H. R. No. 327

Representatives Isaacsohn, Abrams, Baker, Denson, Miranda, Seitz, Thomas, C.

A RESOLUTION

Honoring the City of Cincinnati on being ranked the best place to live in Ohio.

WHEREAS, The members of the House of Representatives of the 135th General Assembly of Ohio are pleased to commend the City of Cincinnati on being named the best place to live in Ohio by U.S. News and World Report; and

WHEREAS, This is, indeed, a prestigious achievement, and celebration is certainly in order. A truly unique municipality, Cincinnati has gained the appreciation of countless residents as well as the praise of many visitors, and its numerous features, including its museums, professional sports teams, highly ranked schools, citywide events, and restaurants, have served as a source of civic pride and an excellent reflection on the collective character of this remarkable community. Indeed, it is just and fitting that Cincinnati should be named the best place to live in Ohio by U.S. News and World Report for a fifth consecutive year, and clearly, the city is deserving of high praise; and

WHEREAS, America is only as strong as her individual communities, which are not afraid of change but welcome it by tempering new ideas with wisdom gained from past experience to achieve true progress. The City of Cincinnati has invested considerable time, energy, and forethought into meeting the growing needs of its inhabitants, and it has set an example of civil engagement and foresight that is worthy of emulation; and

WHEREAS, Throughout its history, the city has been known for the friendliness of its residents, the professionalism of its officials, and the industriousness of its leaders, and those who make Cincinnati their home still uphold these exemplary values. Indeed, these fine

Ohioans can take great pride in their community, for they have built 27 on the traditions of the past in order to ensure a prosperous future; 28 therefore be it 29

RESOLVED, That we, the members of the House of Representatives of 30 the 135th General Assembly of Ohio, in adopting this Resolution, 31 extend our congratulations to the City of Cincinnati on its recent 32 accolade and offer our best wishes for its perennial good fortune; and 33 be it further 34

RESOLVED, That the Clerk of the House of Representatives transmit 35 a duly authenticated copy of this Resolution to the City of 36 Cincinnati. 37
