

Methane is released through fracking, 20 times more potent than CO₂. Methane leaks at extraction, transporting, and burning. High risks of water and air pollution. Nuclear energy, solar and wind are safer energy sources along with battery storage systems. Ohio State parks are important resources by themselves and shouldn't be damaged or destroyed by fracking. Vote against SB 294 and any other that threaten Ohio's ecological systems.