936 extending or terminating the order. 197937

(3) If a court grants an extension pursuant to division 197938

(H)(2) of this section, the court shall terminate the order for protective supervision at the end of the extension. 197939
197940

(I) The court shall not issue a dispositional order pursuant to division (A) of this section that removes a child from the child's home unless the court complies with section 2151.419 of the Revised Code and includes in the dispositional order the findings of fact required by that section. 197941
197942
197943
197945

(J) If a motion or application for an order described in division (A)(6) of this section is made, the court shall not issue the order unless, prior to the issuance of the order, it provides to the person all of the following: 197946
197947
197949

(1) Notice and a copy of the motion or application; 197950

(2) The grounds for the motion or application; 197951

(3) An opportunity to present evidence and witnesses at a hearing regarding the motion or application; 197952
197953

(4) An opportunity to be represented by counsel at the hearing. 197954
197955

(K) The jurisdiction of the court shall terminate one year after the date of the award or, if the court takes any further action in the matter subsequent to the award, the date of the latest further action subsequent to the award, if the court awards legal custody of a child to either of the following: 197956
197957
197958
197959
197960

197963

(2) A legal custodian who resides in the county in which the court is located at the time of the award of legal custody, but moves to a different county of this state prior to one year after the date of the award or, if the court takes any further action in the matter subsequent to the award, one year after the date of the 197964
197965
197966
197967
197968

latest further action subsequent to the award. 197969

The court in the county in which the legal custodian resides 197970 then shall have jurisdiction in the matter. 197971

Sec. 2151.357. (A) If the court orders the records of a 197972 person sealed pursuant to section 2151.356 of the Revised Code, 197973 the person who is subject of the order properly may, and the court 197974 shall, reply that no record exists with respect to the person upon 197975 any inquiry in the matter, and the court, except as provided in 197976 division (D) of this section, shall do all of the following: 197977

(1) Order that the proceedings in a case described in 197978 divisions (B) and (C) of section 2151.356 of the Revised Code be 197979 deemed never to have occurred; 197980

(2) Except as provided in division (C) of this section, 197981 delivered to the court; 197989

(4) Order each public office or agency, upon the delivering 197990 of records to the court under division (A)(3) of this section, to 197991 expunge remaining records of the case that are the subject of the 197992 sealing order that are maintained by that public office or agency, 197993 except fingerprints, DNA specimens, and DNA records described 197994 under division (A)(3) of this section; 197995

(5) Send notice of the order to seal to any public office or 197996 agency that the court has reason to believe may have a record of 197997 the sealed record including, but not limited to, the bureau of 197998 criminal identification and investigation; 197999

(6) Seal all of the records delivered to the court under 198000 division (A)(3) of this section, in a separate file in which only 198001 sealed records are maintained. 198002

(B) Except as provided in division (D) of this section, an 198003 order to seal under section 2151.356 of the Revised Code applies 198004 to every public office or agency that has a record relating to the 198005 case, regardless of whether it receives notice of the hearing on 198006 the sealing of the record or a copy of the order. Except as 198007 provided in division (D) of this section, upon the written request 198008 of a person whose record has been sealed and the presentation of a 198009 copy of the order and compliance with division (A)(3) of this 198010 section, a public office or agency shall expunge its record 198011 relating to the case, except a record of the adjudication or 198012 arrest or taking into custody that is maintained for compiling 198013 statistical data and that does not contain any reference to the 198014 person who is the subject of the order. 198015

(C) The court that maintains sealed records pursuant to this 198016 section may maintain a manual or computerized index of the sealed 198017 records and shall make the index available only for the purposes 198018 set forth in division (E) of this section. 198019

(1) Each entry regarding a sealed record in the index of 198020

An order issued under section 2151.356 of the Revised Code to seal the record of an adjudication that an individual is a delinquent child does not revoke the adjudication order of the ~~superintendent of public instruction~~ director of education and workforce to permanently exclude the individual who is the subject of the sealing order. An order to seal the record of an adjudication that an individual is a delinquent child may be presented to a district superintendent as evidence to support the contention that the superintendent should recommend that the permanent exclusion of the individual who is the subject of the sealing order be revoked. Except as otherwise authorized by this division and sections 3301.121 and 3313.662 of the Revised Code, any school employee in possession of or having access to the sealed adjudication records of an individual that were the basis of a permanent exclusion of the individual is subject to division (F) of this section.

the civil action. The party also may copy the records as needed 198079

- (F) No officer or employee of the state or any of its 198088 respond as if the sealed arrest or taking into custody did not 198107 occur, and the person shall not be subject to any adverse action 198108 because of the arrest or taking into custody or the response. 198109

