authorizing the attorney general and the court of claims to 523 obtain any report, document, or information that relates to the 524 determination of the claim for an award of reparations that is 525 requested in the application. 526

(B) All applications for an award of reparations may be 527 filed at any time within three years after the occurrence of the 528 criminally injurious conduct, except as provided in divisions 529

(A) (2) (b) to ~~(d)~~ (e) of section 2743.60 of the Revised Code. 530

Sec. 2743.60. (A) (1) The attorney general or the court of 531 claims shall not make or order an award of reparations to a 532 claimant if the criminally injurious conduct upon which the 533 claimant bases a claim never was reported to a law enforcement 534 officer or agency. 535

(2) (a) Except as provided in division (A) (2) (b), (c), ~~or~~ 536
(d), or (e) of this section, the attorney general or court of 537 claims shall not make or order an award of reparations to a 538 claimant if the claim is based on criminally injurious conduct 539 that occurred more than three years before the claim was filed 540

(c) If the claim is based on criminally injurious conduct 547 that occurred prior to ~~the effective date of this section~~ March 548 2, 2022, and was denied under the law as it existed prior to ~~the~~ 549 ~~effective date of this amendment~~ March 2, 2022, the claim is not 550 barred under division (A) (2) (a) of this section and the claimant 551 is eligible to reapply for relief under this section until more 552 than three years have passed since the criminally injurious 553 conduct that gave rise to the claim. 554

(d) If the claim is based on criminally injurious conduct 555 that occurred prior to the effective date of this amendment and 556 was denied under the law as it existed prior to the effective 557 date of this amendment, the claim is not barred under division 558

(A) (2) (a) of this section and the claimant is eligible to 559 reapply for relief under this section until more than five years 560 have passed since the criminally injurious conduct that gave 561 rise to the claim. 562

(e) Notwithstanding divisions (A) (2) (a), (b), and (c) of 563 this section, the attorney general is permitted to make an award 564 of reparations at any time for good cause shown. 565

(B) (1) The attorney general or the court of claims shall 566 not make or order an award of reparations to a claimant if any 567 of the following apply: 568

(a) The claimant is the offender or an accomplice of the 569 offender who committed the criminally injurious conduct, or the 570 award would unjustly benefit the offender or accomplice. 571

(b) Except as provided in division (B) (2) of this section, 572 both of the following apply: 573

(i) The victim was a passenger in a motor vehicle and knew 574 or reasonably should have known that the driver was under the 575 influence of alcohol, a drug of abuse, or both. 576

(ii) The claimant is seeking compensation for injuries 577
proximately caused by the driver described in division (B) (1) (b) 578
(i) of this section being under the influence of alcohol, a drug 579 of abuse, or both. 580

(c) Both of the following apply: 581

(i) The victim was under the influence of alcohol, a drug 582 of abuse, or both and was a passenger in a motor vehicle and, if 583 sober, should have reasonably known that the driver was under 584

the influence of alcohol, a drug of abuse, or both. 585

(ii) The claimant is seeking compensation for injuries 586
proximately caused by the driver described in division (B) (1) (b) 587
(i) of this section being under the influence of alcohol, a drug 588

(2) Division (B) (1) (b) of this section does not apply if 590 least sixteen years of age but less than eighteen years of age 593 and was riding with a parent, guardian, or care-provider. 594

(C) The attorney general or the court of claims, upon a 595 finding that the claimant or victim has not fully cooperated 596 with appropriate law enforcement agencies, may deny a claim or 597 reconsider and reduce an award of reparations. 598

(D) The attorney general or the court of claims shall 599 reduce an award of reparations or deny a claim for an award of 600 reparations that is otherwise payable to a claimant to the 601 extent that the economic loss upon which the claim is based is 602 recouped from other persons, including collateral sources. If an 603 award is reduced or a claim is denied because of the expected 604 recoupment of all or part of the economic loss of the claimant 605 from a collateral source, the amount of the award or the denial 606 of the claim shall be conditioned upon the claimant's economic 607 loss being recouped by the collateral source. If the award or 608 denial is conditioned upon the recoupment of the claimant's 609 economic loss from a collateral source and it is determined that 610 the claimant did not unreasonably fail to present a timely claim 611 to the collateral source and will not receive all or part of the 612 expected recoupment, the claim may be reopened and an award may 613 be made in an amount equal to the amount of expected recoupment 614 that it is determined the claimant will not receive from the 615 collateral source. 616

If the claimant recoups all or part of the economic loss 617 upon which the claim is based from any other person or entity, 618 including a collateral source, the attorney general may recover 619 pursuant to section 2743.72 of the Revised Code the part of the 620 award that represents the economic loss for which the claimant 621 received the recoupment from the other person or entity. 622

(E) (1) Except as otherwise provided in division (E) (2) of 623 this section, in determining whether to make an award of 624 reparations pursuant to this section, the attorney general or 625 the court of claims shall consider whether there was 626 contributory misconduct by the victim or the claimant. The 627 attorney general or the court of claims shall reduce an award of 628 reparations or deny a claim for an award of reparations to the 629 extent it is determined to be reasonable because of the 630 contributory misconduct of the claimant or the victim. 631

(2) Notwithstanding division (E) (1) of this section, in 632 determining whether to make an award of reparations pursuant to 633 this section, if the criminally injurious conduct upon which the 634 claim is based resulted in a victim's death, the attorney 635 general and the court of claims shall not consider whether there 636 was contributory misconduct by the deceased victim. The attorney 637 general or the court of claims shall not reduce an award of 638 reparations or deny a claim for an award of reparations based on 639 contributory misconduct of a deceased victim. 640

