A RESOLUTION

Honoring the remarkable life of Lorraine Ann Barron.

WHEREAS, The members of the Senate of the 135th General Assembly of Ohio join to honor and remember the remarkable life of Lorraine Ann Barron; and

WHEREAS, An Ohio native, who spent her childhood in Springfield, she grew-up in a home that was filled with love and Shuler's doughnuts; and

WHEREAS, A 1994 graduate of Shawnee High School she was both a natural athlete and academic. This brought her to The Ohio State University, where she studied financial management; and

WHEREAS, This was the beginning of a successful career as a financial planner and a nineteen-year post at Nationwide Insurance, which relied on her financial mind and, more importantly, her natural leadership skills; and

WHEREAS, The State of Ohio was fortunate to put her skills to work as the Director of External Relations for the Ohio Department of Insurance. This was a capstone for her accomplished career; and

WHEREAS, Lorraine carried an impressive collection of professional titles, yet the one that mattered the most was simply that of mom. Her house was truly a home for her three daughters, Emily, Kate, and Lauren, and husband, John. She had the intangible talent of making the home a delightful, comfortable and welcoming refuge for her family and 21 visitors. A true haven that if one was fortunate enough to experience 22 came complete with amazing recipes delivered by someone who loved to 23

open her home as an amazing host; and 24

WHEREAS, Lori and John made sure their marriage reflected the 25 values and faith in God and that was evident in how their daughters 26 were raised, a shining example of the importance of a mother's love 27
and guidance; and 28

WHEREAS, Lori was someone people wanted to be around. Even when 29 she was suffering, she put others first. Her caring personality and 30 ability to listen and gentle touch were a blessing to the people in 31 both her personal and professional life. Articulate and witty, she 32 knew how to connect with people; and 33

WHEREAS, Lori's faith was the compass by which she navigated the 34 world, and she never erred from her path. Her journey on earth was too 35 short, but she walked by faith and the light of the One who called her 36
home; and 37

WHEREAS, Lorraine Ann Barron made Ohio a better place; therefore 38
be it 39

RESOLVED, That we, the members of the Senate of the 135th General 40
Assembly of Ohio, in adopting this Resolution, offer our sincere 41 condolences over the loss of Lorraine Ann Barron; and be it further 42

RESOLVED, That the Clerk of the Senate transmit a duly 43 authenticated copy of this Resolution to the family of Lorraine Ann 44
Barron. 45