(H) The judgment rendered by the court under this chapter 198110 reason of the adjudication, and no child shall be charged with or 198113 convicted of a crime in any court except as provided by this 198114 chapter. The disposition of a child under the judgment rendered or 198115 the disposition of a child under the judgment rendered or any 198121 the child, for a future criminal conviction or guilty plea, is a 198128 repeat violent offender, as defined in section 2929.01 of the 198129

Revised Code. 198130

Sec. 2151.362. (A)(1) In the manner prescribed by division 198131 (C)(1) or (2) of section 3313.64 of the Revised Code, as 198132 applicable, the court, at the time of making any order that 198133 removes a child from the child's own home or that vests legal or 198134 permanent custody of the child in a person other than the child's 198135 parent or a government agency, shall determine the school district 198136 that is to bear the cost of educating the child. The court shall 198137 make the determination a part of the order that provides for the 198138 child's placement or commitment. That school district shall bear 198139 the cost of educating the child unless and until the department of 198140 education and workforce determines that a different district shall 198141 be responsible for bearing that cost pursuant to division (A)(2) 198142 of this section. The court's order shall state that the 198143 determination of which school district is responsible to bear the 198144 cost of educating the child is subject to re-determination by the 198145 department pursuant to that division. 198146

(2) If, while the child is in the custody of a person other 198147 than the child's parent or a government agency, the department of 198148 education and workforce determines that the place of residence of 198149 the child's parent has changed since the court issued its initial 198150 order, the department may name a different school district to bear 198151 the cost of educating the child. The department shall make this 198152 new determination, and any future determinations, based on 198153 evidence received from the school district currently responsible 198154 to bear the cost of educating the child. If the department finds 198155 that the evidence demonstrates to its satisfaction that the residence of the child's parent has changed since the court issued its initial order under division (A)(1) of this section, or since the department last made a determination under division (A)(2) of this section, the department shall name the district in which the child's parent currently resides or, if the parent's residence is not known, the district in which the parent's last known residence is located. If the department cannot determine any Ohio district in which the parent currently resides or has resided, the school district designated in the initial court order under division (A)(1) of this section, or in the most recent determination made by the department under division (A)(2) of this section, shall continue to bear the cost of educating the child.

(B) Whenever a child is placed in a detention facility established under section 2152.41 of the Revised Code or a juvenile facility established under section 2151.65 of the Revised Code, the facility shall be responsible for coordinating the education of the child. The facility may take any of the following measures in coordinating the education of the child:

(1) If applicable, use the chartered nonpublic school that the facility operates;

(2) Arrange with the school district responsible for bearing the cost of educating the child determined under division (A) of this section, for the facility to educate the child on its own;

(3) Contract with an educational service center for the service center to educate the child;

(4) Contract with the school district in which the facility is located for that school district to educate the child;

(5) If the child is enrolled in an internet- or computer-based community school established under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code, and provided that the facility possesses the necessary hardware, software, and internet connectivity, permit 198187 continued instruction of the child by the internet- or 198188 computer-based community school. 198189

If the facility coordinates the education of the child 198190 pursuant to division (B)(1), (2), (3), or (4) of this section, 198191 child's school district as determined by the court or the 198192 department, in the same manner as prescribed in division (A) of 198193 this section, shall pay the cost of educating the child based on 198194 the per capita cost of the educational facility within the 198195 detention home or juvenile facility. 198196

pursuant to division (B)(5) of this section, payment for the cost 198198 of educating the child shall be made only as provided in section 198199
3317.022 of the Revised Code. 198200

(C) Whenever a child is placed by the court in a private 198201 institution, school, or residential treatment center or any other 198202 private facility, the state shall pay to the court a subsidy to 198203 help defray the expense of educating the child in an amount equal 198204 to the product of the daily per capita educational cost of the 198205 private facility, as determined pursuant to this section, and the 198206 number of days the child resides at the private facility, provided 198207 that the subsidy shall not exceed twenty-five hundred dollars per 198208 year per child. The daily per capita educational cost of a private 198209 facility shall be determined by dividing the actual program cost 198210 of the private facility or twenty-five hundred dollars, whichever 198211 is less, by three hundred sixty-five days or by three hundred 198212 sixty-six days for years that include February twenty-ninth. The 198213 state shall pay seventy-five per cent of the total subsidy for 198214 each year quarterly to the court. The state may adjust the 198215 remaining twenty-five per cent of the total subsidy to be paid to 198216 the court for each year to an amount that is less than twenty-five 198217 per cent of the total subsidy for that year based upon the 198218 availability of funds appropriated to the department of education 198219 for the purpose of subsidizing courts that place a child in a 198220 private institution, school, or residential treatment center or 198221 any other private facility and shall pay that adjusted amount to 198222 the court at the end of the year. 198223

(G) The sealing of a record under this section does not 200432 affect the assessment of points under section 4510.036 of the 200433 Revised Code and does not erase points assessed against a person 200434 as a result of the sealed record. 200435

