

Do not cut funding from Ohio's public schools! These schools are where most of our state's children go, and we are currently near the bottom of the states in funding them — while spending money on vouchers and other forms of non-public education.

Kathleen Hazelton

Former public school teacher

82 Kendal Dr.

Oberlin Ohio 44074