

I write in support of HB 12. Patients in Ohio should be free to use treatments prescribed by the doctors we chose, including off-label applications. Doctors should be free to frankly and robustly discuss the pros and cons of different treatments, without fear of reprisal from licensing boards. HB 12 is necessary to help legislators protect these rights. Thank you for your attention to this urgent matter.