(H)(1) The court shall send notice of any order to seal 200436 official records issued pursuant to division (B)(3) of section 200437 2953.33 of the Revised Code to the bureau of criminal 200438 order, regardless of whether it receives notice of the hearing on 200452 the application for the order to seal the official records or 200453 receives a copy of the order to seal the official records pursuant 200454 to division (H)(1) or (2) of this section. 200455

(4) Upon receiving a copy of an order to seal official 200456 records pursuant to division (H)(1) or (2) of this section or upon 200457 otherwise becoming aware of an applicable order to seal official 200458 records issued pursuant to section 2953.33 of the Revised Code, a 200459 public office or agency shall comply with the order and, if 200460 data only and does not contain any reference to the person who is 200464 the subject of the case and the order. 200465 per cent shall determine for each high school in the district 201716 whether the school shall be required to provide intervention 201717 services to any students who took the assessments. In determining 201718 as a factor in any decision to deny the student promotion to a 201742 higher grade level. However, a district board may choose not to 201743 promote to the next grade level any student who does not take an 201744 assessment administered under this section or make up an 201745 assessment as provided by division (C)(2) of this section and who 201746

2016-2017 school years, questions on the assessments prescribed 202084 under division (A) of section 3301.0710 and division (B)(2) of 202085 section 3301.0712 of the Revised Code and the corresponding 202086 preferred answers that are used to compute a student's score shall 202087 become a public record as follows: 202088

The department shall make the questions that become a public 202100 record under this division readily accessible to the public on the 202101 department's web site. Questions on the spring administration of 202102 each assessment shall be released on an annual basis, in 202103 accordance with this division. 202104

(b) No questions and corresponding preferred answers shall 202105 become a public record under division (O)(6) of this section after 202106
July 31, 2017. 202107

(7) Division (O)(7) of this section applies to the 202108 assessments prescribed by division (A) of section 3301.0710 and 202109 division (B)(2) of section 3301.0712 of the Revised Code. 202110

Beginning with the assessments administered in the spring of 202111 the 2017-2018 school year, not less than forty per cent of the 202112 questions on each assessment that are used to compute a student's 202113 score shall be a public record. The department shall determine 202114 which questions will be needed for reuse on a future assessment 202115 and those questions shall not be public records and shall be 202116 consecutive three school years of data. 202128

(2) "Dropout" means a student who withdraws from school 202129

202855
202856
202857
202858
202859
202860

(viii) If the district is issued a report card under section 202900 issue a revised report card for the district; 202904

(ix) Any other action designed to correct the district's data 202905 the department may use its own staff or an outside entity to 202926 any time the department has reason to believe the district has not 202928 made a good faith effort to report data as required by this 202929 section. If any audit conducted by an outside entity under 202930 division (L)(2)(d)(i) or (5) of this section confirms that a 202931 required by this section, the district shall reimburse the 202933 department for the full cost of the audit. The department may 202934 withhold state funds due to the district for this purpose. 202935

(6) Prior to issuing a revised report card for a school 202936 district under division (L)(2)(d)(viii) of this section, the 202937 department may hold a hearing to provide the district with an 202938 opportunity to demonstrate that it made a good faith effort to 202939 report data as required by this section. The hearing shall be 202940 conducted by a referee appointed by the department. Based on the 202941 information provided in the hearing, the referee shall recommend 202942 whether the department should issue a revised report card for the 202943 district. If the referee affirms the department's contention that 202944 the district did not make a good faith effort to report data as 202945 required by this section, the district shall bear the full cost of 202946 conducting the hearing and of issuing any revised report card. 202947

(7) If the department determines that any inaccurate data 202948 reported under this section caused a school district to receive 202949 excess state funds in any fiscal year, the district shall 202950 reimburse the department an amount equal to the excess funds, in 202951 accordance with a payment schedule determined by the department. 202952
The department may withhold state funds due to the district for 202953

(9) In all cases of a disagreement between the department and 202958 a school district regarding the appropriateness of an action taken 202959 under division (L)(2) of this section, the burden of proof shall 202960 be on the district to demonstrate that it made a good faith effort 202961 to report data as required by this section. 202962

(10) The ~~state board~~ director of education and workforce 202963 shall adopt rules under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to 202964 department unless it converts to a student software package that 202969 is certified by the department. 202970

(N) The state board of education, in accordance with sections 202971 found to have willfully reported erroneous, inaccurate, or 202975 incomplete data to the education management information system. 202976

(O) No person shall release or maintain any information about 202977 any student in violation of this section. Whoever violates this 202978 division is guilty of a misdemeanor of the fourth degree. 202979 under division (B)(1)(n) of this section according to the race and 202981 required by division (I) of section 3302.03 of the Revised Code 202984 shall develop a plan and a reasonable timeline for the collection 202986 of any data necessary to comply with that division. 202987
