

This bill would further perpetuate the narrative that queer existence is something to be feared, which is incredibly dangerous. This bill would be an infringement of freedom of speech and artistic expression. Criminalizing gender expression would, again, reinforce a dangerous ideology that would put countless communities at risk of real and unnecessary harm for existing authentically. Thank you for your consideration.