

I support citizen's rights to use and consume whatever they want. Government interference is out of control.

I am a retired US Army soldier and disabled veteran who uses kratom to aid with service connected disabilities. Kratom helps people stay off dangerous drugs and is a safer alternative.

The basic kratom powder is almost impossible to OD on. A person would not be able to physically consume the volume needed to cause damage.