

The principal of supporting fully funded public schools is an important American value. Private schools have their place too. For people who can afford them they serve as an important alternative, but they should not be funded at the expense of public education. Please vote to keep public schools fully funded.

Mike Matis