(F) The attorney general or the court of claims shall not 641 make an award of reparations to a claimant if the criminally 642 injurious conduct that caused the injury or death that is the 643 subject of the claim occurred to a victim who was an adult and 644 while the victim, after being convicted of or pleading guilty to 645 an offense, was serving a sentence of imprisonment in any 646 detention facility, as defined in section 2921.01 of the Revised 647 Code. 648

(G) If a claimant unreasonably fails to present a claim 649 timely to a source of benefits or advantages that would have 650 been a collateral source and that would have reimbursed the 651 claimant for all or a portion of a particular expense, the 652 attorney general or the court of claims may reduce an award of 653 reparations or deny a claim for an award of reparations to the 654 extent that it is reasonable to do so. 655

(H) Reparations payable to a victim described in division 656
(L) (1) of section 2743.51 of the Revised Code and to all other 657 claimants sustaining economic loss because of injury to or the 658 death of that victim shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars in 659 the aggregate. Reparations payable to a victim described in 660 division (L) (2) of section 2743.51 of the Revised Code shall not 661 exceed five thousand dollars. Reparations payable to a victim 662 described in division (L) (3) of section 2743.51 of the Revised 663 Code shall not exceed fifteen thousand dollars. If the attorney 664 general or the court of claims reduces an award under division 665
(E) of this section, the maximum aggregate amount of reparations 666 payable under this division shall be reduced proportionately to 667 the reduction under division (E) of this section. 668

(I) Reparations otherwise payable to a victim under this 669 section shall not be payable to the victim during any period 670 that the victim is incarcerated. 671

(J) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit 672 an award to a claimant whose claim is based on the claimant's 673 being a victim of a violation of section 2905.32 of the Revised 674

Code or a victim of aggravated sexual extortion, if the claimant 675 was less than eighteen years of age when the criminally 676 injurious conduct occurred. 677

Sec. 2743.71. (A) Any law enforcement agency that 678 investigates, and any prosecuting attorney, city director of 679 law, village solicitor, or similar prosecuting authority who 680 prosecutes, an offense committed in this state shall, upon first 681 contact with the victim, as defined in division (L) (1) of 682 section 2743.51 of the Revised Code, or the victim's family or 683 dependents, give the victim or the victim's family or dependents 684 a copy of an information card or other printed material provided 685 by the attorney general pursuant to division (B) of this section 686 and explain, upon request, the information on the card or 687 material to the victim or the victim's family or dependents. 688

(B) The attorney general shall have printed, and shall 689 provide to law enforcement agencies, prosecuting attorneys, city 690 directors of law, village solicitors, and similar prosecuting 691 authorities, cards or other materials that contain information 692 explaining awards of reparations. The information on the cards 693 or other materials shall include, but shall not be limited to, 694 caused by physical injury resulting from criminally injurious 697 conduct; 698

(2) Reparations applications may be filed at any time 699 within three years after the occurrence of the criminally 700 injurious conduct, except as provided in divisions (A) (2) (b) to 701 ~~(d)~~ (e) of section 2743.60 of the Revised Code; 702

(3) An attorney who represents an applicant for an award 703 rendered in relation to that representation but is required to 705 apply to the attorney general for payment for the 706 representation; 707

(4) Applications for awards of reparations may be obtained 708 from the attorney general, law enforcement agencies, and victim 709 assistance agencies and are to be filed with the attorney 710 general. 711

(C) The attorney general may order that a reasonable 712 amount of money be paid out of the reparations fund, subject to 713 the limitation imposed by division (D) of this section, for use 714 by the attorney general to publicize the availability of awards 715 of reparations. 716

(D) During any fiscal year, the total expenditure for the 717 printing and providing of information cards or other materials 718 pursuant to division (B) of this section and for the publicizing 719 of the availability of awards of reparations pursuant to 720 division (C) of this section shall not exceed two per cent of 721 the total of all court costs deposited, in accordance with 722 section 2743.70 of the Revised Code, in the reparations fund 723 during the immediately preceding fiscal year. 724

(E) The information cards or other materials provided 725 pursuant to division (B) of this section may be provided with 726 the compilation prepared pursuant to division (A) of section 727 109.42 of the Revised Code. 728 section commits suicide or causes serious physical harm to the 774 victim's self within fourteen days of the violation, there is a 775 rebuttable presumption that the victim's death or serious 776 physical harm was a result of the offender's violation of 777 division (D) of this section. 778

(E) Whoever violates division (D) of this section is 779 guilty of one of the following: 780

(1) Except as provided in division (E) (2) of this section, 781 division (B) of this section. One or more acts, a series of 832 acts, or a course of behavior that can be prosecuted under 833 division (D) of this section or division (B) of this section may 834 court of this state against any provider of an information 845 court order that is issued in relation to the investigation or 852 of the access or connection. 872

(b) Any person providing access or connection to or from 873 an electronic method of remotely transferring information not 874 under that person's control shall not be liable for any action 875 information not under that person's control to block the receipt 883 or transmission through its service of any information that it 884 believes is, or will be sent, in violation of division (D) of 885 this section, except as otherwise provided by law. 886

(3) Division (H) (1) of this section does not apply to a 887 person who conspires with another person actively involved in 888 the creation or knowing distribution of material in violation of 889 division (D) of this section, or who knowingly advertises the 890 availability of material of that nature. 891

(4) (a) A provider or user of an interactive computer 892 service shall neither be treated as the publisher nor speaker of 893 any information provided by another information content 894 provider, nor shall such a person be held civilly or criminally 895 liable for the creation or development of information provided 896 by another information content provider. 897

(b) Nothing in division (H) (4) (a) of this section shall be 898 construed as protecting a person from liability to the extent 899 hereby repealed. 911

Section 3. This act shall be known as Braden's Law. 912
