A RESOLUTION

In memory of Jo Ann Davidson.

WHEREAS, The members of the Senate of the 135th General Assembly of Ohio extend our heartfelt condolences to the family and friends of Jo Ann Davidson in their bereavement; and WHEREAS, Jo Ann Davidson left an indelible impression on the people whose lives she touched, and she will be remembered as a spirited individual who contributed immeasurably to the world around her. She was a trailblazer with a prolific career in public service and politics that spanned nearly 60 years. Jo Ann began as a volunteer and in 1965 ran for a seat on the all-male Reynoldsburg City Council and was defeated. Never one to give up, Jo Ann's perseverance, organizational skills and exceptional work ethic got her elected to that council two years later. Her ten years of service on the city council and experience gained with the Ohio Chamber of Commerce helped prepare her for the challenge of the Ohio General Assembly. Jo Ann was elected to serve in the Ohio House of Representatives in 1980, and during her twenty-year tenure there, she held the prestigious offices of minority whip, minority leader, and became the first and only woman to be elected Speaker of the House.

In addition, she chaired the Franklin County Republican Central Committee for twenty years and co-chaired the Republican National Committee for four years, and was selected to become the first chair of the Ohio Casino Control Commission when Ohio voters legalized gaming. Well-respected by members of both political parties, she will 23 be remembered for her intellect, keen wit, generosity, no-nonsense 24 demeanor, and seemingly inexhaustible energy; and 25

WHEREAS, Jo Ann Davidson's regard for improving the quality of 26 life in our society was clearly evident in her personal sacrifices of 27 time and effort to family, friends, and community. Among her 28 endeavors, she founded The Jo Ann Davidson Ohio Leadership Institute, 29 inspiring many women to get involved in government and run for public 30 office. She was a member of the boards of trustees of The Ohio State 31 University, the University of Findlay, and Franklin University and the 32 board of directors of Western and Southern Financial Group, and she 33 received several honors and awards. Jo Ann Davidson exemplified grace, 34 class and integrity and was a role model for future leaders. Giving 35 generously of her energy and abilities in all of her endeavors, she 36 displayed exceptional concern and insight, and her absence will be 37 keenly felt; and 38

WHEREAS, A devoted mother to her daughters, Jenifer and the late 39
Julie, and a loving grandmother to her grandchildren, Maxwell, Taylor, 40 Emily, and the late Alexander, Jo Ann Davidson always used her talents 41 to the benefit of others, and the warmth and understanding she readily 42 extended to those around her will stand as a testament to her personal 43 character. Although the void her death has created can never be 44 filled, the legacy of care and commitment she established will surely 45 live on; therefore be it 46

RESOLVED, That we, the members of the Senate of the 135th General 47 Assembly of Ohio, in adopting this Resolution, express our genuine 48 regret at the death of Jo Ann Davidson and, in so doing, pay tribute 49 to the memory of a truly unique individual; and be it further 50

RESOLVED, That the Clerk of the Senate transmit a duly 51 authenticated copy of this Resolution to the family of Jo Ann 52
Davidson. 53
